

Conc. Coll. 64

Wilkins

(Vol. IV.)

2 Conc. c. 64-4

<36628765470012

<36628765470012

Bayer. Staatsbibliothek

CONCILIA
MAGNAE BRITANNIAE

ET

HIBERNIAE,

AB

ANNO MDXLVI.

AD

ANNUM MDCCXVII.

VOLUMEN QUARTUM.

LONDINI,

Sumptibus { R. GOSLING, in vico, dicto Fleet-Street;
F. GYLES, in vico, dicto Holborn;
T. WOODWARD, intra duas Templi portas, Fleet-Street; et
C. DAVIS, in vico, dicto Pater-Noster-Row.

MDCCXXXVII.

CONCILLIA

MAGNAE BRITANNIAE

IN DE

ITUTORUM VOLUNTIS OCCASU

HIBET

ANNO MDCLXIV

ANNO MDCCXXVI

VOLUNTIS

LONDINI

RECENSIT

I N D E X

TITULORUM VOLUMINIS QUARTI.

⚔ Quae duobus asteriscis notata sunt, ex domini archiep. Cantuar. quae tribus, ex nostris collectaneis desumpsimus.

- SYNODUS provincialis Cantuar. pag. 1. ***
 Proclamation for the abolishing of English books, ibid. **
 Commissio regia archiep. Cant. ad jurisdictionem suam exercendam, 2. **
 Synodus provinc. Ebor. 3. ***
 Injunctions given by K. Edw. VI. to all and singular his subjects, ibid. **
 Injunctions given to Winton College, 8. **
 The king's injunctions particularly delivered to the bishops, 9. **
 The king's letter to the archbishop of York concerning the visitation then intended, 10. **
 The protestation of the bishop of London made to the king's visitors, ibid. **
 The order of the communion, 11. ***
 Inhibitio jurisdict. episc. London. pro visitatione regia, 14. **
 Relaxatio inhibitionum quoad jurisdictionem episcopi London, ibid. **
 Synodus provincialis Cantuar. 15.  et  Mandatum visitorum regionum, 17. ***
 The council's letter to enquire after things belonging to churches, ibid. **
 Mandatum archiep. Cantuar. decano et capit. S. Pauli London. de gratiis agendis ob victoriam, 18. **
 Proclamation concerning the irreverent talkers of the sacrament, ibid. ***
 Proclamation for the absteyning from flesh in Lent time, 20. **
 Proclamation against those that do innovate, alter, or leave down any rite or ceremony in the church, 21. **
 The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London against candles, and ashes, and palmes in churches, 22. **
 Mandatum ad amovendas et delendas imagines, ibid. **
 Articles to be enquired of in the visitations in the diocese of Canterbury, 23. ***
 Convocatio Eboracensis, 26. ***
 Convocatio Cantuariensis, ibid. ***
 In provincia Eboracensi convocatio, ibid. ***
 A letter from the lords of the counseil for prayers on Sundays and holydays, ibid. **
- A letter sent to all those preachers, which the king's majesty hath licensed, pag. 27. **
 The protector's letter to Gardiner concerning the points he was to handle in his sermon, 28. **
 Injunctions given by the king's visitors to all and every the clergy and laity in the deanery of Duncastre, 29. **
 Proclamation for the inhibition of all preachers, 30. **
 Bishop Bonner's letter for abolishing the ceremonies of candles, ashes, and palms, ibid. **
 Letter about an inventory of church goods, 31. **
 Letter missive from the council to the bishops concerning the communion in both kinds, ibid. **
 Synodus Cantuariensis, 32. **
 Articles to be followed and observed according to the king's injunctions, ibid. **
 Bishop Ridley's letter to the protector concerning the visitation of the university of Cambridge, 33. **
 The council's letter to bishop Bonner for reformation of certain masses at St. Pauls, 34. **
 The bishop of London's letter to the D. and chapter of St. Pauls about the receipt of a letter from the king's council, 35. **
 Another letter directed by the king to Bonner rebuking him of negligence, ibid. **
 A letter of bishop Bonner to the dean and chapt. of St. Pauls about the king's letters sent to him, 36. **
 Commissio regia Thomae Cranmer, archiep. Cant. et aliis ad examinand. materiam versus Edmundum, episc. London. ibid. **
 Alia commissio regia Thomae, archiep. Cant. et aliis ad examinand. materiam contemptus episcopi London. 37. **
 The king's order for bringing in popish rituals, ibid. **
 Mandatum pro publicatione quorundam decretorum et ordinationum regiarum, 38. **
 Processus habitus et factus circa negotia haereticae pravitatis, 39. **
 Literae archiep. Cant. et aliorum commissar. regionum

- regiorum de Johanna de Kent haeretica, pag.*
 43. * *
Aliae literae archiep. Cant. de Georgio van
*Parris haeretico, 45. * **
*Concilium provinciale cleri Scotici, 46. * **
*Convocatio Cantuariensis, 60. * **
*Visitation articles of bishop Ridley, ibid. * **
*Advocatio concessa (T. Cranm.) arch. Cant. 61. * **
Archbishop's letter to the bishop of Exeter about *impropriations, 62. * **
The council's letters to the bishop of London a*gainst weekly lectures, ibid. * **
K. Edw. VI. order to bishop Gardiner about *subscribing to certain articles, 63. * **
The earl of Warwick's letter to the archb. concerning the consecration of Bishop Hooper,
*ibid. * **
Litterae patentes regiae Johanni a Lasco et Ger-*manis Londini commorantibus, 64. * **
King's letter to the archb. for consecrating bi*shop Hooper, 65. * **
Council's order to bishop Ridley to take down
*altars, ibid. * **
Commissio regia ad observandum librum Precum
*Communium, 66. * **
*Forma juramenti episcopi consecrandi, 67. * **
*Convocatio Cantuariensis, 68. * **
Mandatum pro publicatione actus parlamenti
*contra rebelles, ibid. * **
Commissio regia pro reformatione legum ecclesia*sticarum, 69. * **
*Concilium provinciale cleri Scotici, ibid. * **
*Convocatio Cantuariensis, 73. * **
*Synodus Eboracensis, ibid. * **
*Articuli fidei in synodo London. editi, ibid. * **
Instructions given by the king about a survey *of church goods in Northamptonshire, 77. * **
Concilium prov. praelatorum et cleri Scotiae, 78. * *
Litterae regiae pro catechismo ludimagistris com*mendato, 79. * **
Mandatum pro publicatione nonnullorum articu-
*lorum fidei, ibid. * **
An historical narration of the controversy betweixt the archb. of Ardmagh and Dublin, 80.
 * *
Queen Mary's first proclamation about religion, 86. * *
*Bulla legationis de latere card. Poli, 87. * **
*Convocatio provinciae Cantuariensis, 88. * **
*Convocatio prov. Eboracensis, ibid. * **
A letter with articles sent from the queen to *the bishop of London, ibid. * **
Mandatum episc. London. omnibus Cant. prov.
*ecclesiis, 90. * **
Bulla papae Julii III. potestatem concedens card.
*Polo, 91. * **
Queen Mary's proclamation for driving out *strangers, 93. * **
Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar.
 94. * *
Petition of the lower house of convocation to the *bishops, 95. * **
The dispute appointed by convocation with Cran*mer, Ridley, and Latimer at Oxford, 98. * **
Procuratorium academiae Cantabrigiensis, ibid.
 * *
*Academiae Cantabrig. literae Oxoniensi, 99. * **
Episcoporum et cleri prov. Cant. libellus supplex 101. * *
A letter written by the king and queen, 102.
 * *
*Bulla Julii III. papae card. Polo, ibid. * **
*Officium consecrandi annulos, 103. * **
The form of the restitution of a married priest, 104. * *
Articles of visitation by bishop Bonner, 105.
 * *
A mandate of Bonner, bishop of London, to abolish *the scriptures, 108. * **
A letter sent from the council unto Edmund
*Bonner, 109. * **
Litterae patentes regiae de jurisdictione legatina
*exercenda, ibid. * **
Prayer made by Dr. Weston for the queen's deli*verance, 110. * **
Litterae card. Poli ad papam Julium III. ibid.
 * *
Absolutio facta per card. Polum toti parl. An*gliae. 111. * **
Bulla plenariae indulgentiae per papam Julium
 III. ibid. * *
*Card. Poli litterae dispensatoriae, 112. * **
A declaration of the bishop of London, 114.
 * *
A monition of Bonner, bishop of London, 115
 * *
The king and queen's indenture about abrogating
*the first fruits, 116. * **
Queen Mary's commission to turn out the reform*ed bishops, 118. * **
Alia commissio regia de expellendis nonnullis e*piscopis reformatis, 119. * **
Articuli ministrati presbyteris conjugatis, ibid.
 * *
Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar.
 120. * *
*Convocatio Eboracensis, ibid. * **
Constitutiones legatinae regin. Poli cardinalis, 121. * *
*Acta synodi provincialis Cantuar. 126. * **
Quindecim articuli, quibus academici Cantabrig.
*subscribere jubentur, 127. * **
A letter of the council for prayers for peace,
 128. * *
A proclamation set out by the king and queen,
 ibid. * *
Bulla Pauli IV. papae ad confirmand. electio-*nem N. Heth, arch. Ebor. 129. * **
*Litterae regiae de synodo celebranda, 130. * **
Card. Poli monitio ad synodum legatnam cele-*brandam, 131. * **
Bulla Pauli papae mandans depositionem et de-*gradationem T. Cranmer, 132. * **
Commissio D. reg. Poli decano et capitulo Can*tuar. 136. * **
Instructiones praecedenti commissioni a card. Polo
*annexae, 138. * **
Facultas curatis et aliis eccles. personis concessa.
 139. * *
K. Philip and Q. Mary's writ for burning of *Cranmer, 140. * **
The king and queen's commission for repressing *of heresies, ibid. * **

Synodus provincialis Cantuariensis, 142. * *
Bulla Pauli IV. papae ad orandum pro pace inter principes christianos, 143. * *
Electio card. Poli in cancellarium universitatis Oxon. 144. * *
Injunctions by Tho. Goldwell bishop of St. Asaph, 145. * *
Injunctions given in the visitation of card. Pole's grace, ibid. * *
Card. Poli mandatum de confessionalibus, 148. * *
Litterae card. Poli pro salva custodia pecuniae in episcopi manibus, 149. * *
Pauli IV. papae bulla absolutionis electi Petri-burgensis, 150. * *
Prorogatio concilii legati facta per card. Polum, 151. * *
Commissio Edmundi, episc. London. ad inquirend. de haereticis in sua dioecesi, 152. * *
Card. Poli mandatum pro processionibus generalibus faciendis, 153. * *
Card. Pole's letter for discharging of benefices, ibid. * *
Advocatio praebendae in ecclesia Lincoln. concessa D. Cant. archiep. 154. * *
The bishop of London's letter for prorogation of the synod, ibid. * *
Card. Poli praesentatio ad praebend. in eccl. Cicestrensi, 155. * *
Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar. ibid. * *
Articles set forth by card. Pole, 169. * *
Synodus provinc. Ebor. 170. * *
Decretum arch. Cantuar. de armorum provisione, 171. * *
Card. Poli commissio ad procedend. contra haereticos, 173. * *
Card. Poli significatio regiae majestati contra quosdam haereticos, 174. * *
Card. Pole's letter about the discharge of first fruits, 175. * *
Breve regium de comburendis haereticis, 177. * *
Concessio juris patronatus beneficiorum etc. per reginam, ibid. * *
Convocatio provinciae Cantuar. 178. * *
Alia convocatio post bimestre spatium per breve Elizab. reginae, 179. * *
Queen Elizabeth's proclamation to forbid preaching, 180. * *
Concilium provinciale Ebor. 181. * *
Concilium provinciale Edinburgense, ibid. * *
Concilium provinciale episcoporum et cleri Scotiae Edinburgi, ibid. * *
Convocatio provinciae Cantuar. 182. * *
Injunctions given by the queen's majesty, ibid. * *
Articles to be enquired in the visitation in the first year of queen Elizabeth, 189. * *
The declaration of the proceedings of a conference begun at Westminster, 191. * *
Commissio regia visitatoribus suis in partibus borealibus, 193. * *
A declaration of certain principal articles of religion, 195. * *
An address made by some bishops and divines to queen Elizabeth, 196. * *

VOL. IV.

A commission from the queen to my lord Treasurer, 198. * *
Breve regium pro consecratione archiep. Parker, ibid. * *
Rituum et ceremoniarum ordo in consecratione ejusdem, ibid. * *
De cantionibus matutinalibus in ecclesia Exon. 200. * *
Litterae archiep. Cant. et alior. commissar. region. de eadem materia, 201. * *
Litterae regiae de decano Exon. 202. * *
The queen's letter to the lord treasurer Pawlet for regulating foreign churches, 204. * *
Concilium provinciale totius cleri Scotici, ibid. * *
Litterae patentes reginae de forma precum publ. Latine vertenda, 217. * *
Celebratio coenae Domini in funebribus, ibid. * *
Bishop of London's letter about perambulation, 219. * *
Bulla papae Pii IV. reginae Elizabethae, ibid. * *
Inhibitio arch. Cant. episcopo London. de visitatione non exercenda, ibid. * *
Bishop Jewells challenge, 220. * *
The queen's proclamation against defacers of monuments in churches, 221. * *
The archb. letter to the dean of the Arches about the appeals to that court, 222. * *
The arch. Cant. chancellor's licence for marriage in time prohibited, ibid. * *
Queen Elizabeth's letter about new lessons in the calendar, 223. * *
Mandatum arch. Cant. de reformatione calendarii, 224. * *
Articles agreed upon at the second session in Lambeth, ibid. * *
Injunctions to be confessed and subscribed by the readers, 225. * *
The queen's letter to the archbishop of Canterbury about St. Pauls church, 226. * *
The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the same, ibid. * *
Queen Elizabeth's injunctions for the better government of cathedrals, ibid. * *
The archbishop of Canterbury's letter desiring a certificate, 227. * *
A proclamation made for the reverend usage of all churches and churchyards, ibid. * *
Concilium dioecesanum Asaphense, 228. * *
Breve regium pro hospitalibus et scholis, 229. * *
The archbishop's letter to Mr. Newenson, 230. * *
Convocatio cleri provinciae Ebor. ibid. * *
Archiep. Cant. certificatorium baronibus scaccarii de hospitalibus et scholis, ibid. * *
Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar. 232. * *
Articuli de quibus convenit inter arch. MDLXII. 233. * *
Queen Elizabeth's letter to the archbishop authorizing his prayers, 242. * *
Order for a form of prayer of thanksgiving for the queen's recovery, 243. * *
Concilium prov. Ebor. ibid. * *
Synodus prov. Cantuar. et Ebor. ibid. * *

b

The

- The Council's letter to the bishop of London about the clergy of his diocese, 244. * *
- An admonition to all such as shall intend to enter the state of matrimony, ibid. * *
- Synodi prov. Cantuar. et Ebor. 246. * *
- Litterae Tho. Sampsonis, dec. aedis Christi et Laur. Humphrey, ibid. * *
- Advertisements partly for due order in the public administration of common prayers, 247. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's letter to the bishop of London for seizing seditious books, 250. * *
- Synodi utriusque provinciae Cantuar. et Ebor. 251. * *
- Archbishop's letter to the bishop of London for conformity, ibid. * *
- Archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the clergy of his diocese, 252. * *
- Articles to be enquired of in the metropolitical visitation, ibid. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's and the archbishop's orders for enquiry what strangers were come into the realm, 254. * *
- A licence for several recreations on Sundays, tolerated by queen Elizabeth, 255. * *
- The archb. letter to the bishop of London about provision of arms, ibid. * *
- The archb. letter to the chapter of York about the same, 256. * *
- Letter of the council to the archb. about recovering the discipline of the church, ibid. * *
- Articles to be enquired of within the diocese of Canterbury, 257. * *
- Damnatio et excommunicatio Elizabethae reginae Angliae, 260. * *
- Convocatio praelat. et cleri Cant. provinciae, 261. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's letter to the archb. for uniformity, 262. * *
- Liber quorundam canonum disciplinae ecclesiae Anglicanae, 263. * *
- Edm. Grindall archb. of York's injunctions, 269. * *
- Concilium provinciale Ebor. 270. * *
- Convocatio praelatorum et cleri Cant. provinciae, ibid. * *
- Mandatum pro publicatione libri publicarum precum, 272. * *
- Convocatio cleri provinciae Ebor. 273. * *
- Convocatio praelat. et cleri provinciae Cantuar. ibid. * *
- Statuta quaedam per reverend. dom. Matth. Parker, Cant. archiep. ibid. * *
- Tenor injunctionum dom. Matthaei, arch. Cantuar. 275. * *
- A proclamation against despisers or breakers of orders prescribed, 278. * *
- Letter of the council to the bishops about uniformity, 279. * *
- Convocatio praelat. prov. Ebor. ibid. * *
- The direction of ecclesiastical exercises in the diocese of Chester, 280. * *
- Synodus provinc. Ebor. ibid. * *
- Convocatio praelat. prov. Cant. ibid. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's special commission to Sir Nich. Bacon, 281. * *
- Breve regium de executione iudicii, 282. * *
- Form of recantation prescribed to certain Anabaptists, ibid. * *
- Letter of Dr. Whitgift to R. bishop of Ely, 283. * *
- Convocatio prov. Ebor. ibid. * *
- Articles whereupon it was agreed A. D. MDLXXV. 284. * *
- Mandatum archiep. Cant. ad publicand. articulos, 285. * *
- Articles to be enquired of in the metropolitical visitations, 286. * *
- Orders for reformation of abuses about the learned exercises, 287. * *
- Council's letter to the arch. of Cant. about the observation of Ember days and Lent, 288. * *
- Concilium provinciale Ebor. ibid. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's letter to the bishops against conventicles, 289. * *
- Arch. Cant's. letter about the same, ibid. * *
- Queen Elizabeth's letter to John Whitgift, bishop of Worcester, to forbid prophecies, 290. * *
- Letter to the arch. Cant. concerning a libel against the queen's marriage, 291. * *
- The council's letter to the arch. Cant. concerning some preachers, 292. * *
- Convocatio praelator. et cleri prov. Cant. ibid. * *
- Episcoporum epistola ad reginam Elizabetham pro restauratione arch. Cant. 293. * *
- Synodi libellus supplex reginae porrectus pro eodem, 295. * *
- Bulla Gregorii XIII. universis et singulis archiepiscopis, 296. * *
- The form of abjuration tendered to those of the family of Love, ibid. * *
- The council's letter to the archb. about those that fell off from the church of England, ibid. * *
- A proclamation against the sectaries of the family of Love, 297. * *
- A form of penance laid before the synod, 298. * *
- Articles delivered to the lords from the lower house of convocation, 299. * *
- Concilium provinciale Eboracense, 301. * *
- The council's letter to the archb. about the recusants, ibid. * *
- Synodus cleri provinciae Ebor. 302. * *
- The archbishop's letter for good order in churches, 303. * *
- The archb. letter to the bishop of London about the same, ibid. * *
- Archiep. Cantuar. commissio suffraganeo Dovor. 304. * *
- Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cant. 306. * *
- Articles touching preachers, and other orders for the church, 307. * *
- The clergy's petition in convocation to queen Elizabeth, 308. * *
- A writing of the bishops in answer to the book of articles offered in parl. 309. * *
- Synodus provincialis Eboracensis, 315. * *
- Synodus provincialis Cantuar. ibid. * *
- Articuli per archiepiscopum, episcopos, et reliquum clerum, etc. stabiliti, ibid. * *
- Mandatum

- Mandatum archiep. Cant. episcopo London. ad publicand. articulos.* 317. * *
- Certain orders for the increase of learning in the unlearned sort of ministers,* 318. * *
- Articles to be enquired upon in the visitation of the diocese of Chichester.* ibid. * *
- Synodus provincialis Ebor.* 319. * *
- The archbishop's letter for prayers for the queen,* ibid. * *
- Letter from the archb. of Cant. to the bishop of Lincoln concerning the admittance of unmeet persons,* 320. * *
- The archb. of Canterbury's license to bring in popish books,* ibid. * *
- Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant.* 321. * *
- Concilium provinciale Eboracense,* 323. * *
- A letter from the archb. of Cant. about Bibles in churches,* 328. * *
- Statuta per dom. Joh. Whitgift arch. Cant.* ibid. * *
- Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant.* 335. * *
- The archbishop of Canterbury's letter for provision for arms,* 336. * *
- Articles to be enquired of by the churchwardens,* 337. * *
- The archbishop's letter for prayers,* ibid. * *
- The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London,* 338. * *
- Orders agreed upon by the archbishops,* ibid. * *
- Reasons against the bill brought into the house of Lords against pluralities,* 339. * *
- A proclamation against certain seditious and schismatical books and libels,* 340. * *
- Convocatio cleri prov. Ebor.* ibid. * *
- Synodus Cantuar.* 341. * *
- The council's letter to the archb. of Cant. about the provision of arms,* ibid. * *
- The archbishop's letter about the same,* ibid. * *
- Orders to be observed of every bishop in the province of York,* ibid. * *
- Orders to be observed in the government of the church,* 342. * *
- The archbishop's letter for catechizing and confirming,* 343. * *
- Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar.* ibid. * *
- Orders for the oath of obedience to her majesty,* 344. * *
- The archb. of Cant's. letter to the bishop of Gloucester for an account of his clergy,* ibid. * *
- Form of submission prescribed to seditious sectaries,* 345. * *
- The submission prescribed to popish recusants,* ibid. * *
- Synodus praelat. et cleri prov. Ebor.* ibid. * *
- Archb. letter for contribution toward converted priests,* ibid. * *
- The council's letter and instructions to the archbishop about recusants,* 346. * *
- Notes and directions to be observed by the archbishop of Cant.* ibid. * *
- The archbishop's letter touching ecclesiastical courts,* 347. * *
- Articuli Lambethani,* ibid. * *
- Orders to be observed by every ecclesiastical officer,* 348. * *
- Archbishop's letter for admonition to preachers,* 350. * *
- Archbishop's letter concerning fasting and prayers,* 351. * *
- Convocatio episcoporum et cleri prov. Cantuar.* ibid. * *
- Capitula sive constitutiones ecclesiasticae MDXCVII.* ibid. * *
- Exemplar licentiae sive facultatis matrimonii,* 357. * *
- Convocatio episc. et cleri prov. Ebor.* ibid. * *
- The archbishop's letter for armour,* 358. * *
- The archb. letter touching marriages,* ibid. * *
- Letter from the same for certificates,* 359. * *
- The attorney general's letter touching recusants,* ibid. * *
- The archb. letter touching contribution for the Irish war,* 360. * *
- The archb. of Cant. letter to the archb. of York about the same,* 361. * *
- The bishop of London's letter to the bishop of Peterborough,* ibid. * *
- The archb. letter about certificates,* ibid. * *
- Ordinatio de moderanda solennis poenitentiae commutatione,* 362. * *
- Clementis VIII. bulla plenariae indulgentiae Hibernis,* ibid. * *
- The archb. letter touching recusants,* 363. * *
- A letter written by the archb. of Cant's. order about recusants,* ibid. * *
- Convocatio episcoporum et cleri provinciae Cantuar.* ibid. * *
- The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the bishops touching their courts,* 364. * *
- Breve regium pro decimis,* 365. * *
- The archbishop's letter touching the observance of the late constitutions,* 366. * *
- The archbishop's letter with articles touching the ecclesiastical courts,* ibid. * *
- The archbishop's order to the bishop of London for thanksgiving for victory,* 367. * *
- The archbishop's letter about decayed churches and chancels,* ibid. * *
- A prayer for the queen's majesty,* 368. * *
- The archbishop's letter touching beneficed men and preachers,* ibid. * *
- Letter from the same touching communicants and noncommunicants,* ibid. * *
- King James I. his letter to the university of Oxford touching glebe tythes,* 369. * *
- The archb. of Canterbury's letter for keeping of the fifth of August holy,* 370. * *
- The council's letter to the archb. of Cant. about celebrating the fifth of August yearly,* ibid. * *
- A proclamation concerning such as seditiously seek reformation in church matters,* 371. * *
- The archb. of Canterbury's letter for contribution to be made for the city of Geneva,* 372. * *
- Concilium Hamtoniense,* 373. * *
- A proclamation commanding all Jesuits, seminaries, and other priests to depart the realm,* 376. * *
- A proclamation for the authorizing and uniformity of the book of Common Prayer,* 377. * *

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar. 378. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 379. * *

Convocatio Ebor. ibid. * *

Constitutiones ecclesiasticae, 380. * *

A letter from king James to Dr. Abbot about the proceedings of convocation, 405. * *

A proclamation enjoining conformity to the form of the service of God established, 406. * *

The king's letter to the bishop of London about translating the Bible, 407. * *

The bishop of London's letter about the expences in translating the Bible, 408. * *

The council's letter for proceeding against the nonconformitans, ibid. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's directions for the same, 409. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's letters touching recusants, 410. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 412. * *

Aetus ad procedend. contra clericos non observantes formam libri Communium Precum, ibid. * *

Licentia procedendi contra ministros non observantes ritus et ceremonias ecclesiae, ibid. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's letter touching double benefices, 413. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's mandate and commission for the visitation of the diocese of Bath and Wells, 414. * *

Articles for the cathedralchurch of Wells, 415. * *

A proclamation against certain calumnious surmises concerning the church government of Scotland, 416. * *

Certain articles of abuses, which are desired to be reformed in granting of prohibitions, 417. * *

An act for a public thanksgiving on the fifth of November, 424. * *

The oath of allegiance as established by act of parliament, 425. * *

Suspensio ab arch. Cant. facta contra decanum Wellensem, ibid. * *

Concilium provinciale Eboracense, 426. * *

Synodus provinciae Cantuar. 429. * *

Synodus prov. Ebor. ibid. * *

Absolutio M. Hill procurat. B. et Wellen. ibid. * *

Bulla papae Pauli V. contra sacramentum fidelitatis, 430. * *

Inhibitio contra quosdam ludimagistros facta per arch. Cant. ibid. * *

Bulla papae Pauli V. contra sacramentum fidelitatis, 431. * *

An order set down by king James I. for the translating of the Bible, 432. * *

Convocatio cleri prov. Ebor. 433. * *

King James's letter to the bishop of London about the repair of St. Pauls, ibid. * *

The council's letter to the archb. about arms to be provided by the clergy, 434. * *

Orders enjoined by the archb. in his metropol. visitation of Winchester diocese, ibid. * *

Orders enjoined by the archb. to the dean and chapter of Canterbury, 436. * *

Convocatio cleri prov. Ebor. 437. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. ibid. * *

An act for the better furnishing the court of convocation with members, 438. * *

A proclamation against recusants, ibid. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's letter about pluralities, 440. * *

A letter for contribution towards the prince's library, 442. * *

Litterae patentes regiae pro consecratione 3. episc. Scotiae, 443. * *

Synodus prov. Eboracensis, 444. * *

Articles to be enquired of in the cathedral church of Bristol, ibid. * *

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cant. 445. * *

Consultatio ecclesiastica, ibid. * *

Articles of religion agreed upon, 447. * *

The bishop of London's orders for governing the Dutch congregations, 454. * *

Consecratio capellae et coemeterii, 455. * *

The king's letter to the archb. of Cant. for carrying on of Chelsea college, 459. * *

The king's directions to the universities, ibid. * *

The king's instructions to the divines sent to the synod of Dort, 460. * *

The archb. of Canterbury's letter for an uniform manner of prayer, ibid. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. 461. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Ebor. ibid. * *

Academiae Oxoniensis epistola ad Jacobum regem, ibid. * *

The council's letter to the archb. of Canterbury, ibid. * *

Dispensatio cum Georgio, arch. Cant. super irregularitate, 462. * *

The king's letter to the archb. Cant. about a voluntary contribution, 464. * *

The king's letter to the archb. Cant. concerning preachers, 465. * *

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter explaining the former directions, 466. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 467. * *

Concilium provinciale Eboracense, ibid. * *

An act to prevent and reform profane swearing, 468. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. et Ebor. ibid. * *

Negotium consensus dom. prolocutoris, 469. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. ibid. * *

The king's letter to the arch. Cant. touching recusants, 470. * *

Concilium provinciale Eboracense, ibid. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 471. * *

Bulla papae Urbani VIII. contra sacramentum fidelitatis, ibid. * *

The king's letter to the archb. Cant. to excite the people to unity, ibid. * *

Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 473. * *

A commission to sequester archb. Abbot. 474. * *

His

- His majesty's declaration, pag. 475. * *
 Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. et Ebor.
 476. * *
 A proclamation for the cure of a disease call'd the king's evil, ibid. * *
 The king's letter to the arch. Cant. touching the patronage of benefices, 478. * *
 Certificatorium archiepiscopi de executione man-dati regii, 479. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter about the sacrament in the church of Crayford, ibid. * *
 The king's letter to the arch. Cant. about his translation, 480. * *
 The king's instructions, ibid. * *
 The king's and archbishop's letters against ordaining any "fine titulo," 481. * *
 The archbishop's declaration what is a title,
 482. * *
 An order of council for placing the communion
 table in St. Gregory's church, ibid. * *
 The king's majesty's declaration to his subjects concerning lawful sports, 483. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter about sports on the Lords day, 484. * *
 The king's letter about a Greek press, 485. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter about the same,
ibid. * *
 An answer to the archb. of Cant. letter about the Greek press, 486. * *
 The archb. Canterbury's letter for a contribution to St. Paul's, ibid. * *
 The king's letter to the merchants for bringing in of Arabic books, ibid. * *
 The difference between the archb. Cant. and bishop of Lincoln about visitation, 487. * *
 The archb. Cant. letter to W. Noye Esq; 488.
 * *
 The attorney general's opinion about the visitation, ibid. * *
 The petition of the churches of foreign nations to king Charles I. 491. * *
 King Charles's letter about the repair of St.
 Paul's London, 492. * *
 The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the lord mayor about the same, ibid. * *
 King Charles's letter about leases, 493. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter about the same, ibid. * *
 Explication of the king's letter to the archb.
 about leases, 494. * *
 The archb. Canterbury's letter to the dean and chapter of Norwich, ibid. * *
 The answer of the dean and chapter of Norwich,
 495. * *
 The petition of king's college Cambridge to the archb. Cant. about Eton coll. ibid. * *
 The humble petition of the provost and fellows of king's coll. 496. * *
 Constitutions and canons ecclesiastical of the synod at Dublin, ibid. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter for relief of poor ministers in the Palatinate, 516. * *
 Instructiones in visitatione metropolitana eccl.
 cathedr. Winton. 517. * *
 Orders enjoined to Winchester college, ibid. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Glocester, 518. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Worcester, pag. 519. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Norwick, 520. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Lichfield, ibid. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Chichester, 521. * *
 Orders enjoined to the cathedral church of Peterborough, ibid. * *
 A form of penance and reconciliation of a Re-negado, 522. * *
 The petition of the dean and chapter of St.
 Paul's London, 524. * *
 The archbishop of Canterbury's right of visiting the universities debated and determined in council, 525. * *
 Particular orders, directions, and remembrances, given in the diocese of Norwich, 526. * *
 Literae regiae de visitatione univers. Oxon. et Cantabrig. per arch. Cant. 528. * *
 Epistola Ger. Jo. Vossii ad archiep. Cant. de jure visitandi academias Angliae, 529. * *
 Statuta sive ordinationes per rev. dom. Will.
 Laud, ibid. * *
 Archiep. Cant. literae praeposito et sociis coll.
 Etonensis de numero sociorum, 531. * *
 The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the provost and fellows of Eton college, 532. * *
 Literae patentes pro visitatione locorum exem-ptor. ibid. * *
 A Letter to the archb. of Canterbury about the fellowships of Jersey men, 534. * *
 Proceedings and judgments about ecclesiastical courts, ibid. * *
 King Charles's letter to the bishop of St. David's, 535. * *
 A proclamation declaring that the proceedings of his majesty's ecclesiastical courts, etc. 536.
 * *
 King Charles's letter to the high commissioners to proceed against such as refuse to take the oath, 537. * *
 Decreta prima synodi Kilmorensis, ibid. * *
 Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. 538.
 * *
 Constitutions and canons ecclesiastical made MDCXL. 543. * *
 Concilium provinciale Eboracense, 553. * *
 The bishops protestation against the tumults in parliament, ibid. * *
 The humble petition of the archbishops, bishops,
 etc. in Ireland, 554. * *
 The humble remonstrance of the archbishops, etc.
 in Ireland, 555. * *
 The king's majesty's most gracious letter and declaration to the bishops, 556. * *
 His majesty's most gracious commission to search into and examine the pretended seals, 557
 * *
 His majesty's declaration to all his loving subjects concerning ecclesiastical affairs, 560
 * *
 A proclamation prohibiting all unlawful and seditious meetings, 564. * *
 Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 565. * *
 Concilium provinciale Eboracense, 567. * *
 A con

- A conference held by the king's order at the Savoy, pag. 570. * **
*The declaration of assent required to the book of Common Prayer, 572. * **
*The declaration to be subscribed by the same act, ibid. * **
*Nominatio et consecratio primorum arch. et episc. in Scotia, 573. * **
*Synodus provincialis Cantuar. 574. * **
*Synodus provincialis Ebor. 575. * **
*An uniform reverence, decency, and order in all divine offices to be observed, ibid. * **
*King Charles's letter to the archb. of Canterbury about some abuses in the church, 576. * **
*Directions concerning preachers, 577. * **
*The lord archb. of Canterbury's letter to the bishops within his province, 578. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. et Ebor. ibid. * **
*A proclamation commanding all Jesuits and popish priests to depart this kingdom, 579. * **
*The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the bishop of London about sea chaplains, ibid. * **
*The clergy's petition to the parliament, 580. * **
*Convocatio provinciar. Cantuar. et Ebor. 581. * **
*His majesty's instructions concerning the present condition of hospitals, ibid. * **
*The archb. Canterbury's letter to the archb. of York about the same, ibid. * **
*Another from the same to the bishop of London about the same, ibid. * **
*The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the bishop of London about nonconformists, 582. * **
*Orders and instructions by the archb. Cant. to the bishops of his province, ibid. * **
*The archb. of Canterbury's letter about collections for those in the city of London infected by the plague, 583. * **
*The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the archb. of York about the same, 584. * **
*Directions concerning probates of wills. ibid. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 585. * **
*A letter from the king's council to the arch. Cant. about almsmen and hospitals, ibid. * **
*The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the same, ibid. * **
*Order from the king in council about the fire of London, 586. * **
*The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the same, ibid. * **
*A proclamation for banishing all popish priests and Jesuits, ibid. * **
*Synodus provinc. Eboracensis, 587. * **
*The archbishop's letter about conventicles, 588. * **
*A proclamation against numerous conventicles, ibid. * **
*The archbishop's letter concerning the king's directions to the clergy, 589. * **
*The archbishop's circular letter to cathedrals, 590. * **
*Some constitutions and orders concerning the church of Scotland, ibid. * **
*Licentia decani et capituli eccl. Cantuar. pro consecrat. episc. pag. 592. * **
*The archbishop's letter to his suffragans about the increase of sects, 593. * **
*Concilium provinciale Eboracense, ibid. * **
*A proclamation for the discovery and apprehension of Jesuits, ibid. * **
*The archbishop's order of fees for the ostiary of the convocation, 594. * **
*The king's injunctions sent by the duke of Monmouth to the university of Cambridge, ibid. * **
*Orders and resolutions taken by the king in council against papists and conventicles, 595. * **
*Synodus provincialis Eboracensis, 596. * **
*Andreae Olzowski archiep. Gnesnensis literae ad Gilbertum, arch. Cant. ibid. * **
*Responsio Gilberti, archiep. Cantuar. 597. * **
*The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London concerning the number of dissenters, 598. * **
*Convocationes provinciarum Cantuar. et Ebor. 599. * **
*Resolutions taken by his majesty for the better regulating the choice of chaplains, ibid. * **
*Directions for the archb. Cant. to his suffragans about testimonials for orders, 600. * **
*The king's order about fees at the consecration of bishops, 601. * **
*A proclamation for the confinement of popish recusants, ibid. * **
*Orders given the 6th of December MDCLXXVIII. by the king in councils against the papists, 602. * **
*Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cantuar. ibid. * **
*Synodus provincialis Eboracensis, 603. * **
*Order of council concerning clergymen that serve abroad, ibid. * **
*A proclamation for the more effectual discovery of Jesuits, ibid. * **
*A proclamation commanding all papists or reputed papists forthwith to depart from London, 604. * **
*A proclamation for the more effectual suppressing of popery, ibid. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. 605. * **
*The archbishop's letter about the augmentation of vicarages and curacies, ibid. * **
*The archbishop's letter concerning persecution of popish recusants, 606. * **
*The address of the university of Cambridge, 607. * **
*The king's warrant concerning ecclesiastical affairs, ibid. * **
*Certain orders treated and agreed upon by William, bishop of St. Asaph, 608. * **
*The judgment and decree of the university of Oxford against certain pernicious books, 610. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. 612. * **
*Articles for the better regulation of ordinances, and institutions to care of souls, ibid. * **
*King James II. his gracious declaration for liberty of conscience, 614. * **
A proclamation for suppressing and preventing seditious *sedition and unlicensed books, 615. * **

*The king's declaration for liberty of conscience, pag. 616. * **
*The petition of William Sancroft, archbishop of Canterbury, 617. * **
*A proclamation against vice and profaneness, ibid. * **
*The articles recommended by the archb. Cant. to all the bishops, 618. * **
*Convocatio praelatorum et cleri prov. Cant. 619. * **
*Concilium praelat. et cleri prov. Ebor. 621. * **
*Convocatio Cantuar. ibid. * **
*His majesty's letter to the bishop of London, 622. * **
*A proclamation commanding all papists to depart from London and Westminster, 623. * **
*Injunctions given by the king's majesty to the archbishops of this realm, 624. * **
*Convocatio praelator. et cleri prov. Cantuar. et Ebor. 625. * **
*Directions to our archbishops and bishops for the preserving of unity in the church, ibid. * **
*An act for the more effectual suppressing profane cursing and swearing, 626. * **
*A declaration of the sense of the archbishops and bishops about the absolution of Sir John Friend and Sir William Parkins, 627. * **
*An act for the more effectual suppressing of blasphemy and profaneness, 628. * **
*A proclamation for preventing and punishing immorality, 629. * **
*Convocatio provinciae Cantuar. 630. * **
*The report of the committee of the lower house of convocation about books, ibid. * **
*The representation of the upper house of convocation of a book called The Ballance of Power 631. * **
*The answer of the archbishop and bishops about Toland's and other books, ibid. * **
*Convocatio cleri prov. Cantuar. ibid. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. ibid. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 632. * **
*Papers relating to the convocation in Ireland, ibid. * **
*A letter of the lower house to the archb. and bishops about books and writings, 633. * **
*His grace the lord archbishop of Canterbury's circular letter, 634. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 636. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. ibid. * **

*The queen's licence to both houses of convocation, pag. 636. * **
*The queen's licence and heads of business to the convocation, 638. * **
*Report from the committee of the lower house about public charities, ibid. * **
*Report of the committee of both houses about excommunications and commutations of penance, ibid. * **
*Report of the committee of both houses about terriers, and account of glebes, tithes, etc. 639. * **
*Proceedings in convocation about rural deans 641. * **
*Proceedings in convocation about Mr. Whiston's book, 646. * **
*Constitutions and canons ecclesiastical treated upon by the archbishops of Ireland, 651. * **
*Proposals of the lower house of convocation about matrimonial licences, 653. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cantuar. 654. * **
*The queen's letter to the convocation about business, ibid. * **
*The form for regulating proceedings in excommunications, ibid. * **
*The form for making and preserving of terriers 656. * **
*Proceedings of the convocation about Dr. Sam. Clarke's book of the Trinity, 657. * **
*Draught of canons for regulating matrimonial licences, 659. * **
*A form for admitting of converts from the church of Rome, 660. * **
*An exhortation to be read in the church before excommunications, 663. * **
*Directions to our archbishops and bishops for the preserving of unity in the church, 666. * **
*Convocatio praelat. et cleri prov. Cant. 667. * **
*The king's letter to the convocation about business for them, ibid. * **
*A form of consecrating churches, chapels and churchyards, 668. * **
*A declaration made in convocation to make the 75th canon more effectual. 669. * **
*An address of the convocation to the king about the maintenance of the ministers of the fifty new churches, 670. * **
*The archb. of Canterbury's letter to the bishops of his province, ibid. * **
*A representation of the lower house of convocation about the bishop of Bangor's sermon, 672. * **

INDEX rerum, quae in APPENDICE reperiuntur.

DEDICATIO regi Carolo I. pag. 677.
 Praefatio lectori, 680.
 Summa approbationis, 682.
 Attestatio clar. viri Edmundi Scot. ibid.
 Anglosaxonum heptarchia, 683.
 Apparatus de exordio christianae religionis in Britannii, 685.
 Epistola Lucii regis ad Eleutherium episcopum Romanum, 703.

Eleutherius Faganum et Deruvianum legat in Britanniam, ibid.
 Eleutherius papa acta omnia a Fagano et Deruviano probat et confirmat, 704.
 Rex Lucius ecclesias et viros ecclesiast. praediis donat. ibid.
 Epistola Eleutherii Romani episcopi ad Lucium regem Britanniae, ibid.
 Animadversiones in hanc epistolam, 705.

De obitu Lucii regis, pag. 706.
 Britannia fidem retinet, ibid.
 Persecutio Dioclesiana, qua S. Albanus, Aaron, Julius, et alii martyrio coronantur, 707.
 Suscitatur ecclesia: involat Ariana haeresis, ibid.
 Concilium Arelatense I. 708.
 Epistola Constantini M. ad omnes ecclesias de rebus Nicaeni concilii et unanimi Paschatis observatione, 710.
 Sardicensis Synodus, 712.
 Quod Arcadio regnante Pelagius Brito contra gratiam Dei superba bella suscepit, ibid.
 Cur rarius in Britannia habentur synodi et concilia sub his seculis, ibid.
 Vita S. Patricii, 713.
 De conversione Pictorum ad fidem, ibid.
 Vita et epistolae nonnullae S. Gregorii in causa Britan. ecclesiae, 714.
 Vita S. Augustini, primi Doroberniensis ecclesiae archiepiscopi, 722.
 Gregorius pallium et epistolam et plures verbi ministros Augustino episcopo mittit, 723.
 De fundatione primarum ecclesiarum et monasteriorum apud Anglosaxones, 724.
 De ecclesia Christi, quae totius Angliae matrix et metropolis, 726.
 Prima charta regis Aethelberti in confirmationem fundi circa eccles. S. Pancratii, 728.
 Secunda charta regis Aethelberti. Dotatio terrae de Langeport. ibid.
 Tertia charta regis Aethelberti de Sturigao, alias Cisteler, ibid.
 Bulla S. Augustini de exemptione praesentis monasterii cum signo plumbeo, 729.
 Offo nobilis Anglosaxo fidem inter Germanos ferit, 733.
 Laurentius archiep. clerum Scotorum et Britannorum ad unitatem invitat, 734.
 Concilium Romano-Anglicum, ibid.
 Bonifacii IV. decretum pro introducendis primis monachis, 735.
 Obitus Aethelberti regis, 736.
 Conversio Gevissorum, i. e. occident. Sax. ibid.
 Conversio orientalium Anglorum, 737.
 Conversio Anglorum mediterraneorum, ibid.
 Conversio Merciorum, 738.
 Oswi rex Nordanhumb. et Ecgbertus Cantiorum Romam mittunt de Paschate, 739.
 Theodorus a Vitaliano papa fit Dorobernensis archiep. ibid.
 Modus imponendi poenitentiam a Theodoro archiep. institutus, ibid.
 Cantus et cursus Romanus jussu Agathonis papae in Britanniam advehuntur, 740.
 Cantium et cursum ecclesiasticorum origo, 741.
 Conversio australium Saxonum, 742.
 Conversio Vectensium, 743.
 Epistola Sergii papae ad Ceolfredum de Beda Romam transmittendo, ibid.
 Beretwald fit Cantuariæ VIII. archiep. 744.
 Leges ecclesiasticae Inae regis, ibid.
 Concilium magnum Becanceldae, 745.
 Chartula Wybtredi regis Cantiae de terra in insula Teneti, 746.
 Plurima pars Scotorum, nonnulla Britannorum Pascha canonice observant, 747.
 Synodus sub Ina rege, ibid.

Prolegomena ad visionem Ecgwini, pag. 747.
 Charta Kenredi et Offae regum de terris in quibus B. Maria apparuisse dicitur, 748.
 Charta Egwini de fundatione monasterii Eveshamiae, 749.
 Rex Ina celeberrimam eleemosynam, quae Denarius S. Petri appellatur, Romae confert, 750.
 Aliud charta istius Aethelberti exemplar, 751.
 Venerabilis Bedae presbyteri de remediis peccatorum, ibid.
 Monachi primum in Anglia vinum bibunt, 756.
 Edictum Eadberti regis Cantii de mutandis loco et consuetudine sepeliendi reges et archiep. Cant. ibid.
 Scholae seu coll. Angl. Romae institutio, 757.
 Corolus M. rex Francorum mittit concilii Nicaeni II. librum in Britanniam, ibid.
 Epistola Caroli M. ad Offam regem Merciorum de privilegiis Romam peregrinantibus concessis, 759.
 Aethelwulphus rex-denarium, quem vocant S. Petri eisdem imponit, ibid.
 Cur rariores nunc et posthac synodi in ecclesia Britannica, 760.
 Martinus papa Alfredi regis precibus scholam Angl. Romae liberam facit a tributo, ibid.
 Antiqua versio Aluredi M. legum, ibid.
 Anglosaxonum eleemosyna Romam mittitur, 762.
 Leges eccles. ab Aluredo M. et Guthurno editae, ibid.
 Epistola regis Aluredi M. ad Wulfugium, 764.
 Legum eccles. Aethelstani regis prisca versio, 765.
 Leges ecclesiasticae Hoeli Dda, 769.
 Legum eccles. Edmundi regis prisca versio, 774.
 Odo arch. Cant. Edwium regem suspendit, 775.
 Privilegium quo rex Edgarus confirmat Dorobernensem ecclesiam, ibid.
 Legum ecclesiast. Edgari regis prisca versio, 776.
 Prisca versio legum Canuti regis, 777.
 Leges ejus ecclesiasticae e secularibus suis collectae, 780.
 Angli qui interfuerunt magno concilio Remensi sub Leone papa, 782.
 De Ulfo, episcopo Dorcestriae in concilio Vercellensi, ibid.
 Epistola dedicatoria ex secundo volumine, 783.
 Modus tenendi synodos in Anglia primaevi temporibus, 784.
 Gulielmus I. rex spoliat monasteria, 786.
 Concilium Windleshorae, ibid.
 Concilium Anglicanum, 787.
 Aliud exemplar concilii Londoniensis, ibid.
 Forma professionis castitatis ab ordinandis suscipienda, ibid.
 Rex Henricus I. praefulem confert episcopatu S. Andreae in Scotia, 788.
 Archiepiscopus Ebor. professionem facit archiep. Cantuar. ibid.
 Concilium Normanniae apud Abrincam civitatem, ibid.
 Richardus archiep. Cantuar. fit legatus, 790.
 Concilia Scotica habita regnante Malcolmo III. 791. * *
 Reformatio Angliae ex decretis regin. Poli cardinalis, 792. * *

CONCILIA MAGNAE BRITANNIAE, ET HIBERNIAE.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1546.

Reg. Angliae.
HENRIC. VIII. 13.

Synodus provincialis Cantuar.

PER breve regium ad quintum Novembris in ecclesia sancti Pauli London. convocata, per aliud breve dat. quinto die

Novembris ad quintum decimum Januarii prorogabatur. Ex registro Cranmer, fol. ii.

A proclamation for the abolishing of English books after the death of Ann Askew, set forth by the king, anno 1546, the eighth day of July. Ex vol. 2. Fox, p. 587. edit. 1641.

THE king's most excellent majesty understanding how, under the pretence of expounding and declaring the truth of God's scripture, divers lewd and evil disposed persons have taken upon them to utter and sow abroad, by books imprinted in the English tongue, sundry pernicious and detestable errors and heresies, not only contrary to the laws of this realm, but also repugnant to the true sence of God's law and his word; by reason whereof, certain men of late, to the destruction of their own bodies and souls, and to the evil example of others, have attempted arrogantly and maliciously to impugn the truth, and therewith trouble the sober quiet and godly religion united and established under the king's majesty in this his realm; his highness minding to foresee the dangers that might ensue of the said books, is enforced to use this his general prohibition, commandment and proclamation as followeth.

First, that from henceforth no man, woman or person, of what estate, condition or degree soever he or they be, shall after the last day of August next ensuing receive, have, take or keep in his, or their possessions, the text of the new testament of Tindall's or Coverdale's translation in English, nor any other, than is permitted by the act of parliament, made in the session of the parliament, holden at Westminster in the four and thirtieth and five and thirtieth years of his majesty's most noble reign; nor after the said day shall receive, have, take or keep in his or their possession any manner of books printed or written in the English tongue, which be or shall be set forth in the names of Frith, Tindall, Wickliffe, Joy, Roy, Basil, Bale, Barnes, Coverdale, Turner, Tracy, or by any of them, or any other book or books containing matter contrary to the said act, made in the year 34 or 35; but shall before the last day of August next coming, deliver the same English book or books to his master in that household, if he be a servant, or dwell under any other; and the master or ruler of the house, and such other as dwell at large, shall deliver all such books of these sorts, as they have or shall come to their hands, delivered as afore or otherwise, to the mayor, bayliff or chief constable of the town where they dwell, to be by them delivered over openly within fourty days next following, after the said delivery, to the sheriff of the shire, or to the bishop's chancellor or commissarie of the same diocese, to the intent the said bishop, chancellor, commissary, and sheriff, and every of them may cause them incontinently to be openly

VOL IV.

B

ly

2 A Proclamation for the abolishing of ENGLISH BOOKS.

ly burned; which thing the king's majesties pleasure is, that every of them shall see executed in most effectual sort, and of their doings thereof make certificate to the king's majesties most honourable council before the first day of October next coming.

And to the intent that no man shall mistrust any danger of such penal statutes as be passed in this behalf, for the keeping of the said books, the king's majesty is most graciously contented by this proclamation to pardon that offence to the said time appointed by this proclamation, for the delivery of the said books; and commandeth that no bishop, chancellor, commissary, mayor, bailiff, sheriff or constable shall be curious to mark who bringeth forth such books, but only order and burn them openly, as is in this proclamation ordered. And if any man, after the last day of August next coming, shall have any of the said books in his keeping, or be proved or convinced by sufficient witness before four of the king's most honourable council, to have hidden them or used them, or any copy of any of them, or any part of them, whereby it should appear, that he willingly hath offended the true meaning of this proclamation, the same shall not only suffer imprisonment and punishment of his body at the king's majestys will and pleasure, but also shall make such fine and ransom to his highness for the same, as by his majesty or four of his graces said council shall be determined, &c. Finally his majesty straitly chargeth and commandeth, that no person or persons of what estate, degree, or condition soever he or they be, from the day of this proclamation presume to bring any manner of English book, concerning any matter of christian religion, printed in the parts beyond the seas, into this realm, to sell, give, or distribute any English book printed in outward parts, or the copy of any such book, or any part thereof to any person dwelling within this his graces realm, or any other his majesties dominions, unless the same shall be specially licensed so to do, by his highness's expressed grant, to be obtained in writing for the same, upon the pains before limited, and there withall to incur his majesties extream indignation.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 12.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1546.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

Commissio regia archiepiscopo Cantuar. ad exercendam suam jurisdictionem. Ex reg. Cranmer, fol. 28.b.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, ac in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hiberniae supremum caput; reverendissimo in Christo patri ac praedilecto consiliario nostro Thomae Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, salutem. Quandoquidem omnis jurisdictionis auctoritas atque etiam jurisdictio omnimoda, tam illa quae ecclesiastica dicitur, quam secularis, a regia potestate velut a supremo capite, ac omnium magistratuum infra regnum nostrum fonte et scaturigine primitus emanaverit; sane illos qui jurisdictione hujusmodi antehac, non nisi precario fungebantur, beneficium hujusmodi sit eis ex liberalitate regiae indultum gratis animis agnoscere, idque regiae munificentiae solummodo acceptum referre, eique quoties ejus majestati videbitur cedere convenit: nos tuis in hac parte supplicationibus humilibus inclinati, et nostrorum subditorum commodis consulere cupientes, tibi vices nostras, sub modo et forma inferius descriptis, committendas fore, teque licentiaendum esse decrevimus. Ad ordinandos igitur quosunque infra dioecesim tuam Cantuarien. ubicunque oriundos, quos moribus et litteratura, praevio diligenti et rigoroso examine, idoneos fore compereris, ac ad omnes etiam sacros et presbyteratus ordines promovend. praesentatosque ad beneficia ecclesiastica quaecunque infra dioecesim tuam Cantuarien. constituta, si ad curam beneficiis hujusmodi imminentem sustinend. habiles reperti fuerint et idonei, et non aliter admittend. ac in et de eisdem instituend. et investiend. ac etiam, si res ita exigat, destituend. beneficiaque ecclesiastica quaecunque, ad tuam collationem five dispositionem spectantia et pertinentia, personis idoneis conferend. atque approband. testamenta et ultimas voluntates, nec non administrationes committendas bonorum quorumcunque subditorum nostrorum ab intestato decedentium bona, jura, five credita in diversis dioecesibus five jurisdictionibus aut alibi, juxta consuetudinem curiae praerogativae Cantuarien. vitae et mortis suarum tempore habentium calculum et ratiocinium, et alia in ea parte expediend. testamentaque et administrationes quorumcunque tuae dioeceseos ut prius approband. et committend. causasque lites et negotia coram te aut coram tuis deputatis pendentia indecisas, nec non alias five alia quascunque five quaecunque ad forum ecclesiasticum pertinentia, ad te aut tuos deputatos five deputandos per viam querelae aut appellationis devolvendae five deducendae, quae citra legum nostrarum et statutorum regni nostri offensionem coram te aut tuis deputatis agitari, aut ad tuam five alicujus commissariorum per te, vigore hujus commissionis nostrae deputandorum, cognitione devolvi aut deduci valeant et possint, examinandi et decidendi, caeteraque omnia et singula, in praemissis seu circa ea necessaria seu quomodolibet opportuna, praeter et ultra ea quae tibi ex sacris literis divinitus commissae esse dinoscuntur, vice, nomine et auctoritate nostris exequendi, tibi de cujus sana doctrina, conscientiae puritate, vitaeque et morum integritate, ac in rebus gerendis fide et industria plurimum confidimus, vices nostras cum potestate alium vel alios commissarium vel commissarios ad praemissa vel eorum aliqua surrogandi et substituendi, eosdemque ad placitum revorevocandi, tenore praesentium committimus, ac liberam facultatem concedimus, teque licentiamus per praesentes ad nostrum beneplacitum duntaxat duraturas, cum cujusslibet congruae et ecclesiasticae coertionis potestate, quacunque inhibitione ante dationem praesentium emanata in aliquo non obstante; tuam conscientiam coram Deo strictissime onerantes, et ut summo omnium judici aliquando rationem reddere, et coram nobis tuo sub periculo corporali respondere intendis, te admonentes, ut interim tuum officium juxta evangelii normam pie et sancte exercere studeas, et nequem ullo tempore unquam ad sacros ordines promoveas, vel ad curam animarum gerendam, quovis modo admittas, nisi eos duntaxat quos et tanti et tam venerabilis officii functionem, vitae et morum inte-gritas, certissimis testimoniis approbata, literarum scientia et aliae qualitates requisitae ad hoc habiles et idoneos clare et luculenter ostenderint et declaraverint: nam ut maxime compertum cognitumque habemus, morum omnium et maxime christianae religionis corruptelam a malis pastoribus in populum emanasse; sic et veram Christi religionem, vitaeque et morum emendationem a bonis pastoribus iterum delectis et assumptis in integrum restitutum iri haud dubie speramus. In cujus rei testimonium praesentes literas nostras inde fieri, et sigilli nostri, quo ad causas ecclesiasticas utimur, appensione jussimus communiri. Dat septimo die mensis Februarii, anno Domini 1546. et regni nostri anno primo.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1546.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. I.

Synodus provincialis Eboracensis

PER commissionem archiepiscopi, auctoritate brevis regis Henrici VIII. fulcitum, a vicesimo quarto die Novembris ad decimum quintum diem Januarii prorogata fuit.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. I.

Injunctions given by the most excellent prince Edward the sixth, by the grace of God, king of England, France and Ireland, defender of the faith, and in earth under Christ, of the church of England and Ireland, the supreme head. To all and singular his loving subjects, as well of the clergy as of the laity.

THE king's most royal majesty, by the advice of his most dear uncle the duke of Somerset, lord protector of all his realms, dominions and subjects, and governor of his most royal person, and residue of his most honourable council, intending the advancement of the true honor of almighty God, the suppression of idolatry and superstition throughout all his realms and dominions, and to plant true religion, to the extirpation of all hypocrisie, enormities and abuses, as to his duty appertaineth; doth minister unto his loving subjects these godly injunctions hereafter following; whereof part were given unto them heretofore, by the authority of his most dear beloved father, king Henry the eighth, of most famous memory, and part are now ministred and given by his majesty: all which injunctions his highness willeth and commandeth his said loving subjects, by his supreme authority, obediently to receive, and truly to observe and keep, every man in their offices, degrees and states, as they will avoid his displeasure, and the pains in the same injunctions herereafter expressed.

1. The first is, that all deans, archdeacons, parsons, vicars, and other ecclesiastical persons, shall faithfully keep and observe, and, as far as in them may lie, shall cause to be kept and observed of other, all and singular laws and statutes, made as well for the abolishing and extirpation of the bishop of Rome, his pretended and usurped power and jurisdiction, as for the establishment and confirmation of the king's authority, jurisdiction, and supremacy of the church of England and Ireland. And furthermore, all ecclesiastical persons, having cure of souls, shall to the uttermost of their wit, knowledge and learning, purely, sincerely, and without any colour or dissimulation, declare, manifest and open four times every year at the least, in their sermons and other collations, that the bishop of Rome's usurped power and jurisdiction, having no establishment nor ground by the laws of God, was of most just causes taken away and abolished; and that therefore no manner of obedience or subjection, within his realms and dominions, is due unto him. And that the king's power, within his realms and dominions, is the highest power under God, to whom all men, within the same realms and dominions, by God's laws, owe most loyalty and obedience, afore and above all other powers and potentates in earth.

Besides this, to the intent that all superstition and hypocrisie crept into divers mens hearts, may vanish away; they shall not set forth or extol any images, relicks, or miracles, for any superstition or lucre, nor allure the people by any inticements to the pilgrimage of any saint or image: but reproving the same, they shall teach, that all goodness, health and grace, ought to be both asked and looked for only of God, as of the very author and giver of the same, and of none other.
of

Item, That they the persons above rehearsed, shall make or cause to be made in their churches, and every other cure they have, one sermon every quarter of the year at the least, wherein they shall purely and sincerely declare the word of God: and in the same, exhort their hearers to the works of faith, mercy and charity, specially prescribed and commanded in scripture; and that works devised by mens phantasies, besides scripture, as wandering to pilgrimages, offering of money, candles, or tapers, or relicks, or images, or kissing and licking of the same, praying upon beads, or such like superstition, have not only no promise of reward in scripture for doing of them; but contrariwise, great threats, and maledictions of God, for that they be things tending to idolatry and superstition, which of all other offences God almighty doth most detest and abhor, for that the same diminish most his honor and glory.

Item, That such images as they know in any of their cures to be or to have been abused with pilgrimage or offering of any thing made thereunto, or shall be hereafter censured unto, they (and none other private persons) shall for the avoiding of that most detestable offence of idolatry, forthwith take down, or cause to be taken down and destroy the same; and shall suffer from henceforth no torches nor candles, tapers or images of wax to be set afore any image or picture, but only two lights upon the high altar, before the sacrament, which for the signification that Christ is the very true light of the world, they shall suffer to remain still: admonishing their parishioners, that images serve for no other purpose but to be a remembrance, whereby men may be admonished of the holy lives and conversation of them that the said images do represent: which images if they do abuse for any other intent, they commit idolatry in the same, to the great danger of their souls.

Item, That every holy day throughout the year, when they have no sermon, they shall immediately after the gospel, openly and plainly recite to their parishioners in the pulpit, the "Pater noster," the "credo," and the ten commandments in English, to the intent the people may learn the same by heart: exhorting all parents and householders to teach their children and servants the same, as they are bound by the law of God, and in conscience to do.

Item, That they shall charge fathers and mothers, masters and governors, to bestow their children and servants, even from their childhood either to learning or to some honest exercise, occupation or husbandry: exhorting and counselling, and by all the ways and means they may, as well in their sermons and collations, as otherwise, perswading their said fathers and mothers, masters and other governors, diligently to provide and foresee that the youth be in no manner or wise brought up in idleness, lest at any time afterward for lack of some craft, occupation, or other honest means to live by, they be driven to fall to begging, stealing, or some other un-thriftness: forasmuch as we may daily see, through sloth and idleness, divers valiant men fall, some to begging, and some to theft and murder; which after brought to calamity and misery, do blame their parents, friends and governors, which suffered them to be brought up so idly in their youth, where if they had been well brought up in learning, some good occupation or craft, they would (being rulers of their own household) have profited as well themselves, as divers other persons, to the great commodity and ornament of the commonwealth.

Also, That the said parsons, vicars and other curates shall diligently provide, that the sacraments be duly and reverently ministered in their parishes. And if at any time it happen them in any of the cases expressed in the statutes of this realm, or of special license given by the king's majesty, to be absent from their benefices, they shall leave their cure not to a rude and unlearned person, but to an honest, well learned and expert curate, that can by his ability teach the rude and unlearned of their pure wholsom doctrine, and reduce them to the right way that do erre; which will also execute these injunctions, and do their duty otherwise, as they are bound to do in every behalf, and accordingly may and will profit their cure no less with good example of living, than with the declaration of the word of God, or else their lack and default shall be imputed unto them, who shall straitly answer for the same if they do otherwise. And always let them see, that neither they nor their curates do seek more their own profit, promotion or advantage, than the profit of the souls they have under their cure, or the glory of God.

Also, That they shall provide within three months next after this visitation, one book of the whole bible, of the largest volume in English. And within one twelve months next after the said visitation, the "paraphrasis" of Erasmus also in English upon the gospels, and the same set up in some convenient place within the said church that they have cure of, whereas their parishioners may most commodiously resort unto the same, and read the same. The charges of which books shall be ratably born between the parson and proprietary, and parishioners aforesaid, that is to say, the one half by the parson or proprietary, and the other half by the parishioners. And they shall discourage no man (authorised and licensed thereto) from the reading any part of the bible, either in Latin or in English; but shall rather comfort and exhort every person to read the same, as the very lively word of God, and the special food of man's soul, that all christian persons are bound to embrace, believe and follow, if they look to be saved: whereby they may the better know their duties to God, to their sovereign lord the king, and their neighbor; ever gently and charitably exhorting them, and in his majesties name, straightly charging and commanding them, that in the reading thereof, no man to reason or contend but quietly to hear the reader.

Also, The said ecclesiastical persons shall in no wise, wife, at any unlawful time, nor for any other cause than for their honest necessity, haunt or resort to any taverns or alehouses. And after their dinner or supper, they shall not give themselves to drinking or riot, spending their time idly, by day or by night, at dice, cards, or tables, playing, or any other unlawful game: but at all times (as they shall have leisure) they shall hear and read somewhat of holy scripture, or shall occupy themselves with some other honest exercise; and that they always do the things which appertain to honesty, with endeavor to profit the commonweal; having always in mind, that they ought to excel all other in purity of life, and should be an example to the people to live well and christianly.

Item, That they shall in confessions every lent examine every person that cometh to confession to them, whether they can recite the articles of their faith, the "Pater noster," and the ten commandments in English, and hear them say the same particularly; wherein if they be not perfect, they shall declare then, that every christian person ought to know the said things before they should receive the blessed sacrament of the altar, and admonish them to learn the said necessary things more perfectly, or else they ought not to presume to come to God's board, without a perfect knowledge and will to observe the same: and if they do, it is to the great peril of their souls, and also to the worldly rebuke, that they might incur hereafter by the same.

Also, That they shall admit no man to preach within any their cures, but such as shall appear unto them to be sufficiently licensed thereunto, by the king's majesty, the lord protector's grace, the archbishop of Canterbury, the archbishop of York in his province, or the bishop of the diocess; and such as shall be so licensed, they shall gladly receive to declare the word of God, without any resistance or contradiction.

Also, If they have heretofore declared to their parishioners any thing to the extolling or setting forth of pilgrimages, relicks, or images, or lighting of candles, kissing, kneeling, decking of the same images, or any such superstition, they shall now openly, before the same, recant, and reprove the same: shewing them (as the truth is) that they did the same upon no ground of scripture, but were led and seduced by a common error and abuse, crept into the church through the sufferance and avarice of such as felt profit by the same.

Also, If they do, or shall know any man within their parish or elsewhere, that is a letter of the word of God to be read in English, or sincerely preached, or of the execution of these the king's majesties injunctions, or a fautor of the bishop of Rome's pretended power, now by the laws of this realm justly rejected, extirpated, and taken away utterly, they shall detect and present the same to the king or his council, or to the justice of peace next adjoining.

Also, That the parson, vicar, or curate, and parishioners of every parish within this realm, shall, in their churches and chappels, keep one book or register, wherein they shall write the day and year of every wedding, christning and burial, made within their parish for their time, and so every man succeeding them likewise; and therein shall write every persons name that shall be so wedded, christned or buried. And for the safe keeping of the same book, the parish shall be bound to provide of their common charges, one sure coffer, with two locks and keys, whereof the one to remain with the parson, vicar, or curate, and the other with the wardens of every parish-church or chappel, wherein the said book shall be laid up: which book they shall every sunday take forth, and in the presence of the said wardens, or one of them, write and record in the same, all the weddings, christnings and burials made the whole week before; and that done, to lay up the book in the said coffer, as afore. And for every time that the same shall be omitted, the party that shall be in the fault thereof, shall forfeit to the said church, iii. s. iiiii. d. to be employed to the poor mens box of that parish.

VOL. IV.

Furthermore, because the goods of the church are called the goods of the poor, and at these days nothing is less seen than the poor to be sustained with the same; all parsons, vicars, pensionaries, prebendaries, and other beneficed men within this deanery, not being resident upon their benefices, which may dispend yearly xxl. or above, either within this deanery, or elsewhere, shall distribute hereafter among their poor parishioners, or other inhabitants there, in the presence of the church-wardens, or some other honest men of the parish, the xl. part of the fruits and revenues of their said benefices, lest they be worthily noted of ingratitude, which reserving so many parts to themselves, cannot vouchsafe to impart the xl. portion thereof among the poor people of that parish, that is so fruitful and profitable unto them.

And to the intent that learned men may hereafter spring the more, for the execution of the premises, every parson, vicar, clerk, or beneficed man within this deanery, having yearly to dispend in benefices and other promotions of the church an c. l. shall give competent exhibition to one scholar: and for so many c. l. more as he may dispend, to so many scholars more shall he give like exhibition in the university of Oxford or Cambridge, or some grammar-school; which after they have profited in good learning, may be partners of their patrons cure and charge, as well in preaching, as otherwise, in the execution of their offices, or may (when need shall be) otherwise profit the commonweal with their council and wisdom.

Also, That the proprietaries, parsons, vicars, and clerks, having churches, chappels, or mansions within this deanery, shall bestow yearly hereafter upon the same mansions or chancels of their churches being in decay, the fifth part of that their benefices, till they be fully repaired; and the same so repaired, shall always keep and maintain in good estate.

Also, That the said parsons, vicars and clerks, shall, once every quarter of the year, read these injunctions given unto them, openly and deliberately, rately, before all their parishioners, to the intent that both they may be the better admonished of their duty, and their said parishioners the more moved to follow the same for their part.

C

Also, For as much as by a law established, every man is bound to pay his tythes, no man shall by colour of duty omitted by their curates, detain their tythes, and so redub and requite one wrong with another, or be his own judge, but shall truly pay the same, as he hath been accustomed to their parsons, vicars and curates, without any restraint or diminution. And such lack and default as they can justly find in their parsons and curates, to call for reformation thereof at their ordinaries and other superiours hands, who, upon complaint and due proof thereof, shall reform the same accordingly.

Also, That no person shall from henceforth alter or change the order and manner of any fasting-day that is commanded, or of common-prayer or divine service, otherwise than is specified in these injunctions, until such time as the same shall be otherwise ordered and transposed by the kings authority.

Also, That every parson, vicar, curate, chauntry-priest, and stipendary, being under the degree of a batcheler of divinity, shall provide and have of his own, within three months after this visitation, the new testament both in Latin and in English, with the paraphrase upon the same of Erasmus, and diligently study the same, conferring the one with the other. And the bishops and other ordinaries by themselves or their officers, in their synods and visitations, shall examine the said ecclesiastical persons how they have profited in the study of holy scripture.

Also, In the time of high-mass, within every church, he that saith or singeth the same, shall read or cause to be read the epistle and gospel of that mass in English and not in Latin, in the pulpit, or in such convenient place as the people may hear the same. And every Sunday and holy-day they shall plainly and distinctly read, or cause to be read, one chapter of the new testament in English, in the said place at mattins immediately after the lessons: and at even-song, after "Magnificat," one chapter of the old testament. And to the intent the premises may be more conveniently done, the kings majesties pleasure is, that when ix. lessons should be read in the church, three of them shall be omitted and left out with the responds: and at even-song time the responds with all the memories shall be left off for that purpose.

Also, Because those persons, which be sick and in peril of death, be oftentimes put in despair, by the craft and subtilty of the devil, who is then most busie, and especially with them that lack the knowledge, sure perswasion, and stedfast belief, that they may be made partakers of the great and infinite mercy, which almighty God of his most bountiful goodness, and meer liberality, without our deserving, hath offered freely to all persons, that put their full trust and confidence in him: therefore that this damnable vice of despair may be clearly taken away, and firm belief, and stedfast hope, surely conceived of all their parishioners, being in any danger, they shall learn and have always in a readines such comfortable places and sentences of scripture, as do set forth the mercy, benefits and goodness of almighty God towards all penitent and believing persons, that they may at all times (when necessity shall require) promptly comfort their flock, with the lively word of God, which is the only stay of mans conscience.

Also, To avoid all contention and strife, which heretofore hath risen among the kings majesties subjects in sundry places of his realms and dominions, by reason of fond courtesie, and challenging of places in procession, and also that they may the more quietly hear that which is said or sung to their edifying, they shall not from henceforth, in any parish church at any time, use any procession about the church or church-yard, or other place, but immediately before high mass, the priests with other of the quire shall kneel in the midst of the church, and sing or say plainly and distinctly the litany which is set forth in English, with all the suffrages following, and none other procession or litany to be had or used but the said litany in English, adding nothing thereto, but as the kings grace shall hereafter appoint: and in cathedral or collegiate churches, the same shall be done in such places as our commissaries in our visitation shall appoint. And in the time of the litany, of the mass, of the sermon, and when the priest readeth the scripture to the parishioners, no manner of persons without a just and urgent cause, shall depart out of the church; and all ringing and knolling of bells, shall be utterly forborn at that time, except one bell in convenient time to be rung or knolled before the sermon.

Also, Like as the people be commonly occupied the work-day, with bodily labour, for their bodily sustenance, so was the holy day at the first beginning godly instituted and ordained, that the people should that day give themselves wholly to God. And whereas in our time, God is more offended than pleased, more dishonored than honored upon the holy day, because of idleness, pride, drunkenness, quarrelling and brawling, which are most used in such days, people nevertheless perswading themselves sufficiently to honor God on that day, if they hear mass and service, though they understand nothing to their edifying: therefore all the kings faithful and loving subjects shall from henceforth celebrate and keep their holy day according to God's holy will and pleasure, that is, in hearing the word of God read and taught, in private and publick prayers, in knowing their offences to God, and amendment of the same, in reconciling their selves charitably to their neighbors, where displeasure hath been, in often times receiving the communion of the very body and blood of Christ, in visiting of the poor and sick, in using all soberness and godly conversation. Yet notwithstanding all parsons, vicars and curates, shall teach and declare unto their parishioners, that they may with a safe and quiet conscience, in the time of harvest, labour upon the holy and festival days, and save that thing which which God hath sent. And if for any scrupulosity, or grudge of conscience, men should superstitiously abstain from working upon those days, that then they should grievously offend and displease God.

Also, For as much as variance and contention is a thing which most displeaseth God, and is most contrary to the blessed communion of the body and blood of our Saviour Christ; curates shall in no wise admit to the receiving thereof any of their cure and flock, who hath maliciously and openly contended with his neighbor, unless the same do first charitably and openly reconcile himself again, remitting all rancour and malice, whatsoever controversie hath been between them; and nevertheless their just titles and rights they may charitably prosecute before such as have authority to hear the same.

Also, That every dean, archdeacon, master of collegiate church, master of hospital, and prebendary being priest, shall preach by himself personally twice every year at the least, either in the place where he is intituled, or in some church where he hath jurisdiction, or else which is to the said place appropriate or united.

Also, That they shall instruct and teach in their cures, that no man ought obstinately and maliciously to break and violate the laudable ceremonies of the church, by the king commanded to be observed, and as yet not abrogated. And on the other side, that whosoever doth superstitiously abuse them, doth the same to the great peril and danger of his soul's health: as in casting holy water upon his bed, upon images, and other dead things, or bearing about him holy bread, or St. John's gospel, or making of crosses of wood upon palm-sunday, in time of reading of the passion, or keeping of private holy days, as bakers, brewers, smiths, shoemakers, and such other do; or ringing of holy bells, or blessing with the holy candle, to the intent thereby to be discharged of the burden of sin, or to drive away devils, or to put away dreams and phantasies, or in putting trust and confidence of health and salvation in the same ceremonies, when they be only ordained, instituted and made, to put us in remembrance of the benefits which we have received by Christ. And if he use them for any other purpose, he grievously offendeth God.

Also, That they shall take away, utterly extinct and destroy all shrines, covering of shrines, all tables, candlesticks, trindles or rolls of wax, pictures, paintings, and all other monuments of feigned miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry and superstition: so that there remain no memory of the same in walls, glass-windows, or elsewhere within their churches or houses. And they shall exhort all their parishioners to do the like, within their several houses. And that the church-wardens, at the common charge of the parishioners in every church, shall provide a comely and honest pulpit, to be set in a convenient place within the same, for the preaching of God's word.

Also, They shall provide and have within three months after this visitation, a strong chest with a hole in the upper part thereof, to be provided at the cost and charge of the parish, having three keys, whereof one shall remain in the custody of the parson, vicar or curate, and the other two in the custody of the church-wardens, or any other two honest men, to be appointed by the parish from year to year. Which chest you shall set and fasten near unto the high altar, to the intent the parishioners should put into it their oblation and alms for their poor neighbors. And the parson, vicar or curate, shall diligently from time to time, and specially when men make their testaments, call upon, exhort and move their neighbors, to confer and give, as they may well spare, to the said chest; declaring unto them, whereas heretofore they have been diligent to bestow much substance otherwise than God commanded upon pardons, pilgrimages, trentalles, decking of images, offering of candles, giving to friers, and upon other like blind devotions, they ought at this time to be much more ready to help the poor and needy, knowing that to relieve the poor is a true worshipping of God, required earnestly upon pain of everlasting damnation: and that also, whatsoever is given for their comfort, is given to Christ himself and so is accepted of him, that he will mercifully reward the same with everlasting life: the which alms and devotion of the people, the keepers of the keys shall at times convenient take out of the chest, and distribute the same in the presence of their whole parish, or six of them, to be truly and faithfully delivered to their most needy neighbors: and if they be provided for, then to the reparation of high ways next adjoyning. And also the money which riseth of fraternities, guilds, and other stocks of the church (except by the king's majesties authority it be otherwise appointed) shall be put into the said chest, and converted to the said use, and also the rents and lands, the profit of cattel, and money given or bequeathed to the finding of torches, lights, tapers and lamps, shall be converted to the said use, saving that it shall be lawful for them to bestow part of the said profits upon the reparation of the church, if great need require, and whereas the parish is very poor, and not able otherwise to repair the same.

And forasmuch as priests be publick ministers of the church, and upon the holy days ought to apply themselves to the common administration of the whole parish, they shall not be bound to go to women lying in childbed, except in time of dangerous sickness, and not to fetch any coarfe before it be brought to the church-yard; and if the woman be sick, or the coarfe brought to the church, the priest shall do his duty accordingly in visiting the woman, and burying the dead person.

Also, To avoid the detestable sin of simony, because buying and selling of benefices is execrable before God; therefore all such persons as buy any benefices, or come to them by fraud or deceit, shall be deprived of such benefices, and be made unable at any time after to receive any other spiritual promotion. And such as do sell them, or by any colour do bestow them for their own gain and profit, shall lose the right and title of patronage, and presentment for that time, and the gift thereof for that vacation shall appertain to the king's majesty.

or

Also, Because through lack of preachers in many places of the king's realms and dominions, the people continue in ignorance and blindness, all parsons, vicars, and curates shall read in the churches every Sunday one of the homilies, which are and shall be set forth for the same purpose by the king's authority, in such sort as they shall be appointed to do in the preface of the same.

Also, Whereas many indiscreet persons do at this day uncharitably contemn and abuse priests and ministers of the church, because some of them (having small learning) have of long time favored phantasies rather than God's truth; yet forasmuch as their office and function is appointed of God: the king's majesty willeth and chargeth all his loving subjects, that from henceforth they shall use them charitably and reverently for their office and administration sake, and especially such as labour in the setting forth of God's holy word.

Also, That all manner of persons which understand not the Latin tongue, shall pray upon none other primer, but upon that which was lately set forth in English by the authority of king Henry the eighth, of most famous memory. And that no teachers of youth shall teach any other than the said primer. And all those which have knowledge of the Latin tongue, shall pray upon none other Latin primer, but upon that which is likewise set forth by the said authority. And that all graces to be said at dinner and supper, shall be always said in the English tongue. And that none other grammar shall be taught in any school or other place within the king's realms and dominions, but only that which is set forth by the said authority.

Item, That all chauntry priests shall exercise themselves in teaching youth to read and write, and bring them up in good manners, and other vertuous exercises.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

Injunctions given to Winton coll. by Sir James Hales, Kt. Francis Cave, Dr. and Simon Bridges, D. D. Commissioners of K. Edward VI. in his highness's visitation. 1 E. VI. Ex reg. G. in coll. Winton.

1. IT is ordered and decreed by the king's said commissioners, that from henceforth the bible shall be daily read in English, distinctly and apertly, in the midst of the hall, above the hearth, where the fire is made both at dinner and supper.

2. Item, That as well all the scholars of the said college and foundation, as other coming to the said school, being able to buy the new testament in English or Latin, shall provide for the same betwixt this and Christmas next coming, to the intent that they may every Sunday and

Item, when any sermon or homily shall be had, the prime and hours shall be omitted.

The form of bidding the common-prayers.

You shall pray for the whole congregation of Christ's church, and especially for this church of England and Ireland; wherein first I commend to your devout prayers, the king's most excellent majesty, supreme head immediately under God, of the spirituality and temporality of the same church: and for queen Katherine dowager, and also for my lady Mary, and my lady Elizabeth, the king's sisters.

Secondly, you shall pray for the lord protectors grace, with all the rest of the king's majesties council: for all the lords of this realm, and for the clergy and commons of the same: beseeching Almighty God to give every of them in his degree, grace to use themselves in such wise, as may be to God's glory, the king's honor, and the weal of this realm.

Thirdly, ye shall pray for all them that be departed out of this world in the faith of Christ, that they with us, and we with them at the day of judgment, may rest both body and soul, with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

All which singular injunctions the king's majesty ministreth unto his clergy and their successors, and to all his loving subjects: straightly charging and commanding them to observe and keep the same, upon pain of deprivation, sequestration of fruits or benefices; suspension, excommunication, and such other coercion, as to ordinaries, or other having ecclesiastical jurisdiction, whom his majesty hath appointed for the due execution of the same, shall be seen convenient: charging and commanding them to see these injunctions observed and kept of all persons, being under their jurisdiction, as they will answer to his majesty for the contrary; and his majesties pleasure is, that every justice of peace (being required) shall assist the ordinaries and every of them for the due execution of the said injunctions.

other holy day exercise themselves holie in reading thereof; setting apart all other exercises of prophane authors, and that the warden and school master, or such as the warden in his absence shall appoint, shall diligently from time to time examine them of their exercise in that behalf.

3. Item, That the warden, and in his absence such one as he shall appoint, shall from henceforth every Sunday and holy day, not being principal, or octaves of principal, immediately after dinner read unto the scholars of this school some

You that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and offences, committed to almighty God, and be in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, and heartily to follow the commandments of God, and to walk from henceforth in his holy ways, draw near and take this holy sacrament to your comfort, make your humble confession to almighty God, and to his holy church, here gathered together in his name, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Then shall a general confession be made in the name of all those, that are minded to receive the holy communion, either by one of them, or else by one of the ministers, or by the priest himself, all kneeling humbly upon their knees.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed by thought, word and deed, against thy divine majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us: we do earnestly repent, and be heartily sorry for these our misdoings: the remembrance of them is grievous unto us, the burthen of them is intolerable; have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past, and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Then shall the priest stand up, and turning him to the people, say thus:

Our blessed Lord, who hath left power to his church to absolve penitent sinners from their sins, and to restore to the grace of the heavenly Father such as truly believe in Christ, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life.

Then shall the priest stand up, and turning him toward the people, say thus:

Hear what comfortable words our saviour Christ saith to all that truly turn to him:

Come unto me all that travel, and be heavy laden, and I shall refresh you. So God loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, to the end, that all that believe in him should not perish, but have life everlasting.

Hear also what St. Paul saith:

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be embraced and received, that Jesus Christ came into this world to save sinners.

Hear also what St. John saith:

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the father, Jesus Christ the righteous, he it is that obtained grace for our sins.

Then shall the priest kneel down and say in the name of all them that shall receive the communion, this prayer following:

We do not presume to come to this thy table (O merciful Lord) trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies: we be not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table: but thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: grant us therefore gracious Lord so to eat the flesh of thy dear son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood in these holy mysteries, that we may continually dwell in him, and he in us; that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood. Amen.

Then shall the priest rise, the people still reverently kneeling, and the priest shall deliver the communion, first to the ministers, if any be there present, that they may be ready to help the priest, and after to the other. And when he doth deliver the sacrament of the body of Christ, he shall say to every one these words following:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body unto everlasting life.

And the priest delivering the sacrament of the blood, and giving every one to drink once and no more, shall say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy soul unto everlasting life.

If there be a deacon or other priest, then shall he follow with the chalice, and as the priest ministrerth the bread, so shall he, for more expedition, minister the wine, in form before written.

Then shall the priest, turning him to the people, let the people depart with this blessing:

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

To which the people shall answer,
Amen.

Note, That the bread, that shall be consecrated, shall be such as heretofore hath been accustomed. And every of the said consecrated breads shall be broken in two pieces at the least, or more, by the discretion of the minister, and so distributed. And men must not think less to be received in part, than in the whole, but in each of them the whole body of our saviour Jesus Christ.

Note, That if it doth so chance, that the wine hallowed and consecrated doth not suffice, or be enough for them that do take the communion, the priest, after the first cup or chalice be emptied, may go again to the altar, and reve-

E

reverently and devoutly prepare and consecrate another, and so the third, or more likewise, beginning at these words, "simili modo, postquam coenatum est," and ending at these words,

"qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum:" and without any elevation or lifting up.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

Inhibitio jurisdict. episc. London. pro visitatione regia. Ex reg. Cranmer fol. 31. a.

THOMAS, &c. per illustrissimum in Christo principem & dominum nostrum dominum Edwardum sextum, &c. sufficienter ad infra scripta auctorizatus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo, eadem permissione Londoniensi episcopo, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Literas inhibitorias supra dicti invictissimi domini nostri regis sub sigillo suo ad causas ecclesiasticas sigillatas, et ad nos directas, nuper debitis cum honore et reverentia accepimus, tenorem subsequentem complectentes. Edwardus sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernae supremum caput; reverendissimo in Christo Patri ac praedilecto consiliario nostro Thomae permissione divina Cantuarien. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, salutem. Quum nos suprema auctoritate nostra regia, &c. "uti supra in literis regiis ad archiepiscopum Eborum." In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum, quo ad causas ecclesiasticas utimur, praesentibus apponi mandavimus. Dat. quarto die mensis Maii anno Domini 1547. et regni nostri anno primo. Nos vero pro nostra erga suam celsitudinem observantia toto pectore affectantes literis inhibitoriis suis regiis hujusmodi, uti decet, obtemperare, volentesque pro debito nostri officii omnem curam et solertem nostram in commissis et demandatis a sua maiestate adhibere diligentiam, vobis pro parte suae regiae maiestatis tenore praesentium mandamus, et praecipiendo injungimus, quatenus receptis praesentibus, omnibus et singulis dictae ecclesiae nostrae Christi Cantuarien. suffraganeis, ac absentium episcoporum, si qui sunt, vicariis in spiritualibus generalibus inhibeat, inhiberive faciat, quod nec illi, nec illorum quisquam ecclesias, aut alia loca, clerumve aut populum in literis regiis mentionata visitare, aut ea quae sunt jurisdictionis exercere, seu quicquam aliud in praedictum dictae regiae visitationis generalis, aut contentorum in suis literis quovis modo attemptare praesumant, siue praesumat, donec et quousque licentiam et facultatem in ea parte a sua regia celsitudine debite obtinuerint; mandantes praeterea eisdem, ac, ut supra, injungentes, quatenus caetera omnia et singula juxta vim, formam, et effectum dictarum literarum regiarum debite exequi et perimplere faciant, et eorum quilibet faciat cum effectu. Vobis etiam, frater charissime, tenore praesentium similiter inhibemus, ne vos ecclesias, aut alia loca, clerumve aut populum infra civitatem, dioecesim, et jurisdictionem vestram constituta visitare, aut ea quae sunt jurisdictionis exercere, seu quicquam aliud in praedictum regiae visitationis praefatae generalis attemptare praesumatis, sub poena in eisdem dictis literis contenta: mandantes insuper vobis, quatenus caetera omnia et singula juxta vim, formam, et effectum dictarum literarum regiarum pro vestro officio in omnibus et per omnia exequi et perimplere curetis in effectu. In cujus rei, &c. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth 15 die mensis Maii anno Domini 1547. et nostrae consecrationis anno decimo quinto.

Relaxatio inhibitionum quoad jurisdictionem episcopi London. Ibidem.

THOMAS, &c. venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo eadem permissione London. episcopo, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Literas remissorias dicti metuentissimi domini nostri regis sub sigillo suo ad causas ecclesiasticas sigillatas, et ad nos directas, nuper cum honore et reverentia accepimus, tenorem subsequentem complectentes. Edwardus sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernae supremum caput, Thomae permissione divina Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, salutem. Cum nos suprema auctoritate nostra regia omnia et singula loca, clerumque et populum infra et per totum regnum nostrum Angliae constituta, visitare statuerimus, ac tibi, et per te suffraganeis tuis confratribus episcopis, ac per il-los archidiaconis et aliis quibuscunque jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam exercentibus, tam exemptis, quam non exemptis, infra provinciam tuam Cantuariensem ubilibet constitutis, inhibuimus et mandavimus, quatenus nec tu, nec quisquam eorum ecclesias aut alia loca ecclesiastica, clerumve aut populum visitare, aut ea quae sunt jurisdictionis exercere, seu quicquam aliud in praedictum dictae nostrae visitationis quovis modo attemptare praesumas, aut praesumat, donec et quousque licentiam et facultatem tibi, et eis in ea parte largiendam et impertiendam duxerimus, prout latius in literis inhibitoriis liqueat et appareat: ne tamen causae, querelae, lites, et alia negotia ecclesiastica coram te praefato archiepiscopo, et commissariis tuis, dictisque episcopis, suffraganeis tuis, eorumque archidiaconis et commissariis, ac aliis quibuscunque que jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam habentibus, inter nostros subditos pendentia, et in posterum ventilanda, et agitanda, nimis et plus juste protelentur et differantur in nostrorum subditorum dispendium et grave dampnum; tibi praefato archiepiscopo et praedictis episcopis suffraganeis tuis, eorumque archidiaconis et commissariis, ac aliis ecclesiasticam jurisdictionem in ea parte habentibus quibuscunque, ad cognoscendum et procedendum in omnibus et singulis causis, querelis, litibus, et negotiis ecclesiasticis praedictis, atque testamenta et administrationes bonorum infra tuam dioecesim aut jurisdictionem decedentium, ac alia testamenta et administrationes bonorum, vigore praerogativae tuae quaecunque; praedictisque episcopis suffraganeis, ac aliis jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam habentibus, testamenta et administrationes bonorum infra suas dioeceses seu jurisdictiones decedentium juxta vim, formam et effectum priorum nostrarum literarum commissarialium, tibi praefato archiepiscopo, suffraganeisque tuis ac aliis praedictis respective factarum, indistincte approbanda, insinuanda et committenda; beneficia quoque ecclesiastica illis, quibus vobis visum fuerit, conferenda, ac quoscunque clericos vobis ad beneficia ecclesiastica praesentatos, admittendos et instituendos, donec et quousque literas monitorias pro nostra visitatione a nostris commissariis re-ceperitis et habueritis, licentiam et facultatem plenam, ex nostra clementia, per praesentes damus et concedimus, inhibitione nostra hujusmodi non obstante. Dat. decimo sexto die mensis Maii anno Domini 1547. et regni nostri anno primo. Vobis igitur, reverende frater, tenore praesentium intimamus, quatenus omnem et omnimodam jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam et episcopalem infra civitatem, dioecesim, et jurisdictionem vestras Londonien. juxta formam et tenorem dictarum literarum regiarum praeinsertarum, in omnibus et per omnia libite et libere exercere, et exequi possitis et valeatis, inhibitione nostra, immo verius dicti potentissimi domini nostri regis alias vobis in hac parte emanata, in aliquo non obstante; vobis praeterea mandantes, quatenus omnibus et singulis ecclesiae nostrae Christi Cantuarien. suffraganeis, ac absentium episcoporum; si qui sunt, vicariis in spiritualibus generalibus, nec non archidiaconis vestris et aliis jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam infra dictam dioecesim vestram Londonien. habentibus, praemissa omnia et singula respective intimetis, uti ipsi & eorum quilibet jurisdictionem suam ecclesiasticam modis et formis praedictis similiter exercent et exercent, et notificetis. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth, tertio die mensis Junii. anno Domini 1547. et nostrae consecrationis decimo quinto.

Papae Rom.

PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.

THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.

1547.

Reg. Angliae.

EDWARD. VI. 1.

Synodus provincialis Cantuar. per breve regis Edwardi VI. dat. xxix. die Augusti convocata, quinto die Novembris in ecclesia S. Pauli London; et deinde per aliud breve dat. xxvi. die Decembris ad vicesimum primum diem Aprilis prorogata fuit. Ex reg. Cranmer fol. 12.

PERACTIS sacris, exhibitisque certificatoriis et procuratoriis clerus inferioris domus convocationis Johannem Taylour in prolocutorem elegit, quem reverendissimus admisit.

In secunda hujus synodi sessione, die sc. vicesimo secundo mensis Novembris, "concordatum fuit in domo inferiori, ut dominus prolocutor nomine totius domus referat reverendissimo, &c. sequentes petitiones.

1. Quod provideatur, ut ecclesiasticae leges examinentur et promulgentur, juxta statutum parlamenti editi 35 Hen. VIII. c. 19.

2. Item, ut pro nonnullis urgentibus causis, convocatio hujus cleri, si fieri possit, assumatur et cooptetur in inferiorem domum parlamenti, sicut ab antiquo fieri consuevit.

3. Item, ut opera episcoporum, et aliorum, qui alias, ex mandato convocationis, servitio divino examinando, reformando, et edendo, invigilarunt, proferantur, et hujus domus examinationem subeant.

4. Item, ut rigor statuti de primitiis, domino nostro regi solvendis, aliquantisper, in certis urgentibus clausulis, moderetur, et reformetur, si commode fieri potest.

The words of their petition, as they were found in archbishop Cranmer's MS. in the hands of Edward Stillingfleet late bishop of Worcester.

First, That ecclesiastical laws may be made and established in this realm, by thirty two persons, or so many as shall please the king's majesty to name or appoint, according to the effect of a late statute made in the 35th year of the most noble king, and of the most famous memory, king Henry VIII. so that all judges ecclesiastical, proceeding after those laws, may be without danger and peril.

Also that according to the antient custom of this realm, and the tenor of the king's writs for the summoning of the parliament; which be now, and ever have been directed to the bishops of every diocese, the clergy of the lower house of convocation may be adjoined and associated with the lower house of parliament; or else that all such statutes and ordinances, as shall be made concerning all matters of religion, and causes ecclesiastical, may not pass without the sight and assent of the said clergy.

Also that whereas by the commandment of king Henry VIII. certain prelates and other learned men were appointed to alter the service in the church, and to devise other convenient and uniform order therein, who according to the the same appointment did make certain books, as they be informed; their request is, that the said books may be seen and perused by them, for a better expedition of divine service to be set forth accordingly.

Also that men being called to spiritual promotions or benefices, may have some allowance for their necessary living and other charges, to be sustained and born concerning the said benefices, in the first year wherein they pay the first fruits.

In quinta et sexta sessione hujus synodi, nemine reclamante, communio sub utraque specie stabilita fuit; in quarum ultima nonnulli e domo inferiori convocationis electi sunt ad concipiendam formam statuti pro decimis solvendis in urbibus.

In septima sessione (nono die Decembris) "communi consensu, nominati fuerunt sollicitatores ad obtinendum effectus sequentes. viz. That the petition made to have this house adjoynd to the lower house of the parliament may be obtained. Item, that a mitigation of the fore penalty, expressed in the statutes, against the recusants for non-payment of the perpetual tenth, may be also obtained. And the same day were likewise appointed — to associate Mr. prolocutor to my lord of Canterbury to know a determinate answer what indemnity and immunity this house shall have to treat of matters of religion, in cases forbidden by the statutes of this realm to treat in.

The words of their address out of archbishop Cranmer's papers were these.

Where the clergy in the present convocation assembled, have made humble suit unto the most reverend father in God, my lord archbishop of Canterbury, and all other bishops, that it may please them to be a mean to the king's majesty, and the lord protector's grace, that the said clergy, according to the tenor of the king's [writ] and the antient laws and customs of this noble realm, might have their room and place, and be associated with the commons in the nether house of this present parliament, as members of the common wealth, and the king's most humble subjects; and if this may not be permitted and granted to them, that then no laws concerning the christian religion, or which shall concern especially the persons, possessions, rooms, livings, jurisdictions, goods, or chattels of the said clergy, may pass nor be enacted, the said clergy not being made privy thereunto, and their answers and reasons not heard: the said clergy do most humbly beseech an answer and declaration to be made unto them, what the said most reverend father in God, and all other the bishops have done in this their humble suit and request, to the end, that the said clergy, if need be, may choose of themselves such able and discreet persons, which shall effectually follow the same suit in the name of them all.

And where in a statute ordained and established by authority of parliament at Westminster, in the twenty second year of the reign of the most excellent prince king Henry VIII. the clergy of this realm, submitting themselves to the king's highness did, acknowledge and confess according to the truth, that the convocations of the same clergy hath been, and ought to be assembled by the king's writ. And did promise further "in verbo sacerdotii," that they never from henceforth would presume to attempt, alledge, claim, or put in ure or enact, promulge, or execute any new canons, constitutions, ordinances provincial or other, or by whatsoever other name they should be called in the convocation, unless the king's most royal assent and licence may to them be had, to make, promulge or execute the same; and his majesty to give his most royal assent and authority in that behalf, upon pain of every one of the clergy doing the contrary, and being thereof convict, to suffer imprisonment, and make fine at the king's will. And that no canons, constitutions or ordinances shall be made, or put in execution within this realm, by authority of the convocation of the clergy, which shall be repugnant to the king's prerogative royal, or the customs, laws or statutes of this realm. Which statute is eftsoons renewed and established in the twenty seventh year of the reign of the said most noble king, as by the tenor of both statutes more at large will appear. The said clergy being presently assembled in convocation by authority of the king's writ, do desire that the king's majesty's licence in writing may be for them obtained and granted, according to the effect of the said statute, authorising them to attempt, treat and commune of such matters, and therein freely to give their consents, which otherwise they may not do upon pain of peril promised.

Also the said clergy desireth, that such matters as concerneth religion, which be disputable, may be quietly and in good order reasoned and disputed among them in this house, whereby the verities of such matters shall the better appear. And the doubts being opened and resolutely discussed, men may be fully persuaded with the quietness of their consciences, and the time well spent."

In sessione octava (xvii. die Decembris) "exhibita fuit quaedam propositio sub his verbis: that all such canons, laws, statutes, decrees, usages and customs heretofore made, had or used, that forbad any person to contract matrimony, or condemn matrimony already contracted, by any person, for any vow or promise of priesthood, chastity or widowhood, shall from henceforth cease, be utterly void, and of none effect. Cui propositioni multi subscripserunt, affirmantes 53, negantes 22." Et quia doctor Johannes Redman huic convocationi non interfuit; sensum suum ut separatim declararet, rogabatur, quem subscriptione sua hoc modo expressit.

"I think that though the word of God do exhort and counsel priests to live in chastity, out of the cumber of the flesh and the world, that thereby they may the more wholly attend to their calling; yet the band of containing from marriage doth only lye upon priests of this realm, by reason of canons and constitutions of the church, and not by any precept of God's word, as in that they should be bound by reason of any vow,

some part of the proverbs of Solomon, for the space of one hour, which book ended, he or his sufficient deputy shall begin the book of Ecclesiastes, which also ended, they shall begin then again the said proverbs, and so continue; the said lecture to begin on this side Christmas next, videlicet, anno Domini 1547.

4. Item, That from henceforth the said scholars shall use no other primer, than that which is set forth by the king's authority, the Latin primer for them that understand Latin, and the English primer for them that understand not Latin. And yet notwithstanding, for him that understandeth the Latin, to use which of them he liketh best for his edification.

5. Item, The warden and schoolmaster in all lectures and lessons of prophane authors, shall confute and refel by allegation of scriptures, all such sentences and opinions, as seem contrary to the word of God and christian religion.

6. Item, That every scholar of this foundation and other, coming to the said school, shall provide with all convenient expedition, for Erasmus catechism, wherein the warden or his sufficient deputy, every Sunday and holy day, shall read some part thereof, proving every article thereof by the scripture, and exercise the scholars at such time therein.

7. Item, That all graces to be said or sung at meals, within the said college, and other prayers, which the said scholars or children are bound to use, shall be henceforth said or sung evermore in English; that they shall henceforth omit to sing or say "stella caeli; salve regina;" and any such like untrue or superstitious anthem.

8. Item, As well every minister and ecclesiastical person in the college, as other laymen and servants, shall abstain from all manner of ribered words and filthy communication and other uncomely and light demeanour, least the tender youth hearing and conceiving the same, may thereby be infected and provoked to vice.

9. Item, Whereas four bibles be appointed by the king's highness injunctions to lie in the quire and body of the church, it shall be lawful for the scholars to carry and occupy one of the said bibles to and in the hall, and another of them in the school, so that they render them to the church and quire afterwards.

10. Item, That as well the said warden, as every fellow, and conduct, teaching the children, shall have for his and their pains one yearly stipend of the common goods of the college, taxed by the warden, with the assent of the most part of the fellows; and the school master and usher to have the old accustomed stipend of commensals, and the warden, fellow or conduct to require no part thereof.

11. Item, That no person in the said college have the correction of the grammarians beside the warden, school master, usher, and such fellow or conduct as shall teach them in the wardens absence; and that there be no excessive correction, but that the same may be mitigated by the warden's direction.

JAMES HALES.
FRANCIS CAVE.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

The king's injunctions particularly delivered to the bishops. Heylin hist. reform.

P. 37.

1. THAT they should, to the utmost of their power, wit and understanding see and cause all and singular the king's injunctions heretofore given, or after to be given, from time to time, in and through their dioceses duly, faithfully, and truly to be kept, observed, and accomplished; and that they should personally preach within their dioceses every quarter of a year, once at the least, that is to say, once in their cathedral churches, and thrice in other several places of their dioceses, whereas they should see it more convenient, and necessary, except they had a reasonable excuse to the contrary. Likewise that they should not retain into their service or household any chaplain, but such as were learned and able to preach the word of God, and those they should also cause to exercise the same.

2. And secondly, That they should not give orders to any person, but such as were learned in holy scripture; neither should deny them to such as were learned in the same, being of honest conversation or living. And lastly, that they should not at any time or place preach, or set forth unto the people, any doctrine contrary or repugnant to the effect and intent contained or set forth in the king's highness homilies; neither yet should admit or give licence to preach to any within their dioceses, but to such as they should know, or at least assuredly trust, would do the same; and if at any time, by hearing or by report proved, they should perceive the contrary, they should then incontinent not only inhibit that person so offending, but also punish him, and revoke their licence.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.Anno Christi.
1547.Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.The king's letter to the archbishop of York concerning the visitation then intended.
Ex MS. Cott. Titus. B. 2. fol. 89.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, ac in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hiberniae supremum caput, Reverendissimo in Christo Patri, ac praedilecto consiliario nostro Roberto permissione divina Eboracen. archiepiscopo, Angliae primate et metropolitano, salutem. Quum nos suprema autoritate nostra regia omnia et singula loca ecclesiastica clerumque et populum, infra et per totum nostrum Angliae regnum, constituta propediem visitare statuerimus, vobis tenore praesentium stricte inhibemus atque mandamus, et per vos suffraganeis vestris confratribus episcopis, ac per illos suis archidiaconis, ac aliis quibuscunque jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam exercentibus, tam exemptis quam non exemptis, infra vestram provinciam Eboracen. ubilibet constitutis, sic inhiberi volumus atque praecipimus, quatenus nec vos nec quisquam eorum ecclesias aut alia loca praedicta, clerumve aut populum visitare, aut ea quae sunt jurisdictionis exercere, seu quicquam aliud in praejudicium dictae nostrae visitationis generalis quovismodo attemptare praesumat sive praesumant, sub poena contemptus donec et quosque licentiam et facultatem, vobis et eis in ea parte largiend. et impertiend. fore duxerimus. Et quia non solum internam animorum subditorum nostrorum pacem, verum etiam externam eorum concordiam, multiplicibus opinionum procellis ex contentione, dissentione et controversiis concionatorum exortis, multum corruptam, violatam ac misere divulsam esse cernimus. Idcirco vobis admodum necessarium visum est ad sedandas et componendas hujusmodi opinionum varietates, quatenus inhibeatis seu inhiberi faciatis omnibus et singulis episcopis, ne alibi quam in ecclesiis suis cathedralibus, et aliis personis ecclesiasticis quibuscunque, ne in alio loco quam in suis ecclesiis collegiatis sive parochialibus, in quibus intitulati sunt, praedicent, aut subditis nostris quovismodo concionand. munus exercent, nisi ex gratia nostra speciali ad id postea licentiati fuerint, sub nostrae indignationis poena. In cujus rei testimonium figillum nostrum, quo ad causas ecclesiasticas utimur, praesentibus apponi mandavimus. Dat. quarto die mensis Maii anno Domini 1547, et regni nostri anno primo.

E. SOMERSET.

T. SEYMOUR.

T. CANTUAR.

WILL. PETRE, Sec^r

W. ST. JOHN.

J. RUSSEL.

JOHN GAGE.

JOHN BARKER.

The protestation of the bishop of London made to the visitors, when he received the king's majesty's injunctions and homilies. Ex libro concilii fol. 110. apud Burnet. hist. reform. vol. 2. app. fol. 112.

I Do receive these injunctions and homilies with this protestation, that I will observe them, if they be not contrary and repugnant to God's laws and the statutes and ordinances of this church.

The submission and revocation of the same bishop made before the lords of the king's majesty's council, presently attending upon his majesty's person, with the subscription of his name thereunto.

Whereas I Edmund bishop of London have at such time, as I received the king's majestys, my most dread sovereign lord's injunctions and homilies at the hands of his highness's visitors, did unadvisedly make such protestation as now upon better consideration of my duty of obedience, and of the ill example that may ensue to others thereof, appeareth to me neither reasonable, nor such as might well stand with the duty of an humble subject. Forasmuch as the same protestation, at my request, was then by the register of that visitation enacted and put in record; I have thought it my bounden duty, not only to declare before your lordships, that I do now, upon better consideration of my duty, renounce and revoke my said protestation, but also most humbly beseech your lordships, that this my revocation of the same may likewise be put in the same records for a perpetual memory of the truth; most humbly beseeching your good lordships, both to take order that it may take effect, and also that my former unadvised doings may by your good mediations be pardoned of the king's majesty.

EDMUND London.

The order of the communion.

II

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

The order of the communion.

The proclamation.

EDWARD by the grace of God, king of England, France and Ireland, defender of the faith, and of the church of England and Ireland in earth the supreme head: to all and singular our loving subjects, greeting. For so much as in our high court of parliament, lately holden at Westminster, it was by us, with the consent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and commons there assembled, most godly and agreeably to Christ's holy institution, enacted, that the most blessed sacrament of the body and blood of our Saviour Christ, should from thenceforth be commonly delivered and ministred unto all persons within our realm of England and Ireland, and other our dominions under both kinds, that is to say, of bread and wine (except necessity otherways require) lest any man fancying and devising a sundry way by himself, in the use of this most blessed sacrament of unity, there might thereby arise any unseemly and ungodly diversity: our pleasure is, by the advice of our most dear uncle the duke of Somerset, governour of our person, and protector of all our realms, dominions and subjects, and other of our privy council, that the said blessed sacrament be ministred unto our people only after such form and manner as hereafter, by our authority, with the advice before mentioned, is set forth and declared: willing every man with due reverence and christian behaviour, to come to this holy sacrament and most blessed communion, lest by the unworthy receiving of so high mysteries, they become guilty of the body and blood of the Lord, and so eat and drink their own damnation: but rather diligently trying themselves, that they may so come to this holy table of Christ, and so be partakers of this holy communion, that they may dwell in Christ, and have Christ dwelling in them: and also with such obedience and conformity to receive this our ordinance, and most godly direction, that we may be encouraged from time to time further to travel for the reformation, and setting forth of such godly orders, as may be most to God's glory, the edifying of our subjects, and for the advancement of true religion.

Which thing we (by the help of God) most earnestly intend to bring to effect: willing all our loving subjects in the mean time, to stay and quiet themselves with this our direction, as men content to follow our authority (according to the bounden duty of subjects) and not enterprising to run afore, and so by their rashness become the greatest hinderers of such things, as they more arrogantly than godly would seem (by their own private authority) most hotly to set forward. We would not have our subjects so much to mislike our judgment, so much to mistrust our zeal, as though we either could not discern what were to be done, or would not do all things in due time: God be praised, we know both what by his word is meet to be redressed, and have an earnest mind, by the advice of our most dear uncle, and other of our privy council, with all diligence and convenient speed so to set forth the same, as it may most stand with God's glory, and edifying and quietness of our people: which we doubt not, but all our obedient and loving subjects will quietly and reverently tarry for.

God save the king.

The ORDER of the COMMUNION.

First, the parson, vicar, or curate, the next Sunday or holy day, or at the least one day before he shall minister the communion, shall give warning to his parishioners, or those which be present, that they prepare themselves thereto, saying to them openly and plainly as hereafter followeth, or such like.

DEAR friends, and you especially upon whose souls I have cure and charge, upon day next I do intend by God's grace to offer to all such as shall be there godly disposed, the most comfortable sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, to be taken of them in the remembrance of his most fruitful and glorious passion: by the which passion, we have obtained remission of our sins, and be made partakers of the kingdom of heaven; whereof, we be assured and ascertained, if we come to the said sacrament with hearty repentance for our offences, stedfast faith in God's mercy, and earnest minds to obey God's will, and to offend no more: wherefore our duty is, to come to these holy mysteries with most hearty thanks to be given to almighty God for his infinite mercy and benefits, given and bestowed upon us, his unworthy servants, for whom he hath not only given his body to death, and shed his blood, but also doth vouchsafe in a sacrament and mystery, to give us his said body and blood spiritually to feed and drink upon. The which sacrament, being so divine and holy a thing, and so comfortable to them which receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to take the same unworthily; my duty is to exhort you in the mean season, to consider the greatness of the thing, and to search and examine your own consciences, and that not lightly, nor after the manner of dissemblers with God: but as they which should come to a most godly and heavenly banquet: not to come but in the marriage garment required of God in scripture, that you may, so much as lieth in you, be found worthy to come to such a table. The ways and means thereto is,

First,

The order of the communion.

First, That you be truly repentant of your former evil life, and that you confess with an unfeigned heart to almighty God, your sins and unkindness towards his majesty, committed either by will, word or deed, infirmity or ignorance, and that with inward sorrow and tears, you bewail your offences, and require of almighty God mercy and pardon, promising to him from the bottom of your hearts, the amendment of your former life. And amongst all others I am commanded of God, especially to move and exhort you, to reconcile your selves to your neighbors, whom you have offended, or who have offended you, putting out of your hearts all hatred and malice against them, and to be in love and charity with all the world, and to forgive other, as you would that God should forgive you. And if there be any of you, whose conscience is troubled and grieved at any thing, lacking comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other discreet and learned priest taught in the law of God, and confess and open his sin and grief secretly, that he may receive such ghostly counsel, advice and comfort, that his conscience may be relieved, and that of us, as a minister of God and of the church, he may receive comfort and absolution, to the satisfaction of his mind, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness: requiring such as shall be satisfied with a general confession, not to be offended with them that do use, to their further satisfying, the auricular and secret confession to the priest, nor those also which think needful or convenient for the quietness of their own consciences, particularly to open their sins to the priest, to be offended with them which are satisfied with their humble confession to God, and the general confession to the church: but in all these things, do follow and keep the rule of charity, and every man to be satisfied with his own conscience, not judging other mens minds or acts, whereas he hath no warrant of God's word for the same.

The time of the communion shall be immediately after that the priest himself hath received the sacrament, without the varying of any other rite or ceremony in the mass (until other orders shall be provided) but as heretofore usually the priest hath done with the sacrament of the body, to prepare, bless and consecrate so much as will serve the people: so it shall yet continue still after the same manner and form, save that he shall bless and consecrate the biggest chalice, or some fair and convenient cup or cups full of wine, with some water put unto it. And that day, not drink it up all himself, but take one only sup or draught, leave the rest upon the altar covered, and turn to them that are disposed to be partakers of the communion, and shall thus exhort them as followeth.

Dearly beloved in the Lord, ye coming to his holy communion must consider what St. Paul writeth to the Corinthians, how he exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, or ever they presume to eat of this bread, and drink of this cup: for as the benefit is great, if with a truly penitent heart and lively faith we receive this holy sacrament (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us, we be made one with Christ, and Christ with us) so is the danger great if we receive the same unworthily: for then we become guilty of the body and blood of Christ our saviour, we eat and drink our own damnation, because we make no difference of the Lord's body, we kindle God's wrath over us, we provoke him to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death. Judge therefore your selves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord. Let your mind be without desire to sin: repent you truly for your sins past, have an earnest and lively faith in Christ our saviour, be in perfect charity with all men, so shall ye be meet partakers of these holy mysteries. But above all things, you must give most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Son and the holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our saviour Christ both God and man, who did humble himself even to the death upon the cross for us miserable sinners, lying in darkness and the shadow of death, that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should always remember the exceeding love of our master, and only saviour Jesus Christ thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious blood shedding he hath obtained to us, he hath left in these holy mysteries as a pledge of his love, and a continual remembrance of the same, his own blessed body and precious blood for us spiritually to feed upon, to our endless comfort and consolation. To him therefore with the Father and the holy Ghost, let us give, as we are most bounden, continual thanks, submitting our selves wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Amen.

Then the priest shall say to them which be ready to take the sacrament.

If any man here be an open blasphemer, adulterer, in malice or envy, or any other notable crime, and be not truly sorry therefore, and earnestly minded to leave the same vices, or that doth not trust himself to be reconciled to almighty God, and in charity with all the world, let him yet awhile bewail his sins, and not come to this holy table, lest after the taking of this most blessed bread, the devil enter into him, as he did into Judas, to fulfill in him all iniquity, and to bring him to destruction, both of body and soul.

Here the priest shall pause a while, to see if any man will withdraw himself: and if he perceive any so to do, then let him commune with him privily at convenient leisure, and see whether he can with good exhortation, bring him to grace: and after a little pause, the priest shall say, vow, which (in as far as my conscience is) priests in this church of England do not make: I think that it standeth well with God's word, that a man, which hath been and is but once married, being otherwise accordingly qualified, may be made a priest. And I think that forasmuch as canons and rules, made in this behalf, be neither universal nor everlasting, but upon considerations may be altered and changed;

I

You

therefore the king's majesty and the higher powers of the church may, upon such reason as shall move them, take away the clog of perpetual continency from priests, and grant that it may be lawful to such, as cannot, or will not contain, to marry one wife; and if she dies, then the said priest to marry no more, remaining still in his ministration."

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 15.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

Mandatum visitatorum regionum sive commissariorum generalium ad visitandum dioeceses Sarum, Exon, Bath, Bristol, et Gloucester. viz. Will. Mey LL. D. decan. S. Pauli London. Simon Haynes S. T. P. decan. Exon. Walter Buckler mil. et Tho. Cottisford clerici. Tenor literarum eorum ad episcopum B. W. et decanum et capitulum talis est. Ex reg. Well.

INHIBEMUS quibuscunque jurisdictionem aliquam ecclesiasticam exercentibus, ne a tempore receptionis praesentium jurisdictionem aliquam alicubi infra dioec. vestram exerceatis, quicquamve aliud in praejudicium sive dispendium hujus visitationis regiae quovis modo attentetis, &c. Vosque Will. B. W. episcopum peremptorie citamus, decanum et capitulum, caeterosque ecclesiae cathedr. ministros, canonicos, praebendarios, cantaristas, stipendiarios, et officarios quoscunque — quatenus coram nobis compareatis — in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedr. Well. 14. Sept. inter horas 8. et 10. ante meridiem cum continuatione et prorogatione — fundationes, dotationes, cartas, indotamenta, concessionis, compotos, statuta, ordinationes, registra, caeteraque id genus omnia et singula, vos illosque, ac dict. episcopatus et ecclesiae vestrae statum concernentia, scripta insuper alia et munimenta quaecunque, licentias, installationes, collationes, institutiones, uniones, ordinum literas, dispensationes, pluralitates, cessionesque omnes et omnimodas, vobis aut ecclesiae vestrae fact. et concess. Nobis ibidem ostensuri et exhibitori, ulteriusque facturi et recepturi, quod hujusmodi visitationis regiae qualitas, natura et justitia postulant, exigunt, requiruntque sub poena contemptus in ea parte vobis illisque infligendo. Mandamus insuper, quod citetis omnes et singulos collegiorum custodes, guardianos, praepositos, proprietar. rectores, vicarios, cantaristas, capellanos, stipendiarios, curatos et non curatos, paedagogos et hypodidasalos, ac clericos quoscunque — nec non de singulis parochiis 8, 6. vel 4. viros laicos, fide inter caeteros dignissimos, pro modulo cujuslibet parochiae hujusmodi, super inquirend. ab eisdem meliorem notitiam habentes, quatenus compareant coram nobis — juramentum fidelitatis et obedientiae erga regem — gerente deque renuenda, renuncianda, rejicienda, abjuranda et penitus abneganda episcopi Romani crudeli, praetensa, usurpata, diabolica, et ficta in regnum Angliae ejusdemque dominia auctoritate — et quaecunque alia licita sacramenta, in ea parte praestare requisita, juxta statutum hujus regni Angliae 28 Hen. VIII. — ad sancta evangelia praestitur. et subitur. per seipsos, nisi gravi, arduo, et legitimo impedimento coram nobis commissariis — allegand. et proband. alioquin per procuratores suos legitime constitutos titulos dignitatum et beneficiorum suorum, nec non literas ordinum, licentias — exhibitori, procuracionesque ratione dictae regiae visitationis suae majestati debitas soluturi, dictique parochiani veritatem, quam noverint, super inquirend. ab eisdem visitationem regiam hujusmodi concernent. dicturi — dat 30. Aug. 1547.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 13.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi.
1547.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

The councils letter to enquire after things belonging to churches. Ex reg. Voysey Exon. fol. 115.

AFTER our hearty commendations to your lordship, they shall be to signify unto the same, that it hath been brought to our knowledge, that sundry persons upon some vain brutish or rather their own rashness, have now lately attempted in several places of the realm, to make sale of the ornaments of the plate, jewels, and bells of sundry churches, wherein as they have demeaned themselves otherwise, than became them, and given a very ill example; so thinking it convenient both to have a stay made, that the like be not from henceforth attempted, and also to have perfect knowledge, how and to what uses the money received for any of the things aforesaid, hath been employed; we have thought good to require you, that unless the king's majesty's commissioners for the visitation have already taken order therein, ye cause due search and enquiry to be undelaydly made by your ministers, what hath been taken away, fold or alienated out of any church or chappel of your diocefs, and by whom and to what ufes, the money growing thereupon hath been employed; and thereupon taking fpecial note of their names, who have made the fame away, and of the value of the things, to give a ftrait commandment in the king's majefty's behalf, that they nor any other prefume not from thenceforth to make any fuch alienation; fignifying unto us, what ye fhall have done therein, whereupon fuch further order fhall be taken, as fhall be expedient. Thus fare your lordfhip right heartily well. From Hampton court the feventeenth of October 1547. Your affured friends.

VOL. IV.

F

fold

E. SOMERSETT. H. ARRUNDELL. W. PAGETT.
T. SEYMOUR. W. PETRE.

To our very good lord the bifhop of EXESTRE.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Chriffti.
1547.

Reg. Angliar.
EDWARD. VI. 1.

Mandatum archiepiscopi Cant. decano et capit. S. Pauli London de gratiis agendis ob victoriam a Scotis obtentam. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 55. a.

AFTER our right hartie commendations; where it hath pleased almightie Godde to fende the kinges majesty fuche victorie againft the Scottes, as was almoſte above the expectation of manne, and foche as hath not bene harde of in any partes of chriſtendome theſe many yeres; in which victorie above the number of fifteen thouſand Scottes be ſlayne, two thouſand taken pryſoners, and amonge theme manie noble menne and others of good reputation, all theire ordenaunce and baggage of their campe alſo woone from them. The kinges majesty wythe the advyſe of his highnes privy counſaile preſentlye attendinge upon his majesties moſte royall perſonne, wel knowinge this as well as all other goodneſſe to be the giftes of Godde, hathe and ſo dothe accompte it, and therefore renderithe unto hym th'onelye glorie and prayſe for the fame, and ſo hath willed me, not onelye in his majesties cathederall church, and other churches of my dioceſe, to gyve thanks to almightie Godde, but alſo to require in his name all other byſſhopes of the province of Canterburie to doo or cauſe to be done ſemblable in there cures: whiche his majesties plea-ſure I have thought goode to ſignifie unto you, requyrynge youe not onelie to cauſe a ſermonne to be made in your cathedrall church the next hollyday after receipte herof, declaringe the goodneſſe of Godde, and exhortyng the people to faythe, and amendement of lyf, and to gyve thanks to Godde for this victorie; but alſo at the ſame tyme immediatlie after the ſermon, and in preſence of the mayor, aldermenne, and other the citezynnnes of the citie of Londonne, to cauſe the proceſſion in Englyſhe, and "Te Deum" to be openly and devoutelie ſonge, and that you do alſo cauſe the lyke ordre to be given in every paryſhe church of your dioceſſe uppon ſome holyday, whenn the pariſhners ſhall be there preſent wythe as moch ſpede as youe maye; not faylyng as you tender his majesties pleaſure. Thus fare youe hartelie well, from Otelandes the 18th day of December, the yeare of our Lorde Godde 1547. youre lovinge friende Thomas Cantuarien. The counſelles pleaſure is youe ſhall ſee this executed on twef-day nexte.

To the deane and chapter of ſaint Paule in Londonne this be given in haſte.

A proclamation concerning the irreverent talkers of the sacrament. Dated the 27th day of December, anno regni reg. Edwardi primo.

WH E R E A S the kyngs highnes hath of late, with the aſſent and conſent of the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and the commons in the parliament held the fourth day of November, in the firſt year of his moſt gracious reign, made a good and godly act and eſtatute againſt thoſe who do contempn, deſpiſe, or with unſemely and ungodly words deprave and revile the holy ſacrament of the body and blood of our Lord, commonly called "the ſacrament of the altar;" and the ſaid eſtatute hath moſt prudently declared, by al the words and terms in which ſcripture ſpeaketh of it, what is undoubtedly to be accepted, beleevd, taken and ſpoken by and of the ſaid ſacrament: yet this notwithstanding his majeſty is advertiſed, that ſome of his ſubjects, not contented with ſuch words and terms as ſcripture doth declare thereof, nor with that doctrin which the holy Ghoſt by the evangelists and St. Paul hath taught us do not, ceaſe to move contentious and ſuperfluous queſtions of the ſaid holy ſacrament, and ſupper of the Lord; entryng raſhly into the diſcuſſing of the high myſtery, thereof, and go about in their ſermons or talks arrogantly to define the manner, nature, faſhion, ways, poſſibility or impoſſibility of thoſe matters; which neither make to edification, nor God hath by his holy word opened.

Which perſons, not contented reverently and with obedient faith t'accept that the ſaid ſacrament, according to the ſaying of St. Paul, "the bread is the communion," or partaking, "of the body of the Lord; the wine," likewise, "the partaking of the bloud of Chriſt" by the words inſtituted and taught of Chriſt: and that the body and bloud of Jeſu Chriſt is there; which which is our comfort, thanksgiving, love-token of Christ's love towards us, and of ours as his members within ourself, search and strive unreverently whether the body and blood aforesaid is there really or figuratively, locally or circumscriptly, and having quantity and greatnes, or but substantially and by substance only, or els but in a figure and manner of speaking; whether his blessed body be there, head, leggs, armes, toes and nails, or any other ways, shape and manner, naked or clothed; whether he is broken or chewed, or he is always whole; whether the bread there remaineth as we se, or how it departeth; whether the flesh be there alone, and the blood, or part, or ech in other, or in th'one both, in th'other but only blood; and what blood; that only which did flow out of the side, or that which remained: with other such irreverent, superfluous, and curious questions, which, how and what, and by what means, and in what forme, may bring into them, which of human and corrupt curiosity hath desire to search out such mysteries as lyeth hid in the infinite and bottomless depth of the wisdom and glory of God, and to the which our humain imbecillity cannot attain: and therefore oftymes turneth the same to their own and others destruction by contention and arrogant rashnes, which simple and christian affection reverently receiving and obediently beleving without further search, taketh and useth to most great comfort and profit.

For reformation whereof, and to th'intent that further contention, tumult and question might not rise amonges the king's subjects, the king's highnes, by th'advice of the lord protector, and other his majestie's counsell, straitly willeth and commandeth, that no mannor person from henceforth do in any wise contentiously and openly argue, dispute, reason, preach or teach, affirming any more termes of the said blessed sacrament, than be expressely taught in the holy scripture, and mentioned in the foresaid act; nor deny none which be therein contained and mentioned, until such tyme as the king's majesty, by th'advice of his highnes council and the clergy of this realme, shal define, declare and set furthe an open doctrine therof, and what termes and words may justly be spoken therby, other then be expressely in the scripture contained in the act before rehearsed.

In the mean while the king's highnes pleasure is, by th'advice aforesaid, that every his loving subjects shall devoutly and reverently affirm and take that holy bread to be Christ's body, and that cup to be the cup of his holy blood, according to the purport and effect of th'holy scripture contained in th'act before expressed, and accommodate theimself rather to take the same sacrament worthily, than rashly to entre into the discussing of the high mystery thereof.

Yet the king's highnes mindeth not hereby to let or stop the ignorant and willing to learn; reverently or privatly to demaund of those whom he thynketh knoweth more the further instruction and teaching in the said blessed sacrament: so that the same be not done with contention, nor in open audience, with a company gathered together about them, nor with tumult: nor doth prohibite any man hereby likewise so quietly, devoutly and reverently to teach or instruct the weak and unlearned, according to the more talent and learning gyven to hym of God. But only, that al contention, strife and tumult, and irreverentnes might be avoyded, and in open audience and preaching nothing taught, but which may have the holy scripture for warrant.

Upon pain that whosoever shal openly with contention or tumult, and in a company gathered together, either in churches, alehouses, markets, or elsewhere, contrary to the fourm and effect of this proclamation, defend and maintein, or irreverently and contentiously demaund of any man, any of the questions before rehearsed, either on the one part, or of the other, or any such like, or do otherwise revile, contempne or despise the said sacrament, by calling it an idol, or other such vile name, shal incurre the kyng's high indignation, and suffre imprisonment, or to be otherwise grievously punished at his majesties will and pleasure.

Gevyng further in authority to al justices of peace within the shires where they dwel, to apprehend and take al such as contentiously and tumultuously, with companies or routs assembled about them, do dispute, argue or reason, or stilly maintein, or openly preach and define the questions before rehearsed, or any of them, or such like, either on th'one part or th'other, and to commit the same to prison, untill such tyme as the king's majesty's pleasure herein be known; and that they immediately do certify the name or names of the party so offendyng, and of them who were there at the same tyme present making the rout or assemble to the king's highnes counsel: willyng and commaunding the said justices, with al diligence to execute the premises according to the purport, effect, and true meaning of the same, and their most bound duties, as they tender his highnes wil and pleasure, and wil answer to the contrary upon their peril.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.Anno Christi.
1547.Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 1.A proclamation for the absteyning from flesh in the lent time. Dated the 16th day of January, anno reg. prim.

THE king's highnes, by the advice of his most entirely beloved uncle, Edward duke of Somerset, governor of his person and protector of all his realms, dominions and subjects, and other of his privy council; considering, that his highnes hath not only cure and charge of the defence of his realms and dominions, as a king, but also as a christian king and supreme head of the church of England and Ireland, a desire, wil and charge to lead and instruct his people, to him committed of God, in such rites, ways and customs, as might be acceptable to God, and to the further encrease of good living and vertue; and that his subjects now having a more perfect and clear light of the gospel, and true word of the Lord, thorow the infinite clemency and mercy of almighty God, by the hands of his majesty and his most noble father of famous memory, promulgate, shewed, declared and opened unto them, should and ought thereby in al good works and vertues increase, be more forward and diligent and plentiful, as in fasting, prayer and almose deeds, in love, charity, obedience, and other such good works commaunded to us of God in his holy scripture: yet his highnes is advertised and informed, that diverse of his subjects be not only to al these more slow and negligent, but rather contemptners and despisers of such good and godly acts and deeds, to the which if they were of their own minds bended and inclined, they needed not by outward and princely power be appointed and commaunded. But forsomuch as at this tyme, now alate, more then at any other tyme, a great part of his subjects do break and contempne that abstinence, which of long tyme hath been used in this his majestie's realm, upon the fridays and saturdays, and the tyme commonly called lent, and other accustomed tymes; his highnes is constreined to se a convenient order herein set and appointed: not mindyng thereby, that his subjectes should thynk any difference to be in the days or meats, or that th'one should be to God more holy, more pure, or more clean, then th'other; for al days and al meats be of one and equal purity, cleannes and holines, that we should in them, and by them live to the glory of God, and at al tymes, and for al meats, geve thanks unto hym, of the which none can defile us at any tyme, or make us unclene; being christian men, to whom al things be holy and pure, so that they be not used in disobedience and vice: but his majesty hath allowed and approved the days and tymes before accustomed, to be continued and still observed here in this church of England, both that men should on those days abstain and forbear their pleasures, and the meats wherein they have more delight, to th'intent to subdue their bodies unto the soul and spirit; unto the which to exhort and move men is the office of a good and godly hed and ruler. And also for worldly and civil policy, certain days in the yere to spare flesh and use fish for the benefit of the commonwealth, and profit of this his majesties realm, wherof many be fishers and men using that trade of living, unto the which this realm, on every part environed with the seas, and so plentiful of fresh waters, doth easily minister occasion, to the great sustinaunce of this his highnes people. So that hereby both the nourishment of the land might be encreased by saving flesh, and specially at the spring tyme, when lent doth commonly fal, and when the most common and plenteous breedyng of flesh is. And also divers of his loving subjects have good lyvyngs, and get great riches therby, in uttering and selling such meats as the sea and fresh water doth minister unto us: and this his majestie's realm hath more plenty of ships, boats, craves and other vessels, by reason of those which by hope of lucre do follow that trade of lyvyng.

Wherefore his majesty, having consideration, that where men of their own mynds do not geve themselves, so oft as they should do, to fastyng, a common abstinence may and should be by the prince enjoyned and commaunded; and having an eyand mind to the profit and commodity of his realm and subjects, and to a common and civil policy, hath willed and commaunded; and by these presents doth wil and commaund, by th'advice aforesaid, al maner of person and persons, of what estate, degree, or condition, he or they be (other then such as already be, or hereafter shal be, excused by law, or licensed or authorized sufficiently to the contrary) to observe and keep from hencefurth such fastyng days, and the time commonly called lent, in absteyning from al maner of flesh, as heretofore in this realm hath been most commonly used and accustomed: upon pain, that whosoever shal, upon any day heretofore wont to be fasted from flesh, and not by the king's highnes or his predecessors abrogate and taken away, eat flesh contrary to this proclamation, shal incurr the king's high indignation, and shal suffre imprisonment, and be otherwise grievously punished at his majestie's wil and pleasure. And further the king's highnes, by th'advice aforesaid, straitly chargeth and commaundeth al maiors, bailiffs and other head-officers, and rulers of cities and towns, and al justices of peace in the sheres where they be in commission, to be attendant and diligent to the execution of this proclamation, in committing to prison the offenders contrary to the proclamation, upon sufficient proof thereof by two sufficient witnesses, before them had and made: there to remain during the king's pleasure, according to the true purport, effect and meaning of the same, as they tender the king's majestie's wil wil and pleasure, and will answer the contrary at their peril. And where the late king of most famous memory, father to his highnes, hath geven divers yeres licence to his subjects in the tyme of lent to eat butter, chese, and other meats, commonly called white meats, the king's highnes, by th'advice aforesaid, considering the same to have been done not without great considerations, doth geve likewise licence and authority to al his loving subjects from hencefurth freely for ever in the tyme of lent, or o-ther prohibited tymes by law or custom, to eat butter, eggs, chese and other white meats, any law, statute, act or custome to the contrary notwithstanding.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1547.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

A proclamation against those that do innovate, alter, or leave down any rite or ceremony in the church of their private authority, and against them which preach without licence, set forth the sixth day of February, in the second year of the king's majesty's most gracious reign. Ex reg. Cranm. fol. 111. et Burnet hist. reform. vol. 2. app. p. 128.

THE king's majesty by the advice of his most entirely beloved uncle the duke of Somerset, governour of his most royal person, and protector of all his realms, dominions, and subjects, and others of his council, considering nothing so much to tend to the disquieting of this realm as diversity of opinions and variety of rites and ceremonies concerning religion and worshipping of almighty God; and therefore studying all the ways and means, which can be, to direct this church and the cure committed to his highness, in one and most true doctrine, rite and usage: yet is advertised that certain private curates, preachers, and other laymen contrary to their bounden duties of obedience, do rashly attempt of their own and singular wit and mind, in some parish churches and otherwise, not only to persuade the people from the old and accustomed rites and ceremonies, but also themselves bring in new orders every one in their church, according to their phantasies; the which, as it is an evident token of pride and arrogance, so it tendeth both to confusion and disorder, and also to the high displeasure of almighty God, who loveth nothing so much as order and obedience. Wherefore his majesty straitly chargeth and commandeth, that no manner of person, of what estate, order, or degree soever he be, of his private mind, will, or phantasie do omit, leave done, change, alter or innovate any order, rite or ceremony commonly used and frequented in the church of England, and not commanded to be left undone at any time, in the reign of our late sovereign lord, his highness father, other than such as his highness, by the advice aforesaid, by his majesty's visitors, injunctions, statutes, or proclamations hath already or hereafter shall command to be omitted, left, innovated or changed; but that they be observed after that sort, as before they were accustomed, or else now sith prescribed by the authority of his majesty, or by the means aforesaid, upon pain, that whosoever shall offend contrary to this proclamation, shall incur his highness indignation, and suffer imprisonment and other grievous punishment, at his majesties will and pleasure. Provided always, that for not bearing a candle upon candlemasday, not taking ashes upon ashwednesday, not bearing palm upon palm Sunday, not creeping to the cross, not taking holy bread or holy water, or for omitting other such rites and ceremonies concerning religion, and the use of the church, which the most reverend father in God the archbishop of Cant. by his majesty's will and commandment with the advice aforesaid hath declared, or hereafter shall declare to the other bishops by his writing under seal, as heretofore hath been accustomed, to be omitted or changed; no man hereafter be imprisoned nor otherwise punished, but all such things to be reputed for the observation, and following of the same, as though they were commanded by his majesty's injunctions. And to the intent, that rash and seditious preachers should not abuse his highness people, it is his majesty's pleasure, that whosoever shall take upon him to preach openly in any parish church, chapel, or any other open place other than those, which be licensed by the king's majesty, or his highness visitors, the archbishop of Canterbury, or the bishops of the dioceses, where he do preach, except he be the bishop, parson, vicar, dean, warden, or provost, in his or their own cure, shall be forthwith, upon such attempt and preaching contrary to this proclamation, committed to prison, and there remain until such time as his majesty, by the advice aforesaid, hath taken order for the further punishment of the same. And that the premisses should be more speedily and diligently done and performed, his highness giveth straitly in commandment to all justices of peace, mayors, sheriffs, constables, headboroughs, church wardens, and all other his majesties officers and ministers and rulers of towns, parishes, and hamlets, that they be diligent and attendant to the true and faithful execution of this proclamation, and every part thereof, according to the intent, purport and effect of the same. And that they of their proceedings herein, or if any offender be, after they have committed the same to prison, do certify his highness, the lord protector, or his majesty's council with all speed thereof, accordingly as they tender his majesty's pleasure, the wealth of the realm, and will answer to the contrary at their utmost perils.

God save the king.
The

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.Anno Christi
1547.Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London against candles, and aske, and palmes in churches. Ex reg. Bonn. fol. 110.

THIS is to advertise your lordship, that my lord protector's grace, with advice of others the king's majesty's council, for certain considerations them thereunto moving, hath fully resolved, that no candles should be boren upon candlemasday, nor also from henceforth ashes or palmes used any longer. Wherefore I beseech your lordship to cause admonition thereof to be given in all parish churches throughout your diocese with all celerity: and likewise unto all other bishops, that be hereabouts, that they may do the semblable in their dioceses before candlemasday. And as for other bishops, that cannot have knowledge so soon, you may give them knowledge hereof at more leisure, so that it be done before ashwednesday. Thus fare your lordship well, your loving friend,

T. CANTUAR.

Lambeth Jan. 27. 1547.

Mandatum ad amovendas et delendas imagines. Ex reg. Cranmer fol. 32. a.

THOMAS permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, per illustrissimum in Christo principem, et dominum nostrum dominum Edwardum sextum Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regem, fidei defensorem, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, sufficienter et legitime auctorizatus; venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo eadem permissione Londoniensi episcopo, vestro vicario in spiritualibus generali et officiali principali, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Literas missivas clarissimorum et prudentissimorum dominorum de privato consilio suae regiae majestatis manibus subscriptas, nobis inscriptas et directas nuper recepimus, tenorem subsequentem complectentes.

After our right hartye recommendations to your good lordship; where now of late in the king's majestie's visitation, amonge other godlye injunctions commaunded to be generally observed throughe all partes of this his highnes realme, one wes set forth, for the taking downe of all suche images, as had at any tyme ben abused with pilgrimages, offeringes or censinges; albeit that this said injunction hathe in many partes of the realme ben wel and quyetye obeyed and executed, yet in many other places muche stryfe and contentyon hath rysen and dayly ryseth, and more and more encreaseth, about the execution of the same, some men being so superstytious or rather wylfull, as they wold by theyr good wylls retayne all suche images styll, although they have been mooste manifestlye abused, and in some places also the images whiche by the saide injunctions were taken downe, be now restored and set up againe, and almoste in every place ys contentyon for images, whether they have been abused or not; and whiles these men go about on both sides contentiouslye to obtaine theyr mindes, contending whether this or that image hath been offered unto, kyssed, censed, or otherwyse abused, parties have in some places ben taken in suche sorte, as further inconvenyence is very like to ensue, yf remedie be not provided in tyme:

considering therefore that almost in no places of this realme ys any fure quyetness, but where all images be hoolly taken away and pulled downe already, to the intent that all contentyon in everye parte of this realme for this matter may be clerely taken away, and that the lyvely images of Chryste shulde not contende for the deade images, whiche be things not necessary, and without whiche the churches of Christ continued most godlye many yeres. We have thought good to signify unto you, that his highnes pleasure with th' advyse and consent of us the lord protectour and the reste of the counsell ys, that immediately upon the sight herof, with as convenyent diligence as you maye, you shall not onelye gyve ordre, that all the images remayninge in any churche or chappell within your diocese be removed and taken away, but also by your letters signifye unto the reste of the bishoppes within your provynce his highnesse pleasure for the lyke order to be gyven by them and every of them, within their severall dioceses; and in th' execution therof we requyre bothe you and the reste of the bishoppes foresayd, to use suche foresight as the same may be quyetye donne with as good satisfaction of the people as may be. Thus fare your goode lordeshippe well. From Somersett place the twenty first of February 1547. Your lordshipp's assured frendes, E. Somersett, Jo. Russell, Henricus Arundell, T. Seymour, Anthony Wyngesfelde, William Pagett. Quibus quidem literis pro nostro erga suam regiam majestatem officio, uti decet, obtemperare summo opere cupientes, vestrae fraternitati tenore praesentium committimus et regiae majestatis vice et nomine, quibus in hac parte fungimur, mandamus, quatenus attento diligenter literarum hujuscemodi tenore, omnibus et singulis confratribus coepiscopis nostris, et ecclesiae nostrae Christi Cantuariensis suffraganeis, cum ea qua poteritis celeritate accommoda praecipiat, ut ipsorum singuli in suis cathedralibus, nec non civitatum et dioecesum suarum parochialium ecclesiis, exposito publice literarum hujuscemodi tenore, omnia et singula in literis praefertis comprehensa, deducta et descripta, quatenus quatenus eos concernunt, in omnibus et per omnia exequi et perimpleri, sedulo et accurate curent et fieri non postponant, sicque a vobis, frater charissime, in civitate et dioecesi vestris London, per omnia fieri et perimpleri volumus et mandamus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth the vigesimo quarto die mensis Februarii, anno Domini juxta computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae 1547. Et nostrae consecrationis anno * 15.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1547.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

Articles to be enquired of in the visitations to be had within the diocese of Canterbury, in the second year of the reign of our dread sovereign lord Edward the sixth, by the grace of God king of England, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, and in earth of the church of England and also of Ireland, the supreme head.

FIRST, Whether parsons, vicars and curates, and every of them have purely and sincerely, without colour or dissimulation, four times in the year at the least, preached against the usurped power, pretended authority, and jurisdiction of the bishop of Rome.

Item, Whether they have preached and declared likewise four times in the year at the least, that the king's majesty's power, authority and preeminence, within his realms and dominions, is the highest power under God.

Item, Whether any person hath by writing, cyphering, preaching, or teaching, deed or act obstinately holden, and stand with to extol, set forth, maintain or defend the authority, jurisdiction, or power of the bishop of Rome, or of his see heretofore claimed and usurped, or by any pretense, obstinately or maliciously, invented any thing for the extolling of the same, or any part thereof.

Item, Whether in their common prayers they use not the collects made for the king, and make not special mention of his majesty's name in the same.

Item, Whether they do not every Sunday and holy day, with the collects of the English procession, say the prayer set forth by the king's majesty for peace between England and Scotland.

Item, Whether they have not removed, taken away and utterly extincted and destroyed in their churches, chappels, and houses, all images, all shrines, coverings of shrines, all tables, candlesticks, trindles, or rolls of wax, pictures, paintings, and all other monuments of feigned miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, and superstition, so that there remain no memory of the same in walls, glass windows, or elsewhere.

Item, Whether they have exhorted, moved and stirred their parishioners to do the like in every of their houses.

Item, Whether they have declared to their parishioners the articles concerning the abrogation of certain superfluous holy days, and done their endeavour to persuade the said parishioners to keep and observe the same articles inviolably; and whether any of those abrogate days have been kept as holy days, and by whose occasion they were so kept.

Item, Whether they have diligently, duly, and reverently ministred the sacraments in their cures.

Item, Whether they have preached, or caused to be preached purely and sincerely the word of God, in every of their cures, every quarter of the year, once at the least, exhorting their parishioners to works commanded by the scripture, and not to works devised by mens phantasies besides scripture, as wearing or praying upon beads, or such like.

Item, Whether they suffer any torches, candles, tapers, or any other lights to be in your churches, but only two lights upon the high altar.

Item, Whether they have not every holy day, when they have no sermon, immediately after the gospel, openly, plainly and distinctly, recited to the parishioners in the pulpit, the "Pater noster," the creed, and the ten commandments in English.

Item, Whether every Lent they examine such persons as come to confession to them, whether they can recite the "Pater noster," the articles of our faith, and the ten commandments in English.

Item, Whether they have charged fathers and mothers, masters and governors of youth, to bring them up in some virtuous study and occupation.

Item, Whether such beneficed men, as be lawfully absent from their benefices, do leave their cure to a rude and unlearned person, and not an honest, well learned and expert curate, which can and will teach you wholsom doctrine.

Item, Whether in every cure they have, they have provided one book of the whole bible of the largest volume in English, and the paraphrasis of Erasmus also in English upon the gospels, and set up the same in some convenient place in the church, where their parishioners may most commodiously resort to the same.

Item, Whether they have discouraged any person from reading of any part of the bible, either in Latin or in English, but rather comforted and exhorted every person to read the same, as the very lively word of God, and the special food of mans soul.

Item, Whether parsons, vicars, curates, and other

other priests, be common haunters and resorters to taverns or alehouses, giving themselves to drinking, rioting or playing at unlawful games, and do not occupy themselves in the reading or hearing of some part of holy scripture, or in some other godly exercise.

Item, Whether they have admitted any man to preach in their cures, not being lawfully licensed thereunto, or have refused or denied such to preach, as have been licensed accordingly.

Item, Whether they which have heretofore declared to their parishioners, any thing to the extolling or setting forth of pilgrimages, relicks or images, or lighting of candles, kissing, kneeling, decking of the same images, or any such superstition, have not openly recanted and re-proved the same.

Item, Whether they have one book or register safely kept, wherein they write the day of every wedding, christning and burying.

Item, Whether they have exhorted the people to obedience to the king's majesty and his ministers, and to charity and love one to another.

Item, Whether they have admonished their parishioners, that they ought not to presume to receive the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, before they can perfectly rehearse the "Pater noster," the articles of the faith, and the ten commandments in English.

Item, Whether they have declared, and to their wits and power have persuaded the people, that the manner and kind of fasting in lent, and other days in the year, is but a meer positive law, and that therefore all persons, having just cause of sickness, or other necessity, or being licensed by the king's majesty, may moderately eat all kind of meats without grudge or scruple of conscience.

Item, Whether they be resident upon their benefices, and keep hospitality or no; and if they be absent, or keep no hospitality, whether they do make due distributions among the poor parishioners or not.

Item, Whether parsons, vicars, clerks, and other beneficed men, having yearly to dispend an hundred pound, do not find competently one scholar in the university of Cambridge or Oxford, or some grammar school, and for as many hundred pounds as every of them may dispend, so many scholars likewise to be found by them, and what be their names that they so find.

Item, Whether proprietaries, parsons, vicars and clerks, having churches, chappels or man-sions, do keep their chancels, rectories, vicarages, and all other houses appertaining to them in due reparations.

Item, Whether they have counselled or moved their parishioners, rather to pray in a tongue not known, than in English, or to put their trust in a prescribed number of prayers, as in saying over a number of beads, or other like.

Item, Whether they have read the king's majesty's injunctions every quarter of the year, the first holy day of the same quarter.

Item, Whether the parsons, vicars, curates, and other priests being under the degree of a batchelor of divinity, have of their own the new testament both in Latin and English, and the paraphrase of Erasmus upon the same.

Item, Whether within every church he that ministreth hath read or cause to be read the epistle and gospel in English, and not in Latin, either in the pulpit or some other meet place, so as the people may hear the same.

Item, Whether every funday and holy day at matins they have read or cause to be read, plainly and distinctly in the said place, one chapter of the new testament in English, immediately after the lessons, and at even song after "magnificat," one chapter of the old testament.

Item, Whether they have not at matins omitted three lessons when nine should have been read in the church, and at even song the responds with all the memories.

Item, Whether they have declared to their parishioners, that saint Marks day, and the evens of the abrogate holy days should not be fasted.

Item, Whether they have the procession book in English, and have said or sung the said litany in any other place but upon their knees in the midst of their church; and whether they use any other procession, or omit the said litany at any time, or say it or sing it in such sort, as the people cannot understand the same.

Item, Whether they have put out of their church books this word "papa," and the name and service of Thomas Becket, and prayers having rubricks, containing pardons or indulgences, and all other superstitious legends and prayers.

Item, Whether they bid not the beads according to the order appointed by the king's majesty.

Item, Whether they have opened and declared unto you the true use of ceremonies (that is to say) that they be no workers nor works of salvation, but only outward signs and tokens, to put us in remembrance of things of higher perfection.

Item, Whether they have taught and declared to their parishioners, that they may with a safe and quiet conscience in the time of harvest, labour upon the holy and festival days, and if superstitiously they abstain from working upon those days, that then they do grievously offend and displease God.

Item, Whether they have admitted any persons to the communion, being openly known to be out of charity with their neighbors.

Item, whether the deans, archdeacons, masters of hospitals, and prebendaries, have preached by themselves personally twice every year at the least.

Item, Whether they have provided, and have a strong chest for the poor mens box, and set and fastened the same near to their high altar.

Item, Whether they have diligently called upon, exhorted and moved their parishioners, and specially when they make their testaments, to give to the said poor mens box, and to bestow that upon the poor chest, which they were wont to bestow upon pardons, pilgrimages, trentals, trentals, masses satisfactory, decking of images, offering of candles, giving to friers, and upon other like blind devotions.

Item, Whether they have denied to visit the sick, or bury the dead being brought to the church.

Item, Whether they have bought their benefices, or come to them by fraud or deceit.

Item, Whether they have every Sunday, when the people be most gathered, read one of the homilies, in order as they stand in the book, set forth by the king's majesty.

Item, Whether they do not omit prime and hours, when they have any sermon or homily.

Item, Whether they have said or sung any mass, in any oratory, chappel, or any man's house, not being hallowed.

Item, Whether they have given open monition to their parishioners that they should not wear beads, nor pray upon them.

Item, Whether they have moved their parishioners, lying upon their death beds, or at any other time, to bestow any part of their substance upon trentals, masses satisfactory, or any such blind devotions.

Item, Whether they take any trentals or other masses satisfactory to say or sing for the quick or the dead.

Item, Whether they have given open monition to their parishioners to detect and present to their ordinary all adulterers and fornicators, and such men as have two wives living, and such women as have two husbands living within their parishes.

Item, Whether they have not monished their parishioners openly, that they should not sell, give, nor otherwise alienate any of their churches goods.

Item, Whether they, or any of them do keep more benefices, and other ecclesiastical promotions than they ought to do, not having sufficient license and dispensations thereunto, and how many they be, and their names.

Item, Whether they minister the communion any other ways than only after such form and manner as is set forth by the king's majesty in the book of the communion.

Item, Whether they hallowed and delivered to the people any candles upon candlemasday, and ashes upon ashwednesday, or any palms upon palmsunday last past.

Item, Whether they had upon goodfriday last past, the sepulchres with their lights, having the sacrament therein.

Item, Whether they upon easter even last past hallowed the font, fire or paschal, or had any paschal set up, or burning in their churches.

Item, Whether your parsons and vicars have admitted any curates to serve their cures, which were not first examined and allowed either by my lord of Canterbury, master archdeacon, or their officers.

Item, Whether you know any person within your parish, or elsewhere, that is a letter of the word of God to be read in English, or sincerely preached, or of the execution of the king's majesty's injunctions, or other his majesty's proceedings in matters of religion.

VOL. IV.

Item, Whether every parish have provided a chest with two locks for the book of wedding, christning and burying.

Item, Whether in the time of the litany, or any other common prayer in the time of the sermon or homily, and when the priest readeth the scripture to the parishioners, any person have departed out of the church without a just and necessary cause.

Item, Whether any bells have been knowled or rung at the time of the premisses.

Item, Whether any person hath abused the ceremonies, as in casting holy water upon his bed, or bearing about him holy bread, St. John's gospel, ringing of holy bells, or keeping of private holy days, as taylor, bakers, brewers, smiths, shoemakers, and such other.

Item, Whether the money coming and rising of any cattle, or other moveable stocks of the church, and money given or bequeathed to the finding of torches, lights, tapers or lamps (not paid out of any lands) have not been employed to the poor mens chest.

Item, Who hath the said stocks and money in their hands, and what be their names.

Item, Whether any undiscreeet persons do uncharitably contemn and abuse priests and ministers of the church.

Item, Whether they that understand not the Latin do pray upon any primer, but the English primer, set forth by the king's majesty's authority; and whether they that understand Latin, do use any other than the Latin primer, set forth by like authority.

Item, Whether there be any other grammar taught in any other school within this diocese, than that which is set forth by the king's majesty.

Item, Whether any person keep their church holy day, and the dedication day, any otherwise, or at any other time than is appointed by the king's majesty.

Item, Whether the service in the church be done at due and convenient hours.

Item, Whether any have used to commune, jangle, and talk in the church in the time of the common-prayer, reading of the homily, preaching, reading or declaring of the scripture.

Item, Whether any have wilfully maintained and defended any heresies, errors or false opinions, contrary to the faith of Christ, and holy scripture.

Item, Whether any be common drunkards, swearers or blasphemers of the name of God.

Item, Whether any have committed adultery, fornication, or incest, or be common bawds, and receivers of such evil persons, or vehemently suspected of any of the premisses.

Item, Whether any be brawlers, slanderers, chiders, scolders, and sowers of discord between one person and another.

Item, Whether you know any that use charms, forcery, enchantments, witchcraft, soothsaying, or any like craft invented by the devil.

Item, Whether the churches, pulpits, and other

H

26 Articles to be enquired of in the diocese of CANTERBURY.

other necessities appertaining to the same, be sufficiently repaired.

Item, Whether you know any that in contempt of your own parish church, do resort to any other church.

Item, Whether any inholders or alehouse keepers do use commonly to sell meat and drink in the time of common prayer, preaching, or reading of the homilies, or scripture.

Item, Whether you know any to be married within the degrees prohibited by the laws of God, or that be separated or divorced without a just cause, allowed by the law of God, and whether any such have married again.

Item, Whether you know any to have made privy contracts of matrimony, not calling two or more thereunto.

Item, Whether they have married solemnly, the banns not first lawfully asked.

Item, Whether you know any executors or administrators of dead mens goods, which do not bestow such of the said goods, as were given and bequeathed, or appointed to be distributed among the poor people, repairing of high ways, finding of poor scholars, or marrying of poor maids, or such other like charitable deeds.

Item, Whether any do contemn married priests, and for that they be married, will not receive the communion or other sacraments at their hands.

Item, Whether you know any that keep in their houses undefaced, any abused or feigned images, any tables, pictures, paintings, or other monuments of feigned miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, or superstition.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1547.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

Convocatio Eboracensis.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Ebor. auctoritate brevis regii dat. Westm. 22. die Augusti, ad diem sabbati, viz. quintum mensis Novembris in ecclesia metropolitana Ebor. comparens per aliud breve ad 23 diem ejusdem mensis, inde ad 20 diem Januarii sequent. prorogata fuit. Habet hoc reg. dec. et cap. Ebor. fol. 42. b. et reg. archiep. Ebor. In registro decani et capituli Ebor. fol. 46. sequ. adduntur injuncti-ones decano et cap. Ebor. a commissariis regiis directae.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1548.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

Convocatio Cantuariensis. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 12.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cant. ad xxi. diem mensis Aprilis prorogata, ab eo sine die prorogabatur: tandem xv.

mensis Martii per aliud breve ad quartum diem mensis Novembris continuabatur.

In provincia Eboracensi convocatio

PRÆLATORUM et cleri ad xxi. diem mensis Aprilis prorogata, ab eo die in sextum diem Octobris seq. continuabatur; testante reg. Ebor.

A letter from the lords of counseil for prayers on sundays and holy days. Ex reg. Cranm. fol. 25. b.

AFTER our hartie commendations to youre goodde lordeshippe; hearinge tell of greate preparation made of forayne princes, and otherwyse being inforced for the procurement and continuance of peace to make preparation for warre, for so moche, as all power and aide vailable comithe of Godde, the which he graunte the as he hath promised by his holy worde, by nothinge so moche, as by hartie prayer of goode menne, the whiche is also of more efficacie made of an holie congregation togethir gathered in his holy name; therefore this is to will and require youe to gyve advertisement and commaundment to all the curates in your diocese, that everie fonday and holy day in there common prayer, they make devout and hartie intercession to almightie God for victorie and peace, and to th'entente that you sholde not be in doubte what sorte and manner therof we do lyke, we have sente unto youe one, the whiche we wolde that youe and they sholde followe, and rede it instede of one of the collectes of the king's majesties proceffion. Thus we praye youe not to fayle to do wythe all spede, and bid you farewell. From Westminster the sixth of May 1548. youre loving freinds, E. Somerset, R. Riche, can. W. Seint John, J. Russell, Thomas Cheyney.

To oure veray goode lord the archebishopp of Canterburie.

A let-

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1548.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

A letter sent to all those preachers which the king's majesty hath licensed to preach from the lord protectors grace, and other of the king's majesty's most honourable council, the 13th day of May, in the second year of the reign of our sovereign lord king Edward VI. Ex Burnet hist. reform. vol. 2. app. pag. 130.

AFTER our right hearty commendations, as well for the conservation of the quietness and good order of the king's majesty's subjects, as that they should not by evil and unlearned preachers be brought unto superstition, error, or evil doctrine, or otherwise be made stubborn and disobedient to the king's majesty's godly proceedings; his highness, by our advice, hath thought good to inhibit all manner of preachers, who have not such license as in the same proclamation is allowed, to preach or stir the people in open and common preachings of sermons, by any means, that the devout and godly homilies might the better in the mean while sink into his subjects hearts, and be learned the sooner, the people not being tossed to and fro with seditious and contentious preaching, while every man according to his zeal, some better, some worse, goeth about to set out his own phantasie, and to draw the people to his opinion. Nevertheless it is not his majesty's mind, hereby clearly to extinct the lively teaching of the word of God by sermons made after such sort, as for the time the Holy Ghost shall put into the preachers mind; but that rash, contentious, hot and undiscreeet preachers should be stopped, and that they only, which be chosen and elect, be discreet and sober men, should occupy that place which was made for edification and not for destruction, for the honour of God and peace, and quietness of conscience, to be set forward, not for private glory to be advanced, to appease, to teach, to instruct the people with humility, and patience, not to make them contentious and proud, to instil into them their duty to their heads and rulers, obedience to laws and orders, appointed by the superiors, who have rule of God, nor that every man should run before their heads hath appointed them what to do, and that every man should chuse his own way in religion. The which thing yet being done of some men, and they being rather provoked thereto by certain preachers, than dehorted from it, it was necessary to set a stay therein. And yet forasmuch as we have a great confidence and trust in you, that you will not only preach truly and sincerely the word of God, but also will use circumspection and moderation in your preaching, and such godly wisdom, as shall be necessary and most convenient for the time and place, we have sent unto you the king's majesty's licence to preach, but yet with this exhortation and admonishment, that in no wise you do stir and provoke the people to any alteration or innovation, other than is already set forth by the king's majesty's injunctions, homilies, and proclamations; but contrariwise, that you do in all your sermons exhort men to that which is at this time more necessary, that is, to the emendation of their own lives, to the observance of the commandments of God, to humility, patience and obedience to their heads and rulers, comforting the weak and teaching them the right way, and to flee all old, erroneous superstitions, as the confidence in pardon, pilgrimages, beads, religious images, and other such of the bishop of Rome's traditions and superstitions, with his usurped power, the which thing be here in this realm most justly abolished; and straitly rebuking those, who of an arrogancy and proud hastiness will take upon them to run before they be sent, to go before the rulers, to alter and change things in religion without authority, teaching them to expect and tarry the time which God hath ordained to the revealing of all truth, and not to seek so long blindly and hidlings after it, till they bring all orders into contempt. It is not a private man's duty to alter ceremonies, to innovate orders in the church, nor yet it is not a preacher's part to bring that into contempt and hatred, which the prince doth either allow or is content to suffer. The king's highness by our advice, as a prince most earnestly given to the true knowledge of God, and to bring up his people therein, doth not cease to labour and travail by all godly means, that his realm might be brought and kept in a most godly and christian order, who only may and ought to do it; why should a private man or a preacher take this royal and kingly office upon him, and not rather, as his duty is, obediently follow himself, and teach likewise others to follow and observe that which is commanded? What is abolished, taken away, reformed and commanded it is easy to see by the acts of parliament, the injunctions, proclamations, and homilies; the which things most earnestly it behoveth all preachers in their sermons to confirm, and approve accordingly; in other things, which be not yet touched, it behoveth him to think, that either the prince did allow them, or else suffer them, and in those it is the part of a godly man, not to think himself wiser than the king's majesty and his council, but patiently to expect and to conform himself thereto, and not to intermeddle further to the disturbance of a realm, the disquieting of the king's people, the troubling of mens consciences, and disorder of the king's subjects.

These things we have thought good to admonish you of at this time, because we think you will set the same so forward in your preaching, and so instruct the king's majesty's people according to the most advancement of the glory of God,

God, and the king's majesty's most godly proceedings, that we do not doubt but much profit shall ensue thereby, and great conformity in the people, the which you do instruct, and so we pray you not to fail to do, and having a special regard to the weakness of the people, what they may bear and what is most convenient for the time, in no case to intermeddle in your sermons, or otherwise, with matters in contention or controversion, except it be to reduce the people in them also to obedience, and following of such orders, as the king's majesty hath already set forth, and no other, as the king's majesty's and our trust is in you, and as you tender his highness will and pleasure, and will answer to the contrary at your peril.

Fare you well.

June 1. 1548.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.

Anno Christi
1548.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

The protectors letter to Gardener concerning the points he was to handle in his sermon. Ex MS. coll. Corp. Chr. Cantab. apud Burnet. l. c. p. 154.

WE commend us unto you; we sent to you yesterday, our servant William Cecil to signify unto you our pleasure and advice, that you should in this your next sermon forbear to entreat upon those principal questions, which remain among the number of learned men in this realm as yet in controversy, concerning the sacrament of the altar and the mass, as well for that private argument or determination therein might offend the people, naturally expecting decisions of litigious causes, and thereby discord and tumult arise, the occasions whereof we must necessarily prevent and take away, as also for that the questions and controversies rest at this present in consultation, and with the pleasure of God shall be in small time by publick doctrine and authority quietly and truly determined. This message we send to you, not thinking but your own wisdom had considered so much in an apparent matter or at the least upon our remembrance, ye would understand it and follow it with good will, consulting thereby your own quiet, in avoiding offence, as observing our pleasure in avoiding contention. Your answer thereunto our said servant hath declared unto us in this manner. Ye can no wise forbear to speak of the sacrament, neither of the mass; this last being the chief foundation, as ye say, of our religion, and that without it we cannot know, that Christ is our sacrifice; the other being so spoken of by many, that if you should not speak your mind thereof, what ye think, you know what other men would think of you; in the end concluding generally, that you will speak the truth, and that ye doubt not, but that we shall be therewith content, adding also, as our said servant reporteth unto us, that you would not wish, that we our selves should meddle or have to do in these matters of religion, but that the care thereof were committed to you the bishops, unto whom the blame, if any should be deserved, might well be imputed. To this your answer, if so it be, we reply very shortly, signifying unto you our express pleasure and commandment, on our sovereign lord the king's majesty's behalf; charging you by the authority of the same, to abstain in your said sermon, from treating of any matter in controversy, concerning the said sacrament, and the mass; and only to bestow your speech in the expert explication of the articles prescribed unto you; and in other wholesome matters of obedience of the people and good conversation and living; the same matters being both large enough for a long sermon, and not unnecessary for the time. And the treaty of other, which we forbid you not meet in your private sermon to be had, but necessarily reserved for a publick consultation, and at this present utterly to be forbore for the common quiet.

This our express pleasure, wherein we know how reasonably we may command you, and you (we think) know how willingly ye ought to obey us: for our intermeddling with these causes of religion, understand you, that we account it no small part of our charge, under the king's majesty to bring his people from ignorance to knowledge, and from superstition to true religion; esteeming that the chief foundation to build obedience upon, and where there is a full consent of others the bishops and learned men, in a truth not to suffer you or a few other, with wilful headiness to dissuade all the rest. And although we presume not to determine articles of religion by our selves, yet from God we knowledge it, we be desirous to defend and advance the truth, determined or revealed, and so consequently we will not fail, but withstand the disturbers thereof. So fare you well.

From Sion, June 28, anno 1548.

Your loving friend
E. SOMERSET.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.Anno Christi
1548.Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.

Injunctions given by the king's majesty's visitors to all and every the clergy and laity now resident within the deanry of Duncastre. Ex MS. Johnson apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. 2. app. pag. 126.

You shall not hereafter in the pulpit, or else where, on the Sunday or any other day, give knowledge to your parishioners, when or what day in the week any of the abrogate holy days were solemnized or kept in the church, but omit the same with silence, as other working days for the utter abolishing of the remembrance thereof.

Item, You shall teach your parishioners, that fasting in the lent and other days is a meer positive, that is to say, man's law, and by the magistrates upon considerations may be altered, changed, and dispensed with; and that therefore all persons having just cause of sickness or other necessity, or being licensed thereto, may temperately eat all kinds of meats without scruple or grudge of conscience.

Item, You shall every day, that an high mass is said or sung at the high altar, before the same mass read openly in your churches, the English suffrages, for the preservation and safeguard of the king's majesty's people, and prosperous success of his affairs.

Item, You shall every Sunday, at the time of your going about the church with holy water, into three or four places, where most audience and assembly of people is, for the declaration of the ceremonies, say distinctly and plainly, that your parishioners may well hear and perceive the same, these words: "remember Christ's blood shedding, by the which most holy sprinkling of all your sins you have free pardon." And in like manner before the dealing of the holy bread these words: "of Christ's body this is a token, which on the cross for our sins was broken; wherefore of his death if you will be partakers, of vice and sin you must be forsakers." And the clerk in the like manner shall bring down the paxe, and standing without the church door, shall say boldly to the people these words: "this is a token of joyful peace, which is betwixt God and mens conscience; Christ alone is the peace maker, which straitly commands peace between brother and brother." And so long as ye use these ceremonies, so long shall ye use these significations.

Item, The church wardens of every parish church shall some one Sunday, or other festival day, every month, go about the church and make request to every of the parish for their charitable contributions to the poor, and the sum so collected, shall be put in the chest of alms, for that purpose provided; and for as much as the parish clerk shall not hereafter go about the parish with his holy water, as hath been accustomed, he shall instead of that labour accompany the said church wardens, and in a book register the name and sum of every man that giveth any thing to the poor, and the same shall intable, and against the next day of collection shall hang up some where in the church, in open place, to the intent the poor having knowledge thereby, by whose charity and alms they be relieved, may pray for the increase and prosperity of the same.

Item, The church wardens for the better relief of honest poverty, shall upon sufficient surety found for the repayment of the same, lend to some young married couple, or some poor inhabitants of the parish, some part of the said alms, whereby they may buy some kind of stuff; by the working, sale, and gains whereof, they may repay the sum borrowed, and also well relieve themselves; or else the said church wardens to buy the stuff themselves and pay the poor for the working thereof, and after sale of the same, to return the sum with the gain to the said chest, there to remain to such like use.

Item, Forasmuch as heretofore you have not by any means, diligence or study advanced yourselves unto knowledge in God's word, and his scriptures, condignly as appertaineth to priests and dispensators of God's testament; to the intent you may hereafter be of better ability to discharge your selves towards God and your offices to the world, you shall daily for your own study and knowledge, read over diligently and weigh with judgment two chapters of the new testament, and one of the old in English, and the same shall put in ure and practice, as well in living as preaching, at times convenient, when occasion is given.

Item, Forasmuch as drunkenness, idleness, brawls, dissention, and many other inconveniences do chance between neighbor and neighbor, by the assembly of people together at wakes, and on the plough mundays; it is therefore ordered and enjoined, that hereafter the people shall use, make, or observe no more such wakes, plough mundays, or drawing of the same with any such assembly or rout of people, or otherwise, as hath been accustomed, upon pain of forfeiting to the king's highness forty shillings for every default, to be paid by the owner of the plough and householder, whereunto the said plough is drawn, or wakes are kept.

The names of the visitors,

Sir JOHN MARKHAM,	ROGER TONGUE,
JOHN HEARN,	WILL. MORETON,
THO. GARGRAVE,	EDM. FARELY.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 14.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 16.Anno Christi
1548.Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 2.A proclamation for the inhibition of all preachers; the second of Edward the sixth,
Sept. 23. Ex Fuller ch. hist. lib. 7. pag. 388.

WHEREAS of late by reason of certain controversial and seditious preachers, the king's majesty moved of tender zeal and love, which he hath to the quiet of the subjects, by the advice of the lord protector, and other his highness council, hath by proclamation inhibited and commanded, that no manner of person, except such as was licensed by his highness, the lord protector, or by the archbishop of Canterbury, should take upon him to preach, in any open audience, upon pain in the said proclamation contained, and that upon hope and assurance, that those being chosen and elect men should preach and set forth only to the people such things, as should be to God's honour, and the benefit of the king's majesty's subjects; yet nevertheless his highness is advertised, that certain of the said preachers so licensed not regarding such good admonitions, as have been by the lord protector and the rest of the council on his majesty's behalf by letters or otherwise given unto them, have abused the said authority of preaching, and behaved themselves irreverently, and without good order in the said preachings, contrary to such good instructions and advertisements, as were given unto them, whereby much contention and disorder might rise and ensue in this his majesty's realm: wherefore his highness minding to see very shortly one uniform order throughout this his realm, and to put an end to all controversies in religion, so far as God should give grace (for which cause at this time certain bishops and notable learned men, by his highness commandment, are congregated) hath by the advice aforesaid, thought good, although certain and many of the said preachers so before licensed, have behaved themselves very discreetly and wisely, and to the honour of God and to his highness contentation; yet at this present and until such time as the said order shall be set forth generally, throughout his majesty's realm, to inhibit and by these presents do inhibit generally as well the said preachers, so before licensed, as all manner of persons whosoever they be, to preach in open audience, in the pulpit or otherwise, by any sought colour or fraud, to the disobeying of this commandment, to the intent, that the whole clergy in this mean space might apply themselves to prayer to almighty God for the better achieving of the same most godly intent and purpose, not doubting but that also his loving subjects in the mean time will occupy themselves to God's honour, with due prayer in the church, and patient hearing of the godly homilies, heretofore set forth by his highness injunctions unto them, and so endeavour themselves that they may be the more ready with thankful obedience to receive a most quiet, godly and uniform order to be had throughout all his said realms and dominions; and therefore hath willed all his loving officers and ministers, as well justices of peace, as mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, or any other his officers, of what estate, degree, or condition soever they be, to be attendant upon this proclamation, and commandment, and to see the infringers or breakers thereof to be imprisoned, and his highness or the lord protector's grace, or his majesty's council to be certified thereof immediately, as they tender his majesty's pleasure, and will answer to the contrary at their peril.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.Anno Christi
1548.Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.Bishop Bonner's letter by command from the archbishop of Cant. to the bishops of the province of Cant. for abolishing the ceremonies of candles, ashes and palms. Ex Fox. pr. edit. fol. 689.

My very good lord.

AFTER my most hearty commendations, these are to advertise your good lordship, that the lord of Cant. grace this present 28th of Jan. sent unto me his letters missive, containing this in effect. That my lord protector's grace with advice of other the king's majesty's honourable privy council (for certain considerations them moving) are fully resolved that no candles shall be born upon candlemas day, nor also from henceforth ashes or palms used any longer; requiring me thereupon by his said letters to cause admonition and knowledge thereof to be given unto your lordship and other bishops with celerity accordingly. In consideration whereof I do send at this present these said letters to your good lordship, that you thereupon may give knowledge and advertisement thereof within your diocese, as appertaineth. Thus committing your good lordship to almighty God, as well to fare as your good heart can best desire.

Written in haste at my house in London, the said 28th of January, 1548.

Letter about an inventory for church goods.

31

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi
1548.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

Letter about an inventory for church goods, Feb. 15th, 1548.

AFTER our most hearty commendations. Where the king's majesty hath been advertised, that a great number of his majesty's subjects, forgetting their bounden duties of obedience, have presumed contrary to his highness most dread commandments, to alien and sell away both the vestments, plate, jewels and ornaments, and in many places the bells and lead also of their churches and chapels, applying the money thereof either to their own uses, or to such other private uses as themselves listed; by occasion whereof much contention and variance hath and daily doth grow and arise in sundry places, among his majesty's loving subjects: his highness minding to have a speedy order and stay set herein in all places of his majesties dominions, hath by the advice and consent of us the lord protector and council, appointed you all joyntly and severally to be his majesty's commissioners within the county ——— for this purpose; for the better doing whereof his majesty's pleasure is, that assembling your selves together in some convenient place, within the said shire, and considering well the effect of these our letters, you do even thence out of hand take order for your division into such several hundred parts and quarters of the shire, as both for your own commodities and the speedier executing of the charge now committed to you, shall be thought most meet; and being divided you shall severally every number of you according to your allotments, call before you the parson or vicar, if he be resident, or else the curate and church wardens with three or four other of the discreetest and most substantial men of every parish within the circuit appointed unto you, and making a true and perfect inventory of all manner of vestments, ornaments, plate, jewels, and bells, belonging to every church, or chapel within your several precincts, you shall leave in every the said parishes one inventory so made, subscribed both with the hands of the commissioners for that part of the shire, and also with the hands of the said parsons, vicars, or in their absence, with the curates, church wardens, and other the honest men of every parish, as afore, and one other-like inventory subscribed, as before, to leave in the keeping of the "custos rotulorum" of the shire, after the making of such inventory. His grace's further pleasure is, that you shall give in charge, on his highness behalf, to the said parsons, curate, and parishioners of every such church, that they presume not to alien, sell, or otherwise put away or give their assent to any such sale, alienation, or putting away of any of the said vestments, plate, jewels, bells, or other ornaments in any wise, but to see that the same be safely kept and preserved, as they will answer for the contrary at their utmost perils. And in case either any of them or any other of the parishioners of any such parish, shall after knowledge of his majesty's pleasure in this behalf, attempt any sale, gift, or alienation of any of the premises, that in that case the said parson, curate, church wardens and other honest men to give notice thereof, to such of you the justices of the peace, as dwell near the said parish; upon complaint or knowledge whereof by any other means, his majesty's pleasure is, that you the said justices, and every of you, shall take undelayed order for the stay of any such sale or alienation, and commit the chief attemptors thereof to prison for such time, as you shall think convenient. And for such plate, jewels, ornaments, bells, or lead as have been alienated contrary to his majesty's said commandments at any time, within one year before the date hereof (except the said alienation was made by the common consent of the parish, and the money thereof applyed to any common good use by the like assent) his majesty's pleasure is, you shall cause the said goods, plate, bells, &c. or the just value thereof, to be restored, and such as shall refuse to abide your order therein, to signify their names unto us, whereupon we shall give such further order, as shall appertain. And for your better instruction herein you may require of the bishops officers a copy of the inventories heretofore made for every parish in that shire. Finally his majesty's pleasure is, that after making the said inventories you shall make one short extract or abridgement only of the plate, and bells of every parish, and the same gathered together for that whole shire, send unto us with a further declaration of your doings in this behalf.

Letter missive from the council to the bishops of the realm, concerning the communion to be ministred in both kinds. Ex 2. Fox. p. 659.

AFTER our most hearty commendations unto your lordship. Where in the parliament late holden at Westminster it was amongst other things most godly established, that according to the first institution and use of the primitive church, the most holy sacrament of the body and blood of our saviour Jesus Christ, should be distributed to the people under the kinds of bread and wine; according to the effect whereof the king's majesty minding with the advice and consent of the lord protector's grace, and the rest of the council, to have the said statute well executed in such sort, or like as is agreeable with the word of God (so the same may be also faithfully and reverently received of his most loving subjects, to their comforts and wealth) wealth) hath caused sundry of his majesty's most grave and well learned prelates, and other learned men in the scripture, to assemble themselves for this matter, who after long conference together have with deliberate advice, finally agreed upon such an order to be used in all places of the king's majesty's dominions, in the distribution of the said most holy sacrament, as may appear to you by the book thereof, which we send herewith unto you; albeit knowing your lordships knowledge in the scriptures, and earnest good will and zeal to the setting forth of all things, according to the truth thereof, we be well assured you will of your own good will, and upon respect to your duty diligently set forth this most godly order here agreed upon, and commanded to be used by the authority of the king's majesty; yet remembring the crafty practice of the devil, who ceases not by his members to work by all ways and means the hindrance of all godliness; and considering furthermore, that a great number of the curates of the realm either for lack of knowlege cannot, or for want of good mind will not, be so ready to set forth the same, as we would wish, and as the importance of the matter and their own bounden duty requires, we have thought good to pray and require your lordship, and nevertheless in the king's majesty, our most dread lord's name, to command you to have an earnest diligence and careful respect both in your own person,

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

and by all your officers and ministers, also to cause these books to be delivered to every parson, vicar, and curate, within your diocese, with such diligence, as they may have sufficient time well to instruct and advise themselves, for the distribution of the most holy communion, according to the order of this book, before this Easter time, and that they may by your good means be well directed to use such good, gentle, and charitable instruction, of their simple and unlearned parishioners, as may be to all their good satisfactions, as much as may be; praying you to consider, that this order is set forth, to the intent there should be in all parts of this realm, and among all men, one uniform manner quietly used, the execution whereof like as it shall stand very much in the diligence of you and others of your vocation, so do we esteems require you to have a diligent respect thereunto, as ye tender the king's majesty's pleasure, and will answer for the contrary. And thus we bid your lordship right heartily farewell.

From Westm. the thirteenth of March, 1548.

Your lordship's loving friends,

THO. Canterbury,	ANTHONY WINGFIELD,
R. RICH,	WILLIAM PETRE,
WIL. SAINT JOHN,	EDWARD NORTH,
JOHN RUSSELL,	EDWARD WOOTON.
HENRY ARUNDELL,

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

Synodus Cantuariensis.

SYNODUS provincialis Cantuar. ad diem quartum mensis Novembris prorogata, ab eo die per breve regium ad tertium Februarii seq. et abinde ad xxii. diem Aprilis continuabatur. Reg. Cranmer fol. 12.

Articles to be followed and observed according to the king's majesty's injunctions and proceedings. Ex MS. Johnson apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. 2. app. p. 165.

1. THAT all parsons, vicars, and curates omit in the reading of the injunctions, all such as make mention of the popish mass, of chantries, of candles upon the altar, or any other such like thing.

2. Item, For an uniformity, that no minister do counterfeit the popish mass, as to kiss the Lord's table, washing his fingers at every time in the communion; blessing his eyes with the patten, or sudary; or crossing his head with the patten; shifting of the book from one place to another; laying down and licking the chalice of the communion; holding up his fingers, hands, or thumbs, joined towards his temples; breathing upon the bread or chalice; shewing the sacrament openly before the distribution of the communion; ringing or sacring bells; or setting any light upon the Lord's board at any time; and finally to use no other ceremonies than are appointed in the king's book of common prayers, or kneeling, otherwise than is in the said book.

3. Item, That none buy or sell the holy communion, as in trentals and such other.

4. Item, That none be suffered to pray upon beads, and so the people to be diligently admonished, and such as will not be admonished, to be put from the holy communion.

5. Item, That after the homily, every Sunday the minister exhort the people, especially the communicants, to remember the poor mens box, with their charity.

6. Item, To receive no corps, but at the church yard, without bell or cross.

7. Item, That the common prayer upon Wednesdays and Fridays be diligently kept, according to the king's ordinances, exhorting such as may conveniently come to be there.

8. Item, That the curates, every sixth week at the least, teach and declare diligently the catechism, according to the book of the same.

9. Item, That no man maintain purgatory, invoca-invocation of saints, the six articles, beadrolls, images, reliques, lights, holy bells, holy beads, holy water, palms, ashes, candles, sepulchres, paschal, creeping to the cross, hallowing of the font of the popish manner, oil, chrism, altars, beads, or any other such abuses, and superstitions, contrary to the king's majesty's proceedings.

10. Item, That within any church or chapel be not used any more than one communion, upon any day, except Christmasday and Easterday.

11. Item, That none keep the abrogate holy days other than those that have their proper and peculiar service.

12. Item, That the churchwardens suffer no buying or selling, gaming, or unfitting demeanour in church or churchyards, especially during the common prayer, the sermon, and reading of the homily.

13. Item, That going to the sick with the sacrament the minister have not with him either light or bells.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

Bishop Ridley's letter to the protector concerning the visitation of the university of Cambridge. Ex reg. Ridl. apud Burnet hist. ref. v. 2. app. p. 232.

Right honourable,

I Wish your grace the holy and wholesome fear of God, because I am persuaded your grace's goodness to be such unfeignedly, that even wherein your grace's letter doth fore blame me, yet in the same the advertisement of the truth shall not displease your grace; and also perceiving, that the cause of your grace's discontentation was wrong information, therefore I shall beseech your grace, to give me leave to shew your grace, wherein it appeareth to me, that your grace is wrong informed.

Your grace's letter blameth me, because I did not (at the first before the visitation began having knowledge of the matter) shew my mind; the truth is, before God, I never had nor could get any foreknowledge of the matter, of the uniting of the two colleges; before we had begun, and had entred two days in the visitation, and that your grace may plainly thus well perceive. A little before Easter, I being at Rochester, received letters from Mr. secretary Smith, and the dean of St. Pauls, to come to the visitation of of the university, and to make a sermon at the beginning thereof. Whereupon I sent immediately a servant up to London to the dean of Pauls, desiring of him to have had some knowledge of things, there to be done, because I thought it meet that my sermon should somewhat have favoured of the same.

From Mr. dean I received a letter instructing me only, that the cause of the visitation was, to abolish statutes and ordinances which maintained papistry, superstition, blindness, and ignorance, and to establish and set forth such as might further God's word, and good learning; and else the truth is, he would shew nothing, but bad me be careless, and said, there was informations, how all things were to be done; the which, I take God to be witness, I did never see, nor could get knowledge what they were, before we were entered in the visitation two days; although I desired to have seen them in the beginning.

Now when I had seen the instructions; the truth is, I thought peradventure the master and company would have surrendered up their college; but when their consent after labour and travail taken therein two days, could not be obtained, and then we begun secretly to consult (all the commissioners thinking it best, that every man should say his mind plainly, that in execution there might appear but one way to be taken of all) there, when it was seen to some, that without the consent of the present incumbents, by the king's absolute power, we might proceed to the uniting of the two colleges; I did in my course simply and plainly declare my conscience, and that there only secretly among our selves alone, with all kind of softness, so that no man could be justly offended. Also I perceive by your grace's letters I have been noted of some for my barking there, and yet to bark, lest God should be offended, I cannot deny; but indeed it is a part of my profession, for God's word condemneth the dumb dogs that will not bark, and give warning of God's displeasure: as for that that was suggested to your grace, that by my foresaid barking I should dishonour the king's majesty, and dissuade others from the execution of the king's commission; God is my judge, I intended according to my duty to God and the king, the maintenance and defence of his highness royal honour, and dignity; if that be true, that I believe is true, which the prophet saith, "honor regis judicium diligit," and as the commissioners must need, and I am sure will, all testify, that I dissuaded no man, but contrariwise exhorted every man (with the quiet of other) to satisfy their own conscience, desiring only that if it should otherwise be seen unto them, that I might either by my absence or silence satisfy mine. The which my plainness when some otherwise, than according to my expectation did take, I was moved thereupon (both for the good opinion I had and yet have in your grace's goodness, and also especially, because your grace had commanded me so to do) to open my mind by my private letters freely unto your grace. And thus I trust your grace perceiveth now, both that anon after knowledge had, I did utter my conscience, and also, that the matter was not opened unto me, before the visitation was two days begun. If in this I did amiss, that before the knowledge of the instructions I was ready to grant to the execution of the commission; truly I had rather therein acknowledge my fault, and submit my self to your

VOL. IV.

K

grace's

grace's correction, than after knowledge had then wittingly and willingly commit that thing, whereunto my conscience doth not agree for fear of God's displeasure.

It is a godly wish, that is wished in your grace's letters, that flesh and blood and country might not more weigh with some men, than godliness and reason; but the truth is, country in this matter (whatever some men do suggest unto your grace) shall not move me, and that your grace shall well perceive, for I shall be as ready as any other first thence to expell some of my own country, if the report, which is made of them, can be tried true.

And as for that your grace saith of flesh and blood, that is the favour or fear of mortal man, yea marry, Sir, that is a matter of weight indeed, and the truth is (alas my own feebleness) of that I am afraid, but I beseech your grace yet once again, give me good leave, wherein here I fear my own frailty to confess the truth.

Before God, there is no man this day (leaving the king's majesty for the honour only excepted) whose favour or displeasure I do either seek or fear, as your grace's favour or displeasure, for of God, both your grace's authority and my bound duty for your grace's benefits bind me so to do. So that if the desire of any man's favour or fear of displeasure should weigh more with me than godliness and reason; truly, if I may be bold to say the truth, I must needs say, that I am most in danger to offend herein, either for desire of your grace's favour, or for fear of your grace's displeasure; and yet I shall not cease (God willing) daily to pray God so to stay and strengthen my frailty with holy fear, that I do not commit the thing for favour or fear of any mortal man, whereby my conscience may threaten me with the loss of the favour of the living God, but that it may please him of his gracious goodness (how ever the world goes) to blow this in the ears of my heart: "Deus dissipavit ossa eorum, qui hominibus placuerint:" and this: "horrendum est incidere in manus Dei viventis:" and again: "nolite timere eos qui occidunt corpus." Wherefore I most heartily beseech your grace, for God's love, not to be offended with me, for renewing of this my suit unto your grace, which is that whereunto my conscience cannot well agree, if any such thing chance in this visitation, I may with your grace's favour have licence either by mine absence or silence, or other like means, to keep my conscience quiet. I wish your grace in God honour and endless felicity.

From Pembroke hall in Cambridge June 1, 1549.

Your grace's humble and dayly orator,

NICH. ROFFEN.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

The councils letter to bishop Bonner for reformation of certain masses at St. Pauls.
Ex Heylin hist. reform. p. 74, et vol. 2. Fox. p. 661. ed. 1641.

AFTER hearty commendations, having very credible notice that within that your cathedral church there be as yet the apostles mass, and our ladies mass, and other masses of such peculiar names under the defence and commendation of our ladies communion, and the apostles communion, used in private chapels, and other remote places of the same, and not in the chancel, contrary to the king's majesty's proceedings, the same being for the misuse displeasing to God, for the place Pauls in example not tolerable, for the fondness of the name a scorn to the reverence of the communion of the Lord's body and blood; we for the augmentation of God's honour and glory, and the consonance of his majesty's laws, and the avoiding of murmur, have thought good to will and command you, that from henceforth no such masses in this manner be in your church any longer used, but that the holy blessed communion, according to the act of parliament, be ministred at the high altar of the church, and in no other places of the same, and only at such time, as your high masses were wont to be used; except some number of people desire (for their necessary business) to have a communion in the morning, and yet the same to be executed at the chancel at the high altar, as it is appointed in the book of the publick service, without cautele or digression from the common order; and herein you shall not only satisfy our expectation of your conformity in all lawful things, but also avoid the murmur of sundry, that be therewith justly offended, and so we bid your lordship heartily farewell.

From Richmond the 24th of June 1549.

Your loving friends,

E. SOMERSET,
W. SAINT JOHN,
E. MONTAGUE,

R. RICH, Chanc.
FR. SHREWSBURY,
W. CECIL.

Bishop

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

Bishop of London's letter to the dean and chapter of St. Pauls about the receipt of a letter from the king's council. Ex vol. 2. Fox. p. 662. ed. 1641.

To my right worshipful friends and most loving good brethren master dean of Pauls, with all the canons residentiaries, prebendaries, subdeans, and ministers of the same and every of them with speed.

Right worshipful,

WITH most hearty commendations, so it is this wednesday the 26th of June going to dinner, I received letters from the king's council by a pursevant, and the same I do send now herewith unto you to the intent you may peruse them well, and proceed accordingly; praying you in case all be not present, yet those that be now resident and supplying the places, may in their absence call the company together of the church, and make declaration hereof unto them; thus committing you to God right well to fare, written with speed, this six and twentieth of June at one of the clock.

Your loving brother,

EDM. LONDON.

Another letter directed by the king and his council to Bonner, bishop of London; partly rebuking him of negligence, partly charging him to see to the better setting out of the service book within his diocese. Ex vol. 2. Fox. p. 663.

RIGHT reverend father in God, right trusty and well beloved, we greet you well; and whereas after great and serious debating and long conference of the bishops and other grave and well learned men in the holy scripture, one uniform order for common prayers and administration of the sacraments hath been, and is most godly set forth, not only by the common agreement and full assent of the nobility and commons of the late session of our late parliament, but also by the like assent of the bishops in the said parliament, and of all other the learned men of this our realm in their synods and convocations provincial, like as it was much to our comfort to understand the godly travail then diligently and willingly taken for the true opening of things mentioned in the said book, whereby the true service and honour of almighty God and the right ministration of the sacraments being well and sincerely set forth, according to the scriptures and use of the primitive church, much idolatry, vain superstition, and great and slanderous abuses be taken away: so it is no small occasion of sorrow unto us to understand by the complaints of many, that our said book so much travelled for, and also sincerely set forth (as is afore said) remaineth in many places of this our realm either not known at all, or not used, or at the least, if it be used, very seldom, and that in such light and irreverent sort, as the people in many places either have heard nothing, or if they hear, they neither understand, nor have that spiritual delectation in the same, that to good christians appertaineth: the fault thereof like as we must of reason impute to you, and other of your vocation called by God, through our appointment to due respect to this and such like matters, so considering that by these and such like occasions, our loving subjects remain yet still in their blindness and superstitious errors, and in some places in as irreligious forgetfulness of God, whereby his wrath may be provoked upon us and them, and remembring withall, that amongst other cures committed to our princely charge, we think this the greatest, to see the glory and true service of him maintained and extolled, by whose clemency we knowlege our selves to have all that we have, we could not but by advice and consent of our dearest uncle Edward duke of Somerset, governor of our person, and protector of our realms, dominions, and subjects, and the rest of our privy council, admonish you of the premises. Wherein, as it hath been your office to have used an earnest diligence, and to have preferred the same in all places, within your diocese, as the case required, so have we thought good to pray and require you and netherless straitly to charge and command you, that from henceforth ye have an earnest and special regard to the reduce of these things, so as the curates may do their duties more often and in more reverend sort, and the people be occasioned by the good advices and examples of your self, your chancellors, archdeacons, and other inferior ministers, to come with oftner and more devotion to their said common prayers, to give thanks to God, and to be partakers of the most holy communion; wherein shewing your selves diligent and giving good example in your own person you shall both discharge your duty to the great pastor, to whom we all have to account, and also do us good service; and on the other side, if we shall hereafter (these our letters and commandment notwithstanding) hear oftsoons complaint, and find the like fault in your diocese, we shall have just cause to impute the fault thereof, and of all that ensueth thereof, unto you, and consequently be occasioned thereby to see otherwise to the redress of these things, whereof we would be sorry, and therefore fore we do eftfoons charge and command you, under our fignet at our mannor of Richmond upon your allegiance to look well upon your du- the 23d day of July, the third year of our ty herein, as ye tender our pleafure. Given reign, 1549.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi.
1549.

Reg. Angliae.
EDWARD. VI. 3.

A letter of bishop Bonner to the dean and chapter of St. Pauls about the king's letters sent to him. Ex vol. 2. Fox. p. 664.

EDMUND by the grace of God, &c. To my well beloved brethren, the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Pauls in London, and to the other ministers there, and every of them do fend greeting. And where it is so, that of late I have received the said sovereign lord the king's majesty's letters of such tenour as is hereunto annexed, and according to my most bounden duty am right well willing, and desiring, that the said letters should be in all points duely executed, and observed, according to the tenour and purport of the same, as appertaineth; these therefore are to require and also straitly to charge you, and every of you, on his majesties behalf, &c. that you do admonish and command or cause to be admonished and commanded all and singular parsons, vicars, and curates of your jurisdiction, to observe and accomplish the same from time to time accordingly; furthermore requiring and likewise charging you, and every of you, to make certificate herein to me, my chancellour, or other my officers in this behalf, with such convenient celerity as appertaineth, both of your proceedings in the execution hereof, and also the persons and names of all such as from henceforth shall be found negligent in doing their duties in the premises or any of them. Given at my house at Fulham the 25th of July 1549, &c.

Comissio regia Thomae archiepiscopo Cantuariensi et aliis ad examinandum materiam versus Edmundum episcopum London. Ex Rot. Pat. 3 Ed. VI. p. 111. m. 3. dor. apud Rymer foeder. vol. 5. p. 191.

EDWARD the syxte, &c. To the most reverend father in God Thomas archbishop of Canterbury, metropolitan and primate of all England, the right reverend father in God, Nicholas bishop of Rochester, our trusty and right well beloved counsellours, Syr William Petres, and Syr Thomas Smyth, knights, our two principal secretaries, and William May doctor of the law civil and dean of Paules gretynge. Yt ys come to our knowledge, that where we by the advyse of our most enterly beloved uncle, Edward duke of Somerset, governour of our person, and protectour of all our realmes, dominions and subjects, and the rest of our privy counsell, did give to the right reverend father in God Edmund Buffhoppe of London, upon certeyn complaints before made unto us, and other great considerations, certeyn injunctions to be followed, don and executed, and in sermon appoynted unto hym to preache by us, certeyn articles, and for more fuer knowledge keepyng and observyng dyd exhibite the same in writyng unto hym by the handes of our feid uncle, in the full fyttyng of our counsell; all this notwithstanding the said buffhoppe hathe, in contempte of us, as yt may appere, overslipped and not observyd certeyn of the feid things so by us enjoyned, and other so perversly and negligently done, that the things of us myndyd to reformation, and for a good quyet of our subjects, and hole realme be converted, by the wilful negligence or perversite of hym, to a great occasion of flaundor, tumult and grudge amongs our people, as it hath ben denounced to us in wrytyng by certeyn honeste and discrete persones, and otherwise declaryd. The which things, if they be so, we, tenderyng the wealthe, quyetnes, good order and government of our people, have not thought convenient to be let passed unpunysht or unreformed. And therefore, by th'advise aforeseid have appointed yowe fyve, foure or thre, upon whose fidelities, wyfdoms, dexterities and circumspections we have full confidence, to call before you, as well the denouncers of the said faulte, as also the feid buffhoppe, and with due examinations and proces according to lawe and justice, to here the feid matter, and all other matters of what kynd, nature or condition soever they shall be, that shall be objected against the feid buffhoppe summarily and de plano, or otherwyse as to your discretions shall be thought most mete. With full power and auctorite to suspende, excommunicate, commit to prison, or depryve the feid buffhoppe, if the offence shall so appere to merite, or to use any other censure ecclesiasticall, which for the better heryng and determynyng of the cause, shall be requisite and apperteyne; any law, statute, or act to the contrary notwithstanding. In witness whereof, &c.

Witness the kyng at Westminster the eighth day of Septembre.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. III. 15.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 17.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 3.

Alia commissio regia Thomae archiepiscopo Cantuariensi et aliis ad examinandum materiam contemptus episcopi London. Ibidem.

EDWARDE the syxte, &c. To the most reverend father in God Thomas archbishoppe of Canterbury, metropolitan and prymate of all England, the ryght reverend father in God Nicholas Bysshope of Rochester, our trusty and right beloved counsellours, Syr William Petres and Syr Thomas Smythe, Knyghts, our two principall secretares, and William May doctor of the law civill and deane of Powles gretynge. Where we of late by th'advise of our most entierly beloved uncle, Edward duke of Somersset, governour of our person, and protectour of all our realmes, dominions, and subjects, and the rest of our privy counsell, have addressed unto yowe fyve, foure, or thre of yowe, our lettres patents of commissiõ, beryng date at Westm. the eighth daye of Septembre in the third yeare of our reigne, willing yowe, by force thereof, to here the matters and causes of contempt therein expressed, callyng before you as wel the denouncers thereof, as also the right reverend father in God Edmonde busshope of London, agaynste whom such denunciation ys made, as in our seid lettres of commissiõ more at large doth appere. We be now credibly informed, that upon the seid commissiõ divers doubts and ambiguities have and may arise; as whether yowe by the tenour of the commissiõ may procede not only at the denunciation, but also mere office? And also whether ye may as well determine as here the said cause? For further declaration whereof we do now interprete and declare, that our full mynd and pleasure, by the advyse aforesaid, was by our seid commissiõ, and now ys, that you should procede as wel by mere office, as also by way of denunciation, and by eyther of them, or by any other wayes or meanes at your discretions, whereby the truth and merits of the cause may be most spedely and best knowen, and that ye myght and may as well finally determine as here the seid matters in all your orders and doyngs, cuttyng awaye all vayne and superstitious delayes, and havynge respect to the only truth of the matter, and this our declaration we send unto yowe of our suer knowledge and mere motion, by the advyse aforesaid, supplyeng all default, ceremony, and point of the lawe, which shall or may aryse in your doyngs, by reason of any default of wordes in our seid former commissiõ or any part thereof; any lawe, statute or acte to the contrary notwithstanding. And therefore we wyll and commaunde yowe to procede in the seid matters accordyng, as well to our foreseid commissiõ, as this our declaration; and so fayle ye not. In witnes, &c.

Witnesse the kynge at Hampton Court the seventeenth day of Septembre.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS. III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

The king's order for bringing in popish rituals. Ex reg. Cranmer fol. 25. b.

“THOMAS permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, per illustrissimum et invictissimum in Christo principem et dominum nostrum dominum Edwardum sextum Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regem, &c. ad infra scripta sufficienter et legitime fulcitus, dilecto filio archidiacono nostro Cantuariensi seu ejus officiali, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Literas missivas dicti metuendissimi domini nostri regis signatas, et nominibus honorabilium virorum dominorum consiliariorum suorum in calce earundem subscriptas, signeto suo obsignatas nobis inscriptas et datas nuper cum honore et reverentia debitis accepimus, tenorem subsequenter complectentes.” — By the kinge. Right reverende father in Godde, right trusty and wellbeloved, we grete you well. And whereas the boke entitled “the boke of commene prayers and administration of the sacramentes and other rightes and ceremonies of the church after the use of the church of Englande,” was agreed upon and set forth by acte of parliamente, and by the same acte commaunded to be used of all persones wythyn this our realme; yet nevertheless we are informed, that dyvers unquyette and evill disposed persons sithence the apprehension of the duke of Sommersett, have noysed and bruted abroad, that they sholde have agayne theire olde Lattenne service, ther conjured bredde and water, with suche lyke vayne and superstitious ceremonies, as though the settinge forth of the saide boke had bene th' onlie acte of the saide duke; we therefore by the advice of the bodie and state of our privey counsaile, not onely consideringe the saide boke to be our acte, and the acte of the state of th' whole state of oure realme assembled together in parliament, but also the same to be grounded upon holie scripture, agreable to th'ordre of the primitive church, and moch to the reedifying of our subjectes, to put away all such vayne expectation of havynge the publicke service; th' administration of the sacramentes, and other rightes and ceremonies agayne in the Lattenne tongue, whiche were but a preferment of ignorance to knowledge, and darknesse to light, and a preparation to bring in papistrie and superstition agayne, have thought goode, by the advice aforesaid, to requiere and neverthelesse

L

straightly

straightly to commaunde and charge you, that immediately upon the receipt herof, you do commaunde the deane and prebendaries of the cathedrall church, the parsonne, vicar, or curate and church wardens of everie parishe, within youre diocesse, to bringe and delyver unto youe or youre deputie, eny of theme for there church and parishe at soche convenient place, as you shal appoynt, all antiphoners, missales, grayles, proceffionalles, manuelles, legendes, pies, portafies, jornalles, and ordinalles after the use of Sarum, Lincoln, Yorke, or any other private use, and all other bokes of service, the keping wherof shold be a let to the usage of the said boke of commenne prayers, and that you take the same bokes into your handes, or into the handes of your deputie, and then so deface and abolyse that they never after may serve eyther to anie soche use, as they were provided for, or be at any time a lett to that godly and uniforme ordre, whiche by a common consente is now set forthe: and if you shall finde any persones stubborne or disobedient in not bringinge in the said bokes, according to the tenour of thies our letters, that then ye committe the said persone to warde, unto soche tyme, as you have certified us of his misbehaviour; and we will and commaund you that youe also searche or cause searche to be made from tyme to tyme, whether any boke be withdrawne or hidde contrarie to the teanor of these our letters, and the same boke to receyve into your handes, and to use as in these our letters we have appointed. And furthermore whereas it is comme to oure knowledge that dyvers frowarde and obstinate persons do refuse to pay towards the fyndinge of bredde and wyne for the holy communion, according to the ordre prescribed by the saide boke, by reasone wherof the holie communion ys manny tymes omitted upon the sonday; these are to will and commaunde you to convent such obstinate persons before you, and theme to admonyshe and commaunde to kepe th'ordre prescribed in the saide boke; and if any shal refuse so to do, to ponysh them by suspension, excommunication or other censures of the church. Fayle you not thus to do as youe will avoyde our displeasure. Given under oure signet at oure palace of Westmynster the 25th of December the 3d yeare of our reigne. By the kynge. Inscriptio haec est. To the most reverend father in Godde our right trustie and well beloved counsaylor, th' archebushoppe of Canterburie. In calce haec nomina habentur, Thomas Cantuarien. R. Ryche, canc. Wm. Seint John, J. Russell, H. Dorsett, W. Northampton. Nos vero affectantes ex animo domini nostri regis literis et mandatis obtemperare, volentesque pro nostro erga regiam celsitudinem officio in demandatis negotiis omnem nostram curam et solertem adhibere diligentiam, vobis pro parte suae majestatis districtite praecipiendo mandamus harum serie, quatenus receptis praesentibus, cum omni qua poteritis celeritate et diligentia maturis, dilectos filios nostros decanum, canonicos, et praebendarios ecclesiae Christi Cantuarien. nec non rectores, vicarios, curatos, plebanos, ac syndicos et iconicos † quarumcunque ecclesiarum parochialium nostrae dioeceseos Cantuarien. moneatis, hortemini, et praecipiendo mandetis, quatenus ipsi et eorum quilibet vel singuli, omnes et singulos libros in eisdem literis regiis specificè nominatos, nobis aut nostro in hac parte commissario vel deputato infra palatium nostrum Cantuarien. infra novem dies monitionem et intimationem vestras eis fiendas proxime sequentes, realiter afferant, adducant et penes nos vel nostrum deputatum hujuscemodi relinquunt, et deponant, caeteraque omnia et singula in dictis literis descripta perimpleant, exequantur, et sedulo fieri curent, quatenus eos et eorum quemlibet contingunt vel concernunt, sicque vos et vestrum alter sedulo exequatur, sincere perimpleat et diligenter obediat, quae ad vestram in hac parte functionem pro congrua executione literarum praedictarum dignoscuntur pertinere, omnibus mora, dilatione, conniventia et fuco penitus remotis, prout eidem domino nostro regi sub vestro incumbentes periculo obtemperare et respondere velitis, et vult vestrum alter. Et quid in hac parte feceritis, et exequi curaveritis, id totum et omne nobis quam citissime significatum iri non postponatis. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambithe decimo quarto die mensis Februarii, anno Domini 1549. et regni dicti invictissimi in Christo principis et domini nostri Edwardi sexti quarto, et nostrae consecrationis decimo * septimo."

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Mandatum pro publicatione quorundam decretorum et ordinationum regiarum. Ex reg. Cranm. fol. 59. b.

THOMAS permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, per illustrissimum in Christo principem et dominum nostrum dominum Edwardum sextum Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regem, &c. Dilecto nobis in Christo archidiacono nostro Cantuariensi seu ejus officiali, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Breve supradicti illustrissimi et invictissimi domini nostri regis sigillo suo magno sigillatum, nobis directum, nuper cum honore debito, tenorem continens subsequentem accepimus: Edwardus sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, reverendissimo in Christo patri Thomae eadem gratia Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, ejusque in absentia vicario suo in spiritualibus generali, salutem. Vobis mandamus quod immediate post receptio-† Forte oeconomus.

* Foran decimo octavo.

nem praesentium in singulis ecclesiis cathedralibus et collegiis, caeterisque ecclesiis tam parochialibus et capellis, quam aliis quibuscunque infra dioecesim et jurisdictionem vestras ex parte nostra publicari et denunciari faciatis quaedam decreta et ordinationes, per nos de advisamento consilii nostri concepta et facta secundum formam cujusdam statuti in hujusmodi casu editi et provisi, quae per latorem praesentium in quibusdam libris papyro impressis, huic brevi nostro annexis, vobis mittimus. Et hoc sicut nobis inde respondere volueritis diligenter fieri curetis. Teste meipso apud Westmonasterium quarto die Martii anno regni nostri quarto. Inscriptio vero talis est: reverendissimo in Christo patri Thomae eadem permissione et gratia Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, ejusve in absentia vicario in spiritualibus generali de publicatione fienda. "Martien." — Nos vero affectantes ex animo ejusdem domini nostri regis literis et mandatis obtemperare, volentesque pro nostro erga suam regiam celsitudinem officio, demandatis et creditis nobis a sua celsitudine negotiis, omnem nostram curam et solertem adhibere diligentiam, vobis pro parte suae regiae majestatis tenore praesentium mandamus et praecipiendo injungimus, quatenus receptis praesentibus cum omni, qua poteritis, celeritate et matura diligentia tam in ecclesia nostra cathedrali et metropolitica Christi Cantuarien. tam in omnibus et singulis ecclesiis parochialibus et capellis eidem annexis vel dependentibus, quam aliis quibuscunque infra dioecesim nostram Cantuarien. ubilibet sitis et constitutis, pro parte regiae suae majestatis decreta et ordinationes in hujusmodi brevi regio mentionata, quorum vobis unum et alterum exemplaria, una cum praesentibus literis nostris per latorem praesentium transmittimus, juxta et secundum formam statuti in hac parte editi et provisi, ac tenorem et effectum brevis supradicti, non solum dilectis filiis decano et capitulo ecclesiae nostrae metropoliticae praedictae, et aliis ejusdem ecclesiae ministris, verum etiam omnibus et singulis rectoribus, vicariis, plebanis, curatis, ministris, plebique et populo ejusdem dioecesis, coram vobis certis diebus et locis vestro arbitrio assignandis, constitutis et praesentibus publiceris, declaretis, et denunciatis, prout decet, et uti sub vestro incumbente periculo respondere velitis. Et quid in praemissis feceritis, aut fieri causaveritis, nos citra primum diem mensis Aprilis proximi futuri, per literas vestras autentice sigillatas, reddatis certiores. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus est appensum. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth septimo die Martii anno Domini 1549. regnique dicti domini nostri regis anno quarto, et nostrae consecrationis 18.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Processus habitus et factus circa negotia haereticae pravitatis per reverendissimum in Christo patrem et dominum dominum Thomam Cranmerum permissione divina Cantuarien. archiepiscopum, totius Angliae primatem et metropolitatum, et alios commissarios regios per literas suas patentes in hac parte deputatos et constitutos, prout inferius describuntur. Ex reg. Cranm. fol. 71. b. sequ.

VICESIMO septimo die mensis Aprilis anno Domini 1548. in capella beatae Mariae infra ecclesiam cathedralem divi Pauli Londoniensis coram reverendissimo in Christo patre et domino domino Thoma permissione divina Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, Thoma Smyth milite, Ricardo Cockes, et Hugone Latimer, sacrae theologiae professoribus, Wilhelmo May, decano sancti Pauli Londonien. Wilhelmo Cooke et Ricardo Lyell, legum doctoribus, illustrissimi domini nostri regis commissariis, &c. praesentibus tunc et ibidem Johanne Lewis et Johanne Gregory notariis publicis, in actorum scribas, quoad acta hujus diei scribenda expediendaque per dictos commissarios regios assumptis, Wilhelmo Locke et Johanne Cliffe militibus, vicecomitibus London. magistro Gilberto Bourne, sacrae theologiae baccalario, Thoma Broke, Galfrido Eton, generosis, cum multis aliis testibus, &c. Johannes Champneis parochiae de Stratford Bowe, in comitatu Midlesexano Londoniensis dioeceseos quosdam errores, haereses, et damnatas opiniones juri divino et catholicae fidei contrarias et repugnantes, per eum alias publice et malitiose creditas, assertas, affirmatas, tentas, et in libris suis editas retractavit, abjuravit et renunciavit, sub eo qui sequitur verborum tenore. — "In the name of God, amen. Before you, most reverende father in God lord Thomas archebissshop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitane of all Englande, and you the other commissioners of our moste drede soveraign lord Edwarde the sixthe, by the grace of God, King of Englande, France, and Ireland, defendour of the faith, and of the church of England and also of Ireland in earthe the supreme head, I John Champneis of Stratford on the Bowe, in the county of Middlesex, of my pure hart and freewill, voluntarily and freely and sincerly knowledge, confesse and openly recognize, that in tymes past I thoughte, beleved, saide, helde, writte, and taught and presumptuously in my booke sette fourth in my name these and all other errors, heresies, and damnable opinions following, that is to say. First, that a man after he is regenerate in Christe, cannot synne. Item secondly, that I have defended the said first article, graunting that the outward man might synne and the inward man cold not synne. Thirdly, that the gospel hath bene so muche persecuted and hated ever sythens the apostelles tyme, that no man might be suf-

fred

fred openly to follow hyt. Fourthly, that godly love falleth never away from them whiche be regenerate in Christ, wherefore they cannot do contrary to the commaundment of Christ. Fifthly, that, that was the most principall of our marked mann's doctryne to make the people beleve, that there was no suche spirite geven unto man, wherby he sholde remayne righteous alwaies in Christe, which is a most develishe error. Sixthly, that God doth permitte to all his electe people their bodilie necessities of all worldly thinges. Wherefore I, the said John Champneis, detesting and abhorringe all and every suche my said errors, heresies, and damned opinions, willing and with all my power affecting herafter firmly to beleve in the true and perfecte faithe of Christ, and of his holy church, porposing to follow the true and sincere doctrine of hollie church, with a pure hart and free mynd, will, and intent utterly to forsake, relinquishe, renounce, despise, the said detestable errors, heresies, and abominable opinions; graunting and confessing now: first, that a man after he is regenerate in Christ, may synne, being destitute of his spirite; secondlie, that the ynwarde manne doth synne within; that the outward mann synneth actually wyth the consent of the mynd; thirdly, that divers tymes sythens the apostles tyme hath ben suffred to follow openly the gospel of Christ; fourthly, that godly love fallith from them that be regenerate in Christ, being destitute of his spirite, and that they may do contrary to the commaundment of Christe; fifthly, that it is no erroneous doctryne the which I affirmed in my booke to be a develishe error, and our marked mens doctryne, that is to say, to make the people to beleve that there was no such espirite geven unto man, whereby he shulde remayne righteous alwaies in Christe, but I confesse that a man having the spirite may afterwarde fall and not be righteous; sixthly, that God doth not permitte to all his elect people their bodilie necessities of all worldly thinges to be taken, but by a lawe and ordour approved by the civill policie; in which wordes by mee now spoken I meane ne understande any other sence than hath been heir opened, and therefore as I agree in wordes, so I professe to agree therein in the catholike meaning and understanding, as hath been heir expounded and declared; and therefore the said errors and all other heresies, false doctrynes, and damned opinions conteyned in my boke and all the Anabaptistes errors, and all other heresies in generall, contrary and repugnant to the faith of Christ, I utterly abjure, forsake, and purely renounce before yow, most reverend father in God aforesaid, and other the kinges majesties most honourable commissioners, and this christian congregation here assembled. And over this I sweare by theis holy evangelies by me here bodilye towched, that from hensforth I shal never hold, teach, beleve, write, prynt, or cause to be written or prynted the said errors heresies or damned opinions above reherfed, nor any other against, contrary or repugnant to the hollie catholike faithe of Christe's church; nor yet I shall not by my self or any other person privately or apertly defend, meinteyn, foccor, favor, or support any person that to my knowledge holdeth, beleveth, affirmeth or teacheth any suche errors, heresies, and damned opinions; so helpe me God, and theise holly evangelistes. In witnes wherof to this my present abjuration and recantation I have wyth myne own hand voluntarily subscribed my proper name, John Champneis." Quibus quidem erroribus, haeresibus, ac falsis et damnatis opinionibus per dictum Johannem Champneis in vim juramenti sui ad sancta Dei evangelia per eum corporaliter tacta praestiti, sicut praemittitur, recantatis, abjuratis, et retractatis, dictus reverendissimus pater de consensu caeterorum collegarum suorum secum assidentium eundem Johannem Champneis juramento oneravit ad sancta Dei evangelia de peragendo poenitentiam sequentem, videlicet: "first, that the said Champneis shall not by any means hereafter teache or preach to the people, nor sette fourthe any kind of bookes in prynt or otherwise, nor cause to be prynted or sett forth any such bookes, that shuld conteyn any manner of doctryne without a speciall licence therunto of the kinges majestie, or some of his grace's privy counsell firste hade and obteyned; secondarilye, that the said Champneis with all speede conveniente, and with all his diligence procure as many of his bookes as are past forth in his name, to be called in againe, and utterly destroid, as much as in him shall lye; thirdly, that the same Champneis on sonday next shall attend at Paules crosse upon the preacher, all the tyme of the sermon, and there penitently stand before the preacher aforesaid, with a faggot on his shoulder." Deinde dictus Johannes Champneis, Reginaldus Mohonne de Cornubia, generosus, et Laurentius Clerke parochiae de Whitt Chapell civitatis London. Barbour recognoverunt se debere domino nostro regi quingentas libras currentis monetae Angliae sub conditione sequenti, videlicet: "If the said Champneis shall perfourme his penance enjoined, as is before said to be don on sonday next, in manner and forme before declared, that then, &c. or elles, &c."

Ibid. f. 73. a.

VICESIMO octavo die mensis Decembris anno Domini 1548. et regni domini nostri regis Edwardi sexti, &c. secundo, coram reverendissimo in Christo patre Thoma Cranmero Cantuar. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primate, et metropolitano, in magna camera superiori infra manerium suum de Lambeth, publice et judicialiter sedente, in notarii et testium subscriptorum praesentis, comparentes probi viri magistri Johannes Whitwell et Thomas Langley presbyteri, ejusdem reverendissimi patris facellani, exhibuerunt quandam schedulam haereses et damnatas opiniones retroscriptas complectentem, denunciantes et significantes Johannem Asheton presbyterum in judicio constitutum, easdem opiniones et haereses dixisse, asseruisse, credidisse, et affirmasse, cujus quidem schedulae verus tenor sequitur in haec verba. — "We

John

John Whitwell and Thomas Langley prefts do denounce and signifie to your good grace, most reverend father in God, lord Thomas archebushop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitane of all Englande, that Mr. John Asheton preste, person of Shiltelington within the diocesse of Lincoln, and your province of Canterbury, hath beleved, saide, helde, and affirmed thes hereticall opinions and assertions underwritten, in thes severall articles ensuyng: furste, that the trinitie of persons was established by the confession of Athanasius declared by the psalme "quicumque vult," &c. and that the holy Ghoste is not God, but onely a certeyn power of the Father. Item, that Jesus Christ, that was conceived of the virgyn Mary, was a hooly prophet, and speciallie beloved of God the Father, but that he was not the true and lyving God, for as much as he was seen and lyved, hungered, and thirsted. Item, that this is only the fruite of Jesus Christes passion, that whereas we were strangers from God, and had no knowledge of his testament, hit pleased God by Christ, to bring us to the knowledging of his holly power by the testamente. In witness of the treught we have subscribed our names; by me John Whitwell, by me Thomas Langley." Quibus quidem articulis per eundem reverendissimum patrem receptis, publice lectis, et eidem Johanni Asheton objectis, ipse animo deliberato eisdem respondendo ingenue et libere fassus et recognovit se credidisse, tenuisse, affirmasse et asseruisse; verum in praesentiarum eos omnino respuisse et ex animo penitus abjecisse, petens genibus flexis, se ad beneficium et gratiam abjuramentis et renunciationis eorundem et cujuscunque ipsorum, gratiose admitti, profitendo sese ex intimis cordis sui affectibus dolere tantam fuisse suam temeritatem. Deinde productis palam quibusdam literis privatis manu sua, uti asserbatur, descriptis, errores, haereses, et opiniones erroneas hujuscemodi continentibus, etiam dixit, affirmavit, recognovit, et fassus est, fuisse et esse a se scriptas et subscriptas. Ad haec reverendissimus humilibus precibus ipsius supplicantis, dolentis, et poenitentis nonnihil motus ipsum Johannem ad renunciationem et abjuramentis gratiam admittendum duxit, et porrecta ei abjuramentis forma, in scriptis redacta, eam sponte sua legebat, errores, haereses, et detestandas opiniones suas detestando, renunciando, et abjurando, ac fidem, opinionem, et judicia sua declarando, sub eo qui sequitur verborum tenore. "In the name of God amen. Bifore you most reverende father in God, lord Thomas archebushop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitane of all Englande, commissary of our most dred soveraigne lord and excellent prince Edwarde the sixth by the grace of God king of Englande, France and Ireland, defendour of the faith, and of the church of Englande and also of Ireland in earthe the supreme heade; I John Asheton preste, of my pure hart, free will, voluntarilie and sincerely knowledge, confesse and openly recognize that in tymes past I thought, beleved, said, held, and presumptuously affirmed by subscription of my proper handy writting thes er-

VOL IV.

rours, heresies, and damnable opinions following; that is to saye, that the trinitie of persons was established by the confession of Athanasius declared by a psalme, "quicumque vult," &c. and that the hollie Ghoste is not God, but onely a certeyn power of the Father; secundarilye, that Jesus Christ, that was conceived of the virgyn Mary, was a holy prophet and speciallie beloved of God the Father, but that he was not the true and lyving God, for as much as he was seen and leved, hungred and thirsted; thirdly, that this onley is the fruite of Jesus Christes passion, that whereas we were straungers from God, and had no knowledge of his testament, hit pleased God by Christ to bring us to th'acknowledging of his hollie power by the testament. Wherefore I the said John Asheton detesting and abhorring all and every such my said errors, heresies and damned opinions, willing and withall my power affecting herafter firmly to beleve in the true and perfecte faith of Christ and his hollie church, purposing to follow the true and sincere doctrine of hollie church, with a pure and free harte, voluntarily mynd, will and intent utterly to forsake, relinquish, renounce and despise the said detestable errors, heresies, and abominable opinions; graunting and confessing nowe, that the blessed trinitie consisteth in three distincte persons, and one Godhead, as God the Father, God the Sonne, and God the Hollie Ghoste, coequal in power and might; secondly, that Jesus Christ is both God and man, after his godly nature, eternally begotten of his Father, of his own substance, in his humanitie was conceived by the Holy Ghost, incarnate, and for our redemption being very God, became man; thirdly, that by the death of Jesus Christ we be not only made partakers of his testament, and so deduced to the knowledge of his godly will and power, but also that we have full redemption and remission of our synnes in his blood, in whiche wordes by me nowe spoken I meane, ne understande any other sense, than hath been here opened, and therefore as I agree in wordes, so I profess to agree therein in the catholicke meaning, and understanding as hath been here expounded and declared: and therefore the said errors and all other heresies, false doctrine, and damned opinions in generall, contrary and repugnant to the faith of Christ, I utterly abjure, forsake, and purely renounce, before you most reverend father in God aforesaid, and all this honorable presence heare assembled; and over this I swere by thes holly evangelistes, by me here bodily touched, that from henceforth I shal never holde, teache, beleve or affirme the said errors, heresies, or damned opinions above rehersed, nor any other against, contrary or repugnant, to the holy faith of Christes church, nor yet I shall not by my self or any other person, privately or apertly, defend, mainteyne, succour, favour, or supporte any person, that to my knowledge holdeth, beleveth, affirmeth, or teacheth any such errors, heresies or dampned opinions; so helpe me God, and thes hollie evangelistes. In witness wherof to this my present abjuration and renunciation I have wyth myne own hande, voluntarily subscribed my proper name, per me Johannem Affheton." Quam quidem abjurati-onem five renunciationem, sensim et deliberatim lectam, tunc et ibidem manu sua propria subscripsit, eamque dicto reverendissimo patri pro facto suo exhibuit, contendens erectis ad caelum palmis a reverendissimo misericorditer et clementer agi, praeterea tactis evangeliiis fidem fecit se juri, sanctae matris ecclesiae mandatis, et cuicunque poenitentiae sibi per dictum reverendissimum patrem pro tantis suis erratis et commissis infligendae, fideliter et humiliter pariturum. Cui jurato absolutionis beneficium in forma juris consueta impendebat, assignando eidem poenitendo ad comparandum coram sua reverendissima paternitate in loco praedicto die Lunae proximo futuro post festum Epiphaniae, videlicet, septimo die futuri mensis Januarii, hora prima post meridiem, corporalem poenitentiam tunc ei injungendam recepturo, quem pie edoctum, et ad hujuscemodi morbidas contagiones in posterum vitandas in Christo Jesu exhortatum, usque ad eundem diem Lunae et non aliter in pace et charitate dimisit. Praesentibus tunc et ibidem una mecum Antonio Huse, notario publico, ejusdem reverendissimi patris registrario, eximio viro magistro Willemo Cooke legum doctore, ipsius reverendissimi cancellario et officiali principali, Galfrido Eson, Johanne Herde, Ricardo Cranmer, Johanne Gregory, notario publico, Thoma Willet, et Johanne Abell praemissa videntibus et audientibus.

M wherof

Ibid. fol. 74. a.

UNDECIMO die mensis Maii anno Domini 1549. In manerio archiepiscopi Cantuarien. de Lambehith Wintonien. Dioeceseos coram reverendissimo in Christo patre et domino domino Thoma permissione divina Cantuarien. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primate, et metropolitano, Willemo Cooke, Ricardo Lyell, et Johanne Croke legum doctoribus, commissariis regiis in hac parte sufficienter et legitime constitutis et deputatis, in praesentia magistrorum Thomae Argall et Willemi Walker notariorum publicorum, Johannis Whitewell sacrae theologiae baccalaurei, dicti reverendissimi patris eleemosynarii, Johannis Josephe, Johannis Huntington, et multorum aliorum in numero copioso, constitutus personaliter Michael Thombe de Londoniis Bocher quosdam errores, haereses et damnatas opiniones per eum alias tentas, creditas, et affirmatas abjuravit, recantavit, et retractavit, prout in quadam schedula quam in manibus tenens tunc et ibidem publice legebat, et manu sua propria subscripsit plenius continetur, cujus quidem schedulae verus tenor sequitur et est talis, "In the name of God amen. Before you, most most reverend father in God lord Thomas archbishop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitan of all England, Mr. Wm. Cooke, Richard Lyell, and John Croke, doctors of law, commissaries of our most dread sovereigne lorde Edwarde the sixthe, by the grace of God king of England, France, and Ireland, defendour of the faith, and of the church of England, and also of Ireland in earth the supreme head; I Michaelle Thombe of London bocher of my pure harte and free will, voluntarie and sincerely knowledge, confesse and openly recognize, that in tymes past I thought, beleved, said, helde, and affirmed theise errors, heresies and damnable opinions following; that is to say, that rather Christ toke no flesh of our lady, and that farther I beleve that I have said, that the baptisme of infantes is not profitable, because it goith without faith: wherefore I the said Michaelle Thombe detestinge and abhorringe all and every such my said errors, heresies and damned opnions, willing and with all my power affecting hereafter firmly to beleve in the true and sincere doctrine of holy church, with a pure and free heart, voluntary mynd, will and intent, utterly to forsake what is not the perfect faith of Christ, and of his holy church, purposing to follow the true and sincere church, so my purpose is to forsake, relinquish, renounce and despise the said detestable errors, heresies, and abominable opinions, graunting and confessing nowe that Christe toke fleshe of the virgyn Mary, and that the baptisme of infantes is profitable and necessary; in whiche wordes by me nowe spoken I meane, ne understand any other sence, then hath been here opened; and therefore as I agree in wordes, so I profess to agree therein in the catholicke meaning and understanding, as hath been here expounded and declared: and therefore the said errors and all other heresies, false doctrine, and damned opinions in generall, contrary and repugnant to the faith of Christ, I utterly abjure, forsake and purely renounce before you, most reverend father in God aforesaid, and other the kinges majesties most honorable commissioners, and this christen congregation here assembled. And over this I sweare by theis holy evangelistes by me here bodily touched, that from hensforth I shall never hold, teache, beleve, or affirme the said errors, heresies, and damned opinions, above reherfed, nor any other against, contrary, or repugnant to the holly faith of Christe's church, nor yet I shall not by my self or any other person, privately or apertly defend, mainteyn, succour, favour, or supporte any person, that to my knowledge holdeth, beleveth, affirmeth, or teacheth any such errors, heresies, or damned opinions; so helpe me God, and thes holy evangelistes. In witnes wherof to this my present abjuration and recantation I have with my owne hand voluntarily subscribed my name,

MICHAELLE THOMBE."

Ibidem.

IN Dei nomine, amen. Nos Thomas permissione divina Cantuarien. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, Thomas Smith miles, Willemus Cooke decanus de arcubus, Hugo Latymer, sacrae theologiae professor, et Ricardus Lyell, legum doctor, illustrissimi et invictissimi in Christo principis et domini nostri domini Edwardi sexti Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regis, fidei defensoris, foris, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremi capitis, cognitores, inquisitores, iudices et commissarii, per literas suas regias patentes, gerentes dationem duodecimo die mensis Aprilis anno regni sui felicissimi tertio, sufficienter et legitime deputati, in quodam negotio haereticae pravitatis contra te Johannam Bocher alias nuncupatam Johannam de Kente, coram nobis in iudicio personaliter comparentem, et nobis super haeretica pravitate juxta et secundum commissionem dicti domini nostri regis detectam et delatam, ac in ea parte apud bonos et graves notorie et publice diffamatam, rite et legitime procedentes, auditis, visis, intellectis, cognitis, rimatis, et matura deliberatione discussis, et ponderatis dicti negotii meritis et circumstantiis, servatisque in omnibus et per omnia in eodem negotio de jure servanda, ac quomodolibet requisitis, judicialiter et pro tribunali sedentes, Christi nomine invocato, ac ipsum solum Deum prae oculis nostris habentes, quia peracta, inactitata, deducta, probata, confessata, ac per te saepius coram nobis in eodem negotio recognita comperimus et clare invenimus, te, tum per confessiones, tum per recognitiones tuas coram nobis judicialiter factas nephandum et intolerabilem errorem, haeresim damnatam, et scandalosam opinionem subscriptam, juri divino et catholicae fidei obviantem, contrariam et repugnantem, videlicet: "That you beleve that the worde was made fleshe in the virgyn's belly, but that Christe toke fleshe of the virgyn you beleve not; because the flesh of the virgyn being the outward man synfully gotten, and bourne in synne, but the worde by the consent of the inward man of the virgin was made fleshe." Quem quidem errorem, haeresim damnatam et scandalosam opinionem, juri divino et fidei catholicae obviantem, contrariam et repugnantem, coram nobis tam in iudicio quam extra, animo obstinato, pertinaci et indurato, arroganter, pertinaciter et obstinate, etiam non sine fastu asseruisti, tenuisti, affirmasti, et dixisti, atque sic credere, tenere, affirmare, et dicere velle, paribus obstinacia, pertinacia, malicia quoque et mira cordis caecitate etiam affirmasti; idcirco nos Thomas archiepiscopus, primas, et metropolitanus, ac commissarius regius antedictus, tam de aliorum col-legarum nostrorum nobis in hac parte assidentium et assistentium consensu et assensu expressis, quam etiam de et cum consilio et iudicio iurisperitorum et sacrarum literarum professorum cum quibus communicavimus in hac parte, te Johannam Bocher, alias Joahnnam de Kente praedictam, demeritis, culpis, obstinaciis et contumaciis per tuam nephandam et damnabilem pertinaciam multipliciter contractis, incurfis, et aggravatis, de et super hujuscemodi detestabili et horrendo haereticae pravitatis reatu confessam, et ad ecclesiae unitatem redire nolentem, haereticaque opinione credentem, praemissorum praetextu fuisse et esse cum animi dolore et cordis amaritudine judicamus; teque exnunc tanquam pertinacem et obstinatam haeticam iudicio sive curiae seculari ad omnem juris effectum, qui exinde sequi debeat aut poterit, relinquendam fore decernimus et declaramus, et sic per praesentes de facto relinquimus, teque Johannam Bocher alias Johannam de Kente memoratam, uti praefertur, haeticam pertinacem et obstinatam in majoris excommunicationis sententiam, occasione praemissorum, incidisse et incurrisse, nec non excommunicatam fuisse et esse etiam sententialiter et diffinitive pronunciamus, et declaramus, per hanc nostram sententiam diffinitivam, quam ferimus et promulgamus in his scriptis. — Lecta fuit hujuscemodi supra scripta sententia per praenominatum reverendum in Christo patrem Thomam Cantuariensem archiepiscopum die Martis videlicet, ultimo die mensis Aprilis anno Domini 1549. Regnique dicti domini nostri regis Edwardi sexti anno tertio, in capella beatae Mariae infra ecclesiam cathedralis sancti vel divi Pauli London. assidentibus dicto reverendissimo patri, Thoma Smyth, milite, Wilhelmo Cooke, decano de arcubus, Hugone Latymer, sacrae theologiae professore, et Ricardo Lyell legum doctore, commissariis regis huic sententiae consentientibus: praesentibus tunc et ibidem ac praemissa videntibus et audientibus venerabilibus viris Wilhelmo Locke et Johanne Oliffe militibus et vicecomitibus London. Clemente Smyth, Edwardo Hastings militibus, Thoma Huse armigero, Thoma Argell generoso, Wilhelmo Walker, et Johanne Gregory, notariis publicis.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Litterae archiepiscopi Cant. et aliorum commissar. regior. de Johanna de Kente haeretica. Ex reg. Cranm. fol. 75. b.

ILLUSTRISSIMO et invictissimo in Christo principi et domino nostro domino Edwardo sexto Dei gratiae Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regi, fidei defensori, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremo capiti, — Thomas permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, Thomas Smyth miles, Wilhelmus Cooke decanus de arcubus, Hugo Latymer sacrae theologiae professor, et Ricardus Lyell legum doctor, vestrae celsitudinis cognitores, inquisitores, iudices et commissarii per literas vestras regias pa-tentes, gerentes dationem 22 die Aprilis anno regni vestri felicissimi tertio, sufficienter et legitime deputati, honorem et perpetuam felicitatem in eo, per quem reges regnant et principes dominantur. Vestrae regiae celsitudini tenore praesentium significamus, quod nos contra et adversus quandam Johannam Bocher alias dictam Johannam de Kente subditam vestram de et super nephando crimine haereseos, ac detestanda Anabaptistarum secta, apud bonos et graves enormiter diffamatam et super reatu earundem nobis detectam, delatam, et denunciata rite et legitime, time, juxta litterarum vestrarum regiarum commissionarium exigentiam et tenorem procedentes, eandem Johannam per nos examinatam comperimus et invenimus errores, haereses damnatas, et scandalosas opiniones, catholicae Christi fidei obviantes, contrarias et repugnantes, non modo medio juramento suo corporali coram nobis praestito confessam fuisse, affirmasse, defendisse, et eisdem firmiter credidisse; verum etiam easdem sceleratas opiniones, errores, haereses et damnatas opiniones pertinaciter animo indurato saepenumero manutenuisse, defendisse et in eisdem permanisse, et ab eisdem nullo modo resipuisse, nec resipiscere curasse, sed ad sanctae matris ecclesiae gremium redire penitus neglexisse; ideo cum animi amaritudine et cordis dolore eandem Johannam saepius monitam, et per nos ad ecclesiae unitatem redire hortatam, salutaribus nostris monitis parere omnino spernentem, de et cum consensu collegarum nostrorum, tanquam ovem morbidam a grege Domini, ne alios vestros subditos sua contagione inficiat, ejiciendam et eliminandam fore decernimus, ipsamque Johannam, occasione iniquitatis suae inveteratae hujuscemodi, haereticam ac haereticis opinionibus credentem, mediante nostra sententia diffinitiva pronunciavimus et decrevimus. Cum igitur sancta mater ecclesia non habeat, quod ulterius facere et exequi debeat in hac parte, vestrae regiae sublimitati et brachio vestro seculari dictam haereticam et relapsam relinquimus, condigna animadversione plectendam. In cujus rei testimonium nos Thomas archiepiscopus, primas, metropolitanus ac commissarius vester humillimus supradictus, de consensu collegarum nostrorum hic se subscribentium, sigillum nostrum archiepiscopale praesentibus apponi fecimus. Datum ultimo die mensis Aprilis anno Domini 1549. et regni vestrifelicissimi anno tertio.

Ex reg. Cran. fol. 78. a.

IN Dei nomine amen. Nos Thomas permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, Nicholaus London. episcopus, Willelmus May, Griffinus Leyson, Johannes Oliver, Milo Coverdale, Ricardus Lyell, Johannes Gosnold, et Christopherus Nevynson, excellentissimi in Christo principis et domini nostri domini Edwardi sexti Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regis, fidei defensoris, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremi capitis, cognitores, inquisitores, iudices et commissarii in hac parte legitime deputati, tibi Georgio van Parris Teuthonico, chirurgico in civitate London. modo commoranti, nobis de et super haeretica pravitate diffamato et detecto, objicimus articulum subsequentem, videlicet: quod tu affirmasti, asseruisti, et credidisti ac credis in praesenti, quod Christus non est verus Deus; quem quidem articulum dictus reverendissimus pater Cantuarien. archiepiscopus et caeteri collegae sui praedicti judicialiter et pro tribunali in hac parte sedentes, in quodam superiori cubiculo infra manerium ipsius reverendissimi domini patris apud Lambeth die Lunae, sexto videlicet die Aprilis anno Domini 1551. et regni regis Edwardi sexti quin-to, in praesentia Anthonii Huse armigeri et Willelmi Say notariorum publicorum actuatorum, ac juxta vim, formam, et effectum litterarum commissionarium dicti illustrissimi domini nostri regis, eidem reverendissimo et caeteris collegis suis in ea parte directarum, et per ipsos acceptarum legitime procedentes, eidem Georgio tunc et ibidem coram ipsis personaliter constituto, ad interpretationem magistri Milonis Coverdale unus ex dictis iudicibus, objecerunt. Qui quidem Georgius ad consimilem interpretationem dicti magistri Milonis respondebat, dicens ut sequitur: "that he beleveth, that God the Father is only God, and that Christ is not very God, is noon heresy, and beyng by like interpretation declared unto him, that yt is an heresy; and being asked whether he will retracte and abjure the same opinion; he saith, no." Deinde post disceptationes et discussiones cum eodem Georgio per eosdem iudices ad ipsum reconciliandum pie habitas, quia ipsum nullo modo ab illa haeretica et damnata opinione revocare potuerunt, ideo praefatus reverendissimus dominus Cantuarien. de consensu collegarum suorum praedictorum tulit, legit, et promulgavit sententiam finalem in scriptis contra ipsum Georgium, per quam inter alia eundem Georgium van Parris haereticum fuisse et esse declaravit, ac tanquam pertinacem et obstinatum haereticum iudicio sive curiae seculari tunc ibidem praesenti ad omnem juris effectum exinde sequi valentem, relinquendum, et tradendum fore decrevit et declaravit, et tunc ibidem effectualiter reliquit et tradidit magistro Guidoni Wade carceris nuncupati "the Coultry in the Pultrey" civitatis London. secundo sive custodi, tunc ibidem eundem Georgium recipienti, eundemque Georgium van Parris, ut praefertur, haereticum pertinacem et obstinatum in majoris excommunicationis sententiam, praemissorum causa et occasione, incidisse et incurrisse, eaque ligatum fuisse et esse similiter in scriptis etiam pronunciavit, praesentibus tunc et ibidem domino Francisco Russell, domino Russell, domino electo Rossensi, Thoma Stephens praedicatore, et multis aliis in multitudine copiosa tunc et ibidem congregatis testibus, &c. Cujus quidem sententiae diffinitivae verus tenor sequitur et est talis. — In Dei nomine amen. Nos Thomas permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, Nicholaus Londoniensis episcopus, Willelmus May, Griffinus Leyson, Johannes Oliver, Milo Coverdale, Ricardus Lyell, Johannes Gosnold, et Christopherus Nevynson, excellentissimi in Christo principis et domini nostri domini Edwardi sexti Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regis, fidei defensoris, et interea ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremi capitis cognitores, inquisitores, iudices et commissarii per litteras suas regias patentes, gerentes dat. apud Westminster 18 die mensis Januarii, anno regni sui felicissimi quarto, sufficienter et legitime deputati, in quodam haereticae pravitate negotio contra te Georgium van Parris Teuthonicum, coram nobis in iudicio personaliter comparentem, et nobis super haeretica pravitate juxta et secundum commissionem dicti domini nostri regis gis detectum et delatum, ac in ea parte apud bonos et graves notorie et publice diffamatum, rite et legitime procedentes, auditis, visis, intellectis, cognitis, rimatis, et matura deliberatione discussis et ponderatis dicti negotii meritis et circumstantiis, servatisque in omnibus et per omnia in eodem negotio de jure servandis ac quomodolibet requisitis; judicialiter et pro tribunali sedentes, Christi nomine invocato, ac ipsum solum Deum prae oculis nostris habentes; quia per acta, inactitata, deducta, probata, confessata, et per te saepius coram nobis in eodem negotio recognita comperimus et clare invenimus, te tum per confessiones tuas varias assertas et affirmatas, tum per recognitiones tuas judiciales coram nobis saepenumero judicialiter factas, nefandum et intolerabilem errorem, haeresim, damnatam et scandalosam opinionem subscriptam, juri divino et catholicae fidei obviantem, contrariam et repugnantem, videlicet, quod Christus non est verus Deus; quam quidem haeresim, errorem, damnatam et scandalosam opinionem juri divino et catholicae fidei obviantem, contrariam, et repugnantem coram nobis tam in judicio quam extra, animo obstinato, pertinaci et indurato, arroganter, pertinaciter, et obstinate asseruisti, tenuisti, affirmasti et dixisti, atque sic credere, asserere, affirmare, et dicere velle paribus obstinacia, pertinacia, malitia, quoque et mira cordis caecitate etiam affirmasti: idcirco nos Thomas archiepiscopus, primas et metropolitanus ac commissarius regius antedictus, tam de aliorum collegarum nostrorum nobis in hac parte assistentium et assidentium consensu assensuque expressis, quam etiam de et cum consilio et judicio jurisperitorum et sacrarum literarum professorum, nobis etiam assistantium, cum quibus communicavimus in hac parte, te Georgium van Parris praedictum, de meritis, culpis, obstinaciis et contumaciis per tuam nephandam et damnabilem pertinaciam multipliciter contractis, incurfis et aggravatis de et super hujusmodi detestabili et horrendo haereticae pravitate reatu confessum, ad sacrosanctae ecclesiae unitatem redire nolentem haeticum fuisse et esse declaramus, haeresimque et haeticas opiniones affirmantem et asserentem praemissorum praetextu fuisse et esse, cum animi dolore et cordis amaritudine declaramus et judicamus; te quoque ex nunc tanquam pertinacem et obstinatum haeticum judicio sive curiae seculari hic praesenti ad omnem juris effectum exinde sequi valentem, relinquendum et tradendum fore decernimus et declaramus, et sic per praesentes de facto relinquimus et tradimus, teque Georgium van Parris memoratum, ut praefertur, haeticum pertinacem et obstinatum in majoris excommunicationis sententiam, praemissorum causa et occasione incidisse et incurrisse, eaque ligatum fuisse et esse sententialiter, in hiis scriptis pronunciamus, decernimus, et de consensu collegarum nostrorum hujusmodi diffinitive declaramus per hanc nostram sententiam finalem, quam cum animi nostri dolore ferimus et promulgamus in hiis scriptis. Thomas Cantuar. Nicholaus London. Willelmus May, Milo Coverdale, Ricardus Lyell, Christopher Nevynson, Griffin Leyson, Jo. Oliver, John Gosnold.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Aliae litterae archiepiscopi Cant. et aliorum commissar. regior. de Georgio van Parris haeretico. Ibid. fol. 79. a.

ILLUSTRISSIMO, invictissimo et potentissimo in Christo principi et domino nostro domino Edwardo sexto Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae regi, fidei defensori et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremo capiti, Thomas permissione divina Cantuariensis archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, Nicholaus Londoniensis episcopus, Griffinus Leyson, decanus de arcubus London. Willelmus May, decanus sancti Pauli London. Johannes Oliver, Ricardus Lyell, et Christopherus Nevynson, legum doctores, Milo Coverdale sacrae theologiae professor, et Johannes Gosnold armiger, vestrae celsitudinis cognitores, inquisitores, judices, et commissarii per litteras vestras regias patentes, gerentes dat. apud Westminster decimo octavo die Januarii, anno regni vestri felicissimi quinto; rite et legitime constituti honorem, obsequii perpetui promptitudinem, ac felicitatem perpetuam precantur in ipso Deo optimo maximo, per quem reges regnant et principes terrae dominantur. Vestrae regiae majestati tenore praesentium significamus, quod quidam iniquitatis diabolicae alumnus et filius, Georgius van Parris chirurgicus, natione Teuthonicus, videlicet de partibus Flandriae infra civitatem vestram Londoniensem commorans, ob et propter suos nephandos errores, manifestas et detestandas haereses, et damnatas opiniones, juri divino et catholicae fidei obviantes, contrarias et repugnantes, per eum multis modis contractas, commissas, dictas, affirmatas, perpetratas publice et pertinaciter tentas et defensas, per nos vestra auctoritate procedentes, juxta et secundum leges et statuta regni vestri, in hac parte, ad Dei gloriam salubriter edita, provisa et publicata, pro haeretico obstinato et pertinaci judicialiter, et diffinitive a nobis unanimiter, judicatus et pronuntiatus est. Cum igitur sancta mater ecclesia non habet quod ulterius facere et exequi contra tam putridum membrum debeat, vestrae regiae sublimitati, ac potentiae brachii vestri secularis dictum Georgium haeticum pertinacem relinquimus et tradimus, animadversione vestra regia puniendum et plectendum. In cujus rei testimonium nos Thomas archiepiscopus antedictus de consensu et rogatu collegarum nostrorum hujusmodi figillum nostrum hisce literis certicatoriis affigi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth 7 die mensis Aprilis anno Domini 1551. regni vestri felicissimi quinto et nostrae consecrationis 20.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. I 8.

Anno Christi
1549.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

*Concilium * provinciale cleri Scotici habitum Edinburgi, anno Domini 1549.*
Ex MS. bibl. regiae. Paris. n. 3887. codd. Baluzian. n. 38.

AD MONUIT NOS salubriter divus Paulus, ut, qui ipsius et caeterorum apostolorum vices gerere dignoscimur, huic nosmetipsos praecepto quamprimum accomodare nitamur. "Attendite," inquit, "vobis et universo gregi, in quo vos Spiritus Sanctus posuit episcopos, regere ecclesiam Dei, quam acquisivit sanguine suo." Quocirca praesens huiusce regni ordinariorum, praelatorum, aliorum ecclesiasticorum et cleri conventio in Spiritu Sancto congregata, conformiter apostolico huic praecepto, ad Dei gloriam, ecclesiastici status tranquillitatem resarciendam, ac integritatem conservandam, intente animadvertens quamplurimas haereses in greges dominicos pastoralibus eorum curis commissos crudeliter grassari, volensque easdem ab ipsis velut radicibus funditus extirpare, prudentis medici exemplo agendum fore decrevit, ut primum studiosa meditatione, tantorum malorum, quibus ecclesiastici mores pridem corrupti sunt, ansas et occasiones indagandas curet; deinde ut de opportunis remediis illis cogitet et provideat; cumque duae potissimum malorum causae et radices appareant, quae tantas nobis turbas haeresiumque occasiones excitavere, nimirum in personis ecclesiasticis omnium fere graduum morum corruptela ac vitae profana obscoenitas, tum bonarum literarum artiumque omnium crassa inscitia; atque ex his praesertim duobus capitibus multi abusus oriuntur: haec sancta synodus ac provinciale concilium hisce malis, quoad pro temporum occasione liceat, remedia et modum ponere statuit. Ad laudem igitur et gloriam omnipotentis, morum in ecclesia Scotica reformationem, et haeresium extirpationem, die Mercurii 27 mensis Novembris A. D. 1549. in templo fratrum praedicatorum Edinburgen. S. Andreae dioec. habita et facta fuit conventio reverendissimi et reverendorum venerabiliumque in Christo patrum et dominorum ordinariorum, praelatorum, aliorumque spectabilium et eximiorum virorum ecclesiasticorum, et de clero infra scriptorum generalem huius regni conventionem et concilium provinciale archiepiscoporum et episcoporum ordinariorum, praelatorum et aliorum ecclesiasticorum et de clero pro tempore facientium et representantium venerabili in Christo patre et domino Johanne S. Andreae archiepiscopo, totius regni Scotiae primate, legato nato, et monasterii a Pasleto abbate concilium indicente et praesidente.

Episcopi sequuntur.

Willelmus Aberdonensis. Patricius Moraviensis commendatarius a Scona. Andreas Candidae Casae et capellae regiae Strivilingensis. Willel-mus Dunblanensis. Robertus Orchadensis com-mendatarius a Kinlos. Willelmus electus Lesmorensis confirmatus.

Vicarii generales sedium vacantium.

Magister Gavinus Hamylton, ecclesiae metro-politanae Glasguensis decanus, et ejusdem sede vacante vicarius generalis. Magister Jacobus Herven, decanus Dunkeldensis, et ejusdem sede vacante vicarius generalis.

Abbates, priores et commendatarii.

Jacobus prioratus ecclesiae primatialis S. An-dreae commendatarius.

Jacobus a Kalco et Melros commendatarius.

Georgius a Dunfermlyng commendatarius archidiaconus S. And. primatialis.

Malcolmus prior de Quithorne.

Donaldus abbas a Cupro.

Quintinus abbas monasterii Crucis regalis.

Gualterius abbas Vallis Lucis.

Alexander prior Pluschardenfis.

Willelmus commendatarius de Culros.

Jacobus abbas de Newbottle.

Adam abbas de Dundrayman.

.... abbas de Deyr.

Johannes prior de Mungster.

Doctores in theologia, licentiati et baccalarii.

Magister Petrus Sacellarius, collegii S. Salvatoris infra civitatem S. Andreae canonicus et praepositus ejusdem coadjutor, doctor theologus.

M. Johannes Gryson, sacrarum literarum professor.

M. Johannes Wynrame, ecclesiae metrop. pri-matialis S. Andreae canonicus regularis, et supprior, theologiae doctor.

F. Richardus Marshall Anglus, divinarum literarum professor.

F. Robertus Leeche, ordinis praedicatorum in theologia licentiatus.

M. Willelmus Cranston, praepositus de Scypuy
in theologia licentiatus.

M. Alexander Anderfone, collegii Aberdonensis universitatis supprior in theol. licent.

M. Alexander Dick, sacrarum literarum ba-ccalaureus.

M. Johannes Mayr, decanus facultatis theologicae universitatis S. Andrae, et Martinus Balfour, doctores in theologia, annosi, grandaevi, et debiles comparuerunt per procuratores.

Ordines praedicatorum.

Johannes Gersouin provincialis.

F. Robertus Leeche.

F. Andreas Abercromby.

* Totum hoc concilium ejusque acta ordinata repetuntur, ac de novo confirmantur in concilio provinciali cleri Scoticini A. D. 1559, uti patet ex MS. Parisiensi regio.

Ordines minorum de observantia.

- F. Johannes Paterfon, minister generalis.
F. Andreas Cottis, guardianus dicti ordinis apud S. Andream.
F. Jacobus Winchester, guardianus apud Perth.
F. Johannes Scott.

Ordines conventualium: ordines S. Augustini: ordines sanctissimae trinitatis de redemptione captivorum: ordines Carmelitarum.

- M. Johannes Spittel, praepositus beatae Mariae de campis, officialis S. Andreae principalis ac rector universitatis S. Andreae.
M. Abraham Weichtoun, praepositus de Dunglas officialis S. Andreae infra archiepiscopi
M. Jacobus Hamyltone, decanus Brichinenfis.
M. Johannes Sinclair, decanus a Restalrig.
M. Gregorius Hay, decanus de Dunbar.
M. Willelmus Lamb, rector a Coreis.
M. Johannes Thornton, praecentor Moravienfis.
M. Johannes Stevenson, praecentor Glasguenfis.
D. Georgius Cryghton, praepositus S. S. tri-nitatis prope Edinburgum.
M. Patricius Myrtoune, archidiaconus Aberdonenfis.
M. Alexander Erskyne, subdecanus et offici-alis Dunkeldenfis.
M. Archibaldus Boyne, praepositus de Dal-zeil.
M. Alexander Ferret, praepositus de Fidolis.
M. Johannes Maccale, archidiaconus Lesmo-renfis.
M. Arthurus Talzefere, canonicus Aberdonenfis.
D. Nicolaus Roeh, praepositus de Taynes.
D. Andreas Dickfone, canonicus Dunkeldenfis.
D. Hugo Curroye, commendatarius de Strathphillan.
D. Andreas David, eruditus et studiosus in theologia.
M. Johannes Macquin, divinarum scriptura-rum interpres.
D. Robertus Leddal, supprior de Melros ordinis Cisterciensis.
Secretarius et notarius in concilio Andreas E-lipphantus.

Qui omnes convenientes, missa primitus solenni ibidem in dicto templo fratrum praedicatorum Edinburgen. de mandato reverendissimi domini archiepiscopi, primatis, legati nati, praesidentis, pro divina gratia fundenda, felicique in-cremento et successu rerum gerendarum in praesenti concilio seu synodo cantata et finita, simul u-nanimiter egredientes, se in aulam seu secretarium refectionis dictorum fratrum contulerunt, et ibidem omnibus in suo ordine sedentibus, et exclusis excludendis, habita fuit concio per eruditissimum in sacris licentiatum.

Sequuntur acta ordinata in praesenti concilio, et inprimis circa reformationem morum.

1. De incontinentia ecclesiasticorum.

Haec praefens synodus provide attendens quatinus constet ex clericorum incontinentia gravissima ecclesiae scandala esse exorta, proinde pro hujusmodi macula repurganda statuit decretum illud concilii Basileensis de concubinariis, sessione vicesima ad unguem observandum, et executioni demandandum, cujus decreti tenor sequitur in haec verba. "Sacrosancta synodus generalis Basileensis in Spiritu Sancto legitime congregata universalem ecclesiam repraesentans ad perpe-tuam rei memoriam statuit, ut quicumque clericus cujuscunque status, conditionis, religionis, dignitatis etiam si pontificalis, vel alterius praecminentiae existat, qui post hujus constitutionis notitiam, quam habere praesumatur, per duos menses post publicationem ejusdem, in ecclesiis cathedralibus, quam ipsi dioecesani omnino facere teneantur, postquam eadem constitutio ad eorum notitiam pervenerit, publicus fuerit concubinarius, a perceptione fructuum omnium beneficiorum suorum trium mensium spatio sit ipso facto suspensus, quos suus superior in fabricam vel aliam evidentem ecclesiarum utilitatem, ex quibus hi fructus percipiuntur, convertat, nec non et hujusmodi publicum concubinarium, ut primum esse talem innotuerit, mox suus superior teneatur monere, ut intra brevissimum terminum concubi-nam dimittat, quam si non dimiserit, vel dimis-sam aut aliam publice resumpserit, jubet haec sancta synodus, ut ipsum omnibus suis beneficiis omnino privet, et nihilominus hi publici concubinarii, usquequo cum eis per suos superiores post ipsarum concubinarum dimissionem, manifestamque vitae emendationem fuerit dispensatum, ad susceptionem quarumcunque dignitatum, beneficiorum vel officiorum sint inhabiles; qui si post dispensationem recidivo vomitu ad hujusmodi concubinatum publicum redierint, sine spe alicujus dispensationis, ad praedicta prorsus inhabiles existant. Quod si hi ad quos tali-um correctio pertinet, eos, ut praedictum est, neglexerint punire, eorum superiores tam in ipsos de neglectu, quam in illos de concubinato modis omnibus digna punitione animadvertant.
In conciliis etiam provincialibus et synodalibus adversus tales punire negligentes, vel de hoc crimine diffamatos per suspensionem a collatione beneficiorum vel alia condigna poena severiter procedatur. Et si hi, quorum destitutio ad sum-mum pontificem spectat, per provincialia concilia, aut suos superiores propter publicum concubinatum reperiantur privatione digni, statim cum processu inquisitionis ipsi summo pontifici deferantur. Eaque diligentia et inquisitio in quibuscunque capitulis generalibus et provincia-libus quoad suos servetur, poenis aliis, contra praedictos et alios non publicos concubenarios statutis, in suo robore permansuris; publici autem intelligendi sunt, non solum hi, quorum concubinatus per sententiam aut confessionem in jure factam, sed per rei evidentiam, quae nulla possit tergiversatione celari, notorius est, et qui

^b Concil. B. fileen. sess. xx. c. 1.

mulierem de incontinentia suspectam, et infamatam tenet, et per suum superiorem admonitus ipsam cum effectu non dimittat." [Cum hoc nunc in praesenti concilio addito, quod ordinarii locorum in clericos non beneficiatos et in sacris ordinibus initiatos poenis arbitrariis animadvertent, juxta personarum infordescensium qualitatem, contemptum et in similibus delictis perseverantiam.] "Quia vero nonnulli jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam, pecuniarios quaestus a concubinariis percipere non erubescunt patiando eos in tali foeditate fordescere, sub poena maledictionis aeternae praecipit, ne deinceps sub pacto, compositione, aut spe alicujus quaestus talia quovis modo tolerant, aut dissimulent, alioqui ultra praemissam negligentiae poenam, duplum ejus quod propterea restituere ad pios usus omnino teneantur et compellantur; ipsas autem concubinas seu mulieres suspectas praelati modis omnibus curent a suis subditis etiam per brachii secularis auxilium, si opus fuerit, penitus arcendas. Qui etiam ex tali concubinato procreatos filios apud patres suos cohabitare non permittant. Jubet insuper haec sancta synodus, ut etiam in praedictis synodis et capitulis haec constitutio publicetur, et quilibet suos ad ipsarum concubinarum dimissionem diligenter hortetur.

Injungit praeterea omnibus secularibus viris, etiam si regali praefulgeant dignitate, ne ullum quaecunque inferant impedimentum, quocunque quaesito colore, praelatis qui ratione officii sui adversus suos subditos pro hujusmodi concubinato procedunt. Et cum omne fornicationis crimen lege divina prohibitum sit, et sub peccati mortalis poena necessario evitandum, monet omnes laicos tam uxoratos quam solutos, ut similiter a concubinato abstineant, nimis enim reprehensibilis est qui uxorem habet, si ad alienam mulierem accedat; qui vero solutus est, si continere nolit, juxta apostoli consilium uxorem ducat. Pro hujus autem divini observatione praecepti, hi ad quos pertinet tam salubribus monitis quam aliis canonicis remediis omni uti studio laborent." Et hoc ipsum in praesenti decreto contentum in praemissis etiam monialibus hujus regni, prout congruit, praesens conventio statuit et decrevit observari.

2. Proles concubinarias in suis consortiis clerici non teneant.

Item hortatur haec synodus, ne qui praelati aut alii ecclesiastici inferiores proles suas ex concubinato susceptas in suis consortiis teneant, nec in suis ecclesiis directe aut indirecte promoveri patiantur, neque eas baronibus quovis quaesito colore in conjugium de Christi patrimonio jungant, seu barones efficiant.

3. Ne clerici vel monachi secularibus negotiis se immisceant.

Similiter ordinatum est, ne ullus ecclesiasticus, habens unde juxta suum statum honeste vivere possit, immisceat se secularibus negotiis, praecipue mercaturam exercendo, aut lucri causa, ut emptam revendat, emens, alienave praedia conducendo, quo rusticis laboribus a spirituali exercitio, propria cura neglecta, abstrahatur.

4. De vestibus clericorum.

Item ut beneficiati et in sacris ordinibus constituti byretis rotundis, veteri clericorum more, duntaxat utantur, pileosque in ecclesiis et potissimum in choris et tempore divinorum omnino deponant, nec vestes, utputa caligas, et diploides, vel alias sectas, vel colorum prohibitorum, ut flavi, viridis, et id genus discoloris deferant, togas in ecclesiis, civitatibus, oppidis et villis insignioribus portent longas et talaris; itinerando vero togas habeant curtas, et manicatas, salva tantum loci et temporis necessitate; camisas habeant albas, et albae futurae, sub poena suspensionis in presbyteros, et excommunicationis in alios, per locorum officiales, commissarios, et decanos declaranda; a quibus quidem poenis non absolvantur, nisi prius praestita cautione de abstinendo in futurum sub poena arbitraria iudicis arbitrio juxta qualitatem personarum infligenda pro prima vice, et deinceps inobedientia crescente, augeatur et poena. Super quibus per singulos decanos in eorum visitationibus, et si quis fuerit, fiat diligens inquisitio: et qui culpabiles inventi fuerint, post duos menses a publicatione praesentis statuti puniantur ut supra. Si autem decani in praemissis deficiant, five ordinationis negligentes sint comperti, officiales tunc seu ordinariorum commissarii in eos ad suum arbitrium severius animadvertant.

5. Circa nutriendas barbas, et non portantes tonsuras.

Haec eadem conventio variis adducta argumentis, et rationibus circa barbarum usum propositis, universos et singulos hujus provinciae clericali fortis et ecclesiasticos per locorum ordinarios attente hortari decrevit, ut sui status et conditionis rationem habentes, et frequentes obrectationes contra barbatos compescantur, utque clerici a laicis distincti appareant, eorum barbas tondendas curent, utque singuli clerici, saltem in sacris initiati ordinibus, rasuram congruam in coronis habeant.

6. De temperantia in victu clericorum.

Item praesens conventio hortatur omnes hujusce regni praelatos, et alios ecclesiasticos beneficiatos, ut in posterum parcius et moderatius in eorum mensis vivant, omnium esculentorum et poculentorum exquisita superfluitate juxta uniuscujusque statum et praecminentiam rejecta, ut et largius et liberalius pauperibus in eorum necessitatibus subveniatur, publicamque jejuniorum ab ecclesia indictorum violationem et in se et in suis familiis evitent, ne ex hoc de caetero eorum malo exemplo laici scandalizentur, precaturque in ecclesiasticorum mensis frequentiores lectiones sacrarum scripturarum^c juxta decretum concilii Toletani tertii, cujus tenor est talis. "Pro reverentia Dei et sacerdotum universa constituit synodus, ut quia solent crebro mensis otiosae fabulae interponi, in omni sacerdotali convivio lectio divinarum scripturarum immisceatur, per hoc enim et animae aedificantur ad bonum, et fabulae non necessariae prohibentur."

^c Forsan deest in MS. fieri.

7. De gravitate habituum clericorum.

Item hortandi sunt praelati et ecclesiastici omnes, ut dehinc graviores solito portent habitus, qui potius lanei sint decentis coloris quam ferici, gravitatem prae se ferentes, meminerintque illius versiculi divi Bernardi, viz. "Discite pontifices in fraeno quid facit aurum."

8. De clericorum servis.

Item curent praelati ut tales in eorum familiares continuosque domesticos alant et teneant, qui non aleatores, scortatores publici, ebrii, pugnaces, scurrae, noctivagi, aut divini numinis blasphematores, execrabilibus juramentis affueti reputentur; sed qui catholici, probae vitae, bonorum morum ac conversationis honestae habeantur, in bonorum exemplum et iniquorum terrorem: "cum," ut ait Bonaventura, "infamia familiae patrisfamilias dedecus videtur."

9. De visitationibus monasteriorum.

Item statutum est insuper, ut singuli locorum ordinarii, cum primum poterunt, visitent monasteria canonicorum regularium, monachorum non exemptorum et monialium, ad effectum, ut quae inibi corrigenda repperint, insequenti et proximo concilio sive conventionem per visitationis chartam referant. De exemptis vero, ut qui quid per inquisitionem in vicinis parochiis ex publica voce et fama contra honestatem vitae monasticae, et debitam loci reparationem, redditumque administrationem deprehenderint, similiter futuro concilio insinuetur, ut ex hoc de remedio prospiciatur opportuno; et qui praetendunt exemptiones in talibus monasteriis, ut easdem una cum numero religiosorum commendatarii, et illa in commendas obtinentes, ut suas provisiones in dicto futuro concilio exhibeant, ad effectum considerandi et intelligendi ad quid ipsi rigore suarum provisionum teneantur, et quatenus privilegiis sit deferendum. Et circa haec praesens conventio exhortatur in Domino omnes et singulos abbates, priores, commendatarios, administratores locorum exemptorum, cum constet regularem disciplinam et monasticam magna ex parte, negligentia eorum qui illis superintendere tenentur, labefactatam et collapsam esse, quatenus ipsi et eorum quilibet, prout decet bonos pastores, vitam, mores, devotionem et studia religiosorum reformanda, et ad primum religionis statum reducenda curent, quo inibi et devotio vigeat, et populi murmur devitetur.

10. De apostatis revocandis.

Simili modo mandat praesens conventio omnibus et singulis abbatibus, prioribus, commendatariis, administratoribus, ministris et locorum praesidentibus, quatenus ipsi et eorum quilibet omnimodam diligentiam faciant pro perquirendis et comprehendendis suis apostatis et fugitivis, qui extra loca eis subiecta aufugerint, auxilium ordinariorum illorum locorum, in quibus existunt, ad effectum comprehensionis et reductionis eorum invocent, et si id per ipsos fieri non possit, auxilium secularis potestatis per ipsos ordinarios imploretur.

VOL. IV.

11. De monialibus apostatis revocandis.

Item statutum est ut ordinaria auctoritate compellantur omnes priorissae monialium, ut quam primum dispersas suas moniales in unum congregent respective, ad effectum, ut cum ipsis simul cohabitent et sustententur, vel in aliis locis monialium hujus regni pacificis collocentur, priorissae impensa sustentandae.

12. De criminibus puniendis cum invocatione brachii secularis.

Item contra adulteros, incestuosos, sacrilegos notorios ordinat haec conventio, ut primum praelatorum ordinatione charitative admoneantur ad vitae emendationem, et si nihilominus in suis publicis criminibus postea inforduerint, fulminentur monitoriales cum omnibus censuris ecclesiasticis, etiam cum interdicto, quam citissime fieri poterit, ad quod etiam, si opus fuerit, auxilium brachii secularis invocetur, et super hujusmodi publicis excessibus diligentem per decanos investigationem fieri ordinat, si non licet in delinquentium ecclesiis, saltem in vicinis ecclesiis sit talis indagatio.

13. De visitationibus.

Praeterea constituit haec conventio, quia nonnunquam tales, ut praefertur, publici excessus, tam majores quam minores, per decanos et alios visitatores occultari et dissimulari dicuntur, eo quod pecuniarios quaestus a concubinariis et adulteris accipere non erubescant, faciendo eos in tali foeditate fordescere, quod decani ante suspensionem sui officii jurent de fidei ejus administratione in omnibus, et cum excessus majores eorundem commissariis deferunt, non prius recipiantur ab eis, quam illi denuo jurati fuerint, quod omnes et singulos excessus majores, tam publicos quam privatos, sibi per assisas et inquisitiones utrobique delatos, absque gratia et favore, prece vel pretio, nullis penitus omissis, commissariis tradant, qui si reperti fuerint in praemissis culpabiles, perjurii, amissionis officii, et aliis arbitrariis poenis per ordinarium infligendis subiaceant; et super hoc solcite inquirent commissarii, prout domino ordinario sunt responsuri.

14. De glebis ecclesiae non dandis in infeudationem vel emphytheosim.

Ne residentia vicariorum et rectorum in animarum curis et sacramentorum ecclesiae administratione negligatur, statutum est, ut nullae fiant infeudationes seu emphyteutariae locationes, vel ad longum tempus assedationes quarumcunque glebarum, seu terrarum ecclesiasticarum aliquarum, rectoriarum vel vicariarum per ipsos rectores vel vicarios in posterum, nisi prius causis tractatis; et ne tales infeudationes seu locationes per ordinarios vel capitula admittantur ullo modo vel auctorizentur; quae, si factae fuerint, pro nullis reputentur, et quod longas assedationes novemdecim annorum de et supra fructibus et decimis garbalibus dignitatum ecclesiarum cathedralium post pontificales majorum ac praebendarum, rectoriarum particularium, mensis episcopalibus et abbatialibus separatim, tis, praesens conventio easdem fieri usque ad proximam conventionem generalem vel concilium provinciale statuendum, inchoandum, et celebrandum, penitus prohibet, et ne ordinarii seu capitula interim aliquas huiusmodi admittant seu auctorizent; et si quas interea fieri contigerit, nullae et invalidae sint, et qui in praemissa interesse praetenderint, in proximo concilio audiantur.

O

15. Circa neglectam doctrinae reformationem, divinique verbi ministerium.

Praesens conventio mature avisata, actis concilii Tridentini in sessione quarta inhaerens, ad haereses reprimendas, et ad aedificationem Christi fidelium in verbis doctrinae evangelicae, statuit et ordinat, ut quilibet episcopus, ut et loci ordinarius in grege sibi commissio verbum Dei, juxta gratiam sibi a Domino concessam, per se saltem quater in anno, nisi legitimo praepeditus impedimento, ultra communes praedicationes, quae per alios ad id admissos fient, praedicet; et si qui ordinarii haecenus minus exercitati fuerint in praedicando, sese, quam primum fieri poterit, ad huiusmodi officium tam proprio studio quam aliorum doctorum reddant habiles, et ad hunc effectum viros in sacris literis eruditos in suam familiam et contubernium asciscant. Cujus quidem concilii, acti seu decreti tenor sequitur in haec verba.

“ Eadem sacrosancta synodus piis summorum pontificum et probatorum conciliorum constitutionibus inhaerens, easdemque amplectens, et illis adjiciens, ne caelestis ille thesaurus sacrorum ciborum, quem Sanctus Spiritus sua liberalitate hominibus tradidit, neglectus jaceat, statuit et decrevit; quod in illis ecclesiis, in quibus praebenda aut praestimonium, seu quovis alio nomine nuncupatum stipendium, pro lectoribus sacrae theologiae deputatum reperitur, ipsi episcopi, archiepiscopi, primates, et alii locorum ordinarii eos, qui praebendam aut praestimonium seu stipendium huiusmodi obtinent, ad ipsius sacrae scripturae expositionem et interpretationem per seipsos, si idonei fuerint, alioqui per idoneum substitutum ab episcopis, archiepiscopis, primatibus, et aliis locorum ordinariis eligendum, etiam per subtractionem fructuum cogant et compellant. De caetero vero praebenda, praestimonium seu stipendium huiusmodi non nisi personis idoneis, et qui per seipsos id munus explicare possunt, conferantur; et aliter facta, provisio nulla sit et invalida. In ecclesiis autem metropolitanis vel cathedralibus, si civitas insignis seu populosa, ac etiam in collegiatis existentibus in aliqua insigni oppido etiam nullius dioecesis; si ibi clerus numerosus fuerit, ubi nulla praebenda aut praestimonium seu stipendium ejusmodi deputatum reperitur, praebenda quomodocunque, praeter quam ex causa resignationis, prima vacatura, cui aliud onus incompatible inunctum non sit, ad eum usum ipso facto perpetuo constituta et deputata intelligatur; et quatenus in ipsis ecclesiis nulla vel non sufficiens praebenda foret, metropolitanus vel episcopus ipse per assignationem fructuum alicujus simplicis beneficii, ejusdem tamen debitis supportatis oneribus, vel per contributionem beneficiorum suae civitatis et dioecesis, vel alias, prout commodius fieri poterit, de capituli consilio ita provideat, ut ipsa sacrae scripturae lectio habeatur; ita tamen quod quaecunque aliae lectiones vel consuetudine, vel alia quavis ratione institutae, propter id minime praetermittantur: ecclesiae vero quarum annui proventus tenues fuerint, et ubi tam exigua est cleri et populi multitudo, ut theologiae lectio in eis commode haberi non possit, saltem magistrum habeant ab episcopo capituli consilio eligendum, qui clericos aliosque scholares pauperes grammaticam gratis doceat, ut deinceps ad sacrae scripturae studia, adjuvante Deo, transire possint; ideoque illi magistro grammatices alicujus simplicis beneficii fructus, quos tamdiu percipiat, quamdiu in docendo persistit, assignentur: dum tamen beneficium ipsum suo debito non fraudetur obsequio, vel ex capitulari vel episcopali mensa condigna aliqua merces persolvatur, vel alias episcopus ipse aliquam rationem ineat suae ecclesiae et dioecesi accommodam, ne pia haec utilis ac fructuosa provisio quovis quaesito colore negligatur. In monasteriis quoque monachorum, ubi commode id fieri queat, etiam lectio sacrae scripturae habeatur, qua in re, si abbates negligentes fuerint, episcopi locorum in hoc ut sedis apostolicae delegati, eos ad id opportunis remediis compellant. In conventibus vero et aliorum regularium locis, in quibus studia commode vigere possunt, etiam lectio sacrae scripturae habeatur; quae lectio a capitulis generalibus vel provincialibus assignetur dignioribus magistris. In gymnasiis etiam publicis ubi tam honorifica et caeterarum omnium maxime necessaria lectio instituta non fuerit, religiosorum principum et rerum publicarum pietate et charitate ad catholicae fidei defensionem et incrementum, sacraeque doctrinae conservationem et propagationem instituat, et ubi instituta foret et negligenter restitueretur, et ne sub specie pietatis impietas diffeminetur.”

16. Quomodo eligi debeat publicus lector.

“ Statuit eadem sancta synodus neminem ad huiusmodi officium lectionis tam publice quam privatim admittendum esse, qui non prius ab episcopo loci de vita, moribus et scientia examinatus et probatus fuerit, quod tamen de lectoribus in claustris monachorum non intelligatur.”

17. Privilegia studentium in theologia.

Docentes vero scripturam ipsam sacram, dum publice in scholis docuerint, et scholares qui in ipsis scholis student, privilegiis omnibus de perceptione fructuum praebendarum et beneficiorum suorum in absentia a jure concessis plene gaudeant et fruuntur. “ Quia vero christianae reipublicae non minus necessaria est praedicatio evangelii quam lectio, et hoc est praecipuum episcoporum munus; statuit et decrevit eadem sancta synodus omnes episcopos, archiepiscopos, primates, et omnes alios ecclesiarum praelatos teneri per seipsos, si legitime praepediti non fuerint, ad praedicandum sanctum Jesu Christi evangelium; si vero contigerit episcopos et alios praelatos legitimo detineri impedimento, juxta formam generalis concilii viros idoneos assumere teneantur ad hujusmodi praedicationis officium salubriter exequendum, si quis vero hoc adimplere contempserit, districtae subiaceat ultioni”.

^c Concil. Trident. sessio v. cap. 1. De reformatione.

^d Concil. Trident. sessio v. cap. 2. De reformatione.

18. De praedicatione verbi populo.

“^e Archipresbyteri quoque, et plebani, et quicunque parochiales vel alias curam animarum habentes ecclesias quocunque modo obtinent per se vel alios idoneos, si legitime impediti fuerint, diebus saltem dominicis et festis solennibus plebes sibi commissas pro sua et earum capacitate pascant salutaribus verbis, docendo ea quae omnibus scire necessarium ad salutem, annunciandoque eis, cum brevitate et facilitate sermonis, vitia, quae eos declinare, et virtutes, quas eos sectari oportet, ut poenam aeternam evadere, et caelestem gloriam consequi valeant; id vero si quis eorum praestare negligat, etiamsi ab episcopi jurisdictione quavis ratione se exemptum esse praetenderit, etiamsi ecclesiae quovis modo exemptae dicantur, aut alibi alicui monasterio etiam extra dioecesim existenti forsitan annexae vel unitae (modo reipsa in dioecesi sint) provida pastoralis sollicitudo non desit, ne illud impleatur, “parvuli petierunt panem et non erat qui frangeret eis”. Itaque ubi ab episcopo moniti trium mensium spatio muneri suo defuerint, per censuras ecclesiasticas aut alias “ad ipsius episcopi arbitrium cogantur, ita ut etiam, si ei expedire visum fuerit, ex beneficiorum fructibus alteri, qui id praestet, honesta aliqua merces persolvatur, donec principalis ipse resipiscens officium suum impleat. Si quae vero parochiales ecclesiae reperiantur subjectae monasteriis, in nulla dioecesi existentibus, si abbates et regulares praelati in praemissis negligentes fuerint, a metropolitanis, in quorum provinciis dioeceses ipsae sitae sunt, tanquam, quoad hoc, sedis apostolicae delegatis, compellantur, neque hujus decreti executionem consuetudo vel exemptio, aut appellatio, vel reclamatio, five recursus impedire valeat, quousque desuper a competente, iudice, qui summarie, et sola facti veritate inspecta, procedat, cognitum sit ac decisum. Regulares vero cujuscunque ordinis, nisi a suis superioribus, de vita, moribus, et scientia examinati et probati fuerint, ac de eorum licentia, etiam in ecclesiis suorum ordinum praedicare non possunt, cum qua licentia personaliter se coram episcopis praesentare, et ab eis benedictionem petere teneantur antequam praedicare incipiant.

Item in ecclesiis, quae suorum ordinum non sunt, ultra licentiam suorum superiorum, etiam episcopi licentiam habere teneantur, sine qua in ipsis ecclesiis non suorum ordinum nullo modo praedicare possint, ipsam autem licentiam episcopi gratis concedant.”

19. De pseudopraedicatoribus.

“Si^f vero, quod absit, praedicator errores aut scandala disseminaverit in populum, etiamsi in monasterio sui vel alterius ordinis praedicet; episcopus ei praedicationem interdicat. Quod si haereses praedicaverit, contra eum secundum juris dispositionem, aut loci consuetudinem procedat; etiamsi praedicator ipse generali vel speciali privilegio exemptum se esse praetenderet. Quo casu episcopus auctoritate apostolica, et tanquam sedis apostolicae delegatus procedat. Curent autem episcopi, ne quis praedicator vel ex falsis informationibus, vel alias calumniose vexetur, justamve de eis conquerendi occasionem habeat. Caveant praeterea episcopi, ne aliquem vel eorum, qui cum sint nomine regulares, extra claustra tamen, et obedientiam religionum suarum vivunt; vel presbyterorum secularium, nisi ipsis noti sint, et moribus atque doctrina probati, etiam quorumlibet privilegiorum praetextu in sua civitate vel dioecesi praedicare permittant, donec ab ipsis episcopis super ea re sancta sedes apostolica consulatur, a qua privilegia hujusmodi, nisi tacita veritate, et expresso mendacio, ab indignis extorqueri verisimile non est. Quaestores vero eleemosynarii, qui etiam “quaestarii” vulgo dicuntur, cujuscunque conditionis existant, nullo modo nec per se, nec per alium, praedicare praesumant; et contrafacientes ab episcopis et ordinariis locorum, privilegiis quibuscunque non obstantibus, opportunis remediis omnino arceantur.”

20. Quod rectores et episcopi quater in anno praedicent.

Circa quae quo frequentioribus divini verbi praedicationibus instruatur populus statutum est, ut ecclesiarum parochialium rectores, qui iudicio ordinarii ad praedicandum fidei rudimenta suis parochianis habiles et idonei censebuntur, per se saltem, juxta statuta provincialia et synodalia pro praedicatoribus edita, quater in anno praedicent; illis vero rectoribus, qui juvenes et inidonei ad id visi fuerint, per locorum ordinarios injungatur, ut se ad hoc quam primum reddant per studia in gymnasiis publicis habiles, et interim per alios praedicatores suis sumptibus de licentia ordinarii admittendos, praedicare, et suas vices supplere debeant; qui autem grandaevi et doctrinae incapaces sunt, hoc ipsum similiter per alios fieri procurent, quos etiam per suam praesentiam praedicantes auctorizare oportebit, et hoc ultra communes praedicationes seu instructiones per vicarios seu curatos singulis dominicis diebus et forsan aliis majoribus festis, ut supra, fiendas. De rectoribus vero, monasteriis, collegiatis ecclesiis, seu aliis piis locis in communis seu mensae capitulari unitis, ordinatum est ut abbates, priores, et commendatarii, administratores, praepositi, decani et praebendati, rectoriarum portionarii, per se vel eorum membra inferiora, seu alios eorum nomine, populum in fide instruendum curent, et id suis parochianis fieri procurent; priorissas autem monialium archiepiscopo sancti Andreae subjectas, ut a sede apostolica sententiatum est, sub poenis in dicto provinciali statuto et aliis statutis desuper editis, ad idem teneri decrevit, quae de novo publicari et praesentibus inseri in hac synodo decretum est.

^e Ibidem.

^f Conc. Trid. ut supra.

21. Quod in unaquaque ecclesia cathedrali sit theologus, et juris canonici professor.

Concilium seu conventio verbi divini seminationem insequens pro sustentatione doctorum et eruditorum in theologia, ac jure pontificio, apud ecclesias cathedrales et civitates, statuit; ut universi et singuli locorum ordinarii apud suas ecclesias cathedrales habeant continuo unum doctorem theologum, licentiatum vel baccalaureum in theologia, et similiter canonistam in jure pontificio qualificatum; utque theologus praedictus omni die legibili, saltem in unaquaque hebdomade, in sacris literis publice legat, et interpretetur, ac tam in eadem cathedrali quam in aliis ecclesiis praedicet, cui interpretanti et praedicanti civitatis illius episcopus et canonici, si voluntas fuerit, intersint, canonista quoque similiter jus canonicum publice in dicta ecclesia ac civitate profiteatur, cui ipsi canonici et reliqui ipsius civitatis clerici intersint; pro quorum theologi ac canonistae sustentatione quilibet ordinarius deputabit aliquod beneficium de proximo vacaturum ad suam dispositionem spectans infra suam ecclesiam, ad valorem annum pro theologo ad minus centum librarum, pro canonista vero centum marcarum Scoticae monetae, pro perpetuis futuris temporibus, ipsis et eorum successoribus, in iisdem officiis remansuris. Qui ambo theologus ac canonista legere et docere circa festum divi Michaelis die 29 mensis Septembris proxime futuri incipient. Provisum est quoque per hanc synodum quod usque ad vacationem beneficiorum praedictorum, ad praemissum effectum disponendorum, quilibet ordinarius suis propriis sumptibus a dicto festo divi Michaelis eos honeste sustentabit ad ratam et quantitatem dictarum summarum.

22. Quod in unoquoque monasterio sit unus theologus.

Similique pro effectu ad eundem modum, ut sacrarum literarum studia et virtutes, ipsi Deo acceptae, in monasteriis, ut olim, secundum Deum florent, ordinatum est ut singuli abbates, priores, commendatarii, praelaturarum majorum administratores inveniant et sustentent theologum religiosum vel secularem, qui singulis diebus, ut supra, infra septa monasteriorum divinas literas, prout auditoribus expedierit, legere teneatur, et in ecclesiis ipsis monasteriis annexatis, ut praemittitur, praedicent. Praelati etiam beneficia ad eorum dispositionem spectantia obtinentes iisdem theologis et eorum successoribus pro eorum sustentatione de beneficiis ad valorem centum marcarum provideant; non habentes vero beneficia ad eorum dispositionem et praesentationem ad praedictum effectum, cujusmodi sunt illi Cif-terciensis ordinis, eundem theologum propriis expensis, juxta praefatae summae rationem, praefato theologo honeste secundum statuta sui ordinis sustentando providere curent, ea tamen lege adjecta, quod per hanc ordinationem eleemosynae consuetae religiosorum mendicantium et praedicatorum non abstrahantur vel minuantur.

Item ut in monasteriis de se etiam evadant et efflorent viri literati, et in divino eloquio et pastu animarum salutari concionatores, haec sancta conventio praecipit, ut ex uniuscujusque hujus regni dioecesis monasteriis, juxta ipsorum monasteriorum facultates, transmittantur duo aut unus religiosi, vel religiosus ad literarum capacitatem maxime habiles, et ingeniosi, ad universitates omnes proximas vel alias, ut illis libuerit, ibidem saltem ad quadriennium in theologia et sacris litteris studendo remansuri, quo spatio completo remittantur ad ipsas universitates alii religiosi praedicti, pari modo literis vacaturi.

23. Monasteria praecipua e quibus ad literarum studia praefati effectus causa religiosi juxta monasteriorum vires et facultates sint emittendi, sequentem per modificationem notantur.

Et primo de dioecesi S. Andreae.

Ex monasterio prioratus sancti Andreae religiosi	3
Ex monasterio de Aberbrothick religiosi	3
Ex monasterio de Dunfermling	2
Ex monasterio sanctae crucis	2
Ex monasterio de Calco	2
Ex monasterio de Cupro	2
Ex monasterio de Cambuskenneth	1
Ex monasterio de Lundoris	1
Ex monasterio de Balmerino	1
Ex monasterio de Coldinghame	1
Ex monasterio de Pettynweyme	1
Ex monasterio de Dryburgh	1
Ex monasterio sive prioratu de North Berwick	1
Ex prioratu de Haddington seculari	1

Glasguensis dioecesis.

Ex monasterio de Pasleto	2
Ex monasterio de Melros	2
Ex monasterio de Kylwyning	1
Ex monasterio crucis regalis	1
Ex monasterio de Jedbourg	1
Ex monasterio de Halywoode	1
Ex monasterio dulcis cordis	1

In dioecesi candidae casae.

Ex prioratu de candida casa	2
Ex monasterio Vallis lucis	1
Ex Dundraman	1
Ex Tungland	1

In dioecesi Aberdonensi.

Pro monasterio de Deyr	1
------------------------	---

In dioecesi Moravienfi.

Ex monasterio de Kinlos	1
Ex monasterio Pluscardensi	1

In dioecesi Dublanensi.

Inchechaffray	1
Culros	1

Culros ———— 1
Inchemahome ———— 1

In dioecesi Dunkeldensi.

Pro monasterio S. Columbae. ————

De reliquis dioecesibus tacetur.

24. De methodo et forma praedicationum.

Praedicatores nunc instituti et alii secundum praesentem hanc synodum post hujusce statuti publicationem hanc formam in suis praedicationibus observare tenebuntur, ut in omnibus et singulis eorum praedicationibus seu concionibus priorem partem epistolae vel evangelii declarando tribuant, et illius partem posteriorem, prout tempus et auditores patientur, catechismo, hoc est communi doctrina et instructione impertiantur. Catechismus autem vocamus brevem instructionem in fidei rudimentis, vel in expositione articulorum fidei, decalogi, praeceptorum, peccatorum septem mortalium, septem ecclesiae sacramentorum, dominicae orationis, et salutationis angelicae, ac operum misericordiae; in quibus omnibus praedicationibus injungatur ut populum christianum inducant ad sacramenti altaris condignam venerationem, et ut de viribus et usu ejusdem pro captu populi populum instruant.

25. Forma in interpretatione theologiae servanda.

Ut ea circa haec in publicis gymnasiis et academiiis legantur, per quae doctrinam utilem tradi et populi Christi fidelis eruditioni consuli speretur; statuit haec sancta synodus, ut lectores scripturarum et theologiae in singulis collegiis ita scripturis et theologiae vacent, ut aliqui scripturas quam purissime juxta ecclesiae catholicae sensum tractare nitantur; alii vero ex eis ad veterum doctorum amussim et catholicae fidei veritatem theologiae diversis horis uniuscujusque hebdomadae diebus certis legendae incumbant, sic ut taliter studentes in sacris ipsis scripturis et speculativis proficiant, et ut idipsum quilibet ordinarius intra suam universitatem, si quam habeat, aliter vero intra suam civitatem et apud ecclesiam cathedralem fieri procuret; mandat ipsa synodus, quod utilius et pro tempore efficacius fore censetur, ut quantum ad speculativam theologiam, lectionum probatorum auctorum, ut sunt opera magistri sententiarum, commentarii divi Thomae Aquinatis, sancti Bonaventurae, et aliorum potius vacent.

26. Ordo servandus in lectionibus grammaticis et dialecticis.

Vult et jubet haec eadem synodus, ut provideat uniuscujusque universitatis rector, causis ad id moventibus non oblitis seu omissis, ne ulli ad scholas dialecticas recipiantur, nisi qui Latine et grammaticae loquuntur, ac ut dialecticam artem experiri cupientes, priusquam ad illam artem admittantur, examinentur, et ne ad bacalaureatus seu magisterii lauream recipiantur, nisi prius ad hoc de examinis rigore idonei fuerint reperti; alioqui ad proximam inferiorem classem deponantur, quod nisi factum fuerit, rectori imputabitur.

VOL IV.

Item provideat archidiaconus sancti Andreae pro magistro scholae grammaticalis in civitate sancti Andreae, qui sit in grammaticis versatus, et bonis moribus imbutus, et in aliis ad instruendos pueros et puerilia grammaticae non calentes requisite sufficiens.

27. De qualitate ordinandorum.

Quantum ad qualitatem ordinandorum in moribus, scientia et titulo, statutum est ut in his sacrorum canonum dispositio ad unguem servetur, et inter ordinandum singuli ordinarii habeant prae oculis eandem dispositionem, quam ordinando legere, aut legi facere, faciant, quodque nulli ecclesiastici quantumcunque in literis et moribus sufficientes par spatium trium annorum proximorum a data praesentium futurorum in sacris ordinibus initientur, nisi beneficiati, religiosi, titulum canonicum ad valorem viginti librarum monetae Scoticae habentes; circa quae discutiant diligenter ordinarii eorum titulos; omnis etiam illicitae factionis absit suspicio, et super hoc fidem faciant ordinandi. Et ordinati per ultramarinos episcopos, undecunque venerint, altari non se immisceant, et nisi per dioecesanos aut eorum deputatos ad id commissos, in quorum dioecesibus altari sese junxerunt, praevio examine idonei comperiuntur, nequaquam permittantur, ita ut idonei secundum praesens institutum reperti admissionem mereantur, et in his inidonei comperti ab ordinum suorum executione, usquequo habiles et idoneos sese reddiderint, suspendantur.

28. Quod singuli curati examinentur per ordinarios.

Circa parochialium ecclesiarum curatos seu ministros curam animarum exercentes, quia ex illis plurimi per totum regnum Scotiae adeo insufficientes, tam in literatura, moribus, et discretionem, quam in aliis ad id officium necessariis deprehenduntur; statuit praesens conventio, ut per locorum ordinarios intra hinc et ultimum Decembris proxime futurum vocentur coram ipsis ordinariis, vel eorum commissariis ad id deputatis, seu deputandis, singuli curati ad subeundum examen debitum in omnibus eorum officio convenientibus, cum certificatione; quod si non comparuerint, ab eorum curis et officiis amoveantur, et qui idonei fuerint, et comparuerint, continuabuntur et de novo admittentur; inidonei vero juxta juris dispositionem rejicientur, et ad se removendum in proximis eorum synodis praemoneantur, ac singuli curatorum inidoneorum vicarii seu rectores, ubi vicarii proximi non sunt, admoneantur, ut per se in eorum curis deserviant, quoadusque per ordinarium loci de qualificato curato provisum fuerit. Pensionarii vero vicarii, ut ex statutis et consuetudine in eorum curis et pensionibus resideant, ac per se deserviant sub poena suspensionis et confiscationis fructuum omnium suorum, pensionum, et reddituum in pauperum usus per ordinarium applicandorum; et similiter examinentur isti vicarii pensionarii, ac eorum parochiani et vicini, seu

P

alii

alii notitiam habentes, et qui inhabiles inventi fuerint, statim ordinariis deferantur ad effectum, ut in concilio provinciali seu conventione generali proxime futura contra eos de remedio provideatur opportuno.

29. Qualis eligi debeat, ut fiat curatus.

Idoneitas autem praeficiendorum animarum curis et beneficiis ecclesiasticis in hoc potissimum consideretur, ut qui ad hujusmodi beneficia et curas admitti petunt, satisfacere velint et possint officiis suis sibi committendis, suoque munere juxta beneficii et curae exigentiam fideliter fungi, sintque viri legitimae aetatis, moribus graves, literarum scientia praediti, ad sacros ordines promoti, nec corpore vitiiati; alioqui sciant hi, quorum interest, tales ad beneficia ecclesiastica et curas admitti cupientes, ut siquidem dolo, gratia, favore, vel negligentia in his peccaverint, non minorem sibi quam illis malis vicariis aut curatis, quos ipsi dictis curis praefecerint, poenam incurrisse, quae eis in districto Dei judicio imminet, et praeterea poenis etiam canonicis sese sciant esse obnoxios. Et praeterea ut ipsi vicarii et curati suo officio attentius absque impedimento deservire teneantur, negligentiaque eorum liberius puniatur; ordinatum existit, ut quilibet vicarius pensionarius seu curatus curam animarum exercens, et in eo residens, habeat singulis annis pro suo feudo et stipendio viginti marcas Scoticae monetae, vel aequivalentiam computandam proficuis horto et curae adjacentibus, hoc proviso, quod in illis dioecesibus seu locis, ubi viget fames et caritas victualium ex hostium invasionibus et incurSIONibus, ordinarii locorum in suis synodis hujusmodi sterilitatis et caritatis annonae causa stipendia charitative augeant, ac ut non liceat ipsis vicariis pensionariis seu curatis per substitutos, sed per seipsos in dictis curis residere, alioqui loco curatorum licebit vicario seu rectori alium loco non residentis deputare de ordinarii consilio, absque ulteriori processu; quum pensionarii non residentes per ordinarios veniant privandi, juxta illud Tridentini concilii, quod incipit: "inferiora vero beneficia:" cujus tenor sequitur in haec verba, "inferiora vero beneficia ecclesiastica praesertim curam animarum habentia, personis dignis et habilibus, et quae in loco residere, ac per seipsos curam earum exercere valeant, juxta constitutionem Alexandri III. in Lateranensi, quae incipit: "quia nonnulli": et aliam Gregorii X. in generali Lugdunensi concilio, quae incipit: "licet canon:" editam, conferantur. Aliter autem facta collatio, sive provisio, omnino irritetur; et ordinarius collator poenas constitutionis generalis concilii, quae incipit: "grave nimis:" se noverit incursum.

30. Quod nemo plura beneficia incompatibilia habeat.

Quicumque plura curata habeat, aut alia incompatibilia beneficia ecclesiastica, sive per viam unionis ad vitam seu commendae perpetuae, aut alio quocunque nomine et titulo, contra formam sacrorum canonum, et praesertim constitutionis Innocentii III. quae incipit: "de multa:" recipere ac simul retinere praesumpserit, beneficiis ipsis juxta ipsius constitutionis dispositionem ipso jure praesentis canonis vigore privatus existat.

31. Quod ordinarii dispensationes exhiberi faciant.

Ordinarii locorum quoscunque plura curata aut alia beneficia incompatibilia beneficia ecclesiastica obtinentes dispensationes suas exhibere districte compellant, alias procedant juxta constitutionem Gregorii X. in generali Lugdunensi concilio, quae incipit: "ordinarii:" quam eadem sacrosancta synodus innovandam censet et innovat; addens insuper, quod ipsi ordinarii etiam per idoneorum vicariorum deputationem et congruae portionis assignationem omnino provideant, ut animarum cura nullatenus negligatur, et beneficia ipsa debitis obsequiis minime defraudentur; appellationibus et exemptionibus quibuscunque, etiam cum judicum specialium deputatione, et illorum inhibitionibus in praemissis minime suffragantibus.

32. De unionibus beneficiorum.

Uniones perpetuae a quadraginta annis citra factae examinari ab ordinariis, tanquam a sede apostolica delegatis, possunt, et quae per surreptionem vel abreptionem obtentae fuerint, irritae declarentur; illae vero quae a dicto tempore citra concessae, vel in toto vel in parte effectum nondum sunt sortitae, et quae deinceps ad cujusvis instantiam fuerint, nisi eas ex legitimis et rationabilibus causis coram ordinario loci vocatis, quorum interest, verificandis factas fuisse constiterit, per surreptionem obtentae praesumantur, ac propterea, nisi aliter a sede apostolica declaratum fuerit, viribus omnino careant.

Beneficia ecclesiastica curata, quae cathedralibus, collegiatis, seu aliis ecclesiis vel monasteriis, beneficiis seu collegiis, aut piis locis quibuscunque perpetuo annexa et unita reperiuntur, ab ordinariis locorum annis singulis visitentur; qui solcite providere procurent, ut per idoneos vicarios perpetuos (nisi ipsis ordinariis pro bono ecclesiarum regimine aliter expedire videbitur) ab eis pro tertiae partis fructuum aut majori vel minori, arbitrio ipsorum ordinariorum, portione, etiam super certa re assignanda, ibidem deputandos, animarum cura laudabiliter exerceatur; appellationibus, privilegiis, exemptionibus, etiam cum judicum deputatione, et illorum inhibitionibus quibuscunque in praemissis minime suffragantibus.

33. Ordinarii loca exempta visitent.

Locorum ordinarii quascunque ecclesias quomodolibet exemptas, auctoritate apostolica singulis annis visitare teneantur, et opportunis remediis providere, ut quae reparari indigent, reparentur, et cura animarum, si qua illis immineat, aliisque debitis obsequiis minime defraudentur; appellationibus, privilegiis, consuetudinibus etiam ab immemoriabili tempore praespraescriptis, judicum deputationibus et illorum inhibitionibus penitus exclusis.

in omnibus, juxta morem praefatum in illis servatum et servandum.

34. Circa clericos parochiales.

Statuit synodus, ut clerici parochiales per se deserviant in eorum officiis, vel praesentent in singulis synodis sufficientem substitutum, per ordinarium admittendum, in ipso officio deservientem, qui honestus sit, et novit honeste vices sui principalis in officio hujusmodi supplere; alioqui si id non factum fuerit, mulctetur tertia parte emolumentorum clericatus prima vice, et secunda bina pauperibus applicanda, et deinceps arbitrio ordinarii poena puniatur.

35. De testamentis, et quod executores computum reddant et rationem.

Haec conventio statuit, ut registrentur autentice omnia testamenta, et defunctorum bonorum inventaria, ad executionem nominatorum, et bonorum intermissorum conservacionem, a quibus per officiales et commissarios ordinarios singulis annis de bonorum et rerum fideli administratione computum et ratio omnium reddatur, prout ad id admonendi sunt tam in confirmationibus, quam in redditione computorum, ut provideatur super indemnitate prolium; pupillorum, legatariorum, et aliorum interesse habentium per sufficientem rationem, et aliter, prout de jure, et ne decani vel commissarii aliqua testamenta confirment, nisi prius receptis juramentis ab executoribus de fidelitate et veritate inventariorum, et de pretiis bonorum.

36. Circa testamenta dioecesanorum Orcadenisum, ad modum et morem solitum et debitum reliquarum provinciae Scoticae dioeceseon reducend. et observand.

Praesens provinciae Scoticae generalis conventio, seu concilium provinciale legitime convocatum, servatis primitus de jure et consuetudine servandis, ac longis et justis super infra scriptis tractatibus et considerationibus praehabitis disputatis et discussis, pro perpetuis futuris temporibus, et ad perpetuam rei memoriam constituit, decrevit, et ordinavit; quod in condendis testamentis et bonorum innotationibus, tam in testatis quam non testatis ab intestato decedentium per omnes et singulas totas et integras insulas Orcaden. et Zetlandiae, et alias partes ubilibet per dioeceses et jurisdictionem spiritualem subjectas Orcadeni ecclesiae, omnes et singuli Orcadenes dioecesani eidem legi et consuetudini subjaceant, quibus caeteri in aliis quibuslibet Scotiae provinciis ac dioecesebus; quodque defunctorum dioec. Orcaden. executores nominati, et utcumque testantium et non testantium, seu ab intestato decedentium, bonorum intermissores ad conficienda bona inventaria, eaque ordinario aut ejus commissariis exhibenda et confirmanda curent, et pro eis ordinaria debita et solita satisfacere teneantur: quod si non fecerint, seu aliquis eorum non fecerit, licebit dicto ordinario et ejus commissariis, servatis processibus in similibus consuetis, de dictis bonis five testatis five non testatis executores dativos ad ejus arbitrium dare et constituere 37. De examinatione notariorum.

Ordinatum est praeterea, ut vocentur notarii in singulis dioecesebus per eorum ordinarios respective ad subeundam novam examinationem secundum juris consuetudinem, et parlamentorum regni exigentiam, qui vocari statuuntur ad hos dies, ad quos vocandi sunt ecclesiarum curati, inter hanc et primam suarum dioeceseon synodum, ad effectum examinationis; utque interea fiat inquisitio inter eorum vicinos per commissarios ad hoc deputandos, super firma existimatione, legalitate et fideli exercitio tabellionatus et officiis hujusmodi, antequam ad examinationem veniant: ubi habita examinatione, idonei reperiuntur, admittantur, et statim literas suarum admissionum recipiant; inidonei vero ab executione officii suspendantur, sic quod in posterum eorum instrumenta pro nullis et invalidis in judicio et extra habeantur; nec non quod notarii admissi imprimant, vel subscribant sua signa, quibus in instrumentis usi sunt et usuri, in libris officialium illarum dioeceseon, five commissariorum, coram quibus et per quos examinentur, et contumaces citatione praeventi usque ad comparitionem suspendantur, et tam admissi quam non admissi in synodis praedictis publicentur.

38. De protocollis notariorum defunctorum.

Statuit haec synodus et decrevit, ut protocollo, five libri et in breviaturae notariorum defunctorum decedentibus notariis, ad officialem illius dioecesis, in qua decedunt, actualiter deliberentur, et si hi libri protocoll. per notarios decedentes aliquibus in eorum testamentis legati fuerint, ineatur ratio seu transactio inter tales legatarios et scribas officialium, super proficuis et utilitate instrumentorum de protocollis extrahendorum, quae fienda curent singuli officiales in eorum officialibus et jurisdictione, et quod folia protocollorum in eorum receptione numerentur, et signentur per dictos officiales.

39. De pluralitate beneficiorum.

Quantum ad pluralitatem beneficiorum conventio seu concilium refert se ordinatis seu ordinandis in concilio Tridentino, nondum dissoluto, quod sic incipit: "Nemo quacunque etiam dignitate, gradu aut praeceminencia praefulgens, plures metropolitanas, seu cathedrales ecclesias in titulum five commendam, aut alio quovis nomine, contra sacrorum canonum instituta, recipere et simul retinere praesumat; cum valde faelix sit ille censendus, cui unam ecclesiam bene ac fructuose, et cum animarum sibi commissarum salute regere contigerit. Qui autem plures ecclesias contra praesentis decreti tenorem nunc detinent, una, quam maluerint, retenta, reliqua infra sex menses, si ad liberam sedis apostolicae dispositionem pertineant, alias infra annum dimittere teneantur; alioquin ecclesiae ipsae, ultimo obtenta duntaxat excepta, eo ipso vacare censeantur. De beneficiis inferioribus superius patuit."

40. De foundationibus hospitalium et monasteriorum.

De hospitalium statu et reformatione statutum est, ut quilibet ordinarius per suam dioecesim diligenter inquirat de foundationibus hospitalium ubicunque locorum intra ejus dioecesim fitorum, et si ipsarum foundationis chartae sive instrumenta reperiri poterunt, consideret diligenter, qui reditus et jura eisdem spectabant, et spectare deberent, et pro quibus et qualibus personis erant instituta, et de eorundem piorum locorum destructione, mutatione reddituum in alios usus, et a quibus de praesenti possidentur, et quo titulo; et idem fiat de capellaniis et aliis foundationibus, et officiis ecclesiasticis perpetuis, et in divinum cultum, et pro salute et suffragio animarum fundatis intra dioecesim; et quod in praemissis certi comperuerint, in sequenti conventionem generali, seu praelatorum concilio provinciali, ad effectum correctionis referant: circa quae hortatur haec conventio omnes et singulos abbates, priores, commendatarios, administratores, priorissas monialium, nec non praepositos, ac decanos ecclesiarum collegiatarum, et qui ad hoc tenentur, quatenus eleemosynas per ipsos pauperibus mendicantibus erogari solitas, renovandas et continuandas curent, ac suas ecclesias tam in parietibus quam in tectis ruinosas, ac defectuosas reparent, et restaurent; et desuper singuli ordinarii in suis visitationibus proxime futuris diligentem inquisitionem et discussionem habeant, nec non ut hujusmodi eleemosynarum dispensatio viris fidelibus et discretis ac honestis committatur, qui pauperum curam in illis locis agant, atque ut uniuscujusque monasterii magistri fabricae et operum directores, quatenus singulis annis in ecclesiis fieri debet, ad loca ecclesiastica ipsis monasteriis et ecclesiis praefatis annexata, pro defectuum correctione visitanda mittantur, hortatur et ordinat.

41. Quod beneficia patronatus non conferantur nisi praevio edicto.

Item ad evitandas lites in beneficialibus, ne ex ignotis procedatur interdum ad conferendum beneficia, quae ad aliorum patronatum spectant, statuit concilium, ne per locorum ordinarios provisiones quorumcunque beneficiorum, in non maxime clavis, nisi praevio edicto publice et summarie tam de vacationibus quam de jure patronatus ipsorum praesentantium, juxta cap. fid. de elect. lib. vi. cognito. Exceptis his, quae ad ipsorum ordinariorum dispositionem collationemque pleno jure pertinent, et de quorum patronatu certo et liquido constat, cuicunque vel quibuscunque fiant aut concedantur, utque registra omnium collationum apud singulos ordinarios, et eorum quemlibet remaneant.

42. Ad sustentationem et persistentiam seminariorum verbi divini, quo christiana plebs pascenda est.

Archiepiscopus primas, episcopi ordinarii, et alii inferiores de clero, in concilio praesenti provinciali conventionem generalem episcoporum, et cleri regni Scotiae repraesentantes, ad perpetuitatem sermocinantium per provinciam, et eorundem sustentationem, ne praedicantes ipsi victu et necessariis destituantur, assignarunt pro se et aliis respective praedicatoribus sermocinaturis, per quemlibet praelatum, in suis locis et populo subiecto, praedicandi beneficia sequentia, cum provisione fienda de non resignandis illis per possessores in praedudicium sermocinantium, ut instrumentis desuper captis continetur.

Sequitur praedicatoribus assignatum.

- Pro archiepiscopo S. Andreae rectoria seu ecclesia de Mutzerz.
- Pro archiepiscopo Glasguensi vicaria Glasguensis seu Glasgu. secunda.
- Pro episcopo Aberdonensi praecentoria aut praebenda de Crouden.
- Pro episcopo Moraviensi rectoria de Inverka-then.
- Pro episcopo candidae casae rectoria de Szertzerfy.
- Pro episcopo Dumblanensi praebenda de Kippin.
- Pro episcopo Dunkeldensi archidiaconatus Dunkeldensis.
- Pro episcopo Lesmorensi archidiaconatus Lesmorensis.
- Pro episcopo Orcadeni praepositus de Kulzenay aliter Orknay.
- Pro episcopo Brechinensi subdiaconatus Brechinensis.
- Pro episcopo Rossensi archidiaconatus Rossensis.
- Pro episcopo Cathanensi archidiaconatus Cathanensis.
- Pro prioratu S. Andreae vicaria trinitatis S. Andreae.
- Pro monasterio de Aberbrothec vicaria de Kerymure.
- Pro monasterio de Pasleto vicaria de Kilmahome.
- Pro monasterio Kilwyning vicaria de Domlop.
- Pro monasterio de Dumfermling vicaria de Muffilburgh.
- Pro monasterio de Kelso vicaria de Lynthon.
- Pro monasterio sanctae crucis vicaria de Falkirk.
- Pro monasterio de Driburg vicaria de Killymuyr.
- Pro monasterio de Lundoris vicaria Dumdey.
- Pro monasterio de Scona ecclesia Kylernad in dioec. Cathanensi.
- Pro Inchmahomo vicaria Linthrathen.
- Pro monasterio de Melrofs vicaria de Hasseden.
- Pro prioratu de Coldynhame vicaria de Edinburgh.
- Pro prioratu de Quhythorne vicaria de Glassantone.
- Pro Kynlofs.
- Pro monasterio S. Columbae insulae vicaria de Lesslia.
- Pro monasterio de Jedburg vicaria de Dunbian.
- Pro monasterio de Deyr vicaria de Petterburgh.
- Pro monasterio de Balmerino rectoria de Logymarthe.
- Pro Cupro.

Pro

Pro Glenlu.

Praelati monasteriorum non habentes beneficia ad eorum dispositionem; dent pensiones condignas ad sustentationem praedicantium.

Prioratus de Northberwick vicaria de Largo.

Item visum est praesenti concilio, rerum et temporis qualitate pensata, ut in principio sive exordio concionum, seu post eandem finitas, fervetur vetus et receptus invocandi modus, dicendi "Pater noster" pro gratia obtinenda, cum salutatione angelica ad beatissimam virginem, ad divinam gratiam pro felici et fructuoso sermone fiendo impetrandam apud Dominum Deum, ut fiat in fine sermonis oratio pro animabus defunctorum; ex recepta ecclesiae consuetudine.

43. Pro haeresibus extirpandis.

Item pro haeresibus extirpandis in praesenti concilio statutum est, ut singuli locorum ordinarii in suis dioecesibus deputent haereticas pravitatis inquisitores viros pios, probos, eruditos, et in theologia doctos, qui etiam sint bonae conversationis, et famae, et magnae circumspeditionis, et qui cum exactissima diligentia perquirent de haeresibus, et coercendis erroribus, et peregrinis opinionibus contra sacramenta ecclesiastica, et aliis; quique inquirere teneantur de libris damnatis haeticorum, et de fide male sentientium, et ubi comperti fuerint, ad locorum ordinarios deferantur. Et praeterea singuli abbates et priores, commendatarii, administratores, provinciales, ministri et guardiani in suis monasteriis, coenobiis, et locis, hoc idem circa suos subditos et religiosos faciant, diligenter cellas suorum religiosorum perscrutentur, ut quicquid ibi haeticorum librorum, aut contra fidem sentientium repertum fuerit, etiam ad ordinarios deferatur.

44. Sequuntur nonnullae ordinationes ad reprimendas haereses tum utiles tum necessariae.

Inprimis statutum est, ut ordinarii locorum quantum commode fieri poterit, pro tempore et locorum ratione contra haeticos diligentem et exactam inquisitionem faciant singulis annis, universales quidem quater in anno, particulares vero toties quoties occasio sese obtulerit; ut eas quidem juxta suam possibilitatem et diligentiam exequantur, secundum formam et dispositionem sacrorum canonum, et praescriptorum capitulum, ut officium cap. "objurans," cap. "et commissae," cap. "ut statuta de haeticis" lib. 6. aliaque jura canonica insequendo ac regni consuetudines hactenus observatas contra haesiarchas et sacramentarios, et praecipue contra sacramentum eucharistiae obloquentes cum severitate juris procedant; et ut inhibitoriales literae fulminentur sub poena excommunicationis ipso facto, tam contra praedicantes absque permissione ordinarii, quam contra ipsos parochianos, seu alios eorundem hujusmodi praedicatorum auditores, ne ipsis audientiam et assistentiam seu favorem praestent; et cum hoc literae reginae suis literis conformes per ordinarios impetrentur, et executioni demandentur.

Vol. IV.

Item hortatur praesens conventio in visceribus Jesu Christi, ac pro pietatis zelo, quo omnium haesium in hoc regno occasionibus facilius occurratur, ipsique ordinarii ad easdem reprimendas liberior et expeditius procedere valeant, quatenus ipsi et eorum quilibet, nec non caeteri praelati, et beneficiati regni mores suos ac vitam juxta praesentis concilii statuta et ordinationes ad meliorem frugem emendent, ne ad aliorum mores districte corrigendos prorumpant ipsi notoriis criminibus irretiti, cum hinc maximum populi scandalum, et plurima haeseos pars oriatur.

45. De praedicatione verbi Dei.

Tertio, ut provideat quisque infra suam dioecesim, ut rectores ecclesiarum, et aliae ecclesiasticae personae laborent pro viribus, ut verbum Dei inter suos greges pure, sincere, et catholice tractetur; veri ceremoniarum ecclesiasticarum usus praedicentur modeste, sobrie et prudenter; vetentur opiniones falsae, crimententur palam et arguantur. Ut ecclesiis, monasteriis, collegiis, universitatibus, aliisque piis locis unitis et incorporatis, frequentioribus verbi Dei praedicationibus provideatur; statutum est ut abbates, priores, commendatarii, administratores, ac talium locorum praepositi, mercedes solito liberaliores, tam religiosis quam aliis, ad disseminandum verbum evangelicum per ordinarios admittendis, restituant; et ut ipsi praedicatores ad unamquamque ecclesiam parochialem benigno hospitio recipiantur, quodque ad hunc effectum ipsi religiosi ex singulis parochialibus ecclesiis, de quibus nullas habent annuas pensiones victualium, pro quatuor praedicationibus per ipsos annuatim ad supplendum rectorum vires fiendis, pro suis laboribus et expensis in toto quadraginta suscipiant annuatim solidos: pro qua summa officiales seu commissarii singulorum dioecesium, ubi per ipsos religiosi ad hoc vocati fuerint, ostensis testimonialibus contra rectores suas monitiones simplices fulminent, atque eosdem cogant ad earundem summarum solutionem aliis juris remediis opportunis; proviso tamen, quod iidem religiosi sint contenti pensionibus victualium, quas annuatim ex monasteriis, prioratibus, aliisque locis seu collegiis pro suis praedicationibus percipere solent.

46. Quoties praedicetur, per rectores inquiretur.

Item, ut singuli curati in suis libris notent, quoties nomine rectoris seu vicarii in singulis ecclesiis concionati fuerint ipsi religiosi, et id ipsum locorum ordinariis in suis synodis intiment, atque etiam ut per ipsos praedicatores commonstrent vicarii seu curati residentes de certo die festo praedicationis futurae, ut ipsis parochianis suis debito tempore denuncient, quo frequentiores sermonibus interesse possint, et curati hoc negligentes per ordinarios feriantur, et de singulis in praesenti statuto contentis diligenter inquirent decani in suis visitationibus.

Q

47. Arti-

47. Articuli inquirendi per inquisitores haereticae pravitatis.

Item expedire visum est, ut notentur specialiter nonnulli articuli, super quibus haereticae pravitatis inquisitores suas inquisitiones formare potissimum deberent, et ut concionatores in suis praedicationibus, ubi eorundem occasiones inciderint secundum temporis et auditorum exigentiam, inter quos tales errores noti fuerint, contra eosdem diserte et prudenter populum doceant et instruant, juxta catholicae ecclesiae sententiam. Caveant tamen, ne ubi nullas inter suos auditores haereses compertas habuerint, de haeresibus ignotis mentionem faciant.

48. Sequuntur ipsi articuli.

Inprimis contra eos, qui adversus ipsa sacramenta aut ceremonias, ritus, et observantias ab ecclesia receptas in sacramentorum administratione obganniant, et praesertim in sacramento baptismi; et sacrificium missae, confirmationis, extremae unctionis, poenitentiae, et aliorum, contra censuras ecclesiasticas contemnentes.

Contra negantes aliquas animas sanctorum cum Christo jam regnare usque ad diem judicii, et cum anima et corpore glorificato postea in aeternum regnaturas.

Contra negantes animae immortalitatem.

Contra negantes retributionem operum in fide et charitate.

Contra negantes purgatorium post hanc vitam.

Contra negantes intercessionem et orationes sanctorum.

Contra negantes imagines licitas esse in ecclesiis christianorum, et sanctiones canonicas.

Contra negantes auctoritatem concilii generalis in decernendis dogmatibus.

In universum contra adversantes quibuscumque determinatis vel determinandis per concilium generale, seu provinciale; contra derogantes jejunii et festis indictis ab ecclesia.

Item ut unusquisque ordinarius intra suam dioecesim perquirat, qui apud se detinent aliquos libros rythmorum, seu cantilenarum vulgarium, scandalosa ecclesiasticorum et hominum vel constitutionum vituperia et probra, seu famosos libellos, aut quamcunque haeresim in se continentia; et ubi comperti fuerint, prohibeantur sub poenis actorum parlamenti atque confiscentur, et comburantur, interdiciaturque universaliter eorum usus, mercatura, impressio et lectura sub similibus poenis.

49. Circa orationem dominicam.

Concilium decrevit ex moventibus hoc vulgare quod sequitur hic inferendum.

“ De Pater noster et ave Mariae in concionibus. ”

In omnium concionum publicarum exordiis fervetur vetus et receptus invocandi modus per orationem dominicam, cum salutatione angelica ad virginem Deiparam, pro gratia impetranda; et in earundem concionum fine ore pro animabus defunctorum in recepta ecclesiae consuetudine.

50. Sequuntur nonnullae ordinationes penes officium procuratorum.

De exercitio curiarum consistorialium in earum causis deducendis.

Inprimis prohibet haec conventio, ne qui procuratorum in foro ecclesiae causas vel intendendas vel defendendas temere suscipiant, absque integra et plenaria informatione veritatis, si non in primo, saltem in secundo termino; et si super veritate informationum fidem facere recusaverint, denegetur eis procurandi suffragium; habita vero in hunc modum informatione, prudenter explorent, et quilibet eorum exploret merita causae, et quo jure tam actio quam defensio notatur; quod si per se hoc non valeant praestare, a doctioribus exquirant quid juris, et si comperiant nec canonico nec civili, nec municipali et consuetudinario juri aut stylo fore consonam informationem, suo patrocinio destituant, quantumvis magna merces proponatur, et idipsum faciant, ubicunque in causae deductione de ejusdem injustitia apparuerit.

51. De calumniatoribus et infamibus.

Secundo statutum est contra manifestos calumniatores, qui nihil pensi habent, justane an injusta causa fuerit, dummodo spes lucri inde fulserit, quod quicumque de talibus fuerint convicti scienter iniquam causam suscepisse, vel sustinere, vel qui ad deterrendas partes a justis actionibus vel defensionibus proferre praesumant, sese causas vel lites ad annum, biennium, vel aliud longum tempus protrahunt, calumniandi animo, tanquam perjuri ac infames habendi sint, ac ab officio procurandi repellantur, et insuper per ordinarios locorum ad arbitrium puniantur, et idipsum de his sentiendum est, qui cum litigatore de quota litis paciscantur, aut paciscentibus suam operam pollicentur.

52. Frustratorias rationes objiciens punitur.

Item statutum est, quo meliori fide causae tractentur, ut si quis frustratorias rationes vel exceptiones exhibuerit, iisdem repulsis, vel si admissae fuerint, non probatis, exhibens easdem seu producens, ultra expensas litis parti solvendas, taxatione judicis pro prima vice duos solidos persolvat, pro secunda vice in eadem causa duplicetur, pro tertia triplicetur, et sic deinceps crescat poena, et insuper suspectus de calumnia habeatur, et poenas prioris statuti subjaceat; si tertio in eadem causa hoc admiserit, et si quas nova relevantes, aut alia quaevis legitima ratione non admissibili produxerit, antequam ad eorundem reformationem de stylo admittatur, juret, quod suam omnimodam diligentiam fecit pro iisdem pertinentibus ad ipsum terminum fabricandis, nec ex industria insufficientes proposuisse ad effectum prorogandi terminum.

53. Inducere ad jurandum.

Item statutum est, si quis sive persuasionibus partes partes aut testes ad sophisticè jurandum induxerit, aut frustrationis causa subterfugere fecerit instrumentave corrumpenda procuraverit, aut a protocollis varianda, quod poenis de calumniatoribus subiaceat.

Item ne quis longioresurgeat dilationes, quam causae necessitas postulat, ne suae diffidiae aut malitiae falsas excusationes protelandae animo lites, scripturasve semel in iudicium productas supprimat, ne iudiciorum cursus defectu earundem impediatur, aut causas ultro inter se per collusionem dormire patiantur.

54. De ordine advocatorum in iudicio.

Item statutum est, ut in iudicio aut causarum disputationibus omnia modeste et absque tumultu fiant et dicantur, et ut quisque suo loco sedeat, quoadusque per scribam ejus causa fuerit in suo turno nominata; et tamen breviter desiderio termini respondeat; et sic vicissim alterius partis procurator agat, atque a vulgari sermone, quantum fieri possit, in iudicio abstineant, reliqui vero audiant in silentio, ad quos illa causa non spectat.

55. Advocati iudici honorem deferant.

Item statutum est, ut scribae curiarum in omnibus se promptos et paratos ad obsequendum et parendum iudicum mandatis praestent, eisdemque debita obsequia, honorem et observantiam deferant, atque intra sui officii fines sese contineant, viz. praeter communia nihil, inconsulto iudice, nullaque acta confessionis, nisi prius per iudicem considerata, an levia, an secus, an simoniaca, an usuraria, aut alias illicitas pactiones continentia fuerint; et ne ultra taxam veterem a procuratoribus vel partibus exigant, praetextu cujuscunque consuetudinis aut corruptelae hactenus obtentae, cujus taxae veteris tenor infra habetur².

56. Ut processus per scribam ante iudicem diligenter observetur.

Item, ut scripta conserventur et processus partis, statutum est, ut registra fiant, in quae omnium processuum omnes partes et scripta in iudicium producta redigantur, ne pereat ulla pars processus, aut ne alia, quam coram iudicibus producta primo fuerint, supponantur, principalia vero remaneant ad registrum, et accepto signo receptionis et nomen recipientis in libro notent, quae tantum quamprimum scribae restituantur. Et si in praemissis culpabiles reperti fuerint scribae, provideant potestatem habentes de aliis eorum loco.

57. Circa reformationem processuum curiarum consistorialium.

Inprimis pro abbreviatione processuum statutum est et ordinatum, ut in omnibus causis summam viginti librarum non excedentibus, procedatur in posterum modo quo sequitur; ut parte citata, et minime comparente, in poenam contumaciae ejusdem proponatur petitio rem petitam continens, et specificatio qualitatum ejusdem ad articulos referatur, et statim statuatur termini ad articulandum et probandum, et cite-tur pars ad respondendum positionibus et articulis, nec non ad videndum testes, et alia probationum genera recipi, jurari et admitti, qui si apparuerint, etiam in poenam contumaciae rei nolentis comparere, ad effectum praemissum admittantur, et examinentur, et statim ad acta fiat publicatio, et statuatur terminus ad dicendum contra producta, nec non ad proponendum omnia jura, parte adhuc citata, in quo termino parti similiter contumaci statuatur terminus ad pronunciandum.

Si vero pars rea in primo termino comparuerit, qualificetur statim petitio et inferatur apud acta; si nolit statim respondere facta fide corporaliter, quod instanter respondere nequeat, detur ei triduum ad respondendum, aliudve breve tempus ex arbitrio iudicis, quo termino si ad respondendum contumax fuerit, quovis modo procedatur, ut supra; si vero comparuerit, et dilatorias proposuerit, discutiantur similiter exclusa omnium reservationum causa, et lite postmodum contestata, statuatur unicus terminus ad probandum, et post probationes productas si reus petat articulos directe contrarios, juratus primitus solenniter quod sint necessarii pro defensione causae, statuatur ei brevis terminus ad probandum eisdem una cum oblati contra personas testium et peremptoriis ac omnibus iuribus, quibus uti voluerit in causa procedendum, quibus hinc inde discussis et probationibus desuper deductis, quam brevissime juxta formam veteris statuti, super hoc statuatur terminus ad pronunciandum in principali causa, in omnibus tamen his salvis legibus partium defensionibus replicatis, duplicatis, cum arbitrio boni iudicis necessariis absque tamen calumnia.

Et eodem modo quo supra in omnibus causis summariis procedatur, et breviter, ut in causis infra viginti libras, procedatur aequè summarie, salvis infra scriptis atque solitis, et in causis infra decem libras.

In plenariis vero usitate procedend. forma servetur, terminis tamen arbitrio iudicis, salvis substantialibus iudicii, corripendis et abbreviandis.

In causis vero appellationum statutum est, si ab interlocutorio appellatum fuerit, ut nequaquam devolvantur, nisi causae in appellatorio contentae relevantes apparuerint, juxta juris dispositionem, absolutiones vero nullae dentur ante devolutionem, sive ab interlocutoria sive a definitiva fuerit appellatum; praeterea, si decretum fuerit per iudicem, ad quem bene iudicatum et male appellatum, ab interlocutoria remittatur causa iudicii, a quo nec retineatur; et ante omnia cavendum, ne dentur citationes seu inhibitiones super appellatoriis nisi visis apostolis.

Item infra archidiaconatum Laudoniae non committatur examinatio testium ulli notario curiae primatialis, nisi ipsi officiali Laudoniae sive commissariis ad hoc faciendum per supplicationem primitus requisitis.

Item si quis citatus ad respondendum positi-

² Deest haec taxa in exemplari.

onibus et articulis comparens jurare aut respondere requisitus per judicem, recusaverit; decrevit conventio quod juris dispositioni consonum esse agnoscat, ut pro confitente contenta in articulis habeatur, ne per recusantis malitiam retardetur jus alterius partis.

Item caveant procuratores, et alia membra judiciorum, ne judicem vociferationibus in judicio turbent, ne vel palam vel occulte apud collitigantes blasphemias, aut convitiis traducant, sed si laesos sese quovis modo comperiant, modeste de remedio juris protestentur.

Item statutum est, ne quis officio procurandi sese ingerat, nisi catalogo fuerit descriptus, atque hi omnes sint parati ad praemissa observanda; et ad omnimodam reverentiam judici, tam in judicio quam extra, exhibendam, et qui in praemissis culpabiles fuerint, arbitrio judicis coerceantur, vel a procurandi officio penitus suspendantur.

58. Demum haec sancta synodus seu concilium provinciale statuit et decrevit proximum futurum concilium provinciale hujus provinciae Scoticae habendum et celebrandum fore, sine quacunque praetermissione, aut literis mittendis vel fulminandis, in loco fratrum praedicatorum Edinburg. infra oppidum Edinburgi die Jovis 14 mensis Augusti proxime futuri; salvis tamen impedimentis, alioquin dicto die Jovis 14 Augusti praefati in civitate S. Andreae seu oppido de Lynlythquho sancti Andreae dioecesis; sic et prout rogati et requisiti fuerint episcopi ordinarii, praelati, et alii de clero regni praedicti.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Convocatio Cantuariensis. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 13.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. per breve regium ad xxii. diem Aprilis prorogata, per aliud ad xi. diem Octobris prox. et ab illo die ad xxi. Januarii; et abinde per breve regium dat. primo die Januarii, ad tertium Martii prox. et ab eo die ad xiv. Octobris continuata fuit.

Articles to be enquired of in the visitation of the diocese of London by the reverend father in God, Nicolas bishop of London, in the fourth year of our sovereign lord king Edward the sixth, by the grace of God king of England France and Ireland, defender of the faith, and in earth of the church of England and also of Ireland, the supreme head, next and immediately under our saviour Christ.

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and dead at his appearing in his kingdom; preach the word, be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. St. Paul, 2 Tim. iv. 1, 2.

WHETHER your curates and ministers be of that conversation of living, that worthily they can be reprehended of no man?

Whether your curates and ministers do haunt and resort to taverns or alehouses, otherwise than for their honest necessity, there to drink and riot, or to play at unlawful games?

Whether your ministers be common brawlers, sowers of discord rather than charity among their parishioners, hawkers, hunters, or spending their time idely, or coming to their benefice by simony?

Whether your ministers or any other persons have committed adultery, fornication, incest, bawdry, or to be vehemently suspected of the same, common drunkards, scolds, or be common swearers and blasphemers of God's holy name?

Whether your parsons and vicars do maintain their houses and chancels in sufficient reparation; or if their houses be in decay, whether they bestow yearly the fifth part of the fruits of the benefice, until the same be repaired?

Whether your parsons and vicars absent from their benefice, do leave their cure to an able minister; and if he may dispend yearly xx. l. or above in this deanery, or elsewhere, whether he doth distribute every year among his poor parishioners there at the least, the fortieth part of the fruits of the same. And likewise yearly spending c. l. whether he doth find one scholar at either of the universities, or some grammar school, and so for every other hundred pound one scholar?

Whether every dean, archdeacon, and prebendary, being priest, doth personally by himself preach twice every year at the least, either where he is entitled, or where he hath jurisdiction, or in some place united or appropriate to the same?

Whether your minister having license thereunto, doth use to preach; or not licensed, doth diligently procure other to preach that are licensed: or whether he refuseth those, offering themselves that are licensed; or absenteth himself, or causeth other to be away from the sermon, or else admitteth any to preach that are not licensed?

Whether any by preaching, writing, word or deed hath or doth maintain the usurped power of the bishop of Rome?

Whether any be a letter of the word of God to be preached or read in the English tongue?

Whether any do preach, declare, or speak with any thing in derogation of the book of common prayer, or any thing therein contained, or any part thereof?

Whether

Whether any do preach and defend, that private persons may make insurrection, stir sedition, or compel men to give them their goods?

Whether the curate doth admit any to the communion before he be confirmed, or any that ken not the "Pater noster," the articles of the faith, and ten commandments in English?

Whether curates do minister the communion for money, or use to have trentals of communions?

Whether any of the Anabaptists sect, or other, use notoriously any unlawful or private conventicles, wherein they do use doctrine or administration of sacraments, separating themselves from the rest of the parish?

Whether there be any that privately in their private house have their masses contrary to the form and order of the book of communion?

Whether any minister doth refuse to use the common prayers, or minister sacraments in that order and form as is set forth in the book of common prayer?

Whether baptism be ministred (out of necessity) in any other time than on the Sunday or holy day, or in another tongue than English?

Whether any speaketh against baptism of infants?

Whether any be married within degrees prohibited by God's law, or separate without cause lawful, or is married without banns thrice first asked three several holy days or Sundays openly in the church at service time?

Whether any curate doth marry them of other parishes without their curate's license and certificate from him of the banns thrice solemnly asked?

Whether any faith that the wickedness of the minister taketh away the effect of Christ's sacraments?

Whether any faith that christian men cannot be allowed to repentance, if they sin voluntary after baptism?

Whether your curates be ready to minister the sacraments, visit the sick, and bury the dead, being brought to the church?

Whether any minister useth wilfully and obstinately any other right, ceremony, order, form, or manner of communion, mattens, or evensong, ministration of sacraments, or open prayers, than is set forth in the book of common prayer?

Whether your curate, once in six weeks at the least, upon some Sunday or holy day before even song, do openly in the church instruct and examine children not confirmed in some part of the catechism, and whether parents and masters do send them thither upon warning given by the minister?

Whether any useth to keep abrogate holy days or private holy days, as bakers, shoemakers, brewers, smiths, and such other?

Whether any useth to hallow water, bread, salt, bells, or candles upon candlemasday, ashes on ashwednesday, palms on palmsunday, the font on Easter even, fire on paschal, or whether there was any sepulchre on goodfriday?

Whether the water in the font be changed every month once, and then any other prayers said than is in the book of common prayer appointed?

Whether there be any images in your church, tabernacles, shrines, or covering of shrines, candles, or trindles of wax, or feigned miracles in your churches or private houses?

Whether your church be kept in due and lawful reparation, and whether there be a comely pulpit set up in the same, and likewise a coffer for alms for the poor, called the poor mens box or chest.

Whether any legacies given to the poor, amending high ways, or marrying poor maids, be undistributed, and by whom?

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Advocatio concessa archiepiscopo Cantuariensi. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 330. a.

OMNIBUS Christi fidelibus, ad quos praesentes literae pervenerint, Thomas permissione divina Norwicen. episcopus, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Cum tam de antiqua laudabili longaevaeque et legitime praescripta consuetudine haecenus inconcussa usitata et observata, quam etiam de singulari praerogativa ecclesiae metropolitanae Christi Cantuariensis fuerit et sit usitatum et observatum, quod archiepiscopus Cantuariensis pro tempore existens, cuilibet suffraganeorum suorum in episcopum alicujus ecclesiae cathedralis suae Cantuariensis provinciae regia auctoritate nominato, vel consecrato, immediate post consecrationem aut nominationem suam, ad aliquam ecclesiam cathedralem infra Cantuariensem provinciam, a qua ipsum episcopum prius consecratum ex regia nominatione ad aliam ecclesiam cathedralem ejusdem provinciae transferri

VOL. IV.

contigerit, unum clericum idoneum praesentare et nominare possit et valeat ad annualem censum quinque librarum sterlingorum, tantisper impendendum et solvendum, quoad eidem sic nominato de aliqua dignitate, canonicatu, et praebenda vel de alio competenti beneficio ecclesiastico eidem sic nominato per consecratum vel nominatum translatum hujuscemodi fuerit sufficienter cautum et provisum; sciatis igitur me Thomam Thurlbye translatum episcopum Norwicensem antedictum, jura, libertates, consuetudines et praerogativam dictae ecclesiae metropolitanae Christi Cantuariensis pro posse meo adimplere volentem, dedisse et hoc praesenti scripto meo confirmasse reverendissimo in Christo patri et domino domino Thomae permissione divina Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, primam et proximam imam advocationem, nominationem et liberam dispositionem cujuscunque archidiaconatus, canonicatus, et praebendae in ecclesia mea cathedrali Norwicensi, seu cujuscunque alterius beneficii infra dioecesim Norwicensem meorum patronatus et collationis, cum illa vel eorum alterum sive unum, per mortem, resignationem, cessionem, permutationem, vel dimissionem, seu quocunque alio modo vacare contigerit, habendam et tenendam sibi et assignatis suis dictam advocationem, aut nominationem et liberam dispositionem dictorum archidiaconatus, canonicatus, et praebendae, seu beneficii cujuscunque; ita quod bene liceat & licebit praedicto reverendissimo patri vel ejus assignatis ad libitum suum auctoritate praesentium, quamcunque personam idoneam ad praedictum archidiaconatum vel canonicatum et praebendam, seu beneficium hujuscemodi primo et proximo vacaturum, post dationem praesentium, semel duntaxat et non ultra, quando primo et proxime, ut praefertur, vacare contigerit, conferre, nomi-nare, seu praesentare, ac literas collationis, nominationis sive praesentationis de eisdem archidiaconatu, canonicatu, et praebenda, seu quocunque alio beneficio, ut praefertur, primo vacaturo cuicunque personae facere et concedere, ac alia omnia et singula obire, exercere, et perimplere, quae in praemissis et circa ea necessaria fuerint et quomodolibet opportuna, adeo libere et integre prout ego facere et perimplere, si praesens mea concessio facta non fuisset, ita quod pro prima et proxima vacatione, non liceat neque licebit mihi dictos archidiaconatum, canonicatum, et praebendam, seu beneficium hujuscemodi vacatura, alicui aliae personae conferre, quam illi solum personae, sic per dictum reverendissimum patrem vel ejus assignatum mihi nominand. vel assignand. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus est appensum. Dat London. — die mensis Aprilis, anno Domini 1550. regnique felicissimi ejusdem domini nostri regis anno quarto, et nostrae translationis primo.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the bishop of Exeter, for an account to be taken of impropriations. Ex reg. Exon. Voysey. fol. 117.

AFTER my hearty commendations, the king's majesty's pleasure and high commandment to me is, that I shall, will, and charge you to ascertaine me the names of all such benefices within your diocese, as at any time have been or yet be impropried, in whose hands and possession the same been either in his majesty or any his grace's subjects, with your true certificate also of all vicaridges endowed within your said diocese, and of all other churches impropried, having no vicaridges endowed, being either served by a manuell priest, or destitute of a curate, with the severall values of such vicaridges and benefices, as high as you may; sayle you not this to do with all celerity, as you tender the accomplishment of his grace's pleasure. Fare you well. From my manner of Lambeth, this xx of April, anno 1550.

Your loving brother,

T. CANT.

The council's letter to the bishop of London against weekly lectures, with the bishop of London's letter for the execution of it to the archdeacon of Colchester. Ex reg. Bonner. fol. 281.

AFTER oure righte hartie commendations unto your lordshipp; beinge advertised from the lorde chauncellor, that dyverse preachers within your dioces in the countie of Essex, doo preache, as well the worke dayes as tholie dayes, whereas some inconveniences may growe. Thinkinge not convenient that the preachers shulde have liberty so to do, bycause at this present yt may increase the peoples ydleness, who of themselves are so moche disposed to yt, as all the ways that may be devised, are litle ynoughe to drawe them to worke. We therefore pray you to take order that they preache tholy dayes onelie, as they have been accustomed to doo. And the worke daies to use those prayers, that are prescribed unto them. Thus we bydde your good lordship mooste hartely farewell. From Grenewyche the 23d of June, 1550, your loving freindes, E. Somersfet, W. North, E. Clynton, G. Cobham, W. Pager, W. Herbert, W. Petre.

Another.

AFTER hartie commendations. Whereas the kinge majesties honourable counsaill ys certified by the lord chauncellor, that dyverse preachers in Essex doo use to preache upon worke dayes, whereby the people gyve themselves to moche ydleness, as by the tenor of the letter from the saide honourable counsaill directed to me herein enclosed, doothe playnelie appeare. Thees are to will you, with convenient expedition, not onely to gyve warnynge to all curates within your archdeaconry, that they suffer noo preachinge upon worke dayes in in their churches, but also to sende for all and singular preachers authorized within your saide archdeaconrye, and to admonyshe them of the same; chardginge them in the kyngs highnes name, that from henceforth they doo not preache but onely upon sondays and holy dayes, and none other dayes, excepte yt be at any buryall or marriage. And thus fare you hartely well. From London this 25 day of June, 1550. Your loving freinde, NICOL. LONDON.

To my lovinge freende the archdeacon of Colchester, and in his absence, to his official there, geve thes with speede.

Papae Rom.
JULIUS III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.

Anno Christii
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

King Edward VI. order to bishop Gardener of Winchester, about subscribing to certain articles sent to him by the King. Ex originali in fylloge epistol. Tito Livio Foro-julienfi annex. edit. Hearn. pag. 119.

IT is not, we think, unknown unto you, with what clemency and favour, we by the advice of our council caused you to be heard, and used upon these fundrie complaints and informations, that were made to us and our said council, of your disordered doing and words, both at the time of our late visitation and otherwise; which notwithstanding, considering, that the favor both then and many other times ministered unto you, wrought rather an insolent wilfullness in your self, than any obedient conformity, such as would have becomed a man of your vocation, we could not but use some demonstration of justice towards you, as well for such notorious and apparent contempts and other inobedience, as after and contrarie to our commandment were openly known in you, as also for some example and terror of such others, as by your example seemed to take courage to mutter and grudge against our most godly proceedings: whereof great disorder and inconvenience at that time might have ensued. For the avoyding thereof, and for your just deserving, you were by our said council committed to ward, where, albeit we have suffered you to remain a long space, sending unto you in the mean time at fundrie times diverse of the noblemen and others of our privy council, and travailling by them with clemency and favor to have reduced you to the knowledge of your duty; yet in all this time have you neither acknowledged your faults, nor made any such submission, as might have becomed you, nor yet shewed any appearance either of repentance, or of any good conformitie to our godly proceedings. Where-with, albeit we have good cause to be offended, and might also justly by the order of our laws cause your former doings to be reformed and punished to the example of others, yet for that we would both the world and your self also should know, that we delight more in clemency, than in the strait administration of justice, we have vouchsafed not only to address unto you these our letters, but also to send estsones unto you, four of our priy council with certain articles, which being by us with the advice of our said council considered, we think requisite for fundry considerations to be subscribed by you, and therefore will and command you to subscribe the said articles, upon pain of incurring such punishments and penalties, as by our laws may be put upon you for not doing the same. Given at our palace of Westminster, the 8th day of July, the 4th year of our reign.

E. SOMERSET,	WILLIAM PETRE,
W. NORTH,	J. WARWICK,
WILLIAM PAGET,	G. COBHAM,
W. WILTSHIRE,	W. HERBERT,
E. CLYNTON,	EDWARD NORTH,
A. WYNGFELD,	J. BEDFORD.

The earl of Warwick's letter to the archbishop of Canterbury, concerning the consecration of bishop Hooper. Ex Vol. 3. Fox p. 146. ed. 1641.

AFTER my most hearty commendations to your grace, these may be to desire the same, that in such reasonable things wherein this bearer, my lord elect of Gloucester, craveth to be born withall at your hands, you would vouchsafe to shew him your graces favour; the rather at this my instance, which things partly I have taken in hand by the kings majesty's own motion. The matter is weighed by his highness none other but that your grace may facily condescend unto: the principall cause is, that you would not charge the said bearer with an oath burthenous to his conscience; and so for lack of time, I commit your grace to the tuition of almighty God. From Westminster, the 23d of July, 1550.

Your graces most assured loving friend,

J. WARWICK.

Literae

Papae Rom.
JULIUS. III. I.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 18.Anno Christi.
1550.Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Litterae patentes regiae Johanni a Lasco, et Germanis Londini commorantibus. Ex
Rot. pat. 4. E. 6. part. 5. apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. 2. append. p. 202.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum sub Christo caput; omnibus ad quos praesentes litterae pervenerint, salutem.

Cum magnae quaedam et graves considerationes nos ad praesens specialiter impulerunt, tum etiam cogitantes illud quanto studio et charitate christianos principes in sacrosanctum Dei evangelium, et religionem apostolicam, ab ipso Christo inchoatam, institutam, et traditam, animatos et propensos esse conveniat, sine qua haud dubie politia et civile regnum nec consistere diu, neque nomen suum tueri potest, nisi principes caeterique praepotentes viri, quos Deus ad regnorum gubernacula sedere voluit, id in primis operam dent, ut per totum reipublicae corpus casta sinceraque religio diffundatur, et ecclesia in vere christianis et apostolicis opinionibus et ritibus instituta atque adulta per sanctos ac carni et mundo mortuos ministros conservetur. Pro eo quod christiani principis officium statuimus inter alias suas gravissimas de regno suo bene splendideque administrando cogitationes etiam religioni et religionis causa calamitate fractis et afflictis exulibus consulere; sciatis quod non solum praemissa contemplantur, et ecclesiam a papatus tyrannide per nos vindicatam, in pristina libertate conservare cupientes; verum etiam exulum ac peregrinorum conditionem miserantes, qui jam bonis temporibus in regno nostro Angliae commorati sunt voluntario exilio, religionis et ecclesiae causa mulctati; quia hospites et externos homines propter Christi evangelium ex patria sua profligatos et ejectos, et in regnum nostrum profugos, praesidiis ad vitam degendam necessariis, in regno nostro egere, non dignum esse neque christiano homine neque principis magnificentia duximus, cujus liberalitas nullo modo in tali rerum statu restricta clausave esse debet. Ac quoniam multi Germanae nationis homines, ac alii peregrini, qui confluxerunt et in dies singulos confluunt in regnum nostrum Angliae ex Germania et aliis remotioribus partibus, in quibus papatus dominatur, evangelii libertas labefactari et premi coepta est, non habent certam sedem et locum in regno nostro, ubi conventus suos celebrare valeant, ubi inter suae gentis et moderni idiomatis homines religionis negotia et res ecclesiasticas pro patriae ritu et more intelligenter obire et tractare possint; idcirco de gratia nostra speciali, ac ex certa scientia et mero motu nostris, nec non de avisamento consilii nostri volumus, concedimus, et ordinamus, quod de caetero sit et erit unum templum sive sacra aedes in civitate nostra Londinensi, quod vel quae vocabitur templum Domini Jesu, ubi congregatio et conventus Germanorum et aliorum peregrinorum fieri et celebrari possit, ea intentione et proposito, ut a ministris ecclesiae Germanorum aliorumque peregrinorum sacrosancti evangelii incorrupta interpretatio sacramentorum, juxta verbum Dei et apostolicam observationem, administratio fiat. Ac templum illud sive sacram aedem illam de uno superintendente, et quatuor verbi ministris erigimus, creamus, ordinamus, et fundamus per praesentes. Et quod idem superintendens et ministri in re et nomine sint et erunt unum corpus incorporatum et politicum, de se per nomen superintendentis et ministrorum ecclesiae Germanorum et aliorum peregrinorum, ex fundatione regis Edwardi sexti, in civitate Londinensi per praesentes incorporamus; ac corpus incorporatum et politicum, per idem nomen realiter et ad plenum creamus, erigimus, ordinamus, facimus et constitutimus per praesentes, et quod successionem habeant.

Et ulterius de gratia nostra speciali, ac ex certa scientia, et mero motu nostris, nec non de avisamento consilii nostri dedimus et concessimus, ac per praesentes damus et concedimus praefato superintendenti, et ministris ecclesiae Germanorum et aliorum peregrinorum in civitate Londinensi totum illud templum sive ecclesiam nuper fratrum Augustinensium, in civitate nostra Londinensi, ac totam terram, fundum, et solum ecclesiae praedictae, exceptis toto choro dictae ecclesiae terris, fundo, et solo ejusdem; habendum et gaudendum dictum templum sive ecclesiam, ac caetera praemissa (exceptis praexceptis) praefatis superintendenti, et ministris, et successoribus suis tenendum de nobis, haeredibus et successoribus nostris, in puram et liberam eleemosynam.

Damus ulterius de avisamento praedicto, ac ex certa scientia et mero motu nostris praedictis, per praesentes concedimus praefatis superintendenti, et ministris, et successoribus suis plenam facultatem, potestatem et auctoritatem ampliandi et majorem faciendi numerum ministrorum, et nominandi et appunctuandi de tempore in tempus tales et hujusmodi ministros ad serviendum in templo praedicto, quales praefatis superintendenti et ministris necessarium visum fuerit. Et quidem haec omnia juxta beneplacitum regium.

Volumus praeterea, quod Johannes a Lasco, natione Polonus, homo propter integritatem et innocentiam vitae ac morum, et singularem eruditionem valde celebris, sit primus et modernus superintendens dictae ecclesiae, et quod Gualterus Deloenus, Martinus Flandrus, Franciscus Riverius, Richardus Gallus, sint quatuor primi et moderni ministri. Damus praeterea et concedimus praefatis superintendenti, et ministris, et successoribus suis, facultatem, auctoritatem, et licentiam, post mortem vel vacationem alicujus ministri praedictorum de tempore in tempus eligendi, nominandi, et surrogandi aliam iam personam habilem et idoneam, in locum suum; ita tamen, quod persona sic nominatus et electus, praesentetur, et sistatur coram nobis, haeredibus vel successoribus nostris, et per nos, haeredes, vel successores nostros instituatur in ministerium praedictum.

Damus etiam et concedimus praefatis superintendenti, ministris, et successoribus suis facultatem, auctoritatem, et licentiam post mortem seu vacationem superintendentis, de tempore in tempus eligendi, nominandi, et surrogandi aliam personam doctam, et gravem, in locum suum; ita tamen quod persona sic nominatus et electus praesentetur et sistatur coram nobis, haeredibus vel successoribus nostris, et per nos haeredes vel successores nostros, instituatur in officium superintendentis praedictum.

Mandamus, et firmiter injungendo praecipimus tam majori, vicecomitibus, et aldermanis civitatis nostrae Londinensis, et successoribus suis, cum omnibus aliis archiepiscopis, episcopis, justiciariis, officiariis, et ministris nostris quibuscunque, quod permittant praefatis superintendenti, et ministris, suos libere et quiete frui, gaudere, uti, et exercere ritus, et ceremonias suas proprias, et disciplinam ecclesi-asticam propriam et peculiarem, non obstante quod non convenient cum ritibus et ceremoniis in regno nostro usitatis, absque impetitione, perturbatione, aut inquietatione eorum vel eorum alicujus, aliquo statuto, actu, proclamatione, injunctioe, restrictione, seu usu in contrarium inde antehac habitis, factis, editis, seu promulgatis in contrarium non obstantibus; eo quod expressa mentio de vero valore annuo, aut de certitudine praemissorum five eorum alicujus, aut de aliis donis five concessionibus, per nos praefatis superintendenti, ministris et successoribus suis ante haec tempora factis, in praesentibus minime facta existit, aut aliquo statuto, actu, ordinatione, provisione, five restrictione inde in contrarium factis, editis, ordinatis, seu provis, aut aliqua alia re, causa vel materia quacunque in aliquo non obstante. In cujus rei testimonium has litteras nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Leighes vicesimo quarto die Julii, anno regni nostri quarto, per breve de privato sigillo et de datis praedicta auctoritate parlamenti.

R. SOUTHWELL.
UN. HARRYS.

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 19.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

The king's letter to the archbishop of Cant. for consecrating bishop Hooper. Ex Heylin. hist. reform. p. 91.

RIGHT reverend father and right trusty and well beloved, we greet you well. Whereas we by the advice of our council have called and chosen our right well beloved and well worthy Mr. John Hooper professor of divinity, to be our bishop of Glocester as well for his great learning, deep judgment, and long study both in the scriptures, and other profound learning; as also for his good discretion, ready utterance, and honest life for that kind of vocation, &c. from consecrating of whom we understand you do stay, because he would have you omit and let pass certain rites and ceremonies offensive to his conscience, whereby you think you shall fall in "premunire" of our laws; we have thought good by advice aforesaid to dispence and discharge you of all manner of dangers, penalties, and forfeitures, you shall run into, and be in, in any manner of way, by omitting any of the same, and these our letters shall be your sufficient warrant and discharge therefore.

Given under our signet at our castle of Windsor the 5th day of August in the 4th year of our reign.

The councils order to bishop Ridley to take down altars, and place communion tables in their stead. Ex Heylin. hist. ref. p. 96. et Fox. pr. edit. fol. 727.

RIGHT reverend father in God, right trusty and well beloved, we greet you well. Whereas it is come to our knowledge, that being the altars within the more part of the church of the realm, upon good and godly considerations are taken down, there doth yet remain altars standing in divers other churches, by occasion whereof much variance and contention ariseth amongst sundry of our subjects, which, if good foresight were not had, might perhaps engender great hurt and inconvenience, we let you wit, that minding to have all occasion of contention taken away, which many times groweth by those and such like diversities, and considering that amongst other things belonging to our royal office and care, we do account the greatest to be, to maintain the common quiet of our realm; we have thought good by the advice of our council, to require you and nevertheless especially to charge and command you, for the avoiding of all matters of further contention and strife, about the standing or taking away of the said altars, to give substantial order throughout all your dioceses, that with all diligence all the altars in every church or chapel, as well in places exempted as not exempted, within your said dioceses to be taken down, and instead of them a table to be set up in some convenient part of the chancel, within every such church or chapel, to serve for the ministration of the blessed communion. And to the intent the same may be done without the offence of such our loving subjects, as be not yet so well persuaded in that behalf, as we could could wish; we send unto you herewith certain considerations gathered and collected, that make for the purpose, the which as such others as you shall think meet to be set forth to persuade the weak to embrace. Our proceedings in this part we pray you cause to be declared to the people, by some discreet preachers, in such places as you shall think meet before the taking down of the said altars, so as both the weak consciences of others may be instructed and satisfied as much as may be, and this our pleasure the more quietly executed. For the better doing whereof, we require you to open the aforesaid considerations in that our cathedral church in your own person, if you conveniently may, or otherwise by your chancellor, or other grave preacher, both there and in such other market towns and most notable places of your diocese as you may think most requisite.

Given under our signet at our palace of Westminster the 24th day of November in the 4th year of our reign.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 19.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Commissio regia ad observandum librum precum communium. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 70. b. seq.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, ac in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, reverendissimo in Christo patri Thomae Cantuariensi archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano; ac reverendis in Christo patribus Thomae Eliensi, Nicholao London. Henrico Lincolnien. Thomae Norwicen. ac Johanni Roffen. episcopis; — Nicholao Wotton decano Cantuar. uni consiliariorum nostrorum, nec non praedilectis et fidelibus consiliariis nostris, Willelmo Peter militi, Willelmo Cecill armigero, secretariis nostris primariis; dilectis nobis Ricardo Coxe elemosynario nostro, Anthonio Cooke militi, Jacobo Hales militi, uni justiciariorum nostrorum ad communia placita, Thomae Smythe militi, Johanni Cheke, adolescentiae nostrae institutori, Willelmo May, decano sancti P. L. Johanni Taylor decano Lincolnien. Simoni Hanes, decano Exonien. Griffino Layson, decano de arcubus London. doctoribus Ricardo Godericke, Johanni Gosnolde, armigeris; — Richardo Wylkes, Johanni Redman, archidiacono de Tawnton, Hugoni Latimer, Egidio Ayer, decano Cicestren, Matthae. Parker, sacrae theologiae professori, Miloni Coverdale, Johanni Oliver, Ricardo Lyell, Rolando Taylor, Christophero Nevinson, legum doctoribus; — Henrico Sydall et Nicholao Bullingham salutem. Etsi regibus quidem omnibus qui Christi nomen profitentur, nihil aequae incumbat ac fidem christianam in suo populo, ac in ecclesiis suae auctoritati regiae subjectis, sartam, testam atque incolumem servare; nobis tamen qui fidei defensor peculiari quodam titulo vocamur, maximae prae caeteris curae esse debet, ut non solum pro viribus annitmur, ut Christi religio quam purissime atque integerrime nostro populo tradatur; verum etiam ut omni qua possumus ratione caveamus, ne Christi adversarius, ut est semper ad omnia corrumpenda paratus, noxium haereseos semen, et labem malae doctrinae clanculum in segetem christiani populi, et hoc arvom nobis commissum seminet; sed si quid forte emerferit tale (quod speramus Deum averfurum) saltem ut quam primum evellatur, ne latius serpens illud virus etiam sanas et salubres partes corrumpat. Et quoniam nos ipsi non possumus ad omnia hujuscemodi in nostra persona obeunda et curanda semper esse in otio et parati, et modo ad nos et consiliarios nostros perlatum est, exoriri in nonnullis nostri regni locis quosdam, qui resuscitant sceleratos Anabaptistarum et libertinorum errores; et qui aliarum haeresium impia et impura dogmata ferunt et instillant in aures rudis vulgi, et imperitae plebis nostrae mentes illis nefariis opinionibus inficiunt, ut antequam illud venenum latius serpat, opportunum et necessarium remedium pro facultate nostra regia adhibeamus; de advisamento consilii nostri praedicti vos selegimus, quibus hanc nostram curam, et hoc tam necessarium munus extirpandae et reprimendae haereseos committeremus. Ad inquirendum igitur de omnibus articulis haereseos cujuscunque, et examinandum omnes et singulos subditos nostros, et alios quosunque infra regnum et dominia nostra residentes et commorantes de et super haeresibus et erroribus quibuscunque, in fide christiana suspectos, detectos, denunciatos, inquisitos, et accusatos, aut in posterum detegendos, denunciandos, inquirendos vel accusandos, et quosunque testes ubicunque locorum infra regnum et dominia nostra commorantes vel degentes, aliarumque probationum genera quaecunque, pro veritate praemissorum erudienda quomodolibet requisita, recipienda, et admittenda, testesque hujuscemodi in forma jurandorum testium jurandos et examinandos, ac omnibus aliis viis et modis et formis quibus melius et efficacius poteritis, de veritate praemissorum etiam summarie et de plano, ac sine strepitu et figura judicii cognoscendi inquirendi, et investigandi; et si per examinationem et inquisitionem hujuscemodi aliquem vel aliquos alicujus haereseos seu impiae opinionis crimine contactum seu contactos, involutum seu involutos esse deprehenderitis, ab erroribus suis revocandos, eumque et eos, si errorum suorum, pertaesum vel pertaesos esse comperitis, ad errorum suorum hujuscemodi retractationes, recantationes, abjuraciones, et renunciations inducendos, et subsequenter in sacrosanctae ecclesiae gremium admittendos et recipiendos, aliasve prout juris nostri et aequitatis ratio persuaserit, absolvendos et dimittendos, poenitentiasque salutares et condignas pro commissis infligendas et imponendas; pertinacem vero vel perti-pertinaces, obstinatum aut obstinatos, erroribus suis desperate immersum vel immersos, si quem vel quos deprehenderitis, ex coetu fidelium ejiciendum vel ejiciendos, ac seculari potestati nostrae, si ita facti atrocitas exposcat, commit- tendos, tradendos et liberandos: nec non omnes et singulos rectores, vicarios, et clericos, et mi- nistros ecclesiasticos quoscunque ac laicos, cu- juscunque conditionis existant, librum nostrum vulgo appellatum, "The book of the common prayers and administration of the sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church af- ter the use of the church of England" aut di- vina officia in eodem expressa et inserta, vel a- liquam partem eorundem contemnentes, sper- nentes, adversantes, sive obloquentes, si qui ta- les suspecti, reperti, detecti, inquisiti, denunci- ati, aut accusati fuerint, juxta vim, formam, et effectum statuti in ea parte editi et provisi, pu- niendos, et corrigendos; caeteraque omnia et singula facienda, exercenda, et expedienda, quae circa dicta inquisitionis et examinationis negotia necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna, vobis triginta et uni, triginta, viginti novem, viginti octo, viginti septem, viginti sex, viginti quinque, viginti quatuor, viginti tribus, vigin- ti duobus, viginti uni, viginti, novendecim, octodecim, septendecim, sexdecim, quindecim, quatuordecim, tredecim, duodecim, undecim, decem, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, aut tribus vestrum, quorum archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, episco- pum Eliensem, episcopum London. episcopum Lincoln. episcopum Norwicen. episcopum Ros- sen. Nicolaum Wotton, Willelmum Peter, Willelmum Cecill, Richardum Coxe, Jacobum Hales, et Willelmum May unum esse volumus, et in executione praemissorum interesse: de quorum sana doctrina, fidei zelo, vitaeque et morum integritate, exactaque in rebus gerendis dexteritate specialem in Domino fiduciam obti- nemus, vices nostras committimus, et plenam tenore praesentium concedimus facultatem, cum potestate plenissima personas sic detectas, denun- ciatas, inquisitas, accusatas vel suspectas evocan- das coram vobis, et carceri et vinculis, si opus fuerit, mancipandas, ac testes quoscunque pro veritate praemissorum explicandos, et erudiendos quomodolibet requisitos, coram vobis, quibus- cunque diebus et locis vestro arbitrio in hac par- te limitandis, evocandos et citandos, eosdemque testes sese subtrahentes omnibus modis et juris nostri remediis quibuscunque compellendos cum omni alia jurisdictionis et auctoritatis nostrae le- gitima coercionem in hac parte et potestate; vos- que ad effectus praedictos cognitores, inquisito- res, judices, et commissarios nostros deputamus, nominamus, facimus, constituimus per praesen- tes omni appellatione remota; eo non obstante, quod denunciatio, indicatio sive accusatio contra personas praedictas hujuscemodi in hac parte non processerit, sive aliquibus aliis statutis aut ordi- nationibus in parlamenti nostris in contrarium editis sive provis, in quibus forsan major so- lennitas et circumstantia ad hujuscemodi exe- quenda negotia requiruntur, caeterisque in con- trarium facientibus non obstantibus quibuscun- que: mandantes omnibus et singulis theologis et jurisperitis, nec non majoribus, vicecomiti- bus, ballivis, aliisque officiariis, et ministris no- stris quibuscunque, quatenus vobis in et circa praemissorum executionem effectualiter, si per vos requisiti et interpellati fuerint, assistant et suffragentur. In cujus rei testimonium has li- teras nostras fieri fecimus patentes, teste me ip- so apud Westm. 18. die Januarii anno regni no- stri quarto.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 19.

Anno Christi
1550.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 4.

Forma juramenti episcopi consecrandi. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 332. b.

I John Hooper electe busshoppe of Glocester from hensforth shall utterly renounce, re- fuse, relinquish and forsake the busshoppe of Rome, and his authority, power and jurisdic- tion, and I shall never consent nor agree that the busshoppe of Rome shall practize, exercise or have any manner of authority, jurisdiction or power within this realm, or any other the king's dominions, but shall resist the same, at all tymes, to the uttermost of my power; and I from hensforth will accepte, repute and take the kinge's majestie to be the only supreme head in earth of the church of England, and to my connynge, wytte, and uttermost of my power, without gyle, fraude, or other undue meane, I will observe, kepe, maynteyne, and defende the whoole effects and contents of all and singu- lar acts and statutes made and to be made with- in his realme, in derogation, extirpation and extinguishment of the busshoppe of Rome, and this authorite, and all other acts and statutes made or to be made in reformation and corro- boration of the kinge's power of the supreme head in earth of the church of England: and this I will do against all manner of persons of what estate, dignite, degree or condition they be, and in no wise do nor attempte, nor to my power to be done or attempted directlie or indi- rectlie any thing or things privelye or apertlie, to the lette or hinderaunce, dammage, or dero- gation therof, or any part therof by any man- ner of means, or for any manner of pretence; and in case any oath be made, or hath been made by me to any person or persons in mayn- teynaunce, defence, or favour of the busshoppe of Rome, or his authoritie, jurisdiction, or power, I repute the same as vayne and adni- chilate. So helpe me God, all saints, and the holy evangelistes.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 19.

Anno Christi
1551.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 5.

Convocatio Cantuariensis.

Ex. reg. Cranmer fol. 13.

CONVOCATIO cleri provinciae Cantuar. per breve regium ad xiv. diem Octobris continuata, per aliud ad quintum Novembris, et abinde ad xxiv. diem Januarii prox. prorogaba-

tur. A quo die usque ad dissolutionem ejus, quae anno sequenti obtinuit, synodus convenit pro more solito.

Mandatum pro publicatione actus parliamenti contra rebelles. Ex reg. Cran. fol. 61. a.

THOMAS, &c. per illustrissimum et invictissimum in Christo principem et dominum nostrum dominum Edwardum sextum; &c. ad infra scripta rite suffultus, dilecto in Christo filio archidiacono nostro Cantuarien. seu ejus officiali, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Literas missivas dicti metuendissimi domini nostri regis manu sua regia signatas, ejusque signeto obsignatas, nominibus illustrissimorum virorum dominorum a secretis consiliis suis regiis in calce eorundem subscriptis, nobis inscriptas et directas, nuper cum debiti officij nostri obsequio accepimus, tenorem subsequenter complectentes: "Moste reverende father in God, righte trustie and right welbeloved counsaylour, we grete you well. And wheras it is comme to our knowledge that there be dyverse lewde and seditious persons in certayne partes of oure realme, that practise and devyse the meanes to stirre up unlawful assembles and commotions, to the troble and unquiet of us and our loving subjects: for as moch as we intende to meet wythe the sayd practizers in time, we have thought good among other things that we have set forth for the purpose, to addresse unto youe, as we have done the lyke to all other prelates of our realme, the bokes of an acte of parliament made and established in the third yere of oure reigne, for the conteynyng of oure subjects in quiett and good ordre, and the suppression of the rebellion, if at any tyme any sholde happen to be practised or begonne within our realme. Wherefore we require, and straightly charge and command youe, to give substantiall ordre thoroughoute all your dioecesse, that wythin every parishe church wythin the same, the said acte may be openly and distinctly redde, by the person or curate to the parochians every sonday, or every seconde sonday at the leaste, at soche tyme in the morning, as th'assemble of the said parochians is most frequent, to th'end they may be from tyme to tyme admonished of there duties, and of the perill that shall ensue to them that shall devyse or attempte any thinge contrary to the said acte. And like as we in this perillous tyme have thought it necessary for the preservation of the comen quiete of our realme, to addresse to you, and the rest of oure prelates, theis our letters with our said acte; so our special trust is, that youe for your parte will see the same effectually done and executed throughtout your dioecesse, so duellie and with soche regarde and care, as th'importance of the case requirethe; whereof sayle you not, as you tendre oure pleasure, and will avoide our indignation. Yeven under oure signet at our mannor of Grenewych, the sixthe of May, in the fiftie yere of oure reigne:" — In calce haec nomina habentur, E. Somersett, R. Ryche, Canc. W. Wilteshire, J. Warwick, J. Bedford, E. Clinton. — Inscriptio talis est: "To the most reverende father in God, oure right trustie and right welbeloved counsaylour, th'archebishop of Canturburie:" Nos vero affectantes ex animo ejusdem domini nostri regis literis et mandatis obtemperare, volentesque pro nostro erga suam regiam celsitudinem officio in demandatis nobis negotiis omnem nostram curam et solertem adhibere diligentiam, vobis pro parte suae regiae majestatis districte praecipiendo mandamus harum serie; quatenus receptis praesentibus cum omni, qua poteritis, celeritate et diligentia maturis, dilectos filios nostros rectores, vicarios, et curatos quarumcunque ecclesiarum parochialium nostrae dioeceseos Cantuariensis moneatis, et praecipiendo mandetis, quatenus ipsi et eorum quilibet vel singuli actum sive statutum parliamenti in eisdem literis regiis specificatum, cujus unum exemplar typis excusum vobis una cum praesentibus per latorem praesentis nostri mandati transmittimus, singulis diebus dominicis, vel saltem qualibet secunda die dominica in ecclesia sua parochiali coram parochianis ejusdem, mane quum et quando parochiani cujuslibet parochiae ad divina audienda in ecclesia sua frequentes adfuerint, publice, distincta, aperta, ac alta et intelligibili voce perlegant, ac caetera omnia et singula in dictis literis regiis descripta perimpleant, exequantur, et sedulo fieri curent, omnibus mora, dilatione, et fuco penitus remotis, prout eidem domino nostro regi sub vestro incumbente periculo obtemperare et respondere velitis, et vult vestrum alter. Et quid in praemissis feceritis, et exequi curaveritis, id totum et omne nobis quam citissime significatum iri non postponatis. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth, nono die mensis Maii, anno Domini 1551. regnique ejusdem felicissimi domini nostri regis anno quinto, et nostrae consecrationis decimo nono.

Commissio

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 20.

Anno Christi
1551.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 5.

Commissio regia pro reformatione legum ecclesiasticarum.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, reverendissimo in Christo patri, Thomae eadem gratia Cant. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati, et metropolitano, reverendoque in Christo patri Thomae Eliensi episcopo; ac dilectis nobis in Christo Richardo Cox eleemofynario nostro, Petro Martyr, sacrae theologiae professoribus, Willielmo Maye, Rowlando Tylour de Hadley, legum doctoribus; necnon dilectis et fidelibus nostris, Johanni Lucas, et Richardo Gooderike, armigeris, salutem. Cum vos triginta duos viros ad leges nostras ecclesiasticas perlegendas et componendas juxta vim, formam et effectum cujusdam acti parliamenti in tertio regni nostri anno apud Westm. facti, brevi assignare et deputare proponimus; et ubi numerus praedictus ad tractatum legum praedictarum describendarum et componendarum, nimis videtur, tametsi id tum propter consultationem et judicium super eo habendum, tum etiam propter perfectionem et complementum earundem longe expediens existit, nobis moventibus consiliariis nostris a secretis, consentaneum magis videtur, hujus rei initium, introitum, primam formam et lineaturam numero octavo, qui doctorum triginta erit portio, committere, nempe quasi praeparationem quandam grandiori numero futuram.

Quapropter de prudentia, scientia, et diligentia vestris plurimum confidentes, de sententia concilii nominavimus et deputavimus vos commissarios nostros, et vobis auctoritatem per praesentes impartimus, ut loco et tempore congruis, et opportunis, celeritate conveniente; qua poteritis maxima, infimul conveniatis, cursumque legum ecclesiasticarum, infra regnum nostrum in usu existentium, aut antehac uti solitarum, diligenter perlegatis, consideretis, et ponderetis; eoque facto, illarum loco et vice, collectionem, compilationem, et ordinem talium legum ecclesiasticarum inveniatis, faciatis, et in scripta redigi faciatis, quales in usu esse, praedicari, et in quibuscunque curiis, et jurisdictionibus nostris ecclesiasticis infra istud regnum nostrum, et alia nostra dominia proponi et publicari, de scientia, sapientia, et judicio vestris maxime expediens fore putaveritis. Habentes considerationem, et respectum debitum ad tenorem statuti praedicti pro praeservatione legum nostrarum communium in suo vigore remanentium, et pro omnibus aliis articulis, et ramis dicti statuti. Et quamprimum leges praedictae per vos adinventae, formatae, descriptae, et compilatae fiunt, easdem statim nobis exhiberi, et in scriptis tradi volumus, ut eas de concilii nostri sententia, de residuo triginta duorum, una vobiscum, pro ulteriore legum praedictarum ecclesiasticarum ratificatione, et perfectione, tanquam commissariorum nostrorum, juxta formam statuti praedicti, conjunctim nominandorum transmittamus.

Et quamvis vos ea modestia, et sapientia praeditos esse scimus, quod onus istud humeris vestris commissum, et impositum, haud parvi esse momenti, et ponderis aestimabitis; considerantes tamen, quod propositum nostrum non est aliud, quam praeparationis cujusdam gratia istud a vobis effectum reddi; ita quod major numerus ad consultationem, et perfectionem ejusdem magis certo et ordinate procedere valeat, certiores vos esse volumus, quod actiones, et studia vestra in hac parte, cum erunt nobis gratissima, tum aut benignissima, et maxime favorabili interpretatione accepta.

Et praeterea volumus, quod statim post receptionem praesentium una conveniatis, et hac in re celeritate et expeditione ea utamini, quam causa exposcit mandantes et stricte praecipientes omnibus et singulis personis, quarum consilio, sententia, et ope in hac parte vos opus habebitis; quod illi per vos requisiti opem praestent, consulant, et juvent, quemadmodum nobis placere cupiunt. In cujus testimonium, has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm. xi. die Novembris anno regni regis quinto.

MARTON.

Per ipsum regem, et de data praedicta.

*Concilium * provinciale cleri Scotici habitum Edinburgi A.D. MDLI. in quo sequentia acta edita sunt.* Ex MS. Paris. regio n. 3887. Codd. Baluzian. n. 38.

IN PRIMIS hoc praesens concilium, constans hujus regni praelatis, concilium provinciale facientibus, relectis, auditis, et discussis diligenter per omnia statutis et ordinationibus aliarum provincialium conventionum, praeside reverendissimo domino primato totius regni moderno et praesenti, antehac habiturum, eadem in certissimum totius ecclesiastici status ac populi christiani commodum vergere, in universum ratificanda, approbanda, et observanda una cum nonnullis in hac synodo additis, et adjectis, quae in specie sequuntur communi omnium et publico decreto conclusa, prout eadem praesenti tenore approbat, acceptat, et ratificat.

* Acta in hoc concilio approbata postea renovantur in concilio provinciali cleri Scotici. A.D. MDLIX. testante MS. regio Parisiensis.

2. Executio decretorum prioris concilii.

Verum quia propter temporis difficultatem et multiplicia impedimenta quaedam eorundem statutorum prius editorum, quibus executioni demandandis certa in ipsis erant tempora praefixa, nullum tamen adhuc effectum sunt fortita; idcirco expresso jam omnium consensu absque ulla ulteriori dilatione deinceps eadem, quemadmodum antea salubriter sancita erant, ita et nunc diligenter executioni demandanda decrevit, ad tempora inferius limitata, prout unusquisque ordinariorum respondere voluerit pro suo officio in districto Dei iudicio.

3. De praedicatione verbi Dei.

Et specialiter cum caeteris omnibus supra scriptis approbat praesens concilium statutum illud prius editum, de divini verbi praedicationibus per rectores quater singulis annis fiendis, cum multis et poenis in deficientes seu contravenientes eidem utrobique adductis; atque ejusdem executionem per singulos ordinarios fieri mandat infra hinc et proximas uniuscujusque dioecesis synodos, et quod in contravenientes suasve partes in dicto statuto injunctas absque mora citationes simplices dentur pro ipsarum multarum solutione, juxta statuti tenorem per ipsos ordinarios, aut eorundem commissarios, in religiosorum et pauperum usus applicandarum.

4. De theologo et canonista.

Approbat quoque similiter statuta ista de theologis et canonistis apud singulas ecclesias cathedrales, necnon pro theologis in singulis monasteriis instituendis, et honorifice sustentandis, juxta continentiam ejusdem; placet universo concilio, ut statuta eadem sententia debitam executionem fortiantur, intra hinc et festum divi Michaelis proximum, et quod contra negligentes severiter procedatur; atque eodem modo ut statutum illud de religiosis, ad universitates studiorum gratia mittendis, et ibi juxta monasterii facultates honeste sustentandis suam executionem cum omni rigore intra hinc et festum Pentecostes proximum fortiat.

5. De examinatione curatorum et vicariorum.

Ad haec universae synodo visum est utile et necessarium, ne diutius per minus sufficientes seu idoneos curatos animarum cura defraudet, ut statutum illud de curatorum, et vicariorum pensionariorum examinationibus, diligenti indagatione et executione habeatur infra hinc et proximas cujusque dioecesis synodos, et ibidem circa statutum de monasteriorum examinationibus et clericorum parochialium.

6. De computo et ratiocinio testamentorum.

Approbat similiter praesens conventio constitutionem illam de testamentorum confirmationibus prius promulgatis, hoc addito, ut in posterum nullae omnino confirmationes ad intus et extra dentur, sed singula confirmanda in specie exprimantur et contineantur in bonorum inventariis, non autem sub aliqua summa generali et extra sub poena omissionis quotae levandae piis usibus applicandae.

Item mandat, ut reverendissimi et reverendorum dominorum ordinariorum, et decani registra testamentorum, tam majorum quam minorum, habentes eadem, bis singulis annis, ipsis officialibus, seu commissariis generalibus patefaciant, ut procuratoribus fiscalibus pro computis et ratiociniis eorundem testamentorum mandatum dent, ut ipsa computa expedienda quamprimum juris ordine curent, qui et ipsi procuratores super debito sui officii respondere voluerunt, alioquin de negligentia puniendi et officio destituendi, ne tam proles defunctorum suis portionibus bonorum, quam creditores et legatarii fraudentur.

Simili quoque modo statutum illud de testamentis Orcaden. dioecesis ad formam et honorem caeterarum hujusmodi regni dioeceseon ordinandis, approbat et testamenta dioecesis et insularum omnium extendendis, decrevit, cum ubi pia dignoscitur esse ratio, eadem quoque debet esse juris dispositio.

7. De causis matrimonialibus.

Porro quia contingit causas matrimoniales nimis leviter in iudicio transmitti, cum tamen sint sua natura valde graves et arduae, ac episcopis ipsis de jure reserventur; statuit haec sancta praelatorum conventio, ut nullae deinceps sententiae in causis matrimonialibus ad divortium tendentibus per officiales seu commissarios cujusunque dioecesis hujus regni pronuncientur, nisi processus hujusmodi et causarum merita per ipsos ordinarios discussa, et legitime perpensa fuerint, quo facto ex speciali ipsorum ordinariorum mandato et consilio, quod sacris canonibus consonum fuerit, decernatur; utque testes ipsi in ejusmodi causis prudenter et circumspecte super gravibus facti circumstantiis ad testium fidem tentandam et explorandam necessariis et opportunis examinentur et diligenter interrogentur, quodque suppositiones pro testium examinationibus infra alias dioeceses praecise ipsis locorum ordinariis, officialibus seu commissariis cujusunque dioecesis, et nullis deputatis, aut substitutis delegabuntur, testibus vero secus examinatis nulla fides habeatur.

8. Quod parochiani singulis dominicis et festivis intersint missae.

Item praesens conventio animadvertens divinatorum mysteriorum contemptum maximum aliquot hisce proximis annis inter regni subditos invaluisse, sic ut pauci admodum ex populissimis parochiis sacrosanctae missae sacrificio, diebus dominicis, et aliis festivis duplicibus ab ecclesia indictis, aut divini verbi praedicationibus adesse dignentur; ideo statuit et ordinat, ut omnes et singuli a suis parochialibus missis diebus praescriptis vel praedicationibus verbi divini in suis ecclesiis parochialibus sese ultro absentantes diligenter notentur per curatos, qui eosdem decanis in suis visitationibus majorum excessuum deferant, poenis publicatis juxta personarum qualitates, et delicti hujusmodi frequen-frequentationem, et hujusmodi deficientiam districtè puniendos; et similiter, qui rem sacram minus reverenter aut indevote audire consueverint, quique jocantur, aut scurriliter se gerunt in ecclesiis temporibus sermonum, aut qui in portis ecclesiarum aut coemeteriis ludibria interim exercere, aut aliis profanis negotiationibus vacare praesumpserint, non solum censura ecclesiastica feriantur, sed etiam aliis poenis arbitrio ordinariorum infligendis subjaceant; et quod hujusmodi abusu occasionibus citius tollantur, statuit haec praesens conventio, ut prohibeantur per vicarios et curatos omnes mercaturae in portis ecclesiarum, et in coemeteriis divinatorum tempore diebus dominicis et festivis, et quod nulla venalia durante sacro exponantur, seu aperiantur, prope limites ecclesiarum, sed quod singuli tunc temporis vel sacro, orationibus, precibus, vel divini verbi praedicationibus diligenter attendant, et hoc sub poena excommunicationis, et 200 solidorum singulis vicibus, quibus praesentibus fuerit contravenitum.

9. De visitatione hospitalium.

Insuper praesens conventio pietate erga pauperes Christi mota, ad quorum supportationem hospitalia ab initio erant instituta, statutum illud celeberrimum super visitationibus hospitalium in singulis hujus regni dioecesium, intra hinc et festum divi Michaelis proximum executioni mandari vult; et ut decani in suis visitationibus de statu omnium hospitalium juxta tenorem illius statuti referant, et debito tempore officialibus, seu commissariis generalibus ad effectum, ut ipsi defectus hujusmodi corrigant, et opportuna remedia desuper prospiciant.

10. Additio ad vetus statutum de excommunicationis vitandis.

Item quod excommunicatio omnium ecclesiasticarum personarum gravissima poena prae hominum corruptis et dissolutis moribus prope viluit, ut eidem tamen sua auctoritas, reverentia, et vigor juxta sacrorum sanctiones canonum restitatur quantum haec tempora ferunt; statuit haec praesens conventio, et nomina excommunicatorum per singulos curatos suarum parochiarum, cujuscunque status, gradus, conditionis aut praeeminentiae fuerint, in suis libris scribantur, ut singulis diebus dominicis publicentur omni timore et favore exclusis.

11. Nomina excommunicatorum publicentur.

Item ut infordefcentes a viginti diebus juxta vetus statutum provinciale, nisi sub justa appellatione fuerint, velut abominabiles in cancellis ecclesiarum parochialium, et in aliis publicis locis per curatos affigantur, et ibidem fixa remaneant eorum nomina, donec absolutionis beneficium obtinuerint habita vero absolutione eorum nomina de libro deleantur, et in margine scribatur talis absolutus.

12. Infordefcentes affigantur in cancellis et valvis ecclesiae.

Insuper ut ipsi curati, antequam exordiantur rem divinam, moneant publice et generaliter omnes personas excommunicatas, ut quamprimum sese a divinis rebus amoveant; certificando expresse, quod quicumque scienter post illam admonitionem seu requisitionem sese divinis ingesserit, tunc temporis excommunicatus existens live personaliter, live in sua ecclesia fuerit parochiali publice et solenniter denunciatus, sententiam juris incurrit, a qua non poterit absolvi, nisi per sanctissimum dominum nostrum papam, et insuper poenis actorum parlamenti subjacebit: et si ecclesiastica persona et beneficiata fuerit, et hujusmodi admonitionem contempserit, aut quamdiu sub excommunicatione hujusmodi infordeat, quod pro rata temporis suae infordefcentiae fructibus sui beneficii privabitur, in pauperes suae parochiae per ordinariorum, aut eorundem commissarios erogandis; si vero non fuerit beneficiatus, tamdiu incarceretur pane et aqua, quamdiu sub ejusmodi censura infordeat, vel aliter arbitrio ordinarii puniatur.

13. De glebis ecclesiae non alienandis.

Praeterea quod res et bona ecclesiarum et certae decimae, redditus et proventus jam passim sub praetextu evidentis utilitatis ecclesiarum, ad ipsorum possessorum cupiditatem duntaxat explendam, aut consanguineorum et amicorum opes, facultates, et possessiones augendas, et ampliandas, carnali affectione ad longum tempus locantur, alienantur, dilapidantur, et profligantur, tam in ipsarum ecclesiarum irrecuperabile dispendium, et damnum, quam etiam in ipsorum successorum summam inopiam et penuriam, ut vix ex reliquis fructibus onera ecclesiae et necessarias expensas juxta personae suae facultatem sufferre possit et valeat: quocirca hujusmodi parum providis ecclesiasticarum personarum administrationibus occurrere volens praesens conventio inhibet expresse, ne in posterum mansiones, croftae proximae vicariis ipsis residentibus deputatis ecclesiis contiguae jacentes per rectores vel vicarios in emphytheosim ullo tempore futuro dentur, aut ad longum tempus assidentur; constitutiones veteres provincialium conciliorum hujus regni desuper olim prudenter sancitas in usum revocandas, hoc ipsum temporum necessitate exigente, decrevit, easdem approbat in omnibus et ratificat, ac in perpetuum valitura constitutione firmum eisdem robur addit.

14. De clandestinis matrimoniis, et bannis, et registris curatorum.

Eodem quoque modo approbat et ratificat praesens conventio vetera illa statuta provincialia super clandestinis matrimoniis, et bannorum debitis proclamationibus, tenoresque eorundem praesentibus inferi mandat, eisdemque addendo quod quia experimentis quotidianis compertum est ex nativitate et matrimoniorum clandestinorum quæstibus et controversiis, quamvis etiam legitime ratis, in summum paternae seu avitae haereditatis ac fortunarum omnium discrimen adduci; et hoc potissimum defectu legitimorum documentorum super natalibus et nativitatis temporibus, superque bannorum proclamationibus: statustatutum igitur est, ut singuli curati deinceps habeant registrum, in quo nomina infantum baptizatorum inscribantur, una cum nominibus personarum, quae talium baptizatorum parentes communiter habentur et reputantur, nec non compatrum et commatrum, cum die, anno, mense, adscriptis etiam duobus testibus notent; quod etiam ipsum in bannorum proclamationibus servetur, quas praesens conventio in ecclesiis parochialibus tam viri quam mulieris respective, si diversarum fuerint parochiarum, fieri mandat; quae quidem registra inter pretiosissima ecclesiae jocalia conservari vult et praecipit, quodque decani in suis visitationibus desuper diligentem indaginem faciant, et deficientes ad commissarios referant, ut graviter in eosdem animadvertatur.

15. De poena ministri in clandestino matrimonio.

Praeterea statuto de poenis tam partium contrahentium, quam ministrorum in matrimoniis clandestinis addit, et id aliqua ex parte reformat, statuitque ut presbyteri suam ad eadem clandestina matrimonia contrahenda operam seu ministerium accommodantes incarcerationem per annum, in pane et potu, nec non ab executione ordinum in triennium suspendantur; partesque ipsae contrahentes publicas agant poenitentias, arbitrio ordinariorum juxta statum et qualitatem earundem personarum moderandas et imponendas; hortaturque, ne ordinarii sint in hac parte quacunque occasione nimis remissi, ut plurima inconvenientia, quae hinc proveniunt, saltem metu poenae evitentur.

16. Circa editionem et publicationem catechismi in gratiam virorum ecclesiasticorum curam animarum gerentium.

Item praesens conventio semper habens oculos, quam diligenter ecclesiae pastoribus pastorum omnium principe Christo Jesu sit praedicandi verbi Dei officium commendatum, ut saltem in primis fidei catholicae rudimentis probe instituantur greges ipsi, suae curae concrediti; atque interim secum reputans quot horrendae haereses aliquot hisce annis in variis et diversis hujus regni partibus sint grassatae, jam vero Dei optimi maximique providentia, singulorumque favore principum ac praelatorum vigilantia studioque erga fidem catholicam tandem repressae, ac fere sopitae videantur; consideransque insuper ecclesiasticos hujus regni inferiores et praelatos pro majori parte nondum eo eruditionis in sacris literis esse provectos, ut populum recte in fide catholica, aliisque ad salutem necessariis instruere, aut errantes convertere suo studio valeant. Ad igitur juvandos eorum pios conatus, industriamque promovendam, utque eadem vera, catholica, et apostolica fides, seclusis universis erroribus, integra et inviolabilis conservetur; statuit et ordinat librum quendam vulgari et Scotico idiomate conscriptum, ac prudentissimorum hujus regni praelatorum, doctissimorumque theologorum, et aliorum ecclesiasticorum virorum praesenti conventioni interessentium judiciis et calculis exactissima discussione habita approbatum, in rectorum, vicario-rum, et curatorum manus, tam pro sua quam pro populi christiani, cujus curam gerunt, instructione tradendum; quem catechismum, id est, communem et facilem rudimentorum fidei institutionem et doctrinam vocari vult, ipsiusque reverendissimi domini Johannis S. Andreae, totius regni Scotiae primatis, in praesenti concilio praesidis, ipsiusque provincialis hujusce synodi nomine imprimendum, inque lucem edendum, ac in multa exemplaria transumendum, continentem veram sinceramque, juxta catholicae ecclesiae sensum ac intellectum decalogi, seu decem mandatorum Dei interpretationem, articulorum fidei, septemque sacramentorum simplicem, puram, ac christianam doctrinam, nec non orationis dominicae, et salutationis angelicae integram et salutarem expositionem; quorum ignorantia, ut ait Bernardus in declamationibus: "excusare non poterit hominem, qui se magistrum infantium doctoremque insipientium profitetur, quippe ipse ignorans ignorabitur, immo multos ignorare faciet et ignorari; quantum enim sit periculi omnibus, cum non invenit pastor pascua, ignorat dux itineris viam, vicarius nescit Domini voluntatem, ecclesia quotidie multipliciter et miserabiliter experitur." Haec divus Bernardus.

Cujus quidem libri exemplaria omnia, ubi excussa fuerint, praesentari ipsi reverendissimo mandat et ordinat praesens concilium, ut ipse singulis tam suis ecclesiasticis, quam aliis singulis locorum ordinariis, quot cuique dioecesi pro rectorum, vicariorum, ac curatorum numero et multitudine sufficere videntur, eis tribuat; reliqua vero apud ipsum reverendissimum remaneant, et firma custodia servantur, prout tempus et necessitas postulaverint, dispertienda.

Caveant vero ipsi rectores, vicarii, et curati, ne sua exemplaria secularibus quibusque indiscrete communicent, nisi ex judicio, consilio, et discretione sui ordinarii; quibus ordinariis licebit nonnullis probis, gravibus, bonae fidei, ac discretis viris laicis, ejusdem catechismi exemplaria communicari, et iis potissimum, qui videbuntur potius suae instructionis causa, quam curiositatis cujuscunque eadem expetere.

Cujus quidem catechismi singula capita et partes singulas ab ipsa praefatione seu exordio libri incipiendo ad finem usque absque interruptione, seu locorum quorumcunque omissione, continuando rectores per se, vel ipsi vicarii, aut curati, qui curam administrant omnibus dominicis et festivis diebus, quando ad divina audienda populus convenire solet et tenetur, alta et intelligibili voce, distincte, clare, articulate, et punctuatim, omnibus silentio interdicto, quanta poterit maxima gravitate in suggesto, superpellicio ac stola induti ante summam missam ad dimidia horae spatium legere, et de libro ipso recitare integre, et absque ulla haesitatione, nihil addito, mutato, suppresso, vel omissio, sed prout verba jacent, sic ut populus lecta et recitata modo, quo supra, audire cum fructu, ac aedificationem inde concipere, et suae salutis intelligentiam haurire valeat.

Quod ipsum quo melius, quo facilius, et cum majori populi reverentia et utilitate praestare possint, possint, ipsi, quibus hoc munus praesenti constitutione injungitur, caveant ipsi rectores, vicarii, vel curati, ne minus praemeditate in pulpitu[m] conscendant, sed toto studio et intentione ad lectionem peragendam crebra, frequenti ac diuturna futurae lectionis repetitione sese praeparent, ne se auditorum ludibrio exponant, ubi imparati in medio lectionis cursu haesitaverint, aut impegerint, et propter hoc maledictioni divinae se reddant obnoxios, cum, ut inquit scriptura: "maledictus omnis, qui facit opus Domini negligenter:" et similiter, ne languide et oscitanter, sed cum quanto possunt maximo spiritus ardore, voce, vultu, et gestu ad pronuntiationem concurrentibus, ut quae leguntur animis auditorum vivae vocis impressione, prout cuique gratiam dederit Dominus, infigantur. Hoc tamen proviso, ut non liceat cuiquam auditorum super lectis, aut modo quo supra recitatis, controversiam ipsi rectori seu vicario seu curato movere. Et si aliquis id attentare praesumpserit, deferatur inquisitoribus haereticae pravitatis; nec vicissim licebit ulli rectori, vicario, seu curato, nisi ad hoc ipsum (specialiter habita consideratione ipsius qualificationis) fuerit ab ordinario loci ei facultas concessa in scriptis, ullis controversias et quaestiones hujusmodi moventibus desuper respondere, aut disputationes ingredi, sed mox respondeatur, se hujusmodi disputationis resolutiones ad ipsos ordinarios remittere, et hoc sub poena privationis ab hujusmodi officio seu beneficio.

17. De multa in negligentes lectionem catechismi.

Quod si quis rector, vicarius, seu curatus in aliquo praesentis statuti puncto negligens aut culpabilis fuerit deprehensus, pro prima vice mulctetur 20 solidis, irremissibiliter ab eo exigendis et levandis; pro secunda 40 solidis; pro tertia duplicetur multa, et cum hoc incarceration in pane et potu duntaxat ad mensem, et ulterius ad arbitrium ordinarii. Nihilominus ubi contingit conciones verbi Dei per religiosos vel alios ordinarios praedicatores vice rectorum, juxta tenorem priorum statutorum interim fieri, quod talibus diebus catechismi lectio intermittatur impune. Et super singulis punctis et partibus praesentis statuti fiant diligentes inquisitiones per decanos in suis visitationibus, et desuper delationes fiant fideles absque omni favore vel odio commissariis majorum excessuum.

Finis omnium statutorum concilii provincialis in omnibus suis sessionibus facti per reverendissimum Johannem archiepiscopum sancti Andree, et reliquos regni Scotiae episcopos, et abbates, ac totius Scoticae ecclesiae clerum, in annis Domini millesimo, quingentesimo, quadragesimo nono, et quinquagesimo primo respective.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 20.

Anno Christi
1552.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 6.

Convocatio Cantuariensis.

Ex reg. Cranmer fol. 52.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. xvi. die Aprilis per breve regium dissolvebatur. Deinde per aliud datum

v. die Januarii sequ. ad ii. diem Martii sum-monebatur.

Synodus Eboracensis.

SYNODUS provincialis Eboracensis per breve regium dat. 16. die Aprilis dissoluta fuit 4. die mensis Maii. Per aliud autem breve dat. 5. die Januarii sequ. ad diem secundum Martii in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. convocata post varias continuationes decimo quinto die Aprilis A. D. 1553. subsidium sex solidorum per libram domino regi concesserunt.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1552.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 6.

Articuli de quibus in synodo Londinensi, anno Dom. M. D. LII. ad tollendam opinionum dissensionem et consensum verae religionis firmandum, inter episcopos et alios eruditos viros convenerat, regia auctoritate in lucem editi.

De fide in sacrosanctam trinitatem.

UNUS est vivus et verus Deus, aeternus, incorporeus, impartibilis, impassibilis, immensae potentiae, sapientiae, ac bonitatis, creator et conservator omnium, tum visibilium tum invisibilium. Et in unitate hujus divinae naturae tres sunt personae ejusdem essentiae, potentiae, ac aeternitatis, Pater, Filius, et Spiritus Sanctus.

Verbum Dei verum hominem esse factum.

Filius qui est verbum patris, in utero beatae virginis, ex illius substantia naturam humanam assumpsit, ita ut duae naturae, divina et humana, integre atque perfecte in unitate personae fuerint inseparabiliter conjunctae; ex quibus est unus Christus, verus Deus et verus homo, qui vere passus est, crucifixus, mortuus et sepultus, ut Patrem nobis reconciliaret, essetque hostia non tantum pro culpa originis, verum etiam pro omnibus actualibus hominum peccatis.

De descensu Christi ad inferos.

Quemadmodum Christus pro nobis mortuus est et sepultus, ita est etiam credendus ad inferos descendisse. Nam corpus usque ad resurrectionem in sepulchro jacuit; spiritus ab illo emissus, cum spiritibus qui in carcere five in inferno detinebantur, fuit, illisque praedicavit, quemadmodum testatur Petri locus.

Resurrectio Christi.

Christus vere a mortuis resurrexit, suumque corpus cum carne, ossibus, omnibusque ad integritatem humanae naturae pertinentibus, recepit, cum quibus in caelum ascendit, ibique residet, quoad extremo die ad judicandos homines revertatur.

Divinae scripturae doctrina sufficit ad salutem.

Scriptura sacra continet omnia quae sunt ad salutem necessaria, ita ut quicquid in ea nec legitur, neque inde probari potest, licet interdum a fidelibus, ut pium et conducibile ad ordinem et decorem admittatur, attamen a quoquam non exigendum est ut tanquam articulus fidei credatur, et ad salutis necessitatem requiri putetur.

Vetus testamentum non est rejiciendum.

Testamentum vetus, quasi novo contrarium sit, non est repudiandum, sed retinendum, quandoquidem tam in veteri quam in novo per Christum, qui unicus est mediator Dei et hominum, Deus et homo, aeterna vita humano generi est proposita. Quare non sunt audiendi, qui veteres tantum in promissiones temporarias sperasse confingunt.

Symbola tria.

Symbola tria, Nicenum, Athanasii, et quod vulgo apostolicum appellatur, omnino recipienda sunt. Nam firmissimis divinarum scripturarum testimoniis probari possunt.

Peccatum originale.

Peccatum originis non est (ut fabulantur Pelagiani, et hodie Anabaptistae repetunt) in imitatione Adami situm, sed est vitium et depravatio naturae cujuslibet hominis ex Adamo naturaliter propagati; qua fit, ut ab originali justitia quam longissime distet, ad malum sua natura propendeat, et caro semper adversus spiritum concupiscat: unde in unoquoque nascentium iram Dei atque damnationem meretur. Manet etiam in renatis haec naturae depravatio, qua fit ut affectus carnis, Graece φρόνημα σαρκός, quod alii sapientiam, alii sensum, alii affectum, alii studium vocant, legi Dei non subjicitur. Et quanquam renatis et credentibus nulla propter Christum est condemnatio, peccati tamen in sese rationem habere concupiscentiam fatetur apostolus.

De libero arbitrio.

Absque gratia Dei, quae per Christum est, nos praeveniente ut velimus, et cooperante dum volumus, ad pietatis opera facienda, quae Deo grata sint et accepta, nihil valeamus.

De gratia.

Gratia Christi, seu Spiritus Sanctus, qui per eundem datur, cor lapideum aufert, et dat cor carneum; atque licet ex nolentibus quae recta sunt volentes faciat, et ex volentibus prava, nolentes reddat, voluntati nihilominus violentiam nullam infert. Et nemo hac de causa, cum peccaverit, seipsum excusare potest, quasi nolens aut coactus peccaverit, ut eam ob causam accusari non mereatur aut damnari.

De hominis justificatione.

Justificatio ex sola fide Jesu Christi eo sensu, quo in homilia de justificatione explicatur, est certissima et saluberrima christianorum doctrina.

Opera ante justificationem.

Opera quae fiunt ante gratiam Christi, et Spiritus ejus afflatum, cum ex fide Jesu Christi non prodeant, minime Deo grata sunt. Neque gratiam (ut multi vocant) de congruo, merentur; imo cum non sint facta, ut Deus illa fieri voluit et praecepit, peccati rationem habere non dubitamus.

Opera supererogationis.

Opera quae supererogationis appellant, non possunt sine arrogantia et impietate praedicari, nam illis declarant homines non tantum se Deo reddere quae tenentur, sed plus in ejus gratiam facere quam deberent: cum aperte Christus dicat: "Cum feceritis omnia quaecunque praecepta sunt vobis, dicite: servi inutiles sumus."

Nemo praeter Christum est sine peccato.

Christus in nostrae naturae veritate, per omnia similis factus est nobis, excepto peccato, a quoprorus erat immunis, tum in carne, tum in spiritu. Venit ut agnus absque macula esset, qui mundi peccata per immolationem sui semel factam tolleretur; et peccatum (ut inquit Johannes) in eo non erat. Sed nos reliqui etiam baptizati, et in Christo regenerati, in multis tamen offendimus omnes, et si dixerimus quia peccatum non habemus, nos ipsos seducimus, et veritas in nobis non est.

De peccato in Spiritum Sanctum.

Non omne peccatum mortale post baptismum voluntarie perpetratum, est peccatum in Spiritum Sanctum et irremissibile; proinde lapsis a baptismo in peccata, locus poenitentiae non est negandus. Post acceptum Spiritum Sanctum possumus a gratia data recedere atque peccare, denuoque per gratiam Dei resurgere ac resipiscere. Ideoque illi damnandi sunt, qui se quamdiu hic vivant, amplius non posse peccare affirmant, aut vere resipiscentibus poenitentiae locum denegant.

Blasphemia in Spiritum Sanctum.

Blasphemia in Spiritum Sanctum est, cum quis verborum Dei manifeste perceptam veritatem, ex malitia et obfirmatione animi, convitiis infectatur, et hostiliter insequitur. Atque hujusmodi, quia maledicto sunt obnoxii, gravissimo, villimo sese astringunt sceleri. Unde peccati hoc genus irremissibile a Domino appellatur, et affirmatur.

De praedestinatione et electione.

Praedestinatio ad vitam est aeternum Dei propositum, quo ante jacta mundi fundamenta suo consilio, nobis quidem occulto, constanter decrevit eos, quos elegit ex hominum genere, a maledicto et exitio liberare, atque ut vasa in honorem efficta, per Christum ad aeternam salutem adducere. Unde qui tam praeclaro Dei beneficio sunt donati, illi, Spiritu ejus opportuno tempore operante, secundum propositum ejus vocantur, vocationi per gratiam parent, justificantur gratis, adoptantur in filios, unigeniti Jesu Christi imagini efficiuntur conformes, in bonis operibus sancte ambulant, et demum ex Dei misericordia pertingunt ad sempiternam felicitatem.

Quemadmodum praedestinationis et electionis nostrae in Christo pia consideratio, dulcis, suavis, et ineffabilis consolationis plena est vere piis, et his qui sentiunt in se vim Spiritus Christi, facta carnis, et membra quae adhuc sunt super terram mortificantem, animumque ad caelestia et superna rapientem, tum quia fidem nostram de aeterna salute consequendi per Christum, plurimum stabilit atque confirmat; tum quia amorem nostrum in Deum vehementer accendit: ita hominibus curiosis, carnalibus, et spiritu Christi destitutis, ob oculos perpetuo versari praedestinationis Dei sententiam perniciosissimum est praecipitium, unde illos diabolus pertrudit vel in desperationem, vel in aequae perniciosam impurissimae vitae securitatem. Deinde licet praedestinationis decreta sunt nobis ignota, promissiones tamen divinas sic amplecti oportet, ut nobis in sacris literis generaliter propositae sunt, et Dei voluntas in nostris actionibus ea sequenda est, quam in verbo Dei habemus diserte revelatam.

Tantum in nomine Christi speranda est aeterna salus.

Sunt et illi anathematizandi qui dicere audent, unumquemque in lege aut secta quam profitetur esse servandum, modo juxta illam et lumen naturae accurate vixerit; cum sacrae literae tantum Jesu Christi nomen praedicent, in quo salvos fieri homines oporteat.

Omnes obligantur ad moralia legis praecepta servanda.

Lex a Deo data per Moysen, licet quoad ceremonias et ritus christianos non astringat, neque civilia ejus praecepta in aliqua repub. necessario recipi debeant, nihilominus ab obedientia mandatorum quae moralia vocantur, nullus quantumvis christianus est solutus: quare illi non sunt audiendi, qui sacras literas tantum infirmis datas esse perhibent, et spiritum perpetuo jactant, a quo sibi quae praedicant suggeri asserunt, quanquam cum sacris literis apertissime pugnent.

De ecclesia.

Ecclesia Christi visibilis est coetus fidelium, in quo verbum Dei purum praedicatur, et sacramenta, quoad ea quae necessario exiguntur, juxta Christi institutum recte administrantur.

Sicut erravit ecclesia Hierosolymitana, Alexandrina, et Antiochena, ita et erravit ecclesia Romana, non solum quoad agendi et ceremoniarum ritus, verum in his etiam quae credenda sunt.

De ecclesiae auctoritate.

Ecclesiae non licet quicquam instituere, quod verbo Dei scripto adversetur; neque unum scripturae locum sic exponere potest, ut alteri contradicat: quare licet ecclesia sit divinorum librorum testis et conservatrix, attamen ut adversus eos nihil decernere, ita praeter illos nihil credendum de necessitate salutis debet obtrudere.

De auctoritate conciliorum generalium.

Generalia concilia sine jussu et voluntate principum congregari non possunt; et ubi convenerint, quia ex hominibus constant, qui non omnes spiritu et verbis Dei reguntur, et errare possunt et interdum errarunt, etiam in his quae ad normam pietatis pertinent; ideo quae ab illis constituuntur, ut ad salutem necessaria, neque robur habent neque auctoritatem, nisi ostendi possint e sacris literis esse desumpta.

De purgatorio.

Scholasticorum doctrina de purgatorio, de indulgentiis, de veneratione et adoratione tum imaginum tum reliquiarum, nec non de invocatione sanctorum, res est inutilis, inaniter conficta, et nullis scripturarum testimoniis innititur, imo verbo Dei perniciose contradicit.

Nemo in ecclesia ministret nisi vocatus.

Non licet cuiquam sumere sibi munus publice praedicandi, aut administrandi sacramenta in ecclesia, nisi prius fuerit ad haec obeunda legitime vocatus et missus. Atque illos legitime vocatos et missos existimare debemus, qui per homines, quibus potestas vocandi ministros atque mittendi in vineam Domini publice concessa est in ecclesia, cooptati fuerint et asciti in hoc opus.

Agendum est in ecclesia lingua quae sit populo nota.

Decentissimum est, et verbo Dei maxime congruit, ut nihil in ecclesia publice legatur aut recitetur lingua populo ignota, idque Paulus fieri vetuit, nisi adesset qui interpretaretur.

De sacramentis.

Dominus noster Jesus Christus sacramentis numero paucissimis, observatu facillimis, significatione praestantissimis, societatem novi populi colligavit, sicuti est baptismus et coena Domini.

Sacramenta non instituta sunt a Christo ut spectarentur aut circumferrentur, sed ut rite illis uteremur: et in his duntaxat qui digne percipiunt, salutarem habent effectum, idque non ex opere (ut quidam loquuntur) operato; quae vox, ut peregrina est et sacris literis ignota, sic parit sensum minime pium, sed admodum superstitiosum: qui vero indigne percipiunt damnadamnationem (ut inquit Paulus) sibi ipsis acquirunt.

Sacramenta per verbum Dei instituta, non tantum sunt notae professionis christianorum, sed certa quaedam potius testimonia et efficacia signa gratiae atque bonae in nos voluntatis Dei, per quae invisibiliter ipse in nobis operatur, nostramque fidem in se non solum excitat, verum etiam confirmat.

Ministrorum malitia non tollit efficaciam institutionum divinarum.

Quamvis in ecclesia visibili bonis mali sint semper admixti, atque interdum ministerio verbi et sacramentorum administrationi praesint; tamen cum non suo sed Christi nomine agant, ejusque mandato et auctoritate ministrent, illorum ministerio uti licet, cum in verbo Dei audiendo, tum in sacramentis percipiendis: neque per illorum malitiam effectus institutorum Christi tollitur, aut gratia donorum Dei minuitur quoad eos, qui fide et rite sibi oblata percipiunt, quae propter institutionem Christi et promissionem efficacia sunt, licet per malos administrentur. Ad ecclesiae tamen disciplinam pertinet, ut in eos inquiratur, accusenturque ab iis, qui eorum flagitia noverint, atque tandem iusto convicti iudicio, deponantur.

De baptismo.

Baptismus non est tantum signum professionis ac discriminis nota, qua christiani a non christianis discernuntur, sed etiam est signum regenerationis, per quod tanquam per instrumentum recte baptismum suscipientes, ecclesiae inferuntur, promissiones de remissione peccatorum atque adoptione nostra in filios Dei per Spiritum Sanctum visibiliter obsignantur, fides confirmatur, et vi divinae invocationis, gratia augetur. Mos ecclesiae baptizandi parvulos et laudandus et omnino in ecclesia retinendus.

De coena Domini.

Coena Domini non est tantum signum mutuae benevolentiae christianorum inter sese, verum potius est sacramentum nostrae per mortem Christi redemptionis. Atque adeo rite, digne et cum fide sumentibus, panis quem frangimus est communicatio corporis Christi; similiter poculum benedictionis est communicatio sanguinis Christi.

Panis et vini transubstantiatio in eucharistia ex sacris literis probari non potest, sed apertis scripturae verbis adversatur, et multarum superstitionum dedit occasionem.

Quum naturae humanae veritas requirat, ut unius ejusdemque hominis corpus in multis locis simul esse non possit, sed in uno aliquo et definito loco esse oporteat; idcirco Christi corpus in multis et diversis locis, eodem tempore, praesens esse non potest. Et quoniam, ut tradunt sacrae literae, Christus in caelum fuit sublatus, et ibi usque ad finem seculi est mansurus, non debet quisquam fidelium carnis ejus et sanguinis realem et corporalem (ut loquuntur) praesentiam in eucharistia vel credere vel profiteri.

Sacramentum eucharistiae ex institutione Christi non servabatur, circumferebatur, elevabatur, nec adorabatur.

De unica Christi oblatione in cruce perfecta.

Oblatio Christi semel facta perfecta est redemptio, propitiatio et satisfactio pro omnibus peccatis totius mundi, tam originalibus quam actualibus; neque praeter illam unicam est ulla alia pro peccatis expiatio. Unde missarum sacrificia, quibus vulgo dicebatur, sacerdotem offerre Christum in remissionem poenae aut culpa pro vivis et defunctis, figmenta sunt, et perniciosae imposturae.

Coelibatus ex verbo Dei praecipitur nemini.

Episcopis, presbyteris et diaconis non est mandatum ut coelibatum voveant; neque jure divino coguntur matrimonio abstinere.

Excommunicati vitandi sunt.

Qui per publicam ecclesiae denunciationem rite ab unitate ecclesiae praecisus et excommunicatus, is ab universa fidelium multitudine, donec per poenitentiam publice reconciliatus fuerit arbitrio judicis competentis, habendus est tanquam ethnicus et publicanus.

Traditiones ecclesiasticae.

Traditiones atque ceremonias easdem non omnino necessarium est esse ubique, aut prorsus conformes, nam variae et semper fuerunt et mutari possunt pro regionum et morum diversitate, modo nihil contra Dei verbum instituitur.

Traditiones et ceremonias ecclesiasticas, quae cum verbo Dei non pugnant, et sunt auctoritate publica institutae atque probatae, quisquis privato consilio volens et data opera publice violaverit, is, ut qui peccat in publicum ordinem ecclesiae, quique laedit auctoritatem magistratus, et qui infirmorum fratrum conscientias vulnerat, publice, ut caeteri timeant, arguendus est.

Homiliae.

Homiliae nuper ecclesiae Anglicanae per injunctiones regias traditae atque commendatae, piae sunt atque salutes, doctrinamque ab omnibus amplectendam continent: quare populo diligenter, expedite, clareque recitandae sunt.

De libro precationum et ceremoniarum ecclesiae Anglicanae.

Liber qui nuperrime auctoritate regis et parliamenti ecclesiae Anglicanae traditus est, continens modum et formam orandi, et sacramenta administrandi in ecclesia Anglicana; similiter et libellus eadem auctoritate editus de ordinatione ministrorum ecclesiae, quoad doctrinae veritatem, pii sunt et salutaris doctrinae evangelii in nullo repugnant, sed congruunt, et eandem non parum promovent et illustrent, atque ideo ab omnibus ecclesiae Anglicanae fidelibus membris, et maxime a ministris verbi cum omni promptitudine animorum et gratiarum actione, recipiendi, approbandi, et populo Dei commendandi sunt.

De

De civilibus magistratibus.

Rex Angliae est supremum caput in terris, post Christum, ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae.

Romanus pontifex nullam habet jurisdictionem in hoc regno Angliae. Magistratus civilis est a Deo ordinatus atque probatus, quamobrem illi, non solum propter iram, sed etiam propter conscientiam, obediendum est.

Leges civiles possunt christianos propter capitalia et gravia crimina morte punire.

Christianis licet ex mandato magistratus arma portare et iusta bella administrare.

Christianorum bona non sunt communia.

Facultates et bona christianorum non sunt communia, quoad jus et possessionem, ut quidam Anabaptistae falso jactant; debet tamen quisque de his, quae possidet, pro facultatum ratione pauperibus eleemosynas benigne distribuere.

Licet christianis jurare.

Quemadmodum juramentum vanum et temerarium a Domino nostro Jesu Christo et ab apostolo ejus Jacobo christianis hominibus interdictum esse fatemur; ita christianam religionem minime prohibere censemus, quin, jubente magistratu, in causa fidei et charitatis jurare liceat, modo id fiat, juxta prophetarum doctrinam, in justitia, in judicio et veritate.

Resurrectio mortuorum nondum est facta.

Resurrectio mortuorum non adhuc facta est, quasi tantum ad animum pertineat, qui per Christi gratiam a morte peccatorum exciteur, sed extremo die quoad omnes qui obierunt, expectanda est; tunc enim vita defunctis (ut scripturae manifestissime testantur) propria corpora, carnes et ossa restituentur, ut homo integer, prout vel recte vel perditè vixerit, juxta sua opera, sive praemia sive poenas reportet.

Defunctorum animae neque cum corporibus intereunt, neque otiose dormiunt.

Qui animas defunctorum praedicant usque ad diem judicii absque omni sensu dormire, aut illas asserunt una cum corporibus mori, et extrema die cum illis excitandas, ab orthodoxa fide, quae nobis in sacris literis traditur, prorsus dissentiant.

Millenarii.

Qui millenariorum fabulam revocare conantur, sacris literis adversantur, et in Judaica deliramenta sese praecipitant.

Non omnes tandem servandi sunt.

Hi quoque damnatione digni sunt, qui conantur hodie perniciosam opinionem instaurare, quod omnes, quantumvis impii, servandi sunt tandem, cum definito tempore a justitia divina poenas de admittis flagitiis luerunt.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1552.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 6.

Instructions given by the kings majesty to his right trusty and right well beloved cousin and counsellor the marquis of Northampton, and to the rest of his highness commissioners appointed for the survey of church goods within his majesty's county of Northampton. Ex. Fuller eccles. hist. lib. vii. pag. 417. ad ann.

EDWARD,

FIRST upon the receipt of the said commission by any one of the same commissioners, he that so shall first receive the commission, shall forthwith with all convenient speed give knowledge to the rest named in the said commission, and with them shall agree to meet and assemble with what speed they can, for the execution of the same commission, and these instructions; and if any of the said commissioners shall be dead, sick, or otherwise be so absent out of the country for the service of the king, that he cannot with speed attend the same, in that case, the rest of the same commissioners, so that they be to the number appointed by the commission, shall not make any delay from the proceeding in the same commission, but shall forthwith allot their sittings, assemblies and meetings for the same commission, as in like cases hath been, or shall be meet to be used.

Item, for their better and more certain proceeding, the said commissioners shall in such cases, where none of the commissioners be "custos rotulorum" of that county, nor hath been since the beginning of our reign; command the said "custos rotulorum" or their deputy, or the clerk of the peace of those parts, to bring or send unto them such books, registers, and inventories, as hath heretofore any wise come to their hands by indenture touching the summs, numbers, and values of any goods, plate, Jewells, vestments, and bells, or ornaments of any churches, chapel, and such like: and likewise the said commissioners shall send to the bishops of every diocese, wherein the said county is situate, or to their chancellors, commissaries, or other ecclesiastical officers, in whose hands or custody the like of the aforesaid inventories and registers have command of them and every of them, they shall receive and take the said books, registers, and inventories; and that done, the said commissioners shall compare both the same inventories (that is to say) as well such as they shall receive and take of the "custos rotulorum", or their deputy, or the clerk of the peace, as of the bishops or other under officers; and accordingly to the best, richest, and greatest inventories of the said commissioners shall proceed to make their survey and enquiry, and by the same make the searches of the defaults and wants that that shall be found. And generally the same commissioners shall not only by the view of the said registers and inventories, but also by any other means, they can better devise, proceed to the due search, and inquisition of the wants and defaults of any part of the said goods, plates, jewels, vestments, bells, or ornaments.

VOL. IV.

X

Item, for the more speedy obtaining of the said registers, and inventories, the said commissioners shall receive special letters of commandment from our privy council for the delivery thereof, which letters the said commissioners shall deliver as they shall see occasion.

Item, the said commissioners shall upon their view and survey taken, cause due inventories to be made by bills or books indented, of all manner of goods, plate, jewels, bells and ornaments as yet remaining, or any wise forth coming and belonging to any churches, chapels, fraternities, or guilds; and the one part of the same inventories to send and return to our privy council, and the other to deliver to them, in whose hands the said goods, plate, jewels, bells, and ornaments shall remain to be kept preserved. And they shall also give good charge and order, that the same goods and every part thereof, be at all times forth coming to be answered, leaving nevertheless in every parish church or chapel of common resort, one, two, or more chalices or cups, according to the multitude of the people in every such church or chapel; and also such other ornaments as by their discretion shall seem requisite for the divine service in every such place for the time.

And because we be informed, that in many places great quantity of the said plate, jewels, bells, and ornaments be imbezilled by certain private men, contrary to our express commandments in that behalf; the said commissioners shall substantially and justly enquire and attain the knowledge thereof, by whose default the same is, and hath been, and in whose hands any part of the same is come. And in that point the said commissioners shall have good regard, that they attain to certain names and dwellingplaces of every person and persons, that hath sold, alienated, imbezilled, taken or carried away; and of such also as have counselled, advised, and commanded any part of the said goods, plate, jewels, bells, vestments, and ornaments to be taken or carried away, or otherwise imbezilled. And these things they shall as certainly and duely as they can, cause to be searched and understand.

Upon a full search and enquiry whereof, the said commissioners, four or three of them, shall cause to be called before them also the persons by whom any of the said goods, plate, jewels, bells, ornaments, or any other the premises, have been alienated, embezilled, or taken away; or by whose means or procurement the same or any part thereof hath been attempted, or to whose hands or use any of the same, or any profit for the same hath grown; and by such means as to their discretions shall seem best, cause to bring into their the said commissioners hands, to our use, the said plate, jewels, bells, and other the premises so alienated, or the true and just value thereof; certifying unto our privy council the names of all such as refuse to stand to, or obey their order, touching the re-delivery and restitution of the same, or the just value thereof, to the intent that, as cause and reason shall require, every man may answer to his doings in this behalf.

Finally, our pleasure is, that the said commissioners in all their doings, shall use such sober and discreet manner of proceeding, as the effect of this commission may go forward with as much quiet, and as little occasion of trouble or disquiet of the multitude, as may be; using to that end such wise persuasions in all places of their sessions, as in respect of the place and disposition of the people may seem to their wisdoms most expedient; giving also good and substantial order for the stay of the inordinate and greedy covetousness of such disordered people, as have or shall go about the alienating of any of the premises, so as according to reason and order, such as have or shall contemptuously offend in this behalf, may receive reformation, as for the quality of their doings shall be requisite.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1552.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 6.

Concilium provinciale praelatorum et cleri Scotiae Lythquoi habitum. Ex Jo. Lef-leo de reb. gest. Scot. lib. 10. p. 476.

“EODEM plane tempore cum haeretici catholicam religionem commovissent, quicunque ex clero prudentissimi, doctissimi et integerrimi fuerunt, concilio provinciali Lythquoi celebrato, haeresim justissima anathematis nota configunt; omniaque quae patrum auctoritate in concilio Tridentino sub Pauli III. auspiciis sancita erant, iusta, rata ac tanquam Dei imperio fixa plenis comitiis declarant. Multaque alia decreta, quae ad haeresis vires elidendas, catholicae fidei auctoritatem firmandam, ac cleri mores perpurgandos plurimum faciebant, constantissime sciscunt.” Haec Lessaeus.

Litterae

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
EDWARD. VI. 7.

Litterae regiae pro catechismo ludimagistris commendato.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terris ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, omnibus ludimagistris, et iis qui scholas grammaticas aperiunt.

Cum brevis et explicata catechismi ratio a pio quodam et erudito viro conscripta, nobis ad cognoscendum offerretur, ejus pertractationem et diligentem inquisitionem quibusdam episcopis et aliis eruditis commisimus, quorum judicium magnam apud nos auctoritatem habet. Et quia conveniens cum scripturis et regni nostri institutis visa est, placuit non solum eam propter convenientiam in aspectum lucemque proferre, sed etiam propter perspicuitatem et brevitatem omnibus ludorum magistris ad docendum proponere; ut rudis adhuc et inchoata aetas religionis simul et literarum jactis fundamentis cum sapientia pietatem discat, et regulam habeat in reliquo vitae cursu, quid sentiendum de Deo sit, ad quem omnis vita nostra confertur, et quomodo accepti Deo simus, in quo omnibus actionibus et vitae officiis elaborandum est. Praecipimus itaque et mandamus non modo universis, sed etiam singulis, pro cautione, qua auctoritatem nostram sanctam habere, et justam violatae dignitatis animadversionem devitare studetis, ut sedulo ac diligenter hunc catechismum in scholis vestris doceatis; ut tenera adhuc et fluens aetas, et praeceptorum auctoritate et verae religionis documentis firmata, magnas opportunitates ad veram Dei venerationem habeat, et magna subsidia etiam ad omnia vitae officia sequenda. Quibus instructi, pietatem in Deum auctorem omnium, observantiam erga regem pastorem populi, studium in rempublicam communem omnium matrem, melius usurpantes, non sibi solum nasci videantur, sed Deo, regi, et patriae utiles et officiosi sint. Dat. Grenwici 20 Maii, anno regni nostri septimo.

Mandatum pro publicatione nonnullorum articulorum veram Christi fidem concernentium. Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 65. b.

EDWARDUS sextus Dei gratia Angliae, et Franciae, et Hiberniae rex, fidei defensor, et in terra ecclesiae Anglicanae et Hibernicae supremum caput, dilectis sibi officiali curiae Cantuar. et decano decanatus de arcubus London. ac eorum surrogatis deputatis, aut locum tenentibus, uni vel pluribus, salutem. Quoniam nuper per literas nostras regias signeto nostro obsignatas, reverendissimo in Christo patri, consiliario nostro fidelissimo Thomae Cant. Archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano dederimus in mandatis, quatenus ipse ad Dei optimi maximi gloriam illustrandam nostrumque et ecclesiae nostrae Anglicanae (cujus caput supremum post Christum esse dignoscimur) honorem; et ad tollendam opinionum dissensionem, et consensum verae religionis firmandum, nonnullos articulos et alia rectam Christi fidem spirantia, clero et populo nostris ubilibet infra suam jurisdictionem degentibus pro parte nostra exponeret, publicaret, denunciaret, et significaret, prout in literis nostris (quarum tenores pro hic insertis haberi volumus) latius continetur, et describitur: vobis igitur et vestrum cuilibet tenore praesentium districte praecipiendo, nostra sublimi regia auctoritate mandamus; quatenus moneatis, monerive faciatis peremptorie, omnes et singulos rectores, vicarios, presbyteros, stipendiarios, curatos, plebanos, ministros, ludimagistros cujuslibet scholae grammaticae, aut aliter vel alias grammaticam aperte vel private profitentes, aut pubem instituentes, verbi Dei praedicatores, vel praelectores, necnon quoscunque alios quamcunque aliam functionem ecclesiasticam (quocunque nomine aut appellatione censetur, habetur, aut nuncupatur) obtinentes et habentes; oeconomos quoque cujuslibet parochiae infra decanatum de arcubus praedict. existentes, aut degentes; quod ipsi omnes et eorum quilibet per se compareant vel compareat personaliter coram dicto reverendissimo patre Cantuar. archiepiscopo in aula aedium suarum apud Lambeth die Veneris vicesimo tertio die praesentis mensis Junii, inter horas septimam et nonam ante meridiem ejusdem diei, his quae tunc eis ex parte nostra fuerint significand. humiliter obtemperaturi, facturique ulterius et recepturi, quod consonans fuerit rationi, ac suo convenerit erga nostram regiam dignitatem officio: mandantes quatenus dictis die et loco, et horis eundem reverendissimum de executione hujus regii nostri mandati, una cum nominibus et cognominibus omnium et singulorum per vos monitorum rite, recte, et auctentice reddatis certiore, una cum praesentibus, uti decet. Teste Thoma Cant. archiepiscopo praedicto decimo nono die Junii, anno regni nostri septimo.

80 Controversy betwixt the archb. of Ardmagh and Dublin.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MAR. I.

An historical narration of the controversy betwixt the archbishops of Ardmagh and Dublin, touching the primacy: which ended in the first year of Q. Mary's reign. Ex MS. Coll. Trin. Dublin. L. D. 42.

THE first occasion of the breach betwixt the archbishops of Ardmagh and Dublin was occasioned by certain bulls procured by the archbishop of Dublin from the court of Rome. For John Comyn the first English archbishop of Dublin, being consecrated by pope Lucius the third at Belitre, in the year of our Lord 1182. procured a bull from him; wherein among other privileges, this was inserted for one. "Sacrorum quoque canonum auctoritatem sequentes, statuimus ut nullus archiepiscopus vel episcopus absque assensu Dubliniensis archiepiscopi, si in archiepiscopatu fuerit, in dioecesi Dublinensi conventus celebrare, causas etiam et ecclesiastica negotia ejusdem dioecesis (nisi per Romanum pontificem, vel legatum ejus eidem fuerit injunctum) tractare praesumat." Which notwithstanding the opposition of the archbishop of Ardmagh, was twice renewed again in the year 1216. by pope Innocent III. in the end; and Honorius III. in the beginning of his papacy, at the solicitation of Henry de Londres, archbishop of Dublin. This Henry entred into a covenant with the archbishop of Cashel, (the copy whereof is yet extant) to oppose the primate's claims with common care and expences; and being a favourite of the court, and the pope's legate in this country, he prevailed so far, that in the year 1221, he obtained this bull following from the foresaid pope Honorius in the behalf of his see.

"Honorius episcopus, servus servorum Dei, venerabili fratri Dublin. archiepiscopo, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Cum secundum divinae legis praeceptum nemo falcem suam debet mittere in messem alienam, ne quod ab alio non vult sibi fieri alii facere videatur; nos tuis precibus inclinati auctoritate praesentium inhibemus, ne cuiquam archiepiscopo vel alii praelato Hiberniae (praeter suffraganeos tuos, aut apostolicae sedis legatum) sine tuo et successorum tuorum assensu bajulare crucem, celebrare conventus (religiosis exceptis) vel causas ecclesiasticas, nisi a sede apostolica delegatus [fuerit] tractare liceat in provincia Dublin. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostrae inhibitionis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire; si quis hoc attemptare praesumpserit, indignationem omnipotentis Dei, et beatorum Petri et Pauli, apostolorum ejus, se noverit incursum. Datum Laterani sexto idus Decemb. pontificatus nostri anno sexto."

The archbishop of Ardmagh on the other side bore out himself with a grant obtained from pope Caelesthine III. and confirmed also by his successor pope Innocent III. By reason of which contrariety of grants, a great controversy depended in the court of Rome betwixt Reynard of Ardmagh, and Luke of Dublin, in the year 1250. which was held in suspense, until at last pope Urban IV. confirmed the order set down by Caelesthine, and established the rights of the primacy to the see of Ardmagh in manner following.

"Primatiam vero totius Hiberniae, quam praedecessores tui usque ad haec tempora inconcussè habuisse noscuntur, ad exemplar supradicti Caelestini papae praedecessoris nostri, tibi tuisque successoribus auctoritate apostolica confirmamus; statuentes, ut Hiberniae archiepiscopi, episcopi, et alii praelati tibi et tuis successoribus, tanquam primati obedientiam et reverentiam omni tempore debeant exhibere. Porro crucem, vexillum scilicet dominicum, per provincias et episcopatus tibi metropolitico et primatiae jure subjectas, sicut praedecessoribus tuis concessum fuisse dignoscitur, ante te deferendi licentiam impertimur."

These privileges thus renewed, were presently published by the archbishop of Armagh in a provincial synod held at Drogheda, whereof in the registry of that church we read thus: "A Feria secunda, luna 18 mensis Januarii, anno Dom. 1262. frater Patricius^b Ostannail, archiepiscopus Ardmachanus, Hiberniae primas concilium celebravit apud pontem cum suffraganeis provinciae suae, et quibusdam suffraganeis provinciae Tuamensis sibi jure primatifico subjectis, et quibusdam canonicis cathedralibus et consilio Dom. Dubliniensis, cui interfuerunt justitarius et quidam magnates Hiberniae; et ibidem privilegia ecclesiae Ardmachanae de jure primatiae post renovationem in curia Romana publicata fuerunt." After this, the controversy ceased a while until the year 1311. when in the parliament held before John Wogan, lord justice at Kilkenny, the bishops falling into arguments about their jurisdictions, the bishop of Dublin forbade the primate of Ardmagh to lift up his crozier within the province of Leinster, as Campion reporteth in his history of Ireland, lib. 2. cap. 5. And in the year 1313, this accident following thereupon is related, in the Irish annals published by Mr. Cambden. "Frater Rolandus Joice, primas Ardmachanus applicuit in insula de Houth in crastino annunciationis B. Mariae. De nocte surgens furtive levando crucem suam, illam portavit usque prioratum de gratia Dei. Cui occurrebant quidam de familiaribus archiepiscopi Dubliniensis, illam crucem deponendo, et ipsum Ardmachanum tanquam confusum a Lagenia effugarunt." In the same annals likewise, at the year of our Lord 1337. this narration is laid down: "Domino Johanne Charle-

^a Ex reg. Octaviani archiep. Ardmagh, f. 282.

^b In Sir J. Ware, his name is O Scanlain.

ton existente justituario et tenente parliamentum Dublinii, magister David O Hirraghey, archiepiscopus Ardmachanus vocatus ad parliamentum fecit residentiam in monasterio B. Mariae juxta Dublinium. Sed impeditus fuit per archiepiscopum et clericos, quia voluit portare crucem ante eum, et noluerunt permittere eum. Upon which occasion David caused the aforesaid clauses of pope Urban's bull, confirming the privileges of the see of Ardmagh to be exemplified under the great seal of Ireland, "nono vigesimo Nov. anno regni Edwardi III. undecimo," as appears by the "Inspecimus" of the said letters patent, preserved amongst the records of the tower of London, "inter patent, an. 2. Hen. IV. part 3. membran. 5." But what further prosecution he made of this business I do not find. In the year 1349. the contention broke out more fiercely, betwixt Richard Fitz Ralph, commonly called S. Richard of Dundalk, the famous archbishop of Ardmagh, and Alexander Bicknore, archbishop of Dublin; the narration whereof in the registry of Ardmagh is thus laid down. "Anno Dom. 1349. rex Angliae misit diversas literas domino Richardo archiepiscopo Ardmachano, Hiberniae primati, quod posset deferre crucem suam ante se in qualibet parte Hiberniae. Scripsit etiam majoribus et potentibus Hiberniae, quod primatem Hiberniae in prosecutione juris ecclesiae Ardmachanae, quoad primatiam, juvarent, et in nullo resisterent. Praedictus vero dominus Richardus, primas Hiberniae, confusus de jure suo, et de potentia Dei, juvamine beati Patricii patroni sui accessit cruce erecta ante se usque ad Dubliniam, et per Dubliniam, et ibidem thalamum recepit, in villa per tres noctes stetit, privilegia ecclesiae Ardmachanae et bullas primatiae coram justitiariis Hiberniae, priore de Kilmanam, et majoribus de Hibernia ibidem existentibus, legit et publicavit, in omnes contradictores et rebelles sententiam excommunicationis fulminavit; praedictus justitarius, et prior de Kilmanam cum suis complicibus, recepta pecunia de archiepiscopo Dublin. negotia ecclesiae Ardmachanae impediverunt. Domino vero primате revertente ad villam Pontanam, omnes illos et singulos excommunicatos publice denominavit. Ipsi vero recognoscentes errorem ipsorum humiliter ad dominum primatem usque villam Pontanam venerunt, et genibus flexis eodem coram primate absolutionem obtinuerunt. Eodem anno statim post recessum domini primatis de Dublinia prior de Kilmanam secundus principalis conspirator contra ecclesiam Ardmachanam infirmatus fuit ad mortem, et errorem suum recognovit, et nuncios solennes et procuratores speciales ad villam de Drogheda usque dominum primatem misit; et se et omnes de parentela sua ad hoc obligavit, quod nunquam ipsi aut aliquis ex ipsis contra ecclesiam Ardmachanam in ea parte insurgerent vel insurgeret; et cito missis nunciis per miracula beati Patricii mortuus est, et non traditus fuit ecclesiasticae sepulturae, donec auctoritate domini primatis, quia in eo apparebant signa poenitentiae salutaris, fuit absolutus.

VOL. IV.

Eodem anno Alexander archiepiscopus Dublin. propter injurias et seditiones quas contra ecclesiam Ardmachanam fecit et procuravit, tuus est."

John St. Paul, or de sancto Paulo, succeeded Alexander in the archbishoprick of Dublin, who nothing terrified with what had passed, procured out of England in the year 1350. a revocation of the kings letters, granted to Richard of Ardmagh, and a stay of his execution of the primacy within the province of Dublin, as in the ensuing letters patent of king Edward III. more fully may appear.

"Edwardus Dei gratia rex Angliae, et Franciae, et dominus Hiberniae justituario ac cancellario et thesaurario nostris ibidem, nec non universis et singulis officiariis ac ministris caeterisque fidelibus nostris, tam civibus et burgen-sibus, quam popularibus in terra praedicta, infra libertates et extra, ad quos praesentes literae pervenerint, salutem. Cum nuper archiepiscopus Ardmachanus primatem Hiberniae se praetendens, suggerensque ipsum praetextu primatiae hujusmodi et privilegiorum sibi per sedem apostolicam (ut asserit) concessorum crucem suam eundo et equitando ubique per dictam terram nostram Hiberniae erectam ante se portare facere, et quam pluribus privilegiis et juribus, ut ad primatiam illam spectantibus per medium ejusdem terrae debite uti posse literas nostras patentes de protectione et defensione nostris pro se, hominibus et familiaribus suis in executione praemissorum faciend. mandatum etiam continentes quod vos praefatum archiepiscopum dictam crucem suam ubilibet in terra praedicta, et in civitatibus et burgis, quam locis aliis ante se portare facere, et quicquid ad dictam primatiam pertinet facere et exercere absque impedimento seu impetitione aliqua permetteretis. Nec non quaedam alia mandata nostra singularia vobis praefatis justituario ac majori et ballivis civitatis nostrae Dublin. diversisque aliis majoribus, et ballivis, ac ministris et fidelibus nostris sub magno sigillo nostro Angliae directa; quod dictas literas nostras in civitate Dublin. et alibi ubi expedire videritis, publice proclamari, et contenta in eisdem in singulis articulis observari et teneri faceretis; et omnibus fidelibus nostris ibidem inhiaberetis ex parte nostra, ne dicto archiepiscopo aut suis in exercitio primatiae et privilegiorum suorum in terra praedicta sub poena incarcerationis corporum suorum, ac captionis libertatum in manum nostram impedimentum aliquod inferrent, contra tenorem literarum nostrarum earundem in cancellaria nostra ad suggestionem hujusmodi impetrassent, prout in literis nostris et mandatis praedictis continetur. Et licet per tenorem cujusdam bullae felices recordationis Honorii papae in cancellaria nostra praedicta sub sigillo nostro, quo utimur in Hibernia, exhibitum liqueat evidenter, quod idem Honorius papa inhibuit, ne cuiquam archiepiscopo vel alii praelato Hiberniae praeter suffraganeos Dubliniensis archiepiscopi, aut apostolicae sedis legatum, gatum, sine ipsius archiepiscopi Dubliniensis et successorum suorum assensu bajulare crucem, celebrare conventus (religiosis exceptis) vel causas ecclesiasticas, nisi de sedis apostolicae delegatis, tractare liceat in provincia Dublin. ipsaque Dubliniensis ecclesia sic dicta, et nonnullis aliis sedis apostolicae privilegiis et praescriptionibus legitimis sit munita ac gavis haecenus libertate, quod nullus archiepiscopus Ardmachanus seu alius terrae praedictae praeter ipsum Dublin. archiepiscopum, nullo unquam tempore crucem suam ante se erectam in Dublin. provincia bajulare debuit, nec etiam bajulavit, nec causas tractavit ecclesiasticas in eadem, per quod jus seu usus privilegiorum aut praescriptio seu libertas hujusmodi de jure interrupta fuerint vel interrumpi debuerint sive laedi; prout inde sumus plenius informati: praefatus tamen archiepiscopus Ardmachanus colore literarum et mandatorum nostrorum praedictorum, quae tacite in impetratione eorum de jure et privilegiis Dubliniensis ecclesiae, et expresse de contraria veritate ad minus veracem suggestionem hujusmodi in dicta cancellaria nostra obtinuit; et quae eo praetextu et ob propositas coram nobis quasdam alias causas surreptitiae obtenta dici debent aliqua in grave et enorme praepjudicium ipsius Dublin. ecclesiae et cleri provinciae ejusdem, ac contra privilegia, praescriptiones, usus et libertatem praedicta abusive quibusdam confederatis suis sibi assistentibus in eisdem civitate et provincia Dublin. temere attemptavit, unde ejusdem civitatis et partium vicinarum populus vehementer movebatur: et nos advertentes, quod ex turbatione et praesumptione hujusmodi literarum et mandatorum nostrorum praedictorum obtenta congressus populorum, provinciarum utrarumque bellicus verisimiliter formidatur; nolentesque nec intentionis nostrae extitit nec existit praepjudicium seu injuriam praedictae Dublin. ecclesiae de nostro patronatu existenti, seu ejusdem juribus, privilegiis, aut libertati, ratione literarum et mandatorum nostrorum praedictorum, seu alia causa fieri; sed desiderantes ipsam in suis juribus et privilegiis confoveri, et eminentia ex praemissis pericula evitari, et subditorum nostrorum paci et quieti ubilibet provideri, praedictas literas et mandata nostra ad hujusmodi et majora suscitanda pericula inductiva, quatenus de facto processerunt, per literas nostras patentes vobis directas revocaverimus; permittentes quod quilibet jura in hac parte in forma juris prosequeretur, prout expedire noverit, et defenderet, ita scilicet quod ex hujusmodi praesumptionibus temerariis in populis nostris praedictis non fieret conjunctio, nec pax nostra aliquammodo violaretur, prout in literis nostris praedictis plenius continetur. Ac jam intellexerimus quod quam plures malefactores et pacis nostrae perturbatores ex utraque provinciarum praedictarum in diversis considerationibus et conventiculis tam armati, quam alio modo in diversis locis in terra praedicta congregati, praetextu literarum nostrarum dictarum praedicto archiepiscopo Ardmachano per nos concessarum, et sicut praedicatur, per nos revo-catarum, archiepiscopum Ardmachanum praedictum cum cruce erecta et coram eo in praedicta civitate Dublin. et alibi in provincia Dublin. portata, et alia quae ad dictam primatiam pertinent ibidem extendendam, per hujusmodi potentiam suam manutenere proponunt, in pacis nostrae laesionem et populi nostri partium illarum terrorem et commotionem manifestam, et contra formam statuti de armis contra pacem nostram non portandis editi, et contra tenorem revocationis nostrae supradictae; nos pacem nostram ubique in dicta terra nostra inviolabiliter observari, et ipsam pacem nostram laedentes juxta suorum demerita ac etiam dictum statutum contra venientes juxta vim et effectum ejusdem castigari volentes et puniri; ac periculis quae hujusmodi hominum ad arma armatorum et aliorum evenire poterunt, quod absit, praecavere vobis praefato cancellario mandamus firmiter injungentes, quod per brevia nostra sub sigillo, quo utimur in Hibernia, quoties necesse fuerit, omnibus et singulis, quos decet, dictis in mandatis, quod publice proclamari, et ex ea parte nostra defendi faciatis, quod nulli sub forisfactura vitae et membrorum et omnium aliorum quae nobis forisfacere poterunt, hujusmodi congregationes hominum ad arma armatorum, seu aliorum occasione praescripta facerent aliquo modo; et vobis praefatis justitiariis, officiariis et ministris nostris, et quorumcunque aliorum fidelium nostrorum in terra praedicta infra libertates et extra mandamus firmiter injungentes, quod omnes illos, quos aliquas hujusmodi congregationes vel conventicula in terra praedicta, praemissa occasione, seu quicquam aliud, per quod dicta pax nostra vel statutum praedictum laedi seu populum nostrum terreri, turbari aut commoveri valeant in hac parte inveneritis facientes, insequamini, arrestetis, et capiat et in prisonis nostris, donec ipsi per vos praefatos justiciarios, seu ad mandatum vestrum suorum demerita ac vim et effectum statuti praedicti debite puniti fuerint, salvo custodiri faciatis. In cujus rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westmonasterium octavo die Decembris, anno regni nostri Angliae vicesimo quarto, regni vero nostri Franciae undecimo."

And when for all this Fitz Ralph would not give over the prosecution of that, which he conceived to be the right of his church, the archbishop of Dublin obtain'd other letters patent from the king in the year 1352, the tenor whereof is as followeth.

"Edwardus Dei gratia rex Angliae et Franciae, dominus Hiberniae justituario et cancellario suis Hiberniae, qui nunc sunt, vel qui pro tempore erunt, ac eorum loca tenentibus, salutem. Cum scilicet ecclesia Dublin. notorie sit metropolitica et sedi apostolicae soli, et in solidum in spiritualibus omnibus juribus immediate subiecta, adeo quod nullus archiepiscopus Ardmachanus primatem Hiberniae se praetendens crucem ante se erectam in civitate, dioecesi et provincia Dublin. ut dicitur, jus habuit bajulare, nec etiam bajulavit, nec jurisdictionem ibidem dem exercuit aliquam; Richardus tamen archiepiscopus Ardmachanus in dictis civitate, dioecesi, et provincia crucem suam ante se erectam deferre, ac visitationis officium, ac jurisdictionem aliam indebite exercere, et sic fideles nostros ad examen suum in ecclesiam suam Ardmachanam inter inimicos nostros solcite (ut dicitur) trahere nititur juxta vires, nedum in nostri et dictae ecclesiae Dublin. injuriam, sed in commotionem populi et pacis nostrae perturbationem, ac nostri domini et ipsius terrae nostrae Hiberniae, nisi tantae praesumptioni celerius occurratur, subversionis periculum manifestum. Nos de conservatione juris et honoris ipsius ecclesiae Dublin. (cum sit honorabilior ecclesia dictae terrae) ac etiam gratia et consideratione venerabilis patris Johannis archiepiscopi Dublin. (quem propter experta probitatis suae merita summopere diligimus) sumus solliciti; ac considerantes quod civitas illa est ibidem civitas nostri regni peculiaris et praecipua; ac provide desiderantes tam ipsius ecclesiae ut quam populi nostri fidelis dictarum partium prospicere commodis et quieti, et periculosis commotionum eventibus, quae ex dissensione inter dictos archiepiscopos et illorum subditos provenire poterunt, pro viribus obviare: vobis et cuilibet vestrum in dilectione et ligeancia, in quibus nobis tenemini, firmiter injungendo mandamus, quod singulis comitibus, baronibus, militibus, vicecomitibus, majoribus, ballivis, seneschallis libertatum ab omnibus aliis fidelibus nostris in terra Hiberniae, tam infra libertates, quam extra, prout et quoties expedire videritis, ex parte nostra firmiter inhibeatis, et per breviam sub sigillo nostro, quo utimur in Hibernia, quoties opus fuerit fact. faciatis firmiter inhiberi; ne qui sub forisfactura omnium quae nobis forisfacere poterunt, novitates aliquas in dicta terra Hiberniae, et in fidelibus populis nostris ibidem (quibuscunque coloribus) introducant in hac parte, aut usurpationes indebitas vel insolitas facere, seu armatam potentiam super fideles nostros inducere, vel quaecunque alia quibuscunque processibus attemptare praesumant, per quae pax nostra ibidem laedi, aut populus noster praedictus sive communitates commoveri vel terreri, seu divisio vel dissensio in eisdem populis fieri, vel subversio juris regii (quod absit) ulterius causari, seu dignitati nostrae regiae aliquo modo valeat derogari; et praemissa nihilominus, prout expedire videritis, in civitatibus, villis et in locis aliis infra libertates et extra publicari faciatis, et omnes quos post et contra inhibitionem et proclamationem nostras hujusmodi inveneritis sic delinquentes, tam per incarcerationem corporum suorum, quam per captionem terrarum, tenementorum, bonorum et catallorum suorum in manum nostram juxta quantitatem delicti aliter castigari et puniri faciatis, quod metu poenae alii ex praesumpta audacia talia committere terreantur. De nominibus etiam eorum, qui sic deliquerunt, nos de tempore in tempus sub dicto sigillo nostro Hiberniae certificantes, ut eos juxta ordinationem nostri consilii puniremus: et praedicta omnia sicut nos et honorem nostrum ac salvationem dictae terrae dilexeritis; et vos ipsos erga nos indempnes servare volueritis, cum omni diligentia faciatis. Teste meipso apud Westmonasterium duodecimo die Maii anno regni nostri Angliae vicesimo sexto, regni vero nostri Franciae tertio decimo."

From hence the controversy was removed to the court of Rome in the year 1353: where the matter being discussed at large before pope Innocent the sixth, is said to have received at last this decision; which as I found it written by John Allen archbishop of Dublin, in the days of king Henry the eighth; in his own very words I here lay it down. "Quinimo in bibliotheca papae secretiori Romae, dum isthic moram traxi (annis undecim procurator reverendissimi domini Willelmi Cantuariensis archiepiscopi, totius Angliae primatis) casu profecto fortuito; inter legendum lites et controversias alias in curia inibi pendentes, in registro Innocentii 6ti reperi praetactam litem sopitam auctoritate papae, et approbante collegio cardinalium, sub hac forma sequenti. viz. quod uterque esset primas, sed ad distincte scribendum archiepiscopus Ardmachanus intituleret se totius Hiberniae primatem, metropolitanus autem Dubliniensis exararet se Hiberniae primatem; instar, inquit summus pontifex, in Anglia, Cantuariensis et Ebor. quorum prior scribit se totius Angliae primatem, sed alter Angliae primatem. Subscr. Johannes Dublin. electus, manu mea propria, anno ab incarnat. 1529."

But it appeareth in the registry of Ardmagh, that the strife was yet depending^a in the court of Rome 20. January 1366. at which time the controversy grew so hot betwixt Miles Sweetman, who succeeded Richard Fitz-Ralph in Ardmagh, and Thomas Mynotte, who succeeded John St. Paul in Dublin, that king Edward was fain to interpose himself again in the business. The course which he required should be observed was, that the matter should be friendly compounded betwixt them, and that according to the example of the agreement made betwixt the archbishops of Canterbury and York in the like case, both should bear up their crosses in each others province, without any interruption or resistance; as appeareth both by other of the king's writs issued in this cause, and especially by his letters directed to the archbishop of Ardmagh from Westminster 9. Junii anno regni 40." The answer which he received from the archbishop of Ardmagh herein, was as followeth.

^b "Excellentissimo in Christo principi ac domino, domino Edwardo Dei gratia regi Angliae illustrissimo, ac domino Hiberniae et Aquitaniae, suus humilis capellanus Milo, eadem gratia archiepiscopus Ardmachanus, Hiberniae primas salutem, &c. Post cujus brevis receptionem obtemperans mandatis vestris personaliter comparui per duos dies, viz. 17. mensis Septembris extunc sequente, et die 24. e-

^a Reg. Milo. fol. 25. a.

^b Reg. Milo. fol. 1 b.

jusdem mensis viz. die Jovis proxime ante festum sancti Michaelis, ad tractandum cum venerabili patre archiepiscopo Dublin. super materiam in ipso brevi contentam, de certis locis in provinciarum nostrarum confinio. In quibus diebus et locis dictis, archiepiscopus Dublin. praesentiam suam non exhibuit personalem, licet ad hoc fuerit praemonitus; sed die ultimo, viz. die Jovis proxime ante festum sancti Michaelis archangeli proxime futurum, quosdam suos procuratores ad me in loco assignato personaliter existentem destinavit; qui procuratores in tractatu illo mecum habito, petiverunt, ut omnibus in ipso brevi contentis parerem, praecipue de bajulatione crucium nostrarum in provinciis nostris mutuo facienda; quae facere non potui ex causis subsequentibus, pro eo quod propter brevitatem temporis a receptione vestri brevis cum decano et capitulo meo ac suffraganeis provinciae meae procul a me distantibus quidem per centum milliaria aut ultra, ac viarum discrimina, licet pro consilio ipsorum ad haec habenda diligentiam debitam fecissem, quorum consilium in tam arduo negotio erat necessarium et consensus, tractare non potui, et propterea nec finem apponere in praemissis. Eo etiam quia super bajulatione crucis meae in signum superioritatis et juris primatiae in provincia Dublin. sicut in caeteris aliis Hiberniae provinciis jus commune et privilegia a sede apostolica quam plurima, ac literas vestrae dominationis excellentissimae diversas patentes, exemplificationem quorundam privilegiorum praemissorum continentes, habeo, quod sine impedimento exercere jus primatiae in provincia Dublin. et crucem suam bajulare et per totam Hiberniam valeat archiepiscopus Ardmachanus Hiberniae primas quilibet, qui pro tempore fuerit, pro loco et tempore opportunis eidem excellentiae vestrae habeo exhibenda; quorum aliquainspicienda in praesenti excellentiae vestrae transmittito. Eo insuper quod super bajulatione crucis meae as juris primatiae per multos annos pendet lis mota ex parte ecclesiae meae Ardmachanae contra archiepiscopum Dublin. atque in ea parte in Romana curia indecisa; sed super bajulatione crucis suae in provincia mea nunquam controversia, sive debata, aut mentio habebatur, licet de hoc ad suggestionem minus veram, nescio cujus aliter continetur; nec exemplum concordiae ad interpositionem partis vestrae atque rogatum inter archiepiscopos Cantuariensem et Eboracensem initae, est inter nos consimile ac inter illos, quia nunquam inter nos tanquam partes actrices ex utraque parte lis super bajulatione crucium et superioritatis in alterius provincia vertebatur. Insuper quilibet archiepiscopus Ardmachanus, primas Hiberniae habet, seu habere debet de jure et antiqua consuetudine tres archiepiscopos in Hibernia sibi subiectos; viz. Dublin. Casselensem et Tuamensem; quorum unum, viz. archiepiscopum Tuamensem recalitrantem Ardmachanus vicit judicialiter in Romana curia: et quod ipse cum jure primatico visitaret de quinquennio in quinquennium, bullam ab apostolica sede obtinuit, quam habeo de praesenti. Quare excellentiae vestrae humiliter supplico et devote, quatenus cum propter temporis brevitatem, prout decet hominem status mei, non potero ad ipsam excellentiam, sicut breve vestrum requirit, personaliter in Angliam venire; etiam attentis excusationibus meis supradictis ac aliis evidentiis quam plurimis jus primatiae praedictae concernentibus, quae in omnibus hac vice exprimi non poterint, vestrae excellentiae antedictae, dignetur eadem me vestrum excusatum habere: et ne talia vel consimilia brevia in posterum extra vestram cancellariam emanent, et si quae emanarunt, quod revocentur, de gratia vestrae celsitudinis demandare. Prospere et feliciter vestram excellentem dominationem conservet altissimus ad utile regimen sui populi ditioni vestrae subiecti per tempora longiora. Script. sub meo sigillo in manerio de Dromiskin die Sabbati, &c."

The order set down by King Edward in England for the taking up of this controversy being not observed by the archbishops here, Lionel duke of Clarence, the king's son and lieutenant in Ireland, directed the king's writ unto the sheriff of Dublin (dated at Killkenny, 3. Octob. anno regni 40. anno viz. Dom. 1366) "quod scire faciat archiepiscopo Dublin," (so the words of the precept run) "quod sit coram locum tenente nostro in terra nostra Hiberniae apud Tristelder die Martis proximo post festum S. Lucae evangelistae prox. futur. ad respondendum nobis de contemptu praedicto." The like also was issued (no doubt) against the archbishop of Ardmagh. But what followed thereupon I cannot yet find.

In the days of Rich. Talbot, archbishop of Dublin (who bore the office of lord justice and deputy six several times in this kingdom) the matter was so strongly carried on against the archbishops of Ardmagh, that three of them one after another, John Swayne in the year 1435. John Prene in the year 1442. and John Mey in the year 1446. being summoned amongst the rest of the nobles to appear at parliaments and grand councils, desired to be excused for their non appearance, by reason of the wrong offered unto them by the archbishop of Dublin, in not suffering them to bear up their crosser within that province. Where it is not to be omitted also, that upon the death either of Swayne or Prene 1443. July the 15th. the dean and chapter of Ardmagh made choice of Richard Talbot himself to be their archbishop. The proem of the letters, wherein they intimate this election unto pope Eugenius the fourth, setteth forth the privileges of the see of Ardmagh in manner following.

"Serenissimo in Christo patri et domino suo domino Eugenio, digna Dei providentia sacrosanctae Romanae ac universalis ecclesiae summo pontifici, sui humiles et devoti decanus et capitulum ecclesiae Ardmachanae, vacante ecclesia, quae mater existit et primatum tenens omnium ecclesiarum totius Hiberniae, et existens in jure primatiae plenario adeo auctoritate apostolica privilegiata, quod omnes Hiberniae archiepiarchiepiscopi et episcopi archiepiscopo Ardmachano et successoribus suis tanquam suo primati obedientiam, reverentiam, et honorem omni tempore debeant exhibere, et ad sui honoris primatialis insignie, crucem sive vexillum idem archiepiscopus et primas Ardmachanus et sui successores per omnes Hiberniae provincias et dioeceses ante se facere posset deferre; indultis apostolicis et ipsius praedictae ecclesiae Ardmachanae chronicis super illo satis plene attestantibus."

^a And indeed not long after this the archbishops of Ardmagh seem to have enjoyed and quietly exercised this primacy over all the provinces of the kingdom; for in the records belonging to that archbishoprick we find letters issued by John Bole anno 1461. for visitation of the provinces of Cashel and Tuam, and the next year after, a sentence given upon an appeal made from the archbishop of Dublin to the primates consistory in manner following: "In Dei nomine, Amen. Auditis, visis, cognitis, et plenius intellectis, &c. dat 5. die Novembris, anno Dom. 1462."

Neither do I find any difference worth the relating after this until the year of our Lord 1533. wherein at the time of parliament John Allen, archbishop of Dublin entred into contestation for precedency with George Crommer archbishop of Ardmagh; upon whom the office of lord chancellor was conferred by the king the year before, which Allen formerly had exercised. "Tempore meo 1533. orta est controversia inter me et Ardmachanum etiam tunc Cancellarium regis hic", is all that Allen writeth of this; who would not in all likelihood have omitted to make mention of the success of that contention, if the matter had not been carried on the chancellor's side. But to put an end to all those controversies and contentions George Browne the next successor of Allen, during the vacancy of the see of Ardmagh in the year of our Lord 1551. procured letters from king Edward the sixth, that the title and office of the primacy of all Ireland should from thenceforth be forever annexed unto the see of Dublin. Which letters patents shortly after in the beginning of the reign of queen Mary, by the procurement of George Dowdall, the then archbishop of Ardmagh, were caused to be surrendred by him in chancery; upon the cancelling whereof, new letters patent were passed under the great seal, for the reestablishing of the said title and office of primacy of all Ireland in the see of Ardmagh, according to the antient usage; the copy of which patent doth here follow.

"Maria, &c. omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. praecharissimus frater noster bonae memoriae Edwardus sextus nuper rex Angliae per literas suas patentes dederit et concesserit Georgio Dublin. archiepiscopo nomen, dignitatem, stylum, et titulum totius Hiberniae primatis, habenda sibi et successoribus suis in perpetuum; quod nomen, dignitatem, stylum, et titulum dilectis noster Georgius Ardmachanus archiepiscopus et praedecessores sui a tempore, cujus contrarii memoria hominum non extitit, habuerunt, usi et gavisi fuerunt, donec virtute earundem literarum privatus et amotus fuit a dictis dignitate et officio versus omnes justitiae ordines absque aliquo bono fundamento seu causa: quas quidem literas patentes dictus archiepiscopus Dublin. in cancellaria nostra Hiberniae reddidit cancellandas, et sic eae cancellatae existunt; sciatis quod nos de gratia nostra speciali, ac ob alias certas causas nos moventes, ac ex certa scientia et mero motu nostris juxta vim, formam, et effectum quarundam literarum sive instructionumstrarum manu propria signatarum, signetoque nostro consignatorum praedilecto et fideli consiliario nostro Anthonio St. Leger ordinis nostri Garterii militi, uni de privato concilio nostro Angliae, et deputato nostro regni nostri Hiberniae, et consilio nostro regni nostri Hiberniae praedict. directarum et in rotulis cancellariae nostrae Hiberniae praedictae irrotulatarum, dictum nomen, stylum, et dignitatem primatis, et primatiae totius Hiberniae praefato Georgio archiepiscopo Ardmachano damus, imponimus et restituimus per praesentes; ac ipsum Georgium archiepiscopum Ardmachanum, successoresque suos archiepiscopos Ardmachanos totius Hiberniae, facimus, constituimus, ordinamus et assignamus, et officium primatiae totius Hiberniae, nec non nomen, stylum, titulum, et dignitatem primatiae et primatis totius Hiberniae praedict. eidem Georgio archiepiscopo Ardmachano, et successoribus suis archiepiscopis Ardmachanis dedimus et concessimus, et per praesentes damus et concedimus habendum, tenendum, gaudendum, occupandum et exercendum officium praedictum, nomen, stylum, titulum, ac caetera praemissa cum omnibus et singulis reverentiis, praeelementis et honoribus universis praefato Georgio archiepiscopo Ardmachano, et successoribus suis archiepiscopis Ardmachanis in proprios usus praefato archiepiscopatu sedique ejusdem unitis, appropriatis, consolidatis, et annexis in perpetuum, in tam amplis modo et forma prout dictus archiepiscopus et praedecessores sui, tempore, cujus contrarii memoria hominum non extitit, habuit, gavisus fuit, et tenuit, habuerunt, gavisi fuerunt et tenuerunt; volentes et firmiter injungentes, quod praefatus Georgius archiepiscopus, et successores sui archiepiscopi Ardmachani, et non praedictus archiepiscopus Dublin. nec successores sui, nec quisquis alius archiepiscoporum tanquam totius Hiberniae primas ab omnibus ejus regni incolis deinceps censeatur, appelletur, adjudicetur, et omnino vocetur. Mandantes autem universis et singulis archiepiscopis, episcopis, decanis, archidiaconis, rectoribus, vicariis, presbyteris, ministris, et fidelibus ligeis nostris, quod praefato Georgio archiepiscopo Ardmachano, et successoribus suis ar-chiepiscopis Ardmachanis in exercitio officii primatis et primatiae praedictae, ac caeterorum praemissorum pareant, respondeant, obediant, et intendant, prout decet, &c.

^a Reg. Talbot. fol. 13. b. et 22. a.

86 Controversy betwixt the archb. of Ardmagh and Dublin.

In cujus rei, &c. aliquo statuto, &c. teste praefato Anthõnio St. Leger apud Dublin. duodecimo die Martii, regni nostri primo.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Queen Mary's first proclamation about religion. Ex Heylin hist. refor. p. 193.
Et ex Fox pr. ed. fol. 803.

THE queen's highness well remembring, what great inconvenience and dangers have grown to this her realm in times past through the diversity of opinions in question of religion; and hearing also, that now of late sithence the beginning of her most gracious reign the same contentions be again much revived, through certain false and untrue reports and rumours spread by some evil disposed persons, hath thought good to give to understand to all her highness most loving subjects her most gracious pleasure in manner following.

First, her majesty being presently by the only goodness of God settled in her just possession of the imperial crown of this realm, and other dominions thereunto belonging, cannot now hide that religion, which God and the world knoweth she hath ever professed from her infancy hitherto; which as her majesty is minded to observe and maintain for herself by God's grace during her time, so doth her highness much desire, and would be glad, the same were of all her subjects quietly and charitably entertained.

And yet she doth signify to all her majesty's loving subjects, that of her most gracious disposition and clemency, her highness minded not to compel any her said subjects thereunto, until such time as further order, by common assent, may be taken therein; forbidding nevertheless all her subjects of all degrees, at their perils, to move seditions, or stir unquietness in her people, by interrupting the laws of this realm after their brains and fancies, but quietly to continue for the same, till (as before is said) further order may be taken; and therefore willeth and straightly chargeth and commandeth all her good loving subjects to live together in quiet sort, and christian charity, leaving those new found devilish terms of papist and heretick, and such like, and applying their whole care, study, and travel to live in the fear of God, exercising their conversations in such charitable and godly doings, as their lives may indeed express the great hunger and thirst of God's glory, which by rash talk and words many have pretended; and in so doing they shall best please God and live without danger of the laws, and maintain the tranquillity of the realm: whereof as her highness shall be most glad, so if any man shall rashly presume to make any assemblies of people, or at any publick assemblies, or otherwise shall go about to stir the people to disorder, or disquiet, she mindeth according to her duty to see the same most severely reformed and punished, according to her majesty's laws

And furthermore, forasmuch as it is well known, that seditions and false rumours have been nourished and maintained in this realm by the subtlety and malice of some evil disposed persons, which take upon them without sufficient authority, to preach and interpret the word of God after their own brains in churches and other places, both publick and private, and also by playing of interludes, and printing of false fond books and ballads, rhimes and other lewd treatises in the English tongue, containing doctrine in matters now in question and controversies, touching the high points and mysteries in christian religion, which books, ballads, rhimes, and treatises are chiefly by the printers and stationers set out to sale to her grace's subjects, of an evil zeal for lucre and covetousness of vile gain; her highness therefore straightly chargeth and commandeth all and every of her said subjects of whatsoever state, condition, or degree they be, that none of them presume from henceforth to preach, or by way of reading in churches and other publick or private places, except in schools of the university, to interpret or teach any scriptures, or any manner of points of doctrine, concerning religion; neither also to print any book, matter, ballad, rhyme, interlude, process or treatise, nor to play any interlude, except they have her graces special license in writing for the same, upon pain to incur her highness indignation and displeasure. And her highness also further chargeth and commandeth all and every her said subjects, that none of them of their own private authority do presume to punish or to rise against any offender in the causes abovesaid, or any other offender in words and deeds in the late rebellion committed or done by the duke of Northumberland or his complices, or to seize any of their goods, or violently to use any such offender by striking, or imprisoning, or threatening the same; but wholly to reserve the punishment of all such offenders unto her highness, and publick authority, whereof her majesty mindeth to see due punishment according to the order of her highness laws. Nevertheless, as her highness mindeth not hereby to restrain and discourage any of her loving subjects to give from time to time true information against any such offenders in the causes abovesaid unto her grace or her council, for the punishment of every such offender, according to the effect of her highness ness laws provided in that part; so her said highness exhorteth, and straightly chargeth her said subjects to observe her commandment and pleasure in every part aforesaid, as they will avoid her highness said indignation, and most grievous displeasure. The severity and rigor whereof, as her highness shall be most sorry to have cause to put the same in execution, so doth she utterly determine not to permit such unlawful and rebellious doings of her subjects, whereof may ensue the danger of her royal estate, to remain unpunished; but to see her said laws touching these points to be thoroughly executed; which extremities she trusteth all her said loving subjects will foresee, dread and avoid: accordingly her said highness straightly charging and commanding all mayors, sheriffs, justices of peace, bailiffs, constables, and all other publick officers and ministers, diligently to see to the observing and executing of her said commandments and pleasure, and to apprehend all such as shall willingly offend in this part, committing the same to the next goal, there to remain without bail or mainprize, till upon certificate made to her highness, or her privy council of their names and doings, and upon examination had of their offences, some further order shall be taken for their punishment to the example of others, according to the effect and tenor of the laws aforesaid. Given at our manor of Richmond the 18th day of August, in the first year of our most prosperous reign.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 21.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Bulla legationis de latere cardinalis Poli. Ex reg. Pole. fol. 4. b.

JULIUS episcopus, servus servorum Dei dilecto filio Reginaldo sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin diacono cardinali, Polo nuncupato, ad charissimam in Christo filiam nostram Mariam Angliae reginam illustrem, et universum Angliae regnum nostro et apostolicae sedis legato de latere salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Si ullo unquam tempore licuit, nunc certe expositissime licet dicere, dextra Domini fecit virtutem. Hanc inquam laetissimam vocem licet omnium piorum gaudiis atque acclamatione celebrare. Quid enim aliud dicamus, quam dextram Domini hanc tam inopinatum rerum conversionem fecisse, ut florentissimum Angliae regnum ab Henrico octavo in discidium ab ecclesia catholica secessionemque seductum, ac deinde Edwardi ejus nati successione in paterno et haereditario errore corroboratum atque firmatum, in eum nunc statum repente devenerit, ut ad sanctum ovile atque ad ecclesiae catholicae septa revocari facillime posse videatur? Profecto hoc nihil aliud est quam mutatio dextrae excelsi. Defuncto enim vita supradicto Edwardo, adnissisque illius sectatoribus, qui rerum habenas, qui arces, qui exercitum, qui classem obtinebant, regnum alicui ex sua secta deferre, exclusa legitima haerede, clarissima in Christo filia Maria Angliae regina illustri, tunc principe, praefati Henrici regis nata, quae semper in catholicae fidei unitate permanfit, atque, ut eis videbatur, voto jam potitis, ecce ille Dominator Dominus et terribilis, qui aufert spiritum principum, cuncta iniquorum commenta dejecit, et repentina animorum totius regni inclinatione atque motu, ea quam ipsi constituerant regia potestate dejecta, ut ipsa Maria una omnium voce regina salutaretur, effecit. Gratia Domino Deo nostro, qui non obliviscitur suos; qui et huic illustri foeminae praemium fidei suae, invictaeque constantiae paternum regnum, quod jam humanitus amiserat, divinitus detulit; et hanc non parvam gregis sui partem a recta semita jampridem abactam, et pro deserta dispersam, respicere dignatus est; quam et non dubitamus, eodem divino favore perseverante, postquam catholicam principem nacta est, etiam ipsam in catholicae fidei viam facile conversam iri, et communioni ecclesiae restitutam. Cui quidem spei sanctaeque fiducia, quam habemus in Domino, nos pro pastoralis (quae nobis est ab illo commissa) universalis ecclesiae cura, et pro ea charitate, quam erga Anglicam gentem proprie debemus affici, tanquam hujus sanctae sedis, cui sine meritis ullis nostris, sed sola summi Dei providentia praesidemus, peculiarem filiam, procurata olim ab ipsa sede divini illic verbi disseminatione generatam, deesse nec volumus nec debemus. Cum igitur super hujusmodi tractanda re, negotioque divina ope conficiendo, et potissimum, cui hanc provinciam demandare possemus, assiduos nostrae mentis cogitatus effunderemus, tu semper nobis, non sane primus, sed solus omnium occurristi, quem omnino praeter ceteris huic curae praeficere debemus. Unde habita super hiis cum venerabilibus fratribus nostris sanctae Romanae ecclesiae cardinalibus deliberatione matura, de illorum unanimi assensu et consensu, te ad eandem reginam Mariam, et universum Angliae regnum nostrum et apostolicae sedis legatum delegimus. Sive enim nos natalis terrae tuae, et civium charitatem, quae in te summa esse debet, et certe est, seu linguae ejus gentis et morum sensuumque notitiam; sive ob deductum a sanguine regio genus auctoritatem et gratiam, seu singularem in omni genere prudentiam atque eloquentiam, seu, quod caput est, flagrantissimum tuum erga Deum et Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum, ejusque sanctam ecclesiam catholicam amorem atque observantiam, multis jam in rebus cognitam atque perspectam spectaremus; personam tuam, quam hiis, quas modo commemoravimus, et pluribus aliis virtutibus omnium munerum largitor altissimus exornavit, ad hanc legationem aptissimam judicavimus. Quamobrem circumspeditioni vestrae per praesentes literas mandamus, ut munus istud pro eadem tua erga Deum pietate, erga nos et sanctam hanc sedem reverentia, erga christianam rempublicam publicam studio atque amore suscipiens, id pro tua fide, diligentia, dexteritate exaequare; nihilque praetermittas, quo minus, Deo bene juvante, optatum legationis fructum assequare, in errorem lapsos consolando, atque in Dei gratiam et suae sanctae catholicae ecclesiae communionem restituendo; cujus rei maxime scilicet in ipsius Dei clementia, secundum Deum autem cum in studio, prudentia et virtute tua, tum ipsius Mariae reginae in Deum pietate, sapientia et devotione spem ponimus. Dat. Romae apud sanctam Mariam anno incarnationis dominicae 1553. non. Augusti pontificatus nostri anno IV.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christii
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Convocatio provinciae Cantuariensis.

Ex reg. Cranmer. fol. 14. et regist. convoc.

CONVOCATIO provinciae Cantuariensis, ii. die Martii per breve regium summonita, primo die Aprilis per aliud dissolvebatur. Eadem convocabatur ad xix. diem Septembris per breve regium dat. xix. Junii. Antequam autem dies ille illucesceret, rege Edwardo sexto mortuo, regina Maria breve regium archiepiscopo Cant. more solito directum dat. IV. Augusti emisit ad convocandum praelatos et clerum provinciae Cant. in ecclesia S. Pauli London. vi. die Octobris prox. In primo hujus convocationis die post electionem Hugonis Weston, in prolocutorem episcopus London. praeses eam continuavit ad diem Veneris seq. Octob. 13. et ab hoc in alium, sc. Octob. 20. quo die exhibitae sunt duae propositiones disputandae (de reali praesentia Christi in sacramento altaris, et de transubstantiatione) et libellus inscriptus "Catechismus" in ultima synodo promulgatus, reprobatus fuit. Quibus articulis subscripserunt omnes praeter Walterum Phillips, decanum Roff, Ja. Haddon, Joh. Philpot, Rich. Chenye et

Joh. Elmer; qui ad diem Lunae audiendis disputationibus assignatum opposcentes erant, et magistri Moreman, Chedsye, Glyn, Watson, Feknam, Morgan, Phillip et Harpsfelde respondentes. Horum disputantium vices prolocutor de triduo in triduum mutari voluit, sed opposcentes primum electi respondentium partes suscipere expresse recusarunt; ideo penultimo die Octobris mag. Philpot propter ignorantiam, arrogantiam, insolentiam ac pertinacitatem ad disputand. non est ulterius admissus nisi in causis civilibus; et cessantibus disputationibus, opposcentes supra nominati fidem et opinionem suam de sacramento altaris declarare sunt requisiti. Hujus etiam diei actis affuitur catalogus omnium de clero qui "Catechismus" sub Edw. vi. editum reprobaverunt. Et postquam die 27. Octobris de quibusdam articulis in synodo tractatum, et convocatio iterum iterumque prorogata fuisset, 13. die Dec. breve a regina ad dissolvendam convocationem introducebatur.

Convocatio provinciae Eboracensis.

IN provincia Ebor. breve reginae dat. apud Richmond xiv. die Augusti synodum convocabat sexto die Octobris apud ecclesiam metropolitancam S. Petri Ebor. Quid autem in hac synodo tractatum fuerit, lacuna registri archiepiscopi Eboracensis nobis eripuit. In registro tamen dec. et capit. Ebor. fol. 653. seqq. legitur, post receptas literas et articulos reginae (quorum supra fit mentio) decanum et capitulum ecclesiae Ebor. mandatum publicasse citatorium omnibus ecclesiae suae membris dire-ctum (in quo sedem Ebor. vacantem declarant) ad comparendum in domo capitulari die 12. Martii. Mandatum datum est 9. die Martii 1553. Causa conventus eorum a 27. die Aprilis, 1554. usque ad 20. Decembris sequ. (uti registrum nos edocet) fuit, ut a Romana ecclesia alienos beneficiis spoliarent; quorum 51. ibi enarrantur, inter quos fuerunt Ampleforth, Frydaythorp, Ulleskelf, et Bilton, canonici ejus ecclesiae. Reg. fol. 656. seqq.

A letter with articles sent from the Queen's Majesty unto the bishop of London, and by him and his officers at her gracious commandment to be in speedy execution with effect, in the whole diocese, as well in places exempt as not exempt whatsoever, according to the tenour and form of the same. Ex Burnett. hist. reform. vol. II. append. pag. 252.

Sent by the queen's majesty's commandment in the month of March, anno Domini 1553.

By the queen.

RIGHT reverend father in God, right trusty and well beloved, we greet you well. And whereas heretofore in the time of the late reign of our most dearest brother king Edward VI.

(whose soul God pardon) divers notable crimes, excesses and faults with divers kinds of heresies, simony, advoutry, and other enormities, have been committed within this our realm and other

ther dominions; the same continuing yet hitherto in like disorder since the beginning of our reign without any correction or reformation at all, and the people both of the laity and clergy, and chiefly of the clergy, have been given to much insolence and ungodliness, greatly to the displeasure of almighty God, and very much to our regret and evil contentation, and to the slander of other christian realms, and in a manner to the subversion and clear defacing of this our realm. And remembering our duty to almighty God to be to foresee, as much as in us may be, that all virtue and godly living should be embraced, flourish and increase, and therewith also that all vice and ungodly behaviour should be utterly banished, and put away, or at the least wise so nigh, as might be so bridled and kept under, that godliness and honesty might have the overhand; understanding by very credible report, and publick fame, to our no small heaviness and discomfort, that within your diocese, as well in not exempted, as in exempted places the like disorder and evil behaviour hath been done and used, like also to continue and increase, unless due provision be had and made to reform the same (which earnestly in very deed we do mind and intend) to the utmost all the ways we can possible, trusting in God's furtherance and help in that behalf: for these causes, and other most just considerations us moving, we send unto you such certain articles of such special matter, as among other things be most special and necessary to be now put in execution by you and your officers, extending to them by us desired, and the reformation aforesaid; wherein ye shall be charged with our special commandments by these our letters, to the intent you and your officers may the more earnestly and boldly proceed thereunto, without fear of any presumption to be noted on your part, or danger to be incurred of any such our laws, as by your doings of that is in the said articles contained, might any wise grieve you, whatsoever be threatened in any such case; and therefore we straitly charge and command you, and your said officers, to proceed to the execution of the said articles without all tract and delay, as ye will answer to the contrary. Given under our hand at our palace of Westminster the fourth day of March, the first year of our reign.

ARTICLES.

1. That every bishop and his officers, with all other having ecclesiastical jurisdiction, shall with all speed and diligence, and all manners and ways to them possible, put in execution all such canons and ecclesiastical laws heretofore in the time of king Henry VIII. used within this realm of England, and the dominions of the same, not being direct and expressly contrary to the laws and statutes of this realm.

2. Item, That no bishop, or any his officers, or other person aforesaid, hereafter in any of these ecclesiastical writings in process, or other extrajudicial acts do use to put in this clause or sentence: "Regia auctoritate fulcitus."

3. Item, That no bishop, or any his officers, or other person aforesaid, do hereafter exact or demand in the admission of any person to any ecclesiastical promotion, orders, or office, any oath touching the primacy or succession, as of late in few years passed hath been accustomed and used.

4. Item, That every bishop, and his officers, with all other persons aforesaid, have a vigilant eye, and use special diligence and foresight, that no person be admitted or received to any ecclesiastical function, benefit, or office, being a sacramentary, infected or defamed with any notable kind of heresy, or other great crime. And that the said bishop do stay, and cause to be stayed, as much as lieth in him, that benefices and ecclesiastical promotions do not notably decay, or take hindrance, by passing or confirming of unreasonable leases.

5. Item, That every bishop, and all other persons aforesaid, do diligently travel for the repressing of heresies, and notable crimes, especially in the clergy, duly correcting and punishing the same.

6. Item, That every bishop, and all other persons aforesaid, do likewise travel for the condemning and repressing of corrupt and naughty opinions, unlawful books, ballads, and other pernicious, and hurtful devises, engendering hatred among the people, and discord among the same; and that schoolmasters, preachers, and teachers, do exercise and use their offices and duties without teaching, preaching, or setting forth any evil corrupt doctrine, and that doing the contrary, they may be by the bishop and his said officers punished and removed.

7. Item, That every bishop, and all the other persons aforesaid, proceeding summarily, and with all celerity and speed, may, and shall deprive, or declare deprived, and amove according to their learning and discretion all such persons from their benefices and ecclesiastical promotions, who, contrary to the state of their order, and the laudable custom of the church, have married and used women as their wives, or otherwise notably and slanderously disordered or abused themselves; sequestering also, during the said process, the fruits and profits of the said benefices and ecclesiastical promotions.

8. Item, That the said bishop, and all other persons aforesaid, do use more lenity and clemency with such as have married, whose wives be dead, than with others, whose women do yet remain in life; and likewise such priests as with the consents of their wives, or women openly in the presence of the bishop, do profess to abstain, to be used the more favourably: in which case after penance effectually done, the bishop according to his discretion and wisdom may upon just consideration receive and admit them again to their former administration, so it be not in the same place; appointing them such a portion to live upon, to be paid out of their benefice, whereof they be deprived, by discretion of the said bishop, or his officers, shall think may be spared of the said benefice.

A a

admin-

9. Item, That every bishop, and all persons aforesaid, do foresee, that they suffer not any religious man, having solemnly profess'd chastity, to continue with his woman or wife; but that all such persons after deprivation of their benefice, or ecclesiastical promotion be also divorced every one from his said woman, and due punishment otherwise taken for the offence therein.

10. Item, That every bishop, and all other persons aforesaid, do take order and direction, with the parishioners of every benefice, where priests do want, to repair to the next parish for divine service; or to appoint for a convenient time, till other better provision may be made, one curate to serve "alternis vicibus" in divers parishes, and to allot to the said curate for his labour some portion of the benefice, that he so serveth.

11. Item, That all, and all manner of processions of the church be used, frequented, and continued after the old order of the church in the Latin tongue.

12. Item, That all such holy days, and fasting-days be observed and kept, as was observed and kept in the late time of king Henry VIII.

13. Item, That the laudable and honest ceremonies, which were wont to be used, frequented, and observed in the church, be also hereafter frequented, used, and observed.

14. Item, That children be christened by the priest, and confirmed by the bishops, as heretofore hath been accustomed and used.

15. Item, Touching such persons as were heretofore promoted to any orders after the new sort and fashion of orders, considering they were not ordered in very deed, the bishop of the diocese finding otherwise sufficiency, and ability in those men, may supply that thing, which wanted in them before; and then according to his discretion admit them to minister.

16. Item, That by the bishop of the diocese an uniform doctrine be set forth by homilies, or otherwise for the good instruction and teaching of all people; and that the said bishop, and other persons aforesaid, do compel the parishioners to come to their several churches, and there devoutly to hear divine service, as of reason they ought.

17. Item, That they examine all school-masters and teachers of children, and finding them suspect in many ways, to remove them, and place catholic men in their rooms, with a special commandment to instruct their children, so as they be able to answer the priest at the mass, and so help the priest to mass, as hath been accustomed.

18. Item, That the said bishop, and all persons aforesaid, have such regard, respect and considerations of, and for the setting forth of the premises with all kind of virtue, godly living, and good example, with repressing also and keeping under of vice and unthriftiness, as they, and every each of them may be seen to favour the restitution of true religion; and also to make an honest account and reckoning of their office and cure to the honour of God, our good contentation, and the profit of this realm, and dominions of the same.

Eadem hae literae cum articulis custodibus spiritualitatis archiepiscopatus Eboracensis a regina missae sunt reg. dec. et cap. Ebor. fol. 651.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Mandatum episcopi London. omnibus Cantuar. provinciae ecclesiis de provisione eorum, quae ad cultum divinum et sacramentorum administrationem pertinent.
Ex Fox pr. edit. fol. 925.

EDMUNDUS, etc. universis, etc. Quia jure id exigente ac aequitate etiam suadente, parochiani ecclesiarum singularum Cantuariensis provinciae, quae necessaria aut opportuna sunt ad cultum divinum sacramentorum, ac sacramentalium administrationem, providere debite et congruenter tenentur, ac inter caetera, calicem, libros, vestimenta, vasa, ac alia ornamenta pro divinis obsequiis, et servitiis qualitercunque apta et requisita comparare; et insuper, quia parochiani ipsi pro animarum salute ad ecclesias suas accedere, missam, officiaque divina audire, confessionemque auricularem facere, ac venerandum eucharistiae sacramentum religiose et devote (praesertim temporibus ad id statutis et consuetis) suscipere simili modo ex ordinatione ecclesiae catholicae, et laudabili ejusdem consuetudine astringuntur; deinde, quia ex fide dignorum multorum relatione fida, factique no-torietate, ac fama publica referente intelleximus, quod nonnulli parochiani nostrae Londinensis dioecesis Cantuariensisque provinciae praemissa, aut eorum aliqua sic providere, comparare, accedere, audire, facere et suscipere, vel omnino contemnunt, aut saltem plus aequo, et justo, differunt: nos volentes (prout ex officio debito tenemur) congruam in eisdem reformationem ac debitam provisionem adhibere, vobis conjunctim et divisim tenore praesentium committimus ac mandamus, quatenus receptis praesentibus, una cum schedula eisdem annexa, parochianos cujuscunque parochiae infra dioecesim nostram London. ubilibet in exemptis et non exemptis locis quibuscunque in praemissis, aut eorum aliquibus cessatores aut negligentes, vel culpabiles qualitercunque existentes, moneatis, quos etiam nos tenore praesentium primo, secundo, et tertio ac peremptorie monemus; quod parochi-

Mandatum episcopi LONDON. omnibus CANT. prov. ecclesiis. 91

parochiani omnes et singuli ad praemissa omnia et singula facienda et expedienda, quatenus eos quovismodo tangunt aut concernunt, cum adnexis, connexis, dependentibus, ac debitis circumstantiis, diligenter se praeparent, eaque faciant, ac fieri debite procurent ante festum Paschae proxime futurum, mora et culpa quibuscunque cessantibus. Porro si cessatores ipsi, ac negligentes, vel culpabiles aut remissi sic per vos moniti, illa aut eorum aliqua sic facere, aut perimplere non curaverint aut distulerint; tunc et in eum eventum eos omnes et singulos sic cessantes, negligentes, culpabiles vel remissos in hac parte auctoritate nostro citetis, seu citari faciatis peremptorie quod illi ac eorum quilibet coram nobis, seu nostro in spiritualibus vicario generali, aut commissario nostro quocunque in ecclesia nostra cathedrali divi Pauli London. loco consistorii ibidem die Veneris (videlicet sexto die mensis Aprilis proxime futuro post datam praesentium) hora causarum consueta personaliter compareant et compareat, causam rationabilem et legitimam (si quam pro se habeant, aut habeat, quare ob eorum culpam et negligentiam huiusmodi excommunicari, aut aliter debite juxta juris exigentiam corrigi, et puniri non debeant et debeat) in juris forma dicturi, allegaturi, et proposituri, ulteriusque facturi, et recepturi, quod juris fuerit et rationis. Et quid in praemissis, etc. Nos autem dictum nostrum vicarium, etc. dictis die, hora et loco, una cum nominibus omnium et singulorum in ea parte monitorum et citatorum debite certificetis, una cum praesentibus. Datum Londini 8. die Martii A. D. secundum cursum, etc. 1553. et nostrae translationis anno decimo quinto,

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIÆ I.

Bulla papae Julii III. potestatem concedens cardinali Polo Angliam ecclesiae Romanæ reuniendi. Impres. Londini 1685.

JULIUS papa III.

DILECTE fili noster, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Dudum cum charissima in Christo filia nostra Maria Angliae tunc princeps regina declarata fuisset, et speraretur regnum Angliae, quod saeva tyrannide ab unione sanctae ecclesiae catholicae separatum fuerat, ad ovile gregis Domini et ejusdem ecclesiae unionem, ipsa Maria primum regnante, redire posse; nos te, praestanti virtute, singulari pietate, ac multa doctrina insignem ad eandem Mariam reginam, et universum Angliae regnum de fratrum nostrorum consilio et unanimi consensu nostrum et apostolicae sedis legatum de latere destinavimus; tibi que inter caetera omnes et singulos utriusque sexus tam laicas quam ecclesiasticas seculares, et quorumvis ordinum regulares personas in quibusvis etiam sacris ordinibus constitutas cujuscunque status, gradus, conditionis et qualitatis extiterint; ac quacunque ecclesiastica etiam episcopali, archiepiscopali et patriarchali, aut mundana etiam marchionali, ducali, aut regia dignitate praefulgerent, etiam si capitulum, collegium, universitas, seu communitas forent, quarumcunque haeresium aut novarum sectarum professores, aut in eis culpabiles vel suspectas, ac credentes, receptatores et fautores eorum, etiam si relapsae fuissent, eorum errorem cognoscentes, et de illis dolentes, ac ad orthodoxam fidem recipi humiliter postulantes, cognita in eis vera et non ficta, aut simulata poenitentia, ab omnibus et singulis per eos perpetratis (haereses, et ab eadem fide apostasias, blasphemias et alios quoscunque errores, etiam sub generali sermone non venientes sapientibus) peccatis, criminibus, excessibus et delictis, nec non excommunicationum, suspensionum, interdictorum, et aliis ecclesiasticis ac temporalibus etiam corporis afflictivis, et capitalibus sententiis, censuris et poenis in eos praemissorum occasione a jure vel ab homine latis vel promulgatis, etiam si in eis viginti et plus annis inforduissent, et eorum absolutio nobis et apostolicae sedi, et per literas in die coenae Domini legi consuetas reservata existeret, in utroque conscientiae videlicet, et contentioso foro, plenarie absolvendi et liberandi, ac aliorum Christi fidelium consortio aggregandi: necnon cum eis super irregularitate per eos praemissorum occasione, etiam quia sic ligati, missas, et alia divina officia etiam contra ritus et ceremonias ab ecclesia eatenus probatas et usitatas celebrassent, aut illis alias se miscuissent, contracta; necnon bigamia per eosdem ecclesiasticos, seculares vel regulares, vere aut ficta, seu alias qualitercunque incurta (etiam si ex eo quod clerici in sacris constituti cum viduis vel aliis corruptis matrimonium contraxissent praetenderetur) rejectis et expulsis tamen prius uxoribus, sic de facto copulatis: quodque bigamia et irregularitate, ac aliis praemissis non obstantibus in eorum ordinibus, dummodo ante eorum lapsum in haeresin huiusmodi rite et legitime promoti vel ordinati fuissent, etiam in altaris ministerio ministrare, ac quaecunque et qualitercunque etiam curata beneficia, secularia vel regularia ut prius, dummodo super eis alteri jus quaesitum non existeret, retinere; et non promoti ad omnes etiam sacros et presbyteratus ordines ab eorum ordinariis, si digni et idonei reperti fuissent, promoveri, ac beneficia ecclesiastica, si iis alias canonice conferentur, recipere et retinere valerent, dispensandi et indulgendi; ac omnem infamiae et inhabilitatis maculam, sive notam ex praemissis quomodolibet insurgentem, penitus et omnino abolendi, nec non ad pristinos honores, dignitates, famam et patriam, et bona etiam confiscata in pristinumque, et eum, in quo ante praemissa quomodolibet erant, statum restituendi, reponendi, et reintegrandi; ac eis, dummodo corde contriti, eorum errata et excessus alicui per eos eligendo catholico confessori, sacramentaliter confiterentur, ac poenitentiam salutarem eis per i-

psum

psium confessorum propterea injungendam omnino adimplerent, omnem publicam confessionem, abjuramentum, renuntiationem et poenitentiam jure debitam, arbitrio suo moderandi vel in totum remittendi. Necnon communitates et universitates, ac singulares personas quascunque, a quibusvis illicitis pactibus, et conventionibus per eos cum dominis aberrantibus, seu in eorum favorem quomodolibet initis, et iis praestitis juramentis et homagiis, illorumque omnium observatione, et si quem eatenus occasione eorum incurrisset perjurii reatum, etiam absolvendi et juramenta ipsa relaxandi. Ac quoscunque regulares et religiosos etiam in haeresin hujusmodi, ut praefertur, lapsos, extra eorum regularia loca absque dictae sedis licentia vagantes, ab apostasiae reatu et excommunicationis, aliisque censuris ac poenis ecclesiasticis, per eos propterea etiam juxta suorum ordinum instituta incurris, pariter absolvendi: ac cum eis ut alicui beneficio ecclesiastico curato de illud obtinentis consensu, etiam in habitu clerici secularis, habitum suum regularem sub honesta toga presbyteri secularis deferendo, deservire, et extra eadem regularia loca remanere libere et licite possint, dispensandi. Necnon quibusvis personis etiam ecclesiasticis ut quadragesimalibus et aliis anni temporibus et diebus, quibus usus ovorum et carniū est de jure prohibitus, butiro et caseo, et aliis lacticiis, ac dictis ovis et carniibus de utriusque seu alterius spiritualis, qui catholicus existeret, medici consilio, aut si locorum et personarum qualitate inspecta, ex defectu piscium aut olei, vel indispositione personarum earundem, seu alia causa legitima id tibi faciendum videretur, ut tuo arbitrio uti et vesci possint, indulgendi et concedendi. Necnon per te in praeteritis duntaxat casibus, aliquos clericos seculares, tantum presbyteros, diaconos aut subdiaconos, qui matrimonium cum aliquibus virginibus, vel corruptis secularibus, etiam mulieribus, de facto eatenus contraxissent, considerata aliqua ipsorum singulari qualitate, et cognita eorum vera ad Christi fidem conversione, ac aliis circumstantiis ac modificationibus tuo tantum arbitrio adhibendis, ex quibus aliis praesertim clericis in sacris ordinibus hujusmodi constitutis, quibus non licet uxores habere, scandalum omnino non generetur; citra tamen altaris ac alia sacerdotum ministeria, et titulos beneficiorum ecclesiasticorum, ac omni ipsorum ordinum exercitio sublato ab excommunicationis sententia, et aliis reatibus propterea incurris, injuncta inde eis etiam tuo arbitrio poenitentia saluari, absolvendi, ac cum eis dummodo alter eorum superstes remaneret, de caetero sine spe conjugii, quod inter se matrimonium legitime contrahere, et in eo postquam contractum foret, licite remanere possent, prolem exinde legitimam decernendo, misericorditer dispensandi; ac quaecunque beneficia ecclesiastica, tam secularia, quam regularia, et quae per rectores catholicos possidebantur, de ipsorum tamen rectorum catholicorum consensu, seu absque eorum praejudicio, cuicunque alteri beneficio ecclesiastico ob ejus fructus tenuitatem, aut hospitali jam erecto vel erigendo, seu studio universali vel scholis literariis, uniendi, annectendi, et incorporandi, aut fructus, redditus et proventus, seu bonorum beneficiorum dividendi, separandi et dismembrandi, ac eorum sic divisorum, separatorum et dismembratorum partem aliis beneficiis seu hospitalibus vel studiis aut scholis seu piis usibus similiter arbitrio tuo perpetuo applicandi et appropriandi. “Ac cum possessoribus bonorum ecclesiasticorum (restitutis prius, si tibi expedire videretur, immobilibus per eos indebite detentis) super fructibus male perceptis, ac bonis mobilibus consumptis, concordandi et transigendi ac eos desuper liberandi et quietandi:” ac quicquid concordis et transactionibus hujusmodi proveniret in ecclesia, cujus essent bona, vel in studiorum universalium at scholarum hujusmodi, seu alios pios usus convertendi, omniaque et singula alia, in quae in praemissis et circa ea quomodolibet necessaria et opportuna esse cognosceres, faciendi, dicendi, gerendi et exercendi; necnon catholicos locorum ordinarios, aut alias personas Deum timentes fide insignes, et literarum scientia praeditas, ac gravitate morum conspicuas et aetate veneranda, de quarum probitate et circumspectione ac charitatis zelo plena fiducia conspici posset, ad praemissa omnia cum simili vel limitata potestate (absolutione et dispensatione clericorum circa connubia, ac unione beneficiorum, seu eorum fructuum et bonorum separatione et applicatione ac concordia cum possessoribus bonorum ecclesiasticorum et eorum liberatorum duntaxat exceptis) substituendi et subdelegandi; ac diversas alias facultates per diversas alias nostras tam sub plumbo quam in forma brevis confectas literas, concessimus, prout in illis plenius continetur. Verum cum tu ad partes Flandriae, ex quibus brevissima ad regnum transfretatio existit, te contuleris, ac ex certis rationibus nobis notis inibi aliquamdiu subsistere habeas, ac a nonnullis nimium forsan scrupulosis haesitetur, an tu in partibus hujusmodi subsistens, praedictis ac aliis tibi concessis facultatibus uti, ac in eodem regno locorum ordinarios aut alias personas, ut praemittitur, qualificatas, quae facultatibus per te juxta dictarum literarum continentiam pro tempore concessis utantur, alias juxta earundem literarum tenorem substituere et delegare possis; nos causam tuae subsistentiae in eisdem partibus approbantes, et singularum literarum praedictarum tenores, praesentibus pro sufficienter expressis, ac de verbo ad verbum insertis, habentes, circumspectioni tuae quod quamdiu in eisdem partibus de licentia nostra moram traxeris, legatione tua praedicta durante, etiam extra ipsum regnum existens, omnibus et singulis praedictis et quibusvis aliis tibi concessis, et quae per praesentes tibi conceduntur, facultatibus, etiam erga quoscunque archiepiscopos, episcopos ac abbates, aliosque ecclesiarum tam secularium, quam quorumvis ordinum regularium, necnon monasteriorum et aliorum regularium locorum praelatos, non secus ac erga alios inferiores clericos, uti possis; necnon erga alias personas in singulis literis praedictis quovismodo nominatas, ad te pro tempore recurrentes vel mittentes, tentes; etiam circa ordines, quos nunquam aut male susceperunt, et munus consecrationis, quod iis ab aliis episcopis vel archiepiscopis etiam haereticis et schismaticis, aut alias minus rite, et non servata forma ecclesiae consueti, impensum fuit, etiam si ordines et munus huiusmodi etiam circa altaris ministerium temere executi sint, per te ipsum, vel alios ad id a te pro tempore deputatos, libere uti; ac in eodem regno tot, quot tibi videbuntur locorum ordinarios vel alias personas, ut praemittitur, qualificatas, quae facultatibus per te eis pro tempore concessis (citra tamen eas quae solum tibi, ut praefertur, concessae existunt) etiam te in partibus Flandriae huiusmodi subsistente, libere utantur, et eas exerceant et exequantur, alias juxta ipsarum literarum continentiam ac tenorem substituere et subdelegare. Necnon de personis quorumcunque episcoporum vel archiepiscoporum, qui metropolitanam aut alias cathedrales ecclesias de manu laicorum etiam schismaticorum, et praesertim qui de Henrici regis et Edwardi ejus nati receperunt, et eorum regimini et administrationi se ingesserunt, et eorum fructus, redditus, et proventus etiam longissimo tempore tanquam veri archiepiscopi aut episcopi temere et de facto usurpando, etiam si in haeresin, ut praefertur, inciderint, seu antea haeretici fuerint, postquam per te unitati sanctae matris ecclesiae restituti extiterint, tuque eos rehabilitandos esse censueris, si tibi alias digni et idonei videbuntur, eisdem metropolitanis et aliis cathedralibus ecclesiis denuo, nec non quibuscumque aliis cathedralibus etiam metropolitanis ecclesiis per obitum vel privationem illarum praesulum, seu alias quovis modo pro tempore vacantibus, de personis ido-neis, pro quibus ipsa Maria regina juxta consuetudines ipsius regni tibi supplicaverit, auctoritate nostra providere, ipsasque personas eisdem ecclesiis in episcopos aut archiepiscopos praeficere: ac cum iis qui ecclesias cathedrales et metropolitanas, de manu laicorum etiam schismaticorum, ut praefertur, receperunt, quod eisdem seu aliis ad quas eas alias rite transferri contigerit, cathedralibus etiam metropolitanis ecclesiis, in episcopos vel archiepiscopos praeesse, ipsasque ecclesias in spiritualibus et temporalibus regere et gubernare, ac munere consecrationis eis hactenus impenso uti; vel si illud eis nondum impensum extiterit, ab episcopis vel archiepiscopis catholicis per te nominandis suscipere libere et licite possint. Necnon cum quibuscumque per te, ut praemittitur, pro tempore absolutis et rehabilitatis, ut eorum erroribus et excessibus praeteritis, non obstantibus quibuscumque cathedralibus etiam metropolitanis ecclesiis, in episcopos et archiepiscopos praefici et praeesse, illasque in eisdem spiritualibus et temporalibus regere et gubernare; ac ad quoscumque etiam sacros et presbyteratus ordines promovere, et in illis aut per eos jam licet minus rite susceptis ordinibus etiam in altaris ministerio ministrare, nec non munus consecrationis suscipere et illo uti libere et licite valeant, dispensare etiam libere et licite possis, plenam et liberam apostolicam auctoritatem per praesentes concedimus facultatem et potestatem; non obstantibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis, ac omnibus illis quae in singulis literis praeteritis voluimus non obstare, ceterisque contrariis quibuscumque. Datum Romae apud sanctum Petrum sub annulo piscatoris die 8. Martii 1554. pontificatus nostri anno 5.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christi
1553.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Queen Mary's proclamation for the driving out of the realm strangers and foreigners.

THE queen our sovereign lady understanding, that a multitude of evil disposed persons, being born out of her highness dominions in other sundry nations, flying from the obeysance of the princes and rulers, under whom they be born, some for heresy, some for murder, treason, robbery, and some for other horrible crimes be resorted into this her majesty's realm, and here have made their demur, and yet be commorant and lingring, partly to eschew such condign punishment as their said horrible crimes deserve, and partly to dilate, plant, and sow the seeds of their malicious doctrine and lewd conversation among the good subjects of this her said realm, of purpose to infect her good subjects with the like, insomuch as (besides innumerable heresies, which divers of the same being hereticks have preached and taught within her highness said realm) it is assuredly known unto her majesty, that not only their secret practises have not failed to stir, comfort and aid divers her highness subjects to this most unnatural rebellion against God and her grace, but also some other of them desist not still to practise with her people estsoons to rebel; her majesty therefore having (as afore is said) knowledge and intelligence hereof, hath for remedy herein determined, and most streightly chargeth and commandeth, that all and every such person or persons born out of her highness dominions, now commorant or resiant within this realm, of whatsoever nation or country, being either preacher, printer, bookseller, or other artificer, of whatsoever calling else, not being denizen or merchant known, using the trade of merchandise, or servant to such ambassadors, as be liegers here from the princes and states joined in league with her grace, shall within 24 days after this proclamation avoid the realm, upon pain of most grievous punishment by imprisonment and forfeiture, and confiscation of all their goods and moveables; and also to be delivered unto their natural princes or rulers, against whose persons or laws they have offended. Giving to all mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, and all other her ministers, officers, and good subjects streightly also in charge, if they know any such person, not born in the queen's highness dominions (except before excepted) that shall after the time and days limited in this proclamation

VOL. IV.

B b

tarry

94 Queen MARY's proclamation for driving out strangers.

tarry within this realm, that they shall apprehend the same person or persons, and commit him or them to ward, there to remain without bail or mainprize, till her grace's pleasure or her councils, be signified unto them for the further ordering of the said person or persons.

And that if any of her said officers, after the said 24. days, apprehend, take, or know of any such, that they shall with diligence immediately certify her said council thereof, to th'intent order may forthwith be given for their punishment accordingly.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuariensis. Ex reg. convoc. et reg.
London. Bonner. fol. 339.

SEDE archiepiscopali Cant. per attincturam (verba registri Bonner audis) et convictionem Thomae Cranmer, ultimia rchiepiscopi Cant. de alta prodicione sive crimine laesae majestatis convicti et condemnati, tunc vacante, convocatio per breve regium directum episcopis London. Cicestren. Hereforden. Bathon. et Wellen. Gloucestren. Lincoln. Meneven. et Roffen. tertio die Aprilis in ecclesia B. Mariae Oxon. summonita, per aliud breve ab Oxonia ad ecclesiam S. Pauli London. prorogata fuit. In hujus synodi primordiis omnia juxta consuetam formam, praesidente episcopo London. peracta sunt.

Quinto die Aprilis prolocutor Hugo Weston a praeside convocationis admittebatur; ibi etiam tractabatur de eligendis quibusdam de clero, qui totius vice cleri mitterentur Oxoniam, ad tractandum cum domino Cranmero, domino Ridleo, nuper praetenso episcopo London. et Hugone Latymer, olim episc. Wigorn. de quibusdam articulis religionem concernentibus. Et delecti sunt doctor Weston, Oglethorp, Chedseye, Seton, Cole, Jeffery, Fecknam, et Harpesfeld ad effectum praedictum. Et quia praedictus prolocutor non potuit adeste dictae convocationi, substituit N. Harpesfeld et Joh. Wimbleseye conjunctim et divisim in loco suo.

Vicesimo septimo ejusdem mensis (post diversas continuationes, in quibus nihil actum est memoratu dignum) post aliquales tractatus et colloquia de reformatione status cleri in convocatione habita, comparuerunt in domo capitulari S. Pauli London. prolocutor ac alii doctores, viz. theologiae professores et legum utriusque universitatis nuper ad universitatem Oxoniae destinati, et praesentaverunt processum super examinatione Thomae Cranmer, Nicolai Ridley, et Hugonis Latymer per eosdem doctores ex speciali commissione eis directa habit. et fact. sub sigillo universitatis Oxon. ac subscriptione notariorum publicorum una cum quibusdam aliis scriptis.

Die ultimo Aprilis in domo capitulari S. Pauli London. coram praeside synodi Edmundo, London. episcopo Walterus Phillips proposuit, quod cum in convocatione celebrata termino Michaelis ultimo in hoc loco, ipse cum paucis aliis disputabat contra realem Christi praesentiam in sacramento, et contra transubstantiationem, et etiam recusavit subscribere articulis propositis ibidem; jam habita apud sede liberatione, agno-scit erratum suum, et profitetur se palam ex animo credere contenta in ipsis articulis; et ad majorem fidei suae manifestationem subscripsit et promisit se posthac praedicaturum apud eos, quos antea infecit. Et postea accersitus in domum superiorem, id ipsum coram praelatis et caeteris praesentibus professus est publice et spondit.

Quarto die mensis Maii in convocatione omnes de clero consenserunt, ut quaecunque substitutiones eorum nominibus factae firmae permanerent ad omnia expedienda in illa domo, ac si substituentes praesentes essent. Et statutum est, quod, quicumque hujus domus in futuro praesentes, possint seligere quoscunque eis placuerit ex universitatibus Oxon. et Cantabr. ad interessendum cum ipsis negotiis quibuscunque in hac domo expediendis. Hanc convocationem post varias prorogationes Edmundus, London. episcopus, praesidens 25. die mensis Maii ad diem Veneris prox. post festum S. Michaelis 5. diem mensis Octob. et in quemlibet diem interim contingentem prorogavit.

Aliam hujus anni convocationem breve regium decano et capitulo Cant. custodibus spiritualitatis, sede vacante, directum ad 13. Novembris summonuit in ecclesia S. Pauli London. ubi peractis sacris episcopus London. cum 19. confratribus episcopis et clero ad domum capitularem accessit; ibi lectae sunt literae commissionales domino London. a decano et capitulo Cant. directae, introductae per doctorem Harvey, vicarium generalem decani et capituli; postea clerus monitus est, ut eligeret sibi prolocutorem alia sessione praesentandum.

In secunda sessione episcopi London. literae aliis episcopis inscriptae ad praesidend. synodo perleguntur. In tertia Henricus Cole, archidiaconus Eliensis prolocutor electus, ab episcopo London. praesidente admittebatur. In quinta sessione (Decemb. 7.) post habitum tractatum de statu regni et ecclesiae Anglicanae conscribebatur protestatio quaedam episcoporum regi et reginae offerenda, cum gravi supplicatione, ut jurisdictiones suae sibi restituantur; et concordatum fuit, ut episcopus Winton. cancellarius regni, prolocutor, et sex alii praelati inferioris domus dominis regi et reginae vice totius synodi eam exhiberent. Deinde convocatio haec de die in diem continuata est in 26. Januarii ad capellam Henrici VII. infra ecclesiam collegiatam B. Petri Westm.

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 22.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Petition of the lower house of convocation to the bishops. Ex reg. Poli. fol. 5. a.

Right reverend fathers in God,

WE the clergy of the province of Cant. of the lower house do most humbly pray your good lordships, that touching the submission and order of the lands and possessions, which sum tyme did apperteyne to diverse bishops, cathedral churches, and to the late suppressed monasteries, priores, colleges, chantries, and free chappels, and other churches within this realme, and be now in the possession of the temporaltie. That yt may please your good lordships by your discrete wisdoms to foresee and provide, that by this our grante nothing pass, which may be prejudiciall or hurt full to any byshopp, or other ecclesiastical person, or their successors, for or concerning any action, right, title, or interest, which by the laws of this realm are already grown, or may hereafter growe or rise to them, or any of them, and their successors for any lands, tenements, pensions, portions, tithes, rents, reversions, fruits or other hereditaments, which summ tyme appertained to the said bishops or other ecclesiastical persons in the right of their churches or otherwise. But that the same right, title and interest be safe and reserved to them, and every of them and their successors according to the said lawes. And further, whereas in the statute passed in the first year of Edward the sixth, for the suppressing of all colledges, etc. proviso was made by the said statute in respect of the same surrender, that scholes and hospitalls should have ben erected and founded in divers partes of this realme, for the good education of yowth in vertue and lernynge, and the better sustentation of the poore. And that other works beneficiall for the common weale should have been executed, which hitherto be not performed, according to the meaning of the said statute; yt may please your good lordships to move the kings and queens most royal majestys, and the lord cardinall to have sum special consideration for the dewe performance of the premises: and that as well the same may the rather cum to pass, as the church of England, which heretofore hath ben honourably endowed with lands and possessions, may have some recovery of so notable damages and losses, which she hath susteyned; it may please their highness with th'assent of the lords and commons in this parliament assembled, and by authoritie of the same, to repeale, make frustrate, and voide the statute of mortmayne, made in the seventh yere of Edward the first, otherwise entituled the statute "De religiosis", and the statute concerning the same made the 15. year of king Richard the seconde; and all and every other statute or statutes at any time heretofore made concerning the same. And forasmuch as tithes and oblations have been at all tymes assigned and appointed for the sustentation of ecclesiastical ministers, and in confideration of the same, their ministry and office, which as it cannot be executed by any lay person, so it is not meet, that any of them should perceive, possess, or enjoy the same; that all appropriations now being in th'ands of any lay person or persons, and appropriations made to any secular use, other than the maintenance of ecclesiastical ministers, universities, or scholes, may be by like authoritie of parliament dissolved, and the churches reduced to such state, as they were in before the same appropriations were made: and in this behalf we shall most humbly pray your good lordships to have in special consideration, how lately the lands and possessions of prebends in certain cathedral churches within this realme have been taken away from the same prebends to the use of certain private persons, and in the lieu thereof benefices of notable valewe appropriated to the cathedral churches, in which the said prebends were founded, to the no little decay of the said cathedral churches, and benefices, and the hospitalitie kept in the same. Further, right reverend fathers, we perceiving the godlie forwardness in your good lordships in the restitution of this noble church of England to her pristine state and unitie of Christ's church, which now of late years hath been grievously infected with heresies, perverse and schismaticall doctrine sowne abroad in this realme by evil preachers, to the great loss and danger of many soules; accompting ourselves to be called hither by your lordships out of all parts of the province of Cant. to treat with your lordships concerning as well the same, as of other things touching the state and quietness of the same church in doctrine and in manners, have for the furtherance of your godlie doings herein devised these articles following to be further considered and enlarged, as to your lordships wisdoms shall be thought expedient: wherein as we do earnestly think many things mete and necessary to be reformed; so we doubt not but your lordships having respect to God's glory, and to the good reformation of things amiss, will no less travail to bring the same to pass. And we for our parts shall be at all times ready to do every thing as by your lordships wisdoms shall be thought expedient.

First, We desire to be resolved, whether that all such, as have preached in any part within this realme, or other the kings and queens dominions any heretical, erroneous, or seditious doctrine, shall be called before the ordinaries of such places, where they now dwell, or be beneficed, and upon examination to be driven to recant openly such their doctrine in all places, where they have preached the same? And otherwise, whether any order shall be made, and and presse to be made herein against them according to the canons and constitutions of the church in such case used?

2. That the pestilent book of Tho. Cranmer, late archbishop of Cant. made against the most blessed sacrament of the altar, and the schismatical book call'd "the communion book" and the booke of orderung of ecclesiastical ministers, all suspecte translations of the old and new testament, th'auctors whereof are recited in a statute made the --- year of king Henry VIII. and all other books, as well in Latin as in English, concerning any heretical, erroneous, or slanderous doctrine, may be destroyed and burned throughout this realm. And that publick commandment be geven in all places to every man having any such books, to bringe in the same to the ordinarie by a certein day, or otherwise to be taken and reputed as a favorer of suche doctrine; and that yt may be lawfull to everie bishop and other ordinarie to make inquiry and dew search from time to time for the said books, and to take them from the owners and possessors of them for the purpose above-said.

3. And for the better repreſs of all such pestilent books, that order may be taken with all ſpede, that no such books be printed, uttered, or sold within this realme, or brought from beyond the ſees, or other partes into the same, upon greivous paines to all such as shall presume to attempt the contrary.

4. And that the bishops, and other ordinaries may with better ſpede rote up all such pernicious doctrine and th'auctors thereof; we desire that the statutes made anno quinto of Richard II. anno secundo of Henry IV. and anno secundo of Henry V. against hereticks, Lollards, and false preachers, may be by your industrious ſewte revived, and put in force, as shall be thought convenient: and generally, that all bishops and other ecclesiastical ordinaries may be restored to their pristine jurisdiction against hereticks, schismaticks, and their fautors, in as large and ample manner, as they were in the first yere of king Henry VIII.

5. And that the premises may be the better executed by the presence of beneficed men in their cures, the statute made anno 21 Hen. VIII. concerning pluralities of benefices, and nonresidence of beneficed men, by reason whereof a larger liberty or licence is geven to a great multitude of priests and chapleyns to be absent from their benefices with cure, than was ever permitted by the canon laws, and all other statutes, touching the same may be repealed, voided and abolished; and that the bishops, and other ordinaries may call all beneficed men to be resident upon their cures, as before the making of that act they might have done.

6. Item, that the ordinaries do from tyme to tyme make proceſs for punishment of all simoniacall persons, of whom it is thought there were never so many within this realm; and that not only the clerks, but also the patrones, and all the mediators of such patrones, may be punished; wherein we think good, that order were taken, that the patrones should lose their patronage, during their natural life, according to the ecclesiasticall constitutions of this realme.

7. Item, That the auntient libertie, authoritie, and jurisdiction be restored to the church of England, according to th'article of the great chartre call'd "Magna charta," at the least wise in such sort, as it was in the first yere of Henry VIII. And touching this article, we shall desire your lordships to be with us most humble tutors to the kings and queens majestys, and to my lord legate, for the remission of the importable burden of the first fruits, tenths, and subsidies. In which sute whatsoever advancements your lordships shall think good to be offered to their majestys for the same, we shall therein be always glad to do as shall be thought good.

8. Item, That no attachment of "premunire" be awarded against any bishop, or other ordinarie ecclesiastical from henceforth in any matter, but that a prohibition be first brought to the same; and that yt may please the kings and queens majestie to commande the temporal judges of this realme to explicate and declare playnly all and singuler articles of the "premunire" and to make a certain doctrine thereof.

9. Item, That the statutes of the provisors be not drawn by unjust interpretation out of their proper cases, nor from the proper sence of the words of the same statutes.

10. Item, That the statute of the submission of the clergie made anno 25. Henry VIII. and all other statutes made during the time of the late schisme, in derogation of the liberties and jurisdictions of the church, from the first yere of king Henry VIII. may be repealed, and the church restored "in integrum."

11. Item, That the statute made for finding of great horses by ecclesiastical persons may likewise be repealed.

12. Item, That userers may be punished by the canon lawes, as in tymes past has been used.

13. Item, That those which lay violent hands upon any priest, or other ecclesiastical minister being in orders, may be punished by the canon lawes, as in times past has been used.

14. Item, That all priests, deacons, and subdeacons, and all other having prebends, or other ecclesiastical provisions, or benefices, do from henceforth use such priestlye habite, as the qualitie of his state and benefice requireth.

15. Item, That married priests may be compellyd to forsake their women, whom they take as their wives.

16. Item, That an order be taken for the bringing up of yowth in good lernyng and vertue, and that the scholemasters of this realme may be catholick men, and all other to be removed, that are either sacramentaries, or hereticks, or otherwise notable criminous persons.

17. Deest.

18. Item,

18. Item, where the mayre of London, by force of a decree made anno Henry VIII. hath attributed to him the cognition of causes of tithes in London; that from henceforth the same cognition and jurisdiction may utterly cease, and be reduced immediately to the bishop of London, ordinary there.

19. Item, That tithes may henceforth be paid according to the canon lawes.

20. Item, That lands and places appropriated to monasteries, which, at the time of dissolution and suppression thereof, were exempt from payment of tithes, may be now allotted to certain parishes, and there chargeable to pay like tithes as other parishioners do.

21. Item, That there be a straight law made, whereby the reparations of chancels, which are notoriously decayed through the realme, may be dewly repaired from tyme to tyme, by such as by the lawe ought to do the same; and namely by such as be in the kings and queens hands. And that th'ordinaries may lawfully procede in causes of dilapidation, as well of them, as of all other parsonages, vicarages, and other ecclesiastical benefices and promotions.

22. Item, That order be taken for the more speedy payment of pensions to all priests pensioners, and that they might have the same without long suits or charges.

23. Item, That another order be taken for the payment of personal tithes in cities, and towns and elsewhere, as was used in anno 21 Henry VIII.

24. Item, That such priests as were lately married, and refuse to reconfite themselves to their order, and to be restored to administration, may have some especial animadversions, whereby as apostates they may be discerned from others.

25. Item, That religious women, which be married, may be divorced.

26. Item, That in divorces which are made from bedd and boord, provision may be made that the innocent woman may enjoy such lands and goods as were hers before the marriage, or that happned to come to her use at any time duringe the marriage. And that yt may not be lawfull for the husband, being for his offence divorced from the said woman, to entermeddle himself with the said lands or goods, unless his wife be to him reconciled.

27. Item, That wardeyns of churches and chappells may render their accompts before th'ordinaries, and may be by them compelled to do the same.

28. Item that all such ecclesiastical persons, as lately have spoyled cathedral, collegiate, and other churches of their own heads and temeritie, may be compelled to restore all and singular things, so by them taken away, or the trewe valewe thereof; and further to reedifie such things, as by them are destroyed and defaced.

“ Ut citra damnum et periculum jurium et statutorum hujus regni episcopi et eorum officarii possint cognoscere, procedere, decernere et sententiam proferre in his articulis sequentibus.”

1. Ut episcopi possint cogere proprietarios et portionarios ecclesiarum ad omnes impensas ad onera sustinenda, quibus de jure vel aequo et bono obligantur; eo non obstante, quod decimae et portiones earum conversae sint in feudum laicum; et etiam aliis quibuscunque periculis, et impedimentis non obstantibus.

2. Ut liceat episcopo augere portiones et pensiones vicariorum pro eo atque opus videbitur; etiam si decimae, portiones, terrae, vel tementa a dictis ecclesiis exeuntia, conversa sint in feudum laicum, aut alio quovis modo ab ecclesia separata.

3. Cum multis in locis ecclesiastica ornamenta, aliaque ad divinum ministerium necessaria desiderantur; ut episcopi, et eorum officarii possint adigere parochianos ad symbolum in eam rem faciendum, et ut quisque parochianus impositam pecuniae summam cogatur pendere.

4. Ut parochiani possint cogi ad solvendum annum stipendium ecclesiae ministro (quem vulgo clericum vocant) pro eo atque ante schisma mos obtinuerat.

5. Ut episcopi et eorum officarii possint in judicio sistere, et ad restitutionem cogere eos, qui citra ullum justum titulum de jure hujus regni ipsis competentem, invaserunt, occuparunt, aut detinuerunt terras, praedia, aut alia quaecunque ecclesiae bona aut peculia.

6. Cum in locis sylvestribus, ob pecorum et frumenti inopiam maxima fructuum pars ex sylvis caeduis proveniat, ut parochiani pro antiquo more cogantur earum decimas solvere; non obstantibus hujus regni statutis.

7. Ut liceat eos ad jurisjurandi religionem adigere, de respondendo certis quibusdam positionibus, qui propter personales decimas in judicio conveniuntur.

8. Ut in ecclesiis Cath. nuper erectis et constitutis, hypocanonici, et alii ministri coelibes cogantur mensam habere communem.

9. Ut quae nuper sacerdotum uxores habitae sunt, his libera nubendi potestas promulgetur.

10. Ut rectores, vicarii, et ecclesiarum proprietarii ad certum numerum sacrarum concionum in ecclesiis habendarum adigantur.

11. Ut simonia, quae hodie mire in ecclesia grassatur, severe puniatur.

12. Ut pensiones a rectoribus olim monasteriis persolutae, in numerata pecunia, nunc itidem in pecunia numerata, et non in frugibus solvantur laicis proprietariis, ut hospitalitati sacerdotum consulatur.

13. Ne sacerdotes diversoria aut oenopolia adeant, nisi necessarii victus comparandi causa.

14. Ne rectores aut vicarii possint elocare sacerdotia citra consensum episcopi.

15. Ut minores parochias episcopi possint unire.

16. Ne posthac nundinae in celebrioribus festis aut dominicis diebus fieri permittantur, quo populus ad ecclesiam conveniat sine absentiae praetextu.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.Anno Christi
1554.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.The dispute appointed by convocation with Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer at Oxford.
Strype's life of Cranmer, p. 334.

A CONVOCATION of the clergy now met in S. Pauls, but was adjourned, the prolocutor Dr. Weston, dean of Westminster, and some others of the members being sent to Oxon. (and it was generally thought the parliament would remove thither too) to dispute certain points of religion in controversy, with three of the heads of the protestant party; archbishop Cranmer, bishop Ridley and old father Latimer, now all prisoners; who for that purpose in the month of April were removed from the tower by the queen's warrant to the lieutenant, towards Windsor, and there taken into custody of Sir John (afterward lord) Williams, who conveyed them to Oxford, there to remain in order to a disputation. The convocation while they sat at London, agreed upon the questions to be disputed; and they resolved, that these three pious men should be bated by both the universities, and therefore that they of Cambridge should be excited to repair to Oxford, and engage in this disputation also. The questions are these.

I. "In sacramento altaris virtute verbi divini a sacerdote prolati, praesens est realiter, sub speciebus panis et vini, naturale corpus Christi conceptum de virgine Maria; item naturalis ejus sanguis."

An instrument of the university of Cambridge, appointing certain of their members to repair to Oxford, to dispute with Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer there.
Strype's life of Cranmer, app. p. 182.

Procuratorium academiae Cantabrigiensis.

UNIVERSIS Christi fidelibus praesentes litteras visuris, lectoris et auditoris, et quos infra scripta tangunt, seu quovis modo tangere poterunt, nos vicecancellarius senatusque tam regentium, quam non regentium almae academiae Cantabrigien. salutem et dilectionem in Christo Jesu. Cum jam pridem ex parte sacrae synodi, sive convocationis praelatorum et cleri Cant. provinciae, auctoritate et mandato serenissimae et religiosissimae dominae nostrae reginae Mariae convocatae, nobis in senatu nostro ad effectum infra scriptum infimul congregatis, exhibitum fuerint quidam articuli tenoris infra scripti, viz.

In sacramento altaris virtute verbi divini a sacerdote prolati, praesens est realiter, sub speciebus panis et vini, naturale corpus Christi conceptum de virgine Maria; item naturalis ejusdem sanguis.

Post consecrationem non remanet substantia panis et vini, neque alia ulla substantia, nisi substantia Christi, Dei et hominis.

In missa est vivificum ecclesiae sacrificium pro peccatis tam vivorum, quam mortuorum propitiabile.

II. "Post consecrationem non remanet substantia panis et vini, neque alia ulla substantia, nisi substantia Christi, Dei et hominis."

III. "In missa est vivificum ecclesiae sacrificium pro peccatis tam vivorum, quam mortuorum propitiabile."

These questions the convocation sent to the university of Cambridge, requiring them seriously to weigh and deliberate upon them; and if they contain true doctrine, then to approve of them. Accordingly the senate of that university met, and after due deliberation found them agreeable in all things to the catholic church, and the scripture, and the ancient doctrine taught by the fathers; and so did confirm and ratify them in their said senate. And because Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer, the heads of the hereticks, that held contrary to these articles, were formerly members of their university, and being to be disputed withal at Oxford concerning these points; they decree in the name of all the university, to send seven of their learned doctors to Oxford, to take their parts in disputing with them, and to use all ways possible to reclaim them to the orthodox doctrine again. And accordingly the said senate, April 10, made a public instrument to authorize them in their names to go to Oxford and dispute. The instrument is as follows.

Simulque requisiti fuerimus, eosdem articulos matura deliberatione legere, expendere et considerare; et si sanam, veram et catholicam doctrinam contineant, eosdem approbare velimus: Nos in senatu nostro sic, ut praefertur, convenientes, perlectosque nobis articulos et contenta in eisdem, quanta decebat in re tam gravi, maturitate et deliberatione perpendentes et libantes, quandoquidem ipsos et contenta in iisdem cum catholica virtute et fide orthodoxa per omnia convenire animadvertimus, eosdem unanimi consensu nostro atque assensu, ut veros, catholicos, orthodoxos, ac veritati et doctrinae catholicae, ac aperto Dei verbo consentientibus, veterum orthodoxorum patrum testimoniis, generalium conciliorum auctoritatibus per omnia innitentes et congruentes, tam consentientibus animis comprobavimus, ut nostra plurimum interesse arbitrati simus, doctrinam articulorum hujusmodi contra omnes illius oppugnatores defendere et tueri.

Intelligentes itaque tam facti notorietate, quam famae publicae relatione, esse nonnullos perditionis tionis et iniquitatis filios, seditiosos errorum innovatores, et ecclesiae Christi hostes, qui hujusmodi sacram, catholicam et orthodoxam doctrinam, ac ecclesiae unitatem modis omnibus perturbare, dilacerare, infestare, affligere et evertere satagunt, et conantur; quorum praecipui auctores et antesignani nominatim sunt, D. Thomas Cranmerus, nuper Cantuar. archiepiscopus, Nicolaus Ridleius, nuper Roffensis, et Hugo Latimer, jam olim Wigorn, episcopi, academiae nostrae Cantabrig. quondam alumni, modo apud inclytam universitatem Oxoniensem existentes; nostrarum partium esse duximus, non modo veritatem catholicam praedictam verbo et scriptis comprobare ac mundo palam facere, verum etiam eandem nedum contra eosdem principales adversarios, sed et contra omnes alios ecclesiae hostes, et veritatis Christi oppugnatores pro virili nostra, manifesto Dei verbo, sanctorumque patrum testimoniis defendere, tueri et propugnare. Ac proinde quo veritas magis elucescat, quosdam pios et eruditos viros ex eadem nostra universitate ad hoc muneris publico omnium nostrum nomine obeundum; viz. D. Johannem Young, vicecancellarium nostrum, Gulielmum Glyn, Richardum Atkinson, Cuthbertum Scot, Thomam Watson, Albanum Langdale, et Thomam Sedgwyke, theologiae professores, conjunctim et divisim selegimus, nominavimus et deputavimus; dantes et concedentes eisdem, prout et tenore praesentium sic damus et concedimus,

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Academiae Cantabrigiensis literae Oxoniensi eadem de materia missae. Ibid.

REVERENDIS in Christo viris D. vicecancellario Oxoniensi, et universis doctoribus illius academiae, atque magistris regentibus et non regentibus. Gravi nuper et turbulenta tempestate, sicut vos scitis et experti estis, reverendi in Christo fratres, ecclesiae nostrae horribiliter jactatae sunt. Tetra etenim seditiosi erroris et protervae atque obstinatae haereseos pestis ac lues omnes Angliae oras pergrassata, ipsas etiam academias corripuit atque gravissime et periculosissime infestavit. Christi pura et orthodoxa religio mendacibus sectariorum commentis, et proditiolis subinde pullulantium, falsarum doctrinarum monstris misere deformata et dilacerata jacuit. Jam tamen singulari numinis beneficio et D. nostri Jesu Christi, atque illius Sacri Spiritus afflatu serenior aura et placida atque amae-na amabilis concordiae tranquillitas affulgereoccoepit. Gratias proinde indefinenter agere debemus caelesti Patri, qui propter suam misericordiam ecclesiis nostris, magna persecutionis violentia afflictatis, optabilem et serenum statum restituerit. Qui per optimam et religiosissimam reginam religionis catholicae integritatem, quae corruptorum malitiosa improbitate pene extincta fuerat, restauravit; atque academiis nostris antiquam suam libertatem, quae nefandorum tyrannide opprimebatur, reddidit. Nostrarum vero partium esse ducimus tantam conjunctim, ut praefertur, et divisim plenariam potestatem, auctoritatem et facultatem, vice et nominibus omnium nostrum, almam academiam Oxon. quibuscunque diebus eis visum fuerit, petendi et proficiscendi. Ac siquidem libera eis, pro more, auctoritate universitatis Oxon. in hac parte dabitur venia et facultas, cum dictis Dominis Cranmero, Ridleio, et Latimero, caeterisque ejusdem farinae monstris, palam et publice sive privatim congregiendi, hiisque de rebus differendi, disputandi, et argumentandi, sanamque doctrinam praedictam, contra eos patrocinandi et propugnandi; adversariosque praedictos et eorum perversas opiniones, et sententias, atque haeretica dogmata refellendi, refutandi et convincendi, eosque ad resipiscentiam modis omnibus, quibus poterint, hortandi, reducendi, et persuadendi; caeteraque omnia et singula faciendi, exercendi et expediendi, quo hujusmodi negotii qualitas et natura de se exigunt et requirunt; promittentes nos ratum, gratum et firmum perpetuo habituros totum id, et quicquid ab eisdem eruditis viris, nomine et vice nominis nostri in praemissis aut eorum aliquo actum aut gestum fuerit. In quorum omnium et singulorum fidem et testimonium praemissorum, has nostras commissionis et disputationis literas nostro communi sigillo communiri fecimus. Datum e senatu nostro Cant. decimo die mensis Aprilis, anno verbi incarnati supra millesimum quingentesimum quinquagesimo quarto.

et tam illustrem Dei erga nos beneficentiam agnoscere et confiteri; atque etiam eundem Deum et propitium nostrum Dominum affluens precibus interpellare, ut haec quae jam restaurata est religionis orthodoxa et pura integritas indies magis ac magis augeatur; atque ea quae jam conciliata est pax et concordia firmitus et solidius coalescat. Hoc enim est, quod vas electionis, et Christi apostolus Paulus hortatur, et admonet dicens: "Cum patientia supportate vos invicem, solliciti servare unitatem spiritus in vinculo pacis. Unum corpus, unus spiritus; sicut et vocati estis in una spe vocationis vestrae. Unus Dominus, una fides, unum baptisma, unus Deus et Pater omnium; qui est per omnia, et super omnia, et in omnibus vobis."

Nos proinde eandem spiritus unitatem cum catholica Christi ecclesia retinentes, articulos, de quibus postrema synodo Londoniensi inter ecclesiarum nostrarum proceres conveniebat, unanimi consensu comprobantes, atque veram, sanam et catholicam doctrinam iisdem exprimi et explicari agnoscetes, optamus lupos omnes, qui Christi ovile dissipare, et simplices oviculas seducere conantur, ab ecclesiae castris procul abarceri. Dilectos itaque nobis, et eruditos viros D. Jo. Young, vicecancellarium nostrum, D. Gulielmum Glyn, Richardum Atkinson, kinson, Cuthbertum Scot, Thomam Watſon, Albanum Langdale, et Thomam Sedgwyke, theologiae profeſſores atque catholicae fidei et academiae noſtrae alumnos, ad vos legare deſtinavimus: non quod doctrinam articulorum in quaestionem et diſputationem vocent, quam nos, omni ambiguitate ſepoſita, veram et orthodoxam eſſe agnoſcimus; utpote quae et aperto Dei verbo et conſentientibus patrum teſtimoniis et generalium conciliorum auctoritate fulciatur et confirmata ſit; ſed ut noſtro omnium nomine ſanae doctrinae una vobiſcum patrocinentur, atque orthodoxam fidem propugnent, et eos qui eidem adverſantur, convincant, et haereticae atque perverſae ſententiae auctores reſellant et reſutant. Quales apud vos eſſe credimus Thomam Cranmerum, N. Ridley, et Hug. Latimerum, nuper epiſcopos et academiae noſtrae atque Chriſti eccleſiae filios obedientes; nunc vero, ſicut quidam referunt, quod nos dolentes ſcribimus, falſae et corruptae doctrinae contumaces patronos; quorum nos miſerandum ſtatum multum deploramus; mentem illis meliorem precantes, quo mutata ſententia per reſiſcentiam in matris eccleſiae finem ſimul ſeſe recipiant: Quam quiſquis non habuerit ſuam matrem, is Deum patrem habere non poterit. Ut ergo vos intelligeretis, quae noſtra eſſet hiſ de cauſis ſententia, pios et eruditos hos viros ad vos publica auctoritate noſtra mittimus, atque has literas communi noſtro ſigillo ſigillari fecimus. Chriſtus Jeſus vos veſtramque illuſtrem academiam pietate, et bonis literis florentem ad verae religionis augmentum, et corruptae errorum proſtigationem perpetuo conſervet. E. Senatu noſtro 10. Aprilis, 1554.

Veſtrum omnium in Chriſto amantiſſimi, vicecancellarius et regent. et non regent.
ſenatus Cantabr.

And theſe letters were written by the univerſity of Cambridge, that this coming of the Cambridge divines to Oxford may ſeem a voluntary thing, to ſhew their zeal for popery, and vindication of their univerſity, againſt liking or approbation of Cranmer, and his two fellow priſoners. So roundly was the univerſity already come about to the old forſaken religion.

This Oxford diſputation was after this manner; Hugh Weſton, S. T. P. prolocutor of the lower houſe of convocation, Owin Oglethorp, John Seton, W. Chedſey, S. T. profeſſors, Hen. Cole, Will. Geffrey, L. L. profeſſors; William Pye, Joh. Fekenham, Joh. Harpsfield, S. T. baccalaurei, repreſenting the whole lower houſe of convocation, went down to Oxford. To them were joyned by commiſſion, the chancellor of the univerſity, the vicechancellor, the profeſſors and doctors, &c. as namely Holyman, Treſham, Ri. Marſhal, Morwent, Smith, S. T. profeſſors of Oxford; and John Young, William Glyn, R. Atkinſon, Tho. Watſon, Cuthbert Scot, Alban Langdale, Tho. Sedgwyke, S. T. profeſſors of Cambridge, in the name of the whole univerſity. All theſe being met at

S. Mary's, there was read the commiſſion to them, ſealed with the biſhop of London's ſeal, and the ſubſcription beſides of the biſhops of Winton, Durham, Wigorn, Chicheſter, Lincoln, Bath, Roſſ, Hereford, S. Davids, Gloceſter and Oxon. And with theſe letters were conveyed certain articles, which had been lately by the upper houſe reſolved upon; which articles were of the ſacrament of the altar, of tranſubſtantiation and of the adoration of the eucharift, and the reſervation of the ſacrament of the church, and of its inſtitution, and by whom, and for whom, and to whom it is to be offered. The contents of the letter were to ſummon before them Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer, and to propound thoſe articles to them to diſpute on publickly. The ſum of which, it ſeems, were contracted into the three queſtions aboveſaid. Then they provided themſelves three public notaries. Next, they celebrated and ſung the maſs of the Holy Ghoſt. Then they went a proceſſion according to the cuſtom of the univerſity. This formal pageantry being finiſhed, and the commiſſioners returned to S. Mary's, and being come into the choir, to the number of three and thirty, ſeated themſelves before the altar. And then ſent to the mayor and bailiffs to bring Dr. Cranmer before them by virtue of the queen's letter to them. Who within a while was brought guarded with billmen.

Coming before them, he gave them great reverence and ſtood with his ſtaff in his hand. They offered him a ſtool to ſit, but he reſuſed. Then Weſton the prolocutor began a ſpeech, wherein he commended unity in the church of Chriſt, and withal turning to the archbiſhop told him, how he had been a catholic man once, and in the ſame unity; but that he had ſeparated himſelf from it by teaching and ſetting forth erroneus doctrine, making every year a new faith. And therefore that it had pleaſed the queen to ſend them to him to recover him again, if it might be, to that unity. And then ſhewing him the articles to be diſputed on, cauſing them to be read to him and requiring his anſwer and opinion thereupon. Then the archbiſhop answered Extempore: That as for unity, he was very glad of, and ſaid that it was a preſerver of all commonwealths, as well heathens as chriſtians. And illuſtrated the matter by ſome ſtories out of the Roman hiſtory, and added that he ſhould be very glad to come to an unity, ſo it were in Chriſt, and according to the church of God. Then he read over the articles three or four times. And being asked, whether he would ſubſcribe to them, he anſwered: That in the form of words, in which they were conceived, they were all falſe and againſt God's word; and therefore that he would not agree in that unity with them. Nevertheleſs he ſaid, if they would give him a copy of the articles and time to conſider of them, he would by to morrow ſend them an anſwer. Which was granted him, the prolocutor bidding him write his mind of them that night. It was moreover agreed between between them, that in whatsoever he dissenteth from them, they would proceed to public disputation thereupon in the public schools by scholastical arguments in Latin. And lastly they told him, he should have what books he would ask for. And so Weston gave the mayor charge of him, to be had to Bocardo, where he was before.

After Cranmer was carried back, the mayor and bailiffs brought bishop Ridley. And when the same articles were read to him, he said, that they were not true. But desired a copy of them, and he would draw up in writing his answer, and soon transmit it to them.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Episcoporum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. libellus Supplex regi et reginae exhibitus de obtinenda dispensatione a cardinali Polo, papae legato, de bonis ecclesiae.
Strype's mem. eccles. vol. III. append. p. 60. Habetur haec petitio Anglice in Heylin hist. reform. p. 213. ad annum.

Nos episcopi et clerus Cantuariensis provinciae in hac synodo more nostro solito, dum regni parliamentum celebratur, congregati, cum omni debita humilitate et reverentia exponimus majestatibus vestris; quod licet ecclesiarum, quibus in episcopos, decanos, archidiaconos, rectores, et vicarios praefecti sumus, et animarum, quae nobis et curae nostrae subjectae sunt, et earundem bonorum, jurisdictionum, et jurium, et sacrorum canonum dispositione defensores et curatores constituti sumus; et propterea ipsorum bona, jurisdictiones et jura in pernicioso hujus regni praeterito schismate deperdita et amissa, omni studio et totis nostris viribus recuperare, et ad pristinum ecclesiarum jus revocare, juris remediis niti deberemus: nihilominus tamen habito prius per nos super hac re maturo consilio et deliberatione, ingenue fatemur, nos optime cognoscere, quam haec bonorum ecclesiasticorum difficilis, et quasi impossibilis esset recuperatio, propter multiplices ac pene inextricabiles super hiis habitos contractus et dispositiones; et quod si ea tentaretur, quies et tranquillitas regni facile perturbaretur; et unitas ecclesiae catholicae, quae jam pietate et auctoritate majestatum vestrarum hoc in regno introducta est, cum maxima difficultate suum progressum et finem sortiri posset. Ideo nos bonum et quietem publicam privatis commoditatibus, et salutem tot animarum pretioso Christi sanguine redemptarum terrenis bonis anteponentes, et non quae nostra, sed quae Jesu Christi sunt quaerentes, majestates vestras enixe rogamus, iisque humiliter supplicamus, ut reverendissimo in Christo patri domino Reginaldo cardinali Polo, ad ipsas et universum hoc Angliae regnum, sanctissimi Domini nostri Domini Julii papae tertii, et apostolicae sedis de latere

And did offer to dispute, as Cranmer had done before.

Lastly, Latimer was brought, to whom the prolocutor said, as he had to the two former. Latimer confessed, that in the sacrament of the altar there was a certain presence, but not such a one as they would have. And he also promised to send them his answer shortly to these articles, requiring a copy. But by reason of his old age, his infirmities, and the weakness of his memory, he said, he could not bear a dispute. But that he could and would declare his mind of the said articles.

legato, haec nomine nostro insinuari, et apud eum intercedere dignentur, ut in hiis bonis ecclesiasticis, in parte vel in toto, arbitrio suo juxta facultates sibi ab eodem sanctissimo domino nostro papa concessas, eorundem bonorum detentoribus elargientes et relaxantes, publicum bonum privato, pacem et tranquillitatem diffidiis et perturbationibus, atque animarum salutem bonis terrenis praeferre et anteponeere velit. Nos enim in omnibus, quae ab ipso legato statuta et ordinata circa haec bona fuerint, exnunc prout extunc, et e contra, consensum nostrum praestamus; imo etiam, ut in praemissis se difficilem aut restrictum reddere non velit, majestates vestrae nostro nomine eum hortari et rogare dignabuntur.

Insuper majestatibus vestris supplicamus, pro sua pietate efficere dignentur, ut ea quae ad jurisdictionem nostram, et libertatem ecclesiasticam pertinent, sine quibus debitum nostri pastoralis officii, et curae animarum nobis commissae, exercere non possumus, nobis superiorum temporum injuria ablata, restituantur, et ea nobis et ecclesiae perpetuo illaesa et salva permaneant; et ut omnes leges, quae hanc nostram jurisdictionem et libertatem ecclesiasticam tollunt, seu quovis modo impediunt, abrogentur, ad honorem Dei, et majestatum vestrarum et universi hujus regni spirituale et temporale commodum et salutem; certam spem etiam habentes, majestates vestras pro sua singulari in ipsum Deum pietate, proque multis et insignibus ab ipsius Dei bonitate acceptis beneficiis necessitatibus et incommodis hujus sui regni ecclesiarum, maxime curam animarum habentium, nunquam defuturas esse, sed prout opus fuerit, consulturas atque provisuras.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.Anno Christi
1554.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

A letter written by the king and queen requiring the bishop of London to go on in the prosecution of the hereticks. Ex reg. Bonner. fol. 363. et Burnet. hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 285.

Philip R. Mary the Queen.

RIGHT reverend father in God, right trusty and well beloved, we greet you well. And where of late we addressed our letters unto the justices of the peace within every of the counties of this our realm; whereby amongst other instructions given therein for the good order and quiet government of the country about, therein they are willed to have a special regard unto such disordered persons, as forgetting their duties towards almighty God, and us, do lean to any erroneous and heretical opinions, to shew themselves conformable to the catholic religion of Christ's church, whom, if they cannot by good admonition and fair means reform, they are willed to deliver unto the ordinary, to be by him charitably travelled withal, and removed (if it may be) from their naughty opinions; or else, if they continue obstinate, to be ordered according to the laws provided in that behalf: understanding now to our no little marvel, that divers of the said disordered persons, being by the justices of the peace for their contempt and obstinacy brought to the ordinaries to be used as is aforesaid, are either refused to be received at their hands, or if they be received, are neither so travelled with, as christian charity requireth, nor yet proceeded withal according to the order of justice, but are suffered to continue in their errors to the dishonour of almighty God, and dangerous example of others; like as we find this matter very strange, so have we thought convenient, both to signify this our knowledge, and therewith also to admonish you to have in this behalf such regard henceforth to the office of a good pastor and bishop, as when any such offenders shall be by the said justices of peace brought unto you, ye do use your good wisdom and discretion in procuring to remove them from their errors if it may be, or else in proceeding against them (if they shall continue obstinate) according to the order of the laws; so as through your good furtherance both God's glory may be the better advanced, and the common wealth the more quietly governed. Given under our signet at our honour of Hamptoncourt the 24. of May, in the first and second years of our reigns.

Bulla Julii III. papae cardinali Polo dispensationem de bonis ecclesiasticis Angliae concedens. Impr. Lond. 1554.

JULIUS papa III.

DILECTE fili noster, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Superioribus mensibus oblata nobis spe per Dei misericordiam, et charissimae in Christo filiae nostrae Mariae, Angliae reginae, summam religionem et pietatem nobilissimi illius Angliae regni, quod jamdiu quorundam impietate, a reliquo catholicae ecclesiae corpore avulsum fuit, ad ejusdem catholicae et universalis ecclesiae unionem, extra quam nemini salus esse potest, reducendi; te ad praefatam Mariam reginam atque universum illud regnum, nostrum et apostolicae sedis legatum de latere, tanquam pacis et concordiae angelum de venerabilium fratrum nostrorum sanctae Romanae ecclesiae cardinalium consilio atque unanimi assensu destinavimus, illisque facultatibus omnibus munivimus, quas ad tanti negotii confectionem necessarias putavimus esse, seu quomodolibet opportunas. Atque inter alia circumspeditioni tuae, ut cum bonorum ecclesiasticorum possessoribus super fructibus male perceptis, et bonis mobilibus consumptis concordare et transigere, ac eos desuper liberare et quietare, ubi expedire posset, auctoritatem concessimus et facultatem, prout in nostris desuper confectis literis plenius continetur. Cum autem ex iis principiis, quae ejusdem Mariae sedulitate et diligentia, rectaque et constante in Deum mente, tuo et in ea re cooperante studio atque consilio, praefatum reductionis opus in praedicto regno usque ad hanc diem habet, ejusdemque praeclari operis perfectio indies magis speretur, eoque faciliores progressus habitura res esse dignoscatur, quo nos majorem in bonorum ecclesiasticorum possessionibus in illa superiorum temporum confusione per illius provinciae homines occupatis, apostolicae benignitatis et indulgentiae spem ostenderimus. Nos nolentes tantam dilectissimae nobis in Christo nationis recuperationem, et tot animarum pretioso Jesu Christi domini nostri sanguine redemptarum salutem ullis terrenarum rerum respectibus impediri, more pii patris, in nostrorum et sanctae catholicae ecclesiae filiorum post longum periculosa peregrinationis tempus ad nos respectantium et redeuntium, peroptatum complexum occurrentes; tibi de cujus praestanti virtute, singulari pietate, doctrina, sapientia, ac in rebus gerendis prudentia et dexteritate plenam in Domino fiduciam habemus, cum quibuscunque bonorum ecclesiasticorum tam mobilium, quam immobilium in praefato regno possessoribus seu detentoribus, pro quibus ipsa serenissima regina Maria intercesserit, de bonis per eos indebite detentis, arbitrio tuo auctoritate nostra tractandi, concordandi, transigendi, componendi, et cum eis, ut praefata sine ullo scru-

Bulla JULII III. papae card. POLO dispensat. de bonis ecclesiae. 103

scrupulo in posterum retinere possint, dispensandi, omniaque et singula alia quae in his et circa ea quomodolibet necessaria et opportuna fuerint, concludendi et faciendi (salvo tamen in his, in quibus propter rerum magnitudinem et gravitatem haec sancta sedes merito tibi videretur consulenda, nostro et praefatae sedis beneplacito et confirmatione) plenam et liberam apostolicam auctoritatem tenore praesentium et ex certa scientia concedimus facultatem. Non obstantibus literis felicis recordationis Pauli papae II. praedecessoris nostri de non alienandis bonis ecclesiasticis, nisi certa forma servata, et aliis quibuscumque apostolicis ac in provincialibus et synodalibus conciliis edictis generalibus vel specialibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus, necnon quarumvis ecclesiarum et monasteriorum ac aliorum regularium et piorum locorum juramento, confirmatione apostolica, vel quavis alia firmitate roboratis, fundationibus, statutis et consuetudinibus, illorum tenores pro sufficienter expressis habentes contrariis quibuscumque. Datum Romae apud S. Petrum sub annulo piscatoris die 28. Junii, 1554. pontificatus nostri anno quinto.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE I.

Officium consecrationis annulorum, qui Anglice CRAMP RINGS dicuntur. Ex MS. Smith apud Burnet. hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 295.*

Preces a regina recitandae in consecratione annulorum.

“DEUS misereatur nostri, et benedicat nos. Deus illuminet vultum suum super nos, et misereatur nostri.

Ut cognoscamus in terra viam tuam, in omnibus gentibus salutare tuum.

Confiteantur tibi populi, Deus, confiteantur tibi populi omnes.

Laetentur et exultent gentes, quoniam iudicas populos in aequitate, et gentes in terra dirigis.

Confiteantur tibi populi, Deus, confiteantur tibi populi omnes. Terra dedit fructum suum. Benedicat nos Deus, Deus noster; benedicat nos Deus, et metuent eum omnes fines terrae. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto; sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in secula seculorum. Amen.

Omnipotens, sempiternus Deus, qui ad solatium humani generis varia ac multiplicia miseriarum nostrarum levamina uberrimis gratiae tuae donis ab inexhausto benignitatis tuae fonte manantibus incessanter tribuere dignatus es; et quos ad regalis sublimitatis fastigium extulisti, insignioribus gratiis ornatos, donorumque tuorum organa atque canales esse voluisti, ut sicut per te regnant, aliisque praesunt; ita te auctore, reliquis profint, et tua in populum beneficia conferant; preces nostras propitius respice; et quae tibi vota humillime fundimus, benignus admitte, ut quod a te majores nostri de tua misericordia sperantes obtinuerunt, id nobis etiam pari fiducia postulantibus concedere digneris; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.”

Haec oratio super annulis in una vel pluribus patinis jacentibus dicatur.

“Deus caelestium terrestriumque conditor creaturarum, atque humani generis benignissime reparator, dator spiritualis gratiae, omniumque benedictionum largitor, immitte Spiritum Sanctum tuum paracletum de caelis super hos annulos arte fabrilis confectos, eosque magna tua potentia ita emendare digneris, ut omni nequitia lividi venenosique serpentis procul expulsa, metallum a te bono conditore creatum, a cunctis inimici sordibus maneat immune; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Benedictio annulorum.

Deus Abraham, Deus Isaac, Deus Jacob, exaudi misericors preces nostras, parce metuentibus, propitiare supplicibus, et mittere digneris sanctum angelum tuum de caelis, qui sanctificet ✠ et benedicat ✠ annulos istos, ut sint remedium salutare omnibus nomen tuum humiliter implorantibus, ac semetipsos pro conscientia delictorum suorum accusantibus, atque ante conspectum divinae clementiae tuae facinora sua deplorantibus; et serenissimam pietatem tuam humiliter obnixaeque flagitantibus; profint denique per invocationem sancti tui nominis omnibus istos gestantibus ad corporis et animae sanitatem; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Benedictio.

Deus, qui in morbis curandis maxima semper potentiae tuae miracula declarasti, quique annulos in Juda patriarcha fidei arrabonem, in Aarone sacerdotale ornamentum, in Dario fidelis custodiae symbolum, et in hoc regno variorum morborum remedia esse voluisti, hos annulos propitius ✠ benedicere et ✠ sanctificare digneris, ut omnes qui eos gestabunt, sint immunes ab omnibus satanae insidiis, sint armati virtute caelestis defensionis; nec eos infestet vel nervorum contractio, vel comitialis morbi pericula, sed sentiant, te opitulante, in omni morborum genere levamen. In nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, ✠ et Spiritus Sancti. ✠ Amen.

“Benedic, anima mea, Domino, et omnia, quae intra me sunt, nomini sancto ejus”.

* D. Becket chirurgus, in tractatu Anglico Of the king's evil, ceremoniam hanc annulos consecrandi ab Henrico VIII. et centenis ante eum annis a decessoribus ipsius, regibus Angliae, usitatum fuisse dicit. ^a Psalms ciii.

Et reliqua hujus psalmi.

“Immensam clementiam tuam, misericors Deus, humiliter imploramus, ut qua animi fiducia et fidei sinceritate ac certa mentis pietate ad haec impetranda accedimus, pari etiam devotione gratiae tuae symbola fideles prosequantur; faceat omnis superstitio, procul absit diabolicae fraudis suspicio, et in gloriam tui nominis omnia cedant, ut te largitorem bonorum omnium fideles tui intelligant, atque a te uno quicquid vel animis vel corporibus vero profit, profectum sentiant et profiteantur; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen”.

His precibus finitis, regina aunulos manibus suis confricat, dicens:

“Sanctifica, Domine, annulos istos, et rore tuae benedictionis benignus asperge, ac manuum nostrarum confricatione, quas olei sacri infusione externa sanctificare dignatus es, pro ministerii nostri modo consecra, ut quod natura metalli praestare non possit, gratiae tuae magnitudine efficiatur; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen”.

Deinde annuli aqua lustrali aspergantur; quo facto dicatur:

“In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti, Amen. Domine, fili Dei unigenite, Dei et hominum mediator, Jesu Christe, in cujus unius nomine salus recte quaeritur, quique in te sperantibus facilem ad Patrem accessum conciliasti, quum quicquid in nomine tuo peteretur, id omne daturum, eum certissimo veritatis oraculo ab ore tuo sancto, quum inter homines versaris homo, pronunciasti; precibus nostris aures tuae pietatis accomoda, ut ad thronum gratiae in tua fiducia accedentes, quod in nomine tuo humiliter postulavimus, id a nobis, te mediante, impetratum fuisset, collatis per te beneficiis, fideles intelligant; qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus per omnia secula seculorum. Amen.

Vota nostra quaesumus, Domine, Spiritus Sanctus, qui a te procedit, aspirando praeveniat et prosequatur, ut quod ad salutem fidelium confidenter petimus, gratiae tuae dono efficaciter consequamur; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Majestatem tuam, clementissime Deus, Pater, Filius, et Spiritus Sanctus, suppliciter exoramus, ut quod ad nominis tui sanctificationem piis his ceremoniis peragitur, ad corporis simul et animae tutelam valeat in terris, et ad uberiores felicitatis fructum proficiat in coelis, qui vivis et regnas Deus per omnia secula seculorum. Amen.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

The form of the restitution of a married priest. Strype's life of archb. Cranmer, append. numb. 75.

“DECIMO octavo die mensis Octobris, anno Domini 1554. In aedibus solitae residentiae magistri Anthonii Huse armigeri, in occidentali angulo vici nuncupati “Pater noster Row,” civitatis London. notorie situatis, coram venerabili viro magistro Henrico Harvey, LL. D. vicario in spiritualibus generali, &c. in praesentia mei Johannis Incent, notarii publici propter absentiam magistri Anthonii Huse, registrarii, etc. assumpti, etc. comparuit personaliter Robertus Vevian, presbyter nuper rector ecclesiae parochialis de Hever decanat. de Shoreham, ecclesiae Christi Cantuariensis jurisdictionis immediatae, ac quandam professionem in scriptis redactam et conceptam fecit, et publice legebat sub eo, qui sequitur, verborum tenore”.

Whereas I Robert Vevian clerk, late parson of Hever in the county of Kent, being of the peculiar jurisdiction of the church of Cant. being ordered a priest about 27 years past, having ministred as a priest in all kind of priestly function and ministration of sacraments and sacramentals, as to the office of a priest appertaineth, have sithence that time, contrary to the state of mine orders, decrees of the church, and laudable customs of the same, married one Agnes Stanton being a simple or solute woman, and with her in one house as man and wife have cohabited and dwelled, to the offence of my christian brethren, and breach of the unity of Christ's said church; I the said Robert do now lament and bewail my life past, and the offence by me committed; intending firmly by God's grace, hereafter to lead a pure, chaste, and continent life, according to such grace, as almighty God of his mercy, upon my humble petition and prayer, shall grant me: and do here before my competent judge and ordinary most humbly reuire absolution of and from all such censures and pains of the laws, as by my said offence and ungodly behaviour I have incurred and deserved; promising firmly, and solemnly professing before you in this present writing, never to return to the said Agnes Stanton as to my wife or concubine, but from henceforth to abstain from her, and to keep myself sole, pure, and chaste from all carnal affections and copulations, especially from her, and also from all other women, according to the laws and constitutions of our mother the catholic church, and as my order also requireth. In witness of this mine advised and deliberate mind, promise, and profession, I have to the same in this writing subscribed my name with mine own hand. Given the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord God 1554. etc.

“Per me Robertum Vevian”.

“Qua quidem professione per praenominatum Robertum Vevian publice lecta, et manu sua propria subscripta, ac praestito jura-mento

mento, &c. de parendo juri, et stando mandatis ecclesiae, dominus ad humilem ejus petitionem absolvit eum a sententia excommunicationis, et aliis censuris et poenis juris per ipsum ex causis superius expressatis, incurfis, et eum sacramentis ecclesiae ac officio suo presbyterali et integrae functioni ejusdem restituit et redintegavit, et decrevit sibi literas testimoniales, &c."

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Articles of visitation by bishop Bonner. Ex reg. Bonner et Burnet, hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 260, &c.

ARTICLES to be inquired of in the general visitation of Edmund, bishop of London, exercised by him in the year of our Lord God 1554, in the city and diocese of London, and set forth by the same for his own discharge towards God and the world, to the honour of God, and his catholic church, and to the commodity and profit of all those, that either are good (which he would were all) or delight in goodness (which he wisheth to be many) without any particular grudge or displeasure to any one, good or bad, within this realm; which articles he desireth all men of their charity, especially those that are of his diocese, to take with as good intent and mind, as the said bishop wisheth and desireth, which is to the best: and the said bishop withal desireth all people to understand, that whatsoever opinion, good or bad, hath been received of him, or whatsoever usage or custom hath been heretofore; his only intent and purpose is to do his duty charitably, and with that love, favour, and respect, both towards God, and every christian person, which any bishop should shew to his flock in any wise.

Article I.

Whether the clergy, to give example to laity, have in their living, in their teaching, and in their doing so behaved themselves, that they (in the judgment of indifferent persons) have declared themselves to search principally the honour of God, and his church, the health of the souls of such, as are committed to their cure, and charge, the quietness of their parishioners, and the wealth and honour of the king and queen of this realm?

Article II.

Item, Whether your parson, vicar, or any other ministering as priest within your parish, have been or is married, or taken for married, not yet separated from his concubine, or woman taken for wife; or whether the same woman be dead, or yet living? and being living, whether the one resorteth to the other, openly, secretly, or slanderously maintaining, supporting, or finding the same in any wise, to the offence of the people?

Article III.

Item, Whether there be any person of what estate, condition, or degree he be, that doth in open talk, or privily defend, maintain, or uphold hold the marriage of priests, encouraging or boldening any person to the defence thereof?

Article IV.

Item, Whether you have your parson or vicar resident continually with you upon his benefice, doing his duty in the serving of the cure? and whether being able to do, keep hospitality upon the same, feeding his flock with his good living, with his teaching, and his relieving of them to his power?

Article V.

Item, Whether your parson or vicar being absent, have sufficient dispensation, and license therein? and whether in his absence he do appoint an able, honest, and sufficient learned curate to supply his room and absence, to serve his cure?

Article VI.

Item, Whether your parson or vicar by himself, or his good and sufficient deputy for him do relieve such poor parishioners, repair and maintain his house or mansion, and things thereunto appertaining, and otherwise do his duty, as by the order of the law, and custom of this realm he ought to do?

Article VII.

Item, Whether the said curate appointed in the absence of your parson or vicar, do in all points the best he can to minister the sacraments and sacramentals, and other his duty in serving the same cure, especially in celebrating divine service at convenient hours, chiefly upon Sundays and holydays and procession days; and ministering the said sacraments and sacramentals, as of duty and reason he ought, moving and exhorting earnestly his parishioners to come unto it, and devoutly to hear the same? And whether he himself do reverently celebrate, minister, and use the same as appertaineth?

Article VIII.

Item, Whether he the said curate, parson, or vicar have been or is of suspect doctrine, erroneous opinion, misbelief or evil judgment, or do set forth, preach, favour, aid, and maintain the same, contrary to the catholic faith and order of this realm?

Article IX.

Item, Whether they, or any of them, do

E e haunt haunt or resort to alehouses or taverns, otherwise than for his or their honest necessity and relief; or repair to any dicing houses, common bowling allies, suspect houses or places, or do haunt and use common games or plays, or behave themselves otherwise unpriestly and unseemly?

Article X.

Item, Whether they, or any of them, be familiar, or keep company, and be conversant with any suspected person of evil conversation and living, or erroneous opinion or doctrine; or be noted to aid, favour, and assist the same in any wise contrary to the good order of this realm, and the usage of the catholic church?

Article XI.

Item, Whether there be dwelling within any your parishes any priest, foreigner, stranger, or other, who not presented to the bishop of the diocese, or his officers, examined and admitted by some one of them, doth take upon him to serve any cure, or to minister any sacraments, or sacramentals within the said parish?

Article XII.

Item, Whether there be dwelling within any your parishes, or repairing thither any priest or other naming himself minister, which doth not come diligently to the church to hear the divine service, or sermons there; but absenteth himself or discourageth others by his example or words to come unto the same, expressing their name and surname, with sufficient knowledge of them?

Article XIII.

Item, Whether there be any married priest, or naming themselves ministers, that do keep any assemblies or conventicles with such like, as they are in office or sect, to set forth any doctrine or usage not allowed by the laws and laudable customs of this realm? or whether there be any resort of any of them to any place for any private letters, sermons, plays, games, or other devices not expressly in this realm by laws allowed?

Article XIV.

Item, Whether there be any of them, which is a common brawler, scolder, a sower of discord among his parish churches, a hawker, a hunter, or spending his time idly or unthriftyly? or being a fornicator, an adulterer, a drunkard, a common swearer, or blasphemer of God, or his saints? or an unruly and evil disposed person? or that hath come to his benefice or promotion by simony, unlawful suit, or ungodly means in any ways?

Article XV.

Item, Whether they, and every each of them, to the best of their powers, at all times have exhorted and stirred the people to quietness and concord, and to the obedience of the king and queen's majesties, and their officers; rebuking all sedition and tumult, with all unlawful as-semblies, moving the people to charity and good order, and charging the fathers and mothers, masters and governors of youth to keep good rule, and to instruct them in virtue and goodness to the honour of God, and of this realm, and to have them occupied in some honest art and occupation to get their living thereby?

Article XVI.

Item, Whether they, or any of them do admit any person to receive the blessed sacrament of the altar, who are openly known or suspected to be adversaries and speakers against the said sacrament, or any other article of the catholic faith, or to be a notorious evil person in his conversation or doctrine, an open oppressor or evil doer to his neighbour, not being confessed, reconciled, and having made satisfaction in that behalf?

Article XVII.

Item, Whether they, or any of them have, of their own authority admitted and licensed any to preach in their cure, not being authorized and admitted thereunto, or have denied or refused such to preach as have been lawfully licensed? and whether they or any of them having authority to preach within their cures, doth use to preach, or at the least doth procure other lawful or sufficient persons to do the same according to the order of this realm?

Article XVIII.

Item, Whether they or any of them, since the queen's majesty's proclamation hath or doth use to say or sing the divine service, minister the sacraments or sacramentals, or other things in English contrary to the order of this realm?

Article XIX.

Item, Whether they, or any of them in their suffrages, collects, and prayers doth use to pray for the king and queen's majesties, by the names of king Philip and queen Mary, according to a letter and commandment therein lawfully given now of late unto them by their ordinary?

Article XX.

Item, Whether they, and every of them have diligently moved and exhorted their parishioners, how and in what manner children should be baptized in time of necessity; and they the said parishioners reverently and devoutly to prepare themselves to receive and use the sacraments, especially the sacrament of the altar, or to be confessed and receive at the priests hand the benefit of absolution, according to the laudable customs of this realm?

Article XXI.

Item, Whether they, and every each of them hath diligently visited his and their parishioners in the time of sickness and need, and ministered sacraments and sacramentals to them accordingly? and whether they have exhorted and monished them to have due respect to their their souls health, and also to set an order in their temporal lands and goods, declaring their debts perfectly, and what is owing unto them; and they so to make their testaments and last wills, that as much as may be, all trouble and business may be excluded, their wives and children with their friends may be holpen and succoured, and themselves decently buried and prayed for, and to have an honest memory and commendations for their so doing?

Article XXII.

Item, Whether they, and every of them have solemnized matrimony between his parishioners, or any other persons, the bans not before asked three several Sundays, or holydays, or without certificate of the said bans from the curate of any other parish, if any of them be of another parish? and whether touching the solemnization and use of this sacrament of matrimony, and also of all other the sacraments of the church, they have kept and observed the old and laudable custom of the church without any innovation or alteration in any of the same?

Article XXIII.

Item, Whether they, or every each of them upon the Sunday at the service time doth use to set forth, and to declare unto the people all such holy days and fasting days, as of godly usage and custom hath heretofore laudably been accustomed to be kept and observed in the week following and ensuing? and whether they, and every of them doth observe and keep themselves the said holy days and fasting days?

Article XXIV.

Item, Whether the parson, or vicar doth repair and maintain his chancel and mansion-house in sufficient reparation? and the same being in decay, whether he doth bestow yearly the fifth part of his benefice, till such time as the same be sufficiently repaired; doing also further his duty therein, and otherwise as by the law he is charged and bound in that behalf, distributing and doing as he is bound by the law?

Article XXV.

Item, Whether there be any person, that doth serve any cure, or minister any sacraments, not being priest? or if any do take upon them to use the room and office of the parson, or vicar, or curate of any benefice or spiritual promotion, receiving the fruits thereof, not being admitted thereunto by the ordinary?

Article XXVI.

Item, Whether they, and every each of them doth go in priestly apparel and habit, having their beards and crowns shaven? or whether any of them doth go in laymens habits and apparel, or otherwise disguise themselves, that they cannot easily be discovered or known from laymen?

Article XXVII.

Item, Whether they, or any of them have many promotions and benefices, ecclesiastical cures, secular services, yearly pensions, annuities, farms, or other revenues now in title or possession; and what the names of them be, and where they lie, giving all good instruction, and perfect information therein?

Article XXVIII.

Item, Whether such as have churches or chappels appropriated, or mansions or houses thereto appertaining, do keep their chancels and houses in good and sufficient reparation? and whether they do all things in distributions and alms or otherwise, as by law and good order they ought to do?

Article XXIX.

Item, Whether any such as were ordered schismatically, and contrary to the old order and custom of the catholic church, or being unlawfully and schismatically married after the late innovation and manner, being not yet reconciled nor admitted by the ordinary, have celebrated or said either mass or divine service within any cure or place of this city or diocese?

Article XXX.

Item, Whether any parson, or vicar, or other having ecclesiastical promotions, doth set out the same to farm without consent, knowledge and licence of his ordinary, especially for an unreasonable number of years, or with such conditions, qualities, or manners, that the same is to the great prejudice of the church, and the incumbent of the same, and especially of him, that shall succeed therein?

Article XXXI.

Item, Whether there be any parson, or vicar, curate, or priest, that occupieth buying and selling as a merchant, or occupieth usury, or layeth out his money for filthy lucre's sake and gain, to the slander of the priesthood?

Article XXXII.

Item, Whether they, or any of them do wear swords, daggers, or other weapons in times or places not convenient or seemly?

Article XXXIII.

Item, Whether any priest, or ecclesiastical person have reiterated or renewed baptism, which was lawfully done before; or invented or followed any new fashion or forms contrary to the order of the catholic church?

Article XXXIV.

Item, Whether the parson, vicar, or curate do (according to the law) every quarter in the year upon one solemn day or more, that is to wit, upon the Sunday or solemn feast, when the parishioners by the order of the church do come come together, expound and declare by himself, or some other sufficient person unto the people in the vulgar or common tongue plainly, truly, and fruitfully the articles of the catholic faith, the ten commandments expressed in the old law; the two commandments of the gospel, or new law, that is, of earnest love to God and to our neighbour; the seven works of mercy; the seven deadly sins, with their offspring, progeny, and issue; the seven principal virtues, and the seven sacraments of the church?

Article XXXV.

Item, Whether that every priest having cure, do admonish the women, that are with child within his cure, to come to confession, and to receive the sacrament, especially when their time draweth nigh, and to have water in readiness to christen the child, if necessity so require it?

Article XXXVI.

Item, Whether stipendiary priests do behave themselves discreetly and honestly in all points towards their parson or vicar, giving an oath, and doing according to the law and ecclesiastical constitutions, ordinances, and laudable customs in that behalf?

Article XXXVII.

Item, Whether any parson, vicar, or other having any ecclesiastical promotion, have made any alienation of any thing pertaining to their church, benefice, or promotion; what it is, and what warrant they had so to do?

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A mandate of Bonner, bishop of London to abolish the scriptures and writings painted upon the church walls. Fox. vol. III. p. 107. ed. 1641.

EDMUND, by God's permission bishop of London, to all and every parsons, vicars, clerks, and lettered within the parish of Hadham, or within the precincts of our diocese of London, wheresoever being, sendeth greeting, grace, and benediction.

Because some children of iniquity, given up to carnal desires and novelties, have by many ways enterprized to banish the ancient manner and order of the church, and to bring in and establish sects and heresies; taking from thence the picture of Christ and many things besides, instituted and observed in ancient times laudably in the same, placing in the room thereof, such things, as in such a place it behoved them not to do; and also have procured as a stay to their heresies (as they thought) certain scriptures wrongly applyed, to be painted upon the church walls: all which persons tend chiefly to this end, that they might uphold their liberty of the flesh, and marriage of priests; and destroy, as much as lay in them, the reverend sacrament of the altar; and might extinguish and enervate holy days, fasting days, and other laudable discipline of the catholic church, opening a window to all vices, and utterly closing up the way unto virtue. Wherefore we being moved with a christian zeal, judging that the premises are not to be long suffered; do, for discharge of our duty, commit unto you jointly and severally, and by the tenour hereof do straitly charge and command you, that at the receipt hereof, with all speed convenient you do warn, or cause to be warned first, second, and third time, and peremptorily all and singular churchwardens and parishioners whosoever, within our foresaid diocese of London, wheresoever any such scriptures or paintings have been attempted, that they abolish and extinguish such manner of scriptures, so that by no means they be either read or seen; and therein to proceed moreover as they shall see good and laudable in this behalf. And if after the said monition the said churchwardens and parishioners shall be found remiss and negligent or culpable, then you jointly and severally shall see the foresaid scriptures to be razed, abolished, and extinguished forthwith; citing all and singular those churchwardens and parishioners (whom we also for the same do cite here by the tenour hereof) that all and singular the churchwardens and parishioners being slack and negligent, or culpable therein, shall appear before us, our vicar general, and principal official, or our commissary specially in our cathedral church of St. Paul at London, in the consistory there, at the hour appointed for the same, the sixth day next after their citation, if it be a court day, or else at the next court day after ensuing; whereas either we or our official or commissary shall sit, there to say and allege for themselves some reasonable cause, if they have any, or can tell of any, why they ought not to be excommunicated, and otherwise punished for such their negligence, slackness, and fault; to say and to allege, and further to do and receive, as law and reason requireth. And what you have done in the premises, do you certify us, or our vicar, principal official, and such our commissary diligently and duly in all things, and through all things; or let him among you thus certify us, which hath taken upon him to execute this mandate. In witness whereof we have set our seals to these presents. Dated in the bishop's palace at London the 25th. day of the month of October, in the year of our Lord 1554. and of our translation 16.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A letter sent from the council unto Edmund Bonner, bishop of London, concerning queen Mary conceiving with child. Fox vol. III. p. 108. 115.

AFTER our hearty commendations unto your good lordship. Whereas it hath pleased almighty God amongst other his infinite benefits of late most graciously poured upon us, and this whole realm, to extend his benediction upon the queen's majesty in such sort, as she is conceived and quick of child; whereby (her majesty being our natural leige lady queen, and undoubted inheritor of this imperial crown) good hope of certain succession in the crown is given unto us, and consequently the great calamities, which for want of such succession might otherwise have fallen upon us and our posterity, shall by God's grace be well avoided, if we thankfully acknowledge this benefit of almighty God, endeavouring ourselves with earnest repentance to thank, honour, and serve him, as we be most bounden. These be not only to advertise you of these good news, to be by you published in all places within your diocese, but also to pray and require you, that both your self do give God thanks with us for this his special grace, and also give order, that thanks may be openly given by singing of Te Deum in all the churches within your said diocese; and that likewise all priests and other ecclesiastical ministers, in their masses and other divine services, may continually pray to almighty God, so to extend his holy hand over her majesty, the king's highness, and this whole realm, as this thing being by his omnipotent power graciously thus begun, may by the same be well continued and brought to good effect to the glory of his name: whereunto albeit we doubt not, ye would of your self have had special regard without these our letters; yet for the earnest desire we have to have these things done out of hand, and diligently continued, we have also written these our letters, to put you in remembrance. And so we bid your lordship most heartily well to fare. From Westm. the 27. of November, 1554.

Your assured loving freinds:

S. WINTON, cancell.	JOHN BATHON.
ARUNDELL.	R. RICH.
F. SHREWSBURY.	THO. WARTHAM.
EDWARD DARLY.	JOHN HUDDILSTON.
HENRY SUSSEX.	R. SOUTHWELL.

Litterae patentes regiae de jurisdictione legatina exercenda. Ex reg. Poli fol. 6. b.

PHILIP and Mary, by the grace of God king and queen of England, France, Naples, Jerusalem, and Ireland, defenders of the faith, princes of Spain, Sicily, archdukes of Austria, dukes of Burgundy, Milan, and Brabant, counts of Hapsburg, Flanders and Tirol to all men to whom these presents shall come, greeting. Whereas it hath pleased our most holy father the pope, Julius the third, to send unto us, and this our realm of England and the dominions of the same, the most reverend father in God, and our most trusty and dearest cousin, Reynold cardinal Pole, his legate de latere, with certain authorities of jurisdiction, graces, faculties and dispensations to be ministred, exercised and granted by authority of our said holy father and see apostolic to the subjects of our said realm and dominions of the same, as they shall for their relief sue and make request to our said cousin, executing his said commission and legacy aforesaid. We calling to our remembrance, and understanding the godly purpose and intent of our said dearest cousin his most honourable legation, and that the same is most beneficial, and to the spiritual solace and consolation of us and our said subjects (whose good order and right walking in the laws of God and our mother the holy church we much desire) and therefore we are most glad of the access and repair of our said most dear cousin unto us and this our realm with the said authority of jurisdiction from our said holy father, the pope's holiness and see apostolic. And for the better declaration thereof, we do by these our letters patents declare our pleasures and good contentments to be, that our said cousin shall repair unto us and into our said realm and the dominions thereof with his said authority of jurisdiction, and to use and exercise his authority legatine by himself, or by his officers and ministers under him, of whatsoever nation, country, state, or condition soever they be, denizens or not denizens, and that his said repair with his said authority is unto us most acceptable; but also do likewise by these our letters patents signify unto all our loving subjects as well spiritual, as temporal, that we are pleased and contented, that they shall make suits and requests to our said dearest cousin, and his officers and ministers, to obtain such graces, faculties and dispensations, as they shall have need of, and the same so obtained to use and put in execution, according to the nature and quality thereof, and according as they might have done in the 20th. year of our most dear father of famous memory, Henry the eighth: wherefore we will and command all and singular our subjects to receive, honour, and obey the said authority, in such cases of spiritual jurisdiction, for reformation of their souls, as in the time of the said 20th. year of the reign of our said father, 110 Litterae patentes regiae de iurisdictione legatina exercenda.

VOL. IV.

F f king

king Henry the eighth, was, or with his consent might have been used and executed in this realm. In witness whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patents. Witness our selves at Westm. the tenth day of November, in the first and second years of our reign.

“ Per ipsos regem et reginam.”

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A prayer made by doctor Weston, dean of Westminster, daily to be said for the queen's deliverance. Fox vol. III. fol. 115. edit. 1641.

O MOST righteous Lord God, which for the offence of the first woman, has threatned unto all women a common, sharp, and inevitable malediction, and has enjoined them, that they should conceive in sin, and being conceived, should be subject to many and grievous torments, and finally be delivered with the danger and jeopardy of their lives; we beseech thee, for thy exceeding great goodness and bottomless mercy, to mitigate the strictness of that law; assuage thine anger for a while, and cherish in the bosom of thy favour and mercy our most gracious queen Mary, being now at the point to be delivered. So help her, that without danger of her life, she may overcome the sorrow, and in due season bring forth a child, in body beautiful and comely, in mind noble and valiant. So that afterward she, forgetting the trouble, may with joy laud and praise the bountifulness of thy mercy, and together with us, praise and bless thee, and thy holy name, world without end. This, O Lord, we desire thee, we beseech thee, and most heartily crave of thee. Hear us, O Lord, and grant us our petition: let not the enemies of thy faith and thy church say: Where is their God?

Litterae cardinalis Poli, legati apostolici de latere in regno Angliae, ad papam Julium III. super reductione ejusdem regni ad obedientiam ecclesiae Romanae.
Fox pr. ed. fol. 1012.

QUAE superioribus diebus ad sanctitatem vestram scripsi de ea spe, quam ceperam fore, ut brevi hoc regnum ad ecclesiae unitatem et sedis apostolicae obedientiam rediret, etsi non sine magna causa scripsi; non poteram tamen non in aliquo timore versari, non solum ob eam difficultatem quam afferebat nostrorum hominum abalienata a sede apostolica voluntas, et inveteratum jam per tot annos ejus nominis odium; sed multo magis, quod verebar, ne ingressus ipse in causam, aliqua interposita minus honesta pactione, inquinaretur. Quod quidem ne accideret, vehementer egi cum sereniss. regibus. Sed nihil sane id necesse erat. Vicit eorum pietas, ac rei perficiendae studium omnem expectationem meam, quamvis maximam. Hodie autem vesperi, quo die S. Andrea, ea apostoli memoria colebatur, qui primus Petrum, fratrem suum ad Christum adduxit, divina providentia factum est, ut hoc regnum ad praestandum debitam Petri sedi et sanctitati vestrae obedientiam revocaretur, quo per illam Christo capiti et ejus corpori, quae est ecclesia, conjungeretur. Acta vero et confecta res est in parlamento, praesentibus regibus, tanta omnium consensione, et plausu, ut cum ego perorasset, post benedictionem statim ab universis mirifica laetitiae significatione acclamatum saepius sit, Amen. Ex quo plane perspectum est, in his sanctum illud semen, etsi diu oppressum, non tamen extinctum fuisse, quod vel maxime nobilitas declarat. Haec reversus domum ad sanctitatem vestram scripseram, ut ei de tanta re tamque feliciter divino consilio gesta subito gratularer, cogitans has literas regio tabellario dare, qui paulo post discessurus dicebatur. Post vero, mutata sententia, cum statuissem certum hominem ex meis mittere, hoc tantum his literis addere volui ad gratulationis cumulum, ejusque laetitiae gratulationem, quam cum maximam cepi ex ipsius rei eventu, omnium maximae, tam sanctae, tam utilis universae ecclesiae, tam salutaris huic patriae, quae me genuit, tam honorificae ei, quae me excepit; tum vero non minorem ex ipsis regibus ex quorum virtute, pietateque id perfectum est, atque confectum. Quam multa et quanta potest ecclesia sponsa Christi, et mater nostra de his suis filiis sibi polliceri? O pietas, O prisca fides, quae quidem in utrisque sic elucet, ut qui eos videat, idem, quod propheta de primis filiis ecclesiae dixit, cogatur dicere: “ Isti sunt semen, cui benedixit Dominus. Haec plantatio Domini ad gloriandum”. Quam sancte sanctitas vestra omni auctoritate, studioque huic matrimonio favit? quod sane videtur prae se ferre magnam summi illius regis similitudinem, qui mundi haeres, a regalibus sedibus a patre dimissus est; ut esset virginis sponsus et filius, et hac ratione universum genus humanum consolaretur: sic enim rex ipse, maximus omnium qui in terris sunt, haeres, patriis relictis regnis, et illis quidem maximis, in hoc parvum regnum se contulit, hujus virginis sponsus et filius est factus (ita enim se gerit, tanquam filius esset, cum sit sponsus) ut, quod jam plene perfecit, sequestrum se, atque adiutorem ad reconciliandum Christo, et ejus corpori, quod est ecclesia, hunc populum praeberet. Quae cum ita sint, quid tandem non ipsi ecclesiae matri ab eo expectandum est? qui id effecit, ut convertat corda patrum in filios, et incredulos ad prudenprudentiam justorum, quae sane virtus in ipso valde elucet. Haec vero regina, quae tum, cum sanctitas vestra me ad eam legavit, tanquam virgula illa fumi ex arboribus myrrhae, et thuris ex deserto ascendebat, ipsa paulo ante ab omnibus derelicta, quam nunc splendet? qualem jam myrrhae ac thuris odorem suavis effundit? quae ut de Christi matre, ait propheta, antequam parturiret peperit, antequam veniret partus ejus, peperit masculum. Quis unquam audivit tale? et quis vidit huic simile? nunquid parturiet terra die una, aut parietur gens simul? haec vero gentem totam nunc peperit, antequam eum partum ediderit, cujus in spe maxima fumus. Quanta nobis gratulandi causa datur? quanta gratias agendi divinae misericordiae, S. vestrae, et caesaris majestati; qui auctores tam felices tamque pii conjugii fuistis, per quod nos Deo Patri, et Christo, et ecclesiae reconciliati jungimur? qua de re gaudium, quod cepi, cum verbis consequi non possim, tacere tamen non possum. Huic vero gratulationi meae conjunctum est id, quod quidem cum in literis reverendi archiepiscopi Consani, sanctitatis vestrae apud caesaream majestatem nuncii cognoverim, maximam mihi laetitiam attulit, illam copisse ea, quae in ecclesia Romana vitio temporum deformata sunt, in pristinum decorem restituere. Quod quidem cum factum fuerit, tum vero exclamare una cum propheta, et vestram sanctitatem appellare licebit illis verbis: exue te stola luctus, et vexationis; et indue te decore, quia Deus tibi est in gloria sempiterna: nominabitur enim tibi nomen tuum a Deo sempiternum, pax justitiae, et honor pietatis; tum autem dicetur, circumspice, et vide collectos filios tuos ab oriente sole usque in occidentem in verbo sancto gaudentes. Nihil certe est (ut de filiis in occidente collectis loquar, qui se ad occurrendum matri praeparant) quod libentius videre possint, quam illam (ut verbis prophetici utar) ea diploide justitiae amictam, qua Deus olim ipsam ornavit. Hoc unum reliquum est, ut vestrae sanctitatis gaudium cumuletur, et universae simul ecclesiae, quae una cum nobis indignis filiis suis Deum pro hoc orare non desinet. Deus optimus maximus sanctitatem vestram diu ecclesiae suae incolumem conservet. Londini die ultima Novembris, 1554. E. S. V.

Litterae cardinalis POLI ad papam JULIUM III. III

Humillimus servus

REG. cardinalis POLUS.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Absolutio facta per cardinalem Polum toti parlamento Angliae, praesentibus rege et regina. Fox pr. ed. fol. 1011.

DOMINUS noster Jesus Christus, qui nos suo pretioso sanguine redemit, et mundavit ab omnibus peccatis et inquinamentis nostris, ut exhiberet sibi sponsam gloriosam, non habentem maculam, neque rugam, quem et Pater constituit caput super omnem ecclesiam, ipse per suam misericordiam vos absolvat. Et nos auctoritate apostolica per sanctissimum dominum nostrum Julium papam tertium, ejus vices in terris gerentem, nobis concessa, vos et unumquemque vestrum, et regnum universum, et ejus dominia ab omni haeresi, et schismate, et quibusvis sententiis, censuris, et poenis propterea incursis absolvimus et liberamus, et unitati sanctae matris ecclesiae restituimus; prout in literis nostris plenius continebitur. In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

Bulla plenariae indulgentiae per S. D. N. Julium divina providentia papam III. concessae omnibus Christi fidelibus, qui Deo optimo pro unione regni Angliae sanctae matri ecclesiae jam facta gratias egerint, ac pro caeteris qui adhuc in errore remanent; necnon pro pace inter principes christianos obtinenda humiliter supplicaverint.

JULIUS episcopus, servus servorum Dei ad futuram rei memoriam. Cum nuper accepissemus amplissimum ac nobilissimum regnum Angliae, quod multos annos a reliquo catholicae ecclesiae corpore avulsum fuerat, omnipotentis Dei misericordia, et benignitate, ac summa charissimi filii nostri Philippi, Angliae, Franciae, Siciliaeque citra Farum, ac Hyerusalem regis illustris pietate; praecinente ei charissima filia nostra Maria, Angliae, Franciae, regina illustri: quae in hac re tanquam Maria illa, soror Moysi se gessit, simulque dilecti filii Reginaldi, sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin diaconi cardinalis, nostri et apostolicae sedis ad regem, reginam, ac regnum ipsum legati de latere, auctoritate, ad catholicae ecclesiae (extra quam nemini salus esse potest) unionem, et dictae sedis obedientiam revertisse: nos ingenti laetitia exultavimus, et divinae bonitati, quas potuimus, maximas gratias egimus; nihilque praetermisimus, quo fructus hujus nostrae laetitiae ad eos, qui in urbe erant, extenderetur. Verum quemadmodum in evangelio pater, invento filio, qui perierat, non solum laetatur ipse, sed alios etiam invitat, ut ejus laetitiae participes sint; ita et nos, ut hoc nostrum gaudium de tam insigni accepto beneficio per totum terrarum orbem diffundatur, et ut pro caeteris, qui in errore adhuc remanent, ab universa ecclesia Deus oretur, necnon ut quietam et tranquillam vitam agamus, obsecrationes a pluribus fiant. Omnibus et singulis utriusque sexus Christi fidelibus, etiam cu-

jusvis

jusvis ordinis regularibus, etiam reclusis, et in communi viventibus per universum orbem constitutis, ut postquam praesentes ad eorum notitiam pervenerint, confessorem, presbyterum secularem, vel cujusvis ordinis regularem eligere possint; qui, confessionibus ipsorum diligenter auditis, eos, et eorum quemlibet a quibusvis delictis, quantumcunque gravibus, et enormibus, etiam sedi apostolicae reservatis, etiam in bulla, quae in coena Domini legitur, contentis, et a censuris, quas propterea incurrerint, hac vice duntaxat in foro ecclesiae absolvere: et pro commissis poenitentiam salutarem injungere, ac vota quaecunque per eos nuncupata (castitatis et religionis votis duntaxat exceptis) in alia pia opera commutare valeat, apostolica auctoritate indulgemus. Ac de omnipotentis Dei, et Domini, ac redemptoris nostri misericordia, et beatorum apostolorum ejus, Petri et Pauli precibus, et auctoritate confisi, omnibus et singulis Christi fidelibus, qui humili corde ad Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum conversi, suorum peccatorum confessionem sacramentaliter fecerint, ac quarta, et sexta feriis, postquam hae nostrae literae ad eorum notitiam pervenerint, necnon die Sabbati ejusdem vel alterius immediate sequentis hebdomadae jejunaverint; vel orationibus, et eleemosynis, seu aliis piis operibus juxta uniuscujusque confessoris consilium, vacaverint; ac dominica immediate sequenti, seu alia die usque ad octavam dominicae ipsius inclusive, sacratissimum corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi devote sumpserint, et pro tam immenso beneficio Deo omnipotenti gra-tias egerint: necnon pro iis etiam, qui adhuc in tenebris degunt, ut eodem, quo Angli lumine perfundantur, oraverint; ac demum pro pace inter christianos principes componenda pias ad Deum omnipotentem preces effuderint, plenariam omnium peccatorum suorum indulgentiam, et remissionem, sicut anno jubilaei concedi solet, misericorditer in Domino elargimur. Volentes, et eadem auctoritate apostolica decernentes, ut senes aut infirmitate, vel alio rationabili impedimento detenti, qui praedicta in ecclesiis peragere non valebunt, propriis oratoriis similes indulgentias, et peccatorum remissiones, caeteris supradictis (ut praefertur) adimpletis consequantur, et consequi possint. Ut autem praesentes ad plurimum notitiam deducantur, omnes, et singulos venerabiles fratres nostros, patriarchas, archiepiscopos, et episcopos, ac alios ecclesiarum praelatos in Domino monemus, eisque in virtute sanctae obedientiae injungimus, ut cum primum ipsae literae, five earum exemplum manu alicujus praelati, seu personae in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutae subscriptum ad eos pervenerint, literas, seu exemplum hujusmodi ubique per eorum provincias, dioeceses, et ecclesias sincera charitate absque ullo quaestu publicent, et publicari faciant. Non obstantibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque. Datum Romae apud sanctum Petrum anno incarnationis dominicae millesimo quingentesimoquingentesimo quarto, nono kalen. Januarii, pontificatus nostri anno quinto.

JO. LARINEN.

BARENGUS.

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. 5.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.Anno Christi
1554.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Cardinalis Poli literae dispensatoriae cum iis, qui bona ecclesiae possident, et illicita matrimonia contraxerunt. Strype mem. eccl. vol. III. append. p. 62.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin S. Romanae ecclesiae diaconus cardinalis Polus nuncupatus, ad serenissimos Philippum et Mariam, Angliae reges, fidei defensores, et universum Angliae regnum sanctissimi domini nostri papae et sedis apostolicae de latere legatus, eisdem serenissimis Philippo et Mariae, regibus salutem in Domino sempiternam.

Cum supremum concilium istius regni parliamentum nuncupatum, magistratibus vestris persuos supplices libellos exposuisset, quod perniciosissimo schismate in hoc regno alias vigente, quod nunc Dei misericordia et majestatum vestrarum pietate extinctum est, auctoritate ipsius parliamenti nonnulli episcopatus divisi, et ex his aliquae inferiores ecclesiae in cathedrales erectae, et scholae atque hospitalia fundata, necnon plurimae dispensationes et beneficiorum provisiones factae fuerunt, ac multae personae, quibus persuasum fuerat, juris canonici dispositiones hoc in regno amplius locum non habere, inter se in gradibus consanguinitatis vel affinitatis de jure prohibitis et aliis impedimentis canonicis sibi obstantibus, matrimonia per verba de praesenti contraxerunt, et multi actus judicarii et processus tam in primis, quam ulterioribus instantiis super rebus spiritualibus et ecclesiasticis, coram judicibus tam ordinariis, quam delegatis, qui auctoritate laicali procedebant, habiti et servati; ac super eis etiam sententiae latae et promulgatae fuerunt, et bona ecclesiastica per diversas ejusdem regni personas occupata et apprehensa fuerunt. Quae quidem licet ex sacrorum canonum institutis irrita declarari possint, tamen si ad alium statum, quam in quo nunc sunt, revocarentur, publica pax et quies universi regni turbaretur, et maxima confusio oriretur, praesertim si dictorum bonorum possessores molestarentur; et propterea majestatibus vestris humiliter supplicaverint, ut apud nos intercedere dignentur, ut praemissarum rerum firmitati et stabilitati, et simul hujus regni quieti et tranquillitati de benignitate apostolica providere velimus.

Cumque episcopi quoque deinde, ac reliquus provinciae Cantuariensis clerus totum fere corpus ecclesiasticorum regni repraesentans, ad quos haec bonorum ecclesiasticorum causa maxime pertinet, exposuerint, quod haec bona ad jus ecclesiarum revocari non possunt, quin pax universalis et quies hujus regni turbetur, et causa fidei atque unitatis ecclesiae jam toto omnium consensu hoc in regno introducta, in maximum

Admonemus tamen, cum divisio episcopatum et erectio cathedralium ecclesiarum sint * de majoribus causis, quae summo pontifici sint reservatae, recurrendum esse ad suam sanctitatem, et ab ea simpliciter postulandum, ut haec confirmare, seu de novo facere dignetur. Et licet omnes res mobiles ecclesiarum indistincte eis, qui eas tenent, relaxaverimus, eos tamen admonitos esse volumus, ut ante oculos habentes divini iudicii severitatem contra Balthesarem, regem Babylonis, qui vasa sacra non a se, sed a patre e templo ablata, in profanos usus convertit, ea propriis ecclesiis, si extant, vel aliis restituant. Hortantes etiam et per viscera misericordiae Jesu Christi obtestantes eos om-nes, quos haec res tangit, ut salutis suae non omnino immemores, hoc saltem efficiant, ut ex bonis ecclesiasticis maxime eis, quae ratione personatum et vicariatuum populi ministrorum sustentationi fuerint specialiter destinata, seu aliis cathedralibus, et aliis, quae nunc extant inferioribus ecclesiis, curam animarum laudabiliter exercere, et onera incumbencia congrue supportare valeant. Datum Lambeth, prope London. Wintonien. dioeceseos, anno nativitatibus Domini M.D.LIV. nono cal. Januarii, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri Julii, divina providentia papae tertii, anno quinto.

Reginaldus cardinalis Polus, legatus.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 5.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARTAE 2.

The declaration of the bishop of London to be published to the lay people of his diocese, concerning their reconciliation. Excusum Londini in aedibus Johan. Cawodi, typographi regiae majestatis.

EDMUND, by the permission of God byshop of London, unto all and singuler the laye people of my diocesse, do send greetinge in our Saviour Jesu Christe.

Whereas this noble realme of England dividinge it self from the unitie of the catholyke church, and from the agrement in religion with all other christen realmes hath bene, besydes many other miseries and plages, which God's indignation hath powr'd upon it, grevously also vexed, and sore infected with many and sondry sorts of sectes of hereticks, as Arrians, Anabaptistes, Libertines, Zwinglians, Lutheranes, and many other; all whiche sectes be most repugnaunt, and contrary one agaynst another, and all agaynst God's truth and Christ's catholyke fayth: whereupon hath growen such sleaundler to the realme, such malyce and disagreement among ourselves, the inhabitantes therof, such treasons, tumultes, and insurrections against our prince, such blasphemy, and dishonour unto God, as no mans tongue or penne is hable to expresse. It hath pleased the goodnes of God to cast his eye of mercye and clemencye upon us, and to move the popes holynes to send his most godly messenger, the most reverende father in God, the lorde cardynall Pole legate de latere, to brynge us the glade tydynges of peace and reconciliation, and to reduce and brynge home unto the folde, the losse shepe that was gone astraye; whose message as it hath bene honourably received of the kinge and quenes majesties, even so the lordes spiritual and temporal, and commons at the last parliament hath received it, revoking all lawes (the which in the tyme of scysme were promulgate agaynst the authority of the popes holynes) and restoryinge the same, and the church of Rome to all that power which they had in this realme, before the sayd scysme; the which reconciliation was also most gladly and joyfully imbraced, as well of all the clergy and convocation of the province of Canterbury, as also of many other persons: and being so great and necessary to be extended to every person of the realme, it hath pleas'd the sayd lord legates grace to geve, and impart unto me the sayd bishop of London, for my sayd diocesse, and to all such as I shall appoint in that behalf, power and auctority to absolve and reconcile all and every person thereof, aswel of the clergy, as of the laytie, and aswel men as women, the which wyl renounce theyr errors, and (being penitent) wyl humbly requyre to be restored to the unitie of the catholyke church, as by the letters of the sayd lord legates grace sent unto me, and from me sent unto everyche of the archdeacons within my diocesse, more at large may, and doth appear. And forasmuch as in mine owne person, aswell for the multitude of people, as distaunce of places, I cannot minister this benefit unto every pryvate person my self; and for that also the holy tyme of lent is now at hand, in whiche everye true christen man ought to come unto his own pastour and curate, to be of hym confessed, and to receive at his hand holsome counsell, penance, and absolution; these are therefore aswel to geve knowledge hereof unto every one of you, as also to signifye, and declare, that for that purpose I have by the sayde auctoritie, chosen, named, and deputed, and so by these presentes do chose, name, and depute all and synguler pastours, and curates, having cure of soules within my diocesse, and beyng themselves reconciled, herein, that they and every of them, by auctoritie hereof, shal have full power and auctoritie to absolve all such as be laye persons of theyr paryshes, from heresy and scysme, and from the censures of the church into the which they be fallen by occasion thereof; and also to reconcyle unto the church all suche, whiche shall declare themselves penitent, and desyrous to enjoy the benefyt of the sayd reconciliation. And whereas dyverse pastours and curates in sondrye paryshes, peradventure be not able to satisfye the myndes, and appease the consciences of some of their paryshners in cases, that shall trouble them; I have therefore geven also auctoritie to every archdeacon of my diocesse, within his archdeaconrye,

* Aliquid deesse hic videtur.

corrye, to name and appoint certeyne of the best learned in everye deanrye of theyre archdeaconrye, to supply that lacke, so that every man so troubled, may repayre to any one of them within the said deanrye whom he shall lyke best, to be instructed and appeaced in that behalf. And also I have appoynted, that if this beyng done, there shall yet remayne any scruple in the parties conscience, and hymself not satisfied, then the sayd partye to repayre, unto one of myne archdeacons, or chapleyns, unto whom his mynde shall be moost inclyned unto, or elles to repayre unto myne owne selfe, to be resolv'd in his sayd scruple or doute, and to receive and take such ordre therein, as to one of the sayd archdeacons, or unto me shall therein appeare to be most expedient. Further certifyinge and declaring unto you, that I have gyven commaundement herein to all my archdeacons, that they monyfe, and commaunde every pastour, and curate within their archdeaconries, that they havinge knowledge hereof, do in the fyrst holy day next then followynge, at the masse tyme, when the multitude of people is present, declare all these thinges unto their parisheners, and exhort them that they esteeme this grace accordingly, and reconcile themselves to the church before the fyrst sonday after Easter next ensuyng, which thinge I also do commaunde by the tenour hereof, with intimation that the sayde tyme beyng once past, and they not so reconciled, every one of them shall have processe made agaynst him, accordyng to the canons as the case shal requyre; for which purpose the pastours and curates of every paryshe shal be commaunded by their archdeacon to certifie me in wrytinge of every man and womans name that is not so reconcyled. Further, herewith I do signify and declare unto you, that our holy father the pope Julius, the third of that name, lyke a moost tender and naturall father, hearynge of the retourn and recovery of his prodigall child, this realme of England, hath hymselfe made much joye and gladnes hereat, and also all other true christen realmes have done the lyke. Exhortynge you therefore in our Lord, not to be unthankfull yourselves, or negligent in this behalfe; but diligently to seke for it, joyfully to embrace it, and fruytfully to use it. Remembryng withall the monicion and charge which came from me the laste yeare, concernyng your coming to confession in Lent, and receaving of the sacrament at Easter, whiche monicion to all effectis and purposes, I have now here for repeated and renewed, charging you and also all your curates therewith. And because all our dueties is earnestly and devoutly to pray for the prosperous estate of our soveraignes, the kyng and quene of this realme, I do finally requyre and pray you as hertely as I can, to pray for theyr majesties accordingly, and specially that it may please almyghty God to sende unto her grace a good tyme, and to make her a glad mother, which cannot be but unto us all great joye, much comforte, and inestimable profyte. Given at London the 19th day of the moneth of February, in the yeare of our Lord God, after the computation of the church of Englande M.D.LIV. and of my translation the 16.

The fourme of absolution to be kepte by the pastores and curates in pryvate confessions concerning this reconciliation.

Our Lord Jesus Christ absolve you, and by the apostolyke auctority to me graunted and committed, I absolve you from the sentences of excommunication, and from all other censures and paynes, into the whiche you be fallen by reason of heresye, or scisme, or any otherwyse; and I restore you unto the unitie of our holy mother the church, and to the communion of all the sacraments, dispensyng with you for all manner of irregularitie. And by the same auctoritie, I absolve you from all your synnes, in the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

God save the kynge and the quene.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A monition of Bonner, bishop of London, sent down to all and singular curates of his diocese, for the certifying of the names of such as would not come in Lent to confession, and receivng at Easter. Fox vol. III. p. 37.

EDMUND, by the permission of God bishop of London, to all parsons, vicars, curates, and ministers of the church within the city and diocese of London sendeth grace, peace and mercy in our Lord everlasting. Forasmuch as by the order of the ecclesiastical laws and constitutions of this realm, and the laudable usage and custom of the whole catholic church by many hundred years agone duly and devoutly observed and kept, all faithful people being of lawful age and discretion, are bound once in the year at least (except reasonable causes excuse them) to be confessed to their own proper curate, and to receive the sacrament of the altar with due preparation and devotion. And forasmuch also as we be credibly informed, that sundry evil disposed and undevout persons, given to sensual pleasures and carnal appetites, following the lust of their body, and neglecting utterly the health of their souls, do forbear to come to confession according to the said usage, and to receive the sacrament of the altar accordingly; giving thereby pernicious and evil example to the younger sort to neglect and contemn the same. We minding the reformation hereof for our own discharge, and desirous of good order to be kept, and good example to be given, do will and command you by virtue thereof, that immediately upon the receipt of this our commandment, ye and every each of you within your your cure and charge, do use all your diligence and dexterity to declare the same, straitly charging and commanding all your parishioners, being of lawful age and discretion, to come before Easter next coming to confession, according to the said ordinance and usage, with due preparation and devotion to receive the said sacrament of the altar; and that ye do note the names of all such as be not confessed unto you, and do not receive of you the said sacrament: certifying us or our chancellor or commissary thereof before the 6th. day of April next ensuing the date hereof; that so we knowing thereby, who did not come to confession and receive the sacrament, accordingly may proceed against them, as being persons culpable, and transgressors of the said ecclesiastical law and usage. Further also certifying us, our said chancellor, or commissary before the day aforesaid, whether you have your altars set up,

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE. 2.

The king and queen's indenture about abrogating the first fruits. Ex reg. Pole fol. 5. a.

THIS indenture made the 24th. day of February, in the second and third yeres of the reignes of our soveraigne lord and lady Philippe and Mary, by the grace of God king and queen of England, Fraunce, Naples, Jerusalem and Ireland, defendours of the faith, princis of Spain, and Sicil, archdukes of Austrie, dukes of Burgundy, Millyn, and Brabant, counties of Haspurge, Flaunders and Tiroll; between our said soveraigne lord and lady the king and quenes majesties on th'one partie; and the most reverend father in God Raynolde Pole, cardinall and legate de latere of the popes hollynes, and of the see apostolike specially sent unto their majesties and to their kingdomes and dominions, on th'other partie. Where at the parliament begonne and holden at Westminster the 21. day of October in the said second and third yeres of the reigns of our said soveraigne lord and lady, and their kepte and continued untill the dissolution of the same, being the 9th day of December then next ensuyng, one acte of parliament was made, entitled "An acte for th'extinguishment of the furst fructes, and towching order and disposition of the tenthes of spirituall and ecclesiasticall promotions, and of rectories and parsonages impropriat, remayning in the queen's hands:" it is amongst things enactid and providid: "That where the king and quenes majesties stande chargid for the payment of fundrie rentes, pentions, annuities, corrodies, fees, and other yerely payments, severally grantid as well by sondry late abbotes, priors, maisters of colledges, maisters of hospitalls, chauntrie prestes, and other ecclesiastical and spirituall parsons, before the dissolution of their houses, and divers and sondry parsons, severally and joyntly for terme of lyfe, lyves, and yeres; as also by her highnes father, king Henry. th'eight, and by her highness brother, king Edward the fixte, and by her majestie, chalices, books, vestments, and all things necessary for mass and the administration of sacraments and sacramentals; with procession, and all other divine service prepared and in readines, according to the order of the catholic church, and the virtuous and godly example of the queen's majesty: and if ye so have not, ye then with the churchwardens cause the same to be provided for, signifying by whose fault and negligence the same want or fault hath proceeded, and generally of the not coming of your parishioners to church, undue walking, talking, or using of themselves there unreverently in the time of divine service, and of all other open faults and misdemeanors; not omitting thus to do, and certify as before, as you will answer upon your peril for the contrary. Given at London the 23d. of February, in the year of our Lord M.D.LIV.

or by any of them to divers and sondry religiouse parsons, and other severally or joyntly for terme of life, lyves or yeres, the names of all which parsons, together with their severall yerely rentes, pensions, annuities, corrodies, fees, and yerely paymentes and profits, shuld be specially and particularly set fourth and conteynid in a certeine book indentid, whereof th'one counterpayne to be signid by our said soveraigne lady the queen, and th'other with the sign manuell of the said most reverend father in God Reynold Poole, cardinal; to th'entent our said soveraigne lord and lady the king and quenes majesties, their heirs and successors, shuld be from the feast of St. Michael th'archangell last past, and at all tymes from thenceforth clerely exonerated, acquieted, discharged or saved harmles, of and from the payment of the said annuities, rentes, pensions, corrodies, fees, and yerely paymentes aforesaid:" our said soverayne lord and lady the king and quenes majesty were pleasid and contentid, that it was enactid, and therefore it was and is enactid by autorite of the said parliament: "That such and so manie of the clergy of this realme, as the said lord legates grace shuld and shall from tyme to tyme name and appointe; and the successors of them, and of every of them (if hit shall so please the said lord legates grace to name, appointe and assigne them) shuld from the said feast of St. Michael th'archangell last past, before the making of the said acte, and so from thenceforth from tyme to tyme untill the said rectories, parsonages, and benefices impropriatte, and other the spiritual profits specified in the said acte shuld be otherwise ordered, usid, and imployd by the assignment of the said lord legates grace", as in the said act is expressid and declarid, have, take, receyve, and perceyve as well all and singular the perpetuall pensions, annuall rentes, or tenthes, and every of them mentioned

In the said acte, at such daies and time, and by all such waies and meanes, as the same is limitid and appointid to be paid, either by several lettres patentes, or by the statute made in the 26th. yere of the said king Henry th'eight, or by any other statute made for and concerning the true payment of the said tenthes, or any of them, as also all and singular th'yssues, revennewes, profittes, and commodities of and in all and singuler the said rectories, parsonages, and benefices impropriate, glebe landes, tithes, oblations, pensions, portions, and other profittes and emolumentes ecclesiastical and spiritual aforesaid, mentioned in the said acte; and of the reversion and reversions thereof; when they shall fall by all such waies, remedies, and meanes, for the levying and recovery of the rentes and profittes of the said premises, as our said soveraigne lord and lady, her highnes heires and successors should or might have donne, if the said premises had still continued in their majesties handes and possession, to this use, intente and purpose following: that is to say; that such and as many of the clergy of this realme, and their successors, as the said most reverend father the lord legates grace shuld name and appoint, as is aforesaid, shuld therewith satisfie, contente and paye, or cause to be satisfied, contentid and paid to all and every the said religiouse persons, and to others to be namid within the saide booke indentid, which at this time have or ought to have any pension, corrodie, annuitie, yerely rent, profite, or fee for terme of lief, lives or yeres, as is aforesaid, all and singuler their said pensions, annuities, fees, rentes, or corrodies at such daies and times, as is limitid and appointid by severall lettres patentes, or other writings, or grauntes to them made, and in such manner and form as our said soveraigne lord and lady, the king and quenes majestys, her heires and successors shuld or ought to have paid the same, if the said acte had never been had ne made; any thing mentioned in the said acte to the contrary notwithstanding; and that they shuld exonerate, acquitte, discharge or save harmless the said king and quenes majesties, and th'eyres and successors of the quenes highnes, kinges of this realme, of and for the payment of all and singuler the said pensions, annuities, corrodies, and fees, and shuld be further bounde for the assurance thereof, as shuld be devisid by their majesties with th'assent of the said lord legate; any thing before in the said acte mentioned to the contrarie notwithstanding; as by the said acte more plainly appeareth. Be hit witnessed by thes presentes, that according to the purporte, tenure, effecte, and plaine meaninge of the said statute, as well the names of the parsons aforesaid, to whom any such rent, pension, annuitie, corrodie, fee, or other yerely payment, as is afore specified, have been hertofore grauntid jointly or severally for terme of lief, lives or yeres as is aforesaid, as also the said yerely rentes, pensions, annuities, corrodies, fees or yerely payments so grauntid; with the which, and with the payment wherof all such of the clergy, as shall be appointid for the collection of the said tenthes and other the premises, shal be oneratid and chargid according to the tenure, forme, and effecte of the said statute, as specially and particularly set fourth and conteynid in this book indentid; wherof th'one part remaininge with the said lord cardinall his grace, is signid by our said soveraigne lady the quene, and th'other part remainning with her highnes, is signid with the sign manuell of the said lord cardinall his grace, according to the fourme of the said estatute. And forasmuch as it is ordeynid by the said estatute, that the said yerely rentes, pensions, annuities, corrodies, fees and yerely payments grauntid to the parsons, namid in this book indentid, shulde be paid to the same parsons at such daies and times, as is limitid and appointid by several lettres patentes, or other writings, or grauntes thereof, to the said persons made, and in manner and fourme as our said soveraigne lord and lady the king and quenes highnes, her heyres and successors, shulde or ought to have paid the same, if the said acte had never byn had or made. And for that divers of the said grauntes be made to divers of the said parsons, upon condition or by this clause: "Quamdiu se bene gesserit:" or with this clause: "Quousque sibi de competenti beneficio provisum sit:" or with such like in effect or any other, by reason of which clauses or conditions divers of the said grauntes be determined, and ought no longer to have continuance; therefore to th'intent the trueth may be searched out and known concerning the perfourming, and not perfourming of the said condition, and plaine meaning of the said clauses, and of all other acte and actes, thinge and thinges; wherby, or for the which the said grauntes or any of them be or ought to be determined: our said soveraigne lord the king and lady the quenes majesties, and the said lord cardinall his grace, be pleasid to provide and give autorite, concerning an order to be taken of and for the payment from hensforth of the rentes, annuities, pensions, corrodies, fees and sommes of money, in manner and fourme following: that is to say; our said soveraigne lord the king and lady the quene, the said lord cardinall his grace, and every of them, by thes presentes do geve full power and autorite to the lord chancellour of England, or to the keper of the great seale, for the tyme being, and to the lord treasurour, and lord privy seale, and to the cheif justice of England, and to the chief justice of the common ples, for the tyme being, and to three of them, whereof the lord chancellour or lord keper of the greate seale, for the time being to be one, to caule before them foure or thre of them, whereof the lord chancellour or lord keper of the greate seale for the time being to be one; any of the parties, to whom any of the said grauntes be graunted or made, as is aforesaid, and all parsons that can depose concerning the same, or any thing towching the same, and in the presence or absence of the said persons, by the othes of witneses, as is aforesaid, and by all other circumstances, as shall seem mete, or convenient to the said commissioners, four or thre of them, wherof the lord chancellour or lord keper of the greate seale to be one, to examyn and consider the validitie and invaliditie of the said grants, and every of them; and if it shall seme or appere to the said commissioners, or to thre of them (wherof the said lord chancellour or keper of the greate seal to be one) that any of the graunts so considered and examined, for any the causes aforesaid, or for any other goode and iuste cause or consideration, be or ought to be diminished, determined, or from thensforth no longer paid or continued; that then theruppon the said commissioners or thre of them, wherof the lord chancellour or keper of the greate seale to be one, to geve judgement or take order therin, as shall seme to their wisdomes moſte agreing to lawe, equitie, and conscience, and that after such order or judgement geven, every of the said rentes, pensions, annuities, corrodies, fees and annual payments, wherof such judgement or order shall be so given or taken, according to law, equitie, and conscience, as is aforesaid, shall have continuance, and be paid or not paid in no other manner or fourme, then according to the tenour or effect of such judgement or order, so as is aforesaid to be geven or taken. And it is further provided and agreed by our said soveraigne lord the king and lady the quene, and the said lord cardinall's grace, that every such judgement or order, geven or taken, as is aforesaid, be enterid upon the backe of the writing or lettres patentes of every such graunte, whereof such judgement or order shall be geven or taken, as is aforesaid, and also that theis lettres J and E be written in the counterpaine of this book indentid, remayning with the said lord cardinal his grace, over the name of him against whome suche order shal be had as is aforesaid; and that donne then the lettres patentes, or other writings of every such graunte, whereupon such judgement or order shall be so given or taken, to be delivered to the partie, to whom the same was furſt grauntid, or to his lawful deputy or assign, if the said partie or his lawful deputy or assigne shall requier it. In witness of all the premises to the one part of this booke indentid, remayning with the said lord cardinall his grace, our said soveraigne lady the quene hath sette her highness signett; and to the other parte, remayning with our said soveraigne lady the quene, the said lord cardinal his grace hathe putt to his signe manuell, the day and yere first above written. And in further witness and corroboration of the assent and authority geven in the premises by our said soveraigne lord the king, and lady the quene; our said soveraigne lord the king and lady the quene have causid the said counterpayne of this book indentid, remayning with the said lord cardinall his grace, to be sealid with the great seale of England; and to the other parte of the said book indentid, remayning with our said soveraigne lord and lady the kings and quenes majesties in the courte of the exchequier, the said lord cardinall his grace hath likewise putt his seale the day and yeres first above-written.

VOL. IV.

H h

the

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 23.

Anno Christii
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Queen Mary's commission to turn out the reformed bishops. Ex Rot. pat. 1. Mariae par. 7. apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 257.

MARY by the grace of God etc. To the right reverend fathers in God, our right trusty and right well beloved counsellors, Stephen bishop of Winchester, our chancellor of England, Cuthbert bishop of Duresm, Edmund bishop of London, Robert bishop of St. Asaph, and George bishop of Chichester, our almoner, and Anthony bishop of Landaff, greeting. Whereas John Taylour, doctor of divinity, naming himself bishop of Lincoln; John Hooper, naming himself bishop of Worcester and Gloucester; John Harley bishop of Hereford, having these said several pretended bishopricks given to them by the letters patents of our late deceased brother king Edward the sixth, to have and to hold the same, during their good behaviours, with the expresse clause: "Quam diu se bene geſſerint:" have sithence, as hath been credibly brought to our knowlege, both by preaching, teaching, and setting forth, of erroneous doctrine, and also by inordinate life and conversation, contrary both to the laws of almighty God, and use of the universal christian church, declared themselves very unworthy of that vocation and dignity in the church.

We minding to have these several cases duly heard and considered, and thereupon such order taken with them, as may stand with justice and the laws, have for the special trust, we have conceived of your wisdoms, learning, and integrity of life, appointed you four, three, or two of you, to be our commissioners in this behalf; giving unto you four, three or two of you, full power and authority to call before you, if ye shall think so good, the said John Taylour, John Hooper, and John Harley, and every of them; and thereupon, either by order of the ecclesiastical laws, or of the laws of our realm, or of both, proceed to the declaring the said bishopricks to be void, as they be already in deed void, to the intent some such other meet personages may be elected thereunto, as for their godly life, learning, and sobriety, may be thought worthy the places. In witness etc. apud Westm. 15. die Martii.

P. pae Rom.
JULII III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 23.

Anno Christi
1554.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Alia commissio regia de expellendis nonnullis episcopis reformatis. Ex Rot. pat. 1.
Mariae par. 7. apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 256 seq.

REGINA Dei gratia etc. per dilectis et fidelibus consiliariis suis Stephano Winton. episcopo, summo suo Angliae cancellario, et Cuthberto Dunelm. episcopo, necnon reverend. et dilectis sibi in Christo Edmund London. episcopo, Roberto Assaphen. episcopo, Georgio Ciestren. episcopo, et Antonio Landaven. episcopo, salutem. Quia omne animi vitium tanto conspectius in se crimen habet, quanto, qui peccat, major habetur: et quoniam certis et indubitatis testimoniis una cum facti notoreitate et fama publica referente, luculenter intelleximus, et manifesto comperimus, Robertum archiepiscopum Ebor. Robertum Meneven. Johan. Ciestren. et Paulum Bristolen. episcopos, aut certe pro talibus se gerentes, Dei et animarum suarum salutis immemores, valde gravia et enormia dudum commisisse et perpetrasse scelera atque peccata; et inter caetera (quod dolenter certe et magna cum amaritudine animae nostrae proferimus) post expressam professionem castitatis, expresse, rite, et legitime emissam, cum quibusdam mulieribus nuptias de facto, cum de jure non deberent, in Dei contemptum et animarum suarum peccatum manifestum, necnon in grave omnium ordinum, tam clericorum, quam laicorum scandalum, denique caeterorum omnium Christi fidelium perniciosissimum exemplum, contraxisse, et cum illis tanquam cum uxoribus cohabitasse. Ne igitur tantum scelus remaneat impunitum, ac multos alios pertrahat in ruinam, vobis tenore praesentium committimus et mandamus, quatenus vos omnes aut tres saltem vestrum, qui praesentes literas commissio-nales duxerint exequend. dictos archiepiscopum Ebor. episc. Meneven. episc. Ciestren. et episc. Bristolen. diebus, horis, et locis, vestro aut trium vestrum arbitrio eligend. et assignand. ad comparend. coram vobis, seu tribus vestrum vocetis, aut vocari faciat; vocand. aut vocare faciant tres vestrum, seu saltem si ita vobis aut tribus vestrum videatur, eosdem archiepisc. et episc. praedict. adeatis, aut tres vestrum adeant, et negotio illis summarie et de plano sine ullo strepitu et figura judicii, exposito et declarato, si per summariam examinationem, et discussionem negotii, per vos aut tres vestrum fiendam, eundem archiepisc. et episc. praedictos, sic contraxisse aut fecisse constiterit; eosdem a dignitatibus suis praedictis cum suis juribus pertinen. vniversis omnino amoveatis, deprivetis, et perpetuo excludatis, seu tres vestrum sic amoveant, deprivent, et perpetuo excludant, poenitentiam salutarem et congruam pro modo culpae, vestro aut trium vestrum arbitrio, imponend. eisdem injungentes, caeteraque in praedictis cum eorum incidentibus, emergentis annexis, et connexis quibuscunque facientes, quae necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna; quae omnia et singula faciend. expediend. et finiend. nos tam auctoritate nostra ordinaria, quam absoluta, ex mero motu certa-que scientia nostra, vobis et tribus vestrum potestatem, auctoritatem et licentiam concedimus et impertimur per praesentes, cum cujuslibet coercionis et castigationis severitate et potestate in contrarium facient. non obstant. quibuscunque. In cujus rei etc. Apud Westm. 16. die Martii.

Articuli ministrati presbyteris conjugatis mense Martio 1554. Anth. Harmer Specimen of errors, pag. 178.

IN PRIMIS an fuerit religiosus; cujus ordinis, et in quo monasterio sive domo?

Item, an fuit promotus ad sacros ordines, dum erat in monasterio?

Item, in quo et quibus sacris, et an ministravit in altaris ministerio, et quot annis?

Item, an citra professionem suam regularem conjunxit se mulieri sub appellatione matrimonii?

Item, cum qua, et in qua ecclesia fuit matrimonii solemnizatio, et per quem?

Item, quam duxit; eratne soluta an vidua?

Item, an cohabitavit cum ea in una et eadem domo, ut vir cum uxore?

Item, an prolem vel proles ex ea suscitaverit, necne?

Item, an post et citra matrimonii hujusmodi solemnizationem assecutus fuit, et est beneficium ecclesiasticum, habens curam animarum, et quot annos illud obtinuit?

Item, an officio sacerdotis post et citra assertum matrimonium hujusmodi contractum in altaris ministerio se immiscuit, ac sacramentis et sacramentalibus ministrandis se ingessit?

Item, an praemissa omnia et singula fuerunt et sunt vera?

Papae Rom.
JULII. III. 6.Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 23.Anno Christi
1555.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cant. per breve regium directum decano et capitulo ecclesiae Christi Cant. ad 22. diem Octobris in ecclesia S. Pauli London. summonita. Ex reg. convoc. et excerpt. Heylinianis.

SEDE archiepiscopali adhuc vacante decanus et capitulum ecclesiae Christi Cant. Edmundo episcopo London. Cantuar. provinciae decano literas commissionales misit de suffraganeis ejusdem provinciae citandis et praemonendis ad diem et locum in brevi regio assignat. Illo adveniente sub praesidio episcopi London. pontificalibus insigniis redimiti sacra peragebantur. Deinde in domo capitulari, literis decani et cap. Cant. ac certificatorio episcopi Lond. super executione earum lectis, episcopus London. officium praesidis obiit, et summarie ac compendiose causam synodi vocandae exposuit, et monuit inferiorem domum de eligendo sibi prolocutorem.

In secunda sessione (Octob. 25.) Johannes Christopherfon decanus Norwicensis ab Henrico Cole, archidiacono Eliensi coram episcopo London. praesentatus ornatè et eleganter patres rogavit, ut hoc acceptabile tempus pro Dei gloria, eorum dignitate, reipubl. ecclesiasticae utilitate et totius regni expectatione agerent, res lapsas restituant, pristinum ecclesiae decus reducant etc. Quem prolocutorem una cum electoribus ejus episcopus London. laudum plena oratione prosecutus confirmavit, et sic eos remisit ad inferiorem domum, volens ut inter se eligant octo vel decem de gravioribus una cum prolocutore, ad audienda quaedam arcana, non solum ex parte regis et reginae, sed etiam cardinalis Poli, bonum publicum regni et ecclesiae concernentia. Quibus sic electis rursus ingressi sunt viz. prolocutor, Hugo Weston, Willielmus Pye, Fr. Mallett, Rich. Marshall, Henricus Cole, Will. Jeffery, Joh. Harpsfeld, Joh. Cottrell, Johan. Blaxton, et Joh. Rixman comparuerunt sciscitantes voluntatem domini praesidentis et coepiscoporum suorum. Quibus vice omnium dominus Eliensis dixit: unam causam hujus conventus provincialis esse, ut praelati et clerus Cant. provinciae illustrissimis dominis regi et reginae, multo aere alieno gravatis, et pecuniae penuria laborantibus, de aliquo grato subsidio eis elargiendo subveniant, commemorans maxima illa beneficia quae dignitas regia huic clero haecenus impenderat, tam remittendo primos fructus et perpetuas decimas, quam etiam restituendo de sua gratia omnia illa beneficia sive sacerdotia, quae olim monasteriis, collegiis etc. unita fuerunt.

Alteram causam dixit esse, quod dominus cardinalis constituerat quoddam diploma de istis disponendis; cujus exemplar eis tradidit, volens eos mature consulere, et referre opiniones proxima sessione. Suavit subsidium solvendum in annis quatuor proximis, viz. octo solidos de qualibet libra; et monuit ut eligerent inter se viros doctos, qui examinarent canones omnes ecclesiae, quos utiles putarent, et, si antiqui non sufficiant, novos constituerent. Et ibidem monuit, ut praedictum subsidium celeriter concedatur, et augendum potius viz. a tribus ad quatuor annos; maxime cum alii principes potius onerosi quam benefici retroactis annis ecclesiae fuerunt, regina autem in clerum devotissima et munificentissima.

In sessione tertia (30. Octob.) episcopus London. praesidens tractavit de nonnullis in ecclesia reformandis. Et ingressus prolocutor cum clero concordibus votis et summa gratia concesserunt subsidium praedictum, exceptis beneficiis minoribus octo libris, et exceptis collegiis Eton. et Winton. cum universitatibus Cantabr. et Oxon. Ibi etiam prolocutor dixit se tria habere a clero ab episcopis petita, in quibus eorum beneficio sibi subveniri petit.

1. Quod omnes illi beneficiati, qui spe remissorum primorum fructuum ex communi omnium rumore freti sacerdotia affecuti sunt, solutione nulla pro iisdem praevia, nec cautione interposita, non obligarentur rependere duplum etc. pro quo in fisco regio multi conqueruntur se conventos.

2. Ut apud legatum agere dignentur, ut diplomata apostolica pro sacerdotiis retinendis assequi valeant.

3. Ut statutum tollatur, in quo cavetur, quod cives Londinenses decimas suasolvere recusantes coram majore Londinensi conveniantur, et quod decimarum causae emergentes coram ordinario examinentur et decidentur.

Post aliquas deinde continuationes de die in diem, convocatio haec prorogata fuit ad facellum regium infra palatium Westmonast. ad diem quintum decimum Novembris. Antequam autem hoc tempus appropinquasset, card. Polus utramque provinciam summonuit ad synodum legatinam secundo die Decembris celebrandam.

Convocatio Eboracensis.

IN provincia Ebor. convocatio die quarto Martii ex mandato Nicolai Heath archiepiscopi Ebor. more solito celebrata fuit in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. et deinde continuata.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Constitutiones legatinae Reginaldi Poli cardinalis, legati a latere, archiepiscopi Cantuariensis. Ex MS. Cott. Cleop. F. 2. fol. 72. Collat. cum MS. Synodal. in Colleg. Corp. Christi Cantabrig.

Decretum primum.

QUONIAM hoc regnum, quod a corpore catholicae ecclesiae separatum erat, jam Dei misericordia ad ejus unitatem rediit; ne immemores tanti beneficii videremur, placuit, ut in quibuscunque missarum (praeterquam de festo duplici majori) celebrationibus post alias ejus diei collectas, et infra scripta dicantur. Item, ut quotannis in quibuscunque hujus regni locis, in die sancti Andreae apostoli, quo die haec reconciliatio facta est, processio solennis celebretur, qua tam insignis beneficii per universos fideles memoria renovetur; et inter missarum solennia in ecclesia, unde processio ducetur, concio ad populum habeatur, in qua processiois praedictae causa exponatur; et ubi id fieri non possit, is, qui celebravit, erudiat plebem per homiliam super hoc specialiter edendam.

Decretum secundum.

Quia vero cum obedientia sedis Romanae etiam canonicarum legum usus in hoc regno sublatus fuit, ex eaque re maxima fidei, et morum corruptio subsecuta est; idcirco statutum est, ut universa sacrorum tam generalium, quam provincialium conciliorum ab ea sede receptorum decreta, et Romanorum pontificum constitutiones, necnon et ecclesiae leges, olim in hoc regno canonice editae, in pristinum statum restituantur, et ab universis ejusdem regni fidelibus respective, et, prout ad eos pertinet, observentur, et transgressores earum puniantur. Item, ut in scholis publicis (sicut antea fiebat) jus canonicum doceatur. Item, ut non solum archiepiscopi, episcopi, decani, et archidiaconi, verum etiam officiales, et reliqui omnes, ecclesiasticam jurisdictionem habentes, volumen praesentium decretorum, et eorum, quae bonae memoriae Otho et Othobonus, olim sedis apostolicae in hoc regno legati, in similibus synodis, et archiepiscopi Cantuarienses in conciliis provincialibus pro tempore ediderunt, habeant. Caeteri vero sacerdotes, quibus animarum cura commissa est, praeter sacrorum biblicorum veteris editionis librum Latine scriptum, et alios libros ad curam animarum exercendam necessarios, easdem etiam constitutiones habere, et si quid dubii in eis occurrerit, peritiores consulere, et ex his ea, quae populum nosse oportet, declarare teneantur; qui vero hoc non observaverit, ordinariorum arbitrio puniatur. Et ne posthac ex librorum damnatorum lectione populus corrumpatur, damnantur, et anathematizantur omnes, qui sine speciali apostolicae sedis licentia habent, legunt, imprimunt, disseminant, aut in hoc regnum important libros haereticorum, seu aliter de fide suspectos; et, ut omnibus poenis contra eos latis puniantur, praef-cipitur; placuitque juxta ultimi Lateranen. concilii statutum, ne quis in hoc regno librum aliquem seu aliud quodvis scriptum imprimere audeat, nisi id prius per loci ordinarium, aut per alium ejus mandato, diligenti examinatione et subscriptione approbatum fuerit; qui vero contrarium fecerit, poenis in eo statuto contentis subiaceat. Item, ut universi libri et traditiones ad fidem et ecclesiasticam disciplinam spectantes, quas sancta Romana ecclesia probavit et recepit; seu in posterum probabit et recipiet, quasque cum omni reverentia praesens synodus recipit et amplectitur, ab omnibus hujus regni fidelibus pari reverentia sub censuris canonicis suscipiantur.

VOL. IV.

Et ut populus sciat, quam doctrinam sequi et fugere debeat, placuit recipere omnem eam fidem, quam tenet ac docet sancta Romana et apostolica ecclesia, omnium ecclesiarum mater et magistra, et ut omnes eam profiteantur et teneant; contraque omnis haeresis adversus hanc sanctam, orthodoxam, et catholicam fidem, et quicquid ab ea recedit et deviat, damnatur et rejicitur; et omne dogma quod cum ea fide non convenit, hic credendum aut docendum sub anathemate vetatur; et omnes haeretici, qui aliter tenent et docent, quam eadem Romana credit ac tenet ecclesia, damnantur et anathematizantur; et omnes censuras et poenas contra haereticos et eorum defensores, necnon contra ordinariorum et caeteros omnes, ad quos spectat, in extirpandis haeresibus negligentes, a jure vel ab homine latas executioni demandari praecipitur. Et quia contra capitis ecclesiae et sacramentorum doctrinam potissimum hic erratum est, placuit doctrinam de primatu ecclesiae Romanae, et de septem sacramentis, quae in concilio generali Florentiae sub Eugenio quarto explicata est, huic decreto subicere. Item, constitutio bonae memoriae Johannis, archiepiscopi Cantuariensis in concilio provinciali edita renovatur; qua statutum est, ut in qualibet ecclesia parochiali fiat tabernaculum decens et honestum cum sera et clavi, quod in altum elevatum in medio summi altaris affigatur, si commode fieri potest, alias in commodiori et honorabiliore et magis summo altari vicino loco, qui haberi possit; in quo tabernaculo sanctissimum eucharistiae sacramentum custodiatur, non in bursa vel in loculo, sed in pixide lineo panno mundissimo interius ornata, ut sine diminutionis periculo facile reponi et eximi possit, atque ut ipsum venerabile sacramentum singulis hebdomadis innovetur. Ut autem hoc facilius executioni mandetur, statutum est, ut ordinarii in suis ecclesiis hujus observationis initium faciant, et, ut in aliis idem fiat, provideant; negligentibus per tantam fructuum subtractionem, quanta huic operi sufficiat, sufficiat, et alia juris remedia ad hoc observandum compulsis. Huic constitutioni in honorem corporis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, et plebis aedificationem placuit addere, ut perpetuo lampas vel cereus coram sanctissimo hoc sacramento ardeat; ubi vero per paupertatem ecclesiae id commode fieri non potest, locorum ordinarii curabunt, ut alia via, quantum in eis fuerit, hic cultus antiquus restituatur.

I i

Item, constitutiones omnes ecclesiasticae tam generales, quam hujus regni particulares circa custodiam fontis baptismalis, chrismatis, et olei sancti, et reverentem administrationem ipsorum sacramentorum, sub poenis in eis contentis, et aliis etiam, si ordinariis placuerit, gravioribus innovantur, atque ut observentur, mandatum est. Item statutum est, ut in ecclesiarum dedicationibus, quae primo die dominico mensis Octobris ubique in hoc regno celebrari mandantur, caeterisque diebus festis, populus spectaculis, comessationibus, tripudiis, similibusve vanitatibus non attendat, sed divinis officiis vacet. Hoc autem ut fiat, episcopi ipsi, poenis censurive adhibitis, ac seculari brachio, si opus fuerit, invocato, diligenter curabunt.

De residentia. Decretum tertium.

Quoniam ecclesiae reformatio ab hiis, qui aliis praesunt, est inchoanda, et cum potissimum ipsa deformetur, quod ei non resideant; a quo abusu reliqua mala provenire, archiepiscopi et episcopi et caeteri curam animarum habentes, attendentes sibi et universo gregi, in quo Spiritus Sanctus posuit eos regere ecclesiam Dei, quorum sanguis de manibus eorum a supremo iudice est requirendus, et praesentiam suam et operas suas debitas illi exhibebunt, et omni negotiorum secularium sollicitudine vacui super gregem suum vigilabunt, et in omnibus secundum apostolum, laborantes ministerium suum implebunt: pro cuius decreti observatione omnes leges ecclesiasticae tam generales, quam hujus regni particulares contra non residentes editae, innovantur, easque inviolabiliter observari mandatur. Et ut contumaces etiam per ipsorum beneficiorum privationem ad residendum compellantur, praecipitur; poterit tamen ordinarius juxta canonem Fe. Re. Gregorii decimi papae, et in concilio generali Lugdunen. editum, dispensare ad tempus super personali residentia, si causa rationalis et juri consona id exposcet.

Item, cum constet dignitates et alia ecclesiastica officia in Dei ecclesiis ob id fuisse instituta, ut essent, qui ecclesiae Dei servirent, et ecclesiasticam disciplinam tanquam inspectores et moderatores conservarent; jam vero multa ab his occupantur, qui dignitatum et officiorum titulos quidem gerant, ab ecclesiis autem suis cum magno earum detrimento absint: ideo statutum est, ut posthac omnes decani, praepositi, et reliquae dignitates, et officia tam in cathedralibus, quam collegiatis ecclesiis obtinentes, necnon et scholarium collegiorum praefecti in suis ecclesiis et collegiis, archidiaconi vero vel in archidiaconatibus vel in cathedralibus ecclesiis episcoporum arbitrio resideant, et operam ex officio suo illis debitam per se ipsi praestent.

Si quis vero ultra vacationem, sibi ex statutis ecclesiae concessam ab ecclesia, archidiaconatu vel collegio suo abfuerit, arctioribus ecclesiarum et collegiorum statutis et consuetudinibus in suo robore permanentibus, placuit, ut fructus pro rata temporis absentia amittat, iique in usum mensae ecclesiae cathedralis, quae ad alendos scholares erecta jam fuerit, vel erigetur, convertantur. Et si longioris absentiae ratio ista postulaverit, aliis etiam juris remediis, usque ad dignitatis ipsius et ecclesiae privationem inclusive ad residendum compellatur; poterunt tamen, qui hujusmodi ministeria obtinent ex rationabili et justa causa, per majorem partem capituli vel collegii probata, de licentia ordinarii ad certum tempus abesse. Et cum canonicatus et praebendae in ecclesia ideo sint instituti, ut personae, quae ad eos assumuntur, episcopo assistant, et ut per eos cultus divinus congrue peragatur; placuit, ut posthac omnes canonici quarumcunque ecclesiarum, qui ad personalem residentiam ex fundatione, statuto, vel consuetudine tenentur ad residendum, per subtractionem fructuum ex canonicatibus et praebendis provenientium, eis pro rata temporis, quo ultra vacationem sibi ex statutis ecclesiae concessam, sine licentia superioris ex justa causa concessa, et a majori parte capituli approbata, abfuerint, compellantur; hi autem fructus in praedictae scholarium mensae usum convertendi sunt. Si qui vero sint, qui ex fundatione, statuto, vel consuetudine ad residentiam asserunt se non teneri, statutum est, ut ubi praebendae redditus ad decem libras quotannis ascendunt, uno saltem, vel, si ad viginti libras perveniunt, duobus mensibus continuis vel interpolatis ampliusve ad arbitrium ordinarii quolibet anno in ecclesia, ad quam praebenda spectat, praesentes sint, et in habitu per canonicos, qui ibi resident, gestari solito, divinis officiis intersint. Qui secus fecerit, sexta parte proventus annui illius praebendae multetur, eaque in usum praedictae mensae convertatur, nisi hujusmodi fructus his, qui divinis intersint, seu aliis piis usibus per statuta ecclesiae, seu alias legitime sint jam applicati, quod et in praecedentibus capitulis, ubi de hoc agitur, placuit observari. Et insuper est adjectum, ut distributiones quotidianae appellatae, quae ab hiis, qui divinis intersunt, tantummodo percipiuntur, ex quantumvis justa causa, nisi ea talis sit, quae expresse in hoc a jure vel statutis ecclesiae probetur, nemini qui eisdem divinis non intersit, concedantur.

Item, ad dolos et fraudes tollendas mandatur omnibus locorum ordinariis, ut posthac alicui ecclesiasticae personae studiorum causa indultum, ut non promoveatur ad ordines, ad quos alias ratione beneficiorum promoveri teneretur, et a sua ecclesia absens fructus eorundem beneficiorum percipiat minime concedant, nisi prius examinaverint personam, an ad eas disciplinas, quibus vult intendere, sit apta, et an eae disciplinae ecclesiae utiles sint. Et si, omnibus mature perspectis, licentiam concedant, tum de hujusmodi personae vita et studiis solliciti sint; et si eam non honeste vivere, vel in literis non proficere compererint, indultum tum sibi concessum revocent.

Cum autem pluralitas beneficiorum maxime residentiam in eisdem impediat, statutum est, ut quicumque, cujuscunque ordinis aut dignitatis existat, plura beneficia ecclesiastica de facto jam obtinet, unicum retineat, et vel aliud seu alia, quae de jure tenere non potest, intra duorum mensium spatium a praesentium publicatione computandorum, in manibus ordinarii sui resignet et dimittat, alioquin omnibus ipso facto sit privatus. Qui vero in posterum plura beneficia curam animarum habentia, seu alias incompatibilia, absque sedis apostolicae dispensatione per quamcunque viam praeter illum modum, quem constitutio Gregoriana edita in concilio Lugdunen. permittit, obtinuerit, omnibus etiam, quae jure possidebat, sit ipso facto privatus. Innovantur etiam omnes poenae in constitutione felicitis recordationis Johannis xxii. quae incipit: "Audistis:" contentae, et quaecunque aliae de jure contra non residentes editae, et ut eae debitae executioni mandentur, praecipitur.

Item, ut ordinarii locorum quoscunque plura beneficia incompatibilia obtinentes, dispensationes suas exhibere districte compellant, et alias procedant juxta constitutionem Gregorii X. in concilio Lugdunen. editam, quae incipit: "Ordinarii." Idem etiam per idoneorum vicariorum deputationem et congruae portionis fructuum assignationem providebunt, ut animarum cura in eisdem ecclesiis nullatenus negligatur, et earundem onera congrue supportentur consueta.

De praedicatione verbi Dei. Decretum quartum.

Quoniam episcoporum et curatorum omnium residentia in ecclesiis suis ad hoc exigitur, ut pastorum fungantur officio; statutum est, ut archiepiscopi, episcopi, et caeteri curam animarum habentes, per seipsos praedicandi verbi Dei munus juxta Christi et apostolorum mandatum et sacrorum canonum normas exercent. Quod si aliquando legitime fuerint impediti, viros idoneos ad id deligant, ut plebs cibo animarum suarum minime defraudetur. Qui vero hoc facere neglexerint, ad ea per superiores suos compellantur; hoc autem officium non modo publice, sed privatim etiam peragant docendo, admonendo, adhortando, deterrendo, consolando, prout opus esse cognoverint. Nullus autem praedicandi munus exercere praesumat, nisi vel ab apostolica sede, vel ab ordinario licentiam habeat; qui vero secus fecerit, poenis et censuris canonicis subiaceat. Item, episcopi admonebunt, quos ad praedicandum mittent de materia et forma, quam in praedicando servare debeant, ut caveant abusus qui in hoc sacrum mysterium verbi divini irrepsit, ut instituto populo ad poenitentiam, a qua salutis nostrae initium sumendum est, contra ea vitia et abusus, qui tum in doctrina, tum in moribus tempore schismatis hic maxime viguerunt, juxta mandatum Domini ad Esaiam prophetam: "Clament nec cessent annunciare populo Dei scelera eorum:" ubi defuerint concionandi periti rectores aut vicarii, homilias, ex hujus synodi mandato conscriptas, dominicis et aliis festis diebus legere tenebuntur.

Episcopi etiam provideant, ut curati pueros parochiae suae dominicis saltem diebus et aliis festis certa hora ad ecclesiam vocent, ibique eosdem in primis fidei rudimentis et pietate christiana diligenter instituunt; negligentes in hoc suo arbitrio puniendo.

De vita et honestate clericorum. Decretum quintum.

Exemplum vitae genus est quoddam praedicandi non minus efficax, quam per verbum Dei, ideo omnes episcopi et alii ecclesiarum praelati monentur, eisque praecipitur, ut sobrie, caste, et pie vivant, nec solum a malo sed etiam ab omni specie mali abstineant, ut eorum personae, domus, familia, mensa, supellex, modestiae et frugalitatis speculum dici mereantur. Quamobrem usus vestium sericarum et pretiosarum prohibetur; in mensa qualescunque convivae sint, non plusquam tria aut ad summum quatuor (quod magis inspecta praesentis temporis qualitate indulgendo, quam probando conceditur) ciborum genera praeter fructus et bellaria apponantur. Reliqua mensae condimenta sint lectio sacrorum librorum et pii sermones; a familiarium et equorum numerosa et superflua multitudo abstineant; curentque ut domesticorum suorum vita honesta et probata sit, utque modesto ac decenti vestitu omnes utantur. De fructibus autem ecclesiasticis quicquid, deductis necessariis expensis, supererit, in pauperes Christi et alia pia opera distribuunt; et demum ita se in omnibus gerant, ut forma gregis ex animo facti merito videantur.

Haec, quae de vita et moribus episcoporum dicta sunt, statutum est, ut in reliquis etiam inferioris ordinis clericis observentur; quod ut facilius executioni mandetur, curabunt ordinarii, ut omnes leges ecclesiasticae de vita et honestate clericorum editae observentur. Et ne quis ignorantiam hac in re praetendere possit, omnia, quae ad id magis pertinere videbuntur, in breve compendium redacta, ut ad omnium notitiam deducantur, operam dabunt. Quamvis religiosi professi et clerici in sacris ordinibus constituti, uxores habere non liceat, tamen quia multi post emissam professionem vel sacrorum ordinum susceptionem matrimonia (quae potius impudica contubernia sunt appellanda) de facto contrahere non sunt veriti, omnia hujusmodi matrimonia de facto contracta reprobantur; praecipiturque omnibus ordinariis, ut hujusmodi personas sic de facto conjunctas per censuras ecclesiasticas separent, et contra eos, qui quocunque modo non paruerint, juxta sacrorum canonum regulas severe procedant.

Item placuit, ut quaevis ecclesiastica persona, quae aliquod beneficium quantumvis simplex obtinet, vel in sacro ordine est constituta, habitum et tonsuram clericales juxta canonicas sanctiones deferat, et ab omnibus negotiis secularibus et vilibus exercitiis omnino abstineat, et horas canonicas persolvat, et alia, quae ordini suo conveniunt, observet; inobedientes ordinarius per quodcunque juris remedium etiam usque ad beneficiorum privationem inclusive compellat, compellat, minorum autem ordinum clerici ab illicitis abstineant exercitiis, alioquin privilegiis clericalibus eo ipso privati sunt.

De collatione ordinum. Decretum sextum.

Quoniam episcopis nihil magis commendat apostolus post praedicationem verbi, quam manuum impositionem, ob eamque neglectam maximi abusus et innumera fere scandala in ecclesiam irreperunt; omnibus locorum ordinariis mandatur, ut omni studio et charitate, statutis a jure temporibus, dioecesanos suos, quos idoneos judicaverint, ordinibus per seipsos, nisi legitime impediti fuerint, initient.

Item placuit, ut ordinarii, quibus dictum est, "Nemini cito manum imposueris," ipsimet examinationi ordinandorum cum omni cura et solitudine intendant, nec ad alios rejiciant; si vero propter multitudinem ordinandorum aliorum auxilio indigeant, tum eorum opera utantur, quorum probitatem et diligentiam perspectam habeant, nec tamen archidiaconi aliive, ad quos hujusmodi munus spectat, excusantur, quominus et ipsi episcopo assistere debeant.

In examinatione ordinandorum, inprimis fides catholica, tum aetas, mores, vita, eruditio, et affectus spectentur, an sint de legitimo matrimonio nati, an in eis aliquis sit defectus, quo ab ordinibus de jure repellantur, atque inter caetera advertatur, ne fictis aut ementitis titulis promoveantur.

Et ut haec recte fiant, ordinandi ad sacros ordines mensibus aliquot ante tempus ordinationis episcopo voluntatem suam significabunt, ut de illorum statu commode cognoscere possit; deinde feria quinta praecedente diem ordinationis eidem episcopo se praesentabunt, et omnium praedictorum fiat diligens et plena examinatio; adferant autem omnes de his, quae superius dicta sunt, certa et fide digna testimonia non modo suorum parochorum, sed etiam praeceptorum, aliorumve proborum hominum, qui eos bene noverint.

Item placuit, ut nemo ad sacros ordines admittatur, nisi paulo ante confessus fuerit idoneo sacerdoti, qui ejus vitae conditionem sedulo scrutatus intelligat, an forte aliqua irregularitate aut aliquo alio impedimento teneatur, ut expediat eum ab ordinibus vel omnino, vel quoad hujusmodi impedimentum tollatur, abstinere. In minoribus etiam ordinibus ea cura et examinatio adhibeatur, quae cuique ordini suscipiendo necessaria videbitur.

De provisione beneficiorum ecclesiasticorum. Decretum septimum.

Cum beneficium non detur nisi propter officium; ideo episcopi omnes admonentur, ut omni humano affectu semoto ecclesiastica munera, praesertim ea, quibus animarum cura est annexa, non conferant nisi magis probatis atque idoneis, quaerentes non quae sua sunt, sed quae Jesu Christi.

Quoniam vero quod Paulus dixit, "Nemini cito manum imposueris," potissimum ministrorum ecclesiasticorum institutionem respicit, episcopi beneficia maxime curam animarum habentia, nisi habita prius diligenti personarum inquisitione, nemini conferant.

In his autem, quae praeficiuntur, haec spectari debent; sana doctrina, aetatis maturitas, morum gravitas, literarum scientia, saltem ea quae ad id munus, ad quod assumuntur, est necessaria, ut juxta Pauli doctrinam testimonium bonum habeant, utque nullum canonicum impedimentum eis obstat.

Et cum aliquis ad beneficium, quod personalem residentiam requirit, assumendus est, episcopus provideat an talis sit, qui et velit et possit in beneficio residere; nam si non possit, repellendus est; si possit, tum etiam antequam admittatur, promissionem etiam juratam de personaliter residendo et officium exequendo sub poena amissionis beneficii, ab eo recipiat: hanc autem promissionem in vicariorum provisionibus praestari debere juxta provinciales constitutiones declaratum est. Ad episcopos etiam pertineat a praefectis academiarum et collegiorum scripta habere nomina eorum, qui et moribus et doctrina ad beneficia obtinenda sint idonei.

Item quoniam multa mala ex diutina ecclesiarum vacatione oriuntur, admonentur omnes episcopi, ut quam citissime possint ecclesiis vacantibus de idoneis rectoribus provideant. Durante autem earum vacatione, procurent, ut recte gubernentur. Quae vero de episcopis dicta sunt, haec ad omnes inferiores quacunque ratione conferendi, eligendi, aut praesentandi facultatem habentes extenduntur.

De concessione praebendae et ecclesiae non vacant. Decretum octavum.

Cum in fraudem statuti concilii Lateranensis, de non faciendis dispositionibus nec provisionibus beneficiorum non vacantium, multi ad beneficia vacatura praesentandi, seu de illis disponendi potestatem in alios transferant, ex quo in hoc regno multa mala provenisse compertum est; ideo hujusmodi translationes perpetuo fieri prohibentur, et irritae inanesque declarantur; personae autem ecclesiasticae, quae in hoc deliquerint, pro ea et altera vice sint eo jure privatae, et ad superiorem facultas disponendi devolvatur. Qui vero contra hoc decretum beneficium receperit, is non solum illud ipso jure amittat, sed ad alia quaeque obtinenda inhabilis per quinquennium omnino sit.

De simonia. Decretum nonum.

Cum detestabile simoniae scelus universa jurata humana, quam divina vehementer execrentur; ideo omnis pecuniae datio, fructuum donatio, praediorum ad firmam seu affectum concessio, seu cujuslibet temporalis commodi interpositio, et omne pactum seu promissio in quorumlibet beneficiorum adeptione vel circa eam interveniens damnatur. Siquidem beneficia ecclesiastica gratis, libere, et absque ulla sorde vel conditione concedi et recipi oporteat; atque in beneficiis ad hunc modum adeptis, placuit non modo jus

nullum

nullum acquiri, sed et fructus, qui percepti fuerint restitui debere: et qui in hoc deliquerit, ad omnia beneficia ecclesiastica obtinenda perpetuo inhabilem esse; et si quis ecclesiastici ordinis in beneficiorum dispositionem deliquerit aliquo ex praedictis modis, eo ipso infamem esse, et omni disponendi facultate de eisdem beneficiis ad superiores devolvenda privari. Laicus vero patronus excommunicationis sententiae et aliis ecclesiasticis poenis subiaceat; mediatores autem tum ad omnes actus canonicos inhabiles sint, tum ad restituend. quicquid inde acceperint, alicui pro loco postea applicand. compellantur. Mandatur insuper ordinariis, ut ab eo qui praesentatus sibi fuerit, iuramentum infra adnotatum recipiant, et omnes constitutiones contra simoniacos editae innoventur. Forma autem dicti iuramenti talis est: Ego N. praesentatus ad beneficium de N. juro ad haec sacrosancta Dei evangelia, per me corporaliter tacta, quod propter dictum beneficium obtinend. aut praesentationem ad idem habend. ac acquirend. neque ego, neque alia persona vice et nomine meo, nec de consensu aut scientia mea patrono seu alicui cuicunque aliquid promissorum nomine aut intuitu promissimus aut dedimus; nec quicquam ejus rei gratia permutavimus, compensavimus, aut primo datum confirmavimus, apudve quemquam deposuimus, seu quicquam mutavimus, seu elocavimus; priusve mutuatum, commodatum, depositum, aut elocatum, aut quocunque modo debitum remisimus seu relaxavimus; nec de sanctuario, gleba, domibus, terris, praediis, tenementis, redditibus praedictae ecclesiae, fructibusve, decimis, aut oblationibus ejusdem praeteritis, praesentibus, aut futuris, donationem, remissionem, locationemve promissimus, fecimus aut inivimus; seu aliquis nostrum de mandato, scientia, aut consensu meo promissit, fecit, aut inivit. Ita me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei evangelia.

Ut res ecclesiae non alienentur, et beneficia ecclesiastica non locentur. Decretum decimum.

Ut indemnitatibus ecclesiarum prospiciatur, statutum est felicis recordationis Pauli papae II. constitutionem de rebus ecclesiae non alienandis, quae incipit "Ambitiose," una cum reliquis ecclesiasticis super eadem re provisionibus editis observandam esse. Item mandatur archiepiscopis et inferioribus praelatis, et piorum locorum gubernatoribus, ut infra sex mensium spatium a praesentium publicatione inventarium omnium bonorum mobilium et immobilium, jurium et actionum, ac debitorum ad ecclesias et pia loca quomodolibet spectant. coram pluribus fide dignis personis in forma probante conficiant; quod inventarium tertio quoque anno et quotiens rector mutatur, renovetur, cujus duo fiant publica instrumenta; quorum unum in propria ecclesia seu pio loco, alterum vel apud metropolitanam, si ad cathedralem, vel apud capitulum, si ad metropolitanam, vel apud episcopum, si ad inferiorem spectet ecclesiam, perpetuo conservetur. Haec autem inventaria in visitatione dioecesium inspiciantur, et si quid deperditum reperiatur, curandum erit ut recuperetur: ex-cipiantur ab his tamen ea, quae de bonis ante ab ecclesiis ablatis jam apostolica auctoritate sancita sunt.

Praeterea constitutio bonae memoriae Othonis et Othoboni de dignitatibus et officiis ecclesiasticis sive proventibus ex spiritali exercitio provenient. nullo modo locandis, seu ad firmam et afflictum dandis innovatur; ac ne reliqua beneficia ecclesiastica ultra anni spatium cum ulla invocationis spe, sine ordinarii consensu, ad firmam concedi liceat, vetatur.

De pueris educandis in ecclesiis. Decretum undecimum.

Statutum est, ut singulae hujus regni metropolitanae et cathedrales ecclesiae certum puerorum numerum, vel seminarium quoddam pro cuiusque proventu et dioecesis magnitudine alere teneantur. In hunc autem numerum non cooptabuntur, nisi qui annos undecim vel duodecim ad minimum nati sint, quique pauperes potius parentes, quam divites habeant; qui bonae indolis ac spei sint; qui legere et scribere sciant: erudiendi sunt hii in grammatica, et in ecclesiastica disciplina diligenter instituendi. Horum duae erunt classes; altera provectiores aetate et doctrina continebit, qui acolythi sint; hisque praeter victum et togam annuam, quam liberalem vocant, aliquid etiam mercedis constituetur; in altera juniores erunt, quibus toga tantum et mensa dabitur. Incedent autem omnes, utriusque sint classis, cum tonsura et vestitu clericali, eodemque vivendi modo utentur, et divinis in ecclesia officiis interservient. Ex acolythorum classe quicunque ad aetatem legitimam pervenerint, et in moribus literisque profecerint, sacris initiabuntur ordinibus, et in quocunque ecclesiae ministerio episcopo et capitulo visum fuerit, operam suam praestabunt; hisque pro cuiusque merito de beneficio aliquo providebitur, quorum in locum alii ex inferiori classe substituentur. Licebit etiam extra hunc numerum aliis ejusdem civitatis et dioecesis pueris una cum his in grammatica et literis erudiri, dummodo honesti sint, eodemque vestitu et moribus utantur, qui item in locum clericorum, qui quocunque modo desiderabuntur, substituentur. Quousque autem certa dos huic operi assignabitur archiepiscopi et episcopi omnes fructuum annuorum, quos ex proventibus episcopatum suorum percipiunt, deductis decimis, subsidiis et feudis quadragesimam partem cum ad ipsos pueros alendos, tum etiam ad mercedem solvendam magistris, qui eos in grammatica et ecclesiastica doctrina et disciplina erudiant, in singulos annos pendunt. Quod item ut ab omnibus, qui praebendas vel beneficia quaecunque ecclesiastica aut jam obtinent, aut posthac obtinebunt, fiat; statutum est auctoritate scilicet ut ex fructibus beneficiorum suorum, quae vel singula, vel plura simul ad annum censum viginti librarum ascendant, partem quadragesimam ad hos ipsos usus in ea dioecesi, in qua beneficia obtinent, quotannis persolvant. Exigetur autem quadragesima haec pars ab his, qui per episcopum, decanum et capitulum quibus scholae cura committitur, ad hoc erunt designati. Docendi munus nemo inposterum quovis in loco suscipere audeat, nisi ab ordinario examinatus, probatusque, et de libris, quos legere debet, ante admonitus fuerit; alioquin excommunicationis poenam incurrat, et a docendo per triennium prohibeatur. Ex his vero, qui jam docendi munus exercent, si quis indignus fide, doctrina, vel moribus repperitus fuerit, ejiciatur; si dignus, confirmetur.

De visitatione. Decretum duodecimum.

Cum ecclesiarum visitatio ad vitia et abusus tollendos, ac rursus ad bonos mores inducendos, ac legum ecclesiasticarum vim et usum retinendum non solum utilis, verum etiam necessaria sit; placuit, ut episcopi, et alii locorum ordinarii dioeceses et loca sibi commissa juxta antiquam hujus regni consuetudinem, saltem singulis trienniis per seipsos, si autem legitimo aliquo impedimento detineantur, per idoneos substitutos, juxta formam ab eadem synodo descriptam, visitent.

Item, archidiaconi partem dioecesis sibi commissam in hiis, quae ad eos pertinent, secundum eandem formam visitent; graviora autem, et quae per eos emendari non possunt, ad episcopos referant; operam etiam dabunt, ut ea, quae in visitatione per episcopum statuta et mandata sunt, perficiantur, ac de his, quae perfecta fuerint aut non perfecta, simulque de causis, quae eorum executionem impediunt, episcopum statim ad-monebunt; atque ut iidem archidiaconi officio suo tam in visitationibus, quam caeteris in rebus satisfaciant, constitutiones provinciales ac bonae memoriae Othonis, et Othoboni, sedis apostolicae legatorum, hac de re editae innoventur: et illi ejusdem Othoboni, qua cavetur, ne archidiaconi ob crimen manifestum a delinquentibus pecunias accipiant, sed illud digna animadversione puniant, additum est; ut si quis contra id fecerit, poena dupli ejus, quod acceperit, per episcopum multetur, eaque pecunia in usum mensae scholarium convertatur. Ut autem ecclesiarum praelati officium correctionis et reformationis libere exercere possint, constitutionem felicitis recordationis Innocentii papae III, in concilio generali editam, qua statuitur, ut iidem praelati eorum, quae suae sunt jurisdictionis excessus, appellatione postposita, vel consuetudine non obstante, corrigant et reforment, innovari placuit, et ab omnibus observari praecipitur^a.

Papae Rom.
JULII III. 6.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Acta synodi provincialis Cantuar.

IN synodo hac multa de residentia clericorum acta sunt, quae ex MS. collegii corporis Christi Cantabrig. libr. synodalia dicto, excerpta, appendici vitae archiepiscopi Cranmeri inseruit Strypius pag. 204, 205.

A proposition in the convocation against residence, with reasons for the said proposition; and remedies against non residence.

“Decretum perpetuae residentiae juxta canonum sanctiones optant pii; sed multa sunt, quae hodie impediunt, quo minus suum effectum juxta bonorum virorum vota consequatur.”

The reasons.

I. The statutes of the kingdom, not disallowed, as we hear, by the pope, do permit to the barons, and other great men of the kingdom a certain number of priests having cure of souls.

II. Not only the statutes of the kingdom, but the canons do permit the bishops a certain number of fellow workers to assist them.

III. Bishops and prelates, who by reason of their great learning, prudence, integrity of life, and high faith, are chosen to be the king's counsellors, and whose counsels are very necessary for the restoring of religion, ought not, as it seems, to be compelled to perpetual residence.

IV. When the barons and other great men may be retained in the orthodox faith by the doctrine, honesty, age, and frequent exhortations of reverend men; it seems not convenient that such men should be driven from them, provided they do reside a good part of the year upon their churches.

V. Since the dispensation of two or three benefices hath been granted by former princes to some priests for the merit of their life and manners, they cannot without injury be deprived of them; nor yet can they in all respects reside personally and perpetually.

VI. When many have designed their sons for the universities, and have been at no small charges to give them learning, because they have entertained good hope, that they might hereafter be assistant to their friends and relations; this hope being gone, their care about this matter will also grow cold, otherwise of itself cold enough. For as he said: “Where there is no honour, there is no art.”

VII. The houses of the rectories in many places are either ruined or none at all, or let out by indentures.

Going to the Court of Rome.

Going to a general council.

Going to a synod or parliament.

Violent detaining.

Remedies.

That there be a less number of those, that follow the court, who heap up benefices upon benefices.

^a Constitutiones hae legatinae quarto post obitum card. Poli anno Romae prolixius, et si dicere fas est, accuratius editae sunt sub titulo “Reformatio Angliae.” Quia autem MSS. Cotton. et Cantabr. exemplar earum, uti clero Anglicano injunctae erant, continent; lectionesque illarum variantes integrum potius tractatum sibi deponere videntur, accessiones vel Transalpinas, vel extrasynodales hic omittere placuit.

That

That they, who have many benefices, reside a certain time upon each.

That a way be found, whereby such as live in towns and cities, may be forced to pay personal tithes; which being now almost quite taken away, the benefices in such places are in a great part lessened. When some of the bishops, by reason of the slenderness of their possessions, cannot afford stipends to the priests, their fellow labourers, that they, who serve them, reside for a certain time of the year in their own parishes.

That rectors, who heretofore have paid pensions to monasteries in ready money, be not now compelled to pay the same in bread-corn to lay proprietors.

That in woody places, where the custom hath always obtained, tithe may be paid of sylvae caeduae (that is, wood that is cut to grow again) especially when there is a great scarcity of corn in such places.

Parishes are not divided jure divino. Whence followeth, that as many benefices may be laid into one; so one, by reason of the greatness of it, may be divided into two.

Sede Rom.
vacante.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

Quindecim articuli, quibus academici Cantabrigienses ab episcopo Gardinero, academiae cancellario, subscribere jubentur *. Ex MS. C. C. C. Cantab. Misc. P. f. 297.

I. CREDIMUS et confitemur unum Deum verum, unum, omnipotentem, incorporeum, impartibilem, immensa potentia, sapientia, bonitate, creatorem et conservatorem rerum omnium visibilem et invisibilem; et tres in divinitate distinctas personas; Patrem ingenitum, Filium unigenitum, et Spiritum Sanctum ab utroque procedentem, ejusdem essentiae, potentiae, gloriae, et aeternitatis.

II. Credimus verbum Dei carnem assumpsisse ex virgine Maria, ita ut duae naturae, divina et humana in Christi persona inseparabiliter fuerint conjunctae, eundemque vere passum, crucifixum, mortuum, ad inferos descendisse, et tertia die resurrexisse, atque in caelos ascendisse, et ad dexteram patris sedere.

III. Credimus septem ecclesiae esse sacramenta a Deo instituta; nempe baptismum, confirmationem, eucharistiam, poenitentiam, extremam unctionem, ordinem, et matrimonium; per quae Deus invisibiliter confert gratiam, et operatur nostram salutem sive per bonos, sive per malos ministros.

IV. Credimus baptismum omnibus ad salutem esse necessarium, etiam infantibus; peccataque omnia tam actualia, quam originalia baptismo tolli et plenarie deleri, adeo ut, qui rite baptizentur, filii Dei fiant et haeredes vitae aeternae; eundemque baptismum nunquam esse iterandum.

V. Credimus hominem liberum habere arbitrium, quo potest male, et cum gratia Dei bene agere; et post peccatum admissum, Deo adjuvante, poenitere, et peccatorum remissionem consequi.

VI. Credimus, quod nec sine fide nec sola fide sine poenitentia et proposito vivendi secundum Dei mandata, aut sine spe et charitate homo possit justificari: eosque improbamus, qui vel solam fidem sine operibus satis esse ad salutem affirmant, aut innovationem vitae et justitiam inhaerentem inficiantur et negant; illam-que fidei certitudinem, quam Lutherani jactitant, ut quae nec scripturarum testimoniis nitatur, et pietatis et virtutum nervos elidat, dum pestilentem securitatem in hominum animis inserit.

VII. Credimus opera bona adultis esse ad salutem necessaria, et cum ex fidei et spiritu charitatis procedunt, ita grata esse Deo, ut eis tanquam justam mercedem vitam retribuat aeternam, illicque in regno gloriosorem eum fore, qui hic pluribus pietatis operibus abundat.

VIII. Credimus in eucharistiae sacramento virtute verbi divini a sacerdote prolati, praesens esse realiter naturale Christi corpus, quod de virgine natum est, et item naturalem illius sanguinem; neque manere jam amplius substantiam panis et vini, neque ullam aliam substantiam, quam Christi Dei et hominis; unde eucharistiam sancte a nobis adorari, sive in missa sive extra missam certa fide tenemus. In qua missa vivificum esse Christi sacrificium tam pro vivis, quam pro mortuis propitiabile, communionemque sub utraque specie ad salutem necessariam non esse asseveramus; potestatemque consecrandi corpus et sanguinem Christi esse concessam solis sacerdotibus, secundum ecclesiae catholicae ritum legitime a Christo ordinatis.

IX. Credimus matrimonium inter christianos legitime contractum esse indissolubile, qualiscunque fuerit alter conjugum sive adulter, sive sterilis, sive haereticus.

X. Credimus unam esse in terris catholicam Christi ecclesiam, eamque visibilem, quae a tempore apostolorum ad nostram aetatem durans in hiis, quae fidei sunt et religionis, non potest errare; haereticisque, schismaticis, et excommunicatis, et ab hac ecclesiae unitate alienis et avulsis nullam superesse salutem; unumque esse sub Christo summum pastorem, cui omnes obedire tenentur, summamque hanc praeposituram divum Petrum, verum in terris Christi vicarium, et generalem totius Christi familiae pastorem primum omnium gessisse; post Petrum vero ex

* Articulos hos episcopus Gardinerus vicecancellario universitatis Cantabrigiensis transmittit, injungens, ut nemo ad gradum aliquem academicum admitteretur, aut suffragium praestaret in congregatione, nisi qui articulis hisce subscriberet. Numerus subscribentium erat 51. contradicentium duplo major ad 120. fere se extendebat.

128 Articuli xv. quibus CANTABRIGIENSES subscribere jubentur.

Christi institutione omnes deinceps Romanos pontifices, Petri in cathedra successores.

XI. Sanctos cum Christo agentes nos pie posse et debere venerari, eisdemque invocare, ut pro nobis orent, atque nostras preces et vota ab illis percipi, et eorum nos precibus juvari confitemur et agnoscimus.

XII. Reliquias martyrum, et loca in eorum honorem consecrata pie et religiose a christianis venerari, et invisi posse affirmamus; imaginum quoque usum ferendum, et hominibus fructuosum esse fatemur.

XIII. Credimus post hanc vitam esse purgatorium, in quo animae defunctorum purgantur, poenaeque adhuc peccatis debita exsolvitur; sanctumque et salubre esse pro defunctis exorare, nostrasque preces eleemosynas, jejunia, et opera alia pia, maxime autem altaris sacrificium illis multum prodesse persuasissimum habemus.

Sede Rom.
vacante.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A letter of the council for prayers for peace, and for the good choice of a new pope.
Reg. Bonner, fol. 363.

AFTER our right heartye commendations unto your good lordshipp. Wheare it hath pleased almighty God soo to directe the hartes of the highe and mighte princes, th'emporours majestie, and the Frenche king towards peace and concorde, that they have of late thoroughe the good medycyon of the queen's majesty appoynted sondrye personages of honour to treat and conclude upon some good meanes of agremente, and ende of theis longe and cruell warrs. Forasmuche as it is well considered, that theis and all other warrs be the just punishments and plagues sente from almyghty God, to punyssh the syns and wyckedness of the worlde; lyke as the king's and quene's majestyes for their godly dysposytions have sente certayne greate personages from hens, to be mediators in this treatye; so there majestyes knowing that the chieffe meane to bring this medycyon to a good ende, is, to appease the wrathe and displeasure of almighty God, have willed us to require you not only to admonyssh and cause to be admonysshed all your diocesans to call to God for mercye, and pray devoutlye that yt may please him of his infynyte goodness so to inspyre the hartes of the saide princes, and there commysyoners, as of this meating the desired fruycte of peace may ensue, to the common wealthe of christendome, and to cause common prayers to be used for this purpose in all churches within your diocese; but also to wryte to all other bysshoppes and ordinaries of the province of Canturbury to doo the like in there dioces. And in the same there common prayers to praye also to almyghty God, to governe the hartes of the colledge of cardinals, now assembled for the election of a Pope; that they may in shorte tyme well agree for the choyse of such one, as maye be to th'honour of almighty God, and mete to restore the unty and concorde of Christes church, which of late hath beyn soo soore troubled. In bothe which cases their majesties requireth your lordship to give order with diligence, and so we bydd your lordship right hartely farewell. From Hamptoncourte the 23. of Maye.

Your lordeshippes loving frendes,
F. Shrewsburye, Pembroke. T. Cheyne,
Thomas Wharton, William Petres, Richard Southwell.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 2.

A proclamation set out by the king and queen for the restraining of all books and writings tending against the doctrine of the pope and his church. Fox vol. III. p. 271. ed. M.DC.XLI.

WHEREAS by the statute made in the second year of king Henry the fourth, concerning the repressing of heresies, there is ordained and provided a great punishment not only for the authors, makers, and writers of books containing wicked doctrine, and erroneous, and heretical opinions, contrary to the catholic faith, and determination of the holy church, and likewise for their fautors and supporters; but also for such, as shall have or keep any such books or writings, and not make delivery of them to the ordinary of the diocese, or his ministers within a certain time limited in the said statute; which act or statute being by authority thority of parliament of late revived, was also openly proclaimed, to the intent the subjects of the realm upon such proclamation should the rather eschew the danger and penalty of the said statute; and as yet nevertheless in most parts of the realm the same is neglected and little regarded. The king and queen our sovereign lord and lady, therefore, &c. straitly charge and command, that no person or persons of what estate, degree, or condition soever he or they be, from henceforth presume to bring or convey, or cause to be brought or conveyed into this realm any books, writings, or works hereafter mentioned; that is to say, any book or books, writings or works made or set forth by, or in the name of Martin Luther, or any book or books, writings or works made or set forth by, or in the name of Oecolampadius, Zuinglius, John Calvin, Pomerane, John a Lasco, Bullinger, Bucer, Melancton, Bernardinus Ochinus, Erasmus, Sarcerius, Peter Martyr, Hugh Latimer, Robert Barnes, otherwise called Fryar Barnes, John Bale, otherwise called Fryar Bale, Justus Jonas, John Hooper, Miles Coverdale, William Tyndall, Tho. Cranmer, late archbishop of Cant. William Turner, Theodore Brasil, otherwise called Tho. Beacon, John Frith Roy, and the book commonly called Hales chronicle, or any of them in the Latin tongue, Dutch tongue, English tongue, Italian tongue, or French tongue; or any other like book, paper, writing, or work made, printed, or set forth by any other person or persons, containing false doctrine, contrary and against the catholic faith, and the doctrine of the catholic church: and also that no person or persons presume to write, print, utter, sell, read, or keep any, or cause to be written, printed, uttered, or kept any of the said books, papers, works, or writings, or any book or books, written or printed in the Latin or English tongue, concerning the common service and administration set forth in English, to be used in the churches of this realm, in the time of king Edward the sixth, commonly called the Communion book, or book of common service, and ordering of ministers, otherwise called, the book set forth by authority of parliament, for common prayer and administration of the sacraments, or to be used in the mother tongue within the church of England; but shall within the space of 15. days next after the publication of this proclamation bring or deliver, or cause the said books, writings, and works, and every of them, remaining in their custody and keeping, to be brought and delivered to the ordinary of the diocese, where such books, works, or writings be or remain, or to his chancellour or commissaries without fraud, colour, or deceit, at the said ordinaries will and disposition to be burnt, or otherwise to be used or ordered by the said ordinaries, as by the canons or spiritual laws it is in that case limited and appointed; upon pain that every offender contrary to this proclamation shall incur the danger and penalties contained in the said statute, and as they will avoid their majesties high indignation and displeasure, and further answer to their utmost perils.

And their majesties by this proclamation give full power and authority to all bishops and ordinaries, and all justices of peace, mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs of cities and towns corporate, and other head officers within this realm, and the dominions thereof, and expressly command and will the same and every of them, that they and every of them, within their several limits and jurisdictions, shall in the default and negligence of the said subjects, after the said 15. days expired, enquire and search out the said books, writings, and works, and for this purpose enter into the house or houses, closets, and secret places of every person of whatsoever degree, being negligent in this behalf, and suspected to keep any such book, writing, or works contrary to this proclamation; and that the said justices, mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, and other head officers above specified, and every of them, within their said limits and jurisdictions, finding any of the said subjects negligent and faulty in this behalf, shall commit every such offender to ward, there to remain without bail or mainprise, till the same offender or offenders have received such punishment, as the said statute doth limit and appoint in this behalf. Given under our signes manual at our honour of Hamptoncourt the 13. day of June, the first and second years of our reigns.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Bulla Pauli IV. papae ad confirmand. electionem Nicol. Heth, archiepiscopi Ebor. et quando misit pallium, insigne plenitudinis pontificalis officii de corpore B. Petri sumptum. Ex reg. Heth, fol. iii.

VENERAB. frater salutem et apostol. bened. Dudum ecclesia Eboracensis certo modo pastoris solatio destituta, nos — praeficiendo te illi in archiepiscopum et pastorem, ac tibi, ut a quocunque malles catholico antistite gratiam et communionem apostolicae sedis habente, accitis et in eo tibi assistentibus duobus vel tribus catholicis episcopis similes gratiam et communionem habentibus, munus consecrationis recipere valeres. — Cum autem tu ante provi-

VOL. IV.

sionem et praefectionem; schismate in regno Angliae vigenti, ab uno seu pluribus episcopis schismaticis, et a quondam Henr. VIII. seu Edwardo VI. praetensis Angliae regibus, in certis ecclesiis institut. alias tamen in forma ecclesiae ordinatis et consecratis, et propterea solum executione ordinis episcopalis carentibus, secundum eandem formam clericali caractere insignitus, et ad quatuor minores ac omnes sacros et presbyteratus ordines promotus, et per dictum Hen-

L 1

ricum

ricum seu Edwardum praetensum regem in Roffens. primo, et deinde in Wigorn. episcopum de facto institutus fueris, et praetextu institutionum hujusmodi possessionem, seu quasi, regiminis, et administrationis Roffen. et illa dimissa, Wigornien. ecclesiarum etiam de facto apprehenderis, ac ratione alterius ipsarum ecclesiarum munus consecrationis a nonnullis episcopis non minus tribus, et, ut praefertur, schismaticis, et a dicto Henrico seu Edwardo praetense rege in certis ecclesiis institutis, alias tamen secundum eandem formam ordinatis et consecratis, ac propterea solum executione ordinis episcopalis carentibus, alias juxta formam praedictam susceperis, et demum eandem ecclesiam Wigorn. realiter et de facto dimiseris, et de hiis nulla in literis nostris praedictis mentio facta fuerit, et propterea dubitas provisionem et praefectionem nostras praedictas viribus non subsistere, teque desuper molestari posse tempore procedente. Nos statui tuo in praemissis paterna charitate consulere, et ut dictae ecclesiae Ebor. puro corde et sana conscientia praesidere possis, nec provisio et praefectio nostrae praedictae possunt propterea quomodolibet impugnari, sed validae et efficaces existant, et tibi qui earundem provisionis et praefectionis nostrarum vigore seu praetextu possessionem, seu quasi, regiminis et administrationis ipsius ecclesiae Ebor. forsitan affecutus fuisti, effectum suum in omnibus et per omnia offerant, providere volentes; tuis in hac parte supplicationibus inclinati volumus, et tibi dicta auctoritate concedimus atque decernimus, quod provisio et praefectio nostrae ac cum omnibus et singulis in eis contentis clausulis literae praedictae valeant, ple-nam roboris firmitatem obtineant, ac tibi suffragentur, etiam ad hoc ut clericali charactere, et per te, ut praefertur, susceptis munere consecrationis ac pallio tibi assignando, uti et in praedict. et presbyteratus ordinibus ministrare, necnon ecclesiae Ebor. praedictae in archiepiscopum et pastorem praesse, illamque in spiritualibus et temporalibus regere et gubernare, ac omnia, quae ordinis episcopalis existunt, et ad metropolitam pertinent, facere et exequi libere et licite valeas, in omnibus et per omnia perinde ac si in eisdem literis de praemissis omnibus specialis et expressa mentio facta fuisset. Nosque per illas tecum ut charactere et munere consecrationis ac pallio hujusmodi uti, et in eisdem ordinibus ministrare, necnon praefatae ecclesiae Ebor. in archiepiscopum et pastorem praesse, illamque in spiritualibus et temporalibus regere et gubernare, ac omnia, quae episcopalis ordinis existunt, et ad metropolitanum pertinent, facere et exequi libere et licite posses, dicta auctoritate dispensatum fuisset, prout eadem auctoritate, tenore praesentium, de specialis dono gratiae dispensamus, sicque ab omnibus censi et per quoscunque indicari debere, ac si secus super hiis a quocunque, quavis auctoritate, scienter vel ignoranter contigerit attentari, irritum et inane decernimus; non obstantibus praemissis ac constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis, necnon ipsius ecclesiae Ebor. etiam juramento, confirmatione apostolica, vel quavis firmitate alia roboratis statutis et consuetudinibus, caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque. Dat. Romae apud S. Marcum sub annulo piscatoris 30. Octob. M.D.LV. pont. 1.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 23.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Litterae regiae de synodo celebranda. Reg. Reginaldi Poli, fol. 6. a.

PHILIPPE and Mary, by the grace of God king and queene of England, Fraunce, Naples, Jerusalem, and Ireland, defender of the faith, archdukes of Austrie, dukes of Millayne, Burgundy, and Brabant, counties of Haspurge, Flaunders and Tiroll, to all men, to whom thes presentes shall come, greatinge. Where we have graunted to the most reverend father in God and our most trustie and dearest cofin Reynald cardinal Pole, legate de latere to the popes hollynes, sent to us and to our realmes and dominions, our letters patents of our will and consent for the free using of his faculties, auctorities, and jurisdiction legatine in fourme hereunder following. That is to say: Philippe and Mary, by the grace of God king and queene of England, Fraunce, Naples, Jerusalem, and Ireland, defendours of the faith, princes of Spain and Sicill. archdukes of Austrie, dukes of Millaine, Burgundie, and Brabant, counties of Haspurge, Flanders, and Tiroll, to all men to whom thes presentes shall come greating.

Whereas it hath pleased our most holly father, pope July the third, to send unto us, etc. * Know ye that for so much the said most reverend father earnestly desiring, that his labour and travaile may take fruite to the honor of God, and the welth of our subjects, hath now callid a synod of the clergie of this our realme of England, to appere before him at our palace at Westm. We to avoid all daungers, dowte, and ambiguitie, which might arise in that case by reason of any lawes, statutes, customes, or prerogatives of us, or of this our realme of England; and for the more ample declaration of our said lettres patents, have grauntid, declared, and signified, and by thes presents do graunte, declare, and signifie, that our will, pleasure, and consent is; that as well the said most reverend father, cardinal Pole, legate de latere of the popes hollynes and the see apostolike, may freely without lett of us, or danger of any our said lawes, statutes, customes, or prerogatives, caule and celebrate the said synode, or any other synode hereafter, at his will and pleasure; and in the same synode ordeyne and decree any holsom canons for the good lief and ordour of the clergy of this our realme of England, or of any other of our realmes and dominions, and do any other thing for the better executing of their office and dуетie: as also the said clergy may appere, and be present at the said synode or synodes, and consent to fulfill and obeye all such canons, as shall be ordeynid in the same, or any of them, without lett or impediment of us, and without incurring any daunger, or penaltie, or forfeiture of any of our lawes or statutes; any acte, ordinaunce, or other matter contrary to the same notwithstanding. And herto we have given our full power and auctoritie by thes presents. In witness whereof we have caused thes our letters to be made patents. Witnes our selves at Westm. the second day of November, the second and third yeres of our reignes. Per ipsos regem et reginam, etc.

* Vide supra literas patentes regias de jurisdictione legatina exercenda A. M.D.LIV. ex reg. Pole, fol. 6. b.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 24.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Cardinalis Poli monitio ad synodum legatinam celebrand. apud Westmonast. secundo die Decembris. Ex reg. Bonner, fol. 394.

EDMUNDUS, permissione divina London. episcopus reverendo in Christo confratri nostro Thomae, eadem permissione Elien. episcopo salutem et fraternam in domino charitatem. Noverit fraternitas vestra reverenda nos literas commissionales et mandatarias illustrissimi et reverendissimi in Christo patris et domini, domini Reginaldi, miseratione divina sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae diaconi cardinalis, Poli nuncupati, sanctissimi domini nostri papae et sedis apostolicae ad serenissimos Philippum et Mariam Angliae reges, et universum Angliae regnum de latere legati, sigillo istius illustrissimi et reverendissimi patris in quadam capsula stanea et cera rubea cum filis ferricis rubei coloris comprehenso, sigillatas, nuper cum ea, qua decuit, reverentia, obedientia, et honore recepisse humiliter exequendas, sub eo, qui sequitur, verborum tenore: Reginaldus sanctae Mariae miseratione divina in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae diaconus cardinalis, Polus nuncupatus, sanctissimi domini nostri papae et sedis apostolicae ad serenissimos Philippum et Mariam, Angliae reges, et universum Angliae regnum de latere legatus, venerat nobis in Christo dilecto Edmundo episcopo London. salutem in domino sempiternam. Circumspectioni tuae, de qua in hiis, et aliis plurimum confidimus, ut episcopos et reliquos provinciae Cantuar. personas ecclesiasticas, quae synodis provincialibus de jure, vel legitima et hic hactenus approbata consuetudine interesse solent, quatenus ipsi intra competentem arbitrio tuo statuendum terminum, praesenti qua, Spiritus Sancti gratia inspirante, auctoritate apostolica nobis quomodolibet concessa et commissa, qua fungimur, cum eadem circumspectione tua et aliis tam ejusdem Cantuar. quam Eboracen. provinciar. episcopis et reliquis ecclesiasticis, quae jam hic adsunt, personis inchoavimus, synodo per se, vel si legitimo aliquo sunt impedimento detenti, per procuratorem idoneum mandatum legitimum habentem adesse, et usque ad ejus finem interesse debeant, per se vel alium etiam sub certis contra inobedientes arbitrio tuo comminandis poenis, nomine nostro moneas, et ad eandem synodum voces eadem auctoritate, tenore praesentium committimus et mandamus, contrariis non obstantibus quibuscunque. Datum in palatio apud sanctum Jacobum prope Westmonaster. anno a nativitate Domini M.D.LV. sexto idus Novembris, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, domini Pauli, divina providentia papae quarti, anno primo: sic signatas, Reginaldus cardinalis Polus legatus. M. Antonius Faitae secretarius Lampsonius. Quarum quidem literarum reverendissimarum vigore pariter et auctoritate nos Edmundus, episcopus antedictus, vos reverendum confratrem nostrum praedictum, et per vos decanum et capitulum et archidiaconos ecclesiae vestrae cathedralis, caeterosque praelatos quoscunque et clerum dioecesis vestrae praedictae, tam exemptos, quam non exemptos quoscunque, tenore praesentium, auctoritate praedicta peremptorie monemus; vobisque et illis sub poena suspensionis ab officio mandamus, quatenus vos, reverende confrater antedictus, decanusque, archidiaconi, et praelati personaliter, dictum vero capitulum et clerus per vos auctoritate et tenore praesentium monendi, per procuratorem idoneum sufficienter instructum, et clausulam rati habitationis in procuratorio suo habentem, si personaliter comparere non possint, aut voluerint coram dicto illustrissimo et reverendissimo in Christo patre et domino cardinali et legato praedicto synodum praedictam, Deo favente, prosecuturo in capella sive oratorio vulgo vocat. "The king's chappel," infra palatium regium apud Westmonaster. secundo die mensis Decembris prox. post datam praesentium venturi (si citius saltem venire non poteritis aut poterint) inter horas octavam et nonam antemeridiam ejusdem diei, cum continuatione et prorogatione dierum et horarum extunc sequent. et locorum, si et quatenus dicto illustrissimo et reverendissimo domino cardinali et legato antedicto ita expedire videatur, in synodo legatina praedicta cum aliis praelatis et personis tam Cantuarien. quam Eboracen. provinciar. compareatis et compareant, interitisque et intersint, super hiis, quae in dicta synodo tractabuntur, tractaturi, deliberaturi, consensuri, et conclusuri, caeteraque facturi, gesturi, et expedituri, quae dictae synodi natura et qualitas literarumque praedictarum tenor in et de se exigunt et requirunt; vobis insuper injungimus et mandamus sub poenis suspensionis praedictae, tam de receptione receptione et executione praesentium, ac de omni eo quod in hac parte feceritis una cum scheda, nomina omnium in hac parte monendorum sufficienter et plene continente, dictum illustrissimum et reverendissimum in Christo patrem cardinalem et legatum antedictum dictis die, hora, et loco debite certificet fraternitas vestra. Dat. in palatio nostro London. sub sigillo nostro decimo die mensis Novembris, anno Domini M.D.LV. et nostrae translationis anno decimo septimo.

Ita est EDMUNDUS, episcopus London.

In hac synodo die 13. Decembris, prolocutor protulit librum intitulum "Institutio hominis christiani," factum tempore Henrici VIII. examinandum, et divisus est in partes: et tunc seligebantur quidam e domo inferiori ad conficiendas homilias: et articuli symboli apostolorum committebantur quibusdam ex eadem domo.

Die Lunae 16. Decembris, fuit divisio novi testamenti, ut verteretur in Anglicum, et de septem sacramentis tractabatur.

Die Veneris 20. Decembris, prolocutor ex parte reverendissimi mandavit omnibus praesentibus, praesertim decanis, ne confirmarent aliquas elocationes factas a clericis de beneficiis suis; deinde protulit scriptum continens quaedam vocabula bene considerata in translatione novi testamenti, de quorum interpretatione tractatum fuit 8. die Januarii; quo die prolocutor mandavit nomine reverendissimi, ut consultarent de modo stabiliendi scholas in ecclesiis cathedralibus: et 20. die ejusdem mensis delecti sunt quidam ex ambabus provinciis, qui consultarent de quibusdam articulis, de modo alendi scholasticos in ecclesiis cathedralibus.

Primo, ut qui susciperent beneficia vacantia, solverent decimam patrem pro primo anno tantum.

Secundo, ut de bonis intestatorum aliqua portio per ordinarios assignetur, et ut administratores obligentur ad solvendum.

Tertio, ut contributio fiat de bonis in salutem animarum testatorum, non certis personis legatis.

Quarto, ut praedictae solutiones durarent ad triennium.

Sequenti die 21. Januarii, facta fuit sessio apud Lambhith, in superiori camera; ubi die Lunae seq. tractatum fuit de ministris sacerdotum, qui neque ministrarunt, neque ad celebrandum venire volunt, sed obstinate sese absentant. Die decimo Februarii (post nonnullas continuationes sessionum) prolocutor monuit omnes, ut convenirent in ecclesia parochiali de Lambhith ad audiend. constitutiones provinciales postridie legendas: [quas vide pag. praeced. 121.]

Hoc facto, adierunt sacellum infra manerium reverendissimi, ubi solennis missa de trinitate habita fuit, reverendissimo, episcopis, et clero ibidem praesentibus, cum copiosa multitudo plebis. Et finita missa, fiebant nonnullae preces, ministrante reverendissimo. Et postea mag. Watson, ex suggestu, Latine concionem habuit, in qua, inter alia, pronunciavit prorationem factam a reverendissimo usque in diem 10. Octob. proximo futuri.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER 24.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Bulla Pauli papae mandans depositionem et degradationem Thomae Cranmer, archiep. Cantuar. Ex Fox. vol. III. p. 997. ed. 1641.

PAULUS episcopus, servus servorum Dei, charissimo in Christo filio, Philippo regi, et charissimae in Christo filiae, Mariae reginae Angliae, Franciae, etc. illustribus, ac venerabilibus fratribus Londinensi et Eliensi episcopis, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Dudum per literas vestras, charissime fili, Philippe rex, et christiana filia, Marina regina, nobis significatur, quod iniquitatis filius Thomas Cranmerus, olim archiepiscopus Cantuariensis in haereses aliaque tam grandia et enormia crimina erat prolapsus, quod non solum regimine ecclesiae Cantuariensis se redigerat indignum, verum etiam majori poenae se fecerat obnoxium. Nos de praemissis certam notitiam non habentes, et tanta crimina, si vera essent, impunita, ecclesiamque ipsam sine pastore idoneo derelinquere nolentes, dilecto filio nostro Jacobo, tituli sanctae Mariae in via, tunc sancti Simeonis, Presbytero Cardinali, de Puteo nuncupato, vel de praemissis etiam summarie, simpliciter, et de plano sine strepitu et figura iudicii ac sine ulla terminorum substantialium vel telae iudiciariae observatione, de citato dicto Thoma se informaret, et quicquid invenisset, nobis referret, per specialem commissionem manu nostra signatam, dedimus in mandatis; sibi attribuentes potestatem in curia, et extra, citandi et inhibendi, ac literas compulsorias generales et speciales, ac remissorias, in forma consueta ad partes decernendi, et personas quascunque, si opus esse arbitraretur, ad exhibendum jura, sive ad perhibendum testimonium, etiam per censuras ecclesiasticas cogendi, et compellendi, seu, si pro celeriori expeditione sibi videretur, ad recipiendum informationem huiusmodi, aliquem probum virum in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutum in partibus istis commorantem, cum simili citandi, inhibendi, et cogendi facultate, deputandi ac subdelegandi: Ac sicut exhibita nobis nuper pro parte vestra, fili rex, et filia regina, petitio continebat, dictus Jacobus cardinalis commissionis huiusmodi vigore, citatione ad partes contra eundem Thomam, ad vestram, fili rex, et filia regina, instantiam decreta, venerabilem fratrem nostrum episcopum Gloucestrensem, una cum certis aliis ejus in ea parte collegis, et eorum quemlibet in solidum ad informationem super praemissis recipiendum subdelegavit, eisque vices suas in praemissis commisit. Et postquam dictus episcopus Gloucestrensis in causa huiusmodi ad cer-

tos

tos actus processerat, et ipsum Thomam super praemissis examinaverat, citatione praedicta, una cum ejus legitima executione in partibus facta, eoram eodem Jacobo cardinali judicialiter producta, et processu per audientiam literarum nostrarum contradictarum contra eundem Thomam citatum et non comparentem decreto, cum processu coram dicto episcopo Gloucestrensi contra ipsum Thomam in partibus habito, coram praefato Jacobo cardinali productus fuisset, et idem Thomas, ad id citatus, contra eum nihil diceret, imo comparere non curaret, praefato Thoma ad videndum per ipsum Jacobum cardinalem referri causam, et referri juramentum in supplementum plenae probationis, quantum opus esset, et ad concludendum et audiendum sententiam definitivam, ad certam tunc expressam diem et horam per audientiam literarum contradictarum hujusmodi citato, omnibus actis et actitatis causis hujusmodi diligenter visis et consideratis, causam ipsam ac omnia in praemissis actitata, nobis in consistorio nostro secreto fideliter retulit. Qua relatione nobis, ut praefertur, facta, et causa ipsa cum venerabilibus fratribus nostris sanctae Romanae ecclesiae cardinalibus, tunc in eodem consistorio existentibus, plenè discussa, et mature examinata, cum dilecti filii Petrus Rovilius, clericus Ippotegienensis, ac Antonius Massa de Gallezio, in dicta curia causarum, et vestrum, filii rex, et filia regina, procuratores, de quorum procuracionis mandato in actis causae hujusmodi legitimis constare dignoscitur documentis, et Alexander Paleotarius, fisci nostri procurator, pro ejus jure et interesse, et ipsius Thomae citati et non comparentis contumaciam in causa hujusmodi concludi et definitive pronunciari petiissent; nos pro tribunali in throno justitiae, more Romanorum pontificum, praedecessorum nostrorum sedentes, in causa hujusmodi conclusimus, et nostram desuper in scriptis, quam per secretarium nostrum legi et publicari mandavimus, et quam ipse de verbo ad verbum legit et publicavit, definitivam tulimus et promulgavimus sententiam, sub hujusmodi tenore: Nos Paulus, divina providentia papa quartus, salvatoris et Domini nostri Jesu Christi, cujus vices (licet immerito) in terris gerimus, nomine invocato, in throno justitiae pro tribunali sedentes, et solum Deum, qui justus est Dominus, et in justitia judicat orbem terrae, prae oculis habentes, per hanc nostram definitivam^a, quam de venerabilium fratrum nostrorum, sanctae Romanae ecclesiae cardinalium, consilio ferimus in his scriptis, in causa et causis, quae coram dilecto filio nostro Jacobo, tituli sanctae Mariae in via presbytero cardinali, de Puteo nuncupato, nobis in consistorio nostro secreto (ut moris est) referenda inter charissimos in Christo filios nostros Philippum regem, et Mariam reginam Angliae illustres, denunciatores ex una, et quendam Thomam Cranmerum, olim archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, reum et denunciatum, de, et super crimine haeresis, et aliis excessibus, censurisque et poenis propter crimen et excessus hujusmodi per dictum Tho-

mam reum denunciatum, ac confessum, et convictum incurfis, rebusque aliis in actis causae et causam hujusmodi latius deductis, ex altera parte, in prima instantia vigore specialis commissionis nostrae versae fuerunt et vertuntur, pronunciamus, sententiamus, decernimus, et declaramus dictum Thomam, tunc Cantuariensem archiepiscopum, animae suae salutis immemorem, contra regulas et dogmata ecclesiastica sanctorum patrum, necnon apostolicas Romanae ecclesiae et sacrorum conciliorum traditiones, christianaeque religionis haecenus in ecclesia consuetos ritus, praesertim de corporis et sanguinis Domini nostri Jesu Christi et sacri ordinis sacramentis aliter, quam sancta mater ecclesia praedicat et observat, sentiendo et docendo, et sanctae sedis apostolicae, et summi pontificis primatum et auctoritatem negando, necnon contra processus, qui singulis annis per praedecessores nostros in die coenae Domini, more solito, celebrati fuerunt, prout et nos, dante Domino, in futurum celebrare intendimus; in quibus processibus per Romanos pontifices praedecessores praefatos ad retinendam puritatem religionis christianae, et ipsius unitatem, quae in conjunctione membrorum ad unum caput, Christum videlicet, ejusque vicarium principaliter, et sanctam fidelium societatem ab offensione servanda consistit, inter alia Wiclefistae, et Lutherani, et omnes alii haeretici damnati et anathematizati fuerunt; etiam abjuratam olim per Berengarium, Andegavensem ecclesiae diaconum, haeresim innovando, et tam illam, quam etiam per damnatae memoriae Johannem Wiclef, et Martinum Lutherum haeresiarchas, alias proposita et damnata, falsa et haeretica dogmata credendo et sequendo; et desuper etiam libros scribendo, et imprimi faciendo, impressosque publicando, in illisque scripta, etiam in publicis disputationibus defendendo, ac etiam coram subdelegato nostro in responsionibus ad positiones sibi factas pertinaciter asseverando; ac in pertinacia et obstinatione hujusmodi permanendo, excommunicationis et anathematis, necnon privationis archiepiscopi, Cantuar. praedicti, aliorumque beneficiorum et officiorum ecclesiasticorum, si quae obtinet, et annualium pensionum, si quas super beneficiis ecclesiasticis assignatas habet, juriumque, actionum, et privilegiorum quorumcunque bonorum, quoque et seniorum ecclesiasticorum patrimonialium et secularium, necnon inhabitatis^b ad quascunque dignitates et beneficia^c, et alias contra tales personas tam de jure communi, quam per literas processuum praedictorum statutas poenas non solum tanquam credentem haeticis praedictis et illorum sequacem, sed etiam tanquam haesiarcham notorium damnabiliter incidisse et incurrisse: proptereaque ipsum Thomam excommunicatum, anathematizatum, et archiepiscopatu Cantuariensi, aliisque praelaturis, dignitatibus, officiis, et beneficiis, necnon pensionibus, juribus, privilegiis, bonis, et feudis praedictis privatum, et ad illa, ac alia quaecunque inhabilem, curiae seculari tradendum, bonaque

^a F. inferend. sententiam.

^b F. inhabilitatis.

^c F. inferend. exercenda.

eius per eos, ad quos spectat, confiscanda fore et esse, prout eum tradi, et ejus bona confiscari mandamus et concedimus; omnes quoque et quascunque personas Thomae praefato ratione dicti archiepiscopi Cantuariensis et aliarum praelaturarum, si quas obtinuit, et obtinet, olim subiectas, a quibuscunque fidelitatis et obedientiae iuramentis ei praestitis absolvendas, et liberandas fore et esse, prout absolvimus, et liberamus, ac iuramenta huiusmodi relaxamus; nec non super omnibus et singulis praedictis, eidem Thomae perpetuum silentium imponimus: suppletes omnes et singulos tam juris, quam facti defectus, si qui forsan in processu causae huiusmodi intervenerint, ita pronuntiavimus. Cum autem a dicta sententia, utpote in causa haeresis, et per nos de fratrum nostrorum consilio lata, appellari non potuerit; et dicti Petrus, et Antonius, et Alexander, procuratores, citato per audientiam literarum huiusmodi coram nobis praefato Thoma ad videndum decerni literas executoriales ad aliquem praelatum, qui actualem ipsius Thomae degradationem faciat, eumque curiae seculari tradat, in partibus deputari in contumaciam dicti Thomae, ut praefertur, citati, et non comparentis literas executoriales decerni, ac aliquos praelatos, qui actualem ipsius Thomae degradationem faciant, et eum curiae seculari tradant, in istis partibus deputari per nos, multa cum instantia postulaverint; nos huiusmodi iustis postulationibus annuentes, literas executoriales praedictas apostolica auctoritate decrevimus, ac vos, fratres episcopi, qui actualem ipsius Thomae degradationem faciatis, et ea facta, eum curiae seculari, praemissa tamen in ipso actu traditionis incessione ad iudicem secularem pro huiusmodi tradendis per ecclesiam solita fieri, tradatis, auctoritate et tenore praedictis deputavimus. Quapropter vos omnes, et singulos supradictos, quibus praesentes nostrae literae diriguntur, rogamus, et vobis, fratres episcopi, per apostolica scripta mandamus, et in virtute sanctae obedientiae, et sub suspensionis a divinis, et interdicti ingressus ecclesiae sententiis districtius injungimus, ut ad ulteriorem executionem sententiae nostrae praedictae procedatis. Et vos, fili rex, et filia regina, bona ipsius confiscetis, seu per eos, ad quos spectat, confiscari, et ipsum Thomam, postquam curiae seculari juxta tenorem praesentium traditus fuerit, id, quod juris fuerit, fieri mandetis et faciatis. Vos vero, fratres episcopi, vel alter vestrum, ita quod alter pro altero se non excuset, sed haec omnia in solidum sub sententiis praedictis exequamini, nec contra ea excusationem aut exceptionem apponere valeatis, auctoritate nostra, ceremoniis in similibus servari solitis plene observatis, actualem ipsius Thomae degradationem faciatis, eumque postea curiae seculari, modo ut praefertur, tradatis, contradictores per censuram ecclesiasticam, appellatione postposita, compescendo; non obstantibus constitutionibus, et ordinationibus apostolicis contrariis quibuscunque, aut si aliquibus communiter, vel divisim ab eadem sit sede indultum, quod interdicti, suspendi, vel excommunicari non possint per literas apostolicas, non facientes plenam et expressam, ac de verbo ad verbum de indulta huiusmodi mentionem. Datum Romae apud sanctum Petrum anno incarnationis Domini, millesimo quingentesimo quinquagesimo quinto, decimo nono calendis Januarii, pontificatus nostri anno primo.

J. Bareng.

Forma degradandi archiepiscopum.

Inprimis, In publico extra ecclesiam paretur aliquis eminens locus, congruens spatii pro degradatione fienda.

Item, Supra eundem ordinetur una credentia simplici tobalea cooperta.

Item, Supra eandem credentiam ponantur ampulla vini, et ampulla aquae.

Item, Liber evangeliorum, liber epistolarum, liber exorcismorum, liber lectionum, antiphonarium.

Item, Bacile cum baculo, et mantili.

Item, Unum candelabrum cum candela extincta.

Item, Claves, forfices, cultellus, seu petia vitri.

Item, Calix cum patina.

Paramenta pro degradando.

Superpellicium, sandalia cum caligis, amictus, alba, cingulum, manipulus, tunicella, stola Dalmatica, chirothecae, alia stola planeta, mitra, annulus pontificalis, pallium, baculus pastoralis, et aliqua vestis habitus secularis.

Pro degradatore, et officialibus.

Item, Paretur faldistorium pro pontifice degradatore.

Item, Sedilia pro officialibus.

Item, Adsint ministri pontificis.

Item, Iudex secularis, cui degradatus committatur.

Item, Notarius, qui processum degradationis legat, si opus erit, vel episcopo degradatori placuerit.

Item, Barbitonsor.

Item, Hora convenienti degradandus habitu suo quotidiano indutus super dictum locum adducatur, et a clericis induatur omnibus paramentis sui ordinis.

Item, Eo sic induto, pontifex degradator indutus amictu, alba, cingulo, stola, et pluviali rubeis, ac mitra simplici, baculum pastorem in sinistra manu tenens, ascendet ad locum praedictum, et ibidem sedebit in faldistorio, in conveniente loco sibi parato versus ad populum, astante sibi iudice seculari.

Tunc degradandus omnibus sui ordinis vestibus sacris indutus, et singulis ornamentis ornatus, habens in manibus ornamentum ad ordinem suum spectans, ac si deberet in suo officio ministrare, adducitur ante pontificem, coram quo genu flectit.

Tunc pontifex degradator (sedens ut supra) populo in vulgari notificat degradationis huiusmodi causam.

Deinde contra degradandum sententiam fert in haec verba, si huiusmodi sententia lata non sit:

In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti, Amen.

Amen. Quia nos N. Dei et apostolicae sedis gratia episcopus, &c.

Degradatio ab ordine archiepiscopali.

Primo, Pallium degradator aufert a { Praerogativa pontificalis dignitatis, quae in pallio designatur, te eximimus, quia male usus es ea.

Secundo, Mitram aufert a degradando, { Mitra, pontificalis dignitatis videlicet ornatus, quia ea male praesidendo foedasti, tuum caput denudamus.

Tertio, Librum evangeliorum a degradandi manibus aufert, dicendo: { Redde evangelium, quia praedicandi officio, quo sperto, Dei gratia te indignum fecisti, te iuste privamus.

Quarto, Annulum aufert de digito degradandi, dicendo: { Annulum, fidei scilicet signaculum, tibi digne subtrahimus, quia ipsam sponsam Dei ecclesiam temere violasti.

Quinto, Baculo pastoralis per unum de ministris in manus degradandi tradito, illum aufert degradator, dicendo: { Auferimus a te baculum pastorem, ut perinde correctionis officium, quod turbasti, non valeas exercere.

Sexto, Chirothecis per ministros extractis, degradator abradit degradando pollices, et manus leniter cum cultello, aut vitro, dicendo: { Sic spiritalis benedictionis, delibutionis mysticae gratia, quantum in nobis est, te privamus, ut sanctificandi et benedicendi perdas officium et effectum.

Septimo, Caput degradandi cum eodem, aut vitro abradit degradator leniter, dicendo: { Consecrationem, et benedictionem, ac unctionem tibi traditam, radendo delemus; et te ab ordine pontificali, quo inhabilis es redditus, abdicamus.

Tum degradando per ministros extrahuntur sandalia.

Degradatio ab ordine presbyteratus.

Calice cum vino, et aqua, et patina, et hostia per ministros in manus degradandi traditis, consecrator aufert potestatem celebrandi, dicens: { Amovemus a te, quoniam potius amotam esse ostendimus, potestatem offerendi Deo sacrificium, missamque celebrandam pro vivis, quam pro defunctis.

Pollices, et manus et benedicendi, quam in abraduntur sub hac unctione manuum et pollicum recepisti, tibi tollimus hac rasura.

Casulam, five planetam per posteriorem partem capiti accipit degradator, et degradandum exuit, dicens: { Veste sacerdotali charitatem signante, te merito expoliamus, quia ipsam et omnem innocentiam exuisti.

Quarto, Stolam aufert, dicens: { Signum Domini, per hanc stolam signatum, turpiter abiecasti; ideoque ipsam a te amovemus, quem inhabilem reddimus ad omne sacerdotale officium exercendum.

Degradatio ab ordine diaconatus.

1. Libro evangeliorum degradando in manus per ministros tradito, degradator aufert librum, dicens: { Amovemus a te potestatem legendi evangelium in ecclesia Dei, quia id non competit nisi dignis.

2. Dalmaticum aufert, dicens: { Levitico ordine te privamus, quia tuum in eo ministerium non implevisti.

3. Stolam auferens de humeris degradandi, degradator projicit eam post tergum, dicens: { Stolum candidam, quam acceperas immaculatam in conspectu Domini perferendam, quia non sic, cognito mysterio, exemplum conversationis tuae fidelibus praebueris, ut plebs dicata Christi nomine possit exinde imitationem acquirere, iuste a te amovemus, omne diaconatus officium tibi prohibentes.

Degradatio ab ordine subdiaconatus.

1. Epistolarum libro degradando in manus degradandi tradito, degradator eundem aufert, dicens: { Auferimus tibi potestatem legendi epistolam in ecclesia Dei, quia hoc ministerio indignus es redditus.

2. Tunicella aufertur, dicendo: { Tunica subdiaconali te exuimus, cujus cor et corpus timor Domini castus, et sanctus in aeternum permanens, non constrinxit.

3. Manipulum aufertur, dicendo: { Depone manipulum, quia per fructus bonorum operum, quos designat, non expugnasti spiritalis infidias inimici.

4. Amictus aufertur sub hac forma: { Quia vocem tuam non castigasti, ideo amictum a te auferimus.

5. Urceolis cum vino, et aqua, et bacili, cum manutergio degradando traditis, ea aufert archidiaconus. { Et nihil dicit.

6. Calicem

6. Calicem vacuum { Potestatem introeundi sacrarium, tangendi pal-cum patina tradi- las, vasa, et alia indu-tum in manus de- menta sacra, omneque gradandi, aufert de- subdiaconatus ministeri-gradator, dicendo: um exercendi, a te amo-vemus.

Cingulum album et amictum exuunt ministri.

Degradatio ab ordine accolytatus.

Urceolum vacuum in { Immunde, vinum, et manus degradando aquam ad eucharistiam traditum, aufert de- de caetero non ministres.
gradator, dicens:

Candelabrum, cum { Dimitte perferendi vi-cereis extincto, de- sibile lumen officium, qui gradator accipit de- praebere spirituale morimanibus degradan- bus neglexisti, ac univerdi, dicens: sum accolytatus officium hic depone.

Degradatio ab ordine exorcistatus.

Librum exorcismo- { Privamus te potestate rum aufert ponti- imponendi manum super fex degradator, di- energumenos, et daemo-cens: nes de obsessis corporibus expellendi, omni tibi exorcistatus officio interdicto.

Degradatio ab ordine lectoratus.

Librum lectionum { In ecclesia Dei non le-gas ulterius, neque can-tes; neque panes, aut fruaufert pontifex de- ctus novos ullatenus benegradator, dicens: dicas, quia tuum offici-um non implevisti fide-liter et devote.

Degradatio ab ordine hostiariatus.

Claves ecclesiae aufert { Quia in clavibus errasti, pontifex degrada- claves dimitte; et quia tor, dicens: hostia cordis tui male daemonibus obscurasti, amo-vemus a te officium hostiarii, ut non percutias cymbalum, non aperias
ecclesiam, non sacrarium, non librum amplius praedicanti.

Degradatio a prima tonsura.

Auctoritate Dei omnipotentis Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti, ac qua fungimur in hac parte, tibi auferimus habitum clericalem, et nudamus te religionis ornatu; atque deponimus, degradamus, spoliamus, et exuimus omni ordine, beneficio, et privilegio clericali, et vel-ut clericali professione indignum redigimus te in servitutem, et ignomini-am habitus secularis, ac status.

Eum forficibus tondere incipiat pontifex degradator, et per barbitonforem ibidem praesentem totaliter tonderi faciat ca-
put degradandi, dicens: Te velut ingratum fi-lium a sorte Domini, ad quam vocatus fueras, ab-jicimus; et coronam tui capitis, regale quidem signum sacerdotii, de tuo capite amovemus propter tui regiminis pravitatem.

Deinde, si velit pontifex, dicat: Quod ore cantasti, corde non credidisti, nec o-pere implevisti, ideo cantandi officium in ecclesia
Dei a te amovemus.

Tum ministri pontificis exuunt degradatum veste, et habitu clericali, et ipsum induunt ha-bitu seculari.

Si degradatus tradi debeat curiae seculari,

Pontifex degradator { Denunciamus, ut hunc degradatum am- exutum omni ordine, ac plius non tangit, privilegio clericali, curia sed in hunc mo- secularis in suum forum dum pronunciat, recipiat.
dicens:

Rogat judicem secu- { Domine iudex, rogalarem, ut citra mus vos cum omni affe-mortis periculum, ctu, quo possumus, ut a-etc. more Dei, pietatis et mi-sericordiae intuitu, et nostrorum interventu precaminum, miserrimo huic nullum mortis, vel mu-tilationis periculum inferas.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 24.

Anno Christ.
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

*Commissio domini Reginaldi Poli, legati de latere, decano, et capitulo Cantuar.
facta ad dispensandum cum clericis, et absolvend. eos, ac laicos, suo nomine.*

Ex Anth. Harmer specimen of errors, p. 182. seqq. Et ex Strype's life of Cranmer, app. p. 187.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina sanctae Mariae de Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae diaconus cardinalis, Polus nuncupatus, sanctissimi D. N. papae et sedis apostolicae ad ferenissimos Philippum et Mariam, Angliae reges, et universum Angliae regnum de latere legatus, venerabilibus, ac nobis in Christo dilectis, decano et capitulo ecclesiae metropoliticae

ticae Christi Cant. ad quos omnis et omnimoda jurisdictio spiritualis et ecclesiastica, quae ad archiepiscopum Cant. sede plena, pertinuit, ipsa sede jam vacante, notorie dignoscitur pertinere, seu eorum in spiritualibus vicario generali, salutem in Domino sempiternam. Cum sanctissimus in Christo pater dominus noster, dominus Julius, providentia divina papa tertius, inter alias facultates, pro hujus regni, omniumque personarum in ea existentium, sanctae ecclesiae reconciliatione facienda, necessarias nobis in hac nostra legatione concessas, hanc specialiter indulserit, ut quosunque in haeresium et schismatis errores lapsos, ab eis, et a quibuscunque censuris et poenis propterea incurfis, absolvere, et cum eis super irregularitate praemissorum occasione contracta, dispensare, et alia multa ad haec necessaria seu quomodolibet opportuna facere: et hoc idem munus catholicis locorum ordinariis, et aliis personis Deum timentibus, fide insignibus, et literarum scientia praeditis demandare possimus, prout in ejus literis tam sub plumbo, quam in forma brevis expeditis, plenius continetur.

Cumque Dei benignitate, et serenissimorum regum pietate regnum hoc universaliter, et omnes domini spirituales et temporales, aliaeque personae communitatum in eo, quod proxime celebratum est, parlamento congregatae, singulariter primum, et deinde universum corpus cleri provinciae Cantuariensis, et omnes fere personae singulares dictum corpus repraesentantes, coram nobis existentes, aliaeque pleraeque fuerint sanctae ecclesiae catholicae per nos ipsos reconciliatae, speremusque fore, ut omnes aliae, quae reconciliatae adhuc non sunt, reconciliari debeant; difficileque et potius impossibile sit, ut tam numerosa multitudo per manus nostras reconcilietur; ideoque vices nostras in hoc locorum ordinariis, et aliis personis ut supra qualificatis, delegandas duximus.

Circumspectioni igitur vestrae, de cujus probitate et charitatis zelo plenam in Domino fiduciam obtinemus, auctoritate apostolica nobis per literas ejusdem sanctissimi D. N. papae, et per nos vobis nunc impensa, omnes et singulas utriusque sexus, tam laicas, quam ecclesiasticas singulares, et quorumvis ordinum regulares vestrae civitatis et dioeceseos personas, seculares in quibusvis etiam sacris ordinibus constitutas, cujuscunque etiam status et qualitatis existant, etiam si capitulum, collegium, universitas, seu communitas fuerit, quarumvis haeresium et novarum sectarum professores, aut in eis culpabiles, vel suspectas, ac credentes, receptatores, et fautores ipsorum, suos errores agnoscentes, ac de illis dolentes, et ad orthodoxam fidem recipi humiliter postulantes, cognita in ipsis vera et non ficta aut simulata poenitentia, ab omnibus et singulis haeresium, et schismatis, et ab orthodoxa fide apostasiarum, et blasphemiarum, et aliorum quorumcunque similium errorum etiam sub generali sermone non venientium, peccatis, criminibus, excessibus, et delictis (de quibus tamen inquisiti, vel accusati, seu condemnati non fuerint) et quibusvis excommunicationis, suspensionis, et interdictorum, et aliis ecclesiasticis et temporalibus sententiis, censuris, et poenis in eas praemissorum et infrascriptorum occasione, ac jure vel ab homine latis, vel promulgatis, etiam si eis pluribus annis inforduerint, et earum absolutio dictae sedi, etiam per literas in die coenae Domini legi consuetas, reservata existat, in utroque, conscientiae scilicet et contentioso foro; eos vero, qui jam inquisiti, vel accusati, aut condemnati fuerint, vel, ut praefertur, ad cor revertentes, in foro conscientiae tantum, plenarie absolventes et liberantes: necnon cum eis super irregularitate per eos occasione praemissorum contracta, etiam quia sic ligati *, missas, et alia divina officia etiam contra ritus et ceremonias hactenus probatas et usitatas celebraverint, aut illis alias se immiscuerint, contracta; quodque, irregularitate et aliis praemissis non obstantibus, in suis ordinibus, etiam si ab haereticis et schismaticis episcopis, etiam minus rite, dummodo in eorum collatione ecclesiastica forma et intentio sit servata, per eos susceptis, et in eorum susceptione etiam juramentum contra papatum Romanum praestiterint, etiam in altaris ministerio ministrare, ac quaecunque, quotcunque, ac qualiacunque etiam curata, invicem tamen se compatiencia beneficia secularia, vel regularia (dignitatibus in collegiatis ecclesiis principalibus, et in cathedralibus etiam metropolitanis post pontificalem majoribus exceptis) etiam schismaticis episcopis, seu aliis collatoribus, etiam laicalis potestatis praetextu habita, auctoritate apostolica retinere, dummodo alteri jus quaesitum non sit, et non promoti ad omnes, etiam sacros et presbyteratus ordines, a suis ordinariis, si digni et idonei reperti fuerint; rite et legitime promoveri, ac beneficia ecclesiastica, etiam curata, si eis alias canonice conferantur, recipere et retinere valeant, qualitate temporis, ministrorum defectu, et ecclesiae necessitatibus, utilitatibusque ita poscentibus, dispensandi et indulgendi, ac omnem inhabilitatis et infamiae maculam, sive notam ex praemissis quomodolibet insurgentem, penitus et omnino abolendi, necnon in pristinum, et eum, in quo ante praemissa quomodolibet erant, statum; ita ut et omnibus et singulis gratiis, privilegiis, favoribus, et indultis, quibus caeteri Christi fideles gaudent, et gaudere quomodolibet possunt, uti et gaudere valeant, in omnibus et per omnia, perinde ac si a fide catholica nunquam in aliquo defecissent, restituendi, reponendi, et redintegrandi, ac eis (dummodo corde contriti) sua errata et excessus circumspectioni vestrae, seu alicui alteri per eos eligendo catholico confessori sacramentaliter confiteantur, et poenitentiam salutarem eis pro praemissis injungendam, omnino adimpleant, omnem publicam confessionem, abjuramentum, reconciliationem, et poenitentiam jure debitas, arbitrio vestro moderandi, et in totum remittendi: necnon quosunque regulares et religiosos extra eorum regularia loca absque sedis apostolicae licentia vagantes, ab apostasiae reatu, aliisque censuris et poenis ecclesiasticis per eos propterea, etiam juxta suorum ordinum instituta, incurfis, injuncta eis pro modo culpa poenitentia salutari, pariter absolvendi; et super quacunque irregularitate propterea per eos contracta, aut cum eis, ut alicui curato beneficio de illius obtinentis consensu, in habitu clerici secularis, ha-

* Anth. Harmer legit legati.

bitum suum regularem sub honesta toga presbyteri secularis deferendo deservire, et extra eadem loca regularia remanere ad beneplacitum nostrum libere et licite possint, eadem auctoritate apostolica, ob defectum ministrorum, et alias praedictas causas, dispensandi; ac quoscunque, qui in sacris ordinibus constituti, matrimonia etiam cum viduis et corruptis mulieribus de facto contraxerint, postquam mulieres sic copulatas rejecerint, illisque abjuraverint, ab huiusmodi excessibus et excommunicationis sententia, imposita eis pro modo culpae poenitentia salutaris in forma ecclesiae consueta, absolventi, ac cum eis, postquam poenitentiam peregerint, et continenter et laudabiliter vivere cogniti fuerint; super bigamia propterea per eos contracta, ita ut, ea non obstante, in quibusvis susceptis et suscipiendis ordinibus, etiam in altaris ministerio ministrare, ac alicui beneficio ecclesiastico, de illius obtinentis consensu, deservire, extra tamen dioecesim, in qua fuerint copulati, eisdem de causis dispensandi: necnon parochialium ecclesiarum tuae dioecesis rectores sive curatos, de quorum fide, probitate, circumspectione, et charitatis zelo plena fiducia concipi potest, ad quarumcunque utriusque sexus suae parochiae, personarum laicarum tantum,

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 24.

Instructiones praecedenti commissioni a cardinale Polo annexae. Ibidem.

SINGULI domini episcopi, necnon officiales ecclesiarum, quae nunc vacant, pro executione eorum, quae a reverendissimo domino legato sunt eis demandata, ordinem, qui infra scriptus est, poterunt observare.

Primum, vocatum ad se totum singularum civitatum, quibus singuli praesunt, clerum, de hiis, quae sequuntur, instruere procurabunt.

De paterno amore et charitate, quam sanctissimus D. N. Julius, papa tertius, erga nationem Anglicam declaravit, qui, ut primum cognovit serenissimam Mariam reginam fuisse declaratam, reverendissimum dominum Reginaldum cardinalem Polum de suo latere, ad has partes legatum misit, ut regnum hoc, tot jam annos ab ecclesia catholica separatum, ad ejus unionem reducere, et in errores lapsos consolari, atque in Dei gratiam restituere studeret.

De ejusdem domini legati adventu; quanta laetitia atque honore is acceptus fuit tum a serenissimis regibus, tum ab aliis omnibus.

De hiis, quae in proximo parlamento acta et conclusa sunt; scilicet de omnibus dominis, de parlamento et universo regno a schismate et censuris incurtis absolutis, et ecclesiae catholicae reconciliatis; de omnibus legibus, quae contra auctoritatem sedis apostolicae et Romani pontificis fuerunt per Henricum VIII. et Edwardum VI. latae et promulgatae, revocatis et abolitis. De restituta sanctissimo D. N. papae et ecclesiae Romanae eadem obedientia, quae ante hoc perniciosissimum schisma praestabatur. De auctoritate episcopis restituta; et maxime ut possint contra haereticos et schismaticos procedere, et absolutionem, et ecclesiae catholicae reconciliationem (ut praefertur) auctoritate apostolica faciendam. Et si qui ex curatis praedictis ad id idonei non fuerint, in eorum defectum alias idoneas et sufficientes personas, quae eorum vices suppleant, nominandi et deputandi: quos sic per vos nominatos et deputatos, in locum nostrum in praemissis absolutionibus et reconciliationibus substituimus, eisque vices nostras subdelegamus, plenam et liberam, auctoritate apostolica nobis (ut praemittitur) concessa, tenore praesentium concedimus facultatem; vosque in praemissis omnibus in nostrum locum substituimus; praemissis, ac regula de inordinatis edita, et quibusvis aliis constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis, et omnibus illis, quae in literis praedictis sanctitas sua voluit non obstare, contrariis non obstantibus quibuscunque; praesentibus in praeteritis casibus locum habentibus, et ad beneplacitum nostrum duraturis. Datum Lambethi prope Londinum, Wintoniensis dioecesis, anno a nativitate Domini M.D.LV. idibus Februarii, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, domini Julii, divina providentia papae tertii, anno quinto.

Reg. Car. Polus, Leg.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

eos juxta canonicas sanctiones coercere et punire.

His ita expositis, veniant ad facultates sibi ab eodem reverendissimo domino legato concessas, quae recitentur. Et hic omnes, qui in schisma et alios errores lapsi sunt, invitentur ad absolutionem, et reconciliationem humiliter ex toto corde petendam, necnon et dispensationes tam super ordinibus, quam super beneficiis necessarias et opportunas postulandas. Deinde praefigatur dies, intra quem dicti de clero humiles et poenitentes compareant ad petendam suppliciter absolutionem, reconciliationem, et dispensationes praedictas.

Iidem vero domini episcopi, postquam illi omnibus erroribus suis renunciaverint, et promiserint sacramentaliter ipsis aut alteri sacerdoti catholico, confessuros esse errores suos, et poenitentiam sibi injungendam adimpleturos, eos absolvent, et ecclesiae reconciliabunt, et cum ipsis juxta formam facultatum, pro poenitentium necessitatibus, prout sibi visum fuerit, dispensabunt; adhibendo semper convenientem distinctionem inter eos, qui solum in schisma et haereses inciderunt, et eos, qui etiam eas publice docuerunt, et alios ad peccandum induxerunt.

Eodem die constituatur dies festus et solennis, in quo, adstante in ecclesia populi multitudine, domini episcopi, et omnes curati in ecclesiis suis omnia eadem, quae clero jam exposita fuerunt, populo quoque insinuabunt, et omnes invitabunt paterne et cum omni affectu, ut, agnitis erroribus suis, ad ecclesiae catholicae tholicae gremium revertantur, promittendo fore, ut omnibus praeterita crimina omnia condonentur et remittantur, modo eos ex animo illorum poeniteat, et illis renuncient. Praefigatur autem terminus, utputa tota Paschatis octava, intra quem terminum omnes ecclesiae reconcilientur; alioquin eo lapso, contra ipsos, et eos etiam, qui post reconciliationem ad vomitum reversi fuerint, severissime procedetur. Dicatur de facultate concessa a reverendissimo domino legato episcopis et aliis, ut absolvere possint omnes, quicunque ad cor reversi fuerint.

Idem domini episcopi et officiales nominabunt et deputabunt ecclesiarum parochialium rectores, seu alias personas idoneas, quae laicos ab haeresi et schismate et quibuscunque censuris absolvant juxta facultatum formam et tenorem; data per episcopos formula, qua in absolutione et reconciliatione uti debeant.

Eadem poterunt cum clero totius dioeceseos observari, prout commodius visum fuerit. Domini episcopi, et officiales praefati, necnon omnes curati, seu alii ad id deputati, habeant librum, in quo nomen et cognomen, et parochia omnium reconciliatorum inscribantur, ut postea sciatur, qui fuerint reconciliati, et qui non.

Idem domini episcopi et officiales, octava Paschatis elapsa, poterunt facere visitationem civitatis primo, dein dioeceseos. Et si qui non fuerint reconciliati, poterunt ad se eos vocare, et cognoscere causas, propter quas ab erroribus suis nolunt recedere. Et si in eis obstinate perseveraverint, tum contra eos procedent.

In hac facienda visitatione attendant diligenter, quae in hoc brevi compendio sunt notata, et maxime faciant, ut omnes ecclesiasticae personae ostendant titulos suorum ordinum et beneficiorum; ut si in iis aliquis alius defectus notetur, illis provideant, et omni studio procurent, ut errores, quibus dioeceses eorum sunt infectae, extirpentur, et veritas fidei tum in concionibus, tum in confessionibus doceatur, deputando personas idoneas ad conciones faciendas, et confessiones audiendas. Id etiam curent, ut sacrorum canonum instituta in omnibus observentur, et nomen divi Thomae martyris, necnon sanctissimi domini nostri papae ex libris dispunctum, in illis restituatur, et pro eo secundum morem ecclesiae, ut ante schisma fiebat, oretur.

In publicationibus hujusmodi erit ante omnia facienda commemoratio miseriarum et infelicitatis praeteritorum temporum, et magnae gratiae, quam nunc Deus pro sua misericordia populo huic exhibuit; hortando omnes ad haec grato animo agnoscenda, et infinitas gratias divinae ipsius bonitati assidue agendas.

Hortandi sunt etiam omnes, ut devote orent Deum pro salute et felici statu horum serenissimorum, et de hoc regno optime meritum, ac merentium regum, et specialiter pro felici partu serenissimae et piissimae reginae.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 24.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Facultas curatis, et aliis ecclesiasticis personis per ipsos idoneis cognitis et nominatis, per dominum legatum concessa est infrascripta. Ex Harmer l. c. p. 191.

UT ipsi omnes et singulas utriusque sexus laicas suae parochiae personas, quarumvis haesum, aut novarum sectarum professores, aut in eis culpabiles vel suspectas, ac credentes, receptatores, et fautores eorum suos errores agnoscetes, et de illis dolentes, et ad orthodoxam fidem recipi humiliter postulantes, cognita in eis vera et non ficta aut simulata poenitentia, ab omnibus et singulis haesum, schismatis, et ab orthodoxa fide apostatarum et blasphemiarum, et aliorum quorumcunque errorum etiam sub generali sermone non venientium, peccatis, criminibus, excessibus, et delictis, de quibus inquisiti, vel accusati, seu condemnati non fuerint; et cum his etiam in foro conscientiae tantum, et quibusvis excommunicationis, suspensionis, et interdictorum, et aliis ecclesiasticis et temporalibus censuris, sententiis, et poenis in eos praemissorum occasione a jure vel ab homine latis vel promulgatis, etiam si in eis pluribus annis inforuissent, et earum absolutio apostolica sedi et in die coenae Domini per literas legi consuetas, reservata existat, injuncta eis pro modo culpae poenitentia salutari, auctoritate apostolica in forma ecclesiae consueta absolvere, et illos unitati ecclesiae catholicae restituere; ac omnes solennitates, quae in hujusmodi absolutionibus de jure vel consuetudine solent adhiberi, ratione multitudinis, arbitrio suo in partem vel in totum remittere, secumque super quacunque irregularitate praemissorum occasione contracta, dispensare possint et valeant; praemissis, ac regula de inforuissent edita, et quibusvis aliis constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis etiam in die coenae Domini legi consuetis, caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque non obstantibus.

Formula absolutionis.

DOMINUS noster Jesus Christus, summus pontifex, per suam, piissimam misericordiam et clementiam vos cruore suo pretiosissimo redemptos, de ineffabili sua pietate ab omnibus peccatis per vos commissis misericorditer absolvat. Et ego auctoritate apostolorum divi Petri et Pauli, ac sedis apostolicae mihi commissa, vos et vestrum quemlibet ab omnibus peccatis, criminibus, ex-cessibus, et delictis, atque ab omni haeresi, schismate, apostasia, irregularitate, et quocunque errore vestris; necnon a juramento contra papatum Romanum per vos praestito; et a quibuscunque excommunicationis, suspensionis, et interdictorum, et aliis sententiis, censuris, et poenis ecclesiasticis a jure vel ab homine latis, per vos ratione praemissorum incursis,

sis, et contractis, absolvo; ac communioni fidelium, et S. sanctis Dei ecclesiae sacramentis restituo, reduco, et redintegro. In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 1.

Archiepisc. Cant.
THO. CRANMER. 24.

Anno Christi
1555.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

King Philip and queen Mary's writ for burning of Cranmer. Ex Rot. pat. 2. et 3. Phil. et Mar. 2. part. apud Burnet hist. reform. vol. II. append. p. 300.

Philip and Mary, etc.

TO our right trusty Nicholas, archbishop of York, lord chancellor of England, greeting. We will and command you, that immediately upon the sight hereof, and by warrant of the same, ye do cause to be made a writ for the execution of Thomas Cranmer, late archbishop of Canterbury; and the same so made, to seal with our great seal of England, being in your custody, according to the tenor and form hereafter following.

Philippus et Maria, Dei gratia, etc. majori et ballivis civitatis Oxon. salutem. Cum sanctissimus pater noster Paulus, papa ejusdem nominis quartus, per sententiam diffinitivam, juris ordine in ea parte requisito in omnibus observato, et juxta canonicas sanctiones judicialiter et diffinitive Thomam Cranmer, nuper Cantuariensem archiepiscopum, fore haeresiarcham, anathematizatum, et haereticum manifestum, propter suos varios nefandos errores, manifestas et damnales haereses, et detestandas et pessimas opiniones fidei nostrae catholicae, et universalis ecclesiae determinationi obviantes et repugnantes, et praedict. Thomam Cranmer multis modis contract. commiss. dict. affirmat. perpetrat. et publice et pertinaciter tent. et defens. judicavit, declaravit, pronunciavit, et condemnavit; et eadem causa idem sanctissimus pater noster, papa Paulus quartus, judicialiter et diffinitive, more solito, praedictum Thomam Cranmer a praedicto archiepiscopatu, aliis praelaturis, dignitatibus, officiis, et beneficiis deprivavit, et abjudicavit, prout cunctam inde habemus notitiam: cumque etiam reverendus in Christo pater Edmundus, Londini episcopus, et Thomas, Eliensis episcopus, auctoritate ejusdem sanctissimi nostri patris papae praedictum Thomam Cranmer ab omni ordine, gradu, officio, et dignitate ecclesiastica, tanquam haeresiarcham et haereticum manifestum, realiter degradaverunt, vigore cujus idem Thomas Cranmer in praesenti haereticus et haeresiarcha juste, legitime, et canonice judicatus, condemnatus, et degradatus existit; et cum etiam mater ecclesia non habet, quod ulterius in hac parte contra tam putridum et detestabile membrum et haeresiarcham faciat, aut facere debeat; iidem reverendi patres eundem Thomam Cranmer damnatum haereticum, et haeresiarcham, brachiis et potestati nostris secularibus tradiderunt, commiserunt, et reliquerunt, prout per literas patentes eorundem reverendorum patrum superinde confect. nobis in cancellaria nostra certificatum est: nos igitur, ut zelatores justitiae, fidei catholicae defensores, volentesque ecclesiam sanctam, ac jura et libertates ejusdem, ac fidem catholicam manutenere et defendere, hujusmodi haereses et errores ubique, quantum in nobis est, eradicare et extirpare, et praedictum Thomam haeresiarcham ac convictum, damnatum et degradatum, animadversione condigna punire; attendentesque hujusmodi haereticum et haeresiarchum in forma praedicta convictum, damnatum, et degradatum, juxta leges et consuetudines regni nostri Angliae in hac parte consuetas, ignis incendio comburi debere; vobis praecipimus, quod dictum Thomam Cranmer in custodia vestra existent. in loco publico et aperto, infra libertatem dictae civitatis nostrae Oxon. ex causa praedicta, coram populo igni committi, ac ipsum Thomam Cranmer in eodem igne realiter comburi facietis, in hujusmodi criminis detestationem, aliorum christianorum exemplum manifestum: et hoc sub poena et periculo incumbente, ac prout nobis subinde respondere volueritis, nullatenus omittatis. Test. nobis ipsis apud Westmonasterium vicesimo quarto Februarii, annis regis et reginae secundo ac tertio.

And this bill, signed with the hand of us the said queen, shall be your sufficient warrant and discharge for the same.

The king and queen's commission for repressing of heresies and false rumours. Ex reg. Exon. Truberville fol. 6.

PHILIP and Mary, by the grace of God king and queen of England, France, Naples, Jerusalem, and Ireland, defenders of the faith, princes of Spain, and Sicily, archdukes of Austria, dukes of Milan, Burgundy, and Brabant, counts of Haspurge, Flanders, and Tirol, to the reverend father in God James, bishop of Exon. and to our trusty and well beloved John Whiddon knight, Thomas Dennis knight, Thomas Reynolds clerk, dean of the cathedral church of Exeter, John Prideaux, serjeant at law, John Ridgway, John Blaxton clerk, vicar general to the said bishop, John Rixman clerk, Thomas Sothern clerk, Edmund Stire Esq; Robert Cary, James Courtney, John Arundell of Lanhern, knight, Hugh Trevanion knight, Thomas Seyntabyn Esq; Lawrence Traves clerk, John Grandevill clerk, Richard Roscarock, John Moybe, Robert Smith the younger, Robert Trencrock, William Isham, Esqrs; Robert Yendall clerk, Morice Lewermore, mayor of our said city of Exeter, James Copham Esq; William Hurst, John Blackaller, William Buckingham, William Smyth, aldermen of the said city, Walter Staplehill, and John Petre, citizens of the city of Exeter aforesaid, aforesaid, greeting. Forasmuch as divers devilish and clamorous persons, having not only invented, bruited, and set forth divers false rumours, tales, and seditious slanders against us, but also fown divers heresies and heretical opinions, and set forth divers seditious books within this our realm of England, meaning thereby to move, procure, and stir up division, strife, contention, and sedition not only amongst our loving subjects, but also between us and our said subjects, with divers other outrageous misdemeanors, enormities, contempts, and offences daily committed and done to the disquieting of us and our people. We minding and intending the due punishment of such offenders, and the repressing of such like offences, enormities, and misbehaviors from henceforth, and having spiritual trust and confidence in your fidelities, wisdoms, and discretions, we have authorized, appointed, and assigned you, to be our commissioners; and by these presents do give full power and authority unto you, or three of you, whereof you the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall, to be one, to enquire as well by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men, as by witnesses, and all other means and politic ways ye can devise, of all and singular heresies, heretical opinions, lollardies, heretical and seditious books, conspiracies, and confederacies; as also to enquire of all false rumours, tales, seditions, slanders, words or sayings raised, published, bruited, invented, or set forth against us, or either of us, or against the quiet governance or rule of our people and subjects, by books, letters, or otherwise, in any place or places within the diocese of Exon. as well within liberties, as without, and of the bringers in, utterers, buyers, sellers, readers, keepers, or conveyers of any such letter, book, rumour, or tale, and of all and every the coadjutors, counsellors, comforters, procurers, abettors, and maintainers; giving to you, and three of you, whereof you the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, full power and authority by vertue hereof to search out, and take into your hands and possession all manner of heretical and seditious books, letters, and writings, wheresoever they or any of them shall be found, as well in printers houses, or shops, as elsewhere within the said diocese; and also to enquire, hear and determine all and singular enormities, disturbances, misbehaviours, misdemeanors, and negligences done, suffered, or committed in any church, chapel, or other hallowed place, within the same diocese: and also for and concerning the taking away, or withholding of any goods, ornaments, or stocks of money belonging to any of the same churches or chapels, and the accompts concerning the same. And also, to enquire and search out all such persons, as do obstinately refuse to be confessed, to receive the blessed sacrament of the altar, to hear mass, or come to the parish churches, or other convenient places appointed for divine service, or to use and obey the ceremonies appointed for the church, wheresoever any of the said offences or negligences have been, or hereafter shall be committed within the said diocese, and to hear and determine the same, and all other offences and negligences above specified and rehearsed, according to your wisdoms, consciences, and discretions. Willing and commanding you, and every three of you, whereof always you the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, from time to time to use and devise all such politic ways and means for the tryal and searching out of the same, as by you, or three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, shall be thought most expedient and necessary; and upon enquiry and due proof had, known, perceived, and tried out, by the confession of the parties, or by sufficient witnesses before you, or three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, concerning the premises, or any part thereof, to give and award such condign punishment to the offenders by fine or imprisonment, as to your wisdoms, or three of you, whereof you the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, shall be thought meet and convenient. Further willing and commanding you, or three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, in case ye shall find any person or persons obstinate or disobedient, either in the appearance before you, or three of you, at your calling or assignment; or else in not accomplishing or not obeying your directions or commandments in any thing or things, touching the premises, or any part thereof, to commit the same person or persons, so offending, to ward, there to remain till they be by you, or three of you, whereof you the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, enlarged, and set at liberty. And we give to you, and every three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, full power and authority by these presents, to take and receive by your discretions of every offender and suspected person, to be convented or brought before you, a recognisance or recognisances, obligation or obligations, to our use of such sum or sums of money, as to you, or three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton,

VOL. IV.

O o

John

John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, shall seem convenient, as well for the personal appearance before you of every such suspect person, in case you shall so think convenient, as for the sure and true payment of all and every such fine and fines, as shall hereafter be by you, or three of you, as afore, taxed or assessed upon any offender, that shall be before you, or three of you duly convened, as is afore said; to our use to be paid, at such days and times, as by you, or three of you, as afore, shall be stated, limited, or appointed. And you to certify every such recognisance and obligation, so being taken, for any fine or fines, as is afore said, under your hands and seals, or the hands and seal of three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, into our court of chancery, to the intent we may be thereof duly answered as appertaineth. And furthermore we give to you and three of you, whereof ye the said bishop, Thomas Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Thomas Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or Robert Yendall to be one, full power and authority by these presents, not only to call before you all and every offender and offenders, and all and every suspect person or persons, in any of the premises, but also all such and so many witnesses, as ye shall think meet to be called; and them and every of them to examine and compel to answer, and swear upon the holy evangelists to declare the truth in all such things, whereof they, or any of them shall be examined, for the better tryal, opening, and declaration of the premises, or any part thereof: willing and commanding you, and every of you, that in case any such matters shall arise or come in examination before you, which for the great importance, difficulty, or other consideration to you appertaining, you by your discretions shall think not meet to be determined by you; that then in every such case you refer the same to the order and discretion of the reverend father, the bishop of London, and other his colleagues, who having a more large commission of us, we doubt not upon your certificate, will hear, examine, and determine the same, as shall appertain. And further our will and pleasure is, that you, or three of you, whereof you the said bishop, Tho. Reynolds, John Blaxton, John Rixman, Tho. Sothern, Lawrence Traves, John Grandevill, or John Yendall to be one, by bill signed by your hands, or the hands of three of you, as afore, shall and may give and make allowance and payment of such fines, as shall be assessed and taken before you, or three of you, as afore, as well to such, as by your commandments shall travel or take pains for us about the premises, or any part thereof; and also for and about the entering and certifying of such recognisance, obligations, or other writings to be made for the execution of this our commission. Wherefore we will and command you with diligence to give your attendance; and to execute the premises with effect; any of our laws, statutes, proclamations, or other grants, privileges, or ordinances, which be, or may seem to be contrary to the premises, notwithstanding. And moreover we will and command all and singular justices of peace, mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, and all other our officers, ministers, and faithful subjects to be aiding, helping, and assisting you at your commandment in the due execution hereof, as they tender our pleasure, and will answer to the contrary at their uttermost perils. And we will and grant, that these our letters patents shall be a sufficient warrant and discharge for you, and every of you against us, our heirs and successors, and all and every other person or persons whatsoever they be, of, for, or concerning the premises, or any parcel thereof, for the execution of this our commission, or any part thereof. And we will that this our commission shall in no ways be prejudicial, hindrance, or revocation to, or of our former commission, heretofore made or granted to the said reverend father in God, the bishop of London, and other for the like purposes and intents aforementioned; but that the same, and every article therein contained, shall stand, remain, and be in like force and effect to all intents and purposes, as it was before the making hereof; the same, or any thing therein contained notwithstanding. In witness whereof we have caused these our letters of commission to be sealed with our great seal. Witness ourselves at Westminster the 16th. day of February, the second and third years of our reigns.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI I.

Anno Christi
1556.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Synodus provincialis Cantuariensis.

SYNODUS provincialis Cantuar. jussu reverendissimi ad 10. diem mensis Octobris continuata, non multo post ad 10. diem Maii anni sequentis prorogabatur.

Bulla

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI I.

Anno Christi
1556.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 3.

Bulla Pauli IV. papae ad orand. pro pace inter principes christianos. Ex reg.
Pole fol. 18. a.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis, Polus nuncupatus, Cantuar. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas, et apostolicae sedis legatus natus, etc. venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo, London. episcopo, ejusve in spiritualibus vicario generali, sive officiali principali cuicunque, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Bullam plenariae indulgentiae sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, domini Pauli, divina providentia papae quarti, sub plumbo filis sericis impendentibus, modo Romanae curiae bullatam, dat. Romae apud sanctum Petrum anno incarnationis dominicae M.D.LV. octavo idus Martii, pontificatus sui anno primo, nuper cum ea, qua decuit, reverentia et obedientia humiliter recepimus, tenorem subscript. in se continentem. Paulus episcopus, servus servorum Dei, universis et singulis Christi fidelibus praesentes literas inspecturis, salutem, et apostolicam benedictionem. Ab initio pontificatus nostri cum videremus totam rempublicam christianam bellorum turbinibus labefactari, id inprimis Deum precati sumus, ut liceret nobis pacem aliquando inter principes christianos aliqua ratione sperare, qua, sedatis eorum discordiis, divinis beneplacitis liberius vacare, et gregem dominicum nostrae curae commissum, ad semitas justitiae efficacius reducere valeremus. Verum cum jam nobis aliqua spes elucescat, qua induciae inter ipsos principes iniri posse videntur; existimavimus, si unquam faciend. fuit, hoc praesertim Deo acceptabili ac salutis tempore ad Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum recurrendum esse, et ab eo summis precibus contendend. ut praedictis principibus non solum inducias ineund. sed etiam perpetuam pacem inter se firmandi, mentem et animum impartiri dignetur. Quare considerantes, omnipotentem Deum id, quod interdum unius precibus non concedit, multiplicatis intercessoribus saepe largiri; et sacris literis edocti, jejunio et fletu ac orationibus in pura fide et sincera charitate exhibitis, Dei iram averti et ejus gratiam comparari consuevisse, auctoritate apostolica nobis desuper concessa, ex parte omnipotentis Dei, et per viscera illius misericordiae omnes et singulos utriusque sexus Christi fideles seculares et ecclesiasticos, etiam cujusvis ordinis regulares et reclusos, ac in communi viventes per universum orbem existentes, hortamur, et in Domino requirimus, ut infra triduum post publicationem praesentium, tam in alma urbe nostra, quam in quibuscunque aliis civitatibus, terris, et locis ipsius^a urbis factam, seu postquam eadem praesentes literae ad eorum notitiam pervenerint, ad ipsum Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum humili corde conversi, conscientiam suam diligenti studeant examinatione discutere, et purissimam omnium peccatorum suorum confessionem facere; ac ultragenerale praesentis Quadragesimae jejunium, orationibus et eleemosynarum erogationibus, seu aliis piis operibus, juxta eorum conscientiam, sive sacerdotum, quibus peccata sua confitebuntur, salutare consilium, vacare; necnon illi, quibus praesentes post proximum festum Paschatis resurrectionis dominicae innotescant, etiam ultra praemissa quarta et sexta feriis, necnon sabbato immediate sequentibus, si in aetate legitima constituti fuerint, et justo impedimento detenti non sint, jejunare, et tam illi, quam alii supradicti eidem Jesu Christo Deo ac Domino nostro supplicare, precibusque ac fletu ad ejus sanctissimos pedes provoluti petere et rogare, ut eisdem principibus, atque omni fidei populo miseriarum calamitatumque finem, et concordiam, ac pacem largiri velit; dominica vero deinceps sequenti sacratissimam eucharistiae communionem pie et devote percipiant, ac quae ad pietatem, charitatem, et castitatem pertinent, toto pectore atque animo exerceant, quo magis ejusdem Dei et Domini nostri clementissimi misericordiam promoveant. Utque id purius et commodius facere possint, Christi fidelibus supradictis, ut hac vice tantum confessorem eligere valeant, presbyterum secularem, seu cujusvis ordinis regularem, qui, eorum confessione diligenter audita, eos et eorum quemlibet a quibuscunque peccatis quantumcunque gravibus et enormibus, etiam sedi apostolicae reservatis, et in bulla, quae in die coenae Domini legi consuevit, contentis, ac censuris, quas propterea incurrerint, injuncta inde eis pro modo culpa poenitentia salutari, absolvere, et vota quaecunque per eos emissa (Jerosolimitan. ac castitatis et religionis votis duntaxat exceptis) in alia pietatis opera commutare possit, dicta auctoritate concedimus et indulgemus; omnibus nihilominus Christi fidelibus supradictis pro particularis poenitentiae satisfactione in remissionem peccatorum suorum specialiter injungentes, ut tam in dominica communionem, quam in triduo orationum seu eleemosynarum, et piorum operum ac jejunii hujusmodi, orationem dominicam et salutationem angelicam quinquies devote recitent. Nos enim omnibus et singulis Christi fidelibus praedictis, qui praemissa adimpleverint, de omnipotentis Dei misericordia, et apostolorum beatorum ejus auctoritate et meritis confisi, plenissimam peccatorum suorum remissionem, et eam, quae Christi fidelibus ecclesias dictae urbis et extra eam ad id deputatas, anno Jubilaei concessa est, misericorditer in Domino elargimur. Et ut haec omnia ad cunctorum notitiam perveniant, et misericors Dominus a pluribus exoretur, omnibus venerabilibus fratribus nostris, patriarchis, archiepiscopis, episcopis, et aliis ecclesiarum praelatis, in virtute sanctae obedientiae districte praecipiendo mandamus, ut praesentes literas, seu earum transumptum manu alicujus praelati seu personae in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutae subscriptum, cui omnimodam fidem adhiberi volumus, ubique per eorum provincias, civitates, et dioec. gratis et absque ulla fraude vel quaestu publicent, et publicari faciant cum effectu; non obstantibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis, caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque praesentibus post dominicam supradictam minime valituris. Dat. Romae apud sanctum Petrum anno incarnationis dominicae M.D.LV. octavo idus Martii, pontificatus nostri anno primo. Nos summopere cupientes, omnes et singulos utriusque sexus personas infra nostrae legationis de latere fines degentes, hujus gratiosissi-mae munificentiae participes fieri, animarum suarum saluti prospicientes, ac contentorum in dicta bulla scientiam ad earum certam et indubitam notitiam pervenire; cum ea, qua poteritis, matura celeritate, bullam hujusmodi non solum decano et capitulo et caeteris ministris plebique et populo dioec. vestrae London. verum etiam omnibus et singulis aliis charis confratribus coepiscopis nostris, nostrae Cant. provinciae suffraganeis, juxta et secundum formam, tenorem, et effectum bullae praedictae in omnibus et per omnia publicetis, denunciatis, et declaratis, seu sic publicari, denunciari, et declarari faciatis, prout decet. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth, Winton. dioec. vicesimo octavo die mensis Aprilis, anno Domini M.D.LVI et nostrae translationis anno primo.

^a F. orbis.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI I.

Anno Christi
1556.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Electio card. Poli in cancellar. universitatis Oxon. Ex. reg. Pole fol. 22. a.

UNIVERSIS Christi fidelibus has literas nostras visuris, lecturis, sive audituris, universitatis Oxon. cancellarius natus, ad quem omnis et omnimoda potestas et jurisdictio ad ipsum cancellarium existentem et electum pertinens, nunc ejus officio vacante, evidenter pertinere dignoscitur; necnon alii omnes et singuli supradictae universitatis doctores et magistri, salutem in auctore salutis, ac fidem indubiam praesentibus adhibere. Cum sui ordinis vir ornatissimus de academia nostra, turbulentis et iniquis schismatis temporibus insigniter meritis, Johannes Masonus, nuper noster cancellarius, literis suis ad totam academiam scriptis sigilloque suo munitis, pure, sponte, simpliciter, et ultro cancellarii muneri et officio cesserit, totumque jus suum et titulum in eodem penitus resignaverit et dimiserit; vobis per haec scripta significand. et patefaciend. duximus, quod nos antedictus cancellarius natus, caeterique doctores et magistri, ad quos hujus electionis negotium spectat, vicesimo sexto die Octobris legitime juxta veterum statutorum in ea parte editorum formam et antiquam consuetudinem, in ecclesia beatae Mariae, et loco ibidem ad hujusmodi magnam regentium et non regentium congregationem specialiter deputato et destinato convenimus; ibique post literarum lectionem et acceptam resignationem hujusmodi, quia diuturna ejus officii vacatio multa possit inferre studiis et moribus dispendia, celeriter academiae nostrae suo capite et rectore (a quo morum integritas, studiorum profectus, totius denique corporis quies et tranquillitas pendet) destitutae et orbatae prospiciend. et consulend. duximus. Porro eisdem ipsis die et loco, diligenti tractatione et matura deliberatione praemissa, communi consilio, unanimi consensu, concordibus votis et suffragiis omnium facultatum, reverendissimum in Christo patrem ac dominum, dominum Reginaldum, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin, sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyterum cardinalem, Polum nuncupatum, et apostolicae sedis non solum legatum natum, verum etiam in et per universum Angliae regnum ad serenissimos Philippum et Mariam, Angliae reges, de latere legatum, olim praedictae academiae alumnum gratissimum, nunc vero totius regni decus, et ecclesiae Anglicanae singulare columen, qui indefessa cura, assidua cogitatione, anxia et paterna sollicitudine, foeda vitiorum, et errorum portenta evellendo, veterem disciplinam suo vigore restituendo, incorruptos mores, solidamque doctrinam instaurando, benevolentiam, studium, amorem, et pietatem, qua academiam prosequitur, quotidie declarare non desinit, cancellarium perpetuum elegimus, et juxta felicitis recordationis Urbani papae quinti universitati praedictae concessionem factam, eligendo confirmavimus; eidemque reverendissimo patri tanquam observantiae nostrae erga eum specimen et pignus, una cum praedicto cancellario, quemcunque in vicecancellarium, sive commissarium nominandi, necnon duos, quos ad hoc idoneos duxerit, doctores canonicae et civilis facultatum cathedris praeficiendi, quoad vixerit (nostris et successorum consensu, auctoritate, consilio, et confirmatione non expectatis) specialiter liberam facultatem, et potestatem dedimus, et concessimus, quemadmodum harum literarum nostrarum serie damus, et concedimus. In quorum omnium, et singulorum praemissorum testimonium praesentes literas nostras sigilli communis universitatis munimine roboravimus. Dat. in domo nostrae congregationis secundo die Novembris, anno Domini M.D.LVI.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI. I.

Anno Christī
1556.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Injunctions by Thomas Goldwell, bishop of St. Asaph. Ex MS. Tanner. episc. Aflaven.

THAT no man, of what degre or condycyon soever he be, be buried wythin the precynt of the chyrch, without the consent of the churchwardens, except he have a chappell of hys owne, or fryndes byldyng, and that no man be buried in the chancel without the consent of the parson or vycar.

Item, That he that ys buried in the chyrch, havynge no chapell of hys owne, shall pay to the chyrchwardens toward the reparacyons of the chyrch vi. s. viii. d. and he that ys buried in the chancell, shall paye to hym, that hath the care of the reparacyons of the chancell, x. s. and the pryft, that buryeth any man contrary to this injunctyon, shall pay the sayd money to the chyrch, or chancell hymself.

Item, That no man, or woman havynge at theyr dethtyme a paramore, contrary to the laws of God, and holy chyrch, shall be buried in chrystyn buryall.

Item, That no pryft presume to gyve the holy sacraments ether of pennaunce, or of the altare, to any such, nother at Ester, nor at the hower of ther deth.

Item, That no pryft, havynge a woman at hys commandement, presume to celebrate.

Item, That no parsons, vicars, and curates do admitt any precher to preche in their chyrch, wythout he be lieensyd by the ordinarye; and that they other preche themselves, or provyde, that the paryshioners have every quarter of the yer one sermon at the lest.

Item, That no pryft do from hensfurth haunt, resort, or repayre to any disinghouses, or commyn bouling allies, or any other suspect houses or places, or do use common or unlawfull games or playes, or otherwyse behave themselves unpriestly or unseemly, upon payne of depryvation of theyr benefices, after that they shall be thrise monyshed or peremptorie ons, and yff they be not beneficed, to be suspendyd ab officio for six monthes.

Item, That every parson, vicar, or curate do exhort, advertyse, and monysh all and syngular testators, to bequethe certen to the reparacion of the cathedral chyrch, and also to ther parochial churches for ther forgotten tythes, and finally to remembre the pore and nedie.

Item, That all and singuler parsons, vicars, curates, and all other of the clergie of what dignitie, degre, or state they be of, and being yn holie orders or beneficed within the diocese of St. Asaph, shall use, were, or put upon them none other wedis or garmentes, but such as become the life and honestie of clerkes, and specially that they were no ruffe yn the collers of their shirtes, or any cutting in bothys or showes, "sub poena excommunicationis, si moniti non desistant."

Item, That no scole be hereafter kept in any chyrch.

Item, That no prest say two masses in one day, except Chrystmas day, without expresse licens.

Item, That everye parson or vicar do mentein and repayre their mancion howses.

Item, That everye parson, vicar, curate, and other prest shall truly and faithfully fulfill, kepe and observe all laweth, statutes, and constitucions, injunctions, ordinances, commaundement, and decrees, as well synodalls as provincialls or legantines, heretofore made, provided, and established and ordained, standing yn effect, for the decent and godly order to be usyd, observyd, and kepte yn the church and the clerge of this dioc. of S. Asaph, as far furthe as yn them shall lie, according to their bounden duties, and as they wyll answer for the contrarie. And what prest soever offendyth in any of the forsayd injunctyons, yf he be beneficed, beynd the peynes befor taxed, he shall be "ipso facto" suspendyd from the receyving of the fruts of hys benefyce for the space of vi. monthes the next and immedyatly followyng; and the sayde fruts shall be received by the wardens of the church, or imploy'd other upon the reparacyons or ornament of the church, wher the transgressyon was don, or upon the power scolers of the grammar scole wythin the dyocese, or the sayd wardens shall gyve acownt therof to the vycar generall of the byshop. And yf he be not beneficed, he shall suffer imprysonment for the space of iii. monthes.

Injunctions geven in the visitacion of the moste reverende father in God, the lorde cardinal Poole's grace, legate de latere, by his subdelegate James, by the permission of God bushope of Gloucestre, througheoute his diocesis of Gloucestre. Ex append. ad histor. Rob. de Avesbury edit. Tho. Hearnii. pag. 376.

Touchinge the clergie.

I. FYRSTE, That all parsons, vicars, and curats having the gyfte and talente of preaching, shall frequentlie and diligentlie occupie themselves in the same, accordinge to the decree of the late synode in that behalf provided, openinge the scriptures accordinglie, and not forgettinge to declare the righte use of the godlie ceremonies of the church, as they come in course from time to time.

VOL. IV.

II. Item, That all parsons, vicars, and curats for the better instruction of theare cures, shall reade

P p

evry

evry foundaie at the sermon tyme, when there is no sermon, some portion of the booke entitled, "A necessarie doctrine," latelie set furth, unto suche tyme as homelies by th'authoritie of the synode shal be made and published for the same intende and purpose.

III. Item, That all parsons, vicars, and curats shall evry holidai, when ther is sermon, at the sermon time playnelie recyte and diligentlie teache the "Pater noster," the "Ave Maria," the "Crede," and the "Ten commandments," in Englishe; exhortynge their parisheners to teache the same likewise to their younge children at home.

IV. Item, That all parsons, vicars, and curats being no preachers, shall earnestlie emploie themselves to studie the holie scripture in such sorte and wise, as they maye be able to make accompte to their ordinarie yearelie, how they profite therein; and that also they refuse not to instructe and teache the youth of their parishioners being thereunto by their parents requested, and for their paines reasonable contentid.

V. Item, That all parsons, vicars, and curats do in all poyntes the best they can to minister decentlie, reverentlie, and uniformelie the sacraments and sacramentalles, and to celebrate divine service treatable and distinctlie, so that thereby the people may be the more earnestlie moved to come to the church, and devoutlie to heare and see the same, and all beneficed men repaire their chancelles, and mansion houses with all conveniente speede.

VI. Item, That all priests from hencefurth shall use and weare conveniente and priestlie apparell, havinge their beards, and crownes shaven, accordinge to their profession, and that under penaltie of lawes provided in that behalf.

VII. Item, That no prieste from hencefurth do haunte or resorte to alehowses, or tavernes, otherwise than for his honeste necessitie, or relief, or do frequente anie suspecte howse or place, where unlawful games be used.

VIII. Item, That no prieste from hencefurth do retaine in his howse, under the pretence of keepinge his howse, or otherwise, anie woman other then souche as ys and hath ben of honeste and good fame and name, and with whome he himself nether is, nether hath been probable suspected. And yf anie souche be, mediatlie upon the promulgation herof to avoid the same, as he will avoide the perill of the lawes.

IX. Item, That none of those priests, that were under the pretence of lawfull matrimonie married, and nowe reconciled, do privilie resorte to their pretended wives, or suffer the same to resorte unto them. And that those priests do in no wise hencefurth withdrawe themselves from the mynisterie and office of priesthodde, under the paine of the lawes.

X. Item, That every parson, or vicar do make himself, or cause to be made by some other at his charges, one sermon everie quarter of the yeare at lest in his church.

XI. Item, That from hencefurth no parson vicar, or curate do use or promulgate in the pulpitte, it beinge th' appoynted place of Goddes word, the losinge or findynge of anie prophane goodes or cattells, or anie like temporall matters, or cause to that place not apperteyninge, but that the clerke, or sexton, or some other for that purpose, shall at tyme and place conveniente openlie declare the same, as neade shall require.

XII. Item, That everie parson, vicar, and curate the nexte weke after evrie Ester shall make a perfect certificate to his ordinarie in writinge of the names of all souche persons, as shall not have ben in dewe time confessed in the Lente, and receyved accordinge to the auntyente order of the church, and the common usage of all christians.

XIII. Item, That evry parson, vicar, or curate do diligentlie visite the sicke, and speciallie such, as are in extremitie and daunger, gevinge them godlie counsel for their soules helth, good advertisemente to make their last will in tyme, and holsom exhortation charitablie to remember the poor, and other dedes of devotion.

XIV. Item, That every deane shall from time to time within the space of ten daies signifye unto his ordinarie the death of everie parson and vicar within his deanerie, and likewise within fifteen daies the lacke of anie curate within his said deanerie, and also onse every quarter, at the lest, the names of all souche parsons, or vicars, as are non-residente upon their benefices, and of souche priests as for lucre useth to say two masses in one daie, contrarie to the canons in that case provided. And that every deane do sende all the presentments, that shall come to his hands, to th' ordinarie, or his chauncelor monthelie, upon pain of contempt.

XV. Item, That all parsons, vicars, and curats yerely upon sainte Andrewes daie, in remembraunce of our reconciliation to the catholike church, as that daye don, and receyved, shall make, or cause to be made in their church, a sermon, or for lacke of a sermon, shall reade a homelie, hereafter to be set furth declaringe the greate benefitte of the same; and that don, shall kepe a generall and solemn procession, exhortinge and requiringe all the parishioners the foundaie before, decentlie therat to be presente, and hertelie to geve God thancks, as to so grete a benefitte apperteyninge.

XVI. Item, That all priests in their dailie masses forgette not to saye the three collects of thancks for our reconciliation, lately sete furthe, and published for the same purpose; and that they restore furthwith the names of sainte Thomas of Caunterburie, and the popes holiness into the church books again.

XVII. Item, That everie parson, vicar, or curate shall the nexte foundaie immediately upon the receyvinge herof, reade openlie in the pulpitte as well the injunctions concerninge the clergie, as also the laitie, and the firste foundaie sondaie after everie quarter shall reade the same from tyme to tyme openlie in the pulpitte "sub poena contemptus."

Touchinge the laitie.

I. First, That all parisheners, havinge no lawfull impedimente, shall at daies and howres accustomed appointed, duely resort to their parish churches, there to heare all divine service, not in jangling, or talkinge, or walkinge commonlie up and downe, specialle at masse time, but occupyng themselves, accordinge to the time and place, in godlie meditacion and prayer, other with beade or books for prayer allowed and appoynted.

II. Item, That the churchwardens of everie parish, where service was accustomed to be songe, shall exhorte all souche as can syng, and have been accustomed to singe in the quire in the time of schisme, or before, and nowe withdrawe themselves from the quire, from hencefurth to exercise themselves in singinge or servinge God there; and yf anie souche refuse this to do, then the said churchwardens to intimate the names of the same, amonge other presentmentes, to the ordinarie, or his chauncellor.

III. Item, That all curats shall exhorte the chief officers of every towne, and parish, for see, and cause that all tavernes, ynnes, alehouses, and vitlingehouses to be shute up at the time of divine service, and non to be servid there at those times, but passingers onlie, and souche, as shall be forced by sickness, or other unfayned necessitie; and that there be no boothes, no merchandise kepte in the churchyards, namelie on sondaies.

IV. Item, That all parisheners shall everie Lente, at some conveniente time before passion sondaie at the farthest, repaire to their own parson, vicar, or curate, to be confessed, and to no other, withoute speciall lisenf before obtained, and thence, after their confession made, to accompte with him or his deputie, for all souche tithes or duties due that yeare, to the intente, that at the time of their receavinge at Ester, there maye be no staie nor encombraunce of anie souche worldelie matters.

V. Item, That holie daies, and fasting daies, hertofore abrogate, shal be hereafter observed, and kepte, as they were before the abrogacion of the same, accordinge to the lawes now standing in force.

VI. Item, That all parisheners shall at the time of elevation reverentlie knele in souche places of the church, where they maie both see, and worshippe the blessed sacramente, not lurking behinde pillars, or holdinge downe their heads, or otherwise unreverentlie behaving themselves at that time in especiall.

VII. Item, That all parisheners shall reverentlie, and religiouslie behave themselves towards the holie sacraments, and likewise obedientlie use all the godlie ceremonies of the church, as holie bread, holie water, bering of candelles, receyvinge of ashes, bering of palme, crepinge to the crosse, standinge up at the gospel, goynge on proceffion, and souche other laudable, hertofore accustomed and receyved in Christes church.

VIII. Item, That all parisheners, besides the sondaies proceffion, shall onse a weke at the lest, as uppon sondaies, duely resort unto generall proceffion, as one of everie house, namelie the husbnde, or the wife, there devoutlie to praie for the prosperouse estate of the kinge and quene's majesties, and for the peace, and tranquillitie of all christen realmes, namelie this realme of Englande.

IX. Item, That souche, as are by their parisheners elected to be churchwardens for the yeare, shall in no wise refuse the execution of the said office, under the paine of the lawe; and that all churchwardens so chosen, shall yearelie within fifteen daies after their election repaire to their ordinarie, or his chauncellor, there to receive souche order, as, for the due execution of their office, shall seme expediente, upon pain of contempte.

X. Item that all churchwardens do kepe in a fast coffer under locke and keye the booke, or register of christeninge, weddinge, and buryng, with the names of godfathers, and godmothers, which shal be written everie sondaie in their prefence by their prieste.

XI. Item, That all churchwardens shall see their churches, and churchyards to be well and sufficientlie repaired and enclosed, before midsummer daie nexte ensuinge, or els therupon to presente, in whose defaulte the same is leste undon.

XII. Item, That all souche persons, as do withholde from the church anie goods or money, shall restore the same before the feast of Whitsondaie nexte, under their perill.

XIII. Item, That the poore people of everie parish shall be charitablie provided for, accordinge to the acte of parliamente, and the decree of the late synode in that behalf.

XIV. Item, That all churchwardens, the nexte sondaie followinge upon the receyte herof, shall in the prefence of the parish make, or cause to be made a true and perfecte inventarie of all lands, Jewelles, plate, or ornaments, belles, or other goods to their church belonging; th'one part of the said inventarie by them so made, to be deliverid to th' hands of the ordinarie, and th' other to be kepte in some cheste within the church, and from time to time, uppon their yerelie accompte, the same to be delivered to the churchwardens for the yeare followinge, or yf cause so require, then a newe inventarie to be made and used in manner, and fashion aforaid.

XV. Item, That the churchwardens of everie parish, with certaine of the chief parisheners, by the discretion of the said churchwardens, beinge allredie sworne or to be sworne, shall have by these presents from th' ordinarie, and the commissioners, authoritie, from time to time, indifferentlie, accordinge to their othes, and th' abilitie of everie parishener, to lease themselves, and all other, for the provision of all things necessarie lackinge in the said church; and, and, yf anie refuse to abide the order in feassement by them so taken, they to presente their names to th' ordinarie or his chauncelor, who, with the rest of the commissioners, shall compell them therunto with further cohertion.

148 Injunctions by Card. POLE in the diocese of GLOCESTER.

XVI. Item, That the churchwardens of everie parishe shall see provided, and boughte at the parishe charge all these thinges hereafter followinge, where anie of the same are at this presente lackinge; that is to witt, a decenre tabernacle sette in the middest of the hie aulter, to preserve the most blessed sacramento under locke and key, after the example of the tabernacle in the cathedrall church at Gloucestre, everie parish as nigh as their habilitie shall extend unto, with a taper or lampe burninge before the same; a decenre roode of five fote in length at the leste, with Marie, and John, and the patroon or hedde sainte of the church, proportionate to the same, not painted uppon cloth or bords, but cutte oute in timber or stone; an homelie booke for the time comaunded, as at this presente, a booke latelie sett furth entituled, "A necessarie doctrine:" and generallie all other things, which, after the custome of the place, and the greteneſs of the parishe-ners, are bounde to finde and maintayne; and all these thinges to be provided with all convenient speade uppon their perill.

XVII. Item, That the churchwardens, and other, that be and shall be sworne to see these orders and injunctions duely kepte, shall yerelie at the end of everie moneth at the furthest, make a true presentemente in writinge of the names of all them, that violateth and breakith these injunctions, or any of them, or that offendith in advourie, perjurie, or anie other crime or notable disorder within their parishe; and shall bringe or sende the same presentemente monthlie to the handes of the ordinarie, or his chauncelor, or to the handes of the dean of that deanerie, as they will avoyde the daunger of perjurie, and forfeting of their recognizances.

God save the kinge and queene.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 1.

Anno Christi
1556.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Cardinalis Poli mandatum de confessionalibus: cujus titulus Anglice talis impressus est.

The trew copy of the transumpt, or wrytinge of late sent to the byshoppe of London by the moost reverende father in God, the lorde cardinal Pole, legate de latere, under his grace's seale, to be published and sente unto the byshoppes of this realme of England, concerning the due use of confessionals, and faculties, or licences, specially in the chosing of ghostly fathers, having aulthers portatif, in eating or using of white meat, or fleshe in tymes by the lawe forbidden, as followeth.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis Polus, archiepiscopus Cantuarien. sanctissimi domini nostri papae, et sedis apostolicae ad serenissimos, Philippum et Mariam, Angliae reges, et universum Angliae regnum de latere legatus, ad futuram rei memoriam. Officium legationis ab apostolica sede nobis commissum, hoc inter caetera, quae curae nostrae incumbunt, maxime exigit, ut, quantum per nos fieri potest, provideamus, ut gratiae, quae in hoc regno ab ejusdem sedis benignitate, rationabilium causarum intuitu, emanarunt, ad perniciosos abusus non trahantur; et hiis, qui eas spiritualis commodi, seu necessitatis corporalis praetextu, obtinuerunt, ad eorum appetitus irrationabiles explendos non serviant. Cum igitur, sicut accepimus, complures hujus regni personae diversas facultates, et licentias, praesertim eligendi confessores, habendi altare portatile, ac vescendi, et utendi diebus a jure prohibitis, lacticiis, et carnibus, confessionalia nuncupatas, a sanctissimo domino nostro papa, et sede apostolica, seu officio ejus sacrae poenitentiariae, per literas, forsan etiam in forma brevis, seu alias obtinuerint. Cumque non sine animi nostri molestia intellexerimus, nonnullos gratis praefatis in animarum suarum periculum, et Christi fidelium scandalum abuti, utpote cum aliqui minus idoneo sacerdoti peccata sua, vel forsan etiam nulli confiteantur; alii vero etiam nullo justo impedimento detenti, ad ecclesias suas parochiales pro divinis officiis audiendis, non accedant, sed in domibus privatis, et forsan etiam omnino non audiant; necnon sacra altaris ministeria etiam in locis non decentibus, et per sacerdotes forsan minus idoneos celebrari faciant; nonnulli etiam absque ulla necessitate carnibus, ovis, et lacticiis temporibus, et diebus, quibus eorum usus est prohibitus, vescantur, et alias alia committant, quibus se hujusmodi privilegiis credunt indignos. Nos, ut hujusmodi abusibus, quantum possumus, occurramus, et animarum Christi fidelium saluti consulamus, auctoritate apostolica nobis per literas sanctissimi in Christo patris, et domini nostri, domini Pauli, papae quarti, in forma brevis expeditas, super hoc specialiter concessa, qua fungimur, usum gratiarum praedictarum moderantes, tenore praesentium statuimus, decernimus, et declaramus; quod vigore gratiarum hujusmodi nullus posthac tempore, quo a jure arctatur, cuiquam alii praeterquam proprio, vel alteri, per nos, seu loci ordinarium, ad generaliter seu specialiter audiendum confessiones ejus vel eorum, cui vel quibus hujusmodi facultas eligendi confessorem concessa est, deputato et designato sacerdote, exceptis casibus a jure permisis, peccata sua confiteri, nec quisquam alius sacerdos ejus confessiones fiones audire praesumat; quodque nullus parochus possit aliquem ejus parochianum, qui non sibi, sed alii cuiquam de personis superius expressis, peccata sua confessus fuerit, ad communionem sacratissimi corporis Domini nostri Jesu Christi admittere, nisi sacerdos, qui ipsum audiverit, de hujusmodi confessione, vel viva voce, vel proprio chirographo ipsi paracho prius fidem fecerit, et de licentia hujusmodi confessionem audiendi in genere vel in specie, ut praefertur, sibi concessa, prius docuerit; quodque nullus possit uti altari portatili in loco non consecrato, nisi prius licentiam specialem ab episcopo dioecesano, cujus super hoc conscientiam oneramus, juxta formam constitutionis in concilio provinciali Cantuariensi editae, et sub titulo, "De celebratione missarum," registratae, ac pro ea ejus parte quae ad hanc rem pertinet, de verbo ad verbum praesentibus inferius annotatae, in scriptis desuper obtinuerit. Quodque etiam in casu constitutionis praedictae, idem dioecesanus episcopus hujusmodi licentiam non concedat, nisi ei, quem noverit locum aptum, et decentem, ac vestes, vasa, et alia ad tantum mysterium digne et honeste celebrandum necessaria habere, et qui promiserit, se per eum duntaxat sacerdotem, qui ad executionem sui officii fuerit per ordinarium loci admissus, missam celebrari facturum; quodque nullus carnibus, ovis, aut lacticiniis, temporibus et diebus, quibus eorum usus de jure vel consuetudine haecenus laudabiliter approbata est prohibitus, vescatur, nisi ex causa rationabilis necessitatis quam locorum ordinarii, habito etiam super hoc medici corporalis, et immediati pastoris consilio, veram esse, et merito admittendam judicaverint, super quo ad parochos literas gratis conscribant; quodque in casu praedicto quilibet secrete, et ea circumspeditione adhibita, ut nemini ex hoc offendiculum fiat, eisdem cibis prohibitis utatur. Si quis vero contra praemissa facultatibus, et licentiis praedictis utatur, illis ei minime suffragantibus, poenas de jure, seu alias quomodolibet contra eos, qui hujusmodi excessus committunt, inflictas, incurrat; et tam ipse, quam alii superius nominati, qui in praemissis, seu eorum aliquo deliquerint, juxta excessuum hujusmodi exigentiam, prout canonicae disponunt sanctiones, per eos, ad quos hujusmodi correctio spectat, puniantur. Quocirca venerabilibus fratribus nostris archiepiscopo Eboracensi, et universis hujus regni episcopis, ac nostro in ecclesia Cantuariensi, vicario generali, et aliis quibuscumque locorum ordinariis, eadem auctoritate per haec scripta mandamus, eisque in virtute sanctae obedientiae injungimus, quatenus ipsi, quamprimum hae nostrae literae, sive earum exemplum etiam impresum, manu alicujus praelati, seu personae in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutae, subscriptum, vel ejus sigillo signatum, ad eos pervenerint, literas, seu exemplum hujusmodi per civitates, dioeceses, et loca ad eorum jurisdictionem quomodolibet spectantia, publicent, seu publicari, et ab omnibus, quos ea tangunt inviolabiliter observari, faciant: contumaces, et rebelles, per censuras, et poenas ecclesiasticas, et alia opportuna juris remedia, appellatione postposita, compescendo, invocato etiam ad hoc, si opus fuerit, auxilio brachii secularis; praemissis, et aliis in contrarium facientibus, non obstantibus quibuscumque. Tenor autem constitutionis, de qua supra fit mentio, sequitur, et est talis: "Quam sit inhonestum:" et infra. De fratrum nostrorum, et totius concilii assensu decernimus quemcunque in oratoriis, capellis, aut domibus non consecratis, seu in loco minime dedicato, seu delibuto missarum solennia, dioecesani non obtenta licentia, contra canonum prohibitionem de caetero celebrantem, suspensionem a divinorum celebratione per mensem incurrere ipso facto: licentiam ab episcopis nostrae provinciae missas in locis hujusmodi non consecratis concessam celebrandi, et in posterum concedendam personis aliis, quam magnatibus, seu nobilibus moram facientibus in locis ab ecclesiis parochialibus notabiliter distantibus, aut notorie debilibus, vel infirmis irritam decernimus, et inanem. Per hoc tamen praelatis, et rectoribus, et canonicis ecclesiarum cathedralium, vel religiosis non intendimus derogare, quominus ipsi in oratoriis suis ab antiquo constructis missas possint licite celebrare, seu facere celebrari, sicut fieri consuevit. Sacerdotes insuper, quos in oratoriis, seu capellis regum, aut reginarum Angliae, liberorumve suorum erectis, vel erigendis missas celebrare contigerit, poena praedicta nolumus coarctari. Datum Greenwichi Roffen. dioec. anno a nativitate Domini millesimo quingentesimo quinquagesimo septimo, sexto idus Januarii, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, domini Pauli, divina providentia papae quarti, anno secundo.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Litterae card. Poli pro salva custodia pecuniae in episcopi manibus manentis: cum articulis nonnullis. Ex reg. Turberville Exon. fol. 18.

VEN. in Christo pater dominus episcopus Exon. mittet ad reverendissimum dominum legatum, seu, eo absente, ad vener. in Christo patrem dom. episcopum Elien. divisionem, et distinctionem temporalium bonorum singulorum beneficiorum olim appropriatorum per serenissimos reges, ad dispositionem reverendissimi domini legati dimissorum, quae certis commissi-riis per scaccarium regni commissa, et demandata sunt; et si adhuc hujusmodi divisio completa non fuit, habeatur ratio difficultatum in hac re occurrentium, cum nota expensarum, quae in hac causa fuit.

I. Item, Plenam et distinctam instructionem de statu ecclesiarum omnium rectoriarum, seu beneficiorum quocumque nomine nuncupentur, ut

Q₉

ut praefertur, dimissorum, viz.

II. De annuo valore rectoriarum seu beneficiorum huiusmodi, non tam habita ratione ad taxam in libris scaccarii contentam, quam ad id, quod in veritate reperitur esse.

III. Quae habeant vicarios perpetuos, et quae non habeant?

IV. Quid singuli vicarii percipiant ex huiusmodi vicariis?

V. De amplitudine parochiae, et num sit dives an pauper?

VI. Qua reparatione huiusmodi ecclesiae indigeant, tam in cancellis et aliis structuris et aedificiis, non solum ecclesiam, sed etiam domos et habitationes respicient. quam vasis, libris et aliis ad divinum cultum necessariis?

VII. Quae rectoriae sint ad firmam concessae, et quae non sint; et ad quantum tempus firmae adhuc sint duraturae?

VIII. Et de omnibus aliis instruatur reverendissimus dominus legatus, quae scitu necessaria et opportuna judicentur, pro negotio dispositionis huiusmodi reddituum feliciter et utiliter expediendo.

IX. Item, idem dominus episcopus scribet sententiam suam, qua faciliiori et utiliori via posset succurri necessitatibus ecclesiarum praedictarum, tam in providendo ipsis curatis de his, quibus se honeste sustentare, et onera sibi incumbenda sufferre possint, quam de defectibus, quos huiusmodi ecclesiae in cancellis, aedificiis, et aliis necessariis patiuntur; et si essent aliquae expensae in praemissis faciendae, quibusnam haec cura tuto committi posset, ita ut pecuniae fideliter et utiliter expenderentur.

X. Curet etiam dominus episcopus per se vel per alium tractare cum parochianis ecclesiarum huiusmodi, quae reparatione cancellorum indigent, ut ipsi aliquam partem pecuniae ad hoc opus contribuere velint; id enim si faciant, poterunt facilius impetrare aliquam partem pecuniarum huiusmodi, quae, solutis pensionibus, poterit ad hoc opus destinari.

XI. Item in eventu, quo idem reverendissimus dominus vellet unire rectorias cum vicariis, assignato certo censu in singulis vicariis pro solvendis pensionibus, quomodo id commodius et facilius posset expediri?

XII. Et si quae non habent vicarios perpetuos inductos, quomodo de rectoribus posset illis rectoriis plenius, scilicet unita rectoria cum vicaria, provideri; et si quae sint personae idoneae, quibus hae ecclesiae committi possent?

XIII. Item, quando idem dominus episcopus rationes computus futuri mittet una cum eorum libro acquietantias eorum, quibus pensiones, annuitates, corrodia, vel feuda soluta sunt.

REG. cardinalis POLUS.

Litterae (de quibus antea) missae a reverendissimo cardinale Polo Cant. archiepiscopo.

Venerab. frater noster.

Relatum est nobis ab his, qui ex mandato nostro rationes et computus decimarum, et fructuum rectoriarum, per te juxta ordinationem nostram collectorum, viderint et examinaverint, circumspeditionem ex pecuniis, quae, solutis pensionibus, et aliis oneribus deductis, supersunt, penes te habere libras 569. 16. sol. ob. 9. Interim autem dum deliberatur, in quos usus pro Dei gloria, et honore et ecclesiarum commodo ac decore, animarumque Christi fidelium salute pecuniae huiusmodi expendantur et distribuuntur, circumspectio tua, licet de ea in his et aliis plurimum confidimus, nihilominus ob nonnullas justas et rationabiles causas statim post praesentium receptionem curabit pecunias huiusmodi apud ecclesiam cathedralem, loco aliquo munito et tuto in cista trium clavium deponi. Harum autem clavium una apud te, altera apud decanum, seu, eo absente, vicedecanum, tertia vero apud unum ex archidiaconis ecclesiae, qui ibi reperitur, seu nemine tum ibi existente, apud aliquem eorum deputatum ita remanebunt, ut nullus duas penes se claves habeat. Hujus vero pecuniarum summae nulla quantumvis etiam exigua pars ex huiusmodi cista extrahatur, nisi ex permissione et mandato nostro speciali, et expresso a nobis in scriptis emanato. Circumspectio autem tua per literas suas patentes, manu propria et reliquorum, quibus clavium huiusmodi cistae cura sit commissa, subscriptas, nos de repositione pecuniarum huiusmodi juxta voluntatem nostram praedictam statim certiores faciet. Et quoniam propter synodi in aliud tempus prorogationem, prout ex nostris inde conficiendis literis postmodum plenius intelliges, ex teipso, ut isperabamus, de omnibus his, quae in schedula manu nostra subscripta, et praesentibus literis interclusa continentur, coram cognoscere non poterimus, ex scripto de eisdem quam primum fieri poterit plene et districte nos informare, ac reliquum decimarum et fructuum rectoriarum, et aliorum, quod exigendum superest, ut exigatur, omni studio et diligentia curabis. Vale in Domino. Dat. Lambethae Winton. dioec. 28. Martii M.D.LVII.

Vester frater

REG. cardin. POLUS, leg.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Pauli IV. papae bulla absolutionis electi

PAULUS episcopus, servus servorum Dei, dilecto filio Davidi Pole, presbytero Petriburgen. seu alterius civitatis, vel dioec. legum doctori, salutem, et apostolicam benedictionem. Apostolicae sedis consueta clementia, ne dispositiones per eam, de cathedralibus ecclesiis pro tempore factae, valeant quomodolibet impugnari, sed personae ad eas promovendae, illis puro corde et sincera conscientia praesidere possint, remedia, prout convenit, adhibet opportuna. Cum itaque nos hodie ecclesiae Petriburgen. ad praesens certo modo pastoris solatio destitutae,

Petriburgenfis. Ex reg. Pole fol. 7. b.

PAULI IV. PAPAE BULLA ABSOLUTIONIS EPISCO. PETRIBURG. 151

stitutae, de persona tua nobis et fratribus nostris ob tuorum exigentiam meritorum accepta, de ipsorum fratrum consilio apostolica auctoritate providere, teque illi in episcopum et pastorem praeficere intendamus; nos, ne si forsitan aliquibus sententiis, censuris, et poenis ecclesiasticis ligatus sis, provisio et praefectio praedictae valeant propterea quomodolibet impugnari, provideri volentes, te a quibusvis excommunicationis, suspensionis, et interdicti aliisque ecclesiasticis sententiis, censuris, et poenis a jure vel ab homine quavis occasione vel causa latis, si quibus quomodolibet innodatus existis; ad hoc duntaxat, ut provisio et praefectio praedictae, necnon singulae literae apostolicae desuper conficiendae, suum sortiantur effectum, dicta authoritate apostolica, tenore praesentium, absolvimus, et absolutum fore nunciamus; non obstantibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus apo-stolicis, ac dictae ecclesiae juramento, confir-matione apostolica, vel quavis firmitate alia roboratis; statutis et consuetudinibus, caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostrae absolu-tionis et nunciationis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire; si quis autem hoc attemptare praesumpserit, indignationem omnipotentis Dei, ac beatorum Petri et Pauli, apostolorum ejus; se noverit incursum: Dat. Romae apud sanctum Petrum anno incarnationis dominicae

M.D.LVII. 9. calend. Aprilis, pontificatus nostri anno secundo.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. IV. 2.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Prorogatio concilii legatini facta per card. Polum, archiep. Cantuar. Ex reg. Bonner fol. 424.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter, etc. venerabili fratri nostro episcopo London. seu ejus in spiritualibus vica-rio, vel officiali generali, salutem in Domino sempiternam. Cum nos ultra annum proxime elapsum, tum ut bonorum ecclesiasticorum, quae injuria superiorum temporum ablata, ferenissimorum regis et reginae praefatorum pietate paulo ante ecclesiae restituta fuerant, ratio quaedam et dispositio ad Dei omnipotentis gloriam, et hujus cleri et populi utilitatem constituere-tur; tum vero ut ecclesia haec Anglicana, quae ob praeteriti schismatis calamitatem valde deformata erat in doctrina et moribus, ad sacrorum canonum normam reformaretur, accitis et assi-stantibus nobis utriusque Cantuar. viz. et Ebo-racen. provinciae episcopis et clero, synodum instituissemus et inchoavissemus, et in illa per nonnullos dies ad hoc statutos, ac de die in diem prorogatos, rite et legitime procedendo, nonnulla, quae ad eorundem bonorum ecclesiastico-rum dispositionem pertinebant, et multa alia, quae ad reformationem spectabant, statuta fu-issent: ac deinde sacram synodum hujusmodi, tum quia quadragesimale tempus, quo pasto-ribus a gregibus sibi commissis diutius abesse non licebat, jam instabat, tum quia ad ulteri-ora, quae tractanda remanebant, absque majorum informatione, quae sine singularum dioece-sium visitatione commode fieri non poterat, progredi non satis bene valebamus, usque ad decimum diem mensis Novembris prox. exinde se-quentis prorogavissemus, visitationemque per ordinarios locorum etiam auctoritate nostra faciend. esse decrevissemus: postmodum quia, ut ad certam nostram devenerat notitiam, visitatio in nonnullis dioecesibus, propter earum amplitudinem et alias justas causas, ad id tempus compleri non potuerat, pro certiori bonorum ecclesiasticorum praedictorum quantitatis et qualitate ratione, sine qua ad perfectam illorum dis-positionem devenire non poterat, habenda, majus temporis spatium requirebatur; et ob nonnullas alias rationabiles causas animum nostrum moventes, sacram synodum praedictam usque in decimum diem mensis Novembris, praefatum, alias in ultima sessione generali ejusdem synodi prorogatum usque ad decimum diem mensis Maii proxime sequentis in aedibus nostris Lam-bethi Wintonien. dioecesis tunc celebrand. auctoritate apostolica continuavimus et prorogavimus, prout in aliis nostris superinde confectis literis plenius continetur. Cum autem, ob maximam victualium omnium hoc in regno de praesenti vigentem penuriam, episcopis et aliis personis ecclesiasticis, quae eidem synodo de jure vel consuetudine interesse tenentur, non nisi cum magno eorum incommodo, ad eandem synodum continuandam, in decimum diem mensis Maii proxime sequentis, ut praemittitur, prorogatam, eadem auctoritate apostolica nobis hac in nostra legatione concessa, qua fungimur in hac parte, tenore praesentium in diem decimum mensis Novembris prox. sequentis continuamus et pro-rogamus; circumspectioni igitur tuae, de qua in hiis et aliis plurimum confidimus, quatenus per te vel alium, vel alios venerabiles confratres nostros episcopos, et caeteras provinciae nostrae Cantuarien. praedictae personas ecclesiasticas, quae sacrae synodo praefatae interesse quovismodo debuerint, de prorogatione et continuatione ejusdem in dictum decimum diem proxime futuri mensis Novembris certifies; eosdemque, quatenus ipsi eodem decimo die mensis Novembris in dictis aedibus nostris Lambethi sacrae synodo, quam cum eadem circumspectione tua et aliis tam Cantuarien. quam Eboracen. provinciarum praedictarum episcopis, et reliquis personis ecclesiasticis tunc interessent, alias inchoavimus, et ut praefertur, prorogavimus, personaliter, vel, si legitimo aliquo impedimento sunt detenti, per earum procuratores idoneos mandatum legiti-mum habentes, adsint, et usque ad ejus finem intersint, etiam sub certis contra inobedientes tuo vel aliorum tuorum hujusmodi literarum execu-

executor. arbitrio comminandis poenis, nomine nostro moneas, et ad eandem synodum sic prorogatam voces et cites, auctoritate et tenore praedictis committimus et mandamus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Croyden Winton. dioeces. anno

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 4.

Commissio Edmundi, episc. London. ad inquirendum de haereticis in sua dioecesi commorantibus. Ex Fox pr. edit. fol. 1613.

EDMUNDUS, permissione divina London. episcopus, dilectis nobis in Christo magistris, Edwardo Mowell, archidiacono nostro Essexiae, Thomae Moorton et Johanni Kingston, in legibus baccalaureis, presbyteris nostris in partibus, commissariis generalibus, salutem, gratiam, et benedictionem. Quia, ut accepimus, et ad nostrum nuper pervenit auditum, quod nonnulli iniquitatis filii in comitatu Essexiae et Hartfordiae, nostrarum London. dioeces. et jurisdictionis, commorantes et degentes, de et super crimine haereticae pravitatis apud bonos et graves non mediocriter suspecti et infamati diu extiterunt, et in praesenti existunt, nonnullosque errores et opiniones haeticas et damnabiles, sicuti informamur, a diu jam (quod absque gravi cordis nostri dolore referre non possumus) in magnam divinae majestatis offensam, ac gravem sanctae orthodoxae fidei (saltem quantum in eis fuit) subversionem, denique in plurimorum Christi fidelium perniciosum exemplum seminarunt, sparserunt, aut publicarunt, dictosque errores et haereses tenuerunt et defenderunt, ac inter caetera, ob notam et suspensiones hujusmodi, caeteraque praemissa, per justitarios et ministros serenissimae regiae majestatis in ea parte deputatos, eorum aliqui custodiae carceris juste commissi et mancipati hoc tempore existunt. Nos igitur, Edmundus episcopus antedictus, volentes, quantum possumus, tanti facinoris labem ex dioecesi nostra London. extirpare et eradicare, ac eidem morbo pervigili circumspeditionis industria occurrere, necnon pravitatem et labem criminis ac suspensionis hujusmodi depellere ac exterminare volentes, scilicet ne oves ipsae morbidae totum reliquum gregem nobis divinitus commissum suo malo exemplo inficiant et contaminent. Ad cognoscendum igitur, et procedendum contra hujusmodi facinorosos, et alios quoscunque cujuscunque sexus, infra loca praedicta degentes et commorantes, de et super crimine haeresis irretitos et suspectos, sive diffamatos, atque de ipsis haereticis, ac eorum libris reprobatis, fautoribus quoque, receptatoribus, ac defensoribus inquirendum, et inquiri faciendum, eosque juxta juris exigentiam et morem in similibus haecenus usitatum, examinandum, necnon quoscunque testes idoneos contra eosdem et eorum quemlibet recipiendum, admittendum, jurandum, et examinandum, ac ad meliorem vitae frugem convertendum et reducendum, ipsosque etiam haeticos super crimine haeresis vehementer suspectos, confessos, et convictos, ac eorum fautores, rea nativitate Domini M.D.LVII. tertio cal. Aprilis, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, domini Pauli, divina providentia papae quarti, anno secundo.

ceptores, et defensores hujusmodi (si et quatenus eorum errores et opiniones damnatas respuere, abnegare, renunciare, et abjurare, atque ad unitatem sanctae matris catholicae ecclesiae redire voluerint) abjurandum et abjurari faciendum, ac ad gremium ejusdem ecclesiae catholicae, et communionem Christi fidelium recipiendum, admittendum, et restituendum, a sententia excommunicationis, ac aliis sententiis, censuris, et poenis ecclesiasticis propter praemissa incurfis, absolvendum; alioquin contra eosdem delinquentes, et eorum quemlibet, ad ulteriora et graviora procedendum, ac sententias et decreta quaecunque etiam relapsus, si res ita exegerit, contra eos juxta juris exigentiam ferendum et fulminandum, necnon auxilium brachii secularis contra tales (si, ac quotiens opus fuerit) invocandum et requirendum; hujusmodi haeticos obstinatos et impenitentes, vel in haeresim relapsos excommunicandos denunciandos, atque brachio seculari juxta canonicas sanctiones poena haeresis puniendos, relinquendos, et tradendos, atque prout sacri canones volunt, ac juxta hujus inclyti, regni Angliae statuta, et consuetudinem laudabilem, tradendos et deliberandos; caetera quoque omnia et singula in praemissis, aut circa ea necessaria, seu quomodolibet requisita faciendum, exercendum, exequendum, et expediendum, etiam si majora de se exigunt et requirunt, quam praesentibus est expressum, et prout nosmet ipsi faceremus et expediremus, si praemiss. personaliter interessemus; vobis conjunctim, et cuilibet vestrum per se divisim, et in solidum (de quorum sana doctrina, morum gravitate, conscientiae puritate, et circumspeditionis industria in hiis et aliis plurimum confidimus) vices nostras committimus, ac plenam in Domino tenore praesentium concedimus potestatem; vosque conjunctim, ut praefertur, et divisim, vicarios nostros in spiritualibus generales, et commissarios speciales, quoad praemissa, cum cujuslibet coercionis canonicae potestate exequendi, quae decreveritis, seu alter vestrum decreverit in hac parte, ordinamus, praeficiamus, et deputamus per praesentes; assumpto vobis in praemissis, in actorum vestrorum scribam, Johanne Boswel, notario publico, vel eo impedito, quocunque alio idoneo notario ejusmodi deputato. Mandantes, quatenus de executione praesentium, atque de omni eo, quod in et circa praemissa, vel eorum aliquod per vos, aut aliquem vestrum factum, gestum, seu expeditum fuerit, nos, de tempore in tempus, quam citius poteritis, ac prout negotii hujusmodi di qualitas, vel necessitas exegerit, et postulaverit, debite certificare curetis. Datum in manerio nostro de Fulham 10. die mensis Junii,

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Cardinalis Poli mandatum pro processionibus generalibus fiendis. Ex reg. Pole fol. 27. a.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis Polus, Cantuar. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas, et apostolicae sedis legatus natus, venerabili confratri nostro episcopo London. salutem in Domino sempiternam. Cum Dei optimi misericordia votis et precibus omnium semper imploranda sit, ut flagella, quae pro peccatis nostris meremur, avertat, tum vero hoc potissimum tempore id faciend. est, quo universa fere christianitas gravissimo et periculosissimo bellorum incendio adeo misere conflagrat; itaque officio nostro convenire duximus, omnes provinciae nostrae Cant. Christi fideles in Domino hortari atque invitare, ut una ad illum, qui ad dextram patris residet in excelsis, levemus cum manibus corda nostra, apud eumque sedulis orationibus insistamus, ut gravem et periculosam tempestatem sedare, christianos principes inter se diffidentes, ad concordiam reducere, universamque christianitatem in optata tranquillitate constituere, omnipotenti sua virtute dignetur, et hoc praecipue regnum una cum serenissimis ejus regibus, ab omni hostium tam internorum, quam externorum periculo tueri, omnique perturbatione defendere, ita ut in tranquillo et prospero statu degens, gratias Deo pro omnibus erga se beneficiis assidue agere possit. Circumspectioni igitur tuae tenore praesentium committimus et mandamus, firmiter injungentes, quatenus omnibus et singulis suffraganeis nostris per nostram provinciam Cant. ubilibet constitutis, vice et auctoritate nostris, cum omni celeritate accommoda, literis tuis, harum seriem continentibus, denuncies, significes, et eisdem districtius injungas, quod ipsorum singuli in ecclesiis suis cathedralibus et aliis ecclesiis conventualibus et collegiatis, tam regular. quam secular. necnon parochialibus ecclesiis suarum civitatum et dioec. diebus dominicis et festivis, quascunque personas, tam ecclesiasticas, quam seculares efficaciter moveant et inducant, seu sic moveri et induci faciant, ut pro bono et felici statu universalis ecclesiae, pro ejus summo in terris pastore pontifice Romano, reliquisque christiani gregis rectoribus tam spiritualibus quam temporalibus, ac pace et concordia inter christianos principes ineunda, ac regni et serenissimorum ejus regum prosperitate et tranquillitate, processiones et supplicationes publicas ter quolibet hebdomada; in civitatibus vero ac oppidis, et locis celebrioribus, bis vel semel ad minus generales, cum decantatione letaniarum, et missae (si fieri poterit) alioquin cum tribus collectis; prima, videlicet, pro ecclesia et aliis, ut praemittitur, secunda pro pace, tertia pro serenissimis regibus, et hoc regno, cum omni cordis humilitate et devotione faciant et observent; suppliciter deprecando, ut omnipotens et misericors Deus, tantas calamitates ab universa ecclesia depellere, pacem populo christiano concedere, et hoc regnum, ejusque serenissimos reges, ab omni hostium impugnatione, et periculo tutos conservare et defendere dignetur: quod tu etiam, frater episcope, in tuis civitate et dioec. London. observari facies. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth vicesimo die mensis Julii, anno Domini M.D.LVII. et nostrae consecrationis anno secundo.

Cardinal Pole's letter for discharging of benefices of the yearly value of twenty marks, or under, from the payment of tenths. Ex reg. Lacey Exon. fol. 22.

AFTER our hartie commendacions. Wheare the kinge and quenes highness, of theyre good and godly, dispositions, have by an acte made in parliament, discharged the clergie, amonge diverse other thinges, from the payment of all suche tenths, as weare by former actes of parliament graunted unto the quenes highnes, and her successors; with a proviso neverthelesse in the same acte, that the sayed tenths shoulde still continewe to be aunswered, and go towards the payment of pensions, corrodies, annuitees, and other charges; the discharging whereof the clergie had for the consideration aforesayde undertaken, as by the same acte more playnlye apperith. Wherefore we myndinge the reliefe of the clergie, in as moche as in us lieth, and especiallie of those of the clergie, whose lyvings are not sufficient, for theyre smallnesse, to mainteine them (in consideration that the charge of payinge of pensions, and other charges is somewhat decreased, throughe the decease of manye of the pensioners sithens that tyme) have resolved, that all suche, as have any spirituall promotions, havinge cure of soule, of the yerely value of 20. markes or under, and were charged with the payment of tenths as before, shall thereof from henceforth clerelye be discharged. Yntending also hereafter, as the charge of pensions shall wax lesse, to proceade in disbordeninge the rest of the clergie from the payment of the tenths, which presently we cannot do generallie, as we would. Wherefore we require quire

VOL. IV.

R r

quire yow to se this our entent published and observed, throughout your diocesse, so as neyther at Christmas next ensuing, at which time the tenth is due to be payd, nor from thence forward, ye receyve anye tenth of them, whose lyvings have cure of soule, are of or under the yerelye value of 20. marks. Provided not-withstandinge, in case any of them be byhinde with theyre tenths, or any parte therof hitherto, that the same be demaunded of the rest, as ye did before, till ye shall have other advertisement from us. And so fare ye hartelye well. From Richmounde the thirde of August.

REG. CAR. CANTUARIEN.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Advocatio praebendae in ecclesia Lincoln. concessa domino Cant. archiepiscopo.
Ex reg. Pole fol. 10. b.

OMNIBUS Christi fidelibus, ad quos praesentes literae pervenerint, Thomas, permissione divina Lincoln. episcopus, salutem in Domino sempiternam. Quum tam de jure, antiqua laudabili, longaevaue et legitime praescripta consuetudine haecenus inconcussa usitat. et observat. quam etiam de singulari praerogativa ecclesiae metropolitanae Christi Cantuar. fuerit, et sit usitatum, et observatum, quod archiepiscopus Cant. pro tempore existens, cuilibet suffraganeorum in episcopum alicujus ecclesiae cathedralis suae Cant. provinciae electo, statim post confirmationem suam unum clericum idoneum nominare et praesentare possit, cui idem elect. confirmatus tenebitur, quamprimum facultas se obtulerit, in sua ecclesia cathedrali (si secularis fuerit) de canonicatu et praebenda, si vero regularis, de alio competenti beneficio ecclesiastico providere; ac interim dictum clericum ad canonicatum et praebendam seu beneficium hujusmodi sic promovend. acceptare et admittere, necnon sibi pensionem annuam quinque librarum monetae Angliae constituere, tantisper solvend. et impendend. quousque eidem clerico de canonicatu et praebenda, vel de alio competenti beneficio hujusmodi sufficienter fuerit cautum et provisum. Sciatis igitur me Thomam, Lincoln. episcopum antedictum, jura, libertates, consuetudines, et praerogativam ecclesiae metropolitanae Christi Cant. pro posse meo adimplere volentem, dedisse, concessisse, et hoc praesenti scripto meo confirmasse reverendissimo in Christo patri, et domino, domino Reginaldo, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbytero cardinali Polo, Cant. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primate, et apostolicae sedis legato nato, consecratori meo, primam et proximam advocatio-nem, nominationem et liberam dispositionem cujusunque canonicatus et praebendae in ecclesia mea cathedrali Lincoln. meorum patronatus et collationis, cum illum per mortem, resignationem, cessionem, dimissionem, vel permutationem, aut alio quocunque modo prox. vacare contigerit; habend. et tenend. sibi, et assignat. suis dictam advocacy, nominationem, et liberam dispositionem cujusunque canonicatus et praebendae hujusmodi, sic (ut praemittitur) primo, et proximo vacatur. pro unica vice tantum. Ita quod bene liceat, et licebit praedicto reverendissimo patri, vel ejus assignat. ad libitum suum, auctoritate praesentium, quamcunque personam idoneam ad dict. canonicatum, et praebendam, semel duntaxat, et non ultra, cum primo, vel prox. vacare contigerit, nominare, et praesentare, ac literas nominationis, et praesentationis de eisdem canonicatu, et praebenda (ut praefertur) primo, et prox. vacatur. cuicunque personae idoneae efacere, et concedere; ac omnia alia, et singula agere, exercere, et perimplere, quae in praemissis, et circa ea necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna, adeo plene, libere, et integre, prout egomet facerem, et perimplerem, si haec praesens mea concessio facta non fuisset; ita quod, pro prima, et proxima vice tantum, non liceat, neque licebit mihi dictos canonicatum, et praebendam sic (ut praemittitur) primo, et prox. vacatur. alicui alii personae conferre, quam illi solum personae, sic per dictum reverendissimum patrem, vel ejus deputatum mihi nominandae, et praesentandae. In cujus rei testimonium, sigillum meum praesentibus est appensum. Dat. Londini decimo septimo die mensis Augusti anno domini M.D.LVII. et consecrationis meae anno primo.

The bishop of London's letter for prorogation of the synod. Ex reg. Lacey Exon. fol. 26.

My verye good lorde.

THIS daye I received advertisemente from my lord cardinall his grace, that the synode cannot convenyentlye be kepte at the daye appointed; and therefore you, and the reste of the bishoppes of the province of Canterburye to have warnynge thereof, to avoide labour and costes therein, with admonition that ye and the said bishops shall have a new warning for yourselfes, and the cleargye of your meatinge agayne, whiche advertisemente his grace willed to be signified by me unto yow. And thus I take my leave of your good lordshippe, beseechinge God alwayes well to preserve yow. Written in haste from Fulham this twelfe of October by your lordships well assured bedisman, EDMUNDE London.

Cardi-

Card. POLI praesentatio ad praebendam in eccl. CICESTR. 155

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Cardinalis Poli praesentatio ad praebendam in ecclesia Cicestrensi. Ex reg. Poli fol. 13. a.

REGINALDUS, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis Polus, Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas, et apostolicae sedis legatus natus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Johanni, eadem permissione Cicestren. episcopo, ejusve vicario in spiritualibus generali, aut alii cuicunque potestatem, et auctoritatem sufficientem in hac parte habenti, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum vos confrater antedictus per vestras literas patentes sigillo vestro episcopali munitas, gerentes datum vicesimo secundo die mensis Novembris, anno Domini M.D.LVII. juxta et secundum antiquam, laudabilem, et legitime praescriptam consuetudinem hactenus inconcussè usitat. et observat. ac singularem praerogativam ecclesiae nostrae metropolitanae Christi Cant. intuitu consecrationis vestrae vobis impensae, dederitis, et concesseritis nobis Reginaldo, archiepiscopo antedicto, primam, et proximam advocationem, nominationem, et liberam dispositionem cujuscunque canonicatus, et praebendae in ecclesia vestra cathedrali Cicestren. vestrorum patronatus et collationis, cum illum per mortem, resignationem, cessionem, dimissionem, vel permutationem, aut alio quocunque modo post dat. scripti vestri advocationem praedict. vacare contigerit; habend. et tenend. nobis et assignat. nostris dictas advocationem, nominationem, et liberam dispositionem cujuscunque canonicatus, et praebendae hujusmodi, sic, ut praemittitur, primo et proximo vacatur. pro unica vice tantum, prout per scriptum vestrum advocationis praedictae (ad quod habeatur relatio) plenius liquet, et apparet. Cumque, uti accepimus, canonicatus, et praebendae de Erthamme in ecclesia vestra cathedrali Cicestren. praedict. quos Rolandus Swynbourne nuper habuit, sint primi et proximi, qui citra consecrationem vestram vacaverint; nos jure nostro in hac parte utentes, ad eosdem canonicatum et praebendam de Erthamme sic vacantes, et ad nostram praesentationem nominibus, quibus supra, hac vice spectant. dilectum nobis in Christo Thomam Frier, scholarem in legibus bacalareum, fraternitati vestrae harum serie duximus praesentand. et praesentamus; rogantes et requirentes, quatenus eundem Thomam Frier ad dictos canonicatum, et praebendam admittere, ipsumque canonicum, et praebendarium eorundem, ac in, et de eisdem instituere canonice, et investire cum suis juribus, et pertinentiis universis, caeteraque peragere, et perimplere, quae vestro in hac parte incumbunt officio pastoralis, dignemini, charitatis intuitu, cum gratia, et favore benevolis. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambehith Winton. dioec. decimo die mensis Decembris, anno Domini M.D.LVII. et nostrae consecrationis anno secundo.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. auctoritate brevis regii celebrata per dom. Reginald. Polum, cardin. archiepiscopum Cant. 1. Januar. in ecclesia S. Pauli, London. Ibid. fol. 59. seq.

EODEM die, sacris peractis, episcopus London. exhibuit certificatorium super executione mandati monitorii, et reverendissimus clerus domus inferioris jussit eligere sibi prolocutorem, 24. die Januarii praesentandum. Quo die Johannes Harpsfield praesentatus et admissus fuit a reverendissimo apud Lambhith, qui mox causas hujus synodi verbo tenus proposuit, videlicet: "Quod cum de antiquo more rex Angliae ob aliquot arduas causas praelatos hujus regni ad concilium sive parliamentum suum adesse jubet, propter regis securitatem et hujus regni statum ac bonum publicum concernent. consilia, et auxilia sua impensuros; ita archiepiscopus Cantuar. episcopos suos suffraganeos, praelatos, etc. ad sacrum concilium evocare assolet de iisdem causis tractaturos, et auxilia sua consimili modo daturus. Et inter alia monuit negotium maximi ponderis; scilicet cogitare, quomodo oppidum Caleis ad pristinum jus regni vi armata reduci possit. Etiam censuit perpendendum, et istud inprimis, quo modo defectus ecclesiarum cathedralium, rectoriarum, vicariarum, totius cleri, et status omnium dioeceseos et provinciae Cantuariensis; et ut ecclesiae ex reginae munificentia dispositioni reverendissimi commendatae, recto ordine disponi et confirmari valeant. Et quid sibi videatur, voluit eos sibi significare. Et ad feliciorum expeditionem commissum est hoc negotium episcopis London. Roffen. Meneven. Petriburgen. et Gloucestr. ut consilia sua in scriptis renunciare velint quamprimum: deinde voluit reverend. statuta ecclesiarum noviter erectarum aut mutatarum, a regularibus ad seculares, expendi per episcopos Lincoln. Cicestren. et Petriburgen. item, et Nicholao Wotton, Cant. Edmundo Stuard, Winton. et Setho Laud, Wigorn. ecclesiarum decanis; et quae consideranda sunt, referre reverendissimo, quamprimum commode poterint."

Sequenti die 28. Januarii, episcopus London. exhibuit in scriptis quaedam collecta, quae ipse aliique episcopi in suis dioec. reformatione digna esse existimarunt. Et quia omnes non erant parati cum suis collectionibus, ideo superfederunt de lectione usque in tempus magis opportunum. Deinde prolocutor cum clero intrans, porrexit patribus schedulam causarum raritatis raritatis presbyterorum ex una parte collectarum, et remedia, quibus major copia valeat haberi, ex adversa continentem. Qua lecta per Henr. Cole decanum, etc. patres voluerunt, ut hanc schedulam traderet reverendissimo. Deinde monuit locumtenens praelatos inferioris domus, ut ipsi exhiberent in scriptis, quod reformatum putarent, et exhiberent proximo die, viz. 4. Februarii, ad quem continuata fuit synodus.

Quo die 4. Februarii, episcopus "London. proposuit quandam schedulam circa res divinas, qua lecta, rogabat patres, ut illi de remediis cogitarent, et deputarent certos episcopos, ut inter se consulerent. Deinde idem dominus praesidens consuluit, ut, quia status hujus regni perturbatur ex infestatione Gallorum, et Scotorum, ipsi velint regiae majestati subvenire; et putavit ampliorem summam concedendam, quam antea, quia majus periculum ab hostibus sit timendum. Quibus verbis a praefato locumtenente vix prolatis, omnes una voce affirmabant hoc perquam necessarium, idque lubenti animo se praestituros. Quod negotium quo facile expediri possit, electi sunt episcopi London. Winton. Elien. Roffen. Lincoln. et Petriburgen. quibus adjuncti sunt sex de domo inferiori, qui constituerent inter se tam de quantitate solvenda, quam etiam de modo, et tempore solutionis."

Et tandem post varios tractatus, 9. die mensis Februarii "statuerunt concedere regiae majestati octo solidos de qualibet libra omnium beneficiorum ecclesiasticorum; idque ultra solutionem veteris subsidii prius concessi." Quam concessionem in instrumento publico redactam 14. die Februarii exhibuerunt reverendissimo, qui archiepiscopum Eborac. de subsidio concessio certificavit, rogans, ut ille consimiliter in sua provincia facere dignetur.

Sequenti 16. die Februarii in domo capitulari, comparuit "episcopus Assiavensis ex mandato reverendissimi, se cupere, ut durante parlamento toties synodus celebraretur, quoties commode fieri posset, atque ut de rebus reformatione indigentibus tractaret; ac parlamento finito, ut illi, qui decedere ad suas dioeceses vellet, vices suas concederent, ut assensum darent, episcopis London. Elien. Roffen. et caeteris episcopis hic permansuris, quae statuenda viderentur ad reformationem ecclesiae."

Secundo post die, viz. 18. mensis Februarii "dom. locumtenens, etc. consultabat, quomodo beneficia tenuia possint officari; et tandem habitis inter se mutuis colloquiis, excogitaverunt sequentes articulos ad eam rem pertinentes; videlicet:

I. That no priests be taken up to serve the wars.

II. Item, That two small benefices contiguous may be joyn'd together in commendam by the bishop, to serve them "Alternis vicibus."

III. Item, That the parishioners of chapels annexed may be compelled to come unto the parish church, whereunto they be annexed for a time, 'till curates may be provided.

IV. Item, That the bishops may be authorized by the pope to give orders: extra tempora praescripta.

Quos articulos rogarunt patres dominum Cole, ut ipse eorum nomine reverendissimo exhiberet."

Deinde 25. Februarii "locumtenens et alii patres convenientes, consultarunt de providendis armis contra vim Scotorum, — de concessione ejusmodi armorum, quomodo, et a quibus essent praeparanda." Quos articulos reverendissimo tradiderunt, qui "voluit (synodum) expedire, an concedendum sit hoc tempore quadragesimali, ut promiscue omnes in tanta piscium caritate lacticiis vesci possent, qua de re aliquamdiu patres consultantes, nihil certi statuerunt."

Tandem habitis tractatibus de solutione decimarum, quam adhuc cessare non posse perspexerunt, reverendissimus 8. die Martii continuavit, et prorogavit convocationem ad 11. diem Novembris, anni M.D.LVIII.

In MS. sequuntur nonnulla capita articulos de doctrina, et disciplina ecclesiae, et ecclesiasticorum continentia; item statuta quaedam de eadem materia, quae in hac synodo, si non stabilita, saltem proposita fuisse, valde probabile est.

Articuli de doctrina.

CAP. I. Ut populus per concionatores, quantum fieri potest, doceatur; ut quatuor brevium concionum genera Anglice perscribantur, eaque ubi concionatores defuerint, dominicis diebus, et aliis festis populo per rectores, vicarios, et parochos recitentur.

Primi generis conciones, sint de eucharistia, de poenitentia, de confessione auriculari, et de reliquis sacramentis, quae haeretici nostri temporis maxime impugnarunt. Item de libero arbitrio, de justificatione, de bonis operibus, de ecclesia, ejusque auctoritate, unitate, ac ministris.

Secundi generis, sint expositiones in articulos fidei, orationem dominicam, angelicam salutationem, decalogum, et septem ecclesiae sacramenta.

Tertii generis, sint conciones breves de tempore, et de sanctis.

Quarti generis conciones, sint de natura, usu, et significatione caeremoniarum, quae in ecclesia sunt maxime usitatae. Item de virtutibus, et vitiis, velut de charitate, de obedientia, de timore Dei, de extremo judicio, de adulterio, de avaritia, de perjurio, de luxu, etc.

Ut brevis catechismus edatur Latine et Anglice, quo juvenus in fidei rudimentis erudiatur.

Sint quoque salutaria quaedam ac pia documenta, quibus sacerdotes tam in confessionibus audiendis, quam in infirmis visitandis, utantur.

De hiis, quae ad orationem pertinent.

II. Ut precationum liber horas beatae Mariae, psalmos poenitenciales, vigiliis, mortuorum commendationes, psalmos passionis, et alias pias precationes complectens, Latine et Anglice edatur, edatur, quo a populo in ecclesia uniusmodi precandi modus observetur.

Sit formula quaedam gratiarum in prandio, et in coena Deo agendarum, patrum sermone composita, qua laici per totum regnum utantur.

^a Ut dum concio, vel summa missa, quam vocant, ac solennis peragitur, nullus sacerdos celebret; sed omnes tam sacerdotes, quam laici eam attentis animis pariter audiant.

^b Ut breviaria ac libri missales recognoscantur, et repurgentur, et uniusmodi per totum regnum habeantur.

^c Ut in omnibus dioecesibus eadem ceremoniae omnino teneantur.

Ut festum dedicationis uno certo ac statuto die in omnibus ecclesiis celebretur.

Ut in templis, dum res divina peragitur, nemo ambulare, aut confabulari permittatur; sed vel precibus se dedat, vel exeat e templo.

De templis decore ornandis, ac refarciendis.

III. Ut vestes sacrae, ad tremenda mysteria obeunda, sint in singulis templis ad minimum duplices; quarum unae diebus festis, alterae profectis inserviant: sint etiam honestae ac decorae.

Sint calices argentei; sint praeterea thuribula honesta, et crux cum vexillo.

Altaria item sint decore admodum ornata: parentur item libri ad sanctum Dei cultum necessarii: sint etiam corporalia munda.

Sit porro imago crucifixi ad dominicae passionis recordationem. Sint etiam superpellicia pro parocho et ministro honesta et munda.

Paretur locus vel circiter medium altaris, vel ad ejus cornu, in quo sacrosancta eucharistia sub sera sancte custodiatur, ne in eam impii sacramentarii aliquando impetum faciant.

Ut vestimenta sacra, calices, et altaria jamdudum polluta, et prophanata, denuo consecrentur.

Ut tecta, fenestrae, tabulatum, crucifixi, et caeterae partes templorum probe reficiantur.

Ut altaria diruta in singulis templis denuo erigantur.

Ut coemeteria sancte servantur, diligenterque circumsepiantur, ne pecudes irrumpant.

De disciplina ecclesiastica renovanda, et moribus cleri per eandem reformandis.

Ut in synodis inquiratur diligenter in omnes rectores, vicarios, et curatos, et alios quoslibet sacerdotes, quomodo anno praeterito se gesserint.

Provideatur item de archidiaconis, qui sunt episcoporum oculi, ut suis muneribus secundum veteres canones sedulo perfungantur.

IV. Ut rurales decani, et officiales non venalem habeant disciplinam ecclesiasticam, sic ut inopes (sicut hoc tempore fit) plectantur, divites ne appellentur quidem.

V. Ut nullus sacerdos mulierem probabiliter suspectam, vel alias infamem in aedibus suis teneat, sed ab ordinario admonitus, intra mensem eam excludat.

VI. Ut sacerdotes nullam exerceant mercataram, neque sordidis, et prophanis muneribus omnino se dedant, ne ordo contemnatur, ejusque vilescat auctoritas.

VII. Ut sacerdotes singuli vel in precibus, vel in studiis, vel in pueris erudiendis, vel aliis honestis exercitiis assidue versentur, ne adversarius eos otiosos reperiatur.

VIII. ^d Episcopus, presbyter, diaconus, aut subdiaconus, in fornicatione, aut perjurio, aut furto deprehensus, vel legitime convictus, castigetur, vel deponatur.

IX. ^e Episcopus, presbyter, aut diaconus, qui vel aleae, vel ebrietatibus indulget, admonitus, vel desinat, vel deponatur.

X. ^f Presbyter si uxorem duxerit, ab ordine suo illum deponi debere. Quod si fornicatus fuerit, vel adulterium commiserit, extra ecclesiam abjici, et ad poenitentiam inter laicos redigi.

XI. Si quis clericus, jam olim post susceptos sacros ordines, illicite conjugatus, et postea separatus, et post poenitentiam restitutus ministerio, ad illicitum thorum denuo redire praesumpserit, officio deponatur usque in diem mortis; laica tantum communione ei concessa.

XII. ^g Et quoniam populus a cultu Dei, qui a sacerdotibus conjugatis tam irreverenter obitur, penitus abhorret, tales sacerdotes vel amoveantur penitus a ministerio, vel, propter paucitatem ministrorum ac sacerdotum, sint ad tempus curati. Sed nullum omnino proprium habeant sacerdotium, quin etiam poenitentiam dignam crimine, quod admiserunt, agere cogantur.

XIII. Ut in dioecesibus, in quibus uxores duxerunt, ministrare nullo modo permittantur; sed iidem ad sexaginta millia passuum removeantur: et si quispiam illorum vel semel versatus cum uxore, vel collocutus esse deprehensus fuerit, canonice castigetur. Et in singulis synodis de eorum conversatione inquiratur.

XIV. Quo simoniae labes, qua ecclesia Anglicana non ante hoc tempus solum, sed etiam jam misere infecta est, prorsus tollatur; statuatur synodus, ne vendantur a patronis eorumve famulis sacerdotia, neque sub pacto aliquo, aut conditione concedantur; neque sacerdotum quispiam, qui sacerdotium aliquod petit, quidquam muneris, quo illud obtineat, cuiquam det. Quod si patronus sacerdotium vendidisse, aut sub pacto aliquo cuiquam sacerdoti concessisse deprehensus fuerit, non admittatur. ^h Singuli denique ordinarii ab hiis, qui ipsis praesentati fuerint, recipiant juramentum, prout alias statutum fuit in constitutione provinciali, quae incipit: "Praesenti de jurejurando:" cujus formula sequitur ad verbum:

Ego N. praesentatus ad ecclesiam parochialem de N. per talem patronum ejusdem ecclesiae, juro ad haec sacrosancta Dei evangelia per me corporaliter tacta, quod propter ecclesiam parochialem praedictam obtinendam, aut praesentationem ad eandem habendam, aut acquirendam, neque ego, neque alia persona vice et nomine meo, nec de consensu aut scientia meis praedicto patrono, seu alii cuicunque aliquod, praemissorum nomine aut intuitu, promissimus, aut dedimus; nec quicquam ejus rei gratia permutavimus, compensavimus, aut prius datum confirmavimus, apudve quemquam deposuimus; seu quicquam mutuavimus, commodavimus, seu elocavimus; priusve mutuatum, commodatum, depositum, aut elocatum, aut quocunque modo debitum remisimus seu relaxavimus. Nec de sanctuario, gleba, terris, praediis, tenementis, redditibus praedictae ecclesiae, fructibusve, decimis, aut oblationibus ejusdem praeteritis, praesentibus, aut futuris, donationem, remissionem, locationemve promissimus, fecimus, aut inivimus; seu aliquis nostrum de mandato, scientia, aut consensu meis promissit, fecit, aut inivit. Ita me Deus adjuvet, et haec sacrosancta Dei evangelia.

^a Ex concil. Colon. Mogunt. et Trevir. ^b Ex concil. Colon. Mogunt. et Trevir. deliberetur. ^c Deliberetur, quo pacto hoc fiat. ^d Canon apost. 24. ^e Canon apost. 41. ^f Concil. Neocaesar. ^g Deliberetur. ^h Here is a red cross in the margin of the MS.

XV. Ut nemo levi de causa excommunicetur.

XVI. Ut nemo cum excommunicatis versari permittatur, nisi quibus de jure permissum est.

XVII. Ut episcopi, et ordinarii in synodis, et alias, diligenter inquirent de iis, qui tempore schismatis magistros se profitebantur pravorum dogmatum, ut vel publice se jam resipuisse profiteantur, vel a ministerio amoveantur; et si laici fuerint, excommunicentur.

XVIII. Ut in mensis sacerdotum lectio sacrum literarum habeatur.

XIX. Ut sacris initiandi literas testimoniales habeant, et titulum; itemque ut de doctrina, aetate, et moribus exquisite examinentur.

De ecclesiis cathedralibus et aliis.

XX. Ut in illis sint aliqui praebendarii concionatores verbi, qui episcopos juvent.

XXI. Ut secundum antiqua ecclesiarum cathedralium statuta, sit in singulis earum vir doctus, qui sacras literas clero et populo interpretetur. Et in noviter erectis ecclesiis assignentur aliqua praebenda cum incremento redditus, quae nulli conferatur, nisi qui velit haec praestare.

XXII. Ut in singulis praedictarum ecclesiarum sint sexaginta, vel plures pueri ex beneficiis appropriatis sustentandi, ibique grammaticam discant, quo clero postea inserviant.

XXIII. Provideatur item, ut in singulis ecclesiis parochialibus sit rector, vicarius, aut parochus: et ubi non satis ex decimis, et fructibus ecclesiae suppetit ad sacerdotem sustentandum, vel aliquo modo fructus augeantur, vel duae ecclesiae uniantur, idque potissimum in urbibus et oppidis incorporatis.

Consideretur item de capellis annexis.

Ut pluralitas beneficiorum doctis solum viris concedatur, quo doctrinae praemium sit, et indocti ab hoc privilegio prorsus excludantur.

De vestitu.

Ut sacerdotes omnes habitu clericali incedere cogantur.

Ut, qui praebendis aut ulla promotione spirituali gaudent, etiam si sacris non sint initiati, habitu sacerdotali, vel clericali vestiti incedant pro more patriae, ubi degunt.

Ut in vestitu episcoporum et presbyterorum moderatio adhibeatur.

Ut episcopi inquirent de his, qui sylvis, aut aliis abditis locis se occultant, aut alioquin non accedunt ad parochiales ecclesias diebus et horis, quibus divina officia diebus festis celebrantur; et si admoniti non resipiscant, examinentur tanquam suspecti haereseos, et canonice castigentur ad aliorum exemplum.

Articuli de academiis et scholis.

I. Ut una eademque sophisticae et dialecticae introductio in utraque academia juventuti perlegatur. Deinde Porphyrii praedicabilia et praedicamenta. Tum Aristotelis dialectica. Adhibeatur interdum (si placet) Rodolphus Agricola de inventione. Caeterae omnes dialecticae rejiciantur.

II. In philosophia tam morali, quam naturali legatur solus Aristoteles.

III. In theologia legat unus aliquam Bibliae partem, alter Magistrum Sententiarum, vel alium auctorem ex theologis scholasticis, quo doctrina scholastica, quae theologiae professoribus maxime necessaria est, renovetur.

IV. Et quoniam studiorum ardor, qui in academiis olim vigere solet, jam pene deferbuit, et ad professores publicos audiendos, propter delicatum quoddam fastidium, pauci admodum confluunt; provideatur, ut certus numerus cujusque collegii, prout praepositis collegiorum ad hanc, vel illam lectionem magis idonei judicabuntur, ad singulos praelectores publicos audiendos quotidie accedere cogatur, quo et praelectores ipsi ad accuratius praelegendum incitentur, et auditores majores in libris faciant progressionem.

V. Ut nemo in sociorum, aut discipulorum numerum in aliquo collegio cooptetur, et bonis alatur collegii, nisi pauper sit, et parentes illius polliceri voluerint, se cum eo, simulatque ad maturam aetatem pervenerit, serio acturos, ut clero se addicat consecretque. Idemque in ludis literariis, in quibus aliquis discipulorum numerus ex fundatoris beneficio sustentatur, omnino observetur.

VI. —

VII. Ut mature provideatur, quo numerus eorum, qui in academiis operam literis navant, aliqua ratione augeatur; uti non desinant, qui in posterum clero se addicant.

VIII. Ut omnes, cujusunque ordinis, conditionis, aut status sint, qui in academiis discendi causa versantur, clericali et sacerdotali habitu, sub poena expulsionis, vestiti incedant, quo a laicis distinguantur; et quotquot aliquo gradu scholastico sunt insigniti, semper extra collegia induti incedant, prout ipsorum gradus postulat, sub eadem poena.

IX. Ut nemo ad sacerdotium, aut ullam aliam promotionem (ut vocant) spiritualement supra summam viginti librarum admittatur, nisi triennio in academia aetatem discendi causa degerit, et gradu gradu saltem bacalareatus insignitus fuerit.

X. Ut nemo alearum, chartarum pictarum, tesserarum ludo in taberna, diversorio, aut domo ulla extra collegia pro pecunia utatur, sub poena expulsionis.

Ut proluxae praefationes, atque etiam confutationes, quae nuper in principiis disputationum haberi solebant, amputentur, quo tempus in argumentis concisis consumatur.

Ut beneficiati, qui in academiis studii causa, vel sub praetextu studii, degunt, teneantur statutis temporibus sese disputationibus exercere, et lectionibus publicis interesse, et in collegiis, vel aulis, aut aliis domibus studentium morari.

De scholis.

Ut plures ludi literarii (si fieri potest) erigantur, et illis, tum qui jam sunt, tum qui futuri sunt, pii ludimagistri, et catholici praeficiantur, et de haeresi suspecti removeantur.

Ut nemo ad juventutem vel in scholis, vel in generosorum aedibus instituendam admittatur, nisi per ordinarium approbatus.

Statuta clero in synodo collecto proposita.

Quod episcopi tum ea, quae infra scribuntur, tum omnia alia, quae suo officio incumbunt, diligenter exequantur. Quum archiepiscopi, et episcopi esse debeant forma gregis, ad quam se debeant subditi reformare; quod nequit fieri, nisi se omnibus exhibeant in exemplum; majorum itaque institutis inhaerentes, exhortamur in Domino, et in virtute sanctae obedientiae, atque sub divina attestazione judicii monemus, ut omnes et singuli episcopi in festis principalibus, saltem in festis Nativitatis Domini, Paschae, et Pentecostes, atque in ebdomada sancta praesentiam suam debitam in ecclesiis suis cath. exhibeant, ibique missas celebrent, et oleum sacrum, atque infirmorum in die coenae Domini quolibet anno conficiant, nisi eos ab ipsis ecclesiis a suis superioribus evocari, aut ex infirmitate, vel aliqua alia justa causa tunc abesse contingat. Circumeant praeterea dioeceses suas temporibus opportunis, monasteria et hospitalia reformando, clerum et plebem corrigendo, haereses et errores extirpando, et verbum vitae in agro dominico seminando; in conferendis ordinibus, atque beneficiis instituendis; curatis multo diligentius, quam antehac, vigilando, ne inhabiles ad curam animarum, etiam ad tempus, substituantur, praecavendo; beneficiatos, qui ex causa non admodum urgenti abfuerint, ad residendum in suis beneficiis citra omnem redemptionem compellendo, veniasque eadem beneficia pro pecunia locandi prorsus rescindendo; exactiones et rigores officiariorum et ministrorum suorum compescendo; ecclesiarum, et capellarum privilegiat. abusus comprimendo; concionatores idoneos per dioeceses suas subinde emittendo; haereticos eorumque libros explorando et corrigendo, et cum opus fuerit, etiam condemnando et extinguendo: et, ut rudimenta fidei et literarum tam in universitatibus, quam in aliis gymnasiis publicis pura jaccian-tur, puriusque et sincerius coalescant, sollicitius incumbendo; abbates, et priores ad debitum numerum religiosorum reducendo, ipsosque religiosos in suis monasteriis degentes, ad monasticam conversationem excitando, absentes ad sua monasteria compellendo, licentiam capacitatum coercendo: et, ut per proprietarios, rectoresque, et vicarios frequentes in suis ecclesiis conciones fieri procurent, distributionesque debite inter pauperes earundem parochianos fiant, diligentissime providendo; clericos delinquentes vigilantius inquirendo, et severius, quam antehac, corrigendo, eosdemque super horrendis sceleribus etiam coram laicis convictos, in carceribus vel in perpetuum retinendo, vel saltem non ita facile, nec tam cito ad purgationem admittendo; simoniacos deponendo; et carnis libidine lapsos, ad rigorem canonum, et constitutionum tam in praesenti synodo, quam in prioribus editarum, castigando; venatores et aucupes clericos coercendo; pretiosisque vestibus indutos, ad vestium modum in hac synodo praefinitum, reducendo, et in eodem retinendo; caeterosque clericos otiosos, aut dissolutos ad exercitia, et honestam conversationem revocando: et, ut in summa dicamus, omnes subditos viros ad mandatorum Dei, canonumque et constitutionum maxime tuitionem, fidei et morum integritatem concernentium, observantiam verbo et exemplo cohortando, persuadendo, et, ubi opus fuerit, etiam compellendo.

De qualitate ordinandorum.

Praesentis sacri concilii provincialis auctoritate sancimus, ordinamus, et statuimus, quod nullus episcopus per se, sive suum suffraganeum, quempiam alienae dioeceseos, praeter regulares exemptos per ordinatorem debite examinatos, ad sacros ordines intra Cant. provinciam de caetero admittat, nec ordinet; nec iis, aut eorum alicui liceat extraneos, et qui infra dioec. vel jurisdictionem suam non sunt oriundi, aut beneficiati non fuerint, vel domicilium ibid. per triennium non habuerint, quoquo modo ordinare, etiam si idem literas episcoporum suorum dimissoriales habuerint; quas auctoritate praesentis concilii decernimus non esse admittendas quoquo modo. Statuimus quoque et ordinamus, quod nullus clericus secularis de caetero admittatur ad sacros ordines, nisi habuerit literas testimoniales curati, et oeconomorum, vel parochiae, in qua natus, beneficiatus, vel per triennium proximo praecedens commoratus fuerit, sub sigillo archidiaconus illius loci, vel ejus officialis, ubi archidiaconus jurisdictionem habuerit; alioquin sub sigillo commissarii in parochia praedict. jurisdictionem habentis; seu si in aliqua universitate studens fuerit, sub sigillo commissarii universitatis Oxon. seu vicecancellarii Cantabrig. cum testimonio superioris loci sui; quae literae ipsius ordinandi vitam, genus, patriam, bonam famam, et conversationem, tam circa fidem catholicam, quam circa alia contineant: pro quibus quidem literis, et sigillo, ultra quatuor denarios nihil exigatur, sub poena suspensionis ab officio, quam ipso facto auctoritate hujus concilii incurrat, donec duplum pecuniae receptae parti sic solventi restituat. Exacte itaque curent episcopi, ut neminem de caetero ad subdiaconatus ordinem promoveant, nisi eum, qui adeo sit exercitatus in evangelis, et epistolis sacris saltem in missali contentis, ut eorundem sensum grammaticalem examinatori prompte et expedite reddere valeat. Sitque eorum quilibet sufficienter instructus etiam in aliis ad ordinem illum, quem tunc assumpturus est, per sacros canones requisitis, et in officiis divinis secundum morem ecclesiae et loci consuetudinem promptus et expertus; habeatque praeterea in presbyterum ordinandus caetera ad ipsius officium et ordinem per "c. Quae ipsis 38. dist." ipsis sacerdotibus necessario requisita.

¹ Placet hoc statutum, si quid addatur coercionis.

De idoneitate admittendorum ad beneficia.

Sacerdotibus valde tremendum est iudicium Dei, ne per eorum ignorantiam, aut negligentiam populus ob penuriam verbi Dei fame pereat, et a regno Dei excludatur. Statuimus itaque, et ordinamus; quod ad ecclesiam parochialem, ejusve vicariam perpetuam, post annum a publicatione praesentis statuti, ordinarii locorum neminem admittant, nisi eum, qui omnia et singula in quadam constitutione provinciali sic incipien. "Ignorantia sacerdotum," etc. de officio archipresbyteri intellexerit, adeo in eisdem tritus et exercitatus fuerit, quod memoriter et prompte eorum sensum verum juxta tenorem cujusdam libelli vocati, "Exoneratorium curatorum," explicare, et exponere possit; eidemque per ordinarium specialiter tunc injungatur, quod quater ad minus in anno ea omnia suis parochianis diligenter et sincere exponat, praedicet, et declaret: super quo, an debite observatum fuerit, ordinarii locorum in singulis suis visitationibus inquisitionem faciant specialem; et quos constitutionem tam salubrem violasse, praedictaque non fecisse compererint, prima vice per suspensionem ab officio per unum mensem, et secunda vice per duos menses, et sic deinceps, poenam aggravando, prout illorum negligentia crescit, ad observandum praedicta compellant: providentes tamen, ut interim curae animarum impensis suspensi, quatenus opus fuerit, debite deserviant. Sacras vero literas, ad ecclesiam parochialem, ejusve vicariam perpetuam admittendus, et admissus, ita grammaticae intelligat, ut earum sensum cum industria, et aliquali studio, secundum interpretationem alicujus catholici doctoris, et intelligere, et suis parochianis exponere possit. Quod si eorum aliquis praemissa facere et observare neglexerit, aut quovis justo impedimento praepeditus, praemissa facere et observare non possit; tunc, si ejus beneficium valoris fuerit octo librarum, semel in anno; si vero valoris fuerit decem librarum, bis in anno; si valoris fuerit viginti librarum, quater in anno verbum Dei parochianis suis per concionatorem idoneum et approbatum solcite, et cum effectu in partem recompensationis sui in ea parte officii praedicari procuret, praeter et ultra sermones, quos in ecclesiis suis alioqui ad populum haberi contingeret. Quod si beneficium appropriatum fuerit, et vicarius pro sua portione decem libras habeat aut supra, vicarius, qui simul ad curam, et hospitalitatem obligatur, bis; propriarius vero, si ejus portio, seu fructus in beneficio sibi appropriato, super vel circiter decem libras communiter valeat, tunc annuatim bis; si vero viginti libras excedat, tunc (modo praedicatorum idoneorum sufficiens copia fuerit) ter; si vero plurimum infra decem libras, tunc saltem semel in beneficio hujusmodi per se, vel aliam personam idoneam praedicari procuret, praeter distributiones parochianis ejusdem alioqui impertiendas. Et ad praemissa diligenter facienda, tam rectores et vicarii, quam ipsi propriarii per ordinarios locorum, sub poena 6 s. 8 d. pro qualibet vice, in pauperum parochianorum, et alios pios usus illius parochiae distribuendorum, si in praemissis remissi fuerint inventi, arceantur et compellantur.

De substitutis beneficiarum per ordinarium admittendis.

Statutum, decretum, et ordinatum est, ne quis de caetero rector vel vicarius ex quacunque causa per tres menses absens a beneficio, suo curato quempiam ibid. ad vices suas supplendas substituat, nisi quem hujusmodi rector aut vicarius episcopo, ejusve vicario in spiritualibus generali, officialive principali, aut commissario, locive ordinario per literas suas privatas, vel si beneficiatus in partibus fuerit transmarinis, tunc per literas sui procuratoris, signo et subscriptione dicti rectoris, vicarii, seu procuratoris munitas, praesentaverit; et quem sic praesentatum, episcopus dioecesanus, vicarius generalis, officialis, seu commissarius, locive ordinarius praedict. in moribus et scientia prius approbaverit, et ad curam animarum administrandam admiserit. Quibus quidem literis rectoris, vicarii, seu procuratoris signatis, ut praefertur, et subscriptis, ordinarius, et quilibet officialium praedict. fidem indubiam sine dilatione dabit. Ita tamen, ut sic praesentatum ad administrationem curae illius non admittant, nisi quem adeo doctum esse constiterit, ut omnia et singula contenta in constitutione provinciali superscripta, sic incipien. "Sacerdotibus valde tremendum est," etc. quantum ad cognitionem sacrarum literarum attinet, parochianis suis praestare possit. * Quod statutum diligenter, et perpetuo in omnibus observari volumus, nisi summa temporis necessitas, taliumve virorum extrema inopia alios, licet minus idoneos, etiam ante praesentationem hujusmodi substituti, exigat, aut permittat. Super quo volumus stare juramento substituentis procuratoris ipsius, quod alium magis idoneum justo pretio pro tunc commode invenire non potest; quem tamen sic substitutum, diutius remanere nolumus, quam magis idoneus

* Non placet hoc statutum, nec quoad praesentationem, nec quoad poenam; sed volunt, et petunt, ut episcopi, et archidiaconi, caeterique locorum ordinarii, eorumque ministri, et officiales diligentissimam in suis visitationibus respectu faciant inquisitionem pro idoneis substitutis habendis, et aliis rejiciendis.

commode inveniri possit. Ordinarii autem seu commissarii antedicti eosdem sic praesentatos infra tres dies proxime et immediate sequen. diem, qua huiusmodi praesentati praesentis suis se obtulerint, sine quacunque ulteriori dilatione vel repellant, vel admittant. Quod si non fecerint lapsis, ut praemittitur, dictis diebus, pro admissio habeatur; nec rector, vicarius, vel substitutus praedict. ultra, de, et pro substitutione illius sacerdotis, pro illa saltem vice, per ordinarium, vel dictos officiales, ea de causa molestetur, inquietetur, aut turbetur. Si quis vero a beneficio curato suo huiusmodi sive substituto taliter, ut praemittitur, praesentato et admissio absens fuerit, fructibus beneficii sui, in pios usus per ordinarium distribuendis, tam diu careat, donec ad beneficium suum redierit, et in eodem resederit, vel ordinario suo seu ejus officiali, aut commissario praedict. suum substitutum in moribus et scientia approbandum, ut praefertur, praesentaverit, et ejus admissionem, ut praefertur, obtinuerit; pro quibus quidem substitutis admittendis, ordinarius, officialis, vel commissarius praedictus nihil omnino accipiat, aut accipi permittat: nullusque sacerdos, secularis, vel regularis, curam animarum in ecclesia paroch. ab ordinario prius ad eandem non admissus, administret, nisi in tempore, ut praefertur, necessitatis. Qui autem contra fecerit, interdicatur ei per annum immediate sequen. ne ulli curae deserviat infra dioecesim, in qua taliter servire tentaverit, nec in aliqua alia illi dioecesi contigua. Si quis vero dictorum officialium aliquem substitutum minus idoneum, sibi, ut praefertur, praesentatum, ad serviendum curae animarum admiserit, ordinarii arbitrio, et discretionem poena condigna puniatur.

De non admittendis ad beneficia per procuratorem.

Quia ubi res agitur per procuratorem, ordinarius potest mores, scientiam, et conditiones personae sibi praesentatae ignorare, et sic inficius indoctum vel indignum (ut saepe contingit) aut religiosum ad beneficium nomine clerici, vel capellani, suppresso religionis titulo, per procuratorem sibi praesentatum in beneficio ecclesiastico instituere. Igitur statutum, ordinatum, et decretum est, ut quilibet ad beneficium curatum praesentatus, in persona sua propria ad ordinarium veniat, si in sua dioecesi, vel jurisdictione praesens fuerit; si autem abfuerit, et reliquerit in sua absentia vicarium generalem, ad ipsum veniat, ut diligenter examinetur, an moribus, et scientia, ac caeteris qualitatibus sit aptus, et idoneus ad ejusdem beneficii curam administrandam. Et quod taliter non examinatus, ad beneficium per procuratorem non admittatur, nisi sit in dignitate aliqua ecclesiastica constitutus, vel nisi sit ex aliqua certa universitate ad minus artium magister, aut juris pontificii, vel Caesarei bacalareus secularis, vel nisi sit talis, de cujus scientia, et moribus alio modo suo ordinario satis constat, vel nisi in partibus transmarinis, ex aliqua causa legitima coram ordinario approbanda, tunc egerit, vel nisi adversa valetudine impediatur. Si quis autem in suo procuratorio se in ecclesiastica dignitate constitutum, artiumve magistrum, seu juris canonici, aut civilis bacalareum falso nominaverit, aut se clericum vel capellatum, cum sit religiosus, existere falso simulaverit, aut adversa valetudine laborare finxerit, cum sit sanus, quia dolus, et fraus nemini debent patrocinari, institutio, vel in possessionem inductio sequens ex huiusmodi fallaci procuratorio, nullius sit roboris, aut momenti; ipseque constituens tale procuratorium beneficio, ad quod tunc nominatur, sit ipso facto privatus; et liceat patrono beneficio sic vacans conferre, seu ad idem alium idoneum praesentare. Quod si aliquis, cum quo forte per sedem apostolicam de delatione habitus, vel ut sit capax beneficii ecclesiastici, dispensatum sit, coram ordinario in habitu seculari, cum sit religiosus, comparuerit, et se religiosum esse ordinario, etiam non interrogatus, non detexerit, institutio, et in possessionem inductio pro nullo habeatur. In omnibus autem praedictis casibus, quibus praesenti constitutione quemquam per procuratorem ad beneficium curatum admitti permittitur, illud omnino volumus observari, ut procurator ipse suo proprio, vel alterius fide dignae personae, cui promovendus sit cognitus, juramento fidem faciat se credere, quod is, quem ad beneficium admitti postulat, quantum ad mores attinet, idoneus, quantum vero ad scientiam, sufficiens existat ad ea omnia et singula praestanda, quae in aliis constitutionibus praesentis synodi exiguntur.

Causa correctionis ex officio.

Ut, quae a sacris canonibus pro animarum salute salubriter cognoscuntur statuta, cum minori delinquentium jactura, et dispendio, quantum fieri potest, executioni mandentur; statuimus, ne quisquam in causa correctionis morum, ad effectum poenitentiae, vel purgationis indicendae, ex apparitorum informatione, vel aliter, ex officio mero et promoto, coram quocunque ordinario vocetur, nisi prius de eodem crimine, vel in visitatione per probos detectus fuerit, vel nisi crimen notorium existat, vel nisi is, qui ad iudicium sit vocandus, apud bonos et graves fuerit de eodem crimine infamatus; quibus casibus si purgatio veniet indicenda pro fornicatione et simili crimine, non ultra sextae manus; pro graviore vero non ultra duodecimae manus compurgatorum numerum imponent. ¹ Ita tamen ut pro singulo quoque compurgatorum non ultra unum denarium; pro laboribus vero, aut feodis curiae officiariorum, non ultra decem denarios, arbitrio ordinarii dividendos, huiusmodi purgationis causa exigatur. ^m

Distinctius quoque inhibendo praecipimus, ne locorum quorumcunque ordinarii in quibusvis ausis quemquam ultra duas diaetas ad respon-

¹ Vo lunt, ut purgandus nihil omnino solvat, praesertim cum ex officio procedatur.
by some body, since the rest was writ.

^m Hic deest is writ in the MS.

dendum positionibus, vel ad ferendum testimonium, vel ad se purgandum, nisi episcopo ordinario prius de urgente aliqua causa ad eum ulterius evocandum constiterit, personaliter trahant; sed committatur examinatio aliquibus viris idoneis in locis illis, quibus partes examinandae, et purgandae commorantur. Qui in aliquo praemissorum hanc nostram constitutionem violare praesumpserit, duplum damni, quod illatum est parti laesae, restituat.

^a Proviso, quod nec hoc statutum, nec aliquid in eodem contentum, in aliquo praejudicet jurisdictioni, aut auctoritati archiepiscopi Cant. in quantum archiepiscopus est primas, vel legatus natus; nec canonibus, aut constitutionibus contra simoniacos seu haereticos editis, per aliquid in hoc statuto contentum quovis modo derogetur.

De absentibus causa studii.

Ne falsus studii praetextus excuset absentes a beneficiis, ordinarii locorum in singulis suis visitationibus et capitulis diligentem faciant de absentibus a beneficiis suis curatis inquisitionem, nulliusque absentiam gratia studii in quacunque academia approbent, nisi absentes huiusmodi bonarum literarum capaces, et ad adipiscendam doctrinam admodum apti per probationem legitimam sibi commendentur. Ac deinceps caveant praelati, ne senibus beneficium, vel beneficia habentibus (praesidibus collegiorum, seu aularum, aut publicis in sacra theologia jure canonico, aut civili praelectoribus, duntaxat exceptis) a suis beneficiis, praetextu studii, abesse indulgeant, vel permittant: qua in re sub obtestatione divini numinis praelatorum conscientias oneramus. Et ut dicta nostra ordinatio promptiorem sortiatur executionem, ulterius statuimus, et ordinamus, quod cancellarii, seu vices gerentes utriusque universitatis, in prima sua admissione ad sua officia, juramentum praestent corporale, alioqui non admittendi, quod bis singulis annis de ineptis et inidoneis huiusmodi per singula collegia, aulas, et hospitalia, specialem faciant inquisitionem; quod si quos ibid. etiam juvenes beneficiatos, nulli deditos studio, in otio et deliciis vitam degentes, compererint, de eisdem dioecesanos episcopos, seu ordinarios, ubi beneficiati existunt, cum omni, qua possunt, celeritate et diligentia certiores facere non omitant, qui mox eos ad residentiam in ecclesiis suis parochialibus debitam, et hospitalitatis solatium, quae sub velamento studii desides huiusmodi fraudulenter subtraxerint, canonice cogant, et compellant.

De hiis, qui, deserta residentia, in cura propria recipiunt stipendia aliunde.

Hoc sacro approbante concilio, prohibemus, ne cantarista vel aliter beneficiatus, propria cura sua, cantaria vel suo beneficio dimisso, alieno deserviat, nec stipendia aliunde percipiat, sub poena amissionis medietatis fructuum sui beneficii, arbitrio ordinariorum, tempore visitatio-nis eorum, sub testimonio oeconomorum, applicandorum ad reparationem ecclesiae ornamentorum, et pauperum parochianorum elemosynas; exceptis illis studentibus in universitatibus, quorum beneficiorum valor ad summam octo marcarum de claro non extenditur.

De concionatoribus.

Item, quoniam, pronunciante apostolo, cognovimus, quod in novissimis diebus instarent periculosa tempora, et quod multi a fide discederent, attendentes spiritibus erroris, videmusque ovile Christi per lupos rapaces Wicleffi, et recentiorum quorundam haereticorum discipulos, undique periclitari, summa prudentia maximeque praelatorum diligentia huic morbo tempestive succurrendum est, ne malum hoc latius divagando vires acquirat; et ne sero de medicina cogitetur, cum per longas moras malum hoc adeo invaluerit, ut de remedio quodammodo desperetur. Et quia hujus defensionis officium tam per divinas leges, quam per sacros canones ad episcopos, apostolorum successores, maxime spectat, et ipsi propter suas occupationes multiplices, vel invaliditates corporales, seu occasiones alias, per seipsos in hoc periculoso tempore non sufficiunt ministrare populo verbum Dei, maxime per amplas, et diffusas dioeceses; hac sacra synodo statuimus, et ordinamus, ut episcopi viros idoneos, ^o ad sanctae praedicationis officium salubriter exequendum, pro dioecesum suarum amplitudine assumant potentes opere et sermone, qui greges eorundem (cum ipsi episcopi aliter impediti, hoc nequeunt per se ubique perficere) solcite visitantes, errores et haereses modo invalescentes exterminent, rectam, et veram fidem, et quae credenda, quaeque fugienda sunt, doceant verbo, et exemplo aedificent, quibus ipsi episcopi necessaria juxta canonem inter caetera de officio ordinarii curent subministrari, episcoporum conscientias apud altissimum in hac parte onerantes. Constitutionem quoque provincialem ^p positam sub titulo "De haereticis C. reverendissimi," salubriter editam, quoad ea, quae sequuntur, innovando atque ampliando statuimus, ordinamus, et decernimus, quod nullus secularis, aut regularis, praeterquam in sua ecclesia, ad praedicandum verbum Dei etiam a jure scripto auctorizatus, privilegiove spirituali munitus, officium ^f five exercitium praedicationis verbi Dei in se assumat, populo, aut clero quovismodo praedicet in Latino sermone seu in vulgari, in ecclesia aut extra, nisi primo archiepiscopo, vel dioecesano illius loci, in quo praedicare sic nititur, se praesentet, et examinationem subeat, sicque deinde tam moribus, quam scientia per ipsum archiepiscopum, vel dioecesanum idoneus ad praedicandum comprobetur. Et postea per eundem cum literis auctenticis ad praedicandum mittatur ad aliquam certam parochiam, vel ad plures, prout eidem archiepiscopo, vel ordinario, secundum qualitatem personae videatur expediens. Nec etiam aliquis praemissorum, etiam si per archiepiscopum sive dioecesanum admissus, praedicare praesumat, nisi prius eodem die rectori, vicario, seu curato loci, ubi concionaturus est, ipsius archiepiscopi, seu dioecesani literas, sub sigillo suo magno ad haec sibi confectas, ostendit. ⁹ Caetera vero omnia in constitutione provinciali supradicta, "De haereticis C. reverendissimi," contenta, juxta formam n eadem traditam firmiter observari, et executioni diligentissimae demandari, etiam hujus praesentis synodi auctoritate decernimus, statuimus, et ordinamus.

^a Volunt, ut archiepisc. Cant. sit sub eadem lege episcoporum, nisi per modum appellationis; et quantum ad primaciam legati, utatur illa per commissarios in partibus. ^o Taxetur quaelibet dioec. ad certum et determinatum numerum praedicatorum secundum quantitatem, et amplitudinem dioec. ^p Addatur alia poena.

De haereticis et haeticorum libris.

Nostrae sollicitudinis praecipua cura esse debet, statim ut pullulare aliquid cognoscimus, quod fidei christianae puritatem, vel ecclesiae Christi concordiam, pacem, et tranquillitatem offendit, illud penitus rescindere, agrum dominicum a noxiis zizaniis et vepribus omni diligentia expurgare. Sane dudum in nostra provincia, quod dolenter referimus, quidam haeresiarum damnabiliter excaecati, alios secum in infidelitatis interitum trahere satagentes, libellos nonnullos Latino et vulgari sermone conscriptos, edere, spargere, et publicare curaverunt, contraria fidei catholicae, et sanctae matris ecclesiae doctrinae dogmata continentes; cujus generis est liber, qui "Parabola Mammonae iniquitatis" inscribitur. Item alius liber, qui "Obedientia christiani hominis" vocatur. Item translatio Novi Testamenti in lingua Anglicana a Wilhelmo Hychyns, alias Tyndal, corrupta. Item alius liber, qui "Revelatio Antichristi" intitulatur. Item alius liber, qui "Dialogus inter patrem et filium" vocatur. Item alius infamis liber, qui "De sepultura missae" rhythmo sermone vernaculo compositus est. Item alius, qui "Introductio in epistolam Pauli ad Romanos" inscribitur. Item alius, qui "Supplicatio mendicorum" nominatur. Item alius liber, qui "Practica praelatorum," et alius, qui vocatur "A. B. C. to the prelacy;" et alius, qui vocatur "Defensorium pacis," et alius, qui vocatur "Dialogus inter generosum, et rusticum." Item alius in vituperium divi Thomae, quondam archiepiscopi Cant. Qui quidem libri, una cum multis aliis pestiferis, partim a Wilhelmo Hychyns, alias Tyndal, partim a Simone Fische, Wilhelmo Roy, et Richardo Bryghtwell, eorumque complicibus compositi sunt.

Quos omnes et singulos libros, infandis et pestilentissimis haeresibus et blasphemis referatos, innumeris erroribus plenos, una cum praedictis, et aliis eorundem, et similium auctoribus quibuscunque, hoc sacrosancto concilio approbante, damnamus, reprobamus, et haereticos esse judicamus et decernimus. Praeterea etiam patrum nostrorum vestigiis inhaerentes, prohibemus, ne quis in posterum tractatus, opuscula, schedulas, aut libros quoscunque, sacram scripturam aut ejus interpretationem in se continentes, in linguam vulgarem translatis, vendere, donare, commendare, emere, imprimere, inscribere, edere, legere, spargere, aut publicare in parte vel in toto, publice vel privatim, vel penes se scienter retinere, absque sui dioecesani in scriptis licentia, praesumat, nisi prius hujusmodi libri episcopo loci exhibiti, atque ab eodem diligenter examinati, atque auctoritate ejusdem comprobati fuerint. Qui vero contra fecerit, ut zizaniorum fator, et haereticae pravitatis fautor puniatur. Si quae vero persona ecclesiastica vel in praedicto excessu, vel in quavis haeresi, vel errore pernicioso, quem illico ad monitionem dioecesani loci recantare recusaverit, manifeste deprehensus fuerit aut convictus, beneficiis, si quae habeat, hoc sacro approbante concilio, sit ipso jure privatus, et ad dignitates ecclesiasticas quascunque, vel alia beneficia curam animarum habentia, necnon ad curati officium gerendum perpetuo inhabilis reddatur. Et quia multi libri haeretici in lingua Latina a Luthero, Lamberto Pomeriano, Zuinglio, Oecolampadio, Bucero, Melanchthone, Carolstadio, Brentio, Jona, Westmero, Heghen Dorphino, Johanne Agricola, Urbano Brenfemano, Andrea Knopkyn, Simone Hesse, Johanne Wyltkith, Ottone Bromselsio Wessello compositi et editi; et quidam etiam alii libri nullius auctoris nomine prodeuntes, cujusmodi est liber ille, qui "De veteri et novio Deo" inscribitur. Item alius, qui "Piae preces," alius qui "Oeconomia christiana" vocatur; omnes innumeris erroribus et pestilentissimis haeresibus pleni brevi gregem dominicum infecturi videntur, si in vulgus prodire, et passim ab omnibus, nihil in eis non rectum subesse suspicantibus, lectitari possent. Et alii etiam ejusdem generis libri, aliis nominibus et titulis quotidie novi parantur et eduntur. Ad occurrendum huic imminenti malo, hoc sacro approbante concilio, prohibemus, ne quis librum quemcunque sub praedictis titulis, aut auctorum praefatorum, aut quorumcunque aliorum de novo imprimendorum nomine inscriptum aut compositum, vel in posterum componendum, habere, legere, edere, publicare, seu penes se retinere praesumat. Quod si fecerit, ut de haeresi suspectus habeatur, et puniatur, nisi forte episcopus loci eidem propter singularem ejus doctrinam, fideique integritatem hujusmodi librum, sive in lingua vernacula sive Latina editum, ad effectum impugnandi, eundem, habere, legere, vel penes se retinere concesserit; nova vero opera quaecunque, ad sacram scripturam, ejusve interpretationem, seu ad dogmata ecclesiastica pertinentia, cujuscunque fuerint auctoris aut tituli, ne prius edantur aut publicentur, praecipimus, quam ab episcopo loci examinati et comprobati fuerint, sub poena praedicta.

De clericis convictis.

Statuimus, et praesentis sacrae synodi auctoritate ordinamus, quod quilibet sacerdos, diaconus, vel subdiaconus, qui vel de criminibus gravioribus; videlicet, de crimine prodicionis, matricidii, homicidii voluntarii, furti per insidias in viis publicis, vel per effractionem ec-

⁹ Fiat commissio gratis, et duret hoc statutum usque in proximam convocationem. nonnullorum librorum, quam auctorum eorundem. This is writ by some modern hand.

¹⁰ Hic desunt nomina tam clericorum cleriorum aut domorum commissi, vel super crimine violenti raptus mulierum, incendii domorum aut agrorum voluntarii, coram iudice laico convictus fuerit, et traditus ordinario loci; si postea de crimine huiusmodi ipsius ordinario, vel per confessionem partis, aut per probationes legitimas coram eodem canonice factas, constiterit, clericus huiusmodi sit coram ordinario convictus, perpetuis, absque spe aliqua purificationis admittendae, custodiat in carceribus, et omni beneficio ecclesiastico, si quod habeat, censeatur ipso facto privatus. Quod si clericus huiusmodi super criminibus praedictis, aut eorum aliquo, ut praefertur, coram iudice laico convictus, de iisdem aut eorum aliquo graviter apud loci ordinarium suspectus vel defamatus fuerit, et nihilominus facta per ordinarium infra annum inquisitione legitima, clericus huiusmodi per confessionem suam, aut per alia legitima probationum genera, super eisdem vel eorum aliquo legitime, ut praefertur, minime convincatur; quia tamen sua culpa in tantam infamiam, in scandalum cleri, videtur incidisse, ille antequam ad purificationem faciendam admittatur, per unum ad minus annum integrum in vinculis in arcta carceris custodia detineatur, tribus diebus singulis septimanis illius anni solummodo pane et aqua aut cervisia refectus. Et post lapsum anni, si tunc ad purificationem faciendam huiusmodi clericus petat se admitti, certi dies et locus idonei, in quibus huiusmodi purgatio recipi debeat, per ordinarium designetur, fiantque locis convictionis et purificationis sufficientes monitiones, citationes, et publicationes purificationis indicendae, viis et modis juxta juris ordinem seu morem consuetum, pro opponere volentibus contra huiusmodi purificationem, ut die et loco praefixis, qui sua interesse putaverint, si velint, in loco purificationis indicendae interfint. Quibus die et loco purificationis recipiendae, auditis per ordinarium allegatis hinc inde et propositis, si ordinarius clericum illum ad purificationem faciendam admittendum existimaverit, cum sex ad minus probis et honestis viris in forma juris iuratis, et non aliter, ad eandem admittatur. Quae quidem omnia tam in praedictis, quam in aliis convictis clericis ordine ecclesiastico etiam prima tonsura, priusquam huiusmodi majora scelera commiserant, initiatis, qui tonsuram et habitum suo ordini competentem gerere consueverint, observari volumus, quamdiu ordinarii ad custodiam illorum, qui per ordinis vel saltem primae tonsurae ante commissionem illorum scelerum, pro quibus coram iudicibus laicis fuerant convicti, suspensionem ad clericatum minime assumpti fuerunt, inviti non arceantur. In convictis vero et incarceratis clericis pro aliis criminibus, quam praedictis, per purificationem liberandis, nolumus antiqua jura et ecclesiae consuetudinem immutari; nisi quod illud etiam exacte observandum praecipimus, ne hoc casu faciliter liberentur, nec perfunctorie pro eis purgatio admittatur.

De vestibus et indumentis clericorum.

Quoniam ad aliquot annos jam abusus clericorum in vestibus et indumentis longe magis invaluit, quam antea fieri consuevit, unde non mediocrem apud vulgus invidiam sibi conflarunt, et ingentem obloquendi praestiterint ansam, nimirum ecclesiae bona in apparatus nimis sumptuosum prodigentes; idcirco ista sacra synodus remediis quibusdam opportunis huic malo duxit quanto citius occurrendum. Quamobrem statuit, decrevit, et ordinavit, quod nemo in sacris ordinibus constitutus, vel beneficium affectus ecclesiasticum, toga quavis utatur publice, quae serica sit, ornataque pretiosis pellibus, nisi praelatus, ordinis senatorii, vel alicujus baronis ad minus filius, aut frater, vel nisi fuerit de cancellaria domini regis, vel alicujus archiepiscopi, vel episcopi vicarius generalis, aut officialis principalis, archidiaconus, seu aliter in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutus, seu ex universitate aliqua graduatus; quibus licebit uti sericis sumptuosisque pellibus, prout, secundum eorum gradus in universitatibus susceptos, uti permitti sunt, et consueverunt. Item statuit et decrevit, quod nemo in sacris ordinibus constitutus, in tunica sua utatur chameloto, nisi fuerit ad minus artium magister, vel in legibus bacal. Nec in epitogiis quisquam praesumat uti velveto, aut sarcineto, nisi fuerit, ut praemittitur, graduatus, vel beneficium affectus ecclesiasticum; sed nec cuiquam in pileo suo velveto uti liceat in futurum. Nam honestatem, et modestiam in suis indumentis clericos omnes exhibere decet, potius quam splendorem, vel pompam; sed et juxta pristinam sacerdotum laudabilem consuetudinem, sacrorumque patrum instituta, semper extima vestis, quam quisque, praeterquam, itineris gratia in publicum exiens, gerit, sit talaris, hoc est, neque nimia longitudine caudam trahens, neque nimia brevitate crura tibiasque demonstrans; sit eadem quoque superius proxime sub prento clausa pariter, et inferius tam honeste collecta, ne fimbriis ipsius togae patulis, et diffluentibus conspicua fiant, quae tegi magis, et operiri pro honestate clericali conveniret. Manicis quin etiam togae suae quisque congruis, et decoris utatur, non pendiolis, aut notabiliter in latitudine, longitudine, vel angustia peccantibus. Nullus praeterea clericus, nisi cui pro dignitate sui gradus conveniat, annulum aureum, vel deauratum gestet in digitis; nullus induis, aut camisis, quas vocant Phrygiatis, hoc est acu laboratis, auro, sericove contextis, utatur. Nullus conspiciendum se non indutum toga publicitus ostendat. Nullus pileo cum ligulis, aut corrigiis laneis affutis, aut contextis, caput operiat. Nullus caligis varii coloris, aut caesuris panni sericive desuper insertis, se induat. Nullus calceos, aut sotulares cum ungulis utrinque prominentibus, more laicorum, pedes tegat. Nullus absque tonsuris foras prodeat, quin et ita tonsuratus incedat, ut infima pars auris queat liquido conspici. Ut igitur in summa dicatur, singuli clerici, maxime sacris in ordinibus constituti, vestibus incedant ejusmodi, quae materia, colore, compositione, modoque utendi, clericalem ordinem haudquaquam dehonestent. Si quis vero contra statutum, et ordinationem dictam agere deprehensus fuerit, is primo per ordinarium

CONVOCAT. PRAELAT. ET CLERI PROVINCIAE CANTUAR. 165

rium, ejusve officialem, aut commissarium, decanumque ruralem moneatur, quatenus errorem suum reformet, nec deinceps recidat in eundem. Quod si per triduum in obstinatio sua steterit, aut emendatus postea reinciderit, a celebratione divinorum suspendatur per mensem. Quod si nec sic emendatus fuerit, tunc iterum suspendatur, donec resipiscat realiter cum effectu.

De clericis venatoribus.

Quum sacerdotes, et clerici in sacris ordinibus constituti, canes venaticos loris more laicali ducere, et accipitres manibus per civitates, et loca publica gestare nunc dierum non verentur; nos tantam clericorum impudentiam poenali lege reprimere cupientes, statuimus, ut quicumque clericus in sacris ordinibus constitutus, vel beneficium adeptus ecclesiasticum, qui canes sic ducere, et accipitres, aut aves aucupes per vicos et plateas, in villis, vel urbibus quovis modo gestaverit, a celebratione divinorum ipso facto per unum mensem sit suspensus.

De clericis et religiosis lapsis in vitium carnis.

Quum nullum vitium aequè ut carnis gravet infamia, et ministros Domini deceat mundities et sanctitudo, quoniam ipse mundus, et sanctus est; ideo statuimus, et ordinamus, ut subdiaconus, aut diaconus, qui in simplici fornicatione deprehensus, vel confessus, vel convictus fuerit coram ordinario suo, singulis quartis, et sextis feriis omnium hebdomadarum unius mensis in pane angustiae, et aqua doloris in carcere maneat. Ita ut in singulis ordinum praedictis duplicetur poena pro adulterio, triplicetur pro incestu. Et in caeteris carnis spurcitiis poena crescat, ut impuritas crescit, et turpitudine; quod si etiam sacerdos, curatus, vel religiosus sit, aliquid illi praeter caeteros addatur ad poenam, veluti qui duplicis voti sit reus, et ordinis, et professionis. Ut haec observentur, conscientias praelatorum oneramus; et ut infamiam vitent, quae ad illos recurreret, nisi severiter in impuros animadvertant, in Domino exhortamur. Incorrigibiles vero juxta sacrorum canonum statuta deponantur. Quod si quispiam ex his in lupinari, aut ullo alio loco infami deprehensus sit, in quo fama est pudicitiae prostitutiones publice aut secrete exerceri, illi augeatur praescripta poena ordinarii arbitrio juxta vitii qualitatem.

De simonia vitanda.

Quanta autem simoniae infamia contra nostri temporis tam seculares, quam cujuslibet ordinis religiosos invaluit, quis est qui ignorat? Non enim precibus et obsequiis tantum, sed et apertis muneribus beneficia, et praelaturas non modo vacantes, sed de verisimili vacaturas, in animarum suarum gravissimum periculum his proximis annis absque rubore, et Dei timore aliquo comparaverunt; quorum ambitione factum est, ut electionum saluberrimae formae, quae per canones liberae esse deberent, jam multis annis vel fraudibus obtenebratae sunt, vel ad compromissi necessitatem redactae. Ut itaque tanto scandalo salubri aliquo remedio, quanto citius et melius fieri possit, consulamus; praesentis sacrae synodi auctoritate praecipimus, et mandamus, ut episcopi hujus Cant. provinciae singuli in suis dioecibus diligenter advertant, ne talia de caetero committantur; curentque per se, et ministros suos, maxime quos in praelatorum electionibus tanquam directores et consultores interesse continget, ut electiones hujusmodi secundum sacratissimos canones, et indulta principum, deinceps libere pro arbitrio eligentium procedant, fraudesque, et pactiones, per quas in hujusmodi electionibus recta eligentium conscientia captivetur aut seducatur, penitus secludantur; singulique locorum ordinarii in suis visitationibus, et quoties necessitas postulaverit, diligentem in suis dioec. faciant inquisitionem, an contra aliquos intra easdem ulla simoniae labis nota orta sit. Et si quempiam, Dei timore postposito, per pecuniae et munerum sordes praelaturam, vel aliud quodcunque beneficium ecclesiasticum adeptum fuisse compererint, poenis jam a jure communi contra simoniacos^{*} promotos salubriter adinventis, in eundem acriter animadvertant; ut quarum poenarum desuetudo obliviosa audaciam jam aliquot annis praebuit delinquendi, earundem nunc innovatio, et irremissibilis executio cunctos in officio contineat, et a delinquendo cohibeat.

De hiis, qui pactionem faciunt cum praesentatis.

Ejusdem auctoritate concilii ordinamus, ac statuimus, ut nullus patronus spiritualis pro pensione, quam sibi, et ecclesiae suae praetendit debitam, praesentatum a se jurare cogat de pensione solvenda, vel aliter de novo sibi obligari. Cum istiusmodi juramenta et obligationes nonnihil in se habeant suspicionis contractus simoniaci; et patronus, si jure pensionem petat, etiam citra praesentati juramentum, aut obligationem aliunde remedium habeat contra negantem de jure communi. Idem eadem auctoritate mandamus, et praesentando ne hoc juramentum aut obligationem praestet, immo potius beneficium recuset; et nihilominus si ob hanc causam repulsum se fuisse probare possit, et patronus in poenam ea vice careat jure praesentandi, et ordinarius velut hujus vicis patronus, prout illam esse volumus et ordinamus praesenti decreto, clerico repulso ob hanc causam tantum suo jure beneficium illud, ad quod praesentandus erat, conferat, quum aequum non sit, ut ulli obsit sua probitas. Quod si et patronus jusjurandum exigat, et clericus praestet; et hunc inhabilem ad hoc beneficium, vel ad ullum aliud ecclesiasticum intra proximum triennium censemus et decernimus, et illum, prout supra, jure patronatus pro ea vice privamus.

^{*} Promotos is writ in the margin by some modern hand instead of convictos, which is blotted out in the MS.

De otio vitando, et honesta clericorum conversatione.

Quia desidia mater est omnium quodammodo vitiorum, hoc sacrum concilium omnibus curatis, rectoribus, vicariis, et cantaristis mandat et praecipit, quod peractis divinis officiis, sint deinceps occupati in studiis, orationibus, lectionibus, aut aliis honestis rebus et negotiis, quae suam deceant professionem; videlicet, instruendo pueros in alphabeto, lectura, cantu, aut grammatica; et tribus in hebdomada diebus, tres vel ad minus duas horas in sacrae scripturae, vel alicujus doctoris approbati lectione, cessante legitimo impedimento, se exercent. De qua re diligenter in suis visitationibus inquirent ordinarii, ut sacerdotes otiosos, et tempus suum male terentes, severe castigent et puniant. Et quia nimia sacerdotum inter laicos conversatio nonnulla pericula, praeter ordinis sui contemptum, gignere solet, singuli in suis dioec. episcopi, et caeteri ordinarii curent, quod rectores, vicarii, curati etiam et cantaristae, qui domos suis beneficiis pertinentes habent in rectoriis, vicariis, aut cantariis suis, et non alibi, nisi itineris aut infirmitatis gratia, pernoctent. Et quod si plures in eadem villa sint sacerdotes, simul, et non separatim, quatenus iudicio ordinarii commode fieri potest, communas habeant. Et quia non solum a malo sed ab omni specie mali secundum apostolum abstinendum est, id est, ab eo quod mali apparentiam habet, aut suspensionem sinistram gignere, aut scandalum populo praebere possit, abstinendum est; praesentis sacrae synodi decreto statuimus, ac praesentis synodalis concilii auctoritate districte inhibemus, ne quis clericus in sacris constitutus, ludos aliquos, jure canonico vel regni aut regis auctoritate prohibitos, quovismodo exercent aut utatur; loca suspecta aut malorum iniquorumque consortia omnino devitet; tabernas, in quibus quodvis genus potus passim venditur, non frequentet, nisi aliter necessitas cogat, aut in iis quovismodo moram faciat; mulierum colloquia suspecta nullatenus habeat. Quod si per ordinarium suum aut alium quemvis sufficienti auctoritate super aliquo praemissorum monitus non resipiscat, prima vice ab executione sui officii per integram hebdomadam suspendatur; et crescente in hac parte ejus contumacia, crescat et hujusmodi poena pariformiter. Et si nec sic resipiscat, si cantarista aut aliter beneficiatus existat, tertiam partem fructuum cantariae, sive beneficii sui ipso jure sit privatus, in pauperum subventionem, et alios pios usus discretionem ordinarii distribuendorum, et convertendorum, donec resipiscat, et ab hujusmodi excessibus absteineat; si vero nec beneficiatus nec cantarista fuerit, sed ex solo stipendio vivens, si tertio, ut praefertur, monitus se non corrigit, ab altari remotum se noverit, donec et quousque ab hujusmodi excessibus plene absteineat. Item quia, ut ait sapiens, "Multa mala docet otiositas;" ad hoc pestiferum virus evitandum et eliminandum, praesentis sacrae synodi decreto praecipimus, et firmiter injungendo mandamus sub poena suspensionis ab officio et beneficio, ut quilibet in sacris constitutus, et praesertim sacerdotes stipendiarii tres horas vel ad minus duas in sacrae alicujus scripturae vel approbati doctoris lectione singulis diebus, cessante legitimo impedimento, se exercent.

De ludimagistris et uniformi docendi modo.

Quia vetus est adagium: "Quod nova testa capit, inveterata sapit:" et: "Qualis est moderator in civitate, talis est et populus:" hoc sacro approbante concilio, statuimus, quod praecipue scholarum grammaticalium sint praeter eruditionem, quatenus fieri potest, viri catholici et probi, et ut primum omnium doceant pueros sibi traditos simplicem fidei et agendorum et fugiendorum summam. Et ne pueris rudibus perlegantur opuscula, quae puero- rum mores aut fidem videbuntur corruptura, neque ulli alii libri in quibus, quasi per lulum puerilia ingenia infici possent. Et quum vel propter pestem laborantem in locis ubi hujusmodi publicae scholae sunt, aut propter mortem praeceptoris, ut plurimum contingit, quod qui anno aut biennio sub uno praeceptore grammaticam addiscere coepit, illo relicto, cogitur novum adire praeceptorem, apud quem alius est docendi modus, ut pene diversus est apud omnes; atque ita fit, ut rudes adhuc in grammatica magnum ex hoc sentiant in provectione studii detrimentum; ad communem igitur utilitatem totius provinciae Cant. hoc sacro approbante concilio, statuimus, ut post annum a publicatione praesentium unus et uniformis sit docendi modus per totam provinciam Cant. nullus auctor regularum seu praeceptionum grammaticalium pueris in grammatica instituendis ediscendus proponatur, nisi quem archiepiscopus Cant. simul cum quatuor aliis suae provinciae episcopis, quatuor abbatibus, et quatuor archidiaconis in hac synodo deputandis, hoc anno proximo sequenti praescripserunt pueris perlegendum; qui etiam habeant potestatem formulam institutionis grammaticorum praeceptoribus praescribendi. Ludorum vero grammaticalium magistri tam admissi, quam admittendi, juramenti vinculo per locorum ordinarios ad observandum omnia in hoc statuto contenta, quatenus eos concernit, astringantur, maxime hii, qui in locis insignioribus publicas scholas salario publico vel privato tenent.

De inquisitione habenda tam super haeretica pravitatem, quam de modo studendi in universitatibus.

Quia, fonte corrupto, necessum est rivulos inde fluentes impuros et insalubres esse; constatque universitates illas Oxon. et Cantabrig. fontes esse, unde rivuli omnium scientiarum profluxerunt; qui quidem fontes, si fuerint corrupti, si errorum et haeresium maculis conspurcati fuerint, quantum timendum est, ne ex illis fontibus prodeant, qui universum regnum suis haeresibus inficiant! Ut igitur sanae doctrinae eruditioni in ipsis fontibus consulatur, errorumque et haeresium in ipsis omnis occasio tollatur; hoc sacro approbante concilio, statuimus et ordinamus, quod episcopus Lincoln. ad universitatem Oxon. et episcopus Elien. ad Cantabrig. universitatem, infra suas jurisdictiones respective existentem, quamprimum et quoties opus fuerit, accedant, et ibid. supra haeretica pravitate diligenter respective inquirent, et puniant quoscunque in hac parte delinquentes. Et insuper adhibitis sibi cancellariis praedictarum universitatum, seu eorum vices ibidem gerentibus, cum ipsorum consilio, consensu, et assensu, super debito in studiis modo habendo, ordinem statuant, atque constitutionem provincialem bonae memoriae domini Arundell, Cant. archiepiscopi, titulo "De haeticis," incipien. "Feciales," in hac parte factam, una cum hac nostra ordinatione ibidem publicent; et postea annuatim in utraque universitate praedicta eadem, simul cum hac nostra ordinatione, publice repeti, et executioni demandari faciant; singulis annis consimilem visitationem et inquisitionem, ac quoties opus fuerit, studiorum ordinationem, in utraque universitate praedicta, juxta constitutiones praedictas faciendo. Quod si aliquo alio tempore eosdem episcopos, vel eorum commissarios, ad dictas respective universitates pro haereticae pravitate, aut aliorum excessuum reformatione, accedere contingat; totiens, quotiens sic fecerint, jus commune, consuetudines, et antiqua, tam ipsorum episcoporum, quam universitatum privilegia inviolabiliter observentur, quibus nolumus ullo modo per praesentem constitutionem derogari.

Ut numerus debitus et conveniens religiosorum in unoquoque monasterio perpetuo habeatur.

Nihil magis laicos, eos potissimum, qui religiosorum locorum fundatores existunt, hoc nostro tempore a similium locorum fundatione deterret, quam quod vident loca religiosa carere numero tum religiosorum, quum aliorum pauperum, quos vel secundum primaevam fundationem, vel secundum portionem reddituum, quos nunc possident, sustinere et alere deberent. Statuimus itaque et ordinamus, ut numerus religiosorum debitus in unoquoque monasterio deinceps habeatur et perpetuo servetur; oneribus ordinariis atque extraordinariis proventuumque praediorum, per maris et fluviorum inundationem, et alioquin, damnis et ruinis pro tempore, propensis et consideratis.

De educatione et exercitio religiosorum.

Quum ex nulla re magis monasteria collabi soleant, quam cum ignari et rerum agendarum imperiti monasteriis praeficiuntur, atque ita expediat habere plures in singulis religiosorum domibus, qui tam in temporalibus quam in spiritualibus modum et usum calleant, ne si quando religiosorum domus vacare contingat, non habeant inter se idoneum de gremio, quem defuncto substituant; statuimus et ordinamus, ut in quolibet monasterio, et loco religioso sit, juxta "Clement. Ne in agro dominico," instructor aliquis grammatices sufficienter eruditus ad informandum religiosos in grammatica et aliis primitivis scientiis; ex quibus illi, qui in singulis locis ad capeffendas literas aptiores fuerint juxta facultatum possessionem eorundem, mittantur ad universitatem Oxon. vel Cantabrig. ad studendum in sacris literis, ut eo modo cognita lege divina, magis convalescat observantia verae religionis. Et ut abbates et priores diligenter et assidue curent suos religiosos subditos juniores per alios suorum monasteriorum provectiones in regulis, constitutionibus, et ceremoniis sui ordinis institui et informari. Et quos ad administrationem spiritualium seu temporalium aptiores inter suos fratres arbitrentur, eos in administrationibus competentibus exercere satagant; officia cellarii, camerarii, hospitalarii, et alia tum claustralis observantiae, quum exterioris industriae, fratribus ad hoc aptioribus ita impertiendo et committendo, ut in utrisque vicissim triti et exercitati, ad abbatis seu prioris officium, cum vacaverit, habiliores reddantur.

De recipiendis apostatis, et aliis religiosis poenitentibus.

Quum inter opera charitatis numerari soleat, si quis errantem ab errore revocet, et ecclesia nunquam claudat gremium redeunti; statuimus et ordinamus, quod religiosi, qui praetextu capacitatum, seu literarum suorum praesidentium, vel alias superioribus sive invitatis, sive consentientibus, se ab observantia regulari absentarunt in mundo aliquamdiu degentes, se poenitentes fuerint, et bono spiritu ad loca suae professionis redire nitantur, dictorum locorum abbates seu priores ipsos in sua monasteria recipere, et cum omni charitate, quantum per statuta religionis possunt, in iisdem tractare teneantur. Illis duntaxat exceptis, qui dioecesano loci, ex signis et judiciis vehementibus, videantur in necem abbatum, priorum, seu fratrum sui monasterii vel olim conspirasse, vel in posterum conspiraturi, vel eandem necem alioqui molituri. Existimabitur autem bono spiritu reditum ad suum monasterium religiosis precari, si quemvis locum, gradum, aut conditionem in eodem pro sui abbatis aut prioris secundum regulam arbitrio humiliter acceptet et servet; et per testimonium proborum virorum coram abbate, priore, seu ordinario suo, si requiratur, constare poterit, eum, dum extra monasterium agebat, vel saltem per annum ante hujusmodi petitionem proxime praecedentem, si in seculo diutius commoratus est, honeste fuisse conversatum et propositum habuisse redeundi. Quod si taliter receptus postea a suo monasterio, deserta religione, discesserit, eum postea superior ejus in suum monasterium recipere minime hujus vigore statuti teneatur.

Quod literae ex falsa suggestionem impetratae non suffragentur apostatis.

Praeterea statuimus et ordinamus, quod nullus religiosus, qui tria cujusvis probatae religionis vota emiserit, possit per aliquam dispensationem etiam apostolicam, etiam sub plumbo concessam, fam, suum monasterium, domum, hospitale, five collegium exire, aut aliquod beneficium, servitium, aut cantariam acceptare, nisi prius coram ordinario loci, in quo moratur, suo primitus abbate, priore, magistro, five superiore ad hoc vocato, causam five causas in huiusmodi dispensationis suggestionem expressas, veras ac iustas esse et fuisse probaverit; et pro sic probatis per eundem ordinarium declarari et decerni obtinuerit. Qui contra fecerit, tanquam verus apostata per suum abbatem, priorem, magistrum, five superiorem quemcunque apprehendi, corrigi, et puniri licite poterit, juxta canonicas sanctiones contra apostatas salubriter editas, atque juxta statuta, ordinationes, et consuetudines laudabiles loci illius, a quo sic illicito recesserit.

De ecclesiis appropriatis et hospitalibus.

Curent quoque episcopi singuli in suis dioecibus, ut proprietarii faciant distributiones debitas in parochiis appropriatis, juxta juris exigentiam, sub poena sequestrationis fructuum; et quod infra annum a tempore publicationis praesentis statuti, in singulis ecclesiis parochialibus, monasteriis appropriatis, quarum proventus ad id sufficiant, iudicio ordinarii vel loci dioecisani habentis jurisdictionem episcopalem, canonice instituantur unus vicarius perpetuus, cum sufficiente portione, secundum proventus ecclesiae appropriatae quantitatem et qualitatem curae animarum; et quod infra triennium a publicatione praesen. idem vicarius habeat sufficientem mansionem sumptibus ipsorum proprietariorum (modo emolumenta ex eisdem ecclesiis proprietariis provenientia ad id sufficiant) primitus erectam, et per eundem vicarium postea sustentandam et manutenendam. Et casu, quo emolumenta praedicta ad hoc non sufficiant (quod intelligi volumus ex ipso, quod ad novem libras non extendant) redeat ecclesia in pristinum statum, et instituantur ibidem rector, sicut ante appropriationem fieri consuevit. Hospitalium quoque quorumcunque foundationes, quibus jam magnus cernitur abusus, servantur juxta Clementinam "De religiosis domibus: Quia contingit:" et tam proprietarii praedicti, quam etiam hii, qui hospitalibus praesunt, ad omnia, de quibus supra respective observanda, per fructuum sequestrationem, censuras ecclesiasticas, et alia juris remedia ordinariarum arbitrio cogantur.

De abusibus in capellis sancti Johannis et similium.

Quoniam in diversis partibus hujus regni tam milites et alii, qui sunt de religione crucis signatorum hospitalis sancti Johannis Jerosolymitani, in capellis suis vocatis "Lawless churches and chapels," quam illi in turri London. et alii complures alibi in ecclesiis seu capellis admittunt alienos parochianos ad clandestinorum et illicitorum conjugiorum solemnizationem, etiam bannis non editis, et ad aliorum perceptionem sacramentorum et sacramentalium, in ecclesiae scandalum et animarum multarum manifestissimum periculum; prohibemus itaque, ne quis deinceps in ecclesiis seu capellis antedictis, vel aliis exemptis, et non exemptis, alterius parochiae parochianum, nisi in casibus a jure permissis, ad solemnizationem matrimonii, five bannis editis five non editis, vel aliorum sacramentorum perceptionem, sine licentia ordinarii, admittat, seu eorum aliquod administret, sub poena excommunicationis, quam contravenientes atque eorum fautores, necnon omnes, qui matrimonium in aliqua huiusmodi ecclesia vel capella, absque licentia dioecisani, solemnizare procurant, seu eucharistiam in festo Paschatis vel circiter, absque licentia sui proprii curati, seu saltem dioecisani, suscipere praesumpserint, noverint se ipso facto incursum; a qua a nemine absolvi possunt, praeterquam ab episcopo, infra cujus dioecesim huiusmodi ecclesiae vel capellae sitatae sunt, aliis tam ordinariis, et curatis, quam partibus etiam laevis prius satisfact. Et praeterea ipsi sacerdotes huic ordinationi aliqua ex parte contravenientes, ad quodcunque beneficium ecclesiasticum, per septennium proxime sequens, ipso facto sint inhabiles.

De dilapidationibus.

Salubriter ab Edmundo, olim Cant. archiepiscopo extitit ordinatum, ut, decedente rectore, ex bonis ipsius tanta portio per loci ordinarium deduci deberet, quanta ad reparandas ecclesiae, et aliarum ejusdem beneficii aedium ruinas videretur sufficere; nos eidem ordinationi addere cupientes, praesenti decreto statuimus et ordinamus, ut beneficiati, qui deinceps aliquid ex bonis praedecessorum suorum, sub nomine vel praetextu reparandarum aedium, vel supplendorum ecclesiae defectuum, ex decreto ordinarii, compositione cum haeredibus, executoribus, vel administratoribus bonorum defuncti, vel alio quocunque modo acceperint, illud totum in earundem aedium reparatione, et defectuum earundem suppletionem infra biennium a tempore receptionis exponere teneantur, deductis expensis (si quae expositae fuerint) circa litem et recuperationem dictae summae receptae. Quod si incumbens resignaverit, aut decesserit, seu alio quocunque modo a beneficio suo recesserit, tunc summa per eum pro dilapidationibus recepta, et non exposita, relinquatur, et realiter tradatur futuro successori, qui, sicut dictam summam nomine dilapidationum recepit, ita in eodem usus exponat, ut supra dictum est. Et ad observationem praemissorum in sua institutione, five admissione juramentum praestent corporale; alioqui institutio ipsa, five admissio ipso jure nulla censeatur.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.Anno Christ.
1557.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Articles set forth by cardinal Pole to be enquired in his ordinary visitation within his diocese of Cant. Ex Holinshed Q. M. p. 1162. &c.

Touching the clergy.

FIRST, Whether the divine service in the church at times, days, and hours be observed, and kept duly, or no?

II. Item, Whether the parsons, vicars, or curates do comely and decently in their manners and doings behave themselves, or no?

III. Item, Whether they do reverently and duly minister the sacraments or sacramentals, or no?

IV. Item, Whether any of the parishioners do die without ministration of the sacraments through the negligence of their curates, or no?

V. Item, Whether the said parsons, vicars, or curates do haunt taverns or alehouses, increasing thereby infamy, slander, or no?

VI. Item, Whether they be diligent in teaching the midwives how to christen children in time of necessity, according to the canons of the church, or no?

VII. Item, Whether they see, that the font be comely kept, and have holy water always ready for children to be christened?

VIII. Item, If they do keep all the names of them, that be reconciled to the duty of the church?

IX. Item, Whether there be any priests, that late unlawfully had women under pretended marriage, and hitherto are not reconciled; and to declare their names and dwelling places?

X. Item, Whether they do diligently teach their parishioners the Articles of the faith, and the Ten commandments?

XI. Item, Whether they do decently observe those things, that do concern the service of the church, and all those things, that tend to a good and christian life, according to the canons of the church?

XII. Item, Whether they do devoutly in their prayers pray for the prosperous estate of the king and queen's majesties?

XIII. Item, Whether the said parsons and vicars do sufficiently repair their chancels, rectories, and vicarages, and do keep and maintain them sufficiently repaired and amended?

XIV. Item, Whether any of them do preach or teach any erroneous doctrine, contrary to the catholic faith, and unity of the church?

XV. Item, Whether any of them do say the divine service, or do minister the sacraments in the English tongue, contrary to the usual order of the church?

XVI. Item, Whether any of them do suspiciously keep any women in their houses, or do keep company with men suspected of heresies, or of evil opinions?

XVII. Item, Whether any of them, that were under pretence of lawful matrimony married and now reconciled, do privily resort to their pretended wives; or that the said women do privily resort unto them?

VOL. IV.

XVIII. Item, Whether they go decently apparelled, as it becometh sad, sober, and discreet ministers; and whether they have their crowns and beards shaven?

XIX. Item, Whether any of them do use any unlawful games; as dice, cards, and otherwise, whereby they grow to slander and evil report?

XX. Item, Whether they do keep residence and hospitality upon their benefices, and do make charitable contributions, according to all the laws ecclesiastical?

XXI. Item, Whether they do keep the book or register of christenings, buryings, and marriages, with the names of the godfathers and godmothers?

Touching the lay people.

First, Whether any manner of person, of what state, degree, or condition soever he be, do hold, maintain, or affirm any heresies, errors, or erroneous opinions, contrary to the laws ecclesiastical, and the unity of the catholic church?

II. Item, Whether any person do hold, affirm, or say, that in the blessed sacrament of the altar there is not contained the real and substantial presence of Christ; or that by any manner of means do contemn and despise the said blessed sacrament, or do refuse to do reverence or worship thereunto?

III. Item, Whether they do contemn or despise by any manner of means any other of the sacraments, rites, or ceremonies of the church, or do refuse or deny auricular confession.

IV. Item, Whether any do absent or refrain, without urgent and lawful impediment, to come to the church, and reverently to hear divine service upon Sundays and holy days?

V. Item, Whether being in the church, they do not apply themselves to hear divine service, and to be contemplative in holy prayer, and not to walk, jangle, or talk in time of the divine service?

VI. Item, Whether any be fornicators, adulterers, or do commit incest, or be bards, and receivers of evil persons, or be vehemently suspected of any of them?

VII. Item, Whether any do blaspheme, and take the name of God in vain, or be common swearers?

VIII. Item, Whether any be perjured, or have committed simony or usury, or do still remain in the same?

IX. Item, Whether the churches, and church-

X x yards,

yards, be well and honestly repaired and inclosed?

X. Item, Whether the churches be sufficiently garnished and adorned with all ornaments and books necessary; and whether they have a rood in their church, of a decent stature with Mary and John, and an image of the patron of the same church?

XI. Item, Whether any do withhold or doth draw from the church any manner of money or goods, or that do withhold their due and accustomed tithes from their parsons and vicars?

XII. Item, Whether any be common drunkards, ribalds, or men of evil living; or do exercise any lewd pastimes, especially in the time of divine service?

XIII. Item, If there be any that do practise or exercise any arts of magic or necromancy, or do use or practice any incantations, forceries, or witchcraft, or be vehemently suspected thereof.

XIV. Item, Whether any be married in the degrees of affinity or consanguinity prohibited by the laws of holy church, or that do marry, the banns not asked, or do make any privy contracts?

XV. Item, Whether in the time of Easter last any were not confessed, or did not receive the blessed sacrament of the altar, or did unreverently behave themselves in the receiving thereof?

XVI. Item, Whether any do keep any secret conventicles, preaching lectures, or reading in matters of religion, contrary to the laws?

XVII. Item, Whether any do now not duly keep the fasting and embring days?

XVIII. Item, Whether the altars of the church be consecrated, or no?

XIX. Item, Whether the sacrament be carried devoutly to them, that fall sick, with light, and with a little sacring bell?

XX. Item, Whether the common schools be well kept, and that the schoolmasters be diligent in teaching, and be also catholic and men of good and upright judgment, and that they be examined and approved by the ordinary?

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 2.

XXI. Item, Whether any take upon them to minister the goods of those, that be dead, without authority from the ordinary?

XXII. Item, Whether the people in every parish be charitably provided for?

XXIII. Item, Whether there do burn a lamp, or a candle before the sacrament; and if there do not, that then it be provided for with expedition?

XXIV. Item, Whether infants and children be brought to be confirmed in convenient time?

XXV. Item, Whether any do keep or have in their custody any erroneous or unlawful books?

XXVI. Item, Whether any do withhold any money or goods bequeathed to the mending of the highways, or any other charitable deed?

XXVII. Item, Whether any have put away their wives, or any wives do withdraw themselves from their husbands, being not lawfully divorced?

XXVIII. Item, Whether any do violate or break the Sundays and holy days, doing their daily labours and exercises upon the same?

XXIX. Item, Whether the taverns or ale-houses, upon the Sundays and holy days, in the time of mass, matins, and evening song, do keep open their doors, and do receive people into their houses to drink and eat, and thereby neglect their duties in coming to church?

XXX. Item, Whether any have, or do deprave, or condemn the authority or jurisdiction of the pope's holiness, or the see of Rome?

XXXI. Item, Whether any minstrels, or any other persons do use to sing any songs against the holy sacrament, or any other rites and ceremonies of the church?

XXXII. Item, Whether there be any hospitals within your parishes, and whether the foundations of them be duly and truly observed and kept, and whether the charitable contributions of the same be done accordingly?

XXXIII. Item, Whether any goods, plate, jewels, or possessions be taken away or withholden from the said hospitals, and by whom?

Anno Christi
1557.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Synodus provincialis Ebor. Ex reg. decani et capit. Ebor. in ann.

In synodo provinciali Ebor. jussu Nicolai archiepiscopi coacta pro provisione et praeparatione armorum pro defensione hujus regni Angliae, habito tractatu super praemissis, tandem convenerunt et consenserunt prout sequitur. Nos igitur considerantes hostium hujus regni Angliae malevolentiam et protervam audaciam, maximum quoque et gravissimum periculum eidem regno ecclesiaeque ejusdem ea ratione imminere; ordinamus et constituimus, quod quilibet clericus provinciae Eborum terras ad modum in statuto nuper pro provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione armorum ex parte laicorum faciend. edito in parlamento apud Westm. vi-

De hac provisione armorum a clero in synodis provincialibus facta, ita loquitur Heylin in Introduct. ad Exam. Histor. "In a memorable convocation in the 4th and 5th years of Philip and Mary, the clergy taking notice of an act of parliament then newly passed, by which the subjects of the temporality having lands in the yearly value of five pounds and upwards, were charged with finding horse and armour, according to the proportion of their yearly revenues and possessions, did by their sole authority in the convocation impose upon themselves and the rest of the clergy of this land the finding of a like number of horses, armour, and other necessities for the war, according to their yearly income, proportion for proportion, and rate for rate, as by that statute has been laid on the temporal subjects. And this they did by their own sole authority, as was before said; ordering the same to be levied on all such, as were refractory, by sequestration, deprivation, suspension, excommunication, without relating to any subsequent confirmation by act of parliament, which they conceived they had no need of." H. J.

cesimo die mensis Januarii ultimo effluxi inchoato et celebrato, possidens eodem censu et onere, quoad armorum provisionem, exhibitionem, et suppeditationem praedict. teneatur, quo laici in dicto statuto pro provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione hujusmodi pro suis terris onerantur. Item, quod quilibet ejusdem provinciae in ordine clerici constitutus, beneficium aut beneficia, promotionesve spirituales, unam vel plures aut pensionem aut pensiones habens seu possidens, quorum valores per se aut simul juncti, quantitatem triginta librarum aut supra constituunt, ad eam proportionem in effectu pro beneficiis, promotionibus, et pensionibus hujusmodi, quoad provisionem, exhibitionem, et suppeditationem hujusmodi obligetur et astringatur, quo laici in dicto statuto, pro rata bonorum suorum mobilium, pro hujusmodi armis onerantur. Et si quis dictae provinciae Eboracen. in ordine clerici constitutus, simul terras et beneficia ecclesiastica habeat, is altero censu tantum, praestantiori scilicet et uberiori, non autem utroque, censeatur et oneretur. Si quis autem hoc nostrum decretum effectualiter non observaverit, sed in aliquo violaverit vel infregerit, is per ecclesiasticas censuras, sequestrationem, et deprivationem, excom-municationem, suspensionem, aut aliter, pro arbitrio episcopi seu loci dioeceseani, mulctabitur et punietur. Caeterum in eodem decreto nostro universitates Oxoniae et Cantabrigiae, necnon collegia Eaton juxta Windsoariam, et Wickamense prope Wintoniam, ac omnia eorum praedia et bona, ob literarum respectum, ac honestas et pias considerationes, juxta laudabilem et vetustum morem ex hac parte observatum, ab omni armorum sumptu et onere in hac parte ferend. excepimus, et exempta esse volumus. Per hanc vero concessionem nostram ultro et sponte optimis considerationibus factam et oblatam, non intendimus alio modo, quoad praemissa, ulterius astringi, vel obligari, quam laici in dicto statuto de armorum provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione teneantur et obligentur. Imo volumus et intendimus, ac tenore praesentium declaramus, quod omnes provisiones, exceptiones, commoditates, et favores, quae aliquo casu et modo dictis laicis in eorum concessione hujusmodi per dictum statutum competunt, aut competere possunt, vel conceduntur, nobis, praelatisque, et clero, et nostrum cuilibet in omnibus competant et reserventur.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 3.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

Decretum archiepiscopi Cantuar. de armorum provisione episcopo Norwicensi directum cum certificatorio RRmi regi et reginae de iisdem facto. Ex reg. Norwic. Hopton.

REVERENDISSIMO in Christo patri et domino, dom. Reginaldo, miseratione divina tit. S. Mariae in Cosmedin, S. Romanae ecclesiae presbytero Cardinali, Polo nuncupato, Cantuar. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati, et apostolicae sedis legato nato, Johannes, permissione divina Norwic. episcopus, obedientiam et reverentiam tanto reverendissimo patri debitas cum honore. Literas reverendi in Christo confratris nostri et domini, dom. Edmundi, permissione divina London. episcopi, nuper undecimo, viz. die mensis Aprilis ult. praeterit. cum reverentia recepimus sub eo, qui sequitur, verborum tenore: Edmundus, permissione divina London. episcopus, reverendo in Christo confratri nostro domino Johanni, eadem permissione divina Norwicensi episcopo, salutem in auctore salutis. Literas reverendissimi in Christo patris ac domini, dom. Reginaldi, miseratione divina etc. legati nati, ad nos una cum quodam decreto annexo directas, et subscriptione dicti reverendissimi patris munitas, sigilloque ejusdem magno figillatas, nuper recepimus exequend. quarum tenores sequuntur, et sunt tales:

Reginaldus, miseratione divina tituli S. Mariae in Cosmedin, S. Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis, Polus, Cantuar. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas, et apostolicae sedis legatus natus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo, eadem miseratione divina London. episcopo, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum in sacra synodo provinciali five convocatione praelatorum et cleri nostrae Cantuar. provinciae, auctoritate brevis regii nobis inscripti et directi, in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedr. D. Pauli London. 21. die mensis Januar. ult. praeterit. inchoata et celebrata, ac de die in diem, et de loco in locum saepius continuata et prorogata, de consilio et assensu vestris, et aliorum venerabilium confratrum et suffraganeorum nostrorum, totiusque cleri nostrae Cantuar. provinciae in eadem sacra synodo five convocatione congregat. inter nonnulla alia per nos mutuo et unanimi nostro assensu ad Dei gloriam illustrandam, divini cultus augmentum, ecclesiae Anglicanae utilitatem, ordinis clericalis honestatem, regum nostrorum serenissimorum regnique Angliae et ditionum ejusdem tuitionem et defensionem tendentia, ordinata et stabilita ex certis, magnis, arduis, et urgentibus causis per nos eisdem confratribus nostris, et clero praedictae provinciae nostrae Cantuar. propositis, ac inter nos matura deliberatione consideratis et ponderatis, quoddam decretum five institutum pro armorum provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione ordinaverimus, promulgaverimus, et stabiliverimus, quod fraternitatem vestram non latere credimus. Nos igitur decretum five institutum hujusmodi in et per totam provinciam nostram Cantuar. praedictam debitae executioni demandari volentes, decretum ipsum sigillo nostro figillatum praesentibus annexum (ne quisquam ignorantiam praetendere possit) vobis transmittimus publicandum; volentes et fraternitati vestrae firmiter injungendo mandantes, quatenus veras copias five exemplaria praedicti decreti five instituti sub sigillo figillo et literis vestris, harum seriem in se continentibus, universis et singulis venerabilibus confratribus et suffraganeis nostris dictae provinciae nostrae transmittentes, ex parte nostra eis injungatis, quibus nos etiam tenore praesentiam injungimus, quatenus eorum singuli in singulis civitatibus et dioecesi. eorundem coram decano et capitulo cujuscunque ecclesiae cathedralis, ac archidiaconis, et clero suae dioeceseos, prout ad nos et eorum quemlibet pertinet, decretum sive institutum praedictum debite publicent et denuncient, ac ab omnibus, quos illud concernit, observari, et debite executioni mandari mandent, seu sic publicari et denunciari ac observari faciant cum effectu, et curent efficaciter fieri sub poenis et censuris in eodem promulgatis; vosque venerabilis confrater noster, dictum decretum sive institutum in et per ecclesiam vestram cathedralem D. Pauli, ac civitatem et dioec. vestras London. prout ad vos attinet, debite et effectualiter publicari, denunciari, et exequi faciatis. De die vero receptionis praesentium, modoque et forma executionis vestrae earundem, necnon et quid in praemissis feceritis, nos citra primum diem mensis Maii prox. futur. debite certificetis literis vestris patentibus, harum seriem in se habentibus; eisdem venerabilibus confratribus et suffraganeis nostris auctoritate nostra firmiter injungentes, quod eorum singuli citra dictum diem similiter nos certiores facere debite et distincte curent. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth Winton. dioecesi. 25. die mensis Martii, A. D. M.D.LVIII. et nostrae consecrat. anno tertio.

R E G. cardinalis Cantuariensis.

Illustrissimis, serenissimis, et invictissimis in Christo principibus et dominis nostris clementissimis, dominis Philippo et Mariae, Dei gratia regi et reginae Angliae, Hispaniarum, Franciae, utriusque Siciliae, Iherusalem, et Hiberniae, fidei defensoribus, archiducibus Austriae, ducibus Burgundiae, Mediolani, et Brabantiae, comitibus Haspurgi, Flandriae, et Tirolis, Reginaldus, miseratione divina tit. S. Mariae in Cosmedin, S. Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis Polus, Cantuar. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas, et apostolicae sedis legatus natus, gratiam, felicitatem, obedientiam, fidem, et honorem, in et per quem reges regnant et principes dominantur. Vestris majestatibus regiis per praesens publicum instrumentum, sive has literas nostras testimoniales sigillo nostro sigillatas, ac signis et nominibus notariorum publicorum scribarum nostrorum in hac parte assumptorum subscriptas et consignatas, significamus et notum facimus, quod nos, Reginaldus, archiepiscopus antedict. praelatique et clerus nostrae Cantuar. provinciae in sacra synodo provinciali sive convocatione per nos nuper vigore et auctoritate brevis vestri regii nobis inscripti et directi, in domo capitulo ecclesiae cathedralis D. Pauli London. 21. die mensis Januarii ultimo effluxi, inchoata et celebrata, ac de die in diem, et de loco in locum saepius continuata et prorogata, legitime convocati et congregati, pro quibusdam arduis, ur-gentibus, et necessariis causis ibi per nos propositis et expositis, et inter nos matura deliberatione consideratis ac ponderatis, inter alia plurima, quae necessariam quandam et praesentaneam provisionem exposcere merito videbantur, illud etiam in consilium adhibuimus, et recta ratione perpendimus; quod quanquam in republica christiana ministrorum Dei ac totius cleri potissimum interesse videatur, ut cum alias semper, tum vel maxime, cum ab hostibus aliquod grave periculum immineat, precibus ardentibus ad Deum optimum maximum fundendis se totos dedant, jejuniis atque lachrymis ejus iram et indignationem placare nitantur, et armis spiritualibus (quae sunt ipsorum militiae propria) alacriter pugnent, quo hostium impetus sine ullo regni discrimine penitus depellatur, et respublica tota salva et incolumis maneat; tamen ea nonnunquam incidit temporis ratio, ut tam clero, quam laicis illa etiam arma, quibus corpora in bello tegi et muniri solent, necessario paranda, et in promptu habenda sint, eo quidem consilio, ut vesani et perditii hostium conatus utroque armorum genere retardari, et prorsus reprimi possint. Nos igitur hoc tempore non modo perversam et perfractam hostium malevolentiam et audaciam, verum etiam maximum et gravissimum periculum, quod patriae atque ecclesiae et fidei catholicae impendere videtur, ante oculos statuentes, nostrarum sane partium duximus nihil omnino praetermittere, quod ad firmam regiarum vestrarum majestatem et universi regni vestri defensionem, et ad communem nostrorum salutem et conservationem ullo modo facere videatur. Ac propterea uno omnium assensu et consensu inter nos convenit, ut quilibet provinciae nostrae Cantuar. antedictae in ordine cleri constitutus, terras ad modum praefinitum in statuto nuper pro provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione armorum ex parte laicorum fienda edito, in parlamento apud Westmonasterium 20. die mensis Januarii ultimo effluxi, inchoato et celebrato, possidens eodem censu et onere, quoad armorum provisionem, exhibitionem, et suppeditationem praedictam teneatur, quo laici in dicto statuto pro provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione hujusmodi pro suis terris onerantur. Item, quod quilibet ejusdem provinciae in dicto ordine cleri constitutus, beneficium aut beneficia, promotionesque spirituales, unam vel plures aut pensionem vel pensiones habens seu possidens, quorum valores per se aut simul juncti, quantitate triginta librarum aut supra constituent, ad eam proportionem in effectu pro beneficiis, promotionibus, et pensionibus hujusmodi, quoad provisionem, exhibitionem, et suppeditationem armorum hujusmodi obligetur et astringatur, quo laici in dicto statuto pro rata bonorum suorum mobilium pro hujusmodi armis onerantur. Et si quis dictae provinciae nostrae Cantuar. in ordine cleri constitutus, simul terras et beneficia ecclesiastica habeat, is altero censu tantum, praestantiori scilicet et uberiori, non autem utroque, censeatur et oneretur. Si quis autem hoc nostrum decretum effectualiter non observaverit, sed in aliquo violaverit vel infregerit, is per ecclesiasticas censuras sequestrationem nem et deprivationem, excommunicationem, suspensionem, aut aliter pro arbitrio episcopi seu loci dioecesani multabitur et punietur. Cæterum in eodem decreto nostro universitates Oxoniae et Cantabrigiae, necnon collegia Eaton juxta Windesoram, et Wickhamiense prope Wintoniam, ac omnia eorum praedia et bona ob literarum respectum, ac honestas et pias considerationes juxta laudabilem et vetustum morem in hac parte observatum, ab omni armorum sumptu et onere in hac parte ferendo excepimus, et excepta esse volumus. Per hanc vero concessionem nostram, ultro, et sponte, et optimis considerationibus factam et oblatam, non intendimus aliquo modo, quoad praemissa ulterius astringi vel obligari, quam laici in dicto statuto de armorum provisione, exhibitione, et suppeditatione tenentur et obligantur. Immo volumus et intendimus, ac tenore praesentium declaramus, quod omnes provisiones, exceptiones, commoditates, et favores, qui aliquo casu aut modo dictis laicis in eorum concessione hujusmodi praedictum statutum competunt, aut competere possunt vel conceduntur, nobis, praelatisque, et clero, et nostrum cuilibet integre in omnibus competant et reserventur. In quorum omnium et singulorum praemissorum fidem et testimonium nos Reginaldus, cardinalis et archiepiscopus antedictus, has praesentes literas testimoniales, sive hoc praesens publicum instrumentum ad humilem rogatum praelatorum et cleri praedicti sigilli nostri appensione, manus nostrae subscriptione, signis et subscriptionibus Anthonii Huse armigeri, registrarii, et scribae nostri principalis, et Johannis Incent, notariorum publicorum, fecimus et jussimus communiri. Dat. octavo die mensis Martii, A. D. juxta computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae M.D.LVII. indictione prima, pontificatus vero sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri, dom. Pauli, div. prov. ejus nominis

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 3.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 3.

Cardinalis Poli commissio ad procedend. contra haereticos. Ex reg. Pole fol. 29. b.

REGINALDUS, etc. dilectis nobis in Christo filiis, magistris Nicolao Harpesfeld legum doctori, archidiacono nostro Cant. Roberto Collins in legibus bacalareo, civitatis et dioec. nostrae Cant. commissario generali, Richardo Fawcett, et Hugoni Turnbull, sacrae theologiae professoribus, necnon Johanni Milles, Hugoni Glasier, et Johanni Warren, sacrae theologiae bacalareis, ecclesiae nostrae cathedralis et metropoliticae Christi Cant. canonicis et praebendariis, salutem, gratiam, et benedictionem. Quum ex nonnullorum fide dignorum relatione et insinuatione non sine cordis nostri amaritudine intelleximus, quod nonnulli nostrarum civitatis et dioec. Cantuar. subditi quosdam errores, haereses, et damnatas opiniones, juri divino, ac catholicae et apostolicae ecclesiae determinationi obviantes, contrarias, et repugnant, non modo tenent, credunt et affirmant; verum etiam errores, haereses, et damnatas opiniones in aliorum Christi fidelium aures ferere et instillare, ac imperitae plebis mentes suis nephariis opinionibus inficere satagunt, et conan-papae quarti, anno tertio, et nostrae consecrationis anno secundo.

VOL. IV.

Quarum quidem literarum vigore et auctoritate nos Edmundus, episcopus antedictus, literas praedictas, ac decretum antedictum vestrae fraternitati praedictae tenore praesentium publicamus, ac veram copiam eorundem nostra manu subscriptas eidem fraternitati vestrae transmittimus, firmiter injungentes, et debita cum reverentia mandantes, quod omnia et singula in literis et decreto hujusmodi contenta in omnibus et per omnia, quantum ad eos quovismodo attinet, executioni mandare et perimplere; ac certicatorium debite transmittere eadem vestra fraternitas infra tempus limitatum diligenter et solícite curet, ac fideliter et efficaciter curari faciat. In cujus rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus, et sigillo et subscriptione nostris roboravimus. Dat. in palatio nostro London. 28. die mensis Martii, A. D. M.D.LVIII. et nostrae translat. anno xix.

Quarum quidem literarum reverendissimarum auctoritate et vigore nos Johannes, episcopus antedictus, decretum sive institutum, de quo supra fit mentio infra ecclesiam nostram cathedralem S. Trinitatis Norwicen. in sacra synodo ibidem post festum Paschae ultimae jam elapsae celebrata coram decano et capitulo ejusdem ecclesiae, ac archidiaconis nostris, et coram nonnullis aliis cleri nostri dioec. publicavimus, et denunciavimus, ac in aliis partibus dictae dioec. nostrae Norwicensis per commissarios nostros legitime deputatos publicari et denunciari fecimus, ac debitae executioni juxta omnem vim, formam, tenorem, et effectum dictarum literarum reverendissimarum, quantum in nobis est, demandari demandavimus. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. Norwici 20. die mensis Maii, A. D. M.D.LVIII.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 5.

tur, in animarum suarum salutis interitum et detrimentum, ac aliorum Christi fidelium exemplum longe perniciosum, in ecclesia Dei non ferend. nos autem praemissa conniventibus oculis praeterire nolentes, sed, ne illud venenum latius serpat, opportunum et necessarium remedium pro pastoris officii nostri debito, quantum cum Deo possumus, adhiberi volentes, de vestra sana doctrina, fidei zelo, vitaeque et morum integritate, exactaque in rebus gerendis dexterritate specialem in Domino fiduciam obtinentes, ad inquirend. de et super omnibus et singulis articulis haeresis cujuscunque, ac etiam ad examinandum omnes et singulos subditos infra civitatem et dioec. ac immediatas jurisdictiones ecclesiae nostrae Christi Cant. residentes et commorantes, de et super haeresibus et erroribus quibuscunque in fide christiana suspectos, detectos, denunciandos, inquisitos, vel accusatos, aut in posterum detegendos, denunciandos, inquirendos, vel accusandos, ac quoscunque testes ubicunque locorum infra civitatem et dioec. ac immediatas jurisdictiones ecclesiae nostrae Christi

Y y

fti

174 CARD. POLI COMMISSIO AD PROCED. CONTRA HAERETICOS.

sti Cant. commorantes et degentes, aliaque probationum genera quaecunque pro veritate praemissorum eruend. quomodolibet requisita, recipiend. et admittend. testesque hujusmodi in forma jurandorum testium jurand. et examinand. ac omnibus aliis viis, modis, et juris formis, quibus melius et efficacius poteritis, de veritate praemissorum, etiam summarie et de plano, ac sine strepitu et figura judicii cognoscend. inquirend. et investigand. et si per examinationem et investigationem hujusmodi aliquem, vel aliquos, alicujus haeresis, seu impiae opinionis crimine contractum seu contractos, involutum seu involutos esse compereritis et inveneritis, ab erroribus suis revocand. eumque et eos, si errorum suorum pertaesum vel pertaesos esse inveneritis, ad errorum suorum hujusmodi retractationes, abjurationes, et renunciatione, inducend. et subsequenter in sacrosanctae ecclesiae gremium admittend. et recipiend. ac alias, prout juris et aequitatis ratio persuaferit, absolvend. et dimittend. paenitentiosque salutes et condignas pro commissis suis hujusmodi infligend. et imponend. pertinacem vero vel pertinaces, obstinatum aut obstinatos, erroribusque, haeresibus, et damnatis opinionibus suis obstinate et pertinaciter inhaerentes, et ad unitatem ecclesiae redire nolentes, ex coetu fidelium rejiciend. et exterminand. ac seculari potestati (si facti atrocitas ita exposceret) committend. tradend. et liberand. caeteraque omnia et singula faciend. exercend. et expediend. quae in praemissis et circa ea necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna; vobis et vestrum cuilibet, conjunctim et divisim (ita tamen quod singulis sententiis diffinitivis contra haereticos quoscunque ferend. et promulgand. duorum vestrum, ad minus, accesserit unanimis assensus et consensus) vices nostras committimus cum cujuslibet coercionis canonicae potestate; vosque commissarios et delegatos nostros in hac parte, conjunctim et divisim, sub qualitate praemissa ordinamus, deputamus, et constituimus per praesentes, ad nostrum beneplacitum duntaxat duratur. prioribus nostris literis commissionalibus tibi praefato magistro Roberto Collins alias factis, in suo robore nihilominus permansuris. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambehith vicesimo octavo die mensis Martii, anno Domini M.D.LVIII. et nostrae consecrationis anno tertio.

Papae Rom.
PAUL. IV. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 3.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 6.

Card. Poli significatio regiae majestati contra quosdam haereticos. Ex reg. Pole fol. 30. b.

ILLUSTRISSIMIS et serenissimis in Domino principibus et dominis nostris, dominis Philippo et Mariae, Dei gratia regi et reginae Angliae, Hispaniarum, etc. Reginaldus, miseratione divina tituli sanctae Mariae in Cosmedin sanctae Romanae ecclesiae presbyter cardinalis Polus, Cant. archiepiscopus, etc. honorem, reverentiam, et obedientiam in eo, per quem reges regnant et principes dominantur. Vestris regiis majestatibus tenore praesentium significamus, quod dilecti nobis in Christo magistri Nicolaus Harpesfeld legum doctor, archidiaconus noster Cant. et Robertus Collins in legibus bacalareus, commissarii nostri in hac parte, una cum magistris Richardo Fawcett, et Hugone Turnbull, sacrae theologiae professoribus, Johanne Milles, Hugone Glasier, et Johanne Warren, sacrae theologiae bacalareis, conjunctim et divisim commissarii nostri in hac parte sufficienter et legitime constituti, contra et adversus quosdam Johannem Corneford paroch. de Wrotham, Christophorum Browne de villa de Maydstone, Johannem Hurst paroch. de Alheford, Catherinam Knight paroch. de Thorneham, et Aliciam South paroch. de Beddenden, nostrarum Cantuar. dioec. et jurisdictionis, de et super nefando crimine haereseos apud bonos et graves enormiter diffamatos, ac super reatu earundem iisdem commissariis nostris respective detectos, delatos, et denunciatos rite et legitime procedentes (examinatione praevia) compererint et invenerint eosdem Johannem Corneford, Christophorum Browne, Johannem Hurst, Catherinam Knight, et Aliciam South, ac eorum quemlibet nonnullos errores, haereses, ac damnatas et scandalosas opiniones catholicae et apostolicae ecclesiae determinationi obviantes, contrarias, et repugnantes, coram eisdem commissariis nostris confessos fuisse, affirmasse, defendisse, et eisdem firmiter credidisse; necnon eosdem errores, haereses, et damnatas opiniones pertinaciter et animo indurato saepe numero manutenuisse, et defendisse, ac in eisdem permansisse, ac ab eisdem nullo modo repiscere curasse, sed ad sanctae matris ecclesiae gremium redire penitus neglexisse ac recusasse; ideo iidem commissarii nostri eosdem Johannem, Christophorum, Johannem, Catherinam, et Aliciam, ac eorum quemlibet saepius respective monitos, et ad ecclesiae unitatem redire hortatos, et eorum salutaribus monitis parere omnino spernentes, tanquam oves morbias, a grege dominico (ne alios vestros subditos sua contagione inficiant) ejiciendos et eliminandos fore decreverint; ipsosque Johannem, Christophorum, Johannem, Catherinam, et Aliciam, ac eorum quemlibet respective, occasione iniquitatum suarum inveteratarum hujusmodi haereticos, et haereticis opinionibus credentes et inhaerentes, mediantibus eorum sententiis diffinitivis respective, pronunciaverint et decreverint. Cum igitur sancta mater ecclesia non habeat, quod ulterius facere et exequi debeat in hac parte, vestris regiis sublimitatibus et brachio vestro seculari dictos haereticos et relapsos relinquimus, condigna animadversione plectendos. In cujus rei testimonium nos Reginaldus cardinalis, archiepiscopus et legatus natus antedictus, sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambehith septimo die mensis Julii, anno Domini M.D.LVIII. et nostrae consecrationis anno tertio.

Cardinal

Card. POLE's letter about the discharge of first fruits. 175

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.

Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI. 3.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 6.

Cardinal Pole's letter about the discharge of first fruits. Ex reg. Bonner fol. 439. et ex reg. Lacey Exon. fol. 34, 35.

AFTER our hartye commendacyons. Wheare it pleased the kinge and quenes majesties by acte of parlyamente to give up to our dysposycion, all the spyrituall revenues beinge in theire possessyon or reversion, and also to renounce, and clerlye to relinquishe from theym all the perpetuall tenthes and annuall rentes payde by the clergie, and reserved by literes patentes "Nomine decimae;" all whiche revenues, tenthes, and rents reserved, were assigned to the paymente of all suche penyons, annuities, fees, and other chardges, as the clergy undertoke to paye, and thereof to discharge the kinge and quenes majesties; we according to the truste committed to us, have beyn very carefull, not onely to dispose the saide revenues with all conveniente spede possible, but also to discharge the saide clergie from paymente of their perpetuall tenthes, and rents reserved "Nomine decimae." Which thinges before this tyme, for wante of perfecte understandinge of the state of the foresayde revenue, we colde not so fullye performe, as our desire was; and yet nevertheles, by our lettres hearetofore sente to yow, we gave order of all the benefices of twenty marks, and under, to be discharged of there sayde tenthes at and from Christmas laste paste, as by our said letters moore at large maye appear. Now understanding by the view of suche accomptes, as have beyn taken this two yeares paste, that there dothe remayne (the saide penyons and other paymentes discharged) suche an overplus, and some of money, as will suffice for the discharge of th' one halfe of all the tenthes, as well of byshopricks, as of other benefices ecclesiastical, as also of the annuall rentes payde by the cathedral churches and other ecclesiastical persons "Nomine decimae;" and calling also to our remembraunce the great charges, wherewith the clergy is burdened, aswell with the paymentes of subsidies, as provision of armour for defence of the realm, we have thoughte good for the ease and helpe of the residewe of the sayde clergie to remitt and clyerlye discharge th' one half of there sayde perpetuall tenths at and from Christmas laste paste; and likewyse also clyerlye to remitt th' one half of the annuall rentes reserved by lettres patentes "Nomine decimae" from hensforthe. And for your better understand-inge of our pleasure and order heerein, we have sente unto you hearwithe certain articles devised for the better executyon of the premises, the which we require you to consider and diligently to execute, according as the same or any of theym shall appertayne to you; to the intent, that not onely this our order may take good effecte accordinge to our desire, but that also the said clergie may the sooner be exonerate from paymente of the resydewe, and there tenthes; and also suche impropriatyons, portyons, penyons, glebe, tithes, and other commodities spirituall and ecclesiasticall, leste to our order and disposityon for the benefit of the church, maye the soner and the better be disposed accordinge to the godly intentes of the kinge and quene's majesties, and the desired purpose of our travell. And this we require you earnestlye to attende as well for the wealth of the clergy, as for your owne profitt and commoditie. And further also, wheare there dothe remayne certeyn somes of money dewe upon your two laste accomptes ended at Michilmas laste, the state whereof you have in writing, as well what is in your handes alrede receaved, as what is dewe by others; we require you and also charge you, that immediately upon the receipt hereof, or at the furthest, before the 5th. day of Maye nexte cominge, you sende all suche money, as well remaininge in your handes, as shall come to your handes, as also all that, whiche the laste yeare we willed you to bestow in chests safelye to be kepte, and to paye the same, where at your sendinge we shall appointe you. And yf upon the conclusyon of youre nexte accompte there shall remayne any sum of money (all paymentes of penyons, annuities, etc. discharged) we require and chardge you, that the sayde money may be sente hither to be payd to such persons, as we shall appointe; all which somes as well remaining upon your laste accomptes, as shall remaine upon your nexte accompte, shal be employed to the benefit of the church in suche sorte, as by us, with th' advice of such, as were put in truste by the consente of all the byshoppes being here present at the laste parliament, shall be ordered. Thus far you well. From Grenewiche the firste of April, M.D.LVIII.

REGINALDUS cardinalis Cantuar.

Articles devised for the discharge of the clergie in some portyon of their tenthes.

FIRSTE, My lordes grace is contented, that the haulfe tenthes dewe at and from the feaste of Christmas laste paste, as wel of benefices and prebendes, as of rentes^a reformed by lettres patentes "Nomine decimae," shall be discharged, over and besydes the tenthes of benefices of twenty marks, and under, already remitted by former lettres.

^a F. reserved.

Item,

176 Discharge of the clergy in some portion of TENTHS.

Item, That there be made by the byshop or his channellor, and two of the clergy speciallye chosen for that purpose, a diligente serche of all the pencyonaries deade, promoted, and marryed, and likewise of all other having fees, annuyties, and corrodies, by any means extincte; and the same to be certified before the nexte accompte.

Item, Wheare certaine byshopps, upon the order of the remission of the halfe tenthes, shall not be liable to paye the pencyons, annuytes, etc. allotted to there charges; and divers other byshopps shall have remayninge in there handes an overplus above there charge; it is ordered, that the overplus of the one shall supply the wantes of the other, as hereafter particularlye followeth.

First, Wheare the diocesse of Canterbury and Rochester is overburthened in the some of clxviii.l. xvi.s. i.d. $\frac{1}{4}$. and must be releaved thereof; it is ordered, that the annuyties of maister Lee lx.l. Mr. Godfrey xl.l. Mr. Argall xl.l. and Maister Childey xxvi.l. xiii.s. iii.d. beinge in the hole clxvi.l. xiii.s. iii.d. shall be taken from the charge of Canterbury and Rochester, and allotted to the charge to the byshop of Sarum, who hath an overplus of ccxxvi.l. ix.s. ix.d. his payments and the half tenthes discharged.

Item, Wheare the byshop of London is overcharged, over and above ccxxv.l. xiii.s. viii. d. for synodals appointed to the abbot of Westminster in the some of dccclvi. l. viii.s. viii. d. it is ordered, that the byshop of Norwiche, who hath an overplus of dvi.l. xix.s. viii. d. ob. shall take to his charge owte of the same some so many of the penyons, annuities, etc. of such, as be allotted to the sayde byshop of London, as shall amounte to the some of cccc.l. and the byshop of Exon, who hath an overplus of dxii.l. xvii.s. xi. d. shall have allotted to his charge of the pencyons, annuyties, etc. now beinge in the chardge of the faide byshop of London, as shall amounte to the some of cccclvi. l. viii.s. viii. d.

And wheare the diocess of Elie is overcharged by xxxiii.l. xii.s. ii. d. and Lincolne likewise overcharged xlviii.l. xviii. s. iii. d. and Bathe likewise overcharged cvii.l. iiiii. d. and Gloucester likewise overcharged cxxx.l. xvi.s. vi. d. and Oxforde cxv.l. xvi. d. amountinge in the hoole to ccccxv.l. viii. s. vii. d. it is ordered, that so many pencyons, annuyties, fees, and corrodies, as do amounte to the said severall some, shall be taken from the charge of the sayde byshoppes, and allotted to the byshop of Peterborough, who hath an overplus of ccccxvi. c.l. xii. s. iiiii. d.

Item, Wheare the diocess of Wigorn is overcharged by cxxxii.l. v.s. viii. d. it is ordered, so many pencyons, annuities, etc. as do amounte to the faide some, shall be taken from the chardge of the said byshop, and allotted to the bishop of Hereford, who hath an overplus of ccl.l. xvi. s.

Item, Wheare the diocess of Winton is overcharged by the some of cxxix. l. iii. s. vii. d. it is ordered, that so many penyons, annuyties, etc. as doo amounte to the said some, shall be taken from the charge of the faide bishop^b of Chicester, who hath an overplus of cxxxv. l. xviii. s. viii. d.

Item, Wheare the diocess of Coven. and Lich. is overcharged by dciiii. l. ii. s. vi. d. it is ordered, that so many penyons, annuyties, etc. as doo amounte to the sayde some, shall be taken from the charge of the faide byshop, and allotted to the charge of the byshop of St. David, who hath an overplus dcxli. l.

Item, Wheare the moyte of the tenthes is discharged after and from Michalmas laste paste, if any of the collectors shall have gathered anye of the sayde tenthes due at Christmas M.D.LVII. that they every such collectors shall repaye all and every such some, as he hath received over and above the moytie thereof, or else to returne forsomuch in dyscharge of the subsidie graunted by the clergie to the quenes majesties this yeare.

Item, It is ordered, that wheare diverse byshopps (the moytie of the tenthes now beinge discharged) have a wante of revenue for the payment of such fees, annuyties, pencyons, and corrodies, as be in there chardge to paye, and therefore muste turne over parte of there paymente to the other bisshoppes, who have an overplus of revenue remayninge as is afore specified; it is ordered, that such as shall be turned over, shall be pensioners onelye, and suche as be nowe preistes, or have beyn religious men, for the advoydinge of exclamacyon.

Item, Forasmuch as the feaste of our Ladie is nowe paste, and pencyons then due cannot be well set over at this tyme to suche byshop, as shulde^c reliefe theym, that be overcharged; it is ordered, that all these bisshoppes, whiche by this order shulde releve the overcharged, shall sende to the byshoppes so overcharged, the moyty of so much money, as is appointed to theym for the overcharge of the hole yeares, for the payment of the said penyons, etc. due at our Ladieday laste paste, and betwixte this and Michalmas nexte th' order before specified to be put in execution.

REGINALDUS cardinalis Cantuar.

^b F. inferenda "and allotted to, the bishop."

^c F. relieves.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 3.Anno Christi
1558.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 6.Breve regium de comburendis haereticis. Ex Fox pr. ed. fol. 1676.

Vicecomiti M. de haereticis comburendis.

PHILIPPUS et Maria, Dei gratia rex et regina Angliae, Hispaniarum, Franciae, utriusque Siciliae, Hierusalem, et Hiberniae, fidei defensores, archiduces Austriae, duces Burgundiae, Mediolani, et Brabantiae, comites Haspurgi, Flandriae, et Tirolis, vicecomiti M. salutem. Cum reverendus in Christo pater Edmundus, London. episcopus S. T. R. D. et R. P. suae dioecesis in causa haereticae pravitatis ex officio suo legitime procedens, haereticos manifestos pronunciaverit et declaraverit, ipsosque foro seculari relinquendos fore decreverit, et realiter reliquit, juxta leges et sanctiones in hac parte editas; prout per literas suas nobis inde directas, plenius apparet et continetur: nos igitur, ut zelatores justitiae, et fidei catholicae defensores, considerantes, quod sancta mater ecclesia non habet ulterius, quod faciat in praemissis, volentes ipsam sanctam matrem ecclesiam, ac jura et libertates ejusdem manutenere et defendere, ac hujusmodi haereticos et errores de regno nostro Angliae, quantum in nobis est, radicitus extirpare, ac haereticos sic convictos animadversione condigna puniri, attendentes hujusmodi haereticos sic convictos, et damnatos, juxta legem et consuetudinem regni nostri Angliae, ignis incendio comburi debere; tibi praecipimus firmiter injungentes, quod praefatos, &c. statim post receptionem praesentium apud villam nostram de B. infra comitatum praedictum, ubi magis expedire videris, coram populo igni committi, et in eodem igne realiter comburi facias, in hujusmodi criminis detestationem, aliorumque christianorum exemplum manifestum: et hoc sub periculo incumbens nullatenus omittas. Testibus nobismetipsis apud Westmonasterium 13. die N. annis regnorum nostrorum 5. et 6.

MARTEN.

Concessio juris patronatus beneficiorum, etc. per reginam. Ex reg. Pole fol. 31. b.

PHILIPPUS et Maria, Dei gratia rex et regina Angliae, Hispaniarum, Franciae, utriusque Siciliae, Jerusalem, et Hiberniae, fidei defensores, archiduces Austriae, duces Burgundiae, Mediolani, et Brabantiae, comites Haspurgi, Flandriae, et Tirolis, omnibus, ad quos praesentes literae nostrae pervenerint, salutem. Cum in parlamento inchoat. et tent. apud Westmonaster. vicesimo primo die Octobris, annis regnorum nostrorum secundo et tertio, inter alia inactitatum existat, quod diversae et nonnullae rectoriae, et beneficia impropriata, terrae glebales, decimae, oblationes, pensiones, portiones, proficua, et emolumenta ecclesiastica et spiritualia, quae a vicesimo anno regni nuper regis Henrici octavi, patris nostrum praefatae reginae, ad manus et possessionem ejusdem nuper regis, et similiter a morte ipsius nuper regis ad manus nuper regis Edwardi sexti, fratris nostri praefatae reginae, et postea ad manus et possessionem nostras, ut in jure nostrum dictae reginae de statu haereditario devenerunt, disponentur, ordinarentur, applicarentur, et converterentur per reverendissimum in Christo patrem Reginaldum Polum cardinalem, et adtunc de latere legatum sanctissimi domini nostri papae et sedis apostolicae, et nunc Cantuar. archiepiscopum, ac primatem et metropolitanum Angliae, ad inaugurationem et incrementum victuum incumbent. praedict. vel aliorum curarum et beneficiorum indigent. vel aliter in praedictorum sustentationem, aut scholarium exhibitionem infra regnum nostrum Angliae et dominia ejusdem, prout ejusdem domini cardinalis sapientiae divinitus imbutae et discretionis suae commodissimum videbitur maxime opportunum; prout per eundem actum plenius apparet. Quorum quidem beneficiorum ac rectoriarum impropriatarum patronatus et vicariarum in manibus et possessione nostris in jure nostrum praefatae reginae ut de statu haereditario jam existunt; cumque etiam nobis datur intelligi, quod per multae praedictarum vicariarum ad praesens sunt vacuae, et curatoribus omnino indigent infra universas regni nostri dioeceses, partim ratione mortis incumbentium earundem vicariarum nuper morientium, ac praecipue pro eo, quod redditus et reventiones earundem vicariarum adeo tenues et angusti sunt, quod non sufficientiant ad habiles et eruditos curatores ibidem alend. et sustentand. per cujus defectum eo deventum est, quod populus et plebs noster hujus regni nostri Angliae, in sincera et catholica doctrina atque religione minime erudiantur, nec sacramenta neque sacramentalia congruenter ejusdem administrentur, non sine summa omnipotentis Dei ira et indignatione, ac animarum multorum christianorum maximo periculo atque discrimine: quorum quidem omnium onus et cura ad ordinarium cujusque dioec. potissimum et proprie spectant; cui si omnium et singulorum beneficiorum patronatus, infra fines suae dioec. existentium distributio committeretur, tanto magis obligaretur ad habiles et idoneas personas in et super omnibus et singulis vicariis et beneficiis praedictis providend. et collocand. Nos igitur cupientes de hac cura nos penitus exonerare, ac in consideratione summae septem mille librarum legalis monetae Angliae, quam dictus reverendissimus in Christo pater, dominus cardinalis Polus, una cum consensu reliquorum praelatorum hujus regni nostri Angliae, de redditibus, reventionibus et commoditatibus praedictorum beneficiorum, sua sponte,

Vol. IV.

Z z

sponte, gratissime, non rogatus, sed ex mera et spontanea sua voluntate nobis obtulit, et ad manus nostras proprias dictae reginae deliberavit, ad sustentationem et meliorem supportationem grandium onerum, per nos in defensione regni nostri praedict. ac dominiorum subditorumque nostrorum ejusdem regni, antehac necessario sustentatorum; in quorum quidem cardinalis et reliquorum praelatorum gratitudinis et benevolentiae consideratione, absque aliquali eorum in hac parte petitione seu intercessione, sed maxime in conscientiae nostrae oneris exonerationem, statutum et decretum est nobis, concedere cuilibet archiepiscopo et episcopo, infra praedictum regnum nostrum Angliae, omnes et singulos nostros patronatus rectoriarum, vicariarum praedict. rectoriarum impropriatarum infra dioec. suas proprias existentium, et pro pleniori declaratione voluntatis nostrae in hac parte, et pro meliori securitate et assurantia praedictorum patronatum praedict. vicariarum, rectoriarum, et promotionum spiritual. infra dioec. praedict. reverendissimi in Christo patris, domini cardinalis Poli, Cantuar. archiepiscopi; scitis quod nos praefat. rex et regina, tam pro specialibus considerationibus supradictis, quam pro diversis aliis rationabilibus causis et considerationibus nos ad praesens specialiter moventibus, de gratia nostra speciali, ac ex certa scientia, et mero motu nostris, dedimus et concessimus, ac per praesentes pro nobis, haeredibus, et successoribus nostrum praefatae reginae, damus et concedimus praefato reverendissimo patri, cardinali Polo, Cant. archiepiscopo, omnia illa nostra patronatus, advocaciones, donationes, liberas dispositiones, et jura patronatum vicariarum, rectoriarum, et ecclesiarum nostrarum de Hernehil, Folkeston, Reynham, Bredgar, Sellinge, Smerden, Graveney, Sitingborne, Lydde, Tilmanston, Kennington, Maydeston, Nonnyngeton, Godneston, Ashe, Whitestable, Leede, et Salmiston, cum Deane, cum eorum juribus et pertinentiis universis, in comitatu nostro Cant. ac infra dictam dioec. Cantuar. adeo plene, libere, et integre, ac in tam amplis modo et forma, prout nos, aut dictus pater, vel frater nostrum praefatae reginae, a dicto anno vicesimo regni dicti nuper regis Henrici octavi, patris nostrum praefatae reginae, eadem patronatus, advocaciones, donationes, liberas dispositiones, et jura patronatum unquam habuimus, tenuimus, vel gavisi fuimus, habuerunt, tenuerunt, vel gavisi fuerunt, seu habere, tenere, vel gaudere debuimus aut debuerunt; et adeo plene libere, et integre, ac in tam amplis modo et forma, prout ea omnia cum pertinentiis, ad manus et possessionem nostras, seu ad manus et possessionem praedictorum fratris et patris nostrum praefatae reginae, Henrici octavi, et Edwardi sexti, seu ad manus et possessionem eorum alterius, a dicto anno vicesimo regni regis Henrici octavi, patris nostrum dictae reginae devenit, seu devenire debuer. ac in manibus et possessione nostris jam existunt, seu existere debent vel deberent, ratione vel praetextu alicujus actus parlamenti, seu aliquorum actuum parliamentorum, seu quocunque alio legali modo, jure, et titulo habend. tenend. et gaudend. et singula praedictos patronatus, advocaciones, donationes, liberas dispositiones, et jura patronatum, vicariarum, rectoriarum, et ecclesiarum praedictarum, cum eorum pertinentiis universis, praefato reverendissimo in Christo patri, cardinali Polo, Cant. archiepiscopo, et successoribus suis, Cant. archiepiscopis, in perpetuum tenend. de nobis, haeredibus, et successoribus nostrum praefatae reginae, in liberam, puram, et perpetuam eleemosynam, pro omnibus servitiis et demandand. quibuscunque. Eo, quod expressa mentio de vero valore annuo, aut de certitudine praemissorum, sive eorum alicujus, aut de aliis donis sive concessionibus per nos, seu per aliquem progenitorum nostrum praefatae reginae, praefato reverendissimo in Christo patri, card. Polo, Cant. archiepiscopo, ante haec tempora fact. in praesentibus minime fact. existit, aut aliquo statuto, actu, ordinatione, provisione, sive restrictione inde in contrarium fact. edit. ordinat. seu provis. aut aliqua alia re, causa vel materia quacunque in aliquo non obstantibus. In cujus rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Testibus nobis ipsis apud West. quinto die Novembris, annis regnorum nostrorum quinto et sexto. Per breve de privato sigillo.

KEMPE.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.Archiepisc. Cant.
REGIN. POLI 3.Anno Christi
1558.Reg. Angliae
MARIAE 6.Convocatio provinciae Cantuar.

CONVOCATIO provinciae Cantuar. ad 11. Novembris prorogata, eo die ad 17. ejusdem mensis continuata, et per mortem reginae Mariae et cardinalis Poli soluta fuit.

Alia

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

Alia convocatio post bimestre spatium per breve Elizabethae reginae, sede archiepiscopali vacante, decano et capitulo Cant. directum 24 Jan. M.D. LVIII. celebrabatur. Ex regist. convoc.

In quo brevi conceditur, quod convocatio fiat in templo D. Pauli London. vel alibi.

VICESIMO quarto Januarii die episcopo London. cum episc. Wigorn. Cov. et Lichf. domum capitularem S. Pauli intransibis, ac more solito sedentibus, Henricus Cole L. L. D. vicarius generalis decani et capituli Cant. nomine eorum praesentavit praedictis episcopis literas commissionales decani et capituli Cant. Quibus lectis, praedicti episcopi acceptaverunt onus commissionis in se. Deinde episc. London. exhibuit certificatorium, et continuavit in diem Vener. prox. 27. Jan.

Quo die episc. London. commissarius, cum caeteris episcopis, Jo. Winton. Rich. Wigorn. Rad. Cov. et Lichf. Jo. abbate Westm. una cum clero convenerunt in choro D. Pauli. Ubi missa de Spiritu Sancto finita, intrarunt domum capitularem; et praeconizatione facta, et inferiori domo evocata, exposuit episcopus ibidem causam convocationis, et quod non futura sit concio, pro more, quia sedes archiepiscopalis destituta existit, et quia consilarii regii in mandatis dederunt, ne conciones in eadem ecclesia fierent, donec de beneplacito reginae constaret. Tum declaravit, quod decanus et capitulum Cant. interesse nequeunt, et commiserunt vices suas praedicto episcopo, &c. Deinde episcopus London. monuit, ut eligerent sibi prolocutorem; et electum praesentarent die Vener. prox. intra 9. et 10. si parliamentum tunc non habeatur; alioquin ad horam 3. post meridiem. Et continuavit ad diem Vener. prox.

Quo die episc. London. etc. jussit accerfiri praelatos inferioris domus, et ibidem dom. Henricus Cole, decanus Pauli, et Jo. Harpsfield, archidiaconus London. praesentarunt oratione Latina Nicolaum Harpsfield prolocutorem, qui orationem fecit et admissus est. Tandem episcopus London. continuavit usque ad diem Vener. prox. si parliamentum non habeatur; alioquin inter secundam post meridiem, etc.

Quo die Veneris episc. London. commissarius sciscitavit, an clerus inferioris domus aliquid excogitavit, quod vellent exponere illo die. Ubi prolocutor, cum Tho. Raynolds, Jo. Harpsfield, et Will. Chedsey responderunt, se nescire, ob quam causam, et quibus de rebus tractaturi sint. Et rogarunt ut ratio ineatur, quomodo religio posset conservari. Quibus episcopi responderunt, quod eis expedire videtur, ut clerus, etc. preces faciant dominae reginae, ne quid oneris imponatur clero in illo parlamento. Deinde tractaverunt de supplemento subsidii, qua ratione sit solvendum. Et tunc episcopus London. continuavit in diem Veneris 17. Febr.

Quo die episcopus London. commissarius continuavit in diem Sabbati 25. Febr.

Quo die episcopus London. commissarius convocavit prolocutorem et clerus. Qui quidem prolocutor porrexit eis quosdam articulos in scriptis, quos dictus clerus, ut asseruit, excogitavit ad exonerationem conscientiarum suarum, et protestationem fidei suae. Et petierunt, ut ipsi episcopi sint duces sibi hac in re. Et tunc episcopus London. continuavit in diem Martis.

Quo die ult. Febr. A. D. M.D. LVIII. episcopus London. commissarius, etc. et clerus inferioris domus exhibuerunt articulos suos in priori sessione conceptos, quos lectos episcopi praesentandos promiserunt superiori domui parlamenti crastino die. Et continuavit usque in diem Veneris.

Sequuntur articuli cleri^a.

Reverendi in Christo patres, ac domini colendissimi. Quoniam, fama publica referente, ad nostram nuper notitiam pervenit, multa religionis christianae dogmata publico et unanimi gentium christianarum consensu haecenus recepta et probata, ac ab apostolis ad nos usque concorditer per manus deducta, praesertim articulos infra scriptos in dubium vocari. Hinc est, quod nos Cant. provinciae inferior secundarius clerus in uno (Deo sic disponente, ac serenissimae dom. nostrae reginae, decani ac capituli Cant. mandato, brevi parlamenti ac monitione eccles. solit. declarat. id exigente) convenientes, partium nostrarum esse existimavimus, tum nostrae, tum eorum, quorum cura nobis committitur, aeternae salutis omnibus, quibus poterimus, modis prospicere. Quocirca majorum nostrorum exemplis commoti, qui in similia saepe tempora inciderunt, fidem, quam in articulis infra scriptis veram esse credimus, et ex animo profiteamur, ad Dei laudem et honorem, officiique et animarum nostrae curae commissarum exonerationem, praesentibus duximus publice inferendam, affirmantes, et, sicut Deus nos in die judicii adjuvet, asserentes,

I. Quod in sacramento altaris virtute verbi Christi a sacerdote debite prolati existentis, praesens est realiter sub speciebus panis et vini naturale corpus Christi, conceptum de virgine Maria; item naturalis ejus sanguis.

II. Item, Quod post consecrationem non remanet substantia panis et vini, neque ulla alia substantia, nisi substantia Dei et hominis.

III. Item, Quod in missa offertur verum Christi corpus, et verus ejusdem sanguis, sacrificium propitiatorium pro vivis et defunctis.

^a Fuller Ch. Hist. p. 55.

IV. Item, Quod Petro apostolo, et ejus legitimis successoribus in sede apostolica, tanquam Christi vicariis, data est suprema potestas pascendi et regendi ecclesiam Christi militantem, et fratres suos confirmandi.

V. Item, Quod auctoritas tractandi et definiendi de iis, quae spectant ad fidem, sacramenta, et disciplinam ecclesiasticam, haecenus semper spectavit, et spectare debet tantum ad pastores ecclesiae, quos Spiritus S. in hoc in ecclesia Dei posuit, et non ad laicos.

VI. Quam nostram assertionem, affirmationem, et fidem nos inferior clerus praedictus ob considerationes praedictas vestris paternitatibus tenore praesentium exhibemus; humiliter supplicantes, ut, quia nobis non est copia hanc nostram sententiam et intentionem aliter illis, quos in hac parte interest, notificandi, vos, qui patres estis, ista superioribus ordinibus significare velitis. Qua in re officium charitatis ac pietatis (ut arbitramur) praestabitis, et saluti gregis vestri (ut par est) prospicietis, et vestras ipsi animas liberabitis.

Die Veneris proximo episcopus London. commissarius, etc. prolocutori et clero sciscitantibus, an articuli sui propositi praesentati essent superioribus ordinibus; respondit se exhibuisse domino custodi magni sigilli in superiori domo, qui erat os commune omnium dominorum illius domus. Qui articulos praedictos, ut apparebat, gratanter accepit, sed nullum omnino responsum dedit. Et iterum prolocutor et clerus rogarunt, ut ipsi velint citra proximam sessionem scire beneplacitum domini custodis, &c.—Tunc tractatum habuerunt de solvendo supplemento subsidii, &c. Et dominus locumtenens continuavit usque in diem Martis prox.

Quo die, 7. sc. Martii, episcopus London. commissarius, etc. accersiri fecit prolocutorem, et sex alios de clero, ubi tractarunt de supplemento subsidii. Et deinde, quia non dabatur ei oportunitas petendi responsum domini de superiori domo, continuavit usque in diem Veneris.

Quo die, viz. 10. Martii, M.D.LVIII. episcopus London. commissarius, etc. inferiorem domum accersiri fecit, quibus ostendebat articulos scriptos, manu notarii publici exhibitos, uno tantum articulo, viz. ultimo excepto, approbatos per universit. Oxon. et Cantabr. Deinde post quaedam tractata continuavit usque in diem Veneris. Et postea de die in diem usque ad diem 7. futuri mensis Aprilis M.D.LIX.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1558.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

Queen Elizabeth's proclamation to forbid preaching, and allowing only the reading of the epistles and gospels, etc. in English in the churches. Strype's Ann. of the reform. vol. I. app. p. 3.

By the Queen.

THE quenes majesty understanding, that there be certain persons having in times past the office of ministry in the church, which now do purpose to use their former office in preaching and ministry, and partly have attempted the same; assembling speciallie in the city of London, in sondry places, great number of people; whereupon riseth amonges the common sort not only unfruitful disputes in matters of religion, but also contention and occasion to break common quiet; hath therefore according to the authority committed to her highness for the quiet governaunce of all maner her subjects, thought it necessary to charge and commaund, like as hereby her highness doth charge and commaund all maner of her subjects, as well those, that be called to the ministry in the church, as all others; that they do forbear to preach, or teach, or to give audience to any maner of doctrine or preaching other, than to the gospels and epistles commonly called The gospell and epistle of the day, and to the Ten commandments in the vulgar tongue, without exposition or addition of any maner sense or meaning to be applyed and added; or to use any other manner of public prayer, rite, or ceremony in the church, but that which is already used, and by law received, as the Common letany used at this present in her majestys own chappel, and the Lord's prayer, and the Crede in English; untill consultation may be had by parliament, by her majesty, and her three estates of this realme, for the better conciliation and accord of such causes, as at this present are moved in matters and ceremonies of religion.

The true advaancement whereof to the due honour of almighty God, the increase of virtue and godliness, with universal charity and concord amonges her people, her majesty mooste desyreth, and meaneth effectually, by all maner of means possible, to procure and to restore to this her realme. Whereunto as her majesty instantly requireth all her good, faithful, and loving subjects to be assenting and ayding with due obedience; so if any shall disobediently use themselves to the breach thereof, her majesty both must and will see the same duely punished, both for the quality of the offence, and for example to all others neglecting her majesties so reasonable commaundment. Yeven at her highness palais of Westminster the 27. day of December, the first year of her majesties reigne.

God save the quene.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 2.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1558.Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. I.Concilium provinciale Ebor. Ex reg. Nic. Heath, arch. Ebor. fol. 27.

VIRTUTE brevis regii concilium hoc in ecclesia metropolitana B. Petri Ebor. celebrabatur 10. die mensis Februarii, M.D.LVIII. et ab hoc die in 16. Martii seq. et ab eo in ultimum diem ejusdem mensis M.D.LIX. continuabatur.

Concilium provinciale Edinburgense. Ex Joh. Leslaei rer. gest. Scot. lib. X. p. 496.

PRAESULES ac doctores quidam theologi cogitantes illam haeresis pestem, nisi quamprimum medicina aliqua reprimeretur, latius grassaturam, provincialem synodum Edinburgi instituerunt; ac plurimis, qui haeresis notam subiverant, damnatis, hanc solum poenam irrogarunt, ut ad cal. Septemb. proximas, qui dies divo Aegidio, urbis patrono, sacer erat, publice in foro palinodiam canerent. Sed quidam haeretici tantos subito tumultus ciebant, ut multitudine, quae supplicationes publicas cum clero obibant, turbata, ac divi Aegidii imagine, quae circumferebatur, vi ablata et comminuta, illos, quibus haereseos abjurandae poena imposita fuit, ex media turba plane subtraherent. Regina indignata, furentem multitudinem ne a sanctorum quidem ac Dei violatione continuisse, D. Setonium Edinburgo praefecit, qui populi audaciam, ne superbius insultaret, aliquandiu compressit." Haec LESLAEUS.

Concilium provinciale episcoporum et cleri Scotiae Edinburgi 2. die Martii habitum.
Ibidem, p. 504.

DE hoc concilio, articulisque in eo exhibitis et responso eis dato ita narrat Leslaeus. "Regina cum nihil hac ratione proficere intellexerat, aliam tentat viam, ut ecclesiastici viri, ac omnes regni theologi, qui eruditione reconditori praestabant, provincialem synodum Edinburgi celebrantes, religionis vulneribus medicinam facerent. Cum igitur numerosus clerus sexto nonas Martii Edinburgum ad synodum convenissent; ecce barones quidam cum nonnullis aliis nobilibus supplicem libellum de quibusdam schismaticorum commentis (quos ipsi primos reformationis articulos vocabant) ipsi reginae porrigunt, urgentes, ut his capitibus publice afferendis ac confirmandis regina assensionem suam subjiceret: illa hunc protinus libellum supplicem per Huntlaeum, regni cancellarium, synodo exhibendum, ut de illis definiret, reddidit. Articulorum summa haec erat.

Ut vernacula lingua preces publice dicantur ac sacramenta administrentur. Ut episcopi princeps ac pastores, illi dominorum ac nobilium cujuscunque dioecesis, hi parochorum assensione ac voluntate ad beneficia cooptentur.

Ut, qui pastoratus provinciae per se sustinendae impares omnino fuerunt, beneficiis moverentur; ac alii, qui et possent et vellent plebeculam concionibus quotidianis informare, sufficerentur.

Ut omnes in posterum, quorum aut mores parum probi, aut doctrina perexigua esset, sacramentorum administratione, reliquisque ecclesiae functionibus excludantur.

Qui synodo interfuerant, cum rem multis disceptationibus in utramque partem agitassent, in hanc sententiam responderunt.

De precibus ac sacramentis alia lingua, quam Latina publice celebrandis, cum ecclesiae catholicae traditionibus, a tot retro seculis religiose observatis, plane repugnet, omnem quoquo modo assensionem esse cohibendam: non enim sine divinae majestatis violatione fieri posse, ut quod ecclesia gravissimis poenis sancierit, id quisquam antiquare cogitet.

De episcopis quoque ac pastoribus eligendis aequum in primis esse, ut, quae jure canonico caventur, ea sarta tecta maneant, neque novi quid, abrogatis veteribus, ullo modo subrogetur. Id quoque prudenter adjecerunt, cum praelatorum electio in regia potestate, suffragante summo pontifice, esset, de ea in tenella reginae aetate contra quicquam statui, sine aperta temeritatis nota, ac regiae potestatis imminutione, nullo modo posse.

De reliquis duobus articulis, ne plus sibi, quam veritati indulgisse viderentur, in eam sententiam itum est, ut omnia ad antiquorum exemplar, ac concilii Tridentini normam conformarentur, ut episcopi, abbates, priores, decani, archidiaconi, pastores, ac cujuscunque ordinis religiosi intra sex menses vel munus quisque suum praesentes obirent, vel beneficiis ecclesiae quam primum cederent. Haec LESLAEUS.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV 4.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

Convocatio provinciae Cantuar.

CONVOCATIO provinciae Cantuar. ad festimum diem mensis Aprilis prorogata, de die in diem usque ad quintum mensis Maii proximum continuata, et deinde nono die ejusdem mensis postero post dissolutum parliamentum die dissoluta fuit.

In hac convocatione sedes archiepiscopalis

Cantuar. sedes episcopales Sarum, Norwicen. Cicestrien. Hereforden. Glocestr. Oxon. Bangor. Bristol. et Roffen. vacabant.

IN PROVINCIA EBOR. convocatio ad ultimum diem mensis Martii continuata, auctoritate commissarii archiepiscopi ad 15. diem Aprilis prorogabatur; testante reg. Nic. arch. Ebor. fol. 29.

Injunctions given by the queen's majesty, concerning both the clergy and laity of this realm, published anno Domini M.D.LIX. being the first year of the reign of our sovereign lady queen Elizabeth.

THE queen's most royal majesty, by the advice of her most honourable council, intending the advancement of the true honour of almighty God, the suppression of superstition throughout all her highness's realms and dominions, and to plant true religion to the extirpation of all hypocrisie, enormities, and abuses (as to her duty appertaineth) doth minister unto her loving subjects these godly injunctions hereafter following. All which injunctions her highness willeth and commandeth her loving subjects obediently to receive, and truly to observe and keep, every man in their offices, degrees, and states, as they will avoid her highness's displeasure, and pains of the same hereafter expressed.

I. The first is, That all deans, archdeacons, parsons vicars, and all other ecclesiastical persons shall faithfully keep and observe, and as far as in them may lie, shall cause to be observed and kept of other, all and singular laws and statutes made for the restoring of the crown, the ancient jurisdiction over the state ecclesiastical, and abolishing of all forreign power, repugnant to the same. And furthermore, All ecclesiastical persons having cure of souls, shall, to the uttermost of their wit, knowledge, and learning, purely and sincerely, and without any colour or dissimulation, declare, manifest and open four times every year at the least, in their sermons and other collations, that all usurped and forreign power, having no establishment nor ground by the law of God, is, for most just causes, taken away and abolished; and that therefore no manner of obedience and subjection within her highness's realms and dominions is due unto any such forreign power. And that the queens power within her realms and dominions is the highest power under God, to whom all men, within the same realms and dominions by God's law, owe most loyalty and obedience, afore and above all other powers and potentates in earth.

II. Besides this, to the intent that all superstition and hypocrisie crept into divers mens hearts, may vanish away, they shall not set forth or extol the dignity of any images, relicts, or miracles; but, declaring the abuse of the same, they shall teach, that all goodness, health, and grace ought to be both asked and looked for only of God, as of the very author and giver of the same, and of none other.

III. Item, That they, the parsons above rehearsed, shall preach in their churches, and every other cure they have, one sermon every month of the year at the least, wherein they shall purely and sincerely declare the word of God, and in the same exhort their hearers to the works of faith, as mercy and charity especially prescribed and commanded in scripture; and that the works devised by mans phantasies, besides scripture (as wandring of pilgrimages, setting up of candles, praying upon beads, or such like superstition) have not only no promise of reward in scripture for doing of them, but contrariwise great threatnings and maledictions of God, for that they being things tending to idolatry and superstition, which of all other offences God almighty doth most detest and abhor, for that the same most diminish his honour and glory.

IV. Item, That they, the parsons above rehearsed, shall preach in their own persons, once in every quarter of the year at least, one sermon, being licensed especially thereunto, as is specified hereafter; or else shall read some homily prescribed to be used by the queen's authority every Sunday at the least, unless some other preacher sufficiently licensed, as hereafter, chance to come to the parish for the same purpose of preaching.

V. Item, That every holy day through the year, when they have no sermon, they shall immediately after the gospel openly and plainly recite to their parishioners in the pulpit the "Pater noster," the "Creed," and "Ten commandments," in English, to the intent, that the people may learn the same by heart; exhorting all parents and householders to teach their children and servants the same, as they are bound by the law of God and conscience to do.

VI. Also, That they shall provide within three months next after this visitation, at the charges of the parish, one book of the whole Bible of the largest volume in English; and within one twelve months next after the said visitation, visitation, the paraphrases of Erasmus also in English upon the gospel, and the same set up in some convenient place within the said church, that they have cure of, whereas the parishioners may most commodiously resort unto the same, and read the same, out of the time of common service. The charges of the paraphrases shall be by the parson or proprietary and parishioners born by equal portions; and they shall discourage no man from the reading any part of the Bible, either in Latin or in English, but shall rather exhort every person to read the same with great humility and reverence, as the very lively word of God, and the especial food of mans soul, which all christian persons are bound to embrace, believe and follow, if they look to be saved; whereby they may the better know their duties to God, to their sovereign lady the queen, and their neighbors; ever gently and charitably exhorting them, and in her majesty's name straightly charging and commanding them, that in the reading thereof, no man to reason or contend, but quietly to hear the reader.

VII. Also, the said ecclesiastical persons shall in no wise at any unlawful time, nor for any other cause, than for their honest necessities, haunt or resort to any taverns or alehouses. And after their meats, they shall not give themselves to drinking or riot, spending their time idely by day and by night at dice, cards, or tables playing, or any other unlawful game; but at all times, as they shall have leisure, they shall hear or read somewhat of the holy scripture, or shall busie themselves with some other honest study, or exercise; and that they always do the things, which appertain to honesty, and endeavor to profit the commonwealth; having always in mind that they ought to excel all other in purity of life, and should be examples to the people to live well and christianly.

VIII. Also, that they shall admit no man to preach within any their cures, but such as shall appear unto them to be sufficiently licensed thereunto by the queen's majesty, or the archbishop of Canterbury, or York, in either of their provinces, or by the bishop of the diocese, or by the queen's majesty's visitors. And such as shall be so licensed, they shall gladly receive to declare the word of God at convenient times, without resistance or contradiction. And that no other be suffered to preach out of his own cure or parish, than such as shall be licensed, as is above expressed.

IX. Also, If they do or shall know any man within their parish or elsewhere, that is a letter of the word of God to be read in English, or sincerely preached, or of the execution of these the queen's majesty's injunctions, or a fautor of any usurped and forreign power, now by the laws of this realm justly rejected and taken away, they shall detect and present the same to the queen's majesty, or to her council, or to the ordinary, or to the justice of the peace next adjoining.

X. Also, That the parson, vicar, or curate, and parishioners of every parish within this realm, shall in their churches and chapels keep one book of register, wherein they shall write the day and year of every wedding, christning, and burial made within their parish for their time, and so every man succeeding them likewise; and also therein shall write every persons name that shall be so wedded, christned and buried. And for the safe keeping of the same book, the parish shall be bound to provide of their common charges one sure coffer, with two locks and keys, whereof the one to remain with the parson, vicar, or curate, and the other with the wardens of every parish church or chapel, wherein the said book shall be laid up. Which book they shall every Sunday take forth, and in the presence of the said wardens, or one of them, write and record in the same all the weddings, christnings, and burials, made the whole week before; and that done, to lay up the book in the said coffer as before: And for every time, that the same shall be omitted, the party, that shall be in the fault thereof, shall forfeit to the said church 3 s. 4 d. to be employed, the one half to the poor mens box of that parish, the other half towards the repairing of the church.

XI. Furthermore, because the goods of the church are called the goods of the poor, and at these days nothing less seen, than the poor to be sustained with the same; all parsons, vicars, pensionaries, prebendaries, and other beneficed men within this deanry, not being resident upon their benefices, which may dispend yearly twenty pounds or above, either within this deanry, or elsewhere, shall distribute hereafter among their poor parishioners, or other inhabitants there, in the presence of the churchwardens, or some other honest man of the parish, the fortieth part of the fruits and revenues of the said benefice; lest they be worthily noted of ingratitude, which reserving so many parts to themselves, cannot vouchsafe to impart the fortieth portion thereof among the poor people of that parish, that is so fruitful and profitable unto them.

XII. And, to the intent, that learned men may hereafter spring the more, for the execution of the premises, every parson, vicar, clerk, or beneficed man within this deanry having yearly to dispend in benefices and other promotions of the church an hundred pounds, shall give 3 l. 6 s. 8 d. in exhibition to one scholar in either of the universities; and for as many C lib. more as he may dispend, to so many scholars more shall give like exhibition in the university of Oxford or Cambridge, or some grammar-school, which, after they have profited in good learning, may be partners of their patrons cure and charge, as well in preaching, as otherwise in executing of their offices, or may, when time shall be, otherwise profit the commonweal with their counsel and wisdom.

XIII. Also, that all proprietaries, parsons, vicars, and clerks having churches, chapels, or mansions within this deanry, shall bestow yearly hereafter upon the same mansions, or chancels of their churches, being in decay, the fifth part of that their benefices, till they be fully fully repaired, and shall always keep and maintain in good estate.

XIV. Also, That the said parsons, vicars, and clerks, shall once every quarter of the year read these injunctions, given unto them, openly and deliberately before all their parishioners at one time, or at two several times in one day; to the intent, that both they may be the better admonished of their duty, and their said parishioners the more moved to follow the same for their part.

XV. Also, Forasmuch as by laws established, every man is bound to pay his tythes, no man shall by colour of duty omitted by their curates, detain their tythes and so requite one wrong with another, or be his own judge; but shall truly pay the same, as hath been accustomed, to their parsons, vicars, and curates, without any restraint or diminution; and such lack and default as they can justly find in their parsons and curates, to call for reformation thereof at their ordinaries, and other superiors, who, upon complaint and due proof thereof, shall reform the same accordingly.

XVI. Also, That every parson, vicar, curate, and stipendary priest, being under the degree of a master of art, shall provide and have of his own, within three months after this visitation, the new Testament both in Latin and in English, with paraphrases upon the same, conferring the one with the other. And the bishops and other ordinaries by themselves or their officers, in their synods and visitations, shall examine the said ecclesiastical persons, how they have profited in the study of holy scripture.

XVII. Also, That the vice of damnable despair may be clearly taken away, and that firm belief and stedfast hope may be surely conceived of all their parishioners, being in any danger; they shall learn and have always in a readiness such comfortable places and sentences of scripture, as do set forth the mercy, benefits, and goodness of almighty God towards all penitent and believing persons; that they may at all times when necessity shall require, promptly comfort their flock with the lively word of God, which is the only stay of mans conscience.

XVIII. Also, To avoid all contention and strife, which heretofore hath risen among the queen's majesty's subjects in sundry places of her realms and dominions, by reason of fond courtesie, and challenging of places in the procession; and also that they may the more quietly hear that, which is said or sung to their edifying, they shall not from henceforth in any parish-church at any time use any procession about the church or churchyard, or at any place; but immediately before the time of communion of the sacrament, the priests with other of the quire shall kneel in the midst of the church, and sing or say plainly and distinctly the letany, which is set forth in English, with all the suffrages following, to the intent the people may hear and answer; and none other procession or letany to be had or used, but the said letany in English, adding nothing thereto, but as it is now appointed. And in cathedral or collegiate churches the same shall be done in such places, and in such sort, as our commissioners in our visitation shall appoint. And in the time of the letany, of the common prayer, of the sermon, and when the priest readeth the scripture to the parishioners, no manner of persons, without a just and urgent cause, shall use any walking in the church, nor shall depart out of the church; and all ringing and knolling of bells shall be utterly forborn at that time, except one bell at convenient time to be rung or knolled before the sermon. But yet for retaining of the perambulation of the circuits of parishes, they shall once in the year at the time accustomed, with the curate and substantial men of the parish, walk about the parishes, as they were accustomed, and at their return to the church, make their common prayers.

XIX. Provided, That the curate in their said common perambulations, used heretofore in the days of Rogations, at certain convenient places shall admonish the people to give thanks to God, in the beholding of Gods benefits, for the increase and abundance of his fruits upon the face of the earth, with the saying of the ciii. psalm, "Benedic anima mea," etc. At which time also the same minister shall inculcate these or such sentences: "Curfed be he, which translateth the bounds and dolles of his neighbor." Or such other order of prayers, as shall be hereafter appointed.

XX. Item, All the queen's faithful and loving subjects shall from henceforth celebrate and keep their holyday according to Gods will and pleasure; that is, in hearing the word of God read and taught, in private and public prayers, in knowledging their offences unto God, and amendment of the same, in reconciling themselves charitably to their neighbors, where displeasure hath been, in oftentimes receiving the communion of the very body and blood of Christ, in visiting of the poor and sick, using all soberness and godly conversation. Yet notwithstanding, all parsons, vicars, and curates shall teach and declare unto their parishioners, that they may with a safe and quiet conscience, after their common prayer in the time of harvest, labour upon the holy and festival days, and save that thing, which God hath sent; and if for any scrupulosity or grudge of conscience, men should superstitiously abstain from working upon those days, that then they should grievously offend and displease God,

XXI. Also, Forasmuch as variance and contention is a thing, that most displeaseth God, and is most contrary to the blessed communion of the body and blood of our saviour Christ, curates shall in no wise admit to the receiving thereof any of their cure and flock, which be openly known to live in sin without repentance, or who hath maliciously and openly contended with his neighbor, unless the same do first charitably and openly reconcile himself again, remitting all rancour and malice, whatsoever controversie hath been between them. And nevertheless, the just titles and rights they may charitably charitably prosecute before such, as have authority to hear the same.

XXII. Also, That they shall instruct and teach in their cures, that no man ought obstinately and maliciously to break and violate the laudable ceremonies of the church, commanded by public authority to be observed.

XXIII. Also, That they shall take away, utterly extinct, and destroy all shrines, coverings of shrines, all tables, candlesticks, trindals, and rolls of wax, pictures, paintings, and all other monuments of feigned miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, and superstition, so that there remain no memory of the same in walls, glass windows, or elsewhere within their churches and houses; preserving nevertheless, or repairing both the walls and glass windows; and they shall exhort all their parishioners to do the like within their several houses.

XXIV. And, That the churchwardens, at the common charge of the parishioners, in every church shall provide a comely and honest pulpit, to be set in a convenient place within the same, and to be there seemly kept for the preaching of God's word.

XXV. Also, They shall provide and have within three months after this visitation, a strong chest with a hole in the upper part thereof, to be provided at the cost and charge of the parish, having three keys, whereof one shall remain with the parson, vicar, or curate, and the other two in the custody of the churchwardens, or any other two honest men, to be appointed by the parish from year to year; which chest you shall set and fasten in a most convenient place, to the intent the parishioners should put into it their oblations and alms for their poor neighbors. And the parson, vicar, and curate shall diligently from time to time, and especially when men make their testaments, call upon, exhort, and move their neighbors to confer and give, as they may well spare, to the said chest: declaring unto them, whereas heretofore they have been diligent to bestow much substance, otherwise than God commanded, upon pardons, pilgrimages, trentals, decking of images, offering of candles, giving to fryers, and upon other like blind devotions, they ought at this time to be much more ready to help the poor and needy; knowing that to relieve the poor is a true worshipping of God, required earnestly upon pain of everlasting damnation; and that also whatsoever is given for their comfort, is given to Christ himself, and so is accepted of him, that he will mercifully reward the same with everlasting life. The which alms and devotions of the people the keepers of the keys shall at all times convenient take out of the chest, and distribute the same in the presence of the whole parish, or six of them, to be truly and faithfully delivered to their most needy neighbors. And if they be provided for, then to the reparation of highways next adjoining, or to the poor people of such parishes near, as shall be thought best to the said keepers of the keys. And also the monies, which riseth of fraternities, guilds, and other flocks of the church (except by the queen's majesty's authority it be otherwise appointed) shall be put in the said chest, and converted to the said use; and also the rents of lands, the profit of cattle, and mony given or bequeathed to obits and dirges, and to the finding of torches, lights, tapers and lamps, shall be converted to the said use; saving that it shall be lawful for them to bestow part of the said profits upon the reparation of the said church, if great need require, and whereas the parish is very poor, and not able otherwise to repair the same.

VOL. IV.

XXVI. Also, To avoid the detestable sin of simony, because buying and selling of benefices is execrable before God, therefore all such persons, as buy any benefices, or come to them by fraud or deceit, shall be deprived of such benefices, and be made unable at any time after to receive any other spiritual promotion; and such as do sell them, or by any colour do bestow them for their own gain and profit, shall use their right and title of patronage and presentment for that time, and the gift thereof for that vacation shall appertain to the queen's majesty.

XXVII. Also, Because through lack of preachers in many places of the queen's realms and dominions the people continue in ignorance and blindness, all parsons, vicars, and curates shall read in their churches every Sunday one of the homilies, which are and shall be set forth for the same purpose by the queen's authority, in such sort, as they shall be appointed to do in the preface of the same.

XXVIII. Item, Whereas many undiscreeet persons do at this day uncharitably contemn and abuse priests and ministers of the church, because some of them (having small learning) have of long time favored fond fancies, rather than God's truth; yet forasmuch as their office and function is appointed of God, the queen's majesty willet and chargeth all her loving subjects, that from henceforth they shall use them charitably and reverently for their office and ministration sake, and especially such as labor in the setting forth of God's holy word.

XXIX. Item, Although there be no prohibition by the word of God, nor any example of the primitive church, but that the priests and ministers of the church may lawfully, for the avoiding of fornication, have an honest and sober wife, and that for the same purpose the same was by act of parliament in the time of our dear brother king Edward the sixth made lawful, whereupon a great number of the clergy of this realm were then married, and so continue; yet because there hath grown offence, and some slander to the church by lack of discreet and sober behaviour in many ministers of the church, both in chusing of their wives, and undiscreeet living with them, the remedy whereof is necessary to be sought: it is thought therefore very necessary, that no manner of priest or deacon shall hereafter take to his wife, any manner of woman without the advice and allowance first had upon good examination by the bishop of the same diocese, and two justices of the peace of the same shire, dwelling next to the place, where the same woman hath made her most abode before her marriage; nor without the good will of the parents of the said woman, if she have any living, or two of the next of her kinsfolks, or, for lack of knowledge of such, of her master or mistress, where she serveth. And before she shall be contracted in any place, he shall make a good and certain proof thereof to the minister, or to the congregation assembled for that purpose, which shall be upon some holy day, where divers may be present. And if any shall do otherwise, that then they shall not be permitted to minister either the word or the sacraments of the church, nor shall be capable of any ecclesiastical benefice. And for the manner of marriages of any bishops, the same shall be allowed and approved by the metropolitan of the province, and also by such commissioners, as the queen's majesty thereunto shall appoint. And if any master or dean, or any head of any college shall purpose to marry, the same shall not be allowed, but by such, to whom the visitation of the same doth properly belong, who shall in any wise provide, that the same tend not to the hindrance of their house.

B b b

of

XXX. Item, Her majesty being desirous to have the prelacy and clergy of this realm to be had as well in outward reverence, as otherwise regarded for the worthiness of their ministries, and thinking it necessary to have them known to the people in all places and assemblies, both in the church and without, and thereby to receive the honour and estimation due to the special messengers and ministers of almighty God; willeth and commandeth, that all archbishops and bishops, and all other, that be called or admitted to preaching or ministry of the sacraments, or that be admitted into vocation ecclesiastical, or into any society of learning in either of the universities, or elsewhere, shall use and wear such seemly habits, garments, and such square caps, as were most commonly and orderly received in the latter year of the reign of king Edward the sixth; not thereby meaning to attribute any holiness or special worthiness to the said garments, but as St. Paul writeth: "Omnia decenter et secundum ordinem fiant." 1 Cor. 14. cap.

XXXI. Item, That no man shall wilfully and obstinately defend or maintain any heresies, errors, or false doctrine, contrary to the faith of Christ and his Holy Spirit.

XXXII. Item, That no persons shall use charms, forceries, enchantments, witchcraft, soothsaying, or any such like devilish device, nor shall resort at any time to the same for counsel or help.

XXXIII. Item, That no person shall, neglecting their own parish church, resort to any other church in time of common prayer or preaching, except it be by the occasion of some extraordinary sermon in some parish of the same town.

XXXIV. Item, That no inholders or alehouse keepers shall use to sell meat or drink in the time of common prayer, preaching, reading of the homilies or scriptures.

XXXV. Item, That no persons keep in their houses any abused images, tables, pictures, paintings, and other monuments of feigned miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, and superstition.

XXXVI. Item, That no man shall willingly let or disturb the preacher in the time of his sermon, or let or discourage any curate or minister to sing or say the divine service now set forth; nor mock or jest at the ministers of such service.

XXXVII. Item, That no man shall talk or reason of the holy scriptures rashly, or contentiously, nor maintain any false doctrine or error, but shall commune of the same, when occasion is given, reverently, humbly, and in the fear of God, for his comfort and better understanding.

XXXVIII. Item, That no man, woman or child, shall be otherwise busied in the time of the service, than in quiet attendance to hear, mark, and understand that is read, preached, and ministered.

XXXIX. Item, That every schoolmaster and teacher shall teach the Grammar set forth by king Henry VIII. of noble memory, and continued in the time of king Edward VI. and none other.

XL. Item, That no man shall take upon him to teach, but such as shall be allowed by the ordinary, and found meet as well for his learning and dexterity in teaching, as for sober and honest conversation, and also for right understanding of God's true religion.

XLI. Item, That all teachers of children shall stir and move them to love and do reverence to God's true religion now truly set forth by public authority.

XLII. Item, That they shall accustom their scholars reverently to learn such sentences of scriptures, as shall be most expedient to induce them to all godliness.

XLIII. Item, Forasmuch as in these latter days many have been made priests, being children, and otherwise utterly unlearned, so that they could read to say mattens or mass; the ordinaries shall not admit any such to any cure or spiritual function.

XLIV. Item, Every parson, vicar, and curate, shall upon every holy day, and every second Sunday in the year hear and instruct the youth of the parish for half an hour at the least before evening prayer, in the ten commandments, the articles of the belief, and the Lord's prayer, and diligently examine them, and teach the catechism set forth in the book of public prayer.

XLV. Item, That the ordinary do exhibit unto our visitors their books, or a true copy of the same, containing the causes, why any person was imprisoned, famished, or put to death for religion.

XLVI. Item, that in every parish three or four discreet men, which tender God's glory, and his true religion, shall be appointed by the ordinaries diligently to see, that all the parishioners oners duly resort to their church upon all Sundays and holy days, and there to continue the whole time of the godly service; and all such as shall be found slack and negligent in resorting to the church, having no great or urgent cause of absence, they shall straightly call upon them, and after due admonition if they amend not, they shall denounce them to the ordinary.

XLVII. Item, That the churchwardens of every parish shall deliver unto our visitors the inventories of vestments, copes, and other ornaments, plate, books, and specially of grayles, couchers, legends, processions, manuals, hymnals, portuesses, and such like appertaining to the church.

XLVIII. Item, That weekly upon Wednesdays and Fridays, not being holy days, the curate at the accustomed hours of service shall resort to church, and cause warning to be given to the people by knolling of a bell, and say the letany and prayers.

XLIX. Item, Because in divers collegiate, and also some parish churches heretofore there have been livings appointed for the maintenance of men and children to use singing in the church, by means whereof the laudable service of music hath been had in estimation, and preserved in knowledge; the queen's majesty neither meaning in any wise the decay of any thing, that might conveniently tend to the use and continuance of the said science, neither to have the same in any part so abused in the church, that thereby the common prayer should be the worse understood of the hearers, willeth and commandeth, that first no alterations be made of such assignments of living, as heretofore hath been appointed to the use of singing or music in the church, but that the same so remain. And that there be a modest and distinct song so used in all parts of the common prayers in the church, that the same may be as plainly understood, as if it were read without singing; and yet nevertheless for the comforting of such that delight in music, it may be permitted, that in the beginning, or in the end of the common prayers, either at morning or evening, there may be sung an hymn, or such like song to the praise of almighty God in the best sort of melody and music, that may be conveniently devised, having respect that the sentence of hymn may be understood and perceived.

L. Item, Because in all alterations, and specially in rites and ceremonies, there happen discord amongst the people, and thereupon slanderous words and railings, whereby charity, the knot of all christian society, is loosed; the queen's majesty being most desirous of all other earthly things, that her people should live in charity both towards God and man, and therein abound in good works, willeth and straightly commandeth all manner of her subjects to forbear all vain and contentious disputations in matters of religion, and not to use in despite or rebuke of any person, these convicious words papist or papistical heretic, schismatic or sacramentary, or any such like words of reproach. But if any manner of person shall deserve the accusation of any such, that first he be charitably admonished thereof; and if that shall not amend him, then to denounce the offender to the ordinary, or to some higher power, having authority to correct the same.

LI. Item, Because there is a great abuse in the printers of books, which for covetousness chiefly regard not what they print, so they may have gain, whereby ariseth the great disorder by publication of unfruitful, vain, and infamous books and papers; the queen's majesty straightly chargeth and commandeth, that no manner of person shall print any manner of book or paper, of what sort, nature, or in what language soever it be, except the same be first licensed by her majesty by expresse words in writing, or by six of her privy council; or be perused and licensed by the archbishops of Canterbury and York, the bishop of London, the chancellors of both universities, the bishop being ordinary, and the archdeacon also of the place, where any such shall be printed, or by two of them, whereof the ordinary of the place to be always one. And that the names of such, as shall allow the same, to be added in the end of every such work, for testimony of the allowance thereof. And because many pamphlets, plays, and ballads be oftentimes printed, wherein regard would be had, that nothing therein should be either heretical, seditious, or unseemly for christian ears; her majesty likewise commandeth that no manner of person shall enterprise to print any such, except the same be to him licensed by such her majesty's commissioners, or three of them, as be appointed in the city of London to hear and determine divers causes ecclesiastical, tending to the execution of certain statutes made the last parliament for uniformity of order in religion. And if any shall sell or utter any manner of books and papers, being not licensed as is abovesaid, that the same party shall be punished by order of the said commissioners, as to the quality of the fault shall be thought meet. And touching all other books of matters of religion, or policy, or governance, that have been printed, either on this side the seas, or on the other side, because the diversity of them is great, and that there needeth good consideration to be had of the particularities thereof, her majesty referreth the prohibition or remission thereof to the order, which her said commissioners within the city of London shall take and notifie. According to the which her majesty straightly chargeth and commandeth all manner of her subjects, and especially the wardens and company of stationers to be obedient.

Provided that these orders do not extend to any prophane authors and works in any language, that have been heretofore commonly received or allowed in any of the universities and schools, but the same may be printed, and used as by good order they were accustomed.

LII. Item, Although almighty God is all times to be honoured with all manner of reverence, rence that may be devised; yet of all other times, in time of common prayer the same is most to be regarded. Therefore it is to be necessarily received, that in time of the letany, and all other collects and common supplications to almighty God, all manner of people shall devoutly and humbly kneel upon their knees and give ear thereunto; and that whensoever the name of Jesus shall be in any lesson, sermon, or otherwise in the church pronounced, due reverence be made of all persons young and old, with lowness of courtesie, and uncovering of heads of the menkind, as thereunto doth necessarily belong, and heretofore hath been accustomed.

LIII. Item, That all ministers and readers of public prayers, chapters, and homilies shall be charged to read leisurely, plainly, and distinctly; and also such, as are but mean readers, shall peruse over before, once or twice the chapters, and homilies, to the intent they may read to the better understanding of the people, the more encouragement to godliness.

An admonition to simple men deceived by malicious.

The queen's majesty being informed, that in certain places of the realm, sundry of her native subjects being called to ecclesiastical ministry of the church, be by sinister persuation, and perverse construction induced to find some scruple in the form of an oath, which by an act of the last parliament is prescribed to be required of divers persons, for their recognition of their allegiance to her majesty, which certainly never was ever meant, nor by any equity of words or good sense can be thereof gathered; would that all her loving subjects should understand, that nothing was, is, or shall be meant, or intended by the same oath to have any other duty, allegiance, or bond required by the same oath, than was acknowledged to be due to the most noble kings of famous memory, king Henry the eighth, her majesty's father, or king Edward the sixth, her majesty's brother.

And further her majesty forbiddeth all manner her subjects to give ear or credit to such perverse and malicious persons, which most sinisterly and maliciously labour to notifie to her loving subjects, how by words of the said oath it may be collected, that the kings or queens of this realm, possessors of the crown, may challenge authority and power of ministry of divine service in the church, wherein her said subjects be much abused by such evil disposed persons. For certainly her majesty neither doth, nor ever will challenge any authority, than that was challenged and lately used by the said noble kings of famous memory, king Henry the eighth, and king Edward the sixth, which is, and was of ancient time due to the imperial crown of this realm; that is, under God to have the sovereignty and rule over all manner of persons born within these her realms, dominions, and countries, of what estate, either ecclesiastical or temporal soever they be, so as no other foreign power shall or ought to have any superiority over them. And if any person, that hath conceived any other sense of the form of the said oath, shall accept the same oath with this interpretation, sense, or meaning; her majesty is well pleased to accept every such in that behalf, as her good and obedient subjects, and shall acquit them of all manner of penalties contained in the said act against such, as shall peremptorily or obstinately take the same oath.

For tables in the church.

Whereas her majesty understandeth, that in many and sundry parts of the realm the altars of the churches be removed, and tables placed for the administration of the holy sacrament, according to the form of the law therefore provided; and in some other places, the altars be not yet removed, upon opinion conceived of some other order therein to be taken by her majesty's visitors; in the other whereof, saving for an uniformity, there seemeth no matter of great moment, so that the sacrament be duly reverently ministred; yet for observation of one uniformity through the whole realm, and for the better imitation of the law in that behalf, it is ordered, that no altar be taken down, but by oversight of the curate of the church, and the churchwardens, or one of them at the least, wherein no riotous or disordered manner be used. And that the holy table in every church be decently made, and set in the place, where the altar stood, and there commonly covered, as thereto belongeth, and as shall be appointed by the visitors, and so to stand, saving when the communion of the sacrament is to be distributed; at which time the same shall be so placed in good sort within the chancel, as whereby the minister may be more conveniently heard of the communicants in his prayer and ministration, and the communicants also more conveniently, and in more number communicate with the said minister. And after the communion done, from time to time the same holy table to be placed where it stood before.

Item, Where also it was in the time of king Edward the sixth used to have the sacramental bread of common fine bread; it is ordered for the more reverence to be given to these holy mysteries, being the sacraments of the body and blood of our saviour Jesus Christ, that the said sacramental bread be made and formed plain, without any figure thereupon, of the same fineness and fashion round, though somewhat bigger in compass and thickness, as the usual bread and water, heretofore named singing cakes, which served for the use of the private mass.

The form of bidding the prayers to be used generally in this uniform sort.

Ye shall pray for Christ's holy catholic church, that is for the whole congregation of christian people dispersed throughout the whole world, and especially for the church of England and Ireland. And herein I require you most most specially to pray for the queen's most excellent majesty, our sovereign lady Elizabeth, queen of England, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, and supreme governor of this realm as well in causes ecclesiastical, as temporal. You shall also pray for the ministers of God's holy word and sacraments, as well archbishops and bishops, as other pastors and curates. You shall also pray for the queen's most honourable council, and for all the nobility of this realm, that all and every of these in their calling, may serve truly and painfully to the glory of God, and edifying of his people, remembering the account, that they must make. Also ye shall pray for the whole commons of this realm, that they may live in true faith and fear of God, in humble obedience and brotherly charity one to another. Finally, let us praise God for all those, that are departed out of this life in the faith of Christ, and pray unto God, that we may have grace for to direct our lives after their good example, that after this life, we with them may be made partakers of the glorious resurrection in the life everlasting.

And this done, shew the holy days, and fasting days.

All and singular which injunctions the queen's majesty ministreth unto her clergy, and to all other her loving subjects, straightly charging and commanding them to observe and keep the same upon pain of deprivation, sequestration of fruits and benefices, suspension, excommunication, and such other correction, as to ordinaries, or other having ecclesiastical jurisdiction, whom her majesty hath appointed, or shall appoint for the due execution of the same, shall be seen convenient; charging and commanding them to see these injunctions observed and kept of all persons being under their jurisdiction, as they will answer to her majesty for the contrary. And her highness's pleasure is, that every justice of peace being required, shall assist the ordinaries, and every of them, for the due execution of the said injunctions.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 4.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. I.

Articles to be enquired in the visitation in the first year of the reign of our most dread sovereign lady Elizabeth, by the grace of God of England, France, and Ireland queen, defender of the faith, anno Domini M.D.LIX.

FIRST, Whether any parson, vicar, or curate be resident continually upon his benefice, doing his duty in preaching, reading, and duly ministering the holy sacraments.

Item, Whether in their churches and chapels all images, shrines, all tables, candlesticks, trindals, and rolls of wax, pictures, paintings, and all other monuments of feigned and false miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, and superstition be removed, abolished, and destroyed.

Item, Whether they do not every holy day, when they have no sermon, immediately after the gospel, openly, plainly, and distinctly recite to their parishioners in the pulpit the Lord's prayer, the Belief, and the Ten commandments in English.

Item, Whether they do charge fathers and mothers, masters and governors of youth, to bring them up in some virtuous study and occupation.

Item, Whether such beneficed men, as be lawfully absent from their benefices, do leave their cures to a rude and unlearned person, and not to an honest, well learned, and expert curate, which can and will teach you wholsom doctrine.

Item, Whether they do discourage any person from reading of any part of the Bible, either in Latin or English, and do not rather comfort and exhort every person to read the same at convenient times, as the very lively word of God, and the special food of man's soul.

Item, Whether parsons, vicars, curates, and other ministers be common haunters and reforters to taverns or alehouses, giving themselves to drinking, rioting, and playing at unlawful games, and do not occupy themselves in the reading or hearing of some part of the holy scripture, or in some other godly exercise.

VOL. IV.

Item, Whether they have admitted any man to preach in their cures, not being lawfully licensed thereunto, or have been licensed accordingly.

Item, Whether they use to declare to their parishioners any thing to the extolling or setting forth of vain and superstitious religion, pilgrimages, relicks, or images, or lighting of candles, kissing, kneeling, or decking of the same images.

Item, Whether they have one book or register kept, wherein they write the day of every wedding, christning, and burying.

Item, Whether they have exhorted the people to obedience to the queen's majesty and ministers, and to charity and love one to another.

Item, Whether they have admonished their parishioners, that they ought not to presume to receive the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, before they can say perfectly the Lord's prayer, the Articles of the faith, and the Ten commandments in English.

Item, Whether they be resident upon their benefices, and keep hospitality, or no: whether they do relieve their parishioners, and what they give them.

Item, Whether proprietaries, parsons, vicars, and clerks, having churches, chapels, and manfions, do keep their chancels, rectories, vicarages, carages, and all other houses appertaining to them, in due reparations.

C c c

190 Visitation articles in the first year of queen ELIZABETH.

Item, Whether they do counsel or move their parishioners rather to pray in a tongue not known, than in English, or put their trust in any certain number of prayers, as in saying over a number of beads, or other like.

Item, Whether they have received any persons to the communion, being openly known to be out of charity with their neighbors, or defamed with any notorious crime, and not reformed.

Item, Whether they have provided, and have a strong chest for the poor men's box, and set and fastned the same in a place of the church most convenient.

Item, Whether they have diligently called upon, exhorted and moved their parishioners, and especially when they make their testaments, to give to the said poor men's box, and to bestow that upon the poor, which they were wont to bestow upon pilgrimages, pardons, trentals, and upon other like blind devotions.

Item, Whether they have denied to visit the sick, or bury the dead being brought to the church.

Item, Whether they have bought their benefices, or come to them by fraud, guile, deceit, or simony.

Item, Whether they have given open monition to their parishioners to detect and present to their ordinary all adulterers and fornicators, and such men, as have two wives living within their parishes.

Item, Whether they have monished their parishioners openly, that they should not sell, give, nor otherwise alienate any of their church goods.

Item, Whether they or any of them, do keep more benefices and other ecclesiastical promotions, than they ought to do, not having sufficient licences and dispensations thereunto; and how many they be, and their names.

Item, Whether they minister the holy communion any otherwise, than only after such form and manner, as it is set forth by the common authority of the queen's majesty and the parliament.

Item, Whether you know any person within your parish or elsewhere, that is a letter of the word of God to be read in English, or sincerely preached in place and times convenient.

Item, Whether in the time of the litany, or any other common prayer, in time of the sermon or homily, and when the priest readeth the scriptures to the parishioners, any person have departed out of the church without just and necessary cause, or disturbed the minister otherwise.

Item, Whether the money coming and rising of any cattel, or other moveable stocks of the church, and money given and bequeathed to the finding torches, lights, tapers, or lamps, not paid out of any lands, have not been employed to the poor men's chest.

Item, Who hath the said stocks and money in their hands, and what be their names.

Item, Whether any undiscreeit person do un-charitably contemn and abuse priests and ministers of the church.

Item, Whether there be any other Grammar taught in any school within this diocese, than that, which is set forth by the authority of king Henry the eighth.

Item, Whether the service of the church be done at due and convenient hours.

Item, Whether any have used to commune, jangle, and talk in the church in the time of prayer, reading of the homily, preaching, reading, or declaring of the scripture.

Item, Whether any have wilfully maintained and defended any heresies, errors, or false opinions contrary to the faith of Christ and holy scripture.

Item, Whether any be common drunkards, swearers, or blasphemers of the name of God.

Item, Whether any have committed adultery, fornication, or incest, or be common bawds, or receivers of such evil persons, or vehemently suspected of any of the premises.

Item, Whether any be brawlers, slanderers, chiders, scolders, and sowers of discord between one person and another.

Item, Whether you know any, that do use charms, forceries, enchantments, invocations, circles, witchcrafts, soothsaying, or any like crafts or imaginations invented by the devil, and especially in the time of women's travel.

Item, Whether churches, pulpits, and other necessities appertaining to the same, be sufficiently repaired; and if they be not, in whose default the same is.

Item, Whether you know any, that in contempt of their own parish church do resort to any other church.

Item, Whether any inholders or alehouse keepers do use commonly to sell meat and drink in the time of common prayer, preaching, reading of the homilies, or scripture.

Item, Whether you know any to be married within the degrees prohibited by the laws of God, or that be separated or divorced without the degrees prohibited by the law of God, and whether any such have married again.

Item, Whether you know any to have made privy contracts of matrimony, not calling two or more witnesses thereunto, nor having thereto the consent of their parents.

Item, Whether they have married solemnly, the banns not first lawfully asked.

Item, Whether you know any executors, or administrators of dead men's goods, which do not only bestow such of the said goods, as were given and bequeathed, or appointed to be distributed among the poor people, repairing of highways, finding of poor scholars, or marrying of poor maidens, or such other like charitable deeds.

Item, Whether you know any, that keep in their houses any undefaced images, tables, pictures, paintings, or other monuments of feigned and false miracles, pilgrimages, idolatry, and superstition, and do adore them, and specially such, as have been set up in churches, chapels, and oratories.

Item,

Visitation articles in the first year of queen ELIZABETH. 191

Item, What books of holy scripture you have delivered to be burnt, or otherwise destroyed, and to whom you have delivered the same.

Item, What bribes the accusers, promoters, persecuters, ecclesiastical judges, and other the commissioners, appointed within the several dioceses of this realm, have received by themselves or other of those persons which were in trouble, apprehended, or imprisoned for religion.

Item, What goods moveable, lands, fees, offices, or promotions have been wrongfully taken away in the time of queen Mary's reign from any person, which favoured the religion now set forth.

Item, How many persons have for religion died by fire, famine, or otherwise, or have been imprisoned for the same.

Item, That you make a true presentment of the number of all persons, which died within your parishes sithence the feast of St. John the Baptist, which was in the year of our Lord God one thousand five hundred fifty and eight, unto the feast last past; making therein a plain distinct declaration, how many men, women, and men children the same were, and the names of the men.

Item, Whether you know any man in your parish secretly, or in unlawful conventicles say or hear mass, or any other service prohibited by the law.

Item, Whether you know any person in your parish to be a slanderer of his neighbors, or a sower of discord between party and party, man and wife, parents and their children; or that hath invented, bruited, or set forth any rumours, false and seditious tales, slanders, or makers, bringers, buyers, sellers, keepers, or conveyers of any unlawful books, which might stir and provoke sedition, or maintain superstitious service within this realm, or any aiders, counsellors, procurers, or maintainers thereunto.

Item, Whether the church of your parish be now vacant or no; who is the patron thereof; how long it hath been vacant; who doth receive the tithes, oblations, and other commodities, during the time of the vacation, and by what authority; and in what estate the said church is at this time, and how long the parson or vicar hath had that benefice.

Item, Whether any minstrels, or any other persons do use to sing or say any songs or ditties, that be vile or unclean, and especially in derision of any godly order now set forth and established.

Item, Whether the litany in English, with the epistle and gospel, which was by the queen's highness's proclamation willed to be read to the people, were put in use in your churches; and if not, who were the letters thereof.

Item, Whether the curates and ministers do leisurely, plainly, and distinctly read the public prayers, chapters, and homilies, as they ought to do.

God save the queen.

Papae Rom.

PAULI IV. 4.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi

1559.

Reg. Angliae

ELIZAB. I.

The declaration of the proceedings of a conference begun at Westminster the last of March M.D.LIX. concerning certain articles of religion; and the breaking up of the said conference by default and contempt of certain bishops, parties of the said conference. Ex chartophyl. regio apud Burnet. hist. Reform. vol. 2. app.

P. 345.

THE queen's most excellent majesty, having heard of diversities of opinions in certain matters of religion amongst sundry of her loving subjects, and being very desirous to have the same reduced to some godly and christian concord, thought it best by advice of the lords and others of her privy council, as well for the satisfaction of persons doubtful, as also for the knowlege of the very truth in certain matters of difference, to have a convenient chosen number of the best learned of either part, and to confer together their opinions and reasons, and thereby to come to some good and charitable agreement; and thereupon by her majesty's commandment certain of her said privy council declared this purpose to the archbishop of York, being also one of the said privy council, and required him, that he would impart the same to some of the bishops, and to make choice of eight, nine, or ten of them, and that there should be the like number named of the other part; and further also declared to him (as then was supposed) what the matter should be, and as for the time, it was thought upon; and then after certain days past it was signified by the said archbishop, that there was appointed (by such of the bishops, to whom he had imparted this matter) eight persons, that is to say, four bishops, and four doctors, who were content at the queen's majesty's commandment; to shew their opinions, and (as he termed it) render account of their faith in those matters, which were mentioned, and that specially in writing; although he said they thought the same so determined, as there was no cause to dispute upon them. It was hereupon fully resolved by the queen's majesty, with the advice aforesaid, that according to their desire it should be in writing on both parts, for avoiding of much altercation in words; and that the said bishops should, because they were in authority of degree superiors, first declare their minds and opinions to the matter, with their reasons, in writing; and the other number being also eight, men of good degree in schools, and some having been in dignity in the church of England, if they had any thing to say to the contrary, should the same day declare their opinions in like manner; and so each of them shall deliver their writings to the other to be considered, what were to be improved therein, and the same to declare again in writing at some other convenient day, and the like order to be kept in all the rest of the matters.

of

192 PROCEEDINGS OF A CONFERENCE AT WESTMINSTER.

All this was fully agreed upon with the archbishop of York, and so also signified to both parties; and immediately thereupon divers of the nobility and states of the realm, understanding that such a meeting and conference should be, and that in certain matters thereupon the present court of parliament consequently following, some laws might be grounded, they made earnest means to her majesty, that the parties of this conference might put, and read their assertions in the English tongue, and that in the presence of them, the nobility and others of her parliament house for the better satisfaction, and enabling of their own judgments, to treat and conclude of such laws, as might depend thereupon. This also being thought very reasonable, was signified to both parties, and so fully agreed upon, and the day appointed for the first meeting, to be the Friday in the forenoon, being the last of March, at Westminster church, where both for good order, and for honour of the conferences, by the queen's majesty's commandment, the lords and others of the privy council were present, and a great part of the nobility also. And notwithstanding the former order appointed and consented unto by both parties, yet the bishop of Winchester and his colleagues, alledging, that they had mistaken, that their assertions and reasons should be written, and so only recited out of the book, said their book was not then ready written, but they were ready to argue and dispute, and therefore they would for that time repeat in speech that, which they had to say to the first proposition.

This variation from the former order, and specially from that, which themselves had by the said archbishop in writing before required, adding thereto the reason of the apostle, that "To contend with words is profitable to nothing, but to the subversion of the hearers:" seemed to the queen's majesty somewhat strange, and yet was it permitted without any great reprehension, because they excused themselves with mistaking the order, and argued that they would not fail, but put it in writing, and according to the former order deliver it to the other part. And so the said bishop of Winchester and his colleagues appointed Dr. Cole, dean of Pauls, to be their utterer of their minds, who partly by speech only, and partly by reading of authorities written, and at certain times being informed of his colleagues what to say, made a declaration of their meaning, and their reasons to the first proposition.

Which being ended, they were asked by the privy council, if any of them had any more to be said; and they said, no: so as then the other part was licensed to shew their minds, which they did according to the first order, exhibiting all that, which they meant to propound, in a book written, which after a prayer and invocation made most humbly to almighty God for enduing of them with his Holy Spirit, and a protestation also to stand to the doctrine of the catholic church, builded upon the scriptures, and the doctrine of the prophets and the apostles, was distinctly read by one Robert Horn, batchelor of divinity, late dean of Duresme; and the same being ended (with some likelihood, as it seemed, that the same was much allowable to the audience) certain of the bishops begun to say contrary to their former answer, that they had now much more to say to this matter; wherein although they might have been well reprehended for such manner of cavillation, yet for avoiding any more mistaking of orders in this colloquy, or conference, and for that they should utter all that, which they had to say, it was both ordered, and thus openly agreed upon of both parts, in the full audience, that upon the Monday following, the bishops should bring their minds and reasons in writing to the second assertion; and the last also, if they could, and first read the same; and that done, the other part should bring likewise theirs to the same, and being read, each of them should deliver to other the same writings; and in the mean time the bishops shall put in writing not only all that, which Dr. Cole had that day uttered, but all such other matters, as they any otherwise could think of for the same, and as soon as might possible, to send the same book, touching the first assertion, to the other part, and they should receive of them that writing, which Master Horn had there read that day, and upon Monday it should be agreed, what day they should exhibit their answer touching the first proposition.

Thus both parts assented thereto, and the assembly was quietly dismissed: and therefore upon Monday the like assembly began again at the place and hour appointed, and there, upon what sinister or disordered meaning is not yet fully known, (though in some parts it be understood) the bishop of Winchester and his colleagues, and specially Lincoln, refused to exhibit or read, according to the former notorious order on Friday, that, which they had prepared for the second assertion; and thereupon by the lord keeper of the great seal they being first gently and favourably required to keep the order appointed, and that taking no place; being secondly, as it behoved, pressed with the more earnest request, they, neither regarding the authority of that place, nor their own reputation, nor the credit of the cause, utterly refused that to do.

And finally, being again particularly every one of them apart distinctly by name required to understand their opinions therein, they all (saving one, which was the abbot of Westminster, having some more consideration of order and his duty of obedience, than the other) utterly and plainly denied to have their book book read; some of them, as more earnestly than other some, so also some others more indiscreetly and irreverently than others.

PROCEEDINGS OF A CONFERENCE AT WESTMINSTER. 193

Whereupon giving such example of disorders, stubborness, and self will, as hath not been seen and suffered in such an honourable assembly, being of the two estates of this realm, the nobilities and commons, besides the persons of the queen's majesty's most honourable privy council, the same assembly was dismissed, and the godly and most christian purpose of the queen's majesty made frustrate. And afterwards, for the contempt so notoriously made, the bishops of Winchester, and Lincoln, who have most obstinately disobeyed both common authority, and varied manifestly from their own order, specially Lincoln, who shewed more folly than the other, were condignly committed to the tower of London, and the rest (saving the abbot of Westminster) stand bound to make daily their personal appearance before the council, and not to depart the city of London, and Westminster, until further order be taken with them for their disobedience and contempt.

N. Bacon, cust. figill.	W. Cecil.
F. Shrewsbury.	Pembrok.
G. Rogers.	E. Clynton.
F. Bedford.	A. Cave.
T. Knollys.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 5.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

Commissio regia visitoribus suis in partibus borealibus. Ex Burnett hist. reform.
vol. II. Collect. of records p. 350.

ELIZABETHA, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regina, fidei defensor, etc. charissimis consanguineis et consiliariis nostris, Francisco comiti Salop. domino praesidenti concilii nostri in partibus borealibus, et Edwardo comiti de Darbia, ac charissimo consanguineo nostro Thomae comiti Northumb. domino guardiano five custodi marchiarum nostrarum "De le East March," et "Middle March," versus Scotiam; ac perdilecto et fideli nostro Willelmo domino Evers, ac etiam dilectis et fidelibus nostris Henrico Piercy, Thomae Gargrave, Jacobo Crofts, et Henrico Gates, militibus; necnon dilectis nobis Edwino Sandys, sacrae theologiae professori, Henrico Harvy, legum doctori, Richardo Bowes, Georgio Brown, Christophoro Estcot, et Richardo King-smell, armigeris, salutem. Quoniam Deus populum suum Anglicanum imperio nostro subjecit, cujus regalis suscepti muneris rationem perfecte reddere non possumus, nisi veram religionem et sincerum numinis divini cultum, in omnibus regni nostri partibus propagaverimus; nos igitur regalis et absolutae potestatis nostrae nobis in hoc regno nostro commissae respectu, quoniam utrumque regni nostri statum tam ecclesiasticum, quam laicum visitare, et certas pietatis ac virtutis regulas illis praescribere constituimus, praefatum Franciscum comitem Salop. Edwardum comitem de Darbia, Thomam comitem Northumb. Willelmum dominum Evers, Henricum Piercy, Thomam Gargrave, Jacobum Crofts, Henricum Gates, milites; Edwinum Sandys, Henricum Harvy, Georgium Brown, Christophorum Estcot, Richardum Bowes, et Richardum King-smell, armigeros, ad infra scriptum vice, nomine, et auctoritate nostris exequendum, vos quatuor, tres, aut duos vestrum ad minimum deputavimus et substitui-mus. Ad visitandum igitur tam in capite, quam in membris ecclesias cathedrales, civitates, et dioeceses Eboracen. Cestrenf. Dunelmen. et Carliolen. necnon quascunque alias col-legiatas, parochiales, et praebendales ecclesias, et loca alia ecclesiastica quaecunque, tam exempta, quam non exempta, in et per easdem civitates et dioeceses^a visabiliter constitutas, cle-rumque et populum earundem in eisdem degentes five residentes; deque statu ecclesiarum et locorum huiusmodi, necnon vita, moribus, et conversatione, ac etiam qualitatibus personarum in ecclesiis et locis praedictis degentium si-ve commorantium, modis omnibus, quibus id melius aut efficacius poteritis, inquirendum et in-vestigandum; criminosos, ac susceptae religioni subscribere obstinate et peremptorie recusantes, vel quocunque alio modo delinquentes, atque culpabiles, condignis poenis, etiam usque ad beneficiorum, dignitatum, five officiorum suorum privationem fructuum vel reddituum, et proventionem ecclesiarum, et locorum, quibus praesunt, sequestrationem, vel quamcunque a- liam congruam et competentem coercionem inclusive puniendam et corrigendam; atque ad probatiores vivendi mores modis omnibus, qui- bus ad melius, et efficacius poteritis, reducendum. Testamenta quorumcunque defunctorum infra loca praedicta decedentium probanda, appro- banda, et informanda; administrationesque bo- norum eorundem executoribus in eisdem testa- mentis nominatis committendum, administra- tionesque insuper, ac sequestrationes bonorum ab intestatis, five per viam intestatorum etiam de- scendentes, in debita juris forma expediendum, et concedendum, ac committendum; compu- tos quoque tam executorum, quam administra- torum, et sequestratorum quorumcunque reci- piendum, examinandum, admittendum, termi- nandum, ac insuper eosdem executores, admi- nistratores, et sequestratores omnes et singulos acquietandum, relaxandum, et finaliter dimit- tendum; causasque quascunque examinandum, audiendum, et finaliter terminandum: contu- maces autem et rebelles, cujuscunque conditi- onis five status fuerint, si quos inveneritis, tam per censuras ecclesiasticas, quam personarum apprehensionem, et incarcerationem, ac recognitionem, acceptionem, ac quaecunque alia juris regni nostri remedia compescendum; necnon injunctiones praesentibus annexas, personis in eisdem nominatis, nomine nostro, tradendum, aliasque injunctiones congruas et competentes, vice et auctoritate nostris, eis indicendum, dandum, et assignandum, poenasque convenientes in earum violatores infligendum et irrogandum. Ecclesias etiam et alia loca dimissorum vacantia, et pro vacantibus habenda fore decernendum et declarandum, pensionesque legitimas congruas et competentes cedentibus vel resignandis hujusmodi assignandum et limitandum, praesentatosque ad beneficia ecclesiastica quaecunque infra civitates, ecclesias, aut dioeceses praedictas constituta, durante visitatione nostra hujusmodi, si habiles fuerint et idonei, ad eadem admittendum, ac de et in eisdem instituendum ac investiendum cum suis juribus et pertinentibus universis, eosque in realem, actualem, et corporalem possessionem earundem inducendum, et induci faciendum, atque mandandum; necnon clericorum et beneficiariorum quorumcunque tam pro ordinibus, quam beneficiis per eos adeptis, literas et munimenta exigendum, et recipiendum, eaque diligenter examinandum et discutiendum, et quos non sufficienter munitos in ea parte compereritis, ab officio dimittendum, et sic jure munitis declarandum et pronunciandum. Synodos quoque et capitula tam generalia, quam specialia cleri et populi hujusmodi per executionem praemissorum aut reformationem quamcunque faciendum et convocandum; procuraciones quoque et synodalia ratione nostrae hujus visitationis debite petendum, exigendum, et levandum, ac etiam non solventes, aut solvere recusantes, per censuras ecclesiasticas compellendum, coercendum, et cogendum; necnon concionandi potestatem hujusmodi personis concedendum, quas ad hoc divinum munus suscipiendum aptas esse judicaveritis; incarceratos quoque et vinculis commissos ob religionis causam, antea licet condemnatos, causis incarcerationis, et condemnationis hujusmodi prius examinatis, et plenarie discussis, examinandum, discutiendum, ac in integrum, justitia id poscente, restituendum, deliberandum, et extra prisonam dimittendum; necnon causas deprivationum examinandum, ac contra statuta et ordinationes hujus regni nostri Angliae, vel juris ecclesiastici ordinem deprivatos, restituendum, ac omnia et singula alia, quae circa hujusmodi visitationis, seu reformationis negotia necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna, etiamsi verba magis specialia de se exigunt et requirunt, faciendum et expediendum vobis quatuor, tribus, aut duobus vestrum, ut praefertur, de quorum eminenti doctrina, morumque et consilii gravitate, ac in rebus gerendis fide et industria plurimum confidimus, vices nostras committimus, ac plenam in dicto tenore praesentium concedimus facultatem, cum cujuslibet congruae et legitimae coercionis potestate. Et praeterea certos viros prudentes ac pios assignandum et nominandum, per quos de statu rerum instruimini, et quorum opera praesentes utimini, in omnibus causis ad hanc visitationem nostram spectantibus, quantum vobis convenire videbitur. Iidem viri a vobis commissariis assignati, plenam potestatem habebunt, etiam post commissariorum decessum, et post finitum etiam visitationis tempus, de omnibus articulis, ordinibus, et institutis ejusdem visitationis inquirendi; et violatores eorum, cujuscunque conditionis fuerint, conveniendi et examinandi; et omnes querelas, quatenus ullum impedimentum aut offensionem nostrae visitationis continebunt, accipiendi et audiendi, et hujusmodi personas, offensiones, et querelas commissariis nostris Londini residentibus, et ad ecclesiasticarum rerum reformationem delegatis, praesentabunt et exhibebunt illis viis et modis, quibus hoc convenientissime videbunt fieri posse; mandantes omnibus et singulis majoribus, vicecomitibus, justitiariis, ac quibuscunque aliis officiariis, ministris, et subditis nostris, quatenus nobis in et circa praemissorum executionem effectualiter assistant, auxilientur, et suffragentur. Ut insuper sagacitatis, diligentiae, factorumque vestrorum omnium evidens et perpetuum specimen nobis posterisque nostris remaneat, inventaque et invenienda pro recordatorum defectu debitam reformationem, correctionemve non subterfugiant, aut a memoria prolabantur; nos suprema ac regali auctoritate nostra praedicta, dilectos et fideles subditos nostros, Thomam Piercy, et Johannem Hoges, et eorum deputatos per commissarios nostros approbandos, notarios praecipuos perantea legitime existentes, actorum, instrumentorum, decretorum, summarum, judiciorum, censurarum, caeterorumque omnium et singulorum, quae per vos, vestrumve aliquem in visitatione hac nostra regia peragentur, judicabuntur, decernentur, fient, ferentur, et pronunciabuntur, scribas, registrarios nostros praecipuos, et principales conjunctim et divisim ordinamus, nominamus, et constituimus, eisque officium et officia registri scribae nostri in praesenti cum omnibus officia praedicta tangentibus, eorumque deputatis, per commissarios nostros approbandis, conjunctim et divisim damus, deputamus, assignamus, et decernimus per praesentes. In cujus rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipsa apud Westm. 24. die Junii, anno regni nostro primo.

A decla-

A declaration of certain principal articles of RELIGION. 195

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 5.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1559.

Re3. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

A declaration of certain principal articles of religion set out by the order of both archbishops metropolitans, and the rest of the bishops for the uniformity of doctrine, to be taught and holden of all parsons, vicars, and curates, as well in testimony of their common consent in the said doctrine to the stopping of the mouths of them, that go about to slander the ministers of the church for diversity of judgment, as necessary for the instruction of their people; to be read by the said parsons, vicars, and curates at their possession-taking, or first entry into their cures, and also after that, yearly at two several times, that is to say, the Sunday next following Easter day, and St. Michael the archangel, or on some other Sunday within one month after those feasts, immediately after the gospel.

FORASMUCH as it appertaineth to all christian men, but especially to the ministers, and the pastors of the church, being teachers and instructors of others, to be ready to give a reason of their faith, when they shall be thereunto required; I, for my part, now appointed your parson, vicar, or curate, having before my eyes the fear of God, and the testimony of my conscience, do acknowledge for my self, and require you to assent to the same.

First, That there is but one living and true God, of infinite power, wisdom, and goodness, the maker and preserver of all things; and that in unity of this Godhead there be three persons, of one substance, of equal power and eternity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

II. I believe also, whatsoever is contained in the holy canonical scriptures, in the which scriptures are contained all things necessary to salvation, by the which also all errors and heresies may sufficiently be reprov'd and convicted, and all doctrine and articles necessary to salvation established. I do also most firmly believe and confess all the articles contained in the three creeds, the Nicene creed, Athanasius creed, and our common creed called the Apostles creed; for these do briefly contain the principal articles of our faith, which are at large set forth in the holy scriptures.

III. I do acknowledge also that church to be the spouse of Christ, wherein the word of God is truly taught, the sacraments orderly ministered according to Christ's institution, and the authority of the keys duly used; and that every such particular church hath authority to institute, to change, clean to put away ceremonies, and other ecclesiastical rites, as they be superfluous, or be abused, and to constitute other making more to seemliness, to order, or edification.

IV. Moreover I confess, that it is not lawful for any man to take upon him any office or ministry, either ecclesiastical or secular, but such only as are lawfully thereunto called by their high authorities, according to the ordinances of this realm.

V. Furthermore I do acknowledge the queen's majesty's prerogative and superiority of government of all estates, and in all causes, as well ecclesiastical as temporal, within this realm, and other her dominions and countries, to be agreeable to God's word, and of right to appertain to her highness, in such sort, as is in the late act of parliament expressed, and thence by her majesty's injunctions declared and expounded.

VI. Moreover, touching the bishop of Rome, I do acknowledge and confess, that by the scriptures and word of God he hath no more authority, than other bishops have in their provinces, and dioceses; and therefore the power, which he now challengeth, that is, to be the supreme head of the universal church of Christ, and to be above all emperors, kings, and princes, is an usurped power, contrary to the scriptures and word of God, and contrary to the example of the primitive church, and therefore is for most just causes taken away and abolished in this realm.

VII. Furthermore I do grant and confess, that the book of common prayer and administration of the holy sacraments, set forth by the authority of parliament, is agreeable to the scriptures, and that it is catholic, apostolic, and most for the advancing of God's glory, and the edifying of God's people, both for that it is in a tongue, that may be understood of the people, and also for the doctrine and form of ministration contained in the same.

VIII. And although in the administration of baptism there is neither exorcism, oil, salt, spittle, or hallowing of the water now used, and for that they were of late years abused and esteemed necessary, where they pertain not to the substance and necessity of the sacrament, that they be reasonably abolished; and yet the sacrament full and perfectly ministered to all intents and purposes, agreeable to the institution of our saviour Christ.

IX. Moreover, I do not only acknowledge, that private masses were never used amongst the fathers of the primitive church, I mean, public ministration and receiving of the sacrament by the priest alone, without a just number of communicants, according to Christ's saying, "Take ye and eat ye," etc. but also, that the doctrine, that maintaineth the mass to be a propitiatory sacrifice for the quick and dead, and a mean to deliver souls out of purgatory, is neither agreeable to Christ's ordinance, nor grounded upon doctrine apostolic, but contrarywise most ungodly and most injurious to the precious redemption of our saviour Christ, and his only sufficient sacrifice offered once for ever upon the altar of the cross.

is

X. I am of that mind also, that the holy communion or sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, for the due obedience to Christ's institution, and to express the virtue of the same, ought to be ministred unto the people under both kinds; and that it is avouched by certain fathers of the church to be a plain sacrilege, to rob them of the mystical cup, for whom Christ hath shed his most precious blood, seeing he himself hath said, "Drink ye all of this:" considering also, that in the time of the ancient doctors of the church, as Cyprian, Hierom, Augustine, Gelasius, and others six hundred years after Christ and more, both the parts of the sacrament were ministred to the people.

Last of all, as I do utterly disallow the extolling of images, reliques, and feigned miracles, and also all kind of expressing God invisible in the form of an old man, or the Holy Ghost in the form of a dove, and all other vain worshipping of God, devised by man's phantasies, besides or contrary to the scriptures, as wandering on pilgrimages, setting up of candles, praying upon beads, and such like superstition; which kind of works have no promise of reward in scripture, but contrarywise threatnings and maledictions; so I do exhort all men to the obedience of God's law, and to the works of faith, as charity, mercy, pity, alms, devout and frequent prayer with the affection of the heart, and not with the mouth only, godly abstinence and fasting, charity, obedience to the rulers, and superior powers, with such like works and godliness of life commanded by God in his word, which, as St. Paul saith, "Hath promises both of this life and of the life to come," and are works only acceptable in God's sight.

These things above rehearsed, though they be appointed by common order, yet I do without all compulsion, with freedom of mind, and conscience, from the bottom of my heart, and upon most sure persuasion acknowledge to be true and agreeable to God's word; and therefore I exhort you all, of whom I have cure, heartily and obediently to embrace and receive the same, that we all joining together in unity of spirit, faith and charity, may also at length be joined together in the kingdom of God, and that through the merits and death of our Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, be all glory and empire now and for ever. Amen.

Papae Rom.
PAULI IV. 5.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I.

An address made by some bishops and divines to queen Elizabeth against the use of images. Strype's Ann. ref. vol. 1. fol. 221, 222.

To the queen's most excellent majesty.

WE knowing your gracious clemency, and considering the necessity of the matter, that we have to move, the one doth encourage us, the other compel us (as before) to make our humble petition unto your highness, and to renew our former suit, not in any respect of self will, stoutness, or striving against your majesty (God we take to witness) for with David, we confess, that we are but as "Canes mortui aut pulices" in comparison, but we do it only for that fear and reverence, which we bear to the majesty of almighty God, in whose hands to fall 'tis terrible; for it lieth in his power to destroy for ever, and to cast both body and soul into hell fire; and lest in giving such offence to the little ones, in setting a trap of errors for the ignorant, and digging a pit for the blind to fall into, we should not only be guilty of the blood of our brethren, and deserve the wrathful "Vae" and vengeance of God, but also procure to our reclaiming consciences the biting worm, that never dieth for our endless confusion. For in what thing soever we may serve your excellent majesty, not offending the divine majesty of God, we shall with all humble obedience be most ready thereunto, if it be even to the loss of our life, for so God commandeth of us, duly requireth of us, and we with all conformity have put in proof; and as God through your gracious government hath delivered unto us innumerable benefits (which we most humbly acknowledge, and with due reverence daily give him thanks) so we do not doubt, but that of his mercy he will happily finish in your majesty that good work, which of his free favour he hath most graciously begun; that following the examples of the godly princes, which have gone before, you may clearly purge the polluted church, and remove all occasions of evil. And for so much as we have heretofore at sundry times made petition to your majesty, concerning the matter of images, but at no time exhibited any reasons for the removing of the same; now lest we should seem to say much and prove little, to allege consciences without the warrant of God, and unreasonably require that, for the which we can give no reason, we have at this time put in writing, and do most humbly exhibit to your gracious consideration those authorities of the scriptures, reasons, and pithy persuasions, which as they have moved all such our brethren, as now bear the office of bishops, to think and affirm images not expedient for the church of Christ, so will they not suffer us, without the great offending of God, and greivous wounding of our own consciences (which God deliver us from) to consent to the erecting or retaining of the same in the place of worshipping; and we trust and most earnestly ask it of God, that they may also persuade your majesty, by your regal authority, and in the zeal of God, utterly to remove this offensive evil out of the church of England, to God's great glory, and our great comfort.

and

The substance of their reasons is; that the second commandment forbids the making of any images, as a resemblance of God. And Deut. xxvii. there was a curse pronounced on those, "Who made an image, an abomination to the Lord, and put it in a secret place:" which they expounded of some sacraria, in private houses. And Deut. iv. among the cautions Moses gives to the people of Israel to beware of idolatry, this is one: "That they do not make an image:" for the use of these do naturally degenerate into idolatry. The Jews were so sensible of this after the captivity, that they would die rather, than suffer an image to be put in their temple. The book of Wisdom calls an image, "A snare for the feet of the ignorant." St. John charged those he writ to, "To beware of idols:" so Tertullian said: "It was not enough to beware of idolatry towards them, but of the very images themselves." And as Moses had charged the people not to lay a stumbling block in the way of the blind, so it was a much greater sin to leave such a trap for the weak multitude. This was not for edification; since it fed the superstition of the weak and ignorant, who would continue in their former dotage upon them, and would alienate others from the public worship; so that between those, that would separate from them, if they were continued, and the multitude, that would abuse them, the number of those, that would use them aright, would be very inconsiderable. The outward splendor of them would be apt to draw the minds of the worshippers, if not to direct idolatry, yet to staring, and distraction of thoughts. Both Origen, and Arnobius tell us, that the primitive christians had no images at all. Irenaeus accused the Gnostics for carrying about the image of Christ. St. Austin commends Varro, for saying, that the old Romans worshipped God more chastly, without the use of any images. Epiphanius tore a veil with an image on it, and Serenus broke images in Gregory the great's time. Valens, and Theodosius made a law against the painting, or graving of the image of Christ: and the use of images in the eastern churches brought those distractions on that empire, that laid it open to the invasions of the Mahometans.

Having thus declared to your highness a few causes of many, which do move our consciences in this matter, we beseech your highness most humbly, not to strain us any further; but to consider, that God's word doth threaten a terrible judgment unto us, if we, being pastors, and ministers in his church, should assent unto the thing, which in our learning, and conscience we are persuaded doth tend to the confirmation of errors, superstition, and idolatry, and finally, to the ruins of the souls committed to our charge: for the which we must give an account to the prince of pastors at the last day. We pray your majesty also not to be offended with this our plainness, and liberty, which all good and christian princes have ever taken in good part at the hands of godly bishops.

St. Ambrose writing to Theodosius the emperor, useth these words: "Sed neque imperiale est libertatem dicendi negare, neque sacerdotale, quod sentiant, non dicere."

And again: "In causa vero Dei, quem audies, si sacerdotem non audies, cujus majori peccatur periculo, quis tibi verum audebit dicere, si sacerdos non audeat?"

These, and such like speeches of St. Ambrose, Theodosius, and Valentinianus the emperors did take in good part; and we doubt not, but your grace will do the like, of whose not only clemency, but also beneficence we have largely tasted.

We beseech your majesty also in these, and such like controversies of religion, to refer the discussion, and deciding of them to a synod of the bishops, and other godly learned men, according to the example of Constantinus magnus, and other christian emperors; that the reasons of both parties being examined by them, the judgment may be given uprightly in all doubtful matters.

And to return to this present matter, we most humbly beseech your majesty to consider, that besides weighty causes in policy, which we leave to the wisdom of the honourable counsellors, the establishing of images by your authority, shall not only utterly discredit our ministries, as builders of the thing, which we have destroyed; but also blemish the fame of your most godly brother, and such notable fathers, as have given their lives for the testimony of God's truth, who by public law removed all images.

The almighty and everlasting God plentifully endue your majesty with his spirit, and heavenly wisdom, and long preserve your most gracious reign, and prosperous government over us, to the advancement of his glory, to the overthrow of superstition, and to the benefit, and comfort of all your highness's loving subjects. Amen.

Sede Rom. vacante.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi

Reg. Angliae

1559.

ELIZAB. 1.

A commission from the queen to my lord treasurer, Sir Richard Sackville, Sir Walter Mildmay, and Mr. Kelleway, September 13. concerning the exchange of impropriate tithes for bishops lands.

RIGHT trusty and right well beloved cousin, and trusty and well beloved we greet you well. And whereas by one act passed in our late parliament, it was, among other things, granted unto us, that upon the vacation of every archbishoprick or bishoprick within this our realm of England, it should be lawful for us to take into our hands, and possessions as much and so many of any the honours, castles, manors, lands, and tenements, and other hereditaments, being parcel of the possessions of any such archbishoprick or bishoprick, so being void, as the clear yearly value of all our parsonages impropriate, and yearly tenths within every such archbishoprick or bishoprick should yearly amount unto. And for the trial of the very value of such honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, it should be lawful for us to appoint commissioners to survey the same from time to time; and thereupon to certify the very clear yearly value thereof, over all charges, into our court of Exchequer, by such time as shall be to the said commissioners appointed, with such further matter, as in the said act thereof made, more fully is contained. Forasmuch as we have thence, according to the said act, addressed forth sundry our commissions for the survey of the lands, tenements, and other hereditaments of certain archbishopricks and bishopricks presently vacant, the certificates of which commissions be in part already returned unto our said court of Exchequer, and the rest looked for daily; we let you wete, that for the proceeding to the end in the said matters, according to the meaning of the said act, knowing your approved wisdoms, diligences, and dexterities in such causes, we have, and by these presents do authorize you four, three, or two of you, to consider diligently as well the certificates of such lands of archbishopricks or bishopricks, as be already returned, as also such other certificates of the like lands, as shall hereafter be returned, and certified unto our said court of Exchequer; and further likewise to consider, what parcels of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments shall be meetest for us to take into our hands and possession, and what impropriations or yearly tenths we shall, in recompence of the said lands, depart withal again, with such further matter in and about the premises, as your wisdoms shall think meet for our knowledge; willing and requiring you, after the deliberation and advised consideration of the premises, to certify unto us your opinion in writing, what you think most meet for us to do in the cases aforesaid, to the intent we may resolve our determinate pleasure, touching the same, as shall be then thought good by us. And hereof fail you not, as we specially trust you: and these our letters shall be your sufficient warrant, and discharge in this behalf. Yeven, etc.

Sede Rom. vacante.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi

Reg. Angliae

1559.

ELIZAB. 2.

Breve regium pro consecratione archiepiscopi Parker. Ex registr. Parker. tom. I. fol. 3. Vid. Mason of consecration, etc. f. 126.

ELIZABETHA, Dei gratia, etc. reverendis in Christo patribus Anthonio, Landaven. episcopo, Will. Barlow, quondam Bath. et Well. episcopo, nunc Cicestrensi electo; Johanni Scory, quondam Cicestrensi episcopo, nunc electo Hereford. Miloni Coverdallo, quondam Exoniensi episcopo; Johanni suffraganeo Bedford; Johanni suffraganeo Thetford; Johanni Bale, Offorensi episcopo.

Quatenus vos, aut ad minus quatuor vestrum eundem Matthaeum Parkerum in archiepisco-pum, et pastorem ecclesiae cathedralis, et metropoliticae Christi Cant. praedictae, sicut praefertur, electum, electionemque praedictam confirmare, et eundem magistrum Matthaeum Parkerum in archiepiscopum, et pastorem ecclesiae praedictae consecrare, caeteraque omnia et singula peragere, quae vestro in hac parte incumbunt pastoralis officio, juxta formam statutorum in ea parte editorum et provisorum, velitis cum effectu, etc. Dat. sexto Decembris, anno secundo Elizabethae.

Rituum et ceremoniarum ordo in consecratione reverendissimi domini Matthaei Parker, archiepiscopi Cant. in capella infra manerium suum de Lambbith, die dominico, viz. decimo sexto mensis Decembris, anno Domini M.D.LIX.

PRINCIPIO facellum tapetibus ad orientem adornabatur, solum vero panno rubro internebatur; mensa quoque sacris peragendis necessaria, tapeto pulvinarique ornata, ad orientem sita erat.

Quatuor praeterea cathedrae quatuor episcopis, quibus munus consecrandi archiepiscopi delegabatur, ad austrum orientalis facelli partis erant erant positae; scamnum praeterea tapeto pulvinaribusque instratum, cui episcopi genibus flexis inniterentur, ante cathedras ponebatur.

Pari quoque modo cathedra, scamnumque tapeto pulvinarique ornatum, archiepiscopo ad borealem orientalis ejusdem sacelli partis plagam posita erant.

Hiis rebus ita ordine suo instructis, mane circiter quintam, aut sextam, per occidentalem portam ingreditur sacellum archiepiscopus togatari coccinea, caputioque indutus, quatuor praecedentibus funalibus, et quatuor comitatus episcopis, qui ejus consecrationi inservirent; videlicet, Willielmo Barlow, olim Bathon. et Wellen. episcopo, nunc vero ad Cicestrensem episcopatum electo, Johanne Scory, olim Cicestrensi episcopo, et nunc ad Herefordensem vocato, Milone Coverdale, olim Exon. episcopo, et Johanne Hodgskinne, Bedfordiae suffraganeo. Qui omnes postquam sedes sibi paratas ordine singuli suo occupassent, preces continuo matutinae per Andream Pierson, archiepiscopi capellanum, clara voce recitabantur. Quibus peractis, Johannes Scory, de quo supra diximus, suggestum conscendit, atque inde assumpto sibi in thema: "Seniores ergo, qui in vobis sunt, obsecro, consenior," etc. non ineleganter concionabatur.

Finita concione, egrediuntur simul archiepiscopus, reliquique quatuor episcopi sacellum, se ad sacram communionem paraturi, neque mora confestim per borealem portam in vestiarium, ad hunc modum vestiti, redeunt. Archiepiscopus nimirum linteo superpellicio (quod vocant) induebatur; Cicestrenf. electus capa serica ad sacra peragenda paratus utebatur: cui ministrabant, operamque suam praebebant, duo archiepiscopi capellani; videlicet, Nicolaus Bullingham, Lincoln. archidiaconus, et Edmundus Geste, Cantuariensis quoque archidiaconus, capis sericis similiter vestiti. Hereford. electus, et Bedfordiae suffrag. linteis superpelliceis induebantur.

Milo vero Coverdallus non nisi toga lanea talarum utebatur. Atque hunc in modum vestiti, et instructi, ad communionem celebrandam perrexerunt. Archiepiscopo genibus flexis ad infimum sacelli gradum sedente.

Finito tandem evangelio, Hereforden. electus, Bedfordiae suffraganeus, et Milo Coverdale (de quibus supra) archiepiscopum coram Cicestrensi electo apud mensam in cathedra sedenti, his verbis adduxerunt: "Reverende in Deo pater, hunc virum pium pariter atque doctum tibi offerimus, atque praesentamus, ut archiepiscopus consecratur." Postquam haec dixissent, proferebatur illico reginae diploma, sive mandatum pro consecratione archiepiscopi. Quo per reverendum Thomam Yale, legum doctorem perlecto, sacramentum de regio primatu, sive suprema ejus auctoritate tuenda, juxta statuta primo anno regni serenissimae reginae nostrae Elizabethae promulgata, ab eodem archiepiscopo exigebatur, quod cum ille solenniter, tactis corporaliter sacris evangeliiis, conceptis verbis praestitisset, Cicestren. electus quaedam praefatus, atque populum ad orationem hortatus ad letanias decantandas, choro respondente, se accinxit. Quibus finitis, post quaestiones aliquot archiepiscopo per Cicestren. electum propositas, et post orationes et suffragia quaedam juxta formam libri auctoritate parlamenti editi, apud Deum habita, Cicestrensis, Herefordensis, suffraganeus Bedfordiensis, et Milo Coverdallus manibus archiepiscopo impositis: "Accipe, inquiunt, Spiritum Sanctum, et gratiam Dei, quae jam per impositionem manuum in te est, excitare memento: non enim timoris, sed virtutis, dilectionis, et sobrietatis spiritum dedit nobis Deus." His ita dictis, Biblia sacra illi in manibus tradiderunt, hujusmodi apud eum verba habentes: "In legendo, hortando, et docendo, vide diligens sis, atque ea meditare assidue, quae in hisce libris scripta sunt. Noli in his segnis esse, quo incrementum inde proveniens omnibus innotescat, et palam fiat. Cura, quae ad te et ad docendi munus spectant diligenter. Hoc enim modo non te ipsum solum, sed et reliquos auditores tuos per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum salvabis." Postquam haec dixissent, ad reliqua communionis solennia pergit Cicestren. nullum archiepiscopo tradens pastorale baculum, cum quo communicabant una archiepiscopus, et illi episcopi supra nominati, cum aliis etiam nonnullis.

Finitis tandem, peractisque sacris, egreditur per borealem orientalis sacelli partis portam archiepiscopus, quatuor illis comitatus episcopis, qui eum consecraverant, et confestim eisdem ipsis stipatus episcopis, per eandem revertitur portam, albo episcopali superpelliceo, chimeraque (ut vocant) ex nigro serico indutus, circa collum vero collare quoddam ex preciosis pellibus sabellinis (vulgo "Sables" vocant) confutum gestabat. Pari quoque modo Cicestrensis, et Herefordensis suis episcopalibus amictibus, superpelliceo sc. et chimera uterque induebatur; D. Coverdallus vero, et Bedfordiae suffraganeus, togis solummodo talaribus utebantur. Pergens deinde occidentalem partem versus archiepiscopus, Thomae Doyle, oeconomo, Johanni Baker, thesaurario, et Johanni Marche, computo rotulario, singulis singulos albos dedit baculos, hoc scilicet modo eos muneribus, et officiis suis ornans. His itaque hunc ad modum ordine suo, ut jam antedictum est, peractis, per occidentalem portam sacellum egreditur archiepiscopus, generosioribus quibuscunque sanguine ex ejus familia eum praecedentibus, reliquis vero eum a tergo sequentibus.

Acta gestaue haec erant omnia in praesentia reverendorum episcoporum Edmundi Grindall, London. episcopi electi, Richardi Cokes, Eliensis electi, Edwini Sandes, Wigorniensis electi, Anthonii Hulse, armigeri principalis, et primarii registrarii dicti archiepiscopi, Thomae Argall armigeri, registrarii curiae praerogativae Cant. Thomae Willet, et Johannis Incent, notariorum publicorum, et aliorum quoque nonnullorum.

Concordat cum originali in biblioth. collegii Corp. Christi apud Cantab. ita testor Matth. Whinn, notarius publicus, et acad. Cantab. registrarius principalis, Jan. 8. M.DC.LXXIV.

De

Sede Rom. vacante.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.Anno Christi
1559.Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.De cantionibus matutinalibus in ecclesia Exon. Ex reg. dec. et cap. Exon. lib. III.
fol. 145.

CUM quidam Londinenses, qui huc venerant ad nundinas S. Nicolai, et quidam cives hujus civitatis cantiones quasdam vernaculas rhythmicas (quas psalmos vocabant) in choro ecclesiae cathedralis in matutinalibus precibus a visitatoribus dominae nostrae reginae, mane ad horam sextam, ut supra praemittitur in injunctionibus, mandatis, et praescriptis, una cum mulieribus nonnullis privata sua auctoritate quotidie cantillarent, et ministros ecclesiae in eisdem precibus interturbarent, venerabilis vir magister Willelmus Lafon, capituli praesidens de hujusmodi cantionibus, cum quibusdam illorum, nominatim, viris, cum Richardo Prestwood, vicecom. civitatis, et Johanne Periam, mercatore, qui ejus rei dicebantur auctores, diversis temporibus contulit, et sermones habuit, admonens eos, ne hujusmodi cantiones sine ulla auctoritate legitima, et contra verba expressa statuti anno primo dominae reginae Elizabethae editi, ecclesiae nostrae obtruderent, neve ministros ecclesiae in executione precum a visitatoribus praedictis mandatarum impedirent; ipsi tamen nihilominus easdem cantiones quotidie obstinatius in choro ecclesiae praedictae continuarent, ac in sedibus vicariorum una cum mulieribus sederent, easque occuparent, ita ut vicariis, caeterisque ministris ecclesiae locus ad sedendum relictus non fuerit: illud etiam temeritati suae addiderunt, ut canonicos hujus ecclesiae, et vicarios apud virum honorabilem Jacobum Montjoye, dominum Montjoye, nec non apud viros venerabiles Johannem Juel S. T. professorem, et Reynaldum Mohun armigerum, visitatores dominae nostrae reginae criminationibus, et falsis delationibus accusarent; super quorum delationibus praedicti venerabiles viri literas scripserunt praesidenti capituli, et canonicis residentiariis, quas praesidens capituli recepit 31. Decembris, quarumque tenor sequitur in haec verba:

“After our hearty commendations. Whereas in the queen’s majesty’s late visitation in Exon, order was taken, that the vicars of your church should weekly, and by course say the morning prayer in the choir of your cathedral church, whereunto the people might at time convenient meet together to serve God; and they so resorting reverently, and in great numbers for their greater comfort and better stirring up of their hearts to devotion, appointed amongst themselves at every such meeting to sing a psalm, and altogether with one voice to give praise unto God, according to the use and manner of the primitive church; which order, taken by the visitors, you promised by your corporal oath to see observed. We have now of late heard say, that contrary to the said order, and your own oath, certain of your vicars have scoffed and jested openly at the godly doings of the people in this behalf, and by divers and sundry ways have molested and troubled them; and that you the canons there, which of all others should most have rejoiced hereat, and should have encouraged the people to go forward, have very uncourteously forbidden them the use of your choir, and that at such time, when there was the greatest concourse of the country folk into your city, that your ill doings might be an example for all the country, only as it may well appear, for that it grieved you to see God so devoutly served. The grievousness of the facts might justly cause us to send for the doers, and to use farther extremity herein; but hoping of your conformity henceforth, we require and charge you to see, that your vicars, and others your priests there not only leave their frowardness, which they have used, but also that they aid and assist the people in these their godly doings; and that you suffer them to use your choir for that time, according to the order taken; and further, that you use yourselves in such sort, both herein, and in all other things, that there be no cause given to the people justly to complain, as you will answer to the contrary. Thus fare you well. From London the 16. of December M.D.LIX.

Subscriptio: *By your loving friends,*Jo. Juel. Jam. Montjoye.
Raynold Mohun.Superscriptio: To our loving friend the president of the chapter house of Exon, and to the canons resident there, and to every of them.

Quibus quidem literis dicti praesidens, et capitulum per alias literas, quarum tenor postea sequitur, hanc dederunt responsum:

“With our humble commendations, it may please you to be advertised: that we have received your letters, dated at London the 16. of this December; for answer whereunto your honours shall understand, that since that order was taken in the queen’s majesty’s late visitation for morning prayer to be said daily in the choir of the cathedral church here, and a certain form prescribed therein, the same hath been well and diligently hitherto observed; notwithstanding forasmuch as divers private persons of their own head, and authority, about St. Nicholas tide last past, presumed to sing, and caused to be sung certain psalms, as they call them, in English metre or rhyme, in disturbance of the injunctions given for order of the said prayer, wherein is no mention made of such psalms to be sung, as you shall perceive by the tenor thereof (which herewith we have sent you) we considering this statute made in the last parliament

ment for uniformity of common prayer, and service in the church, in the which amongst other things is enacted: "That if any person or persons whatsoever shall by open fact, deed, or by open threatnings compel, or cause, or otherwise procure and maintain any parson, vicar, or other minister in any cathedral, or parish church, or in chapel, or in any other place, to sing or say any common and open prayer, or to administer any sacrament otherwise, or in any other manner and form, than is mentioned in the said book, or that by any of the said means shall unlawfully interrupt, or let any parson, vicar, or other minister, in any cathedral, or parish church, chapel, or any other place, to sing or say common and open prayer, or to minister the sacraments, or any of them, in such manner and form, as is mentioned in the said book; that then every such person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall forfeit to the queen our sovereign lady, her heirs, and successors, for the first offence an hundred marks," etc. as in the said statute, amongst other things, may more at large appear. Which statute being so precisely made, and under so great pains, we thought it our bounden duty, to stay this their presumptuous attempt, proceeding of their private phantasms without authority, and that they should no further obtrude such things to our ministers, both for the discharge of us and them. And thereupon have had with divers the authors thereof, and others in authority fundry conference, to cease in such their songs; admonishing them of the said statute, and of their duty of obedience to the same, and requesting them to cease such their doings, till such time as order were taken therein by the superior powers; which to do they have refused, and yet continue the same without further interruption of us, ordering the choir here at their pleasures. How the choir is abused by them, the ministers excluded out of their stalls, and we reviled with unchristian and uncharitable words and reproaches, this bearer can more at large declare to your honours. Thus have we opened unto you the whole effect and truth of our doings, and the causes thereof, which seemeth to us weighty, whatsoever our adversaries have untruly reported to your honours against us; as in that they say, amongst other misreports, that we give evil example to the country; which is rather done by them, by their disobedience to the statute, and presumptuous attempt, where they have nought to do: we affect and desire the service of God to be set forward; nor is it no grief to us, but much comfort to see God devoutly served; only we wish it may be done in order, and honestly, and not after the devise of every private person. These premises considered, we doubt not, but that your honours will consider our just doings herein, and to weigh the said statute according to your wisdom, and our discharge, and further to do, as neither we nor our ministers here may sustain any damage herein; but that for our doings in the premises, if the said psalms shall be continually sung, we may have sufficient warrant against the said statute, whereof we do most humbly pray you, as we trust your honours; and that it may please you not to credit the reports of our adversaries, but that we may be heard to answer the contrary, as justice requireth with your lawful favours. Thus almighty God long conserve you in prosperous health. At Exeter the 24. of December M.D.LIX.

Subscriptio: Your humble beadesmen, the president and chapter of Exon church.

Superscriptio: To the right honourable the lord Montjoye, and to lord John Fuel, bishop elect of Sarum, and to the right worshipful Mr. Moone Esq; commissioners to the queen's majesty for her grace's visitation in the diocese of Exeter, and to other of their colleagues in the same commission, and to every of them.

Sede Rom. vacante.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.

Litterae archiepiscopi Cantuar. et aliorum commissar. regior. de eadem materia.

PRIMO Januarii sub nocte M.D.LIX. dictus venerabilis vir magister Willelmus Leuson, praefidens capituli, recepit literas de eodem negotio tenoris sequentis — "After our hearty commendations unto you. Whereas we the queen's majesty's commissioners are informed, that her highness's late visitors directed their letters to you for the reformation of certain disorders used in your cathedral church, which being of late sent, might peradventure be accepted of small force, because their commission in some part is determined; we have therefore thought good by these our letters to will and require you, to obey, fulfil, and put in execution all and singular the causes, mentioned in the said letter, and also quietly permit and suffer such congregation of people, as shall be at any time hereafter congregated together in the said church, to sing or say the godly prayers in the morning, and other times set forth, used and permitted in this church of England, to the laud and praise of his honour and glory, without any of your contradiction to the contrary; and that to be done in the most commodious and convenient place in the said church, whether it be in the choir or elsewhere; as you and every of you will answer to the same at his peril. And thus fare you well. From London this 23. of December M.D.LIX.

VOL. IV.

Your loving friends,

Matthew Cant. Will. Mey.
Edm. London. Thomas Huyck.

Superscriptio: To our loving friends, the president and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Peter in Exon, and to every of them."

F f f

Litterae

Papae Rom.
PII IV. I.Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.Anno Christi
1559.Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.Literae reginae de decano Exon. cum responso capituli Exon. et aliis ad electionem decani spectantibus.

TERTIO Januarii, M.D.LIX. dictus Willelmus Leufon, praesidens capituli, recepit literas serenissimae dominae nostrae reginae Elizabethae pro electione futuri decani; in quibus commendavit praesidenti et capitulo venerabilem virum magistrum Gregorium Dodds, S.T.P. ut plenius patet in eisdem literis, quarum verus tenor sequitur in haec verba:

By the queen.

ELIZABETH.

Trusty and well beloved, we greet you well. Whereas the deanry of our cathedral church of Exeter is at this present void by the death of Dr. Raynolds, the late dean there, considering how requisite it is to have that place, and such like having the charge and government of a multitude, furnished with men of learning, honesty, and wisdom, we thinking it a part of our duty towards God to have regard thereunto, have thought good to recommend unto you, for the place of your dean there, our trusty and well beloved Mr. Gregory Dodds, batchelor of divinity, a man that is (as we are informed) both learned, discreet, and of good life; requiring you therefore in your election of the next dean, to have consideration of him accordingly, the rather for this our commendation of him; and we trust you shall have of him such a head and governor, as shall be both for the common profit of that church, and for the particular comfort of every of you. Yeven under our signet at our palace of Westminster the 16th. of December, the second year of our reign.

Supercriptio: To our trusty and well beloved the president and chapter of our cathedral church of Exeter.

Deinde quinto die dicti mensis Januarii M.D.LIX. in domo capitulari dictae ecclesiae cathedralis, hora capitulari consueta, dictus magister Willelmus Leufon, una cum quibusdam canonicis et confratribus suis praesentibus, tractatum habuit de contentis in literis praedictis; et tandem habita matura deliberatione, unanimi eorum consensu pariter et assensu, decrevit omnes praebendarios, et canonicos dictae ecclesiae cathedralis, per affixionem schedularum citatoriarum in eorum stallis infra chorum ecclesiae cathedralis praedictae, juxta morem antiquum, peremptorie monend. et citand. esse, ad comparand. hic in domo praedicta capitulari vicesimo die mensis praedicti Januarii, cum prorogatione et continuatione dierum extunc sequentium, et locorum, si oporteat, ad tractand. una cum eisdem, de et super electione decani praedicti, ac super aliis arduis et gravibus negotiis dictae ecclesiae cathedralis, hiisque, quae ibidem tractabuntur, voces et suffragia sua consensumque sive dissensum datur. et praebitur. prout illis melius videbitur expedire; cum intimatione, quod sive dictis die et loco veniunt, sive non, praesidens capituli et confratres sui, quicunque praesentes ad electionem futuri decani, et expeditionem caeterorum praemissorum procedere intendunt, eorum contumacia, negligentia, et absentia in aliquo non obstante. Et juxta decretum hujusmodi emanarunt citationes. Praeterea, quia ex antiqua consuetudine hujus ecclesiae cathedralis, decani quicunque non eligeantur, nisi licentia episcopi (qui est fundator et patronus illius dignitatis) prius habita et obtenta, et ex fundatione dictae dignitatis decanalis, unus de canonicis ipsius ecclesiae eligendus est in decanum dictae ecclesiae cathedralis, nec adhuc satis liquet eisdem, quod praedictus magister Dodds sit praebendarius et canonicus hujus ecclesiae; visum est eisdem venerabilibus viris ex debito suo fore, significare praemiss. dictae serenissimae dominae nostrae reginae, et de eisdem scribere ad venerabilem virum magistrum Georgium Carewe, decanum sacelli dictae dominae reginae, et archidiaconum Oxon. canonicumque residentiarium hujus ecclesiae, ut ipse praemissa majestati regiae planius et plenius explicaret. Unde emanarunt literae, quarum tenores subjiciuntur. Praesentes fuerunt dictus magister Leufon, praesidens capituli, magister Walterus Mugge, canonicus residen. Thomas Nutcombe, subdecanus, et Richardus Halse, canonici dictae ecclesiae non residentiar.

Literae script. ad dominam reginam super electione decani.

"Our most dread sovereign lady. Pleaseth your majesty to be advertised, that we have received your gracious letters written to us in the commendation of Mr. Gregory Dodds, batchelor of divinity, whom, for his learning, discretion, and good life, your grace requireth us in our election of the next dean of this your grace's cathedral church of Exeter (the deanry now being vacant by the death of Dr. Raynolds) to have in consideration; which your grace's request as we most earnestly affect to accomplish (our bounden duty so requiring) so have we thought good to signify to your highness the state and foundation of the said deanry, which requireth, that before we proceed to the election, we ought not only to have the licence of the bishop for the time being, who is the founder and patron of that dignity in this church, but also we are bound to elect to the said room one, that is a canon and prebendary of the said church, as our brother Mr. George Carew, dean of your grace's honourable chapel, can more at large declare unto your highness, ness, whom we most humbly beseech your grace to credit; and that the said Mr. Dodds may by your grace's royal authority, for the discharge of our conscience, be qualified or dispensed with for the premises; and we shall be right glad to accomplish your grace's pleasure accordingly. Thus almighty God conserve your highness in long most prosperous health, and honour. Yeven in our chapter house at Exeter the 5th. of January, M.D.LIX.

Subscriptio: Your highness's most bounden orators, the president and chapter there.

Superscriptio: To our most dread liege lady, the queen's most excellent majesty.

Litterae scriptae magistro Carew, decano sacelli regii, de eadem electione.

"Right worshipful Mr. dean. After our hearty commendations, ye shall be advertised, that the third of this present January we received the queen's majesty's most gracious letters, in commendation of Mr. Gregory Dodds, a batchelor of divinity, for his perferment to the deanry of this cathedral church, appertaining, as ye know, to our election, and now being vacant by the death of our late dean Mr. Dr. Raynolds; her grace requireth us to have the said Mr. Dodds in consideration at our next election. Whereupon (as soon as we could conveniently assemble ourselves together in the chapter house, to which place some of our brethren could not well come, by reason of their sickness) we have decreed the day of election to be the 20th. of this January, "cum prorogatione dierum extunc sequentium, et locorum, si oporteat," and have caused schedules to be affixed in the stalls of the canons for their appearance that time. Notwithstanding, for as much as by search of the registers of this church it appeareth unto us, that before we proceed to any election, we ought to have the licence of the bishop for the time being, who is the patron and founder of that dignity, and so hath been always observed; and by the foundation also we cannot elect any other, than such a one, that is a canon, and prebendary of this cathedral church, as ye shall perceive by the words of the said foundation, the true copy whereof, as much as maketh for that purpose, we have sent to you herein inclosed; we have thought good for the discharge of our conscience, and to the end the said foundation and other order may be observed, as well for our indemnity, as that no error may hereafter be found in the process of our election, to signify these premises to the queen's highness, to the intent we may obtain her highness's royal authority or dispensation in the premises, both touching the said licence, and qualification of the said Mr. Dodds, being no canon of this church, as far as we know. And those our letters written to her grace we have sent herewith to you unsealed, that ye discoursing the same with the said Mr. Dodds, may (if ye shall think it good) deliver them unto her highness, and to declare the premises at large, as occasion may be to you administred; and to travel in our behalf for the obtaining of the premises accordingly. Somethinketh, that this see of Exeter now being vacant, my lord of Canterbury's grace, or the dean and chapter of Cant. (in whom of them the jurisdiction here now is, "vacante sede," we do not certainly know) may both grant this said licence, and dispense with the said foundation; which thing, for as much as it appertaineth to the bishop by special order, we doubt much of; but if any of them may (the truth whereof ye shall learn amongst the learned in the arches) then ye shall not need to molest the queen's highness with our rude letters, being able to bring these things to pass otherwise. But all these things we commit to your discreet wisdom, beseeching you to travel herein accordingly for our indemnity, as we before have written, and to send every thing to us with speed, with your letters, by this trusty messenger, whom we specially have sent to you for that purpose, to the end we may accomplish the queen's majesty's said request, according to our bounden duties; and till the return of the said messenger, we intend not to proceed to any election, but to prorogue the day, if he come not before. Thus praying you to commend us most heartily to the said Mr. Dodds, we commit you both to the grace of almighty God. At our chapter house in Exeter quinto Januarii, M.D.LIX.

Subscriptio: By your loving brethren, the president and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter.

Superscriptio: To the right worshipful Mr. George Carew, dean of the queen's highness's most honourable chapel."

Tenores vero foundationis decanatus praedicti, de qua in dictis literis fit mentio, sequuntur, quatenus tangit negotium praedict.

Confirmatio Willelmi Brewar de electione Serlonis, primi decani Exoniae; exscripta ex quodam libro antiquo chartarum in archivis ecclesiae Exon. reposito.

Willelmus, Dei gratia Exon. episcopus, dilectis in Christo filiis, capitulo Exon. salutem. Electionem vestram de viro venerabili magistro S. archidiacono Exon. factam, quem vobis primum decanum Exon. ecclesiae unanimi assensu canonice elegistis, auctoritate episcopali confirmamus; concedentes vobis in posterum, pro nobis et successoribus nostris, episcopis Exon. in perpetuum, liberam potestatem eligendi decanum in ecclesia Exon. de persona idonea, canonico (videlicet) Exon. ecclesiae, sed a nobis vel successoribus nostris, episcopis Exon. rite et canonice confirmand. unde vobis mandamus, quatenus eidem de caetero obedientiam, et reverentiam, tanquam decano vestro, exhibeatis, etc.

Ex quadam charta originali sigillo capituli sigillata.

Omnibus

Omnibus Christi fidelibus praesens scriptum inspecturis, capitulum beati Petri Exon. aeternam in Domino salutem. Noverit universitas vestra, quod cum Exon. ecclesia usque ad tempora nostra decano caruerit; nos ad honorem Dei, et cultum in ecclesia Christi ampliand. ad imitationem aliarum cathedralium ecclesiarum ordinarum, de consensu venerabilis patris nostri W. Brewar, Exon. episcopi, concessimus et providimus, ut in Exon. ecclesia temporibus nostris, et in perpetuum, canonice a capitulo et de capitulo unus de canonicis eligatur decanus, et solenniter instituatur; decani autem officium, etc. Acta sunt haec anno ab incarnatione Domini M.ccc.xxxv. die sancti Andree apostoli.

Litterae praesidis et capit. Exon. Gregorio Dodds, decano a regina nominato.

Right worshipful. After our hearty commendation. Whereas the queen's majesty hath commended you unto us by her gracious letters, requesting us, that at our next election of the dean of this cathedral church (the deanry now being vacant) we should have you in special consideration for your preferment thereunto, for the good learning, discretion, and good life, which her highness understandeth to be in you: as we be most willing to accomplish her grace's request, according to our bounden duties; so there are divers causes, and weighty respects, touching the foundation of that dignity, and the qualities of him, that is by us to be elected, which we have more at large signified to our loving brother Mr. George Carew, dean of her grace's honourable chapel, who, we doubt not, will declare the same to you; whereof this shall be to pray you with good desire to travel with him therein, so as both we may be discharged in conscience, in not breaking the ancient orders of this church, and that no error may be found in our proceedings, which might turn you to any damage. Thus most heartily fare you well. Yeven in our chapter house at Exeter the 5th. of January, M.D.LIX.

Subscriptio: Your loving friends, the president and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter.

Superscriptio: To the right worshipful Mr. Gregory Dodds, one of the queen's majesty's chaplains.

Papae Rom.
PII IV. I.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1559.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 2.

The queen's letter to the lord treasurer Pawlet for regulating foreign churches in England. Ex hist. archiep. Laud p. 166.

RIGHT trusty, and right well beloved cousin, we greet you well. Whereas in the time of our brother, and sister also, the church of the Augustine Fryers was appointed to the use of all the strangers repairing to the city of London, for to have therein divine service; considering, that by an universal order all the rest of the churches have the divine service in the English tongue, for the better edifying of the people, which the strangers born understand not; our pleasure is, that you shall assign and deliver the said church, and all things thereto belonging, to the reverend father in God, the bishop of London, to be appointed to such curates and ministers, as he shall think good, to serve from time to time in the same churches, both for daily divine service, and for administration of the sacraments, and preaching of the gospel; so as no rite nor use be therein observ'd contrary, or derogatory to our laws. And these our letters shall be your sufficient warrant and discharge in that behalf. Given under our signet at our palace at Westminster the day of February, the second year of our reign.

Concilium provinciale totius cleri Scotici utriusque provinciae S. Andree et Glasguen. habitum Edinburgi A. D. M.D.LIX. Ex autographo in colleg. Scot. Paris. mem. Scot. tom. I. fol. 129.

Litterae a Johannis, archiepiscopi S. Andree, totius regni primatis, quibus dictum concilium indicit, et Jacobum, archiep. Glasguensem ad illud invitat.

JOHANNES, miseratione divina sancti Andree archiepiscopus, totius regni Scotiae primas, apostolicae sedis legatus natus, ac per universum regnum praedictum ejusdem sedis de latere legatus, reverendissimo in Christo patri, ac fratri nostro, domino Jacobo, Dei et apostolicae sedis gratia archiepiscopo Glasguensi, felix susceptae curae moderamen, et mutuam in Domino charitatem pro salute.

Inter graves sollicitudines, et multiplices animi curas, quibus pro pastoralis officii, ac metropoliticae et provincialis nostrae debito premimur; verum etiam ex injuncto apostolicae legationis munere, quo, licet immeriti, ex apostolicae sedis clementia in hoc regno fungimur, ea peculiaris et praecipua est, ut defensionem, et indemnitati, ac animarum salutem, non solum dioecesanorum nostrorum, nobis immediate subditorum, sed et aliorum nobis tam jure metropolitico, et regni primatiali, quam etiam jure legationis apostolicae de latere nobis commissae subditorum, quorum auctor aeternus de sua benignitate et clementia, et apostolicae sedis providentia curam, superioritatem, dominium, visitationem, correctionem, jurisdictionem, reformationem, potestatem, et praeceminentiam, habere voluit, semper et assidue invigilemus, et remediis et curis omnibus ita provideamus, ne sancta catholica Scotiana ecclesia, illiusve praelati, ministri, et subditi, etiam cujusvis exemptionis titulo, qualitercunque insigniti, hoc tempore procelloso, Lutheranis, Calvinianis, et aliis quamplurimis nefandis haeresibus undique infra regnum istud pullulantibus, per haereticos et haeresiarchas, ac haereticae pravitatis Lutheranarum, et Calvinianarum, ac nefandarum aliarum haeresium in hoc regno fautores, auctores, assistentes, ac insectatores indies, et continuo omni eorum cura, studio, et diligentia libertatem ipsam ecclesiasticam, illiusque statum, ac jura, et privilegia ipsius sanctae Scoticae ecclesiae simpliciter, et in totum enervare, tollere, et subvertere nitentes, in spiritualibus aut temporalibus, aliquo modo damnum seu detrimentum aliquod patiatur, seu pati valeat, sed in unitate fidei christianae, statu, libertate, et privilegiis suis pristinis, sublatis quibusvis erroribus et obstaculis, in contrarium agentibus, semper et secure, ac pacifice, ut decet, remaneat. Et ut haec eo facilius, citius, et melius, et felicius succedant, quo paternitas vestra reverendissima, et alii hujus regni praelati, ac cleri famosior pars, in unum nobiscum congregati, prout ex sanctorum patrum decretis et ordinationibus, tam pie tamque salubriter editis, per singulas provincias episcoporum concilia generalia, tum ad dominici agri praecipue culturam, quae vepres, spinas, et tribulos haeresium, errorum, et schismatum extirpat, mores, et excessus corrigit, deformata reformat, et vineam Domini ad frugem uberrimae fertilitatis adducit; tum ad querelarum et controversiarum, quae inter diversos ecclesiae ordines nasci affolent, dissolutionem, quorum neglectus praemissa disseminat atque fovet, quotannis, saepiusque et frequenter celebrari usum est ea, quae fieri mandantur, vestra et eorum opera, cura, consilio, unanimique concursu, pro libertatis ecclesiae hujusce regni defensione, et maintenance, personaliter compareant, pro conventionae et synodo provinciali generali inter nos, paternitatem vestram, et eos ad praemissorum effectum habenda, ad laudem, gloriam, et honorem summae et individuae trinitatis, Patris, viz. et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti, beataeque intermeratae virginis Mariae, Dei et Domini nostri Jesu Christi genitricis, et omnium caelestis curiae sanctorum, ac ad hujus universalis Scoticae ecclesiae immensum et inaeestimabile bonum, auctoritate nostra metropolitana, et regni primatiali (cum de jure concilium ipsum provinciale generale, et in hoc regno indicere et convocare, spectat et incumbit nobis, ut praemittitur) ac etiam instigante pia et benigna requisitione illustrissimae supremae dominae nostrae, reginae regentis, ad effectum praemissorum videntis, quam maximos nefarios tumultus in populo decedente, et prorsus aberrante a vera fide, idem concilium provinciale generale die primo mensis Martii proxime futuri, intra locum fratrum Dominicanorum Edinburgi celebrandum, tenendum, et inchoandum, cum continuatione et prorogatione dierum subsequentium, usque ad ejusdem conclusionem et dissolutionem, in quo, disponente altissimo, praesidebimus, indicimus, convocamus, denunciamus, statuimusque, et praefigimus. Quare vestram reverendissimam paternitatem in Domino obnixè requirimus et hortamur, quatenus una nobiscum, et aliis reverendis patribus, et fratribus nostris dominis hujus regni coepiscopis, ac clero eadem vestra paternitas reverendissima compareat personaliter dictis die et loco, cum continuatione dierum subsequentium, usque ad finalem conclusionem dicti concilii provincialis generalis, hora octava de mane, ad pertractandum, communicandum, consulendum, determinandum, et definiendum ea quae, pro libertatis ecclesiasticae, totius Scoticae ecclesiae et ejusdem privilegiorum, et immunitate, conservatione, manutentione, et defensione, pertractanda, communicanda, consulenda, determinanda, et definienda fuerint. Insuper citari, requiri, et moneri vestra ordinaria auctoritate curetis reverendos et venerabiles patres, dominos episcopos vestros suffraganeos, ac abbates, priores, commendatarios, decanos, praepositos, et alios viros ecclesiasticos, et circumspectos vestros subditos, et ex famosioribus, consultioribus, et prudentioribus de capitulis et clero vestrarum ecclesiae, civitatis, dioecesis, et provinciae Glasguensis, etiam religiosi, cujusvis fuerint ordinis, et, ut praemittitur, qualitercunque exemptos, prout paternitati vestrae reverendissimae visum fuerit expedire; ad vobiscum dictis die et loco ad effectum praemissorum comparendum, ibidemque nobiscum una cum paternitate vestra reverendissima, et aliis regni praelatis, et clero usque ad dissolutionem, terminationem, conclusionem, vel continuationem dicti concilii provincialis generalis inclusive permansuros, obnixè, ut praemittitur, requirimus, et hortamur in Domino. Praeterea, ex pia requisitione et benigna illustrissimae, et supremae dominae nostrae, reginae regentis, processiones publicas, uti moris est, omnibus diebus dominicis, quartis et sextis feriis, infra vestram dioecesim in omnibus collegiatis, et parochialibus ecclesiis, et aliis quibuscunque per vicarios, curatos, et capellanos, orandi Deum pro felici successu hujusmodi nostri concilii generalis provincialis, ac pace, et tranquillitate reipublicae hujus regni, et sublatione errorum et haeresium fieri procuretis, et demandetis. Datum Edinburgi sub nostra subscriptione manuali, et signeto nostro, ultimo die mensis Januarii, anno Domini millesimo quingentesimo quinquagesimo octavo, ^b consecratio-

^a Johannis Hamilton.

^b Hic Johannes Hamilton consecrabatur episcopus Dunkeldensis. A. D. M.D.XLIV. et translatus est in archiepiscopatum S. Andreae A. D. M.D.XLVII.

nis nostrae xiii. et translationis nostrae ad regni primatiam sedem anno decimo.

V. R. P.

Humillimus confrater,

JOHANNES, archiepiscopus S. Andreae.

In dorso inscripta: Reverendissimo in Christo patri domino Jacobo, Dei gratia archiepiscopo Glasguensi, confratri nostro charissimo.

Mandatum Jacobi archiepiscopi Glasguen. pro convocatione abbatum, priorum, etc. suae dioecesis ad dictum concil. provinciale Edinburg. A. D. M.D.LIX. Ex autographo in collegio Scotor. Paris. memoir. Glasg. fol. 120.

ⁱ Jacobus, miseratione divina archiepiscopus Glasguensis, decano ⁱ nostro christianitatis de Lanrick, seu cuicunque alteri capellano, curato, vel non curato, infra civitatem, dioecesim, et provinciam nostram Glasguensem constituto, et super executione praesentium debite requisito, salutem, cum benedictione divina. Vobis et vestrum cuilibet in virtute sanctae obedientiae, et sub poena suspensionis a divinis stricte praecipiendo mandamus, quatenus moneatis legitime omnes et singulos abbates, priores, commendatarios, usufructuarios, ministros, praepotentes, praepositos, et insigniores, ac probiores ecclesiarum parochialium rectores, et vicarios perpetuos, per vestrum decanatum constitutos, et praesertim magistrum Robertum de Bailze, rectorem de Lamington; magistrum Nycholaum Craford, rectorem de Hartfyde; Thomam Levinston, rectorem de Cultrie; magistrum Johannem Stensone, rectorem de Thankerton; magistrum Thomam Somervell, rectorem de Quenquhem; et dominum Thomam Wedy, rectorem de Liberton; quod compareant personaliter coram nobis, et reliquis hujus synodi dominis ordinariis, praelatis, et de clero in loco fratrum Dominicanorum Edinburgensi die sexto mensis Aprilis proxime futuri, ad ea omnia et singula, quae ad eos attinent tractanda, agenda, decernenda, et concludenda fuerint, assistendum et consentiendum; et generatim omnia alia faciendum, quae in praemissis, et circa ea necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet opportuna, sub poena excommunicationis majoris sententiae latae in his scriptis: et praesentes debite executas earundem latori reddatis. Datum sub nostro signeto apud Edinburgum die 18. mensis Martii, anno Domini millesimo quingentesimo quinquagesimo octavo, et nostrae consecrationis anno septimo.

Per dictum reverendissimum dominum archiepiscopum Glasguensem.

WILELMUS FOGO, secretarius de mandato.

Sequuntur subscriptiones praedictorum decani, rectorum, etc. quibus testantur se mandatum archiepiscopi praedictum debite insinuassee, et executioni mandasse.

Mandatum Malcolmi, vicarii generalis ecclesiae Candidae Casae, infra provinciam Glasguensem, quo convocat abbates, priores, etc. ejusd. dioec. Cand. Casae ad dictum conc. provinc. A. D. M.D.LIX. Ibid. fol. 121.

Malcolmus, permissione divina commendatarius perpetuus ecclesiae cathedralis Candidae Casae, et sedis episcopalis ejusdem jam vacantis vicarius generalis, venerabili viro domino Michaeli Hawthorn, nostro commissario, et decano de Finnes, et Renis, seu cuicunque alteri capellano, curato, vel non curato, infra nostram jurisdictionem divina celebranti, et super executione praesentium debite requisito, salutem. Quia reverendus in Christo pater, et dominus Jacobus, miseratione divina archiepiscopus Glasguensis, literas suas monitoriales ad universos et singulos ordinarios suos suffraganeos ad comparendum coram reverendissimo in Christo patre et domino, domino Johanne, eadem miseratione divina Sancti Andreae archiepiscopo, totius regni Scotiae primate, legato nato, et a Pasleto abbate, in coenobio fratrum praedictorum Edinburgensi die sexto mensis Aprilis proximo futuri, ad omnia et singula, quae ad eos attinent, tractanda, agenda, definienda, et concludenda, in hoc instanti concilio provinciali jam inchoato, et quotidie conveniente et sedente in dicto coenobio, sub poena excommunicationis emisit; vobis igitur, et vestrum cuilibet praecipimus, et mandamus, quatenus moneatis legitime primo, secundo, tertio, et peremptorie omnes et singulos abbates, priores, commendatarios, usufructuarios, ministros, praepotentes, praepositos, et probiores viros beneficiatos praefatae nostrae dioecesis Candidae Casae, et praecipue venerabiles in Christo patres Jacobum, permissione divina Vallislucis abbatem, Johannem, eadem permissione commendatarium Sedis Animarum, venerabiles viros magistrum Patricium Vaus, rectorem de Wigton; dominos Georgium Clapperton, et Davidem Paterson, rectores de Kirkkynie; magistrum Wilelmum Blayr, archidiaconum Candidae Casae; necnon dominum Andream Arnot, dicti ⁱ Archiepiscopus hic Glasguensis Jacobus Bethune, ex antiqua familia Balfour in comitatu Fife, in Scotia oriundus, fuit nepos cardinalis Bethune, et abnepos Jacobi Bethune, archiepiscoporum sancti Andreae, Romae A. D. M.D.LII. in episcopum consecratus, octennio post in exilium mittebatur bonis omnibus exutus. Legati vicem pro regina Maria, et filio ejus Jacobo per quadraginta annos in Gallia obiit, vitaeque functus A. D. M.DC.III. omnia ecclesiae Scoticae monumenta, in museo suo extantia, collegio Scotico Parisiensi legavit.

ⁱ Mandatum episcoporum pro convocatione directum fuit ut plurimum decanis ruralibus; quorum novem erant in dioecesi Glasguensi, octo in S. Andreae, et in aliis similiter.

archidiaconatus usufructuarium; ad comparandum personaliter in praedicto concilio provinciali, in praedicto coenobio fratrum praedicatorum Edinburgensi, praefato die sexto Aprilis proxime et immediate sequentis, ad sedendum in eodem concilio, assistendum, consulendum, tractandum, et approbandum ea, quae ad honorem divinum, catholicae fidei exaltationem, et reipublicae, ecclesiaeque utilitatem tractanda, agenda, et concludenda fuerint; et generaliter omnia alia et singula, quae ad partes suas in praemissis attinent, faciendum, decernendum, gerendum, et exercendum hac vice, sub poena excommunicationis, quam contrarium facientes incurrere volumus ipso facto: et praesentes debite executae reddantur latori. Datum ex Irvine sub nostris signeto, et subscriptione manuali 24. Martii, anno Domini M.D.LVIII.

MALCOLMUS, Candidae Casae vicarius generalis.

Sequuntur subscriptiones curatorum, et aliorum de executione facta ejusdem supradicti mandati abbatibus et aliis infra dioecesim Candidae Casae.

Remonstrance to the prelates and other churchmen assembled in the provincial council holden at Edinburg in March and April, A. D. M.D.LIX. craving redress of several grievances complained of in the ecclesiastical administration of Scotland. Taken from a copy written in those times, and now extant in colleg. Scotor. Paris. memoires Glasg^e.

I. In the first rememberand, that our sovraane lord of gud memorie that last deceist, in his lait actis of parliament for the common wele of this realme, thocht necessair to mak ane publict exhortatioun unto my lordis the prelati, and rest of the spirituale estate for reforming of ther lyvis, and for avoyding of the opin sclander, that is gevin to the haill estates throucht the said spirituale mens ungodly and dissolut lyves. And siclyk remembring in divers of the lait provinciale counsailes haldin within this realm, that poynt has bene treitter of, and findrie statutis synodale maid therupon, of the quhilks nevertheless thar hes folowit nan or litill frutt as yitt, bot rathare the said estate is deteriorate, nor emends be ony sic persuasion, as hes bene hidertills usit. And sin the said estate is mirror and lantern to the rest, it is maist expedient therefore, that thair presentlie condescend to seik reformation of thir lyvis, and for executiing deuly of thair offices, evry ane of yem effeiring to thir awin vocation and cure committit unto yaim to do, and naymlie yat oppin and manifest sins, and notor offensis be forborn and abstenit fra in tyme to cum, etc.

II. Item, Yat yai provid for prechings and declarings of Goddis word, sincerely and treu-ly to be made in every peroch kirk of yis realm upon all Sondays, and uyeris holie dayis, at the lest on Zule, Pasche, Witsondie, and every thrid, or feird Sunday; and quhair yat the peple ar maist ungodlie and ignorant of yar deuty to God and man, yat in yai placis preachings of Goddis word and gud manners may be sa aft maid, yat be Goddis grace yai may be brocht fra yar ungodlie leving to the dew obedience of God and man, and sua yar in all placis, quhair maist neid is, oftest and maist ernist preching to be maid and hed, and effeiring to the quantitie of the perochin, etc.

III. Item, Yat all prechers of the word of God, or yai be admittit to preach the samen publickly to the peple, yat yai be first examinitt deuly, gif yair doctrin, and profession be conform to Goddis word, and christen fath, and sicklyke if yai be of gud manners, and of fitt knowlege, and condition, as yai may be hable to preach the word of God decently to the peple.

IV. Item, Yat yar be na curatis, nor vicares of peroch kirks maid in tymes to cum, bot sic as ar sufficiantly qualifiet to minister the sacramentis of halie kirk in sic form and order, as after folowes; and yat yai can distinctly and plainly reid the Catechisme, and uyeris directions, yat sal be directit unto yaim be yar ordinairs, unto the peple, sua yat every man and woman hering, and seing yaim execute the premissis sa decently, may the rather convert yaimselfes fra yer inordinate leving, and yarby baith know perfitlie how yai suld liefe, and in deid and word use yaimselfis accordingly, etc.

V. Item, For sameikle as yar is nathing, yat can moves men mair to worship God, nor to know the effect, cause, and strenth of the sacramentis of halie kirk, nor nathing, that can move men to dishonor the saids sacramentis mair, then the ignorance and misknowledge yarof; therefore seing yat all christin man and woman, or yai be admittit to ye using and resaving of the saids sacramentis, suld know ye vigor and strenth of ye samen, for quhat causes, the samen was institute be God almighting, quhow profitable and necessar yai ar for every christin man and woman, yat deuly and reverendlie ar participants yarof; therefore yat yar be an godlie and fruitfull declaration set forth in Inglis tounge, to be first shewin to the peple at all times, quhen the sacrament of the bleffit body and blud of Jesus Christ is exhibit and distribut, and sicklyke, when baptisim and marriage are solemnizit, in face of halie kirk; and yat it be declarit to yaim, yat assist at the sacramentis, quhat is the effect yarof, and yat it be spirit at yam be ye prist ministrant, gif yai be reddy to resave the samen; with sick utheris interrogatories, as ar necessar for instructiing of the poynts of mens salvation, and requires to be answerit unto be all yai, that wald be participant, etc. And yir things to be don before ye using of ye ceremony of haly kirk, etc.

* This remonstrance seems to be either from the lords of session, whereof one half, and the president were ecclesiastics, or from some other men of distinction, zealous for preserving the established church of Scotland.

VI. Item, Yat ye common prayers, with litanies in our vulgar tounge be said in evry perrich kirk upon Sondays, and uther haly dayis efter the devin service of the mess, and yat ye evening prayers be said efternein in likwyse.

VII. Item, Because yat ye corps presentes, kow, and finest claith, and the silver commonlie callit the kirk ritchts, and Pasch offrands, quhilk is takin at Pasch fra men and women for distribution of ye sacraments of ye bleffit body and blud of Jesus Christ, were at ye beginning but as offrands and gifts, at the discretion and benevolence of the givar only; and now be distance of tym, ye kirkmen usis to compell men to ye paying yarof be authority and jurisdiction, sua that yai will not only fulminat yar sentence of cursing, but als stop and debar men and women to cum to ye reddi using of ye sacraments of haly kirk, quhile yai be satisfiet yarof, with all rigor; quhilk thing has na ground of ye law of God, nor halie kirk, and als is veray sclandrous, and givis occasion to the pur to murmur gretymly againes ye state ecclesiastick for the doing of ye premissis; and therefore it is thocht expedient yat ane reformation be maid of ye premissis, and that sick things be na mair usit in tymes to cum within this realm, at ye lest yat na man be compellit be authority of haly kirk to pay ye premissis; but yat it shall only remane in the free will of the giver to gif and offir sic things be way of almons, and for upholding of ye priests and ministers of the halie kirk, as his conscience and charitie moves him to: and quhair ye curatis and ministers forsaids, hes not enouch of yar sustentation by the saids kirk ritchts, that ye ordinares every man within his awin diocesie take order, that the persons and uplifters of ye uther deutys pertaining to the kirk, contributs to yar sustentation effeirindlie, etc.

VIII. Item, Because ye leigis of yis realme ar haveli hurt be ye lang process of ye consistorial judgement, as hes bene at mair length declarit and shewin unto my lordis of ye spiritualitie; and yat pur men havan just cause, oft tymes ar constreint to fall fra yar rightuous action through lengthning of the saids process and exorbitant expences, yat yai ar drawin unto as wele in ye first instant, as be appellation fra place to place, fra juge to juge, and last of all to ye court of Rome; albeit ye matter were never sa small, and albeit men obtien sentences never sa mony be ye ordiner juges of yis realme, yitt all in vain, and na execution fall folow therupon, quhill ye appellation be discussit in Rome, etc. therefore it is necessar, yat provision be maid for shortning of the process consistorial for releiving of partyes fra exorbitant expences, and yat it be considerit, quhat matters shall pass to Rome be appellation, of quhat avale, worth, and quantity yai suld be of, and yat ye appellation unto Rome suld not suspend the execution of sentences gevin heir within yis realme.

IX. Item, It is havelie murmurit and complaint unto the quenis grace be ye sewars of Kirkland, yat yai ar compellit to pass to Rome to pley ye reduction of yar infeftments, etc.

X. Item, Yat ye actis of parliament halden at Edinbrugh ye 26th day of June, M.cccc.xciv. be our sovirane lord, king James ye fourd of gud memorie, anent ye priveleges grantit be ye paps to ye kirk of Scotland, and benefices yat passis to ye court of Rome, that hurts the priveleges of the crown, or the common wele of this realme be put to dew execution, and it be decernit be ye lordis of ye session, be juges competent to ye braikers yarof, notwithstanding ony exemption or immunitie, or privelege spirituale or temporale.

XI. Item, Yat na manner of person within yis realme pretend to usurp sic hardiment, as to dishonor or speik irreverently of ye sacrament of ye bliffit body and blude of our saviour Jesus Christ; bot that the samin be haldin in sic reverence, honour, and worship, as effeirs christin men to do, and is commandit be the law of God and haly kirk; and that nane dishonour ye divine service of the mess, nor speik injurioullie nor irreverentlie yarof,

XII. Item, Yat na man pretend to use ye sacraments and ceremonies of marriage, baptism, and bleffit body and blud forsaids, nor suffer ye samin to be ministrat, bot in sic manner, as is aforesaids; and be sic persons, as yat are admittit deulie, and ordaint to ye administration tharof.

XIII. Item, Yat na manner of persons be sabald, as to burn, spulie, or destroy kirks, chapels, or religious places and ornaments yarof, nor attempt ony thing be way of deid, to ye hurt and injuring yarof, or for deforming or innovating the louable ceremonies and rites parof usit in haly kirk; bot yat yai be usit as afore ay, and quhile forder order be takin be ye prince, and ministers of haly kirk, having power, and the samen dewlie insinuet to yam, etc.

Acta concilii provincialis totius cleri Scotici utriusque provinciae habiti Edinburgi A. D. M.D.LIX. Ex cod. MS. bibl. regiae Paris. n. 3887. cod. Baluzian. num. 38.

Concilium provinciale cleri totius regni Scotiae indictum et convocatum per reverendissimum in Christo patrem et dominum, Johannem, S. Andreae archiepiscopum, ejusdem regni primatem, legatum natum, etc. assistente et consentiente reverendissimo in Christo patre, Jacobo, Glasguensi archiepiscopo; convocatis etiam et praesentibus utriusque archiepiscopi reverendis dominis suffraganeis episcopis, vicariis generalibus, abbatibus, prioribus, commendatariis, decanis, praepositis, sacrarum literarum professoribus, rectoribus, ac aliis literatis viris ecclesiasticis, ecclesiam Scoticanam repraesentantibus; coeptum est Edinburgi in religiosa domu Dominicanorum primo die mensis Martii tii anno juxta computationem ecclesiae Scoticae ^f M.D.LVIII. et finitum ibidem 10. die mensis Aprilis, anno Domini M.D.LIX. et hoc ad dictae ecclesiae Scoticae disciplinam recte reformandam, et dominici gregis salutem promovendam; propterea quod videremus pastorale nostrum munus in extrema incidisse tempora, in quibus crudeles lupi dispersas Christi oves modis omnibus conantur devorare, legitimos sacramentorum usus invertere, ecclesiae ceremonias a Christo, ejusque discipulis et successoribus bene institutas, prorsus contemnere, omnia demum Dei et sanctorum templa diruere: in quo quidem concilio antiquas majorum consuetudines insecuti sumus, quas apostoli instituerunt, apostolici viri retinuerunt, atque nobis sanctissime veluti per manus reliquerunt; ut videlicet, quoties de fide christiana quaestiones occurrerent, scandala pullularent, aut hominum mores emendatione indigerent, toties synodum indicerent, in qua salutaria remedia adhiberent occurrentibus suo tempore periculis. Pari modo, Deo disponente, in hac praesenti synodo consultavimus, quonam modo possimus oves nobis commissas in christiana professione retinere, salutarem eis cibum providere, curantes humeris nostris impositas ad ovile dominicum reducere, et ecclesias in sincera pace regere, donec generale concilium his tantis malis aptiora provideat remedia. Nostrae consultationi accessit auxilium, opera, et beneficium nobilissimae et christianissimae principis Mariae, hujus regni Scotiae reginae dotariae, ac regentis; cujus piam voluntatem experti sumus non solum in defendendo hoc nostro regno a ferocibus exterorum incurfibus, sed etiam in administranda justitia per singulas hujus regni provincias, necnon in vera religione praeservanda, retinenda, et augenda; sic nos Dei gratia et favore dictae principis collegimus, ac congeessimus ea in constitutione, quae maxime videbantur pro ratione horum temporum necessaria et commoda, ad Dei honorem et reverentiam, ecclesiasticae disciplinae emendationem, atque ad christiani populi salutem; quae omnia communi consensu decrevimus publicanda, ut a cunctis hujus regni incolis observentur. Quapropter universos ecclesiae Scoticae ordines oramus, atque in visceribus Jesu Christi obtestamur, ut praesentis concilii decreta diligenter legant, lecta observent, atque sibiipsis persuadeant, nos gratia Dei et auxilio dictae reginae curaturos, ea exactae executioni demandanda. Praeterea cunctis ecclesiasticis viris praecipimus et mandamus, ut oves Christi illis commissas diligenter curent, frequenter visitent, et recte exerceant, conformiter traditioni et consuetudini ecclesiae catholicae, rejectis vanis novitatibus, et suspectis opinionibus; sic enim tam nobisipsis, quam ovibus nostrae curae commissis, acquiramus aeternam beatitudinem, quam nobis tribuat, qui sine fine vivit et regnat. Amen.

Primum actum: approbatio conciliorum apud Linlythquho et Edinburgum antea tentorum.

Praesens synodus, diligenti consilio et maturo tractatu praehabitis, decretis quoque constitutionibus, et ordinationibus conciliorum provincialium in oppido de Linlythquho in mense Augusto, et Edinburgi in mense Novembri, A.D. millesimo quingentesimo quadragesimo nono; Edinburgi etiam in annis M.D.LI. et M.D.LII. respective tentorum et celebratorum inhaerens, eadem decreta, constitutiones et statuta ratificat, approbat, et confirmat, quatenus in praesenti concilio immutata, declarata, et innovata non sunt, ipsaque inviolabiliter observanda decrevit, eisdem quoque lectis, visis, et discussis praesentis concilii auctoritate robur adjiciens.

Item sequuntur statuta edita in concilio provinciali celebrato in mensibus Martii et Aprilis, annis Domini, M.D.LVIII. et M.D.LIX. respective.

I. Haec praesens synodus prioris apud Linlythquho inchoati, Edinburgi finiti M.D.XLIX. constitutionibus adhaerens, ratificat et acceptat decretum concilii Basiliensis contra concubinales promulgatum, et in praedicto priori concilio per ecclesiasticos hujus regni receptum, in omnibus suis capitibus observandum, et executioni demandandum, tam in archiepiscopos, episcoposque, et eorum suffraganeos, quam in alios praelatos, ac inferiores clericos hujus regni per metropolitanos in episcopos suffraganeos, et episcopos in alios clericos inferiores respective; et ne reverendissimus Johannes, Sancti Andreae archiepiscopus, hujus regni primas, legatus natus, etc. necnon reverendissimus Jacobus, Glasguensis archiepiscopus, videantur reverendis suis suffraganeis, et aliis inferioribus ecclesiae onera gravia alligare, et suis forte privilegiis et exemptionibus sibimetipsis liberius indulgere, sua sponte in bonum aliorum exemplum submiserunt se consilio, requisitioni, et admonitioni faciendae per reverendos patres episcopum Dunkeldensem, postulatos Candidae Casae, et Rossensem; necnon probos et doctos viros magistrum Johannem St. Clar, decanum de Restalrig; fratrem Johannem Gryfoun, provincialem ordinis fratrum praedicatorum hujus regni, et facultatis theologiae universitatis S. Andreae, civitatis decanum, Johannem Wynrame, sacrae theologiae professorem, monasterii ecclesiae metropolitanae Sancti Andreae suppriorem; ut ipsi inquirent de observatione praesentis statuti per eosdem tam per se, quam de correctione exercenda in inferiores pro observatione ejusdem. Et ut commodius dicti inquisitores suo fungantur munere, convenient Edinburgi bis singulis annis, primo viz. Maii, et 15. Januarii; ubi diligenti inquisitione praehabita per dictos sex, quinque, aut saltem quatuor illorum, si quid emendatione dignum deprehenderint, primum praedictos reverendissimos archiepiscopos christiano more et charitative admoneant; deinde provinciali concilio, si necesse fuerit, referant; postremo sanctissimo nostro papae absque ulla mora aut conclusione, prout coram summo iudice respondere voluerint, intiment et notificent; et si quemquam ex dictis sex extra regnum fore, aut vita defungi contigerit, licebit caeteris alium in locum absentis vel demortui surrogare. Praeterea concilium hoc decrevit, ut tam archiepiscopi quam episcopi curent praedictum statutum concilii Basiliensis de incontinentia observandum in omnes et singulos abbates, priores, commendatarios, et alios quoscunque inferiores clericos exemptos suarum dioeceseon respective aliter absque praepudio sui ordinis.

^f Hoc seculo Scoti annum exordiebantur adhuc a 25. Martii, verum initio seculi sequentis sancitum est auctoritate supremorum regni comitorum initium anni deinceps a calendis Januar. computandum.

II. Circa proles ecclesiasticorum.

Inhibet praeterea haec synodus, ne qui praelati, aut alii ecclesiastici inferiores suas proles ex concubinato susceptas, in suis familiis, aut consortiis alant, aut teneant; et ne ultra quadri-dum, et id non palam, singulis trimestribus in eorum familia morentur, sub poenis ducentarum librarum, prima vice per archiepiscopum in praemissis culpabilem; et, centum librarum per episcopum, aut alium praelatum, sub poena arbitraria in alios inferiores clericos, arbitrio ordinarii iungenda, levanda, et in pios usus applicanda; et tertio quadruplicanda.

III. De non promovendis filiis presbyterorum in ecclesiis paternis.

Vetat quoque, ne ullus archiepiscopus, aut alius praelatus suas proles directe, aut indirecte ad beneficia quaecunque ecclesiastica in suis ecclesiis promoveat, aut promoveri patiat; alioqui promotio vel provisio desuper concessa, ipso facto nulla sit et invalida, sic quod licitum sit superiori, vel cui devolvitur potestas conferendi tale beneficium, libere conferre clerico idoneo, cui voluerint; non obstante praedicta collatione, vel provisione antea contra juris dispositionem, et praesentis statuti tenorem facta. Et ut praesens statutum debitum sortiatur effectum, concilio visum est expedire reginam obnixè rogandam, quatenus literas supplicatorias ad sanctissimum dominum nostrum papam mittat, eidem sanctitati supplicando, ut nullas dispensationes adversus praedictum statutum in posterum concedat. Et si fraudulenter, nulla mentione habita huius statuti, obtentae fuerint, ipso jure nullae sint et irritae.

IV. De non elocandis filiabus praelatorum et ecclesiasticorum baronibus de patrimonio Christi.

Inhibet similiter haec praesens synodus, ne qui praelati, aut quicunque ecclesiastici, per se vel alios, eorum nomine, filias suas baronibus, aut aliis terrarum dominis, supra summam centum librarum annui haereditarii proventus habentibus, de patrimonio Christi dotent, aut in matrimonio collocent, sub poena tantundem pecuniae, quantum dotis nomine promissum, datumve fuerit, solvendi, et in alium usum exigendi, inque pios usus disponendi; neque etiam filios suos barones aut terrarum dominos ultra summam centum librarum annui haereditarii proventus efficiant, sub poena tantundem levandi et repetendi, quantum terrae valuerint; terras autem ecclesiasticas, aut alias ad eorum beneficia spectantes, vel decimas dictis suis partibus et concubinis directe vel indirecte nullo modo alienent, vel assedent; quod si secus factum fuerit, cassae sint locationes et assedationes ipso facto et jure.

V. De familiis et servitoribus ecclesiasticorum.

Statuit praeterea haec synodus, ut nullus praelatus aut ecclesiasticus, cujuscunque status, gradus, dignitatis, aut praecminentiae existat, teneat, aut alat in sua familia, vel comitatu, aut ullo quotidiano officio quascunque personas de haeresi suspectas, aut qui sacrosanctae missae sacrificio, et aliis divinis officiis interesse dedignantur, diebus saltem dominicis, et majoribus festis, vel qui contemnunt ecclesiae sacramenta, vel qui contra fidem catholicam et orthodoxorum patrum sententiam erroneas teneant opiniones; sed statim, ubi hujusmodi reperi fuerint culpabiles, ab eorum consortio, servitio, et familia removeantur, prout iidem praelati respondere voluerint coram summo iudice; ac desuper fiat diligens inquisitio per ordinarios, sub poenis ducentarum librarum in singulos archiepiscopos, et alios praelatos, abbates, priores, et commendatarios in praemissis culpabiles, pro prima vice, et duplicanda pro secunda vice, et tertia vice triplicanda; et sic deinceps arbitraria in ecclesiasticos inferiores, arbitrio ordinariorum.

VI. Ne clerici exercent mercaturam.

Similiter statuit decretum prioris concilii mercaturam, et secularia negotia per ecclesiasticos vetans et prohibens, ad unguem observandum; addendo, quod si qui praelati, aut alii ecclesiastici per se, vel alios emant victualia, pisces, sal, biffinum, lanam, vel alias quascunque merces lucri causa, ut empta revendant, hujusmodi merces aut eorum valores a tali clerico negotiatore exigantur, et leventur pro prima vice (nomine multae intelligitur poena aliqua arbitraria, quae imponitur ad arbitrium) et si talis clericus negotiator continuaverit, exigatur duplum ejusdem per ordinarium loci, vel superiorem ejusdem in pia opera applicandum.

VII. De habitibus.

Statutum est et ordinatum, quod constitutiones prioris concilii de habitibus et tonsura clericorum et ecclesiasticorum virorum executioni demandentur, etiam in ipsos abbates, priores, commendatarios, et alios quoscunque beneficiis ecclesiasticis gaudentes, sub poena amissionis quartae partis proventuum suorum beneficiorum per ordinarium vel superiorem levandae, et piis usibus applicandae, pro prima vice... Hortatur similiter omnes et singulos archiepiscopos et episcopos huius regni, quatenus in publico et in ecclesia semper indumentis lineis, viz. suis rochetis congruis temporibus utantur.

VIII. De

VIII. De celebratione horarum canonicarum, et de sacrificio missae.

Praeterea hoc praesens concilium rogat, et in visceribus Jesu Christi hortatur omnes et singulos praelatos, et alios quoscunque ecclesiasticos, ut frequentius solito sacrosanctum missae sacrificium in conspectu populi celebrent ad Dei honorem, quo facilius populum christianum ad pietatem et religionem moveant; inquirant quoque ordinarii, an sacerdotes et beneficiati dicant, et quotidie recitent horas canonicas, et alia divina officia, et intersint sacrificio missae, saltem diebus dominicis, et aliis festis; et ad hoc per ordinarios moneantur et compellantur sub poenis arbitrariis in ipsos infligendis.

IX. De visitatione monasteriorum.

Insuper decrevit, quod statutum prius editum pro visitatione monasteriorum, monachorum, et monialium diligenter observetur, et quod ordinarii per seipsum, aut eorum fide dignos commissarios visitent singula monasteria, etiam exemptorum intra suas dioeceses, secundum formam concilii Tridentini, et de singulis, quae corrigenda sunt, inquirant et corrigant; et curent, ut sufficiens numerus religiosorum in illis sustentetur per facultates et redditus loci, ut honeste tractentur tam monachi, quam moniales in victu, vestitu, et in aliis necessariis; et ut loca diruta, et dilapsa reparentur, et ipsi ordinarii diligenter praedictum statutum exequantur, prout respondere voluerint coram summo iudice; et quod priorissae monialium per ordinarios moneantur, et compellantur ad reddendum computum, et ratiocinium omnium et singulorum proventuum suorum respective monasteriorum ipsis locorum ordinariis singulis annis, sub poenis et censura ecclesiastica.

X. De reparationibus ecclesiarum.

Item ordinat praesens synodus et decrevit, ut ecclesiae quaecunque intra regnum Scotiae dirutae et dilapsae reaedificentur, et reparentur in parietibus, tectis, ornamentis, et omnibus necessariis, a rectore et parochianis reparari solitis, et ad hoc per sequestrationem fructuum per ordinarios compellantur, et quod dirigantur litterae monitoriales contra rectores, eorum firmarios pro reparatione earundem, et fiat diligens inquisitio per ordinarios contra infringentes imagines, violatores, combustores ecclesiarum, et coram ordinariis vocentur, secundum juris dispositionem, et canonicas sanctiones puniendi; et pari modo procedatur contra parochianos pro reparationibus navium ecclesiarum, et murorum coemeteriorum. Vocentur quoque violatores sequestri, et puniantur, prout de jure. Statuit praeterea, ut nullae arbores in coemeteriis ecclesiarum plantatae, et crescentes, ex quavis causa scindantur, aut excendantur, nisi ex speciali causa consensu ordinarii, rectoris, vicarii, et parochianorum ipsius parochiae et ecclesiae; et qui in hoc culpabiles inveniuntur, coram ordinario vocentur, et puniantur, non solum in aestimationem et valorem arboris ex-cisae, et ablatae, verum etiam in damnis et interesse, arbitrio ordinarii moderandis; verum si quae arbores ob vetustatem, vel aliquo casu fortuito deciderint, fabricae ipsius ecclesiae applicabuntur.

XI. Quod beneficiati compellantur ad receptionem sacrorum ordinum, et de pluralitate beneficiorum.

Approbat similiter hoc praesens concilium statuta in prioribus conciliis edita, quod singuli plura beneficia ecclesiastica obtinentes, per locorum ordinarios inter hinc et primum diem mensis Augusti proximi vocentur ad exhibendum suas dispensationes, si quas habeant, juxta tenorem cap. "Ordinarii" de officio judicis ordinarii lib. 6. singuli quoque beneficia ecclesiastica obtinentes, per locorum ordinarios ante dictum diem similiter vocentur, et qui minime sacris ordinibus initiati fuerint ad susceptionem ordinum suis beneficiis requisitorum, aut iisdem suis beneficiis renunciandum censura ecclesiastica, et sub poenis in cap. "Licet ea" de electione lib. 6. per ordinarios compellantur, ne de altari vivant, qui altari inservire dedignantur.

XII. De curatorum stipendiis.

Confirmat quoque et approbat praesens synodus statutum in priori concilio editum, quod singuli curati annuatim summam viginti marcarum monetae Scoticae, cum manso et horto, pro suo annuo stipendio et salario habeant; quod in dioecesibus Aberdonensi, Rossensi, Moraviensi, Cathanensi, et Orcadensi observari decrevit. In aliis vero dioecesibus hujus regni singulis curatis summa 24. marcarum annuatim pro suo stipendio et salario persolvatur, cum manso et horto solitis et consuetis.

Item vicarii pensionarii per locorum ordinarios ad personalem residentiam sub privationis poena compellantur.

XIII. De poenis delinquentium, et de excessibus.

Statuit praeterea et ordinavit haec synodus, quod statutum circa officium decanorum ruralium in priori concilio editum, debitae executioni demandetur, et ulterius brachii secularis auxilium invocetur contra impediennes decanos rurales, ac commissarios ordinariorum in visitatione et executione sui officii, et similiter contra parochianos citatos super assisiis et inquisitionibus contumaces, aut respondere super articulis recusantes. Insuper statuit, ut crimina laicorum ad jurisdictionem ecclesiasticam pertinentia, per publicas poenitentias in parochia, in qua delictum est commissum, vel apud cathedralem ecclesiam, ut ordinario et suis commissariis visum fuerit, secundum qualitatem et quantitatem delicti puniantur, et corrigantur, et invocetur auxilium brachii secularis contra inobedientes: et similiter procedatur super excessibus clericorum juxta juris exigentiam. Verum quia nonnulli poenas pecuniarias ab hujusmodi delinquentibus exigere, levare, et in suos proprios usus convertere dicuntur; statuit, quod hujusmodi poenae pecuniariae, ad quas solvendas sponte sese obligant delinquentes, vel pro quibus quibus cautionem invenerint in pios usus, partim intra parochiam, ubi delictum est commissum, partim alibi arbitrio ordinarii disponantur. Et quo praefens statutum debitum sortiatur effectum, quilibet ordinarius eligat tres aut quatuor sui capituli, aut alios probos et discretos viros ecclesiasticos, qui de delictis hujusmodi et eorundem poenis cognoscant, ut easdem moderentur; et quod aliqui ex eisdem poenas pecuniarias in delinquentes inunctas exequantur, et recipiant, et de consilio ordinarii ad praedictos, et alios pios usus applicent, prout respondere voluerint.

XIV. De praedicatione verbi Dei et circa neglectam doctrinae reformationem.

Hoc praefens concilium approbat singula statuta in priori concilio pro praedicatione verbi Dei edita, et debitae executioni demandanda decrevit; quibus etiam addit, ut singuli episcopi per se non solum quater in anno, prout in priori concilio statutum erat, in suis dioecesibus praedicent, verum etiam frequentius, quoties commode per eosdem fieri poterit secundum formam et tenorem constitutionis concilii generalis in cap. "Inter caetera," de officio judicis ordinarii; et contra negligentiam inquiratur in proximo concilio provinciali. Et singuli etiam episcopi quolibet biennio ad minimum suas dioeceses integras per seipso complete visitent, et inter visitandum per se et per alios verbum Dei praedicent, et quae corrigenda invenerint, diligenter reforment et corrigant; et archidiaconi ad exequendum suum officium in visitando compellantur sub poenis in jure communi et ejus dispositione contentis, et hoc ultra visitationes fieri solitas per archidiaconos et decanos rurales, aut episcoporum commissarios. Et praeterea decrevit concilium statutum prioris concilii pro sustentandis per ordinarios canonista et theologo in singulis ecclesiis cathedralibus ante proximum concilium executioni demandandum, et quod singuli archiepiscopi et episcopi in familia sua theologum habeant.

XV. De praedicatione facienda per alios ecclesiasticos.

Insuper, ut frequentioribus verbi Dei praedicationibus instruatur populus, statutum est, ut ecclesiarum parochialium rectores, qui de judicio ordinarii ad praedicandum fidei rudimenta suis parochianis habiles et idonei censebuntur, per se non solum quater in anno, ut antea in priori concilio statutum erat, sed etiam frequentius, ad discretionem ordinarii, praedicent sub poena amissionis quartae partis fructuum suorum beneficiorum, per ordinarium loci levandorum, et in pios usus applicandorum; his vero, qui juvenes sunt, et inidonei ad praedicationis munus debite exequendum, per ordinarios jungatur, ut sese ad hoc quamprimum reddant per studia in gymnasiis publicis habiles, et interim per alios praedicatores suis sumptibus per ordinarios examinandos et admittendos praedicari, et suas vices suppleri faciant, donec de alio juris remedio opportuno fuerit provisum; et ad illud munus, ut dictum est, obeundum, singuli tales rectores praedicatores suos conducant, et cum ipsis convenient, et ordinario praesentent ante primum diem Augusti proximi. Grandaevi autem, qui quinquagesimum annum excefferint, et antea non sunt soliti concionari, hoc ipsum similiter per alios fieri procurent, quibus etiam assistant, et eorum propria praesentia praedicatoribus ipsis majorem honorem addant et auctoritatem; et hoc praeter et ultra communes instructiones et catechismi lectiones singulis diebus dominicis, et aliis majoribus festivis, cum non sit concio, per curatos et pensionarios fieri solita: et similiter episcopi, abbates, priores, priorissae, commendatarii, administratores, praepositi, portionarii ecclesiarum, et quicumque praesunt ecclesiis cujuscunque monasterii, mensis episcopalibus, capitulis, et collegiatis unitis et annexis procurent verbum Dei in suis ecclesiis praedicandum per se, aut alios idoneos praedicatores, per ordinarium dioecesanum examinandos et admittendos, cum quibus convenient, et eosdem ordinario praesentent ante dictum primum diem mensis Augusti; quo quidem primo die mensis Augusti elapso, et dictis concionatoribus minime conductis, et ordinario praesentatis, quilibet ordinarius quartam partem fructuum cujuscunque ecclesiae, cui de praedicatione minime provisum fuit, exiget, et levabit, quos partim ad sustentationem praedicatorum applicabit, et partim in alios pios usus distribuet et disponet.

XVI. De uniformi doctrina per singulos praedicatores observanda.

Approbat similiter haec praefens synodus statutum in priori concilio editum de methodo et forma praedicationum a praedicatoribus observanda; addit quoque hoc praefens concilium, ut nullus officium praedicandi verbum Dei assumat, nisi prius per ordinarium loci examinatus, et legitime ad hujusmodi praedicationis munus exercendum admissus fuerit; et praedicatores admissi in his, quae circa negotia fidei, et religionis christianae, sacrae scripturae, sanctorumque doctorum et patrum approbatorum testimoniis, ecclesiae quoque catholicae, et conciliorum generalium auctoritate decreta sunt, sedulo ac diligenter inter concionandum sese exerceant, populumque in illis instruant, praesertim circa articulos subsequentes.

Sequuntur articuli de traditionibus ecclesiae.

Articulus I.

Certa fide tenendum est, non solum quod expresse nobis atque aperte per scripturas traditur, verum etiam quicquid ecclesia sancta catholica, aut universale concilium legitime congregatum, credendum tradidit, definit, et concludit; et similiter quicquid observandum praecipit, quod ad bonos mores attinet, observari debet; et contrarium pertinaciter asserere haereticum est.

Appendix.

Ecclesiae traditiones et ordinationes, ut quae de jejuniis, ciborum abstinentiis, et delectu, festorum celebrationibus, seu feriacionibus, et id genus genus aliis ad sui observationem publice et privatim christianos obligant.

De sanctorum veneratione et invocatione. Articulus II.

Recte fit in ecclesia, quod sanctos cum Christo in caelis agentes veneramus, et invocamus, ut pro nobis orent, quorum precibus et intercessione Christus hic nobis multa largitur, per quos et in terris multa miracula operatur.

De recto imaginum usu. Articulus III.

Imagines Christi et sanctorum sunt licitae ad eorum repraesentationem et imitationem, et eadem absque ludibrio et opprobriis reverenter tractandae sunt.

De purgatorio post hanc vitam. Articulus IV.

Firmiter credendum est post hanc vitam esse purgatorium pro animabus, in quo poena adhuc debita peccatis exsolvitur; quibus tamen subvenitur piis vivorum operibus, quo citius liberentur.

De existentia corporis et sanguinis Christi in eucharistiae sacramento. Articulus V.

In eucharistiae sacramento est reipsa verum corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi; hoc est, vera caro et verus sanguis ejusdem, immo totus Christus, Deus et homo: unde in eadem non panem, non vinum, non easdem etiam, quae oculis corporeis obijciuntur, species, sed Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum crucifixum recte adoramus, sive in missa, sive extra missam, ubicunque eucharistia reposita fuerit, aut quoties in supplicationibus publicis a sacerdote circumfertur.

De laicorum communione sub una tantum specie. Articulus VI.

Non est laicis ad salutem necessaria sub utraque specie communio, sed juxta legitimam ecclesiae sanctionem sub altera tantum panis; viz. sacramentum exhibere sufficit, in quo carnem et sanguinem, atque adeo totum Christum sub una duntaxat specie sumi credendum est.

De utilitate missae. Articulus VII.

Missae sacrificium in recordationem passionis Christi institutum, ejusdem passionis virtute vivis et mortuis prodest.

De legitimo sacramenti eucharistiae ministro. Articulus VIII.

Evangelico tantum sacerdoti secundum ecclesiae ritum legitime ordinato eucharistiae sacramentum benedicendi, consecrandi, aut ministrandi potestas concessa est.

XVII. De exhortationibus ante ministerium sacramentorum.

Insuper ut populus christianus sacramentorum ecclesiae verum effectum, vim, ac usum facilius ac commodius intelligere valeat, statuit hoc praefens concilium quasdam catholicas exhortationes, easque succinctas declarationes sacramentorum baptismi, sacrosanctae eucharistiae, extremae unctionis, matrimonii, auctoritate hujus concilii edendas, et inferius inferendas, quas singuli parochi, vel alii presbyteri eorumdem sacramentorum legitimi ministri, ipsa sacramenta ministraturi, singulis suam propriam et debitam exhortationem praemittant, et publice et distincte recitent, et legant singuli curati et vicarii, dum sacrae missae sacrificium diebus dominicis et aliis majoribus festis sunt celebraturi, infra scriptam exhortationem; et ejusdem sacrificii declarationem publice in ecclesia similiter legant, quo populus christianus majori pietatis affectu rebus divinis assistat, et intersit; et idem observent episcopi in ministratone sacramentorum confirmationis, et ordinis, et confessorii sacerdotes in sacramento poenitentiae, quae quidem exhortationes in calce hujus concilii inscribuntur.

XVIII. De religiosis ad universitates mittendis.

Statuit et decrevit praefens synodus, quod statutum antea desuper editum executioni mandetur circa religiosos, ad universitates gratia studii mittendos; et singuli abbates, priores, et commendatarii exhibeant et praesentent ipsis ordinariis nomina eorum, qui mittuntur ad universitates, intra hinc et primum diem mensis Augusti proximi, et similiter testimoniales litteras ipsius universitatis, in qua fuerint recepti, et desuper diligens inquisitio per ordinarium fiat.

XIX. De qualitate promovendorum ad beneficia.

Haec praefens synodus diligenter attendens quamplurima oriri scandala in ecclesia Dei, dum inidonei aetate, moribus, et doctrina assumuntur, et ad ecclesiastica beneficia promoventur, statuit et decrevit, ut nullus in posterum assumatur, aut quovismodo promoveatur ad quodcunque ecclesiasticum beneficium per ordinarium loci, vel quemcunque alium, ad quem de jure vel consuetudine collatio vel provisio, seu quaevis alia dispositio pleno jure, et aliter ad praesentationem alicujus patroni pertinet, nisi praefens per ordinarium diligenter examinatus, ab eodem inveniatur idoneus ad exercendum et implendum officium tali beneficio annexum: alioqui collationes, provisiones, et dispositiones hujusmodi eo ipso nullae sint et invalidae; et eo in casu potestas disponendi et conferendi, ea vice duntaxat, ad superiorem, cui de jure provisio in casu devoluto pertinet, devolvatur, ac si hujusmodi collatio minime facta fuisset. Et pro observatione praesentis statuti concilium decrevit serenissimam dominam nostram reginam obnixae et humiliter deprecandam, ne quemquam ad episcopatum, monasteria, praelaturas, seu quodcunque aliud beneficium ad praesentationem, seu supplicationem, aut nominationem regiam spectans et pertinens, nominet, ^g Declarationes et exhortationes hae in MS. Baluziano omissae sunt.

praesentet, aut promovere patiatur, nisi moribus, scientia, et aetate ad officium dicto beneficio incumbens ad Dei honorem, et populi aedificationem exercendum idoneus, et qualificatus reperiatur; onerando conscientiam domini ordinarii admittentis seu conferentis, ne in districto Dei iudicio sanguis pereuntium de ejus manibus requiratur. Et pari modo concilio expedire visum est, literas supplicatorias ad sanctissimum dominum nostrum papam mittendas, ne quemquam ad praelaturas, vel alia quaecunque beneficia promoveat, aut promoveri patiatur, nisi aetate, moribus, et scientia idoneum.

XX. De executoribus testamentorum dativis.

Haec synodus provincialis volens et cupiens damno et indemnitati prolium, pupillorum, et aliorum in rebus et bonis ab intestato decedentium interesse habentium occurrere, et de remedio providere, statuit, et decrevit, ac ordinavit, quod in futurum nulli dentur aut confirmentur executores dativi ad bona ab intestato decedentium, vel extra testamenta emissa, nisi praevisio edicto publico tempore divinorum in ecclesia parochiali defuncti, saltem per quindecim dies antea citando intromissores bonorum talis defuncti, et omnes alios interesse habentes, debite executo, et indorsato, et vocato; et quidam magis idonei juxta discretionem ordinarii de proximioribus agnatis, vel cognatis defuncti, si comparuerint, in executores dativos confirmentur, cum tamen sufficiente cautione de fidei et debita dispositione et administratione bonorum et computo ad finem anni a die confirmati testamenti computandi reddendo et faciendo; necnon de debita responsione solutionis debitorum evictorum creditoribus, si qui sunt pro rata bonorum, absque tamen praepjudicio bonorum pertinentium uxori et prolibus defuncti, et casu, quo agnati cognati sunt, ut praemittitur, citati recusaverint onus executoriae acceptare, vel non comparuerint, constituentur per ordinarium alii viri probi, et boni testimonii, qui illud officium cum simili cautione debite exequantur: prohibet quoque, ne qui locorum ordinarii sibiipsis aut suis familiaribus aliqua de dictis bonis, praeter quotam solitam, recipiant, vel assignent.

XXI. De mortuariis.

Item in relevamen et subsidium pauperum, ad tollendum strepitum et murmur contra mortuaria obloquentium eadem in futurum solvenda, prout sequitur, decrevit; videlicet defunctorum bonis in inventario, debitis abstractis, in debitas partes divisus, ubi defuncti pars ad decem libras monetae Scoticae tantum se extenderit, vicario illius ecclesiae in compositionem pro annuali fine mortuario persolvi solito, et veste superiori solvantur quadraginta solidi tantum; et ubi defuncti pars ad summam decem librarum se non extenderit, sed infra eandem summam usque ad viginti solidos respective in compositione, de qua supra, solvatur vicario de dicta parte defuncti, pro rata quadraginta solidorum de decem libris; et quando defuncti pars viginti solidos non excefferit, nihil inde solvatur pro mortuario, vel veste superiori. Si vero defuncti pars ultra summam decem librarum dictae monetae Scoticae se extenderit, tum satisfaciatur vicario pro praemissis, ut antea consuetum est; non obstante praesenti constitutione. Circa barones vero et burgorum incolas servetur vetus consuetudo. Si qui autem defunctorum iuxta inventaria non fecerint, aut bona in ipsis inventariis contenta iuste non aestimaverint, tunc per ordinarios in vicariorum favorem de remedio provideatur opportuno: et in singulis episcoporum synodis hoc ipsum statuatur et publicetur; non obstante praecedenti constitutione.

XXII. De terris ad ecclesias spectantibus in feudi firmam, seu emphytheosim minime locandis.

Pensato diu ecclesiae incommodo, subditorum hujus regni depauperatione, et magno inde exorto, praesertim belli tempore, et alias, defectu habilium pro tuitione regni virorum, dispendio per locationem terrarum ecclesiae spectantium in feudo, emphytheosi et aliis assedationibus et arrendationibus, aliis personis, quam antiquis nativis tenentibus, possessoribus et elaboratoribus terrarum; vetat et prohibet praesens concilium, ne quis archiepiscopus, episcopus, abbas, prior, priorissa, commendatarius, praepositus, decanus, usufructuarius, praepceptor, minister, ecclesiae cathedralis et collegiatae canonicus, praebendarius, rector, vel vicarius, seu quivis alius ecclesiasticus secularis vel regularis quascunque terras, ad suum beneficium pertinentes, deinceps locet, concedat, aut arrendet in emphytheosim, vel assedationem quamcunque longam vel brevem, nisi duntaxat tenentibus et elaborantibus earundem; et si quas tales terras contra praesentis constitutionis tenorem locari contigerit, earundem locationes, five ad feudum, five ad certos annos fiant, ipso jure nullae existant et invalidae cum decreto irritante. Et archiepiscopi, praelati, et alii ex praedictis ecclesiasticis dignitatibus et beneficiis, terras taliter principaliter in feudum, vel ad annos locantes, tertia parte fructuum illius beneficii, cui tales terrae pertinent, pro uno anno mulctabuntur, per superiorem suum levanda, et ad pios usus applicanda; et eadem poena canonici, et praebendarii ex cathedralibus et collegiatis ecclesiis in tertia parte suorum beneficiorum, ac religiosi ex conventibus religiosorum et monasteriorum in tertia parte suae portionis pro uno anno, simili modo in pios usus arbitrio ordinarii dioecesei applicanda, punientur; ipsis nihilominus alienationibus, seu locationibus contra praesentis statuti tenorem factis seu fiendis, nullis omnino existentibus et invalidis ipso facto et jure, super quibus uniuscujusque dioecesei ordinarius singulis annis tenebitur diligenter facere inquisitionem. Et praeterea statutum est casu, quo aliqui ex dictis tenentibus et terrarum laboratoribus, qui tales locationes obtinuerint, aut quos in posterum obtinere contigerit easdem in manibus superiorum, in favorem quorumcunque, ex quavis causa resignare re voluerint; tum eo in casu non licebit dictis archiepiscopis, episcopis, abbatibus, praelatis, vel aliis dictis ecclesiasticis beneficiatis in dictis feudis vel locationibus recipere vel admittere quoscunque alios existentes majoris gradus et potentioris, quam dicti resignantes extiterint, dummodo sufficientes fuerint ad hujusmodi terras occupandas, et pro eisdem juxta tenorem locationis respondendis; proviso tamen, quod si contigerit dictos tenentes et laboratores fundorum deficere in solutione censuum, vel aliud committere, propter quod hujusmodi locationes amittere debeant, et ab illis juste amoveri, eo casu licebit dictis praelatis et ecclesiasticis beneficiatis, talibus tenentibus amotis, vel easdem terras suis propriis bonis occupare,^b vel aliis personis non majoris gradus et conditionis, sufficientibus tamen laboratoribus, et non aliis locare, sub poena tertiae partis fructuum supradictorum, necnon nullitatis hujusmodi locationis fructuum ipso facto et jure. Quantum vero ad glebas ecclesiasticas attinet, vetat et prohibet praesens synodus, ne ullo modo, aut ex quavis causa in feudum seu emphytheosim locentur, aut etiam ultra triennium, et hoc duntaxat laboratoribus et occupatoribus earundem de praesenti eisdem possessis, et non aliis, sub poenis supradictis; praesenti statuto pro quinquennio proxime futuro duntaxat duraturo.

XXIII. De decimis.

Statutum item et ordinatum extat in favorem pauperum colonorum et agricolarum, quod decimae garbales, quae de praesenti in manibus seu libera dispositione archiepiscoporum, episcoporum, abbatum, priorum, commendatariorum, priorissarum, monialium, praepositorum, ecclesiarum tam cathedralium, quam collegiatarum canonicorum, vel praebendariorum, rectorum, seu aliorum quorumcunque ecclesiasticorum virorum, tam religiosorum quam secularium, aut per ipsos viros ecclesiasticos ad eorundem proprios usus colligantur, aut ipsis colonis et agrorum laboratoribus locentur et assidentur, nisi ipsorum colonorum obstat malitia nolentium; videlicet pro decimis hujusmodi ecclesiasticis viris redditus consuetos et persolvi solitos, saltem communiter ad decennium jam proxime persolvere, et sufficientem cautionem pro solutione fienda praestare. Quod si ipsis colonis seu occupatoribus terrarum recusantibus tales decimas, aliis locare contigerit, tunc hujusmodi locatio pro triennio duntaxat fiat; alias vero decimas, quae in aliorum manibus ad longum vel breve tempus sive super literas assedationis. . . sive tolerantia existunt, omnibus modis tenentur ecclesiastici viri, ad quos earundem decimarum locatio pertinet, ipsis colonis seu terrarum occupatoribus, ut supra, locare; quod si commode id efficere nequeant, omni saltem ingenio talem conditionem cum decimis hujusmodi de novo conducentibus inire studeant, quod colonis sive laboratoribus juxta ratam occupationis eorundem moderato pretio seu aestimatione locentur tales decimae, ne adversus ecclesiasticos viros tali occasione oriantur scandala, aut murmur invalescat in posterum: super quorum executione singulorum onerantur conscientiae, prout in die judicii respondere voluerint; praesenti tamen decreto pro quinquennio duntaxat duraturo.

XXIV. De abbreviatione processuum curiarum consistorialium et officio procuratorum.

Statuit praeterea omnia et singula statuta in priori concilio edita pro abbreviatione processuum curiarum consistorialium, et officio procuratorum observantiae et debitae executioni demandanda, et quod in omnibus causis summariis procedatur summarie, et de pleno sine strepitu judicii, amputatis dilationibus, quantum de jure fieri poterit. Quae vero sint causae summariae in calce praesentis concilii inferentur; addendo insuper, quod quicumque procurator vel advocatus frivolam exceptionem replicandam, duplicandam, triplicandam, quadruplicandam in judicio exhibuerit, seu aliter manifeste deprehensus fuerit, pro prima vice poena 40. solidorum, pro secunda vice quinque librarum monetae hujus regni, in pios usus, ad arbitrium judicis applicandorum absque remissione mulctetur, et tertia ab officio procurandi vel advocandi in ea curia in perpetuum suspendatur et removeatur.

XXV. Quod nullae absolutiones dentur ex motivis neque ad effectum agendi.

Statuit similiter, quod nullae deinceps per archiepiscopos, episcopos, eorumve officiales et commissarios, vel alios quoscunque iudices ecclesiasticos, ordinarios vel delegatos, dentur absolutiones a sententiis excommunicationis, et aliis censuris ecclesiasticis ex quacunque causa fulminatis, cum illa clausula "propter motiva; ex motivis," vel similibus clausulis; sed vel concedantur simpliciter, vel inferatur causa in iisdem, propter quam dentur, alioquin nullus sit roboris vel momenti. Item, quod in posterum nullae dentur absolutiones, a quibusvis sententiis excommunicationis, et aliis censuris ecclesiasticis, ex quacunque causa etiam contumaciae fulminatis, ad effectum agendi, prosequendi, judicandi, vel alicujus membri curiae officium exercendi, nisi duntaxat testimonii conferendi causa; alioquin nullae sint ipso jure et invalidae.

XXVI. Quod in capitulis omnia capitulariter gerantur.

Similiter statutum est, quod in omnibus capitulis et conventibus, in quibuscunque actibus capitularibus omnia gerantur, et fiant capitulariter, et in loco capitulari, tam quoad consensum praestandum, quam etiam quoad subscribendum et sigillandum; alioquin facta et gesta nulla sint et invalida.

XXVII. De officialibus et commissariis episcoporum.

Statuit insuper, quod officiales et commissarii ordinariorum ipsorumque delegati quicumque, sint sacerdotes, et aliter sufficienter qualificati pro jurisdictione ecclesiastica exercenda; et singuli archiepiscopi, episcopi, et alii jurisdictionem ordinariam habentes, hoc statutum executioni demandent, infra hinc et primum diem mensis Junii, superioribus negligentiam suorum inferiorum dicto die elapso suppleturis.

^b Forte "applicare."

XXVIII. De legitima aetate subditorum regni.

Praeterea statuit et declarat, subditos hujus regni, quamprimum vicesimum primum aetatis suae annum compleverint, esse et debere censerī majores, aetatisque perfectae; et ita judicandum in foro ecclesiae, quod et in foro civili de jure et consuetudine hujus regni est observatum; et si quae actiones coram iudicibus pendent, secundum praesentis tenorem judicentur.

XXIX. De collectoribus poenarum.

Insuper statutum est, quod in singulis dioecibus per ordinarios deputentur tres aut quatuor ecclesiasticae personae, habiles et sufficientes ad collectionem et levationem omnium et singularum poenarum pecuniarumque statutarum praedict. cum potestate easdem in pia opera, modis, quibus supra, et aliis legitimis, de eorundem ordinariis respective consilio disponendi; qui etiam deputati tenebuntur in proximo concilio provinciali dispensationis et dispositionis suae rationem reddere.

XXX. Quod singuli parochiani intersint missae sacrificio.

Item, quod a singulis ordinariis per ecclesiarum rectores leventur literae monitoriales, ut singuli parochiani divinis officiis, et praesertim missae sacrificio devote intersint, singulis annis per decanos rurales, et alios commissarios contra eos, qui adesse dedignantur, diligens inquisitio fiat.

XXXI. De forma literarum ordinariarum, et aliarum monitorialium et inhibitorialium exequendarum.

Statutum est, quod in futurum literae monitoriales sive inhibitoriales super provisionibus et collationibus beneficiorum, et super decimis, dentur per locorum ordinarios, et eorum officiales sub poena excommunicationis cum hac clausula: ["Quam poenam in contrarium facientes ferimus in his scriptis, et quos vos sic excommunicatos in ecclesiis vestris, et ubi episcopus fuerit, dominicis et aliis festivis diebus tempore summae missae et divinorum excommunicatos denunciatis et publicetis."]

XXXII. De ratione pro minutis decimis et oblationibus ante Pascha faciendis.

Cum juxta apostoli sententiam non solum ab omni malo, verum etiam ab omni specie mali abstinendum sit, maxime vero circa ecclesiae sacramentorum administrationem, quae Dominus noster Jesus Christus, ut gratis instituit, gratis etiam fidelibus exhiberi et ministrari voluit; hinc ad evitandum populare murmur, praesertim tempore Paschae, dum in sacramenti corporis et sanguinis Christi ministerio, in exigendis minutis decimis, et aliis quibusdam oblationibus ecclesiae ministros adeo contingit esse solicitos, ut in grave christianorum scandalum rudi saltem populo, singulisque, qui in ecclesia fuerint, ratione vestimenti reddendi, videantur augustissimum illud sacramentum venundare; statuit et ordinat haec synodus, ut ecclesiarum vicarii, prout singulis eorum manebit, cum suis parochianis paulo ante Quadragesimam in mense Februario pro decimis hujusmodi minutis, sive personalibus sive mixtis, aliis quoque oblationibus ecclesiae debitis, rationem ineant; et ad hunc effectum literas monitoriales in forma debita a suis ordinariis respective levent, impetrent, et executioni demandari curent, ut in paschali solennitate populus christianus liberius orationi vacet, idemque sacramentum ardentiori pietatis affectu, divinoque fervore percipiat, omni tunc temporis exactione penitus interdicta: spontaneae autem fidelium oblationes, facto dicti sacramenti ministerio, ab eis, qui libere offerre voluerint, recipiantur; ac nihil exigatur, ut supra.

XXXIII. De baptismatione infantum secundum formam a Christo institutam, et ab ecclesia receptam.

Quoniam Paulus Methwen, Willelmus Harlaw, Johannes Grant, Johannes Willocks, Johannes Patritz, et alii complures catholicae fidei et ecclesiasticae unitatis desertores, non solum pestifera haereseos dogmata disseminarunt, sed et novum, inusitatum, et nusquam ab ecclesia catholica haecenus receptum baptizandi modum induxerunt, unde merito dubitari possit, utrum infantes, ab eis et similibus sic baptizati, verum baptisma sint consecuti, necne; proinde ut hujusmodi omnis ambiguitas tollatur, et infantum saluti tutius ac melius consulatur; decrevit haec synodus, ut tales infantes a sacerdotibus baptizentur secundum formam a Christo institutam, et ab ecclesia receptam, in qua quidem ecclesiae forma sacerdotes proferant haec verba: "Si tu es baptizatus, ego non te baptizo; sed si non es baptizatus, ego te baptizo in nomine Patris," etc. adjiciendo etiam aspersionem, oleum, et alia inter baptizandum observari solita. Atque ut dictum decretum ad honorem Dei et infantum salutem cito et facile fortiatur effectum, moneat patrem et matrem dictorum infantum, ut illos deferant aut deferendos curent ad suas ecclesias parochiales, et praesentandos vicario, curato, aut alii sacerdoti illius sacramenti legitimo ministro, et hoc ante quindecim dies monitionem talem proxime subsequentes, sub poena excommunicationis majoris. Insuper prohibet praesens synodus, ne qui infantes in posterum baptizentur, nisi a sacerdotibus, et hoc secundum communem formam ecclesiae, necessitatis articulo excepto, sub poena excommunicationis majoris tam in patrem, quam in matrem, quam etiam in ministros, et patrilinos, et matrilinas, et aliis poenis a jure statutis.

XXXIV. Ne sacramenta eucharistiae aut matrimonii ministrentur, nisi secundum solitam formam ab ecclesia institutam.

Similiter prohibet haec praesens synodus, ne quis quis in posterum praesumat ministrare sacramenta eucharistiae et matrimonii, vel eadem recipere, nisi secundum solitam et consuetam formam ecclesiae, hactenus rite observatam, et a sacerdotibus celebrari consuetam, sub poena excommunicationis majoris, tam in ministrantes et celebrantes, quam etiam in eadem suscipientes.

Apud aedem dominicanorum fratrum in concilio provinciali hujus regni Scotiae incepto, ut supra, et finiendo seu finito die 10. mensis Aprilis, anno Domini millesimo quingentesimo quinquagesimo nono.

Monitio five intimatio concilii provincialis proxime futuri. Haec praesens synodus significat, et intimat reverendis archiepiscopis, eorumque episcopis, suffraganeis, abbatibus, prioribus, commendatariis, ac omnibus aliis hujus regni ecclesiasticis viris, fore concilium Edinburgi in coenobio dominicanorum die dominica Septuagesimae proxime futura; ut illic diligenter consideretur, utrum omnia praesentis concilii decreta sint executioni demandata, atque ut ibidem mature consultetur de aliis rebus ecclesiasticae disciplinae, si quae interim oriantur. Praeterea vult praesens synodus, ut omnes ecclesiastici ordinis existiment se hac intimatione sufficienter monitos atque citatos ad dictum concilium proxime futurum.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.

Litterae patentes reginae de forma precum publicarum Latine vertenda.

ELIZABETH, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regina, fidei defensor, etc. omnibus, ad quos praesentes litterae pervenerint, salutem. Cum memores officii nostri erga Deum omnipotentem (cujus providentia principes regnant) legibus quibusdam saluberrimis, consensu trium regni nostri statuum sancitis, anno regni nostri primo, regium nostrum assensum libenter praeberimus; inter quas una lex lata est, ut preces publicae, una, et eadem certa et praescripta precandi forma, lingua vulgari, et vernacula, passim in ecclesia Anglicana haberentur, quo subditi nostri, quid orarent, facilius intelligerent, et absurdum illum, diuque in ecclesia inveteratum errorem tandem devitarent. Fieri enim non potest, ut preces, supplicationes, aut gratiarum actiones non intellectae, mentis ardorem aliquando excitent et accendant, cum spiritu, et veritate, Deus qui spiritus est, non oris tantum strepitu adorari vult. Cui rei etiam addi potest, quod hac caeca ignoratione superstitiosae preces, aut res alienae, non satis idoneae, quae Deo profunderentur, cordium humanorum scrutatori, saepenumero ore profano offerebantur. Notum vobis esse volumus, quod quoniam intelligimus collegia utriusque academiae, Cantabrigiensis et Oxoniensis; collegium item novum prope Wintoniam, et Etonense, bonis literis dicata, supplicibus votis petere, ut quo sacrarum litterarum monumenta Latina, ad uberiores theologiae fructum eis reddantur magis familiaria, eis liceat eadem forma precum Latine uti. Omnibus reipublicae nostrae membris, quantum in nobis est, consulere, et cum eorum necessitati, qui Latina non intelligunt, tum eorum voluntati, qui utramque linguam percipiunt, consulere cupientes; constituimus per praesentes, licitum esse et permissum nostra auctoritate et privilegio regali tam decano et sodalitis ecclesiae Christi in academia nostra Oxoniae, quam praesidibus, custodibus, rectoribus, magistris, et sodalitatibus omnium et singulorum collegiorum Cantabrigiae, Oxoniae, Wintoniae, et Etoniae, hoc modo precandi Latine uti publice in ecclesiis et sacellis suis, quem nos per nostrum typographum edi curavimus in hoc praesenti volumine, convenientem cum Anglicano nostro publicarum precum libro, jam per universum nostrum regnum recepto et usitato. Cui item peculiaria quaedam in christianorum funeribus et exequiis decantanda adjungi praecepimus; statuto illo praedicto de ritu publicarum precum (cujus supra mentionem fecimus) anno primo regni nostri promulgato, in contrarium non obstante. Proviso semper, quod in ejusmodi collegiis, quibus laicorum parochiae annexae erunt, ac in reliquis etiam, ad quorum templa laici, eorundem collegiorum famuli, et ministri, sive alii quicunque Latinae linguae imperiti, necessario adire debent; his horae aliquot opportunae, et loca in dictis ecclesiis, aut sacellis, assignentur, in quibus, festis saltem diebus, preces matutinae et vespertinae legantur et recitentur, et sacramentorum administrationes suis temporibus Anglice ad laicorum aedificationem celebrari possint. Eadem etiam formula Latina precandi privatim uti hortamur omnes reliquos ecclesiae nostrae Anglicanae ministros, cujuscunque gradus fuerint, iis diebus, quibus aut non solent, aut non tenentur parochianis suis, ad aedem sacram pro more accedentibus, publice preces vernacula lingua, secundum formam dicti statuti, recitare. In praemissorum autem fidem et testimonium has litteras nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Dat. apud palatium nostrum de Westmonasterio sexto die Aprilis, anno regni nostri secundo.

Celebratio coenae Domini in funeribus, si amici et vicini defuncti communicare velint, etc. anno 2. Elizabethae reginae M.D.LX.

In commendationibus benefactorum.

Ad cujusque termini finem commendatio fiat fundatoris, aliorumque clarorum virorum, quorum beneficentia collegium locupletatur.

VOL. IV.

Ejus haec sit forma.

Primum recitetur clara voce oratio dominica: Pater noster, qui es in caelis, etc.

K k k

Deinde

Deinde recitentur tres Psalmi.

Exaltabo te Deus, Psalm. 144.

Lauda anima mea Do. Psalm. 145.

Laudate Dominum quoniam bonus. Psalm. 146.

Post haec legatur cap. 44. Ecclesiastici.

His finitis, sequatur concio, in qua concionator fundatoris amplissimam munificentiam praedicet: quantus sit literarum usus ostendat: quantis laudibus afficiendi sunt, qui literarum studia beneficentia sua excitent: quantum sit ornamentum regno dictos viros habere, qui de rebus controversis vere judicare possint: quanta sit scripturarum laus, et quantum illae omni humanae auctoritati antecedant: quanta sit ejus doctrinae in vulgus utilitas, et quam late pateat: quam egregium et regium sit (cui Deus universae plebis suae curam commisit) de multitudine ministrorum verbi laborare, atque, hi ut honesti atque eruditi sint, curare: atque alia ejus generis, quae pii et docti viri cum laude illustrare possint.

Hac concione perorata, decantetur,

Benedictus Dominus Israel.

Ad extremum haec adhibeantur.

Minister.

In memoriam aeternam erit justus.

Responsio.

Ab auditu malo non timebit.

Minister.

Justorum animae in manu Dei sunt.

Responsio.

Nec attingit illos cruciatus.

Oremus.

Domine Deus, resurrectio et vita credentium, qui semper es laudandus tam in viventibus, quam in defunctis, agimus tibi gratias pro fundatore nostro N. caeterisque benefactoribus nostris, quorum beneficiis hic ad pietatem et studia literarum alimur; rogantes, ut nos his donis ad tuam gloriam recte utentes, una cum illis, ad resurrectionis gloriam immortalem perducamur; per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Celebratio coenae Domini in funebribus, si amici et vicini defuncti communicare velint.

Collecta.

Misericors Deus, pater Domini nostri Jesu Christi, qui es resurrectio et vita, in quo qui credidit, etiam si mortuus fuerit, vivet; et, in quo qui crediderit et vivit, non morietur in aeternum; quique nos docuisti per sanctum apostolum tuum Paulum, non debere moerere pro dormientibus in Christo, sicut ii, qui spem non habent resurrectionis; humiliter petimus, ut nos a morte peccati resuscites ad vitam justitiae, ut cum ex hac vita emigramus, dormiamus cum Christo, quemadmodum speramus hunc fratrem nostrum; et in generali resurrectione, extremo die, nos una cum hoc fratre nostro resuscitati, et, receptis corporibus, regnemus una tecum in vita aeterna; per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum. Amen.

Epistola. 1 Thess. iv.

Nolo vos ignorare fratres de his, qui obdormierunt, ne doleatis, quemadmodum et caeteri non habentes spem. Nam si credimus, quod Jesus mortuus est et resurrexit, sic et Deus eos, qui obdormierunt, per Jesum, adducet cum illo. Hoc enim vobis dicimus in verbo Domini, quod nos, qui vivimus, et reliqui erimus in adventum Domini, nequaquam praeveniemus eos, qui dormiunt. Quoniam ipse Dominus cum hortatu et voce archangeli, ac tuba Dei descendet de caelo, et mortui in Christo resurgent primum; deinde nos, qui vivemus, qui reliqui erimus, simul cum illis rapiemur in nubibus in occursum Domini in aere, et sic semper cum Domino erimus. Proinde consolemini vos mutuo sermonibus his.

Evangelium Johan. vi.

Dixit Jesus discipulis suis et turbis Judaeorum: omne quod dat mihi Pater, ad me venit; et eum, qui venit ad me, non ejicio foras. Quia descendi de coelo, ut faciam non quod ego volo, sed quod vult is, qui misit me. Haec est autem voluntas ejus, qui misit me, Patris; ne quid perdam ex omnibus, quae dedit mihi, sed resuscitem illa in novissimo die. Haec est autem voluntas ejus, qui misit me, ut omnis, qui videt filium, et credit in eum, habeat vitam aeternam, et ego suscitabo eum novissimo die.

Vel hoc evangelium. Johan. v.

Dixit Jesus discipulis suis et turbis Judaeorum: Amen, amen dico vobis, qui sermonem meum audit, et credit ei, qui misit me, habet vitam aeternam, et in condemnationem non venit, sed transivit a morte in vitam. Amen, amen dico vobis, quod veniet hora et nunc est, quando mortui audient vocem filii Dei, et qui audierint, vivent. Sicut enim Pater habet vitam in semetipso, sic dedit et Filio habere vitam in semetipso; et potestatem dedit ei judicandi quoque, quia filius hominis. Nolite mirari hoc; quia veniet hora, in qua omnes, qui in monumentis sunt, audient vocem ejus, et prodibunt; qui bona fecerunt, in resurrectionem vitae; qui vero mala egerunt, in resurrectionem condemnationis.

Bishop

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER. I.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2. 11

Bishop of London's letter about perambulation in Rogation week. Ex reg. Grindall, fol. 21.

FOR avoiding of superstitious behaviour, and for uniformity to be had in the Rogation week now at hand, these shall be to require you to give notice and commandment within your archdeaconry, that the ministers make it not a procession, but a perambulation; that they suffer no banners, nor other like monuments of superstition to be carried abroad, neither to have multitude of young light folks with them, but the substantial of the parish, according to the injunctions; the ministers to go without surplices and lights, and to use no drinkings, except the distance of the place do require some necessary relief; and to use at one or two convenient places the form and order of prayers, the thanksgiving appointed by the queen's majesty's injunctions. Thus fare ye well. From my house in London the 14. of May, anno M.D.LX. To Mr. Cole, archdeacon of Essex, this to be delivered with speed.

Bulla papae Pii quarti reginae Elizabethae per Vincentium Parpaliam, abbatem S. Salvatoris missa. Ex Cambd. Annal. p. 72. seq.

Charissimae in Christo filiae Elizabethae, reginae Angliae.

CHARISSIMA in Christo filia nostra, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Quanto pere cupiamus, nostro ita pastoralis officio postulante, salutis tuae consulere, et honori tuo simul regnique stabilitati prospicere, et scrutator cordium novit Deus, et ipsa intelligere poteris ex mandatis, quae dilecto huic filio Vincentio Parpaliae, abbati sancti Salvatoris, homini tibi noto, nobisque probatissimo, ad te dedimus. Proinde hortamur et monemus celsitudinem tuam etiam atque etiam, charissima filia, ut, repudiatis malis suavoribus, qui non te, sed se ipsos amant, suisque ipsorum cupiditatibus inferviunt, Dei timorem in consilium adhibeas, tempusque tuae visitationis agnoscens, paternis nostris monitis salutaribusque consiliis obtemperes; omniaque de nobis tibi polliceare, quae non modo ad animae tuae salutem conservandam, sed etiam ad dignitatem regiam stabilendam et confirmandam pro auctoritate, pro loco, ac munere, quod nobis a Deo commissum fuit, a nobis desideraris. Qui te, si ut optamus et ut speramus, in ecclesiae gremium redieris, eodem, quo evangelicus ille pater reversum ad se filium, amore sumus et honore ac laetitia recepturi. Quanquam eo major nostra laetitia futura est, quod is unius filii salute gavissus est, tu tecum una universos Angliae populos trahens, non solum ex tua, sed ex totius nationis salute, nos et universitatem fratrum nostrorum, quos propediem, Deo juvante, ad tollendas haerese in oecumenico generalique concilio congregatos audies, et universam ecclesiam laetitia gaudioque complebis. Quinetiam caelum ipsum exhilarabis ex tam memorabili facto admirabilem nomini tuo gloriam, et multo splendidiorem ea, quam geris, coronam adeptura. Sed hac de re pluribus verbis Vincentius tecum aget, et nostrum tibi paternum animum declarabit; quem ut benigne excipias, diligenterque audias, eandemque ut ejus orationi fidem habeas, quam haberes nobisipsis, serenitatem tuam rogamus. Datum Romae apud sanctum Petrum, etc. die quinto Maii M.D.LX. anno primo.

Inhibitio archiepiscopi Cant. episcopo London. de visitatione non exercenda. Ex reg. Parker, fol. 220. b.

MATTHAEUS, permissione divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo, eadem permissione London. episcopo, vestroque vicario in spiritualibus generali, officiali principali, sive commissario cuicunque, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Licet compertum habeamus tam de jure, quam de laudabili ac diu legitimeque praescripta consuetudine, praedecessoribus nostris Cant. sedis archiepiscopis, pro tempore successive existentibus licuisse, ac nobis, qui Dei miseratione in eadem sede sumus collocati, praerogativa metropolitana sedis praedictae licere, et liberum esse, universum populum sub finibus nostrae Cantuar. provinciae degent, ad voluntatis nostrae arbitrium visitare, et quos a via Domini, ac a vera pietate et religione deviantes invenerimus, ad debitam reformationis normam redigere et reducere; tamen cum aures nostrae non sine magno nostro dolore, crebris ac lachrymosis cleri nostri Cant. provinciae clamoribus personuerunt ac personant, quod nedum clerus, sed et populus universus assiduis visitationibus ac procuratorum exactionibus immodicis, ac caeteris oneribus ita premantur, ut in maximum sui status ac ministerii scandalum, vix habeant, quo victum et vestitum suos [emere] teneantur; nos igitur (sicuti tenemur) cleri ac ministrorum dictae nostrae Cant. provinciae prementis necessitati obviare ex animo cupientes, ac quietem et tranquillitatem totius provinciae nostrae strae, ac omnium ubilibet in eadem degentium, praesertim in hoc tam negotioso anni tempore summe curantes, visitationem nostram metropolitanam huiusmodi in et per totam provinciam nostram Cantuar. inchoand. et exercend. usque in aliud tempus, quo eandem commodius exercere possumus, duximus deferendam. Et quia ad nostrum nuper pervenerat auditum, quod nonnulli venerabiles confratres nostri provinciae nostrae Cant. episcopi suffraganei, clerum et populum dioec. suarum propediem visitare proponunt et intendunt, vobis, ac illis omnibus et singulis, ex causis praedictis, et aliis nos in hac parte specialiter moventibus, sub modo et forma subscriptis duximus inhibend. quocirca fraternitati vestrae tenore praesentium committimus et mandamus, quatenus receptis praesentibus cum omni, qua fieri poterit, maturitate celeritate, omnibus et singulis venerabilibus confratribus nostris, episcopis suffraganeis provinciae nostrae Cant. vice et auctoritate nostris inhibeatis, quibus nos etiam tenore praesentium sic inhibemus; ne a tempore inhibitionis huiusmodi eis, aut eorum alicui in hac parte fiend. ecclesias suas cathedrales, aut civitates, vel dioec. suas, clerumve aut populum in eisdem degent. five resident. visitare, seu visitari facere conentur, aut illorum aliquis conetur, sub poena contemptus illis, et eorum cuilibet infligend. donec et quousque aliud a nobis habuerint in mandatis. Vobis etiam, confrater antedictae, tenore praesentium inhibemus, ac per vos officariis et ministris vestris quibuscunque sic inhiberi volumus et mandamus, ne a tempore receptionis praesentium, ecclesiam vestram cathedralem, ac civitatem, vel dioec. London. praedict. clerumque aut populum in eisdem degent. five resident. visitare, seu visitari facere conemini, aut illorum aliquis conetur, sub poena praedicta, donec et quousque aliud a nobis habueritis in mandatis; salvis tamen vobis et illis, ac vestris et eorum officariis, et ministris quibuscunque omnimodis jurisdictionis vestrae spiritualis et ecclesiasticae exercitiis, in et per totas civitates et dioec. vestras respectue (visitationibus ordinariis earundem duntaxat exceptis) praesentibus literis nostris inhibitoriis in aliquo non obstantibus. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. vicesimo septimo die mensis Maii, anno Domini M.D.LX. et nostrae consecrationis anno primo.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.

Bishop Jewell's challenge.

IF any learned men of our adversaries, or all the learned men, that be alive, be able to bring any one sufficient sentence out of any old catholic doctor, or father, or general council, or holy scripture, or any one example in the primitive church, whereby it may clearly and plainly be proved, during the first six hundred years, I. That there was at that time any private mass in the world. II. Or that there was then any communion ministered to the people under one kind. III. Or that the people had their common prayer in a strange tongue, that the people understood not. IV. Or that the bishop of Rome was then called an universal bishop, or the head of the universal church. V. Or that the people were then taught to believe, that Christ's body is really, substantially, corporally, carnally, or naturally in the sacrament. VI. Or that his body is, or may be in a thousand places, or more at one time. VII. Or that the priest did then hold up the sacrament over his head. VIII. Or that the people did then fall down and worship it with godly honour. IX. Or that the sacrament was then, or now ought to be hanged up under a canopy. X. Or that in the sacrament, after the words of consecration, there remain only the accidents and shews, without the substance of bread and wine. XI. Or that then the priest divided the sacrament into three parts, and afterwards received himself all alone. XII. Or that whosoever had said the sacrament is a figure, a pledge, a token, or a remembrance of Christ's body, had therefore been judged for an heretic. XIII. Or that it was lawful then to have thirty, twenty, fifteen, ten, or five masses said in one day. XIV. Or that images were then set up in the churches, to the intent the people might worship them. XV. Or that the lay people were then forbidden to read the word of God in their own tongue. XVI. Or that it was then lawful for the priest to pronounce the words of consecration closely, or in private to himself. XVII. Or that the priest had then authority to offer up Christ unto his Father. XVIII. Or to communicate and receive the sacrament for another, as they do. XIX. Or to apply the virtue of Christ's death and passion to any man by the means of the mass. XX. Or that it was then thought a sound doctrine to teach the people, that mass "Ex opere operato" (that is, even for that it is said and done) is able to remove any part of our sin. XXI. Or that any christian man called the sacrament of the Lord, his God. XXII. Or that the people were then taught to believe, that the body of Christ remaineth in the sacrament as long, as the accidents of bread and wine remain there without corruption. XXIII. Or that a mouse, or any other worm, or beast may eat the body of Christ (for so some of our adversaries have said and taught.) XXIV. Or that when Christ said, "Hoc est corpus meum," the word "Hoc" pointed not the bread, but "Individuum vagum," as some of them say. XXV. Or that the accidents, or forms, or shews of bread and wine be the sacrament of Christ's body and blood, and not rather the very bread and wine itself. XXVI. Or that the sacrament is a sign or token of the body of Christ, that lieth hidden underneath it. that I shall be then content to yeild and subscribe. XXVII. Or that ignorance is the mother and cause of true devotion. The conclusion is,

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.

The queen's proclamation against defacers of monuments in churches. Fuller's Ch. Hist. lib. IX. pag. 66.

ELIZABETH.

THE queen's majesty understanding, that by the means of sundry people, partly ignorant, partly malicious or covetous, there hath been of late years spoiled and broken certain ancient monuments, some of metal, some of stone, which were erected up as well in churches, as in other public places within this realm, only to shew a memory to the posterity of the persons there buried, or that had been benefactors to the building or dotations of the same churches or public places, and not to nourish any kind of superstition; by which means not only the churches and places remain at this present day spoiled, broken, and ruined, to the offence of all noble and gentle hearts, and the extinguishing of the honourable and good memory of sundry virtuous and noble persons deceased; but also the true understanding of divers families in this realm (who have descended of the blood of the same persons deceased) is thereby so darkened, as the true course of their inheritance may be hereafter interrupted, contrary to justice; besides many other offences, that do hereof ensue, to the slander of such, as either gave, or had charge, in times past, only to deface monuments of idolatry and false fained images, in the churches and abbeys: and therefore, although it be very hard to recover things broken and spoiled, yet both to provide that no such barbarous disorder be hereafter used, and to repair as much of the said monuments, as conveniently may be, her majesty chargeth and commandeth all manner of persons hereafter to forbear the breaking or defacing of any parcel of any monument, or tomb, or grave, or other inscription, and memory of any person deceased, being in any manner of place; or to break any image of kings, princes, or nobles, estates of this realm, or of any other, that have been in times past erected and set up for the only memory of them, to their posterity, in common churches, and not for any religious honour; or to break down and deface any image in glasse windows in any churches, without consent of the ordinary, upon pain, that whosoever herein shall be found to offend, to be committed to the next goal, and there to remain without bail or mainprize, unto the next coming of the justices for the delivery of the said goal, and then to be further punished by fine or imprisonment (besides the restitution or re-edification of the things broken) as to the said justices shall seem meet; using therein the advice of the ordinary, and if need shall be, the advice of her majesty's council in her Starchamber. And for such as be already spoiled in any church or chapel now standing, her majesty chargeth and commandeth all archbishops, bishops, and other ordinaries, or ecclesiastical persons, which have authority to visit the churches or chapels, to enquire by presentments of the curates, churchwardens, and certain of the parishioners, what manner of spoils have been made, sithence the beginning of her majesty's reign, of such monuments, and by whom; and if the persons be living, how able they be to repair and re-edify the same; and thereupon to convent the same persons and to enjoin them, under pain of excommunication, to repair the same, by a convenient day, or otherwise (as the cause shall further require) to notify the same to her majesty's council in the Starchamber at Westminster; and if any such be found and convicted thereof not able to repair the same, that then they be enjoined to do open penance two or three times in the church, as to the quality of the crime and party belongeth, under the like pain of excommunication; and if the party, that offended be dead, and the executors of the will left, having sufficient in their hands unadministred, and the offence notorious, the ordinary of the place shall also enjoin them to repair or re-edify the same, upon like or any other convenient pain, to be devised by the said ordinary. And when the offender cannot be presented, if he be in any cathedral or collegiate church, which hath any revenue belonging to it, that is not particularly allotted to the sustentation of any person certain, or otherwise, but that it may remain in the discretion of the governor thereof, to bestow the same upon any other charitable deed, as mending of the highways or such like; her majesty enjoineth and straitly chargeth the governors, and companies of every such church, to employ such parcels of the said sums of money (as any wise may be spared) upon the speedy repair or re-edification of any such monuments so defaced, or spoiled, as agreeable to the original, as the same conveniently may be.

VOL. IV.

And whereas the covetousness of certain persons is such, that as patrons of churches, or owners of the parsonages impropriated, or by some other colour or pretence they do persuade with the parson and parishioners to take or throw down the bells of the churches and chapels, and the lead of the same, converting the same to their private gain, and to the spoils of the said places, and make such like alterations, as thereby they seek a slanderous desolation of the places of prayer; her majesty (to whom in the right of the crown, by the ordinance of almighty God, and by the laws of this realm,

L 11

the 222 Queen's proclamation against defacers of monuments.

the defence and protection of the church belonging to doth expressly forbid any manner of person to take away any bells or lead of any church or chapel, under pain of imprisonment, during her majesty's pleasure, and such further fine for the contempt, as shall be thought meet.

And her majesty chargeth all bishops and ordinaries, to enquire of all such contempts done from the beginning of her majesty's reign, and to enjoin the persons offending to repair the same within a convenient time; and of their doings in this behalf, to certify her majesty's privy council, or the council in the Star-chamber at Westminster; that order may be taken herein. Given at Windsor the 19th of Sept. the second year of her majesty's reign.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER I.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 2.

The archbishop's letter to the dean of the arches about the appeals to that court.
Ex reg. Parker fol. 225. a.

I COMMEND me unto you; and being informed that divers malicious persons abusing as well their bishops, and their officers, as other their ordinaries, do surmise untrue griefs and injuries to be done to them by their bishops, and other ordinaries; and thereupon do appeale and get from you inhibitions and citations, to the great vexation and trouble both of their ordinaries, and also of their neighbours, the queen's majesties poore subjects, and especially, in causes of correction and reformation of their evil lives and manners. For the redresse wherof we will and charge you, that upon your acceptation of any such appeale, you cause an act to be made of yt in the records of your court, specifying all circumstances therof; and withall you take a corporall othe of all such proctors, as shall exhibit the same, that as far as he doth knowe or believe, the grief or cause pretended is true and just, causing also the same proctor to exhibit his proxie, and to make himself partie to prosecute the same cause, as well as to appeale; so that if the partie appealed be cited, and do appere at daie and place appointed, that forthwith he be dismissed with such charges, as the law in that case doth bear; unless the partie appealing then presentlie do prosecute his appeale with effect; and that in every one of your inhibitions, you do appointe a reasonable daie certain to the partie appealing to prosecute his appeale, whiche if he then do not effectually, you to remitt the cause againe to the first court with charges reasonable, cutting of in all matters, frivolous and frustratorie delays, and finishing all causes with such expedition, as in any wise the lawes may suffer; any stile or usage in any of our courtes used to the contrary notwithstanding. And if thes notes practised shall seeme sufficient remedy for the said abuses, after a tryal I would have you to frame the effecte therof in forme of law, by me to be authorized for a perpetual rule to be observed in your courtes. And thus farre you well; from my manner of Lambeth the 20th. of November, anno M.D.LX.

To Mr. Dr. Yale, my chancellor and judge of my court of audience.

The archbishop of Canterbury's chancellor's licence for marriage in time prohibited.
Ibid. fol. 225. b.

MEMORANDUM, that the 29th daie of November, A.D. M.D.LX. information was given to the most reverend father in God Matthew, archbishop of Canturberie by William Cooke, the quenes majesties clarke of the faculties, and William Lake, clarke to the faculties to the said most reverend father; that Mr. Dr. Yale, chancellor to the said archbishop did by the authoritie of the same archbishop grant licenses to marry in the times by the laws prohibited, which (as the said Cooke and Lake affirmed) the said archbishop could not grante, as archbishop of Cant. but that the same appertayned onlie to the office of the faculties; whereupon, the archbishop the day and yere abovesaid, called before him, at his mannor of Lambeth, the said Dr. Yale his chancellor, and John In-cent, his principall register, where and when in the presence of the said Cooke and Lake, recordes where shewed by the said Dr. Yale, and John Incent, that the predecessors of the said archbishop, videlicet, Warham, Cranmer, and cardinal Poole, late archbishops of Cant. had from time to time granted licenses to marry in the time prohibited; upon the sight thereof, the said Cooke and Lake had nothing to say or alledge for themselves; whereupon it was for that tyme permitted by the said archbishop that his chancellor, for the tyme being, mighte and should hereafter grante licenses for marriage in the tyme prohibited, by his archiepiscopal authoritie, as before; untill the said Cooke and Lake canne shew further matter to the contrary.

Queen

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

Queen Elizabeth's letter about new lessons in the calendar before the common prayer book. Ex reg. Parker fol. 215. a.

By the queene.

ELIZABETH,

MOSTE reverend father in God, right trustie and right well beloved, right reverend father in God, right trustie and wel beloved, trustie and right well beloved, and trustie and wel beloved; we greet you well. Letting you to understande, that where it is provided by acte of parliament, holden in the first yere of our reigne, that whensoever we shall see cause to take further order in any rite or ceremonie, appointed in the book of common prayer; and our pleasure knowne therein, either to our commissioners for causes ecclesiasticall, or to the metropolitan, that then eftsoones consideration should be had therein; we therefore understanding, that there be in the said book certain chapters for lessons, and other things appointed to be read, which might be supplied with other chapters or parcells of scripture, tending to the hearing of the unlearned or laye people more to their edification; and that furthermore in fundry churches and chappells, where divine service, as prayer, preaching, and ministracion of the sacraments be used, there is such negligence, and lacke of convenient reverence used towards the comelye keeping, and order of the said churches, and especially of the upper parte, called the chancels, that it breedeth no small offence and flaunder, to see and consider, on the one part, the curiositie and costes bestowed by all sortes of men upon there private houses, and the other part, the uncleane or negligent order, or sparekeeping of the house of prayer, by permitting open decaies, and ruines of coveringes, walls, and wyndowes, and by appointing unmeet and unseemly tables, with fowle clothes, for the communion of the sacraments, and generally leavyng the place of prayers desolate of all cleanlynes, and of meet ornaments for such a place, whereby it might be known a place provided for divine service; have thought good to require you our said commissioners, so authorized by our great seale for causes ecclesiasticall, or foure of you, whereof we will you Matthew, archbishop of Cant. Edmund, bishop of London; William Bill, our almoner; and Walter Haddon, one of the masters of our requestes, to be always two, to peruse the order of the said lessons throughout the whole yere, and to cause some new calendars to be imprinted, whereby such chapters or parcells of less edification may be removed, and other more profitable may supply their roomes; and further also to consider, as becometh, the forsaide great disorders in the decaies of churches and in the unseemly keepinge and order of the chauncells, and such like, and according to your discretions to determyne upon some good and speedy meanes of reformation, and amongst other things to order, that the tables of the commandments may be comlye set, or hung up in the east end of the chauncell, to be not only read for edification, but also to give some comlye ornament and demonstration, that the same is a place of religion and prayer; and diligently to provide, that whatsoever ye shall devise, either in this, or any other like point, to the reformation of this disorder, that the order and reformation be of one sorte and fashion, and that the thinges prescribed may accord in one forme, as nighe as they may; specially, that in all collegiate and cathedral churches, where cost may be more probablie allowed, one manner be used; and in all parish churches also, either the same, or at the least, the like, and one manner throughout our realme: and further, we will that, where we have caused our book of common service to be translated into the Latin tongue, for the use and exercise of such studentes, and other learned in the Latin tongue; we will also that by your wisdom and discretions, ye prescribe some good orders to the collegiate churches, to which we have permitted the use of the divine service and prayer in Latin tongue, in such sorte as ye shall consider to be most mete to be used, in respect of their companies, or of resort of our laye subjectes to the said churches, so that our good purpose in the said translation be not frustrated, nor be corruptlie abused, contrarie to the effect of our meaning. And for the publication of that, which you shall order, we will and require you, the archbishop of Cant. to see the same put in execution throughout your province, and that you, the rest of our commissioners beforementioned, prescribe the same to the archbishop now nominated of York, to be in like manner set forth in that province, and that the alteration of any thing hereby ensuing, be quietly done, without shew of any innovation in the church. And these our letters shall be your sufficient warrant in this behalf. Yeaven under our signet at our palace of Westminster the 22d. day of Januarye, the thirde yere of our reign.

To the most reverend father in God, our right trustie and right well beloved Matthew, archbishop of Canterbury; the right reverend father in God, our right trustie and wel beloved Edmund, byshop of London, and to the rest of our commissioners for causes ecclesiastical.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1560.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

Mandatum archiepiscopi Cant. directum episcopo London. de reformatione calendarii.
Ex reg. Parker fol. 228. a.

MATTHAEUS, permissione divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Edmundo, eadem permissione London. episcopo, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum serenissima domina nostra Elizabeth, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regina, fidei defensor, etc. per literas suas missivas datas apud Westm. 22. die mensis Januarii ultimo praeterit. anno regni sui tertio, nobis ac fraternitati vestrae, et aliis commissariis suis ad causas ecclesiasticas decidendas, per literas suas regias patentes, magno sigillo Angliae figillatas, deputatis et assignatis, inter alia dederit in mandatis; quatenus nos ad Dei optimi maximi gloriam illustrand. et ecclesiae Anglicanae honorem, et ad tollend. dissensiones et controversias inter subditos dictae dominae reginae, et consensum verae religionis firmand. juxta tenorem cujusdam statuti in parlamento Angliae, tento apud Westm. anno primo regni ejusdem dominae nostrae reginae editi, quaedam decreta sive ordinationes, correctiones, interpretationes, seu reformationes conciperemus et faceremus; ac nobis Matthaeo, archiepiscopo Cantuar. antedicto, per literas suas missivas firmiter praecipiendo mandaverit, quatenus decreta, ordinationes, correctiones, seu reformationes praedict. in et per totam provinciam nostram Cant. publicari, et executioni demandari faceremus, prout in literis regiis missivis antedictis, quarum tenores pro hic insertis haberi volumus, inter alia latius continetur et describitur: nos vero affectantes ex animo ejusdem dominae nostrae reginae literis et mandatis ob-temperare, volentesque pro nostro erga suam celsitudinem regiam officio, demandatis et conceditis nobis a sua celsitudine negotiis, omnem nostram curam et solertem adhibere diligentiam, fraternitati vestrae ex parte suae regiae majestatis firmiter praecipiendo mandamus, quatenus receptis praesentibus, cum omni, qua poteritis, celeritate et matura diligentia, ordinationes, correctiones, seu reformationes calendarii, simul cum tabulis praeceptorum Dei, per nos et alios regios commissarios auctoritate et vigore dictarum literarum suarum regiarum missivarum, juxta formam statuti praedicti fact. concept. et stabilitas, quorum exemplaria in papyro impressa vobis praesentibus annexa transmittimus, omnibus et singulis venerabilibus confratribus nostris provinciae nostrae Cant. coepiscopis, et ecclesiae nostrae Christi Cant. suffraganeis publicetis et declaretis, eisque et eorum cuilibet ex parte dominae nostrae reginae firmiter praecipiat; quatenus ipsorum singuli in suis cathedralibus ecclesiis, necnon civitatum et dioec. suarum paroch. ecclesiis ordinationes, seu reformationes calendarii, et tabulas praeceptorum Dei praedict. in omnibus, et per omnia, juxta praescript. literarum regiarum inviolabiliter observari et perimpleri sedulo et accurate current cum effectu, et fieri non postponant; sicque a vobis, frater charissime, in ecclesia vestra cathedrali, ac in et per civitatem et dioec. vestras London. per omnia fieri et perimpleri volumus et mandamus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth decimo quinto die mensis Februarii, anno Domini M.D.LX. et nostrae consecrationis anno secundo.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 3.

Articles agreed upon at the second session in Lambeth the 12th day of April, A. D. 1561, by the most reverend fathers in God, Matthew, lord archbishop of Cant. Thomas, lord archbishop of York, with the assent of their brethren the bishops to the same. Ex reg. Parker.

FIRST, That the articles agreed on at the first session, be ratyfyed, confirmed, and put in execution accordingly.

Item, That readers be once agen by every ordinarie reviewed, and there abilitie and manners examined, and by discretion of the ordinarys to remayne in ther office, or to be removed, and ther wages to be ordered; and the abstinence of mechanical sciences to be also enjoyned by the discretion of the said ordinarys as well to ministers, as to readers.

Item, That the declaration devised for unitye of doctrine, may be enjoyned to be used throughout the realme uniformly.

De non locand. beneficia vel aliquam inde parcellam.

Item, At the institution of every parson, or curate they be examined by othe, upon these articles following.

Of secrete compacts { For alienation of there glebe lands.
For the forgeaving of the patrons tithes.
For pensions newly exacted.
For summes of money and other contributions.

with intimation to them, if they be after founde culpable in any of the same, to be deprived. And for the tyme to come either to receive voluntary bands, "Ad usum reginae vel aliquis hospitalis pauperum de non locando sine consensu ordinarii."

Item, That no curate or minister be permitted to serve without examination, and admission of the ordinarie, or his deputies in writing, having respect to the greatness of the cure, and the meteness of the partie; and that the said ministers, yf they remove from one dioces to another, be by no meanes admitted to serve without testimonie of the diocesan, from whence he cometh, in wrytinge.

Item, That all old service books, grailes, antiphonars, and other be defaced and abolished by order in visitations.

Item, That besides the catechisme for children, which are to be confirmed, an other summewhat longer may be devised for communicants, and the thirde in Laten for scholes.

Item, That prestes deprived, and other private chaplens, be commanded by the ordinaries direction in this great necessity, to minister in cures, or else to be according to law excommunicated, and the excommunication effectually prosecuted.

Item, It is agreed, that all such marriages, as have been contracted within the Levitical degrees, be dissolved, and namely those, who have married two sisters, one after another, who are by common consent judged to be within the case.

Item, It is agreed to give 20s. to every bishop of Cant. province to the metropolitical church there, so that hit be registred as a composition between us and the church for all demands and requests; and the same presently to be converted to D. Alexander's use for his clayme.

For the readers of Cambridge and Oxford.

A contribution to be made by the archbishops and bishops, for learned strangers, reading for stipend, and expense of journey, according to the rate of our revenneues.

Matthaeus Cant.
Edm. London.
Richard. Ely.

Archiepis. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

Injunctions to be confessed and subscribed by them, that shall be admitted readers.

IN PRIMIS, I shall not preache or interpret, but only read that, which is appointed by publick authoritie.

I shall read the service appointed playnlie, distinctlie, and audiblie, that all the people may heare and understand.

I shall not minister the sacraments, nor other publick rites of the church, but burie the dead, and purifie women after their childbirthe.

I shall keep the register book according to the injunctions.

I shall use sobrietie in apparel, and especially in the church at common prayers.

I shall move men to quiet and concord, and not geve them cause of offence.

I shall bring into my ordinarie testimonie of my behaviour from the honest of the parishe, where I dwell, within one half yere next following.

I shall give place upon convenient warning, so thought by the ordinarie, if any learned minister shall be placed there, at the sute of the patrone of the parishe.

I shall clayme no more of the fructs sequestred of such, then I shall serve, but as it shall be thought mete to the wisdom of the ordinarie.

I shall daylie at the least reade one chapter of the Old Testament, and one other of the Newe, with good advisement to the increase of my knowledge.

I shall not appoynte in my rome by reason of my absence, or sickness, any other man, but shall leave it to the sute of the parish to the ordinarie, for assignyng some other able man.

I shall not read, but in poorer parishes destitute of incumbents, excepte in the tyme of sickness, or for other good considerations to be allowed by the ordinary.

For deacons.

I shall not openlie intermeddle with any artificers occupations, as covetously to seke a gen thereby, having in ecclesiastical lyving the summe of 20 nobles or above by yere.

Matthaeus Cant.
Edmund London.
Robertus Winton.
Richardus Elien.
Jo. Sarum.

Thomas Ebor.
Johannes Carleolen.
Guliel. Chester.
Guliel. Exon.
Gilb. Bathon. et Wellen.
Richardus Gloucester.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

The queen's letter to the archbishop of Canterbury, about St. Paul's church.
Ex reg. Parker fol. 231. a.

By the queene.

MOST reverend father in God, we grete you well. Although we knowe there needeth no meanes to provoke you to further the reedifieng of the church of St. Poules, in our citie of London, being the same both in respect of christian religion, and for the honour of our realm, a right necessarie work to be finished, and that with speede, whereby the use of prayer and divine service may be restored, and the fame and renown by such a worke due lie recovered; yet to joyn our authoritie with your devotion and good will, we do authorise you by waye of any manner of usuall or other good conference with the bishops of your province, and the principal members of the clergy thereof, to devise uppon some contribution of money, and relief to be levied and collected of the same clergy, wherein we meane neither to prescribe to you the manner of levieng, nor the somme to be contributed, but referr the same to your wisdom, and the consideration of so greate a work; and if you shall think meete to be informed therein, upon any special duobte, then to resort to our counsell, who in that behalf shal geve you knowledge and devise of that, which shall be convenient. Yeven under our signet at our mannor of Grenewiche the 24th. of June, the third yere of our reigne.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the same. Ibidem.

AFTER my right hartie commendations unto your lordship premised; having receaved the quenes majesties lettres, the tenor whereof I send to you herewith, I have thought good for the better accomplishment of her majesties pleasure herein, to require your lordship, that not only upon conference with the clergie of your diocess, you do resolve yourselves upon such reasonable imposition and contribution to be collected and answered of our said clergie, towards the reedifying of the church of Paules, as may seme correspondent to their severall states and prefermentes in lyvinge; but also that you do with all convenient speede signifie the tenor of the quenes majesties said lettres to the residue of the bishops of my province, requiring them to do the like in their severall dioces: doing your lordship further to understand, that I think this rate to be the best, that will be accepted, that the clergie of your diocess of London shold paie and contribute the twentieth parte of their spirituall promotions, and the clergie of everie other diocess of my province, being not in their first fruites, to pay the thirtieth part, and they, which be in their first fruites, to pay only the fortieth part of their said promotions, according to the rate taxed in the quenes majesties bookes; alwaies provided, that stipendaries, and curates, and all such beneficed men, which by order of the statute paie no first fruites, be not in any wise charged herein, unless it be by your good perswasion; and that aswell your lordship for yourself, as also all other my brethren the bishops of my province, by your commandment, to send me your and their resolute order and answer herein with such convenient speede, as you and they may. And thus far you most hartilie well. From my mannor of Croidon the first day of July, M.D.LXI.

Your loving brother,

MATTHEW Cant.

To the right reverend father in God, the bishop of London yeve thes.

Queen Elizabeth's injunctions for the better government of cathedrals.

John Weever's funeral monuments, p. 184. seq.

By the queene.

THE queen's majesty considering, how the pallaces and houses of cathedrall churches and colledges of this realme have ben both of ancyeant and late tyme buylded and inclosed in severall to susteyne and kepe socyeties of learned men, professing study, and prayer for the edification of the church of God, and so consequently to serve the common weale; and understanding of late, that within the houses hereof as well the chiefe governours, as the prebendaries, students, and members thereof being married, do keepe particular households with their wives, children, and nurses, whereof no small offence groweth; to th' entent of the founders, and to the quiet and orderly profession of studie and learning within the same, hath thought meete to provide remedie herein, lest by sufferance thereof, the rest of the colledges, specially such as be replenished with young students, as the very roomes and buildings be not answerable for such families of women, and young children, should follow the like example. And therefore expressly willeth and commandeth, that no manner of person, being either ther the head or member of any colledge or cathedral church within this realme, shall from the time of the notification hereof, in the same colledge have, or be permitted to have within the precinct of any such colledge his wife or other woman to abide and dwell in the same; or to frequent and haunt any lodging within the said colledge, upon pain that whosoever shall do to the contrary, shall forfeite all ecclesiastical promotions in any cathedrall or collegiate church within this realme. And for continuance of this order, her majestie willeth, that the transcript hereof shall be written in the booke of the statutes of every such colledge, and shall be reputed as parcell of the statutes of the same. Yeven under our signet at our towne of Ipswiche the ninth of August, in the third yeare of our reigne.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter desiring a certificate about the residing clergy, etc. Ex MS. C. C. C. Cantab. miscell. IV. p. 3.

AFTER my heartie commendations, these shall be to desire and require you to certify me so speedily, as you may, of all and singular parsons, vicars, and curates within your — and how many of them be resident; and where the absents do dwell and remain; how many of them be neither priests nor deacons; noting the names of all such as be learned and able to preach, whether married or unmarried, of what degree, and which of them (being already licensed to preach) do preach accordingly. And finally how many of them do commonly keep hospitality. And that your certification in that behalf be conceived and made according to the form herein inclosed. And thus trusting of your diligence herein, I wish you well to fare. From my mannor of Lambeth the first of October, A. D. M.D.LXI.

Your loving friend,

MATTHEW Cantuar.

A proclamation made for the reverend usage of all churches and churchyards.
Strype's life of Grindal p. 56.

By the queen.

FOR avoiding of divers outrageous and unseemly behaviours used as well within and near the cathedral church of St. Paul in London, as in divers other churches of this realm; and for the better and speedier reducing of the same churches to the godly uses, for which the same were builded; the queen's majesty of her godly and virtuous disposition straightly chargeth and commandeth, that all laws and good ordinances heretofore provided against fighting and quarrelling in churches and churchyards, shall be duly and with all severity executed, according to the tenor and true meaning of the said laws and ordinances. And further her majesty's pleasure is, that if any person shall make any fray, or draw or put out his hand to any weapon for that purpose, or shoot any hand gun or dagg within the cathedral church of St. Paul, or churchyard adjoyning thereunto, or within the limits of the four chains compassing the same, or within any other church or churchyard, shall receive not only the punishment contained in the statutes for the same provided; but also, being thereof convicted either by the evidence of his fact, testimony of two honest and indifferent persons, or by their own confession before her highness's council in the Star Chamber, or the mayor for the time being within the city of London; and in other places out of the same city, before two justices of the peace of that country or place, where any of the said offences shall be committed, shall suffer imprisonment by the space of two months, without bail or mainprize; and further pay such fine and forfeiture towards the reparation of the said church of St. Paul, or of other churches, where the same offence shall be committed, as shall be assessed by the said council, mayor, or justices, before whom such conviction shall be, as is aforesaid.

And her majesty further straightly chargeth and commandeth all and singular her subjects, that none of them, during the time of preaching within the said church of Paul's, or churchyard of the same, or of any divinity lecture, reading, or divine service in the same church, or in any other church or churchyard within the realm, shall walk up and down, or use any kind of disturbance, or spend the time in the same about any bargain, or other profane causes; but shall resort unto the common prayer, preaching, or reading, and there quietly and reverentlie behave themselves, as to the duty of christian men appertaineth; or else quietly to avoid out of the said church or place, upon pain of imprisonment, and of such further fine, as is aforesaid: the fine always to be converted to the repair of the church, where the offence shall be committed.

Her majesty also straightly chargeth and commandeth, that all persons do forbear to make, from henceforth, any limitation or appointment, by writing, or otherwise, for the payment of any sum or sums of mony, within the said church of St. Paul's, or in any other church or chapel, where divine service is or shall be used, and the word of God preached; or to carry or recarry any burthen, fardel, or other other unseemly thing through the said churches, other than for the repairing, or other necessities of the same churches, upon pain of imprisonment, and further punishment by fine, as is aforesaid.

228 A proclamation for the reverend usages of CHURCHES, etc.

Provided always, that it shall be lawfull as well to any persons, which at this present stand bound by any former covenant or bond to make any payment of any sum or sums of money in any church, or other place aforesaid, to make tender and payment of the same; as also to every such person and persons, to whom the same is or shall be due, to receive the same in such place, where it is limited to be tendred and paid; unless the parties (which is trusted they will, for good order sake) shall otherwise agree; this proclamation to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the better execution of this proclamation, her majesty's pleasure and express commandment is, that the mayor, aldermen, sheriffs, and other her officers, and commons of her city of London, and every of them, do not only aid and assist, and help the bishop of the said see and church of St. Paul's, for the time being, and other ecclesiastical officers and ministers of the same, from time to time, in the due execution of the premises, as need shall require; but also, that the said mayor of London shall appoint, every Sunday and other holidays in the year, during such time, and at every time they shall be thought by the bishop or dean of the church requisite, one or two of the aldermen of the said city of London, accompanied with four or six discreet commoners of the said city, and attended upon with a convenient number of the serjeants and officers of the said city; to repair unto the said church of St. Paul, there to see the premises duly executed in all points accordingly.

And if they shall find any person disobedient or offending in any thing, touching the premises, to apprehend and commit him forthwith to prison, there to remain without bail or mainprize, until further order be taken with the said offenders, in form aforesaid. And finally, her majesty straightly chargeth and commandeth all and singular her justices of peace, mayors, sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, headboroughs, churchwardens, and all other her highness's officers, ministers, and subjects; that they, and every of them, from time to time, endeavour themselves, to the best of their powers, to cause and see, that this her majesty's proclamation and express commandment within the limits of their jurisdictions and parishes be put in due and full execution, according to the form abovementioned; as they tender her majesty's special favour, and will avoid the contrary at their peril. Yeven at St. James the 30th. of October, in the third year of the reign of Elizabeth, etc. anno Domini M.D.LXI.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 2.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 3.

Concilium dioecesanum Assaphense celebratum in ecclesia cathedrali Assaphensi a Thoma (Davies) episcopo Assaphen. die Mercurii 12. Novembris. Ex MS. penes Thom. episc. Assaph.

QUIBUS die et loco reverendus pater dominus Thomas, Assaphen. episcopus, convocato coram eo clero decanatus de Rose, statuit, ordinavit, et injunxit eis has ordinationes sequentes, ab eis et eorum quolibet in suis respective ecclesiis observandas.

That every of them have the cathechisme yn the mother tonge yn Welshe red and declared yn ther severall churches every Sondag with the answer made therunto accordingly, and yn the Englyshe tonge at ... on Sondays and holidays.

That no parson, vycar, or curat shall from hensforth marry any persons withyn any of ther churches, onlesse the banes be thre tymes solemnly asked with distinct dayes, except they be sufficyently dispensyd with.

That every parson and vycar do from hensforth kepe resydence and hospytalyty competent, acordynge to the valuacion of ther severall lyvyngs and benefyces, and meyntheyn ther howses and buyldings longyng to the same yn dew and sufficyent reparacion.

That every parson and vycar do exhorte and move the fyke persons, making ther testaments, that every of them do geve to the reparacion of the cathedral church; and also to the pore mens boxe some part of ther goods.

Item, To certify unto the sayd reverend father the testament of every person dyeing withyn ther severall paryshes withyn one fortentyght next after the partye deceaseth, to the ende the testament may be provyd, or admynistracion grauntyd, and that the goods may be savyd, and not embeselyd.

That every of them shall forthwith avoyd, remove, and put away, or cawse to be put away all and every moniment, fygne, and token of all and every fayned relyques and other supersticyons had withyn ther severall churches, and abolshe ther auters yn the same, or cawse the churchwardens to do the same within eight days next after thes injunctyons gevyn; and if any refuse so to do, that I may be certyfyed therof withyn other eight days, then next and immediatly folowyng.

Item, That every curat yn hys church kepe a trewe and perfecte regester, yn which he shall trewly wryte the names and days of all chrystenyngs, weddyngs, and buryngs, according to the quenes majesties godly procedyngs.

Item, That every parson, vycar, curat, and stypendary prest, being under the degre of a master of arte, shall have and provyde to have yn hys hys use and occupation the new testament yn Laten and English wyth the paraphrase of Erasmus upon the same, and to learne two chapters of the same yn memory withowt the boke viz. the fyrst to the Romans, and the sixth of John, and every of them do come and reyd the same on thyssyde the Purifycacion of our Lady next.

Item, That forasmuch as testaments are of gret moment, and to the end the form of them may be universally well orderyd, I do monyshe and injoyne, and charge every parson, vycar, and curat to resorte to the regester for to have a good forme of the makynge of the testaments, and also do charge and commaunde every curat to have pen and ynke redy, and to wryte the testaments with ther own hands, and to call a suffycient number of wytnes to the same, to the ende all suspycyon of misformynge of testaments may be avoyded, and a good and godly order kept, and trewth maynteynyd.

Item, That every parson, vycar, and curat yn ther severall churches do name, apoint, and assigne three or four honest, sayge, and discrete persons of their paryshes, which tender the glory of God, the quenes majestys godly proceedings, and the decent order of the peple, to be overseers, who shall see good rule and order yn the church in tyme of dyvnye servyce; and yf any misruled person be, that he may be presentyd by them; and yf any by their discretyon apoyntyd to that purpose, do refuse to do hys dewty theryn, that I be forthwyth certified of the name of such refuser, and that they so apoyntyd, do from tyme to tyme certyfy yf any offenders or myruled persons be found withyn the same churches.

Item, That yn tyme of servyce red or songe yn the church, so often as the name of Jesus beyng owr savyor, shall be reherfed and pronounced, dew reverence be made of all persons yonge and olde with lowlyness of curtesy, and entyndyng of mens heds; for seeing that yn tyme of the letansonge or seyde, and all other godly prayers, the peple shall universally knele upon ther knees, and use themselves devoutly duryng tyme of the same.

Item, That the parsons, vycars, and curats, or one of them yn every of ther churches, do come together on Wenisdays and Frydays, being not holy days, and ther devoutly syng or sey the letany, and exhorte the peple to come wyth devotion to here the same, with other preyers, at howers and tymes convenient and accostomed.

Item, That no preste, parson, vycar, curat, or mynister shall serve any more than one cure, wythowt very urgent cause; cawse theryn had, and the speciall lycence of the seyde busshope obteynyed.

Item, That all mynisters and reders of the publyke prayers and chapters yn the church do reade the same distynctly, apertly, and leyserly withowt any mumblyng or rashe redyng of the same, wherby the peple may be more edifyed and styrred to better devociions.

Item, That every parson, vycar, curat, and mynister shall use and were decent and semely apparell, that ys to wyt, a short gown, and a hatt to ryde, and a long gown, and a square capp with a tippet, when they come before ther ordynary, to the end the dew reverence may be done to them by other, acordyng to ther vocation to such ministry.

Item, That after the pistill and gospell ys red yn Englyshe yn the church, the same also to be forthwyth there red yn Welshe, aptly and distynctly.

Item, That no person withyn any of your severall paryshes, beyng notably knowen to be yn any malyce or rancor, or owt of the order of charyty with any of his neighbors, shall presume to come to receyve the holy communion, onless the same be fyrst openly reconcylyd before the hole congregation; and hys reconfilyacion taken, he may then be admyttyd to receyve that holy mystery.

Item, Wher heretofore yn sondrie churches yn my dyocs ther hath byn a mynyster callyd the Lady preste, receyving stypende of the paryshe; and now that office ys not necessary, I myndyng not to put any paryshe to more charytis, then heretofore they stode yn chardge with, consyderynge, that the teachyng of children is very necessary, do desyer and also requier all good chrystians in my diocs to pay such ther stypend, accustomed to be payd to the Lady preste, to such scolemaster, as shall be thought mete by me, with the assent of the paryshes; wherby idelness of yowth may be avoyded, and the same kept to learning, and browght upp yn love and fear of God, and knowlege of ther dewties toward the worlde.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 4.

Breve regium pro hospitalibus et scholis. Ex reg. Parker fol. 236. a.

ELIZABETH, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regina, fidei defensor, etc. praedilecto nobis ac reverendissimo in Christo patri ac domino, domino Matthaeo, miseratione divina Cant. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, salutem. Volentes certis de causis, quod barones nostri de scaccario per vos certioventur, quot et quae hospitalia, et scholae separatim fuerint infra dioec.

VOL. IV.

et jurisdictiones vestras Cant. tam in locis exemptis, quam non exemptis, et per quae nomina eadem hospitalia et scholae vocitentur, et nuncupentur, quibusque in comitat. et villis et parochiis illa et eorum quodlibet situentur et existant, ac quae hospitalia eorundem separatim fundantur et usitantur, et possessiones eorundem expenduntur, ad et pro subsidio et levamine pauperum; denique quae schola, aut scholae earundem

N nn

earundem, vel possessiones et reventiones inde vel earundem alicujus impraesentiarum sustentantur et manutinentur in dioec. vestra praedicta, tam in locis exemptis et non exemptis, una cum nominibus earundem, vel illius uniuscujusque; vobis mandamus, quod tam diligenti indagine scrutatis registris, et aliis archivis vestris praemissa tangentibus, quam aliis viis et modis, quibus maxime videritis expedire, quicquid inde inveneritis, praedictis baronibus nostris apud Westm. a die Paschae in unum mensem prox. futur. distincte, luculenter, et aperte, absque omissione aliqua, sub sigillo vestro autentico in pergamento fideliter script. et redact. certificetis, remittentes una cum dicto certificatorio vestro hoc breve. Teste Edwardo Saunders milite, apud Westm. duodecimo die Februarii, anno regni nostri quarto.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1561.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 4.

The archbishop's letter to Mr. Nevenson, commissary of the citie and dioces of Canterbury, about the same.

I COMMEND me unto you; and having received the queens majesties writte (the copy whereof I send you herewith) I will and require you for the better accomplishment of her majesties pleasure therein, that within one moneth at the furdest next after Easter, you do certifie me distinctly in writing, how many several hospitalls and schools ther be within my diocesis of Cant. and the peculiar jurisdiction within the same, and by what names the same hospitalls and scholes are called, according to the tenor and effect of the said writt. Thus trusting of your diligence, and that you will not faile herein, I wysh you well to fare. From my mannor of Lambeth the 21st day of March, M.D.LXI.

Convocatio cleri provinciae Ebor.

IN hac convocatione ad 24. diem mensis Aprilis continuata in domo capitulari infra ecclesiam metropolitancam Ebor. clerus unum gratuitum subsidium domino archiepiscopo concessit; uti patet ex reg. Tho. Young, archiep. Ebor.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1562.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 4.

Archiepiscopi Cant. certificatorium baronibus scaccarii de hospitalibus et scholis.
Ex reg. Parker fol. 237. b.

HONORABILIBUS viris dominis baronibus curiae scaccarii illustrissimae in Christo principis ac dominae nostrae, dominae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensoris, etc. et ejusdem curiae thesaurario, ac caeteris in eadem a consiliis, Matthaeus, permissione divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, salutem in Domino sempiternam, et fidem indubiam praesentibus adhiberi. Breve supradictae dominae nostrae reginae praesentibus annex. nuper cum ea, qua decuit, obedientia, reverentia, et subjectione humiliter recepimus exequend. cujus vigore pariter et auctoritate, habita diligenti inquisitione de et super contentis in brevi vestro praedicto, nomina omnium et singulorum hospitalium et scholarum infra dioec. et jurisdictionem nostras Cant. existentium, ac statum eorundem, quatenus per inquisitionem hujusmodi comperire et invenire potuimus, in scheda praesentibus annexa, describi fecimus et mandavimus. Et sic breve regium praedictum quantum in nobis fuit aut est, debite sumus executi. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth secundo die mensis Maii, anno Domini M.D.LXII, et nostrae consecrationis anno tertio.

Hospitale leproforum sancti Laurentii juxta Cantuar.

It was first founded by one Hugo, the second abbot of St. Augustine in Cant. and by the same first foundation ther was appointid a relief for leperous people. And afterward ther was appointed a woman under the name of a prioress, and certayne poor women called sisters, who ther placed by the abbot of St. Augustine for the time being, having no certainty of the number of the sisters, and they had the revenues of the house, which amounteth to xxxii. l. by the yere; and the same is taxed, and payeth the perpetual tenth. There be at this present only two poor sisters, and do receive only forty shillings by yere, paid by the farmer there. The hospitall is lamentable misused, by reason of a lease made by the prioress and sisters of the said hospitall to one Sir Christopher Hales, knight, which lease, as that is now said, is come to one Mr. Trappes of London.

Hospitale de Harbaldowne prope Cant.

It is of the foundation of the lord archbishop of Cant. and there be placed sixty poor people, men and women, and they have there corrodyes by the lord archbishop, for the tyme

ARCHIEP. CANT. CERTIFICAT. DE HOSPITALIBUS, etc. 231

tyme being, of perpetuall almes. Item, They be not charged with the taxation of the tenthes.

Hospitale sancti Iohannis Baptistae extra muros civitatis Cant.

It is of the like foundation and order, that the hospital of Harbaldown is. Referatur pro ulteriori declaratione ad reverendissimum.

Hospitale pauperum sacerdot. civitatis Cant.

It is of the foundation and patronage of the archdeacon of Cant. It was ordained for the relief of poor and indigente prestes, and to be releved of the revenues of the house. Ther is a master of the said hospitals, videlicet, one Mr. Bacon, a temporal man, who is not resident, nether maketh any dystribution. The hospitall house is marveyulously in ruyn and decaye. It is taxed to the perpetual tenth, and payeth xxii.s. x. d. ob.

Hospitale in civitate Cant. vocat. Maynerd's spittell.

It is of the foundation of the mayor and commynalty of the citie of Canterbury, and they be endowed by ther gifte with as much landes and old houses, as be worth by the yeare five markes, and not above. Ther be placed in the said hospitall seven poore people, men and women, by the mayor and commynalty, and have no other relief besides the said revenues, but only the said five markes, and the almes of the town. They be not taxed to the tenthe.

Hospitale de Estbridge Cantuar.

It is of the foundation of the lord archbishop of Cant. There is a master presented by the lord archbishop, and is instituted and inducted. It is appointed by the foundation, that the same shold relef poor people vagrante, that is to say, to have lodging and fire for a night, two, or three, at the good discretion of the master. Ther are competently furnished at this day eight beddes for poor men in one chamber, and three beddes in another chamber for women. And the people resortinge are releaved according to the foundation in good reasonable order. The said hospitall is taxed to the perpetual tenth, and payeth yerely xlvii.s. x. d. ob.

Hospitale sancti Bartholomaei prope villam Sandwich.

It is of the first foundation of one Sir John Sandwich, knight, and now of the foundation of the mayor and commynaltie of the town of Sandwich. And by the said mayor ther are placed, from time to time, the number of twelve brothers, and four sisters, who are releaved only of the revenues of the said hospitall, amounting to the yerely value by estimation of xl.l. The said hospitall is charitably used to God's glory, and the same surveyed, from tyme to time, by the mayor of Sandwich, and kept in godlie order. It is not taxed to the perpetuall tenth.

Hospitale infra villam Sandwic. vocatum Ellis hospitall.

It is first founded by one Thomas Ellis, and yt is now of the foundation and patronage of the mayor and jurates of the same. Ther be placed, for tyme of life, eight brothers, and four sisters, and they are releaved by almes, and the revenues of the said hospitalls, amounting to xii.l. by yere. The hospitall is very charitablie ordered, and served by the mayor. It is not taxed to the tenth.

Hospitale divi Iohannis, vocatum St. John's house of Sandwich.

This house is charitablie founded, maynteyned, and provided by the mayor and jurates, and they have no possessions, and there are releaved twelve poor people, etc.

Hospitale sancti Bartholomaei prope Hythe.

It is of the foundation of Hamond, bishop of Rochester, in the time of Edward the third. Ther ar according to the foundation thirteen poor people, who are releaved by almes, and by the revenues of the said hospital, amounting to the summe of viii.l. by yere, with the charges. The said hospitall is taxed to the tenth, and payeth vii.s. ii. d.

Hospitale sancti Iohannis de Hith.

It is only founded, ordered, and charitablie maynteyned by the jurates, and commonaltie of the said town, and their are kept, and dayly maynteyned eight beds for the needy poor people, and such as ar meymed in the warrs. The said hospital is endued with so much landes, as do amount to vi.l. by the yere. It is not taxed to the tenth.

Domus pauperum apud Wye, vocat. Le almehouse.

It is without any foundation, permitted, maynteyned, and upholden by Sir Thomas Kempe, knight, onlie upon his charitable zeal; and ther do live certain poor people of almes, etc. It is not charged with any tenth.

Domus leproforum apud Bobbinge.

It is of the gyft and foundation of George Clyfforde, Gent. of charitie. Ther ar harbored none but poor lazer people, who beg for their leving. It is not charged with any tenth.

The declaration of scholes within the dioc. of Canterbury. Ex reg. Parker fol. 239. a.

Furst, Ther is at Canturbury, within the metropolitican church ther, a grammer schoole by the queen's majesties foundation. The scholemaster hath by the yere xx.l. the usher x.l. It is not taxed nor charged with the tenths.

Item, Ther is at Wye a grammer schole, of the queen's majesties foundation, newlie erected, videlicet, fithen the dyssolution of the colledge there, and the scholemaster receiveth yerely xiii.l. vi.s. viii.d. It is not charged with the tenth.

Item,

Item, Ther is a schole erected by the charge of the mayor and commynaltie of the town of Maydstone, and have purchased of the king certayne landes, to that intent, amounting to ix.l. vi.s. viii.d. It is not charged with the tenth.

Item, Ther is a grammer schole at Tenter-den, erected by certayne parishoners ther, who have of charity enfeofed certain landes to the value of x.l. by the yere. And by the feoffment, the scholemaster is to be elected by the vicar ther for the tyme being. It is not charged with the tenth.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1562.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 4.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. per breve reginae Elizabethae in domo capitulari ecclesiae S. Pauli London. 12. die mensis Januarii congregata.

Ex regist. convoc.

DIE convocationis tempus antevertente, reverendissimus vices suas commisit Thomae Yale, vicario in spiritualibus generali, Roberto Weston, curiae Cant. officiali, Henrico Jones, et Valentino Dale, LL. doctoribus, conjunctim et divisim, ad interessendum vice et nomine suis in sacra synodo: quorum secundus 12. die mensis Januarii in domo capitulari ecclesiae S. Pauli London. judicialiter, et pro tribunali sedens, convocationem ad diem crastinum continuavit.

Quo die reverendissimus pro more solito in ecclesiam cathedr. S. P. London. introducebatur, ubi post litaniam, hymnumque "Veni creator," in sermone vulgari decantatum, mag. Willelmus Daye concionem Latinam habuit; qua finita, celebrata fuit sacra communio. Deinde in domo capitulari exhibebatur reverendissimo, ab episcopo London. certificatorium super executione mandati, et dominus archiepiscopus Cantuar. brevem quandam orationem eloquentiae plenam habuit ad patres et clerum, per quam, inter alia, opportunitatem reformatarum rerum in ecclesia Anglicana jam oblatam esse aperuit, ac propensos animos tam illustrissimae dominae reginae, quam aliorum magnatum hujus regni, ad hujusmodi reformationem habendam declaravit; hortando, et mandando praelatis, et clero inferioris domus, quatenus ad conventus sui locum sese conferentes, unum virum gravem, doctum, et peritum de gremio suo provideant, et eligant in prolocutorem, sive referendarium; commendans illis maxime decanum ecclesiae cathedr. D. P. London. Alex. Nowell, quem 16. die seq. hujus mensis sibi exhiberi et praesentari jussit.

Quo die in domo capitulari ecclesiae S. P. London. reverendissimus alta et intelligibili voce litaniam dixit, una cum collectis assuetis, ac oratione in synodo provinciali dicenda noviter (ut apparuit) edita, respondentibus aliis episcopis, ac praelatis, et clero, ac populo astantibus. Finitis precibus, ac clero ad locum conventus sui se conferente, praefatus reverendissimus pro tribunali sedens, post interval- lum temporis, praelatos et clerum domus inferioris ad se accersiri jussit, qui ei exhiberi, et sisti fecerunt Alex. Nowell in prolocutorem electum, quem Gabr. Goodman, decanus Westmon. et Thomas Sampson, decanus Oxon. medium inter se ductum, vice totius cleri, prae-missa oratione brevi Latina ab eodem mag. Gabriele Goodman, personam electam, ac ejus virtutes, et animi dotes complectente, exhibuerunt. Qua finita, idem prolocutor per aliam orationem non inelegantem, se variis de causis ad hujusmodi munus obeundum inidoneum esse declaravit. Sed tandem ne opus tam pium efugere videatur, hujusmodi provinciam in se lubens acceptare promisit. Et tunc habito inter dictum reverendissimum patrem et confratres suos tractatu de idoneitate dicti prolocutoris, omnes unanimiter et concorditer ipsum mag. Nowell ad dictum officium prolocutoris obeundum maxime idoneum esse asseruerunt, et affirmarunt. Unde reverendissimus, cum patrum unanimi consensu, electionem hujusmodi de persona tam digni viri factam venusta oratione approbavit et confirmavit. Et tunc dimisso clero inferioris domus, reverendissimus rogavit patres, quod unusquisque eorum citra prox. sessionem excogitare velit ea, quae in eorum separalibus dioecesibus reformatione indigeant, ac in prox. sessione in ecclesia collegiata D. Petri Westm. habenda proponere dignaretur.

Fuit haec die 19. mensis Januarii, ubi dictis primitus, et publice recitatis precibus, decanus ecclesiae collegiatae D. Petri Westm. protestationem vice sua ac totius capituli exhibuit de privilegiis ecclesiae suae; cui reverendissimus pro se et toto clero provinciae suae respondit, quod licet pro maturiori et feliciori expeditione negotiorum, etc. ut antea. Et tunc habita inter reverendissimum et episcopos communicatione, sive disputatione, de quibusdam articulis ad christianam fidem facientibus, tandem dictus reverendissimus accersiri jussit ad se prolocutorem domus inferioris, qui cum sex aliis proposuit et asseruit: quod quidam de dicta domo exhibuerant quasdam diversas schedas de rebus reformatandis per eos respective excogitatas, et in scripta redactas; quae quidem schedae de communi consensu traditae sunt quibusdam viris gravioribus et doctioribus de coetu dictae domus inferioris ad hoc electis, perspiciendae et considerandae. Quibus sic electis (ut asseruit) assignatum est, ut hujusmodi schedas in capitula redigant, ac in proxima sessione exhibeant coram eodem prolocutore. Et ulterius proposuit, quod articuli in synodo Londinensi tempore nuper regis Edwardi sexti editi, traditi sint quibusdam aliis viris ex coetu dictae domus inferioris ad hoc etiam electis, ut eos diligenter perspiciant, examinent, et considerent, ac prout eis visum fuerit, corrigant, et reforment, ac in proxima sessione etiam exhibeant. Et tunc reverendissimus huiusmodi negotia per dictum prolocutorem, et clerum incepta approbavit, ac in eisdem erga prox. sessionem juxta eorum determinationem procedere voluit et mandavit.

De hisce articulis sacrosanctam Christi religionem concernentibus 20, 22, 25, 27. diebus mensis Januarii tam in ecclesia collegiata D. Petri Westm. quam in ecclesiae D. Pauli London. domo capitulari praemissis semper precibus, tractatum fuit, donec 29. die ejusdem mensis tandem super quibusdam articulis orthodoxae fidei inter episcopos, quorum nomina eis subscribuntur, unanimiter convenit: quorum quidam articulorum tenores sequuntur, et sunt tales, Archiepisc. Cant.

MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1562.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 5.

Articuli, de quibus convenit inter archiepiscopos, et episcopos utriusque provinciae, et clerum universum in synodo Londinensi, anno M.D.LXII. secundum computationem ecclesiae Auglicanae, ad tollendam opinionum dissentionem, et consensum in vera religione firmandum. Editi auctoritate serenissimae reginae.

I. De fide in sacrosanctam Trinitatem.

UNUS est vivus, et verus Deus, aeternus, incorporeus, impartibilis, impassibilis, immensae potentiae, sapientiae, ac bonitatis, creator, et conservator omnium, tum visibilium, tum invisibilium. Et in unitate hujus divinae naturae tres sunt personae ejusdem essentiae, potentiae, ac aeternitatis; Pater, Filius, et Spiritus Sanctus.

II. De verbo, sive filio Dei, qui verus homo factus est.

Filius, qui est verbum Patris, ab aeterno a Patre genitus, verus et aeternus Deus, ac Patri consubstantialis, in utero beatae virginis, ex illius substantia naturam humanam assumpsit; ita ut duae naturae, divina et humana, integre atque perfecte unitate personae fuerint inseparabiliter conjunctae, ex quibus est unus Christus, verus Deus et verus homo, qui vere passus est, crucifixus, mortuus, et sepultus, ut Patrem nobis reconciliaret, essetque hostia, non tantum pro culpa originis, verum etiam pro omnibus actualibus hominum peccatis.

III. De descensu Christi ad inferos.

Quemadmodum Christus pro nobis mortuus est, et sepultus, ita etiam credendus ad inferos descendisse.

IV. De resurrectione Christi.

Christus vere a mortuis resurrexit, suumque corpus cum carne, ossibus, omnibusque ad integritatem humanae naturae pertinentibus, recepit; cum quibus in caelum ascendit, ibique residet, quoad extremo die ad judicandos homines reversurus sit.

V. De Spiritu Sancto.

Spiritus Sanctus a Patre et Filio procedens ejusdem est cum Patre, et Filio essentiae, majestatis et gloriae, verus ac aeternus Deus.

VI. De divinis scripturis, quod sufficiant ad salutem.

Scriptura sacra continet omnia, quae ad salutem sunt necessaria, ita ut, quicquid in ea

VOL. IV.

nec legitur, neque inde probari potest, non sit a quoquam exigendum, ut tanquam articulus fidei credatur, aut ad salutis necessitatem requiri putetur.

Sacrae scripturae nomine, eos canonicos libros Veteris, et Novi Testamenti intelligimus, de quorum auctoritate in ecclesia nunquam dubitatum est.

De nominibus, et numero librorum sacrae canonicae scripturae Veteris Testamenti.

Genesis.	Secundus liber Paralipomen.
Exodus.	Primus liber Esdrae.
Leviticus.	Secundus liber Esdrae.
Numeri.	Liber Hester.
Duteronomium.	Liber Job.
Josuae.	Psalmi.
Judicum.	Proverbia.
Ruth.	Ecclesiastes vel Con-
Prior liber Samuelis.	cionator.
Secundus liber Samuelis.	Cantica Solomonis.
Prior liber Regum.	4. Prophetiae majores.
Secundus liber Regum.	12. Prophetiae minores.
Prior liber Paralipom.

Alios autem libros (ut ait Hieronymus) legit quidem ecclesia, ad exempla vitae, et formandos mores; illos tamen ad dogmata confirmanda non adhibet, ut sunt:

Tertius liber Esdrae.	Historiae Susannae,
Quartus liber Esdrae.	De Bel et Dracone.
Liber Tobiae.	Oratio Manasses.
Liber Judith.	Prior liber Machabeorum.
Reliquum libri Hester.	Secundus liber Machabeorum.
Liber Sapientiae.
Liber Jesu filii Sirach.
Baruch propheta.
Canticum trium puerorum.

Novi Testamenti omnes libros (ut vulgo recepti sunt) recipimus, et habemus pro canonicis.

VII. De Veteri Testamento.

Testamentum Vetus Novo contrarium non est, quandoquidem tam in Veteri, quam in Novo, per Christum, qui unicus est mediator Dei, et hominum, Deus et homo, aeterna vita hu-

O o o mano

mano generi est proposita. Quare male sentiunt, qui veteres tantum in promissiones temporarias sperasse consingunt. Quanquam lex a Deo data per Moysen (quoad ceremonias et ritus) christianos non astringat, neque civilia ejus praecepta in aliqua republica necessario recipi debeant; nihilominus tamen ab obedientia mandatorum, quae moralia vocantur, nullus (quantumvis christianus) est solutus.

VIII. De tribus symbolis.

Symbola tria Nicaenum, Athanasii, et quod vulgo Apostolorum appellatur, omnino recipienda sunt, et credenda, nam firmissimis scripturarum testimoniis probari possunt.

IX. De peccato originali.

Peccatum originis non est (ut fabulantur Pelagiani) in imitatione Adami situm, sed est vitium, et depravatio naturae cujuslibet hominis ex Adamo naturaliter propagati; qua fit, ut ab originali justitia quam longissime distet, ad malum sua natura propendeat, et caro semper adversus spiritum concupiscat, unde in unoquoque nascentium, iram Dei, atque damnationem meretur. Manet etiam in renatis haec naturae depravatio; qua fit ut affectus carnis, Graece φρόνημα σαρκός (quod alii sapientiam, alii sensum, alii affectum, alii studium carnis interpretantur) legi Dei non subjiciatur. Et quanquam renatis et credentibus, nulla propter Christum est condemnatio; peccati tamen in sese rationem habere concupiscentiam, fatetur apostolus.

X. De libero arbitrio.

Ea est hominis, post lapsum Adae, conditio, ut sese naturalibus suis viribus, et bonis operibus, ad fidem, et invocationem Dei convertere, ac praeparare non possit. Quare absque gratia Dei, quae per Christum est, nos praeviente, ut velimus, et cooperante, dum volumus, ad pietatis opera facienda, quae Deo grata sunt, et accepta, nihil valemus.

XI. De hominis justificatione.

Tantum propter meritum Domini, ac servatoris nostri Jesu Christi, per fidem, non propter opera, et merita nostra, justi coram Deo reputamur. Quare sola fide nos justificari doctrina est saluberrima, ac consolationis plenissima, ut in homilia de justificatione hominis, fufius explicatur.

XII. De bonis operibus.

Bona opera, quae sunt fructus fidei, et justificatos sequuntur, quanquam peccata nostra expiare, et divini judicii severitatem ferre non possunt; Deo tamen grata sunt et accepta in Christo, atque ex vera et viva fide necessario profluunt; ut plane ex illis, aequae fides viva cognosci possit, atque arbor ex fructu judicari.

XIII. De operibus ante justificationem.

Opera, quae fiunt ante gratiam Christi, et Spiritus ejus afflatum, cum ex fide Jesu Christi non prodeant, minime Deo grata sunt, neque gratiam (ut multi vocant) de congruo merentur.

Immo cum non sunt facta, ut Deus illa fieri voluit et praecepit, peccati rationem habere non dubitamus.

XIV. De operibus supererogationis.

Opera, quae supererogationis appellant, non possunt sine arrogantia, et impietate praedicari. Nam illis declarant homines, non tantum se Deo reddere, quae tenentur, sed plus in ejus gratiam facere, quam deberent; cum aperte Christus dicat: Cum feceritis omnia, quaecunque praecepta sunt vobis, dicite, servi inutiles sumus.

XV. De Christo, qui solus est sine peccato.

Christus in nostrae naturae veritate per omnia similis factus est nobis, excepto peccato, a quo prorsus erat immunis tum in carne, tum in spiritu. Venit ut agnus, absque macula, qui mundi peccata per immolationem sui semel factam, tolleretur, et peccatum (ut inquit Johannes) in eo non erat; sed nos reliqui etiam baptizati, et in Christo regenerati, in multis tamen offendimus omnes. Et si dixerimus, quia peccatum non habemus, nos ipsos seducimus, et veritas in nobis non est.

XVI. De peccato post baptismum.

Non omne peccatum mortale post baptismum voluntarie perpetratum, est peccatum in Spiritum Sanctum, et irremissibile. Proinde lapsis a baptismo in peccata locus poenitentiae non est negandus: post acceptum Spiritum Sanctum possumus a gratia data recedere, atque peccare, denuoque per gratiam Dei resurgere, ac resipiscere; ideoque illi damnandi sunt, qui se, quam diu hic vivant, amplius non posse peccare affirmant, aut vere resipiscentibus veniae locum denegant.

XVII. De praedestinatione et electione.

Praedestinatio ad vitam, est aeternum Dei propositum, quo ante jacta mundi fundamenta, suo consilio, nobis quidem occulto constanter decrevit, eos, quos in Christo elegit ex hominum genere, a maledicto et exitio liberare, atque, ut vasa in honorem efficta, per Christum, ad aeternam salutem adducere. Unde qui tam praeclaro Dei beneficio sunt donati, illi, Spiritu ejus opportuno tempore operante secundum propositum ejus, vocantur, vocationi per gratiam parent, justificantur gratis, adoptantur in filios Dei, unigeniti ejus Jesu Christi imagini efficiuntur conformes, in bonis operibus sancte ambulant, et demum ex Dei misericordia pertingunt ad sempiternam felicitatem.

Quemadmodum praedestinationis et electionis nostrae in Christo pia consideratio, dulcis, suavis, et ineffabilis consolationis plena est, vere piis, et his, qui sentiunt in se vim Spiritus Christi, facta carnis, et membra, quae adhuc sunt super terram, mortificantem, animumque ad caelestia, et superna rapientem; tum quia fidem nostram de aeterna salute consequenda per Christum plurimum stabilit, atque confirmat, tum quia amorem nostrum in Deum vehementer accendit. Ita hominibus curiosis, carnalibus, et Spiritu Christi destitutis, ob oculos perpetuo versari praedestinationis Dei sententiam, perniciosissimum est praecipitium, unde illos diabolus protrudit, vel in desperationem, vel in aequae perniciosam impurissimae vitae securitatem: deinde promissiones divinas sic amplecti oportet, ut nobis in sacris literis generaliter propositae sunt; et Dei voluntas in nostris actionibus ea sequenda est, quam in verbo Dei habemus diferte revelatam.

XVIII. De speranda aeterna salute tantum in nomine Christi.

Sunt et illi anathematizandi, qui dicere audent, unumquemque in lege aut secta quam proficitur esse servandum, modo juxta illam, et lumen naturae accurate vixerit; cum sacrae literae tantum Jesu Christi nomen praedicent, in quo salvos fieri homines oporteat.

XIX. De ecclesia.

Ecclesia Christi visibilis est coetus fidelium, in quo verbum Dei purum praedicatur, et sacramenta, quoad ea, quae necessario exigantur, juxta Christi institutum recte administrantur. Sicut erravit ecclesia Hierosolymitana, Alexandrina, et Antiochena; ita et erravit ecclesia Romana, non solum quoad agenda, et caeremoniarum ritus, verum in his etiam, quae credenda sunt.

XX. De ecclesiae auctoritate.

Habet ecclesia ritus five caeremonias statuendi jus, et in fidei controversiis auctoritatem; quamvis ecclesiae non licet quicquam instituere, quod verbo Dei scripto adversetur; nec unum scripturae locum sic exponere potest, ut alteri contradicat. Quare licet ecclesia sit divinorum librorum testis, et conservatrix; attamen ut adversus eos nihil decernere, ita praeter illos, nihil credendum de necessitate salutis debet obtrudere.

XXI. De auctoritate conciliorum generalium.

Generalia concilia sine jussu, et voluntate principum congregari non possunt, et ubi convenerint, quia ex hominibus constant, qui non omnes Spiritu, et verbo Dei reguntur, et errare possunt, et interdum errant etiam in his, quae ad Deum pertinent; ideoque quae ab illis instituuntur, ut ad salutem necessaria, neque robur habent, neque auctoritatem, nisi ostendi possint e sacris literis esse desumpta.

XXII. De purgatorio.

Doctrina Romanensium de purgatorio, de indulgentiis, de veneratione, et adoratione tum imaginum, tum reliquiarum, necnon de invocatione sanctorum, res est inutilis, inaniter conficta, et nullis scripturarum testimoniis innitur: imo verbo Dei contradicit.

XXIII. De ministrando in ecclesia.

Non licet cuiquam sumere sibi munus publice praedicandi, aut administrandi sacramenta in ecclesia, nisi prius fuerit ad haec obeunda legitime vocatus et missus. Atque illos le-gitime vocatos et missos existimare debemus, qui per homines, quibus potestas vocandi ministrorum, atque mittendi in vineam Domini publice concessa est in ecclesia, cooptati fuerint, et asciti in hoc opus.

XXIV. De loquendo in ecclesia lingua, quam populus intelligit.

Lingua populo non intellecta, publicas in ecclesia preces peragere, aut sacramenta administrare, verbo Dei, et primitivae ecclesiae consuetudini plane repugnat.

XXV. De sacramentis.

Sacramenta a Christo instituta, non tantum sunt notae professionis christianorum, sed certa quaedam potius testimonia, et efficacia signa gratiae atque bonae in nos voluntatis Dei, per quae invisibiliter ipse in nos operatur, nostramque fidem in se non solum excitat, verum etiam confirmat.

Duo a Christo Domino nostro in evangelio instituta sunt sacramenta; scilicet baptisumus, et coena Domini.

Quinque illa vulgo nominata sacramenta; scilicet confirmatio, poenitentia, ordo, matrimonium, et extrema unctio, pro sacramentis evangelicis habenda non sunt, ut quae partim a prava apostolorum imitatione profluxerunt, partim vitae status sunt in scripturis quidem probati; sed sacramentorum eandem cum baptismo, et coena Domini rationem non habentes, ut quae signum aliquod visibile, seu caeremoniam, a Deo institutum, non habeant.

Sacramenta non in hoc instituta sunt a Christo, ut spectarentur, aut circumferrentur, sed ut rite illis uteremur; et in his duntaxat, qui digni percipiunt, salutarem habent effectum; qui vero indigne percipiunt, damnationem (ut inquit Paulus) sibiipsis acquirunt.

XXVI. De vi institutionum divinarum, quod eam non tollat malitia ministrorum.

Quamvis in ecclesia visibili, bonis mali semper sint admixti, atque interdum ministerio verbi, et sacramentorum administrationi praesint; tamen cum non suo, sed Christi nomine agant, ejusque mandato, et auctoritate ministrent, illorum ministerio uti licet, cum in verbo Dei audiendo, tum in sacramentis percipiendis. Neque per illorum malitiam effectus institutorum Christi tollitur, aut gratia donorum Dei minuitur, quoad eos, qui fide, et rite sibi oblata percipiunt, quae propter institutionem Christi, et promissionem efficacia sunt, licet per malos administrentur.

Ad ecclesiae tamen disciplinam pertinet, ut in malos ministros inquiratur, accusenturque ab his, qui eorum flagitia noverint, atque tandem justo convicti judicio deponantur.

XXVII. De baptismo.

Baptisumus non est tantum professionis signum, ac discriminis nota, qua christiani a non christianis discernantur; sed etiam est signum regenerationis, per quod, tanquam per instrumentum, recte baptismum suscipientes, ecclesiae inferuntur, tur, promissiones de remissione peccatorum, atque adoptione nostra in filios Dei per Spiritum Sanctum visibiliter obsignantur, fides confirmatur, et vi divinae invocationis gratia augetur.

Baptismus parvulorum omnino in ecclesia retinendus est, ut qui cum Christi institutione optime congruat.

XXVIII. De coena Domini.

Coena Domini non est tantum signum mutuae benevolentiae christianorum inter sese, verum potius est sacramentum nostrae per mortem Christi redemptionis.

Atque adeo rite, digne, et cum fide sumentibus, panis, quem frangimus, est communicatio corporis Christi; similiter poculum benedictionis est communicatio sanguinis Christi.

Panis et vini transubstantiatio in eucharistia ex sacris literis probari non potest; sed apertis scripturae verbis adversatur, sacramenti naturam evertit, et multarum superstitionum dedit occasionem.

Corpus Christi datur, accipitur, et manducatur in coena, tantum caelesti, et spiritali ratione. Medium autem, quo corpus Christi accipitur, et manducatur in coena, fides est.

Sacramentum eucharistiae ex institutione Christi non servabatur, circumferebatur, elevabatur, nec adorabatur.

XXIX. De impiis, qui Christi corpus non manducant in usu eucharistiae.

Impii, et fide viva destituti, licet carnaliter, et visibiliter (ut Augustinus loquitur) corporis, et sanguinis Christi sacramentum dentibus premant; nullo tamen modo Christi participes efficiuntur. Sed potius tantae rei sacramentum, seu symbolum ad iudicium sibi manducant et bibunt.

XXX. De utraque specie.

Calix Domini laicis non est denegandus; utraque enim pars dominici sacramenti, ex Christi institutione, et praecepto, omnibus christianis ex aequo administrari debet.

XXXI. De unica Christi oblatione in cruce perfecta.

Oblatio Christi semel facta, perfecta est redemptio, propitiatio, et satisfactio pro omnibus peccatis totius mundi, tam originalibus, quam actualibus. Neque praeter illam unicam, est ulla alia pro peccatis expiatio, unde missarum sacrificia, quibus, vulgo dicebatur, sacerdotem offerre Christum in remissionem poenae, aut culpae, pro vivis et defunctis, blasphema figmenta sunt, et perniciosae imposturae.

XXXII. De conjugio sacerdotum.

Episcopis, presbyteris, et diaconis nullo mandato divino praeceptum est, ut aut coelibatum voveant, aut a matrimonio abstineant. Licet igitur etiam illis, ut caeteris omnibus christianis, ubi hoc ad pietatem magis facere judicaverint, pro suo arbitratu matrimonium contrahere.

XXXIII. De excommunicatis vitandis.

Qui per publicam ecclesiae denunciationem rite ab unitate ecclesiae praecisus est, et excommunicatus, is ab universa fidelium multitudine (donec per poenitentiam publice reconciliatus fuerit arbitrio iudicis competentis) habendus est tanquam ethnicus et publicanus.

XXXIV. De traditionibus ecclesiasticis.

Traditiones atque ceremonias easdem, non omnino necessarium est esse ubique, aut prorsus consimiles. Nam ut variae semper fuerunt, et mutari possunt, pro regionum, temporum, et morum diversitate, modo nihil contra verbum Dei instituitur.

Traditiones et ceremonias ecclesiasticas, quae cum verbo Dei non pugnant, et sunt auctoritate publica institutae, atque probatae, quisquis privato consilio volens, et data opera, publice violaverit, is, ut qui peccat in publicum ordinem ecclesiae, quique laedit auctoritatem magistratus, et qui infirmorum fratrum conscientias vulnerat, publice, ut caeteri timeant, arguendus est.

Quaelibet ecclesia particularis, five nationalis auctoritatem habet instituendi, mutandi, aut abrogandi ceremonias, aut ritus ecclesiasticos, humana tantum auctoritate institutos, modo omnia ad aedificationem fiant.

XXXV. De homiliis.

Tomus secundus homiliarum, quarum singulos titulos huic articulo subjunximus, continet piam et salutarem doctrinam, et his temporibus necessariam, non minus quam prior tomus homiliarum, quae editae sunt tempore Edwardi sexti; itaque eas in ecclesiis per ministros diligenter, et clare, ut a populo intelligi possint, recitandas esse judicavimus.

De nominibus homiliarum.

Of the right use of the church.	tion of God's word.
Against peril of idolatry.	Of alms doing.
Of repairing and keeping clean of churches.	Of the nativity of Christ.
Of good works.	Of the passion of Christ.
First of fasting.	Of the resurrection of Christ.
Against gluttony, and drunkenness.	Of the worthy receiving of the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ.
Against excess of apparel.	Of the gifts of the Holy Ghost.
Of prayer.	For the Rogation days.
Of the place and time of prayer.	Of the state of matrimony.
That common prayers and sacraments ought to be ministred in a known tongue.	Of repentance.
Of the reverend estimation of God's word.	Against idleness.
	Against rebellion.

XXXVI. De episcoporum et ministrorum consecratione.

Libellus de consecratione archiepiscoporum, et episcoporum, et de ordinatione presbyterorum,

et et diaconorum, editus nuper temporibus Edwardi VI. et auctoritate parlamenti illis ipsis temporibus confirmatus, omnia ad ejusmodi consecrationem, et ordinationem necessaria continet, et nihil habet, quod ex se fit, aut superstitiosum, aut impium; itaque quicumque juxta ritus illius libri consecrati, aut ordinati sunt, ab anno secundo praedicto regis Edwardi, usque ad hoc tempus, aut in posterum juxta eosdem ritus consecrabuntur, aut ordinabuntur, rite, atque ordinate, et legitime statuimus esse, et fore consecratos et ordinatos.

XXXVII. De civilibus magistratibus.

Regia majestas in hoc Angliae regno, ac caeteris ejus dominiis summam habet potestatem, ad quam omnium statuum hujus regni, sive illi ecclesiastici sint, sive civiles, in omnibus causis suprema gubernatio pertinet, et nulli externae jurisdictioni est subiecta, nec esse debet.

Cum regiae majestati summam gubernationem tribuimus, quibus titulis intelligimus, animos quorundam calumniatorum offendi, non damus regibus nostris, aut verbi Dei, aut sacramentorum administrationem; quod etiam inunctiones ab Elizabetha, regina nostra, nuper editae, apertissime testantur; sed eam tantum praerogativam, quam in sacris scripturis a Deo ipso omnibus piis principibus videmus semper fuisse attributam; hoc est, ut omnes status, atque ordines fidei suae a Deo commissos, sive illi ecclesiastici sint, sive civiles, in officio contineant, et contumaces, et delinquentes gladio civili coerceant.

Romanus pontifex nullam habet jurisdictionem in hoc regno Angliae.

Leges regni possunt christianos propter capitalia, et gravia crimina morte punire.

Christianis licet, ex mandato magistratus, arma portare, et justa bella administrare.

XXXVIII. De illicita bonorum communicatione.

Facultates et bona christianorum non sunt communia, quoad jus et possessionem, ut quidem Anabaptistae falso jactant; debet tamen quisque de his, quae possidet, pro facultatum ratione pauperibus eleemosynas benigne distribuere.

XXXIX. De jurejurando.

Quemadmodum juramentum vanum, et temerarium a Domino nostro Jesu Christo, et apostolo ejus Jacobo, christianis hominibus interdictum esse fatemur; ita christianorum religionem minime prohibere censemus, quin jubente magistratu in causa fidei, et charitatis, jurare liceat; modo id fiat juxta prophetarum doctrinam, in justitia, in judicio, et veritate.

Hos articulos fidei christianae, continentes in universum 19. paginas, in autographo, quod asservatur apud reverendissimum in Christo patrem D. Matthaeum, Cant. archiepiscopum; totius Angliae primatem et metropolitanum; et in prima continet articulos 4. et lineas 34. etc. nos archiepiscopi, et episcopi utriusque provinciae regni Angliae, in sacra synodo provinciali legitime congregati, recipimus et profite-mur, et ut veros, atque orthodoxos, manuum nostrarum subscriptionibus approbamus 29. die mensis Jan. A. D. secundum computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae, M.D.LXII. et illustrissimae principis Elizabethae — quinto.

VOL. IV.

Matthaeus Cantuar.	Thomas Ebor.
Edmund. London.	Ja. Duresme.
Robert. Winton.	Willelmus Cestren-
W. Cicestre.	sis.
Jo. Hereford.
Richardus Elien.
Edwinus Wigorn.
Rolandus Bangor.
Nicolaus Lincoln.
Jo. Sarisburien.
R. Meneven.
Edmundus Roffen.
Gilb. Bathon. et Wellen.
Thomas Covent. et Lichfield.
W. Exon.
Johannes Norwicen.
Edmund. Petriburgen.
Thomas Assaphen.
Rich. Gloucestren.

Hi, quorum nomina sequuntur, propriis manibus subscripserunt libello articulorum a reverendissimo archiepiscopo Cant. et episcopis provinciae Cant. ad inferiorem domum convocationis transmissio 5. Februarii, M.D.LXII.

Stephanus Nevinsón, procurat. cleri Cant. subscripsi propria manu.

Richardus Besely scripsi propria manu, procurat. cleri Cant.

Johannes Bridgwater manu propria scripsi.

Johannes Calverley manu propria scripsi, unus procur. cleri Roffen. dioec.

Thomas Watts, procurat. capituli sancti Pauli London. et archid. Midd.

Jo. Mulleyns, archid. London. ac unus procur. cleri dioec. ejusdem.

Thomas Colus, archid. Essexiae.

Johannes Pullan, archid. Colcestriae.

David Kempe, archid. de S. Albano.

Jacobus Catthill, procur. cleri London. et Oxon. capituli.

Gulielmus Latimerus, arch. Westm. et decanus Petriburg. et procurator capituli ejusdem ecclesiae.

Richardus Reeve, procur. capituli Westm.

Gabriel Goodman, decanus Westmon.

Johannes Watson, arch. Surrey.

Johannes Ebden, procurat. Winton.

Ra. Cottrell, procurat. Surr.

Thomas Lancaster, thesaurarius Surren.

Richardus Chandler, archid. Surrensis.

Jacobus Procter, procur. cleri Surrensis.

Hugo Turnbull, decanus Cicestr.

Willelmus Bradbridge, cancellarius Cicestr.

P p p Thomas

Thomas Spenser, archid. Cicestr.
 Edmundus Westonus, archidiac. Lewen.
 Percivallus Wiburn, procurat. ecclesiae cathedralis Roffen.
 Johannes Cottrel, archidiac. Wellen.
 Richardus Guin, procurat. cleri Bristol.
 Jacobus Bond, archidiac. Bathon.
 Justinianus Lancastrie, arch. Taunton.
 Gualterus Boverus, procurat. cleri Somersettenf.
 Thomas Corebaeus, procur. cleri Cicestren.
 Stephanus Gesley, archidiaconus Winton.
 Robertus Longher, archid. Totton. et procurat. cleri Exon.
 Richardus Tremayne, procurat. cleri Exon.
 Thomas White, arch. Berks.
 Robertus Wisdom, arch. Elien.
 Gregorius Garthe, procurat. pro cap. Ely.
 Johannes Bell, et Thomas Ithell, pro clero dioec. Elien. procuratores.
 Thomas Sampson, dec. ecclesiae Christi Oxon.
 Johannes Salisbury, decanus Norwicen.
 Tho. Roberts, procurator cleri Norwicen.
 Johannes Walkerus, procur. cleri Suffol.
 James Lawrence, archidiac. Wilts.
 Johannes Aelinerus, archidiac. Lincoln.
 Will. Todd, archidiac. Bedford.
 Johannes Longlond, archidiac. Buckingham.
 Robert Beaumont, archidiac. Huntingdon.
 Thomas Godwin, proc. cleri Lincoln.
 Johannes Kenall, archid. Oxon. et unus procur. cleri Oxon.
 Guido Geton, archidiac. Glocestren.
 Georgius Canage, procurat. cleri Glocestr.
 Antonius Lemton, procurat. cleri Petriburg. et pro archidiac. Northampt.
 Willelmus Fluyd, procurat. cleri Petriburg.
 Johannes Pedder, decanus ecclesiae Wigorn.
 Robertus Duys, procurat. cleri Wigorn.
 Tho. Ibitson, procurat. ejusdem.
 Laurentius Nowell, decanus ecclesiae cath. Lycheffield.
 Thomas Leverus, archid. Covent.
 Arthurus Sault, proc. decani et capituli ecclesiae cath. Glouc.
 Robertus Weston, proc. cleri Coven. et Lichfield dioec.
 Thomas Byckley, proc. cleri Coven. et Lichfield. dioec.
 Richardus Walker, archidiac. Stafford. et Derby.
 Rob. Croleus, archidiac. Hereford.
 Rob. Grinsell, archid. Salop. et proc. capituli et cleri Hereford.
 Nico. Smith, procur. cleri Hereford.
 Tho. Linett, praecentor Meneven. idem Linett pro capitulo et clero.
 Jo. Pratt, archidiac. Meneven.
 Jo. Butler, archidiac. Cardigan.
 Wa. Jones, archidiac. Brecon.
 Rob. Pownde, unus pro clero Brecks.
 Gulielmus Constantine, procurat. cleri Meneven.
 Hugo Evans, dec. Assaphen.
 Richardus Rogers, arch. Assaph.
 Johannes Price, procur. cleri Assav.

Edmund Merick, archid. Bangor. per me Hugonem Morgan, procurat. cleri dioec. Bangor.

Nicolaus Robinson, arch. Merion.
 Andreas Pearson, proc. cleri Landaven. dioec. subscripsi.

Gulielmus Daye, praepos. collegii regii de Eton.

Johannes Hythus, proc. cleri Oxon.
 Gulielmus Lueson, archidiac. Carmar.

Thomas Powell, proc. cleri Assap.

Thomas Bolt, archidiac. Salop.

Thomas Bolt, procurat. capituli ecclesiae cathedralis Lincoln.

Robert Hues, proc. capituli Assap.

Michael Remiger, proc. capituli Wintonien.

Andreas Perne, decanus Elienf.

Franciscus Mallet, decan. Lincoln. per procurat.

Richardus Barber, archidiac. Leicestriae.

Robertus Longher, proc. Henrici Squire, archid. Barum.

Gregorius Dodds, dec. Exon. procur. ecclesiae cath. ibid. et proc. Joh. Smyth, arch. Landaven.

Johannes Ebden, Will. Evance, Andreas Pearson, John Price, Thomas Pavell, Edmund Merick, Nicolas Robynson, per me Rob. Pownde, per Hugonem Morgan.

Richardus Barbar, nomine procuratorio magistri Francisci Mallet, decani ecclesiae cathedralis Lincoln. personaliter subscribo.

Et etiam nomine meo subscribo Robert Evance.

Ista subscriptio facta est ab omnibus sub hac protestatione, quod nihil statuunt in praedictum cujusque senatusconsult. sed tantum supplicem libellum, petitiones suas continentem, humiliter offerunt.

Ex regist. convoc.

His ita gestis, eodem die nonnulli episcopi electi fuerunt ad excogitanda quaedam capitula de disciplina in ecclesia habenda. Sequenti quinto die Februarii, aliis episcopis assignatum fuit munus examinandi librum vocatum "The Catechisme." Hoc et decimo die ejusdem mensis, subscriptiones domus inferioris articulis religionis factae, reverendissimo et episcopis oblatae sunt. Deinde 19. die ejusdem mensis, reverendissimus "tradidit prolocutori et sex aliis de clero domus inferioris, coram se et aliis reverendis patribus constitutis, quosdam articulos in scriptis conceptos, mandando quatenus super contentis in dictis articulis diligenter inquirant, ac quicquid inde invenerint, in scriptis redigant, ac dicto reverendissimo porrigant et exhibeant.

First, Whether if the writ "De melius inquirendo" be sent forth, the likelihood be, that it will turn to the queen's commodity.

Item, Whether some benefices ratable, be not less than they be already valued.

Item, To enquire of the manner of dilapidations, and other spoliations, that they can remember to have pass'd upon their livings, and by whom.

Item,

Item, How they have been used for the levying of arrears of tenths, and subsidies, and for how many years past.

Item, How many benefices they find, that are charged with pensions of religious persons.

Item, To certify how many benefices are vacant in every diocese."

Tandem negotium de subsidio dominae reginae concedendo, diu multumque antea tractatum, 22. die Februarii ad finem perductum est, sub certis modo, forma, et conditionibus expediendum.

Die 26. ejusdem mensis prolocutor, cum decem aliis de coetu domus inferioris, "porrexit reverendissimo et episcopis quendam librum "De disciplina," etc. in papiro; cui quidem libro (ut asseruerunt) dictus coetus domus inferioris unanimiter consensit."

Huic libro, sequenti die primo et quinto Martii, aliqua capitula addidit eadem domus, ac reverendissimo et episcopis tradidit.

Sequenti tertio die Martii prolocutor, nomine totius coetus domus inferioris, praesentavit reverendissimo et episcopis suffraganeis librum nuncupatum "Catechismus puerorum;" cui, ut asseruit, omnes de coetu ejusdem domus unanimiter consenserunt.

Post varias deinde continuationes de die in diem, synodus prorogata fuit ad 26. diem mensis Martii.

Quae supra brevi tantum tetigimus linea ex registris convocationis, Strypius in annalibus suis longiore deduxit filo; cujus verba ex primo volumine annal. p. 335. hic adjiciemus.

After the matters of doctrine were thus dispatched, the convocation proceeded to the reformation of rites and ceremonies in the public liturgy. And here Sandys, bishop of Worcester, brought in his paper; wherein his advice was to move her majesty,

First, That with her majesty's authority, with the assistance of the archbishop of Canterbury, according to the limitation of the act provided in that behalf, might be taken out of the book common prayer, private baptism, which hath respect unto women; who by the word of God cannot be ministers of the sacraments, or of any one of them.

Secondly, That by like authority, the collect for crossing the infant in the forehead may be blotted out; as it seems very superstitious, so it is not needful.

Thirdly, That according to order taken by her majesty's father, king Henry the eighth, of most famous memory, and by the late king Edward, her majesty's brother, certain learned men, bishops, and others, may by her majesty be appointed to set down ecclesiastical orders and rules in all ecclesiastical matters, for the good government of the church of England, as shall be by them thought most meet; and the same in this present session of parliament, whatsoever they shall order or set down, within one year next to be effectual, and for law confirmed by act of parliament, at, or in this session.

There was put in also the request of certain members of the lower house, with their names underwritten (to the number of thirty three) concerning such things, as that house nevertheless agreed not to by common consent, viz.

I. That the psalms appointed at common prayer, be sung distinctly by the whole congregation, or said with the other prayers by the minister alone in such convenient place of the church, as all may well hear and be edified; and that all curious singing, and playing of the organs may be removed.

II. That none from henceforth be suffered in any wise to baptize, but ministers only; and that they also may leave off the sign of the cross used in baptism, as of the which many have conceived superstitious opinions.

III. That in the time of ministring the communion, kneeling may be left indifferent to the discretion of the ordinary. For that some in kneeling do not only knock, but oftentimes also superstitiously behave themselves.

IV. That the use of copes and surplices may be taken away; so that all ministers in their ministry use a grave, comely, and seditious garment, as commonly they do in preaching.

V. That the ministers of the word and sacraments be not compelled to wear such gowns and caps, as the enemies of Christ's gospel have chosen to be the special array of their priesthood.

VI. That in the 33d article of doctrine concerning ceremonies, these words may be mitigated: "Is, ut qui peccat in publicum ordinem ecclesiae, quique laedit auctoritatem magistratus, et qui infirmorum fratrum conscientias vulnerat, publice, ut caeteri timeant, arguendus est."

VII. That all saints, feasts, and holy-days, bearing the name of a creature, may, as tending to superstition, or rather gentility, be clearly abrogated; or at least a commemoration only reserved of the said saints by sermons, homilies, or common prayers for the better instructing of the people in history. Men may after the said spiritual exercise occupy themselves in a bodily labour, as of any other working day.

To this paper the names subscribed were,

Nowell, dean of St. Paul's, proloc.
Sampson, dean of Christ's Church Oxon.
Laurence Nowel, dean of Lichf.
Ellis, dean of Heref.
Dey, provost of Eton.
Dodds, dean of Exon.
Mullins, archdeacon of London.
Watts, archdeacon of Middlesex.
Pullan, archdeacon of Colchester.
Lever, archdeacon of Coventry.
Beaumont, archdeacon of Huntingd.
Spencer, archdeacon of Chichester.
Croley, archdeacon of Hereford.
Heton, archdeacon of Gloucester.
Rogers, archdeacon of St. Asaph.
Kemp, archdeacon of St. Albans.
Prat, archdeacon of St. David's.
Longland, archdeacon of Bucks.

Catshill,

Catshill,
Walker,
Saul,
Wiburn,
Savage,
W. Bonner,
Avys,
Wilson,
Nevynson,
Tremayne,
Renyger,
Roberts,
Reeve,
Hills,

Proctors of the church of Oxon.

clergy of Suffolk.
dean and chap. of Glou.
church of Rochester.
clergy of Gloucester.
clergy of Somersf.
church of Wigorn.
of the same.
clergy of Cant.
clergy of Exet.
dean and chapt. of Wint.
clergy of Norw.
dean and chapt. of West.
clergy of Oxon.

On February the 13th there was a notable matter brought into the lower house the determination of which matter depended upon a narrow scrutiny of the members. For on the day aforesaid these articles were read, to be approved or rejected.

I. That all the Sundays in the year, and principal feasts of Christ be kept holy days, Orders for bishops and the clergy, drawn up by E'wyn Sandys, bishop of Worcester.

FIRST, Forasmuch as bishops are not born for themselves, but for their successors, and are only possessors for their own time; every bishop by the subscription of his hand, promisseth, that he shall not either by lease, grant, or any other means let, set, or alienate any of his manors or whatsoever heretofore hath not been in lease; except only for his own time, and while he is bishop.

Item, That no bishop, dean, or chapter shall give or grant any advowson of their prebend, parsonage, or vicarage, after the date hereof.

Item, That no bishop shall admit any into the ministry, who hath not good testimony of his conversation; who is not learned, fit to teach the people; and who hath not presently some appointed place, cure, or living to serve. And that he do not admit the same without the consent of six learned ministers, who shall all lay their hands upon his head at his admission.

Item, That every bishop by himself or by and all other holy days to be abrogated.

II. That in all parish churches the minister in common prayer turn his face toward the people, and there distinctly read the divine service appointed, where all the people assembled may hear and be edified.

III. That in ministring the sacrament of baptism, the ceremony of making the cross in the child's forehead may be omitted, as tending to superstition.

IV. That forasmuch as divers communicants are not able to kneel during the time of the communion, for age, sickness, and sundry other infirmities; and some also superstitiously both kneel and knock; that order of kneeling may be left to the discretion of the ordinary within his jurisdiction.

V. That it be sufficient for the minister, in time of saying divine service, and ministring of the sacraments, to use a surplice; and that no minister say service, or minister the sacraments, but in a comely garment or habit.

VI. That the use of organs be removed.

his officer shall see, that every curate, parson, vicar, or other do catechise the children, and youth of his parish every Sunday, according to the injunction in that behalf.

Item, It is ordered, that no minister shall marry any other, than be within his parish, the woman party at the least; and that he do it not, except the banns be openly thrice proclaimed in the same parish, and that he know, that the parents of the party consented thereto.

Item, That no bishop, dean, or chapter shall bestow their benefices, whereof they be patrons, but upon such as are learned, and fit for the office, and such as will subscribe to sound religion now by authority set down.

Item, That every bishop take order, that whosoever is a common swearer in his diocese, if after two admonitions by the minister he will not leave the same, that then it shall be lawful for the minister to exclude him from the communion, until he shall find reformation in him.

Requests and petitions of the lower house of convocation for discipline.

I. THAT a catechism be set forth in Latin for the instructing of youth in the universities, and grammar schools throughout the realm.

II. That certain articles, containing the principal grounds of the christian religion, be set forth, as well to determine the truth of things this day in controversy, as also to shew what errors are chiefly to be eschewed. And these, with the catechism, to be joyned in one book.

III. That no private baptism be ministring hereafter, but only by those that be ministers of the church.

IV. That in public baptism the father of the infant (if he possibly may) be present; and that he, and the godfathers, and godmothers shall openly profess and recite the articles of the christian faith, commonly called the Creed, and desire that the infant may in that faith be baptized, and received into the church of Christ. And they shall not answer in the infant's name to such questions as heretofore have been demanded of them in that behalf.

V. That it may be added to the confession, which which is used to be made before the ministration of the holy communion, that the communicants do detest and renounce the idolatrous mass.

VI. That no person abide within the church, during the time of the communion, unless he do communicate. That is, they shall depart immediately after the exhortation be ended, and before the confession of the communicants.

VII. That all images of the Trinity, and of the Holy Ghost be defaced, and that roods, and all other images, that have been, or hereafter may be superstitiously abused, be taken away out all of places, public and private, and utterly destroyed.

VIII. That whosoever being either of the clergy or laity shall preach, declare, write, or speak any thing in derogation or despising of the book abovenamed, or against any doctrine therein contained, and be thereof lawfully convicted before any ordinary, and will stand in the maintaining thereof, being by godly reasons moved to the contrary, he shall be punished as, etc.

IX. Moreover, if any person or persons, lay or ecclesiastical, shall deny directly or indirectly, publicly or privately, by writing or speaking, any article of doctrine contained in the said book, and be thereof lawfully convicted before any ordinary, and will obstinately stand in the same he shall be, etc.

X. If any ecclesiastical person, having any benefice or promotion spiritual, and being required by his ordinary, his deputy, or any other competent judge, to subscribe to the said articles, or to declare his open consent and judgment in any public place of assembly, where his ordinary, etc. shall appoint, do peremptorily refuse so to do, he shall, etc.

XI. And if any pretended, nominated, or elected to any benefice or spiritual promotion, do refuse to subscribe or declare his consent and judgment to the said articles in form aforesaid, the same shall be, etc.

XII. That no man be judged in law to be instituted to any ecclesiastical promotion or living, unless he personally first subscribe to the said articles before his ordinary, and a note of his subscribing be inserted into his institution.

XIII. And if any bishop, ordinary, or chancellor do admit or institute any person or persons to any benefice or spiritual promotion, and do not require the person so to be admitted or instituted, to subscribe to the said articles, that then the said bishop, ordinary, or chancellor not so requiring, shall, etc.

XIV. Likewise those, that shall take degrees, or shall be admitted to any fellowship, or living of students in either of the universities, shall at the time of their admission subscribe to the said articles. And the recusants shall be, etc. And such as have fellowships already, or living of students, if they be required by the masters, or heads of their colleges, halls, or houses to subscribe, and do refuse, shall, etc. For the better execution whereof, all masters and heads of colleges, halls, and houses, within four

VOL. IV.

months next after the publishing hereof, shall require not only all such as are already fellows or students of their colleges, halls and houses, to subscribe, and give their consents to the said articles; but also all such as they shall admit hereafter to any fellowship or place of student, at the time of their admission.

XV. And if any master or head of any college, hall, or house do not require the said subscription within the said four months, or do admit any to any fellowship or living of students without such subscription; or if any master, or head do not himself subscribe and declare his consent to these said articles, when any of them shall be required by the chancellor being present, and in his absence, by the vice-chancellor, or his deputy in that behalf; that the said master or head so refusing, and not requiring or admitting as before, shall, etc.

XVI. And if the vicechancellor, or his deputy do not within the said four months require the said subscription and consent of the said masters and heads of every college, hall, and house in either of the universities, or suffer any to take degree without such subscription, he shall, etc.
Also, if the said vicechancellor, or commissary, or their lawful deputies shall not within the said time require the said subscription of the beadles and other officers belonging to either of the universities, he and they shall, etc. And if any of the said beadles or other officers belonging to either of the said universities be recusant therein, they shall, etc.

XVII. Furthermore, as well the vicechancellor or commissary afore said, as the master, or chief governor of every college of either of the universities shall not permit or suffer any of the age of five and twenty years, and upwards, being not fellow of any house, having any manner of ecclesiastical promotion, to be resiant within any of the said universities, under any colour, but such as shall yearly, during their abode in the same, make two sermons in the most notable church in the said town; in which he or they so preaching shall openly profess his, or their faith concerning such articles as shall be ministred unto him, by the vicechancellor or commissary, and master of the house, wherein he or they shall make their abode: provided, that before every of the said sermons, there be notice given to the people by the open ringing of a bell within the said church. And for every default of the vicechancellor, commissary, or master afore said concerning the premises, every of them so offending, etc.

XVIII. That it shall be lawful for every ordinary to call personally before him any person or persons within his jurisdiction, which either be, or have been ecclesiastical persons, or any lay persons, whom he suspects concerning religion; and to examine him or them of the said articles, and to require their subscription, and open consent to the same, in such public place or places to be given by the party suspected, as to the said ordinary shall seem good. Which if the said person or persons suspected shall refuse to do, being peremptorily required, and

Q q q

(reco-

(recognizance being first taken of him to the queen's majesty by the said ordinary for his appearance) by the space of one month persist in the same, then he or they, etc.

XIX. That the declaration of certain principal articles, set forth by the bishops, being again considered, and having such other articles added to the same, as shall be thought necessary, shall be openly read by all parsons, vicars, and curates, in their several parishes at two several times in the year; that is to say, the Sunday next following Easter day, and St. Michael the archangel, immediately after the gospel read, or some other Sunday within one month next after these feasts, upon pain, etc.

XX. The same declaration shall be read also every year once by all ministers and priests in cathedral churches, and all colleges throughout the Realm.

XXI. That the same order may be taken in the book of common prayer for these matters above rehearsed. And that the said book together with the book of the form and manner of making and ordering bishops, ministers, and deacons, may be ratified by the authority of this present parliament.

This was subscribed by sixty four of the house by their own hands;

Thomas Becon.
Richardus Beseley.
Johannes Calverley.
Percivallus Wiburnus.
Thomas Colus.
David Kempe de S. Albano.
Joannes Pullanus, archid Colchest.
Johannes Calfehyll.

Richard Reve.
Guillielmus Latimer
John Warner.
Stephanus Cheston.
Joannes Watson.
Ra. Cottrel.
Michael Reniger.
Thomas Lancaster.
Richardus Chaundler.
James Proctor.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1562.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 5.

Queen Elizabeth's letter to the archbishop, authorizing his prayers and orders for fasting during the plague. Strype's life of archb. Parker, app. p. 34.

By the queen.

ELIZABETH.

MOST reverend father in God, right trusty and right well beloved, we greet you well. Like as almighty God hath of his mere grace committed to us, next under him, the chief government of this realm and the people therein; so hath he, of his like goodness, ordered under us sundry principal ministers, to guide and assist us in this burthen. And therefore considering the state of this present time, wherein it hath pleased the most highest, for the amendment of us and our people to visit certain places of our realm with more contagious sickness, than lately hath been; for remedy and mitigation whereof, we think it both necessary and our bounden duty, that universal prayer and fasting be more effectually used in this our realm.

Hugo Turnbull.	Georgius Savage.
Wilhelmus Brad- bridge.	Anthonius Hinton.
Edmundus Westo- nus.	Wilhelmus Fluyd.
Thomas Spenfer.	Johannes Pedder.
Thomas Sorebaeus.	Robert Avys.
Justinian Lancaster.	Thomas Wilsonus.
Gualterus Bowerus.	Laurence Nowell.
Gregorius Dodds.	Ja. Calfehyll, procur. cler. Oxon.
Robertus Lougher.	Thomas Lever.
Thomas Ithel.	Thomas Bolt.
John Bell.	Jo. Kenal.
Thomas Roberts.	John Ellys.
Johannes Walkerus.	John Salisbury.
John Longland.	Tho. Richley Peterb.
William Todd.	Richard Huys.
Robert Beaumont.	Robertus Croleus.
Guliel. Daye.	Robertus Grynstel.
Thomas Godwyn.	Thomas White.
Tho. Sampson.	Thomas Huett.
Joannes Hyllus.	Jo. Prat.
Arthurus Saul.	Wa. Jones.
Guido Heton.	Richardus Rogers.
Andreas Perne.	Jo. Butler.

In this convocation great endeavours also were used for the mending the poor condition of vicarages, but they came to nothing. The bishops also had serious consultations in this synod among themselves for the better government of their respective churches; and these were some of their orders concerning the inferior clergy; consisting of divers things readers and deacons were to do; to which they were required to promise and subscribe, when they were admitted. Which orders perhaps were now at this synod only confirmed, having been enjoined before in the year M. D. LXI.

And understanding that you have thought and considered upon some good orders to be prescribed therein, for the which ye require the application of our authority, for the better observation thereof amongst our people; we do not only commend and allow your good zeal therein, but do also command all manner our ministers ecclesiastical or civil, and all other our subjects to execute, follow, and obey such godly and wholesome orders, as you, being primate of all England, and metropolitan of this province of Canterbury, upon godly advice and consideration, shall uniformly devise, prescribe, and publish for the universal usage of prayer, fasting, and other good deeds during the time of this visitation by sickness and other troubles. Yeven under our signet at our manour of Richmond the first day of August, the fifth year of our reign.

Order

Order for a form of thanksgiving for the queen's recovery. 243

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 3.

Anno Christi
1562.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 5.

Order for a form of prayer of thanksgiving for the queen's recovery.
Reg. Grindall fol. 26. a.

AFTER our very hearty commendations to your lordship. Where the queen's majesty is at this present, God be thanked, after some extremity of sicknes very well recovered; because it may happen that some vain brutes may be spread abroad of this matter, especially in the city of London, we have thought good to signify these joyfull tidings unto your lordship, and pray you to take order that the same may be published to morrow at Poules crosse, and there thanks to be given to almighty God for this her majesty's good recovery; and humbly to pray his blessed goodness to continue the same. And thus we bid your good lordship heartily farewell. From Hamptoncourt the 17th of Octob. M.D.LXII.

Your good lordship's loving friends,

N. Bacon, C. S.	W. Hawarde.
Winchester.	F. Knolles.
Arundell.	W. Cecyll.
F. Bedforde.	Ab. Cave.
E. Clynton.	John Mafon.
Sakevyle.

Concilium provinciale Ebor. Ex reg. Ebor. in ann.

PER breve regium concilium hoc die duodecimo mensis Januarii in ecclesia metropolitana B. Petri Ebor. celebrari jubetur. Eo autem illucescente die, virtute alius brevis regii, ad quintum diem mensis Februarii prox. convocabatur. Hoc die habito tractatu per dictos praesidentes, five commissarios, et caeteros comparantes, et interesse debentes, super quibusdam arduis negotiis, statum boni publici, et condecens ordinem ecclesiae, et Dei gloriam concernentibus, deinde consimili tractatu habito, concluderunt reverendissimum dom. archiepiscopum consulendum fore super quibusdam articulis, in quadam schedula apud registrum remanente conscriptis. Et quoad feoda procuratorum cleri, dicti praesidentes et caeteri comparantes ordinaverunt et statuerunt, quod singuli beneficiati in dioecesi Dunelm. Carliolen. et in archidiaconatu Nottingham, Ebor. dioecesi pro singulis libris beneficiorum suorum, solvant pro feodis procuratorum cleri pro eisdem intervenient. et pro collectione ejusdem tres denarios; et singuli beneficiati in archidiaconatibus Eborum, Eastryding, et Cleavland solvant pro singulis libris duos denarios; et quoad taxationem cujusque beneficii, taxatio pro perpetua decima dominae nostrae reginae debita habeat locum dun-taxat, et non alia. Et dicti praesidentes referaverunt taxationem beneficiorum dioecesi Cestrensi, et Sodorensi usque in 12. diem mensis Martii.

Quo die expositis per commissarios causis convocationis, et maxime concessionis cujusdam gratuiti subsidii illustrissimae dominae reginae, etc. faciend. praelati ac clerus unanimi consensu et assensu, ac prompta voluntate concesserunt dictae dominae nostrae reginae quoddam subsidium 6. solid. de qualibet libra, cujuscunque promotionis ecclesiasticae infra provinciam Ebor. existentis. Deinde synodus haec in crastinum diem 13. Martii continuata fuit.

Hoc die adveniente, convenerunt et statuerunt, quod singuli beneficiati dioecesi Cestrensi, et Carliolen. pro singulis libris beneficiorum suorum solvant pro feodis procuratorum ejusdem dioecesi intervenient. et pro collectione ejusdem 3. denarios, viz. procuratoribus 2. den. et Richardo Smerthwait, apparitori generali, denarium pro singulis libris beneficiorum praedictorum. Et quoad taxationem cujuslibet beneficii, taxatio pro perpetua decima dominae nostrae reginae debita habeat locum duntaxat, et non alia. Hoc facto, concilium continuatum fuit in ultimum diem mensis Martii instantis.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 4.

Anno Christi
1563.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 5.

Synodus provincialis Cantuar. et Eboracen.

SYNODUS provincialis Cantuar. a die 26. mensis Martii de die in diem continuata fuit usque ad 14. mensis Aprilis, quo die per breve regium usque ad tertium diem mensis Octobris prorogabatur. Illo autem die, propter infectionem aeris pestiferi ubique per civitates London. et Westmonast. ac earundem suburbia adtunc invalescentem, synodus haec per breve regium usque ad sextum diem Octobris anni M.D.LXIV. prorogata fuit.

In altera provincia synodus ad ultimum diem Martii prorogata per commissarios archiepiscopi Ebor. ad 28. diem Aprilis continuabatur. Diem autem illum antevertit regina per breve regium dat. 12. die Aprilis, prorogando synodum hanc ad 3. diem Octobris seq. Illo autem die fere instante, ob rationem superius memoratam, per aliud breve eam usque ad 6. diem Octobris anni M.D.LXIV. prorogavit.

The

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 4.

Anno Christi
1563.

Reg. Angliæ
ELIZAB. 5.

The council's letter to the bishop of London about the clergy of his diocese.
Strype's life of archb. Grindall p. 68.

AFTER our hearty commendations to your good lordship. The queen's majesty, certain good considerations moving her to understand in some part the state of your diocese, hath commanded us to write unto your lordship with all speed possible, and thereby to require the same to make answer by writing distinctly to all these articles following.

I. How many shires or counties your diocese doth contain, or into how many it doth extend?

II. Into what manner of regiment the same is divided? whether the same be into archdeaconries, deanries, or such like? and how many the same be, with their distinct names? who occupieth those rooms at this present, and where they are to your understanding?

III. What exempt or peculiar places are within the circuit of your diocese, where you have not full jurisdiction as ordinary, and what the names thereof be; and who hath the ordinary jurisdiction thereof at this present?

IV. How many churches are within every such archdeaconry, deanry, or other regiment? which be parochial, have parsons, vicars, or curates? And whereas the parishes are so large, as they have divers chapels of ease, which have or ought to have curates or ministers in them; to certify how many be of that sort in every such parish; with the names of the towns or hamlets, where the same churches and chapels are so situate.

V. How many households are within every parish, or within any such member of any parish, that hath churches or chapels of ease?

VI. Wheresoever any exempt places be within the circuit of your diocese, wherein you have no such jurisdiction, as ye can presently make sufficient answer to these former articles; her majesty would, that ye should in writing copy out so much of the substance of these five former articles, as shall seem convenient for the purpose, and with speed to send (them) to such persons, as have the jurisdiction of those exempt places, or their deputies residing next unto you; willing and commanding them in her majesty's name forthwith to send distinct answers thereunto, to be sent either to yourself, or by them to be sent unto us.

And because the greater part of these former articles is such, as we doubt not, but ye are by means of your visitation able to cause sufficient certificates to be made unto us with speed; we require your lordship to use therein what diligence you can, and not to defer any time therein; but either by this messenger, or within two or three days at the furthest to return us answer. And for some such part thereof, as speedily you cannot certify without conference had with your chancellor, commissary, archdeacons, deans, or other inferior officers; our like request is, that you do procure information thereof without delay of time; and to command in her majesty's name the like to be done by all others, having, as above is said, any exempt jurisdiction, as her majesty be amply and certainly satisfied herein. And so fare your good lordship right heartily well. From Greenwich the 9th of July, M.D.LXIII.

Your good lordship's assured loving freinds,

Pembroke. R. Duddely.
Norfolk. W. Cecyll.

An admonition to all such as shall intend hereafter to enter the state of matrimony, godly and agreeable to laws.

FIRST, That they contract not with such persons, as be hereafter expressed, nor with any of the like degree, against the law of God, and the laws of the realm.

Secondly, That they make no secret contracts without consent and counsel of their parents or elders, under whose authority they be, contrary to God's laws, and man's ordinances.

MARRIAGE is honourable among all men, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Heb. xiii. 4.

To avoid fornication let every man have his wife, and let every woman have her husband: he that cannot contain, let him marry; for better it is to marry, than to burn. 1 Cor. vii. 2, 9.

Thirdly, That they contract not anew with any other, upon divorce and separation made by the judge for a time; the laws yet standing to the contrary.

Unto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, let not the wife depart from her husband; but if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled unto her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

1 Cor. vii. 10, 11.

I. It is to be noted, that those persons, which be in the direct line ascendent, cannot marry together, although they are never so far asunder in degree.

II. It is also to be noted, that consanguinity and affinity (letting and dissolving matrimony)

is is contracted as well in them and by them, which be of kindred by the one side, as in and by them which be kindred by both sides.

III. Item, That by the laws consanguinity and affinity (letting and dissolving matrimony) is contracted as well by unlawful company of man and woman, as by lawful marriage.

IV. Item, In contracting betwixt persons doubtful, which be not exprest in this table, it is most sure first to consult men learned in the law; to understand what is lawful, what honest and expedient, before the finishing of their contracts.

V. That no parson, vicar, or curate shall solemnize matrimony out of his or their cure, or parish church, or chapel, and shall not solemnize the same in private houses, nor lawless exempt churches, under pains of the law forbidding the same. And that the curate have their certificates, where the parties dwell in divers parishes.

VI. Item, The bands of matrimony ought to be openly denounced in the church by the minister three several Sundays or festival days, to the intent, that who will and can alledge any impediment, may be heard, and that stay may be made till further tryal, if any exception be made there against it upon sufficient caution.

VII. Item, Who shall maliciously object a frivolous impediment against the lawfull matrimony to disturb the same, is subject to the pains of the law.

VIII. Item, Who shall presume to contract in the degrees prohibited (though he do it ignorantly) besides that the fruit of such copulation may be judged unlawful; is also punishable at the ordinary's discretion.

IX. Item, If any minister shall conjoyn any such; or shall be present at such contracts making; he ought to be suspended from his ministry for three years, and otherwise to be punished according to the laws.

X. Item, It is further ordained, that no parson, vicar, or curate do preach, treat, or expound of his own voluntary invention, any matter of controversie in scriptures, if he be under the degree of a master of arts, except he be licensed by his ordinary thereunto; but only for instruction of the people, read homilies already set forth, and such other form of doctrine, as shall be hereafter by authority published, and shall not innovate, or alter any thing in the church, or use any old right or ceremony, which is not set forth by public authority.

None shall come near to any of the kindred of his flesh to uncover their shame: I am the Lord. Leviti xviii. 6.

A man may not marry his

Secundus gradus in linea recta ascend.
Con. Avia.	1.	Grandmother.
Aff. Avi relicta.	2.	Grandfath. wife.
Aff. Profocrus vel socrus magna.	3.	Wives grandmother.
Secund. gr. inaequalis in linea transversali. ascendene.
Con. Amita.	4.	Fathers sister.
Con. Matertera.	5.	Mothers sister.
Aff. Patruu relicta.	6.	Fath. broth. wife.
Aff. Avunculi relicta.	7.	Moth. broth. wife.
Aff. Amita uxoris	8.	Wives fath. sister.
Aff. Matertera uxoris.	9.	Wives moth. sist.
Primus grad. in lin. recta ascendente.
Con. Mater.	10.	Mother.
Aff. Noverca.	11.	Stepmother.
Aff. Socrus.	12.	Wives mother.
Primus grad. in lin. recta descendente.
Con. Filia.	13.	Daughter.
Aff. Privigna.	14.	Wives daughter.
Con. Nurus.	15.	Sons wife.
Primus gradus aequalis in lin. transversali.
Con. Soror.	16.	Sister.
Aff. Soror uxoris.	17.	Wives sister.
Aff. Fratris relicta.	18.	Brothers wife.

A woman may not matry with her

Secundus gradus in linea recta ascend.
Con. Avus.	1.	Grandfather.
Aff. Aviae relictus.	2.	Grandmoth. husb.
Aff. Profocer, vel socer magnus.	3.	Husb. grandfath.
Secund. grad. inaequalis in lin. transvers. asc.
Con. Patruus.	4.	Fathers brother.
Aff. Avunculus.	5.	Mothers brother.
Aff. Amitae relictus.	6.	Fath. sisters husb.
Aff. Materterae relictus.	7.	Moth. sisters husb.
Aff. Patruus mariti.	8.	Husb. fath. broth.
Aff. Avunculus mariti.	9.	Husb. moth. broth.
Primus grad. in lin. recta ascend.
Con. Pater.	10.	Father.
Aff. Vitricus.	11.	Stepfather.
Aff. Socer.	12.	Husband's father.
Prim. grad. in linea rect. ascendente.
Con. Filius.	13.	Son.
Aff. Privignus.	14.	Husbands son.
Aff. Gener.	15.	Daughters husb.
Primus gradus aequalis in lin. transvers.
Con. Frater.	16.	Brother.
Aff. Levir.	17.	Husbands broth.
Aff. Sororis relictus.	18.	Sisters husband.

246 ADMONITION TO ALL SUCH AS INTEND TO MARRY.

A man may not marry his

A woman may not marry with her

	Secund. grad. in lin. recta descend.						Secund. grad. in lin. recta descend.
Con.	Neptis ex filio.	19.	Sons daughter.	19.	Sons son.	Con.	Nepos ex filio.
Con.	Neptis ex filia.	20.	Daughters daugh.	20.	Daughters son.	Con.	Nepos ex filia.
Aff.	Pronurus, i. relict. } nepotes ex filio. }	21.	Sons sons wife.	21.	Sons daught. husb.	Aff.	Progener, i. relict. neptis ex filio.
Aff.	Pronurus i. relict. } nepotes ex filia. }	22.	Daughters wife.	22.	Daughters daugh- ters husb.	Aff.	Progener, i. relict. neptis ex filia.
Aff.	Privigni filia.	23.	Wives sons daugh.	23.	Husb. sons son.	Aff.	Privigni filius.
Aff.	Privignae filia.	24.	Wiv. daugh. daug.	24.	Husb. daught. son.	Aff.	Privignae filius.
	Secundus gradus in- aequalis in linea transvers. descend.						Secundus grad. in- aequalis in linea transvers. des.
Con.	Neptis ex fratre.	25.	Broth. daughter.	25.	Brothers son.	Con.	Nepos ex fratre.
Con.	Neptis ex sorore.	26.	Sisters daughter.	26.	Sisters son.	Con.	Nepos ex sorore.
Aff.	Nepotis ex frat. rel.	27.	Broth. sons wife.	27.	Broth. daugh. husb.	Aff.	Neptis ex frat. rel.
Aff.	Nepotis ex sor. rel.	28.	Sisters sons wife.	28.	Sist. daugh. husb.	Aff.	Neptis ex sor. rel.
Aff.	Neptis uxor ex fra.	29.	Wives brothers daught.	29.	Husb. broth. son.	Aff.	Leviri filius, i. ne- pos mariti ex frat.
Aff.	Neptis uxor ex sor.	30.	Wives sist. daugh.	30.	Husb. sisters son.	Aff.	Gloris filius, i. ne- pos mariti ex sor.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 5.

Anno Christi
1564.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 6.

Synodi provinciales Cantuar. et Ebor.

SYNODI provinciales Cantuar. et Ebor. ad in diem primum mensis Maii, anni M.D.LXV.
sextum diem mensis Octobris hujus anni ulterius prorogabantur.
per breve regium prorogatae, per aliud usque

*Litterae Thom. Sampsonis, decani aedis Christi, et Laurent. Humphrey, praesidis collegii
B. Magdalen. Oxon. dom. archiep. Cant. et London. Winton. Elien et Lincoln. episcopis, reginae commissariis ecclesiasticis; ut aequo animo ferrent, quod ceremo-nias nuper introduct. haud observent.* Strype's life of archb. Parker app. p. 53.

ET novum et singulare videri potest, paucos homines multitudini privatos, auctoritati obscuros, vobis et doctrinae et pietatis gloria celebratis, propter lanam et linum vel dicto vel facto, aut velle aut audere obstrepere. Equidem ingenue fatemur, et coram Domino testamur, patres et fratres in Christo observandi, ut singularis nostra in religione suavissima conspiratio fuit, et est perjucunda; sic hac nostra vel levi a vobis dissensione in vita nihil accidisse acerbius. Quanquam illud nos recreari solet, et vos consolari debet, discordare quidem nos ac concordia discordia, evangelice non papistice, fraterne non virulente; sine dente et stomacho utrosque, sine zelo tamen et favore neutros, dissidere; in capite Christo, antesignano nostro, omnes et singulos idem evangelium, eandem fidem profiteri; in rebus natura sua plane adaphoris suum quemque spiritum et studium sequi, ubi libertati esse locus potest saepe, charitati autem esse debet semper; ubi non statim rumpitur unitas, nec obscuratur veritas, ubi aliqua ceremoniarum cernitur varietas. Vidit hoc Augustinus, sabbatho alios prandisse, alios rursus jejunasse, et in una ecclesia, uniusque regionis ecclesiis dissimilitudinem extitisse. Vidit Socrates homines, qui ejusdem sunt fidei, de ritibus inter se dissentisse. Vidit Theodoretus ab omni antiquitate hanc in ecclesia consuetudinem mansisse, ut hic abstinentiam amplecteretur, ille esculentis vesceretur; nec hic judicaret illum, nec ille reprehenderet alterum, et omnes tamen claros insignesque redderet lux concordiae. Discessit a Constantini decreto, aliarum ecclesiarum exemplum secuta nostra Britannia. Dissensit a Carolo clerus Ravennas; imo a Barnaba Paulus, a Paulo Petrus, a Petro condiscipulus Johannes; ab hujus successoribus Romanis, illius sectatores Asiani. Utinam patres, sic hic vos operam vestram interponeretis, ut illic pacificus Irenaeus et episcopi, qui in id sedulo incubuerunt, ne Victoris sententia Asianorum libertati praejudicaret, neve rituum dissonantia fidei consonantiam solveret.

Siqua nostrae in Christo consociationis ratio, siqua Συμπάθεια (esse autem non dubitamus) patiamini, enitami, ut quod Paulus praecepit, Augustinus perhibuit, in sua quisque πληροφροσύνη acquiescat, ut ipsa fidei unitas diversis observationibus celebretur. Causae multae et magnae, quae nos ad petendum moverunt, vos, nisi nostra de vestra pietate et prudentia fallit opinio, ad assentiendum promovebunt. Teneram rem esse conscientiam, vobis non est obscurum; quae nec tangi nec angere debet. Haec, quae a Deo ipsa accepit, nobis tradidit. Non enim profecto perfecto turbulenti aut contumaces sumus, ut ecclesiae pacem turbatam libenter aspiciamus, quam colimus et fovemus; vel ut novitati studeamus, qui ad antiquum ecclesiae candorem aspiramus; vel ut vinci nolumus, qui ratione persuaderi et instrui cupimus. Verum enimvero nos conscientia magistra edocti sumus, res natura indifferentes, opinionibus hominum non semper indifferentes videri, casu ac temporibus variari. Legem hanc de ceremoniis ecclesiae Romanae instaurandis cum servitutis, necessitatis, superstitionis periculo conjungi. Hoc quia vobis non videtur, vos a nobis non damnandi; nobis quia sic videtur, nos a vobis non divexandi.

Nostri conscientia nos docet, si praeterita spatia superioris memoriae animo repetimus, a nobis stare Deum, Christum, primae ecclesiae patres; si oculos per vicina tempora et loca circumferimus, doctissimos homines, et vos ipsos, et ecclesias, quae quidem plene repurgatae sunt, universas: Deum, cujus voce reges Judaeorum praedicantur, qui omnia vasa, id est, omnia idololatriae instrumenta et apparatus deleverunt; Christum, qui Phariseorum omne fermentum, jejunia, lavacra, fimbrias, et phylacteria repudiavit; patres, qui nec cum Judaeis sabbatho jejunare, aut Pascha celebrare, nec cum haereticis lavare, nec cum Manichaeis die dominico abstinere, nec ulla in re, ubi aliqua esse potest consensionis significatio, communicare voluerunt; doctissimos, qui nostra aetate nobiscum in hac fide et sententia pie vixerunt, et nunc in Domino suaviter obdormientes, idem nos e libris docuerunt; vos ipsos, qui, si conscientias vestras appellaremus, nobiscum sentiretis, et omnes hos offensionis lapides amotos, penitus optaretis; deinde ecclesias puriores; Germanicam, Gallicam, Scoticam; in quibus non modo religio illibata conservatur, sed ritus etiam, religionis testes et indices, simplices non contaminati, a christianis ecclesiis mutuati, non a Romana synagoga desumpti, observantur.

Postremo, quam grave scandalum hinc oritur, vestra non ignorat prudentia. Adversarii nobis afflictis insultabunt; dein, vos suam causam propugnantes, suum jus persequentes, in sinu tacite ridebunt; tum invento suo, postquam a vobis non modo retineri, sed per vos fratribus obtrudi viderint, sibi magis placebunt. Quamobrem ut tandem aliquando nostra terminetur petitio, demississime petimus, ut quod papistis curae et voluptati, vobis non magnopere cordi est, quod a nobis nullo contemptu vestri, sed odio communis hostis fit; id nobis ne fraudi sit aut crimini. Ita ecclesiis prospicietis optime; ita sathanæ omnes vias et rimulas ad subvertendam religionis puritatem obsepieris providentissime; ita hostibus nostro malo et miseria oculos animosque pascentibus, et nostra hac discordia serio triumphantibus, illa rumpentur iustissime; ita nos, ut fratres in Christo diligetis christianissime; ita vos, ut patres venerabimur meritissime; ita dextras societatis jungemus amicissime; communemque causam communibus consiliis et curis adversus omnes hostium machinationes et insultus propugnabimus fortissime. Quod ut fiat, faxit Jesus, ecclesiae suae Deus ac Dominus zelotes; cui vestram paternitatem custodiendam, et nostram calamitatem sanandam etiam atque etiam commendamus.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 6:

Anno Christi
1564.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 7.

Advertisements partly for due order in the publique administration of common prayers, and usinge the holy sacramentes, and partly for the apparell of all persons ecclesiasticall, by vertue of the queenes majesties letters, commaunding the same, the 25th day of January, in the seventh yeare of the raigne of our soveraigne lady Elizabeth, by the grace of God of Englande, Fraunce, and Irelande queene, defender of the faith, etc. Ex praefat. annal. Elizab. Cambd. edit. Hearn. pag. 32. seq.

The preface.

THE queenes majesty of her godly zeale calling to remembraunce howe necessary it is to the avauncement of God's glory, and to the establisshmente of Christes pure religion, for all her loving subjectes, especially the state ecclesiasticall to bee knitte together in one perfecte unitye of doctrine, and to bee conjoynd in one uniformity of rites and maners in the ministration of God's holy worde, in open prayer and ministration of sacraments, as also to be of one decent behavioure in their outward apparell, to be knowne partely by their distinct habits to bee of that vocation (who shoulde be revered the rather in their offices, as ministers of the holye thinges whereto they bee called) hathe by her letters directed unto the archebyshop of Canterbury and metropolitane, required, enjoyned, and straightly charged, that with assistance and conference had with other byshops, namely suche as be in commission for causes ecclesiasticall, some orders might bee taken, whereby all diversities and varieties amonge them of the cleargy and the people (as breedinge nothinge but contention, offence, and breache of common charity, and be agaynste the lawes, good usage and ordinaunces of the realme) might be reformed and repressed, and brought to one maner of uniformity throughout the whole realme, that the people may thereby quietly honour and serve almighty God in truthe, concord, unity, peace, and quietnes, as by her majesties sayde sayde letters more at large dothe appeare. Whereupon by diligent conference and communication in the same, and at laste by assent and consent of the persons before sayd, these orders and rules ensuing have been thoughte meete and convenient to be used and folowed: not yet prescribing these rules as laws equivalent with the eternall worde of God, and as of necessity to bynde the consciences of her subjectes in the nature of them considered in themselves; or as they shoulde adde any efficacye or more holynes to the vertue of publique prayer, and to the sacraments; but as temporall orders meere ecclesiasticall, without any vayne superstition, and as rules in some parte of discipline concerning decency, distinction, and order for the time.

Articles for doctrine and preachinge.

Firste, That all they, whiche shalbe admitted to preache, shalbee diligently examined for their conformity in unity of doctrine, established by publique authoritye; and admonished to use sobriety and discretion in teachinge the people, namely in matters of controversy; and to consider the gravity of their office, and to foresee with diligence the matters, which they will speake, to utter them to the edification of the audience.

Item, That they sette owte in their preachinge the reverent estimation of the holy sacramentes of baptisme, and the Lordes supper, excitinge the people to thoften and devoute receaving of the holy communion of the body and bludde of Christe, in suche forme as is already prescribed in the booke of common prayer, and as it is further declared in an homily concerninge the vertue and efficacye of the saide sacramentes.

Item, That they move the people to all obedience as well in observation of the orders appointed in the booke of common service, as in the queenes majesties injunctions, as also of all other civill duties due for subjectes to do.

Item, That al licences for preaching graunted out by the archebishop and byshopes within the province of Canterbury, bearing date before the first day of Marche, M.D.LXIV. be voyde and of none effect; and neverthelesse all suche, as shalbe thought mete for the office, to bee admitted agayne without difficulty or charge, painge no more but four pens for the writinge, parchment, and waxe.

Item, If any preacher or parson, vicare or curate so licensed, shall fortune to preache any matter tendinge to dissention, or to the derogation of the religion and doctrine receyved, that the hearers denounce the same to the ordinaries or the next byshope of the same place; but no man openly to contrary or to impugn the same speeche so disorderly uttered, whereby may growe offence and disquiet of the people; but shal be convinced and reproved by the ordinary after suche agreeable order, as shall be seene to him according to the gravity of the offence. And that it be presented within one moneth after the wordes spoken.

Item, That they use not to exacte or receive unreasonable rewardes or stipendes of the poore pastors cominge to their cures to preache, whereby they myght bee noted as folowers of filthye lucre, rather then use thoffice of preaching of charity, and good zeale to the salvation of mens soules.

Item, If the parson be able, he shall preache in his owne person everye three monethes, or else shall preache by another, so that his absence be approved by the ordinary of the dioces in respect of sickness, service, or study at the universities. Neverthelesse yet for wante of able preachers and parsons to tolerate them without penaltye, so that they preache in their owne persons, or by a learned substitute once in every three moneths of the yeare.

Articles for administration of prayer and sacramentes.

First, that the common prayer be sayde or songe decentlye and distinctlye in suche place, as the ordinarye shall thinke mete for the largenesse and streightnesse of the church and quyer, so that the people may be moste edified.

Item, That no parson or curate, not admitted by the byshope of the dioces to preache, do expounde in his owne cure, or elsewhere, any scripture or matter of doctrine, or by the way of exhortation, but only study to reade gravely and aptly, without any glosing of the same, or any additions, the homelyes already sett oute, or other suche necessarye doctrine as is or shall be prescribed for the quiet instruction and edification of the people.

Item, That in cathedrall churches and colleges the holy communion be ministred upon the firste or seconde Sundaye of everye moneth at the leaste. So that both deane, prebendaries, preists, and clerkes do receive, and all other of discretion of the fundation do receive foure tymes in the yeare at the leaste.

Item, In the ministration of the holy communion in cathedrall and collegiate churches, the principall minister shall use a cope with gospeller and epistoler agreeably; and at all other prayers to be sayde at that communion table, to use no copes but surples.

Item, That the deane and prebendaries weare a surplesse with a filke hooide in the quyer; and when they preache in the cathedrall or collegiate church, to weare their hooide.

Item, That every minister sayinge any publique prayers, or ministringe the sacramentes or other rites of the church, shall weare a comely surples with sleeves, to bee provided at the charges of the parishe; and that the parishe provide a decen table standinge on a frame for the communion table.

Item, That they shal decentlie cover with carpet, filke, or other decen coveringe, and with a fayre linnen clothe (at the time of the ministration) the comunyon table, and to sett the Tenne Commaundementes upon the easte walle over the said table.

Item, That al communicantes do receive kneeling, and as is appointed by the lawes of the the realme and the queenes majesties injunctions.

Item, That the fonte be not removed, nor that the curate do baptize in parishe churches in any basons, nor in anye other forme, then is alredie prescribed, without charginge the parent to be present or absent at the christening of his childe, although the parent may bee present or absent, but not to answere as godfather for his childe.

Item, That no childe be admitted to answere as godfather or godmother, except the childe hath received the communion.

Item, That there be none other holidayes observed besides the Sundayes, but onelye suche as be set out for holidayes, as in the statute "anno quinto et sexto Edwardi sexti," and in the new calendar authorysed by the queenes majesty.

Item, That when any christian bodye is in passing, that the bell be tolled, and that the curate be specially called for to comforte the sicke person, and after the tyme of his passinge to ringe no more but one shorte peale, and one before the buriall, and another shorte peale after the buriall.

Item, That on Sundaies there be no shoppes open, nor artificers commonlye goinge aboute their affaires worldly, and that in all faires and common markets fallinge uppon the Sunday, there be no shewing of any wares before the service be done.

Item, That in the Rogation dayes of procession they singe or saye in Englishe the two psalmes beginninge, "Benedic anima mea," etc. with the letany and suffrages thereunto with one homelye of thankesgevinge to God, already devised and divided into foure partes without addition of any superstitious ceremonies heretofore used.

Articles for certayne orders in ecclesiasticall policy.

First, Againste the day of giving of orders appoynted, the byshope shall give open monitions to all men to except agaynste suche as they knowe not to be worthy either for life or conversation. And there to give notice that none shall serve for orders but within their owne dioces, where they weare borne, or had their longe tyme of dwellinge, except suche, as shall bee of degree in the universities.

Item, That younge preistes or ministers made or to be made, be so instructed, that they be able to make apte aunsweres concerninge the forme of the catechisme prescribed.

Item, That no curate or minister bee permitted to serve without examination and admission of the ordinary or his deputy in writing, having respect to the greatnes of the cure and the meetnes of the party; and that the sayde ministers, if they remoove from one dioces to another, bee by no means admitted to serve without testimonye of the diocesan, from whence they come, in writing of theyre honesty and ability.

Item, That the byshop doe call home once in the yeare any prebendary in his church, or beneficed in the dioces, whiche studieth at the universities, to know how he profiteth in learninge, and that he be not suffered to bee a servinge or a waytinge man dissolutely.

Item, That at the archedeacon's visitation the archedeacon shall appoynte the curates to certayne taxes of the Newe Testamente to bee conde without booke. And at their nexte synode to exact a rehearsall of them.

Item, That the churchwardens once in the quarter declare by their curates in billes subscribed with their handes to the ordinarye or to the nexte officer under him, who they bee, whiche will not readily paye their penalties for not comminge to Goddes divine service accordingly.

Item, That the ordinaries doe use good diligente examination to foresee all simoniacall pactes or covenants with the patrons or presenters for the spoyle of their glebe, tithes, or mansion houses.

Item, That no persons be suffered to marye within the Leviticall degrees mentioned in a table, set forth by the archebysshoppe of Caunterburye in that behalfe anno Domini M.D.LXIII, and if anye suche be, to be separated by order of lawe.

Articles for outwarde apparell of persons ecclesiasticall.

Firste, That all archebysshoppes and byshoppes do use and continue their accustomed apparell.

Item, That all deanes of cathedrall churches, masters of colledges, all archdeacons, and other dignities in cathedrall churches, doctors, bachelors of divinitye and lawe, having any ecclesiasticall livinge, shall weare in their common apparell abroad a fyde gowne with sleeves streyght at the hand without anye cuttes in the same; and that also without anye fallinge cape; and to weare typpets of farennet, as is lawfull for them by thact of parliament "anno xxiv Hen. octavi".

Item, That all doctors of physicke, or of any other facultye, having any livinge ecclesiasticall, or any other that may dispende by the church one hundred markes, so to be esteemed by the fruites or tenthes of their promotions; and all prebendaries, whose promotions be valued at twenty pound or upward, weare the like apparell.

Item, That they and all ecclesiasticall persons or other, havinge any ecclesiasticall livinge, doe weare the cappe appointed by the injunctions. And they to weare no hattes but in their journeyng.

Item, That they in their journeyng do weare their clokes with sleeves put on, and lyke in fashion to their gownes without gards, welts, or cuts.

Item, That in their private houses and studies they use their owne liberty of comely apparrell.

Item, That all inferiour ecclesiasticall persons shall weare longe gownes of the fashion afore-sayde, and cappes as before is prescribed.

Item, that all poore parsons, vicars, and curates do endeavor themselves to conforme their apparrell in like sorte so soone and as conveniently entlye, as their ability will serve to the same. Provided that their abilitye bee judged by the byshop of the dioces. And yf their abilitye will not suffer to buye them longe gownes of the forme afore prescribed, that then they shall weare their shorte gownes agreeable to the forme before expressed.

Item, That al suche persons, as have ben or be ecclesiasticall, and serve not the minysterie, or have not accepted, or shall refuse to accepte the othe of obedience to the queenes majesty, doe from hencefourth abroad weare none of the sayde apparrell of the forme and fashion afore sayde, but to go as mere layemen, till they be reconciled to obedience; and who shall obstinately refuse to do the same, that they bee presented by the ordinarye to the commissioners in causes ecclesiasticall, and by them to be reformed accordingly.

Protestations to be made, promised, and subscribed by them that shall hereafter bee admitted to any office, roome, or cure in any church, or other place ecclesiasticall.

Inprimis, I shall not preache or publicly interpret, but onely reade that, whiche is appointed by publique authoritye, without special licence of the byshope under his seale.

I shall reade the service appoynted playnly, distinctly, and audibly, that all the people may heare and understande.

I shall keepe the register booke accordinge to the queenes majesties injunctions.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 7.

I shall use sobrietie in apparel, and specially in the church at common prayers, according to order appointed.

I shall move the parishioners to quiet and concorde, and not geve them cause of offence, and shall helpe to reconcile them, whiche be at variaunce, to my uttermoste power.

I shall reade daylie at the leaste one chapter of the Old Testament, and one other of the Newe, with good advisement to thincrase of my knowledge.

I do also faithfully promise in my person to use and exercise my office and place to the honor of God, to the quiet of the queenes subjects within my charge, in truth, concorde, and unitye. And also to observe, kepe, and mentayne suche order and uniformity in all external policye, rites, and ceremonies of the church, as by the lawes good usuages and orders are already well provided and established.

I shall not openlye intermeddle with any artificers occupations, as covetously to seke a gayne thereby, havinge in ecclesiastical lyvinge to the somme of 20. nobles or above by yere.

Agreed upon, and subscribed by

Matthaeus Cantuariensis
Edmundus Londinensis
Richardus Eliensis
Edmundus Roffensis
Robertus Wintoniensis
Nicolaus Lincolnensis

Commissioners in causes ecclesiasticall, with others.

Anno Christi
1564.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 8.

Queen Elizabeth's letter to the bishop of London for seizing seditious books transported from beyond sea. Strype's Annals vol. I. app. p. 74.

By the queene.

RYGH T reverend father in God, right true and wel beloved, we grete you well. Where we be geven to understand, that certain unnatural and seditious subjects of this our realme being fled out of the same, and lyving on the other side of the seas, ceasse not continually to contrive and send over hither sundry seditious and slanderous books, to be spredde abroad here, partely for there own private gayne, but especially to move the ignorant people to disorder; a thing very requisite to be looked unto, as being merely against all good order and policy of this our state, and contrary also to the statutes and laws of this our realme; we lett you wete, that considering the most parte of those slaundersous books be brought in by such vessells, as arryve within our porte of London, of which place you are the chief pastor and bishoppe; and waying withall that you are one of our commissioners for matters ecclesiasticall; we have thought good to appointe you specially to have regarde hereunto. And for the better dealing therein, we have given order to our high treasurer of England expressly by our letters, that he shall suffer suche one or mo persons of discretion, as you shall appointe for this purpose, to resort to our Custome house of London, as any ship or vessell shall come in from time to time, and ther to syt with our customers and other officers, for the serche and perfecte understanding of the state of suche bookes, and as anye suche shall be found to be brought to your handes, to th'intent that upon the considering of the same, you may do with them, as to your discretion shall be thought good. And further call before you and examine all suche persons, as you shall finde faultie herein, or in any wise to be suspected; and upon due tryall of his faulte to cause him to be punished, as the lawes of this our realme will permit, or otherwise in reason shalbe thought fyt. And yf you shall think yt requisite to have the like order in any other porte; we have also given commaundment to our said treasurer to cause the same to be executed, upon the notice to be given from you, and the diocessan of the place; requiring you therefore to take some care herein, and to make some speciall choyse of the men, that you shall appointe hereunto, bothe for their discretion, and also for their diligence, in suche sorte, as we may perceive some good to grow by this our order, for the redress of these evil practises. And thes our letters shal be your sufficient warrant in this behalf. Yeven under our signet at our palace of Westminster the 24th day of January, in the eighth yere of our reigne.

Queen ELIZABETH'S letter to the bishop of LONDON. 251

Archiepsc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 7.

Anno Christi
1565.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 8.

Synodus utriusque provinciae Cantuar. et Ebor.

SYNODUS utriusque provinciae Cantuar. et Ebor. ad primum diem mensis Maii prorogata per breve regium dat. 9. die Aprilis, anno regni 7. usque in 5. diem Octobris prox. futur.

et ab eo die per aliud breve dat. 16. die Sept. anno regni 7. ad octavum diem mensis Februarii seq. prorogabatur.

Archiepsc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 8.

Anno Christi
1566.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 9.

Synodus provinciae Cantuar. et Ebor. Ex extract. Heylin. et reg. Ebor.

SYNODUS provinciae Cantuar. ab octavo die mensis Februarii ad primum diem Octobris, anni M.D.LXVI. per breve regium prorogabatur. Hoc die et quatuor aliis congregata, continuabatur ad 30. Octobris. Eo die, qui sextam fecit sessionem, episcopi post tractatum et communicationem inter eos aliquamdiu habitam, prolocutorem accersiverunt, eumque iusserunt sex viros discretos inferioris domus seligere ad excogitand. et concipiend. formam libri de subsidio dominae reginae per praelatos et clerum dictae Cant. provinciae concedendo. Per duas alias deinde sessiones haec convocatio continuata, die 22. Novemb. (quae nona fuit sessio) ad aedes Lambethanas transferebatur; ubi sessione undecima Dec. 4. reverendissimus legi fecit coram iis librum de subsidio dominae reginae concedendo, cujus conscribendi et examinandi causa sessiones viginti, h. e. integer hujus convocationis annus consumebatur. Tandem tertio die mensis Januarii per breve regium dissolvebatur.

EBORACENSIS provinciae synodus octavo die Februarii anno praecedente summonita per breve regium dat. 7. Februar. anno regni 8. ulterius prorogata est usque in diem primum Octobris prox. seq. Ab illo die per breves continuationes de die in diem usque ad 20. mensis Decembris, M.D.LXVI. Quo tempore aliud subsidium reginae concedebatur, et hoc facto, commissarii synodum hanc usque in 8. Januarii, et inde in 15. diem ejusdem mensis continuaverunt. Et tunc convocatio dissolvebatur per breve regium datum 3. die Januarii, anno regni 9.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London for conformitie. Reg. Parker I. fol. 256. b.

RIGHT well beloved brother, after my right hartie commendations in our saviour Christ. Whereas you do well know what offense is taken, for that diverse and sundry of the state ecclesiastical be so hardlie induced to conformitie, in administration of public prayers and sacraments, and in outward apparell, agreeable, in regard of order, for them to weare, notwithstanding established and other orders and ordinances prescribed in the same; in which disorder appeareth (as is commonlie interpreted) a manifest violation and contempte of the quenes majesties authoritie, and abusing her princely clemency in so long bearinge with the same, without execution of condigne severitie for there due correction, if the lawes were extended upon them. And whereas the whole state of the realme, by acte of Parliament openly published, doth most earnestly in God's name require us all to endeavour ourselves, to the utmost of our knowledge, duely and truly to execute the said lawes, as we will answer before God; by the which acte also, we have full power and authoritie to reform, and punish by censures of the church all and singular persones, which shall offende; and whereas also the quenes most excellent majestie, now a yere past and more, addrested her highness lettres enforcing the same charge, the contents whereof I sent unto your lordship in her name and authoritie, to admonish them to obedience, and so I dowt not but your lordship have distributed the same unto other of our brethren within this province of Canterbury; whereupon hath ensued in the most part of the realm an humble and obedient conformitie, and yet some few persons, I fear more scrupulous than godly prudent, have not conformed themselves: peradventure some of them for lack of particular description of orders to be followed, which as your lordship doth know, were agreed upon amonge us long agoe; and yet in certeine respects not published now for the speedy reformation of the same, as the quenes highness hath expresly charged both you and me of late. Being therefore cauled to her presence to see her lawes executid, and good orders decreed and observed, I can no less do of my obedience to almighty God, of my allegiance to her princely estate, and of sincere zeal to the truth and promotion of christian religion now established, but require and charge you, as you will answer to God, and to her majestie, to see her majesties lawes and injunctions duly observed within your dioc. and also theis our convenient orders described in theis bookes, at theis present sent unto your lordship; and furthermore to transmitt the same bookes with your lettres (according as hath been heretofore used) unto all others of our brethren within this province, to cause the same to be performed in their severall jurisdictions and charges. And where we have of late the 26th day of this present monthe of March, called before us, according to the quenes majesties commandement in this behalf signified all manner of parsons, vicars, and curates servinge within the citye of London, and have commanded divers of them in their obedience, who have considered their duties in this behalf; so have we also from this day fourth, suspendid all ministers expressly refusing conformitie from their public ministracion whatsoever, and have also denounced sequestration of all the frutes of ther levings so long tyme as they shall remayne in this disobedience; signifying further, that if within the space of three moneths, from thense next ensuing this advertisement, either any of them do attempt to offend in the like disobedience, and be therefore convicted by the notorious evidence of the facts, or shall continue without reconciling of themselves, and promising and subscribing their conformitie to the lawes and orders agreeable, to be then deprived "ipso facto" of all ther spiritual promotions in which case it may be lawful in due order of lawe to all patrons and doners of all and singuler the same spirituall promotions, or any of them, to presente or collate to the same, as though the person or persons so defending were dead; after which like sort all other ordinaries, after notice given unto all persons within their jurisdictions of the lawes, injunctions, and other orders established for the same conformitie, I think will follow in order the same example, whereby we trust all contention and just offence amongst the quenes subjects may at the last be suppressed, peace, and quietness in unitie of doctrine, and uniformitie of exterine behaviours recovered, the quenes majesties authoritie revered, her lawes obediently regarded, to the promotion of the truth of the gospell, and to the glory of almighty God, to whom for this tyme I committ you in all grace and vertue as my self. From my house at Lambeth the 28th day of Marche, M.D.LXVI.

to

Your lovinge brother,

MATTHEW Cantuar.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 8.

Anno Christi
1567.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 9.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the clergy of his diocese.
Ex reg. Parker fol. 260. a.

AFTER my right hartie commendations unto your lordship premised; thes shal be to desyre and require you, for causes good and urgent, to certifie me in writing distinctly, on this side the first day of the next Michelmas terme, the names and surnames, degrees, and reputed age of all and singular, as well your dean, archdeacons, dignities, and prebendaries within your cathedral church, as of all and singular others any wayes beneficed, or having any spirituall promotion within your said diocess, and how many of them be resident upon their said spirituall promotions, and where, and in what place, and caulging the absentes do dwell, how many of all such be ministers or deacons, and how many no prestes or deacons; noting also who, and how many of the foresaid be lernid, and able to preach, and how many be licensid thereto, and by whom they be so; and finally how many of them do kepe hospitality upon heir benefices within their said diocess, with a like note of all vacant benefices, and the names of such as do receive the frutes thereof. Thus not doubting your lordship's speedy diligence herein, I wish you well to fare. From my mannor of Lambeth this, etc.

Articles to be enquired of in the metropolitical visitation of the most reverend father in God Matthew, by the providence of God archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England, and metropolitan, in al and singular cathedral and collegiate churches within his province of Canterbury. Strype's life of Parker app. p. 85.

I. FIRST, Whether your dean, archdeacons, and other dignities of your church be resydent or not? whether they be graduates? what other promotions or livings every one of them hath? whether every one of them be ministers or not? whether they use semely or priestly garments, according as they are commanded by the quenes majesties injunctions to doe?

II. Item, Whether your prebendaries be resydent, or how many of them? where every one of the rest be? what be their names? what livings they have? what orders they be in? how, or in what apparel they do commonly goe? whether they do preach in their course? or how often? and in what time of the yere they do resort to your cathedral church?

III. Item,

III. Item, Whether your divine service be used, and your sacraments ministred in manner and forme prescribed by the quenes majesties injunctions, and none other way? whether it be said or songe in due time? whether in al points according to the statutes of your church, not being repugnant to any of the quenes majesties laws or injunctions? whether al that were wonte be bound, or ought to come to yt, do so styl? and whether every one of your church openly communicate in the said cathedral church, at the least thrice in the yere?

IV. Item, Whether your grammar school be wel ordered? whether the number of the children thereof be furnished? how many wanteth? and by whose default? whether they be diligently and godly brought up in the fear of God, and wholesome doctrine? whether any of them have been received for money or reward, and by whom? whether the statutes, foundations, and other ordinances touching the same grammar school, and schoolmaster, and the scholars thereof, or any other having doing or interest therein, be kept? by whom it is not observed, or by whose fault? and the like in al points you shal enquire and present of your choristers and master.

V. Item, Whether al officers and ministers of your church, as wel within as without, do their duties in al points obediently and faithfully? and whether your dean, stewards, treasurers, pursers, receyvers, or any officer having any charge, or any ways being accomptant to the said church, do make a plain, faithfull, and true accompt at such days and times, as be limytted and appointed by the statutes, or custome of the said church; making full payment reallie of all arrearages? whether any mony or goods of the church do remaine in any mans hands? who they be? and what sum remaineth?

VI. Item, You shall enquire of the doctrine and judgment of al and singular hedd and members of your church; as your dean, archdeacons, prebendaries, readers of divine service, schoolmasters, vicars, petti-cans, deacons, conducts, singing men, choristers, scholars in grammar schools, and al other officers and ministers, as wel within your church, as without; whether any of them do either privlie or openlie preach or teach any unwholesome, erroneous, seditious doctrine, or discourage any man from the reading of the holy scriptures soberly for his edifying; or in any other point do perswade or move any not to conform themselves to the order of religion reformed, restored, and received by public authority in this church of England. As for example, to affirm and maintain that the quenes majesty, that now is, and her successors, kings and quenes of this realm of England, is not, or ought not to be head, and chief governour of this her people, or church of England, as wel in ecclesiastical laws, causes, or matters, as temporal; or that it is not lawfull for any particular church, or province to alter the rites and ceremonies publickly used, to better edification; or that any man may, or ought by his private authority, do the same; or that any man is to be born with, which do extoll any superstitious religion; as reliques, pilgrimages, lightings of candles, kissing, kneeling, or ducking to images; or praying in a tongue not known, rather than English, or to put trust to a certain number of "Pater nosters," or use any beads for the same, or such other things, or to maintain purgatory, private masses, trentalls, or any other fond fantasy invented by man, without ground of God's word; or to say, teach, or maintain, that children being infants should not be baptised; or that every article in our Crede, commonly received and used in the church, is not to be believed of necessity; or that mortal or voluntary sins committed after baptisme, be not remissible by penance; or that a man, after that he have received the Holy Ghost, cannot syn; or that afterwards he cannot ryse again by grace to repentance; or that any man lyveth without syn; or that it is not lawfull to swear for certain causes, or that civil magistrates cannot punish, for certain crimes a man with death; or that it is lawful for any man, without outward calling of the magistrates appointed, to take upon him any ministry of Christ's church; or that the word of God doth condemne the regiment of women; or that the word of God doth command sole lyfe, or abstinence from marriage to any minister of the church of Christ, not having the gift of God to live sole; or any other errors, or false doctrine, contrary to the faith of Christ and holy scriptures.

VOL. IV,

VII. Item, You shall enquire of the names and surnames of al and singular the abovenamed members, officers, ministers of this your said church, whether you know, or suspect any of them to attaine his room, or lyving by simonie, that is by mony, unlawful covenant, gyft, or reward? who presented him? whether his lyving be in lease? and by whom it is leased? to whom? upon what rent? whether he doth pay any pension for it? for what cause? what sum? and to whom? Whether any of them be known, or suspected to be a swearer, an adulterer, a fornicator, or suspected of any other uncleannes? whether any of them do use any suspect house, or suspected company of any such faults, any taverne, alehouse, or tippling houses, at any inconvenient seasons? whether any of them be suspected to be a drunkard, a dicer, a carder, a brawler, fighter, quarreler, or unquiet person, a carier of tales, a backbyter, slanderer, bate-maker, or any other ways a breaker of charity or unity, or cause unquietness by any means?

VIII. Item, Whether you have necessary ornaments and books of your church? whether your church be sufficiently repaired in al parts? what stock or annual rent is appointed toward the reparation of the cathedral church? in whose hands or custody doth it remain?

IX. Item, Finally, you shall present what you think necessary, or profitable for the church, to be reformed, or of new to be appointed, and ordained in the same.

T t t

Queen

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 9.

Anno Christi
1568.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 10.

Queen Elizabeth's and the archbishop of Canterbury's orders for enquiry what strangers were come into the realm for pretence of religion. Reg. Parker I. fol. 270. b.

To the right honourable and my lovinge brother, the busshop of London, yeve thes.

AFTER my right hartie commendations unto your good lordship premised. Whereas I have of late receivid the quenes majesties most honourable lettres missive, the true tenor whereof hereafter ensueth:

Most reverend father in God, right trustie and right well beloved, we grete you well. Forasmuch as we do understand that there do dayly repair into this our realme great numbers of strangers from the parties beyond the seas, otherwyse than hath been accustomed; and the most parte thereof pretending the cause of there coming to be for to lyve in this realm with satisfaction of ther conscience in christian religion, according to the order allowed in this our realme; and doubting lest that amongst such numbers, divers may also resorte into our realme, that are infectid with dangerouse opinions, contrary to the faith of Christ's church, as Anabaptistes, and such other sectaris, or that be guilty of some other horrible crimes of rebellion, murder, robberyes, or such like committed by them in the partes from whence they do come, to which kynde of people we do in no wise meane to permitte any refuge within our dominions: therefore we do will and require you to geve spedy order and commaundment to the reverend father in God the byshop of London, and all other ordinaries of any place, where you shall thinke any such confluence of strangers to be within your province, that without delaye, speciall and particular visitation, and inquisition be made in every parish for this purpose, requisite, of all manner of persons being strangers borne, of what country, qualitie, and estate soever they be, with the probable causes of ther coming into this our realme, and the time of ther continuance, and in what sort they do lyve, and to what churches they do resorte for exercise of christian religion, with such other things requisite in this case to be understonde, for the worthiness of there continuance in this our realme; and therupon to cause perfecte registers to be made, and so to continue, and to geve advertisement to our justices, and ministers of our lay power, to proceed spedily to the trial of such, as shall be found suspectid of the foresaid crimes or otherwise, that shall not be conformeable to such order of religion as is agreable to our lawes, or as is permitted to places specially appointed for the resorte of strangers, to the exercise of religion in the use of common prayer and the sacraments: and in all other things we will and require you to use all good diligence and provision, by the meanes of the byshopes and ordinaries under you, as well in places exempte as otherwise, that no manner of strangers be suffered to remayn within any part of our dominions in your province, but such as shall be knowne or commonly reputed to be of christian conversation, and meate to lyve under our protection, according to the treatise of enter-cours betwixt us and other princes our neighbours. Yeoven under our signet at our mannor of Grenewiche the 13th day of May, M.D.LXVIII. the tenth yere of our reign. Thes shall be therfore in the quenes majesties name to will and require your lordship, that having regard (as I doubt not but you will) to the execution of the quenes majesties said lettres within your own diocess, you do also forthwith signifie the tenor thereof to all and singuler my brethren, the other bishops and other ordinaries within my province, where you shall thinke any confluence of strangers to be; willing and commanding them, and every of them, in the quenes majesties name, without delaye to cause the tenor of her majesties said lettres to be executed through every of ther severall diocesses and jurisdictions, as well in places exempt as not exempt, as to them and every of them shall appertayne. And thus I byd your lordship most hartely well to fare as myself. From my house at Lambeth the 24th of May, M.D.LXVIII.

The articles of enquiry were as follow.

Articles inquired of in the serche for the number of straungers within the city of London, and about the same, in the months of November and December last past, viz. anno Domini M.D.LXVII.

I. First, You shall inquire how many straungers and aliens, as well men, as women and children, are dwelling and resyent, or abiding within your severall parishes; and of what nation they be?

II. Item, How long every of them have been dwellyng or abyding there, and what the names of every of them are, and about what time every of them came first hither?

III. Item, Of what trade, lyving, or occupation they be, and how many of them are vehemently suspected or defamed of any evil lyving, or to be setters forward or favourers of any naughtie religion or sect?

IV. Item, Whether they do resorte to their parish churches to hear divine service, and to receive the sacraments, as others of the parishioners do, or are bound to do?

V. Item,

The queen's and archbishop's orders about STRANGERS, etc. 255

V. Item, How many of them absent themselves from theyr said several parish churches, and what their names be?

VI. Item, How many of them resorte to their churches appointed for straungers here in the city of London?

Archiepsic. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER IO.

Anno Christi
1569.

Reg. Angliæ
ELIZAB. II.

A licence for severall recreations on Sunday tollerated by queen Elizabeth.
Ex apographo in præfat. Tho. Hearnii ad Cambden. Elizab. p. 28.

To all majors, shereffes, constables, and other bed officers within the countie of Middlesex.

AFTER our hartie commendations. Whereas we are enformed that one John Secon-ton Powlter, dwellinge within the parishe of St. Clementes Daines, beinge a poore man, havinge foure small children, and fallen into decaye, ys lycensed to have and use some playes and games at or uppon nyne severall Sondaies for his better releif, comforte and sustentacion within the countie of Middlesex, to comense and begynne at and from the 22d daie of Maye next comynge after the date hereof, and not to remayne in one place not above thre severall Sondaies; and, we consideringe that great resorte of people is lyke to come thereunto, we will and require you as well for good order, as also for the preservation of the quenes majesties peace, that you take with you foure or fyve of the discrete and substanciall men within your office or liberties, where the games shal be put in practise, then and there to foresee and doo your endeavor to your best, in that behalf duringe the contynuanee of the games or playes, which games are hereafter severallie mencyned, that is to saye; the shotinge with the stand-erd, the shotinge with the brode arrowe, the shotinge at the twelve skore prick, the shotinge at the Turke, the leppinge for men, the runninge for men, the wrastringe, the throw-inge of the sledge, and the pytchinge of the barre, with all suche other games as have at any time heretofore or now be lycensed, used, or played. Yeoven the 26th daie of April in the eleventh yere of the quenes majiestie's raigne.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the provision of arms to be made by the clergy. Reg. Parker I. fol. 278. a.

AFTER my hartie commendations unto your good lordship premised. I have of late received (as your lordship knoweth) commandment from the quenes highness, and her honorable privy counsell, to take order for a certain view to be had, and with spede certified, of armour to be provided by the clergy of the province of Cant. according to the proportion and rate prescribed and used in the tyme of the raigne of the late king and queen, king Philippe and queen Mary, which rate and proportion is to theis lettres in a schedule annexed; these are to will and requier your lordship to geve order as well to the clergy of your own dioces, for the reddey performance of the same, as also to signifie the said commandment to the residewe of my brethren, the other bysshopes of my province of Cant. willing and commanding them, and every of them forthwith to accomplish her highness said commandment in every ther several dioces and jurisdictions, as to them and ther bounden dueties appertayneth, and the same view by them and every of them so taken, according to the said rate and proportion, spedely to certifie unto me at Lambeth, with the names, furnames, and promotions of all that, according to the said schedule, be chargeable with any such provision. And thus I byd your lordship most hartely well to fare as my self. From my house at Lambeth the 6th of May, M.D.LXIX.

Whereas the lordes of the quenes majesties most honorable privye counsaile have geven commaundment for the provision of armour and other furniture by the clergie of this realm, according to such order and rates, as was used in the tyme of the late king Philippe and queen Mary, the several rates and order then used in that behalf are hereafter particularly specified; videlicet.

That every one of the clergie having landes, or possessions of estate of enheritance of freholde, shall provide and find, and be chargeable with armour, horses, and other furniture in such sort, and in manner, and forme, as every temporall man is charged, by reason of his landes and possessions, by vertue of the statute made in the fourth and fifth yeres of the reignes of the late king Philippe and queen Mary.

Item, That every one of the said clergie, having benefites, spiritual promotions or pensions, the clere value whereof, either by themselves, or joyned together, do amounte to the clere yerely value of xxx.l. or upwards, shall be bound and charged to provide, have, and maynteyne armour, and other provision, requisite, according to such proportion and rate, as the temporaltie are bound and charged by the said statute, by reason of their moveable goodes.

Item, If any of the clergie of this realm have both temporall landes and possessions, and also spiritual promotions, he shall be charged with armour and other provision according to the greatest rate of one of them, and not with both.

Observe

256 Archbishop's letter about provision of arms by the CLERGY.

Observations in rating the proportion of armour.

I. First, The bishop to rate himself amongst the temporalties for landes.

II. Secondly, To rate the dean and prebendaries, as the temporalties, for goods from xxx. l. upwards.

III. Item, To rate the whole diocess in like sorte.

IV. Item, To accompte such as be resident within the diocess under the somme of xxx. l. and yet having benefices or pensions elsewhere to make up the same somme or upwardes, to be rated there amonge the supplies.

V. Item, to rate every incumbent where he is resident, and every ordinarie chaplain not resident, in the diocess where he serveth.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 10.

Anno Christi
1569.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. II.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the chapter of York about the same.
Reg. Parker I. fol. 278. b.

AFTER my most hartie commendations premised. Whereas in the time of the late king Philippe and quene Mary, there was a certain proportion and rate prescribed and used, for armour to be founde and maynteined by the clergie of this realm of England, which rate and proportion is mentioned, and described in a schedule therein enclosed, I have of late receivid commandment from the quenes majestie, and her honorable privy counsaile, for a certain vewe to be had, and with speede certified, of the said armour to be provided by the clergy of my province of Canterbury, according to the rate and proportion containid in the schedule above mentioned; wherein like as I have geven order for the due and spedy accomplishment of the quene's majesties said commandment throughout my province, so I thought convenient to geve you advertisement thereof; wishing you to have due regard for the like vewe to be had, and with all convenient speed certified throughout the province of York, where you have charge and jurisdiction, during the vacation of the archiepiscopal see there; and the same vewe so taken, to certifie to the honorable privy counsaile with speade convenient. And thus I byd you most hartily well to fare. From my house at Lambeth the 16th of Maye, M.D.LXIX.

Letter of the council to the archbishop of Canterbury about the recovering the discipline of the church. Ex originali in sylloge epist. annex. Tito Livio For-Julienfi edit. Hearn, p. 179. seq.

AFTER our very heartie commendations to your good lordship. The queen's majestie of late in conference with us upon the state of this her realm, among other things meet to be reformed, is moved to think, that universally in the ecclesiastical government the care and diligence, that properly belongeth to the office of bishops, and other ecclesiastical prelates and pastors of this church of England, is of late years so diminished and decayed, as no small number of her subjects, partly for lack of diligent teaching and information, partly for lack of correction and reformation, are entered either into dangerous errors, or into a manner of life of contempt or libertie, without use or exercise of any rite of the church, openly forbearing to resort to their parish churches, where they ought to use common prayers, and to learn the will of God by hearing of sermons, and consequently receive the holy sacraments. Of the increase of which lamentable disorders her majestie conceiveth great grief and offence, and therefore hath expressly charged us to enquire the truth hereof by all good means possible, and to provide speedily for the reformation and remedie hereof. Whereupon according to her majesties charge, and as we find it very requisite of our own dueties, as well towards almighty God, as to her majestie and our countrey, we have entered into a further consideration hereof; and though we find a concurrencie of many causes, whereupon such general disorders and contempts have of late years grown and encreased, (the remedie whereof we mean to seek and procure by as many other good meanes as we can) yet certainly we find no one cause hereof greater, nor more manifest, than an universal oversight and negligence (for less we cannot term it) of the bishops of the realm, who have not only peculiar possessions, to find, provide, and maintain officers, but have also jurisdiction over all inferior ministers, pastors, and curates, by them to enquire or be informed of these manner of contempts and disorders, and by teaching and correction to reform them. Or if the offenders should for any respect appear incorrigible, thereof to make due information to her majestie, as the supream governor under God of the whole realme. And surely, though we know, that some of the bishops of the realme are to be more commended than some other, for preaching, teaching, and visiting of their diocese, yea and for good hospitality, and other good examples of life; yet at this time doubting, that a great part of the realm in sundrie places is touched with the infection of these disorders, tho' some more, some less, and (as we fear) no bishoprick fully free: we have therefore necessarily concluded to notifie to every one of the bishops alike this her majesties carefulness ness and desire to have her realm herein reformed, and for that purpose at this present, to seek the understanding of every diocese in certain points thereafter following. And therefore we will and require your lordship in her majestie's name, that first ye will earnestly conceive, and thankfully allow, of this her majestie's godly disposition, and next that yow do circumspectly and as quietly, as yow may (without any manner of proceeding, likely to breed public offence) enquire or cause to be enquired by such, as are faithful officers, and not dissemblers, what persons they be, and of what qualitie, degree, and name, that have not of late time resorted to their parish churches within your diocese, or have not used the common prayers, according to the lawes of the realm, or have not at usual times received the holy sacrament, and how long they have forborn. And further also we require to be advertised, what ecclesiastical public officers yow have under your lordship in your diocese, who they be, what their names and degrees, ordained to see to the execution of the laws of the church. Likewise what preachers yow have, properly for the more part conversant with yourself in your household, and what other preachers residing abroad in your diocese, and what ecclesiastical livings every of them hath, with the values thereof, or what other stipends they have, wherewith they have any maintenance or sustentation to continue in the functions. Likewise we require yow by authority of these our letters to conferr with the dean and chapter of your cathedral church, and with the heads of any other collegiate church in your diocese, or with any other persons having any peculiar jurisdiction within your diocese, and cause them to certifie distinctly by writing, what number of prebendaries, canons, and preachers they have, which do reside within the said churches and jurisdictions, and how many do not reside, and how many of them do, and not use to preach, and what be their names and degrees, and in like sort the names and degrees of them, that have any sustentation in their churches to preach, and yet do not reside, nor do preach. And likewise we desire to be advertised, what churches or places ordained to have common prayer, are by any meanes presently void of curates, and in whose default the same happeneth, and in what sort yow think the same may be best remedied. And whilst yow shall be occupied in the inquisition hereof, wherein we would have yow use all good diligence; we heartily and earnestly require your lordship, as yow would be counted worthy of your calling, to employ all your care and industry in procuring more diligent preaching and teaching within your diocese, as well by your self, as by all others having the gift to preach. And therein to use all charitable means by diligent instruction and faithful teaching and example of life, to stay the good, faithful, and obedient subjects in their duties, and to induce and perswade others to return from their disorders and errors, so as all parties may observe their duties in the public and open service of almighty God, according to his ordinance, and as by the common order of the realm is for God's honour established. And whatsoever your lordship shall think meet and needful to be granted or devised for your further assistance, thereof to advertise us, whom yow shall find ready to add and satisfie yow as farr forth, as we shall find in our powers reasonable, either by our selves, or by meanes to her majestie, whom we perceive earnestly disposed to have the glory of God increase, by the due reverence of all her subjects in his service, according to his blessed word and commandment. And thus we bid your good lordship well to fare. From Windfore 6th of November, M.D.LXIX.

Your lordship's loving friends,

N. Bacon Canc.	W. Howard.
F. Bedford.	R. Sadleir.
E. Clynton.	F. Knollys.
W. Northt.	Wa. Mildmay.
R. Leicefter.	W. Cecil.

Postscript: We pray your lordship not to delay the answering to us with speed the names of the recusants to come to church, without delaying for the rest, and to procure the like certificates of these matters from the bishopricks of Chichester and Oxford now vacant, and to that end to send them a copie of these our letters, with special charge to see the same accomplished.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER II.

Anno Christi
1569.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 12.

Articles to be enquired of within the diocese of Canterbury, in the ordinarie visitation of the moste reverende father in God Matthew, by the providence of God archebysshop of Canterbury, primate of all Englande and metropolitane, in the yeare of oure Lorde God M.D.LXIX. Ex reg. Parker I. fol. 302. a.

INPRIMIS, Whether divine service be sayde or songe by youre minister or ministers in your severall churches duely and reverently, as it is set forth by the lawes of this realme, without any kinde of variation. And whether the holy sacramentes be likewise ministred reverently in such manner, as by the lawes of this realme, and by the quene's majesties injunctions, and by thadvertisementes set forthe by publike authority is appointed and prescribed.

VOL. IV.

II. Item, Whether you have in youre paryshe churches all things necessary and requisite for common prayer and administration of the sacraments, specially the booke of common prayer,

U u u

the

the Bible in the largest volume, the homilies, with the paraphrases of Erasmus, a convenient pulpit well placed, a comly and decent table for the holy communion covered decently, and set in place prescribed by the quene's majesties injunctions. The cheste or boxe for the poore men, and al other thinges necessary in and to the premisses. And whether your aulters bee taken downe, accordinge to the commaundemente in that behalfe geven.

III. Item, Whether youre prestes, curates, or ministers do use in the time of the celebration of divine service to weare a surples, prescribed by the quene's majestie's injunctions and the boke of common prayer. And whether they do celebrate the same divine service in the chauncell or in the church, and do use all rites and orders prescribed in the boke of common prayer, etc. and none other.

IV. Item, Whether your curates or ministers do publiquely in their open churches reade in manner appoynted the quene's majestie's injunctions and homelies: the aduertisements lately sette forth by publique authoritie. And whether the same in all poyntes be duly observed.

V. Item, Whether youre curates or ministers or any of them do use to minister the sacramente of baptisme in basons, or els in the fonte standing in the place accustomed. And whether the same fonte be decently kepte. ¶ And whether they do use to minister the holye communion in waferbread according to the queene's majestie's injunctions, or els in common bread. ¶ And also whether they do minister in any prophane cuppes, bowles, dishes, or chalices heretofore used at masse, or els in a decent communion cuppe provided and kept for the same purpose only. And whether the communicants do use to receyve the holy communion standinge, sittinge, or els knealinge.

VI. Item, Whether ymages and al other monuments of ydolatri and superstition be destroyed and abolyshed in your severall paryshes. And whether your churches and chauncels be well adorned and conveniently kept without waste, destruction, or abuse of anye thinge. Whether the roode losse be pulled downe, according to the order prescribed: and if the partition betweene the chauncell and the church be kepte. Whether youre churchyardes be well fenced and cleanly kepte. Whether anye sale have been made of youre church goods, by whom and to whom, and what hath been done with the moneye thereof commyng. Whether youre chauncels and parsonages be well and sufficiently repaired. Whether any man have pulled downe or discovered any church, chauncel, chappel, almshouse, or fuche like, or have plucked downe the bells, or have felled or spoyled any wood or timber in any churchyarde.

VII. Item, Whether there be any parsons, that intrude themselves, and presume to exercise any kinde of mynistry in the church of God without imposition of handes and ordinary auctority. Whether their church or chappell be served with any readers. Or whether any minister do remove from any other diocese to serve in this without letters testimoniall of the ordinary from whome he came, to testify the cause of his departyng thence and of his behaviour. Or any beinge once preist or minister, that dothe not minister or frequente and resort to the common prayer now used, and at tymes appoynted communicate. And whether anye fuche do goe and boaste himselfe lyke a layman.

VIII. Item, Whether youre parsons and vicars be resident continually upon their benefices. Whether they give themselves to devoute prayer, discrete reading of the scripture, and godly contemplacion, and releave the poore charitably to their hability, according to the queen's injunctions. Whether they pray for the prosperous estate of the quene's majesty, as is prescribed in her graces injunctions.

IX. Item, Whether anye of youre ministers dothe or hath admitted any notorious sinner or malicious person out of charitie, withoute juste penance done and reconciliation had, to receive the holy communion; or any that hath not received the same accordinge as to a christian appertayneth, and by the lawes it is appoynted. And whether you do heare or knowe any, that doth use to say or heare the private masse, or doe use any other service, then is prescribed by the lawes of this realme.

X. Item, Whether your ministers doe call upon fathers, mothers, and maisters of youthe to bringe them up in the feare of almighty God, in obedience and in convenient occupations. Whether they bee peacemakers and exhort the people to obedience to their prince, and to all other that be in authoritie, to charity and mutual love among themselves. Whether they geve themselves to superstition, and bee maintainers of the unlearned people in ignorance.

XI. Item, Whether your parsons, vicars, and curates be common gameners, hunters, haunters of tavernes or alehouses suspected of any notable crime, fauters of forrein poures, letters of good religion, preachers of corrupt doctrine, stubborne or disobedient to lawes and orders. Whether they be geven to filthy lucre. Whether they be light either in example of life, or in unwont and unfemely apparell.

XII. Item, Whether anye of your benefices be vacant, how longe they have ben vacant, who is patrone. Whether there be any laye or temporall men (not beinge within orders) or children, or anye other (within age) that hath or enjoyeth any benefice or spiritual promotion; any patron that suffereth any benefice to be vacante, and taketh the tithes and other fructes to himselfe.

XIII. Item, Whether your ministers keepe their registers well, and do present the copy of them once every yeare by indenture to the ordinary or his officers. And teache the articles of the fayth, and the tenne commaundementes, and the Lorde's prayer, as is prescribed them in the catechisme.

XIV. Item,

XIV. Item, Whether youre parsons and vicars have any other or mo benefices, where and in what countrey they bee: whether they came by them by symony, or other unlawful meanes. Whether they do let their benefices to farme, or els kepe them in their owne handes. Whether they keepe hospitalitie or not. Whether in their absence they leave their cures to honest, learned, or expert curates. Whether they make their ordinarye sermons accordinge to the queene's majestie's injunctions as they oughte to do, and saye their service sensibly and distinctly.

XV. Item, Whether the laye people be diligent in comminge to the church on the holy dayes, and with all humbleness, reverentlye and devoutelye do geve themselves to the hearinge of commune prayer in the time thereof, and otherwise occupy themselves in private prayers, readinge of scriptures, or other vertuous exercise. Yf anye be negligente or wilfull, whether the forfeiture be leved on their goods to the use of the poore, according to the lawes of this realme in that behalf provided. And what mony hath ben gathered by the churchwardens of the forfeits.

XVI. Item, Whether there be in your quarters any that openly or privily use or frequent any kinde of divine service, or common prayer, other then is set forth by the lawes of this realme: and disturbers of common prayers or letters of the worde of God to be reade, preached, or hearde: anye that by covert or crafty meanes deprave or contemne the same; or that speake to the derogation of the queene's majestie's authority and power, or of the lawes set out by publike authority.

XVII. Item, Whether there be amonge you any blasphemers of the name of almighty God, adulterers, baudes, or receavers of such persons, any suspected of incest or any other notorious fault, sin, or crime: any dronkardes, ribalds, common slanderers of their neighbours, raylers, or scolders, sowers of discord betweene neighbours by playes, rimes, famous libels, or otherwise.

XVIII. Item, Whether there be in your parishes any inkeepers, or alewives, that admit any resort to their houses in tyme of common prayer. Anye that commonlye absente themselves from theyre owne churches: or otherwise idely or lewdlye prophaneth the Sabbath day. Any that keepe any secrete conventicles, preachings, lectures, or readings contrary to the lawes. Any suspected of heresy, or that maintain any erroneous opinions contrary to the lawes of almighty God and good religion, by publike authority in this realme set forth.

XIX. Item, Whether there be in these parties, which minister the goodes of those, whiche be deade, without authority, any executors that have not fulfilled their testators will, specially in paying of legacies geven to good and godly uses; as to the reliefe of povertie, to poore schollers, orphans, highwaies, marriage of poore maidens, and suche like. Whether youre hospitals and almshouses be justly used ac-cordinge to the foundation and auncient ordinances of the same. Whether there be any other placed in them, than poore, impotent, and needy persons, that hath not otherwise wherewith or whereby to live.

XX. Item, Whether there be any which of late have bequeathed in their testaments, or otherwise ther be appointed by ordinaries any summes of mony, Jewelles, plate, ornamentes, or annuities for the erection of any obites, diriges, trentals, or any such like use, now by the lawes of this realme not permitted; and if there be, that you present the names of such executors, the quantity and quality of the gift, that ordre may be taken therein accordingly.

XXI. Item, Whether there be any mony or stoke, appertaininge to any paryshe church, in anye manne's handes, that refuse or differeth to paye the same; or that useth fraude, deceite, or delaye to make anye accompte in the presence of the honestye in the parishe for the same. Whether youre churchwardens and others aforetyme, have gyven the yearly accompte, accordinge unto the custome as it hath been aforetyme used. Whether the store of the poore mennes boxe be openlie and indifferentlie given where nede is, without parcial affection. Whether any stocke of cattel or grain appertaininge to your churches be decayed; by whose negligence, and in whose handes.

XXII. Item, Whether youre schoolemasters be of a sincere religion, and be diligent in teaching and bringing up of youth. Whether they teach any other grammar, then such as is appointed by the queene's majestie's injunction annexed to the same, or not.

XXIII. Item, Whether there be anye among you that use sorcerie or inchauntement, magike incantations, or nigromancie, or that be suspected of the same.

XXIV. Item, Whether there be anye in these partes, that have married within degrees of affinity or consanguinity, by the lawes of God forbidden, so set out in a table for an admonition. Any man that hath two wives, or anie woman that hath two husbandes. Anie that beinge divorced or seperated aside, hath married againe. Anye married that have made precontracts. Anye that have married without banes thrise solemnelye asked. Anye couples married that live not together, but slanderously live apart. Any that have married out of the parishe church, where they ought to have the same solemnised.

XXV. Item, Whether any youre ordinaries within this dioces, their chauncellor, officials, commissaries, registers, and all and singular others, that have or do exercise any visitation or jurisdiction ecclesiastical within any part of this dioces, have uprightly, faithfully, and unfaynedly to the uttermost of their powers observed in theyre owne persons, and towards all other put in due execution the queene's majestie's ecclesiasticall lawes, statutes, injunctions, and al her highnes other commaundementes published for uniformitie of doctrine, and due order of the publike ministration of God's holy

ly worde and sacramentes, and have commended and favored all such as fought the same, and condignely punished al suche as fought the contrary.

XXVI. Item, Whether have any of them at any time wittingly suffered faultes and transgressions to remayne unpunished, for mony, gayne, pleasure, frendeshippe, or any other affectionate respecte; or yf any of them be or have beene burdensome to the subjectes of their severall jurisdictions, by exacting or takinge excessive fees, procurations, any rewardes or commodities by the way of promotion, gift, contribution, helpe, loane, redemption of penance, omission of quarter sermons, obtaining of any benefice or office, or any other like ways or meanes.

XXVII. Item, Whether the parishioners of everye parishe duelye pay unto the collectors of the same for the poore, accordinge to the statute in that behalfe provided, all suche sommes of money as they be cessid at, or of benevolence have graunted, for the reliefe of the poore, or no, or whether any have or doe refuse to paye the same or no.

Generally, Whether there be any evill livers or offenders of the lawes of almightie God: anie suspected of any notorious sinne, faulte, or crime, to the offence of christian people committed: anie that stubburnlie refuse to conforme themselfe to unitie and good religion: anie that bruteth abroad rumors of the alteration of the same, or otherwise that disturbeth good orders, and the quietnesse of Christe's church and christian congregation.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER II.

Anno Christi
1570.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 12.

Damnatio et excommunicatio Elizabethae reginae Angliae, eique adhaerentium, cum aliarum poenarum adjectione, per papam Pium quintum. Ex Bullario Romano vol. II. p. 303.

Pius episcopus, servus servorum Dei, ad perpetuam rei memoriam. Regnans in ex-cellis, cui data est omnis in caelo et in terra potestas, unam sanctam, catholicam, et aposto-licam ecclesiam, extra quam nulla est salus, uni soli in terris, videlicet apostolorum principi Petro, Petrique successori Romano pontifici, in potestatis plenitudine tradidit gubernandam.
Hunc unum super omnes gentes et omnia regna principem constituit, qui evellat, destruat, dissipet, disperdat, plantet, et aedificet, ut fi-delem populum mutuae charitatis nexu con-strictum, in unitate Spiritus contineat, salvum-que et incolumem suo exhibeat salvatori.

Quo quidem in munere obeundo, nos ad praedictae ecclesiae gubernacula Dei benignitate vocati, nullum laborem intermittimus, omni opera contendentes, ut ipsa unitas et catholica religio (quam illius auctor ad probandam suorum fidem et correctionem nostram, tantis pro-cellis conflictari permisit) integra conservetur.
Sed impiorum numerus tantum potentia invaluit, ut nullus jam in orbe locus sit relictus, quem illi pessimis doctrinis corrumpere non tentarint; adnitente inter caeteros flagitiorum ferva Elizabetha, praetensa Angliae regina, ad quam veluti ad asylum omnium infestissimi profugium invenerunt. Haec eadem, regno occupato, supremi ecclesiae capitis locum in omni Anglia, ejusque praecipuam auctoritatem atque jurisdictionem monstruose sibi usurpans, regnum ipsum jam tum ad fidem catholicam et bonam frugem reductum, rursus in miserum exitium revocavit.

Ufu namque verae religionis, quam ab illius desertore Henrico VIII. olim everfam, clarae memoriae Maria, regina legitima, hujus sedis praesidio reparaverat, potenti manu inhibito, secutisque et amplexis haereticorum erroribus, regium consilium ex Anglica nobilitate confectum diremit, illudque obscuris hominibus haereticis complevit, catholicae fidei cultores oppressit, improbos concionatores atque impietatum ministros reposuit; missae sacrificium, preces, jejunia, ciborum delectum, coelibatum, ritusque catholicos abolevit; libros, manifestam haeresim continentes, toto regno proponi, im-pia mysteria et instituta ad Calvinii praescri-ptum a se suscepta et observata, etiam a subditis servari mandavit; episcopos, ecclesiarum re-ctores, et alios sacerdotes catholicos suis eccle-siis et beneficiis ejicere, ac de illis et aliis rebus ecclesiasticis, in haereticos homines disponere, deque ecclesiae causis decernere ausa, praelatis, clero, et populo, ne Romanam ecclesiam agno-scerent, neve ejus praeceptis, sanctionibusque canonicis obtemperarent, interdixit; plerosque in nefarias leges suas venire, et Romani pontifi-cis auctoritatem atque obedientiam abjurare; seque solam in temporalibus et spiritualibus do-minam agnoscere jurejurando coegit; poenas et supplicia in eos, qui dicto non essent audientes, imposuit; easdemque ab iis, qui in unitate fidei et praedicta obedientia perseverarunt, exegit.

catholicos antistites, et ecclesiarum rectores in vincula conjecit, ubi multi diuturno languore et tristitia confecti, extremum vitae diem mi-sere finiverunt. Quae omnia cum apud omnes nationes perspicua et notoria sint, et gravissimo quamplurimorum testimonio ita comprobata, ut nullus omnino locus excusationis, defensionis, aut tergiversationis relinquatur.

Nos multiplicantibus aliis atque aliis super alias impietatibus et facinoribus, et praeterea fidelium persecutione, religionisque afflictione, impulsu et opera dictae Elizabethae quotidie magis ingravescente, quoniam illius animum ita obfirmatum atque induratum intelligimus, ut non modo pias catholicorum principum de fa-nitate et conversione preces, monitionesque contempserit,

tempserit, sed ne hujus quidem sedis ad ipsam hac de causa nuncios in Angliam trajicere permiserit; ad arma justitiae contra eam de necessitate conversi, dolorem lenire non possumus, quod abducamur in unam animadvertere, cujus majores de republica christiana tantopere meruere. Illius itaque auctoritate suffulti, qui nos in hoc supremo justitiae throno, licet tanto operi impares, voluit collocare, de apostolicae potestatis plenitudine declaramus praedictam Elizabetham haeticam et haeticorum fautricem, eique adhaerentes in praedictis, anathematis sententiam incurrisse, esseque a Christi corporis unitate praecisos; quinetiam ipsam praetense regni praedicti jure, necnon omni et quocunque dominio, dignitate, privilegioque privatam.

Et item proceres, subditos et populos dicti regni, ac caeteros omnes, qui illi quomodocunque juraverunt, a juramento hujusmodi, ac omni prorsus dominii, fidelitatis, et obsequii debito perpetuo absolutos, prout nos illos praesentium auctoritate absolvimus; et privamus eandem Elizabetham praetense jure regni, aliisque omnibus supradictis. Praecipimusque et interdiciamus universis et singulis proceribus, subditis, populis, et aliis praedictis, ne illi, ejusve monitis, mandatis, et legibus audeant obedire. Qui secus egerint, eos simili anathematis sententia innodamus.

Quia vero difficile nimis esset, praesentes quocunque illis opus erit perferre, volumus, ut earum exempla notarii publici manu et praelati ecclesiastici, ejusve curiae sigillo obsignata, eandem illam prorsus fidem in judicio et extra illud, ubique gentium faciant quam ipsae praesentes facerent, si essent exhibitae vel ostensae. Dat. Romae apud S. Petrum anno incarnationis dominicae M.D.LXX. 5. cal. Maii, pontificatus nostri anno quinto.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 12.

Anno Christi
1571.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 13.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri Cant. provinciae inchoata in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedr. D. Pauli London. April. 3. Ex reg. convoc. et excerpt. Heylin.

PRIMO hujus convocationis die in ecclesia S. Pauli London. coram archiepiscopo, episcopis, et clero Cant. provinciae, litania et hymno finitis, doctor Whitgift Latinum habuit sermonem ex Act. xv. "Convenerunt apostoli et seniores videre de verbo hoc:" in quo de instituto et auctoritate synodorum, de inimicis ecclesiae, puritantibus sc. et papistis, de usu vestimentorum et ornamentorum, et post de multis in futura synodo reformandis tractabat. Eo finito, episcopi et clerus domum capitularem intrant, ubi post exhibitum ab episcopo London. certificarium, archiepiscopus clero auctoritatem eligendi prolocutoris concedit, quem in proxima sessione praesentarent.

In ea (April 7.) preces Deo optimo maximo fundebat archiepiscopus, una cum quibusdam orationibus et collectis in sermone Latino in synodis (ut apparuit) dicendis editis. Quo facto, mag. Joh. Elmer prolocutor electus admittebatur. Et tunc reverendissimus voluit et iussit, ut omnes de coetu eorum, qui articulis anni M.D.LXII. haecenus non subscripserunt, modo iis subscribant; et quod omnes et singuli, qui iis subscribere noluerint aut recusaverint (si qui tales inveniantur) a dicta domo inferiori penitus excludantur.

In tertia sessione (April. 20.) archiepiscopus in capella regis Henr. VII. apud Westmonasterium cum praelatis et clero comparens, protestationi decani et capituli Westm. de privilegiis collegii respondit, se ea nullo modo infringere velle; unde Gabriel Goodman decanus reverendissimo facultatem concessit synodum ibi congregare per instrumentum, quod sub finem sessionis exhibebatur et erat hujus tenoris: Dictis D. et C. egregius vir dominus decanus tam ex causis, ex parte reverendissimi in Christo patris et domini dom. Matthaei, miseratione divina Cant. archiepiscopi, sibi expositis, quam ex aliis cau-sis ejus animum in ea parte (ut asseruit) moventibus, eidem reverendissimo patri ad tenend. et celebrand. sacram convocationem cleri provinciae Cant. (alias per ipsum rev. patrem inchoatam) intra collegiatam ecclesiam D. Petri Westm. in loco seu locis quocunque seu quibuscunque ejusdem ecclesiae per ipsum R. patrem assignandis seu deputandis licentiavit, ac licentiam specialem dedit et concessit; ita tamen quod hujusmodi licentia nihil praejudicii fiat privilegiis collegii, sive ecclesiae collegiatae praedict. Et super inde requisitus me notarium publicum (viz. Tho. Wheeler) ad conficiend. sibi instrumentum, etc." Et tunc dictis et recitatis per eundem reverendissimum precibus consuetis, idem reverendissimus produxit instrumentum super concessione subsidii dominae reginae concedendi; cui domus superior primum, et deinde inferior assensum praebuerunt. In hac sessione etiam causa tractabatur Richardi, episcopi Glocestrensis, in prima et secunda sessione hujus convocationis non comparentis, et absque venia archiepiscopi urbe egredientis, nullumque substituentis procuratorem; et tandem praefatus reverendissimus pater, caeterique confratres sui unanimiter decernebant eum merito excommunicandum fore, quod et factum est his verbis:

"In Dei nomine, Amen. Cum nos Matthaeus, providentia divina Cantuar. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitani, rite et legitime procedens reverendum in Christo patrem dominum Richardum, Glocestren. episcopum, ac commendatarium episcopatus Bristolien. alias propter suam contumaciam et manifestum contemptum in non comparendo coram nobis neque per se, neque per procuratorem suum in hac praesenti convocatione sive sacra synodo provinciali in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedralis D. Pauli London. tertio die praesentis mensis Aprilis inchoata et cele-

X x x

celebrata, ac de die in diem usque ad hos diem et locum continuata et prorogata juxta citationem et monitionem ultimam et peremptoriam alias sibi ex parte nostra fact. pronuntiavimus contumacem, poenam contumaciae suae hujusmodi ad arbitrium nostrum reservando. Nos Matthaeus, archiepiscopus antedict. poenam contumaciae dicti episcopi et commendatarii nunc declarando, eundem episcopum et commendatarium de consensu confratrum nostrorum nobiscum in hac praesenti convocatione assidentium, excommunicamus in hiis scriptis.

Lect. per praefatum reverendissimum patrem dom. Matthaeum, archiepiscopum Cant. in capella regis Henrici VII. infra ecclesiam collegiatam D. Petri Westmon. 20. die mensis Aprilis, anno Domini M.D.LXXI.

JOH. INCENT, registrarius.

Hanc excommunicationem episcopi in sessione quarta (April 27.) archidiacono Glocestrensi, Ivy Eaton cum assistentia nuncii regii vulgo nuncupati "Pursuivant," committebant, mandantes ut dictas literas excommunicationis effectualiter denunciari faciat in dicta ecclesia cathedrali Glocestren. cum omni celeritate accommoda tempore concionis ibidem faciendae, et quam cito possit certificatorium executionis ejusdem remittat. Hoc facto, convocatio ad aedes Lambethanas continuata fuit.

In sequenti sessione (May 4.) precibus finitis, post tractatum aliquamdiu inter reverendissimum et confratres suos secrete habitum tandem unanimiter convenit, ut sequitur.

"That when the book of articles touching doctrine shall be fully agreed upon, that then the same shall be put in print by the appointment of my lord of Sarum, and a price rated for the same to be sold.

Item, That the same being printed, every bishop to have a convenient number thereof to be published in their synods, throughout their several dioceses, and to be read in every parish church four times every year."

Duodecimo die ejusdem mensis Antonius Higgens, facellanus episcopi Glocestren. exhibuit procuratorium suum pro eodem reverendo patre, et fecit se partem pro eodem, et instanter petiit beneficium absolutionis eidem, quae jussu archiepiscopi per doctorem Yale, vicarium generalem, ipsi indulgebatur usque ad et in 25. diem praesentis mensis Maii, et deinde ob excusationem morbi ad 15. diem Junii.

Sessio sexta fuit die Veneris undecimo Maii, quando episcopi in coenaculo Lambethano congregati, de et super rebus ecclesiae et libro articulorum de doctrina, ut apparuit, secrete secretis omnibus arbitris, tractarunt. Tandem in sessione decima (Maii 30.) convocatio per breve regium dissolvebatur a doctore Yale.

Memorandum: quod decimo quinto die Junii Ant. Higgens, episcopi Glocestren. facellanus, allegavit episcopum adhuc aegrotum esse; super quibus obtulit se paratum ad faciend. fidem, petens eundem rev. patrem a sententia excommunicationis suae absolvi. Et tunc facta fide de veritate allegationis hujusmodi, reverendissimus de consensu confratrum suorum (Winton, Ely, et Sarum) eundem reverendum patrem episcopum Glocestren. in persona dicti Antonii Higgens, procuratoris sui, ad et in 14. diem Octob. prox. futur. absolvit, etc.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 12.

Anno Christi
1571.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 13.

Queen Elizabeth's letter to the archbishop for uniformity in church matters.

Strype's Parker p. 330.

MOST reverend father in God, right trusty and right wellbeloved, we greet you well. Where we require you, as the metropolitan of our realm, and as the principal person in our commission for causes ecclesiastical, to have good regard, that such uniform order in the divine service and rules of the church might be duly kept, as by the laws in that behalf is provided, and by our injunctions also is declared and explained; and that you should call to your assistance certain of our bishops, to reform the abuses and disorders of sundry persons, seeking to make alteration therein; we understanding that with the help of the reverend fathers in God, the bishops of Winton and Ely, and some others, ye have well entred into some convenient reformation of things disordered, and that now the bishop of Ely is by our commandment repaired into his diocese, whereby ye shall want his assistance; we minding earnestly to have a perfect reformation of all abuses, attempted to deform the uniformity prescribed by our laws and injunctions, and that none shall be suffered to decline either on the left or on the right hand from the direct line limited by authority of our said laws and injunctions; do earnestly by our authority royal will and charge you, by all means lawfull, to procede herein, as you have begun. And for your assistance we will, that you shall, by authority hereof, and in our name, send for the bishops of London and Sarum, and communicate these our letters with them, and straightly charge them to assist you from time to time, between this and the month of October, to do all manner of things requisite to reform such abuses as afore are mentioned, in whomsoever ye shall find the same. And if you shall find in any of the said bishops (which we trust ye shall not) or in any other, whose aid you shall require, any remissness to aid and assist you, if upon your admonition the same shall not be amended, we charge you to advertise us. For we mean not that any persons, having credit by their vocation to aid you, shall for any respect forbear or become remiss in this service, tending tending to the observation of our laws, injunctions, and commandments. Given at our manor of Hatfield the 20th day of August, in the 13th year of our reign.

The queen's letter for UNIFORMITY in church matters. 263

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 12.

Anno Christi
1571.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 13.

Liber quorundam canonum disciplinae ecclesiae Anglicanae anno M.D.LXXI.

Sequuntur in hoc libello certi quidam articuli de sacro ministerio, et procuratione ecclesiarum, in quos plene consensus est in synodo a domino Matthaeo, archiepisc. Cantuar. et totius Angliae primate et metropolitano, et reliquis omnibus ejus provinciae episcopis, partim personaliter praesentibus, partim procuratoria manu subscribentibus in synodo inchoata Londini in aede divi Pauli tertio die Aprilis, M.D.LXXI.

De episcopis.

OMNES episcopi diligenter docebunt evangelium, non tantum in ecclesiis cathedralibus, quibus praesunt, sed etiam passim, per omnes ecclesias suae cujusque dioeceseos, ubi maxime putabunt expedire.

Inprimis autem cohortabuntur populum ad lectionem, et auditionem sacrarum scripturarum; utque stans temporibus convenient ad suas quique ecclesias, et diligenter auscultent sacris concionatoribus; utque submisce et audiant pias preces, quae a ministro dicuntur, et una precentur ipsi, et caelestium mysteriorum, ut nunc in ecclesiis nostris auctoritate, et jussu totius regni legitime et pie procurantur, sint participes.

Episcopus quisque ante calendas Septembris proximas, advocabit ad se omnes publicos concionatores, quicumque erunt in sua cujusque dioecesi, et ab illis repetet facultates concionandi, quas habent, autentico sigillo consignatas, easque vel retinebit apud se vel extinguet. Deinde, delectu illorum prudenter facto, quoscunque ad illam tantam functionem aetate, doctrina, judicio, innocentia, modestia, gravitate, pares invenerit, illis novas facultates ultro dabit; ita tamen ut prius subscribant articulis christianae religionis publice in synodo approbatis, fidemque dent, se velle tueri, et defendere doctrinam eam, quae in illis continetur, ut consentientissimam veritati divini verbi.

Episcopus etiam atque etiam considerabit, quod genus hominum admittat in famulitium. Fit enim interdum, ubi haec cautio et diligentia non adhibetur, ut homines impios et verae religionis inimicos, et criminosos, et tota vita impuros, et sceleratos admittamus. Ex eo adversarius facile capiet maledicendi occasionem.

Episcoporum famuli in omni vestis genere ita se modeste et compositae ornabunt, ut fratres suos, quos Paulus appellat domesticos fidei, non offendant.

Episcopus nemini posthac manum imponet, nisi instituto in bonis literis, vel in academia, vel in inferiori aliqua schola; aut qui satis commode intelligat Latinam linguam, et probe versatus sit in sacris literis: nec nisi attigerit aetatem illam legitimam, quae statutis et legibus est constituta: nec nisi cujus vita et innocentia gravium, et piorum hominum et episcopo notorum fuerit testimonio commendata: nec si in agricultura, vel in vili aliquo et sedentario artificio fuerit educatus: nec nisi qui titulum (quem appellant) aliquem habeat, ut sit unde vitam tueatur, si Dei permisso, vel in caecitatem, vel in gravem corporis infirmitatem, vel in morbum diuturnum incidat: nec nisi qui intra ipsius dioecesis sacro ministerio functurus sit: nec unquam nisi ubi sacrum aliquod ministerium in eadem dioecesi vacare contigerit. Neminem autem peregrinum, et ignotum vel ad sacerdotiorum proventus, vel ecclesiasticum ministerium recipiet, nisi ab illo episcopo, e cujus dioecesi discessit, literas commendatitias, quas appellant dimissorias, secum afferat.

Episcopus praebendarum, et beneficiorum suorum proximas secundas aut tertias advocaciones, quas vocant, nulli dabit (sunt enim et a bonis moribus, et a christiana charitate alienae) nec dimissiones fructuum, aut reddituum cujusunque rectoriae, aut ecclesiastici beneficii quacunque ratione in plurimos confirmabit.

Episcopus neminem, qui se otioso nomine lectorem vocet, et manus impositionem non acceperit, in ecclesiae ministerio versari patietur.

Quivis archiepiscopus et episcopus habebit domi suae sacra Biblia in amplissimo volumine, uti nuperrime Londini excusa sunt, et plenam illam historiam, quae inscribitur "Monumenta martyrum," et alios quosdam similes libros ad religionem appositos. Locentur autem isti libri vel in aula, vel in grandi coenaculo, ut et ipsorum famulis et advenis usui esse possint.

De decanis ecclesiarum cathedralium.

Eosdem illos libros, quos proxime diximus, decanus quisque curabit emi, et locari in ecclesia sua cathedrali ejusmodi in loco, ut a vicariis et minoribus canonicis, et ministris ecclesiae, et ab advenis, et peregrinis commode audiri et legi possint.

Eosdem libros illos decanus et primarius quisque residentiarius, quos appellant ecclesiae dignitates, ement suo quisque famulitio, eosque opportuno aliquo in loco, vel in aula, vel in coenaculo locabunt.

Decanus et praebendarii diligenter docebunt sacrum Dei verbum non tantum in ecclesiis cathedralibus ubi vivunt, sed etiam in aliis ecclesiis in eadem dioecesi, maxime vero in illis locis, unde ipsis redditus annui, et stipendia suppeditantur. Quod nisi fecerint, pro episcopi arbitrio puniantur.

Nullus

Nullus nec decanus, nec archidiaconus, nec residentiarius, nec praepositus, nec custos, nec praefectus alicujus collegii, aut ecclesiae cathedralis, nec praeses, nec rector, nec quisquam ex illo ordine, quocunque nomine censeatur, utetur posthac amictu illo, quem appellant Graium Amicium, aut alia ulla veste, simili superstitione contaminata. Sed in ecclesiis quisque suis utentur tantum linea illa veste, quae adhuc regio mandato retinetur, et scholastica epomide, quae suo cujusque scholastico gradui et loco conveniat.

Quivis decanus in singulos annos ad minimum quater residebit in ecclesia sua cathedrali, ibique singulis hujusmodi vicibus mensem integrum (si fieri potest) docendo verbum Dei, et hospitalitatem servando, moram faciet, nisi forte gravibus et urgentibus causis impediatur. Eas autem causas in singulas vices indicabit episcopo suo. Ubi autem venerit, una cum praebendariis residentibus curabit, ut statuta illius ecclesiae, nisi contraria sint (ut multa sunt) verbo Dei, et statuta hujus regni quaecunque sunt, quae ecclesiasticum ordinem attingunt, et sacrae injunctiones, vel a regia maiestate editae, vel episcopi in visitationibus illius ecclesiae cathedralis impositae, diligenter observentur. Praeterea decanus et residentiarii, quantum maxime possint, dabunt operam, ut minores canonici, aut vicarii et ministri ecclesiae, ne ignavi, et inutiles vitam ducant in otio, et illicitis lusuibus se exerceant, adigantur ad studia scripturarum, utque illorum quisque habeat Novum Testamentum, non tantum Latino sermone scriptum, sed etiam Anglico.

Decanus et residentiarii curabunt, ne qua alia forma observetur in canendis aut dicendis sacris precibus, aut in administratione sacramentorum, praeterquam quae proposita, et praescripta est in libro publicarum precum; nec ullum admittent peregrinum ad habendam sacram concionem ad populum, nisi ei aut regia maiestas, aut archiepiscopus illius provinciae, aut illius dioeceseos episcopus facultatem indulserit. Et si ejusmodi aliquis concionator, ita vel a regia maiestate, vel ab archiepiscopo, vel ab episcopo approbatus, publicabit ad populum pro concione doctrinam aliquam peregrinam, et impiam, et pugnantem vel cum sacro Dei verbo, vel cum articulis religionis nostrae approbatis in synodo, haud dubie cum eodem verbo Dei consentientibus, vel cum libro publicarum precum; decanus aut residentiarii primo quoque tempore indicabunt id episcopo literis suis, et eorum aliquot, qui concionantem audiverunt, manu consignatis, ut ille statuatur, quod videbitur.

De archidiaconis.

Quivis archidiaconus habebit domi suae et alios libros, et nominatim eos, qui inscribuntur Monumenta martyrum.

Archidiaconus, qui vel jure communi, vel praescriptione habet potestatem visitandi, semel in singulos annos in persona sua visitabit provinciam suam, neque quemquam sibi substituet officialem, nisi qui in academia fuerit educatus, et juri civili operam dederit, et annum aetatis vicesimum quartum compleverit; et non solum doctrina, sed etiam gravitate, et modestia par sit obeundo illi muneri.

Archidiaconi, et illorum substituti, quos appellant officiales, in visitationibus suis vocabunt clerum ad rationem, quantum quisque promoverit in studio scripturarum, et quicunque ex illo ordine magisterium artium in academiis non attigerint, illis proponent partem aliquam Novi Testamenti memoriter ediscendam, eosque in proxima synodo ad repetitionem adigent, et contumaces, et negligentes episcopo indicabunt.

Peracta visitatione, archidiaconus significabit episcopo, quos invenerit in quoque decanatu, ea doctrina, et judicio praeditos, ut digni sint, qui pro concione doceant populum, et praesint aliis. Ex illis episcopus potest delectum facere, quos velit esse decanos rurales.

Archidiaconi in omnes delinquentes severe, et graviter animadvertent, neque connivebunt ad vitia, aut quemquam, quem constat offendisse, impune abire patientur.

Archidiaconi curabunt, ut forensium suorum actorum memoriae fideliter et tuto conserventur; et semel in singulos annos adferent ad episcopum suum originalia exemplaria omnia testamentorum, quae coram ipsis anno superiori probata fuerint, ut ea in episcopi registro asserventur; copias autem illorum testamentorum ad usum suum ipsi sibi describent, si velint.

De cancellariis, commissariis, officialibus.

Quivis cancellarius, commissarius, et officialis erit institutus in legibus ecclesiasticis et civilibus, qui annum aetatis vicesimum sextum attigerit, et in scholis doctrinae nomine gradum aliquem susceperit, et in forensibus causis mediocriter versatus fuerit, de cujus vita et moribus nullus sinister sermo audiatur. Adhaec quivis horum, aut erit in sacro ministerio, aut si non erit, tamen animo toto et ferventi zelo erga religionem feretur, idque aperte et ingenue prae se feret; et antequam in functionem ingredietur, sacramento se obstringet de auctoritate et primatu principis, atque etiam subscribet articulis de religione in synodo episcoporum approbatis.

Nullus horum, nec cancellarius, nec commissarius, nec officialis in cognitione causarum procedet usque ad ferendam sententiam excommunicationis, nisi tantum in causis instantiarum. In correctionis negotiis alia quidem facient omnia, quae de jure possint, et solent fieri.

Excommunicationis autem sententiam deferent tantum ad episcopum; eamque aut ipse per se pronuntiabit, aut gravi alicui viro in sacro ministerio constituto, pronuntiandam committet. Postquam autem sententiam tulerit, addet insuper commonendi populi, et terroris causa, formulam illam verborum, quae postea suo loco subjicietur; atque etiam aliam formulam similem, quae servanda sit in denuncianda ad populum excommunicatione, curabit describi, et mitti ad singulos ecclesiarum praefectos, ut habeant quo utantur, si usus postulet. Commutationem autem injectae poenitentiae nec cancel-cancellarius faciet, nec archidiaconus, nec officialis, nec commissarius. Ea potestas multis gravibus de causis episcopo soli reservabitur, aut si quem alium episcopus ad eum usum speciali mandato designabit.

Ecclesiasticus iudex, cujuscunque loci aut ordinis, neminem excommunicatum absolvet domi suae, aut alioqui in privatis aedibus; sed tantum publice, et pro tribunali.

Cancellarii, officiales, commissarii omnem adhibebunt diligentiam, ut caeteri omnes qui ipsorum jurisdictioni subjiciuntur, officium faciant. Inprimis vero ut rectores, vicarii, et ministri ecclesiarum studiose versentur in sacris literis, et sibi libros ordini et professioni suae congruentes comparent, ut quicumque ad magisterium artium non accesserit, emat sibi duos libros Novi Testamenti, alterum Latine translatum, alterum Anglice, ut illorum quisque memoriter ediscat eam pensam scripturarum, quae illi vel ab ecclesiastico iudice ordinario, vel ab alio, cujus fidem et industriam episcopus eligere maluerit, fuerit imposita: ut observent ordines et ritus descriptos in libro publicarum precum, tam in legendis sacris scripturis, et precibus dicendis, quam etiam in administratione sacramentorum, ut neve detrahant aliquid, neve addant, neve de materia, neve de forma: ut honeste se gerant et in gravi vestitu, in libello admonitionum proposito, modeste et decenter ambulent; utque si familiam habeant, et uxores non habeant, mulierem aliam domi suae ne alant, nisi aut matrem, aut sororem, aut neptem ex fratre aut sorore; quod si coelibes vivant, et uxores non habeant, in taberna aut caupona cibum ne capiant, sed honesta aliqua in domo in eadem parochia, ubi sine suspitione possint vivere: ut ne ludant aleis, neve chartis, aut aliis improbatis lusibus se exercent: ut arcu tantum utantur et sagittis, idque animi causa, at modeste, et in tempore; ne vel ab officio faciendo, vel a sacrarum scripturarum studiis auferantur.

Videbunt etiam, ne rector, vicarius, aut parochus uspiam inserviat, vel in capella, vel in oratorio, ut publicas preces dicat in cujusque privatis aedibus, nisi episcopus illi autographo suo, et manus suae subscriptione ejus rei potestatem fecerit; ne rector aut vicarius, aut parochus inserviat plusquam uni ecclesiae, aut capellae uno die.

Quivis minister ecclesiae, antequam in sacram functionem ingrediatur, subscribet omnibus articulis de religione christiana, in quos consensus est in synodo; et publice ad populum, ubicunque episcopus jusserit, patefaciet conscientiam suam, quid de illis articulis, et universa doctrina sentiat. Semel autem receptus in sacram ministerium, ab eo in posterum non discedet, nec se aut vestitu, aut habitu, aut in ulla vitae parte geret pro laico.

Quivis rector ecclesiae, vicarius, aut parochus quotannis ante vicesimum diem a Paschate exhibebit episcopo, ejusve cancellario aut commissario nomina et cognomina parochianorum suorum tam marium, quam foeminarum (eorum inquam) qui cum exegerint annum aetatis suae decimum quartum, tamen ad sacrosanctam communionem (uti statutis et legibus ecclesiasticis hujus regni tenentur) non accesserint; quique subire examen ecclesiastici ministri de ediscendo catechismo, et articulis christianae religionis detraxerint; quique parentes aut domini liberos aut famulos suos ad audiendum discendumque eundem illum catechismum constitutis temporibus ad ecclesiam mittere contempserint. Neminem autem patientur de sacro lavacro infantem suscipere, nisi qui ad mensam dominicam accesserit, et sanctorum mysteriorum particeps fuerit; ad mysteriorum autem communionem neminem admittet, qui catechismum et articulos fidei non didicerit.

Omnibus dominicis, et festis diebus rectores, vicarii, et parochi ita mature et convenienter captato tempore veniant ad ecclesias, ut parochiani confectis rebus suis, cum libris et famulis possint eodem occurrere; ibi vero reverenter (uti par est) et pie peragent sacrum mysterium ita clare, aperte, et distincte, ut populus audire, et intelligere possit quid dicatur, et ex eo consolationem et fructum capere. Eandem pietatem et reverentiam in sacrosanctis etiam mysteriis retinebunt, modo ne ad superstitionem, aut adorationem, aut idololatricum cultum vergant. Quodsi tempore sacrae communionis nulla erit concio, de scripto et e pulpito pronuntiabunt unam aliquam, aut aliam ex illis homiliis, quas jam antea publicavimus in illum usum. Interim cohortabuntur populum, ut diligenter veniant ad ecclesias, ut quae legantur, quaeque dicantur, attente audiant, utque se toto illo tempore reverenter, et modeste gerant. Et ne piorum animi insolentia et irreligiosa levitate offendantur, curabunt ne juvenes, praesertim rustici, quorum ingenia procliviora fere sunt ad neglectum pietatis, et nequitiam, neve pulsant campanas, neve per templum obambulent, neve inter se otiose colloquantur, neve aut risu, aut strepitu, aut scurrilibus ineptiis vel ministrum impediunt, vel offendant populum.

Admonebunt populum, ut frequentius accendant ad sacram communionem, utque jam antea tota mente (uti par est) sese praeparent. Et ut omnes intelligant, quid debeant Deo optimo maximo; quid principi, quem colere ac venerari debent ut vicarium Dei; quid legibus, quid magistratibus, quid fratribus suis, quid populo Dei; omnibus dominicis et festis diebus statim a meridie praesto erunt in templis, ibique minimum ad duas horas legent, et docebunt catechismum, et in eo instituent omnes suos omnium aetatum, atque ordinum, non tantum puellas aut pueros, sed etiam, si opus erit, grandiores. Inprimis vero admonebunt adolescentes et juvenes, non tantum mares, sed etiam foeminas, cautum esse legibus, ne quis illorum vel accedat ad sacram communionem, vel contrahat nuptias, vel infantem e sacro fonte suscipiat, nisi antea didicerit rudimenta religionis christianae, et possit ad omnes partes catechismi convenienter et dextre respondere.

Quod si rectores, vicarii, et parochi vel concionari non possint, vel facultatem concionandi ab episcopo non acceperint, tamen docebunt pueros prima elementa legere, scribere, noscere officium suum, quid debeant Deo, quid parentibus, quidque aliis; et si quos ex illis viderint ea esse indole, ut possint institutione, atque cultu ad literarum cognitionem pervenire, hortabuntur parentes, ut eos deducant ad scholam, ut imbuti bonis disciplinis, possint aliquando idonei esse ad sacrum Dei optimi maximi ministerium; quos autem hebetiores, et ingenio a literis alieniore esse senserint, ut eos curent, vel ad alias artes, vel etiam ad opus rusticum ablegari.

Admonebunt etiam parochianos suos, magnis et gravibus de causis constitutum esse in synodo a reverendissimo patre Domino Matthaeo, archiepiscopo Cantuar. et aliis episcopis, ne liberi contrahant matrimonium sine consensu parentum; neve juvenis contrahendi potestatem habeat ante annum aetatis suae decimum sextum, neve puella ante decimum quartum.

De aedituis ecclesiarum et aliis selectis.

AEditui pro consuetudine suae quique parochiae, parochianorum suorum, et ecclesiastici sui ministri suffragiis eligentur; alioqui aeditui non erunt, nec amplius quam unum annum durabunt in illo munere, nisi forte iterum eligantur. Omnes autem aeditui semel in singulos annos reddent justam rationem earum pecuniarum, quae in suas manus pervenerunt; atque etiam indicabunt particulatim, quos sumptus fecerint in facta tecta et usum ecclesiae. Postremo vero discedentes ab officio, quicquid pecuniarum, aliarumque ecclesiasticarum rerum supererit, et in ipsorum erit potestate, id omne bona fide tradent parochianis, ut ab illis rursus tradi possit proximis aedituis.

AEditui curabunt ut ecclesiae plumbo, tegula, materia, vitro diligenter et probe reficiantur, ne vel minister, vel populus, aut in sacro ministerio et cultu Dei, aut in caelestium mysteriorum tractatione, aut in habenda et audienda communione, caeli injuriis quatiatur. In primis autem operam dabunt, ut in omni ecclesiastico conventu pax quammaxime conservetur; et in omnibus episcoporum atque archidiaconorum visitationibus fideliter et nominatim detegant, atque indicabunt eos omnes, qui sese in ecclesia immodeste gesserint, quique vel intempestiva pulsatione campanarum, vel ambulationibus, vel colloquio et strepitu ministrum aut concionatorem impediverint.

AEditui curabunt ut aedes sacrae, munde et sancte conserventur, ne cuiquam vel pulvere, vel ramentis, vel sordibus moveant nauseam. Curabunt etiam ut sacra Biblia sint in singulis ecclesiis in amplissimo volumine (si commode fieri possit) qualia nunc Londini excusa sunt, ut liber publicarum precum, ut sacrae homiliae, atque homiliae, quae nuper scriptae sunt contra rebellionem, sint in singulis ecclesiis. Hos libros quammaxime integros et mundos esse convenit; laceros autem aut sordidos nullo modo, ne populo fastidium, et contemptum pariant. Curabunt mensam ex afferibus compositae junctam, quae administrationi sacrosanctae communionis inserviat; et mundum tapetem, qui illam con-tegat; et suggestum commodum, unde caelestis doctrina publicetur. Curabunt insuper ut omnia illa solaria, in quibus cruces lignae aliquando prostabant, et aliae reliquiae superstitionis prorsus e medio auferantur; utque templorum parietes nova fidelia inducantur, et lectissimis sanctarum scripturarum sententiis illustrentur; ut illarum lectione et admonitu populus possit ad pietatem commoveri. Postremo curabunt ut in singulis ecclesiis sit sacer fons, non pelvis, in quo baptismus ministraretur,isque ut decenter et munde conservetur.

Admonebunt etiam caupones, et tabernarios, qui vendunt edulia, ne quem in cauponam, aut tabernam suam recipiant toto illo tempore, quo aut habebitur concio, aut sacrum ministerium peragetur. Quodsi quis per contemptum, et contumaciam contrafecerit, et illum ipsum, et eos, quos ad se receperit, nominatim in proxima visitatione indicabunt. Si quis vel aperto adulterio, vel stupro, vel incestu, vel ebrietate, vel jurandi consuetudine, vel lenocinio, vel usura, vel alia demum quacunque impuritate vitae, et nequitia fratres offenderit, illos aeditui amice, et fraterne admonebunt, ut resipiscant. Quod nisi fecerint, indicabunt eos nominatim vel rectori, vel vicario, vel parochio, ut ab illis asperius, et vehementius admoneantur; et si perrexerint, tantisper dum redeant ad sanitatem, a sacra communione arceantur. Utque qui incontinentem, et laxam vivunt, pro meritis suis legum severitate castigentur; iidem aeditui eodem illos adulteros, fornicarios, incestos, ebriosos, juratores, lenones, usurarios in episcoporum et archidiaconorum visitationibus patefaciant.

AEditui convivium, symposia, coenas, et invitationes publicas in templis celebrari non patientur; nec campanis superstitione pulsari, vel in vigilia Animarum, vel postridie Omnium Sanctorum, qui dies non ita pridem genis mortuorum sacer erat, nec omnino unquam, ubi pulsandi consuetudo ad superstitionem videbitur inclinare. Illis autem tantum temporibus pulsari permittent, quae in libello admonitionum descripta sunt, et ad eundem tantum usum, eodemque tantum modo.

Nundinas, et mercatus publicos celebrare, et fontes sententia iudicis condemnatos neci dedere, et supplicio afficere diebus dominicis non licebit.

Non patientur ut quisquam ex circumforaneis istis tenuibus, et sordidis mercatoribus, qui aciculas, et ligulas, et crepundia, et res viles et minutas circumferunt ac distrahunt, quos pedarios, aut pedularios appellant, proponant merces suas vel in coemeteriis, vel in porticibus ecclesiarum, aut uspiam alibi diebus festis, aut dominicis, interim dum peragitur pars aliqua sacri ministerii, aut habetur sacra concio; nec ut mendici aut errones, quibus nulla certa sedes, toto illo sacrorum aut concionum tempore haereant in coemeterio vel in porticu, sed mandabunt, ut aut ingrediantur, aut discedant.

Observabunt etiam atque inquirent diligenter ecqui ex parochianis, temporibus lege constitutis, aut non veniant ad ecclesias, aut tardius et negligentius veniant. Quosque invenerint deliquisse, liquisse, in eos ex legum praescripto animadvertent. Observabunt etiam, ecquid omnes ac singuli parochiani toties accedant ad sacram communionem in singulos annos, quoties leges et statuta jubent; ecqui etiam peregrini atque advenae ex aliis parochiis frequentius et usitatus veniant ad ecclesiam suam, illosque parochi suo indicabunt, ne illos forte recipiat ad sacram communionem inter alios, sed ad suos potius parochos rejiciat.

Nullum nec rectorem, nec vicarium recipient ad ministerium ecclesiae suae, nisi quem episcopus institutione sua approbaverit, et in possessionem illius ecclesiae mandato suo miserit. Nec parochum recipient, nisi literis et sigillo episcopi nominatim illi ecclesiae commendatum. Quod si rector, vicarius, aut parochus aliter se gerat in ministerio suo obeundo, aut quod male et obscure, et confuse legat, aut quod solutius et laxius vivat, quam hominem par sit ejus ordinis, et ex ea re gravis offensio suscipietur; aeditui eum mature deferent ad episcopum, ut quamprimum animadversio aliqua et vitii emendatio consequatur.

Utque episcopus intelligat, quae conciones habitae fuerint in singulis ecclesiis suae dioeceseos; aeditui curabunt, ut nomina omnium concionatorum, qui ad se aliunde venerint, annotentur in libello, quem habebunt paratum in eum usum, utque in eodem libello concionator quisque subscribat nomen suum, et diem, quo habuerit concionem, et ejus episcopi nomen, a quo acceperit concionandi potestatem.

Postremo aeditui diligenter observari curabunt ea omnia, quae ad ipsorum officia pertinebunt, quaeque regiis injunctionibus, et in libello admonitionum continentur, quaeque vel ab archiepiscopo, vel ab episcopo in suis cujusque visitationibus ad usum ecclesiarum proponuntur. Quodsi quis eos vel jurgiis petulanter insectetur, vel etiam in jus trahat, quod officium fecerint, et errantes detexerint; id quoque indicabunt episcopo, ut ejus opera et studio facilius amolestia liberentur.

De concionatoribus.

Nemo, nisi ab episcopo permissus, in parochia sua publice praedicabit, nec posthac audebit concionari extra ministerium, et ecclesiam suam, nisi potestatem ita concionandi acceperit, vel a regia maiestate per omnes regni partes, vel ab archiepiscopo per provinciam, vel ab episcopo per dioecesim. Nulla autem potestas concionandi firma erit in posterum, aut auctoritatem aliquem obtinebit, nisi tantum quae impetrata fuerit post ultimum diem Aprilis, qui fuit in an. M.D.LXXI. Concionatores modeste et sobrie in omni vitae parte sese gerent.

In primis vero videbunt, ne quid unquam doceant pro concione, quod a populo religiose teneri et credi velint, nisi quod consentaneum sit doctrinae Veteris aut Novi Testamenti, quodque ex illa ipsa doctrina catholici patres, et veteres episcopi collegerint. Et quoniam articuli illi religionis christianae, in quos consensus est ab episcopis in legitima et sancta synodo, jussu atque auctoritate serenissimae principis Elizabethae convocata et celebrata, haud dubie collecti sunt ex sacris libris Veteris et Novi Testamenti, et cum caelesti doctrina, quae in illis continetur, per omnia congruunt. Quoniam etiam liber publicarum precum, et liber de inauguratione archiepiscoporum, episcoporum, presbyterorum et diaconorum nihil continent ab illa ipsa doctrina alienum; quicumque mittentur ad docendum populum, illorum articulorum auctoritatem et fidem, non tantum concionibus suis, sed etiam subscriptione confirmabunt. Qui secus fecerit, et contraria doctrina populum turbaverit, excommunicabitur.

Inter concionandum utentur veste quammaxime modesta et gravi, quae deceat, atque ornet ministrum Dei, qualisque in libello admonitionum descripta est. Nec pecuniam pro concione, aut mercedam ullam exigent; sed victu tantum et simplici apparatu, et unius noctis hospitio contenti erunt.

Vanas et aniles opiniones et haereses, et errores pontificios, a doctrina, et fide Christi abhorrentes, non docebunt; nec omnino quicquam, quo imperita multitudo vel ad novitatis studium, vel ad contentionem inflammetur. Semper autem proponant ea, quae ad aedificationem faciant, et auditores christiana concordia et charitate concilient.

De residentia.

Absentia pastoris a dominico grege, et secunda illa negligentia, quam videmus in multis, et destitutio ministerii est res et in se foeda, et odiosa in vulgus, et perniciofa ecclesiae Dei. Itaque hortamur omnes pastores ecclesiarum in Domino Jesu, ut quamprimum redeant ad parochias quique suas, et diligenter doceant evangelium, et pro fructuum suorum ratione alant familiam, et hospitalitate juvent pauperes, ibique versentur in singulos annos, non minus quam sexaginta dies.

De pluralitate.

Non licebit cuicumque, cujusunque sit gradus aut ordinis, plusquam duo ecclesiastica beneficia obtinere eodem tempore; neque cuicumque omnino licebit obtinere duo beneficia, si plusquam viginti sex milliariis distincta sint.

De ludimagistris.

Non licebit cuicumque docere literas, et instituere pueros nec publice in schola, nec privatim in cujusquam aedibus, nisi quem episcopus ejus dioeceseos approbaverit, cuique sub autentico sigillo suo docendi potestatem fecerit. Hoc autem loco primariam nobilitatem honoris causa excipimus. Episcopus autem nullum ludimagistrum approbabit, nec illo munere dignum censebit, nisi quem suo judicio doctum, et illo loco dignum invenerit, quemque de vita et moribus, et in primis de religione viderit piorum hominum testimonio commendari.

Ludimagistri nullam docebunt grammaticam, nisi eam, quam solam regia maiestas per omne regnum in omnibus scholis legi mandavit; nec alium Latinum catechismum, quam qui editus est anno M.D.LXX. quem etiam Anglice redditum tum, pueros, qui Latine nesciunt, docere volumus.

Alios autem libros docebunt, unde Latini, Graecique sermonis copia et puritas addisci possit, et eos inprimis, qui ad notitiam Christi, et pietatem faciant. Semel autem in singulos annos indicabunt episcopo, quos habeant ex omni numero lectissimos, qui ea sint indole, eoque profectu in literis ut spes sit, vel ad functionem politicam, vel ad sacrum ministerium fore accommodos. Hac spe parentes inducti, eos libentius alent ad literas.

Inprimis vero ita instituent, et formabunt linguas puerorum, ut aperte, clare, distincteque pronuncient. Et quoties habebitur sacra concio, eos vel emittent, vel deducunt ad templum, ut statim a teneris incipiant erudiri ad pietatem; neve negligenter audierint, ubi redierint ad scholam, vocabunt singulos ad examen, quid ex illa concione didicerint; quoque magis pueriles animi ad virtutem et industriam excitentur, otiosos et ignavos reprehendent, attentos et diligentes collaudabunt.

De patronis et proprietariis.

Episcopus graviter et studiose cohortabitur patronos beneficiorum, ut cogitent necessitates ecclesiae, et ante oculos habeant ultimum illum diem, et iudicium et tribunal Dei. Itaque ut neminem promoveant ad munus ecclesiasticum, nisi qui doctrina, iudicio, pietate, probitate vitae, et innocentia possit onus tam grave sustinere, ut nihil in ea re nisi integre, incorrupte, et sincere faciant. Se enim usum omnibus honestis et legitimis rationibus, ut verum possit invenire. Quodsi vel in ipsa praesentatione vel etiam postea senserit corruptelam ullam, aut simoniacum commercium, quocunque modo, quantumvis obscure, vel directe, vel indirecte, vel per ipsum, vel per alios intercessisse; ut ad ipsum vel pecunia, vel pretium, vel commoditas aliqua, vel pars aliqua fructuum perveniret, velle se facti nequitiam, et symoniam publicare et palam facere, non tantum in cathedrali ecclesia, sed etiam alibi, ad illius probrum, et dedecus sempiternum; et presbyterum, quem ita nequiter praesentaverit, non tantum a sacerdotio, in quod mala fide ingressus sit, sed etiam ab omni ministerio, et a tota dioecesi remove.

Domina regina humiliter et submisso roganda est, ut ratio aliqua ipsius permisso et iussu ineatur, ut in ecclesiis, quae ad illam proprietario jure pervenerunt, cancelli quamprimum reficiantur, ut annuum stipendium peragendo sacro ministerio constituatur. Nunc enim multis in locis, et cancelli foedum in modum corruerunt, et ministerium ecclesiae propter stipendii vilitatem destituitur.

Episcopus curabit ut justum inventarium, quodque vocant terrarium, omnium agrorum, pratorum, hortorum, pomariorum, quae ad rectoriam aliquam, aut vicariam pertinent, ex proborum hominum inspectione sumatur, et in archia sua referatur, ad rei memoriam sempiternam.

Episcopus non patietur procuratorem alicujus beneficii ullam habere potestatem in ministrum Dei, ut eum vel admittat, vel rejiciat. Neque minister minus a quoquam accipiet nomine stipendii, quam decem libras.

Omnia matrimonia, quae uspiam contracta sunt intra gradus cognationis, aut affinitatis prohibitos in xviii. Levitici, auctoritate episcopi dissolventur; maxime vero, si quis, priore uxore demortua, ejus sororem uxorem duxerit: hic enim gradus communi doctorum virorum consensu et iudicio putatur in Levitico prohiberi.

Non licebit cuiquam matrimonium contrahere inter illos gradus, qui in tabula a reverendissimo patre domino archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, in eum usum scripta et publicata, prohibentur.

Forma sententiae excommunicationis.

Fratres, quoniam quicumque profitemur nomen Christi Jesu, sumus omnes membra ejusdem corporis, et par est, ut unum membrum alterius membri sensu et dolore afficiatur; pro officii mei ratione, significo vobis, A. B. publice accusatum esse de adulterio, in quo, fama est, eum vixisse nequiter, et turpiter, cum ipsius dedecore, et infamia, et gravi offensione ecclesiae Dei; et ea causa, ut insignis illa turpitudine supplicio aliquo afficeretur, ad episcopi tribunal vocatum esse. Et quoniam praedictus A. B. conscientia nequitiae suae, ad diem legitime dictum comparere contempsit, et se justitiae contumaciter subduxit, et alios exemplo suo ad similem contumaciam animavit; idcirco hoc etiam vos insuper admonitos volo, episcopum nostrum nomine atque auctoritate Dei optimi maximi excommunicasse illum ab omni societate ecclesiae Dei, et tanquam membrum emortuum amputasse a Christi corpore. Hoc ille in statu versatur hoc tempore, et in tanto crimine animae suae. Divus Paulus admonitus instinctu divini Spiritus, jubet ut talium hominum societatem, et contubernia fugiamus, ne participes simus ejusdem sceleris. Tamen, ut christiana charitas nos monet, quoniam ipse pro se orari non vult, nec periculum suum intelligit, oremus Deum omnes ejus nomine, ut aliquando agnoscat miseriam, et foeditatem vitae suae, et agat poenitentiam, et convertatur ad Deum: Deus noster est misericors, et potest lapsos etiam a morte revocare.

Subscriptiones archiepiscoporum et episcoporum canonibus factis M.D.LXXI.

Matthaeus Cantuarien. Edmundus Ebor. subsc. per Matt. Cant. procur.

Edwinus London.

Robert. Winton. Jacobus Dunelm. subscripsit per Rob. Winton. procur.

Jo. Hereford.

Richardus Elien.

Nic. Wigorn. Edmundus Petriburgen. subscripsit per Nic. Wigorn.

Jo. Sarisburien.

Ri. Meneven. Guliel. Cestren.

Edm. Roffen.

Gilb. Bath, et Wellen.

Thomas

Thomas Coventry, et Lichfield.

Johannes Norwic.

N. Bangor. Thomas Affaph. } subscrip. per N.
 Hugo Landaff. } Bangor. procur.
 suum.

R. Ciceftren.

Thomas Lincoln.

Willhelmus Exon.

Archiepisc. Cant.
 MATTH. PARKER 12.

Anno Christi
 1571.

Reg. Angliae
 ELIZAB. 13.

Edm. Grindall archbishop of York's injunctions. Reg. Ebor. fol. 155. in Strype's life of Grindall p. 167.

For the clergy.

THAT for the ministration of the communion bread, they should not deliver it unto the people into the mouths, but into their hands; nor should use at the ministration of the communion, any gestures, rites, or ceremonies, not appointed by the book of common prayer; as crossing, or breathing over the sacramental bread or wine; nor any shewing or lifting up of the same to the people, to be by them worshipped or adored, nor any such like; nor should use any oil, or chrism, tapers, spittle, or any other popish ceremony in the ministration of the sacrament of baptism.

None to be admitted to the communion being above fourteen years old, that could not say by heart the ten Commandments, and Lord's prayer; nor none being fourteen years old and upwards, that could not say by heart the catechism.

That they should marry no person, nor ask the banns of matrimony of any; unless they could say the catechism by heart, or would recite the same to the minister.

That they should not church any unmarried woman, which had been gotten with child out of lawful matrimony, except it were upon some Sunday or holy day; and except either she, before childbed, had done penance, or at her churching did acknowledge her fault before the congregation.

The communion to be received three times a year, besides Ashwednesday; viz. on one of the two Sundays before Easter, on one of the two Sundays before Pentecost, and on one of the two Sundays before Christmas.

The articles of religion to be read twice every year, viz. on some Sunday within a month after Easter and Michaelmas.

The queen's injunctions to be read in time of divine service, in churches and chapels, once every quarter; and the archbishop's injunctions once every half year.

No minister (being unmarried) to keep in his house any woman under the age of sixty years; except she be their mother, aunt, sister, or niece.

For the laity.

No person, not being a minister, deacon, or at the least tolerated by the ordinary in writing, should attempt to supply the office of a minister, in saying of divine service openly in the church or chapel.

VOL. IV.

The prayers and other service appointed for the ministration of the holy communion to be said and done at the communion table; except the epistle and gospel, which should be read in the said pulpit (i. e. where reading was before appointed) or stall; and also the ten Commandments, when there was no communion.

All altars to be pulled down to the ground, and the altar stones defaced and bestowed to some common use: and rood lofts altered. The materials to be sold to the use of the church.

At burials, no ringing any handbells; no months minds, or yearly commemoration of the dead; nor any other superstitious ceremonies to be observed or used, which tended either to the maintenance of prayer for the dead, or of the popish purgatory.

The minister not to pause or stay between the morning prayer, litany, and communion; but to continue and say the morning prayer, litany, or communion, or the service appointed to be said (when there was no communion) together, without any intermission; to the intent the people might continue together in prayer, and hearing the word of God; and not depart out of the church, during all the time of the whole divine service.

All above fourteen years of age to receive in their own churches the communion three times at the least in the year.

No pedlar or other to set his wares to sell in churchporch or churchyard; nor any where else on holidays or Sundays, while any part of divine service was in doing, or while any sermon was in preaching.

No innkeeper, victualler, or tipler should admit in his house or backside any to eat, drink, or play at cards, tables, or bowls in time of common prayer, preaching, or reading of homilies, on the Sundays and holidays; and no shops to be set open on Sundays and holidays in time of common prayer, etc. and that in fairs and common markets upon the Sundays, there be no shewing of any wares, before all the morning service and the sermon (if there be any) be done.

No persons to wear beads, or pray either in Latin or English upon beads or knots, or any other like superstitious thing — Nor to burn any candle in the church superstitiously upon the feast of the Purification — nor superstitiously to make upon themselves the sign of the cross, when they first enter into any church to pray. Nor to say the "De profundis" for the dead. Nor rest at any cross in carrying any corps to burying: nor to leave any little crosses of wood there.

Z z z

corps

Perambulation to be used by the people, for viewing the bounds of their parishes, in the days of the Rogation, commonly called Cross week, or Gang days. That the minister use none other ceremonies, than to say the two psalms beginning, "Benedic anima mea Dominum," that is to say, the ciii. and civ. psalms, and such sentences of scripture, as be appointed by the queen's injunctions, with the litany and suffrages following the same, and reading one homily already decreed and set forth for that purpose; without wearing any surplice, carrying of banners or handbells, or staying at crosses, or such like popish ceremonies.

The ministers and churchwardens not to suffer any lords of misrule, or summer lords or ladies, or any disguised persons or others, at Christmas, or at May games, or any minstrels, morrice dances, or others, at risibearings or at any other times, to come irreverently into any church, or chapel, or churchyard in their dance, or play any unseemly parts with scoffs, jests, wanton gestures, or ribald talk; namely, in the time of divine service, or of any sermon.

The parish clerks were required to be able to read the first lesson, the epistle, and the psalms, with answers to the suffrages, as was used.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 12.

Anno Christi
1571.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 13.

Concilium provinciale Ebor.

CONCILIUM hoc virtute brevis regii dat. 16. die Febr. anno regni 13. tertio die Aprilis in ecclesia metropolitana B. Petri Ebor. convocabatur. Deinde in actis secundi diei mensis Maii (ad quem concilium continuatum fuerat) ita legitur. Et tunc postea comparuit personaliter magister Johannes Buck, A. M. unus procuratorum istius convocationis, ac exhibuit in manum praesidentis schedulam in scriptis conceptam propter reformationem habendam in ecclesiis istius provinciae, prout in eadem schedula plenius describitur. Qua quidem schedula per mag. Matthaeum Hutton, unum praesidentium istius convocationis vice et auctoritate reverendissimi patris deputatum, publice perlecta, idem venerabilis vir de consensu dictorum collegarum suorum post tractatum habitum inter praelatos et clerum in hac convocatione congregatos, duxit deliberandum fore super schedula huiusmodi in diem Mercurii proxime futurum. Illo autem die (sc. 9. Maii) nullius examinis schedulae huius meminerunt acta illius diei, commissarii solummodo duxerunt deliberandum in hunc diem quoad schedulam in hac convocatione exhibitam. Ab eo die synodus ad undecimum diem Maii continuabatur, ad audiendum (verba registri audis) voluntatem praesidentium super schedula apud acta remanente. Dein eodem die habito diligenti tractatu, praelati et procuratores cleri unanimi consensu et assensu ac prompta et spontanea voluntate subsidium gratuitum dominae reginae concesserunt. Sequenti synodi die (octavo sc. Junii) rursus mentio schedulae huius introducitur his verbis: ac ad audiendam voluntatem dominorum super schedula per magistrum Buck exhibita, ac apud acta huius sacrosanctae convocationis remanente: quae verba paulo post repetuntur in clausula schedulae continuationis huius synodi ad 20. diem Junii continuatae. Ast schedula haec Buckii aut non examinata, aut examinis ejus nulla registro inserta fuit mentio.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 13.

Anno Christi
1572.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 14.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri Cant. provinciae inchoata in ecclesia cathedrali S. Pauli London. 9. die mensis Maii.

Ex reg. Parker, et excerptis Heylin.

SESSIO prima huius convocationis exordium sumpsit die Veneris 9. Maii cum precibus et concione Latina, quam doctor Young residentiarius ecclesiae S. Pauli habuit ex verbis Apocalypseos: "Novi opera tua et laborem et patientiam," etc. His finitis, reverendissimus cum episcopis et clero ad domum capitularem se contulit, ibique causam convocationis et negotium eligendi prolocutoris erudita oratione prosecutus est h. m.

Viri, patres, ac fratres in Christo charissimi. Hanc synodum ad salutarem aliquem ecclesiae christianae finem ac propositum, ex illustrissimae principis nostrae praecepto, et a me convocari, et a vobis frequentari, dubium esse nemini arbitror; quem coetum precibus primo ad divinam maiestatem fufis, deinde fructuosa doctaque eruditi hominis, ut audivistis, exhortatione, hodierno die feliciter inchoavimus. Quae tam bonis auspiciis, oratione nempe et verbo Dei incepta, ac sanctificata initio, reliquis nostris laboribus ac conatibus laetabilem exitum sunt allatura. Et quanquam caeteri suum in christiana religione promulganda atque conservanda zelum et desiderium variis atque diversis modis exprimunt; nos tamen (habita nostri ordinis atque dignitatis ratione) non modo zelo et vigilantia, sed etiam famae bonorum ipsiusque vitae discrimine ac jactura (si opus sit) illos praecellere debemus. Quam quidem ad rem a Deo constituti, ejusque Spiritus instinctu admoniti, ad indagandam, populoque patefaciendam divinam veritatem sumus; in eoque imitandi majores nostri sunt, non modo hii, qui novissimis hii temporibus nos antecesserunt, quique quique summis vigiliis hanc veritatem exploraverunt, eandemque martyrio sancto confirmarunt; sed etiam qui prima illa, et apostolis proxima aetate fuerunt, et vetustissima gestorum suorum in hac insula monumenta scripta nobis reliquerunt. Quae quanquam ab antichristo partim deleta, partim longa desuetudine inumbrata sunt; plurima tamen ad hanc aetatem, nostraeque lucidiora tempora reservata, satis indicant, nostras ordinationes ac ritus, ab illorum institutis ac decretis parum differre. Illa vero monumenta, quae eo nobis chariora esse debent, quo magis sunt nostra domestica atque propria, si divina providentia nobis non reservasset, sed deleri penitus, et auferri ab humana memoria permisisset; extabant tamen totius divinae scientiae fontes ipsi, Hebraicis, Graecisque literis Spiritus Sancti gratia conservati, ad quos, tam longaeva depravatione corruptis et perturbatis rivulis, ad certam divinae voluntatis notitiam habendam esset recurrendum. Nam ut S. ille martyr Cyprianus^a scribit, "si ad divinae traditionis caput et originem revertamur, cessat error humanus, et sacramentorum caelestium ratione perspecta, quicquid sub caligine ac nube tenebrarum obscurum latebat, luce veritatis aperitur. Si canalus aquae, qui copiose prius et largiter profluebat, subito deficiat; nonne ad fontem pergatur, ut illic defectionis ratio noscatur, utrumne crescentibus venis in capite ficcaverit, an vero integra inde et plena percurrent, in medio itinere destiterit," etc? Quod et nunc "Facere oportet (inquit) Dei sacerdotes praecepta divina servantes, ut in aliquo, si nutaverit et vacillaverit veritas, ad originem dominicam et evangelicam, et apostolicam traditionem revertamur, et inde surgat actus nostri ratio, unde ordo et origo surrexit." Et Basilus^b ille magnus Cypriano consentiens, scribens ait: "Non putamus justum esse, obtinentem apud ipsos consuetudinem legem ac regulam facere rectae doctrinae. Igitur scriptura divinitus inspirata arbiter a nobis constituatur; et apud quos inventa fuerint dogmata, divinis sermonibus concordantia, his omnino etiam veritatis suffragium accedet:" haec ille. Quorum sanctorum patrum auctoritatibus admonemur, quod quotiescunque a sanctis et immaculatis Domini viis, humana negligentia et caecitate deflexerimus, ut in eas iterum redeamus, scrutandas esse (quae de ipso testimonium perhibent) sanctas scripturas, inspiciendaque antiquissima testimonia, a quibus, Cypriano teste, ortus et origo religionis nostrae surrexit. Hiis divinae sanctaeque antiquitatis testimoniis si firmiter adhaeserimus, certi de vero Dei cultu et religione, ac securi esse possumus, etiamsi humanarum rerum et ordinationum monumenta, temporis edacitate consumpta, depravata sint. Hi enim perennes et inviolabiles fontes assidue diesque noctesque petendi sunt; et aqua ab his fontibus profluente et derivata, putei nostri (quos inimici hostesque nostri Philistini injectis sordibus coinquinaverunt) perpurgandi sunt, ut his salutiferis fontibus (unde aeternam vitam hauriemus) repleantur. Hoc argumentum copiosam mihi materiam suppeditat (si in eo longior esse vellem) vobis ante oculos proponere, quibus nos antichristus praestigiis callide delusit, tenebrisque ac caligine palpabili in atros suos carceres duxit captivos. Quae gaudii infiniti, et summas Deo gratias agendi maxima nobis causa esse debet, quod profligatis illis plusquam cymmeriis tenebris, ineffabilis veritatis suae splendor nobis tandem illuxit. Praeterea accingere nos, totisque viribus ac apparatu insistere debemus, ut et caliginosis mundi, ac diaboli potentiis fortiter resistamus, et divini verbi veritatem, ab improbis ac sceleratis nostris adversariis, toties oppugnatam, tueamur atque teneamus. Hinc enim et nostra spes atque exultatio (qui veritatem amplectimur) et eorum confusio sequetur, qui cordibus inaffectata quadam et supina ignorantia caecitateque conclusis, oculos ad contemplandum evangelici luminis fulgorem neque volunt, neque possunt patefacere. Sed ne ulterius in hac re pergam, me hic contineo, hancque magni momenti materiam his relictam et reservatam cupio, quibus et locus commodior, et ortum uberius, quam mihi hoc angustissimo temporis curriculo circumscripto suppeditabitur. Ut igitur ad id accedam, quod est praesentis instituti, quodque haec reverenda vestra frequentia coronaque requirit; synodus haec nostra, ut scitis, in duas societates (quae duobus domiciliis, superiori nempe et inferiori segregantur) divisa est. Ut igitur in consiliis atque deliberationibus de ecclesiasticis causis capiendis, unanimes ac concordantes esse possimus, et ad vitandas in cunctis nostris disceptationibus altercationes atque lites, superiori huius concilii conventui (adhibitis quibusdam ad id designatis commissariis) ego praesidebo, ut omnia nostra dicta, responsa, et colloquia, nulla confusione perturbata, sed recte atque ordine fiant. Eodemque modo vos inferioris concilii, dilecti fratres, summa cura inniti debetis, ne litibus et querelis, de rebus tantis habendi, conferendique inter vos sermones repleantur, sed ut omnia moderate, prudenterque inter vos gerantur. Itaque ne scisata contentioque oriatur inter vos, neve bonum vestrum hominum maledicentiae sit obnoxium; eligendus inter vos est aliquis spectatae gravitatis, pietatis, prudentiae, et doctrinae vir, ad prolocutoris officium toto huius synodi tempore exequendum, qui et vestras disceptationes, ne aut longius producantur, aut acrius vehementiusque tractentur, temperet, et vestra nobis desideria, nostraeque vobis vicissim monita exponat atque referat. Magnum huius generis hominum in vestro coetu numerum habetis, ex quibus optimi alicujus delectum facere possitis. Itaque vos hortor, moneoque in Domino, fratres, ut ad huiusmodi idoneum virum deligendum quamprimum conveniatis, eumque die Mercurii proximo nobis, iterum huc post ejusdem diei meridiem congregatis, praesentetis. Quo etiam tempore in huius convocationis negotio ulterius progrediemur, prout locus, et tempus, vetusque consuetudo postulant. Dixi.

^a Ad Pompejanum epistol. Stephani.

^b Epistola 80. ad Eustach. medicum.

In secunda sessione (May 14.) quae in ecclesia B. Petri Westmon. fuit, post peracta sacra, decanus ecclesiae Westmon. cum tribus praebendariis protestatus est more solito de privilegiis et exemptionibus collegiatae suae ecclesiae; ad quam protestationem episcopus London. absente archiepiscopo, regeffit, se per sessiones convocationis nihil de jurisdictione et immunitate collegii imminuere, intendere. Deinde doctor Whitgift, decanus Lincoln. in prolocutorem primam post sessionem electus confirmabatur. Quo facto, episcopus London. eum cum duobus praesentatoribus Pearnio, decano Eliensi, et Humphrey, decano Glocestrensi, accersivit, ut aliquos viros doctos graves et maxime idoneos de gremio suo eligant, ac per ipsos quicquid dignum reformatione censuerint et excogitaverint, in scriptis redigi faciant, ac praefato reverendissimo patri, vel ejus locum tenenti in proxima sessione porrigant.

Inter hanc et sequentem sessionem archiepiscopus protectionem sive privilegia convocationis ergo concessit, quam ex Heylinianis excerptis depromptam hic inferemus.

“Matthaeus, divina providentia Cant. etc. dilectis nobis in Christo majori et ballivis civitatis Winton. eorumque officiariis et ministris quibuscunque salutem, gratiam, et benedictionem. Cum in parlamento tento apud Westm. anno regni felicissimae memoriae domini Henrici VI. nuper regis Angliae octavo, c. i. inter alia statutum et stabilitum fuerit, quod vocandi in futurum ad convocationem cleri praetextu brevis regii, eorum servientes et familiares eadem libertate veniendo, expectando, et redeundo plene gaudeant et utantur perpetuis futuris temporibus, qua gaudent et gaudere consueve-runt, sive gaudere debent in futurum proceres, magnates, et communitas regni Angliae ad parliamentum domini regis vocati sive vocandi, prout per statutum praedictum plene liquet et apparet; vobis et cuilibet vestrum tenore praesentium significamus et innotescimus, quod mag. Laurentius Humphrey, decanus ecclesiae cathed. Gloc. praetextu brevis regii nobis directi ad convocationem cleri nostrae provinciae Cant. in ecclesia cathed. D. Pauli London. nono die praesentis mensis Maii inchoata et celebrata per nos vocatus existit, atque expeditioni causarum et negotiorum in eadem convocatione tractandorum operam et industriam dat et impendit; quodque Jacobus Massam fuit et est famulus et serviens dicti magistri L. Humphrey, decani Gloc. antedicti, et eidem decano obsequitur, et ad civitatem London. in obsequio dicti decani venit, et ibidem spectat in praesenti in ejus servitio, prout dictus Jac. Massam coram nobis corporale praestitit juramentum. Quocirca vobis et cuilibet vestrum tenore praesentium stricte praecipiendo mandamus, quatenus eundem Jac. Massam, durante convocatione praedicta, eadem libertate et immunitate veniendo, expectando, et redeundo plene gaudere et uti, juxta formam statuti praedicti, absque arrestatione vel molestatione quacunque permittatis, et quilibet vestrum permittat, sub poena contemptus. In cuius rei testimonium, etc. dat. May 16.

Per varias deinde sessiones de tempore in tempus continuata convocatio virtute brevis regii dat. 1. July ad 2. Novembris, et ab hoc die per aliud breve ad 13. Januarii, et ab illo die per simile mandatum ad 2. Aprilis, anni M.D.LXXIII. prorogabatur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 13.

Anno Christi
1572.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 14.

Mandatum pro publicatione libri publicarum precum. Ex reg. II. Parker fol. 72. a.

MATTHAEUS, providentia divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, venerabili confratri nostro domino Edwino, eadem permissione divina London. episcopo, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum nos librum quendam precum publicarum intitulatum, “A forme of common prayer to be used, and so commanded by authority of the queen’s majesty, and necessary for the present time and state,” M.D.LXXII. vicesimo septimo Octobris, de mandato illustrissimae dominae nostrae reginae componi, ac imprimi, et publicari fecimus; nos igitur librum praedictum, in et per totam provinciam Cant. debitae executioni demandari volentes, librum ipsum praesentibus annex. vobis transmittimus publicand. volentes, ac fraternitati vestrae firmiter injungendo mandantes, quatenus vera exemplaria libri praedicti universis et singulis venerabilibus confratribus nostris dictae provinciae nostrae Cant. cum ea, qua fieri po-terit, matura celeritate transmittatis, seu transmitti faciatis, eisque ex parte nostra injungatis, quibus nos etiam tenore praesentium sic injungimus; quatenus eorum singuli in singulis dioecibus eorundem, coram decano et capitulo cujuslibet ecclesiae cathedralis, ac archidiaconis, et clero suae dioec. prout ad eos, et eorum quemlibet pertinet, librum praedictum debite publicent, et ab omnibus, quos concernit, observari, et debitae executioni demandari procurent, sive sic publicari et observari faciant cum effectu. Et praeterea, fraternitati vestrae, ut supra, injungimus, quatenus librum praedictum in et per dioec. vestram London. prout ad vos attinet, debite et effectualiter publicari, et executioni demandari faciatis, prout decet. In cuius rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth vicesimo nono die mensis Octobris, A. D. M.D.LXXII. et nostrae consecrationis anno decimo tertio.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 13.

Anno Christi
1572.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 14.

Convocatio cleri provinciae Ebor.

CLERUS provinciae Ebor. virtute brevis regii dat. apud Gorhambury 29. die Martii convocabatur in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. die nono mensis Maii. Deinde post varias continuationes per breve regium dat. apud Westmonast. primo die Julii ad 2. diem mensis Novembris prox. prorogabatur. Ab hoc die usque ad 12. diem Januarii commissarii continuaverunt synodum.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 14.

Anno Christi
1573.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 15.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cant.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. ad 2. diem Aprilis continuata, per breve regium ab eo die ad 13. Octob. et ab illo ad 5. Februarii seq. et inde ad 20. Aprilis anni M.D.LXXIV. prorogabatur. Sed nihil in illis continuationibus actum fuisse asserunt excerpta Heyliniana.

Statuta quaedam per reverendissimum dom. Matthaeum Parker, Cant. archiepiscopum, edita Maii 6. anno Domini M.D.LXXIII. et auctoritate sua in curia de arcubus publicata. Ex MSS. Sancroft. arch. Cant.

CAP. I.

MATTHAEUS, providentia divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, dilectis in Christo filiis, officiali curiae nostrae Cant. et decano nostrae ecclesiae beatae Mariae de arcubus London. salutem, gratiam, et benedictionem. Cum propter curam, sollicitudinem, et amorem paternum, quem in vos advocatos, procuratores, et ministros dictae curiae semper habuimus, et in praesenti habemus, aequum et rationi consonum putavimus, enormitates quasdam, abusus, et scandala indies in dicta curia crescentia, et pullulantia, quantum in nobis est, praecidere et amputare, et eadem ne de caetero eveniant, divino fulti auxilio prospicere et providere; cumque de praerogativae nostrae praeceminentia tam nobis liceat nova statuta condere, quam vetera interpretari, et corrigere, declarare, mutare, addere, detrahare, ut ex antiquissimis curiae nostrae praedictae constitutionibus et statutis apparet; cumque omnes et singuli advocati, procuratores, clerici et caeteri ministri dictae curiae nostrae, tempore eorum, et cujuscumque eorum admissionis in eadem juramentum corporale praestiterint, se observaturos omnia et singula statuta dictae curiae tam antiqua, quam nova; nos majorum et praedecessorum nostrorum vestigiis insistentes, et erroribus quibusdam, qui in nostram curiam paulatim irrepserunt, salutaria remedia adhibere volentes, omnia et singula infra scripta statuta, ordinationes, et decreta, habito maturo consilio, statuimus, ordinamus, et decernimus, et eadem perpetuis futuris temporibus inviolabiliter teneri, et observari praecipimus. Vobis igitur, conjunctim et divisim, committimus, ac injungendo mandamus, quatenus proximo die juridico, per vos in dicta curia Cant. proxime post praesentium receptionem te-nendo, praedicta statuta, ordinationes, et decreta publicari, recitari, et legi faciatis; necnon omnes et singulos ecclesiae nostrae Cant. praedictae. iudices ac ministros, ac quoscumque jurisdictionem quamcunque ecclesiasticam auctoritate nostra archiepiscopali exercentes, quocumque nomine, titulo, five dignitate censeantur, nominentur, et appellentur; ac etiam omnes et singulos advocatos, procuratores, registrarios, scribas, notarios, et reliquos quoscumque dictae curiae ministros, tam praesentes, quam absentes, auctoritate nostra publicationem praesentium in dicta curia nostra moneatis (quos nos tenore praesentium sic monemus; quam publicationem, pro legitima et peremptoria monitione decernimus, et haberi volumus) quatenus virtute eorum juramenti per eos tempore eorum admissionis in dicta curia personaliter praestiti, fideliter et inviolabiliter observent statuta, ordinationes, et decreta infra scripta, sub poena majoris excommunicationis sententiae, et suspensionis eorum, et cujuscumque eorundem, ab exercitio hujusmodi sui officii, jurisdictionis, dignitatis, advocacy, procurationis, vel ministerii cujuscumque; quos omnes et singulos casu, quo monitionibus vestris, aut potius nostris non paruerint, nos exnunc, prout extunc, et extunc prout exnunc, excommunicamus, et suspendimus in hiis scriptis; ipsosque sic excommunicatos, et suspensos, per vos denunciari, et a dictis curiis, ac cujuscumque officii, dignitatis et jurisdictionis exercitio amoveri volumus, et mandamus; constitutionibus, ordinationibus, decretis, statutis, seu consuetudinibus dictae curiae nostrae Cant. in contrarium forsan editis, in aliquo non obstantibus quibuscumque. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambhith sexto die mensis Maii, anno Domini M.D.LXXIII. et nostrae consecrationis anno decimo quarto.

CAP. II. Ut decanus sive officialis curiae de arcubus, causarum sive negotiorum curiae audientiae Cant. auditor, curiae praerogativae custos, sive magister, non fungantur officio advocati in aliqua curia ad jurisdictionem archiepiscopi pertinente.

Quoniam affectio in causis eisdem aut confimilibus magnum possit praejudicium litigantibus afferre, si unus, idemque in eisdem aut confimilibus iudicis et advocati partes ageret; cumque in curiis nostris de arcubus audien. et praerogativae, confimiles fere causae, et juris quaestiones expediri soleant; ne forte iudex in eadem aut confimili causa, in qua fuit advocatus, eandem sententiam humanitus (aut verius mordicus) retineat, cum iudicis animus ab omni affectione et corruptela immunis et liber esse debeat; cumque rationi consentaneum videatur, ut iudex, quoad fieri possit, dignitatem retineat, quod difficulter fiet, si hodie iudicis, cras advocati officio fungatur; et quoniam utrisque, et continuis clientum postulationibus, et iudicis officio bene superesse et vacare non potest; nos et iudicis auctoritati, et litigantium utilitati prospicientes, statuendo decernimus, statuimus, et ordinamus, quod officialis, sive decanus de arcubus non postulabit, seu advocabit in curia audientiae seu praerogativae; nec auditor causarum audientiae in curia de arcubus seu praerogativae; nec custos, sive magister curiae praerogativae aut in dicta curia de arcubus, aut audientiae, sub poena superius declarata; nisi fuerit aliter indultum ex speciali gratia et favore per nos, aut successores nostros.

CAP. III. Ut litigantibus libera sit electio.

Quoniam id a nobis utilitatis publicae et aequitatis ratio efflagitat, ut ad commune omnium nostrae provinciae Cant. subditorum solatium iudicis libera electio habeatur, ut si unius consanguineus, affinis, familiaris, patronus conveniatur, ad alterius iudicium libere convolari possit, vel si forsan alterutrius sana conscientia et in rebus gerendis officioque fungendo dexteritas liquido praeluceat, ad eundem, tanquam ad tutum perfugium, atque iustitiae portum recuratur; statuimus, ordinamus, et volumus, quod de caetero in posterum unus idemque utriusque curiae, scilicet de arcubus, et audientiae, iudex non sit; sed quoniam distincta sunt et diversa officia, unus sit curiae nostrae de arcubus officialis, sive decanus, et alius curiae nostrae audientiae causarum auditor, sub poena praedicta.

CAP. IV. Ne procuratores de arcubus cujusdam famuli aut clerici existant.

Quia procuratores dictae curiae nostrae homines bonae ac honestae conditionis, graves, et existimationis laudabilis praeteritis temporibus fuerunt, eosque sic in posterum esse optamus; cumque per praedecessorem nostrum Robertum Winchelsey, celebris memoriae virum, cautum fuerit, ne procuratores cujusquam servitio, tanquam familiares, specialiter astringantur; nos hujusmodi statutum in ea parte confirmantes, illudque declarantes, et eidem addentes, statui-mus, quod posthac nemo procuratorum exercentium sit cujusquam registrarii aut scribae mercenarius, vel stipendiarius, clericus vel testium examinador, sub poena praedicta.

CAP. V. Ut testium et litigantium examinationes sine mora et corruptela expediantur.

Quoniam testibus et litigantibus e longinquis partibus ad curias nostras venientibus, morae causas struere, et impensas supervacaneas augere periniquum et indignum esset, et nostrae curiae, omnibusque in ea advocantibus, et procurantibus scandalosum; statuimus, et ordinamus, ut registrarii et testium examinadores sint faciles, diligentes, in praemissorum examinatione expediti. Quod ut facilius effectum fortiat, arctius inhibemus, ac inhibendo etiam statuimus, ne quisquam in duabus curiis ad nos vel archiepiscopatum nostrum spectantibus, fungatur officio registrarii, actorum scribae aut examinadoris; nec procuratoris officio fungatur in ea curia, in qua registrarius, actorum scriba, vel examinador per se vel deputatum quemcunque fuerit, ne (quod absit) in illis causis, in quibus procurator est illius substitutus, substituentis intuitu et favore, minus indifferenter testium depositiones, et partium responsa concipiat, vel forsitan concepta in aliqua parte vitiet, aut corrumpat, sub poena praedicta.

Confirmatio: Et nos decanus et capitulum ecclesiae cathedralis et metropoliticae Christi Cant. praedictum scriptum approbamus, et confirmamus per praesentes 27. die Junii, A. D. M.D.LXXIII.

CAP. I. Quaedam alia statuta, eodem die edita, in curia praerogativae Cant. observanda, auctoritate praedict. reverendissimi patris, domini Matthaei, Cant. archiepiscopi, publicata.

Matthaeus, providentia divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitani; dilecto nobis in Christo magistro Willelmo Drury, legum doctore, curiae praerogativae nostrae Cant. magistro, custodi sive commissario, salutem, gratiam, et benedictionem. Cum ex statutis et ordinationibus praedecessorum nostrorum Cant. archiepiscoporum, nulli liceat advocati vel procuratoris officium in curiis nostris de arcubus, et audientiae exercere, nisi primum fuerit in numerum advocatorum aut procuratorum exercentium dictae curiae nostrae Cant. de arcubus admissus; quidam tamen alii, personae imperitae et minime exercitatae, officium procuratoris in eadem curia praerogativae nostrae exercent, et tanquam procuratores nomine absentium testamentum probari, administrationes et intestat. decedent. literas ad colligend. et sequestrationes bonorum committi obtineant, et hujusmodi decedent. inventaria procuratorio nomine executorum, administratorum, collectorum, seu sequestratorum exhibeant, non solum in subditorum nonnullorum hujus regni Angliae dispendium et damnum, verum etiam in dictae curiae nostrae praerogativae dedecus, et scandalum manifestum. Nos igitur omnia

in

in dicta curia praerogativae nostrae Cant. quemadmodum in caeteris curiis praedictis, ex aequo et bono, per probos, fideles, et peritos ministros fieri optantes, et scandala, et abusus, quae ea occasione irrepserunt, radicitus extirpari cupientes (habito super praemissis maturo consilio) statuta, ordinationes, et decreta infra-scripta, pro nobis et successoribus nostris ordinavimus, statuimus, et decrevimus; ac eadem perpetuis futuris temporibus inviolabiliter observari praecipimus; tibi firmiter praecipiendo mandantes, quatenus hujusmodi statuta, ordinationes, et decreta infra-scripta omnia et singula proximo die juridico, receptionem praesentium immediate sequente, in curia nostra praedicta publice recitari et publicari, ac registrarium ejusdem curiae vel ejus deputatum ad perpetuam rei memoriam in registro dictae curiae nostrae registrari facias, seu fieri procures. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambhith sexto die mensis Maii, anno Domini M.D.LXXIII. et nostrae translationis anno decimo quarto.

CAP. II. Quod nullus officium procuratoris in curia praerogativae exercent, nisi primum fuerit in procuratorem exercentem curiae Cant. de arcubus admissus.

Cum ad dictam curiam praerogativae nostrae Cant. pro causis et negotiis expediend. et justitia impetrand. confluentium maxime interest, causas et negotia hujusmodi per bonos, fideles, et peritos procuratores, et in causis agendis bene exercitatos tractari; statuimus, volumus, et ordinamus, quod nullus de caetero procuratoris officium in dicta curia praerogativae nostrae praedict. ullo modo exercent, nisi primum fuerit in procuratorem exercentem curiae nostrae Cant. de arcubus London. admissus et juratus: statuimus etiam, volumus, et ordinamus, quod nulli liceat testamenta aliqua in dicta curia praerogativae nostrae Cant. nomine procuratorio, vel nominibus procuratoriis executorum in eisdem, seu eorum aliquo nominatorum exhibere, ac hujusmodi testamenta probare, petere, vel aliquas literas administrationis, seu bonorum sequestrationis a dicta curia, nominibus procuratoriis quorumvis defunctorum, hujusmodi in curiam praedictam exhibere, seu procuratoris officium in, aut circa praemissa, quovis quaesito colore, in aliquo exercere, nisi primum fu-erit in procuratorem dictae curiae nostrae Cant. de arcubus London. exercentem (ut praefertur) admissus.

CAP. III. Quod nullus apparitoris officium in curia praerogativae exercent, nisi per archiepiscopum Cantuar. approbatus fuerit.

Et praeterea volumus et ordinamus, quod nulli liceat in posterum apparitoris officium in dicta curia praerogativae nostrae, aut circa praemissa in aliquo exercere, nisi primum fuerit per nos, aut successores nostros admissus et approbatus.

CAP. IV. Ut tam registrarii, et actorum scribae dictae curiae praerogativae, quam eorum deputati, et clerici juramentum praestent de eorum officio fideliter exequendo.

Quoniam in eo totius justitiae et judicii momentum positum est, ut testes et partes principales sedulo examinentur, et examinationum copiae fideliter excusantur, et ut dicta testimonium, aut ad interrogatoria partis adversae responsiones ante publicationem in cujuscunque praepositi minime revelentur; statuimus, ordinamus et volumus, ut registrarius unusquisque dictae curiae praerogativae nostrae, aut ejus deputatus, vel deputati, et clerici quicunque juramentum subeat in plena curia sub forma sequenti: Ego L. A. juro ad haec sancta Dei evangelia, quod testimonium et partium principalium quorumcunque examinationes et responsiones fideliter, sine omni affectione et corruptela, in scriptis concipiam, et easdem sic conceptas sincere, sine additione, detractione, aut mutatione quacunque, judici pro eorum repetitione deferam, et deinceps partibus tradam; et quod eorum dicta, responsa, et interrogatoria ante publicationem nullatenus revelabo, seu revelari procurabo: sicut me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei evangelia.

MATTHAEUS CANTUAR.

Confirmatio: Et nos decanus et capitulum ecclesiae cathedralis et metropoliticae Christi Cant. praedictum scriptum approbamus, et confirmamus per praesentes 27. die Junii, M.D.LXXIII.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 14.

Anno Christi
1573.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 15.

Tenor injuntionum domini Matthaei, archiepiscopi Cantuar. in metropolitana et ordinaria visitatione cathedralis ecclesiae Christi Cantuar. die septimo Octob. anno M.D.LXXIII. Ex Strype's life of Parker app. p. 168.

IN Dei nomine, Amen. Nos Matthaeus, providentia divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, necnon ecclesiae Christi Cantuarien. visitator, atque ordinarius rite et legitime constitutus, ad honorem, commodum, et conservationem omnium jurium, libertatum, et privilegiorum dictae ecclesiae, injuntiones, ordinationes, monitiones, et interpretationes sequent. hac nostra ordinaria atque metropolitana visitatione, quam vicesimo tertio die mensis Septembris, anno Domini M.D.LXXIII. inchoavimus, et ulterius ex certis, justis, et rationabilibus causis animum nostrum specialiter moventibus, prorogand. esse duximus pendente, vobis decano et capitulo ecclesiae Christi Cant. praedict. necnon praedicatoribus, canonicis nicis minoribus, vicariis, caeterisque ejusdem ecclesiae officiariis, et ministris quibuscunque, quatenus vos omnes et singulos concernunt, damus, ministramus, et promulgamus, easque a vobis omnibus et singulis, quatenus vos concernunt, firmiter observari ac perimpleri, sub poenis in eisdem sigillatim contentis, virtute obedientiae vestrae canonicae, vobis de jure, et statutis vestris debet. mandamus atque praecipimus.

I. Inprimis volumus, mandamus, injungimus, atque praecipimus, ut statuta et ordinationes ab inclytissimo rege Henrico octavo, hujus ecclesiae Christi Cant. fundatore, edita, et singula in eis contenta, a vobis omnibus et singulis, quatenus vos concernunt, fideliter et inviolabiliter conserventur; si modo verbo Dei, aut legibus et statutis hujus regni Angliae non repugnent; quibus ita repugnantibus, neminem vestrum teneri atque ligari pronunciamus, et interpretamur. Et insuper, ad meliorem dictorum statutorum verbo Dei, legibusque ac statutis hujus regni consonorum observationem, prohibemus, ne decanus pro tempore existens, nec aliquis canonicus, seu quisquam aliquo beneficio, salario, vel stipendio in dicta ecclesia gaudens, per se, vel interpositam personam, deinceps directe vel indirecte, gratias, literas, dispensationes, seu aliquid ad abrogationem, vel derogationem dictorum statutorum, quacunque auctoritate impetret, obtineat aut procuret, vel impetrari, obtineri seu procurari faciat, impetratum, obtentum, seu procuratum accipiat, admittat, ratum vel gratum habeat, aut quocunque modo alleget; sed dispositioni, ordinationi et reformationi dictorum statutorum se submittat, iisque in omnibus, quae eum tangunt, pareat et obtemperet, nisi forte hujusmodi gratiae, literae, et dispensationes, ex mero regiae majestatis motu certaue scientia, non ad alicujus persuasionem atque sollicitationem, libere atque sponte concedantur. In quo casu is, in cujus gratiam et favorem hujusmodi aliquid concedatur, juramentum coram decano, seu vicedecano, ac capitulo, vel nobis, et successoribus nostris tempore visitationis praestabit, quod ad ejus procuracionem, persuasionem, vel sollicitationem obtentum non sit, sub poena et sententia suspensionis ab hujusmodi gratiarum, literarum, atque dispensationum beneficio, quam in omnes et singulos deinceps contra hanc nostram injunctionem delinquentes, exnunc prout extunc, et extunc prout exnunc, ferimus et promulgamus in hiis scriptis.

II. Item, Ne dictorum statutorum, aut injunctionum nostrarum crassa et affectata ignorantia cuiquam (quod ferendum non est) deinceps excusationis praetextu adferatur, volumus, ut tam dicta statuta, quam nostrae et successorum nostrorum injunctiones, monitiones, statutorum declarationes, in eisque ambiguitatum ac dubiorum interpretationes, singulis annis bis, quolibet nempe capitulo generali, coram omnibus canonicis, caeterisque hujus ecclesiae ministris quibuscunque ad vos vocatis, in domo capitulari publice per decanum aut vicedecanum plane atque integre recitentur. Et ut in singulis capitulis ac scrutiniis, non modo de statutorum praedictorum, sed etiam de hujusmodi injunctionum, monitionum, declarationum, et interpretationum observatione vel violatione diligens inquisitio, reformatio, correctio, et emendatio fiat. Ac ut cuivis hujus ecclesiae canonico tam statuta, quam injunctiones hujusmodi describere, eorumque et earum penes se copiam habere volenti, vera exhibeatur a decano, vicedecano, vel thesaurario, in loco capitulari, vel alio ad ea describenda apto et opportuno, copia.

III. Item, Volumus ut graviores dictae ecclesiae causae, quae moram ac maturam deliberationem pati possunt et requirunt, ut demissiones ad redditum vel firmam, aut locationes, vel concessionem terrarum, boscorum, seu aliquarum possessionum dictae ecclesiae, vel aliquarum parcellarum eorundem, alienationes aliquorum bonorum in praemissis casibus, litium inchoationes magnis ecclesiae sumptibus prosequendarum, novae ac sumptuosae aedificationes, officiariorum majorum seu superiorum dictae ecclesiae electiones et admissiones, ac caetera cuncta ecclesiae negotia, in quibus magis vertitur ecclesiae praejudicium, non alio tempore, modo, aut forma, nisi in duobus generalibus capitulis per statuta praedicta limitatis, proponantur, tractentur, et concludantur, sub poena amotionis perpetuae hiis, qui contrarium attemptant.

IV. Item, Quoniam decanum et capitulum dictae ecclesiae maxime convenit, ut bonos et frugi patresfamilias omnia bona mobilia et immobilia dictae ecclesiae ad utilitatem, commodum, et honorem ejusdem conservare, nec ab ecclesia ad privatos usus convertere, aut aliter dissipare; idcirco volumus, ne ulla maneria, rectoriae, terrae, vel possessiones dictae ecclesiae, antehac communi vel capitulari decreto ad provisionem decani, canonicorum, vel aulae communis, aut scholarium mensae assignatae vel in posterum assignandae in praejudicium hujusmodi provisionis, ullo praetextu; neque bosci ac sylvae dictae ecclesiae non dimitti solit. ullo modo dimittantur aut locentur, seu sic dimittatur eorum aliquod, sed ad hospitalitatem decani et canonicorum suorumque successorum, et mensas minorum canonicorum atque scholarium reficiendas, et usus ecclesiae necessarios, fideliter custodiantur et conserventur: nec decanus, aut canonicorum aliquis hujusmodi damnosis, nec solitis, sed detestandis dimissionibus auctoritatem vel consensum praebeat, sub poena et sententia suspensionis ab eorum respective officiis, suffragiis, et emolumentis, donec nostro, aut successorum nostrorum judicio, pro damnis ea occasione ecclesiae illatis, commode satisfecerint, quam in eos, et eorum quemlibet in hac parte delinquentes et culpabiles, extunc prout exnunc, et exnunc prout extunc, ferimus et promulgamus in hiis scriptis.

V. Item, Quoniam magnae semper contentiones et controversiae inter decanum atque praebendarios, dum suum privatum commodum affectantes, maneria, rectorias, terras, et tenementa quamplurima dictae ecclesiae inter se ad firmam dimitterent, atque locarent, necnon fines, quos in cista communi reponi aequius fuit inter se partirentur ac dividerentur, excitatae sunt: sub poena et sententia suspensionis antedicta prohibemus hujusmodi captatorias dimissiones, et finium dividendas deinceps in quovis fieri; donec nostri aut successorum nostrorum iudicio ecclesia praedicta magis pinguescat, et quiescat in eadem contentio.

VI. Item, Quoniam privatum singulorum commodum ita communes ecclesiae facultates exhaustit, ut in quo jam statu ejus res sitae sint, fere sit incognitum; volumus, ut singulis anni quartis, decanus, vel eo absente, vicedecanus, canonicis ad hoc legitime vocatis ac praesentibus, vel alias contumaciter absentibus, in loco ubi computus fieri consuevit, a receptore atque thesaurario rationem exigat singulorum receptorum et expensarum, indeque instrumentum in membrana describi ab auditore faciat; pecuniamque receptam, ac residuam, nec ad praesentem ecclesiae usum necessariam, receptis rationibus in cista communi recondi faciat, ibique ad magnos, utiles, et extraordinarios ecclesiae usus custodiri.

VII. Item volumus, ut omnia capitularia decreta a fine mensis Maii ult. praeteriti, per decanum et capitulum, pro divisionibus finium, et concessionibus ac dimissionibus ad firmam interposita, tanquam statutorum praedictorum menti ac intentioni et ecclesiae commoditati contraria, cassentur, irritentur, et annullentur; eaque nulla pronunciamus, ac pro cassis, irritis, invalidis, atque nullis pronunciamus atque declaramus, et a quoquam perimpleri aut observari, vel executioni demandari, sub poena et sententia suspensionis antefatae districte prohibemus.

VIII. Item, Ut cultus divinus decentius atque diligentius in dicta ecclesia deinceps celebretur, volumus, ut quoties minorum canonicorum, vicariorum choralium, et cantorum aliquis a matutinis aut vespertinis precibus, a lectionibus aut communionibus abfuerit, aut tardus, post mediam nempe earum partem perfectam ingrediatur, pro singulis in hujusmodi negligentia vicibus, denario communi mensae applicando mulctetur; qui ad subcantoris relationem, de delinquentium stipendiis, ad usum praedictum a thesaurario detrahetur, et reservabitur. Absentiam autem pauperiorum, aliorumque ministrorum dictae ecclesiae, eorumque tarditatem in divinis officiis, lectionibus, atque communionibus, decanus, aut eo absente, vicedecanus poena arbitraria, juxta modum et qualitatem absentiae, ac tarditatis, castigabit.

IX. Item volumus et mandamus, ut majores canonici singuli suis vicibus in majoribus diebus festis, quos duplices appellant, in propriis personis divina celebrent, juxta statutorum praedictorum in ea parte exigentiam.

X. Item, Quia de jure eligendi et admittendi canonicos minores, vicarios, cantores, scholares et choristas inter decanum et capitulum adhuc ambigitur, volumus, ad sopiendam ea de re discordiam, ut pendente nostra visitatione hujusmodi electiones et admissiones cessent, donec ea ambiguitas regia auctoritate, vel nostra interpretatione tollatur et declaretur.

VOL. IV.

XI. Item, Ut scholaribus tam in diaeta, quam in literarum incremento deinceps melius prospiciatur, volumus, ut omnes deinceps admittendi scholares, aliquem ex praebendariis tutorem seu curatorem habeant, qui pro eis ecclesiae caveat et provideat in necessariis; et ut singulis anni quartis per decanum, vel eo absente, vicedecanum assignentur ex praebendariis duo, qui omnes scholares sigillatim examinent, et quomodo in bonis literis moribusque profecerint, explorent, et cultum habitumque corporis aspiciant, et de hiis, quae in eorum aliquibus, vel eorum aliquo reformanda cognoverint, tutores seu curatores suos admoneant. Et si scholares a tutoribus seu curatoribus suis saepius moniti non se correxerint, deferatur inde ad decanum et capitulum querela, a quibus, qui incorrigibiles fuerint, expellantur.

XII. Item volumus, ut singulis anni quartis, eodem tempore, quo de scholaribus inquisitio fit, ab eisdem praebendariis, qui de scholaribus inquirant, de senescallo, opsonatore, pincernis, cocis communis aulae, acriter et diligenter cognoscatur, et inquiratur, eorumque computus, ac rationes fideliter examinentur. Et si de fraude semel convicti fuerint, vel de mala officiorum munerumve suorum administratione, bis a praedictis inquisitoribus admoniti non se correxerint, pro tertio delicto sint ipso facto amoti et exclusi.

XIII. Item vetamus atque prohibemus, ne senescalli, opsonatores, pincernae et coci, caeterique in hac ecclesia inferiores ministri officia sua per substitutos exercent, sed ipsi in eis diligentes, seduli, et assidui sint, sub poena amissionis unius anni salarii, deinde, nisi moniti se correxerint, amotionis perpetuae, nisi ex gravi et urgente causa ejusmodi substitutio et substituta persona a decano et capitulo approbata fuerit.

XIV. Item volumus et mandamus, ut omnes introitus atque exitus in ambitum et praecinctum ecclesiae, et ex eisdem solummodo per communes et antiquas duas portas pateant, nec ulli per aliam viam exire vel introire liceat; et ut privatae aliarum aedium fores atque januae, fenestrae, viaeque et perspectus per communes parietes in ambitum et praecinctum ecclesiae intromissi, ante festum Omnium Sanctorum prox. occludantur et obstruantur; nec deinceps hujusmodi januae, fores, et fenestrae fieri permittantur: volumusque de executione hujus nostri mandati per literas certificatorias decani et capituli authenticas, in mansione nostra Lamethana fieri octavodie post praedictum festum Omnium Sanctorum, sub poena et sententia suspensionis antedictae.

XV. Item, Ut non modo ecclesia, sed singula ejus membra in eleemosynis dandis larga, et in pauperes benefica sint, volumus et monemus, ut decano, canonicis, praedicatoribus, vicariis, cantoribusque convocatis, consilium de conferenda et distribuenda eleemosyna ante festum Omnium Sanctorum praedict. hoc modo ineatur, ut decanus iii l. vi s. vii d. singuli praebendar. xls.

B b b b

praedi-

praedicatores singuli vis. viii. d. vicarii singuli iii. s. iv. d. cantores singuli xvi. d. cum decem libris ex communi aerario ecclesiae, inter pauperes in civitate et suburbiis Cantuar. singulis anni quartis per aequales portiones distribuend. conferant. De qua collatione atque distributione incept. per auctenticas literas dicti decani et capituli pridie Calend. Febr. prox. certiores fieri volumus sub poena nobis arbitraria.

XVI. Item volumus et mandamus, ut deinceps quotannis vir aliquis in theologia doctus, quia a decano et capitulo ad hoc aptus reputabitur, sacras scripturas suggestu in loco capitulari, singulis diebus Mercurii et Veneris inter horas septimam et octavam matutinas, publice interpretetur et legat. Cui quidem interpretationi atque lectioni decanum, canonicos, praedicatores, vicarios, cantores, singulosque ejusdem ecclesiae ministros, praeter scholares, eorumque institutores, atque choristas cum hiis, qui illorum sunt familiis, interesse diligenter volumus, nec cuiquam abesse permittimus, nisi legitima causa per decanum et capitulum approbanda impediatur. Lectori autem et interpreti stipendium viginti librarum annuarum a decano et capitulo assignari, ex praedictae ecclesiae facultatibus praecipimus. Quem suae lectioni diligenter intendere jubemus; nec eum nisi in mensibus Augusti et Septembris, et in septimanis festorum Nativitatis et Circumcisionis Domini, Paschae, ac Pentecostes, tempore qui Quadragesimali intermittere, sub poena subtractionis alicujus portiones stipendii, arbitrio decanopro modo negligentiae dicti lectoris committenda.

Has autem injunctiones, quia de statu multarum rerum in hac ecclesia male administratarum reformando aliquandiu deliberandum esse putamus, vobis omnibus et singulis interim, dum visitatio nostra pendeat, observandas committimus; omni debita, et a jure nobis competenti criminum, excessuum, negligentiarum, incuriarum, ac delictorum anteaactorum quorumcunque censura, correctione, emendatione, et reformatione, itemque aliarum injunctionum potestate nobis aut successoribus nostris, ante finem exitumque hujus nostrae institutae visitationis, hujusmodi et specialiter reservatis. In quorum omnium et singulorum roborationem, fidem, et testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. septimo die mensis Octobris, anno Domini M.D.LXXIII; et nostrae consecrationis anno XIV.

Lectae et publicatae coram reverendissimo, etc. in domo capitulari, praesentibus dom. decano, magistris Willowbye, Bullen, Lawse, Newinson, praebendariis, et Bisely et Ingulden, praedicatoribus, cum reliqua turba minorum canonicorum, cantorum, atque ministrorum, etc.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 14.

Anno Christi
1573.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 15.

A proclamation against the despisers or breakers of the orders prescribed in the book of common prayer.

By the queen.

THE queen's majesty being right sorry to understand that the order of common prayer, set forth by the common consent of the realm and by authority of parliament in the first year of her reign, wherein is nothing contained but the scripture of God, and that which is consonant unto it, is now of late of some men despised, and spoken against, both by open preachings, and writings, and of some bold and vain curious men, new and other rites found out and frequented; whereupon contentions, sects, and disquietness doth arise among her people, and for one godly and uniform order, diversity of rites and ceremonies disputations, and contentions, schisms and divisions already risen, and more like to ensue. The cause of which disorders, her majesty doth plainly understand to be the negligence of the bishops and other magistrates, who should cause the good laws and acts of parliament made in this behalf to be better executed, and not so dissembled and winked at, as hitherto (it may appear) that they have been.

For speedy remedy whereof her majesty straightly chargeth and commandeth all archbishops and bishops, and all justices of assises, and "Oyer and Terminer," and all mayors, head officers of cities and towns corporate, and all other who have any authority, to put in execution the act for the uniformity of common prayer, and the administration of the sacraments made in the first year of her gracious reign, with all diligence and severity, neither favouring nor dissembling with one person nor other, who doth neglect, despise, or seek to alter the godly orders and rites set forth in the said book: but if any person shall by public preaching, writing, or printing contemn, despise, or dispraise the orders contained in the said book, they shall immediately apprehend him, and cause him to be imprisoned, until he hath answered to the law, upon pain that the chief officers, being present at any such preaching, and the whole parish do answer for their contempt and negligence. Likewise, if any shall forbear to come to the common prayer, and receive the sacraments of the church, according to the order in the said book allowed, upon no just and lawful cause; all such persons they shall enquire of, present, and see punished, and ordered according as is prescribed in the said act, with more care and diligence than heretofore hath been done: the which negligence hath been cause why such disorders have of late now so much and in so many places encreased and grown.

And if any persons shall either in private houses, or in public places make assemblies, and therein use other rites of common prayer and admi-

Proclamation against despisers of orders in the common prayer. 279 administration of the sacraments, than is prescribed in the said book, or shall maintain in their houses any persons being notoriously charged by books or preachings to attempt the alteration of the said orders, they shall see such persons punished with all severity, according to the laws of this realm, by pains appointed in the said act.

And because these matters do principally appertain to the persons ecclesiastical, and to the ecclesiastical government, her majesty giveth a most special and earnest charge to all archbishops, bishops, archdeacons, and deans, and all such as have ordinary jurisdiction, in such cases to have a vigilant eye and care to the observation of the orders and rites in the said book prescribed, throughout their cures and diocese, and to proceed from time to time by ordinary and ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as is granted them in the said act, with all celerity and severity against all persons, who shall offend against any of the orders in the said book prescribed, upon pain of her majesty's high displeasure, for their negligence, and deprivation from their dignities and benefices, or other censures to follow, according to their demerits. Given at Greenwich the 20. day of October, M.D.LXXIII. in the fifteenth year of the queen's majesty's reign.

God save the queen.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 14.

Anno Christi
1573.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 15.

A letter from the council about uniformity and a parochial visitation. Ex MS. Coll.
Corp. Ch. Cantabr. miscell. Y.

AFTER our hearty commendations to your lordship. By her majesty's proclamation dated the 20th of October last, it may appear, how careful her highness is, that the orders set forth in the book of common prayer, allowed by parliament in the first year of her majesty's reign should be severely and uniformly kept throughout all this realm. And that the fault why such diversities have been of late taken up in many churches, and thereupon contentions and uncomely disputations and dissensions risen (in her highness's opinion) is most in you, to whom the special care of ecclesiastical matters doth appertain; and who have your visitations episcopal and archidiaconal, and your synods and other such meetings of the clergy first and chiefly ordained for that purpose, to keep all churches in your diocese in one uniform and godly order, which now, as is commonly said (the more is the pity) be only used of you and your officers to get money, or for some other purposes. We at her majesty's commandment straightly made unto us, are therefore to require you to take a more vigilant eye to this uniformity, and to the keeping of the orders allowed by the said parliament, and by her majesty's injunctions throughout your diocese; and either by yourself, which were most fit, or by your archdeacons, or other able and wise men personally to visit, and see, that in no one church of your diocese there be any difformity or difference used for those prescribed orders. But if any shall refuse them, or accept any other diverse or repugnant to them, to call those persons before you, and by censures of the church and the ecclesiastical law to see them punished. So that what is required may be done in the churches of your diocese without extraordinary and temporal (as it is termed) jurisdiction and judgment, as it may we think verily, if diligent care and heed were taken by you their pastor and bishop. For nothing is required, but that godly and seemely orders allowed by the queen's majesty and the whole realm be kept. The which except ye did wink at and dissemble, there needed not these new proclamations and straight callings upon. Wherefore if now ye would take for your part care and heed, and so the rest of your fellow bishops, the quiet of the realm might soon be purchased in our mind touching any such matters, which should be great pleasure to her majesty, and comfort to us. The neglecting thereof how grievous it will be to her highness, and what danger may be to you, her highness hath expressed in the said proclamation. Thus praying you to consider these things, and with all speed to put order in them, and from time to time to certify us what you have done, and what by your orders is done herein to the fulfilling of her majesty's desire, we bid you most heartily farewell. From Greenwich the seventh of November, M.D.LXXIII.

Your loving frendes

W. Burghley. E. Lincoln. T. Suffex.
R. Leicester.
F. Knollys. T. Smith.

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 15.

Anno Christi
1574.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 16.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Ebor. et Cantuar.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Ebor. a die 12. mensis Januarii anni praecedentis ad 2. diem mensis Aprilis hujus anni continuata, ulterius ab illo die ad 14. diem Octobris, et inde ad 5. diem Februarii, et rursus ad 20. diem Aprilis anni M.D.LXXIV. prorogabatur.

CONVOCATIO cleri provinciae Cantuar. ad 20. diem Aprilis continuata per breve regium. ad 21. diem Octobris, et abinde ad 11. Martii, et ab illodie ad 8. Novembris anni M.D.LXXV. prorogabatur.

The

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 15.

Anno Christi
1574.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 16.

The direction of the ecclesiastical exercise in the diocese of Chester. Strype's Annals Vol. ii. App. p. 73.

THE moderators of every several exercise shall select such parts of scripture to be handled amongst the ministers, that are to attend the same, as they in their discretion shall think meet; so that they take in every several place of the exercise divers parts of scripture.

The writers shall be appointed to gather several observations upon every verse of that part of scripture, which shall be assigned unto them. And so proceed with the whole verse by verse.

The speakers shall be appointed every of them in order to treat upon so many Verses of the same, as by an equal distribution of the whole text amongst them all shall be assigned to every one.

The manner of proceeding in the exercise.

First, Prayer shall be aptly conceived for the present occasion; for the blessed estate of her majesty, of the church and commonwealth, by one of the moderators, who in order shall every of them accomplish the same at every several exercise.

Then the first moderator shall propose and read the first verse of the text, which is to be handled.

Upon which verse the writer shall in order read the observations, which they have gathered.

After whom the speaker, assigned to that part of the text, shall in some larger manner discourse upon the same.

After him the rest of the speakers shall have liberty to give any brief notes upon that verse.

In all which actions of the writers and speakers the moderator's (office) that proposed the verse, shall be to make special observation of any errors, negligence, or ignorance in any of them, and the same to correct and reform with as brief speech as may be.

After which he shall further add such observations as he shall gather upon the said verse. And after him the rest of the moderators and preachers in due order shall do the like, till as much be said upon that verse, as shall be thought convenient.

All which time both the speakers and writers shall take notes in writing of those observations, which shall be given by any of the speakers, preachers, or moderators. And so in due order shall all the moderators proceed with the whole text verse by verse.

Then shall the moderators call before them those, whom by any information they are to admonish of any misdemeanor or enormities of life. And if after such admonition they shall again fall into the like offence, then the moderators shall certify the bishop thereof, and crave suspension of them.

After the moderators shall proceed against the absents in this sort: viz. They shall at the next exercise, after such absence, call before them the said parties; who, if they cannot be able to prove a sufficient cause of their absence, and the same well approved by the moderators, then the moderators shall exact the mulct imposed by the order set down by the right reverend the lord bishop, without abating any part thereof in any respect; lest any thereby learn to presume of favour in such case to be shewed. Which mulct if any shall refuse to satisfy, and not duely conform themselves in that behalf, or not come in place to give account of their actions, then the moderators shall without delay proceed to suspension, according to the said orders. Which suspension they shall forthwith certify unto the said bishop, according to the said orders; and further, with all instance prosecute the said suspension with full effect.

In fine, the whole action is to be concluded with prayer, as it was begun.

Synodus provincialis Ebor.

SYNODUS provincialis Eboracensis ad 20. Jovis, viz. nonum diem mensis Februarii, qui diem Aprilis hujus anni continuata, in diem erit in A. D. M.D.LXXV. prorogabatur.

Sede Cant. vacante.

Anno Christi
1575.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 17.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. ad octavum diem mensis Novembris continuata. Ex excerptis Heylinianis.

CONVOCATIO ad octavum diem mensis Novembris continuata, per breve regium ad 9. diem Februarii prorogabatur. Quia autem ob mortem Matthaei Cant. archiepiscopi sedes metropolitana vacabat, decanus et capitulum Cant. custodes spiritualitatis, Edwino episcopo London. commissionem ad interessend. et praesidend. etc.

vice, loco, et auctoritate sua sacrae synodo concedebant, dat. Lond. 8. die Februarii M.D.LXXV.

In prima ejus sessione (Febr. 10.) postquam episcopi et clerus coram episcopo London. synodi praeside, in ecclesia S. Pauli congregati, tractatum inter se habuissent, convocatio a praeside continuabatur ad 17. diem Februarii. Quo die Edmundus Edmundus archiepiscopus comparens breve regium dat. Febr. 16. de continuatione convocationis legi fecit; quo lecto accersivit prolocutorem nonnullosque ex inferiore domo, mandavitque ut ipsi inter se excogitent, si aliquid reformandum sit, quod statum ecclesiasticum, et Christi religionem concernit, et quicquid inde excogitaverint, in scriptis redigant, ac in proxima sessione exhibeant. Et praeterea voluit et mandavit ut de subsidio dominae reginae per clericum concedendo inter se rationem ineant, et modum ac formam concessionis ejusdem scriptis mandent.

In tertia sessione (Febr. 24.) decanus Westmon. protestationem de privilegiis et exemptionibus collegii sui protulit, cui episcopus London. praeses pro more solito respondit. In sequenti sessione liber subsidii dominae reginae a clero concessi perlectus ac ab utraque domo confirmatus erat. In alia (septima) sessione Martii 2. in ecclesia S. Pauli London. episcopis congregatis, prolocutorique accersito cum 5. aliis e domo inferiore, episcopus London. exposuit se et confratres suos habere quaedam ardua negotia tractanda, statum ecclesiae Christi concernentia, super quibus isto die, ratione absentiae reverendissimi et aliorum confratrum, non possent commode tractare. Ideo negotium hoc differebatur in aliud tempus. Post varias deinde continuationes convocatio congregabatur Martii 17. in capella ecclesiae B. Petri Westm. ubi archiepiscopus praesens perlegi mandavit et fecit quosdam articulos in scriptis conceptos; quibus sic lectis, dictus reverendissimus et confratres sui praedicti consensum et assensum suos unanimiter adhibuerunt; necnon nomina sua manibus suis propriis subscripserunt. Tenor vero articulorum habetur pag. 284. hic sequente.

Sede Cant.
vacante.

Anno Christi
1575.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 17.

Q. Elizabeth's special commission to Sir Nicholas Bacon to burn hereticks. Ex rot. pat. 17. Eliz. p. 5. m. 9. apud Rymer Foed. vol. 15. p. 740.

ELIZABETH, by the grace of God quene of England, Fraunce, and Ireland, defender of the fayth, etc. to our right trustie and right well beloved counsaillour, Sir Nicholas Bacon knight, lord keaper of our greate seale of England, greetinge. Where the reverend father in God, Edwyn busshoppe of London, Edmund busshoppe of Rochester, and our right trustie and well beloved Sir William Cordell knight, maister of the rolles, Roger Manwood and Robert Mounson, two of the justices of our Common Pleas, with others our commissioners sufficientlye authorized by our commission under our greate seale of England, have travayled upon the examynation, heringe and determination of John Peeters and Henrie Turwert beinge Flemynge borne, and nowe lyvinge, in this our realme, concernyng their false opynyons and sects of Anabaptists, holden and avowed by them, wherein they have, before the said reverend fathers and others our said commissioners, mayntayned their said most perilous and dangerous opynyons, for the which they are by definitive sentence decayred by the said reverend father the busshoppe of London, with the consent of others our said commissioners, justilie adjudged and decayred to be heretiques, and therefore as corrupt members to be cut of from the rest of the flocke of Christ, lest they should infect others professinge the true christiane faythe, and are by them lesse under the sentence of the greate excommunication to be by our secular power and authoritie as heretiques punished, as by the "Significavit" of the said reverend father in God the busshoppe of London, with the assent of others of our said commissioners, remayninge in our courte of Chauncerye, more at lardge appeareth. And although the said Anabaptists have synce the said sentence pronounced against them bynne often and very charitable traveled with, as well by the mynisters of the Duche church in the cite of London, as by other godlie and learned men, to diswade, revoke, and remove them from their Anabaptistcall and hereticall opynyons; yet they arrogantlie and willfullie persist and continewe in the same. We therefore, accordinge to our regall function and office, myndyng the execution of justice in this behalfe, and to give example to others, lest they should attempte the like hereafter, have determined, by the assent of our counsaill, to will and requyre you the said lord keaper, immediatelie upon the receipte hereof to awarde and make out our wrytt of execution accordinge to the tenor in these presents ensuyng, and these our letters signed withe our hande shall be your sufficient warrant for the same.

Per ipsam reginam.

Et warrantum remittitur praedicto domino custodi, ut patet inferius.

Sede Cant.
vacante.Anno Christi
1575.Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 17.Breve regium de executione judicii versus Johannem Peeters et Henricum Turwert haereticos comburendos.

ELIZABETHA, Dei gratia, etc. vicecomitibus London. salutem. Cum reverendi in Christo patres, Edwinus, providentia divina Londoniensis episcopus, Edmundus, eadem gratia Rossensis episcopus, ac praedilecti et fideles nostri Willielmus Cordell, miles rotulorum sive scriniorum nostrorum magister, Rogerus Manwood, Robertus Mounson, justitiiarii nostri in Communi Banco, Alexander Nowell, S. Pauli London. Gabriell Goodman, Westm. ecclesiarum respective decani, et alii tanquam cognitores, inquisitores, judices, et commissarii, inter alios per literas nostras patentes sub magno sigillo nostro Angliae gerentes datum 11. die mensis Maii ultimo praeterito, sufficienter et legitime deputati, nobis significaverint, quod ipsi contra et adversus quosdam Johannem Peeters et Henricum Turwert Flandricos oriundos, in hoc regno nostro Angliae degentes, de et super nefando crimine haereseos ac detestanda Anabaptistarum secta, apud bonos et graves enormitatibus diffamatos, auctoritate praedicta procedentes, praedicti Johannes Peeters et Henricus Turwert coram praefatis reverendis patribus, ac aliis commissariis nostris personaliter comparentes, praedictum nefandum crimen haereseos, ac detestandam Anabaptistarum sectam, ac alios errores contumaciter et ex quadam pertinacia omnino sustinuerunt et defendebant, ac eorum alter sustinuit et defendebat, per sententiam diffinitivam ejusdem reverendi patris London. episcopi, cum consensu caeterorum commissariariorum nostrorum praedictorum, juste, legitime, et canonice contra eosdem Johannem et Henricum in ea parte latam, haeretici adjudicati et pronunciati existant, et ideo tanquam oves morbias a grege Domini, ne subditos nostros suis contagionibus inficiant, ejiciendos et eliminandos fore decreverint. Cum igitur sancta mater ecclesia non habet, quod ulterius in hac parte facere et exequi debeat, iidem reverendi patres ac alii supradicti commissarii eosdem Johannem et Henricum damnatos haereticos, brachio nostro seculari reliquerint et condigna animadversione plectendos, prout per literas patentes praefati reverendi patris episcopi London. cum consensu caeterorum in hac parte collegarum superinde confectas, nobis in cancellariam nostram certificatum est. Nos igitur, ut zelator justitiae et fidei catholicae defensor, volentesque ecclesiam sanctam, ac jura et libertates ejusdem, et fidem catholicam manutenere et defendere, ac hujusmodi haereseos et errores ubique (quantum in nobis est) eradicare et extirpare, ac haereticos sic convictos animadversione condigna puniri; attendentesque hujusmodi haereticos in forma praedicta convictos et damnatos, juxta leges et consuetudines regni nostri Angliae in hac parte consuetas, ignis incendio comburi debere; vobis praecipimus quod dictos Johannem Peeters et Henricum Turwert in custodia vestra existentes, apud West Smithfeld in loco publico et aperto, ex causa praemissa, coram populo igni committi, ac ipsos Johannem Peeters et Henricum Turwert in eodem igne realiter comburi faciatis, in hujusmodi criminis detestationem, aliorumque hominum exemplum, ne in simile crimen labantur; et hoc sub periculo incumbenti nullatenus omittatis. Teste regina apud Gorambury 15. die Julii.

Per ipsam reginam.

Et warrantum inde remittitur praedicto domino custodi magni sigilli Angliae per ejus mandatum.

The form of recantation prescribed to certain Anabaptists. Heylin's hist.
Presbyt. p. 242.

WHEREAS I N. N. being seduced by the spirit of error, and by false teachers his ministers, have fallen into many damnable and detestable heresies; videlicet, First, That Christ took not flesh of the substance of the blessed Virgin Mary. Second, That infants born of faithful parents ought to be rebaptized. Third, That no christian man ought to be a magistrate, or bear the sword or office of authority. Fourth, And that it is not lawful for a christian man to take an oath. Now by the grace of God, and through conference with good and learned ministers of Christ his church, I do understand and acknowledge the same to be most damnable and detestable heresies, and do ask God here before his church mercy for my said former errors, and do forsake them, recant, and renounce them, and abjure them from the very bottom of my heart; and further I confess, that the whole doctrine and religion established in this realm of England, as also that which is received and practised in the Dutch church here in this city, is sound, true, and according to the word of God, whereunto in all things I submit my self, and will most gladly be a member of the said Dutch church, from henceforth utterly abandoning and forsaking all and every Anabaptistical error.

A letter

Sede Cant.
vacante

Anno Christi
1575.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 18.

A letter of Dr. Whitgift, master of Trinity college Cambr. to Richard, bishop of Ely, concerning impropriations and pluralities. Ex MS. Bibl. Bodl. Seld. Supra 44. fol. 34.

I HAVE not had that leisure to peruse the script that your lordship sent unto me, that I would have wished, for we are now in our audit; yet I have done therein so much, as in so short a time I could. The matter is worth to be dealt in, and very necessary to be considered; and I would to God, that care and circumspection were in many others, that is in your lordship; the time, and the state of the church doth require it. I pray God make you strong, and give you the spirit of boldness and fortitude this time of your personal persecution (for so I must needs call it) saying as St. Augustine saith, that enemies of the church persecute it after three sorts; "Gladio, lingua, dolo;" and notwithstanding the persecution of the sword (God be thanked) is not, yet how fierce the other two are, cannot be unknown to any, especially to your lordship, who tasted of them. Touching impropriations, which are partly touched in the treatise, all things considered, I think they are very warily to be dealt in, for considering how that every man seeketh to pull from the church, how also the temporality does envy any prosperity in the clergy, what enemies the most part of men are to cathedral churches, bishopricks, colleges, and other places of learning, and that the most part of these do consist of impropriations, I fear lest under the pretence of reforming the one, the dissolution, and utter undoing of all the other, would be sought for, which would be the ruin of the church, the fall of religion, and the decay of learning; only the clergy shall be plagued thereby, for the temporal men will still keep their interest in their leases, that they have in such impropriations, as I my self do perceive by some conference that I have had with some great men, touching that matter. It standeth us in hand to be circumspect, for it will be the policy of some, under fair promises and pretences, to procure, that we ourselves shall be the authors of our own harms. This is a certain and sure principle, that the temporalities will not lose one jot of their commodity in any respect, to better the livings of the church; and therefore let us keep that we have, for better we shall not be: we may be worse, and that I think by many is intended.

Again, where it is said, that men joined benefice to benefice, that is to be reprov'd in such as have no care of doing their duties, not in such as labour and be diligent, for it is better and more for the profit of the church, that some have many, than other some one. Moreover, considering how long and injurious leases there be of the most part of ecclesiastical livings, dignities, prebends, and benefices, so that that living, which is worth to the farmer two hundred marks, is not worth to the incumbent twenty pound, as I my self am able to prove in divers and sundry such kinds of livings. Saying also that men have not now a days that conscience in paying their duties, that they have had in times past; besides many other commodities, that were wont to be incident to such livings, which are now utterly taken away, except it might be lawful for men to join more livings together, you should have a beggarly clergy, which will be the decay of learning, religion, and in time, of the church also; for there would not be many meet livings for learned men, besides a few bishopricks. Wherefore I think, that such things, where they are amiss, are rather to be reformed in the persons, that are not worth of them, than by any common rule. The temporality seek to make the clergy beggars, that we may depend upon them; and this will be one means whereby they purpose to bring it to pass. Touching the papists in this diocese, there will not be much done, unless your lordship call earnestly of the matter; for certainly my lord North will bolster out that notorious papist Mr. Parry, as he hath done hitherto; such is his zeal, etc. Thus your lordship seeth how bold I am to trouble you, but I presume of your lordship's accustomed goodness; for my part I am ready to do any thing, that may be good; and in these matters contained in the treatise you sent unto me, I intend to bestow some pains, as soon as I can get any leisure; thus remaining your lordship's most assured brother so long as I live, I commit you to the tuition of the almighty God. From Trinity college the 3d of December, M.D.LXXV.

Superscribed: To Richard bishop of Ely.

Convocatio provinciae Ebor.

CONVOCATIO provinciae Ebor. ad diem 9. mensis Februarii continuata, ad diem Lunae 27. ejusdem mensis, et ab eo ad primum diem Martii, deinde ad 9. et postea ad 23. ejusdem mensis prorogabatur; quo die subsidium gratuitum unanimi cleri consensu dominae reginae concessum est.

Articles

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL I.

Anno Christi
1575.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I⁸.

Articles whereupon it was agreed by the most reverend father in God the archbishop of Cant. and other the bishops of the whole clergie of the province of Canterbury, in the convocation or synod holden at Westminster by prorogation in the year of our Lord God M.D.LXXV. touching the admission of apt and fit persons to the ministry, and the establisshing of good orders in the church. Ex excerptis Heylinianis.

FIRST, That none shall be made deacon or minister hereafter, but only such as shall bring unto the bishop of that diocese from men known to the same bishop to be of sound religion, a testimonial both of his honest life, and of his professing the doctrines expressed in the "Articles of religion which concern the confession of a true christian faith, and the doctrine of the sacraments" comprised in a book entituled "Articles whereupon it was agreed by the archbishops and bishops, etc. anno M.D.LXII." put forth by the queen's authority, and which also shall then be able to answer and render to the same bishop an account of his faith in Latin, agreeable and consonant to the said articles, and shall first subscribe to the said articles. And that every such deacon shall be of the age of twenty three years, and shall continue in that office the space of a whole year at the least, before he be admitted to the order of priesthood: and every such minister shall be of the full age of twenty four years. And that neither of these orders shall be given but upon a Sunday or holy day, and in the face of the church, and in such manner and form, and with all such circumstances as are appointed by the book entituled "The form and manner of making and consecrating bishops, priests, and deacons.

II. Item, That no bishop shall give either of the said orders to any that be not of his own diocese (other than graduates resident in either of the universities) unless they be dimitted under the hand and seal of that bishop, of whose diocese they are, and not upon letters dimissory of any chancellor, or other officer to any bishop.

III. Item, That unlearned ministers heretofore made by any bishop shall not hereafter be admitted to any cure of spiritual function according to the queen's majesty's injunctions in that behalf, for which purpose the bishops shall cause strict and diligent examination to be us'd in the admission of all curates to any cure.

IV. Item, That diligent inquisition be made in every diocese for all such as have forg'd and counterfeited letters of orders, that they may be deposed and punished by commissioners ecclesiastical.

V. Item, That the bishops by their letters do certify one another the names of such counterfeit ministers, to the end they be not suffered to serve in any other diocese.

VI. Item, That from henceforth none shall be admitted to any orders ecclesiastical, unless he do presently shew to the bishop a true presentation of himself to a benefice then void within the diocese or jurisdiction of the said bishop; or unless he likewise shew to the said bishop a true certificate, where presently he may be placed to serve some cure within the same diocese or jurisdiction; or unless he be placed in some cathedral or collegiate church or college; or unless the bishop shall forthwith place him in some vacant benefice or cure; or unless he be known to have sufficient patrimony or livelihood of his own.

VII. Item, That none shall be admitted to any dignity or benefice with cure of souls, unless he be qualified according to the tenor of the first article; and if any such dignity or benefice be of the yearly value of thirty pounds or above in the queen's books, unless he shall then be a doctor in some faculty, or a bachelor of divinity at the least, or a preacher lawfully allowed by some bishop within this realm, or by one of the universities of Cambridge or Oxford, and shall give open tryall of his preaching before the bishop or ordinary or some other learned man appointed by him, before his admission to such dignity or benefice; and nevertheless where the stipends or livings be very small, then to choose of the best that can be found in such case of necessity.

VIII. Item, That all licences for preaching granted out by any archbishop or bishop within the province of Canterbury, bearing date before the 8th of February, M.D.LXXV. be voyd and of none effect. And nevertheless all such as shall be thought meet for that office, to be admitted again without difficulty or charge, paying not above four pence for the seal, parchment, writing, and wax for the same, according to an article of the advertisements in that behalf.

IX. Item, That every bishop shall take order, that all able preachers within his diocese do earnestly and with diligence teach their auditors sound doctrine of faith and true religion, and continually exhort them to repentance and amendment of life, that they may bring forth the fruits of faith and charity, and be liberal in alms and other good deeds commanded by God's word. And that none be admitted to be a preacher, unless he be first a deacon at the least.

X. Item, That every bishop in his diocese shall with all expedition take order, that the catechism allowed be diligently taught to the youth in every parish church, and that the homilies milies, when no sermons be made, be duly read in order, as they be prescribed every Sunday and holy day.

XI. Item, That every bishop shall likewise take order within his diocese, that every parson, vicar, curate and stipendiary priest being under the degree of a master of arts, and being no preacher, shall provide and have of his own within two months after warning given to him or them, the New Testament both in Latin and English or Welch, and shall confer daily one chapter of the same, the Latin and the English or the Welch together. And that archdeacons, commissaries and officials in their synods and visitations shall by their discretion appoint to every the said parsons, vicars, curates, and stipendiary priests some certain tax of the New Testament to be conned without book, or otherwise to be travelled in, as shall be thought most convenient to the said archdeacon, commissaries, or officials, and shall exact a rehearsal of the same and examine them how they have profited in the study thereof, at their next synods and visitations, or such other time and times, as to them shall be thought meet.

XII. Item, Where some ambiguity and doubt hath arisen among divers, by what persons private baptism is to be ministered, for as much as by the book of common prayer allowed by statute, the bishop of the diocese is to expound and resolve all such doubts as shall arise concerning the manner how to understand, do, and execute the things contained in the same book; it is now by the said archbishop and bishops expounded and resolved, and every of them doth expound and resolve, that the said private baptism in case of necessity is only to be ministered by a lawfull minister or deacon, called to be present for that purpose, and by none other. And that every bishop in his diocese shall take order, that the exposition of the said doubt shall be published in writing before the first day of May next coming, in every parish church of his diocese in this province; and thereby all other persons shall be inhibited to intermeddle with the ministering of baptism privately, being no part of their vocation.

XIII. Item, That from henceforth there be no commutation of any penance by any having ordinary jurisdiction ecclesiastical, or any their officers or deputies into any mulct pecuniary, unless the same be done upon great and urgent causes by the consent of the bishop of the diocese, declared in writing under his hand and seal.

XIV. Item, That all archdeacons and others, which have ordinary jurisdiction ecclesiastical, and their officers and deputies shall call before them all such person and persons, as shall be detected or presented before them, or any of them of any ecclesiastical crime or fault, and shall use all means by law prescribed to convince and punish such as be found to be offenders, effectually upon pain of suspension from his and their office.

XV. Item, That the bishops shall take order that it be published and declared in every parish church within their diocese before the first day of May next coming, that marriage may be solemnized at all times of the year, so that the bannes be first on three several Sundays or holy days in the service time openly asked in the church, and no impediment objected, and so that the said marriage be also publicly solemnized in the church at the usual time of morning prayer.

Ultimus tamen articulus typis non fuit expressus, eo quod domina regina (ut dicitur) non assensit eidem. Postquam hi articuli promulgati fuissent, convocatio virtute brevis regii ad 6. diem Novembris, ac deinde de tempore in tempus ab uno anno in alium per diversa brevina regia ad 17. Januar. A. M.D.LXXX. prorogabatur

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL I.

Anno Christi
1576.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 18.

Mandatum archiepiscopi Cantuar. ad publicandum articulos in convocatione
M.D.LXXV. stabilitos. Ex excerptis Heylinianis.

EDMUNDUS, divina providentia Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, venerabili confratri nostro Edwino, eadem providentia London. episcopo, salutem, et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum in sacra synodo provinciali, sive convocatione praelatorum et cleri nostrae Cant. provinciae, auctoritate brevis regii in ea parte emanati, in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedralis D. Pauli London. 9. die mensis Maii A. D. M.D.LXXII. ultimo praeterito, inchoata ac celebrata, ac de die in diem, et de loco in locum continuata et prorogata, de consilio et assensu vestris, et aliorum venerabilium confratrum nostrorum, totiusque cleri dictae nostrae Cant. provinciae in eadem sacra synodo sive convocatione, 17. die mensis Martii, A. D. juxta computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae M.D.LXXV. ultimo praeterito, congregata, inter nonnulla alia, per nos mutuo et unanimi nostro consensu, ad Dei gloriam illustrandam, divini cultus augmentum, ecclesiae Anglicanae utilitatem, ordinis clericalis honestatem et decentiam, ac illustrissimae dominae nostrae reginae, regnique sui Angliae tuitionem et defensionem tendentia, ordinata et stabilita, ex certis magnis arduis et urgentibus causis, per nos eisdem confratribus nostris et clero dictae nostrae provinciae Cant. expositis, et inter nos matura deliberatione consideratis et ponderatis quosdam articulos intitulatos, "Articles whereupon it was agreed," etc. ordinaverimus et stabiliverimus; nos igitur articulos praedictos in et per totam provinciam nostram Cant. praedictam debitae executioni demandare volentes, verum exemplum articulorum praesentibus annexum (ne quisquam ignorantiam praetendere possit) fraternitati vestrae committimus publicandum; eidem fraternitati vestrae praecipiendo

VOL. IV.

D d d d

mandantes,

mandantes, quatenus vera exemplaria praedictorum articulorum sub sigillo, et separalibus literis vestris, universis et singulis venerabilibus confratribus nostris episcopis, suffraganeis dictae nostrae provinciae Cant. ac custodibus spiritualitatis sedium vacant. transmittentes, ex parte nostra iis injungatis, quibus nos etiam harum serie injungimus, quatenus eorum singuli in singulis civitatibus ac dioecesibus eorundem, prout eos et eorum quemlibet respective pertinet, articulos praedictos debite publicent et denunci-ent, ac ab omnibus, quos concernunt, observari, et debite executioni demandari faciant, et curent cum effectu. Ac insuper articulos memoratos per fraternitatem vestram in, et per civitatem, et dioecesim vestram, prout ad vos attinet, debite et effectualiter publicari, denunciari, et executioni debite demandari volumus et mandamus, prout convenit. In cujus rei testimonium, etc. Dat. 20. die Aprilis, M.D.LXXVI.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL I.

Anno Christi
1576.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. I^a.

Articles to be enquired of in the metropolitall visitations of the most reverend father in God Edmond, by divine sufferance archbiskope of Cant. primate of all England, and metropolitane in all and singular cathedral and collegiate churches within his province of Canterbury. Reg. Grindall fol. 97. a.

I. FYRSTE, Whether your bishop, and his chancellor, commissaries, and all his officers do minister justice indifferently and incorruptly to all her majesties subjects, and punish vice and public crimes with due punishment, without any corrupt commutations, neither respecting gifts nor persons; and whether any money, gifte, rewarde, or any other temporal commoditie (other then accustomed lawfull fees) hath been received for justices, or any judgments, or execution of lawes, or for any gifte, advowson, presentation, collation, institution, or induction, or for the procuring of any such to any spirituall or ecclesiasticall livynge; what hath been received, by whom, and by whose mediation?

II. Item, Whether your bishop, deane, chapter, and all other your governours do in their severall regiments direct all their doings to seek the glory of God, the godly quietness of the church of England, of the upholding in good order of your cathedral church of — neyther suffringe of the same corrupt doctrine, nor offensive manners; and whether any of them doth, or hath, make, or suffer any wast, ruyne, decaye, or dilapidation of the goods, or possessions of this church, as by decaye, or not repaying the church, and their severall houses, alienating the stocke, buildinges, ymplementes, or other moveable goodes of the church, or committing any of the same to private uses, or making of leases in possession, or reversion, for moe yeres, or otherwaies, then the statutes of your church do prescribe, or by greedy wast of timbre, excessive sales of woode, advowsons, unused and unreasonable grauntes, patentes, and reversions of offices, unwounded annuities, and such like greedy gripinge of thinges present, to the impoverishing of the church and succession; how many, and what they be, whether any such grante or advowson hath been solde for any value; by whom, to whom, and for how much, and who now enjoyeth the same?

III. Item, How many such grauntes, patentes, advowsons, sales, offices, annuities, and such like hath binne confirmed by your chapter seal, sithence the first yere of her majesties reign, to whose use, and by whose means, and what money was received for the same by whom, and to whose use; whether any like gifte, graunt, advowson, or lease, for longer time than for twenty one yeres, or three lives, hath been made, or confirmed, antedated, or by other collorable means procured, in possession or reversion, sithence the beginning of the parliament in the thirteenth yere of her majesties reigne; what those be, and by whose means procured, and to what use?

IV. Item, Whether your deanes, archdeacons, and other dignities of your church be resident or not; who they be, what other promotions or livings every one of them hath, and in what dioceses; and whether every one of them be ministers or not, whether they use semely or preebly garmentes, according as they are commaunded by the quenes majesties injunctions to doe?

V. Item, Whether your prebendaries be commonlie resident, or how many of them? what orders they be in, how, and in what apparell they do commonly go; whether they do preache in their severall courses; or how often; and what times in the yere; or how often they do resort to your cathedral church?

VI. Item, Whether your divine service be used, and the sacraments ministred in manner and forme prescribed in the quenes majesties injunctions, and none otherwaies; whether it be said or songe in due time; whether in all pointes, according to the statutes of your church, not being repugnant to any of the quenes majesties lawes or injunctions; whether all that were wonte to be bounde, or ought to come to it, do so still; whether every one of your church doth openly communicate in the said cathedral church, at the least, once in every yere?

VII. Item, Whether your grammer schole be well ordered; whether the number of the children thereof be furnished; how many do want, and by whose default; whether they be diligently and godly brought up in the feare of God, and holsom doctrine; whether any of them have been received for money or rewardes, and by whome; whether the statutes, foundations, and other ordinances towching the godly prescribed, and used almes of your church, and

and the said grammer scholemaster, or the schollars thereof, or any other havinge doing or interest therein, be kept, by whom it is not observed, or by whose default; and the like, in all points, you shall enquire and present of your choristers, and their master?

VIII. Item, Whether all other officers, and ministers of your church, as well within as without, do their duties in all pointes obediently and faithfully, and whether your deane, stewardest, treasurers, burfours, receyvers, or any officer, having any charge, or any waies being accomptant to the said church, do make a trewe, perfect, and faithfull account at such daies and times, as be limited and appointed by the statutes and customes of the said church, making full payment yerely of all arrerages; whether any money, or goods, of the church do remain in any mans hands; who they be, and what somme remayneth?

IX. Item, You shall enquire of the doctrine and judgement of all and singuler hed and members of your said church; as your deane, archdeacons, prebendaries, readers of divinitie, scholemasters, vicars, petticannons, deacons, conductes, singing men, choristers, scholers in grammer scholes, and all other officers and ministers, as well within your church as without; whether any of them do either priveley or openly preache any unholsome, erronious, or seditious doctrine, contrary or repugnant to any article agreed upon in any synod of the clergy of the province of Cant. sithence the first yere of her majesties reign, or discourage any man soberly for his edificatione from the reading of the holly scriptures, or in any point to perswade, or move any not to conform themselves to the order of religion reformed, restored, and revived by public authority in this church of England?

X. Item, You shall enquire of the names and surnames of all and singuler the abovenamed members, officers, and ministers of this your said church, as well high as low, whether you know and suspect any of them to obtaine his rone or lyving by simony, that is, by money, unlawfull covenantes, guifte, or reward; who presented him; whether his living be in lease, and by whom it is leased; to whom, and upon what rent; whether he doth pay any pension; for what cause, what somme, and to whom; whether any of them be knowen or suspected to be a swearer, and adulterer, a fornicator, or suspected of any other unclenelyness; whether any of them do use any suspect house, or suspected company of any such faults, any tavern, alehouse, or tippling houses at any inconvenient season; whether any of them be suspected to be a drunkard, a dicer, a carder, a brawler, fighter, quarreller, or unquiet person, a carrier of tales, a backbiter, slanderer, bate maker, or any other waies a breaker of charitie or unity, or cause of unquietness by any meanes?

XI. Item, Whether you have necessary ornaments and bookes for your church?

XII. Item, Whether your church be sufficiently repayred in all partes; what stocke or annuitie is there towards the reparations of the cathedrall church; in whose hands and custodie doth it remayne?

Item, Finally you shall presente what you think necessary or profitable for the church to be reformed, or of newe to be appointed and ordred in the same.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL I.

Anno Christi
1576.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 18.

Orders for reformation of abuses about the learned exercises and conferences among the ministers of the church. Strype's life of Grindall p. 220.

I. IN PRIMIS, The said exercises are to be used in such churches, and at such times, as the bishop of the diocese shall under his hand and seal appoint.

II. Item, That in all such assemblies for the said conferences or exercises, either the archdeacon, if he be a divine, or else some one other grave learned graduate, at the least, to be appointed and allowed by the bishop, as before, be present and moderate the said exercises.

III. Item, That a catalogue of names be made and allowed of those that are judged meet to be speakers in course in the said exercises; which are known to be able to speak aptly, and to the profit and edifying of the hearers. And such parts of the scripture entreated of, as the bishop shall appoint.

IV. Item, That the rest of the ministers, not able to speak publicly with commendation, be assigned by the moderators some tasks, for the encrease of their learning, to be comprised in writing, or otherwise concerning the exposition of some part of scripture; and those tasks to be read privately before the ministers only, and not before the laity.

V. Item, Ante omnia, That no lay person be suffered to speak publickly in those assemblies.

VI. Item, That no man speaking in the said exercises, shall be suffered to glance openly, or covertly against any state, or any person public or private. If he do, the moderators shall immediately interrupt him, and put him to silence; and notice to be made of the cause of interruption to the bishop, and the party interrupted not to be again admitted, without the bishop's approbation, and the knowledge of his offence.

VII. That no man be suffered in the said exercises to make any invections against the laws, rites, policies, and discipline of the church of England, established by public authority. If any attempt the contrary, he is immediately to be commanded to silence. And the moderator or moderators, are therein to satisfy tisfy the auditory. And the speaker shall not be admitted to speak any more, till he, after public satisfaction made, shall obtain a new admission and approbation of the bishop.

VIII. Item, Forasmuch as divers ministers deprived from their livings, and inhibited to preach, for not obeying the public orders and discipline of the church of England, have intruded themselves in sundry places, to be speakers in the said exercises, and being excluded from pulpits, have in the said exercises usually made their invections against the orders, rites, and discipline of the church, which hath been the cause to move divers to a dislike of the said exercises (being of themselves, if they be well used very profitable for many respects) every bishop is to take strict order in his diocese, that hereafter none be suffered to be speakers in the said exercises, which remain deprived or inhibited for the causes aforesaid, except they shall have before conformed themselves to order: neither any other, which shall not, both by subscription and daily practise, conform himself to public orders and discipline of this church by law established.

EDM. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL I.

Anno Christi
1576.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 19.

The council's letter to the archbishop of Canterbury about the observation of Ember days and Lent. Reg. Grindall in Strype's life of Grindall p. 226.

AFTER our hearty commendations to your good lordship. The queen's majesty of late entering into consideration, how that, notwithstanding sundry good statutes and laws made heretofore by common consent in parliament to the contrary, the observation of the Embring and fifty days is not so duly looked unto, as it ought to be, and as is requisite in policy for the maintenance of mariners, fishermen, and the navy of the realm; hath thought convenient for the cause, first in her highness's own household to give strait charge unto the officers, for the observation of them: and it is ordered, that they shall be more carefully lookt unto and continued, than heretofore they have been. The like we have signified by her majesty's special appointment, to the lord mayor of the city of London, and other her majesty's officers and loving subjects abroad; to the intent that by an unfeigned observation in all places throughout the realm of the said law already provided and meet to be put in execution in this respect, the state might take such benefit thereby, as was at the time of the making intended; which we can assure your lordship is the only cause, why at this time the observation of them is so much urged. Howbeit for that it may be, that this her majesty's good meaning may either be misconstrued by some and depraved by others, as though any superstition (wherewith her majesty, God be thanked, is not to be touched or suspected) were thereby intended; for the meeting with and answering such slanderous conceits as may be spied and mistaken among her highness's subjects, we have thought good to require your lordship to give order within your province, that the ministers and preachers, which are or shall be admitted to that function, be commanded, in their sermons and exhortations to the people to instruct and teach them to be willing and obedient to conform themselves and their families to the observation of the said laws, as in duty they are bound; and further declare unto them, that the same is not required for any liking of popish ceremonies heretofore used (which utterly are detested) but only to maintain the mariners and navy in this land, by setting men a fishing. Which thing is so necessary for the realm, especially in these dangerous times, as no means are to be omitted, whereby it may be thought the same may be according to the laws brought to pass, and perfected accordingly.

And for that the exhortations and doctrines of good and dutiful ministers may do much good in this matter, both to remove scrupulousness and misconceits of some few, and also to induce the greater and common number to obey and observe the said laws; we have thought good to signify so much unto your lordship, that by the good assistance of you, and others under you, the matter might be furthered, and take such good success for the benefit of this realm, as we desire. From Hamptoncourt the 13th of December, M.D.LXXVI.

Your lordship's right assured loving friends,

W. Burghley. F. Knollys.
A. Warwick. Jam. Croftes.
R. Leicester. Fra. Walsingham.

Concilium provinciale Ebor.

CONVOCATIO cleri provinciae Ebor. a die mensis Martii anni praecedentis ad 5. diem Aprilis, et ab eo ad 19. ejusdem mensis, ac postea ad 6. diem Novembris continuata fuit.

Queen

Q. ELIZABETH'S LETTER AGAINST CONVENTICLES. 289

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 2.

Anno Christi
1577.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 19.

Queen Elizabeth's letter to the bishops throughout England against conventicles, and for the suppressing the exercise called prophesying. Ex MS. Cotton. Cleopat. F. 2. fol. 287.

RIGHT reverend father in God, we grete you well. We here to our greate greefe, that in sundry parts of our realme there are no small numbers of persons, presuminge to be teachers and preachers of the church, though nether lesfulie thereunto called, no yet [fit] for the same, which, contrary to our lawes established for the publique divine service of almighty God, and the administration of his holie sacraments within this church of England, doe daylie devise, imagine, propound, and putt in execution sundrie new rites and formes in the church; as well by their preaching, readinge, and ministringe the sacraments, as well by procuringe unlawfull assemblies of a greate number of our people out of their ordinarie parishes, and from place far distant, and that also of some of good callinge (though therein not well advised) to be hearers of their disputations, and new devised opinions upon pointes of divinity, farre and unmeete of unlearned people, which manner of invasions they in some places call prophesyinge, and in some other places exercises; by which manner of assemblies, great numbers of our people, speciallie the vulgar sorte, meete to be otherwise occupied with honeste labour for there livinge, are brought to idleness, and seduced, and in a manner schismatically divided amongst themselves into varietie of dangerous opinions, not only in townes and parishes, but even in some families; and manifestlie therby incorraged to the violation of our lawes, and to the breache of common order, and finalie to the offence of all our quiett subjects, that desier to serve God accordinge to the uniforme orders established in the church, whereof the sequele cannot be but over dangerous to be suffred. Wherefore consideringe it should be the dutie of the bushopes, being the principall ordinarie officers in the church of God, as you are, once to see this dishonors against the honor of God and the quietness of the church reformed, and that wee see that by the increase of these through sufferance, great daunger may ensue even to the decaye of the christian faith, whereof we are by God appointed the defendor, besides the other inconveniences, to the disturbance of our peaceable government; we therefore, accordinge to authoritie we have, charge, and command you as the bushopp of that diocesse with all manner of diligence, to take order throughe your diocesse, as well in places exempt as otherwise, that no manner of publique and divine service, nor other forme of th' administration of the holie sacraments, nor any other rites or ceremonies be in any sort used in the church, but directlie accordinge to the orders established by our lawes. Nether that any maner of person be suffred within your diocesse to preache, teache, reade, or anie wise exercise any function in the church, but such as shall be lawfully approved and licensed, as persons able for there knowledge, and conformable to the ministrie in the rites and ceremonies of the church of England; and where there shall not be sufficient able persons for learning in any cures to preach, or instructe their cures, as were requisite, there shall you limittè the curats to read the publike homilies, accordinge to the injunctions heretofore by us geven for like causes. And furthermore considringe, for the great abuses that have byn in sundrie places of our realme, by reason of our forsaid assemblies, called exercises, and for that the same are not, nor have not ben appointed nor warranted by us, or by our lawes; we will and straightlie charge you, that you also charge the same forthwith to cease, and not to be used; but if any shall attempt or continew, or renew the same, wee will you not onlie to comitte them unto prison, as maynteyners of disorders, but also to advertise us or our counsaile of the names and qualities of them, and of there mayntainers, and abettors, that thereuppon for better example their punishment may be more sharpe for their reformation. And in these things we charge you to be so carefull and vigilant, as by your negligence, if wee shall here of any personn attemptinge to send in the premises without your correction or reformation to us, we be not forced to make some example or reformation of you, accordinge to your deserts. Yeven under our signet at our mannor of Greenwich the 7th of May, M.D.LXXVII.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 2.

Anno Christi
1577.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 20.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the lords of the privy council, about the same. Ibid.

RIGHT honourable and my singlar good lords. I cannot denye but that I have bene commaunded bothe by the quene's majesty herself, and also by divers of your honourable lordships in her name, to suppress all those exercises within my province, that are commonly called prophecies. But I doe proteste before Godd, the judge of all hartes, that I did not of any stubborness or wilfulness refuse to accomplishe the same, but only upon conscience; for that I found suche kinde of exercise set downe in the holie scriptures, and the use of the same to have continued in the primitive church. And was perswaded that (the abuse being reformed, which I alwaies offered myfelfe reddie to labour in) the said exercise might yet serve to the greet profite of the church; and feared that the utter suppressing of them wolde breed offence. And therefore was a most humble sutor unto her majestie, that I might not be made the chief instrumente in suppressing the same. Yet not prejudicing or condemning any, that in respecte of pollicie or otherwise, sholde be of contrary judgement, or beinge of authoritie sholde suppress them. For I knowe right well, that there be some things of that nature, wherein diverse men may be of diverse opinions, and abownde in their owne sense (being not repugnant to the analogie of faith) without any prejudice to their salvation, or any prejudice of other to other. Notwithstanding, howsoever others, being otherwise perswaded, might saie doe yt; yet I thought it not safe for me (being so perswaded in mynde) to be the doer of that, whereof my owne harte and conscience woulde condemne me. And whereas I have susteyned the restrainte of my liberty, and sequestration of my jurisdiction, nowe by the space of six monthes, I am so far from repining thereat, or thinkinge myself injurioullie or hardlie dealte withal therein at her majesty's haunds, that I doe thankfully imbrace and franklie with all humilitie acknowledge her princelye, gratiouse, and rare clemency towards me, who havinge authoritie and power to have used greater and sharper severitie againste me, and for good policie and example thinkinge it so expediente, hath notwithstanding dealte so mercifully, mildlye, and gentlye with me.

E e e

monly

But the greateste grieve, that ever I have hadd or have, is the loss of her majesties favour, and the susteyninge of the displeasure of so gratiouse a soveraigne; by whome the church and realme of Englande, hath ben so longe, so happilie governed; and by whom myfelfe privatelie, and speciallie above other subjects, have received so many, and so great benefits above all my deserving. For the recoverie of whose gratiouse favor, I moste humblye beseeche your lordships to be a meanes to her majestie for me. The which obteyned, I shall esteeme farre above all worldlie benefitts whatsoever. And I proteste here before Godd, and your honours, that not onely my dewtifull and humble obedience to her majestie shalbe suche, as she shall have no cause to repente her of her graciouse goodness, and clemencie shewed unto me; but also that by moste fervente, hartie, and daylie praier (as I have done hitherto) so I will contynewe, accordinge to my bownden dewtie, to make moste earnest fute unto allmightie Godd for the longe preservation of her majesties moste happie raigne, to the unspeakable benefitt of the church and realme of Englande. 29. November. M.D.LXXVII.

EDM. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 2.

Anno Christi
1577.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 20.

Queen Elizabeth's letter to John Whitgift, bishop of Worcester, to forbid prophecies, Strype's life of Whitgift. p. 81.

RIGHT reverend father in God, etc. Considering, that our chief care and study is, to see the good laws, which are set forth for the quiet government of this our realm, and among other things as the chiefeft, that the orders established in the church for the advancement of God's glory, may be duly observed, and an uniform unity maintained among the clergy, and other our good subjects; which will be the better done and continued, by the diligence of the ordinary, and by the instruction and travel about the diocese by personal visitation, as is meet, that he may rather see than hear, what is meet to be by him reformed; and understanding, that of late years there hath been used in divers dioceses of this realm a certain public exercise, or, as they call it, prophesying, by certain persons pretending a more purity, by the manner of the doing thereof, evil effect hath ensued in some places, to our grief, among the unlearned sort, easy to be carried with novelties; therefore, for certain good causes moving us, we do will and command you, forthwith, upon the receipt hereof, to make expresse order throughout all your diocese, that all such prophecies be forborn, and none other exercise be suffered to be publickly used, than preaching by persons learned, discreet, conformable, and sound in religion, heard and allowed by you without partiality, and reading homilies in such sort, as is set forth by public authority, by the injunction and order of the book of common prayer. And further that you signify unto us, or to some of our privy council attending about our person, the names of all persons, of what degree soever the same be, that are the setters forth and maintainers of such exercises, and in what places, as also of such as shall impugn this order; and what you shall have done herein from time to time, hereof not to fail, as ye tender our pleasure, and will avoid the contrary at your peril.

And also by diverse of your honours, I cannot deny but that I have bene commended both by the queene's majesty her

A letter

Archiepisc. Cant.

EDM. GRINDALL 3.

Anno Christi

1579.

Reg. Angliae

ELIZAB. 21.

A letter from the lords of the queen's council to the archbishop of Cant. concerning a libel printed against her marriage with Monsieur the French king's brother. Reg. Grindal in Strype's life of Grindal append. p. 92. seqq.

AFTER our right hearty commendations to your good lordship; you shall understand, how of late hath been imprinted within the city of London a certain libel entitled "The gaping gulph," wherein the author, under the pretence of misliking of some dealings treated of between her majesty, and the duke of Anjou, the French king's brother, in very deed seemeth to go about to draw her majesty's subjects into some mistrust and doubt of her highness's said actions, as tho' thereby some alteration were like to ensue, especially in religion, which her highness hath heretofore established and maintained, and is fully determined with the assistance of God's goodness and grace to uphold and maintain during her life, yea and even with the hazard of her own person; whose constancy in that behalf cannot in reason be called in question, if with thankfulness it be thought on; how her majesty hitherto, for the maintenance of the same, hath willingly sustained the malice of the great and mighty princes her neighbours; as one that wholly dependeth on God's providence, with assurance that so long as she shall continue a nurse to the church, she shall never lack for merciful assistance.

Notwithstanding for as much as we know, that divers of the said books have been seditiously cast abroad and dispersed in sundry places of this realm, and have good occasion to think the same hath been done within your lordship's diocese; by the reading whereof her majesty's good subjects, especially those of the clergy, may perhaps by oversight credit, upon vain suspicions and presumptions be induced to think and speak otherwise of her majesty's doings, than either they have cause to do, or it becometh dutiful and obedient subjects: her majesty for the removing of all such doubts, as may be conceived in that behalf, and the better confirming of her faithful servants in such a good opinion of her highness, as both her doings and government over them (the like whereof never happened within this realm) have deserved, and appertaineth before God and men unto their duties; hath at this present caused a proclamation to be made, printed, and published, which we send your lordship herewith. Upon the receipt whereof her majesty's pleasure is, that with as much speed as you conveniently may, you should assemble the special noted preachers and other ecclesiastical persons of good calling within your diocese, and upon the reading of the said proclamation, to signify unto them her highness's constant and firm determination to maintain the state of religion without any alteration or change in such sort as hitherto she hath done; and that as heretofore she could not by any persuasion or practice of sundry adversaries be brought to alter or change the same, so now much less her meaning is at this present, by any treaty with the said duke to do the like; who hath heretofore shewen himself a friend to those of the religion even with the hazard of his estate and life: a thing notoriously known, tho' by another of the libels it be otherwise untruly given out, and doth deserve in respect of the honour he did of late to her majesty, in vouchsafing to come and see her in such a kind and confident manner, without respect of the peril he did expose himself to in the said voyage, both by the sea and by the land, to be honoured, and esteemed of all those that truly love her highness.

Ye shall also admonish them, that in their sermons and preachings, they do not intermeddle with any such matter of estate, being in very deed not incident, nor appertaining to their profession; but commanding them to contain themselves within the limits and bounds of their callings, which is to preach the gospel of Christ in all purity and singleness, without entangling and confounding themselves in secular matters; wherewith they ought to have nothing to do at all; but rather teach the people to be thankful towards almighty God for the great benefits both of liberty of conscience, peace, and wealth, which they have hitherto enjoyed by her majesty's good means; and to beseech him to continue and encrease his blessings over us, to the intent that in all humbleness and obedience under her gracious government, we may lead a quiet and christian life, rather than by intermeddling in such matters impertinent to their calling, go about to give occasion of distrust or disquietness among the subjects of this realm. By which their unorderly dealings there cannot but grow great prejudice to the cause of religion, which may be perhaps pretended, but in very deed is like by such means rather to be hindered than furthered.

And to such of the said preachers as dwell in remote places and cannot be present at the said assembly, you shall signify so much by your letters. And in case any of them shall understand, that any persons whatsoever by the said books, or otherwise, shall have been seduced, and carried into any such doubt or mistrust of religion, or prejudice like to ensue in this realm, you shall charge them by all godly and christian persuasions, to do their best endeavour to remove all such undutiful and unnecessary conceits; being far contrary to her majesty's most gracious meaning. And in case they shall not be able so to prevail as were convenient, but shall understand, that either some other persons shall otherwise deal in this matter, or that the people rest not therewith satisfied; and so shall think think that some further order is necessary to be taken in that behalf, you shall charge them forthwith to give notice thereof unto you, the ordinary. And thereupon you, by your authority, shall call such persons before you, as in whom you shall find any cause to be reformed; and by your information or otherwise, correct them in their error, so as no farther inconvenience follow by such disordered behaviour.

And so requiring your lordship, that here and there may be no want of your diligence, as you tender her majesty's service, and will answer to the contrary at your peril, we bid you right heartily farewell. From Greenwich the 5. Octob. M.D.LXXIX.

Your lordships very loving friends

Tho. Bromely, canc.	H. Sydney.
Will. Burghley.	F. Walsingham.
Hunsdon.	Tho. Wilson.
F. Knollys.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 4.

Anno Christi
1579.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

The council's letter to the archbishop of Canterbury concerning some preachers, that refused to celebrate the communion. Reg. Grindall in Strype's life of Grindall P. 244.

AFTER our hearty commendations. Whereas her majesty is credibly informed, that divers and sundry preachers in this realm do only apply themselves to the office of preaching; and upon some light conceipt to the dishonour of God, the breach of her majesty's laws, the offence of good subjects, and the great contempt of the sacraments, which groweth thereby, do separate themselves from the executing of the one part of the office of a priest, which is as well to minister the said sacraments, as to preach the gospel; and that by this occasion some are counted and termed, "reading," and "ministering," ministers, and some preachers and no sacrament ministers; therefore we are in her majesty's name to require your lordship to take a view of all such within your diocese, as do so disjoin the one part of the function from the other, and do not at certain times in the year as well minister the holy sacraments in their own person, in what place soever they receive any portion for preaching; and yourself by your ecclesiastical censures to compel them to execute both. And such as you shall find intractable, to send them up to us, and to certify us immediately upon your said view, how many you find of those recusants within your diocese, that we may thereupon satisfy her majesty in that behalf. And so we commit your grace to God. From London the 17th day of January.

Your very loving friends

Tho. Bromely, canc.	Jam. Crofte.
W. Burghley.	Chr. Hatton.
E. Lincoln.	Fra. Walsingham.
J. Suffex.	Tho. Wilson.
J. Hunsdon.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 4.

Anno Christi
1579.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. in ecclesia cathedr. S. Pauli London. continuata ad 17. Januarii M.D.LXXIX. Ex reg. convoc. et excerptis Heylin.

IN prima hujus convocationis sessione (die Martis Januarii 17.) post dictam litaniam Anglici idiomate in ecclesia S. P. London. episcopi et clerus ad domum capitularem se conferunt, ubi literae commissionales archiepiscopi Cantuar. episcopum London. locumtenentem suum constituentem leguntur; qui assumpto hoc munere, clerum ad eligendum prolocutorem monuit, iis commendans venerabiles viros magistros L. Humfrey, Winton, Geo. Day, Windesor, et Gab. Goodman, Westmon. respective decanos, ut ex illis unum praesentarent proxima sessione. In qua (Jan. 25.) doctor Day electus confirmabatur; et dominus locumtenens, et confratres sui tractatum aliquem habebant inter se de quibusdam in ecclesia reformandis.

In tertia sessione (Jan. 27.) episcopis in domo capitulari congregatis, episcopus London. praefes convocationis, protulit quasdam literas missivas honorandorum virorum dominorum de privato concilio dominae reginae eidem reverendissimo, etc. inscriptas, quosdam errores et haereticas opiniones per novam sectam haereticorum, vulgo nuncupat. "The family of love" tangentes et concernentes. Quibus lectis, idem dominus praesidens, et caeteri reverendi patres tam de et super contentis in dictis literis missivis, quam etiam de reformatione aliqua contra recusantes se conformare susceptae religioni in hoc regno Angliae publica auctoritate stabilitae habenda, tractatum aliquamdiu habuerunt, et ea omnia prolocutori cum sex aliis domus inferioris membris accersito tradiderunt. Et praeterea mandavit dominus locumtenens, ut prolocutor et clerus rationem ineant de modo et forma subsidii dominae reginae per clerum concedendi.

In quinta sessione (Febr. 3.) accessit ad episcopos prolocutor cum quatuor aliis de clero domus inferioris, ac cum iis de et super quibusdam dam articulis contra dictam novam sectam haereticorum in scriptis per aliquod tempus tractavit. In sexta sessione horis pomeridianis ejusdem diei episcopi super contentis in articulis, de quibus inter archiepiscopum Cant. caeterosque episcopos et clerum provinciae Cant. in synodo sive convocatione tent. apud Westm. ex prorogatione A. D. M.D.LXXV. conventum extitit, tractarunt, ac quaedam capitula ex iisdem extraxerunt, quae magis necessaria putarunt auctoritate parlamenti confirmari.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

Episcoporum epistola ad reginam Elizabetham pro restauratione archiepiscopi Cant.
Edm. Grindall. Ex MS. in Hyper. Bodlei. Bibl. Oxon.

NULLA propemodum res est, serenissima regina, de qua verius nostra opinione et rectius evangelii professores Romanae sedis insolentiam reprehendant, quam quod intolerabili quadam arrogantia non seipsam modo evexerit supra reliquas omnes ubivis terrarum Christi ecclesias, sed principes etiam dignitate praestantes, et summos totius orbis monarchas ita in suam potestatem redegerit, ut tanquam subditos quodammodo et beneficiarios suos legibus, institutis, mandatis obstrinxerit. Ab hac enim pontificia tyrannide sacrosancam principum majestatem ab optimo et maximo Deo constitutam et confirmatam aliquot jam secula vidimus infra ordinem redactam, projectam et prope conculcatam. Non libet hic commemorare Alexandros, Gregorios, Bonifacios, et falso cognominatos Clementes, nec qua meriti sunt ratione commonstrare, quam indignis modis tractaverint summa potestate praeditos imperatores et eximiis virtutibus ornatos. Nulla respublica fuit, nullum regnum, in quo non suos habuit Romana curia procuratores et administratos, horrenda quadam fulminandi potestate terribiles, quos principibus et summo magistratui semper opponerent. Non mirandum igitur, si majores tui, dignitate et prudentia praecellentes reges, parum gratos habuerunt Anselmos, Becketos, Langtones, et id genus alios, quos sibi tanquam compedes injectos videbant, ut non quae ipsi pro regia dignitate, pro legibus, pro moribus vellet facere, sed quae liberet pontificibus administrare cogerentur. Immanem hanc et plane non ferendam superbiam evangelii doctrina paucis annis, sit Deo gratia, et ex hoc regno, et ex aliis plerisque rebuspublicis, prout merita est, profligavit. Nam et nos, qui sub tuae majestatis patrocinio vivimus, et reliqui omnes quicunque sunt in aliis locis verbi praecones, divinae scripturae normam insequentes, eandem pro eo atque decet et pro viribus oppugnamus, ut impiam, sceleratam, et sacrilegam. Vere igitur si homines aestimare voluerint, facile constituent, post propagatam hisce proximis annis evangelii lucem, sublimem illam regum et principum auctoritatem, multis antea seculis enervatam, revixisse quodammodo, et in pristinam dignitatem restitutam. Injustam igitur et (quod cum bona tuae majestatis venia dicamus)

VOL. IV.

In octava sessione (Febr. 17.) libellus subsidii in synodo confirmatus reginae per episcopos London. Winton. Lincoln. Meneven. Sarum, et Wigorn. exhiberi decernebatur. Post varias deinde convocationis continuationes, in quibus nihil actum est, episcopus London. eam 20. die Martii ad 25. diem Aprilis, anni M.D.LXXXI. prorogavit. Quo die adveniente, per breve regium et per sedecim diversas prorogationes convocatio continuata fuit usque ad 20. diem Aprilis, A. D. M.D.LXXXIII.

a christiana charitate alienam calumniandi materiam arripiunt, quo hisce temporibus, ut nostram existimationem convellant, episcopos accusant, tanquam immoderatae dominationis cupiditate obstrictos. In evangelicis enim ecclesiis quicunque episcopi et ministri, vel cum maxima sunt potestate, quam quidem legibus sustinere possunt, hoc solum sibi muneris vendicant ipsis a Deo impositum, ut libera conscientia queant salutarem verbi doctrinam et divina Christi mysteria ad evangelii normam administrare, et quorumvis hominum errata, vitia, scelera, ea, qua decet, gravitate reprehendere. Quicquid praeterea in rebus humanis auctoritatis habent, id a principe et summo magistratu proficisci et facile et libenter agnoscimus: tantum abest, ut tanquam immunes nos eximi cupiamus a potestate principum. Haec cum ita sint, sanctissima princeps, et cum hoc modo sumus omnes animati, non possumus non vehementer dolere, et in hac luce evangelii cum gemitu et lachrymis prosequi vicem reverendissimi Cantuariensis eximii Christi praesulis, et summi in ecclesia Anglicana sacerdotis Dei, quem jamdiu videmus maximo ecclesiae non dedecore modo, sed detrimento etiam in summa tuae majestatis indignatione constitutum. Molestiam certe nostram et animi acerbitatem tamdiu meliora sperantes, repressimus, ut jam non immerito vereamur ab omnibus bonis vel ingratitudinis, vel negligentiae, vel impietatis reprehensionem. Pro regia igitur mansuetudine tua ignosces, ut speramus, audaciae nostrae, si nunc tandem justus animi dolor erumpat, et hisce literis seipsum prodat apud majestatem tuam. Quamobrem pro christiana pietate et pro imposita nobis ecclesiarum cura et solitudine vehementer cum officio nostro in hoc tempore conjunctum arbitramur, ut demissis precibus tuam majestatem imploremus, et per pietatem tuam te et regalis animi clementiam obsecremus et obtestemur; ut illum digneris in gratiam recipere, et hujus offensae notam vel nostris votis, vel ipsius dignitati, vel ecclesiae saluti condones. Cujuscunque sit ordinis, qui offenderit, si non crimen sit capitale, paululum supplicii satis videri poterit principi et natura clementissimae, et religionis christianae rationibus insigniter instructae; multo magis si deliquerit praeclarus praeclarus aliquis Christi minister, et summus regni tui praeful. In hac causa fortassis parum ille se morigerum praebuit, et regio mandato tuo minus obsequentem. In caeteris profecto rebus omnibus illum audemus confirmare et tuae majestatis observantissimum civem, et regni hujus tui, si quis alius, fidissimum subditum, et ecclesiae Christi dignissimum praesulem, quod et florentem evangelii veritatem suis virtutibus egregie promovit, et eandem afflictam, et ex hoc regno profligatam nunquam deseruit, sed cum omnium rerum suarum, tum etiam vitae periculo, ut fidus Christi alumnus, exulantem illam, et in quasvis terras ab hominibus ingratis projectam persecutus est. In quo quidem afflictissimo suo tempore nihil arbitramur illi tantum intulisse molestiae et acerbitalis, quantum in hoc peperit, quod cum aliquo ecclesiae dedecore, et cum omnium bonorum dolore, in tuam sanctissimae principis et evangelii protectricis offensam et indignationem inciderit. Cogitat ille saepe, et id quidem certe cum gemitu et lachrymis, in quantum ea res timorem conceperit caeteras omnes evangelicas ecclesias, quae ex hujus offensionis auditione gravissimos dolores conceperunt, multa nostris ecclesiis et maxima pericula metuentes. Perspicit etiam proculdubio, quos spiritus hujus rei nuncium addiderit, et quantas spes concitarit hostibus evangelii, qui et tuae sacratissimae majestatis, et regni hujus tui florentissimi, et sanctissimae Christi ecclesiae ruinam et interitum avide et non dissimulanter expectant. Parce igitur illius viri doloribus, cujus vitam ipsi scimus acerbam esse, quod cum tuae celsitudinis offensione et evangelicae professionis non levi contumelia conjuncta sit. Parce gemitibus ecclesiae pastorem suum, et a tua benignitate constitutum moderatorem desiderantis. Tollatur per tuam pietatem et animi celsitudinem insolentissimis et tuis et ecclesiae et servatoris Christi hostibus tam indigna gloriandi et insultandi materia. Erige piissimorum civium animos in metu jam et squalore et luctu jacentes, et multa, quae possunt hac occasione pro nostris peccatis incidere, pericula timentes, tuam majestatem demisse, et humiliter precamur, ut in hac causa teipsam velis consulere, et ingenitam animi lenitatem in consilium adhibere, neque finas aliorum (si quae forte erunt) occultas criminationes te minus propensam ad misericordiam reddere, quam vel naturae tuae bonitas, vel christiana pietas, vel sanctissimae principis dignitas ferat. Habemus nos, qui in istis periculosis temporibus sub tua majestate gubernationem ecclesiasticam sustinemus, adversarios et sibi repugnantes, et utrinque nos infestis animis petentes, occultos scilicet papisticae corruptionis fautores ab uno latere, et curiosos quosdam rerum novatores ab altero. Utrisque pro eo atque debemus, et pro viribus nostris nos opponimus, quia utroque videmus publicae ecclesiae tranquillitati et quieti parum studiose faventes. Mirandum igitur non est, si ex utroque genere sint nonnulli, qui occultis cuniculis, diversa tamen ratione, et reverendissimi Cantuariensis, et nostram omnium expectationem indefinenter impetant. Hujusmodi iniquissimis rationibus Eusebius scribit Constantinum, pietate et prudentia praecellentem imperatorem, ab Athanasii invidis et malevolis ita circumventum esse, ut sanctissimum illum patrem et fortissimum orthodoxae fidei propugnatorem, tanquam hominem praefractum et contumacem, cum incredibili christianae religionis detrimento, et dignitate privarit, et in exilium projecerit. Sed prospiciet, ut speramus, benignus Deus ecclesiae, nec patietur ille, qui corda regum habet in manu sua, ut singularis tua pietas adversariorum injustissimis querelis abducatur in odium nostri. Non dubitamus quin ex omnibus ordinibus subditos habeas fide et eximia pietate praestantes, quibus vita etiam sine tua majestate ingrata videbitur. Habes tamen proculdubio non paucos, qui licet bonorum civium commendationem studiose aucupentur, sine te se vivere posse sperant et fortassis etiam expectant. Sed nos, quos ecclesiae gubernationi praefecisti, cum a tua majestate discefferimus, nihil habemus humanum, quod speremus vel ad unum diem posse imminentem cervicibus et capitibus nostris calamitatem avertere. Dementes igitur essemus et vehementer stupidi, addimus etiam impii et scelerati, si non omni cura, diligentia, studio, pietate salutem tuam et incolumitatem complecteremur. Errare poterimus, et labi, et labimur frequenter omnes (homines enim sumus) sed cujusmodi animos geramus erga tuam majestatem et regni tui tranquillitatem, ille solus novit, qui preces nostras et gemitus audit quotidie ipsius misericordiam implorantium, ut te nobis diu conservet piam, propitiam, et benignam, principem. Sed aequo longius videmus nos proVectos et celsitudini tuae nimium molestos. Quod reliquum est, hoc unum enixe precamur, ut quae semper vel in graviter delinquentes mitissimae principis laudem consecuta sis, ne velis nunc commotior aut iratior videri in praeconem illius Christi, qui et initio tuam innocentiam contra hostium tuorum conatus protexit, et in amplissimi regni folio positam cum immortalis tui nominis gloria ecclesiae suae nutricem et patronam constituit, et constitutam mirabiliter tuetur et servat, potentissimisque adversariis etiam virginem formidabilem reddit. Singularis hujus beneficii memoriam si grato animo ut haecenus et pietatis officiis complecteris, non dubium quin idem Deus tuam majestatem et tuis et huic reipublicae et suae gloriae diu incolumem conservabit: quod nos etiam votis ardentissimis precamur.

F f f f

Tuae majestatis observantissimi episcopi provinciae Cantuariensis

London. Winton. Elien. Hereford.
Lichfeld. Menevensis. Petriburgensis.
Lincoln. Norwicensis. Sarum.
Wigorn. Roffensis.

Has literas Lincolnienfis episcopus tradidit reginae.

Synodi

Archiepisc. Cant.
MATTH. PARKER 15.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

Synodi libellus supplex reginae porrectus pro restitutione archiepiscopi Cantuar.
Fuller Ch. Hist. l. IX. p. 120.

Serenissimae et potentissimae reginae Elizabethae, Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensatrici, etc.

ET SI majestatem regiam sive verbo sive scripto interpellare, serenissima princeps Elizabetha, non decere, nisi rarius, non licere, nisi gravioribus de causis arbitramur; tamen cum praecipiat, apostolus ut "Dum tempus habemus, beneficiamus omnibus, maxime vero domesticis fidei," omittere nullo modo possumus, quin illud hoc tempore a tua celsitate humiliter contendamus, quod nobis ad petendum utile et necessarium, toti ecclesiae et reipublicae ad obtinendum, salutare et fructuosum, tuae denique majestati ad concedendum, perfacile et honorificum sit futurum. Quanquam igitur acerbissime dolemus et contristamur, reverendissimum patrem Cant. archiepiscopum, post tot annos, in tantam tamque diuturnam majestatis tuae offensionem incidisse; tamen valde vehementer speramus, nos veniam adepturos, si pro uno multi, pro archiepiscopo episcopi, pro tanto praesule tot ministri, serio et suppliciter intercedamus. Quod si deprecantium auctoritas in petitione valeret, haec causa jamdudum a nobilibus viris, si voluntas ab amicissimis, si experientia a prudentissimis, si religio a reverendissimis, si multitudo a plurimis, sic ut nostrae partes nullae nunc aliae videantur, quam ut orationem cum illorum rationibus, nostras preces cum illorum petitionibus supplicissime ac demississime conjungamus.

Ut enim Caesar Octavius jucundissimus propterea fuisse scribitur, quod apud eum quoties quisque voluit, dixit, et quod voluit, dum humiliter; sic ex infinitis illis virtutibus, quibus regium tuum pectus abunde cumulatur, vix ulla vel majestati tuae honorificentior, vel in populum tuum gratiosior existit, quam in admitendis hominibus facilitas, in causis audiendis lenitas, prudentia in discernendis, in satisfaciendis pietas et clementia. Nihil est enim tam populare, quam bonitas, atque principes ad praepotentem Deum nulla re propius accedunt, quam offensionibus deponendis, et obliviscendis injuriis, non dicimus septies, sed septuagies septies; nam si decem millia talentorum dimittantur nobis, nonne nos fratribus, conservis, subditis centum denarios condonabimus? Liceat enim nobis illud Christi praeceptum ad istud institutum bona tua cum pace accommodare, praesertim cum hortetur apostolus, ut "Mansuetudo nostra nota sit omnibus;" Christusque jubeat, ut "misericordes simus, sicut Pater noster caelestis misericors est." Vinum in vulnus infundere salutare est, et salutarius oleum. Christus utrumque adhibuit. Judicium cantare Domino jucundum est, ac jucundius est misericordiam. David utrumque perfecit. Gratiofa est in omnibus hominibus clementia, in proce-ribus gratiosior, in principe vero gratiosissima. Gloriosa est regia mansuetudo, reginae gloriosior, virgini vero gloriosissima; si non semper, at saepius, si non in omnes, at in pios, si non in vulgus, at in magistratus, at in ministros, at in eum, qui in tam sublimi loco constitutus, magna apud nos auctoritate, magna apud alios existimatione, summa in sacratissimam tuam majestatem fide et observantia, praeditus; ut non saepe in vita deliquisse, sed semel tantum in vita displicuisse videatur; idque non tam prae fracta voluntate, quam tenera conscientia, cujus tantam esse vim magni auctores, et optimi quique viri scripserunt, ut quicquid, ea vel reclamante, vel errante, vel haesitante, fiat, non leve peccatum esse statuerint. Ac ut, quod verum est, ingenue et humiliter attendamus, et illud omnium quod unum agitur, vel necessario silentio, vel voluntaria oblectatione obruamus; si laudabile est vitam non modo ab omni crimine sed suspitione criminis, liberam traduxisse, traduxit; si honestum religionem ab omni, non modo papistica corruptela, sed a schismatica pravitate integram conservare, conservavit; si christianum, non modo propter justitiam persecutionem passum esse, sed per exterarum nationes propter evangelium oberrasse, et passus est, et oberravit. Quae cum ita sint, regina clementissima, omnes hae nostrae voces ad celsitudinem tuam prosectae, hoc unum demississime, et quam fieri potest, subjectissime comprecantur, idque per singularem naturae tuae bonitatem, per antea tuae vitae consuetudinem, per pietatem regiam in subditos, per charitatem christianam in inimicos, perque eam, qua reliquos omnes, et privatos, et principes excellis, lenitatem; ut velis majestatem tuam mansuetudine, justitiam misericordia, iram placabilitate, offensionem indulgentia mitigare, et archiepiscopum moerore fractum et debilitatum, non modo extollere jacentem, sed ecclesiam ipsi, ipsum ecclesiae, tuis civibus, suis fratribus, exteris nationibus, denique piis omnibus tandem aliquando restituere. Quod si fecerit majestas tua, vel potius cum fecerit (quod enim summe cupimus, summe etiam sperare jucundum est) non dubitamus, quin illum reverendissimum patrem supplicem et abjectum, non tam ad pedes, quam ad nutus tuos perpetuo sis habitura. Ita celsitati tuae persancte pollicemur, nobis neque in ecclesia constituenda curam, neque in religione propaganda studium, neque in schismatibus tollendis diligentiam, neque in hoc beneficio praecipue recolendo memoriam, neque in ferendo quas debemus gratias, gratam animi benevolentiam ullo unquam tempore defuturam.

Dominus Jesus majestatem tuam ad reipublicae tranquillitatem, ad ecclesiae conservationem, ad suae veritatis amplificationem omni felicitatis genere diutissime prosequatur.

Bulla

Archiepsc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.Anno Christi
1580.Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

Bulla Gregorii papae XIII. universis et singulis archiepiscopis, episcopis, caeterisque praelatis, necnon principibus, comitibus, baronibus, clero, nobilibus, et populis regni Hiberniae, salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Foulis Romish Treasons lib. VI. c. 4.

CUM proximis superioribus annis per nostras literas vos hortati fuerimus, ut ad vestram libertatem recuperandam, eamque adversus haereticos tuendam ac conservandam, bonae memoriae Jacobo Geraldino, qui durum servitutis jugum vobis ab Anglis, sanctae Romanae ecclesiae desertoribus, impositum depellere summo animi ardore cogitabat, pro virili nostra adesse, eumque contra Dei et vestros hostes ire parantem prompte ac strenue adjuvare velletis; et quo id alacrius efficeretis, omnibus contritis et confessis, qui ipsum Jacobum, ducem, ejusque exercitum catholicae fidei assertorem, et propugnatorem secuti fuissent, et se illi adjunxissent, aut consilio, favore, comitatibus, armis, aliisque bellicis rebus, seu quacunque ratione in hac expeditione opem dedissent, plenariam omnium peccatorum suorum veniam et remissionem, et eandem, quae proficiscentibus ad bellum contra Turcas, et ad recuperationem terrae sanctae, per Romanos pontifices impertiri solita est, concessimus.

Nuper autem, non sine gravi animi nostri dolore, per nos accepto, ipsum Jacobum, fortiter cum hostibus dimicando (sicut Domino placuit) occubuisse; dilectum vero filium Johannem Geraldinum, ejus consobrinum, in expeditione hujusmodi eximia pietate et animi magnitudine, auctore Deo, cujus causa agitur, successisse, compluraque egregia facinora de catholica fide bene merendo jam edidisse; idcirco vos omnes et singulos majori, quo possumus, affectu hortamur, requirimus, et urgemus in Domino, ut eundem Johannem, ducem, ejus-que exercitum omni ope, quemadmodum dictum Jacobum viventem, ut faceretis, vos admonuimus, contra dictos haereticos adjuvare studeatis.

Nos enim omnibus confessis et communicatis, et vestrum singulis, in dictis literis contenta pro ipso Johanne, et ejus exercitu facientibus, et post ipsius obitum, si forsitan contigerit, quod Deus avertere dignetur, Jacobo, ejus fratri adhaerentibus, atque faventibus, eandem plenariam peccatorum vestrorum indulgentiam et remissionem, quam adversus Turcas, et pro recuperanda terra sancta bellantes consequuntur, de omnipotentis Dei misericordia, ac beatorum Petri et Pauli apostolorum ejus auctoritate confisi, tribuimus et elargimur praesentibus, quoad dicti Johannes et Jacobus fratres vixerint, duraturis.

Quoniam autem difficile esset has nostras literas ad omnium, quorum interest, notitiam pervenire, volumus, ut earum exemplis etiam impressis, manu notarii publici subscriptis, sigilloque personae in dignitate ecclesiastica constitutae obsignatis, plena ac certa fides ubique habeatur, ac si praesentes essent exhibitae vel ostensae. Dat. Romae apud sanctum Petrum sub annulo Piscatoris die 13. Maii, M.D.LXXX. pontificatus nostri anno octavo.

CAES. GLORIERIUS.

Visa per dom. generalem S. Cruciatæ commissariorum.

JOHANNES DE LA RUMBIDE.

The form of abjuration tendered to those of the family of love. Fuller's Eccles. Hist. l. IX. pag. 113.

WHOSOEVER teacheth, that the dead, which are fallen asleep in the Lord, rise up in this day of his judgment, and appear unto us in godly glory, which shall henceforth live in us everlastingly with Christ, and reign upon the earth, is a detestable heretic. Who-soever teacheth, that to be born of the virgin Mary out of the seed of David, after the flesh, is to be expounded of the pure doctrine out of the seed of love, is a detestable heretic. Who-soever teacheth, that Jesus Christ is come again unto us according to his promise, to the end, that all they which love God and his righteousness, and Christ and perfect being, might presently enter into true rest, which God has prepared from the beginning for his elect, and inherit the everlasting life, is a detestable heretic.

The council's letter to the archbishop about those that fell off from the church of England. Strype's life of Grindall p. 254.

AFTER our hearty commendations. Whereas the queen hath been informed that divers persons within the province of Canterbury, both of the common and better sort, who of late time have been conformable to the laws of this realm concerning religion, are now fallen away, and have withdrawn themselves from coming to church, to the evil example of other her majesty's good subjects, and to the great offence of her highness, who doth not a little a little marvel by what means this relapse should happen; having delivered sufficient authority unto your lordship, and others joined unto you by virtue of her commission ecclesiastical, warranted by the laws of this realm; whereby you might at all times have repressed the insolency, and corrected the disobedieney of such, as therein should have presumed to offend, if such care and vigilance had been used within your charge, as appertaineth. Her highness's pleasure therefore is, that for the present reforming and punishing those that have, and do herein disobey the laws, you give order to have them forthwith convented before such, as do attend the execution of her majesty's high commission, and proceeded withal according to the direction of the said high commission. And first, that consideration being had of such as have been heretofore convented before the high commissioners, in what terms they stand for their conformity; how many of them are at liberty, and in what sort, and how many do remain committed, and where; and such of them as shall be found at liberty, and do continue obstinate, to be returned to prison, and such further order to be taken with them and the rest, as is prescribed in the said commission. And for as much as a great deal of the corruption in religion, grown throughout the realm, proceedeth of lewd schoolmasters, that teach and instruct children, as well publickly as privately in mens houses, infecting eachwhere the youth, without regard had thereunto (a matter of no small moment, and chiefly to be lookt into by every bishop within his diocese) it is thought meet for redress thereof, that you cause all such schoolmasters, as have charge of children, and do instruct them either in public schools or in private houses, to be by the bishop of the diocese, or such as he shall appoint, examined touching their religion. And if any shall be found corrupt and unworthy, to be displaced, and proceeded withall, as other recusants, and fit and sound persons placed in their rooms.

And to the end her majesty may understand, what shall be from time to time done in the execution of the said commission, to give order, that certificate be made of the proceedings in the said commission unto us of her majesty's privy council; wherein not doubting but you will answer her majesty's good expectation, according to the trust reposed in you, we bid your lordship heartily farewell. From the court at Nonfuch 18 June, M.D.LXXX.

In obedience to which, the archbishop issued out his mandate to his officers June the 21. to make diligent inquisition throughout his diocese of the contents of the council's letters. And for the more effectual doing whereof he sent withal articles of enquiry inclosed, which were as follow.

Inprimis, Diligently to enquire, what persons within your parish or charge, of what degree or calling soever they be, do absent themselves from their parish church upon pretence of conscience or religion; and how long they have so done.

II. Item, What persons have of late absented themselves from their parish church upon contempt or pretence aforesaid, that heretofore resorted thereunto.

III. Item, What persons do you know within your parish, that have been heretofore convented before the queen's majesty's high commissioners for causes ecclesiastical, for religion, and especially for not coming to church, that are at liberty, and yet have not conformed themselves?

IV. Item, What schoolmasters, are within your parish, and what their names are, that teach publickly or privately within any man's house, within your parish, of what state, calling, or condition soever he or they be; in whose house or houses any such schoolmaster or teacher is?

V. Item, Whether any such schoolmaster, or schoolmasters, is reported, known or suspected to be backward in the religion now established by the laws of this realm, that are thought any way to be secret hinderers thereof?

Archiepsc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

A proclamation against the sectaries of the Family of Love.

By the queen.

WHEREAS by report of sundry of the bishops of this realm, and others, having cure of souls, the queen's majesty is informed, that in sundry places of her said realm, in their several dioceses, there are certain persons who do secretly in corners make privy assemblies of divers simple unlearned people, and after they have craftily and hypocritically allured them to esteem them to be more holy and perfect men than others are, they do then teach them damnable heresies, directly contrary to divers of the principal articles of our belief and christian faith; and in some parts so absurd and fanatical, as by

VOL. IV.

feigning to themselves a monstrous new kind of speech never found in the scriptures, nor in ancient father or writer of Christ's church, by which they do move ignorant and simple people at the first rather to marvel at them, than to understand them; but yet to colour their sect withal, they name themselves to be of the Family of Love, and then as many as shall be allowed by them to be of that family, to be elect and saved, and all others, of what church soever they be, to be rejected and damned. And for that upon conventing of some of them before the bishops and ordinaries, it is found that the ground of their sect is maintained by certain lewd, heretical, and seditious books, first made in

G g g

298 Proclamat. against the sectaries of the FAMILY OF LOVE.

in the Dutch tongue, and lately translated into English, and printed beyond the seas, and secretly brought over into the realm, the author whereof they name H. N. without yielding to him upon their examination any other name, in whose name they have certainly books set forth, called, "Evangelium regni, or a joyful message of the kingdom, documental sentences, the prophecy of the spirit of love, a publishing of peace upon the earth," and such like. And considering also it is found, that these sectaries hold opinion, that they may before any magistrate ecclesiastical or temporal, or any other person not being professed to be of their sect, (which they term the "Family of Love") by oath or otherwise deny any thing for their advantage, so as though many of them are well known to be teachers and spreaders abroad of these dangerous and damnable sects, yet by their own confession they cannot be condemned, whereby they are more dangerous in any christian realm; therefore her majesty being very sorry to see so great an evil by the malice of the devil first begun and practised in other countries, to be now brought into this her realm, and that by her bishops and ordinaries she understandeth it very requisite, not only to have these dangerous heretics and sectaries to be severely punished, but that also all other means be used by her majesty's royal authority, which is given her of God to defend Christ's church, to root them out from further infecting of her realm; she hath thought meet and convenient, and so by this her proclamation she willet and commandeth, that all her officers and ministers temporal, shall in all their several vocations, assist the archbishops of her realm, and all other persons ecclesiastical, having cure of souls, to search out all persons duly suspected to be either teachers or professors of the foresaid damnable sects and by all good means to proceed severely against them, being found culpable, by order of the laws either ecclesiastical or temporal; and that also search may be made in all places suspected for the books and writings maintaining the said heresies and sects, and them to destroy and burn. And wheresoever such books shall be found after the publication hereof, in custody of any person, other than such as the ordinaries shall permit, to the intent to peruse the same for confutation thereof, the same persons to be attached and committed to close prison, there to remain, or otherwise by law to be condemned, until the same shall be purged and cleared of the same heresies, or shall recant the same, and be thought meet by the ordinary of the place to be delivered. And that whosoever in this realm shall either print, or bring, or cause to be brought into this realm any of the said books, the same persons to be attached and committed to prison, and to receive such bodily punishment and other mulct as fautors of damnable heresies. And to the execution hereof, her majesty chargeth all her officers, and ministers, both ecclesiastical and temporal, to have special regard, as they will answer not only afore God, whose glory and truth is by these damnable sects greatly sought to be defaced; but also will avoid her majesty's indignation, which in such cases as these are, they ought not to escape, if they shall be found negligent and careless in the execution of their authorities. Given at our mannour of Richmond the third of October, in the two and twentieth year of our reign.

God save the queen.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

A form of penance, laid before the synod by the archbishop of Cant. with his directions for it. Strype's life of Grindall p. 261.

FIRST, I wish at every public penance a sermon, if it be possible, be had. Secondly, In the same sermon the grievousness of the offence is to be opened; the party to be exhorted to unfeigned repentance, with assurance of Gods mercy, if they so do, and doubling of their damnation, if they remain either obstinate, or feign repentance, where none is, and so lie to the Holy Ghost. Thirdly, Where no sermon is, there let a homily be read, meet for the purpose. Fourthly, Let the offender be set directly over against the pulpit, during the sermon or homily, and there stand bare headed with the sheet, or other accustomed note of difference, and that upon some board raised a foot and a half at least above the church floor, that they may be "in loco editiore, et eminentiores omni populo," in an higher place and above all the people. Fifthly, Item, It is very requisite that the preacher in some place of his sermon, or the curate after the end of the homily, remaining still in the pulpit, shall publickly interrogate the offenders, whether they do confess their fault, and whether they do truly repent, and that the said offenders or penitents should answer directly, every one after another (if they be many) much like to this short form following, "mutatis mutandis."

Preacher, Dost thou not here before God, and this congregation assembled in his name, confess that thou didst commit such an offence, viz. fornication, adultery, incest, etc.

Penitent, I do confess it before God and this congregation.

Preacher, Dost thou not also confess, that in so doing, thou hast not only grievously offended against the majesty of God in breaking his commandment, and so deserved everlasting damnation; but also hast offended the church of God by thy wicked example?

Penitent, All this I confess unfeignedly.

Preacher, Art thou truly and heartily sorrowful for this thine offence?

Penitent.

Penitent, I am from the bottom of my heart.

Preacher, Dost thou ask God and this congregation heartily forgiveness for thy sin and offence? and dost thou faithfully promise from henceforth to live a godly and christian life, and never to commit the like offence again?

Penitent, I do ask God and this congregation heartily forgiveness for my sin and offence, and do faithfully promise from henceforth to live a godly and christian life, and never to commit the like offence again.

This done, the preacher or minister may briefly speak what they think meet for the time, place, and person; desiring in the end the congregation present to pray to God for the penitent, etc. and the rather, if they see any good signs of repentance in the said penitent.

Provided always that order be given by the ordinaries, when they assign penances, that if the penitents do shew themselves irreverent, or impenitent at their penances, that then their punishments be reiterated, and be removed from the church to the market place, that tho' themselves may thereby seem incorrigible, yet their public shame may be a terror to others.

If the ordinary see cause to commute the wearing of the sheet only (for other commutation I wish none) then appoint a good portion of money to be delivered immediately after the penance done in form aforesaid, by the penitent himself, to the collectors for the poor, with this proviso, that if he shew not good signs of repentance, he is to be put again to his penance with the sheet, and then no money at no time to be taken of him.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 22.

Articles delivered to the lords from the lower house of convocation. Strype's life of Grindall App. p. 94.

FIRST That no bishop henceforth shall make any ministers, but such as shall be of age full twenty four years, and a graduate of the university, or at the least able in the Latin tongue to yield an account of his faith, according to the articles of religion agreed upon in the convocation; and that in such sort, that he can note the sentences of scripture, whereupon the truth of the said articles is grounded. And if any patron shall present any minister to any benefice, which shall not be in this sort qualified, that it shall be lawful for the bishop to refuse such presentee, and shall not be constrained either by double quarrel, or "Quare impedit," to institute any such. The bishop, that shall do contrary to this order, upon proof thereof, to be suspended by the archbishop from making of ministers, for the space of two years.

II. Item, That there shall not henceforth be used any commutation of penance, but in rare respects; that is to say, either for some great value or dignity of the person, or for fear of some desperate event, that will follow in the party, that should be put to open shame. And at such time his penalty of money to be large, according to the ability of the person; and by the ordinary, with good witnesses, to be employed either to the relief of the poor, or other necessary and godly uses: and yet even in this respect, the party offending, beside such pain of money, shall ever make in his parish church some satisfaction to the congregation, by declaring openly his repentant and sorrowful mind, for such offence committed. And here is earnestly to be desired, that in all other respects, and towards all other persons there may be some more strait punishment to be assigned by ecclesiastical judges, for adultery, whoredom, and incest, than now by ecclesiastical laws they can do; whether it be by imprisonment joyned with open penance, or otherwise.

III. Item, That there be no dispensation granted for marriage without banns, but under sufficient and large bonds, with these conditions following: That afterward there shall not appear any lawful let or impediment, by reason of any precontract, consanguinity, affinity, or by any other lawful means whatsoever. And secondly, that there be not at that present time of granting such dispensation, any suit or plaint, quarrel or demand moved, or depending before any judge ecclesiastical or temporal, for and concerning any such lawful impediment betwixt the parties. And thirdly, that they proceed not to the solemnization of the marriage without consent of parents and governors.

IV. Item, As touching dispensation for plurality of benefices, we wish that none may have that privilege, but only such, as for their learning are most worthy, and best able to discharge the same. That is, that the party at the least be master of arts of four years standing, and a common known preacher of good ability; and yet the same to be bound to be resident at each benefice some reasonable proportion of time.

V. Item, As touching excommunication, because it hath been ever used by ecclesiastical judges in their jurisdiction, we do find by conference, that the alteration thereof will be joyned with many difficulties, and almost by interruption of all ecclesiastical jurisdiction, unless many other things of bodily punishment and coercements be granted unto us. Which we think in these days will not only be more offensive than this is, but also by default of others make our proceedings in such case utterly frustrate: Therefore our desire is, that two or three honest persons well skilled in the ecclesiastical laws, may open unto your honours what inconveniences will follow, and how hardly this point will abide alteration.

An

An argument propounded in the convocation, concerning reforming the ordinary use of excommunication, Ibid. p. 96.

Excommunication by the law was never used, nor could be used as a punishment of any crime, saving of notorious heresy, usury, simony, piracy, conspiracy against the person of the prince, of his estate, dignity, and crown, perturbors of the common peace and quietness of the church or realm, wilful murderers, sacrilegers, perjurers, and incorrigible and notorious committers of incest and adultery, false witnesses and suborners thereof, violent layers of hands upon ecclesiastical persons, demanders of more cured benefices than one, without authority, and such other great and horrible crimes, which were called "sententiae canonum," wherein, beside the particular penances, that bishops and their officers did impose, it was for more terror provided by ancient canons, that there should be a general open denunciation of this excommunication in every cathedral and parish church twice in the year.

For other light faults there was no excommunication permitted or used as a punishment, other than for manifest and wilful contumacy or disobedience in not appearing, when persons were called and summoned for a cause ecclesiastical; or when any sentence or decree of the bishop or his officer, being deliberately made, was wilfully disobeyed or not performed.

Such wilful contumacy and disobedience to authority is in the law accounted so great, that it was called a contempt of that, "quod est in jurisdictione extremum." That is to say, if the judge cannot have appearance of the parties, or execution of the judgments, he is at the wall, and can go no farther.

Of very ancient time this was their manner of proceeding in this realm, and the only means of reducing obstinate persons to the obedience of the law. It may appear by the ancient statute, or act of parliament in the ninth year of Edward II. that it was the old custom and usage of the realm long before that time. The words are these: "Si aliqui, etc. propter suam contumaciam manifestam excommunicentur, ac post 40. dies pro eorum captione scribatur, praetendunt se privilegiatos, et sic denegatur breve regium pro captione corporum. Responsio regis: Nunquam fuit negatum [negata] nec negabitur in futurum."

It is to be considered, whether this manifest contumacy and wilful disobedience to the magistrate and authority be not as well punishable, when the original cause or matter is light, as weighty. The difference whereof doth nothing alter the matter of the disobedience. If for such disobedience it seemeth, that it is either unlawful or offensive to use excommunication, there is great consideration and wariness to be used in devising some other means and remedy instead thereof, to procure obedience and execution in causes ecclesiastical; and that the judge ecclesiastical may have those means laid down with such caution, that thereby upon pretence and colour of the reformation of this, all jurisdiction ecclesiastical be not utterly overthrown.

The means that were thought fit to be used instead of excommunication by archbishop Cranmer, Peter Martyr, Bucer, Mr. Haddon, and others, that did assemble for that purpose at that time, were imprisonment, or mulct pecuniary; and besides in persons ecclesiastical, sequestrations of their livings, and suspensions from the execution of their offices; but these means will be as commonly offensive in some respects, as the excommunication is now, and will be so hardly executed, that all the excommunications of the law ecclesiastical will be made frustrate.

And therefore if the course, that hath so long continued, cannot hold, but must needs be altered, I would wish it to be done by some other means, wherein we should not need to deal with any body, but as we were wont to do ordinarily, in effect as followeth, viz.

Where now for not appearing, or for not satisfying any sentence, decree, or order, the ecclesiastical judge doth pronounce the party "contumacem," and "in poenam contumaciae" excommunicates him; he shall pronounce him "contumacem," and "in poenam contumaciae" pronounce him "ecclesiasticae jurisdictionis contemptorem," and so denounce him. And if he shall continue forty days in not appearing, or in not satisfying, he shall signify the contempt "jurisdictionis ecclesiasticae" to the prince in the chancery, as he was wont to signify "contemptum censurae ad cancellarium" (to the chancellor) without any more change. And as the writs that were sent, were wont to be "de excommunicato capiendo et relaxando;" so they may be, "de contemptore jurisdictionis ecclesiasticae capiendū vel relaxando."

Then there may be general words, that such a contemner so pronounced and denounced, in all respects (saving for coming to the church, receiving of sacraments, and keeping company with others) shall in all respects and to all purposes be as incapable, and shall sustain all such other penalties, as a person excommunicated did sustain, before the making of this law.

In all heinous, great, horrible crimes excommunications may be used by the archbishops and bishops in their own persons, with such assistance, as shall be thought meet, as it was wont to be in the primitive church.

In this our realm, of very antient time it hath been truly observed from time to time, that there was never alteration made of any law ecclesiastical, although it had appearance to benefit the state of the clergy, but that it turned ever to some notable prejudice.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 5.

Anno Christi
1580.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 23.

Concilium provinciale Eboracense.

BREVE regium datum apud Westmonast. 25. die Novemb. anno regni XXIII. synodum praelatorum et cleri dioec. et provinciae Ebor. convocavit in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. 17. die mensis Januarii inchoandam; eodemque die sc. (25. Novembris) aliud breve regium pro proroganda illa convocatione ad diem 17. mensis Januar. emanavit. In hoc concilio post diversas continuationes de die in diem, 8. die mensis Martii subsidium dominae reginae concessum est, viz. sex solid. de libra de beneficiis et promotionibus ecclesiasticis in et per totam dioecesim et provinciam Eborum, prout in record. reg. decimis et primitiis taxantur. In hac concessionis forma inter alia habetur, quod praelati et cleri in praesenti convocatione comparentes officium suum erga serenissimam in Christo principem et dominam Elizabetham, etc. ponderantes ac multifaria eaque ampla in ipsos indies et cumulate non modo per gratiosissimum et piissimum suum regimen et imperium, quo pacifice gubernantur, divinoque obsequio inserviando et muneri suo obeundo et exequendo magis habiles et idonei redduntur; verum etiam idque praecipue per sacrosancti verbi Dei editionem, sinceramque suam et verae religionis in hoc regno professionem et stabilitatem omnimodaeque forinsecae potestatis eisdem contrariae abolitionem collata recordantes, necnon tam inevitabiles illas expensas, quibus serenissima regia majestas in hujus regni aliorumque dominorum suorum defensione et protectione continuo de verisimili onerabitur, quam quas dudum in Hibernia contra papam et ejus adherentes verae religionis, regiaeque suae auctoritatis et status (quantum in eis fuit et est) ruinae et everisionem attemptantes, sustinuit, et impraesentiarum sustinet, advertentes et considerantes, pro declaratione ac in signum et pignus sui erga sublimitatem regiam officii et fidelitatis, unanimi assensu et consensu suis, subsidium praedictum modo et forma, prout in dicta concessione, ut praefertur, lecta continetur, petendum, exigendum, levandum, et solvendum concesserunt, etc.

Concilium a die 8. mensis Martii praedict. in diem 10. sequentem ejusdem mensis, et postea in 7. Aprilis prox. anni M.D.LXXXI. prorogabatur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 6.

Anno Christi
1581.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 23.

The council's letter to the archbishop about recusants. With the archbishop's directions of enquiry for recusants. Strype's Life of Grindall p. 264.

AFTER our right hearty commendations unto your lordship. Whereas in the last sessions of parliament there was upon good and advised deliberation by her majesty, with the common consent of the whole realm, a certain act made for the retaining of such her majesty's subjects in their due obedience, as abusing her highness's former goodness and lenity refused to conform themselves in matters of religion, especially for coming to the church, according to the law; for as much as the execution of the said statute was thought most needful for the assurance and safety of her majesty's person, and this realm, and the preventing of such mischiefs and inconveniencies as otherwise might happen, if every one might be suffered to do what him listed; her majesty being very desirous to see all her subjects truly united in one consent and uniformity of religion, according to the laws of the realm, for the better service of almighty God, and quietness of this realm, hath willed us to require your lordship, forthwith upon the receipt hereof, to make, or cause to be made diligent search and enquiry as well, according to your former certificates of recusants, as by other the best means, that you can, what persons there be within your diocese, which do at this present refuse to come to the church, and to conform themselves according to the said statute. And finding any such, you shall do well by conference with some learned and other godly disposed persons to admonish them and by instructions to persuade them to come to the church, and to behave themselves, as by the said law is required.

And in case any shall refuse so to do, then to take, or cause to be taken witness in writing both of the warning so given, and their refusal under the hands of the parson or curate, or other honest persons, which we pray you in every shire within your diocese to prefer, unto the "Custos rotulorum," and to the justices of the peace at the next sessions; so as the said persons may be indicted and ordered, as by the same law is appointed.

And generally we pray you, to have a good regard to the execution of the rest of the branches of the said act touching reconcilers, sayers, and hearers of mass, schoolmasters, and other like matters appertaining to your pastoral duty and charge. So as there may be no remissness or negligence found in you, as you will answer the same before almighty God and her highness, who expecteth a good account at your hands and your brethrens in these things. And so heartily praying you, that hereof there be no default, and from time to time advertise us

H h h h

us of your proceedings, we bid your lordship heartily farewell. From Whitehall the 28th of May, M.D.LXXXI.

Tho. Bromely, can.	R. Leiceſter.
W. Burghley.	Fr. Knollys.
E. Lincoln.	Jam. Croftes.
T. Suffex.	Fra. Wallingham.
F. Bedford.

In obedience to theſe orders, the archbiſhop diſpatched his letters to his officers of the dioceſe with the copy of the council's letter, and ſeveral articles whereupon they ſhould proceed.

The articles were theſe:

I. Firſt, You ſhall make enquiry, as well according to the former certificate heretofore made of recusants, as by other the beſt means you can, what perſons above the age of ſixteen years at this preſent, do reſuſe to come to the church, and to conform themſelves according to the ſtatute made in the laſt ſeſſion of parliament. When any ſuch recusants are by inquiry known and found, you ſhall uſe conference with them, and every of them. And joyning to you therein ſome learned, and other godly diſpoſed perſons, you ſhall admoniſh, inſtruct, and perſuade them, to repair to the church, and there to behave themſelves, as by the ſaid ſtatute is required.

II. Item, If any ſuch perſon, after warning given, ſhall reſuſe ſo to do, then you ſhall take two witneſſes thereof at the leaſt, and cauſe the warning and reſuſal to be written; and the ſame being written to be ſubſcribed by the ſaid witneſſes, and by the parſon, vicar, and curates of that pariſh, where ſuch recusant at the time of the reſuſal, and warning ſhall happen to dwell.

III. Item, You ſhall ſend, or cauſe to be ſent the ſame writing, in good and plain form, to the "Custos rotulorum," and juſtices of peace of that ſhire, where the perſons recusants have their dwelling at the time of the warning and reſuſal, at the next ſeſſions; that the ſaid obſtinate perſons may be there indicted and ordered, as by the ſaid ſtatute is appointed.

IV. Item, You ſhall alſo enquire, whether ſince the end of the laſt parliament, any perſon or perſons within my dioceſe have gone about or practiſed to move, withdraw, or perſuade any her majeſty's ſubjects within your dioceſe or charge from their natural obedience to her majeſty, or from the religion now by her highneſs's authority eſtabliſhed within her majeſty's dominions, to obey or to be reconciled to the uſurped authority of the biſhop of Rome, or to the Romiſh religion, or to profeſs any obedience to any pretended authority to the ſee of Rome, or of any other prince, ſtate, or potentate.

V. Item, You ſhall enquire whether any perſons within your dioceſe, after the end of the ſaid laſt ſeſſions of parliament, have been willingly reconciled, abſolved, or withdrawn as aforeſaid, or have promiſed any obedience to any ſuch pretended authority, prince, ſtate, or potentate, as is aforeſaid.

VI. Item, You ſhall enquire, whether ſince the ſaid time, any perſon have ſaid or ſung maſs within your dioceſe; and alſo whether any perſon hath, ſince the ſaid time willingly heard maſs ſung or ſaid.

VII. Item, You ſhall enquire, whether any ſchoolmaſter of ſuſpected religion, or that is not liſenſed to teach by the biſhop, or ordinary, doth teach in any public or private place within this dioceſe.

Archiepiſc. Cant.
EDM. GRINDALL 6.

Anno Chriſti
1581.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 23.

Synodus cleri provinciae Ebor.

SYNODUS haec ad diem 7. menſis Aprilis prorogata, hoc die inter alia de procuratorum cleri expenſis monuit. And in reſpect of the pains and attendance of the proctors appearing in this convocation, it is now ordered and decreed, that every prelate, and others of the clergy appearing by proctor now preſent in the ſame, ſhall well and truly anſwer, ſatisfy and pay to his ſaid proctor for every pound that he or they may yearly diſpend, by reaſon of their ſeveral livings and promotions within this province of York (all vicars excepted) two pence, and the ſaid vicars a penny, and no more. And for the true and certain value of all the ſame promotions and every of them, whereof the payment of this ſalary to the ſaid proctors ſhall be made, the rate, taxation, and valuation now remaining of record in her majeſty's court of Exchequer for the payment of firſt fruits and tenths to her majeſty ſhall only be followed and obſerved. Deinde breve regium dat. apud Weſtm. 25. die Aprilis, anno regni XXIII. ſynodum hanc ad 30. diem Maii prox. futur. apud eccleſiam metropoliticaſ S. Petri Ebor. vel alibi continuavit.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT I.

Anno Christi
1583.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 25.

The archbishop's letter with articles for good order in churches. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 90. b.

AFTER my hartie commendations unto your lordship. Where of late, by the advice as well of your lordship, as certayne others of my brethren the bushops of my province, I have set down certayne articles for good orders to be observed in the church of England, the true copy thereof I have sent herewith unto your lordship; wherunto it hath pleased her majestie of her princely clemency to yeald her most gracious consent and allowance, to the intent the said articles may take the better effect throughout my province; I have thought good to pray and require your lordship, that with such convenient speed as you may, you transmitt a true copy of the said articles, together with the tenor of thes my letters, to every one of my brethren, the bishopes of my province; willing and requiring them, and every of them, with such care and diligence, as appertayneth, to cause the same articles effectually to be put in execution in every of their severall diocesses and jurisdictions. And because I am desirous to know the state of the clergy of my province, that I may be the better furnished to governe the same, I have thought good to pray your lordship, to send unto me a cataloge of the names of all the ecclesiasticall persons within your diocess, with signification of their benefices, promotions, degrees of schole, and of the conformitie of every of them to the lawes and orders, anie way established by her majestie, and to require my brethren to do the like in their severall diocesses, and to certifie your lordship as well thereof, as also how these articles are put in due execution, that I thereupon may receive certificate of all from your lordship. And so I commend your lordship to the grace of God. From my house at Lambeth this 19th of October, M.D.LXXXIII.

First, That every minister in his cure, the first Sunday of every month, give warning openly in the church, to such as be of his parish, of what state soever they be, to repayre to their parish church in such sorte, as by the lawes of this realm is appointed, upon pain to be presented for the same.

Item, That the ministers and churchwardens of all parishes do diligently from tyme to tyme observe, what they are that come not to the church accordingly, but forbear the same by the space of a month, contrary to a statute made in the last session of the Parliament.

Item, That the said ministers and churchwardens doe, under their handes and seales, present to the ordinarie, or to some such as he shall assigne, what they are that do otherwise, and this to be done every quarter, videlicet, fourteen days before each session and assises, that the ordinary upon such certificat may offer the same to the justices at the said assises and sessions, that the parties may be there indyted according to the statute.

Item, If the ordinarie shall perceave that either by slackness of the justices, or waywardnes of juries, they cannott be endyted according to the statute, that then the ordinary shall convent the said persons offending, and if they shall refuse to conform themselves, to denounce them excommunicated, and if they stand in the excommunication by the space of forty dayes, to procure the writt "De excommunicato capiendó" against them.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT I.

Anno Christi
1583.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 26.

Archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the same. Ibid. fol. 91. a.

AFTER my very hartie commendations to your good lordship. I have herein sent to your good lordship inclosed the copy of such articles as the lords; and others of the quenes majesties most honorable privy counsaile, have lately recommended to me, wherewith I have already made your lordship, and some others of my brethren acquainted, that were conveniently to be hadd, and to be conferred withall, and have thought good to pray your good lordship, with all convenient speede, to sende copies thereof to all the bishopes of this province, and to require them, in my name, by your severall letters missive, to make diligent inquisition of every such of the said articles, whose nature doth so require, and to certifie me speedily the truth, and what they shall find in every of them, and see the two last articles for commutation of penance, and setting up of the table for the fees, being rather executive then inquirable, to be carefully put in execution within their severall charge; not doubtinge, but that your good lordship alsoe, within your own dioces, will inquire, execute, and make certificat to me, as it doth appertayne, and before this tyme. I hartelie committ your lordship to the grace and direction of the Holie Ghoste. From Lambeth this 12th of December M.D.LXXXIII.

First, A general examination to be taken by the bishop in his province, of all the schoolmasters, as well public as private, with order that such as be unsound may be removed, according to the statute in that behalf provided.

Secondly, Inquiry to be made how the children of the recusants be brought up, and how many within their severall diocesses, as well recusants as others, have their children beyond the seas.

Thirdly, What number of prechers each bishop bishop hath within his diocese, and how many of them resident.

Fourthlie, What lyvings there are within their said dioceses fit for preachers, and whose gyfte, and how nowe furnished.

Fifthlie, What ministers have been made by the bishops in the said province, since the thirteenth of her majesties reigne; and whether they have been qualified, as is prescribed by the statutes.

Sixthly, That such as are found to be insufficient, and of scandalouse life, to be removed, and care hereafter to be used, that none of the like insufficiency be made.

Seventhly, That such pluralistes as are preachers, and have lyvings in the infected countreys, may be ordered to reside upon the same for a season.

That his lordship, upon conference with some learned in the civil law, set down, and put in practise some way to redress the abuses of excommunication for light causes, according as was moved in the last parliament.

That his lordship likewise take order for reformation of abuses in the commutations of penance.

Last of all, That the excessive charges in visitations, both of bishops and archdeacons, may be abated, and such fees only, as by law and reason are due, to be set downe in a table to be hanged up in every church, wherein the severall archdeacon and judicial courts are in every diocese, to the end that men may know, what they ought to paye, and no greater fees to be either enacted, or payed by any.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT I.

Anno Christi
1583.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 26.

Archiepiscopi Cantuar. commissio suffraganeo Dovor. Reg. J. Whitgift fol. 91. b.

JOHANNES, divina providentia Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, dilecto nobis in Christo venerabili confratri nostro Richardo Rogers, episcopo suffraganeo sedis Dovor. nostrae Cant. dioeceseos, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Ad catechisand. et confirmand. pueros quorumcunque subditor. utriusque sexus nostrae dioec. et provinciae Cant. ac jurisdictionum peculiarium, et immediatarum nostrarum, et ecclesiae nostrae cathedralis et metropolitanae Christi Cant. juxta morem et ritum modernos ecclesiae Anglicanae, in ea parte pie et salubriter edit. et ordinat. necnon sacros diaconatus, presbyteratus ordines, quibuscunque subditis nostrae dioec. provinciae Cant. et aliis personis, literas dimissorias suorum dioecesanorum, et titulos sufficientes exhibentibus, si eos habiles et idoneos tam moribus et aetate, quam etiam literatura inveniatis, super quibus conscientiam tuam coram altissimo oneramus, nullumque aliud legitimum eis in ea parte obsistat impedimentum, juxta et secundum morem et ritum ecclesiae Anglicanae, in ea parte pie et salubriter ordinat. et sancitum conferend. ipsosque et eorum quemlibet, ad hujusmodi sacros ordines admittend. et promovend. caeteraque omnia et singula alia ad officium pontificale in praemissis, vel aliquo praemissorum spectant. et pertinent. et quae in ea parte necessaria fuerint, seu quomodolibet requisita, fraternitati vestrae vices nostras committimus et plenam in Domino tenore praesentium concedimus facultatem. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth undecimo die mensis Decembris, anno Domini M.D.LXXXIII. et nostrae translationis anno primo.

Articles to be enquired of in the visitation of the most reverend father in God the archbishop of Cant. primate of all England, and metropolitan, within the diocese of Bath and Wells.

I. Whether that every Sunday and holiday, openly in the church, your parson, vicar, or curat do caule for, heare, and instructe all the children, apprentices, and servants, of both sexes, that be of convenient age, within the parish, or att the least, to many of them by course as the time will serve, and as he may well heare and instructe, for half an hour at the least before, or at evening prayer, in the Ten commandments, the articles of the Belief, and the Lord's prayer, and diligentlie examine, and teach them the catechisme, as it is now allowed and set forth; and whether for that purpose he doth take the names of them all, and by course call certeyne of them by name every Sunday and holyday to come to the teaching of the same catechisme?

II. Whether any do preach, declare, or speake any thing in derogation of the book of common prayer, which is set forth in the laws of this realm, dispraying the same, or any thing therein conteynid?

III. Whether your parson, vicar, curate, minister, or reader do church anie unmarried woman, which hath been gotten with child out of lawfull marriage, and say for her the form of thanksgiving of women after child birth; except such an unmarried woman have either before her child birth donne due penance for her fault, to the satisfaction of the congregation, or at her comyng to geve thanks, do openlie acknowledge her faulte before the congregation, at the appointment of the minister, according to order prescribed to the minister by the ordinarie or his deputy: the same churching to be had alwaies upon some Sunday or holyday, and upon none other day?

IV. Whether any of your parsons, vicars, curates, or ministers or any other preist, or layman, or woman do wilfully maintain, or defend any heresies, false opinions, or popish errors, contrary to the lawes of almighty God, and true doctrine, by publique authoritie in this realme now set forth, and what be ther names; and whether any kepe anie secret conventicles, preachings, lectures, or reading, contrarie to the lawes, and what be ther names?

V. Whether

V. Whether ther be any in your parish, that openly or privately say masse, or any other kinde of service or prayer, than is set forth by the lawes of this realme?

VI. Whether any popish prist either going as prist, or disguised in other apparell, or altering ther names for any cause, or any other, or runnagate persons, mislikers, or depravers of true religion, that do not minister or frequent commen prayer nowe used, nor communicate at tymes appointed by the lawes, do resort secretly or openly into your parish, and to whom, and of whom be they received, harbored and releived, and what be ther names and surnames, or by what names are they cauled?

VII. Whether your parsons, or vicars, be resident, and dwell continually upon ther benifits doing ther duties in preaching, reading, and ministring the sacraments, and whether theie kepe hospitality, according as ther livinges will extend, and whether ther howses and chancells be well repayred, and upholden?

VIII. Whether they, or any of them have moe benefices than one, how many, and in what countries they be, and what be the names thereof?

IX. Whether they, or any of them kepe any suspected woman in ther howses or be incontinent persons, given to drunkenness, idleness, or be haunters of taverns, dicers, carders, tablers, swearers, or otherwise suspected of any notoriousse crime, or give any evill example of life and whether they (as they ought to do) occupie themselves in the reading, or hearing of some part of the holy scripture, or other good author, or in some other godly or laudable exercise meet for ther vocations?

X. Whether they, or any of them, do kepe, or suffer to be kept in their parsonages, or vicarage-houses, any alehouses, tipling houses, or taverns, or do sell ale, beare, wine, or anie victuall?

XI. Whether your parsons, or vicars have bought ther benefices, or come to them by symonie, fraude, deceipte, or by any colorable parte, or other unlawful meanes whatsoever, or be vehemently suspected, or defamed thereof and whether theie keepe in their own handes, or have demised, and let to farme ther parsonages, and vicarages, or ther glebe landes, or tithes, or anie part thereof, and whether anie such lease be made for the performance of any symonical parte, made directly, or indirectly, betwene the incumbent and patrone, or betwene the incumbent and any other person, for the presenting of the same incumbent to that benefice?

XII. Whether ther be any man or woman in your parish, that resorteth to any popish priest for shrift or auricular confession, or any that, within three years nowe last past, hath been reconciled unto the pope, or to the church of Rome, or any that is reputed or suspected so to be; and whether ther be any that refuse to come to the church to hear divine service, or to communicate according to the order now established by publick authoritie, and what be ther names?

XIII. Whether for the putting of the churchwardens and swornmen in the better remembrance of their dutie, in observing and noting such as offend in not coming to divine service, your minister or reader do, openlie every Sunday, after he have read the second lesson, at morning and evening prayer, monishe and warn the churchwardens and swornmen to look to ther charge in this behalf, and to observe who, contrarie to the said statute, offend in absenting themselves negligentlie, or willinglie from your parish church or chappell, or unreverentlie (as is aforesaid) use themselves in the tyme of divine service?

VOL. IV.

XIV. Whether your hospitalls, spittelles, and and almeshouses be wel and godlie used according to the foundation, and auntient ordinances of the same; whether ther be any other placed in them then poor, impotent, and nedie persons, that have not wherewith or whereby to live?

XV. Whether the schoolmasters, which teach within your parish, either openlie or privelie, in any noble or gentleman's house, or in any other place ther, be of good and sincere religion and conversation, and be diligent in teaching and bringing up of youth; whether they be examined, allowed, and licensed by the ordinarie, or his officer in that behalf; whether they teach the grammer set forth by king Henry the eight, of noble memorie, and none other; whether they teach any thing contrarie to the order of religion, now established by publique authoritie; and whether they teach not their schollers the catechisme in Latin, lately set forth, and such sentences of scripture, as shall be most expedient and meete to move them to the love and due obedience and reverence of God's trew religion, now trewlie set forth by the quenes majesties authoritie, and to induce them to all godlinesse and other honest conversation, and what be ther names, and surnames of all such schole-masters and teachers of youth, within your parish, aswell of such as teach publicuelie, as those that teach in the howses of noblemen, gentlemen, or other private men?

XVI. Whether ther be any in these partes, that have married within the degrees of affinity or consanguinity, by the lawes of God forbidden, to set out for an admonition, in a table appointed to be fixed in every parish church within the diocess; or anie that being divorced or separatid for the same, do yet notwithstanding cohabit and keep companie still together; or any that being married without those degrees, have unlawfully forsaken their wives or husbands, and married others; any man that hath two wives, or any woman that hath two husbands, anie that being divorced or separated asunder have married again?

XVII. Howmany adulteries, incests, and fornications are notoriously known to have been committed in your parish sithense Easter, M.D.LXXX.howmany offenders in any such faultes have bin put to open penance, and publickly corrected; and how many have been winked at and borne withal, or have fined, or payed money to the archdeacon, chancellor, commissarie,

I i i i offi-

official, or other deputies, or to the deans, registers, or somners, or any of them, for to escape open punishment and correction, and what their names and surnames be?

Whereas lately ther have byn sent unto you certayne articles, devised by the queenes most honourable privy counsaile, and sent and recommended to the said archbishop of Cant. to be published, and put in execution through his hole province, you shall enquire and certifie, how the same have been and are executed, and satisfied within that diocese; and also you shall procure the like enquiry to be made of the execution of certeyne articles, lately sent unto you from the said archbishop himself, and make trew certificate after the end of this visitation how the same be also executed within the said diocese.

That from henceforth ther be noe commutation of penance, but in rare respects, and up-pon great considerations, and when it shall appere to the bishop himself that that shal be the best way for the winning and reforming of the offender and that the penalty be employed either to the releif of the poor of that parish, or to some other godlie use, and the same well witnessed and made manifest to the congregation; and if the fault be notoriouse, that the offender make some satisfaction either in his own person, with declaration of his repentance openlie in the church, or else that the minister of the church, openlie in the pulpit signifie to the people his submission, and declaration of his repentance done before the ordinarie, and also in token of his repentance with portion of money he hath geiven to be employed to the uses abovementioned.

Provided, That whosoever offendeth against this order shall be suspended ab executione officii for one half yere.

Archiepisc Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1584.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

*Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. in ecclesia S. Pauli London. die 24. Novembris inchoata. Ex actis convoc. in MS. Miles Smith apud episc. Aflaven.

PER ACTIS sacris in ecclesia S. P. London. ad domum capitularem processio fit, ubi in prima hujus synodi sessione certificatorium executionis mandati archiepiscopalis pro convocando clero exhibetur ab episcopo London. Deinde prolocutor jussu metropolitani eligitur, ac vicarius generalis, doctor Awbrey, commissionem ab archiepiscopo recipit ad examinanda certificatoria episcoporum de summonitione cleri, ad inspicienda procuratoria et ad admittendas vel rejiciendas causas absentiae. Postea omnes non comparentes contumaces pronunciat, ac synodum ad ecclesiam B. Petri Westmon. prorogat. Et postquam archidiaconus Cantuar. certificatorium suum exhibuisset, primae sessioni finis imponitur.

Secunda sessio fuit 2. die Decemb. in ecclesia B. Petri Westm. Ubi decanus privilegia et exemptiones ecclesiae suae exponens, archiepiscopo jus in eadem conveniendi denegavit; archiepiscopus autem se nullo modo libertates ejus infringere velle protestatus, prolocutorem a domo inferiore sibi praesentatum admittit, ac clerum de reformandis abusibus et concedendo subsidio monet.

In tertia sessione (4. die Dec.) plura de subsidio aguntur, et commissio quinque episcopis et vicario generali doctori Dunne, ac Redmanno, archidiacono Cant. ab archiepiscopo datur de proroganda convocatione suo nomine, de die in diem.

In quarta, quinta, et sexta sessione nihil praeter subsidium tractatur; quod septima sessione (16. die Dec.) conceditur, sc. sex solidorum in triennio solvendum.

Quid in octava et nona sessione tractatum fuerit, accipe ex Strypii vita J. Whitgift. arch. Cant. p. 210.

In the eighth session 18. December at Westminster one John Hilton, clerk, that had been imprisoned by the high commission for errors, heresies, and great blasphemies, was ordered to be convented before them the next session. And likewise one Thomas Shoveler was appointed to be convented on another day, who was also under confinement for exercising the ministerial office, not being in holy orders. The ninth session being December 22. Hilton appeared, and confessed his accusation saying, "That he had said in a sermon at St. Martins in the fields "that the Old and New Testaments are but fables: that himself was no christian, but a heathen; and further had blasphemed Christ most horribly." This acknowledgment and abjuration he gave in writing, subscribing his name thereunto.

His errors, which he called his heresies, blasphemies, and damnable opinions were these, as his confession and renunciation shews, "That in the Trinity were not three distinct persons and one Godhead coequal. That Jesus Christ was not God and man. That he was not of the substance of God the Father in his humanity and incarnation, nor for our redemption very God and very man; nor that by his death we have full redemption and remission of our sins in his blood, but only made partakers of his testament, and so brought to the knowledge of his godly will. He further confessed, that he had most detestably and blasphemously affirmed, firmed, that the Old and New Testaments were fables. But that now he was sorry for that abominable and damnable assertion; and that he now believed the same Testaments to contain all truths necessary to salvation.

* Epitomen negotiorum synodi provinciae Cantuar. ab anno M.D.LXXXVI. ad M.DC.XXVIII. manu magistri Fisherii actuarii et scribae conscriptam, e flammis eripuit Miles Smith, notarius publicus archiepiscopo Cantuar. Gilberto Sheldon ab epistolis, ex cujus autographo in bibliotheca reverendi dom. Thomae, episcopi Aflavenis, extante, quae ad rem nostram faciunt descriptimus.

His abjuration he began in this form. "In Dei nomine, Amen. Before the most reverend father in God John, archbishop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitan of all England, and you the reverend fathers in God the bishops of this your province of Canterbury here congregated and assembled together in this holy synod and convocation, I John Hilton, priest, of my pure heart and free will, etc. acknowledge and confess, and openly recognize," etc. After this abjuration the convocation enjoined him a penance, which was, that he should hold no more nor teach such heresies and blasphemies. That he should attend at Paul's cross, upon the preacher the next Sunday, and stand before him with a faggot on his shoulder: and that he should recant his heresies in the church of St. Martins in the fields, at a sermon to be made by Dr. Cotton to the lower house of convocation present; and that he should not preach at all, nor exercise the ministry, unless he were specially thereunto licenced by the archbishop." Haec ille.

In reliquis decem hujus synodi sessionibus hoc anno habitis, nihil fere actum fuit, nisi quod articuli nonnulli ab archiepiscopo prolocutori traditi, examen utriusque domus convocationis subierint: qui prima sessione anni seq. 31. die Martii stabiliti ac regia auctoritate confirmati sunt.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1584.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Articles touching preachers and other orders for the church. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 97. a.

I. THAT the laws late made against the recusants be put in more due execution, considering the benefit that hath grown unto the church thereby, where they have been so executed, and the encouragement which they and others do receive by remission executing thereof.

II. That all preaching, reading, catechisme, and other such like exercises in private places and families, wherunto others do resort, being not of the same family, be utterly inhibited, seeing the same was never permitted as lawful, under any christian magistrate; but is a manifest sign of schisme, and a cause of contention in the church.

III. That none be permitted to preach, read, or catechise in the church or elsewhere, unless he do, four times in the year at the least, say service, and minister the sacraments, according to the book of common prayer.

IV. That all preachers, and others in ecclesiastical orders, do at all times wear, and use such kynde of apparel, as is prescribed unto them by the book of advertisements, and her majesty's injunctions "anno primo."

V. That none be permitted to preach, or interpret the scriptures, unless he be a priest, or deacon at the least, admitted therunto according to the laws of this realme.

VI. That none be permitted to preach, read catechise, minister the sacraments, or to execute any other ecclesiasticall function, by what authority soever he be admitted therunto, unless he consent and subscribe to these articles following, before the ordinary of the diocese, wherein he preacheth, readeth, catechiseth, or ministrereth the sacraments, videlicet.

[I.] That her majestie, under God, hath, and ought to have the soveraigntie and rule over all manner of persons born within her realmes, dominions, and countries, of what estate, either ecclesiastical, or temporal soever they be; and that no foreign power, prelate, state, or potentate hath or ought to have any jurisdiction, power, superioritie, preeminence, or authoritie ecclesiastical or spiritual, within her majesties said realmes, dominions, and countries.

[II.] That the book of common prayer, and of ordering bishopps, prestes, and deacons, conteyneth nothing in it contrary to the word of God, and that the same may lawfully be used, and that he himself will use the forme of the said book prescribed in public prayer, and administration of the sacraments; and none other.

[III.] That he alloweth the book of articles of religion, agreed upon by the archbishops and bishops of both provinces, and the whole clergy in the convocation holden at London in the yere of our Lord God M.D.LXII. and set forth by her majesties authority, and that he believeth all the articles therein conteyned to be agreeable to the word of God.

VII. That from henceforth, none be admitted to any orders ecclesiastical, unless he do then presentlie shew to the bishop a trew presentation of himself to a benefice then void within the diocese or jurisdiction of the said bishop, or unless he shew unto the same bishop a trew certificate, where presently he may be placed to serve some cure within the same diocese, or jurisdiction, or unless he be placed in some cathedral or collegiate church, or colledge in Cambridge or Oxford, or unless the said bishop shall then forthwith place him in some vacant benefice or cure.

VIII. And that no bishop henceforth do admitt any into orders, but such as shal be of his own diocese, unless he be of one of the universities, or bring his lettres dimissories from the bishop of the diocese, and be of age full twenty four years, and a graduate of the university, or at the least able in the Latin tongue to yealde an accompte of his faith, according to the articles of religion agreed upon in convocation, and that in such sorte, as that he can note

note the sentences of scripture, wherupon the truth of the said articles is grounded, and bring a sufficient testimonial with him of his honest life and conversation, either under the seal of some colledge in the universities, where he hath remayned, or from some justice of the peace, with other honest men of that parish, where he hath made his abode for three yeares before; and that the busshop, which shall admitt any into orders, being not in this manner qualified, be by the archbishop, with the assistance of some one other bishop, suspended from admitting any into orders for the space of two yeares.

IX. And that no busshop institute any into a benefice, but such as be of the habilitie before prescribed; and if the arches by double quarrell or otherwise proceade against the said busshop, for refusal of such as be not of that habilitie, that the archbusshop of Cant. either by his own authoritie, or by meanes procured from her majestie, may stay such proces, that the endeavor of the byshop may take place.

X. That one kinde of translation of the Bible be only used in public service, as well in churches as chappells, and that to be the same which is now authorized by the consent of the busshops.

XI. That from henceforth ther be no commutation of penance, but in rare respectes, and upon great consideration, and when it shall appear to the busshop himself, that that shall be the best way for wyning and reforming of the offender, and that the penalty be employed either to the relief of the poor of that parish, or to other godly uses, and the same well witnessed and made manifest to the congregation; and yet if the fault be notorious, that the offender make some satisfaction either in his own person with declarations of his repentance openlie in the church, or else that the minister of the church openlie in the pulpitt signifie to his people his submission and declaration of his repentance done before the ordinarie, and also in token of his repentance what portion of mohe hath given to be employed to the uses above named.

As persons of honest, worshipfull, and honorable calling may necessarilie and reasonable have occasions sometimes to solemnize marriage by licence for the banns asking or for once or twice without any great harm; so for avoiding generallie of inconveniences noted in this behalf, yt is thought expediente, that no dispensations be graunted for marriage without bannes, but under sufficient and large bondes, with these conditions following.

First, That there shall not afterwards appear any lawfull let or impediment by reason of any precontract, consanguinitie, affinitie, or any other lawfull meanes whatsoever.

Secondly, That ther be not at that presente tyme of grauntinge such dispensation any suite, pleinte, querele, or demand moved or depending before any judge ecclesiastical or temporal for and concerning any such lawful impediment betwene such the parties. And Thirdly, They proceed not to the solemnization of the marriage without the consent of parents or governors.

Lastly, That the marriage be openly solemnized in the church. The copy of which bond is to be set down and given in charge for every busshop in his diocese to follow; provided that whosoever offendeth against this order, be suspended ab executione officii for one half yeare.

Archiepsc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christii
1584.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

The clergy's petition in convocation to queen Elizabeth, that the bill against pluralities pass not. Ex MS. Cott. Cleop. F. II. fol. 255. b.

To the queen's most excellent majesty.

IN most humble wise complaining, do shew unto your most excellent majesty your poor distressed supplicants, the whole clergy, that some in the lower house of parliament have proposed often, and with all eagernes do promote divers bills against them; and namely one entituled "A bill against pluralities and nonresidency," which indeed impeacheth your majesty's prerogative royal; impaireth the revenue of the crown; overthroweth the study of divinity in both universities; depriveth men of the livings they do lawfully possess; beggareth the clergy; bringeth in a base and unlearned ministry; taketh away all hopes of a succession in learning; will breed great discontentment in the younger sorts of students, and make them fly to other seminaries, where they may hope for more encouragement; will give the adversary just cause to rejoice and triumph, when they shall see the clergy and learning generally so much disgraced and vilified by the gentry and commons of this land; abridgeth all ability in the ministry either of keeping hospitality, or of contributing to the state in case of necessity; and that, which is most lamentable, maketh way to an anarchy and confusion.

Great are the indignities, the injuries, the absurdities of this bill, if with religious wisdom the effects of it be truly considered; but as great is the hypocrisy of the same, for it doth not reform the things which it pretendeth to redress; it permitteth them and encreaseth them rather. The only thing it doth principally intend is, the impoverishing and embasing of the clergy; whereupon will ensue the utter contempt both of their persons and their doctrine.

All which we are ready, with your highness's favour and licence, to justify before any competent judge, if we be permitted an indifferent hearing hearing. In the mean time and always most humbly committing our poor estate to your majesty's most gracious and princely clemency (on which next under the goodness of almighty God it doth wholly depend) we do in all submission both in respect of our selves, and especially in regard of our successors, most instantly pray such speedy remedy in this behalf, as to your most excellent wisdom, and wonted godly care of religion shall seem fit; and that the rather, because it would leave a perpetual blemish upon the time of your highness's government, if there should appear to be such a hatred of the clergy and of learning in this land, as that such an act of parliament should be now established.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1584.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

A writing of the bishops in answer to the book of articles offered the last sessions of parliament, anno regin. xxvii. for ecclesiastical causes, concerning ministers, excommunication, dispensations, etc. Strype's annals vol. III. app. p. 81.

I. Concerning ministers.

The first article.

THAT it may be enacted, that none be admitted to be minister of the word and sacraments, but in a benefice having cure of souls, then vacant in the diocese of such a bishop as is to admit him.

Answer to the first article.

This cannot possibly be performed without altering the whole state of the church of England. First because there must be curates, and that of necessity. Secondly, Because there are other ecclesiastical livings, which require ministers of the word and sacraments, as well as benefices with cure; as deanries, prebends, masterships, and fellowships in the universities, and petty canons in cathedral churches.

The article is grounded upon a false principle of T. C. (Thomas Cartwright) against ministers having no pastoral cure. Which neither he, nor any man else is able to maintain either by the word of God, or ancient authority. For by "Ministerium vagum," the old councils and canons did always understand such as were ordained "Sine patrimonio aut titulo:" that is, not having any stay of living. As 'tis manifest in the council of Chalcedon.

Such as have great cures shall be overburthened with saying of service, preaching, ministering of sacraments, all themselves. For they shall be destitute of a curate to help them to say service, to visit the sick, to administer the sacraments, to catechise, etc. by this means fellowships in colleges, which by their statutes must be in orders, are overthrown.

The second article.

That before the admission of such minister, the bishop give public notice by writing under his seal, to be fixed on the church door, that is destitute of a pastor, upon some Sunday or holyday in the time of divine service, signifying the name of the person presented to that church, or there to be admitted; with intimation that such as within twenty six days after, will object against the admission, shall appear at a place certain before him, and alledge such matter, as shall only concern his conversation of life, and thereby his insufficiency for that place.

The third article.

That the bishop shall not proceed to the admission of any to be minister of the word and sacraments, before due certificate made in authentic form, and public place, by him to be assigned, that the process of notice and intimation was executed in form aforesaid; nor before the expiration of the said twenty six days, nor without calling for and hearing of such, as upon return of the said process, shall and will object, as aforesaid.

The answer to the second and third articles.

This is unnecessary and in vain, unless he that is to be admitted, had been dwelling in that parish before. Which will happen very seldom. The writing and sending to the benefice void; and the return thereof in authentic form, will be very chargeable to the minister; especially where the place is far from the bishop's mansion house. It also protracteth time, and will administer occasion of quarrelling.

The charges also and delay will be increased, if the party to be admitted, do stand upon the purgation of the objections laid against him.

This testimony required of the parishioners, lacking their pastors, is an introduction to bring the patronage to the people, and to set a fire among them, for testifying or not testifying; and that many times of a person they know not.

The objecting of the people will fall out many times to be mere malice, whereby immortal hatred will rise among them.

The person indeed had need be a very ill man, that a number of the parish will come a long journey to the ordinary, on their own costs, to object against him that is to be admitted.

What, if the parish will be negligent and will not return? shall they lack a pastor still? the patron, if he be mighty, may enter; lett the return, or procure such as he shall like of. And who and how many of the parish shall return?

The fourth article.

It is here to be provided, that where in certain colleges, and cathedral and collegiate churches

K k k k

churches the foundation or statute require such as are there placed, to be ministers; it shall be lawful for such as are known to profess the study of divinity, or otherwise be lawfully dispensed withal, to retain, as before this act they might, any fellowship or prebend within the said colleges, notwithstanding they be no ministers.

The answer to the fourth article.

I. This utterly overthroweth the foundation and statutes of almost all the colleges in Cambridge and Oxford, being founded principally for the study of divinity, and encrease of the number of learned preachers and ministers. And therefore, not only the master, provost, warden, president, etc. by the said foundation and statutes are bounden to be ministers, but divers others also of such societies are likewise bounden to enter into the ministry by a certain time, or else to yield their places to others.

II. It will deprive the church of England of the worthiest, best learned, and wisest ministers and preachers. For there is no comparison between such ministers and preachers, as the universities continually yield, in respect of such foundations and statutes, and others, being no university men, or not entering into the ministry, while they remained there; as at this day it is notorious. For altho' there are divers that can preach, etc. yet they have no substance of learning in them, neither are they able to stand with the adversary, either in pulpit or disputation: a thing as well required in a minister as exhortation is.

III. If this device take place, where the universities yield now great number of preachers and ministers, they would not then yield one for twenty. And so the number of preachers, which now are thought to be very few, would then be much less; and at length the utter decay of the study of divinity, and the very next way to bring in popery and ignorance again.

IV. It overthroweth the degrees of the university, which are taken in divinity; as the bachelorship and doctorship. For even since the first foundation of them both, it hath been perpetually used, and it is by statute required, that none should take any of these degrees, but such as are in the ministry. And indeed it is both inconvenient and absurd that it should be otherwise.

V. At this day, there are in the university of Cambridge an hundred preachers at the least, very worthy men, and not many less in the university of Oxford: and the number daily encreaseth in both, to the great benefit of the church. But if this might take place, within these seven years, there would not be five ministers in either of them.

VI. It would cause men all their life time to remain in the universities; so that there should be no succession.

VII. It also overthroweth the foundation and statutes of all cathedral and collegiate churches; and taketh away the chief and principal reward for learned preachers: for the best livings for worthy men are in such churches.

VIII. It taketh away the wisest, best learned, and gravest divines, such as do and are most able to withstand not only papists, but other sectaries also.

IX. Every one to keep these places would openly profess the study of divinity, and secretly study the one law or the other, or physic, or some trifling study all his life long.

X. There will be no care of profiting when there is no trial thereof, which is most special by open preaching: which were absurd to be done by no ministers.

XI. Any which hath been a student, may under pretence of studying divinity, without any trial obtain deanries, provostships, prebends, etc. and being a layman, may live idly on the spoil of the church all his life, except he taught a benefice.

XII. There shall want sufficient trial of the abilities of preaching of such as are to be bishops, except they be chosen from some benefice: which breedeth small experience for governance.

XIII. It would greatly diminish the number of preachers and sermons; which the universities, colleges, and cathedral churches do yield both at home and abroad in every country; in the respect that those, which now have the livings, are bound to be ministers.

XIV. It taketh away daily service used in these churches (which were impiety) unless it might be said or sung by such as are now ministers: which is absurd.

XV. To conclude, it will breed a beggarly, unlearned, and contemptible clergy and ministry. It is the very way to overthrow all colleges, cathedral churches, and places of learning. It will extinguish the study of divinity; diminish the number of preachers, and breed a great confusion and alteration in the church and commonwealth. And it is a piece of T. C. his platform.

XVI. By this the reward of divinity will be taken away, and the divine thrust to a benefice of xl.l. This is covertly to shove at the gospel, to place the lawyers and others as they please.

XVII. Note, That hereby they would have dispensations to take place against the statutes of colleges and cathedral churches.

The fifth article.

That none be made minister, but upon some Sunday publickly in the cathedral church of the diocese, where the minister is admitted.

The answer.

That he be made public, it is not amiss; but to observe the precise place of the cathedral church, it will be inconvenient; because divers bishops dwell far from their cathedral churches.

The sixth article.

That the bishop make no minister but such as be of his own diocese, and have there continued tinued by the space of one whole year; except such only as come from the universities, and bring testimonials of their meetness under the university seal.

The seventh article.

That such as be of the bishop's own diocese, shall bring with them such a testimonial as is limited in the statute of anno xiii. Elizab.

The answer.

I. These are very expedient and necessary, and even so provided for by the law.

II. It were more meet also, that these things were observed, when patrons present to a benefice: and that as the testimonials do witness their conversation, so the bishop should without any impeachment of "Quare impedit," etc. be judge of their ability in respect of the cure which they desire.

The eighth article.

That after the receipt of the said testimonial, the bishop shall not proceed to the making of his person minister, which bringeth that testimonial, before he shall declare before the dean and chapter of the cathedral church, that he well knoweth the persons, by whom the testimonial is made, to be such as is by the said statute expressed.

The answer.

This is unnecessary and altogether needless, neither can it be performed.

The ninth article.

That he shall not make any minister but such as shall be by the dean and chapter, or the more part of them, or six learned preachers of the diocese then present, allowed for a man meet and sufficient, by subscription of their hands to some writing, declaring their assent, in allowing of him.

The answer.

I. It will breed great trouble, and not work that effect which is looked for; neither can it by all in place be performed.

II. It would also be very chargeable, upon the absence of the most of the chapter, if the party should procure the hands of six preachers, dwelling in dispersed places.

The tenth article.

That none shall have a benefice with cure, being of the value of xx.l. yearly in the queen's books, except he be a master of arts, or a preacher allowed, notwithstanding that he be made a minister before of some mean cure.

The answer.

It is to be liked of; so that diligent heed be taken that none be admitted preachers, but such as be worthy.

II. Concerning excommunication.

The first article.

Excommunication is at this time the pain of contumacy, and hath place where a man appeareth not upon a process, or satisfieth not some order prescribed by the judge, as not taking some oath, or not paying legacies, tithes, etc.

The second article.

The offences that grow by the practice hereof in this manner, are great. One, that being the highest censure left by the church of God, it is profaned by applying it to temporal and civil causes. Another, that it is executed by men that have no calling in the church, as chancellors, officials, etc.

Again, forasmuch as the church may not be left without this censure of excommunication, it is to be provided, that for enormous crimes, as adultery, and such other, the same be executed either by the bishops themselves, with the assistance of grave persons, or else by other persons of calling in the church, with the like assistance, and not by chancellors and officials, as hath been used.

The answer.

Excommunication hath been used by the ecclesiastical judge, ever since there hath been either discipline in the church, or jurisdiction in the ecclesiastical magistrate, and is the only punishment thereof: for the ancient lawmakers, thinking that blood and bodily pains ought to be far from ecclesiastical magistrates, have given them this mild spiritual sword, to divide that person from the ecclesiastical body, that refuseth to do his ecclesiastical duties, and to obey the ecclesiastical judge. Not excommunicating every man for twopenny causes, as is furnished (though indeed there be as much in ii. d. as in cc. l.) but in excommunicating them for not obeying the order, decree, and sentence of the judge, according to her majesty's ecclesiastical laws. Even as in a temporal cause of ii. d. the party is outlawed, and consequently his fruits and goods of his lands are at the prince's pleasure, if he appear not, or obey not; and yet it is not to be said, that a man is outlawed for ii. d. but for not obeying the law process, and judge in a twopenny manner. For the smaller the matter is, the greater is the fault of contumacy and disobedience, saith the law.

Excommunication for process, order not obeyed, taking some oath, etc. is not for civil causes; but these causes are ecclesiastical: and what can be more against the church, than when men will not be ordered by it nor obey it? In God's law such as would not be ordered by their judge, or high priest, were stoned.

There is no law nor function in the world void of exception, and imperfection. And to have it void thereof "Est optandum magis, quam sperandum," as in Plato's commonwealth.

If excommunication be either taken away or changed, the whole course of the common law of the realm concerning that matter, and touching the writ "De excommunicato capiendo," must be changed. Wherein many things, not yet thought on, may happen, and instead thereof some convenient temporal penalty must be devised. Which how unliking and unpleasable it will be, and how full of difficulties, the wise can consider.

And if excommunication be thought fittest to continue (for that there will be as many inconveniencies, or more in time found in other things, as in that) and that for the better credit of the proceeding therein, the bishop be arched to sit in consistory, his whole life will be spent in his jurisdiction, and in study of law, that he might be able to discern whether the process be according to law, before he inflicts the censure, which will be as great decay of preaching, as it hath been in fore time. For the jurisdiction alone requireth "totum et integrum hominem."

Touching the execution by men of no calling in the country.

The jurisdiction in the beginning was jointly in the bishop, dean, and chapter. Which bred so many opinions, such impeachments and confusions in proceeding, that by the general custom of the world, generally the jurisdiction was thought convenient to be exercised by the bishop alone, which growing great, as the church and ecclesiastical causes encreased, and consequently calling the bishop from his function, the law and constitutions ordered that the official or vicar general of a bishop or archdeacon, should have the same consistory or jurisdiction, that the archdeacon or bishop had, and the same authority to excommunicate. Which by the statutes of this realm is also allowed to doctors of the law. For that in later times, divines have wholly employed themselves to divinity, and not to the proceedings and study of the law: whereunto in fore times the clergy were more addicted than to divinity, in respect of the gain and offices exercised under bishops, archdeacons, and other ecclesiastical callings, which drew them wholly from divinity.

This excommunication by law was never used, nor could be used as a punishment of any crime, saving of notorious heresy, usury, simony, piracy, conspiracy against the person of the prince, of his state, dignity, or crown, preturbers of the common peace and quietness of the church or realm, wilful murderers, sacrilegers, perjurers, and incorrigible and notorious commiters of incest and adultery, false witness, and suborners thereof, violent layers of hands upon ecclesiastical persons, and such other great and horrible crimes, which were called "sententie canonum." Wherein besides the particular penances, that the bishops and their officers did impose, it was for more terror provided by ancient canons, that there should be a general open denunciation of this excommunication in every cathedral church and parish church twice in the year.

For other light faults there was no excommunication permitted or used as a punishment, other than for manifest and wilful contumacy or disobedience in not appearing, when persons were called and summoned for a cause ecclesiastical, or when any sentence or decree of the bishop or his officer, being deliberately made, was wilfully disobeyed and not performed.

Such wilful contumacy and disobedience to authority is in the law accounted so great, that it is called a contempt of that "quod est in jure extremum;" that is to say, if the judge cannot have appearance of the parties, or execution of his judgments, here he is at the wall, and can go no further.

Of very ancient time this was the manner of proceeding in this realm, and the only mean of reducing obstinate persons to the obedience of the law.

It may appear by the ancients statute or act of parliament in the 9th year of Edward II. that it was the old custom and usage of the realm, long before that time. The words are these: "Si aliqui propter suam contumaciam manifestam excommunicentur; ac post 40. dies, dies pro eorum captione scribatur, et praetendunt se privilegiatos; et sic denegatur breve regium pro captione corporum? Responsio regis: Nunquam fuit negatum, nec negabitur in futuro."

It is to be considered, whether this manifest contumacy, and wilful disobedience to the magistrate and authority be not as well punishable, when the original cause or matter is as weighty, the difference whereof doth nothing alter the nature of the disobedience.

In this our realm, of very ancient time, it hath been observed from time to time, that there was never alteration made of any law ecclesiastical, although it had appearance to benefit the state of the clergy; but that it turned ever to some notable prejudice.

III. Concerning commutation of penance.

That there be no commutation of penance for sin, but by the order and appointment of the bishop, with the assent of the dean and chapter, or the most part of them, or with the assent of six preachers of that diocese.

The answer.

I. The bishop is sufficient for this matter.
II. It were good to inhibit justices of peace, to commute, but to permit them only to punish corporally. And yet notwithstanding the parties offending not to be received into the church, 'till they have done such penance, whereby the congregation may be satisfied.

IV. Concerning dispensations.

The first article.

The faculties, which did the greatest hurt in the church of God, were three; viz. dispensation "de non promovendo," dispensation for pluralities of benefices, and dispensation for non-residence.

The

The second article.

These two last named faculties, have bred the disorders of making vage ministers, whereof have ensued two great incommodities; one, and the chiefeſt of all, that the people is not taught. The other, that the ministers placed in benefices, where the pastor is absent, and having for the most part small allowance, do poſt from place to place for their better preferment, and reſting no where, reſpect neither their life, nor encrease in knowlege. For men be careful for their converſation, where they are to have continuance. And ſmall account can be taken how he profiteth, that abideth no where long.

The answer.

The faculty "de non reſidendo," is ſo rare, as by the preſent archbiſhop there was never any granted. And by the laſt archbiſhop never any yielded unto, but by ſpecial requeſts and warrant from my lords of her majeſty's council; and that to men qualified in her majeſty's ſervice, or otherwiſe greatly employed in the common wealth. And therefore it needeth no ſuch proviſion by law.

The faculty of non-reſidence is alſo ſo rare, and granted in ſuch reſpects, as ſithence the time of this archbiſhop, there hath not been above one granted, and that to a man of 80 years old; with whom the law itſelf diſpenſeth.

Befide, that the ſtatute of the realm provideth ſo ſharp a penalty for non-reſidence, by the forfeiture of x. l. a month, to be recovered in the exchequer; as no man careth to ſue for the faculty, and if they do, it profiteth nothing. For that the ſtatute inflicteth the puniſhment, all faculties and diſpenſation notwithstanding, and a more ſevere puniſhment cannot well be deviſed.

Touching the faculty of pluralities, the ground thereof is this. Men of excellent gifts, and extraordinary virtue, oftentimes have no livings or very ſmall living. And when they cannot attain ſo great as their quality deſerveth; the policy of the church hath thought fit to grant to ſuch an one two livings, as an extraordinary reward for extraordinary virtue. For if all men could be made fit for all livings; or all livings for all manner of men, there ſhould have needed no diſpenſation of pluralities; but forasmuch as that cannot be, it is lawful in ſuch caſe of neceſſity, and for ſuch extraordinary cauſes to recede from the ſtrait and common courſe of the law. And ſo hath it been uſed in all ages. Neither can it be better policed, nor more reſtrained, than of late it hath been in reſpect both of diſtance of places, and the value of their parſonage, with great caution both for their hoſpitality and preachings. Befides that the laws being poſitive that forbid plurality, the difference in reaſon is very ſmall between the little benefices not far diſtant, and one great benefice. And therefore no ſtrange thing, if by like poſitive law there be admitted by mitigation a diſpenſation of the rigor of law.

VOL. IV.

Moreover, the number of benefices in England being about 18000. and the univerſities not able to furniſh the third part of them with ſufficient men, it is better, that one worthy man have two benefices, than to be unfurniſhed of living, or be obſcurely placed in a ſmall pariſh or poor living; or the ſame benefices committed to two unlearned men.

The third article.

That no chaplain have two cures, if both amount above 40. l. in the queen's books or be 20. miles diſtant.

The fourth article.

That none enabled to have two cures, ſhall enjoy the ſame, unleſs they be under the value aforeſaid, and within 20. miles diſtant; and be reſident upon one of them.

The answer to the third and fourth articles.

I. The diſtance of miles is not to be miſliked, but the limiting of the value is unreaſonable, and tendeth only to the impoveriſhing of the miniſtry, being a ſtate as worthy of living in many reſpects, as others of other callings whatſoever in reſpect of their calling.

II. The beſt gifts deſerve the beſt rewards. And therefore it were better to make a limitation, what degrees of ſchools ſhall only be enabled for the beſt livings.

III. Dignities, prebends, and places in colleges (as before) are required by diſpenſation for laymen. Here the divine is ſet at 40. l. If a man would deal covertly to pull away religion, how could it do better?

The fifth article.

That no dean of cathedral church, prebendary, or other having dignity, ſhall have more than one benefice with cure, beſides his dignity.

The sixth article.

That no one have mo dignities or prebends than two.

The answer to the fifth and sixth articles.

I. It is very unreaſonable, and tendeth to the ſame end with the third and fourth articles, and will diſcourage men from the miniſtry, and make a beggarly clergy; far unapt to give hoſpitality, or to do many other things required of them, and looked for at their hands.

II. It is alſo very inconvenient, for moſt of theſe dignities are decayed within theſe laſt fifty years very much. Greater impoſitions for the ſervice of the realm are laid upon them. Every thing to be required at double or treble prices, in reſpect of that it was then at. . . . And yet as great or greater hoſpitality looked for.

The seventh article.

That they, which may have chaplains, ſhall advance no more than their number, 'till the advanced dieth, or otherwiſe one of two benefices become void.

L 111

The

The answer.

I. This is not to be disliked, unless the party be otherwise qualified than by the chaplainship.

II. And yet inconvenience may arise of it. For if a chaplain doth not behave himself as appertaineth, no reason he should be retained in service, and it were hard, not to allow another in such a case.

The eighth article.

That none shall be chaplain, enabled to two benefices, except he be master of arts, or allowed by the ordinary as sufficient.

The answer.

It is very convenient.

The ninth article.

That none shall be non-resident, but such as be continually attendant in the houses of such as they are chaplains unto.

The answer.

I. To be attendant the greater part of the year were sufficient. For the other part of the year they may be at their cure. And besides some have chaplains, which attend by course. Which is very convenient,

II. This is very prejudicial for grave men required for government in the universities. Which may very well discharge both duties.

III. This overthroweth residence in cathedral churches, colleges, and deanries. So that they cannot be attendant there, except they will leave their benefice, tho' it be but one.

The tenth article.

That they shall preach in person yearly, two sermons, and four sermons besides "per se vel per alium."

The answer.

It is too easy. It is requisite, that they should preach no sermons even in their own persons.

The eleventh article.

Lastly, To consider, whether it were not meet to abate the numbers of the chaplains of the archbishops, and others under that degree, that may by the statute keep more than one chaplain.

The answer.

It is not meet. For those of the clergy that have chaplains allowed, the statute sets down a good consideration. And there are not many such. Besides it is looked for; that they should have preachers about them to furnish the want that is in most dioceses.

The twelfth article.

That in cases of pluralities and non-residences, the bishops shall have the allowing of the minister that shall serve the cure, in the absence of the incumbent; and the stipend of the said minister to be appointed by the bishop, according to the sufficiency of the minister. So that the same stipend do not exceed the third part of the clear yearly value of the benefice.

The answer.

This is very reasonable and according to law.

The thirteenth article.

There is one faculty of great inconvenience granted not only by the court of faculties, but by the chancellor of every diocese, viz. The dispensation of marriage without banns asking. By occasion whereof, children make disorderly matches without the assent of their parents; and orphans are left to the spoil of unthrifty persons.

The answer.

I. It may be so qualified that no inconvenience shall ensue thereof. II. There be divers reasonable occasions, that daily happen which may hinder the thrice asking of bans; which causes are meet to be considered of and allowed by the ordinary, or his deputy. III. The inconvenience that is proposed is in most dioceses already met withal, by putting these conditions in the faculty; viz. that they have their governors consent; that there is no suit for matrimony depending; no precontract, nor any other impediment; which the party is by a bond with sureties bound unto. So that by this means, this inconvenience is better met withal, than by asking the bans thrice; which may be done, and yet these impediments remain. IV. And since the bonds have been qualified as is above said, being about one twelvemonth past, experience doth teach, that none of the pretended inconveniences have happened.

A general answer to all the articles of excommunication, commutation, and dispensation.

Generally, This alteration, confusion, and abridgment of exercise of that jurisdiction will shortly decay the profession of the canon law, and civil law together. Whereby divers now are bred up in learning, in languages, in studies; so that they are enabled to serve the realm in any foreign service, as well as any one sort of learned men in the realm besides.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1584.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Synodus provincialis Eboracensis.

PER breve regium dat. 13. die Octobris anno regni XXVI. synodus haec ad 24. diem Novembris prox. in ecclesia metropolitana B. Petri Ebor. convocabatur, ac deinde in dies 8. et 22. Decembris, 8. diem Januarii, 5. diem Februarii et 4. Martii prorogabatur: quo die clerus unanimi consensu subsidium dominae reginae concessit. Ab hoc die synodus in 19. mensis Martii continuabatur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1585.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Synodus provincialis Cantuariensis.

HUJUS synodi anno superiore inchoatae sex hoc anno sessiones fuerunt; prima 31. die mensis Martii, in qua articuli pro clero confirmati, regia auctoritate stabiliti, ac statuta nonnulla de augmento doctrinae in inferioribus clericis edita sunt. In secunda 21. die mensis Maii; in tertia 8. die Junii; in quarta 22. die Junii; in quinta 12. die Octobris; in sexta 11. die Februarii nihil memoratu dignum actum fuit.

Articuli per archiepiscopum, episcopos, et reliquum clerum Cantuariensis provinciae in synodo inchoata Londini vicesimo quarto die mensis Novembris, anno Domini M.D.LXXXIV. regnique serenissimae in Christo principis dominae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensoris, etc. vicesimo septimo stabiliti, et regia auctoritate approbati et confirmati.

Ut homines idonei ad sacros ordines, et beneficia (uti vocant) ecclesiastica admittantur.

PRIMO cautum est, ne quis posthac ad sacros ordines suscipiatur, qui non eodem quoque tempore praesentationem suipsius ad beneficium aliquod intra dioecesim sive jurisdictionem ejusdem episcopi a quo sacros ordines petit, tunc vacans exhibuerit; vel qui non eidem episcopo certum, verum, et indubitatum certicatorium tulerit de ecclesia aliqua intra dioecesim sive jurisdictionem dicti episcopi, in qua curae animarum inservire possit; vel qui in aliqua cathedrali aut collegiata ecclesia, vel collegio Cantabrigiensi aut Oxoniensi non fuerit constitutus; vel saltem, qui ab eodem episcopo in beneficium aliquod, sive ad curam (uti vocant) inserviendam tunc etiam vacantem, non sit mox admittendus.

Deinde, ne quis episcopus posthac aliquem in sacros ordines cooptet, qui non ex sua ipsius dioecesi fuerit, nisi vel ex altera nostratium academiarum prodierit; vel, nisi literas (ut loquuntur) dimissorias ab episcopo, cujus dioecesis existet attulerit, et vicesimum quartum aetatis suae annum jam compleverit, ac etiam in altera dictarum academiarum gradum aliquem scholasticum susceperit, vel saltem, nisi rationem fidei suae juxta articulos illos religionis in synodo episcoporum et cleri approbatos Latino sermone reddere possit, adeo ut sacrarum literarum testimonia, quibus eorundem articulorum veritas innititur, recitare etiam valeat; ac ulterius, de vita sua laudabili et morum integritate literas testimoniales sub sigillo vel alicujus collegii Cantabrigiensis aut Oxoniensis, ubi antea moram fecerit, vel alicujus justitarii ad pacem dom. reginae conservandum assignati, una cum subscriptione et testimonio aliorum proborum et fide dignorum hominum ejusdem parochiae, ubi per tres annos ante proxime elapsos commoratus est, exhibeat.

Quodsi vero aliquis episcopus aliquem ad sacros ordines admiserit, qui praedictis qualitatibus non sit praeditus, is per archiepiscopum, affidente sibi hac in parte uno alio episcopo, ab ordinatione ministrorum et diaconorum per integrum biennium suspendatur, ac eam praeterea poenam incurrat, quae de jure in ejusmodi episcopos, qui ad ordines ecclesiasticos sine titulo aliquem promovebunt, statuitur.

Adhaec, ne quis episcopus aliquem in beneficium (uti vocant) instituat, nisi qui praedictis conditionibus ornatus fuerit.

Quodsi curia de arcubus aut audientiae per viam duplicis querelae, seu alio quovismodo contra episcopum hac in parte agat, quia homines minime idoneos ac habiles admittere renuit; tunc licebit archiepiscopo, vel auctoritate propria, vel gratia speciali a regia maiestate impetrata, ejusmodi processus amputare, quo laudabilis episcopi industria debitum ea ratione fortiatur effectum.

Denique, ut quolibet anno ad festum S. Michaelis archangeli, vel intra sex hebdomadas, idem festum subsequentes, unusquisque episcopus numerum, nomina, gradus, et qualitates eorum omnium, quos in sacros ordines, vel in aliqua beneficia eodem anno praecedente promoverit, ad archiepiscopum transmittat.

De moderanda solennis poenitentiae commutatione.

Ne quae fiat posthac solennis poenitentiae commutatio, mutatio, nisi rarioribus, gravioribusque de causis, atque adeo cum ipsi episcopo constiterit, eam esse ad reum reconciliandum et reformatum saniozem et tutiozem rationem.

Deinde, quod multa illa pecuniaria vel in relevamen pauperum ejusdem parochiae, vel in alios pios usus erogetur, idque ecclesiae solehniter et fideliter approbetur et innotescat.

Quodsi vero crimen fuerit notorium ac publicum, reus ipse vel in propria sua persona, publice in ecclesia poenitentiam suam minime fictam profitendo, laesae ecclesiae satisfaciet, vel ecclesiae minister in praesentia ipsius rei, palam e suggestu, ejus submissionem, et poenitentiae suae coram ordinario suo peractionem, atque etiam in verae suae resipiscentiae testimonium, quantam pecuniarum summam in usus supradictos erogandam reddiderit, denunciabit.

De moderandis quibusdam indulgentiis pro celebratione matrimonii absque trinundina denunciatione, quam bannos vocant matrimoniales.

Quandoquidem honestae, clarae, ac illustris conditionis homines, five urgente aliqua necessitate, five aliis non contemnendis rationibus, matrimonium aliquando celebrandi causas habere possunt, facultate sibi de bannis matrimonialibus aut non omnino, aut semel iterumve denunciandis indulta, sine aliquo gravi scandalo seu detrimento; idcirco ad evitanda generaliter quae hac in parte notantur incommoda, visum est caveri, ne ullae facultates five indulgentiae de celebrando absque bannis matrimonio concedantur, nisi idonea cautio prius sub hisce conditionibus ineatur; nimirum, primo, quod nullum postea constabit impedimentum pracontractus, consanguinitatis, affinitatis, vel ullius alterius legitimae causae cujuscunque ratione. Secundo, quod eo tempore, quo ejusmodi facultas five indulgentia conceditur, nulla controversia, lis, seu querela mota est, vel dependet coram aliquo iudice ecclesiastico aut civili, de ejuscemodi legitimo impedimento matrimonii inter hujusmodi personas contrahendi ut contracti. Ac tertio, quod ad nuptiarum solemnizationem non accedent, nisi assensu et expresse consensu parentum five tutorum prius impetrato. Et ulterius, quod matrimonii celebratio publice ac tempestive in facie ecclesiae fiet. Cujus quidem cautionis formula seu exemplar in scriptis concipietur, ac unicuique episcopo in sua cujuscunque dioecesi imitanda proponetur.

Provisio semper, quod quicunque contra hanc ordinationem deliquerit, ab executione officii per sex integros menses suspendetur.

De quibusdam circa excommunicationem excessibus coercendis five reformatis.

Quia excommunicationis usus in ecclesia perpetuae legis vigorem jam obtinuit, atque in omni jurisdictione ecclesiastica exercenda hucusque retinetur, ideo absque grandi mutatione totius ejusce jurisdictionis et plurimarum hujus regni legum innovari vel alterari nequit; nihilominus, ut excommunicatio (quae auctoritatis ac disciplinae ecclesiasticae quasi nervus quidam ac vinculum habendum est) ad pristinum suum usum, decus et dignitatem reducatur; cautum est, ut quotiescunque censura ista in immediatam poenam cujuscunque notoriae haereseos, schismatis, simoniae, perjurii, usurae, incestus, adulterii, seu gravioris alicujus criminis venerit infligenda, sententia ipsa vel per archiepiscopum, episcopum, decanum, archidiaconum, vel praebendarium, modo sacris ordinibus et ecclesiastica jurisdictione praeditus fuerit, in propria persona pronunciabitur, una cum ejusmodi frequentia et assistentia, quae ad majorem rei auctoritatem conciliandam conducere videbitur.

Denique quod unusquisque vicarius generalis, officialis, seu commissarius, qui ordines ecclesiasticos non susceperit, eruditum aliquem presbyterum sibi accerset et associabit, qui sufficienti auctoritate vel ab ipso episcopo in jurisdictione sua, vel ab archidiacono (presbytero existente) in jurisdictione sua munitus, idque ex praescripto ipsius iudicis tunc praesentis, excommunicationis sententiam pro contumacia denunciabit.

Volumus etiam, ut sicut constitutum est ejusmodi excommunicationem per ministrum ecclesiae denunciari; ita ipse iudex de absolutione ipsius rei post satisfactionem suam peractam, eundem ministrum certiozem faciat, qui eandem absolutionem populo publice denunciabit; ac interim quod bene licebit dicto ministro reum a sacris arcere et repellere, tanquam in ecclesiam minime recipiendum, donec ejusmodi certificationem ab ipso iudice exhibuerit.

De beneficiorum pluralitate cobibenda.

Quod nemini in posterum facultas five indulgentia concedetur de pluribus beneficiis simul retinendis, nisi hujusmodi tantum, qui pro eruditione sua et maxime digni, et ad officium suum plenius praestandum maxime habiles et idonei censebuntur: nimirum, ut is, qui hujusmodi facultate fruiturus est, sit ad minimum artium magister, et publicus ac idoneus verbi divini concionator; ita tamen, ut idonea etiam cautione obstrictus teneatur, de personali sua residentia in singulis beneficiis per bonam anni cujuscunque partem faciendam, et quod ejusmodi beneficia triginta milliarium spatio ad summum non distent ab invicem. Denique, quod idoneum curatum habeat, qui plebem ejus parochiae, in qua non residebit, instituat ac informet, modo facultates ejusdem beneficii talem commode sustinere posse archiepiscopo vel ejus dioeceseos episcopo videbuntur.

De feodis, quae officiariis ecclesiasticis et eorum ministris debentur.

Cautum insuper volumus, quod neque alia neque majora feoda ab episcopo, ordinario, archidiacono, vel eorum ministris deinceps ulla de causa percipiantur, quam ea, quae, ineunte hoc regnum regia nunc maiestate, percipi solebant. Quodque tabula quaedam, singulorum hujusmodi feodorum summas continens, in quolibet consistorio ante festum S. Johannis Baptistae proxime venturum figatur, cujus exemplar manu ipsius ordinarii subsignatum intra tempus praedi-praedictum ad archiepiscopum transmittetur.

Proviso semper, quod neque archiepiscopo, neque episcopo, vel directe vel indirecte, aliquam pecuniarum summam pro admittendis ad sacros ordines hominibus accipere licebit, idque sub poena juris.

De inquisitione per episcopos ineunda.

Quamprimum commode fieri poterit, vel ad summum intra unius anni spatium post hujus synodi finem, quisque episcopus de singulorum ministrorum, qui in sua dioecesi degunt, conditione, moribus, ac eruditione diligenter inquirat, per quos etiam et quo tempore ad sacros ordines admissi, quodque vitae genus sectati sint, priusquam in ministerium sunt cooptati; ac de hisce omnibus ipsum archiepiscopum intra dictum tempus debite certiore faciet.

Episcopi in sua quisque dioecesi de omnium rectoriarum, vicariarum, ac caeterorum ecclesiasticorum beneficiorum suae dioeceseos valore annuo, juxta censum libri illius, qui Primitiarum dicitur, si modo ibidem censeantur; aliter vero juxta communem eorum aestimationem: quot item appropriationes, cujus veri valoris annui, et qui sint earum proprietarii; necnon de curatorum salariis annuis diligentem facient inquisitionem. Ac de hisce similiter omnibus intra tempus antea praescriptum, dictum archiepiscopum certiore reddent.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1585.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Mandatum archiepiscopi Cantuar. episcopo London. ad publicand. articulos.
Ex lib. instrum. penes episc. Lincoln.

JOH. divina providentia Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitanus, venerabili confratri nostro dom. Joh. eadem permissione London. episcopo, salutem et fraternam in Domino charitatem. Cum in sacra synodo provinciali sive convocatione praelatorum et cleri nostrae Cant. provinciae, auctoritate brevis regii in ea parte emanati in domo [capitulari] ecclesiae cathedralis D. Pauli London. 24. die mensis Novembris A. D. M.D.LXXXIV. ultimo praeterit. inchoata et celebrata, ac de die in diem, et loco in locum continuat. et prorogat. de consilio et assensu vestris, et aliorum venerabilium confratrum nostrorum, totiusque cleri nostrae Cantuar. provinciae in eadem sacra synodo sive convocatione ultimo die mensis Martii ultimo praeterit. congregat. inter nonnulla alia per nos mutuo et unanimi nostro consensu ad Dei gloriam illustrand. divini cultus augmentum, ecclesiae Anglicanae utilitatem, et ordinis clericalis decentiam tendentia, ordinata et stabilita, ex certis magnis et urgentibus causis per nos eisdem confratribus nostris et clero dictae nostrae Cantuar. provinciae expositis, et inter nos matura deliberatione consideratis et ponderatis, quasdam ordinationes intitulat. "Articuli per archiepiscopum, episcopos, et reliquum clerum Cantuar. provinciae in synodo inchoata London. 24. die mensis Novembr. A. D. M.D.LXXXIV. regni-que serenissimae in Christo principis dominae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, etc. XXVII. stabiliti, et regia auctoritate approbati et confirmati:" nos igitur ordinationes suprascriptas in et per totam provinciam nostram Cantuar. debitae executioni demandari volentes, easdem per typographum ad hoc auctoritate legitima munitum typis excudi mandavimus, unumque exemplar ita excusum et impressum praesentibus annexum, una cum vero exemplari manuscripto cujusdam obligatoriae cautionis, de qua in dictarum ordinationum una fit mentio, ne quisquam ignorantiam praetexere possit, fraternitati vestrae transmittimus publicand. eidem fraternitati vestrae firmiter praecipiendo mandantes, quate-

VOL. IV.

nus vera exemplaria praedictarum ordinationum ac cautionis obligatoriae praedictae sub sigillo et [severalibus] literis vestris universis et singulis venerabilibus confratribus nostris episcopis, suffraganeis dictae nostrae Cantuar. provinciae et custodibus spiritualitatis sedium vacantium transmittend. ex parte nostra eis injungatis; quibus nos etiam harum serie injungimus, quatenus eorum singuli in singulis civitatibus et dioecesi. eorundem, prout ad eos et eorum quemlibet respective pertinet, ordinationes et cautionem obligatoriam praedictam debite publicent et denuncient, et ab omnibus, quos concernunt, observari et debitae executioni demandari faciant et curent cum effectu. Ac insuper ordinationes memoratas per fraternitatem vestram in et per civitatem et dioecesin vestras, prout ad vos attinet, debite et effectualiter publicari, denunciari, et executioni debitae demandari volumus et mandamus, prout convenit. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum nostrum praesentibus apponi fecimus. Dat. in manerio nostro de Lambeth 16. die mensis Aprilis, anno Dom. M.D.LXXXV. et nostrae translationis anno secundo.

Conditio obligatoria.

The condition of this obligation is such, that if hereafter there shall not appear any lawful let or impediment by reason of any precontract, consanguinity, affinity, or by any other lawful means whatsoever, but that the within bounden A. B. and C. D. may lawfully solemnize matrimony together, and in the same afterwards lawfully remain and continue like man and wife, according to the laws in that behalfe provided. And moreover if there be not at this present time any action, suit, plaint, querele, or demand moved or depending before any judge ecclesiastical or temporal for and concerning any such lawfull let or impediment between the said parties; and also if the said parties do not proceed to the solemnization of this marriage without the consent of their parents or governours. And lastly, if the said

M m m m

saïd marriage be openly solemnized in the church; that then this present obligation to be void and of none effect, or else the same to stand and abide in full power, strength, and vertue.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1585.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Certain orders for the increase of learning in the unlearned sort of ministers.

Ex libro instru. episc. Lincoln. fol. 50, 51.

IN PRIMIS, The order appointed in the preface of the common book, concerning the dayly readinge of publique prayer, shall be duly observed, to the end they may be the better acquainted with the phrased and histories of the scriptures.

Item, The ordinary of the place shall assigne unto such as are not maisters of art, or preachers, one chapter, att the least, of the Old and New Testament, every week, to be diligently studied upon by them in such sort, as they be able to make accompte of the principall contents thereof in Latten, and bring notes in Latten, collected out of the same.

Item, The ordinary of the place shall likewise appoint unto them, every quarter of a yere, a common place of divinity, to be written upon in Latten by them, and to be travelled in so, as they be able to answer to the principal points thereof in Latten.

Item, Such as are not able to do these exercises in Latten, shall for the time performe them in Englishe, yet so as if in convenient time to be assigned unto them by the discretion of the ordinarie (having regard to their age and capacities) they do not perform them in Latten, or at least have good testimonie of their diligence in studie, they shall be proceeded against by ecclesiastical censures for their notorious negligence.

The ordinary shall examine himself, or by some learned preacher call them to accompte for their exercises every quarter, and shall examine them also att their synods and visitations, how they have profited, and such as shall be notoriously negligent, or wilfullie disobedient, shall be punished by the ordinary of the place, as the quality of his offence shall require.

Articles to be enquired upon in the visitation of the diocesse of Chichester, sede vacante, by the authority of the most reverend father in God John, archbishop of Cant. primate of all England, and metropolitan, as followeth. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 116. b.

I. WHETHER your minister have used any other form or manner of publick prayers, administration of sacramentes, or any other rites, ceremonies, or orders, than are prescribed by the book of common prayer; or hath he altered them, or any of them, how, and in what manner?

II. Whether doth he, or any other, take upon them to reade lectures, or preach, being mere lay persons, or not ordered, according to the lawes of this realme, or not lawfully licensed; doth he or any other preachers, remayning in your parishes, at some times every yere, personallie, say the publick service and administer the holy communion himself, according to the saïd book of common prayer or noe; doth he, or any other, keepe any exercise of expoundinge, or reade any lecture in private howses, whereunto other, besides those of that familye, do resort?

III. Whether upon Sabbath days, and holie dayes, doth your minister call for, and instructe the youth of his parish in the catechisme, and principles of christian religion; and whether likewise, once every Sabbath day, put the church wardens in mynde of ther duty, as well to note who absentes themselves from divine service, and upon the goodes and cattles of such to levye xii. d. a peece for every default, to the use of the poor, as such also who unreve-rentlie there behave themselves; and whether do the churchwardens perform that duty accordinglie?

IV. Whether hath your minister used the form of thanksgiving after childebirth, for any woman unlawfullie begotten with child, otherwise then upon a sabbath day, or holy day, in time of publick prayer; and also with publick acknowledgment of her sinne, in such forme as the ordinarie has prescribed?

V. Whether doth your minister in publick prayer time wear a surpleesse, and go abroad apparelled, as by her majesties injunctions and advertisements prescribed; doth he privately exercise himself in godly prayer, and study, and with other convenient exercise for his vocation; doth he keepe any suspected woman in his house, resort to any infamous houses, use any light disposed company; is he a swearer, gamester, common hunter or hawker, unseemly in apparel, or giveth any just occasion of offence, or evil example of life; is he probable suspected to have attained any spiritual living through any symoniacal compact, made by himself, or any other for him, eyther directly or indirectly; is he a common resorter to tavern or alehowses, or doth suffer any wine, ale, beere, or victual to be sold in his parsonage, or vicaridge house or no?

VI. Whether hath your minister, or any other whatsoever whatsoever, spoken against any parte of the booke of common prayer, or against any of the articles agreed upon by the clergy of both the provinces anno M.D.LXII. in a synod holden at London; or defended any popery, or other erroneous, seditious, or schismatical opinions?

VII. Whether are any in your parish suspected to reserve any monument of superstition or idolatrye, to resort to any masse, or other service disallowed, or to any popishe prieste for shrifte or any in your parish suspected to receive into their houses, or companie, any jesuites, preists, seminary men, or other like fugitives disguised, or suspected persons, or to be reconciled to the church of Rome; are ther any which do not, according to the law, both resorte to divine service publickly in the church, and also communicate the holy sacrament as is required?

VIII. Whether doth any in your parish teach children publickly, or in any man's house privately; is such licensed by the ordinary; is he known to resort to publick service, and to be of sound religion; doth he teach the catechism to his schollars, which was set out for that purpose; and doth he train up his schollars in knowlege of true religion now established, and in obedience to the prince or no?

IX. Whether are your hospitals and almshouses used according to the foundation and ordinance of the same, and such only placed in them as be most impotent and nedye; and whether legacies, and other sommes of money, given and set forth for such other good and godly uses, be employed according to the intent of the givers?

X. Whether have anie married within the forbidden degrees, consan uinitie or affinitie; any separated in that respect, do keep company still together; any lawfully married, which offensively live asunder, or which have married else where; any man which has two wives, or woman two husbandes; are ther in your parish any incestuous, adulterous, or incontinent persons; any common drunkards, rybaldes, swearers, slanderers, uncharitable, forcerers, charm-ers, usurers, or vehemently suspected of these or any of them?

XI. Whether any in your parish have departed this life, whose wills are not proved; doth any administer or intermedle with the deades goods, without authoritie from the ordinarie for the time being; hath any wills been proved, or administrations granted since the 27. of February last; what be their names and surnames, which offend against this or any other the aforesaid articles?

XII. Whether hath anie ordinary, register, clerke, or apparitor concealed, or winked at any offender, presented, or commuted any publick satisfaction, or punishment for money, without most urgent cause, and publick testification in the church of the offenders repentance; or in such case hath not wholie imployed the same to godly uses; and whether hath any of them enacted excessive or unaccustomed fees in anie ecclesiastical matter whatsoever?

XIII. Whether is your minister a preacher; hath he any other living ecclesiastical; where doth he remayne, and abyde, for the most part; what is his living yerely worth by common estimation; and of whose patronage in fee is such living; of what age and degree of scholes is he, as you have heard or do conjecture?

XIV. Whether hath in your parish, being such as refuse to come to divine service, any children; of what age, where and with whom do they remain; have such, or any other, any children, kinsfolkes, or freinds beyond the seas; did they depart with license; how long agoe; and in what partes on the other syde of the sea do they remain, as you know, have heard or do conjecture; and what releife have they from any in your parish, or from any other within her majestys dominions?

XV. Generallie you shall, by the othe you have taken, make diligent inquisition and trewly present in writing not only the names and surnames of all, who have offended, are suspected, or are touched in anie of these articles, but also who have offended, or are suspected to have offended against any parte of the queens injunctions, or any ecclesiastical lawe of this realme.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 2.

Anno Christi
1585.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 27.

Synodus provincialis Eboracensis.

SYNODUS provincialis Ebor. a 19. die mensis Aprilis, et ab illo die ad diem Martis prox. Martii anni praecedentis ad 7. diem mensis ante festum Pentecostes continuabatur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 3.

Anno Christi
1586.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 28.

The archbishop's letter for prayers for the queen. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 126. b.

SALUTEM in Domino. Whereas I have caused to be set forth in printe a book, conteyninge an order of prayer and thanksgiving for the preservation of her majestye, and this realme, from the trayterouse and bluddy practices of the pope and his adherents, to be used at times appointed in the preface of the said booke, the true transumpt whereof I send unto your lordship herewith in printe; these are to pray and require your lordship, that with convenient speed, you do not only publish, and cause to be put in execution the said booke of prayer prayer, according to the tenor thereof, throughout your own diocese; but also that you will send severall copies and transumptes thereof, together with copies of these my letters to all the rest of my brethren, the bishops of my province, willinge and requiring them, and every of them, to do the like in their severall dioceses and jurisdictions. And so I commend your lordship to the grace of God. From my house at Croydon the 24th of August, M.D.LXXXVI.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 3.

Anno Christi
1586.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 28.

A letter from the archbishop of Cant. to the bishop of Lincoln, concerning the admittance of unmeet persons into the ministry. Ex libro instrument. episc. Lincoln. fol. 73.

"SALUTEM in Christo." It hath pleased her majesty of late to signifie unto me, that she is informed little or no redresse at all to be concerning the admittance of unmeet men into the ministry, and suffering such as are dissolute in life to remain therein; giving unto me very straight charge to loke diligently unto it. And although I hope the information is not true, but rather devised by some that can be contente to take occasion to seek the disgrace of the present estate of the clergy, and that for the time I satisfied her highness; yet for a more satisfaction therein, and for the better discharge of my duty I do earnestly pray your lordship, with as much speed as you can, not only to certifie me of all those that you have admitted into any degree of the ministry, since the last convocation, together with their degrees and qualities; but also in like manner such as you have admitted to any benefice, or to serve any cure within your diocese, since the last time. And further to send unto me the names, degrees, learning, and qualities of all the ministers within your diocese, according to the canon of the articles agreed upon in the last convocation, entituled, "De inquisitione per episcopos ineunda;" desiring your lordship to loke diligently to the observing of all the said articles, which as yet you have not done, because I am not certified in many points according to the same. And assure yourself there are diligent inquisitors for those matters, who will not be silent, when occasion shall serve. Her majesty is very earnest to have them performed; and I would be lothe, for my credits sake, that any defect should be found, when the matter shall come to further examination. I have sent your lordship herein enclosed a note of such counterfaite ministers, as I have learned to be abroad. I pray you have a special regard unto them, and if any of them happen to be within your diocese, send them uppe to me, that I may take order with them accordingly. And so with my hearty commendation I commit your lordship to the tuition of almighty God. From Croydon the 6th of September, M.D.LXXXVI.

Your loving brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

The archbishop of Canterbury's license to bring in popish books. Strype's life of Whitgift p. 269.

WHEREAS sundry books are from time to time set forth in the parts beyond seas by such as are addicted to the errors of popery; yet in many respects expedient to be had by some of the learned of this realm; containing also oftentimes matter in them against the state of this land, and slanderous unto it, and therefore no fit books to pass through every man's hand freely: in consideration whereof, I have tolerated Ascanius de Renialme, merchant bookseller, to bring into this realm from the parts beyond seas some few copies of every such sorts of books, upon this condition only, that any of them be not shewed nor dispersed abroad, but first brought to me, or some other of her majesty's privy council, that so they may be delivered or directed to be delivered forth unto such persons only, as by us or some of us shall be thought most meet men, upon good considerations, and purposes to have the reading and perusal of them. Given at Lambeth the . . . day of October M.D.LXXXVI. anno reg. Elizab. XXVIII.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 4.

Anno Christi
1586.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 29.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. per breve regium ad 16. diem Octobris in ecclesia sancti Pauli London. summonita, prorogabatur per aliud breve regium ad 28. Octobris, et deinde per aliud breve ad secundum diem Novembris sequentis, et deinde de die in diem usque ad 24. mensis Martii sequentis, quo synodus haec virtute brevis regii dissolvebatur. Ex reg Whitgift fol. 131. a. et MS. Miles Smith.

UT paulo distinctius tamen hujus synodi acta prosequamur ex MS. Smithiano (de quo supra mentio fit) sequentia delibavimus.

Prima sessionis die (Octob. 16.) virtute brevis regii archiepiscopo directi, et commissionis archiepiscopalis, quinque episcopis, vicario generali, et doctori Dunne traditae, synodus continuabatur ad 28. Octob. quo die Secunda sessio per aliud breve et virtute commissionis prorogabatur ad 2. diem Novembris.

Tertia sessio hoc die primordia sumpsit cum sacris in ecclesia S. P. London. peractis; deinde in domo capitulari certificatoria episcopi London. et archidiaconi Cant. de executione mandati archiepiscopi, et schedulae de contumaciis perlegebantur.

Quarta sessio (Nov. 4.) in ecclesia B. Petri Westm. fuit; ubi post protestationem decani Westmonasteriensis de privilegiis ecclesiae suae, archiepiscopique responsum, Guil. Redman, archidiaconus Cant. prolocutor electus confirmatus est, et commissio archiepiscopalis suo nomine huic convocationi praesidendi tradita quinque episcopis, et Redmanno prolocutori, dom. Awbrey, vicario gen. D. Goad, decano Westm. et doct. Dunne.

In quinta sessione (Nov. 9.) in sexta (Nov. 11.) et in septima (Nov. 16.) nihil actum fuit memoratu dignum.

In octava sessione (Nov. 18.) de examinatione ordinationis vel institutionis personarum indignarum ab episcopo factae, et de reformatione violationis canonum tractabatur.

In nona sessione (Nov. 23.) in decima (Nov. 25.) in undecima (Nov. 28.) in duodecima (Dec. 2.) nihil actum fuit.

In tertia decima sessione (Dec. 2.) statutae progressu in studiis ab inferiori clero faciendae ab archiepiscopo (quae statim hic sequuntur) et duae schedulae ab inferiore domo exhibebantur, continentes querelas ex dioecesi Norwicensi et archidiaconatu Suffolciensi transmissas, quas infra addimus.

Synodus haec per prorogationem apud ecclesiam S. Pauli London. habita fuit 17. die Februarii, in cujus prima sessione absentes suspenduntur, et subsidium benevolentiae proponitur, quod tamen ulterius tractabatur in tertia sessione (Mart. 3.) et in quarta (Mart. 4.) demum perficiebatur sc. concedendo tres solidos pro libra. In secunda sessione (Mart. 1.) et in quinta (Mart. 6.) et in sexta (Mart. 8.) nihil praeter prorogationes actum fuisse dicunt MSS. In septima sessione (Mart. 10.) gratiae a dom. regina pro benevolentia synodo aguntur per archiepiscopum, qui archidiaconorum diligentiam excitabat contra clericos malae famae, et contra concionatores de rebus politicis publice sermocinantes. In octava sessione (Mart. 11.) et in nona (Mart. 15.) per commissionem synodus continuabatur. In decima (Mart. 18.) benevolentia in scriptis redacta synodo praesentabatur cum nominibus collectorum ejus: deinde domus inferior episcoporum vigilantiam circa ordinationes implorabat, ne officarii illorum nimis excessiva praemia pro instrumentorum scriptione poscerent, ac ut omnes clerici in beneficio ecclesiastico instituti, ad inductionem obtinendam properarent sub poena sequestrationis fructuum. In undecima (Mart. 17.) et in duodecima (Mart. 22.) nihil praeter continuationes. In decima tertia (Mart. 24.) continuatio fit usque ad post meridiem; quando in decima quarta synodi sessione breve regium de dissolvenda synodo ab archiepiscopo introducitur, et schedula suspensionis omnium non comparentium, et absque venia discedentium, horis matutinis exhibita revocatur, et episcopus Aflavensis cum aliis absolvitur; ac synodus dissoluta esse pronuntiatur.

VOL. IV.

In hac synodo (2. die Decembris) ab archiepiscopo Cantuariensi introducebantur Orders for the better increase of learning in the inferior ministers, and for more diligent preaching and catechising.

I. Every minister having cure, and being under the degrees of master of arts, and bachelors of law, and not licensed to be a public preacher, shall before the second day of February next provide a Bible, and Bullinger's Decads in Latin or English, and a paper book, and shall every day read over one chapter of the holy scriptures, and note the principal contents thereof briefly in his paper booke, and shall every weeke read over one sermon in the said Decads, and note likewise the chief matters therein contained in the said paper; and shall once in every quarter (viz. within a fortnight before or after the end of the quarter) shewe his said note to some preacher nere adjoyninge to be assigned for that purpose.

II. Item, The bishop, archdeacons, or other ordinary, being a publick preacher, shall appoint certaine grave and learned preachers, who shall privately examine the diligence, and view the notes of the said ministers, assigninge fixe or seaven ministers, as occasion shall require, to every such preacher, that shall be next adjoyninge to him, so as the ministers be not driven to travall for the exhibitinge of their notes above fixe or seaven miles (if it may be) and the said preacher shall, by lettres or otherwise, trulie certifie to the archdeacons, or other ordinarye of the place, themselves being publick preachers, and resiant within, or nere to their jurisdiction, and for want thereof, to the busshop himself, who do performe the said exercises, and how they have profited therein, and who do refuse or neglecte to perform the same; the archdeacons, and others receiving the said certificates, shall signifye the same, once in the yere, to the busshope, and that about Michalmas.

N n n n

may

III. Item, Such as shall refuse to perform the exercises, or shall be negligent therein, and shall not after admonition by the bishop, archdeacon, or other ordinary aforesaid, reform himself, if he be beneficed, shall be compelled thereunto by ecclesiasticall censures; if he be a curate, shall be inhibited to serve within the jurisdiction.

IV. Item, The busshopes, archdeacons, etc. shall carefully looke that the ministers serving cures do, according to her majesty's injunctions, instruct the youth in the catechisme with additions, set forth by publick authority, and such of the ministers, as by examination and tryall, shall be found of reasonable abilitie, may by the archdeacons and ordinaries, being publick preachers, as aforesaid, be permitted to expound, standing in their stalls, the pointes of the said catechisme onlie with the additions, to their parishioners, untill they shall be founde meete to be by the bishop tolerated, or authentically licensed to preache.

V. Item, Such masters of arts, and batchelors of lawe, as have any cure, and are not licensed to preach, if within six monthes after admonition to them by the bishop, archdeacon, or other the said ordinaries (whose consciences are herein to be burdned) they shall not be lawfully licensed to preach by the archbishop, or by the busshop of the diocesse, or by one of the universities, shall be tyed to the said exercises, untill they be found meete and licensed to be preachers.

VI. Item, Every licensed preacher shall yere-ly in propria persona preach twelve sermons at the least, within every diocess where his benefitt doth lie, of the which twelve, eight at the least shall be in his own cure; but if the said licensed preacher have two benefices, then he shall preach eight sermons at each of his benefices every year at the least, and shall yere-ly make particular and true certificate thereof to the busshop of every said diocesse, betwene Easter and Midfomer, upon pain to have their licenses revoked, or otherwise to be proceeded against for their negligence.

VII. Item, The busshope, archdeacon, or other ordinary, with the advise and consent of the busshope, shall appoint fixe or seaven publick preachers to preach by course every Sunday, in the parishes, within a convenient limite nere adjoyninge to their habitations, where there is no licensed preacher; so that there may be in every such parish one sermon at the least every quarter, and the parties charged with the cures of the said parish shall bear the charge of the dinner and horsemeate of the said preacher, and procure some minister, near adjoyning to his benefice, to serve the cure that day in his absence, unless he have a curate of his own there.

VIII. Item, It is concluded that the exercises above written, and no other, shall be henceforth publick, or privately used within anie part of this province."

Postea in hac convocatione eodem die nonnulla de electione procuratoris cleri Suffolciensis (an ex archidiaconatu Suffolc. an Sudburiensi eligi debeat) et de concessione subsidii tractata sunt. Accipe quae Strypius hac de re meminit in vita archiepiscopi Whitgift p. 260. quae et Miles Smith l. c. collegit. "Besides the orders for the increase of learning in the ministers brought into the convocation, there were two schedules brought from the lower house; First, a complaint of disorder in Norwich diocese, viz. I. That there was no observation of the canons. II. That unworthy persons were ordained and instituted. III. Penances were commuted by ecclesiastical judges. IV. Chancellors and commissaries caught at causes, who should get most. V. Excommunication denounced for trifles. VI. No care was had of the poor, and orderly painfull preachers were discharged, the disorderly promoted and made reformers. VII. Exaction of fees. VIII. Preaching without licence. Whereupon it was desired, that none might preach by licence, unless he conformed to the book of common prayer, and used it in all his administrations. And IX. A restraint of prohibitions was prayed, and a regulation of fees. The other schedule was intitled, "Suffolk archdeaconry particularly." I. The communion not at all, or but in part used and observed. II. The wearing of the surplice refused. III. Holy days not observed. IV. The communion was received by many sitting, and those that conformed to the church called "Time servers." V. Stipendiary preachers and curats mutinous and disorderly. VI. Questmen were faulty in not presenting non-comparents, contumacious, and suspended persons.

In this convocation a grant of benevolence was agreed on by the archbishop and the other bishops and clergy of the province of Canterbury March 4. and the clergy of the other province now sitting in convocation at York, granted the same subsidy and benevolence on the 9. of March.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 4.

Anno Christi
1586.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 29.

Concilium provinciale Eboracense.

CONCILIUM hoc post varias prorogationes continuatum, per breve regium dat. apud Westm. 15. die Septembris dissolvebatur. Per aliud autem anno regni reginae xxviii. ad diem 16. mensis Octobris in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. convocabatur. Eo die ad 2. mensis Novembris, et sic de die in diem usque ad 9. Martii continuata, sub fidiumet benevolentiam dominae reginae concessit. In cujus concessio- nis praefamine, praelati et clerus habito inter eos tractatu in hac parte requisito, prout hujus negotii gravitas exigebat, officium suum erga serenissimam principem et dominam nostram Elizabetham, etc. ponderantes, ac ampla et multifaria beneficia in omnes hujus regni An- gliae subditos generaliter et ipsos specialiter in- dies et cumulate non modo per gratiosissimum et piissimum suum regimen et imperium, quo pacifice gubernantur, divinoque obsequio inser- viendo et munere suo obeundo et exequendo magis habiles et idonei redduntur; verum e- tiam, idque praecipue, per sacrosancti verbi e- ditionem, sinceramque et verae religionis in hoc regno professionem et stabiliationem, omnimo- daeque forinsecae potestatis eisdem contrariae abolitionem collata considerantes; pensantes e- tiam graves impensas, quas regia majestas tam in provisione necessaria omne genus armorum et munitionum pro dominiis tam per mare, quam per terram fortificandis, hostilibusque invasio- nibus resistendis, quam in praeventione necessa- ria gravissimorum facinorum, non modo ad pa- cem disturbendam, sed ad ipsam nostram rem- publicam felicissimam evertendam et destru- endam, notorie tendentium, ruinam et calami- tatem diversarum regionum associatarum, a no- bis procul non jacentium inferendam, extirpa- tionemque verae et sinceram professionis christi- anae, plane minantium, nuper sustinuit: pen- santes denique malitiam eorum, qui veritati di- vinae se opposcentes, in sacram dictae serenissi- mae principis personam (quam Deus opt. max. nobis ad sui gloriam, et evangelii sui propaga- tionem diu conservet incolumem) ac in feli- cem hujus regni statum nefarie conjurarunt; quae indies crescit et pullulat, prout per non pauca papistarum stratagemata diabolice adin- venta, nuper divino beneficio nudata, luce cla- rius patet, unde periculosissimi, et non sine multi sanguinis effusione, eventus verisimiliter orirentur, si non divino beneficio, summaque dictae sacrae principis, insignis christianae rei- publicae propugnaculi, providentia praevenia- tur, id quod sine maximis majestatis suae sum- ptibus fieri nullo modo potest; pro declaratio- ne, ac in signum, et pignus suae erga sublimi- tatem ipsius dominae reginae, voluntatis, fide- litatis, et officii, unanimi assensu et consensu suis, quoddam ultroneum subsidium sex solidorum de libra omnium dignitatum, beneficiorum, et promotionum spiritualium, et ecclesiastica-rum provinciae Ebor. eidem dominae reginae, haeredibus et successoribus suis, sub modo et forma, prout in scriptis penes acta remanenti- bus, ac sub conditionibus et provisionibus in iis- dem specificatis plenius liquet et apparet; sed etiam quandam benevolentiam (quam vocant) de omnibus beneficiis praedictis, viz. iii. s. de li- bra personae dictae serenissimae principis tantum concesserunt in scriptis, ut in schedula penes acta hujus sanctae synodi etiam remanente, ple- nius et planius continetur; quas quidem sepa- rales concessiones dicti praelati et clerus, ut praefertur, congregati, per mantum suarum subscriptionem regiae majestati tunc et ibidem commendarunt.—Et tunc praelati et clerus de sumptibus procuratoribus et eorum substitutis, ac aliis officiariis et ministris in hac synodo ser- vientibus, suppeditandis decretum sequens ini- verunt. And in respect of the pains and atten- dance of the proctors and their substitutes ap- pearing in this present convocation, and other officers, and ministers serving in the same, it is now ordered and decreed by the said prelates and clergy, with one assent, that every prelate and others of the clergy within the said pro- vince having any benefice or promotion spiritu- al or ecclesiastical, and appearing by proctor in the same convocation, shall well and truly an- swer, satisfie, and pay to his said proctor now present in this convocation, and to the register and apparitor of the same convocation, for e- very pound that he or they may yearly dispend by reason of their benefices and promotions within the said province (all vicars excepted) two pence, and every vicar, whose benefice is of ten pounds or above, one penny and no more; one moiety thereof to be paid to every of the said proctors now present for such as he appear- eth for, and the other moiety to be paid and divided equally betwixt the said register and Thomas Southworth, the apparitor, in respect of their said pains and attendance, upon the sight of a copy of this synodical decree, under the hand of the actuary of the same synod or convocation. And if any man chargeable to and with the said salary, or any part thereof, shall not, upon sight of the said copy, well and truly satisfie, and pay his part of the said salary, according to the true meaning of this constitution, to such person or persons as shall make shew of the same copy so subscribed, it is then, and in that case by the authority of the convocation provided and decreed, that it shall be lawful for the chancellor of the archbishop of York for the time being, to call before him every person so making default of payment, and him by the censures of the church there- unto to compel as appertaineth. And for the true and certain value of all the same promoti- ons and benefices and every of them, whereof the payment of this salary shall be made, the rate, rate, taxation, and valuation now remaining of record in her majesty's court of Exchequer, for the payment of first fruits and tenths to her majesty shall only be followed and observed. Provided that none of the beneficed men, appearing personally this day in this convocation, shall be chargeable to the said salary for their promotions and benefices.

Tenor vero dicti benevoli subsidii seu benevolentiae (ut prius) concessi sequitur, et est talis:

Most excellent and most gracious sovereign lady. We your prelates and clergy of the province of York, when gathered together in a convocation or synod, calling to our minds and considering with all thankful remembrance the manifold and great benefits that every member of this realm generally hath, and do daily receive, by the blessing of almighty God, under your majesty's most happy and peaceable government; and we ourselves specially, by your gracious and princely care over us, whereby we do not only enjoy our lives and livings in happy peace, but also the free exercise of our ministry and function, the true preaching of God, and the sincere administration of his holy sacraments (to us far more dear than our lives and livings) and further, seeing the infinite occasions that (through the execrable malice of the enemies of the gospel of Christ) do daily arise, whereby your highness is driven to many extraordinary and inestimable expences for the necessary defence of the gospel, and your highness's dominions; in token of our dutiful and thankful hearts to your majesty's most royal person, have with one mind and hearty good will (over and above our subsidy of six shillings in the pound already granted to your highness, your heirs and successors in this our convocation or synod) yielded to, and given, and by these presents do give and grant to your highness's person only, a benevolence or contribution of three shillings of every full pound of the clear yearly value of all ecclesiastical and spiritual promotions within the said province of York, and of the lands, benefices, appropriations, and other possessions and revenues to the same belonging, or now remaining unseparated from the same, and in the possession of the clergy, to their only use, according to the taxation and valuation mentioned in our said grants of the said subsidy (the tenths thereof being deducted) and not otherwise; if it shall please your highness to like and assent thereunto (all vicarages under the value of ten pounds after the rate of the said taxation, and all lands, revenues, possessions, benefices, and appropriations, belonging to either of the universities of Cambridge and Oxford, or to any college, hall, or house of students in the same or either of them, or to the collegiate church of Westminster, the free chapel or college of Windsor, the college of Eaton by Windsor, the college of Winchester founded by bishop Wickham, or to any almshouse, hospital, or grammar school, or assigned, appointed, or used to the maintenance of any preacher, or reader of divinity, poor men, schoolmasters, ushers, grammarians, petty canons, conducts, vicars-choral, singing men, choristers, virgers, or any other necessary inferior officers in any cathedral, or collegiate church, or college within the said province, or towards the re-edifying, or repairing of any of the same cathedral or collegiate churches, or colleges only excepted) the said contribution or benevolence of iii s. in the pound, as is aforesaid, to be paid to such person or persons, as your majesty shall appoint for the receipt thereof, to your highness's only use, at three several payments, without any deduction saving of four pence of every pound for the collection, and portage, and without any manner of charge to the accomptant, saving three shillings four pence for the general acquittance for every of the said three payments; the first payment thereof to be due the first day of May next, and the second payment to be due the first day of May, which shall be, in the year of our Lord God M.D.LXXXVIII. and the third payment to be due the first day of May in the year of our Lord God M.D.LXXXIX. And we your prelates and clergy most humbly beseech your majesty to take in good part our loving minds and good wills, and not only to accept of this small gift of ours (tho' it be nothing answerable to our desires) but also by your majesty's letters patents under your great seal to assent thereunto, and to licence, and authorize us in this our convocation and synod, to devise, make, and ordain such orders, decrees, or constitutions provincial, and synodal, as we shall think most expedient for the more speedy and sure levying and payment of the said benevolence or contribution, and thereby also to give and testify your majesty's royal assent to such orders, decrees, and constitutions, as in this our synod and convocation we shall make, decree, or ordain for the speedy and sure levying, and payment thereof to such person and persons as your majesty shall appoint for the receipt thereof, as is aforesaid. In cujus rei testimonium nos Edwinus, providentia divina Ebor. archiepiscopus, Angliae primas et metropolitanus, ad petitionem confratrum meorum, et totius cleri nostrae Ebor. provinciae, sigillum nostrum archiepiscopale praesentibus apposuimus. Dat. Ebor. in domo nostra capitulari nono die mensis Martii, anno Domini juxta computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae M.D.LXXXVI. et nostrae translationis ad archiepiscopatum Ebor. anno undecimo.

Litterae patentes dominae reginae.

Regina, etc. omnibus, etc. salutem. Cum praelati et clerus Ebor. provinciae, nostra auctoritate in synodo sua seu convocatione congregati, ex intima et propensa animorum suorum affectione, quam erga nos gerunt (ultra et praeter subsidium sex solidorum singularum librarum annuarum) quandam benevolam contributionem trium solidorum pro singulis libris annuis omnium et singulorum beneficiorum suorum ecclesiasticorum clesiasticorum et promotionum spiritualium quarumcunque, ac omnium possessionum ac reventionum eisdem annexarum, seu quovismodo spectantium, et pertinentium, dederint et concesserint, prout per quoddam scriptum seu instrumentum publicum sigillo praedilecti et fidelis subditi nostri Edwini, Ebor. archiepiscopi, munitum, et nobis exhibitum, gerens datum 9. die Martii, anno Domini juxta computationem ecclesiae Anglicanae M.D.LXXXVI. plenius liquet et apparet; sciatis igitur, quod nos, ad humilem petitionem praelatorum nostrorum et cleri antedict. praefatae benevolae contributionis concessionem acceptamus, approbamus, et eandem confirmamus, ratificamus, et stabilimus, ac eidem omnibusque et singulis clausulis, sententiis, provisionibus, et exceptionibus in dicto instrumento contentis, et specificatis, regium nostrum assensum ex certa scientia et mero motu nostris praebemus per praesentes: ac insuper sciatis, quod ex gratia nostra speciali ac certa scientia et mero motu nostris licentiam, facultatem et auctoritatem praelatis nostris et clero praedict. in hac praesenti synodo congregatis decernendi, ordinandi, et constituendi quaecunque decreta, ordinationes, et constitutiones synodalia, ac eadem sic per ipsos decreta, ordinata, et constituta, executioni mandandi et cum effectu exequendi, quae sibi commoda et opportuna videbuntur pro meliori, vera, et justa collectione et solutione dictae benevolae contributionis, et cujuslibet inde parcellae, dedimus, concessimus, et confirmavimus, ac etiam damus, concedimus, et confirmamus per praesentes. In cujus rei etc.

Quibus literis regiis patentibus die Jovis 23. mensis Martii publice in synodo praelatorum et cleri provinciae Ebor. lectis; dicti praelati et clerus auctoritate et vigore dictarum literarum regiarum patentium in ea parte rite et legitime procedentes, ordinationes et statuta synodalia pro fideli collectione, levatione, receptione, et solutione praefati extraordinarii subsidii trium solidorum in qualibet libra beneficiorum et promotionum suorum ecclesiasticorum infra hujusmodi Eboracensem provinciam constituti, nomine benevolae contributionis serenissimae dominae nostrae reginae Elizabethae, etc. per eosdem praelatos et clerum in dicta synodo congregatos, nono die mensis Martii concess. fecerunt, ordinaverunt, et constituerunt, et pro valore, validitate, robore, et effectu earundem auctoritate, qua supra decreverunt et pronunciarunt. Quarum quidem constitutionum five ordinationum veri tenores sequuntur, et sunt tales.

Ordinationes aliquot synodales factae 23. die mensis Martii, A. D. juxta ecclesiae Anglicanae computationem M.D.LXXXVI. per reverendissimum in Christo patrem et dominum, dominum Edwinum, providentia divina Eborum archiepiscopum, Angliae primatem et metropolitanum, aliosque praelatos Ebor. provinciae, et reliquum inferiorem clerum in sacra synodo in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedralis et metropolitanae beati Petri Ebor. pro collectione et solutione cujusdam extraordinarii subsidii trium solidorum in qualibet libra, nomine benevolae contributionis serenissimae dominae nostrae reginae Elizabethae, etc. per eosdem archiepiscopum, praelatos, et clerum in dicta synodo congregatos, nono die dicti mensis Martii concessi.

Cum nos Edwinus, divina providentia Ebor. archiepiscopus, Angliae primas et metropolitanus, episcopi, praelati, ac clerus Eborum provinciae in sacra synodo provinciali, five praelatorum et cleri ejusdem Ebor. provinciae convocatione in domo capitulari ecclesiae cathedralis et metropolitanae beati Petri Ebor. praedict. 16. die mensis Octobris, A. D. M.D.LXXXVI. jam currente, inchoata ac celebrata, ac de tempore in tempus ex causis urgentibus et de diebus in dies continuata, congregati, post multa ibidem tractata die Jovis, 9. viz. die mensis praesentis Martii, M.D.LXXXVI. quandam benevolam contributionem trium solidorum pro qualibet libra illustrissimae et potentissimae principi Elizabethae, etc. (praeter et ultra subsidium sex solidorum in qualibet libra) concesserimus ex beneficiis et promotionibus nostris ecclesiasticis, sumptibus et expensis omnium nostrum colligend. et levand. infra proximum triennium persolvend. singulis viz. annis, durante illo termino, modo, forma, diebus, ac sub cautionibus et conditionibus in quodam instrumento publico inde confecto, et sigillo nostri Ebor. archiepiscopatus munito, dat. dicto nono die hujus mensis Martii, plenius liquet; cumque eadem serenissima domina nostra regina per literas suas patentes sub magno sigillo suo Angliae assensum suum regium eidem concessionem adhibuerit, et in eisdem suis literis patentibus huic sacrae synodo potestatem et au-

VOL. IV.

toritatem canones et ordinationes synodales pro collectione et levatione dictae contributionis faciendi, promulgandi, et exequendi concesserit, ut per dictas suae majestatis patentes literas plenius apparet: ut igitur hujusmodi nostra concessio faciliorem et magis expeditum consequi possit effectum, utque omnes et singulae pecuniarum summae per nos singulis dicti triennii annis concessae, certius et commodius colligantur, ac terminis et locis suis ad usum dictae dominae nostrae reginae persolvantur;

I. Statuimus, ordinamus, et volumus, quod dicta contributio ab omnibus et singulis personis ecclesiasticis Eboracensis provinciae, quae vigore dictae concessionis contribuere tenentur, per collectores idoneos ad hoc per suos dioecesanos seu (sede vacante) per decanum et capitulum deputandos, modo et forma subsequenter levetur et colligatur.

II. Item, auctoritate praesentis convocationis five synodi ordinamus et statuimus, quod ante ultimum diem mensis Aprilis cujuslibet anni, qui in dictum triennium incidet, reverendissimus pater Eboracensis archiepiscopus, omnesque et singuli dictae provinciae Ebor. episcopi dioecisani et (sede episcopali vacante) decanus et capitulum collectores idoneos in omnibus locis exemptis et non exemptis, in singulis suis respective dioecesibus, ad dictam contributionem et quamlibet ejus partem modo, forma, et terminis

O o o o

nis

nis infra expressis debite levandam et colligendam, juxta eorum arbitria et sanas discretionem, per literas suas patentes sigillis suis episcopalibus seu capitularibus respective munitas constituent, ordinabunt, et deputabunt, ac ipsos sic deputatos et eorum quemlibet (si fuerint ecclesiastici) ad hujusmodi collectionis officium suscipiendum per censuras ecclesiasticas, viz. per censuras interdicti aut excommunicationis sententias, ac per sequestrationem fructuum et proventuum beneficiorum, aut dignitatum, ac alia juris remedia, si hujusmodi onus subire recusaverint, coerceant, et compellant. De quorum quidem collectorum nominibus singuli episcopi supradicti et decani et capitulum reverendissimum patrem Ebor. archiepiscopum ante ultimum diem mensis Maii prox. sequen. debite et distincte in scriptis certificare teneantur.

III. Item, Quod collectores hujusmodi quolibet dicti triennii anno sic constituti et deputati, constituendi vel deputandi, hujus sacri concilii auctoritate plenam habeant potestatem omnes et singulos infra suae collectionis praecinctum hujusmodi contributionis solutione onerandi, in loco idoneo convocandi, et eos re ipsa singulis dicti triennii annis convocare teneantur ante 20. diem cujuslibet mensis Maii, illosque et eorum singulos ita convocatos et coactos monend. ut pecuniarum summas per eos solvendas ante 26. diem Junii tunc sequentis in aliquo loco commodo per dictos collectores assignando, infra collectionis suae limites plene et integre solvant.

IV. Item volumus, concedimus, et ordinamus, quod quilibet collector (si ecclesiastica fuerit persona) ad hanc contributionem vel aliquam ejus partem colligend. deputatus aut deputandus, omnes et singulos huic contributioni obnoxios et personaliter vel in valvis ecclesiarum, seu locorum, pro quibus hanc contributionem solvere tenentur, sufficienter monitos, et comparere ad dies praefixos et assignatos negligentes, vel non solventes, seu solvere recusantes, aut ultra diem solutioni praefinitum differentes, per censuras ecclesiasticas suspensionis, excommunicationis, aut interdicti, vel per sequestrationem et venditionem fructuum plenam solutionem faciend. efficaciter compellend. et coercend. ac etiam eosdem plene et integre solventes seu satisfaciendos, a quibuscunque censuris, sententiis, et poenis in ipsos et eorum quemlibet in ea parte promulgatis et inflictis, absolvendi, ac quemcunque processum contra non comparentes aut non solventes per eos factum, revocandi et relaxandi, auctoritate praesentis convocationis sufficientem habeant potestatem.

V. Item volumus insuper et praesentis convocationis auctoritate decernimus, quod omnes et singuli collectores (ut praefertur) deputati et deputandi, omnes et singulas pecuniarum summas collectas et levatas, seu quas recipere potuerunt, et negligenter omiserunt ante 20. cujuslibet Augusti mensis dicti triennii diem suis respective episcopis (sedibus plenis) et decanis et capitulis (sedibus vacantibus) sine aliqua monitione in ea parte eisdem collectoribus fienda, sub poena (si fuerint ecclesiastici) suspensionis, excommunicationis, aut interdicti, ac per sequestrationem et venditionem fructuum suorum beneficiorum et dignitatum, et (si opus fuerit) per deprivationem per eosdem episcopos (sedibus plenis) vel per decanum et capitulum (sede vacante) infligenda, totaliter et integre solvant, seu solvi curabunt, ab eisdem episcopis, et decano, et capitulo respective ac quietantias idoneas pro summis hujusmodi solutis recipientes.

VI. Proviso semper, quod quilibet collector ante 20. diem mensis Julii quolibet anno praedictorum trium annorum, dioecesanum suum episcopum (sede plena) et decanum et capitulum (sede vacante) de nominibus ad dies praescriptos integre non solventium certius faciet, et per juramentum suum fidem praestabit, quod ab illis summas debitas levare et colligere non potuerit, neque possit, licet diligentiam suam in ea parte adhibuerit, ac contra non solventes modo et forma praescriptis processerit: in eo casu volumus, quod hujusmodi collector coram dicto suo ordinario (sede plena) vel decano et capitulo (sede vacante) ad fidem et juramentum suum praestandum in ea parte admittatur. Et si nec auxilio et auctoritate episcopi (sede plena) vel decani et capituli (sede vacante) nec diligentia sua per juris remedia suprascripta collector hujusmodi ante 20. diem mensis Augusti cujuslibet anni praedictorum trium annorum ab hujusmodi recusantibus vel differentibus summas debitas integre vel pro parte recuperare non possit; volumus et ordinamus, quod dictus collector vel totaliter vel pro ea portione, quam recipere non potuit, exoneretur, et liber dimittatur et acquietetur, et tunc episcopus (sede plena) vel decanus et capitulum (sede vacante) respective per juramentum collectoris ita certiorati ad reverendissimum patrem Ebor. archiepiscopum nomina omnium non solventium vel solvere differentium, sub sigillo suo autentico episcopali vel capitulari ante 20. diem mensis Septembris transmittet, sub poena sequestrationis vel deprivationis, arbitrio dicti reverendissimi patris cum consensu unius hujus provinciae episcopi per dictum reverendissimum patrem nominandi et accersendi, infligenda; et quod dictus episcopus ita nominatus, et per literas privatas manu dicti archiepiscopi subscriptas accitus comparere, et eidem archiepiscopo assistere, per omnia juris remedia per dictum archiepiscopum auctoritate hujus sacrae synodi compelli possit.

VII. Item volumus et statuimus, quod dictus reverendissimus pater omnes et singulos non solventes vel solvere differentes, dictis literis certificatoriis dicti episcopi (sede plena) vel decani et capituli (sede vacante) nominatos vigore hujus certificatorii (causa tamen et cognitione aliquali praehabita de veritate hujusmodi certificatorii) ab omnibus suis dignitatibus, praebendis, et beneficiis, pro quibus summas debitas non solverunt, privare et amovere per sententiam suam finalem et diffinitivam, omni appellatione remota, et pro amotis et privatis decernend. et declarand. auctoritate hujus sacri concilii provincialis plenam et sufficientem habeat potestatem et auctoritatem.

VIII. Item, auctoritate, qua supra, volumus, ordiordinamus, et statuimus, quod omnes provinciae Ebor. episcopi (sedibus plenīs) et decani et capituli (sedibus vacantibus) ante 10. diem Octobris singulis annis dictorum trium annorum omnes pecuniarum summas tam per episcopos ipsos respectu episcopatum, et per decanos et capitula intuitu ecclesiarum cathedralium (sedibus vacantibus) quam ab aliis quibuscunque hujus benevolae contributionis solutione oneratas, levatas, et collectas, cuicunque aut quibuscunque per serenissimam dominam reginam ad hoc assignando vel assignandis sub suspensionis, excommunicationis, interdicti, fructuum sequestrationis, et venditionis, vel (si opus fuerit) privationis poena per dictum reverendissimum archiepiscopum cum consilio et assensu duorum confratrum suorum hujus provinciae episcoporum, tam contra dictos episcopos, quam contra ecclesias cathedrales et singulas earundem personas hujus contributionis solutione oneratas, infligenda, integre solvent vel solvi curabunt; et dictum archiepiscopum de integra summa soluta, et de acquietantia quacunque a receptore regio vel receptoribus regiis sic assignando vel assignandis ante 25. diem ejusdem mensis Octobris auctentice una cum nominibus illorum omnium denuo, a quibus summas debitas colligere non potuerunt sub poenis praedictis certificabunt, seu certificari curabunt.

IX. Et quia res cum suo onere transire debet, ordinamus et statuimus, quod si contingat dignitatum et beneficiorum praedictorum possessorem quemcunque (dicta contributione aut aliqua ejus parte non soluta) ab hac luce migrare, resignare, recedere, aut privari, quod tunc et in eo casu non solum successores in dignitatibus vel beneficiis hujus contributionis solutione oneratis per supradicta omnia superius in hisce ordinationibus provisā remedia solvere et satisfacere compellantur; verum etiam quod executores et administratores eorundem sic decedentium (si opus fuerit) et ipsimet resignantes, cedentes, et deprivati, juxta ratam portionem fructuum, quae ad manus suas eo anno pervenerint, per omnia legitima juris remedia ad hujusmodi contributionem et quamlibet ejusdem portionem solvend. compelli possint.

X. Item volumus, statuimus, et ordinamus, pro efficaciori et expeditiori hujus contributionis collectione, quod episcopi dictae provinciae Ebor. (sede plena) et decanus et capitulum (sede vacante) dignitatum et beneficiorum illorum omnium, qui ab hac luce (eadem contributione aut aliqua ejus parte non soluta) mortem obierint, resignaverint, cesserint, vel amoti aut privati fuerint, quamdiu eorum beneficia vacaverint, per sequestrationem, et venditionem fructuum, et emolumentorum talium dignitatum, et beneficiorum ita vacantium, integram contributionem, vel quamcunque ejus portionem non solutam levare et colligere auctoritate hujus convocationis licite valeant et possint. Quorum tamen conscientias oneramus ut (satisfactione secuta) quamprimum sequestrationes ob hanc causam interpositas revocent, et cum effectu relaxent.

XI. Volumus etiam, et auctoritate hujus syn-odi decernimus et ordinamus, quod a censuris ecclesiasticis vel sententiis et decretis sequestrationum quibuscunque supra praemissis et per collectores et episcopos (sedibus plenīs) et decanum et capitulum (sede vacante) pronunciatis et promulgatis, nullus sit appellationi vel recusationi locus.

XII. Item volumus, ordinamus, et statuimus, quod nullus collector praesentis contributionis recipiet pro aliqua acquietantia facienda ultra duos denarios, nec pro censuris ullis aut sententiis suspensionis interdicti vel sequestrationis, et absolutione, et relaxatione earundem aut earum cujusvis ultra summam duorum solidorum; et quod quilibet collector infra praecinctum suae collectionis auctoritatem habeat compellendi apparitorem et apparitores ordinarios ejusdem praecinctus, ad monendos omnes et singulos hujus contributionis solutione oneratos ac onerandos, quoties occasio aut necessitas postulabunt.

XIII. Item hujus sacrae synodi auctoritate volumus et ordinamus, quod si in posterum aliquae dubiae ambiguitates, difficultates, aut querelae circa has ordinationes aut aliquem earundem articulum, vel circa modum aut formam collectionis hujus contributionis oriantur; tunc et in eo casu omnium hujusmodi dubiorum, ambiguitatum, difficultatum, et querelarum interpretationes et declarationes fiant per reverendissimum in Christo patrem archiepiscopum Ebor. et vestrum aliquem episcopum suffraganeum ejusdem: cujus quidem reverendissimi patris interpretationi et declarationi, ut praefertur, faciendae omnino stare et acquiescere auctoritate, qua supra, decernimus et declaramus.

Quibus quidem statutis, decretis, et ordinationibus publice perlectis, dictus magister Matthaeus Hutton, decanus et commissionarius antedictus, de consensu et assensu praefati magistri Willielmi Palmer, collegae sui praedicti, decrevit copias tam concessionis originalis hujusmodi benevolae contributionis et literarum regiarum patentium praedictarum, quam hujusmodi constitutionum et ordinationum reverendis patribus hujus provinciae episcopis, reverendissimi patris suffraganeis faciendas, et eisdem respective mittendas. Quod etiam fecerunt in hac forma verborum:

The letter sent to the three bishops.

Our duties unto your lordships remembred. In the convocation of the prelates and clergy of this province of York, holden here the ninth of this instant March (according to our bounden duties) with the advice and consent of your proctors and their substitutes, we have not only granted unto her majesty a subsidy of six shillings of every pound of our ecclesiastical promotions and livings in this province, payable in three years; the first payment to be due the second of October M.D.LXXXVIII. and so yearly for three years space; but also a contribution or benevolence, unto her highness's person only, of three shillings of every full pound of our said promotions and benefices, to be likewise paid in three years; the first payment to be due the first day of May next, and and so yearly for three years; unto the which grant of benevolence her majesty hath not only yielded her royal assent with acceptance and allowance thereof, but also hath licensed and authorized us in our synod or convocation to ordain, devise, or make decrees and orders for the true collection and payment of the same, which we have done the 23^d. of this instant March in our said provincial synod (as by our first grant, her majesty's letters patent and orders, and statutes aforesaid, the several true copies whereof your lordships shall herewith receive, more at large and plainly appeareth.) We pray your lordships to have such care to the just gathering and faithful discharging of these things, due within your dioceses, as is required and looked for at all our hands, and as to our duty towards so gracious a sovereign every way belongeth, to whom we are no ways able to yield what is due. Your lordships shall do well to appoint clergymen to be collectors, such as be known to be sufficient in knowledge and ability to undergo this charge, for so is used in the other province. So betaking your good lordships to the almighty, we cease your trouble. York the 23^d. of March M.D.LXXXVI.

Your lordships assured in the Lord.

Matth. Hutton.
Will^m. Palmer.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 4.

Anno Christi
1587.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 29.

A letter from the archbishop of Cant. to the bishop of Lincoln about Bibles in churches. E libro instrument. episc. Lincoln. fol. 65.

WHEREAS I am credibly informed that divers, as well parish churches, as chapels of ease, are not sufficiently furnished with Bibles, but some have either none at all, or such as be torn and defaced, and yet not of the translation authorized by the synods of bishops. These are therefore to require you strictly in your visitations, or otherwise, to see that all and every the said churches and chapels in your diocese be provided of one Bible, or more, at your discretion, of the translation allowed as aforesaid, and one book of Common Prayer, as by the laws of this realm is appointed. And for the performance thereof, I have caused her highness's printer to imprint two volumes of the said translation of the Bible aforesaid, a bigger, and a less, the largest for such parishes as are of ability, and the lesser for chapels and very small parishes; both which are now extant and ready. And so I commit you to the tuition of almighty God. From my house at Lambeth the 16th day of July, M.D.LXXXVII.

Your loving friend,

JO. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 4.

Anno Christi
1587.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 29.

Statuta per dom. Johannem Whitgift, Cantuarien. archiepiscopum, edita et publicata. Ex MSS. Sancroft, arch. Cant. apud dom. episc. Assaven.

JOHANNES, providentia divina Cant. archiepiscopus, totius Angliae primas et metropolitani, dilectis sibi in Christo Bartholomaeo Clerk, legum doctori, almae curiae nostrae Cant. de arcubus London. officiali, Willelmo Awbrey, legum doctori, curiae nostrae audient. Cant. causarum et negotiorum auditori, Will. Drurye, LL. D. curiae nostrae praerogativae Cant. magistro, custodi sive commissario, aut in vestris absentiis legitimis vestris surrogatis, salutem. Experientia quotidiana comperimus, decursu temporis leges vel saluberrime latas, sive malitia hominum quotidie crescente, novasque cautelas comminiscende, sive pro diversa rerum et circumstantiarum varietate, novo subinde indigere auxilio, quod etiam in curiis sedis nostrae archiepiscopalis Cant. usu venisse, dudum ex frequenti nonnullorum querela deprehendimus. Hisce incommodis occurrere et mederi cupientes, et pro meliori nostrarum curiarum omniumque in eisdem versantium regimine, necnon pro celeriori justitiae expeditione atque administratione, statuta sequentia isto volumine comprehensa, chirographi nostri subscriptione, et sigillo nostro archiepiscopali munita, maturo et deliberato consilio edenda curavimus. Vobis igitur praecipimus, ut in qualibet dictarum curiarum publice ea et praelegi et promulgari nostro nomine atque auctoritate quamprimum mandetis. Ubi vero exemplar illorum in auctenticam formam redactum in quibuslibet curiis nostris (quod intra terminum sancti Michaelis prox. plene perfici cupimus) transcript. et registratum fuerit; volumus ut originale hoc volumen nobis vel successoribus nostris tuto custodiendum retradatur. Firmiter autem injungendo mandamus, tam ut vosipsi ea observetis, quam ut ab advocatis, registrariis, procuratoribus, caeterisque dictarum curiarum ministris quibuscunque perimpleantur, in vigore juramentorum antea praestitorum et sub paenis hic expressis, summa cura invigiletis et elaboretis. Tenore nihilominus praesentium significamus, non esse intentionis nostrae veteribus ullis ullius curiae nostrae statutis, ullo modo auctoritatem abrogare, nisi qua ex parte hisce statutis repugnaverint, aut aliter immutata fuerint. Dat. in manerio nostro de Croydon vicefimo octavo die Julii, anno Domini, M.D.LXXXVII. regnique illustriffimae dominae noftrae, dominae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensoris, etc. vicefimo nono.

CAP. I. Circa judices curiarum de arcubus, audientiae et praerogativae fedis archiepifcopalis et metropolitanae Cantuar.

I. Ad tuendam et loci, quem fufinent, dignitatem et aditum obftruendum ne quis in eadem caufa judicet, quam antea confilio aut patrocinio fuo adjuverit; officialis curiae Cant. de arcubus London. auditor caufarum Cant. archiepifcopi, magifter five commiffarius praerogativarum ejufdem fedis Cant. caufas publice non aget, aut difceptabit, neque honoraria aut fportulas hoc nomine unquam in pofterum accipiet in aliqua caufa publice vel privatim, quae in aliqua curia archiepifcopi Cant. ejufve fuffraganei epifcopi pendet, aut verifimiliter poffit pendere; nifi in caufis fedis archiepifc. aut ecclefiae Cant. fuis eorumve aut miferabilium perfonarum, quas jura indefensas non relinquant.

II. Nullum inhibitionis refcriptum in aliqua caufa correctionis emanabit, priufquam judici confiterit per infpectionem proceffus facti per judicem, a quo iuftum gravamen effet illatum; nifi apud acta liquide quis juraverit, copiam actorum in eo negotio in partibus geftorum fibi (etiam offerenti fumptus fcriptionis) prorfus fuiffe denegatam.

III. Non admittet judex aliquis libellum aut aliam quamlibet fcriptis conceptam materiam, quae non alicujus admiſſi advocati ad exercendum chyrographo fit fubnotata; nec in ulla caufa concludatur, nifi advocato fimul cum procuratore petente, aliter quam cum, ipfo facto, conclufionem fieri ftatuta ifta fubfequent. Sententia vero nulla feretur, quae non advocati, qui pro ea fteterit, manus fubfcriptione notatur. Quod fi quis nomen alterius in iftis falfo ad imitationem exprefferit, hunc ab omnibus fedis archiepifcopalis Cant. curiis cum infamia in perpetuum exulare jubemus.

IV. Si judex aliquis eam viderit in aliqua caufa ambiguitatem aut difficultatem fubefſe, quae fine confilio aliorum commode expediri non poteft; tum licebit hujufmodi judici unum vel plures ex maturioribus advocatis neutri litigant. a confilio in ea caufa fibi in affeſſores adjungere, et jurejurando astringere, de fideliter et fincere affiftendo, confilium praeflando, et hujufmodi munere obeundo; quodque in ifta caufa confilium antea non praefititint; et recufantes per fpacium unius integri termini a muneris fui exercitio fuspendere. Quod fi aliquem ex iudicibus aliarum curiarum in hoc munus in forma praedicta affiftendum putaverit, volumus eum hujufmodi munus non detrectare, fub poena per nos et fucceffores noſtros infligenda.

V. Ubi alicujus litigaturi inopiam et tenuitatem gravem eſſe noverit, judex hujufmodi advo-

VOL. IV.

catum et procuratorem ei assignabit, qui gratis fideli confilio caufam ejus pro virili promovebit; quem fi judex ſegnem aut negligentem eſſe conſpexerit, graviter pro qualitate culpa increpabit, et (fi opus fuerit) ſevere etiam pro ſuo ſano arbitrio puniet.

CAP. II. Circa examinatores, regiftrarios, actuarios, et eorum ſcribas.

I. Praeter vetera ftatuta de examinatores, quae pene deſuetudine antiquata, denuo ad uſum omnium curiarum revocando cenſemus; volumus quemlibet iudicum ex regiftrarii et actuarii fui miniſtris et ſcribis inferioribus, quos maxime integros, exercitatos, maturique iudicii eſſe noverit (quoties opus fuerit) coram archiepifcopo ſiſtere; quo ipſe quos ex illis (cauſae cognitione praecedente) maxime idoneos repere-rit, huic examinandi negotio ſub juramento praeficere poſſit, ut actuarii ipſi hoc pacto onere ſaltem ſcriptionis levare poſſint.

II. Regiftrarii vel eorum deputati tam partes principales, quam teſtes qualibet in caufa aut ipſi interrogabunt, et examinabunt, aut ſaltem examini intererunt et praerunt.

III. Si caufa fit ex gravioribus, et non modici praepudicii coram ipſo iudice, ejufve ſurrogato (quo diſpiciat qua quidque vel trepidatione vel conſtantia dicatur) ipſam examinationem non repetitionem tantum nudam peragi volumus: teſtibus enim non teſtimoniis ſolum jura volunt adhiberi fidem.

IV. Regiftrarii, actuarii, et eorum ſcribae inferiores, ſi ſtipendia apparitoribus debita receperint, intra duas a receptione evolutas ſeptimanas, ea et recognoſcent, et annumerari facient. Qui ex regiftrariis vel actuariis hoc non praefititiffe fuerit convictus, duplum reddet; qui vero ex ſcribis inferioribus, locum amittet.

V. Prout caufa quaevis prior in regiftro poſita invenitur, ita diebus iudicis et expedietur; nifi gravis caufa iudicem in contrariam partem aliquando urgeat. Et ut cauſae fine vociferatione aut ſtrepitu (quoad fieri poſſit) poſſint expediri, ſi ſedente iudice publice in curia et cauſas expediente, aliquis procurator iudicem interpellet ad quamcunque cauſam audiendam, cujus acta, petitiones, et proteſtationes utriusque procuratoris continetia, non ſint per regiftrarium, actuarium, aut aliquem alium tunc acta ſcribentem, in ſcriptis prius redacta, ad iudicis uſque decretum interponendum; cuilibet ſic peccanti ſilentium imponatur, per tres dies iudicis prox. inſequentes.

CAP. III. Circa partes principales.

I. Nec regiftrarius nec examinador aliquis permittet litigatori perſonalem ſuam reſponſionem in ſcriptis antea de confilio alicujus iuriſconfulti conceptam interponere; ſed potius (quo omne perjurii vitetur periculum) partem principalem ſingillatim de unoquoque articuli membro interrogando veritatem facti pro virili elicere conabuntur; nifi judex pro perſonae et cauſae qualitate aliter expreſſe decreverit, vel ſignificaverit.

P p p p

II. Ad

II. Ad vitandam etiam temerariam illam, crebramque juramenti violationem, quam inde oriri saepenumero perspicimus, quod pars principalis aut ejus procurator ad exhibita respondere solet nimis generaliter; utputa (aliter non credit articulum esse verum in aliquo, etc.) dum non satis attendit, aut intelligit, quid sub illa generalitate affirmationis vel negationis comprehendatur, quamve late patet. Idcirco pars principalis vel ejus procurator super positionibus libelli, allegationis vel materiae cujuscunque, vel etiam super allegatione vel exhibitis quibuscunque in vim juramenti examinati ad aliquam partem eorundem posthac non respondebunt in genere, uti haecenus fieri consuevit, sed ad singula separata membra in eisdem contenta specificet et separatim respondebunt, affirmando vel negando per verbum credit, vel non credit, vel hujusmodi. Et si aliquam responsionem ita generalem fieri contigerit, ea pro imperfecta habebitur, sumptibusque ipsius respondentis tam citationis, monitionis actorum et novae examinationis, quam aliorum dictam reformationem quovismodo concernent. emendabitur. Quod si festinatione vel culpa solius examinantis acciderit, tunc ipsius sumptibus et periculo reformabitur.

CAP. IV. Circa procuratores.

I. Nullus posthac in aliqua causa postulabit, nisi in ipso primo litis ingressu suo, reipsa vero et sufficienti fulciatur procuratorio. Sufficiens vero vocamus, quod per publicum instrumentum coram notario, authenticum instrumentum coram eo, ad quem spectat sigillum, et parte constituyente literatorie, vel apud acta vel per fidejussores aut cautionem de rato conficitur; eaque omnia procuratoria quamprimum tuto condi et asservari in publicis ejusdem curiae scriniis curabit registrarius. Qui ex registraribus vel procuratoribus secus in istorum aliquo fecerit, suspensione ab exercitio officii sui absque omni spe restitutionis per integrum annum ferietur.

II. Ad minuendas et consopandas lites, necnon litigatorum obloquia tollenda, qui causa cadunt, nolumus procuratorem causam ullam absque alicujus advocati consilio suscipere, et per duos dies juridicos retinere, sub poena suspensionis ab exercitio etiam per annum. Nec judici licebit hujus aut prioris poenae gratiam facere, inconsultis nobis aut successoribus nostris.

III. Procurator una cum advocatione disceptationibus causae ad informationem judicis institutis interesse semper tenebitur, quo facilius et actorum in curia et totius causae merita in facto consistentia per ipsum possint declarari, sub poena suspensionis ab officio per sex dies juridicos continuos. Et si procuratorum ullus judicis mandato pro causarum expeditione accersitus in foro vel extra, venire recusaverit, aut malitiose vel contumaciter distulerit, simili suspensione ferietur. Et si judex fuerit negligens aut connivens, ipse puniatur simili poena.

IV. Procurator, qui salaria sive honoraria a domino suo judici, advocatione, registrario, vel actuario destinata, aut de consuetudine debita, ad expediendam quamprimum causam, non ex-posuerit, sed in proprios usus cum domini sui aut aliorum damno converterit, vel detinuerit per mensem, ab exercitio perpetuo removeatur. Et ut amice et honeste invicem vivatur, et suum cuique (prout jus et justitia postulant) tribuatur; statuimus quod procuratores sua mercede suisque stipendiis sint contenti; nec judices, advocatos, aut registraribus nostros, aut actorum scribas salariis, feodis, aut stipendiis eis jure vel consuetudine debitis et solvi consuetis defraudent. Quodsi quis procuratorum aut eorum servientium aut scribentium ministrorum reliquas copias actorum, responsionum, depositionum, interrogatorum. Computorum, sententiarum, aut aliarum quarumcunque, quae ex registro peti et exscribi solebant aut deberent, parti suae cum exactione alicujus mercedis aut pretii, vel parti adversae seu ejus procuratori, consiliario, sollicitatori, aut rerum gestori praestiterit, aut mutuaverit, in defraudationem et praejudicium registrariorum nostrorum, omnes et singulos procuratores ita delinquentes tam pro delicto suo proprio, quam servient. suorum quorumcunque ab exercitio perpetuo amoveri volumus.

V. Licet juramenta, calumniae, malitiae de veritate allegationis et responsionis legibus imperentur; quia tamen saepe jurans aliquando perjurat, laxatis nimium hac tempestate timoris divini repagulis; volumus in manifesta calumnia deprehensum, poenam suspensionis per duos integros terminos incurrere, eumque qui bis similiter deliquerit, loco inperpetuum moveri.

VI. Si procuratorum, registrariorum, actuariorum, scribarum, seu inferiorum ministrorum aliquis depositionibus testium, responsis partium, actis curiae, vel in eadem exhibitis quibuscunque aliquid addendum vel minuendum dolo malo curaverit, addiderit, vel minuerit; inperpetuum ab exercitio et curiis nostris ad decretum judicis curiae cum infamia exulabit. Et ut hujus facinoris periculum tutius possit evitari, monemus registraribus nostros ne in posterum quicquam inspicere, contrectari aut exscribi sinant, nisi sciente, spectante, et praesente registrario curiae, seu aliquo ex fidelibus et juratis suis scribis, aut ministris; neve posthac libros actorum, examinationum, aut aliqua alia exhibita instrumenta sive munimenta cuivis extra parietes domus registrarii aliunde deferri patiantur, nisi judex pro celeriore causarum expeditione ad instantiam alicujus (salva mercede et salario in ea parte debito et idoneo) aliter fieri jusserit et postulaverit. Et illud quoque fieri prohibemus, nisi registrarius ipse aut aliquis ex ejus fidelibus et juratis ministris hoc, quod petitur, ad judicem deferat.

VII. Quia jus dici consuevit et convenit in curiis audientiae et praerogativae Cant. ipso die curiam de arcubus immediate subsequente, experientiaque compertum est, procuratores omnes in qualibet dictarum curiarum exercentes singula dominorum suorum negotia commode expedire non posse; unde dilationes et scandala nascuntur; quodque clamores importuni et confusi suscitantur, cum tot simul in una curia vociferantes, judicis, advocatorum, et astantium quorumquorumcunque aures indecore nimium fatigant; necnon plurimas indignitates et insolentias iudices hac ratione perferre coguntur, in quas alioqui severius animadvertere deberent: ad hujusmodi igitur incommoda vitanda, exemplis etiam, quae in quolibet celebriori totius regni foro observantur, inducti, statuimus et ordinamus, quod ex numero illorum procuratorum, qui nunc sunt, decem duntaxat per nos nominandi in curia de arcubus, decem in curia audientiae, et octo in curia praerogativae postulabunt et exercebunt, et quod hii, qui nunc sunt procuratores admissi, juxta distributionem a nobis fiendam operas suas in posterum accommodabunt et negotia procurabunt; quodque non licebit illis, qui singulis dictarum curiarum sunt assignati, aut posthac assignabuntur, extra curiam sibi assignatam et addictam procuracionem ullius negotii, aut causae suscipere vel prosequi, sub poena amissionis sui loci et officii procuracionis. Atque ut hoc statutum lubentius et melius observetur; statuimus cum numerus procuratorum exercentium, qui nunc sunt, ad viginti decreverit, ut in posterum numerus ille viginti procuratorum nullo modo augeatur aut excedatur; et quod ex vicenario hujusmodi numero, octo curiae de arcubus, octo audientiae, et quatuor praerogativae ad nominationem nostram et successorum nostrorum ascribantur; quodque omnes admissiones supernumerariae forte fiendae, erunt ad omnem effectum inanes et nullae.

CAP. V. Circa ipsas causas earumque accidentia.

I. Si iudex de arcubus aut audientiae, appellatione vel detectione non praecedente in aliquo negotio correctionis, contra quemcunque subditum alicujus suffraganei nostri processerit; volumus ut sine expresso consensu nostro aut successorum nostrorum poenam corporalem in pecuniariam nullo modo commutent: et ut semper tam in hoc casu, quam in aliis correctionum causis omnibus poenam canonicam et corporalem injungant, aliqua saltem ex parte peragendam in loco, ubi conventus deliquerit, vel tempore poenitentiae commorabitur; sub poena graviore per nos in delinquentem iudicem infligenda.

II. Multa eaque gravia et perniciose scandala inde oriri quotidie videmus, quod divortia a thoro et mensa cum consensu partium aliquando permittuntur, nullo praecedente reconciliationis tractatu, aut imbecillioris aetatis earum respectu habito. Nulla ergo posthac (nisi tentatis prius omnibus reconciliationis modis, idque gravi urgente necessitate) separatio, ne cum consensu quidem partium concedatur; idque omisso prorsus (divortii) vocabulo, quo constare eis possit facilius, tantum secubandi, donec amicitia refarciri possit, non ad novas nuptias convolvendi facultatem hoc casu indulgeri.

CAP. VI. De processu judiciario et dilationibus in eo tollendis.

Quia (dedita quasi opera) nimium multae et frivolae dilationes ad grave litigant. detrimentum, graveque juris ecclesiastici scandalum im-petrantur et usurpantur; quo tam gravi malo remedium opportunum apponi possit, sequentia statuta exacte observari volumus.

I. Quicumque dilatoriam aut peremptoriam materiam allegaverit, et in probatione prorsus defecerit, expensas eo usque in causa factas sine mora infra terminum per iudicem assignand. repraesentari et persolvi curabit, sub poena audientiae deneganda in illa causa; praeter et ultra alia remedia de jure quovismodo in ea parte provisae.

II. Nullus iudex allegationem vel materiam aliquam in scriptis conceptam, nisi simpliciter (omissa hac adjectione, "quatenus de jure") posthac unquam admittet; in quem finem in prox. diem juridicum deliberabit, num de jure admittenda vel rejicienda fuerit.

III. Proximo die juridico post libellum exhibitum et admissum, proponuntur omnes defensiones aut exceptiones contra libellum, sequente vero die replicationes, tertioque duplicationes (si quae fuerint) et sic deinceps absque omni intercapedine temporis. Ad quae omnia probanda non alium terminum quam eundem quo ad libellum probandum sunt usuri, praefigi jubemus; intra quem etiam ad summum terminum et non postea, partes principales examinabuntur.

IV. Quodsi vero pars principalis non ita plene responderit, quin denuo interrogandus et examinandus fuerit, hocque culpa sua factum fuerit; tum monitionis ad plenius respondendum, examinationis et retardati processus sumptus ipse dependet; sin examinatoris et actuarii culpa acciderit, tum pro examinatione processu aut actis illis scribendis nihil omnino accipiet.

V. Nullus iudex ultra tres vel ad summum (ubi gravissima subest causa) quatuor dies probatorios libelli decernet. Quodsi procurator causae terminum ad probandum petere forte omiserit, aut prudens sciensque post litis contestationem distulerit; tunc totidem dies termini probatorii de numero praestituto decidentur, per quot ipse cessaverit a postulando termino probatorio.

VI. Cum probatio per testes mediante commissione instituenda necessario fuerit; commissio hujusmodi post primum diem termini probatorii non assignabitur; eaque tunc nihilominus expressa lege, ut citra finem termini prox. tunc sequentis expedienda statuatur; nisi aut commissio circa finem termini paschal. decreta fuerit, aut alia iustissima causa longioris morae iudici (causa cognita) videatur necessaria: quam causam in actis etiam inseri volumus.

VII. Nullam commissionis revocationem, repetitionem, allegationem, vel materiam quamcunque sub nudo procuratoris juramento (juxta informationem sibi traditam) decerni vel admitti permittimus; quin potius summaria aliqua unius diei probatione causa impedimenti commissionis liquido constabit, priusquam renovationem mandati decernet.

VIII. Ultimo die termini probatorii compulsores pro testibus non decernentur. Quodsi unicus forte testis requisitus pertinaciter aut abfuerit aut excommunicatus perstiterit, nec causa integra integra nec publicatio aliorum testium idcirco differetur; quin potius iste testis quodcumque ante conclusionem in causa hoc in casu examinabitur, si pars producens juraverit sese aliorum testium productorum dicta interea non didicisse.

IX. Posthac nulla exceptio generalis contra testes apud acta solum (quae dicis tantum causa interponitur) admittetur, nec terminus hac in parte ad probandum assignabitur; omnes enim exceptiones contra personas testium inter eorum productionem et publicationem, errata vero et defectus (si qui fuerint) in eorum testimoniis proximo post publicationem die in scriptis specialiter proponentur, idque rejecta omni additionali postea materia; intra quem etiam terminum omnem aliam seu exceptivam seu peremptoriam materiam proponent.

X. Ad proband. quamlibet materiam five exceptivam five peremptoriam duos post exhibitionem earundem dies tantummodo elargimur; intra quos etiam materiam ad corroborandos testes et proponi et probari jubemus, nisi ob distantiam locorum vel gravitatem causae aliter judici videbitur; quam tamen causam in actis specialiter exprimi volumus.

XI. Proximo post terminum quemque probatorium evolutum juridico die, testium prius examinerum dicta (licet hoc non petatur) publicata ipso facto habebuntur, interposito judicis decreto in hunc finem; atque insequens publicationem dies pro termino assignato ad omnia proponend. similiter (ipso facto) computabitur, quem etiam judicem decernere omnino volumus; tertiusque a publicatione dies, absque omni procuratoris petitione (ipso facto) causam concludet; si nihil interea sufficiens ad impediendum conclusionem fuerit propositum.

XII. Assignationes ad audiend. voluntatem judicis ante omnia alia, tempore informationibus judicis praefinito, aut proximo saltem die juridico expedientur, praesente et avvocato et procuratore causae.

XIII. Aequum esse censemus in designandis informationum diebus, ut judices, qui priores causas audiunt hujusmodi, inter suorum tribunalium dies juridicos interjectum aliquod tempus huic negotio praefigant; quo et iudicibus aliorum tribunalium aliud idoneum tempus tribui possit, respectu semper intercedentis medii temporis inter omnes omnium curiarum dies juridicos habito, ne et curiae et informationes in idem tempus concurrant.

XIV. Informationum tempora ita per iudices temperari volumus, ut infra terminum integrum conclusionem causae sequentem, definitiva semper feratur sententia, nisi forte causa et perplexa valde et gravissimi alioqui sit momenti: quae hoc in casu initio insequentis proximi termini absque omni ulteriori mora feretur.

CAP. VII. Circa decori observationem.

I. Iniquum esse iudicamus, ut actuarius alicujus curiae pro concipienda et in scripta redigenda sententia definitiva plusferat quam iudex, cui praeter loci, quem sustinet, dignitatem et impensas grandiores, onus etiam totius causae in-cumbit; ideoque volumus ut posthac contributione totius, quod et iudex et actuarius curiae de arcubus hoc nomine recipiunt inita, iudex dimidium ad minimum ferat.

II. Ad inscitiam et desuetudinem linguae Latinae exterminand. multorumque ineptam petulantiam et garrulitatem cohibend. aliaque plurima incommoda vitanda, cum scripta omnia qualibet in curia archiepiscopi Cant. Latina lingua concipi (idque quod ab imperitis et plus nimio festinantibus fieri praecipue videmus) absque omni syllabarum in fine dictionum amputatione, nisi ea (vel hoc solum nomine) rejici velint; tum etiam iudices et ministros quosvis in sermonibus ultro citroque inter se ibidem habendis, nullam aliam linguam volumus usurpare, sub poena pro arbitrio domini archiepiscopi in iudices hac in parte delinquentes; in alios quoslibet suspensionis ab exercitio per unum diem juridicum pro prima vice, per tres pro secunda vice, et integrum terminum pro tertia, per sex menses pro quarta per ipsos iudices infligenda.

III. Procuratores erga advocatos et registra- rios; inferiores scribae et ministri erga actuarios et procuratores; omnesque erga iudices tum alibi semper, tum in jure et pro tribunali praecipue demisse et reverenter (prout par est) sese gerant; alioquin suspensione ab exercendo vel pecuniaria multa, ad veterum statutorum praescript. pro nummariis multis, distribuend. pro iudicis arbitrio ferientur. In quem etiam finem utile illud statutum de informationibus et allegationibus advocatorum iudices observari curare volumus, quatenus istis statutis non repugnaverit.

IV. Ut clientes ipsi et procuratores melius instruantur in jure et causae suae meritis; utque dignitati iudicis (melius quam antehac fieri consuevit) consulatur; nolumus ullum advocatorum tempore curiae audientiae vel praerogativae in superiorem subsellii partem, ubi iudex ipse confidet, sese ingerere. Volumus etiam, ut quodcumque advocatus aliquis iudicem in negotio, de quo lis agitur, alloquitur, consistens in alterutro latere et non in superiori parte subselliorum, ubi iudicis tribunal situm est, clara voce, quae a procuratoribus, clientibus, caeterisque astantibus audiri possit, et Latina etiam lingua clientis sui negotium agat.

CAP. VIII. De vicario generali archiepiscopi.

Nullus iudex facultatem ad concionandum alicui concedet, ullumve in ecclesiastica aliqua promotione vel beneficio instituet, nisi consultus prius dominus archiepiscopus id muneris ei mandandum tunc censuerit; sin vero facultas aliqua aliter fuerit impetrata, ipso jure habebitur irrita.

CAP. IX. De officiali de arcubus et iudice audientiae.

Satisfactiones publicas ecclesiae, grandi aliquo scandalo laesae, quae in eum finem comparatae sunt, ut qui prolapsionis, iidem poenitentiae et resipiscentiae testes esse possint, in crimine praecipue incontinentiae in solas nummarias multas commutari posthac volumus; nisi et hujusmodi jusmodi subfit causa quae domino archiepiscopo, causa cognita, videatur gravissima; et qui deliquerit (si crimen publicum factum fuerit et notorium) publice in ecclesia, ubi maxime commoratur, tam dolorem suum pro peccato perpetrato, quam illud, quod ad istum dolorem, et emendationis propositum uberius indicandum in pios usus erogaverit, recognoscat; aut saltem per ministrum ecclesiae (si ita ordinario videbitur) hoc publice coram omni populo renuncietur.

II. Sententiam vero hujusmodi mulctarum et modum erogandi in acta publica redigi, pecuniamque integram ad oeconomos et collectores pro pauperibus ejusdem parochiae ad praescriptum ordinarii per eosdem distribuendam, transmitti jubemus: cujus distributionis peractae rationem iidem per manuum suarum subscriptionem ordinarium facient certiore. Judex autem, qui in aliquo istorum deliquerit, vel excesserit, ab officii exercitio suspendetur arbitrio archiepiscopi.

III. Nullus ad aliquod beneficium ecclesiasticum quovis praetextu posthac mandabitur induci, in cujus possessione alius per spatium unius anni antea fuerit; antequam is, qui de facto id possidet, vocetur, iudicique dictum beneficium de jure vacare constiterit.

IV. Nullus, qui [per] duplicem querelam intentaverit, admittetur ad beneficium per aliquem iudicem archiepiscopi, donec, causa cognita, dominus archiepiscopus id permiserit.

CAP. X. Circa curiam praerogativae.

I. Ex statutis istis ea praecipue quae decorum respiciunt, et ad dilationum moras tollendas sunt comparata, in curia etiam praerogativae, observari jubemus.

II. Administratio bonorum ante quatuordecim dies a morte intestati, aut per vitam intestati decedentis, evolutos, nemini mandabitur: quo intra illud tempus sciri possit, num ultima aliqua voluntas reperiatur, aut num aliquis alius fuerit, cui de jure potius sit committenda; atque interea etiam nullae literae ad colligendum mandabuntur.

III. Si cautio apud acta proponatur, ne voluntas ultima seu testamentum approbetur et infinetur, neve administratio mandetur; tunc neutrum eorum fiet, donec is qui cavendum esse voluerit, vocetur ad allegand. si quam habeat impedimenti causam, ipseque nihilominus aliquid proponere neglexerit.

IV. Secunda auctoritas administrandi cujusvis defuncti bona non mandabitur, donec primae literae administrationis revocatae fuerint in potestatem iudicis vel irritae pronuntiatae.

V. Quibus administrandi facultas, literaeve ad colligend. mandantur (quas quidem literas ad colligend. rarissime, et non nisi gravissima causa urgente, idque sub locupletissimis fidejussoribus concedi volumus) maxime vero ubi eorum interesse vertitur, qui sunt juniores; volumus idoneis satis et locupletibus fidejussoribus adhibitis in scriptis cavere de bonis defuncti fideliter administrandis, et de archiepiscopo suisque indemnibus praestandis.

VOL. IV.

VI. Praeterea tam hujusmodi scripta et nomina, quam omnia alia qualibet in curia archiepiscopi Cantuar. confecta, et conficienda tuto inter publica archiva asservabuntur, et in eorum usus cedent, quorum maxime postea interesse constiterit.

VII. Si registrarius sive actarius ullius curiae vel inferior aliquis scriba exigere usitatas, vel hisce statutis praestitutas in scriptis obligationes sciens prudensque omiserit, immutaverit, interleverit, ex archivis surripuerit, reove promittendi, vel ejus execut. administrat. aliive dolo malo tradiderit, aut si potestatem inventarium non exhibendi indulserit, aut cum cessantibus hac in parte connivendo, colluserit; ab omni cujuscunque muneris, curationis aut ministerii exercitio in aliqua curia archiepiscopi Cantuar. inperpetuum suspendetur.

VIII. Si quisquam ministrorum alicujus curiae alieno nomine testamentum approbari, literasve administratorias vel ad colligend. decerni curaverit, non munitus procuratorio vero et sufficienti; per annum ab officio suspendetur. Qui bis deliquerit loco inperpetuum, movebitur.

CAP. XI. De delegatis iudicibus per principem.

Licet archiepiscopus in causis per principem delegatis nullum jus aut interesse habeat, quia tamen delegati plerumque e iudicibus, advocatis, aut exercentibus in curiis archiepiscopi seliguntur: si quisquam ex praedictis qualibet in causa delegationis munus in se susceperit, alterutriusque litigatorum hoc exigenti, juramentum hujusmodi subire recusaverit, aut neglexerit; videlicet [quod neutri litigatorum illa in causa ipsum de jure per se vel alium consulenti unquam responderit, vel honorarium seu quid aliud eo nomine acceperit] et nihilominus illam causam, non interposito hujusmodi requisito juramento, audire vel terminare perceperit; tunc ipso facto ab omni inposterum muneris sui exercitio in aliqua curia archiepiscopi Cantuar. penitus secludatur.

CAP. XII. Generalia quaedam statuta.

I. Quisque iudex, advocatus, vel procurator exercens, aut ad exercendum admissus, vel registrarius, actarius, aut inferior scriba, in ulla curia archiepiscopi Cant. qui etiam iudicis delegati per principem aut exercentis unquam munere fungitur, ut advocatus, procurator, actarius, vel inferior scriba coram delegatis vel in curia episcopali London. curia decani et capituli sancti Pauli, curia ullius archidiaconi jurisdictionem suam intra civitatem London. exercentis, sive in curia archidiaconi Surriensis, sub poenis vel hisce statutis praestitutis, vel pro arbitrio superioris infligendis tam vetera statuta non antiquata nec aliter immutata, quam ista omnia jam lata, quatenus quemque attingunt, qualitasque causarum patietur, in curiis et consistoriis omnibus praedictis respective observabit et observari curabit, quo aequalitas et Commutatio quaedam in curiis omnibus tanta necessitudine conjunctis retineri possit.

II. Qui ad labes morum et errores in aliis

Q q q q

corri-

corrigendis adhibentur, absurdum est ut vel tenuissima perversae alicujus opinionis suspicio penes ipsos resideat; ideoque quilibet judex, advocatus, registrarius, actuarius, examinatus, procurator, aliisque minister ullius curiae archiepiscopi Cantuar. antehac admissus sub poena amissionis loci sui publice in aliqua curia archiepiscopi Cant. in qua exercet, vel ad exercendum est admissus, iudice pro tribunali sedente, temporeque juridico intra tres septimanas ab horum statutorum promulgatione evolutas, si adfuerit tam juramentum corporale de primatu dominae reginae, juxta leges ea in parte editas (si antea ibidem non praestiterit) subibit; quam etiam articulos religionis per clerum utriusque provinciae ad opinionum varietatem tollendam, anno millesimo quingentesimo sexagesimo secundo propositas, publice perleget, vel se perlegisse sincere tum profitebitur; necnon indubitatum assensum suum eisdem utpote veris, et cum verbo divino omnino conspirantibus, cum viva voce tunc et ibidem, tum manus etiam propriae subscriptione profitebitur; alioquin ab exercitio et omni consortio curiarum archiepiscopi prorsus removebitur. Idem etiam juris ante admissionem cujuslibet retinebitur.

III. Quilibet judex ullius curiae archiepiscopi Cantuar. tam vetera suae curiae statuta omnia non abrogata per leges hujus regni, nec hisce statutis aliter immutata, quam statuta ista sub gravi poena per archiepiscopum infligenda et observabit ipse, quatenus ad se spectant, et ab aliis etiam omnibus cujuslibet (respectu) curiae ministris observari curabit.

IV. Si de vero sensu vel veterum vel alicujus horum statutorum eruendo emerferit scrupulus; quaeve poena judicem delinquentem teneat (ubi nulla exprimitur) dubitetur; per ipsum dominum archiepiscopum expeditur. Sin delinquens ex advocatis aut inferioris ordinis ministris fuerit, nec certa poena adversus eum hic sit praefinita; tunc arbitraria poena per judicem ejus curiae, in qua ejusmodi advocatus vel minister exercuerit, mulctabitur. Qui vero bis vel mulctatus vel admonitus non resipuerit, sed in idem aut gravius erratum prolabitur, ad dominum archiepiscopum aut plectendus, aut loco movendus per judicem remittatur.

In quorum omnium fidem et testimonium huic praesenti statutorum volumini manus nostrae subscriptionem et sigillum nostrum archiepiscopale apposuimus. Dat. die et anno superscript.

JO. CANTUAR.

CAP. XIII. Confirmatio statutorum praedictorum per decanum et capitulum.

Et nos decanus et capitulum ecclesiae cathedralis et metropoliticae Christi Cantuar. hoc praesens scriptum sive volumen statutorum per praedictum dominum Johannem, providentia divina Cantuar. archiepiscopum, ut praefertur, factum et editum, necnon praedicta statuta, ordinationes, et decreta, ac omnia et singula in eisdem contenta et specificata, prout in isto volumine scribuntur et recitantur, quantum in nobis est, auctoritate nostra ratificamus, approbamus, et confirmamus per praesentes. In cujus rei testimonium nos praedicti decanus et capitulum sigillum nostrum commune praesentibus apposuimus. Datum in domo nostra capitulari nono die Octobris, anno Domini M.D.LXXXVII. annoque regni serenissimae dominae nostrae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensoris, etc. vicefimo nono.

CAP. XIV. Appendix et explicatio statuti (Cap. IV. § VII.) de numero et distributione procuratorum in curiis nostris archiepiscopalibus exercentium.*

I. Johannes, providentia div. Cantuar. archiepiscopus — dilectis sibi Bartholomaeo Clerke, LL. D. curiae nostrae Cantuar. de arcubus London. officiali, Will. Awbrey, LL. D. curiae nostrae audientiae Cantuar. causarum et negotiorum auditori, et Will. Drury, curiae nostrae praerog. Cantuar. magistro, custodi sive commissario et eorum cuilibet, salutem. Cum ad incommoda plurima evitanda, recenti statuto sancitur, distributionem procuratorum peculiaribus curiis ineundam necessario videri: ut igitur quod adhuc in votis habemus, optatum suum effectum melius citiusque fortietur; sic de novo statuendum, interpretandum, emendandum, et a vestrum singulis in curiis nostris, quibus respective praestis, diebus juridicis proxime et immediate sequentibus, publice promulgandum et publicandum duximus, et tenore praesentium mandando committimus.

II. Aequissimum inprimis esse censemus, ut nullus procurator per nos vel successores nostros ad exercendum in posterum admittatur, donec infra quindenos (nedum infra videnos) totus procuratorum numerus substituerit; ideoque volumus neminem admitti ad exercendum, donec ad eum numerum deveniatur. Ex illis autem quindecim procuratoribus exercentibus cum aliquis desiderabitur, tum qui ex non exercentibus admissione fuerit proximus, ante alios omnes in locum sic vacantem, si voluerit, sufficietur; nisi locus vacuus ex illis forte tribus fuerit aliquis, qui astringuntur praesenti sanctione ad voluntariae tantum jurisdictionis negotia in foro praerogativae procuranda: ad hujusmodi enim praeter aliis omnibus aliquem semper assignari cupimus, qui in curia de arcubus vel audientiae registrarii aut actuarii munere fungitur, modo numero procuratorum exercentium antea fuerit aggregatus; ut ita (quantum fieri potest) nullus registrarius aut actuarius ullis contentiosae jurisdictionis negotiis prosequendis a suo munere praecipuo distrahatur.

III. Ad expediendum enim causas omnes in curia praerogativae, quae sunt jurisdictionis voluntariae, tres tantum ex procuratoribus deputandos esse censemus; quos alii cuilibet causae in aliqua curiarum nostrarum procuranda operam collocare non permittimus. Huic autem muneri, ex iis qui nunc sunt procuratores, Guilielmum Bedell, Edwardum Orwell, et Thomam Wheler, praeficimus. Horum cuilibet, valetudinis aut absentiae causa, aliquem alium ex xii. reliquis senioribus procuratoribus suo loco (dum impedimentum hujusmodi duraverit) licebit substituere.

* The original in parchment with a fair seal to it, is in the king's paper office at Whitehall.

IV. Ad prosequendas vero lites in curia praerogativae, quae sunt jurisdictionis contentiosae, xii. tantummodo procuratores in posterum semper adhiberi permittimus: quem duodenarium numerum ex reliquis illis procuratoribus, qui inter caeteros admissione sua maxime sunt seniores propter causarum plerumque in ea tractatarum gravitatem, confici jubemus. Ita tamen, ut cum ex xii. illis locus aliquis postea forte vacaverit; is, qui ex jam exercentibus vel in posterum ex non exercentibus admissione fuerit proximus, in locum sic vacantem suo ordine succedat.

V. In curiis autem de arcubus ac audientiae ad formam distributionis huic sanctioni subjunctam procuratores omnes nunc exercentes (praeter tres illos antea nominatos) operas suas in posterum respective accommodare volumus. Nec licebit alicui extra curias sibi hic assignatas et addictas, procuracionem ullius negotii aut causae suscipere, vel etiam, post septem dies continuos ab hujus promulgatione proxime insequentes, prosequi sub poena amissionis sui loci et officii procuratoris. Hoc autem ut quamprimum executioni debitae mandetur, volumus quolibet procuratores, qui negotia ulla gerenda jam ante susceperint in aliqua curia, quam cui hac nostra constitutione sunt ascripti (in quibus causis per contestationem domini litis sunt effecti) in aliquem alium quem voluerint, illius curiae in qua causa tractatur, procuratorum quamprimum hujusmodi negotia transferre.

VI. Nullus in curiis de arcubus vel audientiae in locum aliquem, qui in posterum vacaverit, admittetur procurator, donec in utralibet earum numerus infra sex procuratores decreverit. Quando autem aliquis ex sex procuratoribus in alterutra illarum curiarum desiderabitur; qui inter non exercentes tunc fuerit admissione proxime senior, in locum vacantem succedet: sicque brevi fiet, ut praeter illos tres, qui in curia praerogativae voluntariae jurisdictionis negotiis expediendis destinatur, totus ordo procuratorum exercentium in duodenario numero semper in posterum consistat. Qui quidem duodecim licet omnes in foro contentioso praerogativae exercere poterunt; sex tamen ipsorum curiae de arcubus, reliqui vero sex audientiae peculiariter et separatim in procuratorio gerendo munere inservient.

VII. Duodecim maxime seniorum, qui in foro curiae praerogativae procurabunt, nomina sequuntur: Thomas Willet, Christoferus Smith, Petrus Johnson, Franciscus Clerke, Laurentius Swynborne, Johannes Burrough, Anthonius Lawe, Johannes Theaker, Galfridus Clerke, Tho. Redman, Stephanus Staple, Edwardus Willett.

Nomina illorum, qui in curia de arcubus et non in curia audientiae procurabunt: Christoferus Smith, Franc. Clerke, Laur. Swynbourne, Joh. Burrough, Tho. Barker, Edwardus Saye, Joh. Coston, Johannes Lewes, Will. Creak, . . . Speight, Thomas Iles. XI.

Nomina illorum, qui in curia audientiae et non in curia de arcubus procurabunt: Tho. Willet, Petrus Johnson, Abrahamus Hartwell, Anth. Law, Joh. Theaker, Galfridus Clerke, Tho. Redman, Steph. Staple, Edwardus Willett, Thomas Warde, Joh. Lawe. XI.

VIII. In quorum omnium et singulorum fidem et testimonium hoc praesens scriptum manus nostrae subscriptione et sigilli nostri appositione muniri curavimus. Datum in manerio nostro de Lambhith 8. die mensis Novembris, anno Domini M.D.LXXXVII. et nostrae translationis anno quinto.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 5.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. Ex MS. Miles Smith apud Thom. episc. Assaven.

EA per breve regium ad diem 13. mensis Novembris in ecclesia S. Pauli London. summonita, virtute commissionis archiepiscopalis prorogabatur in 5. diem Februarii. Quo die sacra in ecclesia S. P. London. peraguntur, certificatoria leguntur, et synodus ad ecclesiam collegiatam B. Petri Westmon. die 7. Febr. habenda continuatur. Ibi protestatione more solito per decanum Westmon. et responso archiepiscopi datis, Johannes Styll, prolocutor, praesentatus admittitur. In tertia sessione (Febr. 12.) et quarta (Febr. 19.) et quinta (Febr. 21.) et sexta (Febr. 26.) et septima (Febr. 26.) de subsidio dominae reginae concedendo variae consultationes instituuntur. In octava (Febr. 28.) convocatio ob aegritudinem archiepiscopi ad aedes Lambethanas continuatur; ubi in nona synodi sessione (eodem die) in magna camera selectus numerus episcoporum archiepiscopum consulit de subsidio, de quo inter utramque domum convenit. In decima in ecclesia B. Petri Westm. (Mart. 5.) et undecima (Mart. 7.) prorogationes tantum fiunt. In duodecima (Mart. 12.) archiepiscopus monet beneficiatos ut in beneficiis suis resideant; et duos presbyteros Tyrrell et Tydder a Romanae ecclesiae erroribus ad sinceram religionem, modo auctoritate regia stabilitam conversos favori synodi commendat; quorum in sustentationem et levamen aliquam, ut praestaret et contribueret domus inferior pecuniarum summam instanter rogavit. Tertiadecima sessio (Mart. 14.) et decima quarta (Mart. 19.) continuata fuit absque ullo alio peracto aut proposito negotio. In decima quinta sessione (eodem die) the archbishop bishop present brings in certayne orders to be observed throughout the province.

336 CONVOCATIO PRAELATORUM ET CLERI PROV. CANT.

I. Single beneficed men to be compelled to residence constant, unless a prebendary or chaplain to the king or peere, or by some other attendance allowed by the statutes to be absent; and in that case to keepe a licensed preaching curate.

II. Double beneficed men to reside equally upon their livings, and to keepe a licensed curate, where they are not.

III. Beneficed men absent one hundred twenty dayes to keepe licensed curates.

IV. Scandalous ministers guilty of notorious crimes to be removed, and never to be admitted to any cure.

V. No unlearned unable person to catechize shall be admitted to any cure.

VI. None may place or displace a curate without authority from the archbishop or bishop of the diocesse. Both houses promise to obey and execute the said orders.

Decima sexta sessio (Mart. 21.) et decima septima (eodem die) et decima octava (Mart. 26. M.D.LXXXIX.) et decima nona (Mart. 27.) et vicesima (Mart. 28.) et vicesima prima (eodem die) nihil praeter continuationes nobis reliquerunt; praeterquam quod in ultima absentes et absque venia abeuntes, inprimis episcopus Lichfeldensis, ab archiepiscopo fuerint suspensi. Tandem 2. die Aprilis per breve regium et commissionem archiepiscopi convocatio ab episcopo Petriburgensi dissolvitur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 5.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter for provisions for arms. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 162. b.

AFTER my very hartye commendations to your lordship; you cannot be ignorant of your sundry endeavours in diverse parts of this realm by the livetenants and others, since the tyme of these late dangers of forreign invasion by the procurement of the pope and his adherents, to have had all ecclesiastical men assaied, according to the rate of their livinges do beare, to the finding of horse and other warlike furniture, and to shew with others at common musters; which purpose although it hath hitherto bynne stayed for some considerations, yet being members of one and the selfsame common-weale, and imbarcked in the like common dangers with others, if not more in respect of our calinge and publick profession of religion, wherby we are also bound to go before others, as well in worde as in good example; we are therefore to remember and advisedly to weigh with our selves, what dutiful forwardnes against these extraordinary imminent dangers of very congruence is expected at our handes, for the defence of our gracious soveraigne; ourselves, our families and countrie; and besides the very good expectation of the best, the stirring up of those which otherwise are but slowe to further such service, and the discouraging of the common enemy; our willing readines herein will be a good means also to stoppe the mouthes of such as do think those temporal blessings, which God hath in mercy bestowed upon us, to be too much, and therefore spare not in grudging manner to saye, that themselves are forced to their great charges to fight for us, whiles we lie quietly at home, without providing any munition in these publick perills. For which and divers other weightie respects of great consideration, I have lately received lettres from my lordes of her majesties most honourable privy counsayle, requiring me in very earnest sorte to move all the bishopes, within my province, with what convenient spede may be, effectuallie to deal with those of their cathedral churches, and other beneficed men in their diocesses, but especially such as be of better habilitie, for the furnishing of themselves with lawnses, light horses, petronells on horsebacke, muskets, calivers, picks, holberts, billes, or bowe and arrowes, as in regard of their severall abilities shall be thought most convenient. I am therefore accordingly hereby to require your lordship, to whom these abilities are best known, to take an especial care by all good persuation you can, to move such ecclesiastical persons of your diocess to be readie with free and voluntarie provision of men, horse and furniture, as your lordships shall thinke good to allotte, and every one to find, and to be shewed at some convenient daye and place, as you shall therunto appoint, desiring your lordship with what convenient spede you can, to certifie particularlie of the names of every ecclesiastical person and the particular furniture by him provided, to the intent both your own care herein (wherof I nothing doubt) may appeare, and what regard every one severally hath of his duty for the furthering of the present necessarie service, being noe great charge, and so expedient for every one to have in readines for defence of his own person, house and family upon any suddaine occasion, that thereafter may happen, wherein I trust every one will be ready to the utmost of his power, to follow the free and voluntary example in this behalf, shewed by the clergie of some diocess in the realm, before any such monition was made unto them; which the more franke and voluntary yt shall be, the more acceptable to the quenes most excellent majestie, and a great cause of rejoycing to all, that love and wish well to the estate ecclesiastical. And thus I commit your lordship to God's holy tuition. From Croydon the 29. of May, M.D.LXXXVIII.

Your lordship's loving brother in Christ.

JO. CANTUAR.
Articles

Archiepis Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 5.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

Articles to be enquired of by the churchwardens and sworne men in the ordinary visitation of the lord archbishop of Cant. within the diocese of Sarum. Reg. Whitgift fol. 400. a.

I. IN PRIMIS, Whether your church be void and if it be, who gathereth the fruites thereof; and if it be full, whether the incumbent hath any moe benefices then one; and whether he be a preacher, yea or noe; and what degree of schole he hath taken?

II. Item, Whether your minister doth reverently say service, and minister the sacraments according to the book of common prayers: and whether doth he use in his ministration the ornaments appointed by the lawes now in force?

III. Item, Whether have you in your church all things necessary for the common prayer, and due administration of the sacramentes, according to her majesties lawes and injunctions?

IV. Item, Whether have you had monethlie sermons in your parish church at the least, or noe; and whether are the homilies read, when there is no sermon.

V. Item, Whether any person, being not deacon at the least, is suffered to say service in your church, to minister the sacraments, or bury the dead; and whether doth any take upon him to preach, not being sufficiently licensed; and whether doth any use to preach, that doth not once in the year at least administer one of the sacraments?

VI. Item, Whether your parson or vicar be resident upon his benefice; and whether he be an incontinent person, or suspected thereof, or faulty of any other kind of lewdness?

VII. Item, Whether your parson, vicar or curate have publickly, or otherwise, spoken against the order or government of the church of England, or the book of common prayer, established by law?

VIII. Item, Whether your ministers used to pray for the quenes majestie, queen Elizabeth, by the title and style due to her majestie, appointed by the statutes of this realme, and her highness injunctions, and exhort the people to obedience to her highness, and other magistrates being in authority under her?

IX. Item, Whether your minister doth not openly in your church catechise such as be of convenient age, according to the ordres set forth in the book of common prayer?

X. Item, Whether all persons of convenient age doth not repaire to the church upon Sundays and holydaies, and receive the communion thrise yearly?

XI. Item, Whether you do know any persons, that withhold any church-stock, or hathe not made their accompts duly, according to the law, having byn churchwardens?

XII. Item, Whether you do know any common swearer, drunkarde or blasphemmer, any symoniacal person, usurer, witch, conjurer, southsayer, charmer, fornicator, adulterer, incestuous person, or any that harboreth incontinent persons, or any vehementlie suspected of any of those crimes?

XIII. Item, Whether you do know any scholemaster that doth teach within your parish without license of his ordinarie under his seal or no?

XIV. Item, Whether you do know in your parish any man that hath two wiefes living, or anie woman that hath two husbands living?

XV. Item, Whether you do know anie that doth obstinately defende papistraye, heresies, errors, or false doctrine?

XVI. Item, Whether do you know any person excommunicate in your parish, and whether any such doth repaire to the church?

XVII. Item, Whether your parish church or chauncell be ruinous or decayed, and by whose defaulte?

XVIII. Item, Whether you know any receivers of jesuites, seminaries, or massing priestes or any other fugitive persons, or reconcyled to the church of Rome?

XIX. Item, Whether you knowe any that use conventycles, or meetings, for expounding scriptures, or saying of prayers in private houses or places?

XX. Item, Whether there be any hospitals, or almehouses in your parish; and whether the same be used according to the foundations and ordinances thereof?

XXI. Item, Whether you knowe any person ordered by the law to do penance or excommunicate for not doing the same, do still so continue unreformed?

XXII. Item, Whether you doe knowe any other matter worthy of presentment above not expresseyd, yea or noe, which you shall likewise present by virtue of your oathes?

The archbishop's letter for prayers, etc. Ibid. fol. 148. a.

"SALUTEM in Domino." Consideringe the daungerousness of the time, I think it very convenient, that you cause publick prayers to be had in every severall parishe within your diocess, according to the letters heretofore written unto you; foreseeing that no other order of fastinge, or other exercise be used then such as to you shall be prescribed according to the lawes and orders of the church established, I have caused a book upon the like occasions penned, to be newlie printed with some additions, which you may have for your diocess, if you

VOL. IV.

R r r r

you send for the same. And soe wishing you to be careful herein I commit your lordship to the almightie. Lambeth this 10th. of July M.D.LXXXVIII.

Your lovinge friend in Christ.

JO. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 6.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London about the admission of ministers into benefices. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 157. a.

AFTER my right hartie commendations to your lordship. Where "secundo Decembris," when we were assembled in the synode, kept in the yere M.D.LXXXVI. it was thought fit and necessarie to me, and the rest of my brethren then present in that synode, although not as a judicial acte or conclusion, by the authoritie of the convocation, that the articles of the tenor of the copy herin enclosed, shall be put in execution by your lordship, and all the rest of my said brethren the bishopes of this province. Forasmuch as it is like it will be looked for at this next parliament, howe the same articles have binne accordingly used, and likewise how the canons agreed upon by all our consents in the convocation holden the 24. day of November in the yere of our Lord M.D.LXXXIV. and allowed by the quenes majestie, have binne observed, wherof I should have had from your lordship a certificate once every yere; these are hartelie to pray and require your lordship, with all spede, by your lettres to certifie me, how many sithence the yere M.D.LXXXIV. have binne by your lordship admitted either to the ministerie, or to any benefice, or other promotion ecclesiastical, within your diocess, and how the same persons, soe by you admitted, are in all respects qualified, and how many of them are preachers, and by whom allowed, and generally how in all points the said articles and canons have bynne put in execution. And although it may be, that your lordship for some year hath heretofore sent unto me some certificate, yet I pray your lordship to spare me from the care of finding the same, and to take paines to certifie me for every yeare from the beginning. And soe expectinge your lordships speedy answere I committ your lordship to God. From Lambeth the 10th. of November M.D.LXXXVIII.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 6.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

Orders agreed upon by the archbishops and bishops, etc. at the Parliament M.D.LXXXVIII. and commanded by her majestie exactlie and diligentlie to be observed and put in execution. Ex MS. col. Caj. Cantab. D. 37. fol. 170.

THAT all such as have one benefyce with cure shal be compelled by his ordinarie absolutely and continuallie to be resydent thereupon accordinge to the lawe, unlesse he be absent by occasion of residence in any cathedral church, or of any service or attendance allowed by the statutes of this realme, in which cases he shall finde a sufficient preacher to be allowed by the bishoppe of the dioces, yf the lyvinge shal be thought to the bishoppe able to find a preacher.

Every incumbent of moe cured benefices then one by lawful dispensation, is to be compelled to be equallie resydent, or to have a sufficient preacher to be allowed by the bishoppe upon that benefice, from the which he shall happen to be absent, yf the lyvinge shall be thought to the bishoppe able to finde a preacher.

If any person having one or more benefices with cure shal be absent from the same by color of his residence in any cathedral church, or of the service of any prelate or nobleman, or woman; such a non-resydent that shal be absent by any such occasions by the space of 4. monthes in one yeare, shal be compelled (as before) to fynde such a sufficient preacher to supplie his absence as the bishoppe of the place shall allow of.

If any mynister havinge any lyvinge ecclesiastical in perpetuitie, or otherwise, shall so notoriously offend in anye great cryme, that he shall be justly offensyve and scandalous to his profession and calling, and thereby shal be unable to profytte the place where he offendeth, he is to be removed from suche his lyvinge, and not to be admytted after to serve any cure.

That noe mynister unlearned and not able to catechise shal be hereafter admytted to serve any cure. And yf any such be incumbent of any benefyce alreadie, the bishoppe shall, and by the lawe maye appoynt unto him a coadjutor with a convenient stypend accordinge to the value of the benefyce.

That none be suffered to place or displace any curate without authoritie from the archbishoppe or bishoppe of the dyocesse, where such a cure lyethe.

Reasons,

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT. 6.

Anno Christi
1588.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 30.

Reasons against the bill brought into the house of lords against pluralities. The clergy's address to the queen about it. Ex MS. Cott. Cleop. F. 2. fol. 254. b.

" I. IT is a very great innovation, and therefore contrary to her majesty's pleasure declared at the beginning of the parliament, as I take it. II. It abridgeth her majesty's authority, which we are all sworn to maintain. III. It diminisheth her revenues. For the greatest fees in the office of faculties are due to her highness. IV. It injureth all the better and learned sort of the clergy. V. It cannot but in time overthrow, in both the universities, the study of divinity. For who will apply himself to the study of that profession, wherein he cannot have sufficient maintenance? VI. It is absurd. For what man of reason will think that eight pounds yearly is able to maintain a learned divine? when as every skell in a kitchen, and groom of a stable is better provided for. VII. It will be the utter overthrow of a learned ministry, which now flourisheth in England, more than ever it did; and bring in a barbarous, unlearned and factious ministry. VIII. It is to be wondered that such a bill should now be offered, when there is a canon set down the last convocation, (whereunto her majesty's royal assent is) to remedy all inconveniences, that reasonably can be objected against any abuse in that kind."

" It should be considered in how unreasonable a time this bill is offered, the clergy having granted so great subsidies to her majesty: and what discouragement it may be unto them, to understand that there is such a bill offered; whereby they shall be all beggared, and made unable to perform that which they have promised."

[This bill so nearly touch'd the clergy; and so afraid they were of the ill consequences of it; that they offered the following address to her majesty.]

To the queen's most excellent majesty.*

" The woful and distressed state, whereunto we are like to fall, forceth us with grief of heart, in most humble manner to crave your majesty's most sovereign protection. For the pretence being made the maintenance and increase of a learned ministry, when it is thoroughly weighed, decayeth learning, spoyleth their livings, taketh away the set form of prayer in the church; and is the means to bring in confusion and barbarism. How dangerous innovations are in a settled state, whosoever hath judgment perceiveth. Set dangers apart, yet such great inconveniences may ensue, as will make a state most lamentable and miserable. Our neighbours miseries might make us fearful, but that we know who rules the same. All the reformed churches in Europe cannot compare with England in the number of learned ministers. These benefits of your majesty's most sacred and careful government, with hearty joy, we feel and humbly acknowledge. Senseless are they that repine at it: and careless, which lightly regard it. The respect hereof made the prophet say "Dii estis": all the faithful and discreet clergy say "O Dea certe." Nothing is impossible with God. — Requests without grounded reasons are lightly to be rejected. We therefore not as directors, but as humble remembrancers beseech your highness favourable beholding of our present state; and what it will be in time to come, if the bill against pluralities should take any place."

The present state.

" Improprations carry from the clergy in tithes yearly an hundred thousand pounds; the lands holden of abbies, priories, etc. at their dissolution, freed from tithes, remaining so, almost as much.

The colour of former statutes cutteth off tithe-wood above one and twenty years growth. Customs "de modo decimandi" in most parishes prevail to our great hindrance.

All which abridging the pastors portion without repining or dislike, we quietly sustain. And yet would they tye us to one benefice, a great part whereof being thus defalked.

The state to come.

First, Inconveniences to the church. The bishops of small benefices are now releived by benefices in "commendam". But then shall be unable to maintain their state, etc."

" If every one shall have but one benefice, what difference shall be between a doctor in divinity and a scholar?

As the state now is, learned men are provided for; but by this bill they shall be left cared for."

It requireth an impossibility. For of 8800. and odd benefices with cure, there are not 600. sufficient for learned men. Neither if they were all sufficient, could there be found the third part of men to supply that number."

No one benefice can defray the charge of such as are to be employed upon preaching before your majesty, or in other solemn places; or to attend upon synods, or other your majesty's services and public affairs. This bill restraineth not laymen to have divers improprie benefices, and to serve them by silly curates: and denyeth it to learned divines, who personally discharge their duty, and in their absence have sufficient substitutes etc.

* Vide Strype's life of Whitgift p. 280.

Archiepiſc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 6.

Anno Chriſti
1588.

R. eg. Angliæ
ELIZAB. 31.

A proclamation againſt certain ſeditious and ſchiſmatical books and libels, etc.

By the queen.

THE queen's moſt excellent majeſty conſidering how within theſe few years paſt, and now of late, certain ſeditious and evil diſpoſed perſons towards her majeſty, and the government eſtabliſhed for cauſes eccleſiaſtical within her majeſties dominions, have deviſed, written, printed, or cauſed to be ſeditiouſly and ſecretly publiſhed and diſperſed fundry ſchiſmatical and ſeditious books, diffamatory libels, and other phantaſtical writings amongſt her majeſty's ſubjects, containing in them doctrine very erroneous, and other matters notoriously untrue, and ſlanderous to the ſtate, and againſt the godly reformation of religion and government eccleſiaſtical eſtabliſhed by law, and ſo quietly of long time continued, and alſo againſt the perſons of biſhops, and others placed in authority eccleſiaſtical under her highneſs, by her authority, in railing ſort, and beyond the bounds of all good humanity: All which books, libels, and writings, tend by their ſcope to perſuade and bring in a monſtrous and apparent dangerous innovation within her dominions and countries, of all manner of eccleſiaſtical government now in uſe, and to the abridging, or rather to the overthrow of her highneſs's lawful prerogative, allowed by Gods law, and eſtabliſhed by the laws of the realm, and conſequently to reverſe, diſſolve, and ſet at liberty the preſent government of the church, and to make a dangerous change of the form of doctrine and uſe of divine ſervice of God, and the miniſtration of the ſacraments now alſo in uſe, with a raſh and malicious purpoſe alſo to diſſolve the eſtate of the prelacy, being one of the three ancient eſtates of this realm under her highneſs, whereof her majeſty mindeth to have ſuch reverend regard, as to their places in the church and common wealth appertaineth. All which ſaid lewd and ſeditious practices, do directly tend to the maniſeſt wilful breach of great number of good laws and ſtatutes of this realm; inconveniences nothing regarded by ſuch innovations.

In conſideration whereof, her highneſs graciously minding to provide ſome good and ſpeedy remedy to withſtand ſuch notable dangerous and ungodly attempts, and for that purpoſe to have ſuch enormous malefactours diſcovered and condignly puniſhed, doth ſignify this her highneſs's miſliking and indignation of ſuch dangerous and wicked enterpriſes; and for that purpoſe doth hereby will and alſo ſtraightly charge and command, that all perſons whatſoever, within any her majeſty's realms and dominions, who have or hereafter ſhall have any of the ſaid ſeditious books, pamphlets, libels or writings, or any of the like nature already publiſhed, or hereafter to be publiſhed, in his or their cuſtody, containing ſuch matters as above are mentioned, againſt the preſent order and government of the church of England, or the lawful miniſters thereof, or againſt the rites and ceremonies uſed in the church, and allowed by the laws of the realm: That they, and every of them do preſently after, with convenient ſpeed bring in, and deliver up the ſame unto the ordinary of the dioceſs, or of the place where they inhabit, to the intent they may be utterly defaced by the ſaid ordinary, or otherwiſe uſed by them. And that from henceforth no perſon or perſons whatſoever be ſo hardy as to write, contrive, print, or cauſe to be publiſhed or diſtributed, or to keep any of the ſame, or any other books, libels, or writings of like nature and quality, contrary to the true meaning and intent of this her majeſty's proclamation. And likewiſe, that no man hereafter give any inſtruction, direction, favour or aſſiſtance to the contriving, writing, printing, publiſhing, or diſperſing of the ſame, or ſuch like books, libels, or writings whatſoever, as they tender her majeſty's good favour, will avoid her high diſpleaſure, and as they will answer the contrary at their uttermoſt perils; and upon ſuch pains and penalties, as by the law any way may be inflicted upon the offenders, in any of theſe behalfs, as perſons maintaining ſuch ſeditious actions, which her majeſty mindeth to have ſeverely executed. And if any perſon have had knowledge of the authors, writers, printers or diſperſers thereof, which ſhall within one month after the publication hereof, diſcover the ſame to the ordinary of the place, where he had ſuch knowledge, or to any of her majeſty's privy council; the ſame perſon ſhall not for his former concealment be hereafter moleſted or troubled. Given at her majeſty's palace at Weſtminſter, the 13th of February, M.D.LXXXVIII. in the 31ſt year of her highneſs's reign.

God ſave the queen.

Convocatio cleri provinciae Ebor.

BREVE regium datum apud Weſtm. 20. die Septemb. anno regni 30. ſynodum convocabat in eccleſia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. die 13. menſis Novembris celebrandam. Antequam autem dies ille appropinquaret, aliud breve emanavit dat. apud Weſtm. 19. die Octobris, anno regni 30. prorogans ſynodum hanc ad 5. diem menſis Februarii ſequent. Quo die praelati et clerus convenerunt; ſequentique die 8. menſis Martii duo ultronea ac ſpontanea et voluntaria ſubſidia regiae ſuae majeſtati unanimi eorum conſenſu et aſſenſu dederunt et conceſſerunt. Et deinde in diem 11. 21. et 28. Martii ſucceſſive ſeſe continuaverunt.

Synodus

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 6

Anno Christi
1589.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 31

Synodus Cantuar. et Eboracen.

IN provincia Cantuar. synodus ad 26. diem mensis Martii, M.D.LXXXIX. continuata per quotidianas continuationes usque ad dissolutionem ejusdem, quae 2. die Aprilis contigit, nihil egit, praeterquam quod RRimus nonnullos, et inter eos episcopum Lichen, suspenderit ab officio, ideo quod absque venia a synodo recesserint.

rint.

IN EBORACENSI provincia synodus 28. die mensis Martii, et 5. die Aprilis more solito congregata, brevi regio dat. 2. die Aprilis morem gerens, 18. die ejusdem mensis sese dissolvit.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 8.

Anno Christi
1590.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 32.

The councills letter to the archbishop of Canterbury about the provision of armes by the clergy. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 163. b.

AFTER our right hartie commendations to your good lordship. Wheras there hath bynne order given by her majesties direction for general musters and views to be taken of all the able men, with their armour and furniture, within the severall counties of the realme, which ys already performed, and the certificates returned, those of the clergie remayning only uncertified; and forasmuch as we think it fytt her majestie be made acquainted as well with the one as the other, that she may know and understand the full strength of the whole realme; we have thought good to desire your lordship, with some diligence, to write your letters to all the bushopes, to send forthwith unto you the peticular certificates of the horse and foot armed, and furnished by the clergie of their severall dioceses, whereof we pray your lordship there may be no defaulte; and so byd your lordship right hartelie farewell. From the courte at Windsor the 11th of October, M.D.XC. When your lordship shall have received the certificates, we pray you send them unto us, your lordships assured loving freindes, Chr. Hatton, can. W. Burghley, H. Hunsdon, Hen. Cobham, Tho. Heneage, J. Wolley.

The archbishop's letter about the same, etc. Ibid.

AFTER my very hartie commendations to your good lordship, I send unto your lordship herein the copy of a lettre, lately sent unto me from the lords and others of her majesties most honorable privye counsaile, whereby your lordship may see her highnes gracious direction, to knowe the readines and strength of her whole realme, and to that end is already certified of the state of all the severall shires of the realme in that behalf, saving only of the clergie. These are hartelie to pray and require your lordship immediately upon the receipt thereof, to consider of the contents of these enclosed, and accordingly, with all convenient speed, to viewe all the armor and furniture of all the clergie within your diocesse, and of the able men appointed therewith to serve, and thereupon forthwith to send unto me a true and perfect certificate thereof, under your seale, and how also your self is furnished, that the same may be sent from me to the lordes according to the meaning of their lordships said lettres; and hereof praying your lordship to have such care as appertayneth, I hartelie byd your lordship farewell. From Lambeth the 19th of Octobre, M.D.XC.

Your loving brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

Orders to be observed of every bishoppe in his diocesse within the province of Yorke.

Ex MS. Coll. Caj. Cantabr. D. 37. fol. 168. seq.

IN PRIMIS, That no bushoppe shall make any ministers, but first shall geve publique notice thereof, and shall make none but suche as be of his owne dioces, or of the universities, and that they bringe with them good testimonie of their conversation and former lyfe, and shall be thoroughly examined by the bushoppe himself and others of the learned clergy, whether they have been students of divinity, and are able in the Latyn tongue to shew forth the scriptures, wherupon the articles of religion, agreed upon in the synod, are grounded. And that this action of admyting any into the ministrie be done in publique place, accordinge to the order of the book of making of mynisters in that behalf provided and establisht. And that none be admytted into the mynistry, but suche as do knowe where presently to be placed. The bushoppe that will not danger his soul must be careful herein: "Ne cito cui manus imponas," saith Paul: for the making of unworthy my-

SSS

nisters

nisters hath turned to the great schlauder of this church of England.

II. Item, That the censure of excommunication be avoided so muche as may be in tryfeling matters; for this high censure of the church is to be executed chiefly in great and criminal causes.

III. Item, That noe commutation of penance be used but only by the bishoppe, and then when he shall evidently perceyve, that the offender may rather be wonne thereby, than by corporal punishment: yet let it be knowne openly in his parishe church, that he acknowledged his faulte before his ordinarie, submytted himselfe, and geven suche a peece of money for the releif of the poore, as a frute of his repentance. The whole sume wherof shall be delivered to the mynister and churchwardens; they to distribute the same amongst the poore of the parishe, and to certifie the bishoppe of their doings therein.

IV. Item, That noe dispensation for not askinge bannes of matrimonie be graunted, but under sufficient and large bonde with these conditions followinge. That afterward there shall not appear any lawful lette or impediment, by reason of any precontracte, consanguinitie, affinitye, or anye other lawful meanes whatsoever. And secondlie, that there be not at that present time of grauntinge such dispensation, any sute, plaint, quarrel, or demande moved or depend-inge before any judge ecclesiastical or temporal for or concerning any suche lawful impediment between the said parties. And thirdly, that they proceede not to the solemnization of the marriage without consent of parents or governours. And that no such lycence be graunted, or bond taken, without the expresse consent of the bishoppe himselfe.

V. Item, It is carefully to be considered, that none be admytted into the ministerie, either allowed preacher in any dioces, except he or they first subscribe to the articles of religion established and allowed of. And that every one that hath or shall have any ecclesiastical lyvinge with cure, beinge a mynister, shall once in the yeare in the place, where he hath charge, mynister the holie communion in his own person accordinge to the order set downe in the booke of Common Prayer. And her majestie hath advised the bishoppes, that none be admytted a preacher under the age of twenty seven yeares.

VI. Lastly, Publique fasts, and such unwonted assemblies without sufficient authoritie, are not to be suffered, but utterly prohibited.

E. Ebor.

Matthew Hutton.

Rob. Longher.

Ric. Pearfy.

Wm. Palmer.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 8.

Anno Christi
1591.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 33.

Orders to be observed in the government of the church, agreed upon by the archbishoppe and bishopps of the province of Yorke, Aug. 1. M.D.XCI. when the bishoppe of Durham was consecrated. Ex MS. Col. Caj. Cantab. D. 37. fol. 171.

I. IN PRIMIS, That the mynisters in every diocesse be exercysed with the studie and practise of the scriptures continuallie, in such sorte, as hath been accustomed in every severall diocesse, and that they render an accompte of their studyes and labores to their ordinarie so often as they shall be required, tyll farther order be taken in his grace's metropolitical visitation.

II. Item, That the saide mynisters do use all paynefull diligence in catechisinge the youthe and others of their parishe, accordinge to her majesties injunctions, and other godly canons in that behalfe provyded, or else to be censured by their ordinaries, as the qualitie of the offence requirethe.

III. Item, All non-resydents to be called home and constrained to resydence upon their charge, so far as the lawe will warrant. And all those, who be lawfullie absent from their benefyces, to maintain and keepe a godly preacher there duringe the tyme of their absence, at the discretion of their ordinarie, yf the lyvinge be able to bear it.

IV. Item, Every preacher or expounder of the words in any church or congregation to be present at Common Prayer in the saide church or congregation, and to recieve the communion there four times in the yeare at the least.

V. Item, If any minister be known not to observe the orders of the book of Common Prayer, in saying the service and administering the sacraments and other rites and ceremonies therein conteyned, that he be sent for presently and enjoyned to reform his disorder, and to certifie his saide reformation; which if he do not, then ordinary proceedinge to be used against him, according to lawe.

VI. Item, All recusants, and speciallie those of the best sorte to be proceeded against effectually, and speedelie so farre as the law will yeelde power.

VII. Item, Those that do not communicate, to be dealt withal by the ordinarie in such wyse and godlie manner, as shall seem best unto him for their reformation.

VIII. Item, Noe permutation of any penance to be made by any officer whatsoever without special lycence from the ordinarie under his hand.

The

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 8.

Anno Christi
1591.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 33.

The archbishop's letter for catechising and confirming. Reg. I. Whitgift fol.
181. a.

AFTER my very hartie commendations. Your lordship is not ignorant, that a great parte of the dissolutenes in manners and ignorance in the common sorte, that raigneth in most partes of this realme, even in this clear light of the gospell otherwise, ariseth hereof, for that the yowthe (being as it were the frie and seaminarie of the church and commonwealth) through negligence both of natural and spiritual fathers, are not (as were meete) trayned up in the chief and neecessarye principells of christian religion, wherby they might learn their duty to God, to their prince, their countrie, and their neighbours, especially in their tender yeres, when these things might best be planted in them, and would become most hardly to be afterward removed. This mischief might well (in myne opinion) be redressed, if that, which in this behalf hath been wisely and godlie provided, were as carefullie called on, and executed, namely, by catechisinge and instructing in churches of yowthes, of both sexes, on the Sabbath daies, and holy daies, in afternoones, and that (if it may be convenientlie) before their parents, and others of the severall parishes, who therby may take comforte and instruction alsoe. One great inducement unto the learning of the rudimentes of religion hath hertofore ben observed to be, that chardge, which by the book of Common Prayer every minister should give after baptizing the infantes, to have them (soe sone as they maye learne) instructed in the catechisme, and having learned it, to be broughte to the bishoppe to be confirmed; which gyvinge chardge I do heare is for the most parte omitted. This auntient and laudable ceremonie of confirminge children, in respect of a carefullnes in fathers to have their children instructed, that afterwards they might be confirmed, hath heretofore wrought much good, where yt was used; I am very sorrye to hear that my brethren the bishops of my province of Canterbury doe so generally begin to neglect to confirm children, at least to call for, and exact the use both of it and of catechising children in the church by the minister, and of parents to send their children, and to come thither themselves. These wantes are now grown so common and offensive by the ill effects, which they are found to yeld, that I am in conscience urged verie earnestlie, and in the fear of God, to require your lordship and other my brethrene the bishops, according to your pastoral care, and for the duty which you owe to God and his church, both in your own visitations, from time to time, and by your archdeacons, and other ecclesiastical officers, to give straite chardge unto parentes to come themselves, or at least to send their children to the church at such times, and especially unto ministers to expounde unto them, and to examine the children in that little catechisme, which is allowed by authoritie; and also at the baptizing of infants to give that charge for bringing them unto the bishop to be confirmed, which by the book of Common Prayer is prescribed. And I do also hereby require at your lordships handes to geve warning to the ministers of your dioces, that they cause such children of their parish onely, that can say the catechisme, to be brought from tyme to tyme unto your lordship to be confirmed, not only when you visite trienniallye, but also at other fit opportunities for such a purpose; as namely when you travel abroad in the dioces to preach, and on markett daies, when you reside and make your abode in any markett town, whither the people of parishes thereabouts do usually resort. Thus nothing doubting of your lordships forwardnes and care herein, I commend you to Gods holy protection. From Croydon the . . . of Septembre M.D.XCI. your loving freind and brother.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 10.

Anno Christi
1592.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 35.

Convocatio praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. Ex MSS. Miles Smith apud Thom. episc. Aflaven.

CONVOCATIO praelatorum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. per breve regium ad 20. diem Februarii in ecclesia D. Pauli London. summonita, de die in diem per 19. sessiones continuata, nihil praeter duo dominae reginae subsidia concedenda tractavit.

Quo facto, et poena in non comparentes et abeuntes absque venia irrogata, 11. die Aprilis anni sequentis virtute brevis regii ab archiepiscopo dissoluta fuit.

Habet quaedam Strypius in vita archiepisc. Whitgift pag. 398. quae in hac convocazione gesta adnotavit.

In this convocation the deans and divers of the prebendaries of the late erected churches, being now met together, resolved to move for an act of parliament for the confirmation of them; to prevent for the future the great vexations they had met with from such as pretended, that much of their revenues were concealed lands, lands, and so belonging to the crown. The archbishop had often laboured to stop these mischieves to the church and learning; and had so prevailed with the lord treasurer to espouse this cause, that upon their petition he had lately effectually shewn the queen (the archbishop also being present) the great inconveniencies of these commissions granted by her, to the spoiling of those religious foundations of hers, and her father and brother. And upon this encouragement both from the archbishop and the said lord, they wrote their letter dated in March from the convocation house to him, to this tenor: "Their duties in most humble wise remembered: That whereas divers of the cathedral and collegiate churches, erected by her majesty, her father, and brother, and the possessions thereof, had been procured as "Concelements," and that for very trifles, to the prejudice, no doubt, of their princely entendments, and to the disquieting of such as had been and were there placed; and to the utter wasting and spending the revenues thereof, appointed for many honourable and good uses: forasmuch as they understood by their very good lord, the archbishop of Canterbury his grace, his honourable and loving affection to such foundations, testified in his presence even to her majesty, and likewise perceived by such of themselves, as from them had been sent to his lordship, his honours good acceptance of their humble petition and dislike of such practises; they had thought it their bounden duties to yield unto his lordship most humble thanks, and withall to beseech and desire the same, that by his honourable mediation and countenance, a remedy might at this parliament (by confirmation of the same grants) be obtained. That it would redound to the glory of almighty God, the honour of her majesty, the special recommendation of his lordship, the increase of learning in the church and universities, and breed in those troublesome days a happy home peace to our churches and to them, poor churchmen. And thus making bold to lay themselves, and their whole cause in his honourable and accustomed regard and favour, and beseeching the almighty long to bless and preserve his lordship; and at this, they humbly took their leaves. From their convocation house the 16th of March, M.D.XCII. subscribing his lordships most bounden, the deans and prebendaries of the late erected churches. Signed W. James, Gabriel Goodman, Humphrey Tyndal, Martin Heton, Thomas Nevyle, Will. Redman, Philip Bisse, Tho. White, Hadrianus Saravia, John Freake, Jo. Pratt, P. Williams, Will. Wilson, Thomas Monforde.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 10.

Anno Christi
1592.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 35.

Orders for the oath of obedience to her majesty. Reg. I. Whitgift fol. 197. b.

AFTER my hartie commendations. Where by her majesties directions, the lordes and other of her hignes most honorable privy counsell have written their lettres, that all the justices of peace of this realme shall take the oath of obedience to her majestie, according to the statute made and established in the first yere of her highness raigne; and where likewise the judges, and all other officers and ministers of other her majesties courtes, have at this tyme taken that oath openly in place of judgment, and I my self also have caused my judges, advocates, proctors, and other officers belonging to me, to take the same oath; I have thought good to wish and advise you, upon the next court day after the receipte hereof, to geve order to the chancellor, commissaries, archdeacons, officials, proctors, and registers to take and give the like oath, with inhibition to those that shall refuse the same, or shall not be present to take it, that they forbear any way to exercise in your courtes, untill they shall have taken the said oath accordingly. And soe I byd you hartelie farewell. From Croydon the 12th of December M.D.XCII.

Your loving brother in Christ.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the bishop of Gloucester for an account of his clergy. By the queen's order. Ibid. fol. 199. b.

"SALUTEM in Christo." It is her majesties expresse pleasure and commandment, that you shall make a perfect and particular certificate, and send the same unto me before the beginning of the parliament, to be delivered to her majestie, of all the ministers beneficed, or serving cures, within your diocese, their names, their degrees in schoole, their learning, their conversation, and whether they be preachers or noe, and if they be noe preachers, of what tolerable learning they are, or otherwise; and likewise which of them yourself have admitted since your being byshop, and in what yeare and time you admitted them; to the intent her majestie may understand the state and qualities of all her clergy in England, and especialllye how her commandment hath byn observed, which was openlie given in parliament; for yt is said that there are as unmeet ministers admitted since, as there were before: you may not fail hereof, nor deale otherwise in your certificate then you will be able to stand to and justifie. And notwithstanding you have peradventure made some such certificate heretofore unto me, which

Archb. letter to the bish. of GLOCESTER about his clergy. 345 which some of my brethren the byshops have done, but not manie (wherein they have forgott themselves) yet will not that serve the turne, but you must again certifie (as I have before said) and in that due order and forme, that the same may be delivered to her highnes; for soe yt is her pleasure it should be. You must likewise certifie, whom you have deprived for insufficiency and lewdeness of life. I do also pray you not to make anie excuse for absence from the parliament; your presence will be necessary, as well to answer for your self, yf there be cause, as alsoe for the publick service, and good of the church. And soe requiring you in her majesties name to see the premises duely performed, I committ you to the tuition of God. From Lambeth the 10th of Januarie M.D.XCII.

Your loving brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

To the reverend father in God my very good lorde and brother the byshop of Glocester.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 10.

Anno Christi
1592.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 35.

The form of submission prescribed by the xxxv. Eliz. C. I. § V. to seditious sectaries.

I A. B. do humbly confesse and acknowledge, that I have greivously offended God in contemning her majesty's godly and lawful government and authority, by absenting my self from church, and from hearing divine service, contrary to the godly laws and statutes of this realm; and in using and frequenting disordered and unlawful conventicles and assemblies, under pretence and colour of exercise of religion: and I am heartily sorry for the same, and do acknowledge and testify in my conscience, that no other person hath, or ought to have any power or authority over her majesty. And I do promise and protest, without any dissimulation, or any colour or means of any dispensation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and perform her majesty's laws and statutes, in repairing to the church, and hearing divine service, and do my uttermost endeavour to maintain and defend the same.

The submission prescribed to popish recusants by the statute xxxv. Eliz. C. II. § XVI.

I A. B. do humbly confesse and acknowledge, that I have grievously offended God in contemning her majesty's godly and lawful government and authority, by absenting my self from church, and from hearing divine service, contrary to the godly laws and statutes of this realm. And I am heartily sorry for the same, and do acknowledge and testify in my conscience, that the bishop or see of Rome hath not, nor ought to have any power or authority over her majesty, or within any her majesty's realms or dominions. And I do promise and protest, without any dissimulation, or any colour or means of any dispensation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and perform her majesty's laws and statutes, in repairing to the church, and hearing divine service, and do my uttermost endeavour to maintain and defend the same.

Synodus praelatorum et cleri provinciae Eboracensis.

SYNODUS praelatorum et cleri provinciae Ebor. per breve regium dat. apud Westm. 5. Januar. anno regni xxxv. in ecclesia metropolitana B. Petri Ebor. 20. die Februarii convocabatur; quae deinde diebus sexto, decimo sexto, et vicesimo tertio mensis Martii per continuationes rursus summonita, in domo capitulari ecclesiae Ebor. conveniebat. Anno sequenti M.D.XCIII. ultimo die mensis Martii, et dein 2. die Aprilis praelati et clerus iterum congregati, subsidium dominae reginae concesserunt. Hoc facto, synodus in 6. et eo die in 20. diem ejusdem mensis continuata fuit.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 11.

Anno Christi
1593.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 36.

Archbishop's letter for contributions towards converted preists. Reg. II. Whitgift fol. 106. a.

"SALUTEM in Christo." Amonge such priestes as come over from beyond the seas to pervert her majesties subjects both in religion and obedience, yt pleaseth God, by conference and other good meanes, to convert some to the truth, to whome alsoe it pleaseth her majestie of her gracious goodnes to graunt pardon; and forasmuch as diverse of them, being pardoned, are altogether destitute of maintenance, and driven to great extremitie through the same (a great temptation for them to revolt, and a discouragement for others to followe their example of conversion, and a slander to the state) I am moved with christian pity and compassion, to pray your lordship to move the better and wealthier sorte of the clergie within your

T t t t

VOL. IV.

your dioces, to yelde some contribution towards their releif, untill they may be otherwise provided for (as some of them are) and the same contribution to send unto me, with as convenient expedition as you may. Our adversaries plentifully rewarde and maintaine such as flye from us to them; and their preistes, whilest they remayned papistes, lacked nothing; a great want of charity therefore, and shame it were for us, after their conversion, to suffer them to begge or else to dye, or to revoult for lack. If it were not for one or two, some of them had ben in that case ere now, who being no longer able to indure that charge, the poore sowles shal be driven to the before named extremities, without your charitable relief. The burden will be very easie divided among soe manye, which otherwise is importable to such as do now sustayn yt, and therefore I hartelie pray you to have good consideration hereof, and to deale in this case as you would be dealt with in the like; and soe with my verie hartie commendations I committ you to the tuition of almighty God. From Lambeth the 9th of December M.D.XCIII.

Your lordship's loving brother in Christ.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT II.

Anno Christi
1594.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 36.

The counccills letter and instructions to the archbishop of Canterbury about recusants.

Reg. II. Whitgift fol. 113. a.

AFTER our hartie commendations to your lordship and the rest. Whereas it is credible enformed, that there be sundry men's wives dwelling within the dioces of Cant. that refuse to come to the church; and that fundrie persons do entertayne, keepe, and releive servants, and others that be recusants, contrarye to the statute made in the last parliament; fithence which time it is likewise notified unto us, that many have shewed themselves rather more obstinate in divers parts of this realme in matter of religion, then anie waies more tractable or conformable; forasmuch as this matter doth verie much importe the true service of God, and the estate of her majestie and her realm, and therefore ought with the greater care and diligence to be looked into; we have therefore thought it expedient to send your lordship in a schedule here inclosed, certeine notes and directions for the more exact and orderly proceeding herein, subscribed by us and the clarke of the counsell, and do verie earnestlie require your lordship etc. with all convenient expedition, to cause diligent enquire to be made of all wyves, servants, and other recusants, within your lordships dioces and jurisdiction, according to the orders and directions prescribed in the said schedule, and to make perfect certificate thereof forthwith to us. So not doubtinge, but your lordship will have that regarde to the due execution herof, as apperteyneth, and as her majestie and our selves do expect, we byd your lordship, etc. verie hartelie farewell. From the court at Windesore castle the 26th of August, M.D.XCIV.

Your lordships etc. verie loving frendes,

Joh. Puckering, C. S.	T. Buckhurst,
W. Burghley.	J. Wolley.
Effex.	J. Fortescue.
C. Howard.

To our very good lorde, the lord archbishop of Cant. and to our loving frends the deane, ordinarie, and officialls of that diocefs.

Notes and directions to be observed by the lord archbishop, deane, ordinarie, and officers of the diocefs of Cant. in their enquiry after wyves and servants, recusants, etc.

THEY shall first cause diligent inquisition to be made in everye parish, what wyves be recusants, and shall certifie the names, and dwelling places of the husband and wief, and the condition and state of the husband, videlicet knight, esquire, gentleman, etc. They shall cause also enquire to be made, who kepe or releive any servants, or others, that be recusants within their families, or under their commandment, contrary to the statute the xxxvth of her majesties reigne; and for the better knowledge thereof, they shall take strict order, that curates, churchwardens, or sydemen of every parishe do make request to every householder, man or woman, in her majesties name, keeping any number of servants, men or women, above the number of ten, to notifie the names of all the said servants; and all the names so delyvered and put in writing, the said curate, churchwarden, or sydeman shall expressly require every the said servants to resort to the church, according to the lawe, and of the time of this request to keep a note in writing; likewise after a moneth next after such request the curate or churchwardens shall give notice to every one, that keepeth or releeveth any such servante, or other recusante, and hath not come to any parish church, or to usual place of common prayer to hear divine service, but hath forborne the same for the space of a month, before such notice given, without any reasonable cause. And the order, which the said curate shall use in his admonition, hereafter followeth:

I A. B. curate of the parish of C. doe give notice notice unto J. S. that the servant of R. N. doth obstinately refuse to come to any church, chappel, or usual place of common prayer, to hear divine service, and hath forborne the same by the space of a month together last past, contrary to the lawes and statutes of this realm.

Jo. Puckering, C. S. Ro. Cecyll.
W. Burghley. Jo. Wolley.
Essex. A. Achley.
T. Buckhurst.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 12.

Anno Christi
1594.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 37.

The archbishop's letter touching ecclesiastical courtes. Reg. II. Whitgift fol. 122. b.

AFTER my hartie commendations. It hath pleased the quenes most excellent majestie, by her lettres patentes of commission under the greate seale of England, to require and authorize me and such others as I shall call to myn assistance, to make a diligent and perticular survey and viewe of all and singular courtes ecclesiastical, within my province of Cant. to the effect and purpose conteyned in the articles herein enclosed. I have therefore, for better expedition therof and ease of the subjects from travell, thought good in her highnes name to require you, that forthwith and with all diligence, care, and celeritye, and with as little charge to the subject as may be, you do, by all good and lawfull waies and meanes you can, enquire and seeke to inform your self, towching all and every the contents of the said articles, within the dioces of London, as well in places exempt, or which claime any peculiar jurisdiction whatsoever, as in places not exempt; saving those that be of mine own peculiar jurisdiction of Cant. wherof I mynde to make enquiry by some persons specially thereunto appointed; and that which you shall see find in the premises, without all partialitie or favour of any person whatsoever, to retorne unto me fair written and subscribed with your hande, at or before the last day of April next ensyng. Theise shall be also further to require and authorize you, by vertue of the said lettres patentes of commission, to cause such of the said vicars generall, officialls, commissaries, and other inferior judges ecclesiasticall, or their set ordinarie, surrogatts, and such of the said advocates, proctors, officers, clerke, and ministers, as by you shall be thought meet, to take a corporal oath upon the holy evangelistes, that they shall well and faithfully demeane themselves towardes the queens majestie, and her subjects in the execution of their severall offices and places. And soe hoping of your good and indifferent endeavour herin, according to her majesties expectation, and the special trust reposed in you in this behalf, I committ you to Gods holy protection. From Lambeth the 24th of November M.D.XCIV.

Your assured loving friend in Christ.

To my very good lord the byshop of Wigorn, Mr. Dr. Andrewes and Mr. Dr. Stanhope, and to everye of them.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 12.

Anno Christi
1595.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 37.

Articuli Lambethani compositi ab archiep. Cantuar. Rich. Bancroft, episc. London. Ric. Vaughan, Bangor. episc. Humphr. Tyndall, decano Elien. Doct. Whitaker, regio professore Cantabrig. Ex Fuller. eccles. hist. l. IX. p. 230.

I. DEUS ab aeterno praedestinavit quosdam ad vitam, quosdam reprobavit ad mortem.

II. Causa movens aut efficiens praedestinationis ad vitam non est provisio fidei, aut perseverantiae, aut bonorum operum, aut ullius rei, quae infit in personis praedestinatis; sed sola voluntas beneplaciti Dei.

III. Praedestinatorum praefinitus et certus est numerus, qui nec augeri nec minui potest.

IV. Qui non sunt praedestinati ad salutem, necessario propter peccata sua damnabuntur.

V. Vera, viva, et justificans fides et Spiritus Dei justificantis non extinguitur, non excidit, non evanescit in electis, aut finaliter aut totaliter.

VI. Homo vere fidelis, id est, fide justificante praeditus, certus est plerophoria fidei de remissione peccatorum suorum, et salute sempiterna sua per Christum.

VII. Gratia salutaris non tribuitur, non comunicatur, non conceditur universis hominibus, qua servari possint, si velint.

VIII. Nemo potest venire ad Christum, nisi datum ei fuerit, et nisi pater eum traxerit; et omnes homines non trahuntur a patre, ut veniant ad filium.

IX. Non est positum in arbitrio aut potestate uniuscujusque hominis servari.

Matthew Hutton, archbishop of York; did concur in his judgment with these divines, as appears by his letter:

Accepi jampridem literas tuas, reverendissime praeful, veteris illius benevolentiae, et amoris erga me tui plenas; in quibus efflagitas opinionem meam de articulis quibusdam nuper Cantabrigiae agitatiss, non sine aliqua piorum offensione, qui graviter molesteque ferunt matrem aca-academiam, jam multitudine liberorum et quidem doctissimorum florentem, ea dissentione filiorum nonnihil contristatam esse. Sed fieri non potest, quin veniant offendicula, neque desinet inimicus homo inter triticum zizania seminare, donec eum Dominus sub pedibus contriverit. Legi articulos et relegi, et dum pararem aliquid de singulis dicere, visum est mihi multo potius de ipsa electione et reprobatione (unde illa dissensio orta esse videtur) meam sententiam et opinionem paucis verbis explicare, quam singulis singillatim respondens, fratrum forsitan quorundam animas (quos in veritate diligo) exacerbare. Meminisse potes, ornatissime antistes, cum Cantabrigiae una essemus, et sacras literas in scholis publicis interpretaremur, eandem regulam secuti, eam semper fuisse inter nos consensionem in omnibus religionis causis, et ne minima quidem vel dissentionis, vel simultatis suspicio unquam appareret. Igitur hoc tempore, si iudicio dominationis tuae, id, quod pingui Minerva scripsi, probatum ire intellexero, multo mihi minus displicebo. Deus te diutissime servet incolumem, ut tum reginae serenissimae et toti regno fidelissimus consiliarius, tum etiam ecclesiae huic nostrae Anglicanae pastor utilissimus multos adhuc annos esse possis. Vale e musaeo meo apud Bishop-thorp calend. Octob. anno Domini M.D.XCV.

Archiepisc Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 13.

Anno Christi
1595.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 38.

Orders which the reverend father Richard, lord bishop of London, desireth to be assented unto, and carefully observed by every ecclesiastical officer, exercising jurisdiction ecclesiastical under him within the diocese of London, March 5. M.D.XCV.
Reg. Grindall fol. 365. b. seqq.

TOUCHING the constitutions lately imprinted, published, and by her majesty commanded to be observed; that as well every judge, as all registers, apparitours, and all other inferiour ministers doe every one of them, so farr as they doe any way concern himself, diligently and carefully put the said constitutions and every parte of them in execution, and doe within the time in any of the said constitutions limited, return certificate unto his lordship of all such matters, as they by the said constitutions are to certify.

II. It is desired, that none be received or admitted to serve as curate by any judge ecclesiasticall of this diocese, having authority to grant such licence, nor to teach either grammer or "Petitur" either publickly or privately, who shall not, before he be admitted, exhibit unto the judge either letters testimoniall, commonly called dimissories, from the ordinary, in whose dioceses he last continued for the space of one year before; or letters testimoniall under the hands of the master and seniors or fellowes of that colledge in Cambridge or Oxforde, where he had his last residence one year before; or a true certificate under the handwriting of the next justice of peace to the parish, where the partie dwelled for one whole year before; together with the subscription of the parson, churchwardens, and other honest near neighbours of the said parish, testifying his honest conversation of life, and his obedience to her majesties government ecclesiasticall, and that for learninge he be qualified, as the constitutions require in a deacon.

III. It is desired, that no ecclesiastical judge of this dioceses shall have any other seal but one, for the sealing of all matters incident to his office, which seal shall always be kept by himself or his lawfull substitute, exercising jurisdiction for him, remaining within the jurisdiction of the said judge; which seal shall contain the title of that jurisdiction, which the said judge executeth.

IV. For avoiding the grievances so much complained of against the judges "in partibus" for the multiplicity of their courts, whereby the subject is drawn to an infinite charge, and to a great confusion; it is desired, that neither archdeacon nor commissary doe keep courte any oftner, than as twenty years agoe they usually did, and that in their accustomed and anciently used places of courte; and that neither the commissary nor archdeacon doe keep any courte within seven days, at the soonest, the one of the other.

V. It is desired, that no parish, which is warned to any visitation either of the bishop himself, or of any archdeacon or commissary, doe pay for the exhibiting of any bill of presentment but only once in the year, when the first bill is brought in, and then but four pence; neither that any register or other officer doe take any thing for any of the rest of bills, which the said churchwardens do the other three quarters usually exhibit to their courte.

VI. It is desired, that no ecclesiastical judge of the dioceses of London doe speed any judicial acte whatsoever, assuming any to write or speed the same, save only the ordinary register of that court, or his lawfull deputy; and that the registers "in partibus" doe take that order by themselves, and their lawfull deputies, that they doe give especial attendance on the judges in their ordinarie courtes; and likewise to attend the judge at such convenient times, as the parties, who do at extraordinary times "implorare iudicis officium," shall likewise so require the registers attendance, and that no bonds be taken but in presence of the register or his deputy.

VII. It is desired, that all ecclesiasticall judges, exercising jurisdiction within the dioceses of London, have a speciall regarde to substitute none to keep any court for them, if he be a minister, ster, who is not a publick preacher and a benefited man; if he be no minister, not any under the degree of batchelour of lawe, and a man of modest and good conversation; the want of which care hath bread great contempt and disdaine to the said courte.

VIII. It is desired, that whosoever prayeth processe against any party "ad respondendum articulis ad promotionem partis," shall be by the judge denied that processe, unless he first deliver the articles or the effect of them in writinge to the said judge, and offer "cautionem obligatoriam" to the use of the bishop of London to prosecute the cause without letting it fall, or make any composition, or using any collusion to frustrate the direct judicall course thereof.

IX. It is desired, that no ecclesiastical judge whatsoever of the dioces of London doe hear any cause of incest, adulterie, fornication, simony, notorious offensive drunkennes, or any other publick and scandalous offence, but only in open court; neither that any of them doe appoint any penance, to be done for any such offence, but publickly in open court; neither that after they have the lord bishops consent, they do make any commutation, but publickly in open courte.

X. It is desired, that no ecclesiastical judge of the dioces of London doe appoint any publick penance for any of the aforesaid offences, to be done at any other time, save on the Sunday at morning prayer, betwixt the reading of the first lesson, and the Ten Commandments; and that the form of confession of the offendours fault be conceived by the judge, and set down in writing by the register, and a copy of it delivered by the register to be pronounced by the party offending with an audible voice, so as the whole congregation may hear it at the time of his penance doing.

XI. Where great offence hath heretofore been given against the ecclesiasticall judges proceedings "ex officio" upon an apparitours complaint, or without any good ground and presentment; it is desired, that the judges of every court ecclesiasticall of the dioces of London, doe give their consent to an uniform order not to proceed in any matter of office, but upon presentment or notoriety of the offence; neither so ordinariely as in some jurisdictions heretofore hath been used to vex the subject, by appointing "promotorem necessarium," so to draw a charge of paying for articles, and the promoters fees, many times for small offences, and without any great ground of infamy against the partie, to warrant the judges proceedings: and that the judges will likewise take order, where there is "clamosa insinuatio" or publick infamy raised, which is by the churchwardens concealed and not presented; in that case, the judge concealing "nomen delatoris" to send the crime and the same thereupon raised unto the churchwardens of the parish, where that offence is related to be, and to cause them to inform themselves against the next court following, or sooner, if they so can, of the said same, and to send to the judge of that court, who sendeth unto them their answer in writing unto the said delation: so shall the court to which the cause is first related, be possessed of that cause, and sin shall not escape unpunished.

VOL. IV.

XII. To help the many complaints, which be made against the concealing of recusants, as well popish as sectaries; every archdeacon and other ecclesiastical judge of the dioces of London, who hath to call any presentments, is desired that betwixt this and Easter terme next, he will carefully inform himself as well by presentment of churchwardens, by other private enquiries, by looking uppon his former presentments, and records, as by all other good means of the christen names, and surnames of every recusant within his jurisdiction, as well man as woman kynd, of their severall degrees, qualities, and livelyhood, how long they have lived within their jurisdiction, how long they have been observed and noted for recusants, and what proceedings hath been against every of them heretofore, either by inditement, or otherwise by ecclesiastical censure, and to return a true certificate unto me, by the beginning of Easter term next, of all recusants, and that they will cause their registers to have a special regard unto the bills, which the churchwardens bring unto them, that both the christen name and surname of every recusant and their title, if they can learn it, be set down, and whether he or she be a popish recusant or a sectarie. And to cause the churchwardens to reform these defects in their bills by some short time.

XIII. It is desired, that no "Significavit" be returned into her majesty's high court of Chancery by any ecclesiastical judge whatsoever, who hath not his commission immediate from the bishop for doing thereof; but that all archdeacons and other judges ecclesiasticall doe carefully observe the lawe in that case provided, to send letters of request to the bishop, in case where one "Significavit" is by them directed, certifying the contempt and the names of the parties according to the usual form therein by lawe appointed.

XIV. It is desired, that no ecclesiastical judge of the dioces of London shall lay any pecuniarie mulct upon any offendour before publick penance enjoined as before, and the partie delinquent have judicially prayed commutation of it.

XV. To the end that I may the better hereafter answer such complaints, as shall be made against the ecclesiastical courts of this dioces, in compounding or overslipping of enormous offences complained of unto them; it is desired to be assented unto by all judges exercising jurisdiction ecclesiastical within the dioces of London; that every one of them doe once every year, namely betwixt Michaelmas and Allholantide certify unto me, the bishop of London, under the handwriting of every judge, and his severall registers, the names and surname of all persons, who are presented or detected unto them for any incest, adultery, fornication, simonie, notorious offensive drunkennes, or any other publick scandalous offence; howmany of them have performed any publick penance, and what it was, together with the day and form he did it in; howmany of them stood excommunicated in not appearance; howmany in not performing the penance so enjoined them, and how long they have so stood excommunicate; howmany of them have appealed from the judge, who proceeded against them; what court hath inhibited the judge, and how long they have stood inhibited for that cause; howmany of them have had their penance commuted, by what warrant it hath been done, and to what uses the mony so ordered to be commuted for, hath been employed.

U u u u

ny

XVI. It is desired, that every ecclesiastical judge exercising jurisdiction within London dioces, shall by Easter next certifie under his handwriting to me, the bishop, the number of all the churches within every deanery, subject to his jurisdiction, the names of all the apparitours, who do serve under him, the names of every deanery, for which he serveth; to the end that the multiplicity of them be restrained, according to the constitution in that behalf lately authorisid.

XVII. It is desired, that no apparitour whatsoever be appointed administrator of the goods of any defunct, unless he be "proximus consanguineus" to the party, or a creditor "bonae fidei" without collusion; neither letters "ad colligendum" (which are not to be granted without the bishops own consent to any partie) shall be granted to any apparitour.

XVIII. It is desired, that every apparitour be bound by the judge, under whom he serveth, not to vex the subject with extortion, and that he shall make a true return of all processes committed to him to execute; that he shall not keep back any excommunication, suspension, interdiction, or sequestration, or other matter incident to his office delivered him to execute, but shall make true return of all matters committed to his charge, to execute according to the time by the judge of the court limited unto him.

XIX. It is lastly desired, that the archdeacons shall require all ministers, especially those, who preach at any visitation, in their sermons to stir up the churchwardens and fidemen to a respective care and conscience of their oathes, in discharging for their parts, their duties for punishment of sin, and all offences, which they are charged by the articles delivered to them to make enquiry of.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 13.

Anno Christi
1596.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 38.

Archbishop's letter for admonition for preachers. Reg II. Whitgift fol. 145.

"SALUTEM in Christo." Upon advertisement out of all partes of the realme of the dearth of all manner of grayne, and that in moſte parte of the realme, the pryſes thereof are exceſſively riſen; her maſteſtie, conſidered how the ſame is inhanſed, eſpeciallie within theſe two or three months, doth impute the fault thereof aſwell to the covetous diſpoſition of the farmers and engroſſers of corne, that ſeek all exceſſive and ungodly lucre by hording up of corn, and making more ſcarcity then there is, and in ſome part to the neglect of the execution of ſuch good orders, as have been deviſed for the due ſerving of the markets, and avoiding theſe abuſes that are practized by covetous perſons to inhanſe the priſes of corne; her maſteſtie therefore, of the princely care ſhe hath of the porer ſorte of the people, doth conſider, that they having theſe two laſt yerſes ſuffered great penurie and hardnes by the dearth of corne and other victualls, whereby they have ſpent that little they had, ſhould now by rayſing of priſes of corn to ſo great rates be driven to very great miſery and extremitie, if order ſhould not be taken to redreſſe, as much as may be, theſe inconveniencies, hath, of her moſt princely care ſhe hath of her loving ſubjects, publiſhed a proclamation, and commanded the lordes and others of her maſteſties moſt honorable privy counsell, in her name, to recommend by theſe lettres earneſtly the execution of thoſe orders, that were ſet forth the laſt yere to the ſheriffs and juſtices of peace in the ſeve-

ral counties of the realme; who if they ſhall perform their duties to ſee the ſame obſerved, according to her maſteſties earneſt deſire, and as they ought to doe, there is good hope that there will be that plentie found in the realme, as may conveniently ſerve the land at reaſonable priſes: howbeit forasmuch as this covetouſe humor doth growe chiefly by want of that chriſtian charity, which men ought to have, and for that alſoe, of all other kinde of lucre that is moſt ungodly, that is gotten by pinching and ſtarving of the poore people; it is moſt fit and neceſſarie that the preachers ſhould generally in their ſermons admoniſh the farmers, and owners of corne, of this diſhoneſt and unchriſtian kinde of ſeeking gain by oppreſſion of their poor neighbours, and recommend to the richer ſorte keeping of hoſpitality, for the relief of the poore; and likewise that howſekeepers being of wealth would be content in their own diet to avoid exceſſe, and to uſe fewer diſhes of meate in this time of dearth, and to forbear to have ſuppers in their howſes on Wendneſdaies, Frydaies, and faſtinge daies, whereby much might be ſpared, that would be better beſtowed a great deale on the relief of the poore; and in like manner to admoniſh gentlemen and others of meaner ſorte, that keepe kennel of howndes, that they ſhould better to forbear the keeping of dogges in theiſ tymes of dearth, and to convert that they ſpend ſuperfluouſly that way, to the relief of the poorer ſorte; and in no caſe to forget to reprove that untollerable exceſſe of eatinge inge and drinking, that is commonly used in alehouses, and other like places of common resort. Theis and other such like exhortations I earnestly pray and require your lordship, in her majesties name, to recommend to the preachers and ministers of your diocess, to be used with all earnestness and discretion, and alsoe that your lordship give order, that such as are beneficed reside upon their benefices, to give good example to others in using hospitalitie, almes, and relieving of the poor neighbours; and that such as doe not reside upon their benefices, give order to their farmers, that dwell upon them, to keepe howse therein, whereby the poor may be relieved: whereof, and of all the premises I doubt not but that you will have a due and special care. And soe I committ you to the tuition of almighty God. From Croydon the 10th of August M.D.XCVI.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 14.

Anno Christi
1596.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 39.

The archbishop's letter to the bishop of London concerning fasting and prayers.
Reg. II. Whitgift fol. 149. a.

AFTER my hartie commendations to your lordship. Amongest all our sins, whereby we have provoked God justlie to plague us with this dearth and scarcitie, it is to be thought that none have been more forceable therunto, then our excesse and riot in diet, and the wastefull consuming of his owne creatures; for supply of which present scarcitie towards the poorer sorte, the quenes majestie hath every way shewed a most princely care, and gracious tender affection, not only by causing the marketts to be duly served, and greate store of graine to be provided from forraine partes freely, without paying any custome; but alsoe a most virtuous and godly soveraign daylye studieth to quallify the mischief by taking away the cause of yt. Therefore for redresse of that abuse, and prevention of further punishment by like scarcity; her majestie hath straightly commanded me to signifie by my lettres, that it is her highnes expresse pleasure and absolute commandment, that publique prayers, according to the book of Common Prayer, in every severall parish church and chappel, be on all Wednesdaies and Frydaies hereafter devoutly used, and diligently frequented; that such as be of better abilitie doe in the fear of God use a greater moderation then hertofore in their dyet; but namely, that by none, of what degree soever, anie fleshe be dressed or eaten on such daies, as by law stand already prohibited, other then such as by reason of infirmity be lawfully thereunto licensed; and that not only on Fridaies, and other daies by lawe already appointed for fasting daies, noe suppers at all be provided and taken by anie, either for themselves or howsholde, but alsoe that every one not letted by greivous weakness, do abstain from suppers altogether on each Wednesdaie at night, to the intent that what is by forbearance of that meale, and at other meales, by abstinency from all superfluous fare fruitfully spared, may presently, especially by the wealthier sorte, be charitable converted to the relief and comfort of the poor and needie; so as notice therof may be taken, according to her majesties gracious expectation, at the handes of all such her dutifull subjectes, as be respective of her royal commandments. In this behalf your lordship is alsoe to geve special order, that the collections for the poore in every parish may be carefully made, and in respect of the great want charitable by those, who be of good abilitie, increased, and duely and seasonably bestowed for the succour of the most distressed. It is further likewise required by her majestie, that those, which have howsholds, do not for sparing, dischardge anie of their howshold to shift for themselves, nor themselves to sojorne from their usual habitation. And because the example of ecclesiastical persons may induce men, as well as their teaching in this behalf; all such as have benefices must be enjoined to reside on their livinges, to keep hospitality, and releive their neighbours; and such as have pluralities, in conscience ought to do the like by their farmers, and such as rent their livinges at their handes; but there must a verie watchful eye be carried by the minister and churchwardens in every parish, or by such charitable discreet men, as they shall nominate and appoint, unto all inns, taverns, and victualing howses, how both the keepers of them with their howsholde, and alsoe the gesse and resorters to their howses do observe theis her majesties commandments. Now for the better publishing her highnes gracious pleasure in the premises, your lordship must take precise order, that every minister in the dioces do diligentlie recommend the observati- on of them unto the people in their severall charges, and also do from tyme to tyme, in their sermons and exhortations, earnestlie and pythelie exhorte and stir up every of them to fervent prayer, both publique and private, to abstinencye, fasting, true humiliation, to forbear all excesse, to releive the poore and needy by good howsekeeping, by setting them on worke, and by other deeds of almes and brotherlye compassion. And considering the most princely and gracious care her majesty hath for their relief, and that all good meanes should be used for the succour and help of them in theis tyme of dearth; the people must be du- ly taught to endure this scarcitie with patience, and especiallie to beware how they geve eare to any perswasions or practises of discontented and idle brains, to move them to repine or swarve from the humble duties of good sub- jects, to the further offence of God, and dis- contenting of her majestie, that hath so ten- der a care of their welfare. And for that her majestie

352 The archbishop's letter concerning fasting and prayers.

majestie would be enformed, how duely these orders shall be observed, as her special care is they should; your lordship is therefore to procure a certificate, to be made unto you monthly, by every the ministers and churchwardens, conteyning as well the names of disobedient delinquents in anie the premises, as of those welldisposed persons, who have had a dutiful regard of her majesties commandment, and a charitable compassion for the relief of the poore; to the intent that once every quarter the said certificates being transmitted over unto me, I may satisfie her majesties gracious expectation, touching the successe and fruite arising by theis godly orders: but your lordship is to forsee and to geve special direction, that the prescript of these letters be in every several parish observed, without calling or suffering persons of other parishes to assemble themselves, as some hertofore offensively of their own heads have attempted, under colour of general fastes. And thus I committ your lordship to Gods holye protection. From Lambehith this 27th of December, M.D.XCVI.

Your lordships loving brother in Christ.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 15.

Anno Christi
1597.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 39.

Convocatio episcoporum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. Ex MS. Mil. Smith apud Thom. episc. Aflaven.

EA per breve regium ad 25. diem Octobris in ecclesia S. Pauli London. summonita, in tribus prioribus sessionibus pro more solito omnia exequabatur.

In quarta sessione (Nov. 18.) the archbishop present sends for the prolocutor and lower house: layes before them many disorders in the church.

1. Ministers excessive apparell. 2. Prebendaries neglects in cathedrals. 3. Disorderly marriages. 4. Divorces slightly passed. 5. Multitude of somners. 6. Calling in of men by information of somners without presentment by churchwardens and sidemen. 7. Somners farming their places. 8. To enquire the number of somners heretofore, and how many should be in each diocese.

In sessionibus sequentibus a quinta ad vicesimam secundam, de tribus subsidiis reginae concedendis, de processibus adversus contumaces, et substitutionibus archiepiscopi nomine praesidendi, actum fuit.

In vicesima tertia sessione (Januarii 25.) the archbishop present produces the queen's letters patents of license, containing ecclesiastical constitutions made by him and the bishops and the clergy in this convocation ratified and approved by the queen.

In vicesima quarta et quatuor aliis sequentibus sessionibus nihil, quod adnotari meretur, actum est, donec tandem 10. die Februarii contumacibus suspensis, convocatio virtute brevis regii dissoluta fuerit.

Capitula sive constitutiones ecclesiasticae per archiepiscopum, episcopos, et reliquum clerum Cantuariensis provinciae in synodo inchoata Londini 25. die mensis Octob. anno Domini M.D.XCVII. regnique serenissimae in Christo principis, dominae Elizabethae, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae reginae, fidei defensoris, etc. XXXIX. congregatos tractatae, ac postea per ipsam regiam majestatem approbatae et confirmatae, et utrique provinciae, tam Cantuariensi, quam Eboracensi, ut diligentius observentur, eadem regia auctoritate sub magno sigillo Angliae promulgatae.

Ut homines idonei ad sacros ordines, et beneficia (uti vocant) ecclesiastica admittantur.

PRIMO cautum est, ne quis posthac ad sacros ordines suscipiatur, qui non eodem quoque tempore praesentationem sui ipsius ad beneficium aliquod intra dioecesim sive jurisdictionem ejusdem episcopi, a quo sacros ordines petit, tunc vacans exhibuerit; vel qui non eidem episcopo certum, verum, et indubitatum certificatorium attulerit de ecclesia aliqua intra dioecesim sive jurisdictionem dicti episcopi, in qua curae animarum inservire possit; vel qui in aliqua cathedrali aut collegiata ecclesia, vel collegio Cantabrigienfi aut Oxoniensi non fuerit constitutus; vel saltem qui ab eodem episcopo in beneficium aliquod, sive ad curam (uti vocant) interveniendum tunc etiam vacantem, non sit mox admittendus.

Deinde, ne quis episcopus posthac aliquem in sacros ordines cooptet, qui non ex sua ipsius dioecesi fuerit; nisi vel ex altera nostratium academiarum prodierit; vel nisi literas (ut loquuntur) dimissorias ab episcopo, cujus dioecesanus existit, attulerit, et vicesimum quartum aetatis suae annum jam compleverit, ac etiam in altera dictarum academiarum gradum aliquem scholasticum susceperit; vel saltem nisi rationem fidei suae juxta articulos illos religionis in synodo episcoporum et cleri approbatos, Latino sermone reddere possit, adeo ut sacramentorum literarum testimonia, quibus eorundem articulo- rum veritas innitur, recitare etiam valeat; ac ulterius, de vita sua laudabili, et morum integritate literas testimoniales sub sigillo, vel alicujus collegii Cantabrigienfis aut Oxoniensis, ubi antea moram fecerit, vel alicujus justitiarum ad pacem dominae reginae conferendam vandam assignati, una cum subscriptione et testimonio aliorum proborum et fide dignorum hominum ejusdem parochiae, ubi per tres annos ante proxime elapsos commoratus est, exhibeat. Utque hi sacri ordines diebus tantummodo dominicis, ac festivis, idque publice ac tempestive in ecclesia, ubi episcopus moram traxerit, conferantur: proviso semper, ut utriusque academiae collegiorum focii, qui suorum collegiorum statutis ad sacros ordines intra certum tempus suscipiendos tenentur, hoc decreto (quantum ad aetatem attinet) non obligentur. Quodsi vero aliquis episcopus aliquem ad sacros ordines admiserit, qui praedictis qualitatibus non sit praeditus, is per archiepiscopum, assidente sibi hac in parte uno alio episcopo, ab ordinatione ministrorum et diaconorum per integrum biennium suspendatur, ac eam praeterea poenam incurrat, quae de jure in ejusmodi episcopos, qui ad ordines ecclesiasticos sine titulo aliquem promovebunt, statuitur.

Adhaec, ne quis episcopus aliquem in beneficium (uti vocant) instituat, nisi qui praedictis conditionibus ornatus fuerit.

Si vero curia de arcubus aut audientiae per viam duplicis querelae, seu alio quovis modo contra episcopum hac in parte agat, quia homines minime idoneos ac habiles admittere renuit; tunc licebit archiepiscopo vel auctoritate propria, vel gratia speciali a regia maiestate impetrata, ejusmodi processus amputare, quo laudabilis episcopi industria debitum ea ratione fortiatum effectum.

Denique, ut quolibet anno ad festum sancti Michaelis archangeli, vel intra sex hebdomadas, idem festum subsequentes, unusquisque episcopus numerum, nomina, gradus, et qualitates eorum omnium, quos in sacros ordines, vel in aliqua beneficia eodem anno praecedente promoverit, ad archiepiscopum transmittat.

De beneficiorum pluralitate cobibenda.

Quod nemini in posterum facultas sive indulgentia concedatur de pluribus beneficiis simul retinendis, nisi hujusmodi tantum, qui pro eruditione sua et maxime digni, et ad officium suum plenius praestandum maxime habiles et idonei censebuntur; nimirum, ut is, qui hujusmodi facultate fruiturus est, sit ad minimum artium magister, et publicus ac idoneus verbi divini concionator: ita tamen ut idonea etiam cautione obstrictus teneatur, de personali sua residentia in singulis beneficiis per bonam anni cuiusque partem faciendam, et quod ejusmodi beneficia triginta milliarius spatio ad summum non distent abinvicem. Denique quod idoneum curatum habeat, qui plebem ejus parochiae, in qua non residebit, instituat ac informet, modo facultates ejusdem beneficii talem commode sustinere posse, archiepiscopo, vel jus dioeceseos episcopo videbuntur.

Ut beneficiati in suis beneficiis curatis hospitalitatem exercent.

Quoniam ecclesiarum cathedralium canonici sive praebendarii ecclesiastica beneficia curata alibi saepius possident, et tamen praetendentes se ratione praebendarum suarum a residentia in curatis beneficiis liberos et immunes, ad cathedrales convolant, ibique moram faciunt longiorem; unde nec curae parochianorum illis commissae satis prospicitur, nec pauperes domi suae (sicuti difficultas hujus temporis exigit) aluntur atque sustentantur; idcirco nos huic malo providere desiderantes, decernendum censemus, ut omnes et singuli canonici sive praebendarii, qui beneficia curata unum sive duo obtinent (nec residentiarii necessarii in suis ecclesiis cathedralibus existunt) ultra tempus, quo in cathedralibus residere tenentur, a beneficiis suis curatis pretextu praebendarum se non absint: et si aliqui eorum, qui ad necessariam residentiam in ecclesiis cathedralibus non tenentur, ultra tempus unius mensis aliquo anno in ecclesia illa cathedrali moram traxerint, eos arctari volumus ad familiam in beneficio suo curato (non obstante mora in cathedrali) alendam, et hospitalitatem exercendam toto reliquo tempore, quo a curato abfuerint. Quod autem ad eos attinet, qui ad residentiam in ecclesiis cathedralibus faciendam, per ordinationes illius ecclesiae obligantur, et communis dividendae participes sunt; eos ita inter se anni tempora parti volumus, quoad residentiam in cathedralibus habendam, ut eorum aliqui in ecclesiis illis semper adsint et personaliter resideant. Ac quo haec omnia melius peragantur, episcopi, vel alii, ad quos per ecclesiae statuta vel ordinationes pertinet, in suis respective ecclesiis diligenter providebunt.

Ut decani et canonici in ecclesiis cathedralibus suis vicibus conciones habeant.

Cum beneficium propter officium conferri debeat, aequum existimamus, ut ecclesiarum cathedralium decani, et canonici omnes, et singuli, qui in sacris ordinibus sunt constituti, et ad conciones habendas in ecclesiis suis cathedralibus, de jure, statutis, ordinationibus, aut laudabili consuetudine illius ecclesiae tenentur, in personis suis propriis eas praestent, nec vicaria in ea re opera utantur, nisi ex causa aegritudinis, aut alia legitima impediti, concanicum suum, vel alium in theologia eruditum, ac ad concionandum auctoritate sufficienti approbatum, sua vice substituant. Quodsi qui hujusmodi decani aut canonici officium ea in re neglexerint, per episcopum, vel eos, ad quos jurisdictio pertinet, quoad se debite correxerint, suspendantur.

De moderandis indulgentiis pro celebratione matrimonii absque trina bannorum denunciatione.

Quandoquidem honestae, clarae, ac illustris conditionis homines, sive urgente aliqua necessitate, sive aliis non contemnendis rationibus, matrimonium aliquando celebrandi causas habere possunt, facultate sibi de bannis matrimonialibus aut non omnino, aut semel iterumve denunciandis indulta, sine aliquo gravi scandalo seu detrimento; idcirco ad evitanda generaliter quae hac in parte notantur incommoda, visum est caveri, ne ullae facultates sive indulgentiae de celebrando absque bannis matrimonio concedantur, cedantur, nisi idonea cautio prius sub hisce conditionibus ineatur; nimirum, primo quod nullum postea constabit impedimentum pracontractus, consanguinitatis, affinitatis, vel ullius alterius legitimae causae cujuscunque ratione.

Secundo, quod eo tempore, quo ejusmodi facultas five indulgentia concedetur, nulla controversia, lis, seu querela mota est, vel dependet coram aliquo iudice ecclesiastico aut civili, de ejusmodi legitimo impedimento matrimonii, inter hujusmodi personas contrahendi, aut contracti. Ac tertio, quod ad nuptiarum solemnizationem non accedent, nisi assensu et expresse consensu parentum, five tutorum prius impetrato; et ulterius, quod matrimonii celebratio publice ac tempestive in facie ecclesiae fiet. Cujus quidem cautionis formula seu exemplar in scriptis concipietur, ac unicuique episcopo in sua cujusque dioecesi imitanda proponetur.

Praeterea adjiciendum putamus, ne cuiquam liceat, episcopalem dignitatem non obtinenti (commisario ad facultates, ac vicariis generalibus archiepiscopi et episcoporum, sede plena, et sede vacante, custodibus spiritualitatis ac ordinariis, episcopalem jurisdictionem de jure exercentibus, in suis jurisdictionibus respective exceptis) licentiam celebrandi matrimonia sine bannis concedere; ea vero duntaxat per se, ac sub manuum suarum subscriptione, non per deputatos aut surrogatos suos, nec aliis, quam suae jurisdictioni subditis concedatur. Nulli autem cujuscunque sexus, dignitatis, aut ordinis (in parentum seu gubernatorum cura et regimine existenti) concedatur, nisi prius constiterit de expresse consensu parentum vel gubernatorum suorum (si forte parentes excefferint e vita) idque parentum significatione, aut gubernatorum iudici personaliter facta, vel chirographis ipsorum, quibus fidem habendam esse non putamus, nisi per nuncios honestae conditionis et famae illaefae mittantur, qui fidem faciant se de parentum aut gubernatorum manu chirographa hujusmodi recepisse veris nominibus ac cognominibus per hujusmodi nuncios designandorum; cujus chirographi exhibitionis, ac iuramenti per nuncium praestiti actum conscribi volumus. Nec vero aliis concedantur hujusmodi indulgentiae, quam illustres et clarae conditionis hominibus, nisi urgens necessitas interceserit, eaque iudici cognita fuerit.

Praeterea in ipso dispensationis five licentiae tenore, ecclesia habitationis five commorationis alterius contrahentium, vel parentum et gubernatorum suorum exprimatur, et tempus diei etiam congruum, nempe inter horas octavam et duodecimam ante meridiem assignetur.

Nec sine indulgentia a competente iudice concessa, minister aliquis matrimonium celebret, nisi trina bannorum denunciatione, per legitima intervalla, interveniente, sub poena constitutionibus provincialibus praescripta.

Provisio semper, quod quicumque contra hanc ordinationem deliquerit, ab executione officii per superiorem per sex integros menses suspendatur; et licentia hujusmodi viribus carebit, et pro nulla quoad poenam personis clandestinas nuptias celebrantibus imponendam habebitur.

De sententiis divortii non temere ferendis.

Et quia matrimoniales causae inter majores hucusque semper habitae fuerunt; idcirco cum de matrimoniis in judiciis disceptatur, cautius agi oportet, praesertim vero cum matrimonium in ecclesia solemnizatum, praetextu aliquo separari, vel nullum pronunciari postuletur. Aequum igitur visum est,

Primum ut in hujusmodi divortiorum et nullitatis matrimonii processibus deliberate procedatur, ac quantum fieri poterit, rei veritas testimonium depositionibus, aliisque probationibus legitimis eruatur, nec partium confessioni (quae in his causis saepe fallax est) temere confidatur.

Tum ut nullae posthac sententiae vel separationis a thoro et mensa, vel nullitatis matrimonii ferantur, nisi publice, ac pro tribunali, et de scientia et consensu vel archiepiscopi, intra provinciam suam, vel episcopi intra propriam dioecesim, decani de arcubus, iudicis audientiae Cantuariensis, aut vicariorum generalium, aliorumve officialium principalium, vel, sede vacante, custodum spiritualitatis, aut aliorum ordinariorum, quibus de jure competit in suis respective jurisdictionibus ac curiis, atque inter suae jurisdictionis subditos tantum, deinde et in sententiis, quando ad separationem thori et mensae tantum interponuntur, monitio et prohibitio fiat, ut a partibus abinvicem segregatis caste vivatur, nec ad alias nuptias, alterutro vivente, convoletur; denique quo postremum illud firmitus observetur, sententia separationis non antea pronunciabitur, quam qui eam postulaverint, cautionem fidejussoriam sufficientem interposuerint, se contra monitionem et prohibitionem nihil commissuros.

Judex autem, qui sententiam separationis seu divortii tulerit, et praemissa omnia non praestiterit, per tres integros menses ab executione officii sui per dioecesanum suum suspendetur; et sententia separationis contra formam praedictam lata, pro nulla ad omnem juris effectum habebitur, ac si omnino lata non fuisset.

De excessibus circa excommunicationem reformandis.

Quia excommunicationis usus in ecclesia perpetuae legis vigorem jam obtinuit, atque in omni jurisdictione ecclesiastica exercenda hucusque retinetur, ideo absque grandi mutatione totius ejusce jurisdictionis et plurimarum hujus regni legum innovari vel alterari nequit; nihilominus ut excommunicatio (quae auctoritatis ac disciplinae ecclesiasticae quasi nervus quidam, ac vinculum habenda est) ad pristinum suum usum, decus et dignitatem reducatur; cautum est, ut quotiescunque censura ista in immediatam poenam cujusvis notoriae haereseos, schismatis, simoniae, perjurii, usurae, incestus, adulterii, seu gravioris alicujus criminis venerit infligenda, sententia ipsa, vel per archiepiscopum, episcopum, decanum, archidiaconum, vel praebendarium (modo sacris ordinibus et ecclesiastica jurisdictione praeditus fuerit) in propria persona pronunciabitur, una cum ejusmodi di frequentia et assistentia, quae ad maiorem rei auctoritatem conciliandam conducere videbitur.

Denique, quod unusquisque vicarius generalis, officialis, seu commissarius, qui ordines ecclesiasticos non susceperit, eruditum aliquem presbyterum sibi accerset et associabit, qui sufficienti auctoritate, vel ab ipso episcopo in jurisdictione sua, vel ab archidiacono (presbytero existente) in jurisdictione sua munitus, idque ex praescripto ipsius iudicis tunc praesentis, excommunicationis sententiam pro contumacia denunciabit.

Volumus etiam, sicut constitutum est, ejusmodi excommunicationem per ministrum ecclesiae denunciari; ita ipse iudex de absolutione ipsius rei post satisfactionem suam peractam, eundem ministrum certiores faciet, qui eandem absolutionem populo publice denunciabit: ac interim quod bene licebit dicto ministro, reum a sacris arcere et repellere, tanquam in ecclesiam minime recipiendum, donec ejusmodi certificationem ab ipso iudice exhibuerit.

De recusantibus et aliis excommunicatis publice denunciandis.

Curent ordinarii locorum, ut tam excommunicati ex eo quod divinis precibus intra hoc regnum Angliae publica auctoritate stabilitis interesse pertinaciter recusaverint, quam ii etiam, qui propter aliam quamcunque causam legitimam excommunicationis sententia innodati fuerint, nisi intra tres continuos menses post latam excommunicationis sententiam se emendaverint, et absolutionis beneficium obtinuerint, singulis sex mensibus sequentibus, in ecclesia cum parochiali, tum etiam cathedrali dioecesis, in qua habitant, pro excommunicatis publice denuncientur. Teneantur etiam ordinarii praedicti de praemissis omnibus et singulis quolibet anno intra festa sancti Michaelis et natalis Domini, archiepiscopum hujus provinciae in scriptis certiores facere.

De moderanda solennis poenitentiae commutatione.

Neque fiat posthac solennis poenitentiae commutatio, nisi rarioribus gravioribusque de causis, atque adeo cum ipsi episcopo constiterit, eam esse ad reum reconciliandum et reformandum saniores et tutiores rationem.

Deinde quod multa illa pecuniaria vel in relevamen pauperum ejusdem parochiae, vel in alios pios usus erogetur, idque ecclesiae solenniter et firmiter approbetur et innotescat.

Quodsi vero crimen fuerit notorium ac publicum, reus ipse vel in propria sua persona publice in ecclesia poenitentiam suam minime fictam profitendo, laesae ecclesiae satisfaciet, vel ecclesiae minister in praesentia ipsius rei, palam e suggestu ejus submissionem, et poenitentiae suae coram ordinario suo peractionem, atque etiam in verae suae resipiscentiae testimonium, quantam pecuniarum summam in usus supra dictos erogandam reddiderit, denunciabit.

Quicumque vero absque episcopi dioecesani notitia poenitentiam commutaverit, aut pecuniam ratione commutationis hujusmodi solutam, in alios usus, quam supra est expressum, converterit, vel aliter praesentem hanc constitutionem violaverit; is ab executione officii sui per eundem dioecesanum per tres integros menses suspendetur.

De feodis, quae officiariis ecclesiasticis et eorum ministris debentur.

Cautum insuper volumus, quod neque alia, neque majora feoda ab episcopo, ordinario, archidiacono, vel eorum ministris deinceps ulla de causa percipiantur, quam ea, quae, ineunte hoc regnum regia nunc maiestate, percipi solebant; quodque tabula quaedam, singulorum hujusmodi feodorum summas continens, in quolibet consistorio ante festum sancti Johannis Baptistae proxime venturum figatur, cujus exemplar manu ipsius ordinarii subsignatum intra tempus praedictum ad archiepiscopum transmittetur.

Jam vero quia dubium esse potest, quaenam certa feoda pro singulis negotiis expediendis, in singulis respective foris ecclesiasticis quadraginta abhinc annis percipiebantur, nisi quae usus frequentior succedentibus ab eo tempore annis monstraverit atque approbaverit; ideo decernendum putamus, ut citra ultimum diem mensis Maii proxime sequentem episcopus quilibet, vel, sede aliqua episcopali vacante, custos spiritualitatis ibidem curet, tabulam manu jus dicentis ejusque registrarii subscriptam publice figi, vel in loco quolibet ubi jus ab illo dicetur, vel alias publice in ejusdem jurisdictionis archivo, ita ut quivis ejusdem tabulae inspiciendae facultatem habeat: quae quidem tabula in se continebit separatas summas singulorum feodorum, quae tam a iudice, quam a singulis aliis officiariis ac ministris ejusdem curiae frequentius ac usitatus ab initio regni dictae serenissimae reginae usque ad decimum octavum maiestatis suae annum percipi consueverunt. Curabit praeterea quilibet episcopus, vel, sede vacante, custos spiritualitatis, ut quilibet iudex hujusmodi citra ultimum diem praefati mensis Maii episcopo suo, vel custodi spiritualitatis fidele et authenticum exemplar tabulae feodorum praemissorum in archivis episcopi custodiendum tradat; qui vero contra fecerit, is ab executione officii sui per ordinarium suum immediate superiorem eoque suspendetur, donec praemissa modo et forma superius specificatis perfecerit.

Quorum omnium exemplarium, singuli episcopi provinciae Cantuariensis, vel custodes spiritualitatis fidele et authenticum instrumentum in pergamento conscriptum, ad archiepiscopum citra ultimum diem mensis Octobris proxime futurum transmittent.

Poenam vero cujusque officarii, ac ministri majora feoda, quam quae in hujusmodi tabulis respective exprimentur percipientis, suspensio erit per sex menses ab executione officii sui per ordinarium suum infligenda, vel ordinario negligente, aut id facere omittente, per archiepiscopum, qui alium delinquentis loco interim deputabit.

Provisio semper, quod si alicubi dubium fuerit, quae feoda usque ad praedictum decimum octavum regiae majestatis annum usitatissime percepta fuerint; tum ea feoda pro legitimis habebuntur, quae per archiepiscopum Cantuariensem sub manus suae subscriptione approbantur, nisi statuta hujus regni Angliae jam antea edita, alia in quocunque casu feoda expresse praestituerint.

Provisio insuper, quod neque archiepiscopo neque episcopo, vel directe, vel indirecte aliquam pecuniarum summam pro admittendis ad sacros ordines hominibus accipere licebit, idque sub poena juris.

De excessibus apparitorum reformatis.

Praeterea quoniam excessibus et gravaminibus, quae per apparitores inferri dicuntur, remedium cupimus adhibere opportunum, videtur ut apparitorum multitudo, quantum fieri poterit, restringatur; non igitur licebit episcopis vel archidiaconis, eorumve vicariis seu officialibus, aliisque inferioribus ordinariis deputare et habere plures apparitores, jurisdictionibus suis respective inservientes, quam ante viginti annos praeteritos, vel ipsi, vel praedecessores sui habere consueverunt, qui omnes per se suum fideliter exequantur officium, nec per nuncios aut substitutos quocunque quaesito colore, sua vice mandatorum executiones demandent, aut permittant, nisi ex causa ab ordinario illius loci prius cognita et approbata. Tum ut promotorum officii, vel denunciatorum personas omnino non sustineant, feoda ampliora vel majora, quam quae his constitutionibus superius statuuntur, non exigant.

Quod si plures quam superius est expressum deputati, vel illorum aliqui praemissa violaverint, deputantes, si episcopi existant, moniti per superiorem supernumerarios dimittant. Inferiores vero episcopis ordinarii, ab executione officii suspendantur, donec hujusmodi deputatos amoverint, deputati autem ipsi ab apparitorum officio moveantur perpetuo, et si amoti non desistant, tanquam contumaces canonicis censuris coerceantur.

Praeterea in causis officii et correctionis ne quae fiant citationes generales quae vulgo, "Quorum nomina dicuntur," nisi partes citandae veris nominibus expressis per registrarium in ipsa schedula citatione annexa, et sigillo munita scribantur, eademque schedula jus dicentis manu subscribatur, sub poena coercionis ecclesiasticae per dioecesanum delinquenti infligenda.

De registris in ecclesiis salvae custodiae committendis.

Et quia registra in ecclesiis, quorum permagnus usus est, fideliter volumus custodiri: primum statuendum putamus, ut in singulis visitationibus admoneantur ministri, et oeconomi ecclesiarum de injunctionibus regiis ea in re diligentius observandis.

Deinde ut libri ad hunc usum destinati, quotius reservari et ad posteritatis memoriam propagari possint, ex pergamento sumptibus parochianorum in posterum conficiantur; iisque non modo ex veteribus libris chartaceis transumpta nomina eorum, qui regnante serenissima domina nostra Elizabetha, aut baptismatis aqua abluti, aut matrimonio copulati, aut ecclesiasticae sepulturae beneficio affecti sint, suo ordine sumptibus parochianorum inscribantur; sed eorum etiam, qui in posterum baptizati, vel matrimonio conjuncti, aut sepulti fuerint.

Ac ne quid vel dolo commissum, vel omisum negligenter redarguatur, quae per singulas hebdomadas in hisce libris inscripta nomina fuerint, ea singulis diebus dominicis post preces matutinas aut vespertinas finitas, aperte ac distincte per ministrum legantur, die ac mense, quibus singula gesta sunt, sigillatim adjectis.

Postquam autem paginam aliquam integram multorum nominum inscriptio compleverit, tum ministri, tum gardianorum ipsius parochiae subscriptionibus volumus eam communiri.

Idemque in transumptis ex veteribus libris chartaceis, paginis singulis fieri, sed diligenti, ac fidei prius habita collatione; neque vero in unius cujusquam custodia librum illum, sed in cista publica, eaque trifariam observata reservandum putamus, ita ut neque sine ministro gardiani, nec sine utrisque gardianis minister quicquam possit innovare.

Postremum est ut exemplar quotannis cujusque anni auctae nominum inscriptionis ad episcopi dioecesani registrum per gardianos infra mensem post festum Paschatis transmittatur, et sine feodo ullo recipiatur, atque in archivis episcopi fideliter custodiatur.

Quicunque vero in praemissis eorumve aliquo deliquerit, is, ut delicti qualitas jusque postulerit, puniatur.

Quae omnia capitula five constitutiones, omniaque et singula in eisdem contenta, regia majestas per suas literas patentes, gerentes dat. apud Westmonasterium decimo octavo die Januarii, anno regni sui quadragesimo, ratificavit, confirmavit, ac stabilivit, ipsaque ab omnibus regni sui subditis utriusque provinciae, Cantuariensis et Eboracensis, quatenus eorum aliquem concernunt, diligenter exequenda, ac observanda auctoritate sua regia proposuit, promulgavit, et per easdem literas patentes sic per eos observari praecepit, injunxit, et mandavit, prout in eisdem literis patentibus sigillo magno Angliae sigillatis plenius liquet et apparet.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 14.

Anno Christi
1597.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 39.

Exemplar licentiae, seu facultatis matrimonii absque trina bannorum promulgatione celebrandi in singulis episcopatibus observanda.

Licentia ubi uterque vel alter contrahentium sub parentum vel gubernatorum potestate existit.

R. permissione divina London. episcopus, dilectis nobis in Christo D. C. parochiae de B. filio naturali et legitimo J. C. parochiae de F. generoso, et N. O. puellae, filiae naturali et legitimae B. O. parochiae de M. nostrarum L. dioeceseos et jurisdictionis, salutem. Cum vos (uti asseritur) ad solemnizationem matrimonii veri et legitimi de expresso consensu, et assensu parentum et gubernatorum vestrorum, ac utriusque vestrum procedere decreveritis; illudque in facie ecclesiae cum ea, qua fieri poterit, maturata celeritate solemnizari facere et obtinere magnopere desideretis; nos volentes ut honesta haec vestra desideria debitum celerius consequantur effectum, et ut matrimonium hujusmodi in ecclesia de F. [exprimendo ecclesiam alterius contrahentium, vel parentum aut gubernatorum suorum] per rectorem, vicarium, seu curatum ejusdem ecclesiae, bannis matrimonialibus unica voce tempore solemnizationis ejusdem matrimonii (uti moris est) publice editis, libere et licite solemnizari facere et obtinere possitis et valeatis, post cautionem fidejussoriam sufficientem ex parte vestra interpositam, juxta constitutiones auctoritate regia nuper editas; dummodo vobis ratione consanguinitatis, affinitatis, praecontractus, vel alterius causae cujuscunque de jure prohibita nullum legitimum in ea parte obstiterit impedimentum, nec ulla lis, controversia, seu querela mota sit vel pendeat coram aliquo iudice ecclesiastico vel civili de matrimonio aliquo contracto vel allegato cum alterutro vestrum; et ministro ecclesiae praedictae prius constiterit, vos ad hujusmodi matrimonii celebrationem accedere de et cum expresso consensu parentum vel gubernatorum vestrorum; ac modo matrimonii hujusmodi cele-bratio publice in ecclesia de F. praedictae fiat inter horas octavam et duodecimam antemeridianas, absque tamen praejudicio ministri ecclesiae de M. ubi dicta N. O. parochiana existit, licentiam et facultatem tam vobis contrahentibus, quam rectori, vicario, aut curato ecclesiae praedictae designatae matrimonium hujusmodi inter vos solemnizandi sub modo et forma superius specificatis, juxta ritus libri publicarum precum auctoritate parlamenti in ea parte editi et stabiliti, necnon omnibus aliis Christi fidelibus eidem solemnizationi interessendi, ex certis causis legitimis et rationabilibus per nos approbatis, quatenus in nobis est, et jura regni patiuntur in hac parte, benigne concedimus et impertimur per praesentes.

Proviso semper, quod si alteruter vestrum clarioris aut illustrioris conditionis sit, quam nobis suggestum est, et quam ex cognomine et additamento in his literis insertis colligi facile potest, aut si aliqua fraus in posterum appareat vel falsitatis nobis suggestae vel suppressae veritatis tempore hujus licentiae obtentae; tunc haec licentia nostra irrita sit ad omnem juris effectum ac si omnino concessa non fuisset: et eo casu inhibemus quibusvis ministris (modo praemissorum aliquod eis innotuerit) ne ad solemnizationem dicti matrimonii procedant, nisi nobis, aut vicario nostro in spiritualibus generali prius consultis. In cujus rei testimonium, etc.

[The minister shall not solemnize this marriage without the consent of their parents or governors, who are hereby licensed to marry.]

Si utraque pars contrahens in viduitate existens ad secundas nuptias convolare facultatem petat, tum omnes clausulae parentum consensum requirentes omitti possunt; sed parochiae utriusque contrahentis in licentia exprimendae sunt, ac parochia ubi matrimonium celebrabitur, designanda.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 15.

Anno Christi
1597.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 40.

Convocatio episcoporum et cleri provinciae Ebor. Ex reg. Ebor.

CONVOCATIO haec per breve regium dat. apud Westm. 23. die Augusti, anno regni xxxix. summonebatur, ad comparendum in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. 25. die mensis Octobris. Quo die Matthaeus, archiepiscopus Ebor. causam hujus synodi comparentibus breviter exposuit et declaravit. Ea, quae fuerit, die 9. mensis Decemb. (ad quem diem per continuationes diversas synodus continuata fuit) asseritur, nempe ad concedendum subsidium dominae reginae, quod illo die factum, et convocatio per alias diversas continuationes de die in diem prorogata est usque ad 16. diem Februarii sequentis.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 15.

Anno Christi
1598.

Reg. Angliae.
ELIZAB. 40.

The archbishop's letter for armour. Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 97. a.

"SALUTEM in Christo." I have receaved letters from the lordes, and others of hir majesties most honourable privy counsel, signifieng that hir majestie, seeing that those meanes of lenitie and forbearance, that have been used to reduce the rebells of Irelande to acknowledgment of their offence and obedience, hath not taken effect, but encreased their pride, is now purposed with the assistance of God almighty to subdue them by force; and to that ende there are certain numbers of horse and foote levied in all the counties of the realm; and though the severall shires be deeplie charged, and the principall recusants likewise, yet the number of horse doth fall out shorte of that proportion, which is to be sent at this present; and therefore by hir majesties direction they are commanded to asseffe upon the bishops and deans a competent number, that is at this present to be sente thither, whereof they have also sent a note unto me, how the same may be supplied by the lords bishops and the deanes: signifieng further, that the last time the like service was required, the most part of the horse were so bad, by reason of the long journey they made to the sea side, and the negligence of riders etc. as they were returned back, to the great los of those that did furnishe them, and disappointment of her majesties service; that therefore it is now required, that there shall be xxx. l. sent for every horse, the furnishing thereof, and of the horseman, that is to be sent with the same, with which money, order shall be taken to have both fitt and servisable horse, and good furniture provided. And forasmuch as I am required, that all possible speed may be used for the levying of this money, so that the same may be delivered to Sir John Stanhope, knight, treasurer of her majesties chamber, within 15. daies next after the recepte of their lordships letters, which I received the day of the date hereof, and that your lordship in the note sent unto me by their lordships is allotted to two horse, which comes to lx. l. and the deane of Paules to one horse, which comes to xxx. l. theise are to require your lordship in her majesties name to provide the said money, and to require the dean of Paules likewise to provide his, the same to be delivered within the tyme by their lordships limited, to Sir John Stanhope, knight, appointed for the recepte thereof: and thus much by authority from the lordes in hir majesties name; but if your lordship call for some help of the wealthiest of your clergie, both for your own ease and the ease of the dean, I think it will not be ill taken. And so with my hartie commendations I committ your lordship to the tuition of the almighty. From my house at Cant. 18. Julii M.D.XCVIII.

Your loving freind and brother.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1598.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 40.

The archbishop's letter touching marriages. Ibid. fol. 100. a.

"SALUTEM in Christo." Whereas by the constitutions made in the last convocation, and by her majesty under the great seal confirmed, amongst other things the ordinarys power is limited in graunting of licenses for celebrating of marriages within a competent tyme, fit for so holie an action, namely betwixt the houres of eight and twelve in the forenoon, and to a prescribed place, that is, to the parish church where the parties to be married, or their parents, or governors do dwell; and where by the said constitutions, no minister is warranted to marrie any parties, unless he have a licence sufficient from such ordinary, as by the said constitutions is warranted to grante it, or that the banes be three severall festival daies published at tyme of morning prayer, the penalty whereof is by the provincial constitutions, that the minister that doth offende, shal be suspended from his function for three yeares: all this notwithstanding, there come dayly complaints unto me out of severall partes of this province, that some ministers, neither regarding hir majesties pleasure, nor carefull of our credit, do marrie some couples in private howses; others do marrie those, who come to be married at unseasonable howres; others never stay asking the banes three severall festival daies (as is by law prescribed) but do aske them twise upon some holiday, and the third tyme the next morning when they are married, as if ordinaries were to be restrained, and ministers set at large to breake all good orders. For redresse and prevention of all which disorders, I have thought good, and do hereby require your lordship, to give both publique and particular warning to all the ministers of or within your diocess, that they observe as well the howres, as the place, limited in the foresaid constitutions, not otherwise to marry any either licensed or by banes published, and marrie only such inhabitants within their parishes (not licensed otherwise) who are three severall festival daies publickely asked, upon the penalty in the provincial constitutions inflicted, which your lordship and your officers, whom in that case it concerneth, are are to have a vigilant care to see diligently observed, for the avoiding of all future scandals and offences, which may justly grow thereon. Wherein nothing doubting of your lordship's diligent care, I commit you to the tuition of almighty God. From Lambeth the ninth daie of November, M.D.XCVIII.

Your loving brother in Christ.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1598.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 40.

Letter from the same for certificates to be made according to the late canons.
Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 100. a.

"SALUTEM in Christo." Whereas in the ecclesiastical constitutions in the laste convocation made, and published by her majesties authority, amongst other things, it was ordered and decreed, that every year at the feast of St. Michael the archangel, or within six weeks next after the said feaste, your lordship, and the rest of my brethren, the bishops of this province, should send certificates to me of the number, names, degrees, and qualities of all such as have been promoted unto holy orders, or been admitted into any benefice by you, in the year next before past; and where it is likewise by the same constitutions decreed, that you should every yere between the feast of St. Michael, and the birth of our saviour Christ, send in the names as well of all those which be excommunicated for their obstinate refusing to be present at divine service, established by publique authority within this realme, as also of all other persons lawfully excommunicated, and have so continued three months together without amendment, and unabsolved, and have every six months following been denounced and published to be excommunicate persons, both in their own parish church, where they dwell, and in your cathedral church; and another certificate, on thisside the last daie of October now last past, of the tables of fees due unto you and your archdeacons, and other officers, and ministers of ecclesiastical courts, within your diocese; all which to do you have utterly neglected, which argueth that you have not that vigilant care in executing other partes of the said constitutions, as you ought, and as hir majestie expecteth. And for that I myself may (I know not how sone) be called to an accompt by her majestie, how the said constitutions be observed and putt in ure, and particularlie in those things aforesaid; these are therefore to admonish and require you ("in virtute juramenti de canonica obedientia praestanda") to send unto me forthwith, the foresaid severall certificates in the said constitutions mentioned, by the way of publick instruments under your episcopal seal, for the more credit of them, and to be more carefull hereafter in certifieng of those things, which are yerely to be certified, than hitherto you have been; otherwise I shall be drawn to take such course herein by proceeding against you and your officers, not only as violaters and contemners of their canonical obedience in that behalf due; but also of her majesties authority and expresse commandment. And so being not a little grieved with your grosse negligence and carelesnes herein, and expecting due amendment and reformation, as well in the premises, as in the execution of all the other partes of the said constitutions, for the good of the church, and our own creditts, I committ you to the tuition of almighty God. From Lambeth the 9th of November, M.D.XCVIII.

Your loving brother in Christ.

The attorney generall's letter touching recusants. Ibid. fol. 101. a.

AFTER my very hartie commendations. Whereas I am given to understande, that divers recusants standing excommunicate for their recusancie, doe intende and goe about to procure themselves to be absolved in your courts by their procurators, without making their personal submission, which is contrarie to lawe and to the great prejudice of her majestie; for that they afterward mean to continue recusants, and cannot be indicted for the same; I have thought it good therefore to signifie the same unto you, hoping that from thenceforth you will have a special care, that you suffer no recusant, being excommunicated, to be absolved without making their personall submission accordingly.

And so I committ you to God this 12th of November, M.D.XCVIII.

Your assured loving freind,

EDW. COKE.

To my loving freinds Mr. Dr. Binge, deane of the arches, Mr. Dr. Stanhope, chancellor to my lords grace of Cant. Mr. Dr. Dun, judge of the audience, Mr. Dr. Gibson, judge of the prerogative; and to all other judges exercising jurisdiction ecclesiastical within the province of Cant. and to every of them.

Archiepisc Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1598.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 41.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter touching contribution for the Irish war.
Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 102. b.

"SALUTEM in Christo." I thinke these present occasions, wherby her majestie is drawn to bend hir forces to the subduing of the rebells in Ireland, who seeke to shake off their obedience to her highness; and sending hir navie to the sea, to prevent forreine forces both from thence and from this kingdome likewise, it is not unknown unto you; which bringeth so great and present a charge unto her majestie, that if some extraordinarie releife be not had, it will not be possible for hir to sustaine the same, notwithstanding her majestie hath borrowed great summes of money and is upon sale of divers portions of her revenues; in which respect the lords of hir majesties privy counsaile finding by experience, that the long peace, which under her highnes, next after God, we have most peaceably enjoyed theise fortie yeares, as it hath filled the whole land with plentiful abundance, so hath no one state of the kingdome reaped greater fruit of it than those, who in all her majesties courts of justice, either ecclesiastical or temporal, have spent their time either in administration of justice, or as ministers and officers of those courts have followed the same. They have thereupon thought it most necessary, that every one of them, who hath any government or charge in any court of justice, do deal particularly with those, who either judicially serve in those courtes, or as ministers and officers do attend them, or otherwise as pleaders do follow them, to advise every one of them particularly, freele, and willinglie to offer unto her highness some voluntary contribution towards this hir great and infinite charge, as a token of their dutifull thankfulness for the great benefits, which they have received by her highnes most vigilant care for their increased livelyhood in her peaceable courtes of justice. Herein your lordship doth well remember what cause those, who live by anie ecclesiastical jurisdiction, have to be as forward, or forwarder, than anie other; especially for that they, and the jurisdiction which they exercise, hath onely by hir majesties great goodness hitherto been protected and remained without impeachment, though the same hath been by divers, as you know, diversly assaulted. And therefore so soon as I understood of this most temperate and discreet course taken in other temporal courtes, which as I hear will be liberal; I held it fit to addresse my letters to your lordship, to acquainte you with the particular manner of this proceeding, whereby your lordship may with good expedition follow the same. A booke is by your lordship to be made, wherein is to be sett down the severall names of every judge, who exerciseth any ecclesiastical jurisdiction within your dioces whatsoever, together with the particular names of everie register of any of those courtes, as also of the advocats and proctors, who do practize in anie, or every of them. Theise are every one to be called particulerlie before your lordship, who can sufficiently lay down unto them the cause of their so calling, and declare what is fit in this case for them to do and so advising them to a willing, voluntarie contribution according to their abilities towards this so great burthen. Your lordship is to receive of every one of them what he shall think fit to give, wherein if any shall shew themselves either slacke or backward, it will be good for him to think, that if he be hereafter delte with in his private, as he now dealeth undutifully in the publicke, he hath none to blame but himself; beinge unworthy to be accounted a member of that body, which he suffereth, so much as in him lieth, to perish through his unnaturalnesse. This money so received from every one, the particular somme is to be sett down in the booke upon his name, who paieth it, and the booke being signed by your lordship, together with the whole summe of money so received, is to be sent up unto me, and by me to be offered from your lordships ecclesiastical courtes, wherby her highness may take knowlege of the respective care of her loving subjects, who live in the ecclesiastical jurisdiction to offer a voluntary easing in some part of that great charge, which her highness is at for the continuance of their rest. Your lordship remembreth that the season of the year draweth on very fast for sending of her highness forces unto Ireland, and present supplie of money is to be made for furnishing of them; I am therefore to require your lordship that presentlie, upon receipt hereof, you use all speedy forwardness in putting these letters in execution, and that with like expedition you do return the mony with the booke in form above sett down, wherby her majesty may understand your care in furthering this service. Soe I bid your lordship right hartelie farewell. From Lambeth this twelveth day of February, M.D.XCVIII.

Your loving brother in Christ.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1598.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 41.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the archbishop of York about the same.
Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 103. a.

"SALUTEM in Christo." I thought it good to let your grace understand, what in respect of these present occasions is thought necessary to be done by all her majesties true and loving subjects; and first of all by the persons mentioned in my lettres to the bishops of this province, a copie whereof I send unto you herewith, it is expected you should do the like in your province, whereof you are to take notice by these my lettres, and not to expect (for any thing I yet knowe) anie further notice. I doubt not, but that you conceive my meaning, and that you will endeavour by all meanes you can, to accomplish this necessary duty in every ecclesiastical court within that province, and to make as much speede as may be to send up this voluntary contribution. I write unto you as to my good freind, knowing what is expected, and the necessitie thereof. And so with my hartie commendations I commit you to the tuition of almighty God. From Lambeth this 13th day of February, M.D.XCVIII.

Your loving brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1599.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 41.

The bishop of London's letter to the bishop of Peterborough touching the certificate of fees. Ibid. fol. 105. a.

AFTER my hartie commendations unto your lordship. His grace willed me to signify unto you, that the certificat, which was sent unto him, is of fees only belonging to your consistorie and the officers therof, and sealed with your chancellors seale; whereas you should have kept those in "archivis propriis," and have sent unto his grace "fidele et autentikum instrumentum in pergameno conscriptum," of all fees ecclesiastical due unto yourself, your chancellor, archdeacons, and all other exercising ecclesiastical jurisdiction within your diocess, and of your, and their officers, and ministers fees; and in case any exercising ecclesiastical jurisdiction within your dioces, hath not fulfilled the canon in this behalf made, his grace looketh they should be by your lordship proceeded against according to the constitution, for his or their negligence therein. His grace willed me further to signify to your lordship, that he presently looketh for your certificate under your own hand and episcopal seal, of all fees ecclesiastical due within your diocesse, as well unto your self, and your chancellor, and archdeacons, and your, and their officers, and ministers, according to the true meaning of the canons in that behalf made; otherwise his grace shal be forced to take such course therin, as he is unwilling to doe. Upon the receipt of your lordships certificate you shall receive backe again the certificate, you sent, to remaine with you in your records; the true copie wherof Doctor Hickman saith, he hath. And so not doubting, but your lordship will have speciall care to satisfie his grace in the premises, I leave you to the Almighty, this 24th of May, M.D.XCIX.

Your lordship's lovinge freind.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter about certificates. Ibidem.

"SALUTEM in Christo." Whereas I have heretofore, about the midst of Michaellmas last, written letters unto your lordship for particuler certificates to be sent unto me, according to the ecclesiastical constitutions made and published by hir majesties authority, and as yet have not received them all from you, in such sorte as by the constitutions is appointed; theise are therefore to pray you to peruse the said constitutions, and every particuler, which by them is to be certified, and with speed, to proceed against all such your officers, as have not done their duties in certifyeng you, and to send your, and their certificates to me, for and concerning all such things, as should have been hertofore returned unto me, at or before Bartholomewe tyde nowe next comming, and to have care that all other certificates, which are to be made to me hereafter, be sent up, as by the said constitutions is appointed, otherwise I shall be forced to proceede against you in other course then I am willing. And so hopinge of your care herein, I leave you to the Almighty, this nynth of June, M.D.XCIX.

Your loving brother in Christ.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 16.

Anno Christi
1599.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 41.

Ordinatio de moderanda solennis poenitentiae commutatione. Ex reg. III. Whitgift fol. 163. a.

NE qua fiat posthac solennis poenitentiae commutatio, nisi rarioribus gravioribusque de causis, atque adeo cum ipsi episcopo constiterit, tam esse ad reum reconciliand. et reformand. saniozem et tutiozem rationem.

Deinde quod multa illa pecuniaria vel in levamen pauperum ejusdem parochiae, vel in alios pios usus erogetur, idque ecclesiae solenniter et fideliter innotescat.

Quodsi vero crimen fuerit notorium ac publicum, reus ipse vel in propria sua persona publice in ecclesia poenitentiam suam minime fictam profitendo laesae ecclesiae satisfaciet; et ecclesiae minister in praesentia ipsius rei, palam e fuggestu ejus submissionem, et poenitentiae suae coram ordinario suo peractionem, atque etiam in verae suae recipiscentiae testimonium, quantum pecuniarum summam in usus supradictos erogandam reddiderit, denunciabit.

Quicumque vero absque episcopi dioecesani notitia poenitentiam commutaverit, aut pecuniam, ratione commutationis hujusmodi solutam, in alios usus, quam supra est expressum, converterit, vel aliter praesentem hanc constitutionem violaverit, is ab executione officii sui per eundem dioecesanum per tres integros menses suspendetur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 17.

Anno Christi
1600.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 42.

Clementis papae viii. bulla plenariae indulgentiae Hibernis contra reginam Elizabetham insurgentibus. Paper office.

CLEMENS, papa viii. universis et singulis venerabilibus fratribus, archiepiscopis, episcopis, et praelatis, necnon dilectis filiis principibus, comitibus, baronibus, ac populis regni Hiberniae salutem et apostolicam benedictionem. Cum jamdiu, sicut accepimus, vos Romanorum pontificum, praedecessorum nostrorum, ac nostris, et apostolicae sedis cohortationibus adducti, ad vestram libertatem recuperandam, eamque adversus haereticos tuendam et conservandam, bonae memoriae Jacobo Geraldino primum, qui durum servitutis jugum vobis ab Anglis sanctae Romanae ecclesiae desertoribus impositum, summo animi ardore depellere, dum vixit, pro viribus procuravit; deinde Johanni Geraldino, ejusdem Jacobi consobrino, et novissime dilecto nobili filio viro Hugoni principi Oneil, dicto comiti Tironensi, baroni Dungananiae, et capitaneo generali exercitus catholici in Hibernia, conjunctis animis ac viribus praesto fueritis, ac opem et auxilium praestiteritis; ipsique duces et eorum milites, manu Domini exercituum illis assistentes, progressu temporis plurima egregia facinora contra hostes viriliter pugnando praestiterint, et in posterum praestare parati sint; nos, ut vos, ac dux et milites praedicti alacrius in expeditionem hanc contra dictos haereticos opem in posterum etiam praestare studeatis, spiritualibus gratiis et favoribus vos prosequi volentes, eorundem praedecessorum nostrorum exemplo adducti, ac de omnipotentis Dei misericordia, ac beatorum Petri et Pauli, apostolorum ejus, auctoritate confisi, vobis omnibus et singulis, qui praedictum Hugonem ducem, ejusque exercitum, catholicae fidei assertores et propugnatores sequemini, ac illis vos adjunxeritis, aut consilio, favore, comitatibus, armis, aliisque bellicis rebus, seu quacunque ratione eis in hac expeditione operam dederitis; ipsis Hugoni duci, ejusque exercitus militibus universis et singulis, si vere poenitentes et confessi, ac etiam, si fieri poterit, sacra communione refecti fueritis, plenariam omnium peccatorum suorum veniam et remissionem, ac eandem, quae proficiscentibus ad bellum contra Turcas, et ad recuperationem terrae sanctae per Romanos pontifices concedi solita est, misericorditer in Domino concedimus. Non obstantibus, si opus sit, nostra de non concedendis indulgentiis ad instar, ac suspensionis indulgentiarum occasione anni Jubilaei, aliisque constitutionibus et ordinationibus apostolicis, caeterisque contrariis quibuscunque. Verum, quia difficile foret praesentes nostras ad omnium, quorum interest, notitiam pervenire; volumus, ut earum exemplis etiam impressis, manu alicujus notarii publici subscriptis, ac sigillo personae in dignitate ecclesiasticae constitutae munitis, eadem fides ubique habeatur, quae eisdem praesentibus haberetur.

Dat. Romae apud sanctum Petrum sub annulo piscatoris die 18. Aprilis, M.DC. pontificatus nostri anno nono.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 18.

Anno Christi
1600.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter touching recusants. Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 122. a.

AFTER my hartie commendations unto your lordship, theise are to signifie unto you, that upon my conference had with the right honorable the lord keeper, touching the excessive number of recusants, which daily growe, for that they are not proceeded against; it is thought fitt and convenient, and so his lordship desireth, that you make in authentique forme under your episcopal seale one certificate or "Significavit," directed to her majestie, conteining all the names, surnames, additions, and places of habitation or common abode of all such popish recusants, as have been excommunicated, and soe published and denounced in their parish churches sithence the establishing of the last ecclesiastical constitutions by hir most excellent majesty, and that have and do stand excommunicated above forty daies; praying hir majesties writt "De excommunicato capiendo," as in this behalf is requisite, and in the like is accustomed, and to sende the same unto me against the beginning of the next terme, to be delivered unto the lord keeper, who will give further order for the sending out of writt "De excommunicatis capiendis," against those recusants for their apprehension, without anie further charge to you or anie your officers. And so praying your lordship to be careful, and to use speede herein, I leave you to the tuition of the Almighty. From Lambeth this 19th day of December, M.DC.

Your lovinge brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 18.

Anno Christi
1601.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

A letter written by the archbishop of Canterbury's order about recusants. Ibid. fol. 123. a.

IT may please your lordship to understand, that whereas my lords grace of Canterbury did the 19th day of December last past, write letters to your lordship, praying you to make, in authentique forme under your episcopal seale one certificate or "Significavit," directed unto her majestie, of all popish recusants within your diocesse, and to send the same unto his grace against the beginning of the last terme, which your lordship hath deferred, and not yet done the same; I do therefore by theise my letters (according to his graces commandment given unto me) pray and require your lordship forthwith to send the same "Significavit" unto his grace; and also, for that my lord keeper is desirous to understand the particular estate of all the recusants within your diocesse, to certify his grace in particular of each of them, the general estimation of the countries, of everie of their abilities, or at the least which of them are of the best ability, most dangerous, and likest to do hurt, by drawing the inferior sorte by their examples to the like obstinacy. And thus praying your lordship to be careful therein, I commit your lordship to the Almighty. From London the second of April, M.D.CI.

Your lordships loving freind to be commanded,

ED. STANHOPE.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 18.

Anno Christi
1601.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

Convocatio episcoporum et cleri provinciae Cantuar. Ex. MSS. Mil. Smith apud episc. Assaven.

CONVOCATIO haec per breve regium ad 18. diem mensis Octobris in ecclesia S. Pauli London. summonebatur: ubi peractis sacris, lectisque certificatoriis, domus inferior prolocutorem eligere jubetur, et absentes contumaces pronunciantur.

In secunda sessione (Octob. 31.) in ecclesia B. Petri Westm. post protestationem decani Westm. et responsum archiepiscopi, D. Sutcliffe prolocutor electus, confirmatus est, ac commissio ab archiepiscopo nonnullis episcopis et decano Cantuar. ejus nomine synodo praesidendi tradita.

In tertia et aliis sequentibus sessionibus usque ad decimam septimam nihil memoratu dignum gestum est, praeter concessionem quatuor subsidiorum.

In decima octava sessione (Dec. 21.) the archbishop present exhorts the bishops to be diligent in their charges, and carefull to observe the canons of the last convocation: and particularly gives them caution of these things following, viz.

I. Not to proceed in court upon apparitors promoting without churchwardens presentment, or other just inquisition.

II. That ecclesiastical judges hold not too frequent courts, nor oftner than once in five Weeks.

III. That

III. That chancellors and officials call not men to severall courts for the same fault.

IV. To have yearly but once, not quarter bills of presentments.

V. To take care that the curates of non-residents be able persons, and have good allowances.

VI. That none but chancellors grant licenses for marriage.

In hac sessione, postquam contumaces suspensi fuissent, breve regium convocationem dissol-vit.

IN "EBORACENSIS" provincia synodus virtute brevis regii dat. apud Westm. 2. die Septembris, anno regni xliii. convocabatur in ecclesia metropolitana S. Petri Ebor. die 28. mensis, Octobris, et post unam alteramque prorogationem, ultimo die mensis Novembris subsidium dominae reginae concedebatur. Tandem tertio post parliamenti dissolutionem die, brevis regii virtute dat. 21. Decemb. anno regni xliv. synodus haec dissolvebatur.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 19.

Anno Christi
1601.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter to the bishops touching their commissaries and officiall courts. Reg. III. Whitgift, fol. 124. b.

"SALUTEM in Christo," There have divers complaints been made to personages of great place, who have acquainted me therewith, that by reason of the often keeping of courtes by commissaries, and by the archdeacons officialls, and by the multitude of severall apparitors serving under them, the subject is almost vexed weekly with attendance on their severall courtes, to their infinite charge and dailie vexation; and further, that by a disorder not long since crept into those courtes, without warrant of making quarter bills of presentments, whereas their visitations are holden but once, or at the most, twice in every yeere, so as what with churchwardens continual attendance on those courtes, and their dayly vexation by new processe and excommunications, if they miss but one day of their quarter bills, besides the general charge which every parish beareth for their churchwardens attendance on those courtes (which in many places cometh to more then is by a whole parish for anie one ceasement payed to hir majestie) the poor men, who are chosen churchwardens, by their continual attendance on those courtes, are in their estate, as they allege, hindred greatly in leaving their daie labour for attendance there. These and divers like complaints are dayly brought unto me, with a general exclamation upon commissaries and officiall courtes, for such like grievances of the subject. I had well hoped that the constitutions made the last convocation, and your lordships promise to see them duely executed (knowing how our ecclesiastical jurisdiction was then spurned at) would have prevented these abovenamed, and all other like complaints; but I fear the greediness of meen inferior registers and apparitors under your lordships commissaries and archdeacons is so rooted in them, as it will breed a greater blemish then hitherto hath commed upon our whole jurisdiction, unless your lordship do with a more vigilant care prevent that mischief. These are therefore to pray and require your lordship, presently upon receipt of these letters, to call before yourself, your chancellor, commissarie, and all your archdeacons or their officialls, where there be any under you, and to cause them to bring unto you their records of their courtes, keeping for matters of office, used about the third and fourth yeare of hir majesties reigne, and that your lordship will out of them take a true extract, signed with the judges and registers own hand, certifying these three particular points. First, How often the churchwardens of every parish did bring in their bills of presentment at that time, whether quarterlie or noe? Secondly, How often either your commissaries or your officialls did keep their courtes in every quarter, and how long time difference there was betwixt your commissaries courtes and the archdeacons officialls? And lastly, What number of apparitors every commissary, and every archdeacon, or his official had within your lordships diocese at that time? This being by your lordship truelie found out, I am further to pray and require you to enforme your self, under all your foresaid officers, and their severall registers hands, what bills nowe are quarterly, or otherwise brought in by the churchwardens of every severall parish within your diocese to everie of them (for that it is informed that every parish is quarterly charged with as great a charge for certifying of recusants, as they are for bills of presentments) and what is payed either to apparitor or register for making or exhibiting of these severall billes (for I doe not heare that the judges have any fee due for these exhibitts.) Your lordship is likewise required to inform yourself, what difference is at this present betwixt the multiplicite of these courtes within your said diocese, and those in former tymes, as also of the number of apparitors belonging to all those offices, over those which were of twentieth yeares before the last parliament. In all or every of these if your lordship shall find any alteration, then for the avoyding of those pernicious complaints daily brought up hither, and so open contempt of the last canons, your lordship is hereby required to do your best endeavour to reduce all these enormities unto the former forme, both of making bills of presentments, of reducing the number of those inferior courts to their former listes, and of the restrayning the great vexations of the subject by multiplicite of apparitors; and for that myself desire to be satisfied in my care, and promised help in reforming these theise abuses; I doe hereby pray and require your lordship, that by the last day of July next ensuing, you do transmitt unto me, under your lordships own hande, all the particulers above sett downe, together with your lordships order taken for reforming the premises, and for bringing of them to their former course; and soe I byd your lordship hartily farewell. From Lambeth this two and twentieth of May, M.DC.I.

Your lordship's loving brother in Christ,

JO. CANTUAR.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 18.

Anno Christi
1601.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

Breve regium pro decimis.

Reg. Whitgift III. fol. 128. a.

ELIZABETH, Dei gratia Angliae, Franciae, et Hiberniae regina, fidei defensor, etc. reverendissimo in Christo patri domino Johanni, miseratione divina Cant. archiepiscopo, totius Angliae primati et metropolitano, salutem. Cum nuper per literas vestras, aut per literas nuper praedecefforum vestrorum figillis vestris auctenticis sigillatas, acceperimus, diversos incumbent. firmarios, proficuorum receptores, et alios occupatores beneficiorum, et promotionum spiritualium, in quadam schedula praesentibus annexa content. et specificat. renuere et recusare solvere, ad usum nostrum, separales decimas separalium beneficiorum, et promotionum, in dicta schedula content. multa et poena statutorum in ea parte edit. omnino spretis et neglectis; nos vero volentes eosdem separales incumbent. firmarios, proficuorum receptores, et alios occupatores separalium beneficiorum, in dicta schedula content. et eorum quemlibet contempt. et neglect. officii sui debita afficere poena, certis de causis nos specialiter moventibus, ac de fidelitatibus et providis circumpectionibus vestris plurimum confidentes, assignavimus vos, et nihilominus volumus et mandamus, quod vos in caeterorum terrorem, ubi maxime videritis expedire, per ministros vestros idoneos, illos, aut saltem eorum aliquos, sic renuentes et recusantes, per deprivationem, aut aliter pro ratione actorum et statutorum in hujusmodi casu editorum et provisorum, tractetis, et ut pecunias pro eorum rata portione in schedula praedicta content. vobis ad usum nostrum persolvere coerceatis et urgeatis omnino; necnon pro defectu solutionum decimarum praedictarum sequestretis, et in manus seifiri faciatis omnia et singula redditus, reventiones, exitus, proficua, fructus, commoditates, decimas, glebas, oblationes, pensiones, portiones, et alia emolumenta, et proficua quaecunque ad separalia beneficia et promotiones spirituales in dicta schedula content. et eorum quodlibet spectant. et pertinent. in quorumcunque manibus, possessione, sive occupatione illa vel eorum aliqua modo existunt, aut in posterum existent, quousque debita in hujusmodi schedula content. persolvantur; intimentisque, publicetis, et declaretis hanc sequestrationem, nostra auctoritate factam, talibus temporibus, locis et hujusmodi personis, prout vobis maxime videbitur expedire. Nolumus autem quod templa obferetis, aut aliquam aedem sacram occludatis, schedulasve aut alia scripta postibus aut templorum valvis sigillo vestro auctentico muniat, aut aliter affigatis, quominus ministri divina celebrent, aut parochiani sacris celebrand. interfiant. Volumus autem, quod si qui acquietantias aliquas praemonstraverint, quod illos idonea cautione, ut tempore infra script. baronum nostrorum ordini et judicio subdit. compareant curetis, ac insuper petatis, exigatis, levatis, colligatis, et in manus nostras recipiatis a quibuscunque aliis tenentibus, firmariis, et occupatoribus dictorum separalium, beneficiorum, et promotionum spiritualium et eorum cujuslibet, omnia redditus, reventiones, exitus, proficua, et alia quaecunque commodata, et emolumenta pro nobis, et ad usum et commoditates nostras; bona vero et catalla, si quae forte fuerint peritura, majori commodo nostro vendantur, caeteraque, quae de jure exigere poteritis, peragatis, quo separalium debit. in dicta schedula content. plenariam solutionem expeditius accelerare poteritis; huicque mandato nostro eousque instetis, donec et quousque tant. redditus, reventiones, et proficua separalium beneficiorum praedictorum, et eorum cujuslibet ad manus nostras pervenerint, quibus de praedictis separalibus debit. in dicta schedula content. pro cujusmodi rata portione nobis abunde satisfiet, celeriusque quo poteritis, post receptionem eorundem, ad recept. scaccarii nostri ad usum nostrum recept. inde denarios integre persolvatis: assignavimus enim et constituimus vos, aliosque discretos et boni nominis viros, qui nobis approbati et commodi videbuntur, collectores et receptores in praemissis. Certiores igitur reddatis barones nostros praedictos apud Westmonast. in quindena sancti Michaelis archangeli prox. futur. quid feceritis in praemissis, remittend. eisdem baronibus nostris, tunc et ibidem, praesens mandatum nostrum; vos enim in redditione computi vestri pro decimis ad festum natalis Domini ult. praeterit. cum summis in schedula praedicta ad usum nostrum minime solut. onerand. fore, nisi commodiori responso sub sigillo vestro auctentico in membrana redact. baronibus nostris praedictis persuaferitis, praemonemus per praesentes; damus autem tenore praesentium in mandato omnibus et singulis justitiariis, majoribus, vicecomitibus, ballivis, constabulariis, et aliis officialibus, et ministris nostris quibuscunque, tam infra libertates quam extra, quod vobis et vestris in hac parte deputat. circa executionem praesentis commissionis nostrae obediunt, auxiliantes sint, et intendentes, prout decet. In cujus rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes, teste Willelmo Periam, milite, apud Westm. duo decimodie Februarii, anno regni nostri XLIII.

Joh. Tayler, deputat.
Edward. Stafford, milit.

Archiepisc. Cant.
JOH. WHITGIFT 18.

Anno Christi
1601.

Reg. Angliae
ELIZAB. 43.

The archbishop of Canterbury's letter touching the observance of the late constitutions.
Reg. III. Whitgift fol. 129. b.

